TOWN OF BELLEVILLE

OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER

Introduced By Commission

Director Of Bureau; Or ding—Hearing

to Weeks

Purchases of the various departments must be made through the central agency, with the exception of purchases which require advertising for bids.

It is provided that the director of the department of central purchase shall honor no orders for supplies unless they are approved by the department head. The records of the department would at all times be open to public inspection, and the director would submit an annual report to the board of commissioners.

Most of the more progressive municipalities now have central purchasing bureaus, and local civic organizations have recommended the creation of one here. It is believed that purchases can be made more economically in this way, since large quantities of materials and supplies can be bought at one time.

Grace Men's Club

Prepares Minstrel

Annual Show Has Been An Outstanding Event

Here

The eighth annual minstrel of the Men's Club of Grace Baptist Church of Belleville, takes place Friday and Saturday evening, February 16 and 17, at 8 o'clock.

The Grace Men's minstrels have earned a reputation for always being just a little different than the usual run of amateur shows and this year's "Prosperity Minstrels," featuring "A Night at Hicksville" can be counted on to carry on this fine tradition.

All the principal players in last year's successful production will be back again, some in new roles but ones they are able to fill better than any one else.

Stewart McAleese will be found this year in the role of interlocutor, a new position for him which he fills in his always very capable manner.

The end men, Arthur (Noisy) Davis, Harry (Shick) Hageman, Elwood (Fat) Russell and Herbert J. (Skinny) Wells.

Judging by past performances of this quartet of talented end men, their actions and antics will alone be well worth the price of admission.

Special numbers by William Mac Farlane, Alfred J. Dutton, William D.
Blair and the Misses Margaret Schneider and Gladys Shoop will be generously interspersed between the end men's jokes.

The cast under the fine direction of Stewart McAleese is putting the finishing touches on the feature of the show, "A Night at Hicksville" and you will hear more about this next week.

Boys' Aviation Club

Now Going Strong

Alexander Foley Is Leader

Who Has Helped Club

On Its Way

The weekly meeting of the Aviation Club, chartered under the American Model League of America last summer, by Alexander Foley who closed his summer recreation activities by forming this permanent club for boys was held on Tuesday at Mr.
Foley's home.

The club started out with six active members which now numbers twenty-five. Until recently the boys had received preliminary training by making gliders and small solid models. They are now turning to the larger flying models. One of the novel models is a two and one-half inch model of a Newport Scout made by Mr. Foley to show the boys the things that can be done in model work.

The British Fighter is the model that the club has adopted for its club award model for competition in National contests. It carries a very interesting record. This plane was known in war circles as the Bristol or Biff. Its official rating was the F2B. It was used by the Sixth Bombing Squadron of the R. F. C. until June, 1922, when it was replaced by the Fairy "Gordons." But the Bristol fighter was so well thought off it is still being used as a training ship.

It was equipped with a 250 H. P.
Rolls-Royce "Falcon" motor, developing approximately 125 M. P. H.
Its climbing ability was rated at 1,000 ft. per minutes. It has two Lewis guns mounted on a scarf around the observer's cockpit. Also a fixed Vickers was under the cowlings, firing through the propeller.

It had a thirty-nine feet, three inch wing spread and a body overall length of twenty-five feet, nine inches. The wings were five feet six inches across and it used a nine foot eight inch propeller.

The official colors were: Fuselage, olive drab; upper top of wings, the same and cowlings and under part of wings, silver.

Alfred LeBlanc of 572 Washington avenue who is assistant director to Mr. Foley recently exhibited a five foot Biplane of the Polish Fighter type requiring our 200 hours of work. This ship was on exhibit at the Bamberger Air Club of which he is also a member.

Most all of the members of the club have now built planes and they are doing some very fine work. This club is open to new members at all times and if some of the girls interested in such work of play wish to join kindly make application to Mr.
Foley, 14 Linden avenue.

Speakeasies

Two persons were arrested on charges of selling liquor without a license by Police Sergeant Joseph Schurr Saturday after he had worked with pick and shovel during the morning on the CWA sewer project in the northwest section of town.
The local police are conducting a drive against alleged speakeasies in operation here.

Acting on information secured from a CWA laborer arrested as drunk and disorderly last Friday, Schurr put on working clothes and had the CWA officials place him with a gang in the trenches. When his shift was dismissed, he strolled to the home of Domenick Angela at 28 Mechan street, where he charged that he purchased a drink of whisky.
Angela was arrested on charges of operating an unlicensed tavern and Mrs. Louis Angela on a charge of selling unlicensed liquor.

Recorder Everett B. Smith released the defendants in $500 bail each to await action of the Grand

School Buses Sought

For Belwood School

Parents Of High School

Pupils To Petition

School Board

Bus service for pupils of Belleville
High School living in the Belwood
Park section is sought by parents.
Six residents of the district were present at the board of education rooms Monday night to present a petition for school buses, but the absence of three board members forced the cancellation of the regular meeting, and will be presented at the February 19 meeting.

The parents complain that pupils must walk two miles to the school on a route where there are no sidewalks, placing them in danger from traffic and greatly inconveniencing them during bad weather. They say that the five buses serving Soho and Silver Lake pass through the Bel-wood Park section partly filled. It is reported that residents of the section are willing to pay part of the cost of transportation. The cost of each bus employed at present by the school board is $4.52 daily.

A State school bus inspector reported recently that the State could not be expected to pay the usual three-quarters of the cost of transportation to the local school board for service to the section in question, as it is within walking distance of the high school.

Kindergarten at School No. 3 was temporarily closed two weeks ago when two cases of the disease were discovered there.

Camps In The United States—New Swimming

Pool Was Used By 14,500 Persons

More than 126,500 persons attended recreational activities sponsored by the Belleville Recreation Commission in 1933, the annual report of that body shows. Attendance at the Recreation Center in Washington avenue was 46,000; Recreation House, 21,560; boxing and wrestling shows, 23,000; Camp Carragher, 6, 565; Camp Carragher swimming pool 14,500; street showers, 5,210; public playgrounds, 4,077, and Easter egg hunt, 4,500. The number of those participating in Boys' Week and in coasting and roller skating supervised by the commission cannot be estimated.

Camp Carragher is one of the two municipally operated camps for boys, girls and adults within a municipality in the United States, the report states. The other camp is located in Los Angeles. The camp was operated for three months last summer, two new tents were added, thirty new cots were bought, a kitchen and mess hall were built and a swimming pool was constructed by unemployed labor at small cost to the town.

Robert A. Nebrig is director of recreation, and the commission in 1933 consisted of James M. Lynch,
Mrs. Frank Brohal, Edward Lister,
Henry J. Mason and Charles L.
Steel, Jr. Mrs. May T. Holden and

1934 Town Budget Adopted By Board;

Taxes To Increase Only $9,000 Here

Projected Amendments May Further Cut Appropriations; Taxpayers' Association Suggests Abolishing
Of Jobs, Slashing Maintenance

The 1934 budget was adopted by the town commission Wednesday night after a public hearing at which little opposition was heard. The tentative amount to be raised by taxation is $697,628.24, and this amount may be reduced further by amendments which call for a decrease of $1,250. A public hearing on the amendments will be held February 21.

The budget as introduced two weeks ago showed an increase of $23,927.92 over 1933 in the amount to be raised by taxation, but an increase of $11,000 in the amount anticipated from general licenses and other changes reduced the projected increase to $9,035.02.

Further changes, which must be advised before adoption according to law, are the inclusion of an item of $500 for increased expense caused by the State law requiring the issuing of quarterly tax bills, the omission of $2,000 from the budget of the department of public works in CWA expenses and the reduction of shade tree maintenance from $6,000 to $3,250.

Victor H. Schleicher, representing the Taxpayers' Association, recommended the health department's taking over the duties of the overseer of the poor, the continuance of the present vacancy in the library staff, the abolition of the posts of inspector of combustibles and building department clerk, the slashing of the budget of the department of public property to $6,000 for maintainance, the cutting of the police maintainance fund $3,000 and the elimination of $5,000 reserves against uncollected taxes.

The directors of the various departments assured Schleicher that they could not cut their budgets further, and stated that the employees named are indispensable.

John Travers, local real estate dealer, suggested that a saving might be made in the expenses of foreclosure of tax title liens. He said that title searches were made for the Home Owners Loan Corporation at a flat rate of $35. Town Attorney Lawrence E. Keenan replied that he would be able to have the properties searched at less than the amount named.

Former Commissioner Philip Det-telbach, representing the Manufacturers' Association, asked if the positions named by Schleicher could not be abolished, but was told that they are necessary to efficient administration and public safety by the commissioners.

Bogus Half Dollars

Appear In Town

George Nixon, who owns a store at Bridge and Mill streets, reported Saturday night to police that two youths had given him a counterfeit half-dollar.

Nixon also said that a milkman had shown him a counterfeit the day before which seemed identical.
The milkman had accepted it from a Belleville customer.

Police plan to warn residents to scrutinize half-dollars before accepting them.

Budget Discussed At School

The school budget was discussed by John P. Dailey, chairman of the finance committee of the board of education, at a meeting of the Home and School Association of School No.
3 last night. Activities of children in the modern school were demonstrated by pupils of the second and third grades. The president, Hall H.
Turton, conducted the meeting.

first of a series of benefits for the proposed Washington trip of the seniors was held Friday night in the school gymnasium. It took the form of a dance, and those in charge were: Robert Carson, class president; James Lukowiak, vice president; Jeanne Patrick, secretary; Thelma Petith, treasurer, and Mrs. Helen Bailey Carls, class adviser.

Decision in favor of the trip was only recently made at a conference of the senior class officers with the principal, William R. Holbert. The trip will be made Easter week.

Although every senior class in the past has made the trip, Mr. Holbert was doubtful about letting the present class go because of financial conditions, and because of the rapid increase in the number of students. He decided to sanction the trip after seeing how hard the seniors were working to obtain the necessary funds. Although there are over 200 seniors, only 100 will be permitted to make this trip. Besides money taken from the class treasury, each senior making the trip will be taxed approximately $6 to cover expenses. The members of the class will leave April 2 and will return late April 4. Immediately after hearing Mr. Holbert's decision, the seniors submitted plans for a series of activities to take place before April 1.

The next activity will be a Washington Birthday card party given by the senior class in the high school February 21 at 8 o'clock. The members of the Parent-Teacher Association who have sons or daughters in the senior class will be in charge. Robert Carson plans to complete arrangements for this party next week.

This organization includes only a select group of upperclassmen who have received distinction in one of the Fine Arts—music, drama, painting or sculpture. The faculty advisers are Mrs. Warren Vander Veer of the dramatic department and Miss Alice Walters of the music department. Six or eight additional students will be invited into the society this year.

The Stamp Club met recently to discuss the program for meetings to be held this semester. They plan to get a special speaker for a future meeting. The member will discuss newspaper and magazine articles concerning stamps at a meeting Tuesday afternoon.

The Red Head Club is the name of the most recently formed club in the school. The club will be organized for a membership. The club elected the following officers: Edward Dunn, president; Marion Young, vice president, and Thelma Wiet, secretary. Edward Glaspey, English instructor will be the adviser. This club will have charge of the general assembly program February 16. The coach is Richard Cheadle of the Montclair Y. M. C. A.

The first of the series of inter-home-room basketball games was played Thursday afternoon between two senior home rooms. One game was played each day except when the varsity is scheduled to play. The tournament is under the direction of Albert K. MacBride, basketball coach.

The members of the Secretarial Club are busy working on the first edition of the club newspaper which will appear February 12. The name chosen is the Secretarial Gazette.

The student council met at its regular session Thursday afternoon. The members discussed the raising of funds to promote extra curricula activities. At the present time the student council is sponsoring a drive to aid those activities where aid is John Manger, president of the council, announced the resignation of William Gray, a junior representative and vice president. The council is also attempting to obtain special assembly programs to be given to the students in the near future.

Club Meeting

The Belleville Woman's Republican Club held a meeting yesterday afternoon, in the Woman's Club, at 51 Rossmore place. The president, Mrs. John F. O'Brien, Jr., presided. After the business session there were two guest speakers, Commissioner William H. William who spoke on the "Financial Condition of Belleville, and Taxes," and Assemblywoman Myrtle Trube of Essex County, who was an educational appointee on the School Survey, told of the findings of that body. There were a number of guests in attendance. Tea was served by Mrs. Arthur Darvo, house chairman, assisted by the officers of the club.

Hahn-McCoy

Mr. and Mrs. Francis McCoy of Union avenue announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Agnes McCoy and Charles R. Hahn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hahn of Smith street.

The nuptials took place at St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, Wednesday, January 31, with Rev. Joseph Kelly officiating. Thomas Hane, organist, played the wedding march from Lohengrin. Palms and white roses were used for decorating the sanctuary.

WESLEY'S 142 YEARS TEACHES A LESSON

Coming down the corridor of time Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church is celebrating the passing of 142 years. Back in 1791 the church was started largely through dint of hard work by Miss Margaret Dow, who later married William Holmes and Miss Mary Ann Stewart, later Mrs. S. W. Bonnell. Rev. Thomas Morrell was the first pastor, who has been followed by ninety-six others.

It has been a long road from the humble beginning in the first church, erected in 1803 in Main street south of Belleville avenue, to the imposing edifice which houses the congregation today in Washington avenue at Academy street.

Wesley Church is the mother church of Methodism hereabouts and it has lead the way in the great and noble work of the Lord. 142 years of untiring effort on the part of parishioners and clergy alike has made the local church one of the outstanding Protestant churches in the state. The good that has come from within the walls of this congregation and been spread outside can not be measured by many of us who rush and hustle about day by day, thinking of our business gains or losses. Let us just take time now—no matter what our faith may be—to pause and reflect that 142 years of service devoted to the worship of God and the good we may do our fellowmen deserves the heartfelt thanks of a community that boasts of such an old church, the foundation of which certainly must have been laid with that spirit of sacrifice that differentiates between the spiritual and material. May Wesley and its good folks prosper in their work for God in the years to come as they have in the past, and may those who are inclined to stray from their church, no matter what its name, learn a lesson that God's house is where all our thoughts should start and end.

The years come and the years go as in the case of Wesley and the church continues on with its great teachings. Would it not be a wonderful tribute to this Belleville church if everyone in town attended service somewhere Sunday at your own church. Wouldn't a turnout of all our townspeople encourage the leaders of the churches who are giving their lives to show us right from wrong. We can make no mistake by placing our faith in God. 142 years of service has certainly demonstrated that at Wesley.

A conscientious movement back to church now might give many of us the cheer and feeling of security we need to travel through these trying times. Certainly such effort on the part of laymen the world over would have its effect especially against talk of war which greets us on all sides. We can get back to Love of God if we want to and we should want to. Peace on Earth, Good will To Men! Only God's followers can make it thus. 142 years with a church leading us should stimulate us in this respect.

PINK LEMONS

Nature, with the helping hand of man, has produced seedless oranges and raisins, tastier, juicier fruit; spineless cactus, bigger and better vegetables and many new and strange products of the soil.

Wonderful though nature's past achievements have been, none surpasses the pink lemon from which pink lemonade of circus fame may be produced without the aid of pink sugar or coloring extract.

Real, honest-to-goodness pink lemons are now being produced in California. Pink skin, pink seeds, pink juice. (What more could the circus vendor ask? Surely kindly nature has come to his succor in the midst of the depression.

Having performed this miracle of horticulture, let this wonder-working team of nature and man begin work upon the squirtless grapefruit and spinach with a pleasing flavor. Its genius might also be applied to the development of self-watering trees, shrubs and grass; and a whole vegetable kingdom learned in the art of self defence against insect enemies, and to teaching the underworld of weeds the gentle art of suicide.

RIGHT AFTER THEM

The Blue Eagle has a wide range of territory to cover, but apparently is not a whit dismayed. Its latest discovery is the need of a code for athletes who sign testimonials to various athletics goods products. The new dictum provides that athletes whose names are cited in the promotion of such goods must actually use the equipment. Otherwise, the advertiser will be labeled a "chiseler" and his Blue Eagle taken away. The regulations also provide a minimum payment to the athletes. There are not many forms of endeavor which have escaped the notice of the Blue Eagle.

INVIGORATING

Winter sports enthusiasts have found their cup of joy filled to the brim this season. Recently, again, countless numbers thrilled to the enjoyment of the outdoors. Chances for sledding and skating are unsurpassed. The ski fans and those who dote on tobogganing keep finding conditions exactly to their liking. On these days the woods, with their soft covering of snow beckon to the hikers, and there are many. After all, everyone who can do so should get into the outdoors on these crisp days. They will find it highly invigorating.

THE IMPORTANT EVENT

When the scouting and battle forces of the navy return to the Atlantic this spring, 10,000 bluejackets will be able to visit their home ports on the eastern seaboard for the first time in nearly three years.

In the minds of homes the return of Jack from the Pacific will be welcomed. The movement of the armada of 110 ships will be a tremendous sight. The grand review at New York will be spectacular. But the most important event will be the reunion of the sailors with their families and other relatives.

Old Ironsides

Since July 1, 1931, more than 4,525,000 persons have visited aboard the historical U. S. F. Constitution. The famous frigate has traveled 20,000 miles and has visited 79 different ports in the Atlantic, Gulf of Mexico, Mississippi, and the Pacific coast. In many of these ports no vessel of the Navy had ever before been seen.

On its mission of patriotism from port to port, "Old Ironsides" made many friends. Men and women, boys and girls fought their way to the piers where she lay, to gaze on her majestic body, her towering masts, her lace-like rigging, her fifty-two ancient looking, yet powerful guns. They stared hungrily, happily toward her, and their deepest emotions were aroused.

In every port chambers of commerce, historic societies, schools and organizations welcomed the mighty vessel that was built anew with the pennies contributed by school children throughout the country. To these children the sight of "Old Ironsides" going by in all her majesty, was a real page from their history books, for the vessel was rebuilt and restored exactly as she was in the days of her great victories.

There are no modern conveniences whatsoever aboard the Constitution, yet her crew serve her faithfully. To be a member of the crew is an honor, and, according to her Commander, L. J. Gulliver, U. S. N., the men who man the famous frigate have looked on scenes and undergone experiences that never before have fallen to the lot of Navy men in the one hundred and fifty years of the Navy's existence.

On its cruise along the West coast, the Constitution was visited by many blind persons escorted by a member of the family. Led over the ship, they felt with groping fingers the aged guns, decks and rigging as the courteous and obliging sailors explained to them what it was they were feeling so appraisingly.

A dispatch which appeared in the San Francisco Examiner when "Old Ironsides" was at Los Angeles, reported that souvenir hunters caused the crew of the ship no little trouble when, during a holiday rush, unscrupulous individuals tried to make away with the cutlasses, powder horns, blaying pins, and everything else they could pick up. Several tried to snipe things from the cat-o-nine tails on exhibit. One man even managed to get a cannon ball under his coat before he was detected.

At Hagiam and Aberdeen, in Gray's Harbor, Washington, the entry of the famous vessel in the harbor was the occasion for the issuance of "Constitution" money. Wooden coins with the picture of the sacred ship depicted thereon was placed in circulation.

Social Club To Meet

The Donkey Club, a newly-formed social organization, will hold a meeting tonight at 69 Washington avenue. The group plans to present a musical show in the near future. Officers are: President, Russell Reinhardt; secretary, William F. Fiedl;

THAT SALISBURY AFFAIR

They have cleaned up the mess in the streets of Salisbury, where citizens attacked soldiers with fire hoses and soldiers retaliated with gas bombs. The city newspapermen whom they ambushed in a hotel room have filtered back to their homes, but there's a little gem of a story heard about Bailey, one of the Baltimore reporters assigned to cover the fracas for his paper.

At the height of the melee, it seems that Bailey's colleagues chose to leave the hotel for safer quarters. Bailey, however, decided to stay on the job and 'phone in his reports to the city editor. He stuck to the telephone, dictating his story with accuracy and lightning speed, but in the midst of all this, a mob of citizens broke into the hotel room and threatened to lynch him. Grabbing his notes, Bailey managed to dash to an upper floor of the hotel, with theirate citizens giving chase. Reaching the roof, the reporter crossed over to an adjacent building and made his way to the street via the fire escape. Here he found another crowd thirsting for murder, so Bailey took it to his feet, but the Salisbury residents pursued him for blocks. Secreting himself in a taxicab, the reporter barely escaped with his life.

"Where to?" asked the cab driver.

"Anywhere, anywhere!" cried Bailey, frenziedly. "Just get me away from those lynchers. And step on it before they take up the trail."

So the cab went up one street and down another, at breakneck speed until it reached the open road that led into Seaford, Delaware.

"Okay," said Bailey, "now let's find a drug store. I've got to make a call."

If you've never been in a predicament like this, which, of course, you haven't, then you don't know how Bailey's legs were shaking and how his heart was palpitating.

Breathlessly he telephoned his paper.

"Where are you?" demanded the city editor.

"In Seaford, Delaware," replied Bailey, shakily.

"Well, who the hell gave you permission to leave Salisbury?"

LITTLE JAKE HUHNS

Essex County Leaguers of Orange, 32-16, Saturday, cinch the first half championship of that strong loop. The team, which has been winning of the pennant mark time in three years that they have reached the Little Jake Huhns, playing game in a month, copped the portion of the spot-light for his eleven points and Phillip's nine meant plenty in the Bell-boy triumph. Even the Little Jake Huhns, who confines himself exclusively to passing and "shoots" found time to score goals and a free throw. Belleville will entertain Glen Ridge tomorrow night at the Recreation Center in its first home game of the season. The new reduced prices will prevail at this promising game. The Little Jake Huhns, who confines himself exclusively to passing and "shoots" found time to score goals and a free throw.

KEARNY BEATEN AGAIN; WEST ORANGE WINNERS

Duplication was the key-note of Belleville High basketball squad's play over the week-end. Kearny was an easy 42-23 victim, Friday night, at Kearny. But then that West Orange gang came to town, Tuesday, and repeated a one-point victory over the Bell-boys of earlier in the season. This time the score was 23-22; last time it was 21-20.

Joe Shanahan, lanky local forward, is rapidly attaining the heights. In both games he was the outstanding player, scoring twenty points in the two tilts. His eleven point contribution against West Orange represented half of his team's total score.

This second victory over Kearny represents a complete form reversal. The Cardinals from across the river, prior to this year, seemed to have held an Indian sign over the locals. But this year, first the Bell-boy grid eleven took them into camp, 6-0; and now the basketball squad finishes the turn-about with its two easy victories. And all three times Belleville was in the under-dog role.

CRESCENTS WIN SEVENTH IN ROW

"Mac" Lamb's Belleville Crescents recorded their most notable win of the season, last week, at the high school gym, turning back Frank Schummel and his Bloomfield Recreation, 30-26. Most of the Bloomfield players perform with the runner-up Bloomfield club in the Essex County loop.

Al Culkin and Bob Mericle "swished" the net with greatest regularity for the Crescents, dividing sixteen points. Lanky Hank Bohrer, at center, however, got his four markers in the closing minutes of the game to account for the Belleville team's winning points.

Lamb's team will introduce something new next week, opposing the Mercer Baths Big Five, Monday afternoon (Lincoln's Birthday). This will be in addition to Thursday evening's regularly scheduled contest. The Mercer team boasts of a line-up which will include Josloff, Guritsky, Schulman, Trashes, Scasholtz and Albert, Newark school-boy stars of last winter. Eddie Berlinski has been taken off the Crescent roster because of his failure to appear.

The proposed "Town Championship" games between the Crescents and the league-leading Belleville club in the county loop seems well on the way to being realized. A little matter of straightening out dates is all that stands in the way of a possible home-and-home series.

tie in the Recreation Commission's Major Basketball League at the Recreation Center. Hen Bohrer's fourteen point contribution was the big item in the 36-27 conquest of the Unions by the Williamsmen. The Roscry had a 34-24 victory over the Progress Club to show for his night's work. Schiller collected thirteen markers and Wittich twelve to lead the Florists. The real battle of the evening saw Frank's Diner break a third place tie with Al Culkin and his Falcons, as they earned a 20-16 decision. Johnnie Yuknus, with nine points and Al Culkin, boasting six, were, as usual, the stars for the Diner and Falcons, respectively.

The Wednesday night Community Basketball League of the Recreation Commission underwent little standing change, as the A. A. Rubins and the W. H. Williams Juniors continued their first place tie record of five victories and no defeats. The youthful Williams walloped the Trojans, 21-4, as George Weston and Mel Ten Breck split up fifteen points. The Rubin Association was just as impressive in piling up a 53-23 win over the Fewsmith Church quintet. The third place Rosery Juniors eked out a 26-25 victory over the T. D'Avella Association; while the Stuywards smothered St. Anthony's 38-16 in the final. Gene Dacey, "Red" Wilson, Bob Lonie and Ed Burnley were scoring stars of the evening.

The Middletown Juniors, undefeated in four starts, swept back the Bell-boys, 15-10, last week, to preserve their first place rating in the Minor Basketball League of the Recreation Commission's. The Panthers swamped the Falcons, 39-19; and the Eagles turned back the Royals, 16-12, in other games. Laterza, Bryant, Denike and Leonard did the heavy scoring.

WATERS ASSOCIATION

WHITEWASHES OLDAHAMS

In a night packed with the greatest bowling of the year, the powerful Waters Association turned back the league-leading Oldham Association three times in a row, in the American Legion League, Monday night, at Ferrara's alleys.

The triple defeat cut down the Oldhams lead over the second place El Club to a mere two games and tightened up the race considerably.

Probably next in importance must come the new high individual score posted by Bill Weber, star anchor man of Tim Monaghan's Knights of Columbus quintet. Weber amassed nine strikes in succession, and his tenth ball seemed another perfect hit, only to have Old Dame Luck interfere, causing a nine pinfall and a 279 score instead of a perfect 300. Even at that it topped Jack Speary's 277, the best previously.

The Watersmen rolled consistently and well in turning back the Oldhams, their team scores of 979, 982, and 981 giving plenty of evidence as to just how staid they were. Speary, great anchor man for the Waters, recorded 212, 221, and 204 in succession in one of the finest three-game performances of the night. Will, another Waters pinner, hit 209, 226, and 193 to press Speary for individual honors. The Oldhams, who were a bit off form, could register but one double century count in all three games, a 203 by Gene Gelsen in the third contest.

The Democratic Club's two out of three win over the Knights of Columbus was one of those high-scoring matches in which the victor had to pass the 1,000 team tally to insure his winning. A 1052 won for the Caseys in the first, only to have the Democrats come back with 1016 and 1040 in the final pair to take them both. The Knights made a strong bid to take the third and deciding game, their 1031 tally falling just ten pins short of victory. In addition to Weber's record-breaking 279, here are some more extra-high games rolled by the two teams: Johnnie Malleck's 268 and 215; Bill Byrnes, Jr.'s 245 and 233; Weber's 236; Kastner's 230, Cubellis' 222 and Kovack's 202 and 208; and Hegedus' 216.

The El Club's best against the lowly Gebhard Association was a two out of three victory. "Lefty" Church was best for the Lawlormen, while Dacey and Vogel both contributed good work for the Gebhards. Mike DeCarlo's Moose quintet hit 1006, 1021 and 959 in taking three from the Belleville B. C. Pasture registered 259 for the Moose in the second game, while Francescon, Rhodes, Tuerff and De Carlo all came through with at least one double century mark. The NRA Club staged something of a surprise, taking two of three from the W. H. Williams Association. Volire's 232 and Conlan's 236 were high scores for the NRA's. The Mayer Association scored a clean sweep over the Woodhouse club in the sixth and final match. Widman hit 231 and Woodhouse 224 for the losers in this one. The winners' best bet was Duran's 216 in the second game.

MEN'S CLUB LEADERS

IN STRIDE

The Fewsmith Men's Club league leaders in the Church Bowling loop took Forest Hill in stride, three straight, in last week's matches. The entire quintet rolled well, bounding for a trio of better

The lone consolation for the losing Forest Hill five was the fact that one of their number, Corwin, hit 221 in the second game for high individual score of the evening. A teammate, Beams, approached it with a 216.

Fewsmith Presbyterian won two of three from Montgomery, and Bethlehem Lutheran took three in a row from Grace Baptist in other matches. Copeland and Hochstahl, each with 211, Gill, showing a 201; and Down, boasting a 202, were the stars of these matches.

Secretary Struble of the loop announces that last Friday night the ladies of Grace Baptist Church had as guest Mrs. Becker, who showed them how a 228 score was bowled.

BOWLING SHORTS

With the league-leading Giants Idle, the Speedsters upset the second-place Cubs in two of three games, and the Bears swept their three games with the lowly Comets, last week, in the Lion's Club Bowling League race at the Elks' alleys. Zigler of the Speedsters, present leader in the averages, hit 198, 167 and 228 to materially benefit himself. Charrier's 201 for the same team, Noll's 211 and Hart's 212 for the Cubs were other high individual scores.

"Dutch" Faust, perennial ace of the local Elks' pinner in the Morris and Essex League, displayed some of his old-time form, last week, in recording scores of 235 and 245 in Glenbrook's two out of three win over the locals. Charley Waldie also bowled well for the local Hello Bills who are now in a tie for sixth place in the strong bi-county league, nine games out of first position.

Joe Oldham's local bowling five travelled to Brooklyn, Sunday afternoon, and copped two out of three games from his brother Sam Oldham's club of Brooklyn. Flynn and James bowled best for the local lads. Entertainment aplenty was furnished both before and after the match as the two teams engaged in a good, old-fashioned get-together.

Local Featherweight Has Been Fighting In Ohio

Eddie Patterson, local featherweight, who bids well to be one of the state's outstanding fighters in his class is about to stage a come-back in the east.

Last March Eddie won a decision over Jimmy Jones in Ohio becoming the talk of that state. Eddie was a golden glove star a few years back and at one time passed up a chance to display his wares in Madison square Garden. Eddie has just passed his twentieth birthday.

Thirty International Stars In Six-Day Race

Letourner And "Torchy" Peden Will Not Be Paired

Thirty international cyclists will compete in New York's fifty-sixth international six-day bicycle race at Madison Square Garden from February 25 to March 3. Experts and close followers of cycling agree that the field of riders is the greatest array of talent ever brought to Madison Square Garden for a six-day race. Every outstanding European star is in the race along with all the outstanding American riders. The riders hail from Italy, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Canada and of course the United States.

Alfred Letourner and "Torchy" Peden won the last New York six-day race and both will be starters in the coming grind, but it is not likely they will ride as a team. It is certain that with these two stars split up the fans will see a great battle.

The complete list of riders for the grind and where each one comes from follows: William "Torchy" Peden, Vancouver, B. C.; Franz Deulberg, Germany; Jules Audy, Montreal; Gerard Debaets, Belgium; Franco Georgetti, Italy; Edoardo Severgnini, Italy; Ewald Wissel, Germany; Paul Brocardo, Italy; Marcel Guimbretiere, France; Alfred Letourner, France; Adolf Schoen, Germany; Franz Lehman, Germany; Henry "Cocky" O'Brien, San Jose; Reggie McNamara, Newark; Bobby Thomas, Kenosha, Wis.; Fred Oltveare, Detroit; Laurent Gadou, Montreal; Fred Spencer, Plainfield; Bill Grimm, Maplewood; Norman Hill, San Jose, Cal.; Jimmy Walther, New York City; Tino Reboli, Newark; Dave Lands, Irvington; Charley Winter, New York City; Charley Ritter, Newark; Tony Schaller, Chicago; Louis Cohen, Brooklyn; Bobby Silver, Hillside and Fred Zach, Switzerland.

Admission to the six-day bicycle race this year will be fifty cents all week long, the fifty cent price will not be raised but will prevail from Sunday night the start to Saturday night, the finish.

Indications Of Recovery Were Shown In Telephone Business In Late 1933

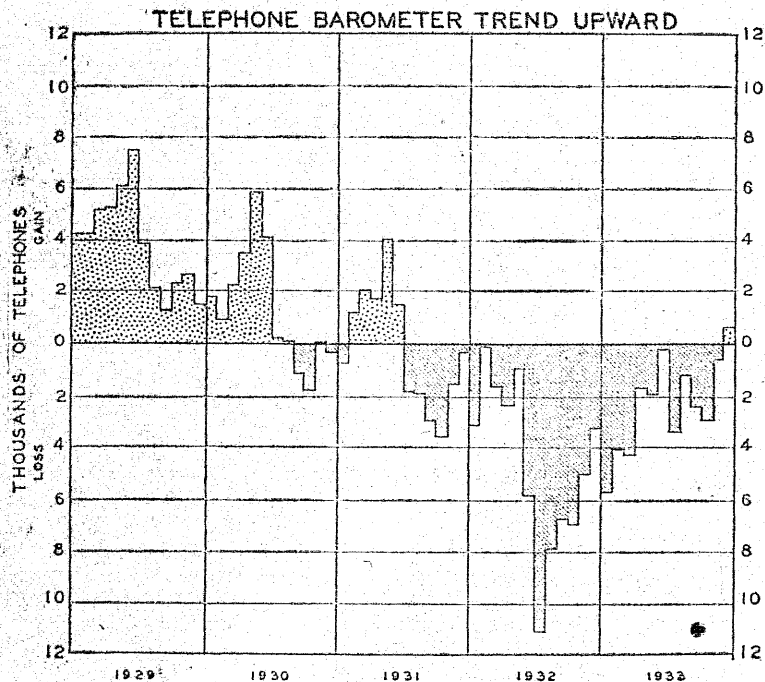

Indications of recovery were evident in the telephone business during the latter part of 1933 despite the fact that the year as a whole recorded new low levels for recent years in the number of telephones served, volume of calls, revenues and earnings, Chester I. Barnard, president of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, reported for the company's director this week.

Encouraging factors included a net gain in telephones last December for the first month in two and a half years. Also, the steady downward trend of telephone traffic and telephone revenues which characterized most of 1932 was checked in 1933.

"The management therefore concluded the year and entered 1934," Barnard stated, "with the hope that conditions in the business are im-less revenue from the average telephone resulted in a decrease of 9.3 per cent. in total telephone revenues. Net telephone earnings were 22.7 per cent. below 1932 and amounted to 3.29 per cent. on the investment in the business, compared with 4.27 per cent. in 1932. Earnings per share of stock in the company amounted to $3.96. Dividends were paid partly from surplus, at the annual rate of $6 a share. The surplus at the end of the year amounted to less than 3 per cent. of the total assets of more than $209,000,000.

Expenses were cut more than $2,250,000 during the year, Barnard reported, but the quality of telephone service was maintained at high levels in the handling of all types of calls and in clearing service troubles. The whole system had to be kept at proving and that present trends may soon be reflected in better earnings."

The number of telephones in service at the end of 1933 was 601,916, a decrease of 28,602 during the year and a decrease of more than 95,000 during the depression years. Losses in telephones have been gradually reduced over the last year and a half up to December, when a gain of 509 was recorded.

The average annual revenue from each telephone in service in 1933 was approximately $1.20 less than in 1932 and $5.10 less than in 1931, the report states. The combined effect of fewer telephones in service and a high level of working efficiency even though it was not being used to capacity, and the telephone organization maintained not only for the average needs of the year's sub-normal business but also for occasional peak loads and emergency demands.

The number of telephone employees at the end of the year was 12,401, of whom 4,842 were men and 7,559 were women. Other facts of interest about the telephone in New Jersey were: residence telephones still out-number business telephones, 374,697 to 227,219; slightly more than one-third (203,046) of all New

State Chamber Wants Cities To "Pay As They Go" Lessening Of Tax Load Is Main Aim Of N. J. Unit In Latest Move

Immediate adoption of the pay-as-you-go policy by local governments, State supervision of the handling of debts already incurred, and immediately lessening of the tax load by 10 or 15 per cent through better handling of the debt service are urged by the New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce.

The State Chamber of Commerce has put forth a program designed to place local government finances on a sound basis, relieve taxpayers of intolerable burdens, and reduce the cost of government in New Jersey from $500,000,000 to $350,000,000 a year.

"Counties, cities, school districts, towns, townships, boroughs and villages have all come to grief," the statement said, "because of uncontrolled borrowing. Borrowed money looked like easy money. Consequently, as long as there was a market for local securities, borrowing continued."

"Legal limitations on incurring excessive debts were evaded. Before the saturation point was reached, however, a known gross debt of approximately one and a quarter billion dollars was incurred. Many local governments piled up debts running from 50 to 90 per cent of the assessed valuation of their real and personal property."

Jersey telephones served by the company are dial; New Jersey people used the telephone to make and receive an average of 2,384,086 calls a day in 1933, over a voice highway system more than 3,884,000 miles long, of which 98.76 per cent. are in protected lead-covered cables.

A Treat From Victorian Days

By Jane Rogers

TAKE a tip from the vogue for the customs of our Victorian forebearers. When the children clamor for "something to eat" in mid-afternoon give them that good, old-fashioned delicacy a piece of bread and butter liberally sprinkled with brown sugar. It's economical, chock full of energy, and the children will greet it with cheers just as their grandparents used to in the days when Victoria was queen.

"Sam" Kenworthy Finally Gets State League Dues From Town Of Nutley

Mayor Samuel Sampson Kenworthy of Belleville, who has written a number of letters to the Nutley Town Commission in the past several months asking the payment of the town's 1933 dues to the New Jersey State League of Municipalities, of which he is executive secretary, was finally successful Monday night and the dues were ordered paid in motion of Finance Director Raleigh S. Rife.

Mr. Rife had opposed the payment of the dues until "Sammy's" status as secretary of the organization had been decided by the courts. It was contended by a strong opposition, led by Spaulding Frazer, that the meeting of the executive board which put Kenworthy into office was illegal. The Supreme Court ruled only two weeks ago that the appointment was in order.

It had been charged by Kenworthy's opponents that he "phoned" his way into the lucrative post, since he, during his three successive terms as president of the league, had appointed all the members of the board which gave him the job. It was also stated that insufficient notice of the meeting had been given to allow all the members to attend.

In moving that the dues be paid, Commissioner Rife said, "Maybe we can give him some baby bonds," in allusion to Belleville's financial situation.

Stone To Retire At Montclair College Professor Is Only One Of Original Normal School Faculty There

John C. Stone, professor of mathematics, and head of the mathematics department at Montclair State Teachers' College, has announced his intention to retire at the end of the present school year in the latter part of June. Mr. Stone has been with this institution since its beginning as a normal school in 1908 and he is the only member of the original faculty still at Montclair. He is retiring to revise two or three books that are required by his publishers at the present time. Besides Mr. Stone and Virgil S. Mallory, of the college mathematics department who joined him as co-author three years ago, have several books planned that will take considerable research.

He has not only written about seventy-five textbooks in elementary and high school mathematics in the last thirty-five years, but has taught in summer schools nearly every summer up to the last five years. His summer work extended through many parts of the country including Virginia, Mississippi, Louisiana, Ohio, Michigan and Colorado. For many years, after the close of the summer school work, he lectured before the Teachers Institutes in many states; and during the school year began lectures before groups of teachers. For some time he gave demonstrations with children in school systems for three or four consecutive days.

A Culinary Triumph

By Caroline B.
Home Economics and Culinary

THE hostess who selects ham for dinner makes no mistake; boiled, fried, baked or grilled, ham is bound to be one dish that pleases everybody.

But the hostess who adds a new twist to the popular dish will find that she has not only added to its popularity but to her own. Ham cooked in a brand new way and dressed up with a brand new and different sauce is the very quintessence of good eating. Now, with the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment we have a new opportunity to achieve such a culinary triumph.

Spanish Ham calls for three ingredients that complement the delicious flavor and appetizing qualities of the meat: canned or dried apricots—claret or port wine—and sugar—all three blending with the fine flavor of the well cured ham in such a way as to produce a dish fit for a king, or a President of the United States.

Spanish Ham calls for a slice of ham cut 1 1/2 inches thick—1 1/2 cups of dried or canned apricots—1/4 cupful of granulated sugar—3 tablespoonsful of brown sugar—or 3 cloves—1/2 cupful of claret or port, though sherry or may be used if preferred. Well to remember that all wine, sugar, and

More Than Three Billion Dollars Paid by Life Companies in Year

Law Cites Payment of $2,175,000,000 to Living Policyholders, Not Including Loans Made on Policies

MORE than three billion dollars were paid by life insurance companies during 1933 to living policyholders and to beneficiaries, according to William A. Law, president of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company. This does not include millions of dollars advanced as loans on policies.

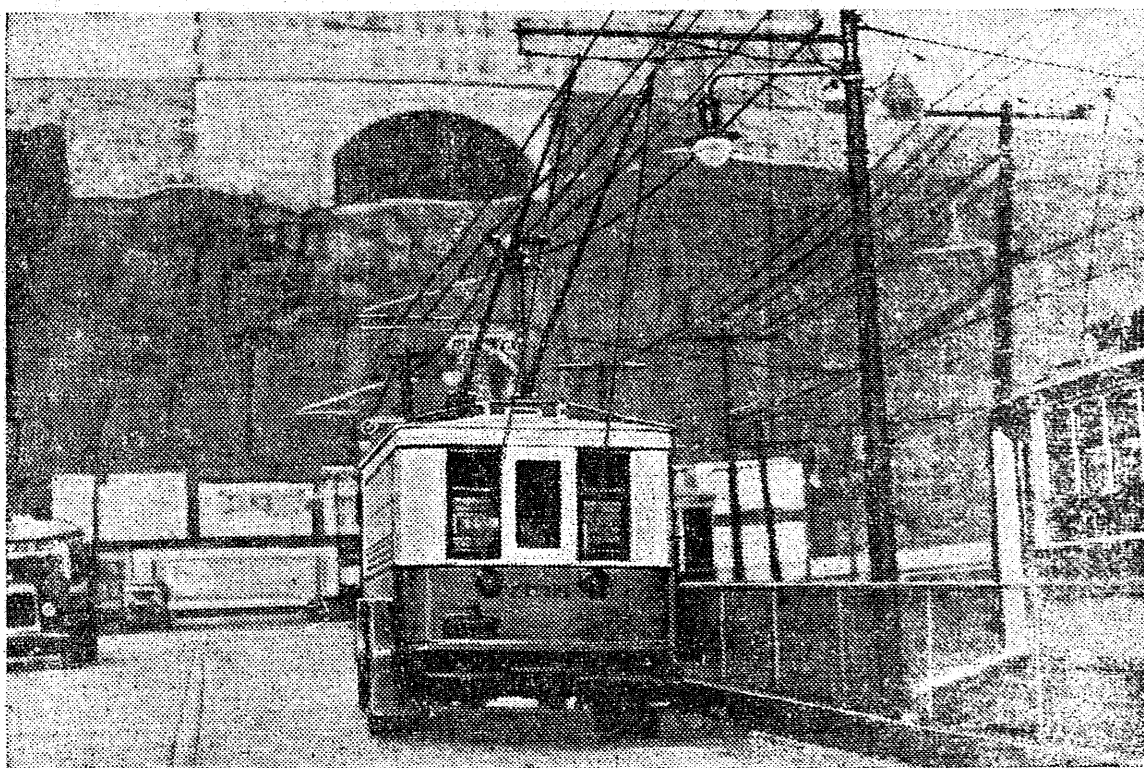

Basing his statement on statistics compiled by the Association of Life Insurance Presidents, Mr. Law pointed out that the life companies paid $2,175,000,000 in matured endowments, annuities, surrender values, dividends and interest to living policyholders, the largest amount of any year in their history. This sum compares with $2,156,000,000 in 1932 and is nearly twice as much as was paid to policyholders in 1929. In 1933, the companies were able to pay out more money," Mr. Law said, "the life insurance companies placed in the mail checks for an average of about $18,000,000 a day throughout the year. If we were to include loans to policyholders, the daily average of payments would be still larger."

"Two things enabled the institution of life insurance to make these unprecedented payments and at the same time increase their assets by more than a third of a billion dollars. One of them is sound management. In the interest of safety, the companies intentionally underestimate their earnings and overestimate the amounts they will be called upon to pay in death benefits. That leaves a margin of safety to meet unusual demands such as those of 1933."

"The other is the very nature of life insurance. The constant flow of premiums as well as receipts from investments is sufficient to permit these gigantic payments without forcing the sale of securities. Not only that, but, even in 1933, the companies were able to hold a third of a billion dollars in

Engineers Adapt Motor Bus to Operate From Trolley Wires or Under Own Power

A Public Service gas-electric bus being operated from trolley wires is shown in center of the above photograph. Three kinds of local transportation are shown together in the picture.

IN a series of experimental tests, engineers of Public Service Coordinated Transport have successfully demonstrated that a gas-electric type motorbus can be operated from trolley wires as well as under its own engine power. The vehicle used in the tests is a standard gas-electric motorbus equipped with trolley poles and electric control mechanism. This vehicle, which combines the advantages of a trolley bus with the operating flexibility of a motorbus, is the first of its kind ever operated.

For the purpose of the experiments two overhead trolley wires were strung along one side of Pershing Road hill, Weehawken, from the bus loading station at the West Side Ferry to the mile. Drawing electric power from these overhead wires, the bus repeatedly climbed the steep grade leading to the top of the hill, at an average speed exceeding thirty miles per hour, with a full load of thirty passengers. This compares with a normal maximum speed on the hill for gas-electric buses of from ten to thirteen miles per hour and for powerful gasoline engine buses of about eighteen miles per hour.

When operated by electric power received from the trolley wires, the bus is controlled in very much the same way as any gas-electric bus. After the trolley poles are placed on the wires at the loading stand, the driver shuts off the gas engine. When ready to pass from the overhead wires into the electric motors which are connected to each of the four wheels of the gas-electric bus. Propelled by central station electric energy the bus moves up the hill in the same manner as a trolley car. Upon reaching the end of the wires, the driver starts his gasoline engine and returns under the bus's own power to the bottom of the hill. An electric device has been designed, but not yet installed, which will automatically pull the trolley poles off the overhead wires without the driver leaving his seat.

The company's engineers are giving the bus further trial in regular service of the lines operating up and down Pershing Road hill to the Weehawken Ferry.
