Six Men Necessary To Repair Mains, Waters Announces Public Works Head Fears Criticism For Hiring Men Now

Six additional men must be hired by the water department to repair broken and leaking mains caused by the extreme cold of the past few weeks, Commissioner Patrick A. Waters, director of public works, told the town commission Tuesday night. Thirteen complaints have been received about leaking mains, the director said.

Waters said he brought the matter to the attention of the board to prove that the hiring of additional men was necessary, as he had been criticized four years ago when men were hired just before the town commission election in 1930.

A complaint was received from Joseph Zarro of Newark, owner of a house at 186 Passaic avenue, Nutley, charging that CWA workers on sewer improvements in the northwest section of town had torn down portions of the fence surrounding the property for use as firewood. Waters said that the town was not responsible for actions of the workers, and added that complaints about the conduct of the men when away from the job should be made to the police. He pointed out that the extreme cold of the last few weeks had forced the men to use everything available for fuel.

The trenches in Chestnut street were complained of by residents of that street, who said that they were unable to use their garages and that coal trucks were unable to reach their homes. When Waters announced that the trench must remain open for some weeks more, Town Attorney Lawrence E. Keenan was instructed to communicate with the Kline Construction Co., which maintains a sixteen-foot fence along the rear of the properties, to find if the fence could not temporarily be removed to allow access to the houses.

A junk solicitor's permit was granted to Peter Chimenti of 41 Watchung avenue. An offer to keep Belleville free of stray dogs at $100 less than the fee now charged by the Humane Society of Newark was made by Dr. C. W. Argue, Orange veterinarian, at the afternoon conference. The veterinary explained that he is opening another animal hospital in New street, Nutley, and will be able to give the town efficient service. His offer will be acted upon at the special meeting Wednesday.

The proper administration of town affairs and the elimination of waste will be Mr. Maher's campaign topic, as he feels that town expenditures have been slashed to as low a point as reasonable.

Fewsmith Guild Has Red Letter Day Mrs. William Engleman Is Named President At Gala Affair

The Woman's Guild of the Fewsmith Presbyterian Church held their annual meeting Thursday, February 8, at which time there was an election of officers.

The following is a list of the newly elected officers: President, Mrs. Engleman; first vice president, Mrs. Eugene Osborn; second vice president, Mrs. William Caldwell; third vice president, Mrs. B. S. Rowland; recording secretary, Mrs. Andrew Salkeld; and Mrs. John Gibson, treasurer.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. William Crombie who after carrying on the urgent business turned the meeting over to Mrs. O. Close for the election.

The secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for the new officers, after which the new president Mrs. William Engleman took the chair.

The meeting soon adjourned, and an interesting program and tea followed. An invitation to the tea was on the president's desk and was a complete surprise to her. Mrs. Ellsworth had brought and secreted an evening dress from Mrs. Crombie's home so she might dress for the occasion. The gown was a most becoming one of white satin and lace. As Mrs. Crombie came into the room a corsage of roses and gardenias were presented to her.

The table from which refreshments were served was beautifully decorated with yellow and white daffodils, and sandwiches and cakes also were in the two colors.

Solos were rendered by Mrs. Anne Morgan and Mrs. Mac Arthur, the songs were entitled respectively, "Father in Heaven," and "Within a Mile of Edinburgh Town."

Then came a poem read by Mrs. D. H. Moss which was dedicated to Mrs. Crombie. Mrs. O. Bell Close gave a very nice talk highly commending Mrs. Crombie for her nine years of loyal and faithful work in the guild.

In a most beautiful way which was enjoyed by everyone, Mrs. J. Cameron presented to Mrs. Crombie a large mirror, a gift from the guild members.

After a short talk by Dr. Close refreshments were served by a very able committee consisting of Mrs. Fred Fackrell, Mrs. William Bain, Mrs. E. Ellsworth and Mrs. W. W. Stewart. Mrs. T. C. Stewart and Mrs. W. W. Stewart each sat at an end of the table and poured tea. A most enjoyable afternoon was spent by everyone present and it will be a red letter day for one retiring president.

Republican Women Hold Meeting Candidates' Night Will Be Held By Group April 6

The Belleville Woman's Republican Club met at the Woman's Club House, 51 Rossmore place on Thursday afternoon, last week. The president Mrs. John F. O'Brien, Jr., presided. Mrs. Mary J. Ebert and Mrs. Mary R. Galant were welcomed as members. A letter was read from Senator Joseph G. Wolber, acknowledging the club's endorsement of him for governor. Also Jesse R. Salmon, chairman of the Essex County Republican Committee, acknowledged by letter, the club's endorsement of Senator Wolber.

It was decided to have a Candidates' Night on Friday, April 6, at which time aspirants for the town commission, at the May election, would have an opportunity to speak. It was also decided that from April 15 until election the club would establish headquarters in a vacant store on Washington avenue, where the club women would take turns in being on hand during the afternoons and evenings. After the business session Commissioner William H. Williams was guest speaker and talked on the "Financial Condition of Belleville."

The commissioner said in part that a great confusion of ideas exists in regard to the financial condition of Belleville, and that they do not live up with the truth, and that how to get the public interested in the facts is "the devil's own job." The demands on the commissioners are terrific, the speaker said, and many vicious letters are received, and very few, if any, commendations. Mr. Williams spoke of the efficiency of the Recreation Commission under Robert Nebrig, and of how much more has been accomplished, with less expenditure.

Conditions are complicated, and everything that has been done, has been done over obstacles and hard sledding. There is no pleasure in serving under these conditions, and the Commissioner pleaded that no matter who is "in," what is needed is loyalty and support. The Commissioner is unqualifiedly in favor of the sales tax, but on the matter of consolidation, no. An invitation was extended to the members of the club to visit the finance department at the town hall in a body, yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Abromson Speaks At Party In Lake Addresses Members Of St. Anthony's Holy Name Society

The United States and Italy are gradually being guided out of years of depression due to the courageousness of their leaders, the Rev. Arthur T. Griffith said Saturday night at the annual stag party of the Holy Name Society of St. Anthony's Church, Silver Lake.

Urging members of the organization to take more interest in local, national and international political activity the Rev. Griffith declared: "Franklin D. Roosevelt and Benito Mussolini are leading their nations to days of greater happiness with their courage and religious spirit. Both America and Italy have struggled for many years in the clutches of the depression but the time is near when prosperity will again be supreme." A graduate of Seton Hall College, the clergyman was ordained in May, 1932.

Edward J. Abromson, commission candidate and a speaker at the affair, termed social activities as being the backbone of a church.

"Social life should be governed with a certain amount of spirituality in order to soften the rough edges of the everyday pursuit of existence. In that way precreational activities can be the essence of a church," Mr. Abromson said.

Other speakers at the affair were the Rev. Cataldo Alessi of St. Anthony's Church, and Anthony J. Maglio, president of the Holy Name Society. Maglio organized the club four years ago and has served as its head since. Peter Chimento was chairman and several vocal numbers were rendered by Edgar C. Sicoli.

Ernie Ratner, popular New Jersey fighter, performed in the feature bout of the evening. Entertainment was provided by Sam "Sandy Hook" Scaviano, Silver Lake comedian.

Icy Streets Cause Three Collisions No One Injured, But Cars Are Damaged In Accidents Tuesday

Streets covered with snow and ice caused three minor collisions between autos in Nutley Monday night and Tuesday morning. Although several cars were damaged, no one was injured.

A car driven by Robert J. Brogan of 60 Bell street, Belleville, and a light truck driven by William K. Barlow of 40 Eagle avenue, Paterson, collided at Kingsland road and Passaic avenue Monday night. Both vehicles were damaged.

Trucks of the G. Kreuger Brewing Co. and the C. Eagan Contracting Co., driven by Charles Daniele of 41 Hayes street, Newark, and Michael Raccoppo of 67 Bay avenue, Montclair, respectively, came together at Union avenue and Center street on Tuesday morning. The brewery truck skidded into the other auto, according to police.

A collision occurred at Franklin avenue and Center street the same morning, when cars driven by Joseph Hymans of 1230 Sheridan avenue, The Bronx, and J. H. Nelson of 341 Park avenue came together. Hymans told police that he was waiting for the traffic light at Franklin avenue when Nelson's car, following his west in Center street, skidded into the rear end of his machine. Both cars were slightly damaged.

Scavenger Hunt

The Young People's Fellowship of Christ Episcopal Church on Monday evening conducted a scavenger hunt. The members and their friends were divided into four teams, the Vulcans, the Buzzards, the Hyenas and the Jackals. Each team consisted of two car loads of four persons each. There were thirty articles to bring in or conditions to be fulfilled. Scoring was on a weighed point basis. These were typed in reverse, thus making the task more difficult. The list follows:

At the end of two hours the teams returned. They had encountered all sorts of difficulties, chiefly in getting the correct assortment of used bones. After the returning parties had quieted down a bit the two judges, Rev. Peter A. Deckenbach and Robert C. Geller, set to work to decide which team had won. While they were thus occupied a flashlight picture was taken. It certainly was a comical sight that was presented to time.

P. T. A. Hears Talk By John S. Herron

John S. Herron, of Nutley, principal of the Lafayette School of Newark, and former president of the Schoolmen's Club, will be the speaker at the February meeting of the High School Parent-Teacher Association on Tuesday evening, February 20, in the high school auditorium. The meeting will be in charge of James Lynch, president of the association.

Following the business meeting, a play, "Overtones," by Alice Gerstenberg, will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Warren Vander Veer, teacher of drama. The cast will comprise Jean Mackay, Doris Schaefer, Muriel Beresford, and Marion Davidson, all students at the high school. The note books of the Drama Appreciation classes will also be on exhibition at the meeting.

Mrs. Frank Dorman, soloist, will give several number. At the conclusion of the program, refreshments will be served in the high school cafeteria.

The girls were wearing old-fashioned, broad hair ribbons and the boys were wearing bowties. The foreground was a mass of garbage cans, baby-carriages and miscellaneous "junk."

The judges finally decided that the Hyenas had won. The members of that team were Walter Mac Laughlin, Ruth Remington, Frank Demarest, Jane Walker, Raymond Patrick, Bertha Mumford, Bert Bush and a guest. The Vulcans, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bennington, Hazel Franklin, Andrew McMaster, Ruth and Frances Williamson, Robert Shriver and William Beer, one of the adult advisers of the organization, were a close second.

The two remaining teams were the Buzzards, consisting of Harold Bade, Alice Miller, Isabel Wilson, Margaret Miller, Henry Paganelli, Bernice LeCompte and Ruth Lloyd and the Jackals, made up of Casey DeJonge, Ruth Schweiker, Elinor Apgar, Cin-drella Coppola, Bert Bade, Peggy Mac Aleese, Albert Fiske and Frances Cuier.

Refreshments were served and the awards presented. Then everyone went home extremely tired but with the realization that one could be as tired as a "crazy" and yet have a fine time.

Abbie Magee of Nutley, vice chairman of the County Committee, spoke in Mr. Hyde's behalf. Mrs. Harry Hageman was in charge of the party, which was unique in that only women were invited. A men's committee is functioning also for Hyde's interest.

Hyde stated his platform will be built around a program for better government, to be described in detail later.

Hyde, who is 37 and the father of six children, all attending Belleville public schools, has been a resident of this town nearly twenty years. He has been interested in Republican politics in Belleville many years and has served as chairman of the party's town unit of the county committee since 1932. He is a bond broker with offices in New York.

The candidate is president of Men's Club of Grace Baptist Church and a member of the church board. He also is a member of the final board of the New Jersey Baptists Convention. Hyde served four months overseas in Company 417th Telegraph Battalion, and was later in the Army of Occupation.

Frozen River Halts Two Tug Boats Old Rivermen Declared River Never Had So Much Ice

A frozen Passaic River halted two tug boats towing a loaded oil barge Wednesday morning. After a two-hour attempt to push through the ice floes north of the Belleville bridge, the task was abandoned and the tugs and barge turned back, tying up at the foot of Third avenue.

Old-time rivermen and bridge tenders declared they had never seen so much ice in the Passaic, explaining the water is much cleaner than in former years, as the result of which freezing occurs more rapidly. The tugs, Edward Bowers and Claremont, left Constable Hook on Tuesday morning, towing the barge Arthur Henry laden with 8,000 barrels of oil consigned to the Shell Oil Co. at East Rutherford. The ice made navigation difficult, members of the crews said, and it was 1 A. M. Wednesday before they reached Third avenue, Newark.

The tugs and barge tied up there for a few hours and the trip was resumed at 5:30 A. M. It required two and a half hours to negotiate two miles through the ice-laden river. Near the Belleville bridge the river was almost frozen over and the Claremont went ahead to break a course.

North of the bridge the tug was stopped by the ice. The tug chucked the waters for two hours before it was decided it could go no farther.

C. M. Smith, bridge superintendent, and William J. Pfeifer, attendant, joined with Martin J. Griffin, chief river inspector for the Passaic Valley Sewer Commission, in declaring the Passaic has had its biggest freeze in many years.

THE DRY TAX COW

Those of our legislators and administrative officials who are just now proposing new means of raising more taxes might well pause to ask what the people are going to use for money. With this in mind they might then look at the record of tax collections for all New Jersey towns in the last five years.

With all the improvement in business in 1933, with our numerous industrial cities actually booming for part of the year, and with all the money the federal government, the state and CWA poured in here, more than one-third of the taxes were uncollected at the first of the year.

In addition to the 1933 taxes there are large amounts still uncollected of the 1932 levy and of previous years. This explanation is clear. The people have been so stripped of their resources by the long continued depression that they simply have nothing left except current income. And as current income is still a matter of considerable uncertainty to hundreds of thousands of our citizens, any talk of increased taxes is mere folly.

The tax cow has been milked dry.

OUT THEY POP

The chill blasts that swept over Belleville when Boreas unleashed his icy breath this week did not hinder the boiling of the seething political cauldron, the lid of which rose of a sudden.

From now on Belleville may expect anything and everything to escape from the pot, steam and hot air included. Some candidates will give us a sincere pledge to work for the town's best interest. Others will attempt to delude the bewildered and empty-pocketed voters with bombast, originating in the dregs of the kettle.

Like the words in the present day popular song the hearts of some voters will be fired and smoke will get in their eyes. Already a screen as black as any ever laid down by a ship in war times is being devised in some quarters.

But going back to the serious, candidates this week fell head over heels over each other to get under way. Some announced they are in the battle; others by actions that speak louder than words essayed that they will also in and still others are waiting, perhaps to consult the Ouija Board.

This is one election in which Ouija Boards and camouflage will lead the voters astray. Pocket-books are too empty, jobs too scarce and hearts too heavy. Successful candidates this time will have to reckon with a serious-minded voting list—people who regardless of likes or dislikes, choose men of ability to run the town—well.

TOO ATTRACTIVE

Sing Sing prison appears to be the nation's most highly publicized penal institution, what with its excellent football team, etc. Now high learning is being introduced.

Twelve professors have undertaken to give courses to the prisoners—or those who are interested—on higher learning. Such subjects as "How to dupe Industrial Securities," Business and the Weather, "How to Improve Memory and Thinking," are being taught. These come under the classification of "Modern Business." No doubt, this step is in the right direction for the benefit of the inmates—but sometimes it would seem that with many advantages afforded there is danger of making Sing Sing altogether too attractive.

$15 A WORD

Time—or the lapse of it—sometimes makes a big difference when it comes to selling a classic. It is reported that $210,000 has been paid for Charles Dickens' "Life of Christ," which was written for children. It is rumored that this is at the rate of $15 a word—quite a staggering sum. However, the manuscript has been withheld from publication for sixty years. The passing of time has, on doubt, made it more and more valuable.

— LILLIAN THOMAS —

Michael Angelo, not content with chisel and brush, put some of his surplus energy, at the age of sixty, into sonnets. . . . Torquato Tasso, the brilliant Italian poet, became partially insane before he reached middle age. . . . Rabelais was jocular and hearty. . . . Francois Villon was a vagabond and a thief. . . . Petrarch eggs are esteemed by the Chinese as a great delicacy. . . . Trade in Tibet is chiefly by exchange or barter, and comparatively few articles are paid for in cash. Bricks of tea are often used as a convenient currency. . . . Hans Sachs, the most celebrated poet of Nuremberg, was a shoe cobbler. . . . Walter Raleigh, when he was shut up in the Tower of London, amused himself for twelve years by writing his "History of the World." . . . Philip Sidney, the poet, after having received a death wound on the battlefield, gave his last drop of water to a dying soldier. . . . La Bruyere's "Characters" portrayed actual French people of the time and many of his contemporaries were offended. . . . Seven and one-half million books and papers go to make the Library of Congress the largest in the world. . . . Victor Hugo once made the printers of his copy furnish him with eleven revisions in order that the comas might be put in the right place. . . . Thomas Campbell, the English writer, once walked six miles to a printing office to change a semi-colon into a comma. . . . A printer was responsible for changing the first line of Gray's "Elegy," in which the poet had written, "The curfew tolls, the knell of parting day" by omitting the comma. Gray accepted the change as an improvement. . . . Macaulay had such a prodigious memory that he was able to recall verse, word for word, that he had read forty years before. . . . ### SAUCE FOR THE GANDER

"I was thinking," said she, as they sat at the breakfast table, "about going downtown this afternoon. They have some wonderful bargains at the Allen department store. I'd like to get myself a coat."

"A coat! Another coat!" exclaimed her husband hotly. "Haven't you got a coat? Didn't you just buy a coat three years ago? Is it any wonder I can't pay the mortgage on this house? Is it any wonder I—"

"But, dear, they're featuring some fine coats for only $9.95," interrupted his wife. "It's a bargain that won't be repeated. And anyway, I need a coat badly. My old one is—"

"I suppose you're going to tell me that your old one isn't fit to wear. There's nothing wrong with your old coat. I like it. It looks good on you. The cuffs are a little frayed, but you can cut them off. And the hem—well, you can turn that in a few inches."

"The fur collar," explained his wife, "is worn right down to the pelt."

"All right, remove the collar," replied her husband. "That's no reason why you should buy a coat. Gadi just because the collar is a little worn you want to buy a whole coat. You can think of more ways to spend money than I've got hair on my head."

His wife snickered. "You're quite bald, darling," she replied good naturedly. But her husband continued to rant and rave and exercise his speech.

"You're a spendthrift, that's what you are. Do you see me spending my money foolishly, like buying myself a coat I don't need, or—"

"All I said," replied his wife, "was that I was thinking of buying a coat. I really need one, but, of course, if you're going to carry on like that, I'll let my old one do."

"That's better," said her husband. "Now you're talking like a sensible woman." And he left for the office whistling a merry tune.

That night the man of the house came home with a huge box under his arm.

"What have you got there, darling?" asked his wife as she kissed him.

"Ah, what have I got here? Wait'll you see it! It's a bargain! Only $49.50 for the swiftest miniature indoor golf course you ever saw. It's—well, what's the matter?" he asked, noticing his wife's meaning silence. "I suppose you're going to make a fuss about it? I suppose a man hasn't got the right to spend a few cents on himself once in a while? Say, listen, if I can't enjoy my money while I live—"

Most Crashes Caused By Autos Bumping Into Train Sides

Almost Third Of Total Occurred In That Manner

Cleveland, Ohio—Fifty-two out of a total of 181 accidents that occurred at highway crossings along the lines of the Erie Railroad during the year 1933, were caused by motor vehicles crashing into the sides of trains, according to a report of such accidents compiled by the railroad.

The total of 181 crossings accidents that occurred during the year was a decrease of 56, or 24 per cent, from the number that occurred during the year 1932, when there was a total of 237. New Jersey led in the list of States served by the Erie in showing a smaller percentage of accidents than were recorded in the previous year, the decrease in that State being 37 percent. In Ohio the decrease was only eight percent as compared with a system average of 24 percent. Pennsylvania showed an increase of 10 percent while other states were about the same as the year previous.

The report also shows that some drivers evidently became confused while crossing the railroad tracks by the fact that 43 of the total number, or 24 percent, were the result of vehicles stalling on the tracks ahead of oncoming trains. A lack of caution or of misunderstanding as to what established safeguards mean to the highway traveler, is indicated by the report showing the 98 accidents, or 54 percent of the year's total, occurred at crossings where there is extra protection for the motorists such as flash light signals, wig-wags, crossing bells, gates or watchmen. In 48 accidents automobile drivers are shown to have entirely disregarded the watchman's signal of approaching trains.

On Accredited List 632 Public And Private Secondary Schools Included

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 16 — The Commission on Secondary Schools of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools has accredited 632 public and private secondary schools for 1934, it was announced today at the commission's office in the University of Pennsylvania. Belleville and Nutley are included.

The commission serves as a fact-finding and rating agency in preparing annually a list of accredited secondary schools in the Middle States, the District of Columbia and the Panama Canal Zone, and functions also as a clearing-house for information of a professional character concerning these schools.

According to Dr. E. D. Grizzell, chairman of the commission and professor of secondary education at Pennsylvania, any secondary school within the commission's territory may apply for a place on the accredited list, but failure to be included on the list does not necessarily imply inefficiency on the part of a school.

"In acting upon applications from secondary schools seeking places on the accredited list the commission assumes no responsibility beyond that of judging the ability of a secondary school to prepare its students for college work. Approval by the commission therefore means merely approval for accrediting to college," Dr. Grizzell stated.

"Secondary schools not appearing on the commission's accredited list may be carrying on their particular work just as efficiently as those listed, but may be excluded solely because their curricula are not designed to prepare students well, or at all, for college entrance. In some instances, failure of schools to apply for accrediting is responsible for their omission from the list."

Investigations made by the Commission on Secondary Schools during the past year revealed an unusual number of secondary schools which have been forced by the depression to discontinue their teacher load beyond the maximum recommended by the commission, Dr. Grizzell pointed out.

At a very few of the schools in this category, however, successful efforts have been made in maintaining their efficiency and administrative work.

Man Seriously Injured In Fall On Sidewalk

Anthony Daddario of 3 Hancock avenue, Nutley, suffered a fracture of the lower jaw and a possible skull fracture when he fell on the sidewalk while leaving Paul's Diner at 751 Washington avenue, Belleville, Saturday night. He was taken by his brother-in-law to Dr. Edward M. Rizzolo of Belleville, who treated him and called the Nutley police ambulance to take him to St. Mary's Hospital, Passaic.

The incident was investigated by Belleville police, who reported that they had found witnesses who said the fall was accidental.

Lobsitz Asks Nutley To Prevent Use Of River By Belleville

Claims Storm Sewer Will Lead To Overflow Of Stream

A letter from Samuel Lobsitz, president of Lobsitz Mills in Harrison street, was read at the town commission meeting Tuesday, asking that Nutley take steps to prevent Belleville from emptying its new storm sewer, now being constructed as a CWA project, into the Third River above his mill. The stream overflowed into the mill property several months ago, and Mr. Lobsitz fears that a greater flood will be caused by the new sewer, which drains a large section of the adjoining town. The communication was referred to the department of public works and the town attorney.

The board decided to take steps to prevent the emptying of a new CWA sanitary sewer in the northwest section of Belleville into the Franklin avenue sewer in Nutley. A resolution introduced by Director Frederick H. Young of the Department of Public Works states that Belleville is now emptying sanitary sewage into the Franklin avenue system without any agreement or contract, and without paying Nutley for its use. It also stated that storm water is entering the Nutley system from Belleville, overloading the local system and creating a health menace to the people of Nutley. A copy of the resolution was sent to the Belleville town officials, warning them that if the situation is not remedied immediately Nutley will take legal action.

Junkyard Permit Sought

An application for permission to operate an auto junkyard at 208 Washington avenue was received from Frank Natale and Frank DeBlasio. The site is at present occupied by the junkyard of Frank V. Ritacco. The latter notified the board that he would relinquish his permit if the new one were granted. A public hearing on the permit will be held February 26.

On motion of Commissioner DeMuro, the board denied the application of Antonia Buonavita of Brooklyn for the renewal of a huckster license.

The board approved the suggestion of Commissioner Stager that renewing the lettering on doors and alarm boards in the police station and fire houses be made a CWA project.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.
If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels.
Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul.
Skin often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing
when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's

LOCAL COUNTY LEAGUERS IN EVEN BREAK

Belleville's Essex County Basketball League first half champions could do no better than an even break last week in their quest for the second half diadem. A patched-up line-up could not stem the tide up at Overbrook, in the first game of the new round, a 36-31 defeat being recorded against the locals by the strong Sachmen. On the home court, Saturday night, a 34-25 win was hung up over the strong Glen Ridge outfit. This latter victory kept the record of the Kennymen of winning all their home games in league competition so far intact.

By the bye, the only two defeats suffered by Belleville have been at Overbrook. Flashy, little Jake Huhn, only recently recovered from a bad injury suffered at the start of the season, was the Belleville star in both games. At Overbrook his contribution was twelve points and against Glen Ridge he also led the scoring parade. The trip to Overbrook was made with but five men. And to make matters worse Huhn, who had been leading the Belleville offensive, was ejected on four personals, forcing the playing of four men during almost the entire fourth quarter. But here's the joker: Belleville was eleven points in arrears at the time Huhn left the game, and at the final whistle, after playing with four men against five, they managed to whitewash down to five at the end of the game.

Bill Levine, flashy Belleville forward, may be out for the rest of the season. At least he will be if he sticks by the doctor's orders. Being unable to take an active part, however, Levine has turned to coaching, and will trot out a girls' team to play the Belleville Vim Girls in a special preliminary attraction to the Belleville-Overbrook game at the local Recreation Center court, tomorrow night. And guess what the name of Levine's feminine aggregation is going to be? Wrong all three guesses. The Irish Ramblers, believe it or not! Hoo, Paddy, don't leave that Irish celtic!

And, of course, after last week's upset at Overbrook, the main league duel promises to be a corker. Local fans will have an added interest in the appearance of four local men in the ranks of the boys from the "nut house." Harry Metz, Eddie Mutch, "Mac" Lamb, and Mike Hanley. The latter three are recent additions to the Overbrook team, while Metz is an old stand-by. All are well-known and popular with local fans. Manager Kenny of the local squad will likely be out with his team in full strength for the first time this half. Tommie O'Brien, and "Jitty" Wisniewsky will both be in uniform after recent absences. Bill Levine will be the only one failing to put on a uniform.

CRESCENT STRING BROKEN

The victory string of "Mac" Lamb's local Crescents was broken, Lincoln's Birthday afternoon, at consecutive triumphs. "Jockey" Maxwell's Mercer Baths quintet proved the Nemesis nosing out the locals, 26-24. Prior to this defeat the Crescents had easily subdued the St. Lucy I. C. U. team, 30-18, at the high school gym.

A little bit of carelessness is all that can be ascribed to the Monday defeat. The Crescents held the upper hand all the way, leading, 17-12 at half time, and even as late as the fourth quarter. But before they knew it, the Mercer team was up to them, and just before the final whistle had them nipped at the tape. Her Bohrer's nine points scored from the bench was a big help to Crescent offense in the win over St. Lucy's scoring ten points, to top Bob Mericle's eight. Belleville led by a scant 13-11 margin at half time, but outscored the visitors, 17-7 in the final stanza to make it overwhelming.

Lamb is still angling with Manager Kenny of the Belleville team in the Essex County League for a home-and-home series to decide the mythical "town championship."

HIGH SCHOOL AVENGES

Early in the season, the Belleville High netsters suffered their most ranking defeat of the year, after two extra periods of play. Clifton High was the winner of the game at Clifton's peculiar court. The thought of that loss must have been lurking back in the minds of those local lads, Friday night, as they proceeded to smear Clifton all over the landscape, 36-24, at the local gym to get ample vengeance.

This team, which has been playing in-and-out ball all season, turned in one of its best performances. Elmer "Red" Van Dermark scored almost half of his team's point total with his fifteen point contribution. Yet to him alone don't belong the high-powered adjectives. Ned Dunn, Joe Shanahan, and even classy little Frank Caragher all played well. It was Dunn, who almost single-handedly kept Belleville in the running in the early stages of the game. Clifton even was so bold as to assume a 15-14 lead at the end of the first half, after having been outscored 10-5 in the first quarter. The Bell-boys, however, with Shanahan, and Van Dermark showing the way got down to really serious business in the third quarter, and proceeded to blank Clifton, 10-0 in that stanza and stow away the game in their trophy case.

"Honey Boy" Russell, high-scoring member of the league-leading Trenton Moose quintet in the American Professional Basketball League, handled the whistle. The high-reared Belleville Jayvees won another against the Clifton seconds, turning in a 26-11 victory. Jim Tully, relegated from varsity to the second team ranking, because of scholastic difficulties, came through with nine points for the locals in this one.

The Belleville High Faculty won an easy 46-26 game from the Lyndhurst Teachers, last week, at the local high school gym. Coach A. K. McBride of the school-boy quintet, and a former American League star with Cleveland, tallied twenty points for the Belleville instructors.

FRANK'S DINER IN NEAR UPSET

Though the three league-leaders in the Recreation Commission's Major Basketball League all won their games, Monday night, a near upset was recorded. In the first game of the evening the last place Unions almost nipped the third place Frank's Diner outfit, bowing finally 26-23. The Unions held the upper hand during most of the game, but could not stem the Diner tide in the final quarter, field goals by Schwab and Smith in the last few minutes of play winning the game for Harry Calhoun's men.

The W. H. Williams Association quintet piled up one of the season's high scores in disposing of Progress Club, 51-24, in the second game. Vic Pomponio's Belleville Rosery, tied with the Williamsmen for the league lead, also won easily, disposing of the Falcons, 42-26 in surprisingly easy fashion.

Johnny McGuire was the scoring ace in the heavy Williams barrage, accumulating sixteen points. Her Bohrer got then and Pat Dunn eight to rank McGuire and Artie Dunn Westra collected eight for the Falcons.

RUBIN ASSOCIATION WINS TEST GAME

The A. A. Rubin Association quintet went into undisputed possession of first place in the Wednesday Night Community League at the Recreation Center, last week. An easy 28-10 conquest of the previously undefeated W. H. Williams Association Juniors turned the trick for the Rubins, and assured them of first place ranking in the first half of that league. Clark and Dacey evenly divided twenty of the Rubin point total, while Mel TenBroeck got six for the Williams. The Rosery Juniors went into a second place tie with the Williams by virtue of their 14-10 triumph over the Trojans. The T. D'Avella Association swamped the Staywards, 25-6, and Fewsmith won easily from St. Anthony's, 32-21, in other games.

The top-flight Middletown Juniors had another easy time in the Minor Basketball League, last week, shelacking the Royals, 26-4, to stay in the ranks of the undefeated. Laterza and Christian led the Middletown attack. The second place Panthers turned back the Bell-boys, 27-17, and the Eagles swamped the Blue Falcons, 25-9, in other league contests. Parsells, Leonard, Grosch, Shepherd, Denike and Bryan were the best men in these games.

State Funds Vital To School System, Dailey Tells P-T. A.

Board Cannot Meet Obligations Without Sum, Finance Head Says

The $78,000 portion of the State school apportionment for 1932 due the local Board of Education from Essex County must be received by Belleville, if the board is to meet its obligations for the rest of the year, John P. Dailey, chairman of the finance committee of the board, told members of the Parent-Teacher Association of School No. 3 last Friday.

He said that a part payment may be received in the near future, and that County Treasurer Zenas Crane, Town Treasurer T. Russell Sargeant and Town Finance Director William H. Williams will confer on the manner in which the sum will be paid. The transaction will be largely in bonds, Dailey believes.

The speaker explained the school budget, and showed that teachers' salary reductions of $36,000, if continued next year, and unpaid railroad taxes of $15,000, will create reserves against the time when the board must make up the six months' budget lost by the change in the school fiscal year, since repealed by the Legislature.

Reductions in the current expense account of the budget will not affect services, Dailey said. The budget is $23,707 greater than last year, but he pointed out that twelve months' funds must be raised this year, as compared with six months in 1933.

Advised by County Counsel Vanerbill to pay the claim, County Treasurer Crane announced Wednesday he would call town officials into a conference. After seeking early payment of the money which is needed in Belleville, the town officials were advised the county treasurer wanted to get consideration for more than $515,000 Belleville owes in county and state taxes.

While he declined to state the nature of the proposition he will make to the town officials within a few days, Mr. Crane said the problem will center entirely on 1932 taxes. The town last summer made payments of scrip and cash, which were accepted as the town's 1932 state school taxes. The scrip was used in the town schools. Now the town wants the balance of its school allotment.

Mr. Crane will press the point the town owes 1932 county and state taxes totaling $228,302.45 to him as collector, which figures in a court action to force payment. County Superintendent of Schools Chase informed Mr. Crane the town was entitled to the $78,444 and Mr. Vandebilt confirmed this.

Mr. Crane said he had advised the town officials payment would be made.

"But I didn't say when it would be paid," he added.

OLDHAMS LOSE AGAIN

A two-out-of-three defeat at the hands of Mike DeCarlo's Moose quintet Monday night added another chapter to the current slump of the league-leading Oldham Association bowling League. This latest defeat has shared down their once seemingly insurmountable lead to a single game. Johnny Lawlor's El Club, though missing an opportunity to tie the Oldhams for the lead, got one game back, by winning the old game of their three game series with the Democratic Club. The Knights of Columbus accounted for the night's big surprise rolling scores of 980, 1024 and 946 to subdue the powerful Waters Association three in a row. The W. H. Williams Association won two from the Mayer Club, the Belleville B. C. easily took three from the Woodhouse Association to move out of the cellar position, and the Gebhard Association dropped two of three to the NRA club.

Johnnie Vogel of the lowly Gebhards came through with high individual score of the night, bowling a 253 in the second game against the NRA. He also surrounded this score with 200 and 237 for the best individual performance of the evening. Bill Knowles, Charley Tate and Herb Grinstead all looked good for the Oldhams in spite of their setbacks. Vince Francesconi's 244 for the Moose in the final was the best score of that match, though Rhodes and Tuerff both bowled well for the Moose. Willie Klenz and "Shag" Shaughnessy were the keymen in the El Club-Democratic Club series. High scores were the order for the Casseys in their surprising win. Hegedus reached 242, Weber, 234 and Snyder, 228, for the Knights. The Waters also had their share of high scores, with Speary hitting 244, Dunn, 233 and Whitten, 225. Bill Williams, Tom O'Brien and Osinski were the chief instruments in the W. H. Williams victory, while Ventura and Volire looked good even in defeat for the NRA against the Gebhards.

FEWSMITH MEN'S CLUB LOSES GROUND

Christ Episcopal's second place club in the Belleville Church Bowling League picked up some ground on the league-leading Men's Club, last week. The Episcopalians registered a clean sweep over Grace Baptist, while Montgomery was disposing of the league-leaders in two out of three tilts. Bethany Lutheran won three in a row from the All Church club, and Fewsmith Presbyterian accomplished a like feat at the expense of Forest Hill.

Hochstahl, Bethany Lutheran, smashed the pins for a 245 and high score, of the evening. Glenck Grace Baptist, Stout, Schafter, and Garbrant, Christ Episcopal, Whitefield and McCullough, Montgomery, Charlie and Bill Knowles, Fewsmith Presbyterian, Corwin, Forest Hill, Vosburgh and Breen, Bethany; were other high scorers.

ELKS WIN IN M. & E. LEAGUE.

The Belleville Elks team in the Morris and Essex League advanced to within eight games of the league-leading Montclair team, last week, taking the odd game from Chatham. The Hello Bills, however, remain in seventh place despite their success. Cliff Faust's 227 in the final game was high for the locals, although Tom McNair hit 225, Bob Whitten 206 and Charley Waldie, 203.

YOU, YOUR CAR and the MOTOR LAWS

Harold G. Hoffman,
Commissioner of Motor Vehicles

Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, Harold G. Hoffman, Monday issued the following statement for the benefit of New Jersey commercial vehicle owners operating in the State of Pennsylvania:

"The attention of New Jersey motor bus and commercial vehicle owners is called to a new law now in effect in the State of Pennsylvania, which is being enforced not only with respect to Pennsylvania motorists, but also motorists from New Jersey and other states. This new law requires that two fifteen minute flares shall be carried by all omnibuses and truck owners.

"Reciprocal operating privileges are granted to New Jersey motor vehicle owners only as far as the registration is concerned, and it is, therefore, necessary for New Jersey owners to commercial vehicles and omnibuses to carry the necessary flare equipment when operating in Pennsylvania.

"The Pennsylvania law reads as follows:

"Section 824. Danger and Caution Signals.—Every motor bus and every motor omnibus for the carriage of passengers for hire, except taxicabs, and every commercial motor vehicle having a carrying capacity of two tons or over, shall be equipped with at least two red or yellow burning danger or caution signals, with friction cap ignition, similar in type to a time-burning railway fuse signal, and so constructed as to burn with a brilliant red or yellow light for not less than fifteen minutes.

"Whenever any such vehicle becomes disabled while within the limits of the traveled part of a highway to such an extent that it cannot proceed under its own power, and its lighting is so disabled that it constitutes a menace to other vehicular traffic, the operator thereof shall cause to be continuously displayed on the surface of the highway the red or yellow-burning danger or caution signals, as herein required, in such manner as to prevent personal injuries, loss of life and damage to property by collision.

"Any owner or operator who shall fail to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall, upon summary conviction before a magistrate, be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25) and costs of prosecution, and, in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days."
