Board Will Raise $7,800 To Continue CWA Sewer Project

The board of commissioners decided to raise $7,800 needed to complete the CWA storm sewer in the northwest section of town at a closed conference following the regular meeting Wednesday night. The money, to be used for materials and expenses other than labor, was demanded by Charles W. Conway, new supervising engineer, who threatened to stop the work immediately unless $1,000 for a crane and trucks was provided.

Conway told the board that if $7,800 were not provided by the town, work would have to stop. Matthew J. Sheehan, town construction engineer, said that CWA officials had promised $35,000 for tools and materials if the town would furnish $10,000. Belleville secured the $10,000 in November, but the CWA furnished only $29,800.

Commissioner Frank J. Carragher suggested that the matter be referred to Commissioner Patrick A. Waters, director of public works, but Mayor Kenworthy said that it was a question for the whole board.

After being closed for some time with Conway, the board agreed to issue an emergency note for at least $7,500, it was learned on reliable authority. The sum will not be included in the 1934 budget. The CWA has spent $50,000 for labor here already.

Conway, who comes here from Elizabeth, will take charge of all CWA work, including hiring and discharging workers.

The commission received a letter from Samuel Lobnitz, president of Lobnitz Mill in Harrison street,

Edward Abromson was feted at a card party at which Mrs. Mary Galanot, 53 Joramont street, was the hostess. He is a candidate for the Town Commission. Miss Ethel Ferguson (right) annexed first honors at the card tables and displays high hand. (Ledger Photo—D)

King Samuel Rallies Forces To Fight Against Bill Compelling Budget Cuts

Legislature Proposes By Bill No. 33 To Force Municipalities To Reduce Departmental Expenditures 15 Per Cent. Next Year

If Bill Is Passed State League Might Hit Toboggan

The expected fight by municipal officials against measures in the Legislature designed to restrict their expenditures has been launched by the New Jersey State League of Municipalities. Mayor Kenworthy of Belleville, who is executive secretary of the league, issued a call to every municipality in the state to send delegates to an all-day conference on legislation Monday in the Hotel Hildebrecht.

It is believed some municipalities will not appropriate money for the State League of Municipalities if the bill goes through, that it will be deemed a needless expenditure and one that should be discontinued.

Senate Bill No. 33, introduced by Senator Barbour of Passaic County, proposes to reduce departmental expenditures in 1935 15 per cent. For the next succeeding four years the bill would further reduce these appropriations 5 per cent annually.

"We still believe," said Kenworthy, "that the major problem is to find new sources of revenue for the re-

Nutley, who complained that the new storm sewer, which empties into the Third River, may cause flooding of his property. Sheehan explained that no more water would be run into the stream by the new sewer than formerly.

Legal action will be taken by the use of Nutley sanitary sewers by Nutley Town Commission to stop Belleville, a resolution of the Nutley body informed the local board. Town attorney Lawrence E. Keenan informed the board that contracts for sewage disposal have been prepared and will be presented to Nutley officials for approval.

Commissioner William D. Clark read a report from Fire Chief Hirdes on possibility of access to fires in the section in which sewers are being built. A fire in Crestnut street could be reached from the rear through Melwex street, the chief reported, adding that street surfaces were very soft. Waters said the streets were unpaved and always become muddy at this time of year.

lief of those who own property and that those sources can be found through the adoption of the program presented to the Legislature last year by the Joint Committee on Taxation. The imposition of a sales tax, a state income tax, a business franchise tax and a tax on intangible personal property will greatly aid in solving this problem.

"Serious consideration should also be given to the suspension of all highway construction for a short period, with motor vehicle license fees and the gasoline tax returned to municipalities for further relief. There also seems no sound reason why the monies collected by the state for liquor licenses and taxes should not also be used for a similar purpose."

Washington Compared With President Roosevelt

Speaking on Washington Tuesday night before the Home and School Association of School No. 1, Cortlandt street, Cephas Brainerd, assistant of Belleville Post, American Legion, drew a comparison between the first President and Franklin D. Roosevelt. "Like Roosevelt Washington was a man of great caliber and courage of conviction and fought on undaunted through untold discouragements," he said.

Howard Wilkinson, a Newark organist, gave a talk on "Music Appreciation" and acted as commentator on the selections of a CWA orchestra of forty pieces which gave a program of ten numbers under direction of Peter Rosenweig. The group voted to change its meeting night to the second Tuesday of each month. Mrs. Elizabeth A. Morgan presided at the meeting attended by 100.

Because of weather conditions the meeting of the High School Parent-Teacher Association scheduled for Tuesday night was called off. The program planned for the occasion will be presented at the next meeting, March 22, when the group will observe "Know-Your-Faculty Night."

High scores were made by Mrs. W. R. Holberg, Mrs. O. T. Breunich, Mrs. John Gibson, Mrs. E. C. Osborn, Mrs. George Oslin and Mrs. Ralph Holmes Smith. The next dessert card party is scheduled for Monday, February 5, at 1:30.

Last week the club held a dessert bridge at the club house, 51 Rossmore place. Hostesses for the afternoon included Mrs. D. S. Tillou, Mrs. A. N. Streeter, Mrs. Charles G. Jones, Mrs. G. R. Lewis and Mrs. A. S. Blank. All card games were played and members and their friends were invited. Mrs. Pearson Arrison was card party chairman.

The regular business meeting of the club was held Tuesday afternoon with the president, Mrs. William F. Entekin, presiding. The chairman of nominations Mrs. Edward L. Eska, presented the following slate for the elections to be held March 12: Mrs. George L. Fralley, second vice president; Mrs. Ruel Daniels, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. George Hunt, treasurer; Mrs. P. Adams, and Mrs. Charles G. Jones, club house trustees; Mrs. Frederic Dodd, chairman of by-laws; Mrs. James G. Shawger, chairman of nominations; Mrs. W. Y. Strange, chairman of civics; and delegates to the convention at Atlantic City Mrs. Entekin and Mrs. William M. Englemann, first vice president.

Mrs. Lloyd Nunn, chairman of social service, introduced Ruth Lang, the speaker for the afternoon, who took as her topic "The Real Romance of Life." The talk was most timely and the speaker said that recovery must be first morally and then financially. She quoted "No one happening is all there is to life" and that one misfortune must not discourage anybody and they must plan for the future and build a finer life. Only the weak ones fail, the strong people solve their own problems. Miss Lang told how her column started in the paper eight years ago and that now she receives thirty-two thousand letters a year and from ten to twelve thousand dollars are received by the column from contributions and it is all used for various cases mostly for the aged and for babies.

Mrs. Ernest Johnson, chairman of food sales, assisted by Mrs. Laury Stem presided at the food booth both before and after the meeting, when cakes, pies and other foods contributed by club members were for sale.

Belleville Socials

Mrs. John F. O'Brien, Jr., president of the Belleville Woman's Republican Club, and six members, accepted Commissioner William H. Williams' invitation to inspect the finance department at the Town Hall, last Thursday morning. The commissioner and Tax Assessor John F. Coogan were most courteous in explaining, and answering the many questions put to them by the visitors. Those in the party besides Mrs. O'Brien were: Miss Esther H. Adams, Mrs. J. K. Alexander, Mrs. Arthur A. Darvo, Mrs. H. C. Fredericks, Mrs. John Lanza and Mrs. Harvey W. Mumford.

Eight others, also arrested Thursday night in a raid staged by Sergeant George Spatz and nine patrolmen, were dismissed with a reprimand as being onlookers at the game. Corsi faces a charge of operating a pool room without a municipal license. Hearing on this was postponed a week at the request of Samuel Figuerelli, attorney for Corsi. Corsi was fined $125 six months ago by Recorder Smith for failure to obtain a license for his pool room.

Twenty-two members of the Sunshine Chapter of the World Wide Guild of Grace Baptist Church, attended a meeting of that organization, held at the home of Mrs. Ernest D. Miller, 320 Greylock parkway, on Monday evening. Plans were discussed for the cafeteria supper to be held at the church on Saturday evening of next week, March 3. Mrs. William Gagg is general chairman of the supper.

Wesley M. E. Church Closes Celebration

Local Congregation Holds Final Services Marking Its 143rd Year

The Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church terminated Sunday a two weeks' celebration of its 143d anniversary. Speaking in the morning on "God's Open Doors," Rev. William B. Shoop declared service to God and humanity was the only road to success for nation, individual or church.

Anniversaries have value only as they affect the present and future, he said. God sets innumerable doors of opportunity, he declared, but not always in easy places. Time was, he said, when America seemed to be entering doors of service, but "now she appears to be following Bacchus." Miss Esther Forbes was soloist.

A feature was a processional of the choir and congregation led by the pastor, Rev. Edgar M. Compton, and Mr. Shoop. They marched to the altar and deposited in a large "birthday cake" cookie-shaped banks containing birthday offerings to the church.

Senior and junior choirs gave a program at night. Beatrice Bingham, soprano at North Orange Baptist Church, was soloist, accompanied at the organ by Ralph A. Peters, organist of Christ Episcopal Church, Short Hills. "Illusions and Realities" was the subject of a talk by Leonard R. Memmott of Cranford, formerly a leader in young people's activities at Wesley.

Mrs. Rosa T. Lehman, 83, a former officer of the Ladies' Aid Society, and Gladys Kurtz, 7, as the oldest and youngest present, lighted the candles on the birthday cake. The church was darkened while the congregation sang "Happy Birthday to Wesley." When the birthday cake was opened, contributions were found to total $439. An additional gift of $25 was received from J. Harry Boice's Sunday School class of boys. Almost 250 were present.

Next Sunday will be observed as a day of consecration.

How Workers in the C. W. A. Get First Aid Instruction

A TYPICAL corps of CWA first aid workers receiving instruction in various branches of the Red Cross standard first aid course, including the prone pressure method of resuscitation and the more advanced techniques of first aid work. One out of every fifty CWA workers in the state receive the training. Upon completion of the course, the men returned to their regular CWA jobs, equipped to handle accident cases that might arise in the ranks of their fellow workers. This picture shows one county corps getting some pointers on the art of applying splints and bandages from telephone company instructors who cooperated with CWA safety officials in all parts of the state.

Nutley Barber Gets
Thanks Of President
For Silken EagleErnesto Rapana Embroidered "Blue Eagle" As Roosevelt Tribute

The silk "Blue Eagle", embroidered
in his spare time by Ernest Rapana, a barber, of 86 Center street, and sent to President Roosevelt as a token of esteem, brought the local man a reply this week from the White House. The letter follows:

The President is in receipt of your letter of December 20 and thanks you most heartily for the embroidered Blue Eagle insignia of the NRA made by your own hands. He is pleased to accept this fine gift and is indeed grateful to you for this evidence of your interest in his recovery program.

Very sincerely yours,

M. A. Le Hand,

Private Secretary.

Rapana was one of the first business men in Nutley to sign the blanket code and has been an enthusiastic supporter of President Roosevelt since he took office. He has been a resident of the town for eleven years and has been in this country twenty-two years. The embroidery took the local barber over forty days to complete. He used 2,500 yards of embroidery silk in making it.

Garage Entered

The garage of John Swan, 124 Center street, was broken into and ransacked Sunday night, the owner told police Monday morning. Two pairs of driving glasses, a flashlight, two sweaters and a pair of sheepskin gloves were stolen.

BEGIN TRAINING FOR BEAUTY

The secret of this glorified beauty business is out! And it's simplicity it-

At least, that's what one gathers from the girls who make up the eye attraction of the musical comedy.
"Take a Chance." As the show began its long road tour with the attendant wrinkle making worries of rushing from theater to train and sketchy rest in sleeping cars, these girls developed a "beauty diet" to maintain the radiant vitality of health which the footlights demand. And topping the list of "beauty aids" is Hawaii's pineap-

YOUR CHILD

Are Children Pawns?

Because she had a perfect attendance record at school, Helen received a special gift at promotion time. The local newspaper ran her picture.

There were other honors. It was said around town that it
"puffed her up a bit."

At any rate, many a schoolmate resolved that next year, come what may, Helen would have serious competition. Medals, certificates, name and picture in the paper were "great stuff." Now Helen's mother was quite a normal person and mother, so she can't be blamed for a little neighborhood boasting, just enough to start every other mother in a "red hot" race with children as pawns.

It's a great American game, and how Americans like to win! No little obstacle as a cold, a sore throat, a toothache will turn them aside. It's win or bust. And whether that cold may lead to pneumonia or that sore throat is the first step in scarlet fever and other children may catch it, it matters not. Indeed, what price victory?

One wonders if the "Golden Rule" is completely forgotten. Let's give the child a better chance.

Dr. Ireland will say more about "perfect attendance" next week.

Wine Maxims For the Hostess

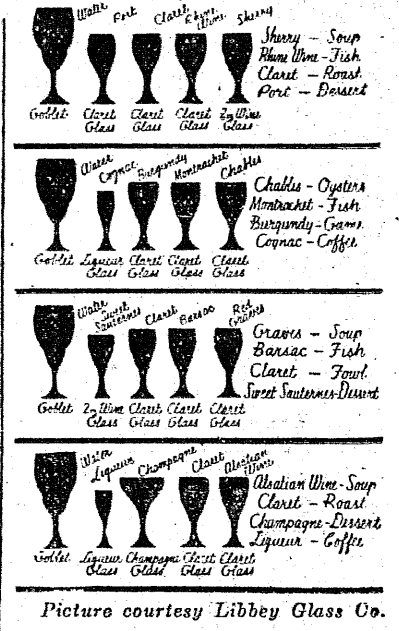

Do's and Don'ts About Wines

THERE are certain rules about the serving of wines that every hostess who wishes to be considered in the know must observe. Gone are the slipshod methods of the "speakeasy" era and in their place has come a whole new series of conventions. Everyone is going very "old world" about wines, and their service must be in the best tradition.

The hostess who wishes her friends to regard her as an authority on the subject can do no better than follow the commandments outlined in "Notes for an Epicure" just published. There are various do's and don'ts which are the basis of good service. Here they are:

Red wines: don't ice, don't heat,
don't serve in too small a glass, don't serve a red wine before a white wine. Do serve with roast, fowl or game, serve at room temperature, pour slowly and carefully from the bottle.

White wines: don't put ice in the glass, don't serve at room temperature, don't serve with meat, fowl or salad, don't serve a sweet wine before a dry one. Do serve chilled, do serve with soup or fish, do serve a dry wine before a sweet one.

Observance of these simple rules will cause friends to regard one as an oracle and as a hostess who knows what's what.

A Mid-Night Snacker

By Mabel Love

JOE COOK, star and producer of "Hold Your Horses", belongs to the ancient and honorable company of pantry raiders. That is to say, Joe likes to rummage through his pantry for something to eat just before going to bed. A glass of milk and a dish of corn flakes with milk or cream is one of his favorite mid-night "snacks".

And here's some more confidential information about Joe. He's crazy about Betty. Not that this means there's a romance in the offing since it's the good old-fashioned "Brown Betty" that the comedian cherishes so fondly. He likes it made with apples and all the "fixins'", only, he suggests to the cook that she substitute corn flakes for bread crumbs. "Seems to make the pudding lighter," Joe explains.

Here is Joe's recipe—

Brown Betty

2 cupsful corn flakes
2 cupsful chopped apples
1/2 teaspoonful cinnamon or grated rind of 1/2 lemon
1/2 cupful sugar
2 tablespoonful butter.
Mix with the chopped apples, pared and cored, the sugar and the cinnamon or grated lemon rind.
Butter a baking dish, put in a layer of the prepared fruit, then one cup of the corn flakes, and repeat until all the ingredients are used. Dot butter over the top layer of corn flakes. Cover and bake 45 minutes in a moderately hot oven—350 degrees. Serve with lemon sauce.

$7,000,000 In Contest Awards To Set New U. S. Record In 1934

Women Will Win Six Out of Ten Prizes, Average Shows

HOUSEWIVES, bank presidents, taxi drivers and farmers with ingenious turns of mind, along with a growing host of veterans who know the thrill that comes from winning real money, are in line this year for a record harvest in the prize contest field. Statistics based on publishers' figures indicate that before 1934 is ended, more than $7,000,000, most of it in cash and the remainder in goods, will reward entrants in national and sectional competitions.

This huge sum, comparable only to the amounts disbursed in the great foreign lotteries and sweepstakes, will set an all-time world mark. In 1900, total awards offered to puzzle solvers, essay writers and guessers of all types, amounted to about $10,000. Since then, the prize contest has grown until it has become one of the major "industries" of the United States.

Except for the large sums involved, there is little similarity, it is pointed out, between the lottery and the prize contest. The former is a pure gamble, while nearly always the purpose of the contest is to promote some cause or product. An example is the present national essay contest directed at the 10,000,000 American homes which are still without electricity, and therefore without modern radio.

The invention of the air cell battery now makes it possible for rural dwellers to have perfect radio reception. Hence, the National Carbon Company, under distinguished sponsorship, is acquainting rural residents with the fact, offering $6,750 in prizes in a contest ending on February 20. A trip to the nearest radio dealer for information, a piece of paper and a pencil, and the contestant is in line for awards ranging from $1,000 to $5.

Ten thousand people, it is estimated, are consistent winners, year after year, of contest prizes. Two and a half million other contestants in the United States are classified as "occasionalists." The contest has developed until there are contest magazines, clubs, and instruction books for contestants, and an All-American contest team is chosen each year.

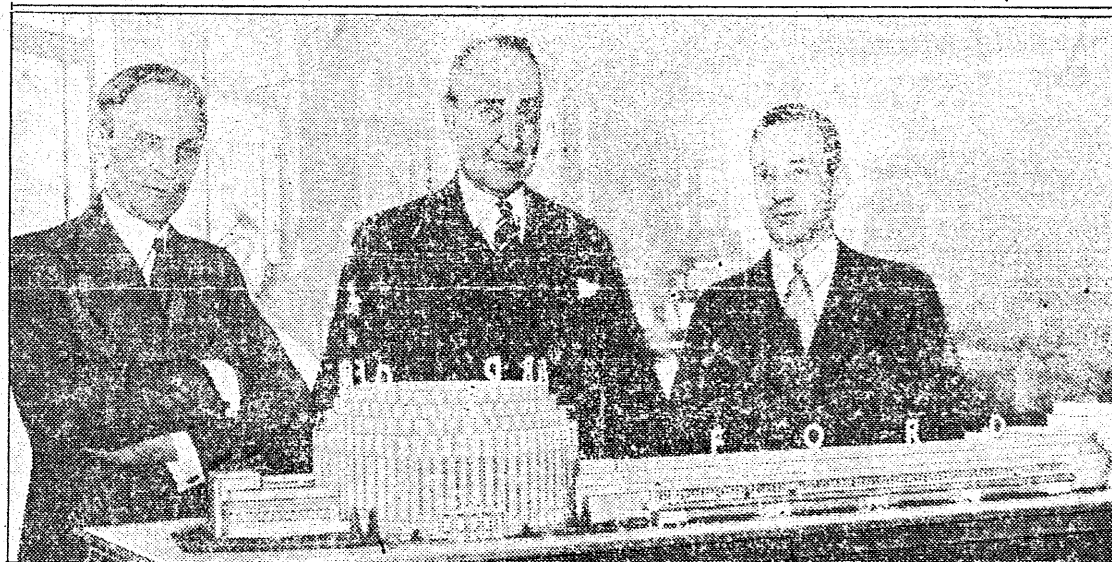

Prizes in this year's contests will range all the way from lump sums of money, goods, pets, vacation trips, and insurance policies to a year's groceries and clothing, and annuities—some of them for life. And if the past average holds good, women will win six out of every ten of these prizes.

"For Personal Consumption Only"

NEWS ITEM: When private investigators for National Apple Grading Inspectors Association recently conducted New Jersey State inspectors to bootleg stills where trucks were being loaded with contraband "applejack," the inspectors refused to raid those stills, which were capable of large production, because "These guys might be making this 'apple' for their own consumption and it's against the law to raid a private still!"

FORD TO BUILD HUGE EXPOSITION AT THE 1934 CHICAGO WORLD'S FAIR

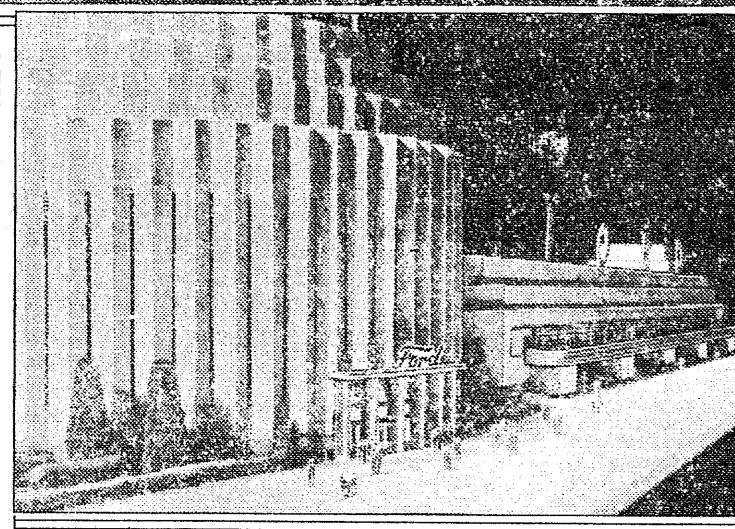

A GREAT Ford Exposition, portraying the tremendous part the arts, sciences and virtually every other industry plays in the manufacture of today's motor cars, is planned by the Ford Motor Company for the 1934 World's Fair.

The Ford Exposition will be housed in a giant building 350 feet long to be built in the heart of the fair grounds on an 11-acre plot bordering Lake Michigan and flanking the main fair boulevard. Construction of the building will start Mar. 1.

In the dominant central building will be housed Henry Ford's "Drama of Transportation," depicting the development of wheeled vehicles from the chariots of ancient Egyptian kings to modern motor cars. Every model of Ford car made since 1903 will be included.

In the smaller building to the left will be housed some of the priceless historic exhibits from the Edison Institute at Dearborn, Mich., including the one-story brick workshop, complete with the original tools, where Mr. Ford in 1893 built with his own hands his first motor car. This first car will be displayed inside the shop.

The main exposition building will

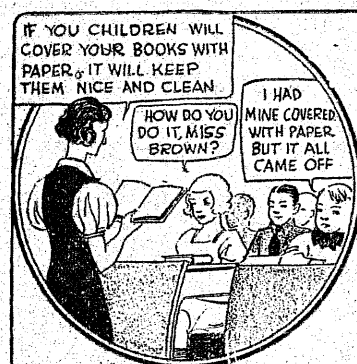

Henry Ford and Edsel B. Ford show to Rufus C. Dawes (center), president of the World's Fair, the scale model of the giant Ford Exposition building to be built at the 1934 Fair. (Lower) The Ford building as it will be seen from Leif Erikson drive. Opposite the building will be a huge park bordering Lake Michigan.

display an imposing array of exhibits, most of them in action, showing steel, aluminum and other metals, soy beans, corn, wool, cotton and other farm products and the products of myriad industries are converted into car parts. The building also will house displays of cars and a big movie theater. Along the east side will be an open-air balcony equipped with chairs and lounges where hundreds may relax.

Across the drive fronting the lake will be a big Ford Park, beautifully landscaped and also fitted with seats and other comforts for fair crowds.

Panhandlers Arraigned

Andrew Misefwetz, who told police he has no home, was sentenced to fifteen days in the Essex County Jail last Friday morning in police court after being found guilty of panhandling by Recorder Charles Young. He was arrested last Wednesday by Captain John Jameson and Patrolman Henry Hoch after Evelyn place residents had complained that he was begging from door to door.

Robert Dicks, colored, who lives on the Nutley dumps, was found guilty of the same offense and was given a suspended sentence and a reprimand by the court. He was arrested at Franklin avenue and Center street last Thursday by Patrolman William Johnson.

Food Market

THE first full week of Lent is brightened by the celebration of Washington's Birthday and incidentally of National Cherry Week as well. This makes a sour cherry pie the only logical dessert for the holiday dinner, though some sour cherry tapioca, cobbler, sherbet and mousse are also good desserts. Sour cherry preserves are a good accompaniment to meats or to poultry.

For the week-end dinner, baked ham, a chicken pot pie or fricassee with dumplings, or pot roast of beef would be a good choice. Other meat offerings which are good everyday fare include chopped beef, veal cutlets or chops, spare ribs, beef liver, pork chops, lamb stew, pork sausage and sliced ham.

Girl Scouts Gain 21,000 New Members

Increase In 1933 Adds 7 Percent To Membership; Total Near 317,000

An increase in membership of nearly 21,000 is the record of the Girl Scouts for 1933, according to a statement from national headquarters in New York City. This gain represents a 7 per cent increase, and brings the total number of active girls and leaders, as of December 31, 1933, to nearly 317,000.

Over seventy-five thousand Girl Scouts and staff members in camp during the past year established a new record for the national organization. This is an increase of 17,516 persons over the number in Girl Scouts camps during 1932.

"Health winners" again won first place in the number of proficiency badges awarded. Of the 182,781 badges awarded during 1933, 14,386 went to Girl Scouts who had learned how to keep physically fit. These girls have learned how to stand and sit properly, the value of fresh air, care of the eyes, the number of hours sleep required for girls of their ages, and other simple rules of health and cleanliness.

Scholarship proficiency badges were second on the list for 1933, with first aid third and housekeeping fourth. Scholarship badges, awarded to girls who have maintained a high standard of work in the general academic field, were won by 13,361 Girl Scouts. Requirements for the first aid badge, which went to 13,146 girls during the past year, include emergency treatment for simple cuts, burns, bites, sprains, etc. Girls who pass this test, according to the rules of the American Red Cross, must also know how to prevent further injury in cases of fracture and dislocation; make and pad a splint and improvise a stretcher and transport an injured person, taking all necessary precautions before and during transportation. They must also demonstrate their ability to use the Schafer prone pressure method of artificial respiration in treating cases of gas poisoning, electric shock and apparent drowning.

Only one bronze cross for "life saving at extraordinary risk of the Scout's own life" was awarded to a girl during 1933. Two silver crosses were awarded to Girl Scouts who saved lives at "extreme risk to their own safety," and twenty-eight Certificates of Honorable Mention went to girls who performed "outstanding feats of heroism." Golden Eaglets, highest proficiency award in Girl Scouting, were won by 528 outstanding girls during the year.

Faith And Courage First

In 1934 Girl Scout Credo

Faith and fearlessness are the two qualities which Miss Josephine Schain, national director of the Girl

Scouts, selects as prerequisites of the Girl Scout credo for 1934.

Miss Schain enunciated this credo in order to express a practical idea for girls in the changing world of today. She also expressed an ideal for Girl Scout leaders, to whom she suggests a broad tolerance of change and a forward looking mind, receptive of new ideas, as qualities most to be desired in the service of youth.

"We believe in the fearless girl," said Miss Schain, "the girl who, knowing herself and her circumstances, has faith in her own ability to make life a high adventure for herself and in the service of others."

"We believe in the cultured girl, not the girl with nice accomplishments, but the girl who uses her leisure to make existence richer and deeper; the girl to whom the arts are not something apart from daily living, and to whom daily living is itself one of the greatest arts."

"We believe in a leadership that is as willing to learn as to teach; that looks on the guidance of youth as a privilege for which one should prepare with an open mind, free from arrogance; and that uses this privilege to bridge the generations for the freer and richer development of both."

In summing up the credo of the Girl Scouts from the national standpoint Miss Schain concluded:

"We believe that such an organization as ours should help to supplement and co-ordinate the three main bulwarks of contemporary society—the church, the home and the school; and we believe that never in history was there more need for some agency to correlate the work of all three for the betterment of the girl."

Stella Akin Sees Girl Scouting

A Boon To Girl Who Seeks Career

A Girl Scout enthusiast is Miss Stell Akin, of Savannah, Ga., first Southern woman to serve as special assistant to the United States Attorney General. Miss Akin's interest in the programs begins at home, where three of her younger sisters are Girl Scouts and where she has served as an examiner for Girl Scout citizenship badges.

"I like Scouting because it gives girls such well rounded training,"

Miss Akins says. "The program is so varied in its appeal that every girl has an opportunity to experiment with the work which most interests her."

Although Miss Akin may owe her position to the New Deal, her own summing up of the qualifications for the distinction which has come to her are the same tried and true fundamental ones which other women who stand out from the crowd have found invaluable in their climb to success. Faith in your own ability, fastidiousness in personal appearance and habits, a sense of humor, and a sense of proportion are some of the suggestions which Miss Akin makes to girls who are ambitious to succeed.

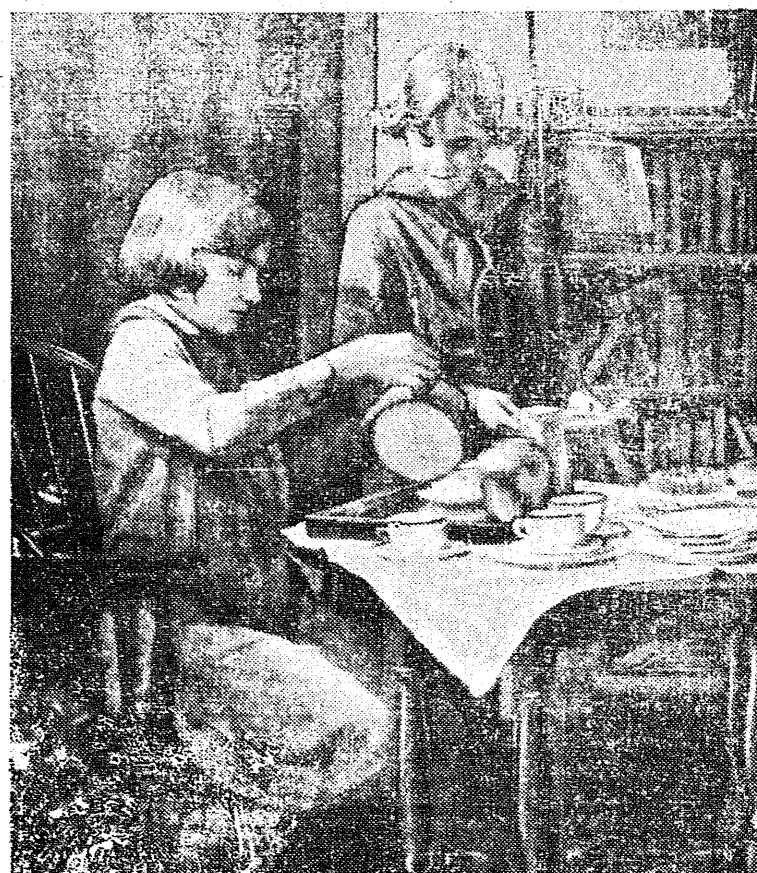

Girl Scouting, Miss Akin believes, is providing tomorrow's young women with a valuable background for success in life.

"This early training is an excellent test of the Girl Scout's own qualifications for a future vocation. Having given many examinations to Girl Scouts, and watched many others given, I know what it means when they win a proficiency badge. They have really learned how to care for a child, when they wear a child nurse badge, and the Girl Scout who has passed her life saving test knows how to think clearly and act quickly in an emergency. In addition to this practical value of the program, Girl Scouting is equipping the women of tomorrow for the new leisure."

Tea for Two

Playing hostess is a favorite Girl Scout pastime. Here are two adepts having a final rehearsal for a demonstration of their skill as home-makers, which every Girl Scout must be prepared to give during Better Homes Week, April 23-29.

Hikers' Delight

(Photograph, Ruth Alexander Nichols)

"Munch while you march," and you'll never notice the miles go by on that winter hike. That's the belief of these Girl Scouts, who are turning popcorn into balls for the whole troop.

Cook

1.—Make a cooking place in a suitable spot out of doors with a few stones, or logs or bricks; make a fire with local fuel available, or build and regulate a fire in a coal or wood stove, or light a gas stove and show how to regulate the heat of the burner, the oven and the broiler.

2.—Prepare four dishes chosen by the examiner from the following list: (Note: When practical, the girl may prepare and serve the dishes as a meal for four persons, showing her knowledge of quantity required, handling of materials, and disposal of waste. Where alternatives are given, the examiner should find out from the girl which she is prepared to do.) Broiled bacon; cooked cereal, cooked with dried fruit such as raisins, apricots, or served with dried fruits cooked separately; cocoa, tea, or coffee; corn bread or bread twists, (baked on a stick) or biscuits or rolls; two vegetables, preferably one leafy; a meat dish or a meat substi-

Outstanding Cyclists In Six Day Meet

Sixteen American Riders And Fourteen Foreign Start Sunday

Fifteen international teams made up of the outstanding bicycle riders in the world will compete in New York's fifty-sixth international six-day bicycle race which starts in Madison Square Garden at 9 o'clock Sunday night. Al Johnson, popular stage and screen star, will fire the starting gun sending the riders on their way. Johnson will be accompanied to the Garden by his pretty wife Ruby Seeler.

The field of stars in the race is made up of sixteen American riders and fourteen foreign stars. There will be four Germans, three Italians, three Canadians, two Frenchmen and one rider each from Belgium and Switzerland. John M. Chapman, manager of the race, has not missed an outstanding American or foreign rider in his line-up and the competition promises to be the greatest witnessed in more than ten years at the Garden.

Reggie McNamara, the "Iron Man" and looked upon as the greatest six-day rider that ever lived, will compete in the coming race and it will be his one hundredth six-day race, a record never equaled by any six-day rider in the world. The teams in the race are so evenly matched that it is impossible to pick out a favorite pair.

Alfred Letourner of France, winner of the last race, will be paired with Norman Hill, American star. This makes up an excellent team. William "Torchy" Peden who was also a member of the winning team will be paired with Franco Georgetti in the coming race. The other teams in the race all with an excellent chance in the grind are: Gerard Debaets and Bobby Thomas, Ewald Wissel and Adolf Schon, Marcel Guimbertiere and Paul Brocard, Tino Reboli and Edoardo Severgnini, Jules Audy and Fred Ottevaere, Franz Deulberg and Franz Lehmann, Louis Cohen and Bob Silver, Paul Croley and Henry "Cocky" O'Brien, Tony Schaller and Fred Spencer, Reggie McNamara and Dave Lands, Jimmy Walthour and Charley Winter, Charley Ritter and Bill Grimm, Fred Zach and Laurent Gadou.

The night life of the New York six-day race is one of its big features and the stars of the stage and screen are nightly visitors to the grind. The prices of admission when the race starts Sunday night will be from fifty cents to two dollars, of course plus the tax.

Belleville Nips Lyndhurst Five

The Belleville High School tossers defeated the representatives of Lyndhurst Friday here by the score of 25 to 14. The Bell-boys experienced little difficulty in subduing the visitors.

Bill Shanahan tallied three field goals and seven shots to emerge with the high scoring honors. Jim Kraft and Geary tossed in two two-pointers apiece accounting for the four double deckers scored by the losers. In the last period, the game became very rough and Jim Kraft and Ned Dunn exchanged blows in the middle of the court. However both boys shook hands and were allowed to continue to play. The line-up:

Observing Belleville's Basketeers

By ARTHUR BLOEMEKE

BELL-BOYS' STAGE

ROUSING FINISH TO

MEDIOCRE SEASON

Four victories in a row was the Belleville High basketball record Tuesday afternoon, after Bloomfield had been taken into camp by 30-24 figures. And the eighth win in sixteen starts for a 50-50 split with four games left to play. Certainly a much more encouraging record than was theirs midway in the season when everybody and his brother were taking socks at the hapless Blue and Gold-clad youngsters.

Perhaps the outstanding feature of the recent triumphs can be found through a careful scrutiny of the little section of the box score known as "Score by Periods." That will show a wealth of second-half Belleville scoring, that has enabled them to come from behind to "dump" their opponents. Against Central High of Newark, last week, the Bell-boys rang the scoring tocsin no less than 23 times in the final half to turn a 13-11 first half deficit into a rousing 30-29 win. Second half spurts also figured largely in the 25-14 victory over Lyndhurst, Friday night, and especially in that Bloomfield affair of Tuesday of this week. Trailing 14-19 at the close of the opening session, the Belleville squad came back after the intermission and proceeded to undermine the Bloomfieldites, 16-5 in the final stanza.

The individual performances that have stood out in this surprising form reversal were those of Joe Shanahan, young Frank Carragher, and Ed Sadlock, with Smith coming through with the most consistent guarding displays. Carragher topped the scorers against Central with eleven markers. Shanahan was responsible for over half the Belleville point total with his thirteen scores against Lyndhurst (seven of them on successful free throws). Sadlock reserved his scoring show for Bloomfield, Tuesday, finding the net for seven field goals for a fourteen point aggregate. The Bloomfield game, which by the way was as rough and tumble an affair as the Bell-boys have had all season, officially closed the home campaign for Belleville. The local lads will confine their activities now for what little's left of the season to foreign courts. Garfield at Garfield is on tap for tonight, while a trip will be made to Irvington Wednesday night of next week to meet the Camptown-ers in a return clash (minus Big Bad Wolf Choborda).

Y.M.H.A. QUINTET TO APPEAR HERE TOMORROW NIGHT

Manager Frank Kenny of the Belleville club in the Essex County Basketball League has filled in the open date on his league schedule of tomorrow night by booking the strong Y.M.H.A. quintet. In picking the Hebrews for this independent game the Bell-boys are certainly taking on a man's size job as they're good, plenty good. The visiting team that will oppose the regular local squad will include Taback, Zelnaker, Schuckman, Josloff, Cohen and Kampf. A week from tomorrow night the locals will resume their torrid series with Bloomfield, meeting the runners-up in the first half in a regular league game.

The fine turn-out to the game against Overbrook Saturday night, which Belleville won, 35-29, was certainly encouraging to the team. The local lads pleased the large crowd with one of their typical second half spurts, after trailing by a big 14-22 margin at the end of the first half. The powerful local lads stepped up the steam in the third quarter and cinched the game then and there by accomplishing the almost unheard-of feat of outscoring the visitors, 12-1, holding them without a field goal. Manager Kenny had no less than ten men in uniform and managed to get nine in the game. Tommie O'Beirne, playing for the first time in several weeks, topped the scorers with his fourteen point contribution, playing a fine game all the way through. The steady Rock of Gibraltar, Johnnie Gunzelman, at center, came next with his nine markers. Hap Ford and "Butch" Scinski did best for Overbrook.

CRESCENTS NOSED OUT BY MAPLEWOOD

The Belleville Crescents, sponsored by "Mac" Lamb, were nipped at the finish by the Maplewood A. A., 24-23, last week at the local high school gym. Howie Secor and Schiller, both players in the local Recreation Major Basketball League, were the particular thorns in the sides of the Crescents, accounting for nineteen of the visitors' twenty-four markers. The only consolation Lamb's team could gain was the fact that they outscored Maplewood, 10-9, in the matter of field goals.

In an effort to get back on the win track, Lamb has instilled new blood in the lineup. Nick Bonavita, Carl Wittish and Ed Mutch, all former Belleville High court luminaries have been signed up. The Westfield "Y" team, entrants in the State "Y" league, and including in their lineup 1 Herb Sopher, a local man, has been booked tentatively for next Thursday night. The meager attendance at the last few Crescent games prompts Lamb to renew his plea of more support from the fans or else a discontinuance of the games. This certainly needs no elaboration. "No tickie, no shirtee," as some slant-eyed sons of China are wont to remark.

W. H. WILLIAMS QUINTET GOES TO TOP IN MAJOR BASKETBALL LEAGUE

A surprise 41-38 defeat of the Belleville Rosery by Frank's Diner, Monday night, at the Recreation Center, pushed the W. H. Williams Association into undisputed possession of first place in the Recreation Commission's Major Basketball League. The Rosery and the Williams team meet in the final game of next Monday night's program with a triple tie for first place possible in the event of a Rosery win.

The Williamsmen had their hands full with Al Culkun and his hard-fighting Falcons, a strong spurt in the final few minutes cinching the game for them, 29-24. Culkun's thirteen points for the Falcons were matched by Mike Hanley's twelve for the Williams club. Both men played whirlwind games in leading their respective teams. Johnnie Schwab and Charlie Christell were the co-workers in accomplishing the downfall of the Rosery (for the second time this season). Schwab scored ten points and Christell eight in the final half, as the Diner came from behind to win. "Mac" Lamb and Carl Wittish split up twenty-five of the Rosery's point total. The final game of the evening saw the Progress Club nose out the Unions, 35-32, in a battle for last place. Al Culkun and Yudin played best for the winners, while Joe Costa tallied thirteen times for the Unions.

A. A. RUBIN ASSOCIATION CINCHES FIRST HALF CHAMPIONSHIP

The A. A. Rubin Association court quintet defeated the Belleville Rosery Juniors, 27-19, last week, to cinch the first half championship of the Recreation Commission's Community Basketball League at the "Rec" Center. Gene Dacey for the Rubins and Clarken for the Florists were outstanding players. The second place W. H. Williams Juniors got back in the win column, as they swamped St. Anthony's, 30-11, in the second game of the evening. Love and Manning led the Trojans to a 23-12 win over the Stuywards, and the T. D'Avella Association whipped the Fawcett team, 29-15, in other games.

While the Eagles were pulling down the Panthers to a second place tie with them, the league-leading Middletown Juniors, in the local Minor Basketball League continued their undefeated pace with a 21-10 win over the Falcons, last week. The Christian brothers starred for the Middletowns in this one. McFadden's six points showed the way in the 24-11 win of the Eagles over the Panthers. Orsulak, McNally and Jinks all had a big hand in the 23-2 win posted by the Bell-boys over the Royals.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL GOING OVER BIG AT RECREATION CENTER

Perhaps one of the main reasons for the extra-large crowd that packed the Recreation Center, Saturday night to see the Essex County League game was the staging of a girl's game. This will be a regular weekly feature in the future. The Belleville Vim Girls, who dropped a 13-8 decision to the more experienced Irish Ramblers of Newark in their debut last week, will form the regular girls' team on future Saturdays. The Kearny Kapettes have been booked as the attraction for tomorrow night. The play of Jennie Bozjak at center for the local girls was a feature against the Irish Ramblers.

What Has Happened In Manufacturers Loop

Tie Now Exists Between Three Bowling Outfits

Starting off the night of October 6 with eight teams, we find Sonneborn, Wallace & Tiernan, Martin Dennis, and Hanlon & Goodman all tied for the lead by virtue of capturing all three games from their opponents.

On October 13, National Grain and Yeast Co. and the Eastwood-Nealey Corporation joined us, making it a ten team league. Sonneborn and Martin Dennis cleaned up, which thereby left only these two tied for first place, with National Grain in third and Mono Service, Wallace and Tiernan, National Box and Hanlon and Goodman tied for fourth.

On the night of October 20, Sonneborn met their first defeat at the hands of Wallace and Tiernan, but Martin Dennis dropped two to Hanlon and Goodman, thereby leaving first place entirely to Sonneborn. They held on to first place, never once relinquishing it, although Wallace and Tiernan with their steady pushing came within one game of tying them on the night of December 22. But the strain was too much, for they were defeated two out of three games the last three sets, Friday night's defeat at the hands of last year's champs, moving them into second place, National Grain taking the lead by a slight margin by virtue of taking three from Mono Service.

For several years Sonneborn finished near the bottom, but gradually fought their way up, until they finished second last year, with only Wallace & Tiernan ahead of them. They are fighting hard to win this year. However, National Grain has three games to catch up, and must win them to hold a one-game lead, but it hardly seems possible that they can take all three from Hanlon and Goodman, whom they must roll at the end of the season.

Wallace and Tiernan, who finally reached second place on the night of December 1, being four games in the rear of Sonneborn, slowly but surely overcame them on December 22, also hit their Waterloo and dropped them in fourth place, seven games behind the leader, but they are again knocking at the door, being in third place, only three games behind the leader.

Martin Dennis can be considered tied with Wallace and Tiernan, inasmuch as their three unplayed games are with Eastwood-Nealey, and should be won by them.

Hanlon and Goodman are the only other possible contender for first place, being only four games behind. They have a strong team and right now are bowling exceptionally well. Mono Service, who were in the running earlier in the season, gradually slipped, until now they will have to fight to keep at the head of the second column teams. They have the makings of a good team, if the boys would only show up consistently.

Next we find National Box and Lumber, who seem to be content with seventh place. They also have some good men, and when they work together, look out for big scores. They may yet overtake Mono Service. Then we have Eastwood-Nealey. Their captain went out of the way by entering a team this year, but if their good men ever decide to come out, look out for them. They, too, are trying to gain a position and might even finish at the head of the string.

Now we come to the real sports of the League, the fellows who, although at the bottom, keep fighting, and the only satisfaction they get, is to slip over a surprise to one of these leading teams that consider them Soup. They are Sacks-Barlow Iron Foundry from down neck, and the Northern New Jersey Oil Company from alongside the good old Passaic. Sacks-Barlow has the edge, but if they don't watch out, they will yet take the cellar position from the Oil men. Either team is dangerous, if they bring out their five best men.

Choose The Winner

Obviously, none of the five leaders are expected to lose a single game to any of the five tail-enders, if they hope to finish on top. Therefore, the fight will be between the leaders themselves. Now let's go over the schedule and see who on paper should come out on top. Sonneborn's chances are best, since they have a two game lead over their nearest rivals, and have only two matches left with the big shots, the other five being with the little fellows. Wallace and Tiernan and Martin Dennis also have only two important matches left but either one will find it hard to pick up the extra two games they need. Hanlon and Goodman meets three big ones and this will not help them any. National Grain and Yeast must meet the leading teams in five matches, and it is hardly possible for them to go through these without getting their bumps. We therefore, pick the winners as follows: Sonneborn, first; Wallace and Tiernan, second; Martin Dennis, third; National Grain, fourth; and Hanlon and Goodman, fifth.

High team average is held by National Grain and Yeast with 879.45 for 57 games.

High team score is held by Wallace and Tiernan with 1044.

High individual average is held by Malizia of National Grain and

OLDHAMS CLING TO ONE GAME LEAD IN AMERICAN LEGION LOOP

The Oldham Association took two of three from the strong Knights of Columbus, Monday night, at Ferrara's to maintain their one-game hold on first place in the local American Legion Bowling League. The best the second place El Club could get from the W. H. Williams Association was a two-out-of-three victory to continue to trail the pace-setters. Mike DeCarlo's Moose, with an easy three-game triumph over the Woodhouse Association moved into a third place tie with the Caseys, while the Democrats took the odd game from the NRA club to remain in fifth position.

The Waters Association got back in their high-scoring form against the Belleville B. C. taking three in a row, while bowling scores of 988, 1077 and 996. Their 1077 in the second game created a new high team score in league competition. The one remaining match of the evening saw the Mayer Association Yeast with an average of 201.14 for 36 games.

Teddy Skidmore is second with an average of 191.8 for 45 games. In addition to having to bowl two-thirds of the games to be eligible for high average award, the award winner must also bowl the last 15 games of the season.

Malizia and Dunn of Hanlon and Goodman hold high individual score with a 268.

High individual awards cannot be won by anyone not rolling at least two-thirds of the games. However, it is not necessary to roll the last fifteen.

Above includes all bowlers who have participated in ten or more games.

Note: Awards are usually given to the two men holding the highest average for the season and to the two men holding the highest individual scores, no two awards going to any one man. The rules, however, are that you must bowl in two-thirds of the games to be eligible for an award, and further, that the high average winner must bowl the last fifteen games scheduled.
