Purely Personal

By LILLIAN THOMAS

I AM A NAVY WIFE

I am a Navy wife—just one of the many thousands whose lot it is to keep the home fires burning while our husbands see the world through a port hole. I am the woman who keeps a light in the window to guide the wandering sailor home. I am the woman who loses her man to "Some Other Girl In Some Other Port." I am the woman whose husband goes down to the sea in ships.

My reputation was molded the day
I married a sailor.

"'Twill come to little good," they said. "Imagine yourself sitting home alone, day after day, night after night, while your husband goes gala-vanting around with someone in Frisco, Shanghai, Panama, Hawaii and Samoa!"

But I am a Navy wife—just one of the many thousands who has learned to formulate a proper state of mind in keeping with all the known circumstances; and who is determined to stick through thick and thin; win, lose or draw, to the finish, whether it be bitter or sweet.

The penalty of a Navy wife's love is loneliness. The penalty of a Navy wife's love is to play second fiddle.
The penalty of a Navy wife's love is a restless uncertainty, which must be camouflaged by a surface gaiety. But we are contented, we women whose husbands man the United States fleet; we women who must listen to the nomadic adventures, experiences and loves of the men to whom we are legally bound.

Tonight, my husband is sporting in Shanghai, in one of the three night life centers of that China port, where there is a predominance of Russian beauties, with charming figures and exotic eyes. He's holding rendezvous with the dancing girls who are hired to quench the nocturnal appetites of lonely soldiers and sailors. A few months hence, or perhaps a year from now, he will return to me and acquaint me with life in China. He will tell me how the dancing girls become mistresses or kept women, how they change their lovers as regularly as the seasons, how the port of Shanghai gets them and holds them in its glittering tentacles, how the dope barons keep the poor Shanghai Lils broke and under their power;
how the girls fade away, disappear,
die—with nobody knowing, and nobody seeming to care what happens to them.

To such tales we Navy wives must listen, and sometimes our throats become as taut as a drum head, for we KNOW, we RECOGNIZE that the man
we love has learned a lot about love from a Russian girl, a Japanese, a Chinese.

But I am a Navy wife—just one of the many thousands whose lot it is to keep the home fires burning, while
our husbands see the world through a port hole. Just one of the many thousands trying to bribe the fellow who threatens to write an answer to this question: "WHO ENTERTAINS
THE SAILOR'S WIFE WHILE THE SAILOR SAILS THE SEAS?"

Factfully Yours

— LILLIAN THOMAS —

I REMEMBER when Texas Guin-an, in an interview, stated that she wanted her funeral to be the speediest ever given. A cop on a motorcycle was to lead it. Jazz syncopators were to render torrid tunes. College songs were to be sung boisterously as the coffin was lowered into the grave. And the wake was to be held at her night club.... How Flor-enz Ziegfeld liked to munch sweets —generally carrying a small box of candies in his pocket.... When Sime Silverman, editor and publisher of VARIETY, would cut up paper into small bits when exercising his mind
.... The funny telegram Ring Lardner sent when he was unable to attend a dinner. It read: "Sorry, cannot be with you tonight, but it's the children's night out and I must stay home with the maid.".... When David Belasco would dig down into his pocket, and reward with a nickel or a dime any person with whom he was greatly pleased. I've still got the dime he gave me.... When Jean Malin returned from Boston with a yarn that set a Broadway columnist
on his ear.... What Lya de Putti said three weeks before her death,
when a cigarette burn blood-poisoned
her hand. "I'll be thankful," she said,
"if this is all."

IT'S A FACT that Jim Tully would like to conduct a society column for a newspaper.... George Gershwin has a secret passion to be an actor....
Eddie Cantor would like to be a strong man and the father of a boy
.... The dream of Paul Whiteman's life is to retire and spend the rest of his days on a ranch.... Helen Morgan's life ambition is to play Cannille.... Beatrice Lillie's secret desire is to be able to speak with a Jewish accent.... Leslie Howard's ambition is to be an author.... IN-CIDENTALLY, Roxy's favorite food is hamburger steak with onions. His favorite delicacy is hot dogs....
Custard is Paul Whiteman's favorite dessert. His choice dishes are chicken and cream, hot cakes and strawberry short-cake. He can't eat unless somebody is sitting at the table with him.... Eddie Cantor is fuses and takes an interest in vitamins.

Girl Scouts May Now Become Navigators

Ruling Allows "Mariners" To Form "Ships" With "Skipper" In Charge

Girl Scouts of fifteen years of age and over, who are interested in seamanship and navigation, may organize mariner groups, according to a new ruling of the national organization. In formulating the program which has just been approved by the executive committee of the national board, the Girl Scout mariner committee made an extensive study of Sea Scouting. This committee had the advice of Dr. William G. Vinal, professor of nature study at Western Reserve University in Cleveland, and Commander Thomas J. Keene of the Boy Sea Scouts of America.

Mrs. Walter N. Rothschild of New York City, chairman of the national Girl Scout camp advisory committee, and the members of the mariner committee who served with her, based the adopted program upon the reports of some ten or twelve groups of Girl Scouts who have been experimenting with Sea Scouting for the past two years. The members of this committee included Mrs. Vaughan Ferguson of Schenectady, N. Y.; Mrs. Marion I. Field of West Haven, Conn.; Miss Katherine Hammett of Providence, R. I.; Mrs. Carlton J. H. Hayes of New York City; Miss Jean McKenzie of Montclair, N. J.; Miss Lucille Rodgers of South Dennis, Mass.; and Miss Olive McCormick, health, waterfront and safety advisor on the national Girl Scout staff.

The program is intended only for eligible Girl Scouts who are accessible to a body of water large enough to make navigation possible. It is not, at the present time, intended for use in inland communities.

One of the prerequisites for starting a Girl Scout Mariner group is a special adult sponsoring committee including two or three men or women who are connected with yachting or with merchant marine interest in the community. This group will be called a "Pilot Committee." The leader in charge of the Girl Scout Mariners will be called the "Skipper" and the group itself will be known as the "Ship."

The ratings for progress in the technique of Sea Scouting are "Midshipmate" for the apprentice; "Jack Tar," "Seaman" and "Old Salt," or master-mariner.

The "Skipper" must meet the age and other requirements of a Girl Scout captain. This means that she must be at least twenty-one years old and be of good standing in her community. Mariner physical examination certificates will be required of the "Skipper" and of Girl Scout members of the "Ship." The girls must have the written permission of either parents or guardians on each cruise.

Officers' Association Will Be Guests Of Council March 22

The Girl Scout Council held its annual meeting at the Recreation House last Wednesday afternoon. Reports of the secretary, treasurer and local director were presented. Two new officers were elected, Mrs. Harvey Thompson to succeed Mrs. William Adams as commissioner and Mrs. William Engelmann to succeed Mrs. Charles Kelly, as deputy commissioner. The secretary, Mrs. Frank Ackerman, and the treasurer, Mrs. William Cornish, were re-elected.

Mrs. William Adams has served the council as its chief officer for over three years. Mrs. Thompson has served on many committees and was its secretary for three years. Mrs. Engelmann is one of the two remaining charter members, and served as treasurer for several years.

The council will entertain the officers' association at the Women's Club house on Thursday evening, March 22.

315,904 Girl Scouts

The annual report of the National Girl Scout Council shows there are now over 315,904 Girl Scouts enrolled. These are counting only those girls who have paid their dues, if all those now enjoying the Girl Scout program were recorded it would probably reach way beyond the half million names. The Troops now number 19,964. The camping season for 1933 brought an unprecedented number of girls to Girl Scout Camps—over 75,000. The number of camps rose to 695. This does not include many individual camps, small weekend camps, etc. Belleville alone, besides sending some of their daughters to the regular established camps provided a week or longer bit of camping to 65 Girl Scouts who were enrolled with other girls at the local "Camp Carragher."

D'Avella Rally

A rally will be held Wednesday evening at 9:30 o'clock in the Valley section for Thomas C. D'Avella, candidate for Commissioner. The affair will be held at The Little Tavern, Ralph and Little streets.

carrying on Girl Scouting at the end of 1933 than had done so at the end of 1932.

Gains 2,853 Members

An increase of 2,853 new members during January of this year has just been announced at Girl Scout headquarters in New York City. The total membership of the national organization at the end of that month was 318,757. Registrations for February, usually at low ebb, give every indication of showing a further increase.

No wonder this Girl Scout clutches her new Handbook so tightly. It tells her everything she should know from the secret of charm to the recipe for being a good citizen.

of 45 degrees, and the footing for the wall carried down to a depth of about 15 inches below the low water level. The rip rap has been carried to an elevation approximately 2½ feet above the normal water level at the lower section near the copper mill dam. This section is about 350 feet in length. At the upper section, that is, near the drainage siphon across the 51 inch Supplementary Union Outlet Sewer, the rip rap was carried to an elevation 3½ feet above high water level," says Mr. Potter, adding:

"Inasmuch as only 30 per cent of quantities originally requested were granted by the CWA it was necessary to take unusual precautions in the handling and placing of this material in order to cover as much ground as possible with the limited quantity. It was found that by placing all the trap stone by hand it was possible to cover 2 linear feet of river bank with approximately 1 cubic yard of material. There are still 40 cubic yards of stone available, which will be placed along the most eroded sections of the river bank above the drainage siphon before mentioned.

"Mr. Edward Decher, assistant secretary, advises that an application for an additional 150 cubic yards of stone for this work has again been filed with the CWA. Should this material be granted, the rip rap will be carried up flush with the finished ground surface and also extended in length towards the copper fill dam and further upstream from the drainage siphon."

Feature "Rec" Show

Boxing And Wrestling

Show Planned For

March 22

The combination of youthful Belleville High School athletes and Webster A. A. proteges of Vic DiFilippo made the Recreation Commission's first boxing and wrestling show of the current season an outstanding success Thursday night at the Recreation Center. Over 200 fans jammed the building to witness the well balanced program of four boxing bouts and as many wrestling matches.

The final feature bout of the evening resulted in a fairly decisive victory for Jim "Lefty" Fleming, 127, of Belleville over Tom Farro, a 130 pound Newarker. Fleming was clearly the more finished boxer and the harder, cleaner puncher, winning all three rounds. He had his man groggy in the final round, sending him down for a nine count midway in the round.

Perhaps the most surprising and outstanding event of the whole evening was the finished performance turned in by a local high school lad, Sol Slade. Slade, who weighed in at 162, was the very image of lithe, skillful youth as he polished off his opponent, Don Gerald, 158, also of Belleville in the first round. The dusky local youth's long left was his most effective weapon as he was awarded a technical knockout after two minutes thirty seconds of fighting in the first round.

Other high school influence was found in the wrestling matches. Versatile Oscar "Spooks" May, 180, and Carl Hummel, 185, both Bell-boy football players and both proteges of Coach "Red" Buchanan of the local eleven, had it out in one wrestling match. After ten minutes of puffing neither could register a fall, the match ending in a draw. Hummel though, who towered several inches over his opponent, had May in a bad way several times, but the strong colored led managed to wriggle out on every occasion.

Jerry Longo, another high school griddler, threw Robert Killeen, 164, of Belleville, in 7 minutes 15 seconds with a body slam. Long tipped the beam at 170. The match was fairly even up to the time of the fall.

In a lightweight wrestling match, Andy Colaninno, wiry Belleville youth, threw John Markese of Newark in two minutes, forty seconds for the quickest finish of the evening. Colaninno worked carefully and methodically before applying the head lock that spelled victory for him. Colaninno's weight was announced as 137, while Markese topped him by five pounds.

The remaining wrestling set-to was between a pair of Newark sixteen-year-olds. Carlos Mingreila tossed Frank Mariano in exactly five minutes, after some rough-and-tumble battling of the first water.

The opening boxing bout of the evening saw Lou Mazzuca, 149, nose out Mike Tenore, 151, in a close three-rounder. Mazzuca piled up his margin in the second round dealing out plenty of punishment with some hard rights and a long left that always seemed to find its mark. Both boys represented the Webster A. A. of Newark and were proteges of DiFilippo.

Al Russo, 140, defeated Al Figuerelli, 143, in another boxing match. Figuerelli started strongly taking the first round on points. Russo very cleverly changed his style at the start of the second round, however, switching to a southpaw stance, and with the change seemed to have no difficulty with his opponent, winning the final two rounds about as he pleased. These boys were also from the Webster A. A.

Willie Skidmore, State amateur champion, and Ernie Gardi, county champ in the novice class, were introduced from the ring side by Announcer Alex "Bun" Derbyshire, as were Don Petrin, Al and Max Fisher, well known professional boxers. Skidmore and Gardi both got their starts in these Recreation bouts.

Eddie Williams, Vic DiFilippo and Pal Donohue refereed the boxing matches. Recreation Director Robert A. Nebrig and Hugh Roberts handled the wrestling matches. Ed King acted as timekeeper.

Matchmaker Frank Soldo announced that the next bouts will be conducted at the Recreation Center, Thursday night, March 22 and every two weeks thereafter. By the 22nd Soldo expects to have many more local and out-of-town boxers and wrestlers lined up with probably six boxing bouts and four wrestling matches on the program.

Inter-Towns Reorganize

The Inter-Town Association reorganized recently, having been incorporated since March, 1920.

The next meeting will be held Monday night at 8 o'clock. Meetings will be held on the first and third Mondays, of each month.

The officers who were elected are: William Johnson, president; W. M. Johnson, vice president; William Johnson, secretary; and Jerry Johnson, treasurer.

BELLEVILLE COUNTY LEAGUERS STRENGTHEN HOLD ON SECOND POSITION AS THEY PREPARE FOR BLOOMFIELD.

Belleville's Essex County Leaguers showed lots of power in taking a pair of games over the week-end and strengthening their hold on second place in the second half race. The first half "chambers" were without the services of three of their aces, Tommie O'Beirne, "Jitty" Wisniewsky, and Vic DiFilippo, not to mention the injured Bill Levine, but that didn't faze them in the least. They bettered the sixty point mark in trimming Glen Ridge at Glen Ridge, Friday, and when Montclair came to town Saturday, handed them a 48-32 lacing.

All of this was in the nature of "prepping" for the all-important clash with Bloomfield's league-leaders, tomorrow night, at the local Recreation Center court. Belleville's strongest line-up will be out to hand the visitors an old-fashioned spanking in retaliation for the defeat at Bloomfield several weeks ago. There are some followers biased enough to claim that Manager Kenny's quintet isn't exactly "breaking their collective necks" to win the second half, as they did the first. This with an eye to the box-office returns of a play-off. That is just so much fol-de-rol, so much rubbish. Just take a jaunt down to the Washington avenue court, tomorrow, and watch the earnestness and aplomb with which Belleville's warriors will attempt to massacre the strong Lyceum club.

As the "lesser lights" had their chances to shine brightly in the Glen Ridge and Montclair games, an idea was given of the worlds of power packed in that Belleville squad. With four of their regular starters missing, they managed to stage unerring attacks that accounted for lopsided victories. That great little sharp-shooter, Al Cuklin, collected something in the neighborhood of sixteen points at the Ridgers' court, Friday, and added six more in a brief stretch at Belleville, Saturday. The Saturday night scoring honours went to another youngster, Hen Bohrer, who swished the net for seventeen markers. Johnnie Gunzelman, unquestionably the key-man of the local squad, found time to tally close to twenty points in the two games, as did Jake Huhn, flashy forward.

All in all, it was a pair of great Roman scoring holidays, made more significant with the proximity of the Bloomfield game tomorrow. Dick Lynch's club will come to town with its powerful squad of Harry Miller, Frank Schummel, Lou Biabak, Lute Shave, Bill Ungemah, Ray Wiley, Joe Drudy, Eddie Berlinski, and Paul Dumnigan intact.

In recognition of the fact that the game will be played St. Patrick's day night, a regular Irish night will be conducted. Both teams lean towards the Irish effect with their green uniforms, with a goodly share of Old Erin stock in the two line-ups. Even the girls' preliminary game will be that way, with Bill Levine's Irish Ramblers meeting a suitable opponent. The orchestra will include a couple of Irish jigs in their repertoire. Last week's girls' game, by the way, resulted in a 20-17 win for the visiting Baracas girls of Irvington over the Belleville squad. Jennie Bozaki, local center, collected twelve points, but the rest of her team could not approach her record. Scarcity of talent forced the girls to play a four-against-four game, instead of the regulation five on a side.

"MAC" LAMB'S CRESCENTS VICTIMIZED BY TEMPERAMENTAL NEWARK POLISH FALCONS.

"Mac" Lamb has been confronting all sorts of difficult obstacles placed in his path this season since he started his Belleville Crescents basketball and dance project at the high school gym. The crowning one of them all occurred last week, however, as the Polish Falcons, usually the best of "sports," "did him dirt" and walked off the court in the first quarter of their regularly scheduled game before an astonished and disappointed crowd.

Everything was coming along in fine style, when the "blow-off" occurred. The Crescents, playing probably their best ball of the season, were deservedly leading the Falcons, 8-6, mid-way in the first quarter, and seemed as if they might be headed for their second successive victory over the strong Polish club. Then the Falcons went hay-wire. The climax occurred when "Red" Okrasinski, captain of the visitors, shoved "Hank" Bohrer, Belleville center, who was promptly awarded a pair of foul shots of Referee Di Basio. In disgust, Okrasinski picked up the ball and threw it at the referee, knocking the whistle from his mouth. He then walked off the floor calling his whole team with him.

It was about as unsportsmanlike an action as any athlete or team could possibly take. Especially as they attempted to add fuel to the fire, by qualifying their action with, "Ah, what do we care. There won't be anything in the papers about it. We have a 'drag' with the newspapers."

Lamb will have his Crescents idle for a couple of weeks, playing the North End Club, Friday, March 30, at the high school gym in the season's wind-up. Johnnie Yuknis, Mike Dunn and Layton are some of the stars with the North Ends. Sunday, March 25, Lamb will take his Crescents to meet the O'Beirne's at the O'Beirne's court.

the St. Lucy's H. N. S. to book them for a third game. Each club has won a contest, the Crescents at the high school gym and St. Lucy's at their home court.

LEADERS WIN GAMES IN LOCAL MAJOR COURT LOOP MONDAY NIGHT.

The three leaders, the W. H. Williams Association, Frank's Diner and the Belleville Rosery, came through with flying colors in Major Basketball League games sponsored by the Recreation Commission, at the Recreation Center, Monday night. The league-leading Williams club sailed to a 54-27 victory over the much-maligned Unions, while Frank's Diner and the Rosery, tied for second place two games back of the Williams club, downed the Falcons and Progress Club respectively. The Restaurant men won in 36-17 figures over the Falcons, while the Rosery won was of the forfeit variety, owing to the non-appearance of the Progress Club.

Johnnie McGuire, ace forward of the Williams club, and Johnnie Schwab, lanky Diner center, tied for scoring honors, setting new records with twenty-one points each. Cranes of the Unions and Lou Westra of the Falcons played best for their teams.

This Monday night's games call for clashes between the Williams Association and the Progress Club; Frank's Diner and the Unions; and the Belleville Rosery and the Falcons.

LEADERS SHOW POWER IN COMMUNITY BASKETBALL LOOP VICTORIES.

The undefeated A. A. Rubin Association and the once-beaten W. H. Williams Association vied for high-scoring honors in posting easy victories in Community Basketball League competition, last week, at the Recreation Center. Felix Clark and Gene Dacey, scoring eighteen and ten points respectively, led the league-leading Rubins to a 48-6 massacre of St. Anthony's. Joe Shanahan, star of the high school team and Mel Ten Broeck tallied thirty points between them, as the Williams rode on the crest of a high-scoring wave to trim the Fewsmith Presbyterians, 46-16. Dick Bruegman collected ten of the losers' total. In other games the third place Rosery Juniors came back in the second half to defeat the Stuywards, 16-12 while the T. D'Avella Association nosed out the Belleville Trojans, 17-16, in the best game of the night. Clarken collected eight points in the Rosery victory, while Pico of the D'Avella's got eight and "Red" Van Dermark of the Trojans, six, in the D'Avella-Trojan thriller.

MIDDLETOWN JUNIORS HOLD SWAY IN MINOR BASKETBALL LEAGUE.

The Middletown Juniors continued their two-game grip on first place in the Minor Basketball League, as the three leaders all won, last week, at the Recreation Center. Laterza collected ten points as the Middletowns nosed out the Bell-boys, 19-16, after a great second-half rally. The Panthers and Eagles, tied for second place turned back the Falcons and Royals, respectively, in other games. The Panthers were held to one point in the final half, though beating the Falcons, 13-10. The Eagles, on the other hand, piled up a 34-10 margin in defeating the Royals. Leonard, McFadden, Groesch, McCann, and Iacone all had six points in the Eagle scoring parade.

Nutley Again Drubs

Alumni Five In Final

Victors Close Regular Season With Eleven Victories

Vanquishing a strong alumni outfit for the second time this season, Nutley High School Friday night wound up its basketball schedule with a record of eleven wins against eight defeats. The score of Friday's game was Nutley 24, Alumni 15.

Warren Knight, playing his last basketball game, hung up seven points bringing his season's total to 173. The alumni threw a scare into Coach Stanford's boys in the first and third periods, outscoring their younger rivals, but the high school clicked in the second and fourth chukkers through the fancy shooting of Knight and Ray Levendusky.

Charlie Sherwood and Eddie Fouser, the latter a member of the St. Benedict's basketball squad this year, were out standing for the losers.

In a second team game the high school jayves rung up their fourteenth victory out of fifteen starts, winning 26 to 17.

Vince Dundee exhibited an old trait in outpointing Joe Kaminski, the Pennsylvania fighter, in their ten-round battle at the valley Arena Monday night in Holyoke, Mass.

VINCE DUNDEE

The middleweight champion, hailing from the Silver Lake section of Belleville, revealed that he still is at his best when pressed. (He weathered a furious and stormy first round charge of the Pennsylvania Pole, then waded in and won without question.

Dundee's crown, which he won on New England territory, in Boston, from Lou Brouillard, was not in jeopardy, since both weighed over the middleweight limit of 160 pounds. It was scheduled as a non-titular contest.

Kaminski probably is remembered by local fans. He fought Al Diamond of Paterson at Dreamland Park Newark, last summer and lost. He was full of fight in the first frame against the champion, pumping hard with lefts and rights to the body and head.

Unexpectedly pressed, Dundee gathered his fighting forces and set out to make short work of the wiry Pole. He failed to score a knockout, but managed to finish ahead of Kaminski by several long strides.

A keen, stabbing left featured the champion's attack, though his nimble footwork and cleverness on the ropes touched his exhibition with brilliance. It was a thoroughly satisfying exhibition for the New Jersey titleholder. Dundee weighed 161 and Kaminski weighed 164.

Watching Belleville Pinners In Action

By ARTHUR BLOEMEKE

ALL HAIL OLDHAMS! AMERICAN LEAGION BOWLING LEAGUE CHAMPIONS; ALSO THE EL CLUB; VALIANT RUNNERS-UP.

Hats off to the current American Legion Bowling League champions, the Oldham Association, victors in about as close and as thrilling a battle as you would care to see. And also a toast to the El Club, their ardent pursuers, who bowled gamely and well only to fall just short of their goal.

Going into the last night of bowling, tied for first place, the Oldhams and El Club were in distinctly different positions. The Oldhams were assured of winning their games through the non-appearance of the last-place Woodhouse Association. On the other hand, the Lawlornes were booked to buck the powerful third-place Knights of Columbus quintet, who were themselves fighting to protect their position. Disquieting but entirely unfounded rumors had been going the rounds the week before that the Caseys were not going to try too hard to trim the El Club. But the absolute falseness of this rumor was verified with the tenacity and skill of the Knights of Columbus attack.

We would like to state here and now that El Club-Knights of Columbus match was perhaps the greatest series ever on record down at Ferrara's North Newark alleys. The never-say-die El Club won the first game by exactly four pins, and the second by thirteen. The Caseys were getting better all the time, however, and nipped the El Club's championship aspirations in the bud, by taking the final in another thriller, 1026-1011. The three brilliant scores were 990-986; 1007-994, and 1026-1011. What more could anyone ask of any bowling match for keen, close competition, especially in view of the importance of the series.

The Oldhams finished up in real championship style despite the absence of opposition. Their team totals were 963, 978, and 1036, with Carriano's 347 and Tate's 235 showing the way in individual efforts.

Frank Hegedus, Knights of Columbus lead-off man, was the real thorn in the sides of the Lawlornes, recording a 245 in the all-important final game. Bill Byrnes, Jr. and "Bubbles" Snyder averaged better than 200 for the evening for other outstanding performances. No less than three of the El Club team bettered the 200 mark in all three of their games. Schlecker had 214, 203 and 204; Shaughnessy had 201, 221 and 221; and Church finished with 204, 203 and 202. Caruso's 200 and 207; and Stout's 201, gave the Lawlornes the almost unequalled record of having twelve of their fifteen individual scores in the double century class.

The Waters Association finished up in a blaze of glory to trim the strong Democratic Club three times in succession and moved up into a tie for third place with the Knights of Columbus. Bob Whitten, Tommie Dunn and "Dutch" Faust all fired away with abandon in this one. Whitten's 256 in the final beating out Dunn's 231 and Faust's 230 for individual honors. The fine team scores for the Waters club were 967, 1012 and 1061. Klemz, with 226 in the first game and 201 in the final, did best for the Democrats.

The Moose assured themselves of fifth place bettering 900 in each game to trounce the Gebhard Association three. Unold, recording 185, 245 and 211; and Tuerff with 214, 203 and 224 were Moose mainstays. Johnnie Vogel was, as usual, best for the Gebhards. Will Noonan's W. H. Williams Association swept its three-game series with the lowly Belleville B. C. to tie with the Democratic Club for sixth position. Bill Williams was in fine form for the Williams club bowling 213, 211 and 210 for his team, while Bob Brinckerhoff hit the pins best for the Belleville B. C. The Williams club had a close shave in the final of this one winning out with but four pins to spare. The final match of the evening saw the NRA club show surprising strength in taking the odd game from the Mayer Association. Rolling 1028 and 971 in the first two games, the NRA's were invincible, but they fell to 847 in the final to lose that by 22 pins. Ventura, Valera and Akers all had a pair of double century counts to their credit.

All the commissioners and many of the candidates in this year's race will be present at Ferrara's alleys, Monday night, at which time the individual and team awards will be presented. The activities will get under way at 8:30 P. M. Match games will be bowled following the presentations, which will be conducted by President Joseph A. Williams of the league.

CHRIST EPISCOPAL CUTS ANOTHER GAME FROM BIG MEN'S CLUB LEAD IN CHURCH LEAGUE.

The second-place Christ Episcopal sliced off another game from the large Men's Club lead in the Church Bowling League, last week, as they whipped fourth place Forest Hill, three games in a row. The Men's Club, which could take but two of three from Fewsmith Presbyterian, is now leading the parade by five games.

The big feature of the night was the setting up of a new 251 scoring record by the Men's Club, which took the game from the Forest Hill, 251-231.

The Christ Episcopal club.... The Episcopallians hit 277 in the final game for a new league high, in one of the best exhibitions of bowling yet seen on the tricky church alleys.

Schaeffer's 226 in the second game was another feature in the Christ Episcopal victory. Leissler reached 224 in the final for Forest Hill. Woodruff's 236 in the second game was high for the Men's Club in their match. The opposing Fewsmith Presbyterian had its anchor man, Maginnis as its best bet. Montgomery, in third place, surprised by taking the odd game from the Belhany Lutheran club in spite of the handicap of having a blind score. Gill bowled best for the "Monts". The last place All Church team won three in a row in a close match with Grace Baptist. Karrer's 212 in the final game was high for the match.

CUBS WIN NINTH GAME IN ROW TO TIE GIANTS FOR LION'S CLUB BOWLING LEAD.

The rampaging Club in the Lion's Club Bowling League tied the Giants for the league lead, last week, at the Elks' alleys, posting their seventh, eighth and ninth consecutive triumphs in downing the Comets. The Speedsters took one of their three games with the Giants to account for the first place tie.

Both the Cubs and Giants now have nine games left to play, leaving everything even-Stephen as they prepare for the home-stretch. The Speedsters were out for "blood" in their match with the Giants, making their strong opponents "step" all the way. In addition to taking one of three games, the Speedsters dropped the first game by the meager margin of a single pin.

Ziegler topped the individual performers of the evening with his scores of 203 and 206. Johnnie Carluhough contributed a 204 for another fine individual performance.

BELLEVILLE ELKS WIN SERIES FROM NORTH ENDS IN MORRIS AND ESSEX LEAGUE COMPETITION.

The Belleville Elks' pinners took the odd game from the North Ends, last week, in the Morris and Essex League. The Antlers are now tied for seventh place with Euclid, eight games back of the league-leading Montclair A. C. outfit.

Bob Whitten and Tom MacNair bowled best for the locals. Whitten's 224 in the second game bettered Mac Nair's 213 in the same game. "Dutch" Faust hit 203 in the first and "Butch" Kastner 201 in the last for other fine performances.

the work and findings of that com- mittee at the first meeting of the league at the Elks' Club on Tuesday night.

Mr. Hart reviewed the work of the 1932 Citizens' Civil Committee which was a gesture of the present board to get advice and co-operation of townspeople on governmental matters. He inferred the commit- mittee did not get co-operation from the board and was a white wash affair.

"No concrete steps, looking toward ending the financial plight of Belle- ville," have been taken he said, out- lining that his work covers financial survey of fifteen municipalities in the state ranging from some "towns smaller to cities larger" than Belleville. He referred to the bond issue in Belleville as something "that must reach a saturation point."

"You can not issue bonds indefin- itely," he stated, adding "that it is said another issue of 1934 bonds are now on the press."

"The town was on the rocks in 1927 and the only reason the plight was discovered was because those who had loaned money in those days tightened up in the last few years."

"We want five upright, intelligent and informed men to run Belleville," he concluded, "men to whom the compensation of office means nothing."

George W. Stewart, also a member of the same committee, said: "For the last eight years we have had a case of mal-government. One man garbled up every contract he had to do with, another is a comedian, who should take a place to better advantages alongside Jimmy Durante and another who will not run, I have always held, has been detrimental to the best interests of Belleville."

He urged a slate of men, perhaps unknown at the present time, who are capable of being placed in the field.

It was emphasized that the organization is not formed to back any particular candidate or candidates but will try to interest itself and other townspeople in clean and efficient government in the state, county and town. No rule will be violated, it was pointed out by Mr. Schmutz, if the organization discusses the present campaign, but the minute any one in the organization turns "political" he will be automatically suspended.

David I. Boyd said he thought there should be some unity of thought on the part of the voters if they are to get the officials they want.

"There are two or three organiza- tions just like this going now," he stated, "and they are not getting anywhere because they cannot get set on the men they want. We need a civic organization and unity."

Victor Hart, jeweler, said that the voters should be given data on all who seek office by an organization similar to the League so that they may get a straight-forward picture of the candidates.

About forty attended including many prominent citizens of the town.
