Director Denies Discrimination In Police Appointments

G. R. Gerard States Men Were Named On Basis Of Records

Public Safety Director George R. Gerard has emphatically denied that any discrimination was shown by him in the recent appointments of Donald Smith and Edward J. Fletcher to the police force.

"I selected men of proved ability who were out of work, have families and whose records as chancemen were good," the director states. "There was absolutely no discrimination shown in their selection, but I picked the men I thought best fitted for the jobs."

Herbert Scott, past commander of George A. Younginger Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, charged discrimination against veterans at the town commission meeting Tuesday night. He averred that the appointments had been made in a hit-or-miss fashion, and that in that case veterans should have been chosen.

"Mr. Gerard said recently that Belleville had a one-man school system for twenty-seven years and would now have a one-man board of commissioners," declared Scott. "The people of this town will not stand for such tactics."

"I don't want to argue with you, but I deny making such a statement," replied the director.

"I have witnesses and can produce the affidavits," retorted Scott. "I hope that in the future the veterans will get a fifty-fifty break."

Police Work Praised
The work of the police department was praised by the director later in the evening.

"Today we had two serious crimes committed within the borders of our town," said Commissioner Gerard. "In both cases the criminals have been apprehended and are now in custody of the police. I take no credit for this, but am pleased to show how efficient our police are."

Mayor Williams, in behalf of the board, accepted an invitation of Edward Hollweg, secretary of the Ex-empt Firemen's Association of Belleville, to attend a meeting of that organization September 10. The board of commissioners will probably attend in a body.

Lions Club To See Blind Radio Artist

Belleville Broadcaster To Bring His Players To Weekly Luncheon

Miss Dorothy Schreier of Jersey City, blind radio artist, will make a personal appearance at the weekly luncheon of the Belleville Lions Club next Thursday in a program sponsored by Harry Kibbee of 52 Division avenue, this town, who broadcasts from station WINS in the character of Uncle Bill Turner, a kindly philosopher.

Mr. Kibbee was induced to bring the players in his radio program here by Dr. Morris Rochlin of 475 Washington avenue, who is a member of the local Lions Club. Lions Clubs throughout the country are interested in work for the aid of the blind, and it is hoped that the appearance of the talented Miss Schreier will stimulate work for the blind here in neighboring communities.

Miss Schreier was discovered several years ago by C. J. Ingram, radio columnist of The Jersey Journal. Under his direction, she lectured over stations WHOM and WOR on training dogs to lead the blind and kindred subjects.

At the conclusion of the series of lectures, Mr. Kibbee instructed Miss Schreier in acting dramatic roles for the radio and gave her a place in the cast of his weekly program. This is said to be the first time in the history of radio broadcasting when a blind person has taken part in a sketch in which the other characters can see. Miss Schreier has her script transcribed into Braille characters and can follow it as well as the seeing members of the cast, which includes Mr. Kibbee and the juvenile character, Harold Gold.

Two Nutley men are among the prisoners of the federal authorities.

Morris and Detectives J. J. Flynn and Nourse of Belleville and Hill, Johnson and Morgenroth of Newark made the arrests at the tavern of Santo Christiano, 751 Washington avenue, Belleville, near the Nutley-Belleville line. Employees Charged With Taking Tools From Newark Plant

John Connolly, 45, of 81 Perry street, this town, a toolmaker employed by the Federal Products Co. of 2 avenue L, Newark, was arrested Monday night by Detectives Polistina and Wenkowski of Newark and Belleville police, charged with the theft of $10,000 worth of merchandise from his employers. John McCrea, 29, of 604 Thomas street, Orange, a stock clerk and driver also employed by the Newark concern, was arrested on the same charge.

According to police, Connolly confessed after his arrest, implicating McCrea, who was also arrested and confessed to the thefts. Tools and dies valued at more than $2,000 were found in the basement of Connolly's home, police say.

The arrests climax a long investigation by Newark police and plant officials. Morris Moreines, president of the company, became suspicious several months ago when he learned that a rival agency was selling products similar to his at a lower price. Detectives gave McCrea a fake order for merchandise, they say, and were sent to Connolly's home, where they found a large stock of expensive tools.

Board Delays Action On Prohibition Of Circulars, Fireworks

$500 Emergency Note Is Authorized To Fight Dutch Elm Disease

In order to have time to consider objections made by citizens, the town commission Tuesday night postponed final action on ordinances to prohibit the distribution of circulars in town and forbidding the display or sale of fireworks, with the exception of exhibitions by professional fireworks experts, for two weeks.

Abram Atkins, local merchant, protested the ordinance banning handbills at the Monday afternoon conference. He said that merchants in town would be handicapped by the measure. Commissioner George R. Gerard, sponsor of the measure, said that he believes it would protect Belleville merchants against outside competition and would be approved by housewives.

George R. Jackson, Newark lawyer, who said he represented twenty-five local storekeepers who have stocks of pyrotechnics left over from Independence Day, asked the board to delay action until after next July 4 to enable merchants to sell existing stocks of fireworks.

The fireworks ordinance is also sponsored by Director Gerard, who said he would disclaim any responsibility for accidents from this cause if the measure is not adopted.

$500 To Save Trees
The board authorized the issuance of a $500 emergency note for the control of the Dutch elm disease. This is the second emergency note of the same amount for this purpose this summer.

Mayor Urges Emergency Taxes Kenworthy Suggests Bond Extension To Aid Municipalities

Former Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy urged emergency income and sales taxes to relieve taxation on real estate and to aid municipal financing in a radio address from station WNEW under the auspices of the Newark Teachers' Association Saturday. The former Mayor is executive secretary of the New Jersey State League of Municipalities.

Other salient points of Kenworthy's talk were his recommendations that the state take over the entire cost of the public school system, in order to provide equal opportunities for children in all municipalities, and reduction of interest rates and extension of the time of maturing of municipal bonds. These measures would greatly aid the municipalities of the state in rehabilitating their finances, the speaker stated.

"Figures obtained from the State Tax Department clearly indicate that the collapse in property values has an important bearing on the subject of municipal finance," said Kenworthy.

"Even those who oppose new forms of taxation readily admit that real property in New Jersey is shouldering far too much of the burden. The joint committee on taxation of the 1933 session of the Legislature recommended a program which provided for a state sales and income tax, a business franchise tax and a tax on intangible personal property.

"It was estimated that such a program would bring $100,000,000 in new revenue to the treasury of the state, which could be used entirely for the relief of real property. Considerable sentiment prevails for a 2 per cent sales tax, with an estimated return of from 20 to 35 millions of dollars. Much support is also found for a state income tax. The New Jersey State League of Municipalities favors both of these forms of taxation, with the sales tax imposed for a definite period of three years."

In urging that bondholders be induced to assist in the problem of the reduction of debt service, the former mayor spoke as follows:

"There seems to be no sound reason why holders of municipal securities should be unwilling to do their part toward solving this problem. If conditions continue much further and the investor in municipal securities fails to cooperate willingly, it seems quite probable that he will be forced by state and federal legislation to not only accept lower interest rates, but to extend the maturity dates of existing obligations."

Engineers Test New Steel Car Wheels Equipped With Rubber Designed to Make the Operation of Street Cars Quieter

EXPERIMENTS are now under way on a newly-designed steel street car wheel in which has been inserted a ring of solid rubber by means of which it is hoped to effect a reduction in the noise of trolley car operation.

The new wheel resembles the ordinary steel car wheel, except that a "live" rubber ring about one and one-quarter inch thick has been inserted dividing the wheel into two steel sections. This rubber "insulation" acts as a deadener of sound and takes up part of the shocks which the wheels receive as they move over the tracks.

Public Service Coordinated Transport's engineers have equipped a street car operating between Orange and Newark with a complete set of the new wheels. Tests thus far indicate a marked reduction in the noise of operation noticeable both inside and outside of the car. Further tests must be made to determine the length of life of the rubber, the effect of the heat generated by braking and other factors, before the complete practicability of the new device can be determined.

Belleville Man Held On Theft Charge

Gang Said To Have Plotted Series Of Holdups In Newark

Frank Bettelli, 33, of 89 Dow street, this town, was ordered held in $2,500 bail on theft charges by Judge Seymour Klein in Second Precinct Court, Newark, Wednesday. A gang of five men, arrested Tuesday night, is said by police to have admitted planning a series of holdups, which included that of the sexton of St. Augustine's Church, Newark, who was to have been attacked while taking collections to the bank Monday.

Associated with Bettelli, police say, were Alfred Murillo, 31, of 21 Clifton avenue, Newark, held in $14,500 bail on six charges; John Boyle, 25, of 27 Dey street, Newark, $14,500, six charges; Anthony Accella, 34, of 499 Stuyvesant avenue, Irvington, $12,500 bail, five charges, and Bartholomew Caputo, 34, of 128 Second street, Newark, $2,500 bail, one charge.

Boyle, Murillo and Caputo were caught attempting to enter the Philco Radio store at 180 Central avenue Tuesday night, according to Lieutenant Kass of the Newark burglar squad. Bettelli was to receive the radios, police say.

Scouters Have Outing At Schiff Reservation

A party of six Belleville Scouters spent the day on Saturday at the Schiff Scout Reservation at Mendham. The reservation was purchased and is maintained with funds left by the late Mortimer L. Schiff. There are 480 acres in the tract, and twenty-three buildings, including a large manor house and cottage. There is also a lake of seventeen acres.

The reservation is maintained principally to train scout executives. Shorter courses are held for scoutmasters, Sea Scout skippers, and in various subjects of scoutcraft. In the living room of the manor house is a large fireplace, which was brought from France, and is over 400 years old.

Luncheon was served in the dining room at 1 o'clock. Those in the party were: Daniel Spillane, scoutmaster of Troop 75; Harry Schneider, assistant scoutmaster of Troop 86; Joseph W. Barnes, chairman of Sea Scout Ship committee 538, George Fried; Raymond Patrick, committee chairman of Troop 88; Harvey W. Mumford, committee man of Troop 88, and Arthur E. Bush of Montclair, guest.

Tavern Complaints Dismissed By Board

Police Investigation Of Any Alleged Violations Sought

Complaints brought against five local tavern owners by police for alleged violation of the closing hour regulations were dismissed by the board of commissioners, sitting as a liquor control board, on grounds of insufficient evidence.

Commissioner Patrick A. Waters said that he did not feel that a car parked near a tavern or lights in the establishment were sufficient evidences of law violation, and urged that the police enter taverns after closing hours to learn the reason why they are open.

Commissioner George R. Gerard, in charge of police, said that he would instruct the police to secure conclusive evidence against law violators. Mayor William H. Williams warned tavern keepers that fines and license revocations would be imposed upon violators of the liquor control laws.

Thomas Greaves, whose property adjoins that of the Legion Chateau, Inc., in Washington avenue, complained that the beer garden of the establishment encroaches on town property. The complaint was referred to conference and the town commission will act upon it.

A complaint against Angelina Paganelli of 165 Garden avenue was held over pending the findings of the Grand Jury in the matter. Agents from the office of D. Frederick Burnett, state liquor commissioner, charge that they purchased two bottles of beer from her store, while her limited distribution license allows her to sell no less than six bottles at a time. The alleged violation occurred August 15.

SCHOOL OPENING

Belleville schools will open Wednesday. On Tuesday there will be a conference of teachers. This newspaper extends a welcome to the officials and teaching staff and wishes them a happy and pleasant year.

There have been several changes made in personnel and buildings are all shining bright for the opening, but most interesting to all concerned, however, will be an army of 5,000 odd children which will invade the quarters that have been provided for it.

We will not undertake to say that every small soldier will come cheerfully and willingly to the call; but there is a lot of misapprehension about the willingness of youth to attend school.

LIVING IN GLASS HOUSES

A few newspapers have tried to make a joke of the fact that Motor Vehicle Commissioner Harold G. Hoffman was clever enough to ride a bicycle on a recent visit to Nutley Velodrome.

We have yet to find one person who does not agree with us that bicycle riding is a fine sport—for youngsters and grown-ups, and even for those who aspire to be Governor.

Personally, we are glad Mr. Hoffman got on a bike that night. He is a man after our own heart. We would like to ride a bike, not only at the Velodrome, but every day for exercise.

Harold G. Hoffman has handled efficiently and well everything he has undertaken, athletics being one of his mainstays.

Some of these austere editors ask both candidates for governor what they intend to do on public questions. We throw out a thought—what questions?

There are 12,000 to 15,000 Velodrome fans who will agree with our thoughts, anyway, and that should count a lot against one or two individuals, who have set themselves up with a holier-than-thou attitude.

"TOO AMBITIOUS"

We heard a woman criticised as being "too ambitious." Even though we felt that the remark was made through jealousy, it set us thinking. Is there such a state of mind as being "too ambitious"?

THE TIME

In an attempt to popularize the "24-hour clock," the British Broadcasting Corporation has eliminated the designating A. M. and P. M. from its program announcements.

Yet the 24-hour system has numerous friends. The United States Navy and Coast Guard use it on their official messages, and certainly railroad timetables would be much easier to read if it were adopted for this purpose.

ALASKA'S FLYING DOCTOR

Alaska is to have a flying doctor this winter, and tales of heroic endeavor by drivers of dog-teams may be expected to become out-of-date.

Dr. Vance Murray of the United States Public Health Service, who has been appointed medical director for the Alaskan Indian territory, includes a two-place cabin monoplane as among the necessities for his service.

Dr. Murray will have enough to do, certainly. He will supervise the work of a dentist, twenty hospital nurses, twenty-three village and travelling nurses, and six doctors, who carry on the Indian Service medical work in Alaska.

A CONVINCING SIGN

Impatient motorists who are being held up on the highways by long strings of motor cars may be quite vexed, but a little thought should make them actually happy about the situation.

The recent Sunday motor throngs attest to the fact that more people are actually riding. And to take out the automobile people must have a few dollars in their pockets. The average motorist notices that there are more cars on the roads on Sundays—and even if some of the drivers are slow and pokey there is satisfaction in knowing that more people are enjoying themselves.

Editor The News:

A most interesting editorial in two recent copies of The News is worthy of commendation, whereby of the service rendered to those humans, who in their attitude of inappreciation are unable to awaken to a higher sense of better thinking and would enable the world to higher ideals.

Especially the editorial "Heart Service" in which the last paragraph "It requires the very precious coin of kindness, appreciation and consideration."

With as keen consideration, may I credit another editorial, "Enthusiasm". Enthusiasm is indeed much needed in life especially during times when doubt of our fellow man seems to force itself into our thinking, when friend betrays friend and is attempting to use his or her influence upon another, until hatred takes the place of kindness, and has forced disbelief into formerly believing people; but enthusiasm should be faced with the truth of any situation.

As mentioned in "Heart Service" editorial, neither money nor gold, nor silver can pay for "Heart Service." Some humans seem to be made of that kind of material. It is their being, and cannot understand less than "Heart Service" to all mankind. The highest type man that ever lived taught "Heart Service" and said: "The works I do, ye shall do also." For it they hung him to a cross.

Today there exists much of the same false belief and desire to judge another with no real knowledge upon the subject by those who think after they have judged. "Heart Service," is self sacrifice and cannot be understood without a "Heart Service" mind.

Heisley Letter

Editor of The News:

What is polyandry? It is the opposite to polygamy. Does that tell you much? No; like dictionary definitions, or John D. Rockefeller, Sr., on the witness stand, it doesn't tell you very much. All you get from the dictionary is that polygamy, when simultaneous, means a harem with many wives in it, and that polyandry, when simultaneous, as among the Tibetans and Buriats (Buryats), means that a woman is the wife of two or more men, maybe, as in Tibet, one being her companion during one part of the year, the other for the remainder of the year, but the dictionary does not explain the practice even so far as that, but tells you "Polus, much many, and Andros-man."

Polygamy and polyandry are sur-

vivals of the throes that society passed through when the evolution from the state of being a mere herd was taking place. Just like the toad, the lizard, the alligator, the serpent, or the turtle are the derelicts of the reptile life that universally prevailed, or the giraffe is the survivor of that first mammalian period when the length of neck was given not for the delectation of eating ice cream, but to reach the tree branches to feed upon the foliage, so we have polygamy as the derelict of the patriarchal age, when Abraham had Katurah as well as Sarah, and Isaac had not only Rachel, but Leah, her elder sister, and the handmaids of both Rachel and Leah. The eastern Asiatic, the dweller of the mountain and glen, on the contrary, was under matriarchal authority, marriage with him meant an abundant provision for the support of the wife—the woman, so that if one husband were buried under a mountain avalanche there was provided an assurance of support in the husband No. 2; that even a third husband went on the stage with the heirship of No. 2. Now that is telling you more than the dictionary tells you, and is vastly more responsive than John D. Rockefeller, Sr., used to be as a witness on his oil deals. Tell me the purpose of a thing and I need hardly consult the dictionary for its meaning. And while I do not seek the expansion of polygamy or welcome the contraction of polyandry, I am tempted to remark that the compensation of polyandry for its inconveniences was enough to reconcile a woman to it, there being a husband always provided; no problems of widowhood, alimony overdue, or the like. The Tibetans never hear of the Vice Chancellor, the Buriats are unconscious of an Advisory Master; whereas the Mohammedan husband has merely to say "I divorce thee" and lo, the wife is divorced. Civilization has its burdens. To accomplish about the same results as can be had in Barbarism, you have to support expensive courts for divorces or separate maintenance and the enforcement of alimony orders, with nasty cumbersome books with tedious lists of leading cases, whilst men are kept working in court where they might have been out in the fresh air hoeing potatoes or picking strawberries.

While amongst the turbaned Turks, Arabs and Persians, the man is the great factor—the one for whom the woman was made, amongst those yellow skinned fellows with slant eyes, the woman is the one for whom men were made, they dodge on either road, the difficulty of striking the rock of monogamy, which is never widely enough tunneled but your sides are scratched raw and bleeding, as the state grudgingly and under penalties lets you do what you will, or would do, anyway, and at any price.

Thus to understand either polygamy or polyandry you must think in terms of vice Chancellor and advisory masters—and not breathe the dry dust of dictionaries.

MAN IN THE MAKING

Factfully Yours

LILLIAN THOMAS

The bombshell fact that the water of the Seine contains more bacteria than the water of Paris sewers sent us scurrying to the library for a book pertaining to bacteriology.

We've learned that the existence of bacteria on the globe antedates that of man, but their presence was not suspected until a few centuries ago and their actual existence was not demonstrated until much later.

Kircher made the first authentic observation of micro-organisms in 1659. He demonstrated minute living worms in putrid meat, milk, vinegar, cheese, etc.

In the History of Bacteriology, we find that among early Greeks, Anaximander of Miletus held that animals were formed from moisture. And Empedocles of Agrigento believed that all of the living beings on the earth arose through spontaneous generation.

In the Middle Ages Von Helmont gives directions for the artificial production of mice which were something after this order: An old piece of cloth and some seed corn were to be placed in a jar, and after standing the proper length of time would surely produce mice.

The belief of spontaneous generation was universally accepted during the period, but Francois Redi, physician to the Grand Duke of Tuscany, seriously questioned this theory.

On exhibition in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, are photographs of a pre-dynastic cemetery found on the East bank of the Nile, opposite Giza, and about 300 miles south of Cairo. This cemetery dates back to 4000 B. C. and when first discovered contained 600 graves in many of which burials were in a very perfect state of preservation.

The form of burial during the pre-dynastic era was to contract the body, laying it upon its left side, and facing the South.

THE fashion parade season will soon be upon us. Stories, fashion groups, society groups, will be showing the American version of the latest fashions for fall. One and all however, they will show not the original Paris creations but adaptations of them for American consumption.

At Brentano's, 1 W. 47th St., you will find a printed fashion parade of original Paris creations within the covers of the scores of fashion magazines imported by them. They have Paris fashion magazines ranging in price from 50c a copy to one that sells for $18. Here you can find the original drawings and make your own adaptations and moreover keep the designs on hand in case your memory grows rusty.

DO you have a husband who grumbles while shaving? The poor dears do suffer from that daily scraping. But many women are now making the hit of their married lives by giving the new shaving device called the Schick Dry Shaver. It attaches in any lamp socket and shears the beard off without the use of soap and lather. He can't cut himself no matter how tender his skin nor how tough the beard. Quick, too and pleasant. You needn't tell him that you intend to use it yourself. It won't harm your own delicate skin, increase the growth of hair or darken the color.

DRIVE SAFELY

INATTENTIVE DRIVERS

THERE is only one conclusion to reach when newspaper reports of traffic accidents contain a statement by one of the drivers that reads something like this: "I NEVER SAW THE OTHER CAR."

The conclusion is that the driver didn't have his eyes on the road or his mind on the job he was doing—controlling the operation of a vehicle weighing a ton or more. He certainly wasn't fit to have a driver's license.

The Motor Vehicle Department, in an effort to check up on the driving habits of a number of men to find the cause, finds that more than half the drivers observed were caught turning their heads to speak to the person riding next to them. One man who considered himself an excellent driver had his head turned to one side for 28 seconds by a stop watch, during which the speed of the car did not go below 40 miles an hour. He drove at least 1,542 feet—more than a quarter of a mile—without seeing directly where he was going.

Make up your mind that no one will catch you with your eyes off the highway when you're behind the wheel.

Federal Government To Employ Millions Of Unemployed In Manufacturing Program To Build Or Lease Plants For Manufacture Of Clothing, Bedding And Food Products For Needy; To Pay Cash Wages At NRA Scale

WASHINGTON, August 30.—The Federal Emergency Relief Administration is preparing to build or lease manufacturing plants throughout the country for employment of hundreds of thousands, and probably millions, of persons now on direct relief rolls, and will produce bedding and clothing of all varieties, and foods that are canned or processed, for distribution to 16,000,000 persons now on relief.

In setting up and operating this vast network of manufacturing plants which will place the American government in business deeper than any except the Soviet, the FERA will order that all working conditions conform to NRA, but will ignore such state laws as those governing Workmen's Compensation.

The manufacture of 2,000,000 mattresses and an equal number of comforters heads the list of operations to be launched immediately by FERA, working through the various state organizations, but the program calls for production of all kinds of clothing and shoes, for expansion of food canning and processing activities, and for engaging in practically every line of industry required to supply the necessities of life—food, clothes, and shelter.

The official source said the mattress manufacturing phase of the program will give employment to 60,000 women now on direct relief, that it will reduce the cotton surplus by 250,000 bales, and provide approximately 2,000,000 mattresses for needy families. Manufacturing units will be set up in each state. Mattress factories will be leased in some instances. The official report said, "Workers in mattress workshops are paid the prevailing rate of wages for similar work in the locality where the shop is located, but in no instance can the wage be less than thirty cents an hour."

Goods manufactured under FERA will bear a stamp prohibiting resale. Persons employed in the government factories will be paid straight wages. Those receiving the manufactured goods will receive them free, but with approval of "case workers of the social service division of State Relief administrations."

It was disclosed to Industrial News Service that FERA expects to provide work for approximately 3,000,000 persons out of the 5,000,000 families on relief, and that it is hoped by these officials that at least half of these 3,000,000 Government-paid workers will be engaged in the same kind of work to which they were accustomed before the depression. Asked the direct question of whether mattress workers would be shifted to dresses and other lines of clothing later, one high official of FERA said:

"Certainly. There is no reason why they should not make dresses, and some already are making dresses. We expect to manufacture everything we can for distribution to families on relief."

The government's cattle buying and slaughtering program threw millions of hides on the market, wrecking the leather industry. An effort was made to have the RFC lend money to buy the surplus hides and hold them until prices improved, but this failed to clear legal hurdles, and it was decided to let the Federal Surplus Relief Administration buy the hides, which it is doing. FERA officials said these hides must be used, and that the government's factory program includes plans for making shoes and other leather goods—all for those on relief.

Union labor organizers are eagerly awaiting the operation of the new government factories, and it is certain that an immediate effort will be made

October 21—Howard Wolff, a vice president of the society, will be the speaker.

October 28—A missionary meeting. During the month of October these meetings will be held on Sunday evenings from 7 to 7:45 P. M.

The society will also sponsor a special service on Friday evening, October 20, when the Rev. Elmo L. Bate-man and his "Old Fashioned Gospel Hour Chorists" visit "the old historic church." The "Old Fashioned Gospel Hour" is broadcast over stations WNEW and WHOM six times each week.

The society will also sponsor a "shut-in" program sometime during the month of October. This program will be held at the home of "Grandma" Warren of 57 Church street, Nutley.

The Veenstra Sisters will conduct the first meeting of Christian Endeavor for the year on Sunday morning, September 9 at 9 P. M. Besides rendering vocal solos and duets, these sisters are also to play many different instruments such as the violin, trumpet, piano and others. One of the sisters who is studying to become a minister will bring the message of the morning.

Robert Wolff will lead the service on September 16 and will be assisted by Miss Edna Baum as a soloist. Miss Baum has been active for a number of years in the Reformed Church choir and is now acting as secretary of that organization.

Mrs. Howard Sutphen will be the soloist on Sunday morning, September 23, during the missionary meeting. Mrs. Sutphen has also served for a number of years in the church choir and is a member of the "Martling Sisters Duet Team." John Radin will preside during this service.

The final meeting of the month, on September 30, will be conducted by Robert F. Wolff, who will introduce the speaker of the morning, Miss Ruth Struyk, who has served as pianist for seven years in the society. The soloist on this morning will be Miss Grace Martling who has sung in most Belleville churches. Miss Martling formerly broadcast over station WJN and more recently over station WHOM of Jersey City on "The Old Fashioned Gospel Hour" program.

IF YOUR BREATH HAS A SMELL YOU CAN'T FEEL WELL

When we eat too much, our food decays in our bowels. Our friends smell this decay coming out of our mouth and call it bad breath. We feel the poison of this decay all over our body. It makes us gloomy, grouchy and no good for anything.

What makes the food decay in the bowels? Well, when we eat too much, our bile juice can't digest it. What is the bile juice? It is the most vital digestive juice in our body. Unless 2 pints of it are flowing from our liver into our bowels every day, our movements get hard and constipated and 2% of our food decays in our 28 feet of bowels. This decay sends poison all over our body every six minutes.

When our friends smell our bad breath (but we don't) and we feel like a whipped tomato, don't use a mouthwash or take a laxative. Get at the cause. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills which gently start the flow of your bile juice. But if "something better" is offered you, don't buy it, for it may be a colored (mercury) pill, which loosens teeth, gripes and scalds the rectum in many people. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you ask for—25¢. C.1224, C.M.Co.

Inter-town Flavor In Singles Semi-Finals Of Clearman Field Play

Gauss, Lone Survivor Of Belleville Forces; Slauer A Favorite

Play in the second annual Clearman Field tennis tournament now being decided on the Clearman Field clay courts developed a real inter-town rivalry during the past week, as the semi-finals were reached in both the singles and doubles divisions.

Don Gauss, youthful ex-high school ace, remained as Belleville's lone hope of coping the title. Hank Quinn of Passaic, Dick Slauer of Nutley (former Belleville town champion), and Maurice Karosen, Bloomfield, complete the semi-finals quartet with Gauss. The Harvey-Burton combination of Kearny and Nutley's contribution of Slauer-Redmond were the two doubles teams to enter the semi-final bracket.

Finals in both singles and doubles will be played tomorrow afternoon, at the Clearman Field courts, and a good-sized crowd is expected to turn out to witness the wind-up of what has turned out to be a well-played tourney. The committee in charge, headed by Bert Knowles, has secured the services of a prominent town official to make the official presentations of the trophies to the winners.

Quinn's victim in reaching the semi-finals was Johnnie Manger, a teammate of Gauss' on Belleville High's recent tennis teams. The scores were 6-2, 5-7, 9-7.

Slauer gave further evidence that he was the man to be reckoned with, polishing off southpaw George Anderten in the unexpectedly decisive figures of 6-2, 6-1. Slauer previously had reached the quarter-finals with an equally easy 6-1, 6-2 triumph over Bill Bennett of Belleville.

A new-comer to Clearman Field tennis this year, Bloomfield's contribution, Karosen, displayed fine form in trimming the highly touted Joe Huemer of the Forest Hill T. C. of Newark, 6-2, 6-3. Huemer had previously encountered stubborn resistance from Bill Federici of the "Pru" before defeating him 6-1, 3-6, 6-3.

Gauss' entry into the select quartet was accomplished through the elimination of Ernie Turner, also of Belleville, 1-6, 6-1, 6-2. An upset 1-6, 6-1, 6-2 victory over Moss had gained Turner the right to meet Gauss.

The victory for the Harvey-Burton combine in the doubles play was recorded over the seeded No. 1 combination, Anderten and Moss, in a well-played 6-2, 4-6, 6-4 set-to. Slauer-Redmond had a much easier time subduing Emerson-Leadbetter, 6-1, 6-0 to push their ways to the semi-finals.

The other two semi-final berths in the doubles belong to the winners of the scrap between Gordan-O'Toole and Smith-Knowles and that between Huemer-Beams and the seeded No. 2 combination, Gauss-Manger.

Emeralds Win Two

The Emerald A. C. after dropping four of their last five games came back strong Sunday with two wins. In the first game the North Newark Rangers were the victims 4-2, in the second game the Ballentine Association were the losers, 9-5.

Lubben, Emerald right-fielder, led the attack on Tanavella with three hits out of four times at bat. "Spike" Henderson, pitching his first game for the Emeralds allowed only five hits.

In the second game Bobbie Brann & Frank Lynch led the Emerald attack with two hits apiece. Walt Cody who relieved Henderson in the second inning with the Emeralds four runs behind received credit for the victory when his teammates scored nine runs in the last two innings.

George Choborda, Hillside High star, hit a home-run for the losers while his brother Rudy Choborda, all-state star from Irvington High, was the leading hitter.

The Emeralds have September 16 on for a game away, and would like to hear from the Belleville Brightons. Write H. Lubben, 38 Lincoln avenue, Newark.

Saucer Splinters

While George Dempsey carried off first honors in the 10-mile tandem paced match race Sunday night, in which Norman Hill placed second, and Torchy Peden, third, Hill brought down the house. Noticeably out-classed, so far as pacemakers were concerned, Hill cut loose a sprint two laps from home that revealed the Hill of last season who carried off the all-around championship. Save for the help of Ewald Wissel and Frank Keating, as one tandem team to pull him to a commanding lead, six laps from home, which lead was added to when along came further help from Bob Silver and LeRoy Garrison, Dempsey would have found it more than difficult to look back on Hill and Peden in the home-stretch.

Hill left his pacemakers flat-footed two laps from home and rode single handed after Dempsey who was away by half a lap or more, behind the tandems. Hill closed in on George but couldn't quite catch him. Peden, like Hill, tried hard, but had the same type of slow-motion pace-making as Hill.

Jerry Debaets was at the track but his doctor said he could not ride. Using good judgment, the management substituting Paul Croley and decided the race would not count in the matter of points for the championship. Debaets was injured in an automobile accident last week and had eight stitches taken in a cut in his head. He had to be assisted to his car after appearing at the track. The majority of fans applauded the announcement of Bill Sullivan that Jerry, who is close to Letourner in the lead for the championship, would still have a chance to stay in the race. A few in the bleachers, after witnessing almost half the events, elected to get their money back. The management offered a refund to any who wanted it. Two women, who chose to leave carried long enough along the bleacher rail to watch the finish of still another race, fully ten minutes after the announcement of a friend was made. "Cheap, cheap" was the titter through the stands as the women became object of all eyes.

Wanted A Nickle Back

As it was Franz Deulberg walked off with the 50-mile motor paced race. He kept his nose to the grindstone all the way while, alternately, Tino Reboli, Franco Georgetti and Alfie Letourner lost laps. Each one picked up his lap, as time wore one. Charley Jaeger was sitting in a sweet position, No. 2, at four miles to go, but when the Flemington lad gave Jeehan, his pacemaker the word to "go" Jaeger barely half-way around the saucer before he discovered Jaeger was still trying to catch up. Jaeger says, "Aw shucks!", says he. From then until the end of the race he was content to coast along. He had difficulty all evening trying to follow Jeehan. Georgetti and Letourner had a private battle that seemed to satisfy the fans.

Dawg-gone if Carmine Bilotti's luck hasn't changed. He has picked two winners in a row in the motor-paced event and been correct three times this season. It wasn't a rabbit's foot that did it, either. It must have been a Maine four-leafed clover, avers Carmine.

Franco Georgetti had Wednesday night's race tucked away in his vest pocket until four miles from home, when he punctured and lost a lap. Franco took a spill, got up, hopped on another bike and by a marvellous burst of speed finished fourth. He received a tremendous ovation. Franz Deulberg won, followed by Charley Jaeger, who, incidentally, won the previous titular race. Jerry Debaets, still ill from his recent automobile accident, rode gamely and well, to place third. Alf Letourner was fifth and Tino Reboli, sixth. Reboli, at two miles to go, got a flat tire, and fell head over heels to the track.

Norm Hill came back into his own by annexing the five-mile tandem paced match race with "Torchy" Peden and George Dempsey. Norm received one of his old time send-offs. Much of the credit for Norm's win goes to Charley Ritter and Saetta, as one team, and Fred Spencer and Jimmy Walthour, as the other, which pulled him like mad in the closing minutes of the race. Harvey Black and Bobby Walthour carried "Torchy" off to a commanding lead as the race got under way, but Ewald Wissel and Keating soon carried Dempsey into line with Hill following. Midway along the trail, Dempsey cut loose from Wissel and Keating to paddle his own canoe, without any hits, runs or errors. "Torchy" finished second and Dempsey, third.

Charley Ritter had a big night. He rode like a wild man to carry off the one-mile open professional followed by Avanti Martinetti, Tom Saetta, Jimmy Walthour, Eddie Miller and Otto Petri.

In the half-mile national championship, amateur, Lipsett added to his points by winning until he now has ten. Cliff Bullivant took second place and is tied with Al Sellinger at five. Oscar Sellinger was third and Shipman, fourth.

Al Bulgren copped the three-sevenths mile handicap, amateur, trailed by Henry Krumwiede, Eddie Smith, John McCann and Lloyd Thomas, Jr. Peden, who won a popular place in the hearts of Velodrome fans, was presented with a bouquet of flowers from his friends. He has bid adieu to the Velodrome to compete in six day races.

A chill breeze blew down on the saucer. One of the judges felt the coolness to such an extent that he wrapped his legs in a bathrobe.

Carmine Bilotti added another feather to his cap when Deuberg won. And the four-leaf clover was in his hat, too. All Carmine needs for a perfect day is to choose Georgetti Sunday night and then have Franco win. Three winners in a row is batting as near to 1,000 as possible, says Anthony Marengi, Star Eagle sports writer, of Carmine.

The two best rosters within hailing distance of this scribe for Charley Jaeger are Mayor Walter S. Reinheimer and the scribe's right bower.

According to Jess Lyons two important dignitaries have been present at the last two meets. And now that Mr. Lyons' niece has concluded a stay at the shore Alfie Letourner and Eddie Miller have their best rooster on hand again.

Belleville County Leaguers In Three Tilts Over Week-end

Nutley Down For Double Bill On Labor Day

"Mac" Lamb's Belleville team will see lots of action over the holiday week-end participating in three Essex County League tilts.

Bloomfield will be met at the Clearman Field diamond, Saturday, while those arch-rivals, Nutley, will be down for their usual Labor Day double bill. Clearman Field will be the site of the morning portion of the holiday fare, while Park Oval will see the afternoon resumption of the Belleville-Nutley rivalry. The morning game will be called promptly at 10:15.

Lamb, himself, who has pitched his team to several victories of late, will toe the slab against Bloomfield. John "Fuzzy" Ryder and Mike Hanley are listed for the firing line against Nutley Labor Day. Scola will catch all three games.

The rest of the line-up includes Tommie Dunn, first base; Ned Dunn, second base; Johnnie Yuhaz, short-stop; Joe Hahn, third base; with Jerry Bonavita, Jim and Hank Sullivan, and Ryder, outfielders. Ryder's hard hitting in recent tilts has earned him a chance to see action in the outfield or in a pinch-hitting role, when not pitching.

Bears Confident Of Copping Pennant To Open Four-Game Series With Syracuse Chiefs Labor Day

Undaunted by the strenuous program which faces them during the final days of the International League season, the Newark Bears are certain they will have captured the pennant before the sun sets a week from Sunday, September 9. They still have eleven games to play. Fortunately eight of them are to be staged at Ruppert Stadium and it is on their home lof the Bears expect to blaze through as champions. They are not lacking in courage or confidence for they expect to go through the play offs and then become the Little World Champions, barring accidents.

Although Roy Schalk is not a giant in stature he has proved a stone wall as a guardian of second base. His work around the keystone sack has been sensational. He is regarded the best pivot man in the league. For a little chap he packs a lot of power in his hits, many of which have been timely and for extra bases.

ROY SCHALK

The Bears expect to clinch the flag beyond all mathematical doubt during their series with the Syracuse Chiefs. The New York Staters open a four game series here Labor Day afternoon with a doubleheader. A night game is listed for Tuesday, which will also be Ladies' Night and a day game is carded for Wednesday which will be Bargain Day. Likewise that game will mark the final appearance of the Chiefs in Newark this season.

Following the Chiefs in the Stadium will be the Baltimore Orioles for the final series of the season's campaign. On their last appearance, the Birds annexed the series, taking two out of three games. The Orioles will begin their campaign with a night game, Thursday. The following three games, Friday, which will be Knot Hole Gang Day, Saturday and Sunday will be played in the daytime.

The Bears have one more road trip. It is to Baltimore, where they are scheduled to play a single game Saturday (tomorrow) and a doubleheader Sunday. They were originally scheduled to play there today but the game was put over to make a twin bill for the final Sunday of the season in the Monumental City.

Before departing for Baltimore, the Bears will play an exhibition game today at Ruppert Stadium against the Philadelphia Athletics. Connie Mack, has promised George M. Weiss, vice-president and general manager of the Bears he would bring his first string men to oppose the Bruins. With the A's will be Jimmy Foxx, who is battling Lou Gehrig of the Yankees for home run honors this season in the American League. Johnson who has also developed into a home run clouter and Roger Crammer, the South Jersey boy will also be in the visitors' line-up. It will be the first night game for the A's, and many prominent American League officials and players now in New York are planning to see the game.

The Newark Club officials have also planned two special events for the final day of the season. An Old Timers' Day will be staged and man former heroes of the diamond had been invited to participate. Another feature will be the awarding of :

Belleville Splits Pair With Glen Ridge While Nutley Divides With Bloomfield

Victory Puts Bell-Boys In Third Place Of Essex County League, But That Position Is Lost By Later Defeat

The Belleville and Nutley Essex County League baseball nines both divided twin bills with opponents over the week-end. The Bell-boys nosed out Glen Ridge, 4-3, Saturday at Clearman Field, only to have the Ridgers come back on their home field, Sunday, to take a 6-3 verdict.

Nutley paralleled this feat, nosing out Bloomfield, 5-4, at Park Oval, Saturday, and being turned back by the same team, 7-5, Sunday.

Manager "Mac" Lamb pitched his Belleville club to its Saturday victory, which put them in a tie for third place for the day. Sunday's defeat, however, sent them tumbling to fifth. Lamb was especially effective in the pinches, reaching his peak in the ninth to cut short a blossoming Glen Ridge rally. Jerry Bonavita's clouting which included a single, double and triple, drove in three of Belleville's four runs.

Earl Hoagland's seventh inning homer with one on, broke up a fine pitcher's battle between Belleville's "Fuzzy" Ryder and Glen Ridge's "Rollie" Brown, Sunday. The two teams had been tied at 3-all before the game-winning clout.

Three doubles by "Mac" McDaniels, the league's leading batter, gave Nutley its victory, Saturday. Some fine relief pitching by Eddie Fouser, after Frank Blasi had been knocked out of the box in the second inning also featured.

Bloomfield acquired an early lead in Sunday's game and never relinquished it despite the fourteen hit attack compiled by Nutley. McDaniels' triple, and three safeties each by Fouser and "Butch" Kastner were high spots in the heavy Nutley attack.
