

SPRING CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN WILL START MONDAY

King and Berry Urge Cooperation of All Townspeople; Extra Trucks For Collection

Clean-Up Week will be officially observed in Belleville Monday through Saturday, May 4. Public Affairs Director Joseph King and Health Officer Eugene Berry have joined in an appeal to residents for their cooperation and have urged them to get to work and clean houses and yards in a real spring clean-up.

Berry said yesterday that, in anticipation of mass unearthing of miscellaneous junk from attics and cellars, extra trucks would be put on all runs next week but that refuse collections would be made on the regular days. King stated that the main purpose of Clean-Up Week is to remove all debris which might be a health menace and a fire hazard, and to try to beautify the town.

"If every resident would tend to his house and the grounds around it, the purpose of the drive would be accomplished," Berry said. "Too often most of us are perfectly willing to let the neighbors do it and fail to realize that our own residence needs just as much or more attention than the next man's."

Wants Wholesale Cleaning
He urged a wholesale cleaning of attics and cellars and throwing out of dilapidated furniture and other junk. As for exteriors he said that one of the most noticeable things about any house is the condition of its porch. He felt that houseowners owe it to themselves and to the community at large to try to make their homes as attractive as possible in this respect.

"There are houses in Belleville which have not been painted in ten years or more," he pointed out. "Every effort should be made to remedy this situation."

Berry and King recommended attention to exterior landscaping as another important phase of the drive. Lawns should be rolled and the edges of the grass should be made for reseeding bare spots. Gardens should be attended to and dirt that has drained into the wrong places should be replaced.

"If the populace is imbued with an intense spirit of civic interest and pride, in their community, they will want the town to look as nice as possible at all times," the statement concluded. "The proper effect can be accomplished only if every person tends to his or her share of the big job. Your home and your yard are all you have to attend to; if you fail in that you fail yourself, your neighbors and your town," he added.

ANOTHER ZONE FIGHT COMING

Main and William Street Folks Expected To Battle Gasoline Station

Another zoning fight loomed over the horizon this week as Donald C. Fox, Newark lawyer, appeared before the Board of Commissioners Tuesday night to request a change of zone at Main and William streets to permit the erection of a gasoline station there. Sentiment in the neighborhood was evenly split yesterday when a straw vote was taken in the vicinity, but opponents of the project indicated that they "will make a bigger fight out of it than Belwood Park put up."

Fox made the application to the Zoning Board last week on behalf of the owners, Sandford Building & Loan Association of Newark, and Tulsa Petroleum Company. The board recommended that the zone of that plot, which takes in seventy-five feet on Main street and 115 feet on William, be changed from residential to business classification.

The applicant pointed out that there were many industries in that neighborhood, notably the Napier Hat Factory directly across William street. Town Attorney Keenan said that those plants came under the non-conforming use law, that is, that they were in operation before the residential zone restriction was placed. The same would not hold for the gas station.

Harry Macheffe Is Reported To Be Improved
The condition of Harry Macheffe of 26 Lincoln terrace, town Republican chairman, was reported considerably improved last night at St. Barnabas Hospital in Newark where he has been undergoing treatment for grippe and a cardiac condition. Hospital authorities said they believed he might be released today.

Macheffe was taken to the hospital Thursday morning in the town ambulance by Officer Nelson Demgard and Fireman Cyphers. Members of his family said he had returned from work the previous Friday suffering from an attack of the grippe.

He remained in bed at home until Thursday when doctors, fearing the strain on his heart, hospitalized him. It was feared that the present intense gubernatorial campaign might have an ill effect on his system.

All H.S. Musical Branches To Participate In Concert

Several Hundred Grads and Undergrads Will Take Part in Annual Event Wednesday Night; Being Directed By Mrs. Alice Wagner, of The Faculty

All the musical forces of the high school, past and present, have been mobilized for the eleventh annual concert of the school's music clubs next Wednesday evening in the school auditorium. To Mrs. Alice Wagner, music instructor, has been given the task of coordinating the talents of several hundred students and graduates for the program. More than 250 musicians and vocalists will take part in the concert, of whom approximately one-fifth are alumni, who have been invited to return to participate.

Mrs. Wagner has been rehearsing for several months to prepare the participants for what is considered one of the outstanding musical events in Belleville. Mrs. Wagner will direct all the organizations with the exception of the forty-piece band, which will be under the baton of Robert B. Parker.

One of the features will be a group of selections by the newly-formed Beginners' Orchestra, eleven youngsters from the high school and the elementary schools who have been molded into a unit by Mrs. Wagner. In the orchestra are Beatrice Albert, Herbert Hauffer and Pat Wilson from the high school, Marilyn Rosnagel from School No. 3, Shirley Kistner, Michael Cafone, Adelmo Marcoghesi, Rosa Zoppa, Robert Pittman and Mary Dougal from No. 9, and Mary Haberle from No. 10.

They were taught by Harold Kroesner, Joseph Kirms, David Pittman, Fred Holland and Ann Kelsall, all members of the high school orchestra.

Orchestra Band To Play
Other participating organizations in the concert will be the fifty-seven-piece orchestra, the forty-piece band, the glee club with 107 voices and the Tonal Arts String Quartette. A number of soloists will also make their appearances. Members of the band are:

HONOR ROTARIANS AT CONVENTION

Local Men Taking Active Part In Two-Day Session At Asbury Park

Two members of the local Rotary Club have an important part in the 182nd district conference of Rotary International at Asbury Park yesterday and today. Rev. Peter R. Deckenbach, past district governor, will report on District Extension Aid at this morning's business session, and George Kadane, Jr., president of the local club, will report on "The Rotarian," magazine of the organization.

Members with records of consecutive attendance at Rotary meetings for more than ten years will be given unusual recognition by Governor Hahn. Chief among these is Edward Seery, Paterson florist, who has not missed a meeting in twenty-seven years, a world record among hundred percenters.

Local members of the hundred percent group are: Phillip Dettelbach, eighteen years; Harvey Thompson, sixteen; Pat Fort, eleven and Willard Sawyer, ten.

Honors For Charter Members
Charter members will also be given special attention, Hahn said. Among those who founded the Belleville club and are still members are John C. Baker, Watson Current, Louis H. Galuba, Charles F. Kintzing, Charles W. Popham, Martin F. Tiernan, John H. Waters, Alfred B. Williams, Alfred Bourgeois, Dettelbach, George E. Goodman, Edward Nelson, William A. Sweeney, De Russe S. Tillou and Ernest B. Wright.

Leather Company Will Build Factory In Ralph Street
The Apex Leather Company of 27 Lexington street, Newark, was given the nod to go ahead and start to make plans for construction of a new plant at 126-8 Ralph street when the Board of Commissioners voted Tuesday night to permit the new company to come to Belleville provided there were no complaints or protests from residents of the neighborhood.

The company gave positive assurance that no tanning would be done in the building and that there would be no offensive odors. Health Officer Berry visited the firm's present plant in Newark and reported that the company did only embossing leather and that no odors were given off. Officials of the company will invite residents of the neighborhood to visit the Newark plant to reassure themselves on that score.

Don't Forget-The Clocks Change On Saturday Night
Just in case you have missed the radio announcements and all other notices about it, don't forget that Daylight Saving Time starts at 2 a.m. on Sunday. Your part in the change is quite simple. Before you jump into bed Saturday night just shove the hands of the old clock ahead one hour and everything will be O.K.

COOKING SCHOOL WILL BE HELD NEXT WEEK

The News' Sessions To Be At St. Peter's School Tuesday Wednesday, Thursday

Hundreds of women are expected to attend the All-Gas Cooking School to be conducted by The Belleville News in the St. Peter's Auditorium at William and Bridge streets for three days next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoon at 2. It will be directed by Miss D. C. Cordery, home service consultant of the Public Service Electric & Gas Co. She will supervise the school and present demonstrations in the handling of the culinary art.

Sessions will start promptly at 2 o'clock and every woman in Belleville is invited to attend. There will be many attractions and many prizes will be offered at each session. There will be a different program each day. The school is entirely free — there is nothing to be sold — it is being staged for the benefit of women of Belleville. Local women-folk are urged to be on hand early to secure the best seats.

The purpose of the school is to bring new, economical ideas in the art of cooking. A thousand women can be accommodated at each session of the school in St. Peter's Auditorium. A sound system has been arranged so that even women in the back of the auditorium will be able to hear every word that Miss Cordery has to say. Mirrors arranged above the tables over which she will work assure good vision for each guest.

As this is the first opportunity The Belleville News has had to entertain the women of Belleville at an All-Gas School, special arrangements have been made to make it successful not only for the paper, but for each woman who attends.

Aside from the great educational value of the classes, the guests will find a number of other features to enjoy.

ABC OFFICIAL RAPS BOARD

Berates Them For Decision Rendered In Acquittal Of Sanky Christian

The town Excise Board was sharply rebuked by the State Alcoholic Beverage Control Board in a recent letter from Deputy Commissioner E. W. Garrett. He criticized the board for acquitting Sanky Christian of 751 Washington avenue of charges growing out of alleged sales to minors.

Said Garrett: "I am not impressed with the reasons that the Board gave in reaching the verdict. They overlook entirely the fact that minors were permitted to consume alcoholic beverages on the licensed premises, which is specifically prohibited by State Regulations 20, Rule 1, regardless of whether an actual sale occurred.

"Nor is it enough for a licensee and his employees merely to ask the ages of suspected minors and make service merely on the basis of the minor that he is over age. The Board should know that the Alcoholic Beverage Law was amended to protect licensees in just this sort of situation. See P.L. 1939, Chap. 228 . . . which provides that it shall constitute a defense to any prosecution for sale to minors where (1) the minor falsely represents in writing that he is over age, and (2) that an ordinary prudent person would believe from the minor's appearance that he was over age."

"I see nothing in the transcript of the testimony at the hearing indicating that the minors in question had falsely represented in writing that they were over age. Without that, all other matters of defense were immaterial."

Christian was acquitted several weeks ago in a trial before the board after ABC agents had found several minors being served in the tavern.

Woman's Club Local Sponsor For Circus On May 1

Kenneth Mase, chairman of the American home department of the Women's Club, has extended an invitation to all club members to be present at Guest Day, Monday afternoon, Mrs. Virginia Lawson Skinner, who has just completed a 13,000-mile tour of companies in which products most commonly used in the home are manufactured, will be the guest speaker and will have as her subject "Mrs. America Looks Ahead."

Those serving with her are Mrs. Homer C. Zink, Mrs. Winfield H. Stone, Mrs. Arthur C. Martin, Mrs. Parmer, Mrs. Herbert Hardman, Mrs. Ira Cornell, Mrs. William H. Jacobson, Mrs. Laury G. Stem, Mrs. John Pole and Mrs. Elwood P. Russell.

G.O.P. Battle Waxes Hot With Zink And Hoffman In Counter Attacks; Alden Will Be Assembly Candidate

HAROLD QUERIES SENATOR ABOUT HAGUE, JR.

Former Governor Slams Zink's Interpretation of The Sales Tax

The long standing feud between Former Governor Harold G. Hoffman and State Senator Homer C. Zink has broken out as a Primary campaign issue and apparently plenty of wordy accusations will be hurled back and forth between the two from now until May 21. The former governor assailed the Rossmore place resident, pointing to Zink's vote to concur Frank Hague, Jr. as a member of the Court of Errors and Appeals. Hoffman, in a statement issued yesterday afternoon, called upon the Essex Senator to give "full and frank answers" to a series of five questions he presented in a letter to the Senator.

Hoffman, after citing a statement by Senator Zink that the 1935 sales tax "penalized even the relief clients," declared that such a statement "either reflects your ignorance of state affairs or is a deliberate untruth." Hoffman then explained that in 1935 the State Emergency Relief Administration increased all relief checks two per cent, so that the tax did not reflect itself in the expenditures of relief clients.

Questioning Senator Zink as to whether it was not true that he had on several occasions approved the Hoffman fiscal policies, the former Governor also charged that Zink had made the promise to the late Jesse Salmon, Essex County Republican leader, that he would never run for office again under the label of Clean Government.

Hoffman's letter to Senator Zink follows: "There has just been called to my attention a statement released by you, apparently through the Hendrickson Campaign Headquarters, criticizing my advocacy of the sales tax as a political maneuver, and containing the charge that 'this tax penalized even the relief clients for whom it was intended to raise funds.'"

Ignorance or Untruth
"Such a statement either reflects your ignorance of state affairs or is a deliberate untruth given to the public in an apparent attempt to gain votes for my opponent.

"You should know that the sales tax did not cost a single person on relief a penny. The moment the sales tax went into effect the relief payments by the State Emergency Relief Administration were increased by exactly two per cent, more than enough to balance the tax. Thus, a check or relief order of $10 was automatically raised to $10.20.

"Since you have taken the trouble to publicly criticize me for political purposes, I think I am entitled publicly to ask you, as one of the apostles of so-called Clean Government, to answer the following questions: "1. Did you know, when you issued the statement referred to, that it represented a glaring misstatement of fact? "2. Is it not true that, upon a number of occasions, both publicly and privately, you have said (Continued on Page Four)

NEW TALKING CAR FOR POLICE

Three New Policemen Named By Clark; Ketterer Made 3rd Grade Fireman

Commissioner Clark's experiment with a talking police car has proved so satisfactory that he has put it on a permanent basis. The temporary arrangement of a loudspeaker mounted on top of a regular patrol car went into discard yesterday and in its place appeared a new white car. Lieutenant Kenneth Smith, who has been placed in charge of the traffic division of the police department will operate the car most of the time.

The new police car is a 1940 Ford coupe. It is painted white with a green radiator hood, a blinking red light on the roof and permanent loud speakers mounted near the fenders. Smith will continue the work begun a month ago of traveling the streets warning motorists who commit traffic violations.

Clark also announced the three new appointments to the police force Tuesday night, as well as an addition to the fire department. Made third grade policeman effective May 1 are James H. Mallack of 21 Howard place, William F. Bridge, Jr., of 30 Bremond street, and Harry Winfield of 238 Ralph street. Named third grade fireman is George C. Ketterer of 336 Stephen street.

Town, School Officials Will Confer On Recreation

Mayor And Noll May Seek To Have Board Change Its Mind On Closing Clearman Field; Would Offer Turf Bog For Football Games

Mayor Williams and Commissioner Noll will confer with members of the Board of Education some time during the next week to seek a solution to the tangled recreation problems, it was decided yesterday when the Mayor called District Clerk Daniels to make arrangements for the conference. Williams and Noll will request the trustees to reconsider their plan to close Clearman Field during the summer for plowing, grading and seeding, which the board approved at its meeting April 15. Recreation Director Lister has complained that his entire athletic program for the summer months has been endangered because Clearman will be unavailable and the status of the Turf Bog is undecided.

The town envoys will suggest that the Turf Bog can be used for high school football in the fall and that the diamond there be removed for that purpose. Clearman would then be given to the Recreation Department to map out a summer program there. Williams says that with proper management the bonds issued for construction of the Turf Bog and the interest on them could be paid off within ten years.

Lister said yesterday that the Belleville Manufacturers' Softball League is in serious difficulties trying to obtain a field and that he does not know if the Church League will have a place to play. Frank Van Dyke of 16 Oak street has pointed out that the Belleville Cardinals' baseball nine has not been able to secure a home field and therefore has had to schedule every game away from home.

The committee for the proposed Belleville Softball Championship Tournament and the Belleville-Nutley series said last night that it has not been able to make any plans for the competition for the same reason. The committee made application two months ago to the Board of Commissioners for the use of the Turf Bog on which to hold the tournament and series but no decision has been reached on the request.

Columbus Avenue Playground
Two new recreation possibilities entered the picture this week as the subject became more and more discussed. Tuesday night Noll said that he would like to convert a 500-foot square lot in Columbus avenue into a playground with several softball fields.

Yesterday a number of boys were brought to police headquarters for doing mischief. They complained to Chief Spatz that they had no place for recreation. Noll said last night that he would attempt to arrange a conference among Rev. Joseph M. Kelly, Spatz, Recorder Smith and himself with the view to converting the vacant lot at William and Clinton streets into a playground.

T. J. McLaughlin Is Chairman Of Holy Name Breakfast

Thomas J. McLaughlin of 15 Smith street has been named general chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the annual communion breakfast of St. Peter's Holy Name Society. It will be held in the new school building of the church on Mothers' Day, May 12. John Baney and James Leonard are in charge of tickets.

ZINK SAYS TOWN DOESN'T WANT HOFFMAN

Hendrickson Will Appear Here May 15; Will Organize Boosters' Group

The activity in the local Republican circles has been speeded up to a fast tempo within the past few days, indicating that the town will see one of the most hotly contested party battles in recent years before the votes are counted in the Primary Election on May 21. Spiced by the name-calling and accusations hurled back and forth between Former Governor Harold G. Hoffman and State Senator Homer C. Zink, who is pledged to support State Senator Robert C. Hendrickson, both factions in the gubernatorial fight announced plans and made predictions for an intensive campaign.

Chief highlights of the situation are: A battle for the control of the local G.O.P. county committee and the town leadership is assured. Although the final date for filing is not until midnight tonight, the majority of the county committee candidates pledged to support Clean Government or running under the designation of "Republican" or "Regular Republican" have already filed petitions with Mrs. Florence H. Morey, town clerk.

Ernest H. Alden of 58 Prospect street, past commander of George A. Younginger Post V.F.W., will probably be a member of the Assembly slate to be filed tonight by the Progressive Clean Government group headed by Mayor Herbert Kruttschnitt of Irvington as opposition to the regular Clean Government ticket.

A Hendrickson-for-Governor Club will be formed tomorrow night and plans are being made for the candidate to speak here on May 15. The Hoffman-for-Governor Club has announced that its canvass indicated that Hoffman would carry Belleville four to one. Hendrickson must be nominated, Senator Zink said in a statement issued last night, if the state is to have a Republican governor in November.

Former Governor Hoffman attacked Zink for his vote on Frank Hague, Jr. for appointment to the Court of Errors and Appeals and asked the Rossmore place resident to reply to five questions.

Meet Tomorrow Night
Those friendly to Hendrickson will meet tomorrow night at the home of Senator Zink to make their plans for an organization. It is planned to have Hendrickson speak here on May 15 at the Joseph King Association headquarters. Among the Clean Government leaders expected at tomorrow night's meeting are Commissioner King, George Haslam, Anthony B. DiLeo, Charles Madison and Michael D'Agostino.

Zink, who makes no attempt to conceal his hatred for Hoffman, indicated last night that the formation of a Hendrickson Club is really not necessary since the Belleville voters will be overwhelmingly for the Clean Government choice.

His statement rapping Hoffman follows: "Sentiment against ex-Governor Hoffman is so strong here that no serious effort need really be made to build up Senator Hendrickson as a candidate. Nevertheless, a Hendrickson Club is to be organized, in line with the campaign policy of having such clubs in all municipalities.

"In 1934, Belleville voted against Mr. Hoffman in the Primary by better than two to one. In November of that year, Judge (Bill) Casper carried the town against Hoffman, although Congressman Hartley literally buried his Democratic opponent, while Dr. Clec and his Republican Assembly ticket also won out.

Made Him More Disliked
"Since 1934, many things have happened to make Mr. Hoffman more widely disliked. His vulnerable record as Governor, his ill-advised sales tax and his bipartisan deals have not been forgotten."

The musical, "A Gay Nineties Revue," written, directed and played by members of the Petrea Club, will be presented tomorrow and Saturday evenings in St. Peter's Parish Hall. It will be the first venture of this kind for the organization, but most of the members of the cast have had dramatic and singing experience.

A production committee consisting of William Brady, Thomas Dowd and Kathryn Donahue selected this type of musical, suggested the various scenes, wrote the dialogue, chose the cast and turned it over to James Leonard and Brady to direct.

Peter Barnes, assisted by Willis MacDonald and Joseph Dillon, designed the scenes and supervised and assisted in the construction of them. ## Woman's Club Will Sponsor "Guest Day" Program

Three years ago the Belleville Woman's Club sponsored a one-day presentation of a three-ring circus at Riviera Park. Arrangements were completed rather hastily after the circus had received cancellation from another organization. The results were sufficiently satisfactory so that the club has repeated the performance yearly. Wednesday, May 1, is the date this year.

A matinee performance by the Hunt Bros. Circus will be held at 3:30 for the accommodation of the school children. The evening show is scheduled for 8:15.

LUMBER COMPANY GETS PERMIT

Provisional Until Zoning Board Meets; Waters Casts Only Dissenting Vote

Bloomfield Lumber Company received a provisional permit Tuesday night from the Board of Commissioners to proceed with its plans for erection of a new planning mill at the much-disputed intersection of Belleville and Smallwood avenues. The permission is contingent upon the final approval of the Zoning Board of Adjustment.

The latter body planned to meet previous to the Commission meeting to make its recommendation, but due to the sudden illness of President Alvin A. Buckley it was postponed. The company's attorney pointed out to the commissioners Tuesday that, were the permit for forthcoming by Saturday, he must make application before Justice Parker for continuance of the court case against the town.

Samuel Figurelli and company officials conferred last week and drew up a pact which was to have been approved by the Zoning Board. Should the latter approve the agreement, the permit will stand; should it be rejected, the court fight will continue. The board is expected to pursue the former course.

Commissioner Waters registered the only negative vote to the permit. "I am opposed to any change up there," he said. "You have four other votes here," he told the commissioners, "so go ahead. I have my own reasons for voting no." He did not make his reasons public.

The Goodwill Chapter, World Wide Guild, a young missionary society of Grace Baptist Church will hold a Penny Supper in the Church Recreation rooms on May 11. The success of last year's similar event has encouraged the young people to repeat the affair. Proceeds will go toward missionary work.

The committee in charge met Monday evening at the home of the chairman, Marian Witt of Beech street. The girls working under her are Lorraine Carpenter, Gladys Smith, Ruth Topping, Marguerite Crippen, Ruth Hagen and Barbara Ewing.

Hold Final Meeting

Gay Start of Romance

Abe Lincoln caught the pig, and found himself face to face with Ann Rutledge, to whom he lost his heart on the spot — thus runs the legend of an early Illinois incident in the history of Lincoln. The scene shows Mary Howard as Ann and Raymond Massey as Abe, in "Abe Lincoln in Illinois," now playing for four days at the Franklin Theatre in Nutley. Co-feature is Robert Montgomery in "Earl of Chicago."

COUNTERFEITING TO BE SUBJECT

Secret Film Will Be Shown Monday At Grace Baptist Church

Fred W. Gruber, supervising agent of the Newark office of the U. S. Secret Service has arranged for the showing of the department's new educational film, "Know Your Money," at Grace Baptist Church, Monday evening at 8. Gruber has emphasized the desirability of police and bank officials as well as merchants and business men, "knowing their money" and to intelligently enter into this campaign of education.

Part of the picture is devoted to close-ups of various denominations of currency in both spurious and genuine forms. In commercial motion pictures such displays of legal tender are forbidden by law. Another danger facing the public pocketbook will be emphasized during the Secret Service educational campaign, and one chapter of the film shows people how to protect themselves against such losses. With the great increase of Government checks through disbursements of emergency funds, large numbers of these checks are being stolen and forged, with resultant losses to small storekeepers.

Following the showing of the picture a Secret Service Agent, Edward V. Sherry, will talk on "Money, Genuine and Counterfeit," and will answer questions. A circular explaining just how to detect counterfeit money and what to do if a professional passer tries to defraud one with counterfeit notes will be handed to each person. The public is invited to attend the meeting.

Main Street Will Be Repaired Shortly, Waters Says

The ravages of the long winter on Main street will soon be repaired, Commissioner Waters said yesterday. Complaints have been received because of the deep holes torn in the pavement between Rutgers street Bridge and Joralemon street.

According to Walters resurfacing will begin by May 10 in this section of the road. Work will also start about the same time on resurfacing Mill street from the new Jergens plant to Harrison street. The town will put up $1,000 to the state's $9,000 to cover both projects. Questioned as to the possibility of putting in a concrete road in Main street, Waters said this would not be done until the state or the county should take over the road, which neither is ready to do.

Religious Services Concluding Passover Festival

Religious services marking the concluding days of the Passover Festival will be held by the Congregation Ahavas Achim of Belleville at its Synagogue, 317 Washington avenue on Sunday night, and on Monday and Tuesday mornings, April 23, 24 and 25. The evening services will start at 6:15 and the morning services at 9.

Rabbi Rubin R. Dobin, spiritual leader of the Congregation, will officiate. Assisted by Morris Rosen, The Yizkor memorial service will be recited at the Tuesday morning service and will start at 10:15.

ZINK'S ATTACK

(Continued from Page One) gotten. Neither has he been forgiven for making our State an object of ridicule by reason of the Hauptmann case.

"The theory that Hoffman, while Governor, saved money for New Jersey has long since been exploded. There is much talk about his 'pay-as-you-go' policy which might better have been called 'spend-as-you-go.' No one in the State was in a man position than I was to observe and evaluate his fiscal policy. He was a spender, interested in patronage and power, not in economical government.

Interested In Serving

"It's refreshing to look at the record of Hendrickson, a clean-cut, able, modest man of character. His interest in government is the interest of one who wants to serve, not of one who merely seeks votes. His sympathy with the people is that of one who would help them, not use them. "Senator Hendrickson may not be so well-known in Essex, but he will be as time goes on. He is not a showman, not an actor, not a Master of Ceremonies. He is, however, trained in government, municipal and state, and will make a splendid governor. His appointments, judicial and otherwise, will be made on the basis of character and ability, not deals for votes.

"Robert C. Hendrickson must be nominated on Primary Day if we are to have a Republican governor in November."

Active In Vet Circles

The inclusion of Alden on the Assembly slate being put in the race by those opposed to Clean Government seems almost assured unless there is a change in plans between last night and filing time at midnight tonight. He has already filed for the Republican County Committee with the designation of "Republican." Alden has resided in town for eleven years. He has been active in veteran activities for some years and is well known in those circles throughout the state and county, having served as commander of the George A. Younginger Post.

An All-Alderney Milk Lunch In Six Courses

Statistics showed Miss Dorothy Faeder, shown above, that a quart of milk is equivalent in food value to two pounds of chicken, or eight eggs, or six and a half pounds of tomatoes or asparagus, or half a dozen bananas, or seven oranges. This picture, taken in the Hotel Robert Treat's main dining room, illustrates Miss Faeder's six-course Alderney milk lunch, with each course a half pint of Grade A milk. By using her imagination she pictured herself having a salad of chicken, eggs, tomatoes and asparagus, with some orange juice first and bananas for dessert. The waiters appear to be enjoying Miss Faeder's unique experiment. —Adv.

Meade Selects Two Numbers For Choral Concert

Local Baritone, Estelle Brook and Ruth Freeman Will Take Part May 7 in Women's Club Concert At Wesley Methodist Church; Patrons Listed

John William Meade, local baritone, this week announced two of the operatic selections which he will sing at the annual Women's Club Choral concert at Wesley Methodist Church, May 7. Meade will headline the concert soloists who also include Estelle Brook, noted coloratura soprano, and Ruth Freeman, flute virtuoso.

Meade will begin his part of the program with Valentine's Aria from Faust by Gounod and the Largo Al Factotum from the Barber of Seville by Rossini. The former is sung by Valentine when he leaves to go to war and its English version begins "Even bravest hearts may swell at the moment of farewell." In the Largo Al Factotum, Figaro, who is the general busybody of Seville, sings that he can do anything you desire from cutting your hair to carrying love notes to your beloved.

Meade recently returned from Bridgeport, Conn., where he sang the role of the high priest in Samson and Delilah. He auditioned for the part after recording for Mark Warnow for four hours. The audition was held before Frank Kassebaum, The Belleville star sang an aria from Paggiacci, Kassebaum chose him for the part, which he had to learn in a week. Meade is expected to take part in the operas which will be put on at the New York World's Fair by Alfredo Salmaggi.

Estelle Brook

Meade, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. D'Angelo, Mrs. Violet Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. John Peacock, Misses Esther and Hazel Adams, Mrs. W. H. Jacobson, Mrs. L. G. Stem.

Miss Brook Impresses Critics

Miss Brook, who has impressed critics and the public in her many appearances with orchestras in New York, Detroit, Pittsburgh and St. Louis, and on the air with Raymond Paige, will sing the soprano solo in Night of Saint-Saens. This selection, which will be rendered by the entire Choral, is well known for its flute obligato, which will be done by Miss Freeman, who is carving for herself a niche in the musical world because of her record at the Juilliard School and her many appearances throughout the country.

Patrons for the affair include: Mrs. and Mrs. W. P. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Charrier, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. ### YOUTH PROGRAM AT SCHOOL

Passaic Ave. Pupils To Give Show Monday Evening For Parents

The pupils of the Passaic Avenue School will celebrate Youth Week by a special program for parents and friends in the school auditorium on Monday night. Phyllis Di Sturco, representing the "Spirit of Youth" will present over one hundred of the school's most talented children, selected from kindergarten through the eighth grade, in skits, plays and minstrelsy.

Solo song numbers will be rendered by Joseph Distasio, grade seven; Mildred Mayers, grade one; and Marie Luzzi grade four. Barbara Paecht of grade two will be featured in one of her acrobatic dance numbers. The school's star drummer, Jack Halbert, and two young accordionists, George Harrison and Alphonso Andolora will do several numbers. The Girls' Glee Club and the school orchestra will also take an active part.

The pupils have been assisted in the preparations and assembling of the program by Dorothy Denison, Ruth Robertson, Regina Lynch, Marie D'Alesio and Eleanor Ohlsen of the faculty. The Parents-Teacher Association is cooperating with the school officials.

NEW STREET MAN HIT BY CAR

First Serious Pedestrian Accident In More Than Two Months

William Connolly, sixty, of 6 New street was reported in fair condition last night at St. Mary's Hospital, Passaic, where he is recovering from injuries sustained Saturday when he was struck by an automobile in Belleville avenue thirty feet west of Union avenue. It was the first serious accident involving a pedestrian in Belleville since Mrs. Robert Wagner was fatally injured February 9.

Lewis A. Middlecamp, thirty-one, of 132 Watching avenue, West Orange, told Captain Leighton, who investigated the accident, that he was driving west on Belleville avenue and had just crossed Union avenue when he saw a car coming towards him. After he passed it, he stated, he heard a bump. When he stopped the car he saw Connolly lying in the street. Connolly, crossing from south to north, was struck by the left fender of the car.

Before the ambulance arrived a car, which police say was driven by William Bray, twenty-two, of 29 Garden avenue, ran into the crowd at the scene of the first accident. Mrs. Middlecamp, wife of the driver of the first car, and Frank Bucci, twenty, of 44 Mt. Prospect avenue, suffered leg bruises and Bray was handed a summons to answer charges of careless driving.

Connolly was taken to the hospital in the town ambulance by Officer Dunn and Fireman Cyphers.

MISS Dorothy Faeder, a very pretty girl from Kew Gardens, L. I., was one of the more colorful guests at the Hotel Robert Treat, Newark, this week. The extraordinary thing about her visit was that she lunched in the hotel's main dining room on milk—and milk alone! The instance proved a few interesting points. For instance, a quart of Alderney Grade A milk is equivalent to no less than eight fresh eggs, or any of the following: two pounds of chicken; six and one-half pounds of tomatoes or asparagus; one half dozen bananas, or seven oranges.

So you see that if Miss Faeder drank four full glasses of Alderney—or one quart—she might easily have taken down the equivalent of a nice Summer salad of chicken, eggs, tomatoes and asparagus, starting with an orange juice appetizer and ending with some sliced bananas. The nourishment value of milk is fairly unobtainable to the average layman. There are plenty of statistics available, some of which we looked over at Alderney Dairy's general offices in Bridge street, and after seeing them we were pretty well pleased with our record of a quart a day which has been our milk ritual over a long period of years. The luncheon diet Miss Faeder followed on her Robert Treat visit proved even the hard-boiled waiters that milk can prove to be a pretty important part of a daily food menu whether it is at the Robert Treat, the drug store lunch counter or in your own breakfast nook back home.

WAR-TIME Canada is sending a delegation of its leading hotel men to Newark Monday for an overnight stay at the Robert Treat en route to the annual New Jersey State Hotel Association convention in Atlantic City. The Treat's Lloyd G. Robinson will be host, along with the association's secretary, Victor Jacoby.

Interesting phase of the visit here is that Canadian flags will decorate the hotel inside and out, as well as all the cars in the motorcade to Atlantic City. We don't usually see a Canadian flag around Newark, and it will be a pleasure, no doubt, for the management of the Treat to welcome the visitors from over the friendliest border in the world.

SHORT, shorts: Griggs Motors' Bill O'Neil will tell you the new Ford convertible club-coupe is pretty neat. . . . There's a pretty steady stream of local luminaries making the daily trek to Jamaica racetrack, and a good many of them have been doing better than they hoped. . . . Thanks to Jockey Basil James. . . . Closest local likeness to the Jamaica crowds is the Sunday picture at Alderney Dairy's popular milk barn on Route 10. . . . One car parked there last Sunday bore a Porto Rican license plate. . . . By the way, next time there try a dish of Alderney coffee ice cream with a dash of marshmallow over it. . . . The kingshelm's smorgasbord, without doubt, the finest in the State. . . . When will it be warm enough for a Planters Punch on the outside verandah of Livingston's beautiful Condo? . . . Have you tried the Zombie? . . . That's your headache! —Adv.

gotten. Neither has he been forgiven for the attack on the State an object of ridicule by reason of the Hauptmann case.
"The theory that Hoffman, while Governor, saved money for New Jersey has long since been exploded. There is much talk about his 'pay-as-you-go' policy which might better have been called 'spend-as-you-go.' No one in the State was in a finer position than I was to observe and evaluate his fiscal policy. He was a spender, interested in patronage and power, not in economical government.

Interested in Serving
"It's refreshing to look at the record of Hendrickson, a clean-cut, able, modest man of character. His interest in government is the interest of one who wants to serve, not of one who merely seeks votes. His sympathy with the people is that of one who would help them, not use them.
"Senator Hendrickson may not be so well-known in Essex, but he will be as time goes on. He is not a showman, not an actor, not a Master of Ceremonies. He is, however, trained in government, municipal and state, and will make a splendid governor. His appointments, judicial and other, will be made on the basis of character and ability, not deals for votes.
"Robert C. Hendrickson must be nominated on Primary Day if we are to have a Republican governor in November."

Active in Vet Circles
The inclusion of Alden on the Assembly slate being put in the race by those opposed to Clean Government seems almost assured unless there is a change in plans between last night and filing time at midnight tonight. He has already filed for the Republican County Committee with the designation of "Republican." Alden has resided in town for eleven years. He has been active in veteran activities for some years and is well known in those circles throughout the state and county, having served as commander of the George A. Younginger Post.

OVER THE WOMAN'S DESK

by Peggy Patterson

Are there closet doors in your home which you hardly dare to open, tottering stacks of newspapers and magazines in the basement, cartons and dusty bundles of nonentities in the attic which have arrived there after being transferred from place to place throughout the house on the theory that being out of sight they would be out of mind? You have undoubtedly found out that that theory does not work and that the small, guilty feeling which has been haunting you will not disappear until it, like the bundles, has been aired and dusted, if not discarded altogether. This process, known as spring cleaning, is even now the nucleus of jokes and parodies on the radio and in your magazines which shows how universal a situation is this matter of a yearly stock-taking of your possessions.

Granted that it is an unpleasant task, there are yet ways of tackling the job which will lighten the burden considerably. First of all, plan to spread the work out over a period of days — which for Belleville housewives can very aptly be the coming week, officially designated as Clean-Up Week. For those days when the normal duties of your home are heavy choose the lighter tasks of cleaning closets, cabinets and other small areas. For the days on which housework is ordinarily light plan to attack your cellar and attic.

Make Family Help

Enlist the aid of the various members of your family by asking them to claim all possessions which they have stored in communal closet space, discarding the things which they do not want and finding places for the others in the premises of their own rooms. Provide yourself with some large cartons and baskets substantial enough to hold their cargo and sturdy enough to keep it intact while it awaits removal at the curb. With this plan in mind and the knowledge that extra removal of trash during the coming week, you can start off with a good resolve.

Remember too, that as you move about in unison with your neighbors re-organizing and removing dangerous collections of inflammable materials that you are contributing in no small way to the safety of your immediate family and all Belleville families. Fires, often the result of the accidental igniting of such accumulations, bring death and sorrow too often. If a few days of concerted action can allay the fear, which we all have periodically, that our house might be in such danger, let us seize the opportunity to work toward peace of mind.

To be working along the same line as your neighbors will considerably lighten the ordeal. Remember as you stretch on your toes or tussle with weights that yours is not the only aching back and weary head. Many hands will make light work even though they are all working out of sight with each other.

And now to lay the bugaboo of spring cleaning! If you will recall accurately how you felt the last time that you tackled this job, you will probably be willing to admit that it was not so much the actual labor which exhausted you as the long agonizing moments of indecision over what you should discard; and then the aftermath of discouragement when you have discovered that another year has rolled around and you have made not the slightest use of the things you so carefully preserved.

Resolve, therefore, to be firm with yourself. Sentimental attachment is not a sufficient reason for preserving an article unless it is very intimate and personal. A thing must have authentic beauty along simple lines and potential usefulness before it is worth keeping. You will see these attributes if they are present; if such is not the case, be satisfied that you are not wasteful and cast it aside firmly.

Rehabilitating Furniture

We venture to say that hardly a home magazine on the market has not dedicated space in each issue to the marvelous feats of rehabilitation which are being accomplished not only by experts but by non-professionals like ourselves. An ugly, round, spindly table is deftly sliced in two and refinished to make two charming end tables. A top-heavy old-fashioned table is brought down to chair height and becomes companion to a fireside chair, its marble top being stain-proof as well as beautiful.

Mirrors lifted out of gingerbread frames are hung with simple grace and often transform the whole appearance of a room. Pop-heavy bookcases have their insufficient legs removed and settle down firmly on the floor where, shorn of glass doors and fanciful tops, they too become useful again and beautiful by means of their new-found simplicity. A lovely lamp may be hiding under an ugly shade in your attic. Top it with a fresh severely plain shade and marvel at the result.

Your magazines are replete with dozens of these suggestions and brightly told success stories which you can easily duplicate. May we suggest that you note through them this week nothing but the items which coincide with the occupants of your attics and storerooms. You will find that there are many more pieces than you suspected which will challenge your inventiveness and skill.

One piece saved will make you feel reconciled to discarding the dozen others which you might have saved in vain unless your plans were formulated beforehand. Select a spot and lay aside these treasures. Anticipation for the new undertaking will whet your appetite for work and before you know it your housecleaning will be over.

A Mutual Customer Is The Winner

Noses don't count in this contest so the woman on the right misses out. But, if the lady in the centre, whose head is completely ringed, will call at The News' Office, 328 Washington avenue, she will receive a $5 purchase order good at the Mutual Self-Service Market at 494 Union avenue. She was among those who were doing their Saturday shopping there on Saturday when The News' photographer called.

Dining Room Tables Will Abound With Flowers

Informal dining tables during the spring and summer will be veritable flower gardens even though real flowers are not included in the setting; for the printed and hand embroidered linens are nearly all in floral motifs. Cream and white backgrounds sport flaming tulips and gay colored flowers of all kinds. All are particularly tasteful. Pastels are used as background as well as the neutral tones. A pale blue cloth printed with apple blossoms in various stages of bloom is one of the happiest choices. Outstanding also are the cloths which are printed with fruit designs. We recall as most effective one in which apples, waxy green grapes, sparkling strawberries and deep blue plums are posed against natural linen.

A best seller is solid color linen and the numerous tints should give you an opportunity to play up your favorite china. There are yellow, aqua, cornflower blue, green, burgundy and brown, napkins to match. The simplicity of these rich colors is the perfect foil for genuine colonial or antique china which is usually in ornate formal pattern or carries historical scenes. Choose a cloth which accentuates the color highlight in the design of your china and you will be delighted with the effect. An outstanding instance is a display of brown and white willow ware through which runs a fine trace of red. Laid out on a deep burgundy cloth the whole effect is enlivened to a point where it is fascinating. Inexpensive, more modern china in pictorial design is also made more effective by these plain cloths.

Pale Blue A Favorite

Reversing the order, you will find that very simple china in pure white or crystal goes nicely on the exquisite hand embroidered linens which you may now purchase in pastel shades. Pale blue comes to the fore again and we find it in fine linen embroidered in little bouquets of flowers in shades of pink, yellow and dark blue. And again, pale blue embroidered simply in forget-me-nots. On the table in the latter case are tastefully placed vases or real forget-me-nots.

Basque-luncheon cloths and napkins are a compromise between the solid color and all-over printed linen. In pink, blue and green these are bordered in vari-colored stripes.

Looking like miniature porch screens or Venetian blinds, there are dainty bamboo table mats for informal summer use. These are very gay and featherweight and will compete for popularity with the cellophane mats and cork mats which have been seen in the stores for some time. Brilliant striped borders are also the feature in these table mats which come in red, dark blue and green as well as natural.

Dressing table skirts and window draperies for your bedroom are ensembled this season to such an extent that no one seems to be thinking of one without the other. The effect is most charming when it is possible to place your powder table directly beneath a window. In this case you can choose floor-length draperies which match the skirt of the table and give a very lavish effect; or you may select the short swag draperies which extend only about a third of the way down the window casing. The latter are preferable with the hot weather in view as they do not restrict the passage of air. Bedspreads of course are included in these ensembles.

There is no limit to the Variety of fabrics used from the sheerest organdy to sturdy percales, plain and printed chintzes and printed linens. Stripes are featured in the sturdiest materials and are very smart in spreads, table skirts and draperies for one who prefers a sophisticated and not a frilly atmosphere. We recall a deep blue and white striped fabric used for the valance of a spread, the straight-hanging drapes and the crisp table skirt. Panels of white in the spread and a yoke treatment in white on the table were accented with curling bowknots of the striped material.

Embroidery is revived. The revival of embroidery and eyelet work has had an opportunity to take its biggest strides in these accessories. Deep ruffles of batiste, completely worked in eyelet, billow from the confines of trim quilted covers of Heavenly Blue on the bed, dressing table and window valance in one exhibition room. Even the dressing table bench and the waste baskets are wearing ruffles. Organdy seems to be the accepted medium for dainty hand embroidery as in the case of a dressing table skirt which is powdered with small pink and white daisies or one on which fluffy big daisies have been appliqued around the top and where the ruffle joins the skirt.

Contest Recipes

Send your favorite and reliable recipes to our contest. Two prizes will be awarded weekly. Each winner will receive two guest passes to the Kent Theatre. The features starting Sunday are "Dr. Ehrlich's Magic Bullet" and "Swiss Family Robinson."

This week's prize winning recipes will both contribute to your plans for entertaining at tea. Either or both of them will make a festive occasion out of serving tea to your friends. First prize winner is Mrs. Harold Shaw of 89 Continental avenue who will receive two tickets to the Kent Theatre.

Tea Biscuits De Luxe

- 2 cups sifted flour
- 4 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 4 tablespoons shortening
- 1 egg
- 1/2 cup milk

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in shortening. Beat egg slightly in measuring cup, add milk and add to first mixture. Roll out 1/2 inch thick and cut with floured cutter. Bake in 475 degrees or very hot oven for 12 minutes. This recipe makes about 16 biscuits.

Mrs. N. H. Potter of 25 Oak street is another theatre ticket winner with the following attractive recipe.

Afternoon Tea Puffs

- 1 cup water
- 1/2 cup liquid fat
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup flour
- 3 large eggs

Bring fat and water to a boil and add flour and salt. Stir until mixture leaves the side of pan. Remove from fire and cool. Place mixture in bowl. Add eggs, one at a time, beating after each addition. Drop by spoonfuls on oiled baking sheet. Bake 15 minutes at 450 degrees and then lower the heat to 350 degrees for 25 minutes. When cool make a small opening and fill with your favorite custard filling or sweetened whipped cream.

Many of you, no doubt, are in a position to contribute to this column recipes which would be very much appreciated by your neighbors at this time of the year when jaded appetites call for refreshing salads and desserts. Let us have them.

FINDS WAITING WORTHWHILE

Bank Customer Frets Over Delay; Then Wins Five Dollars

Charles F. Werdann Jr., of 43 Division avenue is planning on being married soon. That's why the $5 award which he won last week in The News' weekly photo contest will go straight into his savings account at People's National Bank and Trust Company. Werdann was in the bank Saturday, April 13, cashing his pay-check from Hyatt Roller Bearing Company where he works in the metallurgical laboratories. He was fretting about the line ahead of him at the teller's window when in strolled the roving photographer of The News to snap a picture. When the photo appeared in last week's issue Werdann's face was the lucky one ringed and he became $5 richer. When you go out to do your shopping this weekend do not go out of Belleville. There are two reasons — first you can find practically anything you want right here in the shops of the local merchants, and second you might be in the group when The News' photographer drops in for his weekend snap sometime Saturday. When the picture appears in the paper next Thursday you might be the lucky one.

Three New Fiction Books Added At Library

Among new fiction in the adult department of the Free Public Library are:

The Red Saint, by Warwick Deeping, a tale of historic England during the Barons' War. It is the love story of Denise and Aymer and their adventures in a time of strife and cruelty.

Experiment, by Helen Hull, a collection of four short novels. Each story has a moral, told in excellent manner. Each is a portrayal of the American scene in its true character.

Romance in crimson, by Octavus Roy Cohen in the rental collection is an absorbing story combining mystery and romance. In this swift-moving story, a beautiful girl is unjustly accused of murder, and through drama, suspense and amazing revelations, the young hero is able to help her.

Musical Reviews

"Modern Music and Contemporary Composers," the lecture given before the Bloomfield Woman's Club yesterday morning by Eleanor Bacon-Peck, proved that the developments of today may be as fascinating as the study of the accomplishments of the past. Mrs. Peck warned her audience that they must not shut out the music of today and live only with the acknowledged masters of former generations, but rather listen to the new music as well, thereby being a part of the present age. In speaking about the lack of tonality of the recently-composed music, Mrs. Peck explained what one must listen for and expect in this music. Several of the works of Stravinsky and Schoenberg were analyzed, and their methods of composing and attitude towards their art discussed. One left the lecture feeling that Mrs. Peck had given one some basis for understanding and appreciating music in the modern idiom.

PICK JITTERBUG KING, QUEEN

Pat Tortorello, Catherine Murphy Take First Honors At Fewsmithe

King and Queen of the Jitterbugs were chosen last Friday night at a contest held in the recreation room of the Fewsmithe Presbyterian Church. Pat Tortorello and Catherine Murphy stole the honors, which were awarded by the chaperons, Dr. and Mrs. B. Earl Failing and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Struble. The contest was not the easiest to decide. Jerry Ferrara and Julie Byrnes and Connie Hamilton with Lee Calaway made the decision a tight one. Final selection was made with the assistance of the audience. A loving cup went to the winners.

The contest was sponsored by the Fewsmithe All-Youth in conjunction with their Friday night dances. The next one is scheduled for May 3 when Miss Eileen Atkinson of the Fewsmithe Young People's Fellowship group will be chairman.

Women's Groups Are Cooperating In Red Cross Work

Various women's organizations and church societies have cooperated with The Red Cross in the volunteer sewing and knitting work they now have on hand. The present quota must be completed by May 15 and the work is well under way. World events point to the possibility that this organization may be called on for extra supplies in which case the local Red Cross will make an appeal to the general public for volunteer workers who would be willing to knit and sew garments which in most cases are already cut out. Mrs. Harvey Thompson of Hornblower avenue is in charge of distribution.

Let's All Clean Up A Bit

Cleanliness is a virtue which we try to achieve individually, but collectively as a community we frequently fall down on the job.

The important thing is that all of us should make a real effort to show that we are interested in this endeavor—not only for our own personal satisfaction or benefit but for that of the entire community.

The health department has promised the people full cooperation in the picking up of refuse which is placed on the curb. If you have not gotten around to the job already take some time off over the weekend and root all that is unnecessary out of the attic, closets and cellars.

You will be surprised how much better and newer the place will look if you will spend a few hours cleaning. Bending a little effort toward this work every once in a while is for your own good.

If you feel that you can splurge a bit some painting and brightening up of the house won't do any harm.

Commissioner King, who is the head of the Department of Public Affairs, and Health Officer Eugene Berry have asked for cooperation. Let's make this spring clean-up campaign worth while — not just a one week affair but something which will last the year round.

Nabbing The Habitual Violator

The State Motor Vehicle Department is making a greater effort to prosecute and bring under control the habitual violator of the traffic laws.

This is largely responsible for the fifteen per cent increase in the number of licenses revoked during the first quarter of this year over last year.

Commissioner Magee has struck at an important factor in the number of accidents in this state through nabbing these motorists. Subject to possible revocation of licenses are those who have been involved in two or more accidents for which they were responsible or those who have been twice convicted of moving traffic violations such as speeding or reckless or careless driving.

This should serve as a warning to those who are willing to risk the chance of getting under the wire with traffic violations. More police departments each day are learning that the motor vehicle problem must be dealt with severely.

Commissioner Magee's policy has served as an impetus to the law enforcement agencies throughout the state for in him they realize that they have a champion who will deal with motor vehicle violators harshly and without favor.

A Valuable Educational Asset

Music adds something to life which it is some times hard for us to explain. It is an outlet for an inner feeling which makes many of us happy because we are able to play, sing or just listen.

Several weeks ago the progress which the high school art department is making was commented upon. Next week the school will hold its annual music concert.

Without A Moment's Tribute

Call it being soft-shelled if you like, but to us there was something almost sordid about the way in which the politicians of the state jumped at the word of the untimely death of D. Frederick Burnett.

It seemed disrespectful to one who had kept himself so free of politics and its entanglements in what was unquestionably an excellent administration of one of the state's most important industries.

young people will participate makes any comment unnecessary. It is proof of the advancement that has been made in this field in the local educational system.

The three R's are still the basic elements of education but without such courses as music and art the school program of today would not have progressed to the state it has already. It has provided a proving ground for young people possessing unusual talent.

We wish we could say the same for one state senator who is prominently being mentioned as a possible successor. To say that he could hope to fill Mr. Burnett's shoes would be an exaggeration.

A politician is not wanted for the position as administrator of the liquor industry. Mr. Burnett pioneered a trail that will be difficult for any man to follow—most of all a full-blooded politician.

For the moment let us forget the politicians and talk of a successor. The people of this state and those in the liquor industry have lost a valuable public servant. One who will be difficult to replace.

Flowers That Bloom in the Spring Tra-La

THIS BUSINESS OF GOVERNMENT by Samuel S. Kenworthy

Executive Sec'y N. J. State League of Municipalities

UNSOOUND PENSION SYSTEMS. New Jersey has 210 public employee pension funds. Only two, the State Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund and the State Employees' Retirement System are recognized as really sound.

The instability of the others is demonstrated by the increasing deficits taxpayers are called to meet. Municipal contributions to unsound pension funds this year, over and above the amounts fixed by law, totaled more than a million dollars.

There are 80,000 public employees in state, county and local government, including school teachers. Approximately 55,000 are members of pension systems. About half, 27,000, are school teachers and other school employees who come under the Teachers' Pension Fund.

ODDS AND ENDS FROM OTHER PENS

Well Done Fifty years ago there were but 11 free libraries in New Jersey as contrasted with 40 subscription libraries. Today there are 305 municipal free libraries, two subscription libraries and 11 county libraries with 556 public library stations, 59 high school stations and 483 elementary school stations.

Jersey Loses Out In spite of the efforts made by State Motor Vehicle Commissioner Magee, aided by the State Police Department, to impress upon motorists, pedestrians and all users of the highways to obey the rules of safety and maintain the position won by the State the previous year as the safest State in the Union to motor over, users of the highways fell down on the job last year, the complete returns show, and Jersey was pushed down to third place.

Without A Moment's Tribute Call it being soft-shelled if you like, but to us there was something almost sordid about the way in which the politicians of the state jumped at the word of the untimely death of D. Frederick Burnett.

One thing is clear amid the confusion that always accompanies the deadline for filing primary petitions: there will be no contests for the Republican nominations in the Tenth, Eleventh and Twelfth Congressional Districts.

Democratic opponents do not appear too strong except in the Eleventh District. There Albert L. Vreeland will face Miss Mary C. Duffy of South Orange, supreme regent of the Catholic Daughters of America.

"I was very much disturbed recently when notified by hospital authorities in a distant city that an aged relative had passed on and requesting instructions.

"Like most people, I was unfamiliar with the proper procedure to follow in such cases and I was grateful for the suggestion of a friend that I call William V. Irvine, their Funeral Director, for advice.

"Imagine my relief when Mr. Irvine informed me that he would assume responsibility for all details from beginning to end. His charge for this complete service was surprisingly moderate and I would recommend him unhesitatingly to anyone.

Sports Before Your Eyes

Clean-Up Week

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the town with brooms and rakes, mops and shovels. The annual Clean-Up Week will start Monday — a full week of trying to repair the ravages of a tough winter. The town government will likewise send out men to clean vacant and town-owned lots. Wonder if the impoverished town ballfields will be included in the program. It would be a good idea to get a crew of men on each and put them in playing condition.

There is a lot of sportsmanship connected with something like Clean-Up Week. The residents of each block form a team and if one fails to do his share of the common job, the appearance of the entire street suffers. Houses in need of paint stick out like a sore thumb; grounds with spotty lawns and weeds look like shabby shubs detract from the beauty of the whole block. The numerous homes in town in just such a condition create an unfavorable impression on residents of other communities. The sportsmanlike thing to do is to do your share to boost the appearance of Belleville.

Rain and low temperatures have certainly wrecked the fond plans of baseball managers everywhere. Even a brief appearance of old Sol these days is much appreciated. The high school's washed-out game with Harrison will be played tomorrow afternoon. The golfers went right on with their schedule — neither hell nor high water seem to be able to dampen the spirit of the serious linksmen. The trackmen ventured out long enough for a little practice meet at Brookdale Friday but it was several days before they got on a full-fledged track again. Now, if Miss Spring will only wake up to the fact that she is supposed to be here, we might get something done.

Union In Hot Water

Even the new management at Union Speedway seems to be having trouble gaining the good will of the big car fans. When the season opener was snowed out two weeks ago, manager Al Santo lost his head and got into the bad graces of the cash customers. He first refused to make any refunds, which made the patrons sore because they figured the real reason was because a disappointing number of cars had showed up. Then he made a rash statement that, if they would mail their stubs in, they would get their money back 100%. Most of the patrons did not want rain checks because the Union programs are such indefinite affairs. Hundreds did mail their stubs back to the track. Each received a neat little note to the effect that it was contrary to the policy of the management to refund money. All of which made one Belleville patron so mad that he has handed the matter to his lawyer as a matter of principle.

Good Luck, Ray

Here's a glad hand and a hearty sendoff to Ray Bryan. He'll head off Saturday morning before the cock crows for San Francisco and, if everything goes right, he'll land there with a shiny new record in his pocket. It's a gigantic undertaking that he is heading into but he is big enough to take it. By the time he gets finished going up and down over the Pennsylvania mountains, across the Great Central Plain where even a mole hill would be a welcome sight to break the monotony of the flatness and the up and down again over the Rockies, he will be ready for a two-day sleep.

DOGS

by Laurence Torley

Mange

There seems to be quite an epidemic of mange at this time. There are two types of mange, Follicular and Sarcopic. Follicular mange is not so contagious as the Sarcopic. It is caused by a mite which burrows under the skin and causes intense irritation. Little red spots are formed which burst, causing the hair to fall out. A dog having the disease should be isolated. He should be given a warm bath and rubbed dry. Then the entire coat should be treated with a mange dressing which usually consists of olive oil, tar oil, turpentine, and sulphur, or a dressing of lime and sulphur. Sulphur is necessary for any mange dressing. Sarcopic mange does not respond to regional treatment except in its very early stages. It is also due to a parasite but this disease is very contagious. The dog loses its hair in patches, and part of the skin is covered with little red swellings and yellow scabs. The hair should be removed and the skin treated with a mixture of creosote, olive oil, potash, and sulphur. Both of these diseases are rather messy to treat at home, and as it is useless to attempt a cure by treating down on the treatment, the sensible way is to have the dog treated by a veterinarian or experienced dog-breeder. Many people see the symptoms but think that it is just a case of too much meat, milk, etc. Food has nothing whatever to do with mange.

Pitt Minors Hope That Weather Will Give Them Break

The Pitt Minors, drowned out of their opener with the Weston Biscuit nine Saturday and frozen out of their second scheduled exhibition with Heller Brothers Sunday, hope to open their season Saturday at Preston Oval against the Newark Cardinals. Sunday they will help to open the Sussex season when they play the Farmers on the Sussex High diamond.

Fewsmith Fives Which Gained Some Glory

Eight Teams Are Expected To Enter Softball Loop

The Ministers' Club of Belleville will continue its program inaugurated last winter of greater athletic activity in the town's churches. The club decided at a luncheon-meeting at the high school Tuesday to carry its plans forward into softball. The program began during the winter with the formation of a church basketball league.

Bellboy Golfers Lose Matches To Montclair-Caldwell

Billy Radomsky, and Fred De Furia scored all of Belleville High's points as the resurrected golf team dropped its opening decision 9 1/2-2 1/2 to Montclair High state champions at Broadacres, Bloomfield, Friday afternoon. De Furia and Molinaro brought home 83's, Capinear had an 89 and Radomski went around in 91. Montclair's No. 1 man toured the course in 74.

Still lacking experience, the golfers nevertheless made a much better showing in dropping an 11-7 decision to Caldwell. Pompey Molinaro, Fred De Furia, Mike Capinear, Tony Rossi, Bill Radomski and Nick Calicchio waged a bitter battle before bowing to their more experienced opponents Monday afternoon.

LACK OF BINGLES SINKS LOCALS IN DEBUT

South Side Triumphs 1-0 As Yuknus Limits Bellboys To One Hit

Weakness with the willow along with superb twirling by South Side's Fritz Yuknus combined to hand the Bellboys a 1-0 loss in the season's curtain raiser Friday afternoon at Newark West Side's diamond. Jack Avazier pitched good ball for the locals and was only slightly less effective than his opponent, weakening just enough in the fifth to let in the lone tally. Avazier set the Newarkers down with only four bingles, but two of them came in the fifth. In the meantime Yuknus had the Bellboys swinging like gates. According to the official scorer he allowed only one hit and that in the seventh and last inning. Other versions of the score credit Bob Fredericks with a base knock in the fifth, but the official book marked it as an error for the South Side third baseman. The hit was a sharp one and Moore could get only one hand on it. Spark-plug Joe Sullivan was the only Bellevilleite to slap out an undisputed hit in the fray and it came with one out in the seventh. Yuknus promptly fanned Avazier and ended the game by making Bill Handley ground out to first.

Won His Own Game

Yuknus also won his own game went down the drainpipe with a two-bagger in the fifth with Bob Goeb on base. Goeb had singled and came all the way home on the twirler's scorcher. Belleville's only consolation was the fact that they played errorless ball.

Monday's tilt with Harrison went down the drainpipe with a lot of rainwater and was postponed to tomorrow. It will be played in the Hudson town at 3:30. The Bellboys will travel to meet Orange Tuesday afternoon.

Table with 4 columns: Name, Position, Team, Record. Lists players like Bellville, Litsch, Piccolino, Sullivan, Avazier, Handley, Calicchio, Fiericks, Burns, Miller, McDermott.

Errors — Moore. Run batted in — Yuknus. Double — Yuknus. Struck out — by Avazier 5; Yuknus 8. Bases on balls — off Avazier 1; Yuknus 0. Umpires — L. Smith, J. Smith.

Mohawks Will Open Saturday Against Senator Team

Rain forced the Belleville Mohawks to postpone their opening game with the Belleville Musketeers scheduled for Saturday afternoon. The contest will be played later in the season. This Saturday afternoon they will open against the Belleville Senators at Number Seven School field. The game will start at 2:30. The Mohawks have added Ed "Red" Gorman and Jeff Powell to the roster. The Mohawks want to arrange games with any heavy junior or light senior teams in this vicinity to be played at home or away.

Trackmen Will Open Tomorrow Against South Side, Arts

Coach Winika Is Quite Optimistic; Forty-Four Turn Out For Squad; Practice At Brookdale

Wilho Winika is much more optimistic than most coaches will permit themselves to be before the opening of the season. His high school tracksters will ring up the curtain tomorrow afternoon in a triangular meet with Arts and South Side at Weequahic Park and yesterday saw the blond mentor still in jovial humor. He figures the team is in pretty good shape and is fairly strong in all events. He did admit a weakness in the "440" but thought that George Baldwin could fill Ed Dyson's shoes fairly well. Baldwin has been training ever since last fall. Winika is also encouraged by the turnout of frosh and soph in the middle distances and the mile.

George Tietze, Bob Engel and John Jocher, all first-string football men, will take care of the weight division. The weights will take in only the shot put, since neither the local Board of Education nor Brookdale Park authorities will permit dangerous instruments such as a discus or javelin to be used on their properties.

Winika figures that the present turnout of forty-four men, most of whom are from the lower classes, are building one of the nicest teams for the future that the Blue and Gold has seen in many a moon. He is planning on carrying all forty-four on the squad throughout the season to give them the benefit of actual experience. The candidates are:

Bryan Pushes Off Saturday On Transcontinental Tour

Cyclist Hopes To Pedal To 'Frisco In Sixteen Days; Says He Is Toughened Up For Long Grind; Present Record Almost Twenty-One Days

Ray Bryan, Union avenue cyclist, will push off from New York's City Hall at 6:55 Saturday morning to start his transcontinental dash with the chance of a new record at the end of it. According to his schedule, he should arrive in San Francisco, 3,200 miles from his starting point, on May 12 or 15. He has alternate schedules, one to bring him to his destination on the twelfth and the other on the fifteenth. The second makes the trip in slightly easier stages than the first.

Bryan will be shooting at the record of twenty days, seventeen hours credited to Clarence Wagner. The local pedal pusher, who is twenty and stands well over six feet in height, hopes to lower the mark to sixteen days. His route will take him through or near Harrisburgh, Pittsburgh, Upper Sandusky, O., Loganport, Ind., Peoria, Ill., Omaha, Neb., Cheyenne, Wyo., Salt Lake City, Reno and Sacramento.

Officials of the Amateur Bicycle League of America will join members of Bryan's family and Joseph G. Kopsky, mentor of the Belleville Bicycle Club and Bryan's teacher, in New York to see him off. His brother, Willard S. Bryan of the Union avenue address, who is commander of the Newark Camp of the Sons of the Union Veterans, will give him a letter to the national commander in Los Angeles, where he will go after finishing the trip.

Will Get The Proof

Young Bryan has worked up a fool-proof scheme to authenticate the progress of his record attempt. On the back of large pictures of himself are spaces for filling in date, place, his signature and those of witnesses. He plans to have these signed in every town all the way across the country.

Bryan has already started to soak his hands and feet in vinegar and salt water to toughen them. This is the last phase of his training period, a period which has seen him riding from fifty miles up every day for many weeks. He has no fear of saddle soreness. He says that he will get more tired of sitting coming back on the bus.

"After the trip I will be almost unable to walk," he said yesterday, "and should I try to run I would stand a good chance of falling on my face. My weight will stay the same, or perhaps I shall gain some, barring sickness. In event of illness, I shall continue my day's rides as best I can, doctoring at night. In case of accident, I shall continue if at all possible. I believe that there will be no ill effects from the trip."

Bryan has outfitted his bike with two caliper brakes and regular racing seat. The latter is the type used by several road racers but is seldom used on the track. The wheels have been built with tandem spikes and are wired and soldered to help prevent breakage. The rims are stronger than most riders use. In the rear wheel a double-cog hub has been incorporated to enable him to change the gear in about one minute. He will use a five wheel the entire distance, although he will have fixed-wheel cogs as spares should the pawls of the free-wheel slip. He will take four spare tires and several extra spokes.

Annual Soph Hop April 26 At High School

Final preparations are being made for the annual Soph Hop to be held in the high school tomorrow night. Sophomore president and dance committee chairman, Robert Kimble, said this week that Stan Van Brunt will bring a twelve-piece orchestra with him for the affair. Van Brunt has played at high school proms in Bergen, Hudson and Essex Counties. Joe Denton is the featured vocalist with the band.

The class officers are Kimble's principal assistants in making the arrangements for the affair. They are John Higgins, vice-president; Charlotte Barber, secretary, and Donald Cocks, treasurer. Members of the sub-committee include:

Orchestra, Irene Dinhoff, Robert Morgan, Boyd Hartley, June Skinner and Hugh Kittle, Jr.; Expenses, Doris Elder, Kenneth Smith, William Allen and Kittle; Tickets, posters and publicity, Marjorie Green, Peggy Boyce and Angelina Mallory; Refreshments, Betty Lou Dunn and Lois Foss; Hostesses, Jean Duley, Peggy Boyce, Miriam Lanno and Florence Sichel; Decorations, Eleanor Rudzinski, Charlton Reinecke, Robert Morgan and Robert Weiss.

Crowds Flocking To See School Art Exhibit

The crowds which are flocking to see the annual exhibit of the art work of the students of the elementary grades of the public school system, threaten to knock out all existing attendance records, Miss Helen Simpson, exhibit director, said yesterday. Ever since the display opened at the Public Library Monday, there has been a constant stream of adults and children eager to view the charcoal, crayon and chalk drawings, water colors, weaving, metal work, pottery and modeling in clay.

A GREAT HOME NEWSPAPER

WHAT'S NEWSICAL?

Jimmy Dorsey's Got Everything

The National Broadcasting System presents the music of Jimmy Dorsey, world's greatest saxophonist and his orchestra, playing from the Cafe Rouge in Hotel Pennsylvania, Seventh Avenue and 33rd Street, and as we write this bit of NEWSICAL data that's exactly what we hear as the smooth-voiced announcer signs on America's most versatile band. After a couple of visits to this new room in Manhattan we conclude quite definitely that Jimmy and crew give out in the most appealing style whether it be swinging or just simple melody. Without question the band is better than it has ever been. The sax section is a smooth synchronized unit that performs almost as consistently as a machine... but without the monotony... the brass is the finest with its three new trumpeters... trombones are flawless and when coupled with the three consistently good trumpets offer heavy competition to the brass of any other band in the country. The rhythm section leaves nothing to be desired... piano, guitar, bass and drums making the most mellow, yet most solid foundation to be found.

Helen O'Connell, the gorgeous, is now coming in for her share of ballads along with the one and only, Bob Eberly. These two kids take care of any vocal in a manner to be emulated by some of the other would-be vocalists. In case you haven't heard Helen do "Madame Lazonga" keep tuned to the Dorsey broadcasts and if you meet with little success wait as patiently as you can for Decca to release their record of it. Also, young ladies, wait 'til you hear brother Bob do "The Breeze and I"... it's superb and should be done only by this great fellow and the band... with its super backing up on all vocals. Credit for the wonderful arrangement goes to Toots Cammerato of Verona and Joe Lipmann, pianist with the band.

New Band For Point Pleasant

About this time every year you hear talk about the shore and its favorite hangouts. A few weeks ago we mentioned that Tommy Tucker and Ork were all set to go into the Rainbow Room of the Main Central Hotel at Asbury. As luck would have it... the hotel was reduced to ashes about four days later. We now pass on the word that Jankinson's Pavilion in Point Pleasant will boast of the music of Alvin Roy and his orchestra, featuring the famous King Sisters. Rumors have it that both Mutual and NBC will serve the ballroom but rumors are rumors. Alvin Roy, you may remember, is the chap who played those electric guitar introductions and other passages for the Horace Heidt tribe before leaving to form his own fine organization. The King Sisters were also an integral part of the Heidt troupe until they also struck out on their own fame and fortune.

Yvonne King, "Vonnie" to her friends... and the smallest of the sisters... she's just five feet... was a guest at the Penn while we were there... "guest" is hardly the word for it as she and Don Mattison, smooth looking trombonist with the Dorsey clan are and have been that-a-way for a long, long time. "Vonnie" and yours truly did a fast bit of fancy stepping but Miss King kept complaining of the holes in the floor wherever we danced... she was exactly twelve and one-half inches shorter than her partner.

A Real Trouper

While on the subject of singers it is with much admiration that we mention another guest to the Penn... a guest who could sit and take in the music but who was unable to enjoy herself in a way that most young ladies can by dancing... Connie Boswell. She was confined to her specially built wheelchair in which she is moved about... but there was a happy smile on her face. She was the center of attraction for all those about. A grand gal and a great singer... to her goes all the credit in the world for her spirit and ambition.

Mac's Face Was Red

When Ray McKinley and Will Bradley took their band up to a Hartford theatre a couple of weeks ago they anticipated a good stage show and a big build-up. Everything went along until Jimmy Dorsey and gang arrived on Sunday to play on the same vaudeville bill and then the fun began. Seems the Dorsey boys were the feature attraction and were set to play on the stage... Ray and Will found they were the pit band for the day and things were a bit touchy for a while. After all, Ray left Jimmy to have his own band, so to appear in the same theatre, same show, same everything with the old boss as the top man again must have been a bitter pill. However, Ray is not one to squabble and is too good natured to cause any trouble, so the Bradley band played all the acts while the Dorsey band gave out in their own specialty... the boys in Jimmy's band got a big kick out of it and are still kidding their old drummer over the face reddening set-up.

Doc Richardson, road manager, told me that after they finished their engagement at the Raynor ballroom in Boston the band will hit the road for about three months doing one-nighters.

Regards From Jimmy

For all you Meadowbrookites, Jimmy said to give you his best and asks you to come around and see him... if not at the Penn at Frank Dailey's around September 6th... a tip from us says it will be well worth your while.

Dribs and Drabs

Jimmie Lunceford will henceforth be heard on the Columbia label, his first releases will be "Son of a Gun" and "I Wanta Hear Swing Songs." Raymond Scott is out with another brainstorm... this time "Bird Seed Special"... he was trying to write a tune but met with much interference from his pet canary... soon he found himself trying to copy the canary's tones and thus "Bird Seed Special." According to Columbia, Bonnie Baker's "Oh, Johnny" is still a big hit. So what! Gracie Allen is leaving on an extensive campaign tour before she goes to her convention to be nominated as candidate for president representing the "Surprise Party." Thirty-three cities are in her itinerary and mayors and governors have already planned to greet her as her special train pauses long enough to permit her to make campaign speeches... What next?

Going On Record

SHAKE DOWN THE STARS and BE SURE — played by Benny Goodman and his orchestra bring two fine tunes together and play them in the same medium swing tempo. "Stars" is a particularly good time and Helen Forrest does her usual splendid duty of vocalizing. "Be Sure" is about as good as the reverse side again Helen Forrest does herself proud by the vocal.

(SOLITUDE and MOOD INDIGO)—played by Duke Ellington and his orchestra couple two originals in what might have been some super sides. However, the Duke let Ivy Anderson sing through most of the records thus spoiling the platter in its entirety. Ellington has a splendid aggregation but to permit tunes like these to be slashed and hacked about by a vocal that falls way short and takes entirely too much space is a crime. Sorry, we don't like this release. (Columbia 35427.)

Will Interview Local People In Foreign Policy Survey

by Jeff Jefferay

The Research Bureau at Essex Junior College announced this week that it has begun an extensive survey of the reactions to foreign policy of the residents of Essex County, including Belleville. This is the third poll conducted by the Bureau. The last two were on the third term issue and the foreign policy of the United States.

This poll will have a double purpose. In addition to checking the reactions to foreign events, it will also seek to determine whether the people of this area have changed considerably in their attitude toward foreign affairs. Last fall the Bureau conducted a foreign policy survey.

YOUR BABY...

THE BEST is none too good for him, (or her, we're not partial), so, of course, you pay particular attention to food storage. No wonder your choice is a Kelvinator electric refrigerator. Kelvinator supplies the dry, cold atmosphere some foods need. The temperature in the storage compartment never goes above fifty degrees and it is maintained automatically. Kelvinator is inexpensive to purchase and to operate. The roomy six cubic foot model illustrated here sells for only $114.75 cash. Small carrying charge added if you wish to buy on our divided payment plan.
