SCHOOL KIDS TO MAKE WEEKLY TIN HAULS

Will Solve Collection Problem, Starting November 4

Elementary school kids will solve the tin collection problem which has loomed during the last two months, since the shortage of help in the Public Works department responsible until recently for the monthly collections.

The board of education sanctioned a plan presented last night by Mayor Williams and Defense Coordinator Ronald Brunner through which the youngsters may bring weekly collections from their homes and other homes in their neighborhood to the schools to be placed in collection barrels.

In this way, the Public Works department trucks can make the rounds of the schools once each month, collect the salvaged tins and continue to the detinning plant in Sewaren. First collection day is scheduled for Thursday, November 4.

In the meantime, barrels will be contributed by Walter Kidde and company which will be suitably decorated with the best patriotic suggestion given by the elementary school pupils. The plan will also be announced in assemblies and the youngsters cautioned to bring the tins, properly processed, in heavy brown paper bags, to guard against cuts and injuries.

Mayor Williams, in presenting the plan, observed that with average enthusiasm, displayed by the youngsters, the monthly collection should increase between 25 and 50 percent. It has the advantage, he observed, of being a weekly process and, since the kids enjoy such patriotic endeavors, should be a constant reminder to their families and neighbors of the value of tin conservation. It will also eliminate a long period of storage which was necessary in under the old plan, he said.

BAUBLES DRIVE GREAT SUCCESS

Temporarily Suspended Since Four Tons Have Been Shipped From East

Gathering items to prove the success of our national drive for used costume jewelry Mrs. A. A. Buckley, Belleville chairman of Baubles for Buddies to Barter, reports this week newspaper clippings and photos and an additional letter from her Pacific area informant, Pfc. John Frump of the Marine corps.

A western newspaper clipping shows a pipe-smoking native and one wearing a typical plastic bracelet playing checkers with American Marines. A soldier, writing from "somewhere", requests relatives to include cast-off jewelry in their Christmas package to him as he has traded everything in his possession for pineapples, chickens and other edibles.

Pfc. Frump, who once before acknowledged witnessing distribution of American "baubles" to South Pacific natives, told Mrs. Buckley in a very recent letter that "quite a number of the natives have pipes, beads, bracelets, etc. They almost go crazy when they see a watch. They are like excited school children when they receive these gifts". Mrs. Buckley was glad to recall that Belleville's collection already shipped, contained several watches—one that really ticked.

School Kids Enthusiastic

The enthusiasm for collecting "Baubles to Barter" has spread to the school children. Their efforts were motivated by the displays in the windows of The Belleville Times, and encouraged by the idea that their brothers in the South Pacific have need of the many colorful pieces collected and made. Each bit of jewelry was visualized on the gleaming skin of a hard-working native whose appearance will be greatly enhanced by the bright baubles earned by hard labor helping our boys build a camp, or carry munitions through dense jungle.

The pupils of Passaic avenue school have collected 231 necklaces, 167 bracelets, 523 pins and clips, 244 ear-rings, 307 buttons and buckles, 127 mirrors, and 66 lipsticks.

The boys and girls of class 7B3 under the supervision of Miss Ruth Robertson have made attractive necklaces from old beads, those without clasps, and those with half the beads missing. One piece they are proudest of, is made of a jeweled butterfly which had lost its pin, and strands of blue and white beads strung alternately.

The collection is now on display in The Times window. A temporary halt in bauble gathering will occur when the present collection, (Continued on Page Eight)

DEFENSE COUNCIL RALLY NEXT WEEK

Full Attendance Expected For First Visit Of McNamee And Dreyfuss

The auditorium in the high school is expected to be jammed next Wednesday night by members of both the protective and war service units of the Defense Council when Col. Frank A. McNamee Jr. and Leonard Dreyfuss make their first visit to Belleville.

Col. McNamee, a veteran of World War I, as assistant regional director in charge of civilian defense, will speak on the "Present Status of Civilian Defense." Dreyfuss, who is director of the State Office of Civilian Defense, will also elaborate on reasons for the continued efficiency of the protective units which are faced with added responsibility in coping with catastrophes even though they are not of enemy origin. Members of the community war services division will also hear of the increasing duties that will be theirs as the war progresses.

Defense Coordinator Ronald Brunner has made a special request for a full representation of all members of the Defense Council at this meeting which will begin at 8 o'clock. Units which will attend in full uniform and in groups are the police reserves headed by Police Chief George Spatz and Deputy Chief Richard Shannon; the fire reserves with Fire Chief Alex Reid and his deputy, Albert Rhoades and the ambulance corps with Chairman Charles Cullen and Deputy Chairman L. B. McCloskey.

HAVE LARGE PART IN WAR FUND

Catholics Reminded Of Volume Their Charities Have In Town

Initial indication of the participation of Catholics in the Belleville War Fund drive was sounded last Sunday by Rev. Joseph M. Kelly, pastor of St. Peter's R. C. Church, when he directed that announcement of the drive be read at all Masses. In a personal appeal Fr. Kelly asked his congregations to bear in mind that their contributions belong to Belleville and that it must be remembered that this is the first effort to consolidate local social agencies with associated Catholic Charities to which local Catholics ordinarily have made donations.

In view of the fact that Belleville's drive will not be started until November 24 and the house-to-house campaign will be centered in mid-January Fr. Kelly assigned Paul deHagara, Community Chest and War Fund presiding officer, that he would frequently call the need of the combined drive to the attention of his parishioners.

Estimating roughly that the Catholic population of Belleville amounts to nearly half the town, deHagara pointed out that these people will normally shoulder the more than $24,000 budget submitted by the Catholic Charities and will account for half the War Fund quota of $30,000. The Catholic charity quota was based on records of the Catholic parent association of charities extended here in previous years. Catholic Children's Aid association functions, Catholic Medical and hospital services and the immediate application of relief through the Mt. Carmel Guild, as well as the Family and General work of the Associated Charities make up the social relief afforded by this here.

WOMEN SPREAD "TAKE A WAR JOB" PLEA

Chain Propaganda Catches On As Town Organizations, Individuals, Are Told

Trusting in the reliability of women in relaying news, Mrs. Herbert Schmutz as local chairman of the Community Manpower Mobilization committee's drive to enlist women for defense jobs, reports increasing impetus to the chain propaganda instituted among women's groups last week.

Mrs. Schmutz has based her campaign to interest women in taking either full or part time war jobs on a request that each member of an organization relate the importance of the recruitment to five of her friends. Literature concerning the type of war jobs available has already been distributed to members of the Women's Republican club.

Others who are "taking up" the idea are the American home and garden departments of the Woman's club which also had meetings last week. Mrs. Ann Van Sickle co-chairman with Mrs. Schmutz, is arranging for the plea to be made before the members of the Eastern Star the Parent-Teacher association at School No. 3 and the Elks and Legion auxiliaries. Women have also been appointed to distribute literature on the subject among all the apartment houses in town. Church women's groups will be next to hear about the vital need and the part they can play in alleviating it.

As one example of the way industry regards the growing numbers of women employees in defense plants, L. J. Woods, vice-president and general manager of the National Union Radio corporation cited the suggestion of Ellen Jansen of town, that a hook used in the manufacture of radio tubes be redesigned. Adopting this recommendation resulted in an appreciable reduction of spoilage at a certain stage of production.

Increase Efficiency

Many small things that were formerly overlooked have been discovered with the result of increasing production efficiency by women working at various processes.

The small skills developed by women in housework have been brought into play in industry by women employees in many ways, refuting the general belief in the past the women were purely routine workers and with no capacity for original thought about mechanical devices.

Sweetie

FIRST LOCAL ENLISTEE in the War Dog Fund, "Sweetie", canine pal of Robert Boice of 58 Prospect street, has been appointed recruiting agent for local dogdom in the home front effort of the smaller varieties of pups to support their larger relatives seeing action as part of the K-9 corps.

Chief Petty Officer Sweetie Is New Recruiting Agent

Ready To Enlist Smaller Members Of Dogdom In War Dog Fund

"Sweetie", seven year old canine companion of Robert Boice of 58 Prospect street, has been offered by her master as recruiting agent for Belleville's War Dog fund. Proudly wearing a collar tag with the Dogs for Defense symbol and on the reverse, the words "Member War Dog Fund" plus a canine footprint, Sweetie is ready to enlist the smaller relatives of Belleville's dogdom in support of the K-9 corps.

A rotund, Boston Bull terrier with a happy disposition, she bears the rank of Chief Petty Officer in the Navy. While this may only be possible in a bark-er's world, other pups can, regardless of gender, achieve like titles ranging from privates to generals in the army and comparable ranks in the Navy, Marine and Coast Guard as well as the feminine divisions of the

Volunteers Needed To Aid With "A" Gas Books

An appeal for volunteers to aid in the distribution of the "A" gasoline books at the Belleville war price and ration board was made last night by Herbert C. Schmutz, ration board chairman.

It is impossible to handle the volume of work necessary for the filling out of the 10,000 books for which Belleville and Nutley with the present help available, he said. All of the books must be distributed by November 8 and so far, only 2,000 have been processed.

Volunteers are asked to go to the ration board office at 444 Washington avenue and offer their services during the daytime hours, which will be greatly appreciated.

FORM "EDGE FOR GOVERNOR" CLUB

Local Republicans Organize To Boast Candidate For State Office

The Belleville Walter E. Edge for Governor club organized Monday night with Edward J. Abramson as president, has for its purpose, Mayor Williams said today, "to be of service to the Belleville Republican County committee in interesting the voters in the accomplishments of Edge while he served the people of New Jersey as State Senator, Governor and United States Senator."

"The record of the Republican candidate for governor covers a broad service in constructive social and labor legislation. His experience in local, state and national administrative affairs will be of great value to the state of New Jersey during the next three years."

Other officers are Robert Smith treasurer and Frank A. Palmieri, secretary. Honorary president is Harry Machette, chairman of Belleville's Republican committee. Noll, King and Mertz, State Controller Homer C. Zink, Elmer S. Hyde, former Republican town chairman, Mrs. Ruth Fredericks, vice-chairman of the local Republican committee; Mrs. Arthur E. Mayer, president of the Belleville Women's Republican club; Genesio Prezioso president of the Tripoli Park association and Samuel Figuerelli, past recorder, are honorary vice-presidents.

In charge of publicity are Williams, Noll, Palmieri, and Norman Lauterette. The workers committee is made up of Lawrence E. Keenan, chairman, William Abramson and Emily Sundheim. Harry Danoto is chairman of the finance committee. Members are Robert Smith and Fred Handlon.

Junior Achievement Planners

THOSE WHO INITIATED the Junior Achievement program which is now forming in Belleville are members of the committee shown above. The program which follows the methods and procedures of "big business" gives teen-agers through practical experience a concept of business practices. Planners are, back row, in the usual order, S. G. Barth, Laboratories; Dr. E. W. Seibert, High school guidance director; Rev. Benedetto Pasucle, pastor of the Italian Baptist church and Russell D. Hay, publisher of The Belleville Times. In the front row are seen R. W. Edgar Jr., Walter Kidde company; E. S. Peierls, Resistoflex corporation, Howard Merriker, assistant Director and R. G. Boyd, state director of the Junior Achievement Program.

Students Form Companies For Junior Businesses

Will Choose Products To Manufacture Under Adult Supervisors

Following a second training program at the Walter Kidde plant Friday night local business men who have volunteered to serve as advisors in five Junior Achievement companies met prospective "operators" last night in the high school auditorium. Richard Boyd, state director, who has presented to the industrialists in two sessions the approved methods of advising the juvenile executives, outlined Junior Achievement to 70 high school students.

Twenty advisors representing the sponsoring firms of Walter Kidde Co., Inc., Wallace and Tiernan Co., Inc., Eastwood Nealley corporation, Resistoflex corporation, Viking Tool and Machine company and Bart Laboratories will work with the companies. Two production advisors, a sales and financial advisor will guide the labor, sales and management of each firm.

An organization meeting of each company will be held next Wednesday evening. A workshop with interchangeable machinery for the suggested products, many of which are worked in wood, will be set up and each company will devote two evening hours a week to it. An attempt will be made to dovetail the junior companies efforts with the needs of adult manufacturers here if it is possible. A paint company, for example, in need of paint brush handles might farm out this project to a Junior Achievement firm. Little firms throughout the nation are manufacturing everything from Christmas cards to beach sandals. The national Junior Achievement headquarters constantly furnish suggestions in operating the newly forming companies.

The local committee under whose jurisdiction the plan will operate in Belleville includes Robert W. Edgar, Jr. of Walter Kidde company, Seigfried Bart, Rev. Oliver W. Chapin, Rev. Benedict, John F. Coogan, Jr., Dr. Earl W. Seibert, Arthur Dent, Clarence Lommerin, Gilbert Wright and Dr. Earl W. Seibert. Edgar S. Peierls heads the committee.

Reclassification of Pre-Pearl Harbor Fathers Begins

The local Selective Service board which has delayed action on Pre-Pearl Harbor fathers as long as possible, is beginning a general reclassification on once since its list of available men falls far short of the November call.

John P. Daily, chairman, has announced that they will be placed in three classifications. One A indicates fathers in non-deferrable occupations; 2B, those in essential occupation and 3D, those in which case extreme hardship would be caused by their removal.

It is understood that Pre-Pearl Harbor fathers who will be included in the November call are those who have received notice to transfer from non-deferrable to essential occupations, and who have not done so.

Citizens' Group On Record In Favor Of Revision

After a debate and question period on the subject, the Belleville Citizens' committee passed a resolution Tuesday night which favored the revision of the New Jersey Constitution which is to be voted on in the general election of November 2. Harry Brumbach is presiding officer of the Citizens' group which was incorporated several weeks ago. Meetings are held in the Recreation House.

Ely Schino, who heads the historical department of Newark College of Engineering, debated in favor of the revision; Michael Bryckoff, head of the New York Veteran's League, spoke against it. Robert C. Gurhin, Jersey City attorney who resides here, also advanced several arguments against revision on the grounds that those who interpret the provisions of the present constitution are more responsible for unfavorable results than the document itself.

The Belleville Citizens' committee expects to furnish residents of the town with similar discussion periods on all matters pertaining to local or statewide questions which directly affect them. Those interested in affiliating may apply to Brumbach or other officers who are James Pitman, vice-president; Robert Banta, secretary and Arthur Kunze, treasurer.

REGISTRATION FOR BOOK 4 IS ON

Presentation Of Book 3 Necessary To Obtain New One

Registration for the issuance of War Ration Book Four begun yesterday, is continuing today and tomorrow in all eight elementary schools. It is being taken by the teachers between the hours of 2 and 8 p.m.

The most important requirement for securing Ration Book Four is to present to the school registrars the Ration Book Three belonging to each member of the family, with the covers of the books properly filled in with name, address, age, sex, weight, height, occupation and signature of the book's owner.

One adult member of the family may apply for books for the entire family. The person who applies will be required to show a Ration Book 3, with cover properly filled in, for each member of the family for whom a Ration book four is requested.

The applicant will also fill in a simple application form on which he will list the name, age, and sex of each member of the family for whom application for Ration Book Four is being made.

With the distribution to be completed tomorrow, the District OPA has announced that the application forms the public filled in at the schools this week will be forwarded by rationing boards to the U. S. Bureau of the Census in Washington where they will be used as a basis of a population survey.

Ration Book Four, it was disclosed, will be used beginning November 1, for canned and processed foods and for sugar. Green stamps A, B, and C will be good for processed foods from November 1 through December 20, and will be used in exactly the same way as the blue stamps in Book Two. Stamp number 29, marked "Sugar" will be good for 5 pounds of sugar from November 1 through January 15, 1944.

Armistice Day Committee Organizes For Observance

The Belleville Armistice Day committee met Tuesday night at Town Hall where John Gannon was chosen chairman and Willis Davis, secretary. The secretary was instructed to notify all organizations that the usual ceremonies would be held in the morning of Armistice day at Town Hall and at St. Peter's Church. An indoor program for use evening will be planned and use of the high school auditorium will be sought for this purpose.

SCHOOL BOARD WILL SUPERVISE DAY NURSERY

Cost To Be Underwritten By Defense Council With Federal Aid

The board of education agreed last night to supervise a child care center to be established in School No. 1 with the proviso that the Defense council underwrite the cost. The decision, reached at a joint meeting of the board with the child care committee, after hanging fire two years, was based on the results of a recent survey made by the committee, showing a current need to provide care for the children of working mothers.

By agreeing to the supervision which will be undertaken by Superintendent of Schools Wayne R. Parmer, the board will apply immediately for funds under the Lanham act, which are believed to give Federal aid for all of the operating expenses. Later, application will be made to the board of commissioners to allocate funds for the remaining expense to the Defense council budget. In the event, that Lanham funds are not available, the total expense approximately $10,000 for the first year, will be sought from the town.

Defense Coordinator Ronald Brunner and Ruel E. Daniels, business manager for the board of education, were named to make application through the board for the federal aid. It is believed that Belleville will qualify since a total of between 30 and 40 preschool and school age children needing care is a minimum requirement. The survey indicates 37 toddlers between the ages of two and five years above, whose working mothers would avail themselves of the facilities of a child care center. There are many more school before and after school supervision under the plan.

Scrutinize Applications

The child care committee will cooperate with Parmer by giving careful scrutiny to all applications and will be a liaison between the mothers and industry, in adjusting hours of work.

Before the center can be established in School No. 1, provisions will have to be made, including plumbing and kitchen facilities. It is expected these improvements will be started soon. The center will probably be open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. and will require a personnel of two teachers, a cook and assistant, the services of a school nurse and extended janitoria work. Hot lunches will be provided at staggered hours to both the nursery tots and the school age youngsters, with the use of the same facilities. It was tentatively decided that one teacher would Attention... Women!

A serious shortage of help exists in Essex County. There are not enough men left for war work. YOU can help by getting a job. It can be in a war production plant. Or it can be in some other essential activity — a store, laundry, restaurant, dairy, communications, transportation — where your employment will release an employee for work in a war plant. No experience is necessary in many jobs. You can work full time or part time. You can make good pay. Most important of all — you will be helping to shorten the war.

Apply today to your nearest War Job headquarters — The address in Belleville is 136 Washington Avenue.

"Nobody's Listening... Turn that Radio OFF!"

- Says Reddy Kilowatt

There's waste right in your own living-room. The radio has been on most of the day and who has listened to more than one program? Someone has forgotten to turn off the kitchen light. To waste electricity means that the manpower and materials, the fuel and transportation required for its generation were used needlessly.

To reduce the demands on these vital necessities the War Production Board asks everyone to conserve the use of electricity, even though there is no shortage of generating capacity.

Fashion Notes

Are you as smart as you could be?

WHAT makes you stand out from the crowd these days is not your hair-do—even though that's right up-to-the-minute.

It isn't just the shade of your lipstick and matching fingernails. Nor is it just the cut of your clothes.

What makes you smart these days is what you do. And the smartest women everywhere—leaders of fashion and society in every city—are going to work!

For it's no longer enough, they realize, just to save tin cans and fats for munitions, to save time for servicemen, money for War Bonds. These are the days when a patriotic girl goes out and helps produce the things that War Bonds buy—the weapons and materials our fighting men need.

One vital need on all fighting fronts is radio equipment—the kind that's made right here at the RCA plant in Harrison. But we need you to help produce it.

You'll enjoy working here. The work is interesting. Working conditions are pleasant. There are music, good food, dances, recreation—even a swimming pool! Medical attention, sick benefits, group life insurance. Pay? Good! And—more important—you'll be doing something you can really be proud of—making radio equipment our fighting men must have to win.

Why don't you get in the swim—at RCA?

Carmella Bruno Effective Blitzkrieg On The Axis

Her Home Front Activities Show Appreciation For All-Out Effort

She organized an intensive bond drive for a boy friend who was wounded in North Africa. She is now setting up a blood bank for her brother who is with the Army Air Corps.

She gave up her vacation last year and two years ago as a result of another boy friend, one of the Wake Island Marines.

Her name is Carmella Bruno and she is with the building and shipping department of the Eisler Engineering company, South 13th street, Newark. Miss Bruno, a Barringer graduate, resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bruno, at 5 Passaic avenue.

Carmella is mum as to the names of her boy-friends but co-workers in the office say she has a sweetheart in every branch of the service. No matter how many services have her heart, Carmella certainly has her heart in giving all for her country. Despite poor health, she voluntarily gave up her vacations to continue at the important job of war production.

Longest Service Record
She has the longest record of service among the office help, nine years, and serves as a model for the others. Her employer, Charles Eisler, says she has a perfect attendance record and her punctuality is "really remarkable."

Carmella says "I read of appeals to production workers to be on time because tardiness holds down production schedules in war plants. It is not even a question of patriotism; the worker has a job to do and he should do it. This is true in peace-time and especially true today when someone you love may

Small Nucleus Of Defense Units Urged For Quick Action

A small nucleus of well trained and available members of each unit of the Defense council to facilitate immediate handling of local disasters was urged by Col. Frank Paul, in charge of chemical warfare at Aberdeen, Md., at the regional fall conference of the war department's civilian protective service held Sunday at the local Douglas, Newark.

Part of the presentation of the new OGD program, which urges continuation of service and greater activity in local councils to sustain interest and morale, John B. Martin, acting director of the Washington OGD also emphasized that the job of civilian defense is "not yet finished."

Eight members of the local council attended the conference which had representation from Maine to Florida. A member of the FBI also spoke on intentional and unintentional sabotage of labor in war plants and urged civilian defense to be on the alert in handling all cases which should be referred to the investigation bureau.

It was also pointed out that police and fire reserves should be strengthened to combat potential criminal offenses caused by the release of unemployed both from the army and industry when the war is over.

Those who attended were Defense Coordinated Ronald Brunner, Sidney Kauter and Harold Bade, senior and assistant gas officers, L. B. McCloskey, deputy chairman of the ambulance corps, J. J. Loya and Henry Dennison, deputy chief air raid wardens, John Havass, Red Cross first aid instructor and L. H. Brunner, a guest.

Schneck was also appointed attendance officer at $1,600 yearly on the provision that he obtains a release from the defense plant where he is now employed.

Miss Betty Boulard

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Boulard of 83 DeWitt avenue, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Betty A. Boulard, to Cadet Morgan L. Dring of the U. S. Coast Guard. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Dring of Durham, N. Y., and formerly lived in Summit. WAR WORKERS BUY A BOMBER

Westinghouse Employees Subscribe $175,000 In War Bonds

Enough money in War Bonds — $175,000 — for a medium bomber of the type Jimmy Doolittle flew in bombing Tokio, has just been raised by Westinghouse Lamp Division workers in Bloomfield and Belleville. It was announced today by W. B. Gero, chairman of the Labor-Management committee of the Bloomfield plant at the conclusion of a month-long War Bond campaign which began September 20. The drive was a cooperative effort between Westinghouse management and unions Local 410 and Local 412, U. E. - CIO.

A feature of the "Buy-A-Bomber" drive, one of the few industrial campaigns of its kind held thus far in this area, was a giant scroll 12 feet high and five feet wide upon which all bond purchasers have signed their names. The scroll will be presented to the crew of the bomber and will accompany the plane into battle.

Majority of the purchases were $25 bonds, although large investments raised the average purchase to approximately $36. The money was raised at a steady rate of about $5,000 per day during the sale period. Several employees now in the armed forces also bought bonds voluntarily when they learned of the campaign. Employes have pledged more than regular payroll deductions, and it is expected that this amount will be realized before the week is out.

PROCLAMATION

For this, the second Navy Day to be celebrated in time of war, I call upon all citizens to pay proper honors to the men of the fleet and the shore establishments of the Navy, who have made possible the glorious victories that have been ours throughout the seven seas, since the war began:

Since the last Navy Day it has been announced that we have attained, in spite of the inevitable losses of war, the most powerful Navy the world has ever known. The people of the State of New Jersey are particularly proud of the great ship, bearing the name of our commonwealth, that now serves with the fleet. This new and greater American Navy has already won battle laurels and in the not now too distant future will do its parts to bring final victory to our cause.

In the years that follow the war the Navy will again be what it has always been, our first line of defense. It will protect and defend the peace.

That just tribute may be paid to the Navy of the United States, I, Wm. H. Williams, Mayor of the Town of Belleville, do hereby request that Our Flag be displayed throughout Belleville on Navy Day, October 27, 1943, and that in all of our Churches prayers be offered on nearest appropriate date for the safe return of the men of our Navy and the early end of war.

Wm. H. Williams

Mayor
Belleville, N. J.

Proclaimed Pursuant to Request of Governor Charles Edison.

be hurt because of our failure." Plans for the blood bank will be complete in short order, she says. Carmella's untiring efforts resulted in 100 per cent payroll subscriptions for war bonds among the entire personnel which numbers around 200.

She is a student of foreign languages and in pre-war days did all of the Spanish, French and Italian translations.

Carmella believes that more and more women should take war plant jobs "because you are needed. But when the war is ended, women, especially married women, should go back home."

BELLBOYS INVADE IRVINGTON NEXT

Defeat By Indians 25-0 Showed Locals Badly Outweighed

With two victories and one defeat under their belts, after they toppled to a 25-0 score with Passaic last week, the Bellboys will march into Irvington High school stadium Saturday and shout bloody murder. Maybe this will be just what they need to get them back into winning ways again. However, let it not be said that Irvington will be a breeze to get by, for that isn't so. Though their record so far this season does not look too colorful, it does not mean that they will be a pushover.

Irvington has a record of one win two losses, and a tie. They opened up the season by dropping the first game to Thomas Jefferson High, but came back to take the next from West Orange. They then lost to Garfield, and finally came back this Saturday in the final minutes of the game to tie East Orange. In past meetings the Belleville-Irvington tilts have been breathers, with Belleville coming out on top in their last, 15-0.

In turn, Belleville has a record of two wins and a single loss, with an average of .666, which is good in any man's language. The Bellboys opened the season by beating Barringer 7-0. Then they followed by beating a highly favored Bloomfield team, but were stopped this Saturday by an exceedingly heavy Indian squad.

Though the loss to Passaic knocked the Bellboys out of the unbeaten ranks, it also shows many advantages too. It, for one thing, relieves Belleville of playing under pressure, which should bring on more self confidence, and should also give Coach Bill Chapman a chance to try out some of his unused material.

The most surprising and dramatic incident of the Passaic tilt was the cheering on the part of the Belleville students.

Good Ball Playing

The 25-0 victory does not prove what the score shows. Excellent ball was played by the Belleville team but they were so helplessly outweighed that Belleville could not get a good start. A good example of the weight comparison was the 240 pound center put against Vaccarelli, who does not weigh much over 170.

With good ground and air attack, the Indians however, left the first quarter scoreless, although they reached Bellboys three-yard line, and intercepted an aerial threat tossed by Dunleavy on the 50. The Red and Blue in a 55 yard march toward the Bellboy goalposts, in the second stanza scored a touchdown on a center plunge by Indian ace, Bob Topchik from the one yard line.

The third quarter saw the Bellboys delay another march to a scoring section which was finally culminated by aerial tactics on the part of the Indians. Final score for the Indians saw a double reverse in the final stanza which ended in the 25-0 score with Topchik again doing the honors.

Girl Scout News

Girl Scout troops Nos. 19 and 9 met Tuesday in Belleville Reformed Church where they discussed plans for a Halloween party. They were under the direction of Miss Betty Reif in the absence of their regular leader, Miss Edna Baun. Miss Baun is recuperating at her home, 6 Ralph street, after an appendectomy in Mount Airy hospital several weeks ago. Plans for the troops to spend a weekend at South Mountain Reservation in Belleville's scout cabin, Kin-Ly-Spec, were cancelled due to Miss Baun's illness.

Troop 19 is the only senior girl scout troop in Belleville and was established in 1939 when Girl Scouting policies altered to form Brownie troops for girls eight to ten years of age, intermediate troops for those from 10 to 14 and senior troops for those above 14. The uniform is different for senior girls and their merit badges are worn on a separate sash. Of the 21 girls in Troop 19 most are high school students, although one member goes to business, one attends college and two are married.

These Are The Vitamins That Build Health and Energy

Vitamin A is the anti-infective and growth-promoting vitamin. Its lack results in susceptibility to colds and other ailments. . . its insufficiency in children results in scrawny and stunted growth. Principal source, halibut liver oil.
Vitamin B is "the spark plug of the human system" . . . it tones the nervous and digestive systems, promoting growth, appetite and energy. It also helps to remove lactic acid from the blood stream, thus eliminating the feeling of fatigue. Principal sources, yeast and wheat-germ.
Vitamin C protects and feeds the capillaries under the skin; it helps to heal wounds, and prevents sallow complexion. Modern diet is usually lacking in this vitamin because it is easily destroyed by cooking. Principal sources, tomatoes and oranges when freshly picked.
Vitamin D is the "sunshine" vitamin. Tests show that it remedies the disorders caused by the deficiency of ultra violet in this climate's sunshine. Without it, normal formation of blood and bone ceases, resulting in rickets, sagging muscles and decay of the teeth. Principal source, cod liver oil.
Vitamin E is the "anti-sterility" vitamin. It has additional important uses in that it promotes mental vigor and tones the muscles. Principal source, wheat-germ.
Vitamin G is the riboflavin factor of the B vitamin that improves stomach tone, remedies skin eruptions and loss of red blood corpuscles. Principles sources yeast and liver.

Belleville Post No. 105, American Legion will send a color guard and delegation to Passaic on Sunday at 2 o'clock where several posts from the northern part of the State will celebrate Navy Day with a parade.

Commander William Konrad will head the local group which will include Peter Johnson, Joseph Kolosky, Joseph Heamer, Max Klug, Ernest Brown and Arthur A. MacCready. The parade is in charge of State Vice Commander George Marcus of Passaic.

The details of the Victory Dance to be held by the Post on November 20 have been arranged. This affair will be held in Vet's Hall, 17 Belleville Avenue, 8:30 with music by Corio's Serenaders. Ernest Brown is chairman assisted by Harry Ziegler, Harry Scott, Johnson, Richard Shannon, Frank Bangert, Klug and MacCready.

The Legion record drive will be extended to pupils of the public schools here when collection boxes are placed in each school and announcements made to the students. Permission was granted by Belleville Post Monday evening at the regular meeting of the board of education to solicit records through the medium of the schools. Frank Bangert, chairman of this part of the drive, will make collections. Pupils will be asked to bring all available records to the deposit boxes. The quota of 5,000 records at which the committee aimed when the drive was held during the summer was not entirely realized.

Legionnaires who can arrange to be present at the high school tomorrow morning at 9 in uniform to assist at ceremonies for departing draftees are urged to attend by Commander Konrad.

First awards of service stripes for faithful attendance at the Defense council's ambulance corps activities were awarded at Casualty station No. 2 last week by Deputy Chief L. B. McCloskey. Awards will be made to those qualifying at other stations in the near future.

Laux In Pacific Port Tells Of Natives There

Look Like Cannibals, He Says, Yet Speak Perfect English

Clinton Laux, Fire Controlman second class, in letters written to his parents late last month from "somewhere in the Pacific" promises them some interesting conversations when he gets home.

He enlisted in the Navy in September, 1942 and after boot training at Great Lakes, Ill. and advanced work in San Diego, Calif. shipped from Boston, Mass. in July. He spent a three day leave here before sailing.

In his most recent letter written in a Pacific port he says, "It is really pretty. I am looking into deep jungle and trees and vines are plenty thick. It is a nice sight and the jungle has that fresh, clean smell. Again, the natives, seeing our ship come in, came in their primitive boats to trade. They look more like cannibals; very dark with big, bushy hair and their faces tattooed. I traded my jackknife for one of their war clubs. It is small, but a mean weapon. No wonder the Japs don't like them; they can really bash in your head." Laux sent the weapon to his parents.

He further mentions swimming in water which was "grand" but too warm. In a previous Air Mail letter Laux recounted a meeting with island natives whom he and his buddies were surprised to find speaking good English. The islanders explained this by the presence among them for many years of a British missionary.

These men revealed to the Navy visitors their encounters with Japs and described how they chased them through the bush and killed them. Laux was disappointed that no souvenirs of the Japs were left. Evidently the natives had bartered them to previous servicemen visitors. A skull was seen hanging over the side of one ship.

The Laux family has lived here three years. Clinton was graduated from Weequahic high school and was a member of Boy Scout troop 6 of Newark, where he attained the rank of Eagle scout and served as assistant scoutmaster. He is 21.

Lt. Duval Formerly Of Times Staff, Honorably Discharged

Joseph C. Duval, formerly with the Belleville Times, has received a medical discharge from the Army after nearly three years' service.

Duval, who volunteered in February 1941, spent 15 months overseas in Newfoundland before returning to Miami Beach in July 1942 where he was commissioned a lieutenant in October.

Joining an Air Corps bombardment group then at Savannah, Ga., he attended the Air Forces Intelligence School at Harrisburg, Pa., and served also in Louisiana and California.

It was while on duty in the desert in the latter state that he was taken ill and spent more than four months in a hospital at Palm Springs. He is now at his parents' farm near Newtown, Bucks County, Pa.

Pfc. Langlands "Capers" Somewhere In Pacific

From somewhere in the south Pacific comes news that a Marine whose vocal experience was gained at Belleville High school, recently participated in "Cocoanut Capers of 1943," an elaborate stage show presented by Marines on an unnamed tropical island.

He is Pfc. Duncan C. Langlands, 23, son of Mrs. G. C. Langlands of 350 Belleville avenue, who sang in the tenor section of the large chorus. Like others of the cast, he spent his days on strenuous jungle combat training maneuvers, and his evenings rehearsing for the show, one of the largest ever presented at this Pacific outpost.

Chorus members were handicapped by lack of music, and limited their eight numbers to those whose words and tunes they could remember after more than seven months overseas.

Langlands enlisted in the Marine Corps on August 6, 1942, and is assistant to the police sergeant of a large unit engaged in final training before combat.

After graduating from Belleville High school, where he was on the football team, he was employed in the shipping department of the American Chain and Gable company, Newark.

Cpl. Vincent Riccio Gives Impromptu Performance

A touching incident, which brought tears to the eyes of colonels and privates alike, preceded by a few minutes the rollicking, hilarious performance of the soldier revue staged by a cast of Camp Davis artillerymen at a New Bern, N. C. bond-selling show.

Peggy Tendall, 11-year old girl who was paralyzed by an accidental shooting some time ago, wanted somehow to see the 444th AA Battalion's musicale, "Daffy Draftees." Since Peggy could not attend the theatre performance, the entire cast rushed out to her house between a radio broadcast and the opening curtain for the War Bond show.

There, in a special entertainment just for Peggy, Cpl. Vincent Riccio of C Battery, 44th Battalion, sang "Paper Doll." It was a lament filled with pathos, a pathos which changed soon into merriment for the brave little girl.

Peggy's doctor decided that she could be moved to the theatre, where a special seat near the orchestra was arranged for her. The soldiers quickly changed the words of some of the lyrics to use the name of Peggy Tendall.

Cpl. Riccio also known as Jack Carroll formerly with Les Brown's orchestra, is the son of Mrs. Theresa Riccio of 57 Magnolia street.

Even Flow Of Traffic In B. H. S. Cafeteria Checked

A check on the flow and evenness of traffic in the high school cafeteria during the two 30 minute lunch periods shows that it is not too crowded, James Lynch finance chairman, reported to the board of education on Monday night. Only bottleneck apparent in the schedule instituted this year could be caused by first period student holding up the lines at the confectionery counter, he said. Lynch also reported that the 107 pupils were served during September at a net deficit of $52.76. This, though the average lunch check has increased from 11 to 15.7 cents, he said.

EXPLANATION OF V-12 PROGRAM OPEN TO YOUTHS Those Who Would Be Officer Candidates May Take Test Nov. 9

Thousands of youths in the Third Naval district will be given the opportunity to enroll in the Navy's V-12 program on November 9, when the second aptitude test is given in high schools, preparatory schools and colleges of the district.

The first test was held April 2, and on July 1, when the V-12 Training Program was officially opened, 212 units were placed in operation throughout the country with a capacity of approximately 77,000 young officer-candidates. To be eligible for the Navy in the test November 9, youths must attain their seventeenth birthday but not their twentieth on March 1, 1944. Successful applicants will be assigned to a college, where they will be on active duty with the Navy, in uniform and under military discipline. Expenses will be paid by the Navy, including tuition fees, textbooks, board, room and uniform. In addition, the students will receive the pay of apprentice seamen, or $50 a month.

Those who take the test will indicate their choice of the Army Specialized Training program or the Navy College program, and the taking of the test does not obligate the student to enter either service if he is accepted. No candidate who expresses a preference for the Army will be considered by the Navy and vice versa, and no change in preference may be made after the day of the test. The purpose of the Navy College program is to provide officers for the Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard. Courses are open for the following types of officer-candidates: Deck Officer, Medical Corps, General Engineering, Civil Engineering, Construction Corps, Engineer Specialists (seven types), Aerology, Supply Corps and Chaplain Corps.

Those who qualify for the Navy through the test will report to the nearest Office of Naval Officer Procurement for interview and physical examination. The quota of students will be chosen by Regional Selection Committees composed of two outstanding citizens and a Naval officer. If selected, the candidate will be taken into the United States Naval Reserve immediately and assigned as soon as possible to a college assignment to college, he will be a Navy enlistee on inactive status and subject to orders from the Navy.

Men now enlisted in any branch of the armed services, including Reserves on inactive status, are not eligible to take the qualification test. Service men who qualify for the college programs are selected through military and Naval channels. The length of the various courses varies; for example, for Deck Officer, the candidate will have four 16-week terms in college, plus four months in Reserve Midshipman's School; for Medical Officer, five 16-week terms of pre-medical work are given plus a complete medical course; and for Engineer Specialist, eight 16-week terms in college, plus Midshipman's School. Other curricula for other officer classifications range between these extremes.

The preference of the student for a specific college and for the course he wishes to pursue will be important factors in assignments, but the needs of the Navy are the final factor. The Navy colleges in the Third Naval District, which includes the New York area, are Colgate, Columbia, Cornell, Drew, Hobart, Princeton, Rensselaer Polytechnic, St. Louis Lawrence, Stevens Institute, Trinity, Union, University of Rochester, Webb Institute of Naval Architecture, Wesleyan and Yale.

The nation-wide test to be held November 9th, measures aptitude and general knowledge required for success in college. The test will take two hours and is divided into three parts, meaning and use of words; scientific matters which are of general knowledge and problems in mathematics. The tests will be given on the morning of November 9, in all high schools, preparatory schools and colleges attended by students who wish to take the examination. Prior to taking the examination, the candidates will be required to fill out an identification and admission form which will be provided at the institution where the test is being taken. He should then notify his school principal or college official of his desire to take the test. Each student will be notified by approximately December 20, as to whether or not he has qualified on the test. No test scores will be reported to student or school official, however. Students who did not qualify on the first nation-wide test held April 2, and who are still eligible to apply for the college program will be permitted to take the test on November 9.

Meeting Sunday at the Essex House, representatives of labor-management committees of 36 war plants in Hudson, Union and Essex Counties voted unanimously to set up an area council of labor management committees for the three counties to help speed war production. They selected a temporary executive committee under the chairmanship of Elmer Gischel, Walter Kidde and company official and co-chairman of the labor-union sub-committee of the Community Manpower Mobilization Committee. "Get Out More Goods" William A. Orchard, Wallace and Tieman official and general chairman of the Community Manpower Mobilization committee, related the circumstances under which it had been set up and stated that perhaps a more descriptive name for it would be "get our more war goods committee." Mr. Orchard added: "There is no area in this country whose war goods production is more essential to the winning of the war than this and there is no question that this area has done a wonderful job producing war goods. But there is still a lot that can be done. I believe that when and if we get maximum production out of every worker in every plant in this area we will have a labor surplus instead of a shortage. That is one of the reasons this is such an important meeting because it should have the way for greater production all around and greater efficiency on the part of both labor and management." Other local members of the temporary executive committee of the area council of Labor-Management committees for Hudson, Essex and Union counties are Donald R. Waugh and William D. Woodruff of Isolaite, Inc. and Jack Caplan and Bert R. Costigan of Walter Kidde and company.

SWEETIE

(Continued from Page 1) ted by Egyptian bas-reliefs. Germany has used them most; but Russian huskies haul machine gun sledges; England's dogs patrol shorelines, as our own Coast dogs are now stationed along our coasts; and Canadian airdales run messages. The American K-9 is expected to number 300,000. It started with 200 dogs privately trained by Dogs for Defense. The money raised by civilian dogs in the present Dog War Fund will be used to defray the costs of registration, examination, carting and shipping our fighting dogs. Prominent exponents of the war fund plan are Fala, White House Scanie, and Norway Saddle, familiar little fox terrier who captured 56 best of show titles. He is only 15 inches high, too small to fight, but all his earnings from show winnings, stud fees and dogfood testimonials have gone to charity since Pearl Harbor, amounting to more than $10,000. His owner, James Austin of Westbury, L. I., originated the present plan by which other non-eligible dogs can join up at "so much per rank."

BAUBLES

The Twelfth Night club, directors of the jewelry campaign in the East, have announced the shipment to the Pacific of four tons of trinkets. Until a call is issued for more after present supplies have left this country, collections will be suspended. People who donated pins or clips without secure catches will be pleased to know that Deputy Chief William Dunleavy of the Belleville fire department restored dozens of them to usefulness for Mrs. Buckley by welding ordinary safety pins to their backs.

CHILD CARE

(Continued from Page 1) be required to supervise the school age children in before and after school activities. Of the 37 pre-school children, 27 are within reasonable radius of the School No. 1 location which has the advantage of being accessible to local industries. While there is still divided opinion on the advisability of establishing such a center because of the possibility of fostering a break-up in family life, the move was finally sanctioned because of the imminence of the drafting of fathers and the drive for women to take war jobs to up production in this area, in addition to the need already evident from the survey.

Workers' Message To Axis

PRODUCT OF KIDDE EMPLOYERS' bond buying activities in the Second War Loan drive is the Chance-Vought Corsair fighter shown above, when it was recently presented to plant representatives of labor and management. Probably spurred by this tangible evidence of what their subscriptions can do, plant workers now have sending a fighter against the Axis as a monthly goal. Shown at the presentation above, left to right, are Rex Beisel of the Chance-Vought division of United Aircraft corporation, Commander H. J. Brow; J. H. Brady representing management and J. J. Kelly, labor for Walter Kidde and company.

Tech. Sgt. Schauler Finishes 50 Missions in B-17 Fortress

Sgt. Vincent A. Schauler Jr., 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent A. Schauler of Millburn, has completed 50 missions as a B-17 Flying Fortress aerial gunner. "I hope that I get a chance to take a crack at those Japs before they quit," Schauler said after his 50th. Beginning his combat career early in April, he finished his 50th mission September 5 in raid over Viterbo Airfield, Italy.

Are You Buying War Bonds?

No Illusion That War Is Won For Kidde Employees

Their Bond Purchase Goal To Send Fighter Against Axis Every Month

Under no illusions that the war is almost won, as a poll throughout the Kidde plants indicates, Kidde employees are doing a bond buying job calculated to send a new Navy Chance-Vought Corsair Fighter on its mission against the Axis every month.

This objective, begun with the Treasury's Third War Loan drive was pledged at the presentation of the fighter which, bearing the name of Walter Kidde and Company will be the employee's personal emissary in strafing the enemy as a result of the last war loan in April.

Recently presented to company representatives, John Brady of Management and Joseph Kelly, Labor, choice of the Labor-Management committee, the ceremony took place with Commander H. J. Brow officiating. United Aircraft representative for the Chance-Vought division was Rex Beisel. The Chance-Vought Corsair has built up a reputation of being one of the toughest fighters on any battle front. Its ability to "take it" is due, in no small measure to the Kidde Fire extinguishing and emergency equipment which it carries. It can also "dish it out" as the Jap aviators have found to their sorrow.

However, Kidde employees have personal reasons for meeting the 10 per cent payroll deductions set as a goal in the last drive since a census shows that relatives number 510 sons, 180 husbands, 1,680 brothers, and 18 fathers in the armed forces.

Edison Musical Revue For Christmas Gift Fund

Talent scouts for Broadway and Hollywood would do well to cover final rehearsals of the musical revue which the Alva Club of Thomas A. Edison, Inc. will present October 22 and 23 for the benefit of Edison men and women at war.

For, in the parlance of Broadway, as the "show shapes up" unhidden talent is being brought to light by boys and girls who are spending their days producing war materials and their evenings at "projecting" songs and dances across the footlights.

Hit numbers of "Oklahoma," Broadway's greatest musical comedy sensation in years, will be among the many features of this revue, correctly titled "For the Boys" inasmuch as all proceeds will be used to send Christmas packages to Edison employees in the armed forces. The show will be presented in the auditorium at Orange High school, Central avenue, Orange.

Pvt. Mike Nardiello Named "Man Of The Week"

Pvt. Mike D. Nardiello of 24 North East street, was today selected "Man of the Week" in the 32nd Medical Training Battalion. In making the selection, the commanding officer of the battalion, said: "Pvt. Nardiello is a recent arrival at this company from an ASTP unit Michigan State. A native of Belleville, he was inducted into the army April 8, 1943 and received his basic training in the Medical Department at Camp Grant, Ill.

"While in civilian life, Pvt. Nardiello played semi-professional football and baseball. He received an offer from the Newark Bears of the International League to continue in baseball as a center fielder, but refused the offer to enter defense work.

"Upon completion of his basic training, Pvt. Nardiello was selected to attend the engineering course at Michigan State under the Army Specialized Training program. Returning to Camp Grant, following completion of the course, Nardiello applied for appointment as an Aviation Cadet, and was successful in passing his examinations. At the present time, he is awaiting transfer to an Army Corps base to begin his training."

Civilian Defense Not Outmoded

Umbrella jugglers hitherto forced to rely on the back porch barometer or the condition of their corns for evidence of whether to carry the rain sticks can at last stop the fuss and bother. The allegedly reliable "fair and warmer" prognosticists of the government weather bureau are again allowed to be audible about their scientific findings by official order from Washington.

Whether this will make life happier for the average fellow who usually ducks from canopy to canopy or refrains from emerging at all into the snow, rain or hail is uncertain. The action does give, however, a clue to the general war situation, as it affects the home front.

It shows, along with the abolishment of the air spotters brigade that relaxation in home defense measures will be forthcoming as the war department determines that the relaxation can be permitted with safety and as the army sets up its own defense systems in our neighborhood. For the government recognizes the fact that members of civilian defense particularly, have no desire to go through the motions longer than necessary.

This assurance should cancel out the recent observations of many commentators that civilian defense is outmoded and unjustified. It should be cause for the members of both the protective and community war services to continue efficient functioning until given the "fall-out" signal by the War Department.

This attitude is substantiated by the director of the State Office of Civilian Defense, Leonard Dreyfuss who observed yesterday that it will be in large measure the job of civilian defense to cope with future catastrophes as well as a potential increase in social problems occasioned by the war.

Navy Day Observance

The observance of Navy Day will have this year, here, as throughout the country, a deeper significance. Instead of just another date on the calendar, it will, with the country deep in war, be a display of the nation's confidence in this heavy branch of the service steeped in briny tradition and naval accomplishments.

To be celebrated on October 27, it will salute all the war-time branches as well—the Marine Corps, Coast Guard and Merchant Marine. The national observance is sponsored by the Navy League established in 1922 which has made a pledge of responsibility.

It includes the "fullest support and assistance" to members of the Navy for whom it will supplement government aid of officers, men and their families. It also has undertaken to acquaint young Americans and their parents with this branch of the service of which this annual celebration is a part.

October 27 has been chosen, Sheldon Henry, Navy League president, has explained, because it is the birthday of former President of the United States, Theodore Roosevelt who devoted so much of his life to the establishment of a sound naval policy for the country. Public recognition by displaying the flag, will be a tribute, particularly to those local men in this branch of the service.

Hormones?

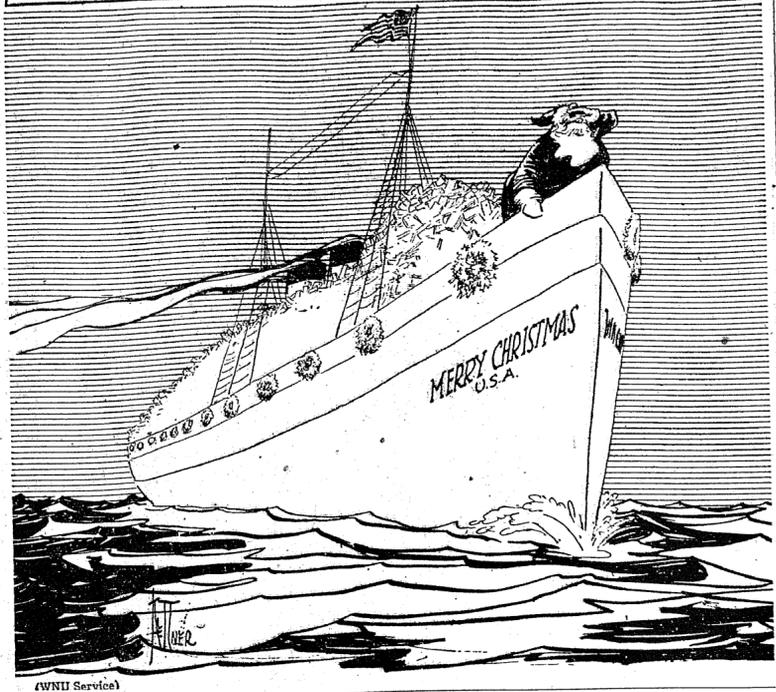

"It jiggles their hormones" is the best turned phrase we've heard as explanation for the wooing brand of crooning currently dished out by swooner Frank Sinatra. Perhaps the Hague-Murphy combine is building up the juveniles for the long pull, but we suspect a misplaced confidence when Sinatra, secured for sound effects, only, caused a stampede that left the recent Jersey City rally in an uproar.

A crowd, 50,000 strong, sighed and wept, it is reported, as the kid who has "caught on", gave them soul-stirring versions of "Paper Doll" and "Night and Day." Murphy was lucky. He delivered his lather of praise and filial devotion to the No. 1 politician in northern Jersey. But the crowd, anxious to be done with speech making, took over when the swooner began to "give."

Perhaps Webster and the sociologists will eventually explain a singer's ability to create a mob scene. That result is usually reserved for political oratory in defense of a "Cause." In the meantime, Hague and Murphy are not alone in wonderment at the furor that was wrought.

Anchors Aweigh

(WNU Service)

Meador Wright Discusses Essex County Politics

It was the common prediction of newspaper men at the beginning of the present gubernatorial campaign that it would be dry and devoid of general interest. To a certain degree this prediction has not been borne out. Considering the difficulty of getting any attention for local matters, the gubernatorial race seems to be doing pretty well. Crowds that attend the gatherings are not large, but they are far from unenthusiastic.

Walter E. Edge is making an unusually favorable impression on his audiences. Listeners invariably comment on both his physical and mental alertness. At 70 he seems just about as able as when he used to campaign in the twenties. His oratory is neither eloquent nor brilliant, but it is extremely effective. He talks like a man who has his feet squarely on the ground. He knows the limitations as well as the possibilities of being governor and is able to get this knowledge over to his audiences.

Vincent J. Murphy, in contrast, is obviously unfamiliar with the duties he will have to perform if he is elected. Hardly a speech is made that doesn't have some major blunder in it. But these mistakes don't seem to be taken too seriously. Murphy speaks with obvious sincerity. He is a working man and always keeps in character. My judgment is that he is making many more friends in this campaign than the cynical William H. Smathers did last year.

With smart publicity men, Murphy could be built up to be a very effective candidate. His research and speech writing department, however, has fallen down badly. Instead of helping him to overcome the hurdles of inexperience, his advisors seem actually to have built pitfalls for his entrapment.

While most evidence points to the contrary, the Murphy camp seems hopeful of victory. No stone is being left unturned to get out the vote. Murphy is leaning more and more on Hague's powerful shoulder. He has endorsed Hague's railroad tax plan hook, line and sinker and has qualified his earlier support of constitutional revision. Now he says that he is for a revised constitution but thinks that the revising should be done by a constitutional convention rather than by a group of Republican politicians.

Most advocates of constitutional reform feel the same way, but it was tacitly agreed that revision by the members of the two houses of the legislature would be better than leaving things as they are. This was Governor Edison's decision and Murphy seemed at first to be following the Governor's line. His later qualification, in my judgment, all but dooms a favorable vote on the referendum. Suburban women and the more literate voters generally are strong for the referendum, but this group is not strong enough numerically to defeat Frank Hague and the little Republican bosses throughout the state who have vested interests in the status quo. A republican landslide might put the referendum over, but if the election is anything like close I expect it to lose. Much as I would like to be more optimistic, I can't see victory in the present setup.

At this writing it looks as though both Edge and the referendum would fare better in Essex than elsewhere. Republicans of every shade here are working for him, save a few out-and-out labor men. This party unanimity for him is causing some eyebrow

An Air Force Pilot's letter to his Sister...

People like you are helping us get this terrible war over. Every job being done on the home front keeps us going. Keep 'em talking sis and I'll keep 'em flying. Love to all, Bob

...A Telephone Operator

Every plane—every gun—every ship our men use 'somewhere out there' in battle action—is the product of organized effort here at home—the work of many skilled, determined hands.

Winning this war is a team job far surpassing anything known before. The telephone service depended upon so greatly to speed war production and keep home front action going smoothly is typical of this team effort in which every worker in every job has a part. Of the 15,000 men and women doing the telephone job in New Jersey, 55% are in action at the switchboards—the others are linemen, installers, engineers, test and maintenance men, workers at desks and business machines, and those who keep working quarters ready for each day's task.

Working together and with the cooperation of telephone users, they are making existing telephone facilities meet the emergency with a high degree of effectiveness, doing a team job of the kind that is traditional with Americans.

Home Folks, Servicemen Appreciate W & T's Gift

Taken Especially For Pictures Of "Mom And Pop" Yule Remembrance

A lifelike, pocket sized studio portrait of his mother and father, or other close relatives, will greet each serviceman who is a former employee of Wallace and Tiernan Co., Inc. at Christmas time.

picture. Elwood P. Russell and John Walker are co-chairmen of the committee which will celebrate this month its first anniversary in the comprehensive schedule of activities which include increased production and safety measures for persons now employed by the firm; War bond, Red Cross and blood bank drives and the constant monthly mailing of bulletins, letters and gifts to men in service.

Parents of Wallace and Tiernan company's men in service received letters this summer inviting them to visit a Newark studio to have their pictures made. Attached to this introductory letter was a photograph of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Tiernan whose sons are in the Marine corps and the Navy. Mr. Tiernan is president of the company. A reminder was mailed to parents a month later.

Men and women alike responded to the plan and in addition to accepting, directed several hundred letters of gratitude to the War Efforts committee. "May I say that I think this is one of the nicest things you could possibly have done for Bud", wrote one father. "I know that every boy who receives one will appreciate it from the bottom of his heart. My boy has written that he has received quite a few packages from you and he certainly does appreciate it."

The Folks Like it, Too
"It is nice to know that your former pals with whom you worked have not forgotten you", says another serviceman's mother. "Your fine Christmas gift to our son meets with our heartiest approval". "I don't think anything could be much nicer for my son or any other boy so far away from home". "This is another of the many wonderful efforts of your committee to bring happiness to our sons and daughters in service". "My son never had anything but a snapshot of us before and it will certainly be a pleasant surprise to him"; are excerpts from the many letters.

Among the previous gifts sent by the War Efforts committee, ranging from cookies and smokes to toilet articles, was a blackout pencil which was well received by the men. One mother wrote that her son had written about his pencil "with a little light in it" and wanted his parents to know that anytime they received a letter written in pencil they would know it had been done after "lights out".

The 10 cent club, composed of Wallace and Tiernan company's employees who contribute 10 cents a week, finances the projects. The Christmas photo is mounted in a sturdy, fabricoid folder, heavily coated to be waterproof and indestructible. To men whose parents lived too far from Newark to take advantage of the photograph offer Christmas packages of toiletries, playing cards, sewing kit, hard candy and peanuts have been mailed.

Miss Carmella Garuba To Wed In Newark Church On Sunday

Miss Carmella Nellie Garuba daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Garuba of Pittston, Pa. will be married to Peter G. Wilczol, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Wilczol, of 548 South 13th street, Newark, at the Sacred Heart church, Park avenue, Newark, on Sunday, at 5:30 p. m.

Miss Garuba attended Pittston High school and Mr. Wilczol attended school at Shelter Isle High, Long Island, New York. He is now employed at the Federal Ship-Building and Dry Dock company in Kearny. Miss Garuba has been living with her sister, Mrs. Michael Scioli, of 17 Magnolia street and will be married from there. She will be given in marriage by her father.

After a week's wedding trip, the couple will reside at 176 Parker street, Newark. Mrs. Michael Scioli of Magnolia street gave a surprise miscellaneous shower for the prospective bride on Monday evening. There were guests present from this town, Bloomfield and Newark.

It's "Number Please," Again

RESPONDING TO CALL for women workers, Mrs. Constance Molyneux Bridge of 24 New street has returned to the local New Jersey-Bell Telephone exchange after an absence of 17 years. Shown above at the right, she is reading over emergency instructions with Miss Carrie T. Johnston, chief operator, also of town.

Returns To Phone Exchange After Absence of 17 Years

From Family Of Bell Employees, Mrs. Bridge Decides To "Lend A Hand"

The telephone service gets "in the blood," or so it would seem from the family background of Mrs. Constance Molyneux Bridge of 24 New street, who has returned as an operator at the Belleville exchange after 17 years absence.

Mrs. Bridge is one of hundreds of former operators throughout the state who, anxious to help in the war effort, have returned to the switchboards to help handle the rising tide of telephone calls which speed war production on the vital home front.

It was no surprise to Miss Carrie Johnston of town, chief operator, with whom Mrs. Bridge served in the last war at the Market exchange in Newark and at the exchange here when it first opened in 1924, nor to anyone acquainted with the Molyneux and Bridge families, when Mrs. Bridge walked in after her long absence "to lend a hand" during the wartime emergency. The spirit of service which is the essence of the telephone tradition is a family tradition as well with her.

Her father, John Molyneux, was a foreman for the telephone company in Liverpool, England, before he came to this country in 1905; he had a job within three days after his arrival in America, with the old New York and New Jersey Telephone company in Jersey City; and when he retired in 1933, he was construction supervisor for the New Jersey Bell

Telephone Company in Hudson County.

Family Tradition

Her husband, Frank Bridge, was a telephone man when she met him in Belleville and married him in the mid-twenties. Three of her sisters, Dorothy, Rose and Beatrice, have been operators. Two sisters-in-law, one of whom is an operator at Butler, also kept the family telephone tradition, and several cousins (not to carry it any further) are also in the telephone service in New Jersey.

The "New Jersey Bell," house organ of the telephone company, in its most recent issue pays tribute to the telephone women war workers of New Jersey helping to supply efficiently and courteously the wartime service of communication vital to the nation in the drive to victory, and features the small army of former telephone operators who, like Mrs. Bridge, have returned to war-busy switchboards because they wanted to help. Another Belleville resident in this category is Mrs. Glennon of 298 Union avenue, a Long Distance operator in Newark who returned to the service a little over a year ago after fifteen years absence.

Miss Johnston, the chief operator, has a service record unbroken through two wars. Chief operator in Belleville when the office was opened in 1924, Miss Johnston and her staff have taken more or less in stride an increase of fifty per cent in the number of Belleville telephones in the last four years and in daily volume of calls through the exchange from 16,000 calls a day on the average in 1939 to 22,000 a day now. Two things stand out in her mind as most helpful in enabling them to absorb the great increase in traffic using equipment and switchboard which could not be expanded due to shortages of materials needed in the war effort. One is the understanding of their problem which Belleville telephone users uniformly show, and their cooperation with "the Voice With A Smile" when a rush of calls may cause the service to be a little slower than usual; and the other, she says, is the improvement in telephone training methods and practices since the last war, which help operators to do a better job of serving the community.

Meets A "Fighting" Mother

Sgt. John Basilone, only Marine to hold the Congressional Medal of Honor, learns something about what New Jersey women are doing on the home front to back up their boys in the field from Mrs. Agnes Faas of 16 Dartmouth road, West Orange.

She is employed at the Instrument Division of Thomas A. Edison, Inc. Mrs. Faas, who has four sons in the service, had never done anything but housework until her boys went off to war, when she determined to do her bit to help end the war sooner.

After touring the Edison plant following a rally at which he and two other heroes addressed 1,400 company employees Basilone said: "I just want to say that all the other boys out there and myself think the job the women are doing on the home front is one of the finest things in the world. We need your help. You can be sure that everyone of us who fires a gun or uses any other piece of equipment will have that picture of our fighting American women in mind."

Take Part In School No. 3 Program

Mrs. Lorena Clark gave dramatic readings and Eugene Berry, Belleville health officer, spoke at the Tuesday afternoon meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of School No. 3. Mr. Berry's topic will be "Quarantine and Contagious Diseases." Officers and committee members of the organization met the previous Tuesday afternoon.

YOUR VICTORY GARDEN Think Of 1944 Victory Garden Now; By Dr. Charles H. Connors, N. J. College of Agriculture

Fall Digging Means Early Planting

Now that the experimental year in our home gardening, for many of us, is just about over, it might be profitable for us to dig our garden before the soil freezes over so our 1944 Victory Garden might be even more productive than the one we had this season.

There are many advantages to fall digging. For instance, in the development of Victory Gardens this year it was necessary, in a majority of cases, to dig or plow land that was in sod. Most of this newly cultivated land was in old sod, and, in consequence, required some time to rot down. If sufficient fertilizer and lime were not turned under with the sod, garden plants did not receive sufficient nourishment and failed to thrive, because most of the plant food materials were used up in the rotting of the sod.

It is not until late June or July, in a normal season, that the decay has proceeded far enough so the plants can receive the benefit from the plant food material released in the process of decay. In a dry season, such as the past one was over large areas, and where water was not available for use in the garden, the process of decay is slower. Consequently, the plants never were able to utilize the released nutrients.

1944 Gardens Will Be Needed

Victory Gardens will certainly be needed next year, for the food shortage will be more acute in 1944 than it was this season. Therefore, many persons who have had gardens this year will want additional space. Also, many persons who did not have gardens in 1943, after viewing the results of their neighbors' gardens, will want to undertake to grow their own vegetables next year. If the land that is in sod is to be used for this extension, a very advisable practice is to turn it under in the fall. There are certain definite reasons for this practice. Where the area is large enough to plow, it probably will be much easier to have the work done in the fall than to wait until spring. Everybody is busy then, and generally it is difficult to find plowmen who can do the work promptly after the soil reaches a fit condition to work in the spring.

Leave Soil In Rough Condition

If the sod is turned over in the fall the soil need not be put into as fine condition as is needed for seed sowing. That is, it can be left somewhat rough. This will permit better absorption and retention of water. However, if the land is on a slope, be sure to dig or plow it across the slope so that when the rain falls the water will not gather in channels and thus cause erosion.

Land thus prepared will usually dry out in the spring so the surface can be raked down and planted much earlier than if it were left for spring plowing or digging.

The practice of fall plowing is sound if any sort of crude vegetable matter is to be dug in. If a supply of fresh stable manure with plenty of straw bedding should become available, it would be good husbandry to turn this under in the fall. In the saving of leaves as they fall, many persons dig these under as they accumulate. In this case, it is wise to mix the leaves in the soil as well as possible, as otherwise they may collect in masses that will not decay well.

Of course, if cover crops have been sown, such crops should not be disturbed and the digging will have to take place in the early spring.

Fertilizing Accompanies Digging

In plowing heavy sod, leaves or other bulky plant residues, be sure to use fertilizer and lime. You can now obtain the new Victory Garden fertilizer, 5-10-5, but if you still have some 1943 fertilizer, 3-8-7, this may be used. Fertilizer should be used at the rate of three pounds of 100 square feet. Pulverized limestone at the rate of five pounds to 100 square feet should also be applied. Both should be put on before plowing or digging.

The purpose of putting on the fertilizer and lime is to supply food materials to benefit the micro-organisms that bring about decomposition of the organic matter. This action will be slow during the winter but it will be very rapid during the early days of spring. Under these conditions there will be almost no loss of nitrogen, and the phosphorus, potash and lime will be distributed throughout the lower part of the cultivated soil body where they will do the most good.

In getting the garden ready to plant in the spring a further light application of fertilizer should be added to the surface and raked in to supply immediately available nutrient to the new plants.

TOWN ELIGIBLE FOR FEDERAL AID IN NURSERY

Will Make Formal Application After Inspection By Security Agency

Assurance was received this week by Defense Coordinator Ronald Brunner and School Board Business Manager Ruel E. Daniels that Belleville is eligible for Lanham act funds to help finance a child care center for children of mothers working in war plants.

Their conference with members of the state board of education in Trenton on Monday revealed that funds will be forthcoming within four weeks after application. However, they were also advised to request the inspection of Dr. Fred Beach, consultant on school service in the Federal Security Agency of local needs and facilities before a formal application is made.

This followed the statement by the board of education last week that it would operate a child care center probably to be located in School No. 1, provided the Defense council underwrites the expenses remaining after the expenditure of Lanham act funds. Lanham act funds will guarantee 50 percent of the operating expenses of the center and all of the equipment up to $1,000. It is understood that nearly $2,000 will be the initial expense in equipping rooms in School No. 1 with plumbing and kitchen facilities. Total operating cost for a year's operation has been roughly estimated at $10,000.

After hanging fire for two years, the board of education consented to supervising the project when a definite need was shown in the last survey made by the child care committee of the Defense council. Questionnaires distributed through the schools showed that 32 children of working mothers would be placed in such a program where it available in addition to 37 school age children who would need before and after school supervision.

Hot lunches are to be provided for both groups at staggered hours and a mid-morning and mid-afternoon snack for the toddlers. Transportation however, is not to be provided since many of the mothers working in Belleville are expected to leave the nursery school tots at the center on their way to local industries.

First National Announces Temporary Appointment

The directors of the First National Bank have announced the appointment of William Goodsir as cashier to fill the vacancy created by the temporary retirement of C. Henry Rahb. Mr. Rahb has been ill since August and the bank has granted him a leave of absence to enable him to recuperate.

Mr. Goodsir, who will assume his new duties November 1, was formerly assistant cashier of the Mount Prospect National Bank of Newark, and for the past five years, has been cashier of the First National Bank of Garfield. Goodsir is 41 years old. He and his wife and daughter, reside at 90 Midland avenue in Kearny.

Goodsir is a member and a graduate of the American Institute of Banking. He is active in the civilian defense organization in Kearny, and, with his family, is a member of the First Presbyterian church of Arlington.

Tickets For All Night Parking Cause Corbin Apt. Tenants To Protest To Board

Louis Kay of 50 Cort street, Brooklyn, owner of the Corbin Garden apartments, was requested by the board of commissioners at their next meeting on November 9, to provide adequate parking facilities for his tenants. His action was brought about by a petition signed by 57 families, residents in the apartments, which was presented to the board on Tuesday night in protest against a wave of parking tickets received for all night parking on Carpenter street.

Presented by Mrs. Dorothy Cottingham, the petition also requested that the street be made two-way for the duration or until gasoline rationing is lifted. Public Safety Director King explained that the narrow street has been restricted to one way traffic so that fire apparatus may get through when necessary. He also stated that the over night parking prevents the street sweeper and snow plow from operating, since their work is done chiefly at night.

The Cottingham presented a plot layout to the commissioners, showing space for 12 cars on the north and south ends of the apartments and space for eight in each of the semi-circles facing in Carpenter street. However, she pointed out that it was the understanding of the tenants that adequate parking facilities would be provided, and showed that there is space for parking an additional 30 cars on the owner's property if it is properly cleared.

Police Recorder Everett Smith has granted a week's grace in the payment of the parking fines, she said, pending action by the board. King suggested and the board concurred in holding the parking tickets until the next meeting when the owner or his representative will be asked to correct the condition.

Town Wide Program Planned For Armistice Day

Armistice Day will be observed on November 11 by a community meeting in the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock sponsored by the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

In addition to a noted speaker, there will be a musical program. John Gannon is chairman and treasurer of the affair which will be the second local war-time observance in World War II. Willis Davis is secretary.

Members of the American Legion committee are composed of Arthur S. Ackerman, chairman; Otto Bruenich, Richard Shannon, Sheldon Henry and Davis. The V. F. W. committee in addition to Gannon, chairman, consists of George Buchanan, John Rehg, Norbert Bertl and Robert Smith, VFW commander. Mayor Williams is honorary chairman.

A Call A Day For Ambulance

The town ambulance traveled 450 miles in September in response to 30 calls, five of which were the result of accidents, Public Safety Director King has reported.

Junior Companies Prepare To Set Up Business

Inspect Products For Manufacture, Elect Their Officers

Forty-five young people heard Richard G. Boyd, state director of Junior Achievement, explain the principles on which juvenile business firms may be operated and inspected products already being manufactured by young companies in the high school auditorium last Wednesday evening. Practically all of them, at the conclusion of his talk and demonstration, signified a desire to join one of the five little companies which it is proposed to form here.

Twenty advisors, representing six Belleville industries, have been chosen to guide the little companies in production, and financial management. A committee, headed by Edgar S. Peierls of the Resistoflex corporation and made up of other representatives of Belleville firms, churches and some small businesses here, inaugurated the project last summer. Dr. Earl W. Seibert, a member of the committee interviewed the group of young people, largely members of the sophomore and junior classes in the high school, previous to their introduction to the plan last week.

Boyd exhibited wooden products, now being manufactured by junior firms, such as an anchorage necessary to the safety of an airplane part in shipment, small plaques on which organization insignia may be mounted for use as paper weights, a toy wagon and a doll's crib. He showed a chemical glass cleaner which is bottled by a Junior Achievement company and aprons and kerchiefs which are marketed by a sewing project.

The young people were asked to solicit additional members for

Candidate

Peter Niemiec

An employee of Wallace and Tiernan, Inc. the past 14 years in the engineering department, Peter Niemiec of Irvington will be represented on the voting machines next Tuesday as a Democratic candidate for assemblyman.

He has been a candidate previously in 1939 and 1940. Thirty-three years old, Niemiec is a native of Irvington and a graduate of the University of Newark Law school. He said yesterday that he is in favor of the revision of the constitution but feels that the referendum may be declared unconstitutional if taken to a higher court. The reason for his belief, he says, is that the constitution as it now stands, provides for amendments only. In addition, Niemiec stated, the referendum excludes the clause dealing with changing the number of state senators and legislators now contained in the 100 year old document.

FROM CELLAR TO SHELL WRAPPER

That's Patriotic Fate Of Waste Paper To Be Collected Again For Salvage

From cellar to conversion into shell containers and other armament accessories will be the route taken by the waste paper soon to be collected again in town under the auspices of the salvage committee of the Defense council.

The paper salvage after a lapse of a year, is part of a nation-wide campaign to restore the depleted stocks which are used increasingly in substitute products for the armed forces. Brown paper and cartons are particularly desired, although paper of all types, newspapers, magazines, and even scrap paper placed in bags to be salvaged between the newspaper are all needed.

Robert Sutherland, salvage chairman, has announced that the committee is making plans now, to devise a way in Newark of collecting which will be separate from the tin can collection to be undertaken by the school children. Householders are asked to bundle the material in stacks approximately 10 inches high which are equivalent to 25 pounds. All are asked to start saving the paper immediately, because of its value to war production.

General Grunert said in part: "It seems to me to be wishful thinking and to show a lack of knowledge and appreciation of our enemy's capabilities for any person to believe that the danger is past and that the splendid civilian protection organizations so painstakingly built up as the result of hard and unremitting toil and effort can at this stage be discarded as unnecessary."

"I feel that the danger is not past and that the need for the civilian protection organization is as great now as ever before. Accordingly, I wish to join in urging that all members of the civilian protection services continue their activities unceasingly, so that should any emergency arise, they may respond, and, having responded, will know that they have served their country well."

After consideration of the Grunert and Craigie letters, the Conference adopted a five-point statement of policy and a program of action. It includes twenty-four hour maintenance operation and adequate system for warning and mobilizing the civilian defense protective forces in the Eastern Defense Command must be maintained. The maintenance of the present trained force of protective personnel embracing the established protective services is essential.

Periodic drills and exercises, including blackouts, should be held at such time and in such manner as will insure the maintenance of an alert and efficient protective force. The important Community War Services work of the millions of civilian defense volunteers now working under the Defense Council leadership must be pushed forward with maximum energy and the fact that Civilian Defense shall continue the enforcement of such regulations as may be requested by the Army, were also included.

In his letter, addressed to the Civilian Air Raid Warning District personnel, Brig. Gen. Craigie said in part: "The eastern seaboard is now guarded by a mechanical device which is very accurate and can detect aircraft heading towards our shores. Our function is and will continue to be vitally important to the entire defense set-up of the eastern seaboard. The new plan of Air Defense does not mean that air defense is no longer necessary, but means only that there is some retrenchment in our activities consistent with changes of events. The war is not over

NEW EMPHASIS ON WAYS TO COMBAT POISON GAS

Demonstration Correlates With Five Point Policy Recently Established

With a new emphasis on civilian personnel methods of combat in enemy gas attacks currently revealed by the State Office of Civilian Defense, members of the air raid precautions committee, including zone wardens, sector and assistant wardens, met Tuesday night in the recreation house for a practical demonstration of latest procedure.

Sidney Kauffer, senior gas officer, and his assistants outlined a condensed refresher course preparatory to its presentation to all groups of civilian defense personnel. Methods of self-aid were demonstrated in addition to the use and care of the civilian defense gas mask, its sterilization and accounting for the time it is in use.

A demonstration of the reaction of the charcoal contents of the gas mask in filtering oxygen through to the wearer in an atmosphere contaminated with poison gas was demonstrated, as well as the heavier than air tendencies of most gases, as shown in the diffusion of dry ice fumes through the ground floor of a doll house. This demonstrated at first hand, the necessity for householders to retreat to the upper floors of the house in the event of a gas attack and brought home other protective measures.

The evening was used to try out a plan of enlisting sector wardens or their assistants as gas reconnaissance agents within their own sectors to give a town-wide coverage for alert handling of gas born vapors.

The local action is in line with the contention that the present trained forces of protective personnel and the adequate system for warning and mobilizing these forces in the Eastern Defense Command, comprising all the States along the Eastern seaboard, must be maintained.

This was contained in a joint statement of policy and a program of action announced today by the East Coast Conference of State Defense Directors and the United States Office of Civilian Defense, at a meeting held in the University club of Newark.

At the same time letters written by General George Grunert, Commanding the Eastern Defense Command, and Brig. Gen. L. C. Craigie, commanding officer of the First Fighter Command were made public. General Grunert's letter was addressed to Leonard Dreyfuss, chairman of the Conference and State Director for New Jersey. The General Craigie letter was addressed to the Civilian Air Raid Warning District personnel.

Danger Not Past

Health Officer Richard Berry has been requested by the board of commissioners to investigate a possible health menace in the chickens kept by a neighbor of Mrs. F. W. Baumbusch at 90 Bell street who has complained of their proximity to her property.

She claims that a coop approximately 10 by 12 feet has been placed on adjacent property and calls it a "monstrosity" in the Greylock section. Since the rules on poultry raising have been relaxed for the duration, the commissioners declared they can only investigate the condition on the possibility that the presence of the chickens is creating a health menace if the coop is not kept in a sanitary condition.

Pass Resolution To Lay Sidewalk On Union Avenue After Petition

A resolution introduced by Commissioner Waters was passed on first reading at the commission meeting Tuesday night, for the laying of a sidewalk on Union avenue between Campbell avenue and Crest drive.

The action was in response to a petition from 117 residents in the section who declared that lack of a sidewalk creates a hazard for children going to and from school since they walk on the street. The improvement will be made at a cost of $600 to be financed through the issuance of bond anticipation notes totaling $570.

New Honor Roll Proposed

A Sunday morning meeting will be held at the home of Meyer Leitzes, 48 Belmont street, in the interests of an honor roll for servicemen whose homes are in that vicinity. Mr. Leitzes' son has served three years in the Pacific area. No honor bulletin is located between Belleville avenue and the Nutley line and it is Leitzes' impression that parents and friends of members of the Armed Forces in his area are anxious to see one raised to their honor. All interested persons are asked to meet at his home at 11 o'clock.

War Casualty

Seaman William Gajdos

Memorial services were held Sunday for Seaman William Gajdos formerly of 189 Cortlandt street, after word was received by his wife, the former Miss Anna Kinsley of town, last week, that he was killed following action.

The seaman had joined the Merchant Marine on July 15 and went on active duty in September. A telegram from Vice-Admiral R. R. Waesche, commandant of the U. S. Coast Guard, disclosed the news which was augmented by a communication from the Maritime Service in New York saying his vessel was sunk following enemy action.

Twenty-six years old, his wife last heard from him just before he went on active duty, when he wrote wishing her a Merry Christmas and asked her to "keep the fire up" until he returned. He trained at Sheepshead Bay, Brooklyn, N. Y. for six weeks prior to leaving for active duty.

Mrs. Gajdos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kinsley of 135 Cortlandt street, had a mass of requiem said for the deceased seaman at St. Michael's Roman Catholic church in Passaic on Sunday, and a memorial service was read in Grace Episcopal church in Rutherford, on the same day, where the couple was married in January, 1937. Mrs. Gajdos, a native of Belleville, chose this church, since the rector, the Rev. Popham, was formerly rector of the Episcopal church here.

Seaman Gajdos, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gajdos of East Rutherford, had lived here, since his marriage. He had been raised in East Rutherford and attended East Rutherford schools. He was employed at Slater Lino-leum incorporated in Newark, before entering the maritime service.

Surviving him beside his wife who is now residing at the home of her parents, are three brothers, Joseph, a sergeant in the Army air force, Paul of East Rutherford and John of Garfield; two sisters, Mrs. Albert Kinsley of Nutley and Mrs. Russell Binns of Rochelle Park.

Chickens A Health Menace?

19 Year Old Seaman Nabbed By Deputy Chief And His Squad

A 19 year old seaman in the Navy who found an easy way to acquire money to date his girl has wound up in a stockade at the Norfolk, Va. naval base as a result of recent activities of Deputy Chief Elmer Leighton and members of his detective squad.

Cited by Public Safety Director King and acknowledged by the board of commissioners at their meeting Tuesday night, Leighton and his men have solved a series of robberies here, in Blenheim, Irvington and possibly Nutley that may, before research is completed, reach 100.

The culprit who freely admits he can't remember all of the houses he broke into or all of the loot either pawned or sold, is Seaman 2/c James Belluto alias James Makel, of Medford, Mass. His signed confession obtained in Virginia by Leighton and Detective James Malleck, states that the robberies were committed with the aid of a chisel taken from the basement of his girl's home in Silver Lake, so he could "take her out."

His apprehension was made possible through the Newark Police who picked him up as being AWOL on October 10, at which time he had a pawn ticket in his possession in the name of his alias, James Makel. This tallied with the description of the person who after stealing money and blank checks from the home of Fred Hauffer at 17 Prospect street on October 8, forged and cashed a check at the People's National bank for $125. With this information Leighton, accompanied by Detective James Malleck, left for Norfolk on Wednesday night to question

HYDE CHAIRMAN OF RED CROSS WAR FUND

Will Direct Campaign Early Next Year; Officers Are Elected

The newly elected directors of the Belleville Chapter, American Red Cross, named Elmer Hyde war fund chairman at their meeting Tuesday evening at chapter headquarters, 258 Washington avenue. The directors attending the meeting were: Rudolph H. Jectein, Dr. O. Bell Close, A. Stanley Miller, Rev. Peter R. R. Deckenbach, Martin Cosgrave, Dr. James R. Irwin, Harvey B. Thompson, Theodore Sandford, Albert P. Luscombe, B. Thomas Aitken, Harold D. Pumyea, Louis Plansoen and Mayor William H. Williams. The Rev. Joseph M. Kelly was absent.

B. Thomas Aitken, Chapter chairman, summarized briefly the activities of the chapter in the past year, and a program was discussed for providing for the expanding of activities to meet the increasing calls on the Red Cross under war conditions. A. P. Luscombe, treasurer, reported that there is $9,200 in the treasury, which is adequate to meet the current demands, perhaps providing for a small surplus at the end of the chapter year.

Arrangements for the 1944 Red Cross War Fund drive were discussed. While the national chapter has not set the date for the next appeal for Red Cross funds it is expected that there will be a need for funds early next year. Elmer Hyde will succeed Raymond E. Mertz who has resigned because of the pressure of other duties. He will arrange for the planning of the organization for the drive in advance of its announcement.

The officers elected are Aitken, chairman; Ralph Dejean and Harvey Thompson, vice chairmen; Luscombe, treasurer and Mrs. Paul Baxter, secretary. A budget committee headed by Mayor Williams was appointed to determine and plan for the financial requirements for the coming year. Harold Pumyea and Luscombe were appointed to this committee.

The annual meeting was set for January 10, 1944. The nominating committee, of which Rev. Peter Deckenbach is chairman, was appointed. Other members of the committee are Martin P. Cosgrave, Theodore Sandford, A. Stanley Miller and Dr. James Irwin. A. M. Hart of the auditing firm of A. M. Hart and company was designated as auditor for the Chapter, to check the accounts, and report to the board on his audit.

The activities of the home service committee, of which Mrs. Louis A. Noll, is chairman, which have opened their meetings to speakers for the campaign. "We are far from attaining our objectives in the campaign but we are quite sure the goal is in sight. We must continue to urge more and more women to get into the fight against the enemy on the home front. This is a duty we owe to our country and to the boys and men on our firing lines."

Speaking at the Woman's club Monday evening Mrs. Schmutz pointed out that she does not be-

McNamee Announces End of Dimout Rules By Army Command

Members of the Defense council personnel who were present at the first visit of Col. Frank McNamee Jr., assistant regional director, were among the first to hear of the suspension last night of all dimout regulations on both the eastern and western seaboard by order of the Army command.

At the meeting in the high school auditorium also attended by State OCD Director Leonard Dreyfuss, the Colonel announced the news was a direct result of a conference of the War department at the White House and directors of eastern civilian defense. Reason for the relaxation is, he said, the perfection through radio and other devices of the detection of enemy planes. Since Pearl Harbor, the army has now installed a sufficient quantity of anti-aircraft and interceptor equipment to warrant the relaxation, he stated.

However, the Colonel also warned that this is no signal for individual council to let down and his views were substantiated by Dreyfuss who pointed out the fact that New Jersey, the fourth smallest of all states, produces one-sixth of the total war production of the country, something for the Office of Civilian Defense to protect, he observed.

With three million people engaged in civilian defense on this coast, a figure which is one-third the size of the army, its services must be continued, Dreyfuss said, since the army could not be expected to supplant it. The need for the air raid precaution group, the auxiliary police and firemen will continue after victory, he maintained, since the movement back to peace time strength will be a slow process. He stated the fact that before the war New Jersey had 200 fire fighters who have now been augmented to 6,000. Losses from forest fires are kept at a minimum today he said, and questioned whether this organization would be officially disbanded.

Proof of the value of the community war services was given in the 391,000 registered victory gardeners who have reported a total of 50 million jars of food. He asserted this summer as a bulkware of vitamins and calories and release of other food stuffs for the armed forces.

Dreyfuss who has announced his resignation as state director to take effect in January, declared that it is the right of the new governor to choose his own cabinet. In leaving his post, he is leaving a three point program he said, which consists of the continuance of civilian defense for the duration and through the reconstruction period for two years, in addition to the important task of educating the public in the technique of leading men who are casualties of war.

Mayor Williams who introduced the speakers, introduced a resolution of appreciation from the town to Dreyfuss for his speech. The Rev. O. Bell Close was present to deliver the invocation. The Rev. Joseph Kelly gave the benediction. Other officials present included Deputy Area Director Harry J. Sullivan, Defense Chairman Everett Smith and Defense Coordinator Ronald Brunner.

Population Took A Nose Dive In Book 4 Registrations

If the ration books issued at the public schools Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week, the criteria of the census of Belleville, the number of people in the municipality has gone down. Either that, or 300 residents who neglect registration will be looking for a ration book four pretty soon out of a supposed census of 900 people, 27,702 books actually issued at the schools.

As is usual when the ration situation books come out, the system worked hard at the time of registering and distributing the books from two in the afternoon until eight in the evening. School number eight was first with more than 4,500 books issued and school number five came next in the line-up with over 4,400 registration. Evidently, the area around school number nine is least thickly populated, for only 1,574 people came to register.

Ration Book Four, it has been pointed out by the Office of Price Administration, will be used, beginning November 1, for canned and processed foods and sugar. From November 1 through December 20, the green ration book, which are comparable in use to the blue stamps in Book two, will be good for processed foods. Five pounds of sugar may be purchased with number 29, marked "S" from November 1, 1943 to January 15, 1944.
