TOWN ELIGIBLE FOR FEDERAL AID IN NURSERY

Will Make Formal Application After Inspection By Security Agency

Assurance was received this week by Defense Coordinator Ronald Brunner and School Board Business Manager Ruel E. Daniels that Belleville is eligible for Lanham act funds to help finance a child care center for children of mothers working in war plants.

Their conference with members of the state board of education in Trenton on Monday revealed that funds will be forthcoming within four weeks after application. However, they were also advised to request the inspection of Dr. Fred Beach, consultant on school service in the Federal Security Agency of local needs and facilities before a formal application is made.

This followed the statement by the board of education last week that it would supervise a child care center probably to be located in School No. 1, provided the defense council underwrites the expenses remaining after the expenditure of Lanham act funds. Lanham act funds will guarantee 50 percent of the operating expenses of the center and all of the equipment up to $1,000. It is understood that nearly $2,000 will be the initial expense in equipping rooms in School No. 1 with plumbing and kitchen facilities. Total over-all cost for a year's operation has been roughly estimated at $10,000.

Hot lunches are to be provided for both groups at staggered hours and a mid-morning and mid-afternoon snack for the toddlers. Transportation, however, is not to be provided since many of the mothers working in Belleville are expected to leave the nursery school tots at the center on their way to local industries.

First National Announces Temporary Appointment

The directors of the First National Bank have announced the appointment of William Goodis as cashier to fill the vacancy created by the temporary retirement of C. Henry Rabb. Mr. Rabb has been ill since August and the bank has granted him a leave of absence to enable him to recuperate.

Mr. Goodis, who will assume his new duties November 1, was formerly assistant cashier of the Mount Prospect National Bank of Newark, and for the past five years, has been cashier of the First National Bank of Garfield. Goodis is 41 years old. He and his wife and daughter, reside at 90 Midland avenue in Kearny.

Goodis is a member and a graduate of the American Institute of Banking. He is active in the civilian defense organization in Kearny, and, with his family, is a member of the First Presbyterian church of Arlington.

All the music for the Christmas program of Handel's "Messiah" is now in the hands of the committee and is available for the practice sessions. Anyone desiring to sing with the group who has not already attended the rehearsals is urged to report Monday evening.

Adell Sutherland, music committee librarian of the Foundation, reminds choir directors that the music used last June by the combined choirs is available for borrowing. Telephone Be. 2-1342-M or call at 87 Preston street. The music includes "Praise the Lord Eternal," Schuetzky, "The Heavens Are Declaring," Beethoven and "O Mighty Land," Sibelius.

OWNER WILL BE ASKED FOR MORE PARKING AREA

Tickets For All Night Parking Cause Corbin Apt. Tenants To Protest To Board

Louis Kay of 50 Cort street, Brooklyn, owner of the Corbin Garden apartments, will be requested by the board of commissioners at their next meeting on November 9, to provide adequate parking facilities for his tenants. His action was brought about by a petition signed by 57 families, residents in the apartments, which was presented to the board on Tuesday night in protest against a wave of parking tickets received for all night parking on Carpenter street.

Presented by Mrs. Dorothy Cottingham, the petition also requested that the street be maintained for the duration or until gasoline rationing is lifted. Public Safety Director King explained that the narrow street has been restricted to one way traffic so that fire apparatus may get through when necessary. He also stated that the over night parking prevents the street sweeper and snow plow from operating, since the work is done chiefly at night.

Mrs. Cottingham presented a plot layout to the commissioners showing space for 12 cars on the north and south ends of the apartments and space for eight in each of the semi-circles facing in Carpenter street. However, she pointed out that it was the understanding of the tenants that adequate parking facilities would be provided, and showed that there is space for parking an additional 30 cars on the owner's property if it is properly cleared.

Police Recorder Everett Smith has granted a week's grace in the payment of the parking fines, she said, pending action by the board. King suggested and the board concurred in holding the parking tickets until the next meeting when the owner or his representative will be asked to correct the condition.

Town Wide Program Planned For Armistice Day

Armistice Day will be observed on November 11 by a community meeting in the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock sponsored by the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

In addition to a noted speaker, there will be a musical program. John Gannon is chairman and treasurer of the affair which will be the second local war-time observance in World War II. Willis Davis is secretary.

Members of the American Legion committee are composed of Arthur S. Ackerman, chairman; Otto Brunenich, Richard Shannon, Sheldon Henry and Davis. The V. F. W. committee in addition to Gannon, chairman, consists of George Buchanan, John Rehg, Norbert Berti and Robert Smith, VFW commander. Mayor Williams is honorary chairman.

A Call A Day For Ambulance

The town ambulance traveled 450 miles in September in response to 30 calls, five of which were the result of accidents, Public Safety Director King has reported.

Junior Companies Prepare To Set Up Business

Inspect Products For Manufacture, Elect Their Officers

Forty-five young people heard Richard G. Boyd, state director of Junior Achievement, explain the principles on which juvenile business firms may be operated and inspected products already being manufactured by young companies in the high school auditorium last Wednesday evening. Practically all of them, at the conclusion of his talk and demonstration, signified a desire to join one of the five little companies which it is proposed to form here.

Twenty advisors, representing six Belleville industries, have been chosen to guide the little companies in production, and financial management. A committee, headed by Edgar S. Peierls of the Resistoflex corporation and made up of other representatives of Belleville firms, churches and some small businesses here, inaugurated the project last summer. Dr. Earl W. Seibert, a member of the committee interviewed the group of young people, largely members of the sophomore and junior classes in the high school, previous to their introduction to the plan last week.

Boyd exhibited wooden products, now being manufactured by junior firms, such as an anchorage necessary to the safety of an airplane part in shipment, small plaques on which organization insignia may be mounted for use as paper weights, a toy wagon and a doll's crib. He showed a chemical glass cleaner which is bottled by a Junior Achievement company and aprons and kerchiefs which are marketed by a sewing project.

The young people were asked to solicit additional members for

Candidate

Peter Niemiec

An employee of Wallace and Tiernan, Inc. the past 14 years in the engineering department, Peter Niemiec of Irvington will be represented on the voting machines next Tuesday as a Democratic candidate for assemblyman.

He has been a candidate previously in 1939 and 1940. Thirty-three years old, Niemiec is a native of Irvington and a graduate of the University of Newark Law school. He said yesterday that he is in favor of the revision of the constitution but feels that the referendum may be declared unconstitutional if taken to a higher court. The reason for his belief, he says, is that the constitution as it now stands, provides for amendments only. In addition, Niemiec stated, the referendum excludes the clause dealing with changing the number of state senators and legislators now contained in the 100 year old document.

FROM CELLAR TO SHELL WRAPPER

That's Patriotic Fate Of Waste Paper To Be Collected Again For Salvage

From cellar to conversion into shell containers and other armament accessories will be the route taken by the waste paper soon to be collected again in town under the auspices of the salvage committee of the Defense Council.

The paper salvage after a lapse of a year, is part of a nation-wide campaign to restore depleted stocks which are used increasingly in substitute products for the armed forces. Brown paper and cartons are particularly desired, although paper of all types, newspaper, magazines, and even scrap paper placed in bags to be sandwiched between the newspapers are all needed.

Robert Sutherland, salvage chairman, has announced that the committee is making plans now, to devise a way of handling the collection which will be separate from the tin can collection to be undertaken by the school children.

Householders are asked to bundle the material in stacks approximately 10 inches high which are equivalent to 25 pounds. All are asked to start saving the paper immediately, because of its value to war production.

Danger Not Past

General Grunert said in part: "It seems to me to be wishful thinking and to show lack of knowledge and appreciation of our enemy's capabilities for anyone to believe that the danger is past and that the splendid civilian protection organizations so painstakingly built up as the result of hard and unremitting toil and effort can at this stage be discarded as unnecessary."

"I feel that the danger is not past and that the need for the civilian protection organization is as great now as ever before. Accordingly, I wish to join in urging that members of the civilian protection services continue their activities unceasingly, so that should any emergency arise, they may respond, and, having responded, will know that they have served their country well."

After consideration of the Grunert and Craigie letters, the Conference adopted a five-point statement of policy and a program of action. It includes twenty-four hour maintenance and operation of an alert and efficient system of civilian defense protective forces in the Eastern Defense Command must be maintained. The maintenance of the present trained force of protective personnel embracing the established protective services is essential.

Periodic drills and exercises including blackouts, should be held at such time and in such manner as will insure the maintenance of an alert and efficient protective force. The important Community War Services work of the millions of civilian defense volunteers now working under the Defense Council leadership must be pushed forward with maximum energy and the fact that Civilian Defense shall continue the enforcement of such regulations as may be requested by the Army, were also included.

In his letter, addressed to the Civilian Air Raid Warning District personnel, Brig. Gen. Craigie said in part: "The eastern seaboard is now guarded by a mechanical device which is very accurate and can detect aircraft heading towards our shores. Our function is and will continue to be vitally important to the entire defense set-up of the eastern seaboard. The new plan of Air Defense does not mean that air defense is no longer necessary, but means only that there is some reinforcement in our activities consistent with changes of events. The war is not over

NEW EMPHASIS ON WAYS TO COMBAT POISON GAS

Demonstration Correlates With Five Point Policy Recently Established

With a new emphasis on civilian personnel methods of combat in enemy gas attacks currently revealed by the State Office of Civilian Defense, members of the air raid precautions committee, including zone wardens, sector and assistant wardens, met Tuesday night in the recreation house for a practical demonstration of latest procedure.

Sidney Kauffer, senior gas officer and his assistants outlined a condensed refresher course preparatory to its presentation to all groups of civilian defense personnel. Methods of self-aid were demonstrated in addition to the use and care of the civilian defense gas mask, its sterilization and accounting for the time it is in use.

A demonstration of the reaction of the charcoal contents of the gas mask in filtering oxygen through to the wearer in an atmosphere contaminated with poison gas was demonstrated, as well as the heavier than air tendencies of most gases, as shown in the diffusion of dry ice fumes through the ground floor of a doll house. This demonstration at first hand, the necessity for householders to retreat to the upper floors of the house in the event of a gas attack and brought home other protective measures.

The evening was used to try out a plan of enlisting sector wardens or their assistants as gas reconnaissance agents within their own sectors to give a town-wide coverage for alert handling of gas born vapors.

The local action is in line with the contention that the present trained forces of protective personnel and the adequate system for warning and mobilizing these forces in the Eastern Defense Command, comprising all the States along the Eastern seaboard, must be maintained.

This was contained in a joint statement of policy and a "program for action" announced today by the East Coast Conference of State Defense Directors and the United States Office of Civilian Defense, at a meeting held in the University club of New York.

At the same time letters written by Lt. General George Grunert, Commanding the Eastern Defense Command, and Brig. Gen. L. C. Craigie, commanding officer of the First Fighter Command were made public. General Grunert's letter was addressed to Leonard Dreyfuss, chairman of the Conference and State Director for New Jersey. The General Craigie letter was addressed to the Civilian Air Raid Warning District personnel.

Chickens A Health Menace?

Health Officer Richard Berry has been requested by the board of commissioners to investigate a possible health menace in the chickens kept by a neighbor of Mrs. F. W. Baumbusch at 90 Bell street who has complained of their proximity to her property.

She claims that a coop, approximately 10 by 12 feet has been placed on adjacent property and calls it a "monstrosity" in the Greylock section. Since the rules on poultry raising have been relaxed for the duration, the commissioners declared they can only investigate the condition on the possibility that the presence of the chickens is creating a health menace if the coop is not kept in a sanitary condition.

Pass Resolution To Lay Sidewalk On Union Avenue After Petition

A resolution introduced by Commissioner Waters was passed on first reading at the commission meeting Tuesday night, for the laying of a sidewalk on Union avenue between Campbell avenue and Crest drive.

The action was in response to a petition from 117 residents in the section who declared that lack of a sidewalk creates a hazard for children going to and from school since they walk on the street. The improvement will be made at a cost of $600 to be financed through the issuance of bond anticipation notes totaling $570.

New Honor Roll Proposed

A Sunday morning meeting will be held at the home of Meyer Leitzes, 48 Belmont street, in the interests of an honor roll for servicemen whose homes are in that vicinity. Mr. Leitzes' son has served three years in the Pacific area. No honor bulletin is located between Belleville avenue and the Nutley line and it is Leitzes' impression that parents and friends of members of the Armed Forces in his area are anxious to see one raised to their honor. All interested persons are asked to meet at his home at 11 o'clock.

War Casualty

Seaman William Gajdos

Memorial services were held Sunday for Seaman William Gajdos formerly of 189 Cortlandt street, after word was received by his wife, the former Miss Anna Kinsley of town, last week, that he was killed following action.

The seaman had joined the Merchant Marine on July 15 and went on active duty in September. A telegram from Vice-Admiral R. U. Waesche, commandant of the U. S. Coast Guard, disclosed the news which was augmented by a communication from the Maritime Service in New York saying his vessel was sunk following enemy action.

Twenty-six years old, his wife last heard from him just before he went on active duty, when he wrote wishing her a Merry Christmas and asked her to "keep the tree up" until he returned. He trained at Sheepshead Bay, Brooklyn, N. Y. for six weeks prior to leaving for active duty.

Mrs. Gajdos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kinsley of 135 Cortlandt street, had a mass of requiem said for the deceased seaman at St. Michael's Roman Catholic church in Passaic on Sunday, and a memorial service was read in Grace Episcopal church in Rutherford, on the same day, where the couple was married in January, 1935. Mrs. Gajdos, a native of Belleville, chose this church, since the rector, the Rev. Popham, was formerly rector of the Episcopal church here.

Seaman Gajdos, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gajdos of East Rutherford, had lived here, since his marriage. He had been raised in East Rutherford and attended East Rutherford schools. He was employed at Staler Linoleum incorporated in Newark, before entering the maritime service.

Surviving him beside his wife who is now residing at the home of her parents, are three brothers, Joseph, a sergeant in the Army air force, Paul of East Rutherford and John of Garfield; two sisters, Mrs. Albert Kinsley of Nutley and Mrs. Russell Binns of Rochelle Park.

19 Year Old Seaman Nabbed By Deputy Chief And His Squad

A 19 year old seaman in the Navy who found an easy way to acquire money to date, his girl has wound up in a stockade at the Norfolk, Va. naval base as a result of recent activities of Deputy Chief Elmer Leighton and members of his detective squad.

Cited by Public Safety Director King and acknowledged by the board of commissioners at their meeting Tuesday night, Leighton and his men have solved a series of robberies here, in Bloomfield, Irvington and possibly Nutley that may, before research is completed, reach 100.

The culprit who freely admits he can't remember all of the houses he broke into or all of the loot either pawned or sold, is Seaman 2/c James Belluto alias James Makel, of Medford, Mass. His signed confession obtained in Virginia by Leighton and Detective James Malleck, states that the robberies were committed with the aid of a chisel taken from the basement of his girl's home in Silver Lake, so he could "take her out."

His apprehension was made possible through the Newark Police who picked him up as being AWOL on October 10, at which time he had a pawn ticket in his possession in the name of his alias, James Makel. This tallied with the description of the person who after stealing money and blank checks from the home of Fred Hoffer at 17 Prospect street on October 8, forged and cashed a check at the Peoples National bank for $125. With this information Leighton, accompanied by Detective James Malleck, left for Norfolk on Wednesday night to question

HYDE CHAIRMAN OF RED CROSS WAR FUND

Will Direct Campaign Early Next Year; Officers Are Elected

The newly elected directors of the Belleville Chapter, American Red Cross, named Elmer Hyde war fund chairman at their meeting Tuesday evening at chapter headquarters, 258 Washington avenue. The directors attending the meeting were Rudolph H. Deetjen, Dr. O. Bell Close, A. Stanley Miller, Rev. Peter R. R. Deckenbach, Martin Cosgrove, Dr. James R. Irwin, Harvey B. Thompson, Theodore Sandford, Albert P. Luscombe, B. Thomas Aitken, Harold D. Pumyea, Louis Plansson and Mayor William H. Williams. The Rev. Joseph M. Kelly was absent.

Thomas Aitken, Chapter chairman, summarized briefly the activities of the chapter in the past year, and a program was discussed for providing for the expanding of activities to meet the increasing calls on the Red Cross under war conditions. A. P. Luscombe, treasurer, reported that there is $9,200 in the treasury, which is adequate to meet the current demands, perhaps providing for a small surplus at the end of the chapter year.

Arrangements for the 1944 Red Cross War Fund drive were discussed. While the national chapter has not set the date for the next appeal for Red Cross funds it is expected that there will be a need for funds early next year. Elmer Hyde will succeed Raymond E. Mertz who has resigned because of the pressure of other duties. He will arrange for the planning of the organization for the drive in advance of its announcement.

The officers elected are Aitken, chairman; Rudolph Deetjen and Harvey Thompson, vice chairmen; Luscombe, treasurer and Mrs. Paul Baxter, secretary. A budget committee headed by Mayor Williams was appointed to determine and plan for the financial requirements for the coming year. Harold Pumyea and Luscombe were appointed to this committee.

The annual meeting was set for January 10, 1944. The nominating committee of which Rev. Peter Deckenbach is chairman was appointed. Other members of the committee are Martin P. Cosgrove, Theodore Sandford, A. Stanley Miller and Dr. James R. Irwin. A. M. Hart of the auditing firm of A. M. Hart and company was designated as auditor for the Chapter, to check the accounts, and report to the board on his audit.

The activities of the home service committee, of which Mrs. Louis A. Noll, is chairman were discussed. This committee has been doing a splendid job under her direction. The increasing demands for aid and assistance to servicemen and their families has developed to such an extent that the employment of a trained social worker to assist the committee in reporting on cases was considered. Action on this matter was laid over pending consultation with national headquarters on their views on the advisability of such action, and for further study of the needs of the community.

Money For "Dates" Cause of One Man Crime Wave

the youth who had been returned there by the Newark police.

Warrant Signed

I took several days of questioning to get his story which will eventually account for about 24 house breaks in Belleville alone. Warrants were filed against him there and naval authorities are awaiting the return of his papers aboard the ship he jumped on September 4 to affect his dishonorable discharge. He will then be held for Belleville police who will arraign him before Police Recorder Everett B. Smith. He may be arraigned in the other towns on similar housebreaking charges with intent to steal. Leighton said yesterday, before he is turned over to the grand jury for a sentence.

Held as an accomplice in the local jail is August Smarra of 24 James street, Newark, who had Belluto's gun in his possession when picked up by police. He admits keeping the gun for Belluto but claims he had no actual knowledge of his housebreaking activities.

The seaman enlisted in the service at Boston in November, 1942 and worked as a machinist's helper in Cambridge, Mass., before entering the service. Co-operating with Leighton in his apprehension were Detective Irving Holly and Police Officer Charles H. McGinnis in addition to Detective Malleck.

Dr. Taffet Enters Service

Dr. William Taffet of 379 Union avenue will report Friday, November 5, to Carlisle Medical Barracks, Pa. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taffet of the Union avenue address, he has been commissioned a first lieutenant. Dr. Taffet opened his practice here in 1935. He received his medical degree at Syracuse university.

McNamee Announces End of Dimout Rules By Army Command

Members of the Defense council personnel who were present at the first visit of Col. Frank McNamee Jr., assistant regional director were among the first to hear of the suspension last night of all dimout regulations on both the eastern and western seaboard by order of the Army command.

MRS. SCHMUTZ GIVES ANSWERS ON WAR JOBS

Industrial Work At Home Is Prohibited By Law, She Explains

As the campaign of the Community Manpower Mobilization committee for the recruitment of war workers in the Newark industrial area swings along more and more problems pop up at the war job headquarters and in the committee's mail. Mrs. Herbert C. Schmutz, local chairman for women's activities of the campaign, undertook yesterday to answer some of the questions that are asked by applicants for jobs.

"The principal effort of the committee is directed towards women, since the supply of manpower is almost exhausted in this section," Mrs. Schmutz said. "Most of the applicants for war jobs, therefore, are women and almost 80 per cent of them are asking for part-time jobs. When the campaign started few plants offered what has become known as apron shifts, but due to the crusading of the committee many industries have opened their doors to part-time jobs and split shifts and many more are expected to do the same."

"Some of the plants with assembly line procedure have found it impossible to provide such shifts during the day. Some of them have created night shifts to take care of the women applicants."

No Work At Home
"Many women applicants cannot understand why home work is not provided. They want to help in the war effort but cannot spare the time from their household duties. Industrial home work is prohibited on all contracts covered by the Walsh-Healey and Fair Labor Standard acts and in many states by laws and regulations."

"Very often aliens apply at war job headquarters. Aliens are employable in war plants but they have to be processed through the United States Employment Service offices."

"We of the committee are most grateful for the cordial cooperation we are receiving from the churches and the women's clubs and other organizations. In practically every municipality in this area the women's organizations have pledged their support and have opened their meetings to speakers for the campaign."

"We are far from attaining our objectives in the campaign but we are quite sure the goal is in sight. We must continue to urge more and more women to get into the fight against the enemy on the home front. This is a duty we owe to our country and to the boys and men on our firing line."

Speaking at the Woman's club Monday evening Mrs. Schmutz pointed out that she does not be-

Population Took A Nose Dive In Book 4 Registrations

If the ration books issued at the public schools Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week are any criterion of the census of Belleville, the number of people in the municipality has gone down. Either that, or a 300 residents who neglected to register will be looking for ration book four pretty soon out of a supposed census of 10,000 people, 27,702 books actually issued at the schools.

As is usual when the ration of ration books is issued, the teachers of the system worked hard at the system of registering and distributing the books from two in the afternoon until eight in the evening.

School number eight was busiest with more than 4,500 books issued and school number five came next in the line-up with over 4,400 registration. Evidently, the area around school number nine is least thickly populated, for only 1,574 people came to register.

Ration Book Four, it has been pointed out by the Office of Price Administration, will be used, beginning November 1, for canned and processed foods and sugar. From November 1 through December 20, the green stamps, A, B, and C, in the new ration book, which are comparable in use to the blue stamps in Book two, will be good for processed foods. Five pounds of sugar may be purchased with number 20 marked on the ration book from November 1, 1943 through January 15, 1944.

Dorman-Breen Nuptials Held Saturday In Church Ceremony

Miss Marjorie A. Breen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Breen of 71 Preston street, and William A. Dorman, Seaman First class, U. S. Coast Guard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dorman of 168 Cedar Hill avenue, were married Saturday afternoon in the Wesley Methodist Church by Rev. Edgar M. Comp-ton. A reception followed at the bride's home.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Breen was attended by her sister, Mrs. Arthur D. Brown of Belleville, as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Frances Dorman Hall, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Leona Manz of this town and Miss Paula Trapp of Nutley. Paul Jackson of Scranton, Pa. served as Seaman Dorman's best man. Arthur Brown, Joseph Brownlee of Belleville and Winfield S. Prime of Verona were ushers.

The bride's gown of white pussy willow taffeta was made with lace bodice and her long veil draped from a Juliet cap of seed pearls. She carried white roses and gardenias. Mrs. Brown was gown in flame chiffon and the bridesmaid in yellow chiffon. All attendants carried yellow pompon chrysanthemums and wore fresh flowers in their hair.

The couple were graduated from Belleville high school. Young Mrs. Dorman is with the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance company of Newark. Seaman Dorman, who enlisted in the Coast Guard slightly more than a year ago, is stationed with that unit in Norfolk, Va. He was with the Curtis Wright corporation in Caldwell in civilian life.

Groener-Nelson

Miss Mae A. Groener, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Groener, of Nutley, became the bride of Sergeant Robert A. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Nelson of town, on Saturday, at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Arthur Kooser, pastor of the Franklin Reformed church, Nutley, performed the ceremony.

Mrs. John E. Thun was her sister's matron of honor and the best man was the bridegroom's father, due to the absence of Sgt. John E. Thun, who was unable to be home for the wedding.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street length dress of dawn blue with a matching hat, veil and shoes, and an orchid corsage. The matron of honor wore a street length dress of fuchsia with matching hat and shoes. She, too, wore an orchid corsage.

The bride's mother wore a green dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a blue dress. Each had a corsage of talisman roses. After the ceremony, Sgt. and Mrs. Nelson left for a brief honeymoon at Asbury Park. Mrs. Nelson chose a black faille taffeta suit with light blue trimming for traveling. Upon their return, Mrs. Nelson will make her home with her parents in Nutley and Sergeant Nelson will return at the end of his furlough to Truax Field, Madison, Wis., where he is stationed.

A son, John Robert, Jr., was born on October 15 to Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Krumich of Corbin Garden Apartments. The child was born in Mountsinai Hospital, Glen Ridge. Mrs. Krumich is the former Miss Iva Crowning.

Kids Start Weekly Tin Can Collections Next Thursday

First tin salvage day for the grade school kids under the new plan inaugurated by the Defense council will be next Thursday when the youngsters will bring the tins collected from their homes and those of their neighbors to the schools for deposit in collection barrels.

At a meeting yesterday afternoon, Superintendent of Schools Wayne R. Farmer unfolded the plan to the principals who declared they would see it through although they were reluctant to do so considering all the other extra curricular activities the children are already engaged in.

The collection will be weekly and the children are requested to bring the tins to the schools for deposit in barrels contributed for the purpose by Walter Kidde and company, each Thursday. Parents and other contributors are asked to place the tins in heavy kraft paper bags to insure safe transportation to the schools.

The new plan has been inaugurated since the depletion of manpower in the Public works department which has necessitated a cessation of the regular monthly town-wide collection with town trucks. By this method, the department may make the rounds of the schools and take the haul to the dumping plant in Sewaren on the same day, eliminating a duplication of handling and providing a time-saving factor for the department.

Pvt. Kelly received his basic training in Camp Wheeler, Ga. and was then assigned to the university where he is a student of engineering.

Lt. Herman M. Doell, 169 Linden avenue, was among three New Jersey officers who were graduated last week from Liberal Army Air Field, Liberal, Kan., after nine weeks of intensive four-engine bomber training. A commissioned pilot before he began training at Liberal Army Air Field, Lt. Doell now is rated an airplane commander, qualified to command and deliver, crew of a giant B-24 Liberator bomber. His training at Liberal included every phase of the operation of the Liberator from flying blind through storms to repairing its intricate machinery. The son of Mrs. Clara Doell, the Belleville man was a bank teller before he entered the service. He served as an enlisted man from April, 1941, to September, 1942, when he was selected for flight training. He was commissioned as an Air Corps pilot last July.

Bellboys Move To Hillside For Bout With Powerhouse

Saturday's Match Predicted As One Of The Toughest After Irvington Defeat

With the season near its half way mark, and an impressive record behind them, the remarkable Bellboys will find themselves in Hillside, Saturday and before they have met so far this season. The powerful Hillside are well on top in the list of the State's better teams.

In past years, three to be exact, the Bellboys have not been able to break through the Hillside for a victory. This however might be just what the Blue and Gold eleven is looking for. Barringer and Bloomfield hadn't been beaten prior to this either but the story "ain't" the same anymore.

Should the teams be compared by their weights, Belleville will find itself very much the under dog, but fortunately the Zebras will try to out score the Comets with speed and skill.

Though the Bellboys were slightly favored to take the Irvington High school football team for a ride, they still had plenty of worries as they entered the Campers stadium last week. One was to stop the highly publicized Irvington aerial attack, which did not prove to be much of an asset to the Campowners after all.

The first quarter of the affair was used merely to test one another's offensive and defensive strength. This was all the Bellboys needed to start the ball rolling. A series of passes took place with Capt. Jim Dunleavy and Vic Pasquariello sharing passing and receiving honors. With Belleville on the Irvington 35 yard line, Big Vic threw a hard stinger to Mr. Dunleavy who found his way to the eight yard line.

A seven yard loss put the locals back on the 15, but a nice pass from Vic to Jim made the crowd roar, and the score 6-0 in favor of Belleville. Capt. Dunleavy for the extra point was by the Campers. Irvington attempt to catch up with themselves passed throughout the remainder of the game but not falter the close Bellboy fence. The game ended with change in the score and Hometowners now had won 14 games and lost one for an age 750. Much credit for the victory should be given to the defensive play, of the Bellboy forward wall.

RS. SCHMUTZ

 We are all quite aware of the seriousness of the situation. This area is on the verge of being designated a critical area, which would mean the purchasing departments of the Army, Navy and Treasury could withdraw their contracts with the industries in this region and place their business where no manpower shortage is prevalent. This would not only be disastrous to industries manufacturing war goods, but also to all types of business. Every home in this area would be affected, not only from a financial viewpoint, but from one of far greater importance.

"Suppose this area were put in Class I, the critical area designation? Industries in other areas are not equipped to pick up immediately and carry on the gigantic volume of business that we in this area are doing. That would require time. That would mean delays and delays might mean and could mean loss of life for untold numbers of our boys.

"I am making a special appeal to all of you to make this impossible. If you are working, you can help by talking about it to others and getting at least one woman on the production line. If it is impossible for you to go to work, perhaps you can take care of a child during the day and assist in that way. By offering to give a hot noon day meal to one of your neighbor's children, it would enable the mother to go to work. Plans are being made for a nursery school, but that will take time and the crisis is here now, so let's all get together and work, not wait for victory."

JR. COMPANIES

 entire convention to advise them from a practical and experienced point of view how to manage their small enterprises.

There will be a banquet in the Starlight Terrace of the Essex House in the evening. Following the banquet there will be a dance at the Essex House with the "Ames" orchestra providing the music.

According to State Director Boyd, this convention marks an important step in the consolidation of the Junior Achievement program in the state of New Jersey. Boyd pointed out that Junior Achievement has only been organized in this state for the past 20 months and that today there are over 40 companies in active operation in New Jersey.

The Junior Achievement program is a national program for older youth founded to teach the young people of America the principles and purposes of free enterprise. Under Junior Achievement the young people participate in actual business experience and through the medium of miniature corporations they serve as stockholders, officers, directors and employees of their companies.

Each company is composed of 10 to 15 youngsters and is assisted by three advisers. These advisers and meeting places are provided by YMCA's, schools, business organizations, etc. Junior Achievement is not a full-time activity for its members, as they only work an average of three hours a week, and are not in any sense competitive with regular channels of trade. The companies manufacture articles, or form a service company, and get the actual experience of paying and receiving miniature wages and dividends.

 and we cannot afford to destroy the well organized system which has been of inestimable value; we cannot be complacent for the future."

The meeting of the East Coast Conference of State Defense Directors of which Dreyfuss is chairman, was attended by John Martin, acting director of the United States Office of Civilian Defense and the Directors of the States from Maine to Georgia and the Regional Directors of the U.S.O.C.D.

Fourth-Grade Aerial Passing Team Trims 6th At No. 3

Donald Allaire and Edward Buckley of Floyd street were the pair whose clever passing earned two touchdowns Saturday morning for the victorious fourth grade team of School No. 3 when it ran up a 13-0 score against the sixth grade of the same school in a football game at Clearman Field. Donald is a student of School No. 5 but he filled in a vacancy on the fourth grade team. The boys are pals.

GOOD RESPONSE TO WAR FUND

Col. D'Olier, State Chairman, Says Gifts At New High

An enthusiastic response to War Fund campaigns now underway in most communities of the state is indicated in early reports, Col. Franklin D'Olier, chairman of the New Jersey State War Fund, pointed out today.

He announced Westfield, in Union County, as the first town to go over the top. With a goal of $84,092, that town raised $91,420 for six local organizations and War Fund agencies.

Average gifts, he said, are running higher than in previous years, especially from individuals solicited at home in urban and suburban areas which are combining their War Fund appeals with Community Chest drives. Tabulations of donations, he said, show those communities are well on the way toward their respective goals, although most campaigns are still in their early stages.

Returns will begin to come in this week from rural areas, he said. "The advance indications from these sections which have had little previous experience in united fund-raising campaigns are promising," he said. "Even in sparsely populated townships, local chairmen have built fine campaign organizations."

D'Olier declared, have reported excellent cooperation of labor and management. "The response in Plainfield is typical," he said. "In its previous fund-raising campaigns, individual solicitation was not attempted. Recently labor and management in every Plainfield plant arranged for payroll deductions for the War Fund." He predicted that workers throughout the state would give generously.

Kind Of Aid Given

Col. D'Olier said he had received late dispatches from representatives of War Prisoners' Aid, a War Fund agency, telling of its help to American soldiers held in prisons camps on both sides of the globe. One report from Goteborg, Sweden, where 17 American prisoners are being exchanged, said baseball is now the popular sports in Axis prison camps. War Prisoners' Aid, he pointed out, distributed the baseballs, gloves and bats, along with other sporting equipment. The agency also distributed textbooks and other educational equipment to thousands of Allied prisoners who organized "barbed war universities" so that they could make effective use of their enforced idleness. "The group of allied soldiers released from the camps for exchange in Sweden," Col. D'Olier said.

Another late report, he said, came from War Prisoners' Aid representatives in Mormugao, Portuguese India. Recreational material destined for American soldiers in Japanese prison camps was recently unloaded at that port from the exchange ship Teia Maru, which will be carried to Japan on the Japanese ship Teia Maru, which will transport Japanese soldiers who have been exchanged with the United States. The shipment included phonographs and records and 20,000 books, wares from America by War Prisoners' Aid. That agency, Col. D'Olier said, will be supported this year by War Fund contributions.

The War Fund will also support USO, United Seamen's Service and 14 allied War Relief agencies. The goal for New Jersey for these humanitarian purposes is $5,000,000.

A War Working Mother

Fate plays strange tricks sometimes and Mrs. Elizabeth Kennedy of 35 Tillinghast street, Newark, has good reason to know it. Two weeks after her younger son went off to war last October, she went to work in the Salvage Department of the United States Laboratories in the Tiflex Metal Hose company's Newark plant. Partly out of sentiment and partly so that she could feel closer to him, she asked to do the same work he had done so that his loss would not be felt on the production front. The first few days she was too busy to notice anything except the work immediately in front of her. By the third day a wooden plaque fastened to the bench where she was working attracted her attention. It read: "W. Kennedy formerly worked at this bench. The time you lose may be a deciding factor in whether or not he returns." Today, Mrs. Kennedy, is sure that she did the right thing. Having never done anything but housework before, she never imagined she would find herself doing her son's job at a war plant. "But then," she explained, "after all, my boys never thought they would have to go to war either." Besides her younger son, William, she has an older boy, Eugene, who is an ensign on foreign service. Here she is shown at home with a photograph of William in uniform. Lately she has spent much time preparing Christmas packages for her boys. They have both written and told her how proud they are of the work she is doing at home to help them lick the enemy.

American War Prisoners of Japs Are Fairly Treated

Red Cross Reports Of Camp Inspections Show Good Health Conditions

One of the humane services of the Red Cross is the mailing of the Prisoner of War Bulletin to those who register as next of kin to war prisoners. Easing the mental strain as much as possible for those Americans who have relatives in Japanese and German prison camps is one of the functions of Red Cross Home Service whose Belleville chairman is Mrs. Louis J. Noll. Through this avenue usually comes the first actual confirmation of a loved one's safety, the sight of his signature on a postcard and the knowledge that a communication, through the Red Cross, will reach him. This and the regular mailing of food packages by the organization bring a measure of happiness and confidence to the prisoners which is hard to understand unless one reads their letters of appreciation. Excerpts from them are published in the Bulletin.

The latest issue of the little magazine gives an encouraging view of conditions in some Japanese and German camps. A delegate from the International Red Cross Committee, for instance, visited last May five camps in Taiwan, a large island off the south coast of China, which were opened in 1942 and early this year. 1,500 British Dutch and American prisoners have been taken there from the Philippines, Hong Kong, Malaya, Sumatra and Java. One third of them are Americans, many of them high ranking officers.

Local Man Prisoner

Among them possibly, or in one of the Tokyo group or other Japanese camps, is Cpl. Michael Tortorelli of 88 Baldwin place. Word was received by his family from the War department last April and they have since received a signed postal from him and have dispatched next-of-kin packages through the Red Cross. Cpl. Tortorelli was stationed in the Philippines as a member of an Army Air Force ground crew. He had been in the Army four years when taken prisoner.

There are 73 Red Cross delegates at work on five continents now. It was one of these, a Swiss citizen, who reported that the Tokyo prison camps were for the most part well situated on well drained ground and surrounded with wooden palisades. He spoke of well ventilated huts housing from five to 20 men, fitted with electric light and heated with stoves. "A good many of the prisoners reached one of these camps in a poor state of health," the delegate reported, "but as a result of the care they have received, their condition has noticeably improved since their arrival."

Speaking of another camp he says, "One of the prisoners, who is a doctor, gives medical attention to his comrades with the assistance of other doctors from outside. Playing fields in the park can be used by the prisoners for five hours each day. Discipline and morale are good."

Well Treated

The Apostolic delegate in Tokyo recently visited eight of these camps, inspected quarters and talked especially to the sick. He observed that they are moderately well treated. Civilian internees he reported in good health and with high morale. The Vatican representative took messages for the families of prisoners and has since been able to send for distribution among them a limited number of books and games.

Of the first group of camps on the island of Taiwan the Red Cross International delegate wrote in more detail. The climate there is mild and the principal crop and industry the raising of rice. Parts of the island are mountainous and covered with luxuriant forest. The five camps are run on identical lines and the Japanese commander is a strict disciplinarian over his sub-commanders. These men are obviously interested in improving their camps and appear to be doing their best for the prisoners. Bamboo or brick walls, and in one case barbed wire, enclose the camp sites which in one case extends for 21 acres. The barracks are of wood and heat is almost unnecessary. Hot Japanese baths are permitted twice a week and cold showers whenever desired.

Cooking is done by Army cooks among the prisoners. Substantial quantities of rice and barley and irregular quantities of meat and fish, vegetables, potatoes and fruit are reported. The prisoners also receive small quantities of eggs, butter, and cheese and black tea. There is practically no coffee. Preventive inoculations were made against such diseases as typhoid fever, cholera and smallpox. Yeast preparations were used to prevent beri-beri and each camp has an infirmary with several doctors and attendants. There is regular medical inspection once a day.

Have Canteens

Each camp has a canteen with a limited supply of cigarettes, sweets, fruit, black tea, salt and flavoring. Prisoners may deposit excess funds in a Postal Savings Bank. Officers and the few civilians may work if they desire. Non-commissioned officers and enlisted men must work if they are fit. The pay is the same received by the Japanese army and amounts to four or eight cents a day. One task was cited: the removal of stones from plains which are being transformed into

Howard Buckley Promoted To Captain's Rank In Missouri

Announcement has recently been made at the Prisoner of War Camp, Weingarten, Mo., of the promotion of 1st Lt. Howard P. Buckley to the rank of captain in the Veterinary Corps, in recognition of meritorious service in army duties at this camp. Capt. Buckley has been a member of the station complement of this camp since the first of the year at which time he came from the Seventh Service Command Veterinary Hospital where he acted as Battalion Veterinarian. Because of his training in the field of veterinary science, he has been accomplishing the duties of station veterinarian which involves the care and management of the horses used for transportation facilities within the Prisoner of War Camp and the care and feeding of 50 to 60 dogs used for sentry duty in guarding the Prisoners of War at this camp. As an additional duty he supervises the POW work details connected with farming and land-seaping of the camp. Other duties of Capt. Buckley are those of medical inspector, commanding officer of the veterinary detachment, and billeting officer for the officers residing at the camp.

Capt. Buckley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Buckley of 24 Tiona avenue. He is a graduate of Ohio State university where he received a DVM degree in veterinary work. His wife, Margaret L. Buckley, lives in Beaver Falls, Pa.

to sugar cane fields. Walking, gardening and sports such as football and basketball make up prisoner's sports. They play cards and chess indoors. Several camps have gramophones but reading material is scarce. One hundred and sixty-six Americans were found at one of these island camps where each man has a bed with a straw mattress, a mattress cover, two sheets and four thin blankets. They have good drinking water and their food amounts to about 2800 calories per day. The camp has workbenches for tailors, cobblers, and chairs for barbers. The men expressed a desire for more food and clothing as well as tools, soap, books, games and sports equipment. All the camps want better mail service. In most they are allowed to receive one postcard a month. Religious services are held on Sundays and memorial days by Army chaplains who are also prisoners. Supplies valued at $1,500,000 were sent American prisoners of war and civilian internees on the diplomatic exchange ship Gripsholm which exchanged American and Japanese nationals in Portuguese India on October 15. The American Red Cross has confirmed that such relief supplies shipped a year ago for American prisoners in the Philippines were received and distributed last January.

How Many Will Go To The Polls?

The general public will have an opportunity to vote next Tuesday, in the general election for governor, assemblymen, freeholders and justices of the peace. The polls will be open from 7 in the morning to 8 in the evening, allowing time for all of war workers to exercise their franchise.

In war time when taxes and levies are beyond all usual bounds, it is more important than ever, that honest candidates be chosen for the state offices which control the expenditure of so much of the taxpayers' money. In addition, this election will determine whether or not the century-old state constitution may be revised for presentation to the public for a vote in the next general election in 1944. Those who have not by this time, weighed the merits of the referendum on the constitution revision, will not bother to do so, it is safe to say, by next Tuesday.

However, much has been publicized on this question as well as the necessity of the public exercising its right to vote. The political machines will be in operation, we may be sure. But the only in which the true opinion of the citizens at large may be registered is in their representation at the polls. Let's hope it will be a large vote which can be a major demonstration of true democracy functioning.

upon which so far, the country has grown. The maximum quality would be fixed by U. S. Grade specifications, a process which would tend to force higher quality products to the minimum requirements in each of the three grades. For with a score from 90 to 100 points for Grade A, high quality brands which would become nameless would understandably, reduce their standard to the minimum requirements of 90 points.

Individual preference would be ignored and refinement of products curtailed since the incentive would be lacking. Through advertising brand names and trademarks, markets have been greatly widened, permitting mass production and greatly lowered manufacturing costs and retail prices.

Competition among manufacturers and merchants, based upon brand names and trade marks has given Americans the highest standards of living the world has ever seen—both by creating employment and by making that employment produce an ever greater quantity and quality of consumer goods.

New Jersey's population totaled about 400,000 when the state's basic law was adopted in 1844. In 99 years the population has multiplied 10 times. It cost about $100,000 annually to run state government in 1844. Today expenditures are 750 times that amount. The trolley car has practically disappeared. Its tracks are torn up. But nobody has torn up the tracks beneath the old constitution, it is logically obvious.

The old constitution is unable to meet the requirements of modern and approved governmental procedures. Voters however, will be given the opportunity on November 2 to take the first step toward obtaining a revised state charter—to show by their "yes" votes that they want the legislature to present a draft of a revised constitution for adoption or rejection next year at the 1944 election.

Threat In Grade Labeling

A government move being promoted under the guise of patriotic standardization during the war emergency and about which housewives will set up a tumult when they understand it, is grade labeling. It is being emphasized in the canning industry but also can extend an immeasurable distance to the point where, if it isn't balked, all Americans might as reasonably be cast in the same mold.

Grade labeling is not to be confused with descriptive labeling which gives a faithful account of the contents of each tinned product. As proposed by Washington, grade labeling would eliminate all brand names and provide instead, the three grades, A, B and C. It would eliminate grade marks. There would be ruthless curtailment of varieties in all products. Standard grades and styles in very limited numbers would go hand in hand with standard prices.

Compulsory pricing by grades would place a ceiling on quality and be a death knell to competition and initiative, the principles

Musty Document

The impact of the musty age of the state constitution is brought to public attention by the New Jersey Taxpayers association. It envisions the year of the constitution's debut—the slow going days of 1844 when the ox pulled the cart and mother sat at her spinning wheel. That was two years before Howe's first sewing machine, it observes, when John Tyler, the tenth president, was in office and 22 more presidents were still to follow.

The constitution still doing duty of a sort, 22 years old when the Bell telephone was given to an expectant world. The Trenton state house had no telephone then. But in those days the bureaus and departments at Trenton were few and what messages there were could be delivered afoot. Today there are 100 bureaus, departments and agencies, the association points out.

sentation to the public for a vote in the next general election in 1944. Those who have not by this time, weighed the merits of the referendum on the constitution revision, will not bother to do so, it is safe to say, by next Tuesday.

However, much has been publicized on this question as well as the necessity of the public exercising its right to vote. The political machines will be in operation, we may be sure. ## ESSEX COUNTY POLITICS

The views expressed in this column, are entirely those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Publishers or Editors of the Belleville Times.

The two main issues of the present election campaign appear decisive; Walter E. Edge seems sure to win and the constitutional referendum sure to lose. But the times are so uncertain that even "certainty" must be considered relative. Conceivably Vincent J. Murphy could slip through to victory as Harold G. Hoffman did in the otherwise Democratic landslide of 1934, and the referendum might surprise everyone by getting a favorable vote.

Both of these happenings, however, would be in the nature of miracles, and this column is content to leave the probability of miracles to the theologians. They do happen in politics once every generation or so, but the odds against them in any given election are so remote as to preclude reckoning.

As to the gubernatorial outcome, Murphy seems much stronger than William H. Smathers did a year ago. But at the same time Edge has much more political substance behind him than Albert W. Hawkes, who, for all his sincerity, was a rank amateur in politics. Were this added strength of both candidates approximately equal, Edge's majority should then approximate that of Hawkes—around 90,000 votes. Actually this is just about the majority that many well informed observers expect Edge to win by.

Suburbs for Edge
Hawkes carried Essex last year by 55,000 in round figures. Edge's own camp, however, does not concede him more than 45,000 here. This calculation is based largely on the theory that Newark, which gave Smathers a scant 3,000 majority will give a substantial one to its own mayor and native son. The suburbs will go overwhelmingly for Edge, but it would be hard to find more unanimity for any one than there was for Hawkes as against the cynical Smathers.

Hence, Republicans will be satisfied if their candidate does as well this year as last. Also, the general expectation is for a somewhat smaller vote this year. More men are in the service and the percentage of transient residents has increased. Many more women are in war work and many of these lack the time to register and vote. All of these things spell a smaller Suburban vote. The Newark vote, on the other hand, will probably be larger.

The Murphy camp has plenty of money this year and a great deal of this has been spent in Newark. His advisors know that his chances are none too good for being elected governor, but they don't want him to suffer any loss of prestige in Newark that would hurt him in the commission election for 1945. Hence the financial generosity here. My estimate for Essex is Edge by 35,000 to 40,000, with emphasis on the former figure.

Hague's Order
Inside reports from Hudson say that Frank Hague has ordered a majority of 125,000, and that his lieutenants are doing their best to carry out the order. Some of the more conservative Catholics there are said to fear Communistic influence, however, should Murphy win. And this sentiment should cut down the majority somewhat. Republicans seem to be fairly well united behind Edge. There is the problem of a light vote there too, so my guess is Hudson for Murphy by between 105,000 and 120,000. Camden County looks the worst for Edge. In Camden there is a

Church of Christ, Scientist

605 Broad Street, Newark.
"Everlasting Punishment" is the lesson-sermon subject for Sunday. Golden text: "Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption." Sermon. Passages from the King James version of the Bible include:
"I, even I, am he that blot out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins." Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" include: "We acknowledge God's forgiveness of sin in the destruction of sin and the spiritual understanding that casts out evil as unreal. But the belief in sin is punished so long as the belief lasts." (p. 497). "Science removes the penalty only by first removing the sin which incurs the penalty. This is my sense of divine pardon, which I understand to mean God's method of destroying sin."

Members and friends will be received by a group of hostesses made up of trustees and past-presidents of the club. Headed by Mrs. William Adams they will be Mrs. Frederic E. Dodd, Mrs. Elmer S. Goeke and Mrs. Leslie Woodruff. Games other than bridge will be provided for non-players. Refreshments will be served.

Tomorrow Mrs. William D. Cornish, chairman of the American Home department, will represent the club at the American Art week luncheon at Kresge's, Newark department store. The Woman's club War bond drive, which will be opened Monday, is an opportunity for friends of the club as well as members to subscribe to the ambulance plane fund which is under the sponsorship of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's clubs. Anyone who specifies at the bank or Post Office when purchasing a bond that she wishes the bond marked for the Federation's ambulance plane fund will have a part in the $10,000 contribution which is necessary to buy this type of plane.

First of the club's evening programs was welcomed by a large audience Monday when an Americana presentation was directed by the literature department. Mrs. Edgar M. Compton, long a member of the literature group and a skilled book reviewer, set the stage with her interpretation of Dr. Kenneth B. Miller's "We Who Are America".

Mrs. Compton first applied the book's theme, that we are all second or third generation Americans, to the personnel of our various branches of military service. The interesting merger of nationalities, each with its individual heritages and characteristics, welded into the perfect and effective whole of which we are so proud, made an appropriate and stirring interpretation of the book's credo—tolerance, class and color prejudice, in Dr. Miller's opinion, should be practically impossible for Americans in view of their evolution.

Mrs. Herbert Jenkins, the former Miss Mary Elizabeth Compton, and Miss Ruth Compton sang a group of South American songs in Spanish. Mrs. Jenkins also served as narrator of the subject matter in the folk songs. The audience joined in the final number.

Guest speaker was William Avery Barras, professor of English literature at Montclair Academy, whose topic, "Prelude to Thanksgiving," defined his talk. Indicating that true patriotism based on solid American characteristics from which we should not stray is our best method of thanksgiving, Mr. Barras discussed many books which clearly define our way of life. Historical novels, such as "Gone With the Wind" and "Oliver Twist"; dramas like "Harriet", based on the life of Harriet Beecher Stowe and "The Patriots"; poetry, of which "John Brown's Body" and Stephen Vincent Benet's recent prose poems are outstanding examples, and books on the race program were included in the discourse.

He spoke of the New England setting in which the New America was forged, particularly Vermont where many vestiges remain of a life no longer lived in the metropolitan areas. Making a practical application of American characteristics to life today Mr. Barras pointed out that no true American, with the background and backbone of our original heritage, should be capable of cheating or of causing such situations as black markets. Cheating begins early, he pointed out, when a youngster first copies his neighbor's papers in school. Right there, if he chose to recognize it, he becomes an agent of the philosophy which represents Hitler. If we cheat a little, we'll cheat more, says Mr. Barras.

He didn't quit his war job...

Do I dare quit mine?

Ask yourself this:

Suppose one out of every ten soldiers tried to quit the Infantry for a "better" job in the Navy. And one out of every ten aviators tried to go over to the Tank Corps. And so on. And so forth.

Fantastic? It's just about true of this local war production area right now.

Because some war workers give up their jobs today —many soldiers may give up their lives—tomorrow!...

Think before you quit! Then don't!

To Women: We lack manpower. We need thousands of women to take war jobs. No experience. Good pay. Full time. Part time. Apply NOW. See addresses below.
