

AP PRISONER URGES WOMEN TO WAR WORK

Gwen Dew Back From Orient After Witnessing Atrocities Pleads With Women

One of the most urgent appeals to women in this area was received today in a letter addressed directly to them by Miss Gwen Dew, an AP prisoner of war.

Miss Dew, the author of only American woman correspondent in the Far East on December 7, 1942. Following a varied career in this country she had gone to Hong Kong where, along with 3500 British, Dutch, Americans and others, she was imprisoned by the Japs.

Her letter to the women of Union, Essex and Hudson counties follows:

"I was a prisoner of the Japanese for six months, and I am still under the care of a doctor after a year's time, from the after-effects of semi-starvation. In the hands of the Japanese are still 280,000 Allied prisoners who have been held almost 2 years. I know what the Jap treatment did to me in that short time. What it has done to those held for all those long months haunts me day and night, drives me on to get help, to those starved, sick, tortured and mistreated prisoners of the madmen of Japan.

1500 Americans on Ship

"There were 1500 Americans on the exchange ship on which I returned, their crime that they were Americans and had remained at their posts until the American flag was hauled down, snit up and desecrated by the Japs.

"You see, these weren't twenty percent who didn't show signs of malnutrition, torture and mistreatment. Remember, I'm not telling you vague stories. I'm talking to you about leaders of our American church, state, press and business.

"That's what we're trying to do, trying to tell you what we're up against in the Far East. And here are certain facts. I think every American man or woman must face. Here they are:

"Japan is now the second largest empire in the world; probably the wealthiest empire the world has ever known.

"Japan has taken control of 500,000,000, 3 times the population of the United States, which she can and is using as slave labor to defeat you and me.

"Japan has taken 1,000,000 square miles of territory, and in 19 months of fighting we've taken back 500 square miles.

Tough Fight Ahead

"There's a long tough fight ahead of us. We're up against madmen who intend to rule the world. They have already won their war, everything they want. Now it is up to America to win her war.

"We've got two things alone to do with. The first is the magnificent will of our American fighting men. But never forget for a second, that they can't come home to make what they need. They can't come home to pay for them. That is our job and our privilege. The other thing we have is American production. And that puts the winning of the war right back in the laps of every single American, women as well as men. That means you.

"If you had seen, as I have, the eyes of British women who were gang-raped by the Japanese; the hungry American children digging in the mud for fallenkenners of dirty rice; of the eyes of wounded Canadian soldiers pleading with the Japanese not to bayonet them as they lay wounded on the floor, and their helpless torn bodies after they had died; of those returning Americans, tortured, mistreated, semi-starved, then all of you would get busy working day and night to defeat the Japs.

"I'm not asking you to do anything I'm not doing. American women: I haven't had a day's rest since my return, and I'm still under the doctor's care. I've been in 53 cities in the last 60 days, talking 6 to 12 times a day in war plants, schools, army camps, theatres, any place and everywhere, on the train 4 or 5 nights, helping American women to realize the kind of enemy we fight in the murderous madmen of Japan.

"So when I ask you to either do the job you are doing a little longer, harder and faster, or to get a job at once if you aren't working, then I'm only asking you to do in part what I'm doing. It is your job and your great privilege to do your part in keeping the torch of liberty eternally aflame."

Solons Expected To Be Quiet

A quiet business meeting of the board of commissioners is expected tonight with little new business in sight. The department of public works is slated to introduce a resolution calling for bids for paving of the sidewalk on Union avenue and Campbell and Crest drive.

Escapes Through Nazi Lines After 9 Months As Captive

Lawrence Ruzzo Taken in Tunisia; Hiked Through Foggia Battle To Rejoin Comrades

Thanks to the hospitality of friendly Italian mountaineers and his knowledge of the Italian language, the man whose score with Marshal Rommel is now even is back in Belleville today enjoying a well-earned furlough for a month.

He is Lawrence J. Ruzzo, 23, the town's first to land in an enemy prisoner-of-war camp and the first to escape one. He is currently on a thirty-day visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pasquale Ruzzo of 293 North Belmont avenue.

Captured by the Germans in Tunisia several months before the last of the Nazis were finally rounded up in that country, he spent a total of nine months in three different Italian concentration camps and finally hiked 250 miles right through some of the fiercest fighting of the Italian campaign to reach his own lines.

Larry Ruzzo was just another draftee when he first donned an Army uniform a week after New Year's 1942 and he had no inkling then that in less than a year from that date he would have undergone his baptism of fire and have been captured by the enemy.

He was just another kid around the corner, played ball on the vacant lots of Silver Lake, attended Public School No. 4 and lasted for two years at the high school before going to work in the trucking business with his father.

Becomes Paratrooper

Shoved into the infantry, he became a footslogger at Camp Croft, S. C., but a footslogger in name only. His real thoughts were in the sky and therefore six months after induction he was at Fort Benning, Ga., learning to be a paratrooper.

His first jump from an airplane didn't bother him much. He just swayed it and jumped from 1,200 feet. He felt more nervous before his second plunge because he had had more time to think things over.

But his nervousness soon left him and he gradually came to like it.

"Before the chute opens," he says, "you really sweat; but once it is open you just relax and enjoy the scenery as you drift down." By the time he finished his training, he was jumping from several altitudes of four to five hundred feet.

The call to go overseas came in October, 1942. When they disembarked, they found themselves on British soil. He was well received there, well treated by the civilians; but he could not quite get used to the blackouts and the lack of

FOUNDATION HAS SECOND ISSUE OF "TODAY"

Will Distribute 22,500 Copies Of Semi-Annual Magazine In Town And Service

The second issue of Belleville Today, published by the Belleville Foundation, appeared yesterday, and today clerks, mailmen and volunteers are starting to distribute 22,500 copies throughout the town and to servicemen in all corners of the world.

More than 2,500 will go to men and women in the armed forces in the United States and abroad; 7,000 copies are being placed in every home in town by the local air raid wardens; another 12,000 copies are going to all the town industries; and through the churches an additional 1,000 copies will be mailed to their special lists of service men.

The news bulletin is made up of many pictures of home town scenes, such as the high school graduation, the golf links, a local parade, pictures of churches, of civilian defense organizations, in action, and many other interesting photographs designed to give the town's fighting sons and daughters touching glimpses of some of the buildings and homes, streets and parks, and the people who populate them back home. The bulletin is letterhead size and printed on eight pages.

Editorial content and business arrangements for the bulletin are supervised by The Foundation, a unique plan set up by joint action of manufacturers, churches, schools, town officials and progressive citizens to study Belleville's post-war needs and to get action started in making it a better town to which service men and women will return.

The first issue of Belleville Today last May brought letters from all over the world from service men praising the publication and expressing how welcome the home town news stories and pictures were to them. Many stated they carried the bulletin around for weeks, re-reading it at each spare moment.

One spoke of burying himself in a sand hole at evening time on a Middle East desert and reading by twilight of the folks he knew thousands of miles away. Others told how boys from nearby towns of Newark, Montclair and Nutley saw and read Belleville Today and felt it brought them a home town message since they knew Belleville so well.

The first issue of this publication created wide interest and many press notices. It is believed that Belleville Today is unique in style and sponsorship for this type of home town news bulletin probably the only one of its kind in the country.

Indications are it will be received with the same welcome enthusiasm as the first edition for men and women from the fighting front and the camps have written to ask where edition number two was. Belleville's citizens are answering their requests today.

The boys, who were charged by Attendance Officer Sheegus, told the judge they had spent most of their days in the movies in Newark. They said they would go to the movies, unknown to the grandmother, at 9:30 a.m. and stay all day.

The grandmother has been caring for the boys since their mother died seven years ago. They were charged with having been absent from School No. 8 a total of nearly thirty days each during October and the early part of November.

Stating that "it is one of the worst records I have ever seen," Smith pointed out that the grandmother was liable to a $5 fine for each day that each of the boys was out of school and that the boys themselves could be committed to a parental home where they would "receive education 24 hours a day."

After the grandmother tearfully pleaded for another chance for the boys and they promised to attend every session of school every day, Smith suspended sentence with warnings of grave consequences if the pair ever again appeared in his court.

Christmas Festival Will Have Choir Processional

Included in the plans for the Christmas Festival to be held Tuesday evening, December 14, at the High school is a processional by the Combined Choirs in vestments. It is hoped that it will be possible to make it a candle-light procession.

Twelve girls who make up the Selected Girls' Choir of the high school will sing two unusual carols. The High school French club will contribute 21 of their members to sing a group of two French carols.

Thomas A. Haney will conduct the Combined Choirs. Arthur Ackerman is in charge of program printing. The garden department of the Womens' club has been invited to take charge of decorating the platform. Other plans, still in the making, will be released later.

The Combined Choirs will again rehearse at Fewsmitth Church at 8:30 next Monday evening.

Attempt To Locate Mrs. Piana

The Home Service department of the Belleville Charter American Red Cross is anxious to make contact with Mrs. Feliciano Piana who formerly lived at 194 Garden avenue. Since a foreign message awaits her, it is urgent that anyone who knows her whereabouts should give the information to Mrs. Louis Noll, home service chairman. Mrs. Noll can be reached at Be. 2-2373 or Be. 2-2277.

BRUNNER PLEADS FOR PROCESSING OF TIN CANS

Requests Cooperation Of Housewives; School children Up Total To Two Tons Weekly

Another request to the housewives of Belleville to process their tin cans before placing them for collection was issued yesterday by local Defense Coordinator Ronald G. Brunner.

"We have been collecting tin cans for the war effort for nearly two years," Brunner said, "yet many people remain indifferent to the necessity of cleaning and flattening the cans."

He stated that the 4,225 pounds of cans collected last week were nearly rejected by scrap drive authorities because many of them retained the paper wrapper and others had not been washed out.

Brunner also requested that householders make arrangements with children living near them to pick up the cans and deliver them to the schools. He said that all cans should be placed in cartons or thick paper bags to protect the hands of the children.

"The children of the Belleville schools are to be congratulated," he stated, "because the amount of metal collected each week has increased considerably since they began their collections."

The scrap drive is averaging about two tons each week, slightly more than the seven tons a month at the beginning of the drive. This in spite of the fact, he pointed out, that fewer and fewer packaged goods are being put out in tins, most companies having converted to some type of cardboard carton.

Much of the metal taken in is used in the manufacture of hand grenades and synges which contain sulphur drugs.

Schmutz To Answer Education Critics At Committee Meeting

A large gathering of influential citizens of the town is anticipated tonight at the Recreation House at the meeting of the Citizens Committee before which Herbert C. Schmutz, president of the board of education, will appear in order to answer some of the charges and thoughts expressed at a similar meeting two weeks ago.

At that time the school board was spoken of as "arbitrary" and high-handed in its dealings with citizens and others which appeared before it.

Also the committee voted to investigate the merits of appointive and elective boards of education with a view of a stand taking eventually on the possibility of changing over to the elected board now in use.

Schmutz has made no statement as to the direct refutations he will make nor the questions that he will answer. He has stated that he will not lead support to either system of choosing the board, that his purpose is merely to answer the criticisms levelled at his organization.

Third Anniversary For First Selective Service Group

Checkpoint On 11-Man Contingent Shows Majority Are Stationed In States

Washington avenue is an air corps sergeant at Kearny, N. B. His movement around the country is typical of most of the men of the contingent: he has been stationed at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., Chantilly and Scott fields in Illinois, Victorville, Cal., Salt Lake City and Harvard, Neb.

Sgt. Walter W. Francis of 181 Hornbrowl avenue is at Georgetown, Del, after recovering from a broken back received in an automobile accident while stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C.

The others in the group were Carmen Coringione of 13 Brook street, James A. Finnegan of 93 Belmont street, Lucian A. Bailey of 125 Bell street, Thomas J. McEnery of 34 Fairway avenue, Andrew P. Marone of 88 Dow street.

Frederick J. Vogel Jr. of 22 William street departed a few days later to take the place of one of the men initially rejected.

No Blackouts In Holiday Season, Defense Official Promises

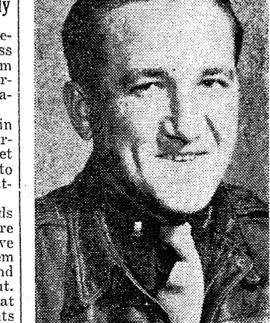

Christmas business of Belleville merchants will not be interrupted by test blackouts for more than two weeks before the holiday. This was assured this week in a letter from N. Mitchell Bannerman, chief of civil protection of the state Office of Civilian Defense, to E. W. Wollmuth, vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce.

"In keeping with our policy of taking holiday seasons into consideration when planning state-wide practice blackouts," wrote Bannerman, "we do not plan to have a blackout test between the dates of December 9 and December 25."

It is understood that many merchants in town plan to remain open most evenings during the pre-holiday shopping season. Some anxiety had been expressed as to the detrimental effect which a sudden blackout would have on their businesses.

SNOW WILL BRING PLOW PROBLEM

Man Shortage Here And In State Department Seen As Handicap

Except for the manpower problem, which is a universal question mark this year, the local Department of Public Works is all ready for the first snow fall whenever it may come. This was revealed yesterday by Deputy Director Hugh Welsh speaking for Commissioner Waters.

The town has eight plows ready to throw into the battle against Old Man Winter when he makes his appearance. Three of these are mounted on light trucks and the other five on heavier vehicles.

There are, however, only nine drivers and 11 other workers available. "If any clearance takes more than eight hours," Welsh said, "I don't know what we will do. Just have to go on plowing, I guess."

He explained that it has been customary in the past to relieve the drivers after they have operated for that length of time. But in those years 14 of the 26 men on the staff were drivers. The department has lost four men to the armed services and another half-dozen to private employment.

"It is probable," Welsh added, "that we will have to clear the state roads which run through the town because the state is also short of men."

This would, of course, place an added burden on the already understaffed department. Orders for the latter contingency would be issued by State Highway Commissioner Spencer Miller, who has also been designated state "snow coordinator."

Turkeys Practically Unknown Items In Town Butcher Shops

If you happen to have a son or a daughter in the armed services you may be pretty sure that at least one member of the family will have turkey for Thanksgiving.

But when you sharpen up the home table carving knife, it may or may not be preparatory to a neat job of slicing up the traditional bird. As the number of turkeys available for civilian use will be less than half of last year's supply, there may be disappointment instead of drumsticks and wishfulness instead of white meat.

If you can't get turkey and are willing to substitute some other variety of poultry, a chicken or a fat goose may grace your festive board. The market will not be too short of the former, and there will be a few geese. Ducks will be pretty scarce.

It is difficult for the non-service man or woman to realize the importance of the Thanksgiving turkey as a morale factor to the soldier or sailor, particularly if he is hundreds of miles from the shores of his native land.

Thanksgiving bursts on him suddenly on that Thursday morning. He remembers turkeys of bygone years, of repasts which are but little out of the ordinary to Americans but which are sumptuous repasts in any other land. And his heart aches a little.

But to walk into the same old messhall and be suddenly confronted with the nearest approximation of a home dinner makes him feel right with the world again. He is then ready to work and fight again with renewed vigor. Home has come to him on the front.

Organize Nurses For War In Bloomfield Monday Night

The organization meeting of the nursing council for war services will be held in the Bloomfield municipal building next Monday at 8, according to a correction phoned to The Times yesterday by Mrs. Martha L. Traipor RN, field worker for the New Jersey Nursing Council.

All nurses in Belleville, Nutley and Bloomfield have been extended an urgent invitation to be present.

FOUNDATION HEAD REFUTES "DRIVE FOR $250,000"

Specht Denies Newark News Claim That Campaign Has Been Launched

Harry G. Specht, president of the Belleville Foundation, last night vehemently refuted the statement appearing in yesterday's Newark News which declared that the foundation yesterday "announced inauguration of a campaign to raise $250,000."

"There is no campaign and no organized drive," Specht said last night, "on the part of the Belleville Foundation nor is there a specific goal. The War Fund drive is the only organized drive to be conducted in town, with the exception of the Red Cross roll call and the Foundation has no desire to compete in a concerted drive, with these worthwhile causes."

"Voluntary contributions from industry have been taken throughout the year, however," Specht pointed out, and will continue to be taken for a trust fund which to administer the eight point program, many phases of which are already under way.

"The foundation has no set goal," Specht reiterated, referring to the 'drive for $250,000' Newark News story. "It will grow over a period of time," he said, "and the interest in it is used to carry out the plans of the foundation."

Purposes Of Foundation

Purposes of the foundation as outlined in the brochure, "Belleville Tomorrow" which has been mailed to local industries to acquaint them with its aims, include the "promotion of the spiritual well-being and religious life, without regard to sect, denomination, creed or faith, of the residents of Belleville, by direct financial aid to any organized church, religious society or association in the town as well as by any other means."

The three other purposes as stated in its certificate of incorporation are "to engage in charitable and social welfare work among the needy residents of the Town of Belleville and to assist in the education of and rehabilitation of the underprivileged residents without regard to race, color or creed."

"To promote the education of residents by making available facilities including financial aid for any school or any educational or scientific institution or association situate in the town and to promote child and infant welfare work in any way that will alleviate pain and suffering from those of tender years."

START RECRUITING AIR WAC'S

First Time Army Air Force Has Opened Enlistment For Women

Faced with a drastic need of women for vital behind-the-lines services, the Army Air Forces begins this week an intensive campaign to enlist recruits immediately in the Women's Army Corps.

For the first time, women may enlist in the WAC specifically for service with the AAF, and will be assigned to duty with the Air Forces upon completion of basic training.

In stressing the urgency of the need for "Air WAC's," recruiting officials pointed out that commanding officers of AAF installations had requested many thousands of additional women to perform scores of specialized jobs.

Ask AAF Aid

All AAF personnel have been urged to aid the campaign by sending information on the WAC to eligible women of their acquaintance, or to turn in the names of prospective members to recruiting officials. Facts and statistics on the "Air WAC's" and the jobs they can do may be obtained at the public relations office of this station.

Physically fit women from 20 through 49 years of age, without dependents or children under 14 are eligible to be "Air WAC's." Open to them are more than 150 specific positions in medical, personnel, public relations, photographic, weather, drafting, radio, communications, mechanical and other fields.

Women with suitable experience or training may be enlisted for a particular type of job being assigned directly to a field organization after basic training.

MRS. ROSS URGES COIN CIRCULATION

Strategic Metals Needed For War, Mint Director Pleads For Penny Return

The return to circulation of millions of small coins, particularly pennies, was urged this week in letters from Nellie Taylor Ross, mint director, U.S. School Superintendent Wayne R. Farmer and to the students of the schools.

A similar drive was made last year and "the magnitude of the response to that appeal was most gratifying," said Mrs. Ross. "The Mint has had much difficulty in obtaining material for the one-cent piece because the strategic metals which compose it are an imperative necessity in the manufacture of bombs, tanks, rifles and other weapons. Although the last three years has totaled nearly three billion pieces, orders at present are breaking all records. One of the chief reasons for the heavy demand for pennies is the great American habit of hoarding small coins in penny banks, glass jars, and bureau drawers, in homes. As for Indian head pennies, commonly hoarded, few of these coins can have special value as there were nearly two billion of them coined.

Put Pennies To Work

"I appeal to you and other young people in schools and colleges all over the country to assist the Mint to conserve scarce metals needed for war purposes by devoting your efforts and influence to get idle pennies back into circulation; to set the example yourselves and to induce others to use them just as other money in the market place. Pennies should not be returned to the Mint but should be returned to the channels of trade in your own community. You may wish to substitute War Savings Stamps for coins that are held as savings.

"You will be impressed, I think, that this is a matter of small importance when I tell you that in the last three years nearly 10,000 tons of metal have gone into the making of one-piece coins alone. You will understand how far that same amount of metal would go in the making of the implements of war for our armed forces. There is probably no patriotic service which you could render, without financial cost to yourself, that would contribute so much to the winning of the war as that above outlined. Now as the pre-Christmas demand for pennies approaches, we are relying upon you to respond to this request as so many of you did with such superb results a year ago when a similar request was made to you. Your effort then, and for which as you may now make, I express my personal thanks and the thanks of the Treasury Department.

The Little Cardboard Flag

It stands on a desk in one of New Jersey's telephone test centers. No electric fan or breeze coming through the window is needed to stir it into action — always it flies straight out from its standard.

"I like that little flag", said the man at the desk. "Keeps reminding me of the all-out way the war job must be done at home."

The trained men in New Jersey's telephone test centers watch over the cables, wires and central office apparatus of the statewide system. The work goes on endlessly to make sure that "troubles" are found and repaired with all possible speed. They use highly sensitive testing devices and have always on hand complete service records of every cable, instrument, switchboard and other equipment within the area they serve.

It takes giving the best to the job to serve America's war needs . . . the kind of all-out effort symbolized by the little cardboard flag on the telephone man's desk.

"In Post-War Planning"

theory and on paper at least the promise of post-war improvements proposed Mayor Williams is sweet music to the ears. Many of the items on the list have been bruited about for many years now and, if they are actually carried out, they will go toward making Belleville quite up-to-date. But we cannot help but pause over the many indefinite and variable factors involved.

Memo To Shade Tree Commission

The many projects listed in the post-war planning program are all very utilitarian. Yes, we need storm sewers, flood control, school rehabilitation, recreational expansion. But somewhere in the program we might insert something for the Shade Tree Commission to do.

Very Nice — But Do We Need It?

Mentioned around town several times recently have been plans for a town honor roll. This, as we get the picture, is to be a large billboard-type sign containing the names of every Bellevillite who has gone into the various services. The names would be arranged alphabetically and the town roll would supplant all the rosters now proudly displayed in Soho, Silver Lake, Belwood Park, Greylock and other sections of town.

of varying sizes mar practically all of them. Trees, like a new dress, would help to disguise their shabbiness. They would lend a softness even to town hall: we would suggest Lombardy poplars or even a couple of maples, since the building has plenty of lawn to care for the latter.

Precaution Against Tuberculosis Ravages

THE SIMPLE X-RAY TB TEST which can be made in a few minutes and which often is the cause of detecting the disease in its early stages when no symptoms are apparent, is shown above. This service is being inaugurated this year by the Belleville-Nutley Tuberculosis association and is made possible by the sale of Christmas seals which go out this week.

Tuberculosis Group Arranges Free Chest X-Rays Dec. 4

All Eligible For Examination; Service Begun As Distribution Of Seals Is Started

As a major factor in its relentless fight against tuberculosis the Belleville-Nutley Tuberculosis Association has completed arrangements for chest X-Rays to be given to all adults desiring them, at Belleville High school on Saturday, December 4, starting at 10 a. m.

Without fee of any kind it includes a complete reading or analysis of the x-ray made and is made possible through the sale of Christmas seals which went on sale this week. An appeal is made to persons of both sexes to take advantage of this modern method of disease prevention.

The importance of chest X-Rays has been demonstrated conclusively by the Army and Navy in the present war. Every soldier, sailor or marine, as a part of his induction examination, is given exactly the same chest x-ray that the local organization is bringing to Belleville as a part of its program.

No Striking Symptoms

A total of 102 active cases and 136 inactive cases of tuberculosis were recently found as a result of mass x-raying of 30,000 recruits to the W.A.A.F.S. according to a recent issue of the British publication "Tubercle."

In bringing this service to Nutley and Belleville, made possible through the purchase of Christmas Seals, the Belleville-Nutley Tuberculosis association is anxious that as many persons as possible avail themselves of its advantages. The date was selected with the thought that various shifts in the industrial plants of either town could appear for the short time necessary for the pictures to be taken.

It is very important for every adult to have a chest x-ray at regular intervals for only in this way can the disease be discovered and readily checked before it has progressed to the point where it becomes serious.

PUPIL GUIDANCE PLAN INCREASED

Seibert Reveals Names Of Eight Teachers Assisting Work With Frosh, Seniors

Eight teachers are assisting in carrying out the student guidance program in the high school, Director Earl W. Seibert revealed yesterday in an outline of the work being done by the guidance department, now in its fifth year at the school.

Helping in guidance and counsel to freshmen are Mrs. Ann Snedeker, Miss Gregoria Condon, John Charlton, James Keen, L. Howard Fox and Paul Brennan. Working with the seniors are Mrs. Harriet Becker and Miss Elsie Sandford.

It is the intention of the six operating among the first-year students to interview every member of the class at least once and attempt to guide each along interesting and helpful lines of endeavor and courses of study.

Senior Problems

Realizing that those in their senior year will soon be facing more practical problems of the world of business, the upper-grade helpers consider problems of democracy, guidance toward college and the like. A personality test was recently given members of the senior class; the results are now being tabulated and interviews with the next graduates will be held on that basis.

Group guidance, Seibert pointed out, had been in existence in the grade schools for many years when he came here in 1939 to inaugurate the high school program.

Man Sentenced For Non-Support

Kenneth Paton, 30, of 88 Ralph street, was sentenced November 10 to 30 days in the county jail when he was rearrested for violation of probation.

Given a suspended sentence and placed on probation three weeks previously when he was hailed before Police Recorder Everett Smith for desertion and non-support, Paton was arrested on the same charge on a complaint by Overseer of the Poor John Hewitt and Smith carried the suspended sentence into effect.

Wartime Holiday Sweets

Wartime brings less sugar and chocolate for making holiday sweets and less time to prepare elaborate goodies for the gala season. The homemaker can concentrate this year on low-sugar-content cakes, cookies and candies, and uncooked or easily prepared sweets such as cereal candies, uncooked fudge, popcorn balls, etc.

Here are recipes that will fit into the schedule of the patriotic woman who is part-time war worker and homemaker.

Orange Rounds: Cream shortening and grated orange rind. Add sugar gradually. Add sifted dry ingredients and orange juice alternately to creamed mixture. Chill. Roll 1/2 inch thick. Cut with cookie cutter. Bake on greased cookie sheet at 375 degrees for 8 to 10 minutes. Approximate yield: 3 dozen.

Molasses Taffy: 1 1/2 cups molasses, 1 1/2 tsp. butter, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup white syrup, 1 egg white, 1/4 tsp. vanilla. Cook sugar, corn syrup, and water together over low heat, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Bring to a boil, cover and cook for about 3 minutes. Continue cooking to 242 degrees or until the mixture spins a long thread. Keep covered as much as possible. Wipe off any crystals on sides of pan and pour the hot syrup slowly over the stiffly

Popcorn Balls: 1 recipe taffy (given above), 8 to 10 cups popped corn. Cook taffy according to directions given above. Remove from fire and pour over corn. Stir well; cool slightly. Butter your fingers and mold into balls. Cool on greased plate. Yield: 1 cup popped corn makes 2 balls.

Caramel Corn: Add 1/2 cup nuts to popcorn before ridding taffy. Cool and do not shape into balls. Raisinpop Balls: Add 1/2 cup raisins before adding taffy. Puff Balls: Substitute puffed rice, wheat or corn for the popped corn. Confetti Balls: Color taffy with candy coloring before pouring over popped corn.

Boiled Frosting: 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 cup water, 1/4 tsp. light corn syrup, 1 egg white, 1/4 tsp. vanilla. Cook sugar, corn syrup, and water together over low heat, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Bring to a boil, cover and cook for about 3 minutes. Continue cooking to 242 degrees or until the mixture spins a long thread. Keep covered as much as possible. Wipe off any crystals on sides of pan and pour the hot syrup slowly over the stiffly

Police Chief George Spatz issued another warning to dog owners yesterday that they will lose their pets if they are allowed to run wild in the streets of the town. He said that he had noticed a considerable increase in the number of dogs roaming loose in the town in recent weeks. He pointed out that the ban which has been effect for a number of years is a twelve-month affair. Dogs are picked up immediately on sight, he said, and are turned over to the humane society. It is not always easy for the owners to locate and recover the pets. He stated that the law provides that the dogs must be kept penned or tied up and that when they are walked they must be kept on a leash.

Nutley Symphony Soloist

Helen Janov, talented young American violinist, will be the soloist in the Sibelius Concerto for Violin and Orchestra when the seventh anniversary season of the Nutley Symphony orchestra is launched, Friday evening, December 3rd.

Miss Janov comes rightfully by her heritage as a musician for both her father and maternal grandfather were experienced violinists. Indeed, it was her grandfather's gift of a violin that started Miss Janov, at the age of five, on her study of this instrument. By the time the violinist was nine, she had played successfully in a student's recital and was showing promise of a real future.

Having been born and raised in Collingswood, Miss Janov found it expedient to move to New York City where she could keep in close touch with her teacher, Albert Meiff, and the various advantages which the metropolitan city offers. Entering the New Jersey Artist-Musician contest last year, Miss Janov won over all other entrants and was a finalist in the national contest in which students from all over the United States competed.

Simple and unaffected by the honors she has won, Miss Janov enjoys dancing and horseback riding as a relaxation from her strenuous schedule of practice. As Sibelius is her favorite composer, she is particularly happy in preparing for the Nutley concert. With a firm ambition of becoming a concert artist, Miss Janov will give her New York debut recital at Town Hall on March 5.

Thanksgiving For What?

Thanksgiving is here again and once again the question arises, "What are you thankful for?" But maybe your brother, father or husband is fighting and you look to an unhappy Thanksgiving this year. You say you have nothing to be thankful for.

But that's where you're wrong! Don't forget for one minute that we're democracy! In a world being destroyed by dictatorship, our gratitude for our democracy should be great.

We should be thankful for our freedoms. Yes, we still have them—we always will. Maybe you haven't thought about our freedoms much. Well, think about them now.

We should be thankful that we have strong and fine men to protect our country. And don't forget those brave women who are in there this year.

We should be thankful that the horror and destruction of Europe hasn't touched our shores. Our country is still bright and our buildings still tower the sky.

We should be thankful that our children have food, warm clothing and shelter. They can happily go to school—while other children watch the sky.

We should be thankful that the war in Europe is almost at an end. It cost many lives, and will cost many more, but wasn't it worth it?

Yes—we should be thankful this year for these and many more. Just sit down and think it over! We're still free people, and isn't that what really counts?

BELLBOY CAGERS BEGIN PRACTICE

Vic Pasquariello Only Veteran; Coach Wische To Build Entirely New Team

While all interest centered on Thursday's football struggle with Lyndhurst, Belleville high school's basketball team quietly began practice sessions under Coach Herman Wische.

A new and young team is out for practice this year, the armed forces having removed most of last year's varsity squad, which put together an excellent season.

Among the missing are George Ferro, Bernie McManus, Neal Finn, Jim Shanahan and Nick Calicchio. Not content with taking the first stringers, the Army and Navy even scooped up Higgins, Keane and Shaw of the junior varsity, who had been relied upon to help out this year. The result is that new and less experienced players will be used. In spite of this, there is some very promising talent to work with.

Vic Pasquariello, one of last year's outstanding players, is captain of the varsity. Although the line-up is still undecided, members of the team will be picked from Robert Kennedy, Tom McManus, Ted Louis, Ed Purdue, Fred Jackson, Frank Conaldo, Mike Bell, Richard Burke, Dan Meschia, Frank Bemis, Richard Stanford, Ed Bechtold, Robert Meyer, James Dunter, Russell Stout and Jimmie Byrne.

Wische expects to have three teams in action, the varsity, junior varsity, and the freshmen. Right now he won't give the exact line-up of each since it is still early in the practice season, but the following players have tried out for the junior varsity: Donald Ross, George Sears, Owen McMahor, Al Ferrara, Bill Lentz, Al Smith, Frank Takash, Paul McConnell, Robert Miller, Steve Smallridge, Will Gross, James Schultz, Al Porecella, Rodney Cotten, Philip Boryzewski and Louis Nissavoccia.

We Have With Us Today

An alumnus of Belleville high school and Muhlenberg college, president of the senior class in college, treasurer of the Varsity "M" club, and also captain of that college's football team. Wait a minute, there's plenty more. But before proceeding, you ought to know by now who this celebrity is. Sure, it's Bill Chapman, popular coach of the football squad.

Why do you know that the coach was an honorary member of Omicron Delta Kappa, in recognition of his leadership in the world? Delegates chose him to attend. The panels were on "How to promote better inter-racial understandings," "How the student council trains in responsibility," "How it tries to develop opinion through its papers and magazines," "What can be done to keep students in school to complete their education," "The school athletic program during 'extra-curricular' activities under war conditions," "The student council and the Victory Corps," "Financing the student council and other school activities," and "How to build up student interest in a student council."

Discussion panels

After lunch there were nine discussion panels. The theme of the discussions was "How can the student council help in training for leadership in the post-war world?" Delegates chose the panel to attend. The panels were on "How to promote better inter-racial understandings," "How the student council trains in responsibility," "How it tries to develop opinion through its papers and magazines," "What can be done to keep students in school to complete their education," "The school athletic program during 'extra-curricular' activities under war conditions," "The student council and the Victory Corps," "Financing the student council and other school activities," and "How to build up student interest in a student council."

Chapman had encouraging words to say about the B.H.S. team. During the Scott-Belleville game he noticed that after a rocky first half, the boys on the team righted themselves and went on to score. Also, the coach added that the team was in better physical shape than after the Passaic game. Then he went on to say, "The fellows are very cooperative and you couldn't find a better bunch of kids anywhere."

If you're thinking about the Thanksgiving game between Lyndhurst and Belleville, you can take it from Bill Chapman that it's going to be tough.

Mr. Chapman also added that he thinks the Belleville High School News is very satisfactory and serves as a very valuable medium in bringing to the public the life of the high school. (This is the second of a series of character sketches dealing with various individuals connected with the school. It will be a weekly feature in the Belleville High School News. Watch for it!)

Bowling Club Plans Team

The Bowling club has been meeting every Friday afternoon at one of the local alleys. About thirty boys and girls have participated each week.

Mr. Irwin Tschebull, faculty director of the club, is planning to form a team by Christmas, and to have this team bowl against other schools.

This is an informal bowling club, and anyone who wishes to join should see Mr. Tschebull about the time and places.

Band Ready For Turkey Game At Clearman; Forms Bandettes

The band in Belleville high school is a very important organization which figures in many of the school activities. It plays for assemblies and all the home football games. On Thanksgiving Day it will play at the last game of the season.

Besides the instrumentalists, other students connected with the band are Ruth Van Horn, who is drum major, Mary Buis, Anne Georgiana and Betty Rivola, majorettes. Mr. Robert Parker, faculty director, has appointed Anna Carnie as student teacher.

Out of the band there has also grown a small jazz band called the "Bandettes." It is expected that more will be heard concerning them later on in the year.

Belleville Faces Lyndhurst Eleven In Final Fracas

Capacity Crowd is Expected To Witness Varsity's Last Game At Clearman Field

While the turkey will be roasting the oven on Thanksgiving Day, Belleville high will be seeking its fifth victory of the season when it meets a strong Lyndhurst eleven at Clearman Field, Lyndhurst.

The season will be closed on Thanksgiving Day, 11 a. m. It is expected that a capacity crowd of 5,000 will be on hand to witness the final game of the Bellboy gridgers.

Lyndhurst's record includes two wins, one tie with Seton Hall and six losses. In their last game the visiting gridgers suffered a 20-0 defeat at the hands of Arlington, and hope to gain revenge by beating the Bel-joys. The Zebras, however, have won four games and dropped a three.

STUDENT LEADERS ATTEND STATE CONVENTION

Representatives Of State High Schools Gather At New Brunswick

The eighteenth annual conference of the New Jersey association of High School councils met at the New Jersey college for Women in New Brunswick on Friday. Those who were present from Belleville were John Gordon of the faculty, and students Marjorie Burke, Kora Zadigian, Betty Ramage, Allen McAllister, Robert McEwan, Frank Larkin, Jean Walker, Marie Blaser, Phyllis DeSturco, Dorothy Cunningham and Janis Hickok.

The program opened at 9:30 with registration at Voorhees chapel. Past-president Richard Gill, speaking on the activities of last year, asserted that these activities had been greatly hindered by the war, but that students still succeeded in accomplishing most of what they had planned.

Dr. Margaret T. Corwin, dean, expressed welcome and a great pleasure in having the conference held at the college. She put the college faculties at the disposal of the delegates. Betty V. Ryder, president of the government association at the college, also extended welcome.

An address was given by M. Channing Wagner, associate superintendent of schools, of Wilmington, Del. He explained that 20 years ago there was mainly a feeling of students versus teachers. He then pointed out that now there is a third party, the Student Council, through which students and teachers may converse about problems of school rationally. He stated that the Student Councils had his whole hearted approval for they taught good citizenship.

PROGRAM PLANNED FOR HOLIDAY

"Lord's Prayer" To Be Sung By Soloist Anna Santiglia

A most effective atmosphere will be created when Anna Santiglia, Belleville high school's outstanding soprano soloist, sings the "Lord's Prayer" during the formal opening exercises of the Thanksgiving assembly, instead of the entire school saying the prayer.

The first selection will be "Mignonette" by Bauman, played by the high school orchestra and directed by Mrs. Alice Wagner. The Glee Clubs, with members attired in maroon gowns, will present a pleasing picture as it sings a group of three numbers: "Psalm of Thanksgiving" by Allisten-Trehame, "Will You Remember" by Romberg, (the incidental solo will be sung by Anna Santiglia) and "Madelon" by Camille Robert.

Anna Corrie, president of the combined music clubs, will introduce the Rev. Dr. O. Bell Close, who will speak. At the conclusion of Dr. Close's speech, Anna Santiglia will sing "Say A Prayer For The Boys Over There." Ed Gurdak, accordionist will play two selections: "Krakoviak," a Polish polka, and "Minka," a Russian folk song.

STUDY HALL CHATTER

This is the beginning of what you might call a student gossip column. All news here will be contributed by students and for students. If you want news printed about clubs, people, activities, etc., just let us know and we'll try to get it in.

The Riding club, under the supervision of Miss Leahy, ended its season Thursday with the final ride for this year. Everyone seemed to have a good time and are looking forward to the beginning of the Spring season, sometime in 1944.

Congratulations to Nick Calicchio, '43, star on last year's basketball team, on the completion of his basic submarine training in Connecticut. Does anyone know what the "Betty-Lov" Combination means? ???. A few girls and boys at the Clifford Scott game were seen sporting cameras. Does this mean the "Monad" is underway????

A lucky miss is "Bobbie" O'Brien of H.R. 307. She had a visit from two famous uncles last week, Allan Scott, author of "Mr. Lucky," and Adrian Scott, author of "So Frudly We Hail."

Report on the schools at war program is that there are four weeks left to reach our goal. At the present time we are behind our quota for the month. But you still have time to buy a bond or even some stamps. So get busy!

We'd like to take time out to wish a speedy recovery to M. Bitterman who is convalescing his home after a long and serious illness. . . . That was a play that Mary Theresa M. played and Jean Rommeis was for economic law. Everyone enjoyed it very much and . . .

Former Chronic Cellar-Deweller Wins First-Two Starts, Tie Wesley

Congregation AAA, in previous years the weak sister of the town church basketball league, is showing its colors this season, and has topped the decision in its first two tries and is currently sharing the top spot with Wesley Methodist.

To make the turnabout complete, the two powers of previous seasons, Fewsmitth Memorial and St. Peter's, are consoling each other in the cellar. Neither has won a game this year.

PRE-WAR FATHERS ARE STILL WAITING FOR "DER TAG"

Yanked From Today's Group; Still Chance For Transfer To Essential Work

No pre-Pearl Harbor fathers, except volunteers, those in non-deferable industry and those not living in family relations with their children, are included in the contingent of selectees who left Belleville this morning for physical examinations prior to induction.

This was learned yesterday when John P. Dailey, chairman of the local draft board, announced that Belleville will be 15 short of its quota today.

He indicated that the board members are extremely reluctant to put pre-Pearl Harbor fathers into khaki except as a last resort and only after every other effort to meet the quota has failed.

All men who were fathers before December 7, 1941, have had and still have an opportunity to transfer into essential war industry and those who fail to make the change will receive first consideration for call when other sources have been exhausted.

He also pointed out that the failure of a father to "give in family relationship with his children" precludes his consideration as deferrable in this category.

Today's contingent includes three volunteers, all pre-war papas. All other peacetime fathers were pulled out of the group before it left the town.

Dailey said he had been hoping that the induction of the present group of selectees might be deferred until after Christmas. The state selective service headquarters decided that only those slated for call December 24, 25 and 26 will be allowed to spend Christmas with their families.

Belleville's contingent must report for final induction December 23. The November selectees had to leave only two days before Thanksgiving.

What Dailey announced no figure for the January call, it is expected that it will be considerably higher than recent quotas. Many boards have already been notified that their quota will be doubled in January.

It was observed Tuesday, the third anniversary of the first little band of draftees to leave Belleville, that the local board is one of the very few in the country still operating with the original three members.

Besides Dailey, the others on the board are Herbert Hardman and John Gannon.

Director King To Seek Raises For Police And Firemen

Firemen and police will be in for a raise if the commission approves an ordinance which Public Safety Director King is readying for introduction, probably at the next meeting of the board December 14.

King announced yesterday that he was acting in response to requests made by delegations from the two services who were following up promises made to them by the commissioners in 1941 in order to conciliate them when they threatened a referendum to gain $300 increases.

In 1942 they were given $100 raises and this year five percent "cost of living" bonuses. King's plans call for abandonment of the bonus and a supplemental increase of a straight $200.

The actual increase over the amounts received in 1943 will be small, King pointed out, since the bonuses amounted to nearly that total. The actual raise will be $50 to $80.

Cipperly, Wounded In Action, Returns To Duty

Technician 5th grade (equivalent to corporal) Arthur R. Cipperly, 35, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Cipperly of 178 Joramom street, was listed in the this week's War Department casualty roster as having been wounded in action in the Mediterranean area.

His mother said yesterday that Cipperly was injured September 21 and was released from the hospital 10 days later. He has returned to duty.

He entered the Army a year and a half ago and went overseas last June with an anti-aircraft unit. He was formerly employed with Wallace & Tiernan company.

King Presents Police Reserve Badges

POLICE RESERVES RECEIVE BADGES

Commissioner King Distributes Insignia; Praises, Exhorts Auxiliary Officers

Distinctive badges of authority were issued to about 70 officers and men of the Belleville Police Reserves at the high school last Wednesday evening by Public Safety Director King.

In presenting these badges of office Commissioner King complimented the volunteer personnel of the auxiliary police for their fine display of civic duty and thanked them for the police work they are performing.

The Commissioner stated he was very much impressed with the fine appearance of the reservists and expressed the opinion that, with such a force to augment and assist the regular police, Belleville would continue to be "quite a safe place."

Commissioner King also pointed out that the new emblem, on which there is superimposed in colors the civilian defense auxiliary police insignia, should be worn with dignity, and he especially requested that all reserve officers be careful to uphold the honor and reputation of the department by being courteous at all times in their dealings with the public.

Schmutz Reply To Queries Fails To Appear Teachers

Citizens Hear School Head Discuss Charges Of Arrogance, Salaries And Recreation

"No" was the response to the question of whether or not many of their queries and complaints were answered satisfactorily last week when Herbert C. Schmutz, president of the board of education, appeared before the Citizens' Committee at the recreation house to reply to criticisms of the board.

That "vote" came after two hours of explaining and questioning in the stuffy, smoke-filled room at the meeting attended by many school teachers and other residents of Belleville.

During those two hours, Schmutz had gone over the board's closed conferences, the use of school buildings for recreation, the town's cost of education, teachers' salaries, Parent-Teacher associations, teaching contracts and the alleged "arrogance" of the board.

The two prime controversies of the meeting centered around the salary question, and the late mailing of contracts for the following year.

Before the meeting began, Harry F. Brumbach of 100 Little street, president of the association,

LESLIE CHEDISTER RELEASED IN BAIL IN FRAUD CASE

Accused Of Cashing Checks Stolen From Mailboxes; Spatz Issues Warning

The arraignment of a Belleville youth for fraud presented Police Chief Spatz with the opportunity to warn citizens again yesterday to take care in receiving and cashing checks. He cautioned particularly about knowing the endorser of the checks.

Leslie Chedister, 22, of 27 Parkview avenue, charged with stealing checks from mail boxes and cashing them on his reputation around town, was released in $1,000 bail Saturday by Newark police. The previous Saturday Recorder Smith had held him here in the same amount of bail for action against the Newark officials. At that time Chedister pleaded guilty.

According to Detective Chief Elmer Leighton, who directed the action against the local man, Chedister had admitted stealing mail from boxes here and in Bloomfield, Newark and East Orange. He appropriated the checks which he found and discarded the other mail.

He is said to have signed his own name as indorser and then to have cashed at least 16 checks and five money orders totalling $500.

A former employee of the Atlantic & Pacific store here, he depended on his friendships to pass off the checks at the A&P, Reed's and Dryer's drug stores and the First National Bank. Money orders were cashed in Belleville and Newark.

The case was handled by Leighton and Detectives Holly, Mallack and McGinnis.

Spatz Warning

Warning that Christmas shopping helps check thieves to pass worthless checks on rushed shoppers, Spatz joined with Frank J. Wilson, chief of the U.S. Secret Service, Treasury department, and listed a few precautions to cut down check losses suffered by the public as a result of check forgeries.

More government checks will be issued this year than at any other time in history. The latest Treasury department figures indicate that more than 307 million individual checks will be issued by the government during the fiscal year.

Millions of these checks are issued to cover dependency payments to the families of men in the armed forces. With the continuing draft of fathers, most of the new inductees will have checks sent to their families to cover their support while the breadwinner is fighting his country's battles.

It is especially to protect these checks that the Secret Service is waging its "Know Your Endorser" drive against the forger who steals a soldier's pay.

Christmas Good Hunting

Chief Spatz warned that the Christmas season is always a busy one for the forger who takes advantage of busy stores to cash his stolen checks.

As a result, the Belleville Police department and the Secret Service urge those who receive checks to follow these four simple rules:

1. Be sure some member of the family is at home when checks are due to be delivered.

2. Print your name clearly on your mail box. Equip your mail box with a lock.

3. Cash your checks in the same place each month. This will make identification easier.

4. Do not endorse your check until you are in the presence of the person you will ask to cash it.

Message to Merchants

Upon the storekeepers and all others who cash checks, the police and the Secret Service wish to impress the following:

1. Before cashing any check, demand proper identification. Remember that lodge cards, social security cards, auto licenses, letters and the like also can be forged and stolen. A forger's credentials are often forgeries themselves. Proper identification can best be determined by asking yourself this question: "If this check is returned, can I find the person who gave it to me?"

2. Always demand that the person cashing the check endorse it in your presence. Even though the check has been endorsed in ink, it can be cashed by a forger.

3. Alteration of their face. Altered checks are usually forged checks.

4. If you are an employer and more than one employee of yours is empowered to cash checks, be sure that accepted checks are initialed so that you can identify the person who accepts them.

5. You can safeguard your merchandise, your cash, and your profits from check forgers by following these simple rules every time you cash a check. Make these practices routine. Remember you lose if you cash a forged check.

Dimout Over, Blackout Still Here, Brunner Warns Citizens

The dimout may be finished but air raid precautions are still in effect, Defense Coordinator Ronald G. Brunner warned Bellevillites yesterday.

He referred to the fact that, since dimout restrictions have been lifted, many persons are leaving their homes and places of business with lights burning.

"Air raid regulations stipulate that no one shall leave a light unattended," Brunner declared. "If lights are burning, there must be a resident, friend or business associate present to turn them out in case of an air raid alert."

"Blackouts, unlike dimouts, are not a thing of the past. They have passed into the hands of the Army, which may call a blackout at any time and without warning."

POLICE SEEK LUTZ IN WIFE STABBING

Wife Of Hornblower Ave. Man Reported Out Of Danger; Description Broadcast

Police departments of virtually the entire nation were still on the search last night for George Lutz of 165 Hornblower avenue who is wanted by the Kearny police for atrocious assault and battery with intent to kill.

The attack was made on Lutz's estranged wife, whose condition yesterday was reported as still serious even though she is now out of danger. According to police, Lutz met his wife late Thanksgiving night while she was returning from a movie in Kearny. He pleaded with her, attempting to effect a reconciliation.

When she spurned his advances, Lutz is said to have drawn a knife or other sharp instrument and stabbed her severely all over the body. He then fled in his car, a description of which has been broadcast to over 100 western states.

Mrs. Lutz was treated in the West Hudson Hospital by Dr. William H. Goldstein of Arlington, who reported at least 12 wounds, the worst of which was in the left chest. Mrs. Lutz has been living with her sister, Mrs. Helen Robinson of 279 Schuyler avenue, Kearny, since the strangement, which is believed to have started two years ago during which time Lutz has been living at the Hornblower avenue address. He is employed as a carpenter at the Federal Shipyards, Kearny.

In charge of the case are Detectives Hook and Perry of Kearny. Detective Chief Leighton of this town is directing the search here.

MUST ANSWER FOR FUNERAL FUNDS

Widow Sues Joseph Granese To Recover Contributions From Brother's Friends

The final local chapter in the Case of the Missing Funeral Funds is scheduled to take place in the police court Wednesday night when Recorder Everett B. Smith will announce his decision in the suit of Mrs. Tina Granese of Madison against her brother-in-law, Joseph Granese of 109 Newark avenue, this town.

The case, which appeared in the local court last Wednesday for the second time, is an outgrowth of the collection of funds from friends of the late Anthony Granese, who died August 30.

Because most of his life had been spent in Belleville and most of his friends live here, the funeral was held from the Newark avenue address. In keeping with the Italian custom, friends contributed a total of $1,432 to the family, which fund was placed in the hands of Joseph Granese for safekeeping.

Mrs. Granese's complaint is that the sum should be immediately turned over to her while the custodian claims that he intends to put it in an account for his brother's child.

The widow's official complaint, signed in court before edness day's hearing, alleges that Granese has fraudulently converted the money to his own use.

Judge Smith reserved decision, requesting both sides to file briefs. Meantime, the money has been placed in escrow, that is, neutral hands, pending the outcome of the dispute.

NEWTON STREETER PASSES AT 81

Civic Leader And Clubman Had Lived Here 60 Years; Headed Library Board

A lifetime of civic endeavor, more than a half-century of which was spent in the interest of community affairs of Belleville, ended Saturday morning with the sudden death of A. Newton Streeter of 151 Joramom street.

Mr. Streeter not only watched but took an active part in the development of Belleville during the last 60 years. He moved here in 1883 at the age of 21.

Born in Clinton, he was employed with the freight forwarding department of the Erie Railroad at the time of his settlement here and for the next six decades became the Erie's most faithful commuter between here and New York.

He was also one of the oldest members of the New York Produce Exchange which he joined in 1885. Most of his life he was connected with Lunham and More, New York freight forwarders and brokers; until 12 years ago when he formed the firm of Hayes and Streeter from which he retired only a year ago.

Shortly after his arrival in Belleville he became an active member of Nereid Boat club, eventually becoming its secretary. He resigned due to the pressure of business in 1905 and was elected an honorary life member.

Helped Found B & L

In 1907 he was one of the organizers of the Central Building & Loan and was a member of the rest of his life. He had been vice president of the past ten years.

Mr. Streeter was also active in cycling circles as a young man. He was a member of the Belleville Wheelmen and was treasurer of the Belleville club when that organization purchased its clubhouse on the southeast corner of Washington avenue and Academy street about 40 years ago. The club burned down several years ago and the site is now occupied by Cliff's Diner.

Mr. Streeter's principal contribution to the town was his service with the Public Library board. He was appointed a member in 1911 and served as president of the board of trustees from 1922 to 1933. He was also a member of the Belleville Lodge of the Royal Arcanum and of the Washington Irving Literary society of Newark.

He is survived by his son, Dwight N. Streeter of the Joramom street address, a daughter, Mrs. A. Wilson Fullerton of Lawrence, Ky., and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Monday evening in the Irvine Funeral Home with Rev. Peter Deckenbach officiating and interment in the Bloomfield cemetery Tuesday morning.

Paper Salvage To Be Zoned And Collected Wednesdays

Brunner Outlines New Plan For Easing Labor Strain; Nutt Asks Support

Paper salvage collection in Belleville has been put on a zone basis, Defense Coordinator Ronald G. Brunner announced yesterday. The first collection under the new plan will take place next Wednesday when defense zone 2 will be visited.

The move was necessitated by the shortage of labor available to work on the collection, which is under the direction of Joseph Rosciniti of 36 Clinton street.

The calendar of collections calls for zones 1 and 5 to be canvassed on the first Wednesday of each month, zone 2 on the second Wednesday, zone 3 on the third and zone 4 on the fourth.

Charles Nutt, chairman of the paper drive, expressed a hope that Belleville householders will continue to support the effort and will support the monthly total of 30 tons for November.

He requested the citizens to bundle magazines and newspapers separately and to fold up cardboard cartons. Within the next week, Boy Scouts under the supervision of town District Commissioner John Charlton, will distribute to every Belleville home "hang-up" cards outlining the collection dates in each district.

The collection zones are the same as those outlined on the civilian defense map:

Zone Boundaries

Zone 1 is the southeast section of town, bordered by the Newark line, the Passaic river, Joramom street and Union avenue.

Zone 2 is northeast and is bounded by the river, the Nutley line, Union avenue and Joramom street.

Zone 3 is northwest running along Union avenue to Nutley

Two-Year Contract Signed Last Week For Games In '44 and '45; Maroons Hold Decided Edge In Series

After a lapse of fourteen years, during which agitation for resumption of relations has bubbled and sizzled from time to time, the high schools of Belleville and Nutley will meet again on the gridiron. The startling and unexpected announcement was made yesterday at high noon simultaneously by Herbert C. Schmutz, president of the board of education, and Edward Assmus, faculty director of athletics in Nutley. The statement revealed that a contract was signed last week pledging the schools to meet in 1944 and 1945. The first contest will be in the Park Oval, home field of the Nutley Maroons.

Schmutz was quick to disclaim credit for bringing about the reconciliation. It was due, he said primarily to the work of the high school athletic council and other here and of similar officials in Nutley.

"It was in the air and had been for years," he said. He declared that the immediate conferences which brought about the games were the result of many informal conversations: Ruel Daniels met Coim Linn at a banquet and talked; Wayne R. Parmer chatted with someone else during a golf game.

Finally Daniels, Parmer, Harold Dufford, faculty manager here, visited Nutley officials and started to talk. The local athletic council authorized November 18, 1943, Dufford to sign the contracts and Nutley placed its John Hancock of the paper a few days later.

COMMISSION BANS PARKING LOT

Invasion By Fairway Avenue Residents Evokes Promise; Hart Renamed Auditor

There will be no public parking lot on Fairway avenue.

To ensure that end, about two score Fairway residents, mighty upset over the prospect of myriads of cars and their attendant fumes, swarmed into town last week and extracted the promise from the board of commissioners.

Stirred by the rumor that five town-owned lots were to be let out to Corbun Garden apartments for parking for residents, the Fairway home-owners banded together, signed a petition, hired a lawyer and trekked to the board with their complaints.

The builders of the apartment house utilized their entire property with the building, lawyer Harry Dreskin of Newark claimed, and they made no proper provision for parking the cars of the apartment inhabitants.

He called on the commissioners to "protect the property owners in the vicinity." He explained that the area zoning prohibits any such project, that the constant passage of cars would endanger the safety of children, that the noise at night would keep neighbors awake, that car fumes would prove annoying.

Reassures Residents

Mayor Williams was the first to placate the citizens and he was greeted with cheers when he announced that the matter was in his department and that he would vote to keep the district restricted to single-family homes. Commissioners Noll, King and Mertz, in that order, also went on record as opposed. Commissioner Waters, ill at home, was not present.

At the meeting, the firm of A. M. Hart was reappointed to audit the town's books for 1943. Mayor Williams also announced that $100,000 in government bonds recently purchased by the town had been stored in the vault of the First National Bank.

Draft Board Not Quite Sure If He Is Serious Or Joking

The draft board is smiling but not too heartily — at a Christmas card received at its town hall headquarters this week. They are not quite sure whether it is a cheery greeting or a case of "misery loves company."

The card is from Sgt. S. B. Gorlesky who lived at 434 S. B. avenue before being sent off in a selectee contingent some time ago. He sent the V-Mail greeting from the Middle East.

The message conveys the wish: "Having a fine time, wish you were here."

The board appreciates the rest of the message, however: "If you think this is a fine card, wait until you see the one next year. My sincerest wishes to everyone in Belleville."

Board members were puzzled over the type of card Gorlesky intends to send them next year but expressed a hope that it might be mailed in Berlin.

Foundation Group Meets Tonight To Map Servicemen's Return

Further plans for the care and guidance of returning servicemen will be discussed tonight when a sub-committee of the Belleville Foundation meets at 8 in the Recreation House.

Attending the conference will be representatives of the churches of industry, of the air raid wardens, and of the Red Cross, American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

A project of some magnitude will be surveyed, a spokesman for the Foundation said last night but no announcement will be made until plans are complete.
