Spillane, Rainone win seats

Board President Zoppi beaten, school budget trounced again

By Mike Olohan

Before the final three polling districts had reported Tuesday night, School Board challengers Tom Spillane and Donna Rainone were smiling, and by the time all of the results were in, they were beaming.

The two candidates had good reason to be happy — they finished with nearly identical vote totals to capture a pair of three-year seats. In the process, they ousted incumbent Board President Ernie Zoppi in an upset. The first three candidates finished far ahead of the last three, Judy Sobanko, Frank Montagna and Anthony Longo.

The biggest loser of all Tuesday was a surprise to no one. The school budget was thrashed at the polls, falling for the 18th time in the last 19 years. The capital outlay portion was defeated 1,650 to 583, while current expenses lost 1,659 to 610. Trustees held four budget hearings, including a televised presentation, to help pass the school tab, but to no avail.

The final tallies had Spillane, a Bell Telephone engineer, topping everyone with 1,356 votes and Miss Rainone, a county employee, a close second with 1,350 votes. Zoppi, who will end three years on the board next week, had 1,175 votes, Mrs. Sobanko, a Valley parent, got 745, court attendant Frank Montagna gained 607, and chiropractic intern Anthony Longo received 344.

Spillane said his victory was unexpected and he appeared shocked to have come in first. "I was running like I was last," he said with a smile.

Miss Rainone wasn't willing to celebrate until every district was counted and then she smiled and was hugged by supporters around her. Both winners did a lot of smiling and joking as photographers snapped their pictures.

Zoppi congratulated both winners but stayed on the School Board's Washington Avenue offices only briefly after final results were in. His loss had not been expected, although Spillane and Mrs. Rainone were thought to be strong challengers.

Neither Mrs. Sobanko, Montagna or Longo appeared at board offices for the countdown.

Several members of the Optimist Club, to which both Spillane and Zoppi belong, were present, and Tom Candura was the first to congratulate the high man. The group also included former trustee Peter Clarizio. Also on hand for the tallying were Trustee Anthony D'Agostino, his son and daughter who were sporting Zoppi stickers, Board Vice President Charles Miele and board attorney Lawrence Schwartz.

Miss Rainone entered accompanied by Barbara Romano, who helped run her campaign.

After the votes were tallied, the board's offices emptied, but 10 minutes later Valley Association President Bob May and Mrs. Sobanko's husband Ray appeared, looking happy even though their candidate had lost.

Asked if being only 25 was an advantage or disadvantage to her campaign, Miss Rainone replied, "It's fine, if anything it's an advantage," as three reporters gathered about her. "Is it okay if I go now?" she playfully asked as questions continued coming her way.

Miss Rainone celebrated her victory at home, while Spillane headed for Belleville's Knights of Columbus Hall on Bridge Street. Both candidates vowed to "work hard" during their three-year terms before departing to be with supporters.

New Members — Newly elected school trustees Tom Spillane and Donna Rainone congratulate each other. The two received almost identical votes in winning three-year Board of Education seats.

Town's tax rate headed way up

As expected, commissioners last Thursday introduced a municipal budget for 1981 that will mean a 30-point tax increase for Belleville residents.

The town tab is up $867,000 over last year's $10.8 million appropriation. The vote to raise it was unanimous, though Mayor Michael Marotti, who had wanted to reduce the budget further, indicated more cuts may still be coming. "I'm going to vote to introduce the budget and in the meantime, I'm going to study it," he said.

A public hearing on the budget is scheduled for 8 p.m. Thursday, April 30, at Town Hall. Commissioners will make their final decision on how much to spend that night.

Commissioners had planned to introduce the budget last Tuesday night but waited until Thursday, the deadline given the town by the state. The state imposes a 5 percent limit on municipal spending increases, and the budget for one town department, Public Affairs, exceeded the limit by $23,215. Commissioners voted to have all five departmental budgets come in at the "cap," and held off introducing the total package until receiving word on whether Public Affairs would receive more county funding. Commissioner Vincent Strumolo was told Wednesday he would be getting $18,500 extra, and he then trimmed about $5,000 from his budget to bring it in under the ceiling.

The budget was originally proposed. Please see "Planners" on page 21.

Sunday liquor sales will soon be studied

The state Alcoholic Beverage Control Board has ruled that liquor stores may sell wine and hard liquor on Sundays starting May 3, but commissioners must first give their permission before the sales begin. They are expected to discuss the measure at their meeting Tuesday.

So far, commissioners have apparently given little thought to the proposed change and the liquor store owners themselves seem ambivalent toward the idea. Several say the Sunday sales aren't necessary, and most seem to want the day off. However, larger chain stores favor Sunday sales, due to price decontrol, which gives high-volume sellers an advantage over lower-volume "mom and pop" stores.

"It won't do anything for our business," says Al Smith of Greylock Liquors on Union Avenue. "We'll just do the same amount of business in a seven-day week."

He said Saturday night sales have traditionally been the heaviest of the week, but if Sunday sales are permitted, people will probably just postpone some Saturday night trips until Sunday.

He also doubted if increased sales would cover the extra costs for heat, lighting, employees and possibly delivery van insurance, to make the extra day worthwhile.

Smith said even large high-volume liquor stores have been hurt by price decontrol, and smaller stores that can't buy in high volume have been hurt even more. Now, if Sunday sales of wine and hard liquor are permitted, coupled with decontrol, many smaller stores could be damaged further, said Smith.

Previously, only beer sales have been permitted on Sunday. "I wished they'd stop all sales on Sunday. The Sabbath should be a day of rest," said another local liquor store owner. He said ending Sunday sales

Angry citizens organizing to battle rising crime tide

By Mike Olohan

Frustrated by what they call "a lack of police protection," more than 100 Belleville residents, many from Silver Lake, have formed a citizens' organization to protect themselves.

With crime, especially muggings and robberies, continuing despite police "saturation" of Silver Lake, the citizens' association has begun a drive to recruit "block watchers" to keep neighborhoods safe.

Residents gathered in the Moose Lodge on Honiss Street Monday night following a mugging last week on Belmont Avenue in which a teenage girl was beaten by a group of about 10 girls and boys. Several witnesses claimed a police car had left the scene just as they were arriving to help the girl.

Nearly 100 block watchers have signed up with the association, including 45 on Monday, 35 of them contributing at least $5 each to the organization.

Members will soon begin patrolling, and when they do, they want to work with local police, not against them. However, many who spoke Monday seemed to feel police officers might harass them because they are working "undercover" and do not have official approval. When one resident asked if the association would back up a member who got arrested for helping someone in trouble, applause erupted.

Public Safety Commissioner Matthew Pica has urged residents to join Belleville's auxiliary police, but most present Monday thought auxiliary police were merely "targets" and not nearly as effective as patrols of residents in civilian garb.

"All we want to do is help," said the association's vice president, Dick Renna. "We're here to get Silver Lake and Belleville back to the way it was."

Assemblyman Anthony Imperiale, who represents Belleville in the State Legislature, was on hand for Monday's meeting and told residents bluntly. "If you do not stand up now, kiss your neighborhoods goodbye."

He urged residents to get involved rather than just complain. "It's because people kept quiet all this time that we have these problems on the streets," noted Imperiale, who called legislators "hypocrites" for not mandating stiffer criminal penalties. Imperiale has become famous for his own anti-crime organization in Newark's North Ward, adjacent to Silver Lake. While he is a hero in his

Water use mounting

Belleville's water conservation effort continues to decline, and local water monitor Steve Vogel believes state officials should be offering a carrot as well as a stick to induce people to save.

This week's reading showed the town using 21 percent less water than in October, shortly after the state conservation mandate was first imposed. That figure is nearly a 4 percent drop from last week's 24.9 percent, and unlike the rain, the savings rate has been falling steadily now for weeks.

Vogel thinks the funds raised through surcharge fines should be given back to towns like Belleville to hold down local water rates. That

DeWitt Savings exec honored for Home Loan appointment

Henrik Tvedt, president and chief executive officer of First DeWitt Savings and Loan Association, was honored March 24 at a gala dinner party held at the Upper Montclair Country Club. The affair was in celebration of Tvedt's appointment as vice chairman of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board of New York. Over 50 persons attended, including representatives of the financial community. First DeWitt officers and directors and association attorneys.

First DeWitt Chairman John P. Dailey hosted the dinner and, greeting guests, expressed his appreciation and that of the association at having such an unusual and distinctive honor bestowed upon First DeWitt's president.

"Mr. Tvedt brings to this important assignment unique credentials and special financial and administrative talents," Dailey said. "We at First DeWitt are proud of his fine record as a director of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board of New York, as president of our association and as a major contributor to the progress of the savings and loan industry. This new development reflects great credit on him and on our association."

Tvedt's appointment as vice chairman was at the recommendation of Bryce Curry, president of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board of New York. The appointment was approved by John Dalton, chairman of the Federal Home Loan Bank in Washington, D.C.

Tvedt was elected to the board as a director Jan. 1, 1979, by over 60,000 votes from over 200 savings and loans throughout New Jersey.

The board, which comprises the Federal Home Loan Bank System, the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation and the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, is a regulatory body for the 4,000 savings and loan associations throughout the United States and its protectorates. The New York body has supervisory control of 500 associations in New York, New Jersey and Puerto Rico. Tvedt's responsibilities include formulating and directing policies affecting the industry.

Special guests at the testimonial dinner included Curry; William Lewis, deputy commissioner, New Jersey Department of Banking; Edmund Lawlor, president of the New Jersey Savings and Loan League; Leo Montenero, president of West Essex Savings and of the Essex County Savings and Loan League; Clifford Sharkey, president of Monroe Savings and Loan of Newark and former member of the Federal Home Loan Bank of New York.

Lewis, Lawlor and Montenero were accompanied by their wives. Also attending were Tvedt's wife Lillian and their two children, Rick, a student at Seton Hall University, and Colette, a senior at Paul VI High School in Clifton.

One in every two hundred children is born with a heart defect, commonly a hole in the heart muscle. Fortunately, surgeons are able to correct most problems that are serious enough to weaken the heart and deprive the body of oxygen. However, they must first diagnose the children who actually need surgery, usually one in ten. Better screening methods have been developed with the use of x-rays and a harmless dye. In fact, some problems can be diagnosed during pre-natal examinations. Surgeons can generally find and correct serious problems quickly.

Kidney transplant Tuesday for twins

A Belleville college student will donate a kidney to his twin brother in a transplant operation at St. Barnabas Medical Center in Livingston this Tuesday.

Tony Cordaro, an Upsala College senior studying to become a doctor, elected to give up his small kidney after tests showed his brother, Salvatore, has two malfunctioning kidneys. Because they are identical twins, chances for the success of the Cordaros' transplant operation are very good.

A goalie for the Upsala soccer team the past four years, Tony has been in the hospital before for treatment of a concussion and a broken face bone suffered in athletic competition. This is his first surgery, however. His brother has also been active athletically, teaching martial arts and jujitsu.

Sal's kidney ailments came to light in January when he complained of weakness, dizziness and loss of appetite. Tests were made and the malfunctions were discovered. It was then that Tony offered one of his kidneys. He subsequently passed medical tests and doctors approved the transplant.

The surgery will occur just 10 days after Tony takes his medical school examination. Performing the transplant will be Doctors Dennis Filipone, Patrick Chang and Herbert Lieb.

The 22-year-old brothers are the sons of Vincent and Rosalia Cordaro of 20 Lincoln Terrace. They have three other brothers, John, 20, a sophomore at Upsala, Frank, 14, and Mario, 13. The donor and the donee are graduates of Belleville High School.

Each will spend about three hours in the operating room, Tony beginning at 9:15 a.m. and his brother at 10:30. Tony will be in the hospital for about three hours weeks and Sal longer.

Tony will graduate from Upsala at its September commencement, making up missed courses during the summer. Sal attended Fairleigh Dickinson University and the New Jersey Institute of Technology. Until his illness, he had been a beer distributor.

A correction

The Times inadvertently omitted a line of important information from the campaign advertisement for Ernie Zoppi appearing on page 10 of last week's edition.

At the bottom, the ad should have read: "Paid for by: Grace Purdue, 171 Garden Ave., Belleville, N.J. & Felix Linfante, 303 Division Ave., Belleville, N.J."

The Times regrets any inconvenience the error may have caused.

Brotherly Love — Sal Cordaro holds a kidney model as his twin brother Tony looks over his shoulder. Tony, who is studying to become a doctor, will donate a kidney to his identical twin in a transplant operation Tuesday.

Buy Loan Sell Jewels & Gems

by Lou Cicienia

Unlike other gemstones, opals are not crystalline but amorphous, a dehydrated jelly of silica. This brilliant stone can, at its best, offer up all the colors of the rainbow. At formation, the silica shrink and form tiny cracks. It is these cracks which refract light and produce the colorful oil-on-water effect. Opals are very delicate and proper caution should be exercised in their wear. Being porous, they will absorb oil and dirt which only serve to reduce the gem's lustre. It is the birthstone of Scorpius (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21), and has attributed the power of Mercury to lead its possessor into strange unknown realms.

At CHARLES JEWELERS, 163 Washington Ave, Belleville, we offer one of the largest selections of fine jewelry and can give you our expertise of 34 years in designing that "special" piece of jewelry. We also offer a pawnbroker service whereby we can provide instant loans on jewelry, precious stones and metals. Whether you want to buy or sell, at CHARLES JEWELERS we can fill your need. Police warn of solicitors

Police Chief George Lister has warned Bellevillites to be careful about making donations to bulletproof vest funds.

"It has recently come to the attention of the Belleville Police Department that individuals are soliciting financial contributions from local citizens and merchants for the purchase of bulletproof protective vests for unspecified law enforcement personnel," Lister said in a statement. "These solicitations are done both in person and over the telephone. The Belleville Police Department would like to advise all citizens of the town that such solicitations are not sponsored by, approved by or authorized by the Belleville Police Department."

Lister noted that all Belleville policemen are now equipped with bulletproof vests. A highly successful citizen drive to raise money for the protective garments ended early in 1980.

Silver Lake

The Silver Lake section of Belleville, at the southwest corner of town, is experiencing bad times. Crime is on the march.

Two rapes within a few weeks have served to galvanize the neighbors into action. Concluding that present police protection is inadequate to suit their needs, neighbors have organized to create their own crime watch. The circumstances there, involving the emotions of people as they have, require the emergency attention of our town fathers.

Public Safety Commissioner Matthew Pica is encouraging neighbors to join the police reserves in order to provide more bodies for area police protection.

This measure is good as far as it goes — but it does not go far enough. There is no measure that beats law enforcement like the cop on the beat. Four foot patrolmen should be added immediately to the police rolls to walk the streets of Silver Lake. We have an emergency. Our people are troubled. The problem of crime will not go away. It is here to stay. Whatever the cost in money, one must remember when people are afraid to walk the streets of the neighborhood, that is cause for greater alarm than the expenditure of public funds.

The people of Belleville are to be protected at any cost — and we would bet our last nickel, public support for more police expenditures would be forthcoming.

The county strike

There seems to be no end to the bitter struggle between a county employees' union and Essex County Executive Peter Shapiro. It has been almost two years that negotiations have been carried on between the two parties — with no end in sight. In the meantime, County Executive Shapiro has granted a 5 percent annual raise to the employees involved — an increase similar to that granted to other employees.

A hitch apparently stems from incremental increases. Shapiro contends his latest offer met the request of the union members.

Regardless of the negotiation impasse, there is no justification for the recent violence, which included a number of fires apparently set in the Essex County Hall of Records, where Shapiro holds forth.

Unfortunately, the violence stems from members of the union — one could hardly accuse Mr. Shapiro of contributing to violence.

There are many times when we thought Peter Shapiro was wrong. There are some times when we think he is right. This is one instance where no one can fault Peter Shapiro. The blame for the violence is at the doorstep of the union members. It is time for a settlement — a peaceful settlement — in a peaceful way. Violence gains nothing for anyone.

Shapiro wants to extend to the county employees the same set of benefits that other county employees enjoy. What's wrong with that?

BHS, NHS students take steps to build a friendly relationship

To the Editor:

Several weeks ago, nearly a dozen students from both Belleville High School and Nutley High School took part in a student exchange program. To those unfamiliar with this type of program, a student exchange involves students from one school visiting with students from a neighboring school during an actual class day to observe how the school functions and to gain a little insight into student life at the school. A member of the visiting school is taken on tour by a student from the host school and then follows that student's daily schedule. Each school takes turns hosting students.

The student exchange between BHS and NHS proved to be highly successful. Participants from both high schools found the students they visited to be friendly and cooperative. Differences between the two schools were noticed and discussed, with this information enabling students from each school to learn how they could possibly make changes for the better in their own schools.

In the past, much has been made of "unfavorable" incidents between the two neighboring schools while worthy and productive events have gone unnoticed. Hopefully, through programs such as the student exchange, it will be demonstrated to people that Belleville and Nutley students can communicate with each other.

Sincerely yours,
Michael Calabrese, President
BHS Student Government Organization
Sue Foote, President

Town shouldn't drop out of mental health agency

To the Editor:

As a Belleville taxpayer, I feel it would be a grave injustice for the citizens of Belleville to be denied the services that are available through the Community Mental Health Agency. The agency offers a full-time psychologist, a psychiatrist 20 hours per week, a nursery for emotionally disturbed children and a program that helps newly released patients from mental hospitals.

Where else can we have an agency that offers so much for everyone in the community?

Why should we, the citizens of Belleville, settle for less?

I for one know through personal experience that the Mental Health Agency and the people involved can and do make a difference for our town.

Thought for today

What makes life worth the living
Is our giving and forgiving;
Giving tiny bits of kindness
That will leave a joy behind us,
And forgiving bitter trifles

That the right word often stifles,
For the little things are bigger
Than we often stop to figure.
What makes life worth the living
Is our giving and forgiving.

Senior Notes

By George Chenoweth

True feelings surface in times of need for others. The money collected at the Belleville Senior Citizens' Club meeting for the Italian Earthquake Relief Fund amounted to over $400 and the collection for the Atlanta Save the Children Fund taken up at the March 24 meeting came to $168 and was supplemented with $32 from the club treasury.

We can be justly proud of our group of senior citizens for being so responsive to these worthwhile causes. Contrary to popular belief, seniors are not always on the receiving end of charity and they show real concern when other age groups are in trouble.

We have to wonder what right filmmakers and producers have to set the moral standards of the country. I believe that each individual has to decide as to what is good for him, and what I see in the movies and on some television shows is not good for me. I can still make up my own mind and if not happy with what is considered normal, everyday television fare, I can just boycott the products and services that are advertised on these programs. I can also show my displeasure by not buying any other products manufactured and/or sold by the same advertisers.

How far will one small voice be heard? Probably a very short distance. Far be it from me to try to set moral standards for others, but in talking to groups of our peers, the consensus is that people of our age are terribly disappointed with most presentations on television. Movies? Forget it! There is a movie theater in Essex County that has a showing once a month for senior citizens at a matinee for the low costs of 50 cents. Well I thought I would give it a try and because of the filthy dialogue in the picture, I walked out about halfway through. This picture, "Ordinary People," won rave reviews and a few Academy Awards. There is no award for gutter words, but if there were, this picture would have won hands down. Some people, who have stated that it is not unusual to hear this kind of language used in everyday conversation, suggested that if you don't care for a movie, don't go, and as for a television program, turn to something else. What if they are all like that? What does one do then?

Most seniors stay home nights and watching television is the only form of entertainment that they have. If the violence and exploitation of sex as seen on many programs are any indication of true-life happenings, then God help us all!

St. Peter's to hold Mass of anointing

A special Mass of anointing for persons who because of their conditions might not ordinarily get to p.m. Sunday, April 26, at St. Peter's Church, 152 William St.

The Mass will fulfill the Sunday obligation. St. Peter's is asking parishioners to bring along any transportation is needed, an effort will be made by the parish to provide it.

Junior Women to hold dinner tomorrow night

The Junior Woman's Club of Belleville will sponsor a fish and chips dinner tomorrow at Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church, 444 Union Ave.

JoAnn Braniff is chairman of the event, and the dinner is being prepared by Thistle's of Kearny. Take-outs will be available in addition to dine-ins, and beverages and dessert will also be served.

Tickets are $4.75 for adults and $2.50 for children. Reservations may be made for groups. For tickets, contact any club member or call Mrs. Braniff at 759-2534.

The Juniors recently held a social meeting at the clubhouse, 51 Rossmore Place, under the direction of Annabel Nardachone. The program featured Mary Springer of the Belleville Health Department who explained the many services of the town. Following her talk, Det. Barbara Wallace of the Essex County Sheriff's Department spoke to members about assaults on women.

The New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs' regional music festival for Juniors was held March 27 at Nutley High School. The event was hosted by the Nutley club under the direction of Marie Vicarelli.

The Asbury Park Juniors won first, with second a tie between the Nutley and Maplewood Juniors. Clifton was third.

Eighth District music chairman Denise Lande of the Belleville Junior Woman's Club attended as did Mrs. Nardachone, Pam Van Holland, JoAnn McGough, Mrs. Braniff, Georgeann Ventola, Janet Pickover and Barbara Spillane, the state Junior director and a member of the Belleville club.

The club is open to women 18 to 35. For information, call Mrs. Braniff at 759-2534.

Health symposium set for April 18 at Upsala

Professor Carolyn Thorburn of Belleville will lecture of the physiological effects of fasting 12:15 p.m. Saturday, April 18, as part of a health symposium being held at Upsala College, East Orange.

The workshop will start 9:30 a.m. in the college chapel on Prospect Street. Lectures on how to prepare nutritious fast foods, inexpensive entrees and desserts, and on beauty and rejuvenation will also be presented. The main theme of the program is that good-tasting, nutritious food need not be expensive.

The symposium is sponsored by the Rachel Carson Health & Ecology Club at Upsala College. For more information, call 266-7247 or 923-8644.

INTEREST, FINANCE CHARGES DEDUCTIBLE

by H&R Block

According to H&R Block, the tax preparation firm, if a taxpayer purchases property on the installment plan, the interest payments can be deducted if they are separately stated or can be definitely determined and proved.

For example, if you have bought personal property such as clothing, jewelry, furniture, appliances, etc., on a store's revolving charge account, there is usually a separately stated finance charge. This amount is deductible as an itemized deduction on your tax return.

If you are a credit card customer, you also may deduct as interest the finance charges which you pay that are based on the unpaid monthly balances.

Amounts that are designated finance charges charged to your bank account under a bank credit card plan also are deductible as interest if no part of the charge is a service charge, loan fee, credit investigation fee or similar cost.

H&R Block points out the same tax rule applies to interest charged on payments to an institution of learning for tuition and lodging.

Views On Dental Health

JACK BUDNICK, D.D.S.

FETUS FACTS

If you are a typical mother, don't ask where you went wrong if your infant is a thumbsucker. You are completely innocent. Thumbsuckers are born, not made. Medical pictures of the fetus show that many babies are already well into the habit of thumbsucking by the seventh month in the uterus. In fact, all kinds of preparations are going on before birth to get baby's mouth ready for its complex tasks.

Did you know that teeth are already beginning to form in the growing fetus just three months after conception? Indeed, some parts of the 20 primary teeth, (also called baby teeth) can be recognized at this early stage. Even tiny pieces of the first permanent molars are growing. The rest of the permanent teeth wait until right after birth to start forming inside the gums.

Sometimes, shortly after birth, parents or physicians may notice little white spots on the upper palate (roof of the mouth). These are little keratinized structures (keratin is a tough, fibrous protein found in nails, hair and teeth). They are not significant and normally will disappear in 10 to 14 days.

A public service to promote better dental health. From the office of: DENTISTRY FOR CHILDREN, P.A. 562 Kingsland Street, Nutley.

The Belleville Junior Woman's Club will sponsor a four-mile walk-a-thon for the Multiple Sclerosis Association of Essex County Sunday, May 3. The charity walk will begin at the Pathmark store on Belmont Avenue and end at the new Pathmark center on Washington Avenue.

The walk will begin 1 p.m. Refreshments will be served upon completion. The association plans to build a therapy center in Belleville, and proceeds will go toward the its building fund campaign.

Leaflets detailing plans for the walk will be passed out in the schools this month. For more information, call 751-4348.

BHS students will hear lecture on energy crisis

Upsala College chemistry professor David McGuire will address Belleville High School students on the energy crisis tomorrow at 12:20 p.m.

Dr. McGuire, an Upsala faculty member since 1967, was one of 14 college professors in the United States selected to participate in a faculty institute on water pollution at the Argonne National Laboratory near Chicago. He also gave testimony on coal conversion facilities before a committee of the Pennsylvania State Senate.

McGuire, who formerly taught at Rider College in Lawrenceville, earned a bachelor of science degree from St. Vincent College in 1957 and a doctorate at the University of Pittsburgh in 1964. As a post-doctoral fellow at the Brookhaven National Laboratory in 1964, he continued his research in the area of non-aqueous solution chemistry. McGuire is a member of the American Chemical Society, the American Association of University Professors and the executive committee of the New Jersey Association of Faculty.

Dr. David McGuire

Dance subject for next week

Denise Lande, director of the Belleville Academy of Theatre and Dance, will present the program, "Dance for the Pre-School Child," at the Public Library this coming Tuesday and Thursday at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Lande, who danced with the Seranton Ballet Guild for five years, has studied both tap and ballet under master dance instructors in Pennsylvania and New York. A member of the Association of Dance Teachers of New Jersey, she has also taught tap and ballet in Pennsylvania.

Chamber Easter treat

The Chamber of Commerce is offering Belleville shoppers hams for Easter. Several local businesses have coupons available. One name will be drawn at each business this coming Thursday, April 16. Each winner can then collect a ham at the Belmont Avenue Pathmark.

Participating businesses are Jolly Cleaners, Serafino Printing Company, Sherman's Children's Wear, Charles Jewelers, Walcovering Direct and Tarantino's Restaurant.

Mayor endorses Roe's candidacy

Belleville Mayor Michael Marotti was one of three municipal leaders from Essex County to endorse Rep. Bob Roe for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination last week.

"Bob Roe is a man of his word," said Marotti in a statement. "He understands the needs of the citizens of Belleville. His experience as a former member of Governor Hughes's cabinet and as a six-term United States congressman, in addition to having served as mayor of Wayne and as director of the Passaic County Board of Freeholders, makes Bob Roe the most qualified candidate for governor in both major political parties here in New Jersey.

"I am asking all my friends and constituents to go out and work hard to make sure Bob Roe is nominated for governor in the Democratic primary on June 2," Marotti concluded.

The mayor's formal endorsement followed the opening of Roe's Essex County headquarters Friday night at 137 1/2 Washington Ave. He was joined in his endorsement by Irvington Mayor Robert H. Miller and Orange Mayor Joel L. Shain. "I am buoyed by the recent endorsement statements of Mayors Miller and Marotti," said Shain, named chairman of the statewide Mayors for Roe Committee, "and I expect that the initial swells of enthusiasm will translate into a tidal wave of support for our candidate, Congressman Bob Roe, both here in Essex County and throughout the state."

Imperiale encourages association formation

neighborhood, some critics charge him with being a vigilante.

Imperiale said rather than harassing neighborhood kids for loitering, local police should "watch for the 'cool dudes' with sneakers by Pathmark," a line that evoked muffled laughs.

He said citizen patrols will keep troublemakers on the lookout and "warn the enemy that if they come into the area looking for trouble, they're going to get it."

The group's first patrols began last month, with several cars out at various hours, especially at night. One resident predicted Monday crime would drop drastically if the patrols continued regularly, adding the big question would be whether residents quickly lost interest in the organization after crime had decreased.

Imperiale told patrol volunteers not to be discouraged by harassment or be intimidated by the possible charge that the association is a "vigilante squad." Let the name-caller complain to crime victims who have suffered because no one helped when help was needed, said Imperiale.

He said everyone "dies a little bit" with each crime that occurs in a neighborhood, and added that conventional law enforcement was all but powerless. "The hands of the police have become tied," said Imperiale.

"Sign up and stick together," advised Imperiale.

Renna said any resident wishing to join the organization or feeling the need for protection while making a "necessary" trip in town could call the association at 759-9732. He said the association would meet again in two weeks to plan an expanded "block watch" program.

Born in Belleville, Mr. Ciccarella moved to Nutley 16 years ago from Montclair.

Surviving are his wife, Antoinette; a daughter, Mrs. Frances Hansen; three brothers, Dominick, Richard and Michael; a sister, Miss Maria; a brother, Samuel, and four grandchildren.

The Caggiano Memorial, Montclair, made arrangements. Interment was in Immaculate Conception Cemetery, Montclair.

GRAND UNION Double Coupons!

All this week in Belleville and North Arlington Grand Unions.

How many manufacturer's "cents off" coupon (on brands and sizes we carry) will be redeemed for double savings. For example, if the coupon gives you 50¢ off, Grand Union gives you double value or $1.00 off. (Because of the current market conditions on the supply of coffee, and to insure every customer a fair share, we are limiting our double coupon coffee redemptions to one container of coffee per shopping family. Coupons for additional coffee purchases will be redeemed at face value.) This offer does not apply to Grand Union, or free, or any retailer coupons, or where the total will exceed the price of the item. (Cigarette and milk coupons prohibited by law.)

Offer expires Saturday, April 11

Tensfeldt, a senior at Stevens Institute of Technology, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tensfeldt of Belleville and a BHS graduate. He is a member of the KHODA Honor Society, the Student Review Board, the Society for Biological Studies

A correction

A caption appearing last week under a picture from the BHS senior class play, "Godspell," was in error. The caption, slugged "Singed-Out Sinner," incorrectly identified a cast member as Marianne Scarpelli. The actress was actually Catherine Danchak.

Family night April 23 at Belleville Public Library

The Belleville Public Library is sponsoring a family night 7 p.m. Thursday, April 23, featuring Bob Conrad. A man with many talents, Conrad is known as one of the most versatile performers in the field of children's entertainment.

Using a uniquely different kind of ventriloquism, he creates fascinating personalities out of hats, slippers, paper plates and most any kind of material at hand.

The father of six children,

Conrad has an insight into the things children like, and he tries to satiate those likes with his music, magic, puppetry and ventriloquism.

In the entertainment business over 20 years, he is a member of the American Federation of Musicians, Puppeteers of America, the Society of American Magicians and the Society of American Ventriloquists.

For free tickets to Conrad's April 23 show, visit the library at 221 Washington Ave. or call 759-9200.

Town considers drilling its own two wells

Belleville may soon begin tapping two wells for both fire protection and drinking purposes.

That's the word from Fire Chief George Sbarra who is hopeful residents may soon have alternate supplies of water should New Jersey's drought worsen during the summer.

"It isn't too expensive if we want to do this," said Mayor Michael Marotti, who complimented Sbarra on discovering the two prospective well sites.

Commissioners decided in January to find out whether drilling wells in Belleville would be worthwhile, and agree that having two extra sources of water can't hurt, especially with rainfall still below normal.

Before the wells are drilled, the town will first have to get the permission of the property owners — a local company and the Essex County Parks Department.

About 33 wells, most owned by industries, are now being operated locally, with some businesses having two or three wells on their property, according to Tom Longo, Belleville's health officer.

Longo said his department hadn't inspected any of the wells to determine if the water is drinkable or "potable," but "if an emergency situation arose, we have a list of four to five labs in the area and we'll have a sample back in two to three days," he said.

Clara Maass Memorial Hospital has its own well, monitored daily by chemists on staff and could switch over immediately to it should water be cut off or drastically curtailed, said Longo. The Geriatrics Center does not have its own well, however.

Most local industries use wells to cool off their machinery, or for other temperature control needs, and don't use them for drinking purposes.

"We've asked companies to see if their water's potable. The (cost) could become very expensive for us to check them, and even if we did, they could become contaminated in the meantime," noted Longo. He said a list of well locations would be kept by his department, along with the Fire and Public Works Departments.

Longo said he didn't think too many residents have their own wells, mainly because the cost is prohibitive. Drilling companies say an average well, with pumps, storage tanks and plumbing, costs in the range of several thousand dollars.

Before a homeowner can have a well drilled, he must get a permit from the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection, which has been very reluctant to give any permits out. However, Marotti doubts if any homeowners will go to the trouble and expense of drilling their own wells since Belleville may soon tap two of its own.

Zoppi, Fornarotto are scheduled to meet in Municipal Court today

Board of Education President Ernie Zoppi and resident Joe Fornarotto will appear in Municipal Court at 9 a.m. today to face assault and battery charges each filed against the other following a fight two weeks ago.

Also appearing before Judge Edward Abromson this morning will be Zoppi's 27-year-old son, Ernie III, who has brought charges against Fornarotto and who has had charges lodged against him by the town critic.

The scuffle broke out after the March 23 School Board meeting. Fornarotto and Zoppi had done some verbal sparring only moments earlier. Exactly who threw the first punch was unclear, though both Zoppi and his son ended up on top of Fornarotto on the floor.

Zoppi and Fornarotto have long been public antagonists, and their disagreements over school policy have been aggravated by Fornarotto's sometimes abrasive manner and Zoppi's angry reaction to it.

Zoppi made a clear effort to restrain himself at the March 23 meeting, simply looking down and shaking his head as Fornarotto shouted allegations and personal insults. Fornarotto continued at length, making sure Zoppi knew exactly what he thought. Following the calmer comments of several other citizens, the meeting ended. Zoppi then asked Fornarotto to discuss something with him outside in the hallway to which Fornarotto replied, "You want me to step outside, Mr. Zoppi, I'll step outside."

Moments later, a ruckus was heard in the outside hallway, with several men running from the room to break up the fight. Ernie III, Zoppi's heavy, muscular son, was pulled from on top of Fornarotto. By then, Zoppi was on the floor to the side of both his son and Fornarotto.

Following the scuffle, Zoppi kept his re-election campaign low-key, and only in an election advertisement last week did he even seem to allude to the fight. "Certainly, these are troubled times with emotions running quite high. Yet one thing is clear, I have always been and will continue to be dedicated to our community's greatest asset — our children," read the ad.

Trustee Anthony D'Agostino called the fight "very unfortunate" and wondered whether it would affect the board's credibility.

"I'd like to have a policeman at our meetings," said Trustee Tom Zampino. "It's a sad commentary, but it's a necessity to avoid further confrontations."

Trustee John DiStasi disagreed. He didn't think a policeman would be necessary at meetings, but added the fight would be a "setback" to establishing community credibility. "I think we can conduct ourselves in a civil manner. The best thing to do about this is forget it. Just forget about it. It happened in the flare of emotion and it doesn't do anybody any good to follow it up," he said.

DiStasi said he would "probably resign" if he ever had a fight with a citizen over board business. "I was appalled and shocked at such a thing happening," he said.

Water conservation is declining steadily swimming pools, but no one has yet agreed to pay the state's water surcharges to have a pool filled. He has suggested people wait until late May or early June before deciding to fill a pool, but some believe the state's Water Emergency Task Force might end pool filling if water again becomes extremely scarce.

The surcharge for filling a pool would be $5 for each of the first three 750 gallons, or $15 for 2,250 gallons, and then $10 for every 750 gallons thereafter. That equals about $185 for a 15,000-gallon pool.

Before filling a pool, an owner would be required to notify Vogel in advance so a meter-reader could read the meter before and after the pool is filled.

"It's a gamble either way," noted Vogel, referring to either filling a pool now or waiting. "If you wait until later, we might get some rain," he said.

"A lot of people complaining about the pools don't know people are going to be paying a surcharge if they want to fill them," emphasized Vogel.

No local surcharges for any sort of violation have yet been mailed out, said Vogel, adding he was awaiting an okay from Mayor Marotti and Finance Commissioner Joseph McGreevy before sending any out.

Two weeks ago, the State Department of Environmental Protection ordered Belleville to begin fining water abusers.

In the latest period measured, from March 31 to April 7, the town used 3,468,700 cubic feet of water, an average of 495,529 a day and a savings of 132,125 cubic feet over last October's readings.

Drive for retarded starting tomorrow

The Belleville Knights of Columbus will conduct their annual fund-raising drive for retarded and learning disabled children tomorrow through Sunday. Volunteers will be canvassing neighborhoods soliciting donations.

Grand Knight Frank Corbo and past grand knight Tom Dillon are appealing to those who cannot assist the drive in person to send donations c/o Retarded Drive, Knights of Columbus Hall, 94 Bridge St., Belleville, N.J. 07109.

One of the beneficiaries of the drive is the Mal Condon Canteen which opened Sept. 19, 1979, and is now run twice a month at the council hall. Retarded persons dance, listen to music and participate in arts and crafts programs.

Other contributions are made to Boy Scout Troop 964, a special unit for the mentally handicapped, and to Camp Fatima, run by the Sisters of St. Joseph. The camp is run free for the retarded. Nurses are on duty constantly while the camp is in operation and doctors are on call free. Over the years, youngsters who would have been completely helpless have learned to be more self-reliant at Camp Fatima.

Churches curtailing confession schedule

Catholic churches in Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley have decided not to schedule confessions during the period beginning with the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday and continuing through Good Friday and Holy Saturday.

"Ample opportunity will be given to our people to receive the sacrament of reconciliation before the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday so that all can participate fully in the three most sacred days of the year," said Msgr. John M. Byrne, pastor of St. Peter's Church.

Msgr. Byrne pointed out that "this is in keeping with the sense of the restored liturgy of Holy Week and approved by the National Council of Bishops." A communal penance service is scheduled at St. Peter's 8 p.m. this coming Tuesday in addition to regularly scheduled confessions. A communal service will also take place at Holy Family Church the same night starting 7:30.

Athlete of Month — Dawn the Enforcer

Dawn Ritacco is a special type of athlete. She puts all of her strength and dedication into everything she does, and thanks to her hard work, the Belleville High girls' basketball team enjoyed the same fine season the softball squad can look forward to now that the tall senior has moved from the court to the out-field.

Ritacco is the Belleville High School Athlete of the Month for March. Even though she didn't play on a competitive level during much of the month due to the gap between seasons, her efforts throughout the girls' basketball campaign should not go unnoticed.

Dawn had a super season for the girls' hoop squad. She averaged 14 points a game and pulled down 14 rebounds per outing. She was a model of consistency and hard work. Dawn improved her skills so much during her three-year career that many believe she is now just starting to reach her peak in basketball.

Ritacco, a 6-0 center, played against some tough opponents, no one tougher than Nutley's Tracy Dixon, an all-Essex player this past season whom many felt should have been all-state.

It was Ritacco's great defense that led her squad to a big victory over the Maroon Raiderettes and in the process, handed Coach Karen Fucello her 100th career victory. However, Dawn's talents go beyond the basketball court. She is also a first-rate softball player. To top that off, she's just a great person to know.

Ritacco was an excellent team leader this past season. She knew exactly what to say to her teammates to ease the tension of a tough game or to make them forget a difficult loss. Her easy-going sense of humor made her a pleasure to be around and her steady, determined play made her a pleasure to watch on the court.

Dawn played some physical games but one that she'll never forget is the battle against Union's giant centers. Union had three girls over the 6-0 level and Ritacco had the chore of fighting for rebounds against them all. When one of them got into foul trouble, Dawn trotted downcourt and said, "That's one gone."

Perhaps Karen Fucello said it best when the season ended: "Dawn is going to be very difficult to replace, not only for her physical talents, but her leadership which is also something that will be sorely missed. She was always a pleasure to coach."

Dawn's many achievements during the 1980-81 season included being named the Most Valuable Player of the Essex County Holiday Tournament last December in Livingston. She also led the team to an important victory over Passaic in early January with a career-high 34 points.

Perhaps her biggest single accomplishment on the varsity level, though, was the win against state-ranked Kearny late in the season at Belleville High School. In early January, the Buc girls had traveled to Kearny and come away with an embarrassing 69-42 loss. As soon as the game ended, Ritacco vowed that her club would gain vengeance. "We'll get them when they come to Belleville," she said.

Sure enough, one month later, the Kards invaded Belleville High School and the girls returned the favor with an upset victory. It was perhaps Dawn's finest moment on the varsity level.

The Ledger last week named Dawn to its third all-Essex team, while she received honorable mention from The Herald News. Even though she was not as highly ranked by the area papers as she might have been, Dawn should be considered all-state by her teammates and fans. Her charisma, enthusiasm and never-say-die attitude have carried over to the softball diamond and next year will carry over to any college that uses Dawn's talent to bolster its basketball program.

Right now in addition to being a member of the softball team, Ritacco is playing AAU basketball and is competing against some of the finest players in the state. She is doing a super job on that team. But that's no surprise, because to tell the truth, nothing less than great things should be expected from Dawn, "The Enforcer."

The NBA playoffs have seen a few surprises. I'm sure that not too many people expected the Houston Rockets to defeat the Los Angeles Lakers in the mini-series. Making the outcome even more unbelievable was the fact that Houston won both games in the best-of-three on the Lakers' home court. The Boston Celtics are leading the Chicago Bulls in their series, the Bulls having earlier dispatched the Knicks who should never have lost. Meanwhile, the Philadelphia 76ers and Milwaukee Bucks are having their usual war. Sorry, Barbara Gundry, but the Boston Celtics will defeat the 76ers for the right to go to the NBA finals this year.

This past Sunday, the New York Giants played the Belleville High School all-stars in a benefit basketball game. Unfortunately, the game was not a big sellout, but the people who did show up were treated to some fun. The Giants won the game 97-90 behind the play of Gordon King, Beesley Reece and Terry Jackson. Wayne "The Train" Bubet led the way for Belleville along with Rocco Marotti.

The proceeds from the game will go toward equipment for the Belleville High media class. In hindsight, it's too bad the game couldn't have been postponed a week or so. Political events going on around town and a teeming rain combined to keep attendance down.

The Belleville High School athlete of the week is Kim Indiero. Indiero has been playing very well in the early stages for the girls' softball team and will be a big factor in the success of this year's club.

The quote of the week award goes to Joe Papisidero, pilot par excellence of the boys' basketball team. Asked if he would play St. Anthony's of Jersey City next year, the coach replied, "I don't think so, their juvvy team is good enough to play in the NBA."

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was, what four teams made the NCAA basketball final four in 1977, and who were the final two that year? The answer: Marquette, North Carolina, North Carolina (Charlotte) and the University of Nevada-Las Vegas. Marquette and North Carolina were the finalists with Marquette winning and sending Coach Al McGuire away to NBC and Medalist Industries with a national title.

For this week's quiz, name the four teams that made the final four in 1979 and the two teams that entered the finals. For a bonus, name the MVP of the tourney and any players from either team now in the NBA.

Belleville diamondmen off to sensational start

Easily win first four

By Debbie Garofalo

The Belleville High baseball team has gotten off to a stupendous start, blasting Montclair in its opener last week 13-2 and going on to defeat Essex Catholic 11-7, North Bergen 7-2 and Our Lady of the Valley by the same score Monday.

The Bucs hosted Barringer yesterday and are at home for a game with East Orange 3:45 p.m. today. The team travels to Passaic for an 11 a.m. contest Saturday and returns home to face Irvington 3:45 p.m. Tuesday.

"We're 3-0 and which I'm very pleased about," said Coach George Zanfini following the North Bergen game here Saturday. "We're gaining that needed experience because we are so young, but the road is going to get a lot tougher as we play the good baseball schools, and the kids are aware of that. An example is that in the three games, we've received 20 walks and you're not going to get that situation against the good baseball teams. We're going to have to start hitting in the clutch," the coach concluded.

Pitching as well as hitting was the key to Belleville's opening win last Wednesday versus the Mounties. Anthony Coco made an impressive showing, giving up two earned runs on just five hits while striking out two. Last year, Coco was mainly a varsity reliever and had a 4-3 record with some spot time starting. This year, he is the staff leader.

Belleville threatened in the first inning but didn't score. Leadoff man Dave Starr got the Bucs' first hit of the season, but Jerry Ross and Frank Fazzini followed with ground-outs to third. Phil Cerza walked but Joe Corbalis flied out to right to end the frame.

The Bucs exploded in the second, though, sending 14 men to the plate and scoring eight runs on five hits, three walks and a sacrifice. Designated hitter Bobby Brave led off with a walk and Kenny Constantino also reached base via a free pass. Mike Forte then sacrificed his way on and Rich Valiente walked in the first run. The real carnage followed, with Starr and Ross singling and Fazzini smacking a double. Cerza and Corbalis also singled and after a pair of strikeouts and another walk, a steal attempt ended the inning.

In the third, the Bucs tacked on another four runs. Starr and Ross walked and Fazzini doubled, Cerza and Corbalis singled. Brave then hit a sacrifice fly to rightfield.

Belleville got its final tally in the fifth inning. With one out, Corbalis Please see "Diamondmen" on page 14.

Oarsmen defeated by Kardinal shells

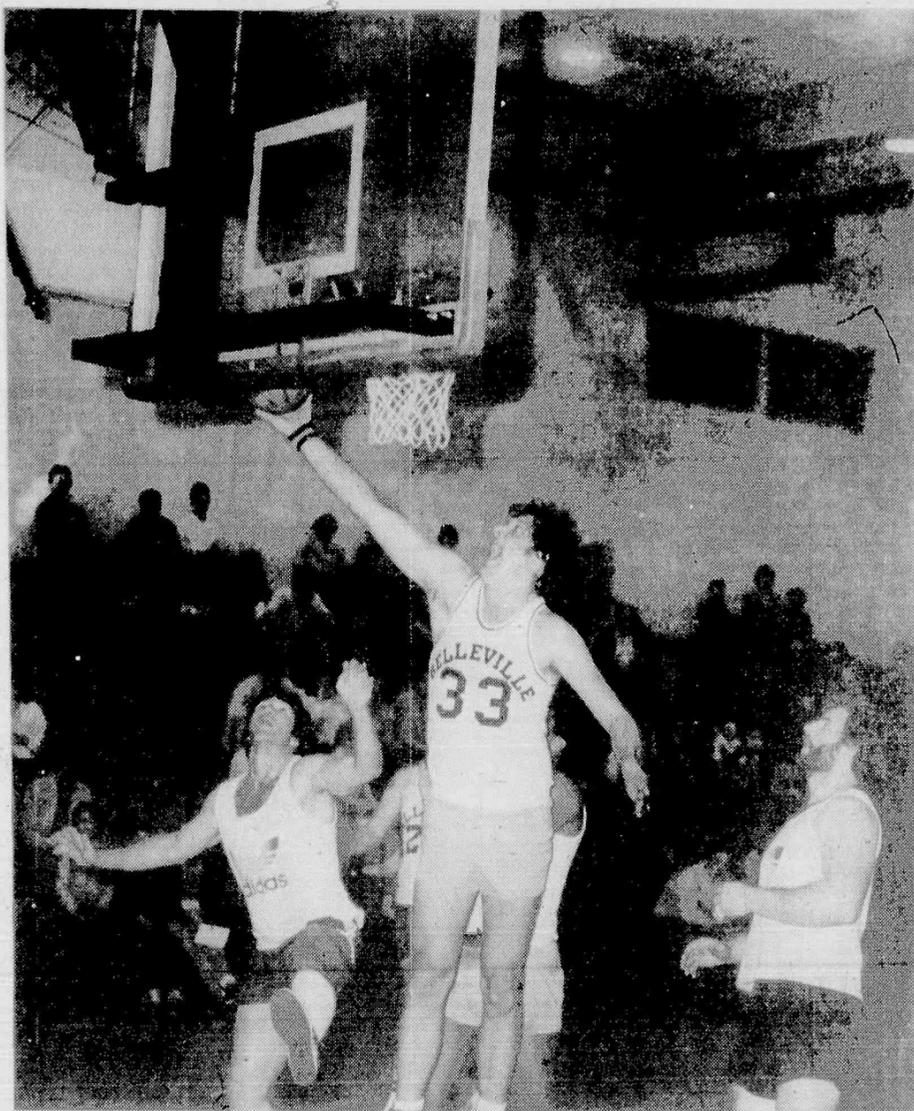

By Rich Leardo

The Belleville crew team suffered a minor setback Saturday, losing to rival Kearny on the Passaic River.

The Bucs' top crew, the senior four, didn't compete because the Kards were unable to field a full shell due to illnesses on the squad. That heat out of the way, the junior four squads went at it, and the Bucs were losers by five seconds because of a few technical errors.

The junior eight team then raced the Kearny senior eight, giving away much in size and experience. However, the Belleville shell was beaten by just two-and-a-half seconds, and it was a race Coach Sam Giuffrida felt his men should have taken. "We were leading at the half-mile mark but we had a few mental lapses," explained Giuffrida. "The stroke went too high for one thing. They were going at a 36 or 37 stroke-per-minute clip, which was well above the 31 or 32 strokes we wanted to be going. The race was lost in the last quarter mile."

Giuffrida was actually pleased to some extent with his junior eight showing, especially since the boat was up against the varsity eight shell from Kearny. "We're a young team, and we need to build up our confidence," said the coach. "The amount of time that we lost by is only the equivalent of one-half of a

Softball team takes pair after losing opener 11-9

By Mike Lamberti

After dropping its opener last Wednesday, the Belleville softball team regrouped to win its next two games, downing Queen of Peace Thursday and Bloomfield Friday.

The girls were at Glen Ridge Monday and travel to Livingston today for a 3:45 p.m. contest. Belleville hosts Lyndhurst 11 a.m. Saturday. Against Montclair in the opener, the team was an 11-9 loser despite a three-run homer by Rosie Leonidis. The girls did not hit the ball well, producing just four hits. Meanwhile, the Mountie women played heads-up ball and capitalized on some Belleville errors to pull out the victory.

"We made some early-season mistakes," admitted Coach Carl Corino. "We also should have had some more hitting, but what can you do?"

Debbie Jinks absorbed the loss. Other than the homer by Leonidis, Belleville could muster just three more hits.

The following day against Queen of Peace, the story was much different. Belleville turned things around completely against the powerful Queenswomen and prevailed 10-5. In this outing, the combined hitting of Kim Indiero, Nancy Coffey and Donna Campana along with the good pitching of Angela Chimento helped Belleville notch its first victory of the young season.

"That was a nice victory for us," said Corino. "The girls played a very good team and were psyched for the game. We were much more prepared for the game than they were and the final score was a good indication."

The Bloomfield game was one that Belleville almost let slip away. The girls jumped out to an early lead but had to hold on as the Bengal ladies made a last-ditch effort that fell short. The Buc girls won 8-7 as Cathy Woods earned the victory and once again Indiero, Campana, Coffey and Tracy Bono led the way in the hitting department.

Bono has been a very pleasant surprise so far this year and the freshman should be one of the best catchers in the area before her career comes to a close. "Bono has been doing a great job," said Corino. "We will be expecting a lot from her and I feel confident that she will be able to fill that mold."

The girls seem to be on the right track now and are working hard for a repeat of that glorious 1980 season.

Track Toss — Dave Grant follows through on his discus throw during the boys' track and field opener Saturday. The Belleville boys and girls were defeated by Nutley. Story on page 15.

Buccaneer golf squad blasts Nutley's linksmen in opener

By Mike Lambert

It's the best-kept secret at Belleville High School. However, like any secret, sooner or later it starts to leak out.

This year could be the one in which the Belleville golf team emerges from the shadows to take its place among the finest teams in the school's history.

Belleville opened up its 1981 campaign with a 15-3 trouncing of Nutley Monday at Forest Hills Golf Course.

Yesterday, the squad tried to improve on its 1-0 record in a match at Irvington. Today, the team travels to Montclair and on Monday will tackle Seton Hall at home.

Coach Rocco Collucci's team downed Nutley despite some subpar scores from Belleville's top players. Ron Wittman fired a 45 for nine holes but still managed to blank his Raider opponent 3-0.

Joe Pontrella, in the second spot, was a 3-0 victor, shooting a 46 for the nine-hole course. Jack Mallack, playing in the third position, shot a 46, and Frank Dunn fired a 47 in the fourth spot. Both Mallack and Dunn were 3-0 victors.

Marty Natale was a 2-1 winner in the fifth position, while Fred Wedekin absorbed the only Buccaneer loss, 2-1.

"The scores were rather high," said Collucci. "However, you must realize that it was very windy last Monday (25 mph breezes) and the guys had to work for their shots. I know we can play better so I'm very confident that the scores will improve. The guys left the match shaking their heads a little bit. The kids like to win, however, they know they can always improve and that's what's important.

Prior to the team's opening match, the linkers were enjoying the warmer weather with some good practices over the last few weeks. Collucci reported that the team was practicing on its own as well as with him and the players are working long and hard on improving themselves.

Looking to next week, the team will battle Kearny Tuesday away and will host Essex Catholic next Wednesday.

doubled, later taking third as Constantino reached on an error by the second baseman. He scored when Billy Cook hit into a fielder's choice.

Coco lost his shutout in the seventh and final frame, giving up a two-run homer.

Frank Fazzini and Roger Lentz divided the pitching chores in the Essex Catholic game played away Friday. Fazzini, a veteran varsity player though he is only a junior, took to the mound for the first time in his baseball career at BHS and did a fair job. In three innings, he gave up four earned runs and five hits and four walks.

Fazzini was relieved during the fourth. Lentz, who was 9-1 with one save last year on the jayvee, pitched well and recorded his first varsity win. He gave up three earned runs on four hits and two walks and struck out two men.

In the second inning, Belleville scored eight runs on four hits, four walks an error and a fielder's choice. Corbalis and Brave started things off with a pair of walks, and after an out, Forte reached on a fielder's choice that allowed the first run to come home. Valiente then walked and Starr singled, hurting his ankle with a slide to first and coming out of the game.

Ross followed with a walk and Fazzini doubled to add to Belleville's mounting lead. Cerza reached on an error by the second baseman that brought in another Buc run, and Brave doubled before the inning was over.

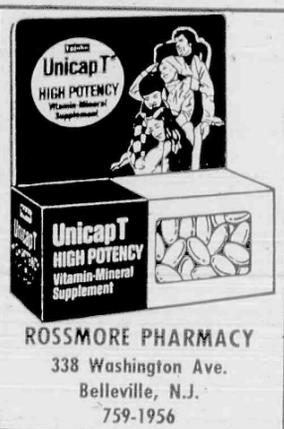

Essex Catholic answered with four runs in the fourth, driving Fazzini from the mound but not from the game as he simply switched to the field. In the bottom of the inning, he got to first on a miscue by the shortstop. Singled by Cerza and Brave resulted in Belleville's ninth run.

With one out in the fifth, Ross tripled and Fazzini singled him in. Cerza's double gave the Bucs run number 11.

Two new varsity pitchers also made their appearances in the North Bergen game here Saturday. Billy Ziemer, who last year had a 3-0 record with one save on the jayvee, pitched three innings and allowed one run on two hits and three walks, fanning two. Eugene Cancelliere threw four innings and gave up just one run. He surrendered three hits, struck out one man and picked another off second.

Brave doubled to lead off the Bucs' three-run first and Ross singled. Fazzini, Cerza, Corbalis and Constantino followed with walks. Belleville added three more runs in the next inning. Brave and Ross singled and Fazzini reached on an error. Corbalis drew a base-on-balls for one run and Coco singled for two.

Forte started the sixth with a single and Brave got another an out later. Ross then walked to load the bases and Cerza got another walk to score the Bucs' final run of the day.

WE CAN GROW GRASS WITHOUT WATER

Even though we're faced with a severe water shortage, a Lawn King program will treat your lawn's problems below the surface where they begin and insure a more vigorous, healthy lawn even during a drought. Our aeration gets to the roots, opens the soil and lets your lawn take advantage of whatever moisture is available. In addition, the chemicals we use are hygroscopic... they draw moisture right cut of the air! That's why we can grow grass without water. No slopes please... if we can't aerate your lawn twice a year, we can't help you.

Here's our program. What you see is what you get. Compare it to any other program and you'll see that either our competition is charging too much or we're not charging enough. Call the King's Men today. Within 10 days we'll service your lawn and leave an invoice based on the square footage. (See chart below for the cost of your chemical application.) At the same time, we'll make a thorough lawn evaluation and analysis and leave you a copy and someone will call to discuss the lawn with you. Sooner or later you're going to call Lawn King. If our lines are busy, as we expect they will be, send in the coupon.

Ailing cinderellas defeated by Raiderette track women

By Mike Lamberti

Larry Jinks wishes that last Saturday could have been rescheduled.

After his girls' track team lost its opener to a powerful group from Madison Thursday, it was beaten by a club from Jinks' former school, Nutley High, 75-47 Saturday. What made that second loss so difficult to take was that Belleville had four runners who did not compete because of illness.

"There's no doubt about it, we would have won that meet had we had a full team," said the disappointed coach. "Nutley is always a squad we would like to defeat and this year I know we could have won."

The Madison meet was a difficult one for the local girls. Madison has one of the better teams in the state and used its superior depth to defeat the Belleville girls.

Barbara Gundry was the only local girl to win a race as she prevailed at 400 meters. Gundry ran away from the pack in a sizzling 67.3 and later placed third in the tough 800 meters in a time of 2:57. Cecilia Graham was second in the 100 meters with a time of 14.3. Graham came back to place third in the high jump with a clearance of 4-6, and she also tied for second in the long jump at 14-8.

Dana Caruso was a second-place finisher in the 800 and 1,500 meter runs. The senior ran the 800 in 2:45.9 and the longer race in 5:38. The mile relay team of Gundry, Franchette Polite, Karen Lordi and Caruso was a winner in a time of 4:43.5. In the field events, Jo Ann Benecchi was the only Buc girl to place, finishing second in the discus and third in the shot put.

Belleville competed in the home meet with Nutley without the services of Graham, Doreen Pennetti and two other runners.

Polite won the 100-meter hurdles in a time of 18.5. Caruso was a winner in the 1,500 and 800 meters with times of 5:36.5 and 2:45.6 respectively. Lauri Bliss took third in the 1,500 and 3,000 meters.

Gundry won her second straight 400-meter race with a clocking of 67.6. Lordi was third at 73 seconds. In the 400-meter hurdles, Polite was first in 86.9, while Linda Navarro was third at 88.5. Tamara Nahar placed second in the 3,000-meter run in 13:52, and Benecchi was second in the shot, discus and javelin.

Polite continued her good work with a third in the long jump and Gundry, who placed third in the half, also came through with a second-place tie in the high jump.

The boys' track team opened its season against Nutley Saturday and lost 97-34. The team did receive first-place performances from Anthony D'Agostino and Anthony Guarino. D'Agostino was a double winner in the discus and shot put, while Guarino took top honors in the javelin.

In the running events, Brian Al-lum was third in the 400 meters, Jim Castelli second in the 100 meters, Angelo Centanni placed third in the 200. Steve Drake took third in the 110 high hurdles, Tom Fuscaldo took third in the 800, Xavier Gonzalez was second in the 400 and Jim Kane closed out the local scoring with a second place in the 1,500 meters.

Red Shingle scores upset in rec basketball playoffs

In the biggest upset of the season, highly ranked Nu-Plas Tavern was soundly beaten by sixth-ranked Red Shingle 82-62 in Men's Recreation Basketball playoff action.

The Red Shingle, playing its best game of the year, put together strong defense and a disciplined offense to take the victory. Mike Dondarski led Red Shingle with 33 points and Mark Venerio chipped in 18. The Red Shingle will meet Chief Motors in semifinal action. Bruce Gardner scored 23 points for Nu-Plas.

Chief Motors put a balanced scoring attack to work to take an 81-68 decision from the Aces. Todd McDougle led Chief with 22 points. Neil Aurecchio hit for 34 for the Aces.

Triple "S" Sports continued its unbeaten streak with a 97-46 victory over BJ's Tavern. Robert Johnson scored 28 points and Ed Jernigan 22 for the winners. Gary Bell had 15 points for BJ's. Triple "S" put nine players in the scoring column. The Sports Shop will meet the Record Shop in semifinal action.

Record Shop, trailing 38-33 at halftime, put together a second-half surge to overtake the Knicks 73-65. Rich Clar's 22 points and Paul Lape's 16 led the Record Shop. Rocco Marotti topped the Knicks with 20 points.

Housewives' Bowling

The Strikers are holding down first place in the Olympic Recreation Housewives' Bowling League. Chasing the Strikers are Marino Excavating, Kayes Nut Shoppe, Keelen-Pica Surveyors, Lombardi Realty, Antonelli Carpets, Two Nuts and a Bolt, Just Us, J&J Barbers and Cedar Hill Oil.

The high team series lead is held by Broadway Car Wash with a 1,531, followed by Two Nuts and a Bolt at 1,511 and the Mini-Pauses at 1,507. Mr. Foamy is tops with a 562 high team game. Cedar Hill Oil has a 555 and the Mini-Pauses a 553.

Andree Morel continues to lead Division A with a high average of 170. Ruth Marino trails with 163 and Nancy Kipikas and Muriel Pica have 156. JoVanna Scarpelli tops Division B with a 138, while Lucille Albanese has a 136 and Nancy Testa a 135. Joyce Lukowiak leads Division C with 123. Eileen Keelen follows with 122 and Sue Caprio 121.

In the high game category, Dixie Tomburol rolled a 234 to top Division A. Andree Morel has a 230 and Ruth Marino 214. Marge Gabriele leads Division B with 200, followed by Diane Lombardi, Ethel Obenauer and Nancie Hamilton, all with 191s. In Division C, Kathy Theis is out front with 185, while Isabel Malcolm has 181 and Eileen Keelen 176.

The Division A high individual series category is led by Ruth Marino with 559, Andree Morel with 551 and Eaelyn Cirillo with 543. In Division B, Marge Gabriele has 491, ahead of Nancy Testa at 481 and Angela Santasiero at 475. Gail Picataggio leads Division C with 435 and Isabel Malcolm with 431 and Sue McCaan with 429 are close behind.

Eileen Keelen rolled a three-game triplicate of 113-113-113.

Crew teams facing Arlington Saturday boat against two Kearny jayvee boats and came out with a split. The first Kearny boat crossed the finish line ahead of the Buc crew by one tenth of a second. Belleville finished 15 seconds ahead of the second Kearny shell.

In the freshmen races, Belleville bested two Kardinal shells, coming in first in the three-way heat. The nearest Kearny boat was one-and-a-half seconds behind the Buc entry.

Coach Giuffrida made the point that his men have progressed well since the start of the season and will be even more improved once they gain a bit more of the intangible element of experience. "We're not going to go through this season thinking we're underdogs in most of our races," he said, "because we have the potential."

This week Belleville travels to Arlington High in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., for a meet on the rough waters of the Hudson. Arlington was beaten by the Bucs last year, but according to Giuffrida, the New York club always presents a tough challenge. "They're a well coached and experienced team," he said, "and this ought to be a test for our kids."

Nanny's, Cottage Tavern winners

The Essex County Tavern League opened play Sunday with two of the six Belleville softball teams emerging victorious.

The two defeated rival Belleville clubs. Nanny's Cafe topped BJ's Tavern 9-3 and Town Cottage bested Freas and Pat's 8-1.

In other action involving local teams, Danny's Inn was beaten 10-3 by Suppa's 917 of Newark and FMBA lost to Nutley Pub 8-3. In two other games, Dapper Dan's of Newark blasted Halftime of Bloomfield 17-4 and Fric and Frac of Newark nailed Waterhole of Bloomfield 7-3.

This Sunday at Belleville Park, FMBA takes on Town Cottage, Freas and Pat's meets Nanny's and BJ's goes up against Nutley Pub in 9:30 a.m. games. At 11, Danny's Inn battles Halftime.

Belleville matmen honored at annual dinner

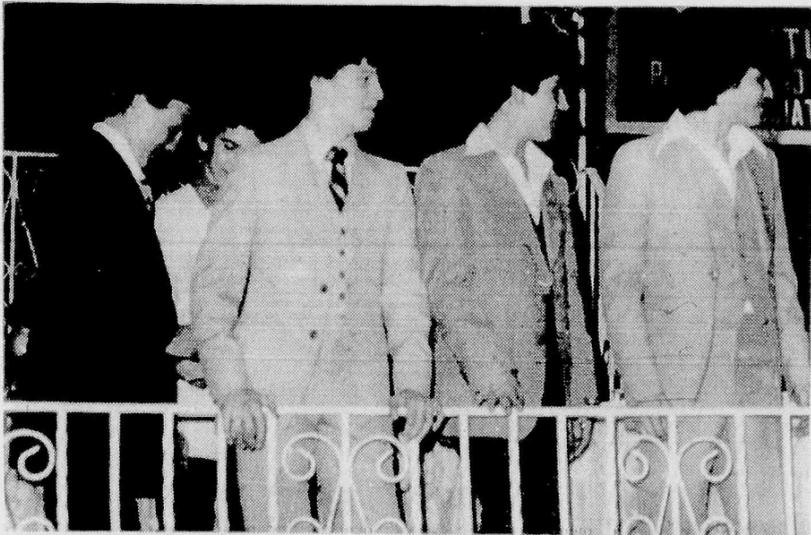

Top Parent — Frosh wrestling coach Dennis Villano and varsity coach Gene D'Alessandro flank Sylvia Lijo who won the Belleville Wrestling Parents and Friends Association's annual award at the March 27 dinner.

The Big Man — Varsity heavyweight Anthony D'Agostino makes his way to the podium. The Buc senior had 18 victories this past season.

Team Applause — John Bucciarelli gets a hand from his varsity teammates as he is introduced. Standing above are Danny Palumbo, Lenny Cardinale, Steve DeCesare, Joe Iacona and Frank Racanelli.

Countdown — Buc 170-pounder Bob Gallagher does some clowning and draws laughs from teammates Danny Palumbo and Lenny Cardinale.

Trophy Shelf — Wrestling Parents and Friends Association President Fred Neri gets the awards ready as Coach D'Alessandro calls out the names.

Season Wrap-Up — Jayvee Coach Joe Nisivocchia recaps the campaign. His Buc team compiled an 8-4-2 record after a rocky start. The frosh, led by Dennis Villano, were 11-1.

Coming Up Next — Jayvee wrestlers Ben Dominguez and George Ritacco pose for the camera. Dominguez, a 170-pounder, was 13-1 this year, while 188-pounder Ritacco went 7-1.

Chief Awards — School Trustee and local businessman Mike Chieffo presented his annual Big Chief Awards to Buc seniors Jim Lombard (129) and heavyweight Anthony D'Agostino.

Mat Couples — Enjoying the annual wrestling dinner are Lenny Cardinale, Gina DeBenedetto, Traci Layaou and Mike Patrizio.

Winning Wife — Terri D'Alessandro beams with a bouquet. Her husband's 13-1 season at the varsity helm was all the more reason to smile.

Blood drive set Tuesday at Belleville High

Benefit Proceeds — Junior High School Mario DiMaggio and Ann DiRuggiero, president of school office personnel, present Joanne Gerst (center) with a check for $2,000. The money was raised at a talent show to benefit Mrs. Gerst, who is suffering from multiple sclerosis.

Bank being established for entire student body

By Gary Carfagno

The Student Government Organization will be sponsoring a blood drive this coming Tuesday from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the Belleville High School auditorium.

Students 17 and 18 years old can donate blood. Seventeen-year-olds must have written permission from a parent or guardian, while 18-year-olds may donate without permission. A person must be at least 110 pounds to give blood.

The drive will set up a blood bank account for the entire student body, and the immediate family of each student donating. The student body and families will be able to make "withdrawals" for one year before their account runs out.

Registration for the drive took place Monday during the lunch periods. The donors will be taken from their classes on the blood drive day and refreshments will be served following the donations.

The North Jersey Blood Center, which is sponsoring the drive, was hoping for a turnout of at least 200 students. That would make an excellent blood account. The bank, located in East Orange, serves many towns in the area, including Belleville. Mr. Vince DeLuca, a Belleville resident and a member of the blood center service staff, is coordinating the drive.

The person most responsible for this great charitable event is Mrs. Pat Pugliese who spent a lot of her time trying to improve the drive. She was assisted by Mr. William Kennelly.

Asked what she thought of the blood drive, junior Valerie Housenick replied, "I think it is mandatory that eligible students volunteer to donate blood. A little loss of blood will not hurt the donor but the help the donor can give to someone who really needs it is worth it."

The Board of Education agreed to help the center in its blood-raising efforts about a month ago, and more drives are possible at Belleville High in the future.

Benefit a whopping success

Contributing — Anne Turano sings "Xanadu" at the March 12 benefit show. Hers was one of 27 student acts on the Belleville High School stage.

Through the efforts of many people, the benefit talent show held on March 12 at the high school was a success. The show went on to help raise money to give to former Junior High School secretary Joanne Gerst, who is suffering from multiple sclerosis.

The talent show featured 27 acts ranging from singing to gymnastic routines. All of the acts were performed by students.

Two thousand dollars was raised and a check was presented to Mrs. Gerst by Junior High School Principal Mario DiMaggio and Ann DiRuggiero, president of the Belleville school personnel office.

Back-Up Men — Eugene Morriello plays the bass as Ronald Hackling, the JHS music teacher who produced the show, plays piano.

Orchestra attends New York session

By Toni Grippaldi

On Thursday, Feb. 26, members of the Belleville High School Orchestra attended an open rehearsal of the New York Philharmonic. Mr. Edwin Black, the high school's orchestra director, and Mr. Frank Scelba, head of the music department, accompanied the students as chaperones.

The rehearsal was held at Avery Fisher Hall in New York City and lasted about two-and-a-half hours, with an intermission.

The piece rehearsed was Mahler's Symphony Number 7, and the conductor was Rafael Kubelik.

Fifth, sixth graders hear health official

The fifth and sixth grade students at School 9 had guest speakers to complement their studies in health education.

Mrs. Springer from the Belleville Health Department spoke to the fifth grade outlining the many services available to Belleville residents.

The sixth grade students listened to a talk given by Sue Nobleman from the National Council on Alcoholism. She also presented a film which emphasized the seriousness of a drinking problem.

Mrs. Nobleman will present a weekly series of lectures on alcoholism to the students.

JHS readers help those born with birth defects

Once again the students at Belleville Junior High School demonstrated their concern for those born with birth defects and their love of reading by making the March of Dimes Reading Olympics a success.

Although every student did not participate, a good majority of them worked very hard to collect the money for the many books they read. The seventh grade class collected over $800 by reading over 400 books. The two top prize winners were Sally Barletta who read over 60 books and Sande Parker who collected $60.

Mrs. Citrino, the sponsor, would like to thank all the students who participated and all those residents of Belleville who gave to the March of Dimes.

'Godspell' helps to defray cost of senior class prom and party

Dance May 29 at The Manor

The Belleville High School class of 1981 will hold its senior prom at the Manor in West Orange on May 29. The cost per couple was set at $60, however, that price was expected to be lowered through support of the senior play, "Godspell."

Profits from the play which ran about two weeks ago will be put toward the prom and the graduation party to be held at The Fountain.

Last year's class made no effort to lower costs and individual students had to pay to attend their own graduation party. With the rise of inflation, this year's party cost will be even higher than last year's total bill of $2,000. The seniors were hoping "Godspell" would be a success and the prom will be a most memorable event for the class of 1981.

Wide variety of lessons for School 5 pupils

Reading Drama — Mrs. DeBenedetto's third grade was transformed into a forest for a dramatization of "The Rabbit and the Wolf." The class stands behind performers Joseph Hyams, Kelly Wilson, Sabrina Caberson, Paul Mastroeni and Maureen Kelleher (kneeling).

Drug Ed — Officer Anthony LaVista of the Belleville Police Department explains various kinds of drug-related material to children from Mr. Mineo's, Mr. Scanzillo's and Mrs. White's sixth grade classes. With him are students Vincent Bocchino, Christine Melillo, Anthony LaVista, Dana Albanese and Anthony Lunetta.

School 10 multi-purpose room has opening

Hundreds take part

A spectacular grand opening party was held last Tuesday evening for School 10's new $250,000 multi-purpose room. The room will be used for assemblies and as a cafeteria and gym all at once.

The opening was attended by hundreds of residents. Parents, school trustees and administrators and other town officials mingled and were treated to a show put on by some of School 10's youngsters.

The school, located on Belleville Avenue near Franklin, is the last in town to have its auditorium converted into a multi-purpose room. The job also included a complete rewiring, new lighting fixtures, some fresh paint and window replacement.

The old auditorium floor was dug up and leveled off to equal stage height before the new steel floor of the stage was constructed. That floor is built above an interweaving puzzle of steel stilts anchored to concrete.

Tuesday the dust and the scattered boards were all gone, and in their place was a shiny new floor and a beautiful room have appeared.

Planners granted consultant funds

jected at $11.9 million for a 37-point hike in the tax rate, but commissioners approved measures Thursday reducing that to 30 points. They took money they had set aside for a town capital improvements fund out of the budget and raised their reserve for uncollected taxes and estimates for anticipated revenues. The Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission had earlier cut its budget, saving the town $104,000 or about two tax points.

The Public Safety Department, which has by far the largest number of town employees, has $4,517,888 budgeted for this year, up $316,181 over 1980. Parks and Public Property is up $94,401 to $991,926, Public Affairs increases $545,268 to $962,425. Finance $382,920 to $890,825 for this year and Public Works $32,484 to $554,348.

Commissioners voted more money for only two specific items Thursday. First, they set aside $10,000 for a special election that would ask residents rather than they wanted to change Belleville's legal status from a town to a township in the hope of acquiring more federal funding. Second, they gave the Planning Board $3,000 more for consultant fees. This followed a plea to commissioners last Tuesday by Board Chairman Joseph Grande and Vice Chairman Joseph Doyle for money to pay Grace Harris of the North Jersey Planning Association. Grande called her work for the board a "benefit to this community," and Doyle said she had become "virtually indispensable," especially since the town's master plan must be finished by December and her help is needed in preparing it.

Liquor store owners not keen on Sundays altogether would "give everybody a fighting chance" since decontrol has hurt many small stores. "You need a little relaxation," he continued, "although I stay open on Sunday to help pay my expenses."

"As long as you're open for beer

(selling), you might as well sell wine and liquor too," said another local liquor proprietor, however. But he doubted sales would increase simply by allowing a variety of liquor to be sold. "I doubt if it would help that much. People would just buy in six days the same amount they would in seven."

THAT'S A FACT

HERO WITHOUT A COUNTRY!
AMERICA'S FIRST GREAT NAVAL HERO, JOHN PAUL JONES, WAS NOT AN AMERICAN CITIZEN! HE WAS BORN IN SCOTLAND, AND SPENT SOME TIME IN AMERICA, BUT WAS NEVER NATURALIZED AS A CITIZEN OF THE U.S.A.!

DO IT YOURSELF!
IF YOU WANT SOMETHING DONE (FOR YOURSELF) BETTER DO IT YOURSELF! IS IT A COLLEGE EDUCATION? A DOWN PAYMENT ON A NEW HOME? SECURITY FOR THE FUTURE? IF THE ANSWER TO ANY OF THESE DREAMS IS "YES" BETTER HURRY AND JOIN THE PAYROLL SAVINGS PLAN AND STOCK UP ON U.S. SAVINGS BONDS! WHY WAIT? NOW IS SURELY THE BEST TIME!

NO TURKEY!
UNTIL THE YEAR 1631 THANKSGIVING DAY WAS CELEBRATED AS A FAST DAY!

THAT'S A FACT

HOW TIMES HAVE CHANGED!
THE FIRST COLLEGE FOR WOMEN OPENED IN SOUTH HADLEY, MASS., AND WAS CALLED MOUNT HOLYOKE FEMALE SEMINARY. ITS STUDENTS PAID $64 PER YEAR FOR TUITION AND BOARD!

IT'S YOUR FUTURE... TAKE GOOD CARE OF IT!
HOW? JUST SIGN UP FOR U.S. SAVINGS BONDS THROUGH THE PAYROLL SAVINGS PLAN OR BOND-A-MONTH EITHER WAY YOU'LL START SAVING AUTOMATICALLY, AND WE DON'T KNOW ANY BETTER WAY TO TAKE GOOD CARE OF YOUR (AND YOUR FAMILY'S) FUTURE.
