DEMOCRATS LOOK STRONG

Mary Senatore gets State Assembly nod

Commissioner Mary V. Senatore, Belleville's Democratic town chairman, was the unanimous choice this week of county party delegates to join incumbent Buddy Fortunato on the November ticket for the New Jersey Assembly.

"It's about time Belleville had representation in Trenton," Mrs. Senatore said. She promised to wage a strong campaign although aides were conceding her winning the Democratic Party nomination was more than half the battle.

She will be running in the newly-defined 30th Legislative District — one obviously created to the advantage of Democrats. Mayor Carmen Orechio of neighboring Nutley, who heads the ticket as the district's state senator, and Buddy Fortunato, a Glen Ridge resident, are confident of victory not only in the primary (should competition develop) but also in the November general election.

Belleville adds a large number of registered Democrats to the 30th District, which is virtually the same one as the old 27th except that the Republican towns of Caldwell and Essex Fells were dumped.

"We're going to go all the way," Mrs. Senatore declared Monday night after possible opposition dropped from contention before the county screening committee.

Monday also saw the GOP nominate legislative candidates including John Kelly, president of Nutley Savings and Loan, who in effect will be the Republican opposing Mrs. Senatore for the Assembly seat. Democrats say Kelly is not well known outside his hometown of Nutley. Kelly has not been involved in Republican politics and in that regard is similar to many of the other persons tapped by the GOP for the new district. Republicans at press time were still hopeful the district might be re-mapped again as a result of a court battle trying to prove Democrats had unfairly used the State Reapportionment Commission to eliminate all Republican strength in Essex.

GOP County Chairman John Renna and the Essex Republicans Monday night kept their distance from reporters at the Town and Campus in West Orange where both the GOP and Democratic organizations met. Democrats opened their session to the press; the Republican did not and when the GOP session broke up, candidates seemed to make special efforts to avoid the press.

The GOP's list of nominees included many unfamiliar names. Those included that of Bloomfield Councilman John Greco who was tapped by Republicans to oppose Orechio for State Senate on the November ballot.

Trenton-Bound? — Commissioner Mary Senatore appears during Monday's Essex County Democratic Committee meeting at which she won the organizational nod as a candidate for state assembly in the 30th District.

Changing the Guard — New School Board President Charles Miele (right) looks on as new Vice President Anthony D'Agostino makes a point. Two new trustees were also sworn in during last week's reorganizational meeting.

Charles Miele is elected as new trustee president

Charles Miele was chosen president and Anthony D'Agostino vice president of the School Board at its annual organizational meeting last Thursday night. The meeting also saw the swearing in of two new trustees, Tom Spillane and Donna Rainone.

"Most of all, I'm looking for harmony," said Miele, who is starting his third year on the board and who had served as its vice president the past year.

Harmony was pretty much what Miele got last week. He was unanimously chosen president, after being nominated by D'Agostino. Spillane had nominated John DiStasi, but DiStasi declined.

DiStasi was nominated for the vice presidency by Trustee Tom Zampino, while D'Agostino's name was placed before the board by Trustee Caesar Romano. DiStasi got his own vote and that of Miss Rainone in addition to Zampino's, while D'Agostino had the support of Spillane and Miele along with Romano. Miele's name came up in the pooling early on, but he chose to cast the final vote, his prerogative as president. At first he abstained but then quickly said, "D'Agostino."

Zampino was then chosen unanimously as trustees' representative to the New Jersey and Essex County School Boards Associations.

The board adopted the same set of rules and regulations that had governed it in the past, though DiStasi, who has been pushing for a new board policy covering conventions, was not pleased. "I feel that there are a number of rules and regulations that are subject to change," he said, and Miele promised that updating of the board's policy manual would be made soon.

A number of statements by board members and school officials followed. School Superintendent John Greed paid tribute to defeated board president Ernie Zoppi, who, he said, "served so well as was illustrated in

Please see "D'Agostino" on page 21.

Commissioners slice school tab

With relatively little haggling, commissioners and school trustees agreed last week to reduce the defeated Board of Education budget by $565,000. All of the money will come out of the capital outlay portion of the budget, and trustees will vote this coming Monday how to use the $436,200 remaining for school repairs and improvements.

The trimming of the $14.3 million budget that commissioners un-will reduce the number of school tax points from 31 to 18. The municipal budget represents 30 new points and county expenses four, making for a total increase of 52 points. That means the owner of a $50,000 house will pay $260 extra in taxes.

At the original budget-cutting meeting last Tuesday, Commissioner Joseph McGreevy suggested that capital outlay be reduced by $847,000, and Commissioner Matthew Pica said trustees should spread out the $1 million appropriation by asking voters to approve a 10-year bond referendum. Schoolers didn't like either idea.

"For years, the budget has been defeated," said Trustee John DiStasi, arguing for more money than McGreevy wanted to give. "Year in and year out, buildings have gone without repair, without adequate additions to make educational facilities better."

Former board president Ernie Zoppi said it would be unrealistic to

Jersey orders town to start water fines

Though Mayor Michael Marotti and 10 other municipal leaders were summoned to Trenton for a meeting with the attorney general Monday and told to begin enforcing the state's water conservation order immediately, it is still uncertain when surcharges will be sent out here.

"We will be surcharging soon," said town water monitor Steve Vogel Tuesday, but he could not say exactly when the first fine notices for excess water use would start arriving in local homes.

Vogel doubles as town tax collector and has been preoccupied with his duties at that position. Attorney General James Zazzali also asked for a report on what Belleville was doing to enforce compliance with the state water mandate, and while Vogel was working on that this week, word came that a request for another report, this one from the State Department of Environmental Protection, was also on the way.

That second report must be submitted by tomorrow.

Meanwhile, the town's conservation effort continues to show a steady decline. Readings this week show Belleville using 3,540,700 cubic feet of water, a daily average of 505,814. The weekly figure is 121,840 cubic feet less than the amount being used in the first week of October, shortly after the state order went into effect.

The 19.4 percent savings was somewhat better than the 18.3 percent of the week previous, but savings have generally been dropping off. Belleville hit its all-time high of 28.6 percent seven weeks ago, and the figures after that were 25.1, 25.5, 24.9, 21.1, 18.3 and finally 19.4.

Vogel noted that the best figure came the week the state drought coordinator's office announced New Jersey residents would be allowed to fill swimming pools this summer if they paid a surcharge.

Howard opening

A new Italian restaurant holds its grand opening 10 a.m. today and Howard Savings Bank will host a "swellabration" officially opening its 45th office in the state 9 a.m. Saturday in the new Pathmark mini-mall on Washington Avenue.

A Little Taste of Italy, a pizzeria and family restaurant, will operate seven days a week 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. Today, tomorrow and Saturday, the eatery is offering 70 cents off on a large pizza, 10 cents off on slices of pie. The 72-seat restaurant, approved by the Planning Board in mid-March, will also do a take-out business, and orders can be called in at 759-4116.

The opening of the 1,925-square-foot eatery is scheduled for 10 a.m. Saturday. Please see "Eatery" on page 21.

Govel celebrating decade in business

As Govel Realty of Belleville celebrates its 10th anniversary, the full-service real estate firm looks back on a decade of growth that stands out among New Jersey firms in the field.

Since hanging its shingle, Govel Realty has become the managing and leasing agent of more than 4,000 residential apartment, condominium, cooperative and townhouse units in the state. Through its affiliation with Century 21 Realty, Govel has also acted as the broker in the sales of thousands of single and multi-family homes in New Jersey over the past decade.

"We specialize in the residential component of real estate," says William W. Govel, the firm's president. "New Jersey's housing market has undergone radical changes in the last 10 years, however we have managed to stay on top of the marketplace, monitor the changes and shape our services accordingly."

Govel is not limited to residential real estate services. The company is the managing and leasing agent of the Par-Troy Hills Shopping Center in Parsippany. The 30,000-square-foot center is full leased and has been extremely successful under Govel's management.

In addition, Govel is the leasing and managing agent of the Centrex Building in West Caldwell, a modern, 10,000-square-foot structure.

The firm's fast growth is particularly underscored by its sales of more than $10 million in investment properties over the past two years. "Our investment property sales in so short a time undoubtedly put us near the top of the list of the most active real estate firms in New Jersey," says Ralph B. Giordano, vice president in charge of management and investment.

Herbert Greenhalgh, vice president in charge of residential sales, rounds out the executive positions at Govel Realty, which has a staff of 19 at 727 Joralemon St. The firm was formerly located on Washington Avenue.

Govel is the sales and marketing agent for more than 600 condominiums, townhouses and cooperatives. Most notable among these is the well publicized Hastings Gardens apartment complex in Rutherford. The new, 362-unit rental project is converting to cooperative units priced for middle-income people, the only conversion of its kind in the state.

"Already, we have received enough inquiries to sell the job tomorrow," Govel says, adding that actual sales won't begin until May.

In the condominium and townhouse developments either under construction or recently completed, most of the units are luxury residences. Those properties are Sleepy Hollow, 97 luxury condominiums in Nutley; Oak Crest, 61 luxury townhouses in Oakland; Patricia Village, 48 luxury townhouses in Clifton, and The Commons, 24 luxury townhouses in Spring Lake Heights.

Fidelity Union sports new symbol, members

Fidelity Union Bancorporation, one of New Jersey's largest bank holding companies, has unveiled a new corporate graphics symbol for itself and member banks. The symbol with the new name logotype is a major part of Fidelity's effort to create a common identity for its statewide network of banking offices.

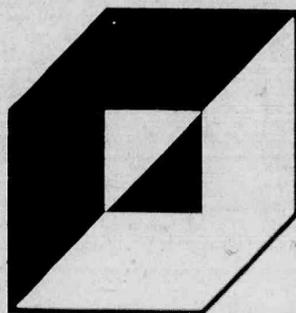

Earlier this month, Fidelity received regulatory approval to merge its member bank, the National Bank of New Jersey, into Fidelity Union Trust Company, member banks are designed to enhance Fidelity Union's statewide presence and to generate increased public awareness of our services and facilities," said Fidelity Chairman Peter Cartmell.

"Although we are changing the names of our member banks, the management teams that we have in place will remain the same," Cartmell continued. "Our customers will still be greeted by the same people they have grown to know and trust over the years."

Over 100 Bancorporation offices will be affected by the change.

Cartmell noted that the new logotype or "signature" is rooted in a 19th century typeface that is familiar for its use on U.S. currency, though the letters of the alphabet have been modified for Fidelity. New corporate colors, green and white, also adopted in the change, are also used for currency.

Bell pays town $345,000 tax

New Jersey Bell paid $344,795 in real estate and personal property taxes in Belleville last year, according to Charles Seelinger, the company's local community relations manager and a member of the Chamber of Commerce.

Bell paid a total of $18,169,055 in taxes in Essex County and was also one of the state's largest taxpayers, having paid more than $125 million throughout New Jersey in 1980. That total included some $38.7 million in franchise and gross receipts taxes paid directly to the state.

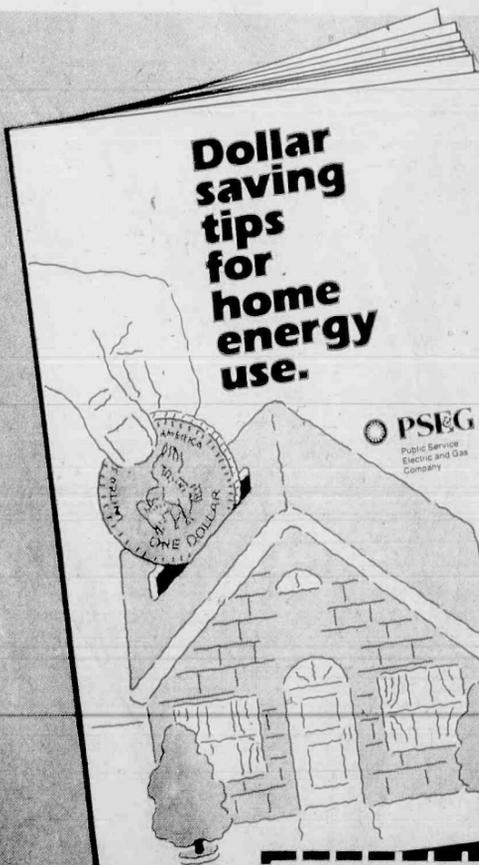

In all, the company incurred an expense of $304.9 million in federal, state and local taxes last year, an increase of $7.9 million over 1979.

New Look — Fidelity Union Bancorporation has unveiled a new corporate logo and announced the renaming of several affiliates.

creating a network of 44 banking offices with a new name, Fidelity Union Bank. Additional approval was obtained to rename Colonial First National Bank, another Bancorporation subsidiary, to Fidelity Union Bank. Approval is still pending for the renaming of Garden State National Bank, another subsidiary.

Town postpones dropping out of mental health organization

Commissioners have postponed a decision on whether to withdraw from the Community Mental Health Services of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley.

A resolution stating the town's intention of discontinuing support for the agency in 1982 was temporarily shelved last Tuesday night after questions were raised about the feasibility of Belleville's creating its own mental health program.

Public Affairs Commissioner Vincent Strumolo, who has been pushing hard to have Belleville join Bloomfield in leaving the agency, had expected to present an alternative program to his four colleagues, but was able only to provide them with some sketchy possibilities.

"When I went to the last meeting, I guess there was some misunderstanding either on the part of some of the commissioners or myself," said addition to annual contributions from Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley. How well Belleville would do seeking state and federal money on its own is open to question. "The question arose as to whether I could guarantee funding, and the answer is no," Brown told The Times Tuesday.

"I can't tell what's going on with the federal budget, nobody can," said Brown. Brown said he was now in a "holding pattern," waiting further direction from commissioners before beginning any exploration for grant money for a town-operated mental health agency.

HANDY HINT:
The local Health Department is the primary source of information about available community health services.

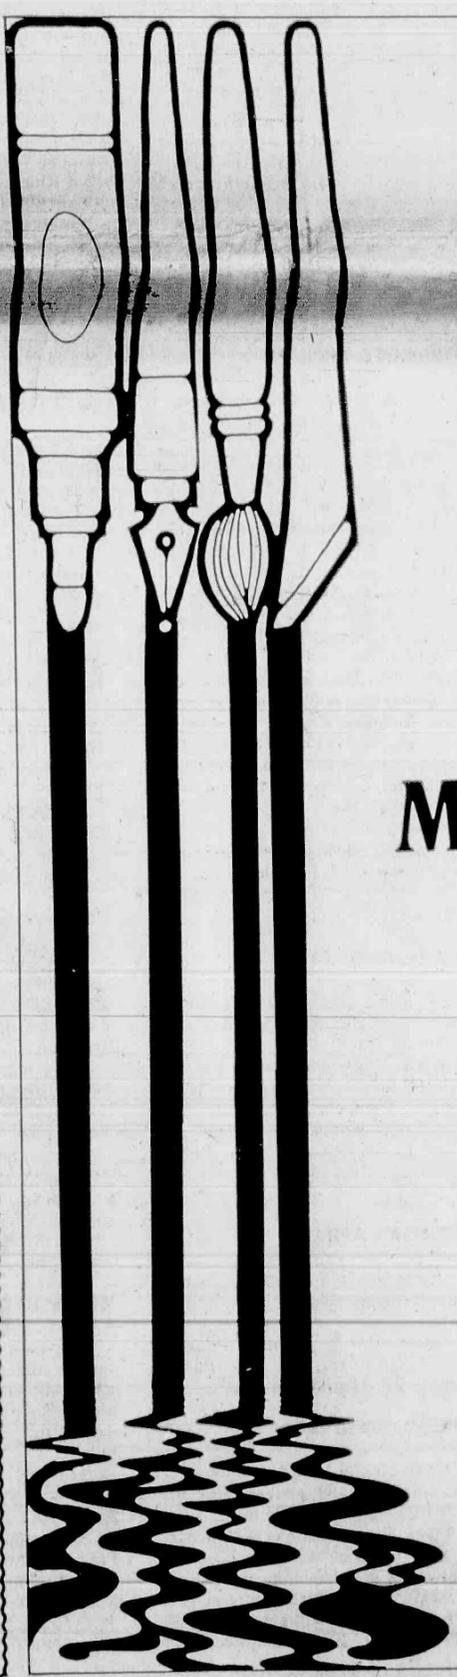

Craig Brown of Bruno Associates, the town's grant consulting firm, this week.

Brown told commissioners his firm might arrange to have a town mental health program funded through private foundations, federal Community Development block grants or local industry and business. Commissioners, however, wanted a more definite plan before committing themselves to dropping out of the Mental Health Services.

Strumolo has been a long-time opponent of the agency and when the town was finalizing its 1981 budget several weeks ago, he wanted to drop the $37,000 appropriation for the program, a move squelched by the other commissioners since Belleville's contract with Community Mental Health runs through Dec. 31.

Strumolo believes the town is not getting enough service from the agency for its money and would be better off setting up its own program. The agency provides psychiatric care to adults and children on an emergency basis, and Strumolo contends Belleville should be able to do the job itself by combining the child guidance service operated by the school system with a mental health program for adults to be operated by the town. "We can put it together and put it to good use," the Commissioner said. "Furthermore, funds we get from the state and federal government will come directly to us without being split three ways."

Good sense

Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, newly elected Board of Education vice president, offered some suggestions for change at the board meeting last week that make a lot of sense.

D'Agostino is for ending the five-minute time limit on citizen speeches. It is a good idea. If a citizen has 10 minutes worth of wisdom to impart to School Board trustees, why should his presentation be aborted because of an arbitrary rule?

D'Agostino believes board members should be seated at the same level as citizens, instead of on a stage, elevated from the floor, creating a higher-than-thou attitude. D'Agostino makes a lot of sense.

D'Agostino suggests suspending convention trips until the tax burden eases somewhat. Such a decision could result in a $10,000 savings — in these days, even $10 is hard to come by — again, D'Agostino makes sense.

School Board members elected Charles Miele as their new president. Both D'Agostino and Miele make good choices to run School Board affairs. Both men are smart, they are conciliatory, they can establish the harmony so necessary to the School Board — the subject Mr. Miele addressed himself to.

The reorganized School Board seems to be determined to give Belleville a better deal than it had. This augurs well for both students and taxpayers, not forgetting the benefits to be shared by the School Board members themselves.

Frank A. Orechio

The candidates

Nutley and Belleville have at least one thing in common — they have two citizens who are running for public office in the June primary. In Nutley, State Senator Carmen Orechio received the blessings of the Democrat County organization for renomination. Nutley Savings and Loan President John Kelly is a Republican Assembly candidate.

Belleville Public Works Commissioner Mary Senatore is a Democrat candidate for the State Assembly. Essex County Surrogate Nicholas Amato has received a nod for renomination from the Democrat Party.

These candidacies should result in a big turnout of voters in both towns. Any event that causes a greater turnout of voters at the polls contributes to the health of our democracy. The other individuals rounding out the 30th Legislative District candidacies are incumbent Assemblyman Buddy Fortunato of Glen Ridge/Montclair, endorsed by the Democrat organization, and Cedar Grove Republican Josephine Mongiello, anxious to fill the vacancy created by the retirement of Republican Assemblyman Carl Orechio. Bloomfield Councilman John Crecca will be the GOP Senate candidate.

District 5 Freeholder Jim Piro of Nutley decided to turn down another freeholder candidacy. His seat is being contested by Bloomfield Councilman Vinnie Perrone, Democrat, and Essex County Undersheriff Arthur Clay of Glen Ridge, Republican.

If there are no challenges to these candidates in the June primary, they will face each other for the brass rings in November. May God bless them all.

Voters' rejection of Ernie Zoppi a great setback for Board of Ed

To the Editor:

I would like for every citizen to take the time to read this. I am a citizen myself and I would just like to say I think it's the negligence of each and every registered voter in this town that let such a qualified man as Ernie Zoppi slip through our fingers. Our Board of Education was just looking up and to vote in two new members is simply behind me.

Mr. Zoppi, the one member who should have been kept in his seat, was simply let go. He had been on the Board of Education for the past three years, and it doesn't take a person overnight to learn all the ins and outs of this voluntary job. Why let someone go with such qualifications and experience?

Mr. Zoppi made some pretty tough decisions in his past years, and he felt that it was for the good of the system and he did not worry about his re-election, because if he had, he wouldn't have voted for the closing of two schools.

Some people in town are very jealous — they wish they had the class that Ernie has. Mr. Zoppi has taken accusations thrown at him at board meetings and has just kept his temper and shrugged them off. It takes a man to do that. I just can't understand how our town can let a person like this go, it's just devastating to me. Well, I would like to say one thing, I hope in the next three years, our Board of Education keeps to the decisions that have been made because it's possible you the people blew it. You're the losers.

One more thing is that an issue came up in late March which was on its way for a long time, one Mr. Fornarotto, our loud-mouthed citizen of Belleville, provoked, set up, whatever you want to call it. He tried so hard to hurt Ernie Zoppi's campaign and used such low and underhanded tactics against him, but Mr. Fornarotto received what a lot of people wished to do. I'm glad, and so are many others. The only thing is that it happened at such an unfortunate time for Ernie Zoppi.

I hope, in closing my letter, that the people who voted in our two new Board of Education members will stick by them, because personally I feel that our town and education are now in trouble.

Knights thank those who supported retarded drive

To the Editor:

Belleville Knights of Columbus Council 835 conducted its annual drive for the retarded with the cooperation of the K of C Women's Auxiliary, the PTA of St. Peter's School, the Mal Condon Canteen and the Boy Scouts of Belleville.

The Knights in a further expansion of their community service programs, conducted a special fund-raising drive for retarded children with learning disabilities April 10-12. This drive helped such organizations as the Mal Condon Canteen, Boy Scout Troop 364, a special unit for boys who are mentally handicapped, and Camp Fatima, a camp for retarded children.

Grand Knight Frank Corbo and past Grand Knight Tom Dillon wish to thank many individuals, especially brother

Knights, and groups which helped make this retarded drive most successful, especially The Belleville Times for the coverage and the business people, banks and churches that allowed the Knights to collect at their place of business and also the great people of Belleville and the vicinity for their generosity in this meaningful drive.

Thank you, fellow citizens, who have contributed to the success of this project. This fund-raising program was conducted with the full cooperation of the New Jersey Association for Retarded Citizens and all the proceeds of the drive will be distributed to state and local organizations involved in the care and training of these children.

Senior Notes

By George Chenoweth

The Senior Bulletin contains the progress of the latest conference plans: As the White House Conference on Aging moves well into its own year, 1981, the preparations that began with small and scattered meetings and tentative plans more than a year ago are building a solid foundation for the national discussions. Some 10,000 community forums have brought together the elderly and those interested in them for the kind of grassroots concern and opinion-sharing that could be obtained in no other way. Filtering up through state organizations, some of the results of these meetings already are informing the conference leadership of the concerns and anxieties of older citizens, including some that were unforeseen.

A second major source of public input was the program of 30 mini-conferences focusing on special aims or problems.

A third important resource for the delegates is almost in final shape for them. Sixteen technical committees combining professional and lay expertise have been assigned the task of identifying issues and assembling the background information about them.

The selection of delegates who will meet in Washington, D.C., Nov. 30 is now in order, the states having been assigned 1,000 delegates, divided among them in proportion to aged population and subdivided to provide age, sex and minority balance.

Of the 1,000 delegates, one will be appointed by each U.S. senator and representative. The remaining delegates will be named by the executive director of the conference and will include members of the advisory and technical committees and members of the national organizations, with the aim of maintaining geographic and demographic balance in the total delegation and making certain no significant groups of elderly have been overlooked.

Vigorous physical exercise may fight off mental deterioration among the elderly and in fact make them more alert than a 25-year-old who doesn't exercise at all. This from Dr. James E. Birren, an award-winning psychologist from the University of Southern California. He disclosed the results of his study at the annual meeting of the Gerontological Society of America. Birren said the study produced the first hard evidence linking physical exercise to improvement in thought processes of the aged. Whether mental deterioration is preventable or reversible may be another matter, he said.

Remember, your health depends on you. There is nothing that you can do to stay young forever, but you can improve the quality of your life by developing a plan to live a healthy lifestyle and sticking with it.

Cantarella will chair McGlynn drive here

Doug Cantarella of Crescent Terrace has been named chairman of the Belleville McGlynn for Governor campaign and will direct campaign activities for the candidate in town.

"Rich McGlynn is attracting growing support in Belleville as the most able and articulate of the Republican candidates for governor," said Cantarella. "Furthermore, he's the only one of the candidates with proven experience as a crim fighter, having served as a state judge, deputy attorney general and trial chief of the state's Criminal Justice Division."

Cantarella is a Republican committeeman in Belleville, and is an executive with the Equity Savings and Loan Association in Kearny. He is former chairman of the Belleville Rent Leveling Board.

McGlynn has announced a 10-point anti-crime program that includes reinstatement of the death penalty and the right of homeowners to defend themselves with force. He has advocated a cutback and streamlining of state government and has issued a seven-point program to improve the state's economy.

'No right on red' signs are formally adopted

Commissioners voted unanimously last week to prohibit right turns on red lights at several intersections around town. The "no turn" signs won't be new, though — the vote was a mere formality designed to clear up questions that had been raised as to legal authorization for signs already up.

Rights on red were banned at all times on turns from Joralemon Street to Main Street, Washington Avenue southbound to Division Avenue, Rutgers and Holmes Streets westbound, Washington north to Belleville Avenue east, Division Avenue east to Washington South and Washington north to Division east.

Other bans are in effect 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays through Fridays. They are Washington Avenue north to Rutgers Street east, Rutgers west to Washington north, Washington north to Holmes East, Holmes east to Washington south, Holmes west to Washington north, Belleville Avenue east to Washington south, Washington south to Belleville west, Joralemon west to Passaic Avenue and Passaic Avenue south to Joralemon west.

The ordinance takes effect pending approval of the State Transportation Department.

Play Program — Michael Zigarelli of Belleville and Gail Siverson of Bloomfield, both pediatric patients at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, sing along with senior nursing student Barbara Ciccone in the hospital's playroom. The music segment is part of the pediatric play program at the hospital.

Clara Maass play program helps hospitalized children

When a child is hospitalized, he needs to be comforted and assured that he will get better and that the pain will go away. Perhaps equally important is a continuation of constructive play which will lessen apprehension and minimize disorientation.

This is the chief focus of the pediatric play program at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital where young patients are allowed to express themselves creatively through "play therapy." Supervised by a staff of professionals in the recreation therapy department, the program is a joint effort of the nursing staff, nursing students and volunteers.

"When a child is hospitalized, he or she is undergoing an enormous amount of stress. This program allows that to be channeled in an appropriate manner," says Marilyn Meindel, recreation therapy director.

The newly completed pediatric playroom, located on the second floor adjacent to the unit, is open to all children 18 months to 12 years old and served as a place where youngsters can continue a normal play routine.

"Play is serious business to a child," Mrs. Meindel says. "If they can continue that process while in the hospital, it will be to the family's advantage."

The pediatrics play program also seeks to motivate parents to design more constructive play for their children. It is hoped that the play routines emphasized while the child is hospitalized will be continued after discharge.

"The play process is many times acting as a release for anger and frustrations that a child feels about his present condition," said Mrs. Meindel. "Maybe he won't be able to talk to his parents about it, but he can with a puppet."

Besides puppets at the puppet theater, children can find numerous devices in which to become immersed. The new playroom contains a work area, including a kitchen and "play food" and numerous costumes in which to pretend to be someone else. A water table provides a soothing activity for an anxious child, while an activity center provides the games and toys a child might find at home. Books and records are also available.

Children who are not able to leave their rooms are visited and entertained by volunteer Robert Whiting. Until they are able to visit the playroom, he brings it to them with a special type of caring that has accompanied his more than 10,000 hours in the unit.

Students from the Clara Maass School of Nursing have included recreation projects for the pediatrics

Stewart, DiGuilio to wed in the fall

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Marcotte of Miami, Fla., have announced the engagement of Mrs. Marcotte's daughter, Miss Karen Stewart, to John DiGuilio Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo John DiGuilio Sr. of Belleville.

The wedding is planned for September.

department in their curriculum. One senior student, Barbara Ciccone, designed a music program for the children which she says is "truly rewarding."

"Music is an activity which gives immediate pleasure," Mrs. Ciccone emphasized. "It acts on them as a healing agent and makes the children forget about their source of discomfort."

Students also spend time with young patients reviewing surgical procedures and introducing them to "toy" stretchers, wheelchairs and other familiar hospital instruments.

Art therapy is also being used by students to give children a way of expressing themselves after the hospitalization procedures are completed.

"Through art very often we are able to discover the kind of trauma a child may be experiencing and at times when it's not hospital-related, we can make referrals to outside agencies," Mrs. Meindel notes.

Future plans for the pediatrics play program include the development of more therapeutic play and supervision of a play therapist.

"With the cooperation of the departments here, the program has just blossomed into something worthwhile," Mrs. Meindel says. "It's important that the feeling of home continues here."

Woman's Club members awarded at area meeting

Thirteen members of the Belleville Woman's Club attended the Eighth District spring conference and achievement day at the Hi-Hat Club of Bayonne April 15.

The conference opened with Mrs. Richard Drake of the Evening Membership Department singing a prayer written and composed by Edith Richards of the Belleville club. Mrs. Lee J. Malasky, first vice president of the New Jersey State Federation of Woman's Clubs, presided at the gathering.

During a morning session, clubs gave their reports. A luncheon followed, and in the afternoon, the clubs received awards. Entries covered various categories and the Belleville club received four awards.

The president, Mrs. Clancy Keeney, received a first prize for the herb rolls she had baked. Mrs. W. Douglas Clark submitted an oil painting which received second place. The club's American home department, under Mrs. Fred Wallace, had worked on an originally designed, hand-sewn quilt which was awarded first place. Mrs. Wallace also received second place for her hand-knitted argyle vest which won in the knit and crochet category. First-place entries will be submitted for judging on the state level at the New Jersey State Federation of Woman's Clubs' convention to be held at Great Gorge next month.

Last month, Mrs. Callaghan Holliwel had received honorable mention for a book review she had submitted in the State Federation creative writing contest.

On April 8, the Belleville club held a president's tea which was attended by guests and members of several Eighth District clubs. Mrs. Keeney and her board served as hostesses.

After a pleasant social hour, the Belleville High School concert choir, under the direction of Thomas Finetti, entertained those attending with selections from Broadway musicals and due to the enthusiastic response of the audience gave several encores. School Superintendent John Greed was also on hand for the performance.

Greetings were extended to President Keeney by Mrs. Leonard Roesler of Clifton, now a state board representative of the Evening Department, and presidents from neighboring clubs, Louise Prontiker of Garfield, Phoebe DeRose of Clifton, Dorothy Gondola of Alwood, Edna McNamara of Bayonne, Helen Wharton of Hoboken, Dorothy Engelbrecht of Jersey City and Ada Miller of Rutherford.

The honored guest was Mrs. George Strakosch, president of the New Jersey State Federation, who spoke about the history of the Belleville club. She noted that it was originally called the Belleville Improvement Association, changing its name to the present one in 1916 when it became federated. Mrs. Strakosch commended Mrs. William Chapman for submitting a concise history of the club, which is now in the federation archives.

Gregory Club holding dance

The Gregory Club of New Jersey will hold a square dance 9 p.m. tomorrow at the Nutley Knights of Columbus Hall, 150 Chestnut St.

There will be dancing to country music called by Charlie Whitney, along with cold cuts and a salad buffet. Couples and singles are invited. Admission is $6.

Mary Cipolla of Nutley is the club's publicity chairman.

Mrs. Strakosch also gave recognition to the Junior Department for the service over the past 10 years and to the Evening Department on its 25th anniversary. She concluded by providing club members with the highlights of the coming convention in Great Gorge.

Past presidents of the Belleville club on hand for the tea were the Mrs. Elmer Hyde, John DeNike, Dwight Streeter, William Kropp, Gerard Ferrara and W. Douglas Clark. Also attending were Sherry Moccia, president of the Belleville Juniors; Janet Pickover, Junior advisor, and Barbara Spillane of Belleville, state director of the Junior Membership Department.

DENTAL X-RAYS

For a dentist to conduct a complete dental examination without using dental x-rays, is like watching TV with your eyes closed. "Why," you may ask, "can't the dentist use his eyes and trusty mirror to do the same diagnosis?" Because, as the "unsinkable" Titanic discovered; like icebergs, most serious dental trouble is beneath the surface and out of view.

Dental x-rays often reveal beginning tooth decay between the teeth or beneath a filling or at the bottom of a narrow pit or groove in the chewing surface. The amount of bone supporting teeth that has been destroyed by periodontal disease, the development of root abscesses and cysts, the presence of un-erupted teeth or broken root fragments or impacted teeth can only readily be determined by x-rays since these abnormalities are normally hidden from view.

With modern, shielded equipment and high speed x-ray film, only a very small amount of x-ray radiation is required to take a complete set of pictures. It's less than we normally receive from illuminated watch faces. The X-ray camera is one of the dentist's most valuable diagnostic tools.

Temple Honorees — Congregation Ahavath Achim will honor Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Berkowitz at its 58th annual dinner-dance May 3.

Ahavath Achim plans annual dinner May 3

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Berkowitz will be honored for their service to Congregation Ahavath Achim of Belleville at its 58th annual dinner-dance to be held 6 p.m. Sunday, May 3, at the temple, 125 Academy St. The announcement was made by Samuel Panansky, the congregation's first vice president.

Berkowitz, manager of Karl's Sales & Service in Maplewood, is the current president. He and his wife Bette came to Belleville 29 years ago and joined the congregation 25 years. He is former president of the congregation men's club and past chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of Kearny. In 1960, when the congregation constructed the Hebrew school addition to its building, he built an exact replica of the main chapel ark into the new junior congregation chapel to hold the Torah which was used by students every Sabbath. Berkowitz served in the European Theater during World War II with the famous 29th Infantry Division.

Mrs. Berkowitz, a medical secretary at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, is past president of Sisterhood of Congregation Ahavath Achim and the congregation's former recording secretary. She held every office in the sisterhood on her way to the presidency. As a representative of the sisterhood and in conjunction with the American Red Cross and Women's League for Conservative Judaism, she took a course in braille and was certified by the Library of Congress. For the past two years, Mrs. Berkowitz has been ad journal chairman for the dinner-dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Berkowitz have two daughters, Mrs. Ilene Golden of Sarasota, Fla., and Bonnie of Highland Park.

Bernard and Estelle Zohn, co-chairmen of the dinner-dance, have announced that there will be a smorgasbord and cocktail hour followed by a gourmet dinner with dancing and entertainment. Mrs. Irving Berkowitz and Mrs. Seymore Fersko are in charge of reservations and seating. Mrs. Joseph Berkowitz is chairman of the ad journal which will be distributed at the dinner-dance.

It will be the third Independence Day observed since the signing of the peace treaty between Israel and Egypt in March 1979. "Only a strong Israel," Spierling said, "was capable of making peace with Egypt, the most powerful Arab nation in the Middle East. Other Arab countries will be persuaded to participate in the peace process only if Israel remains strong."

"Underpinning Israel's strength," he said, "was the economic infrastructure Israel bonds have helped build."

The Israel Bonds Organization has provided a total of $5.1 billion since 1951 for the economic development of Israel, helping to finance industrial and agricultural expansion, the construction of highways and harbors, the further establishment of communications and transportation, the exploration of natural resources and the search for new sources of energy.

Hadassah chapter meets on Monday

WE CAN GROW GRASS WITHOUT WATER

Even though we're faced with a severe water shortage, a Lawn King program will treat your lawn's problems below the surface where they begin and insure a more vigorous, healthy lawn even during a drought. Our aeration gets to the roots, opens the soil and lets your lawn take advantage of whatever moisture is available. In addition, the chemicals we use are hygroscopic . . . they draw moisture right out of the air! That's why we can grow grass without water. No slopes please . . . if we can't aerate your lawn twice a year, we can't help you.

Here's our program. What you see is what you get. Compare it to any other program and you'll see that either our competition is charging too much or we're not charging enough. Call the King's Men today. Within 10 days we'll service your lawn and leave an invoice based on the square footage. (See chart below for the cost of your chemical application.) At the same time, we'll make a thorough lawn evaluation and analysis and leave you a copy and someone will call to discuss the lawn with you. Sooner or later you're going to call Lawn King. If our lines are busy, as we expect they will be, send in the coupon.

Announcing one of the smallest name changes in recent history.

Fidelity Union Trust Company is now
Fidelity Union Bank.

That's all?

Yes, that's all.

When some companies change their names it gets harder to figure out exactly what they do.

At Fidelity Union, we've changed our name so New Jersey knows exactly what we do: We provide the finest personal, corporate, and trust banking services in the state.

So, while it's a pretty small change in name and look, we think it can make a rather large difference to you.

One Plus One Equals Three

New Math? No! This is simply a way of describing a drug-drug interaction. Since most drugs can cause side effects of varying degree it's not surprising that one person may be using two drugs with similar side-effects, such as a cold remedy and a cough syrup, each with the capability of causing drowsiness. Instead of a simple additive effect, each may intensify the other so that the two together are more than twice as potent as either alone.

Surprises in store for baseball fans

As the weather warms and basketball and hockey begin to fade into the background, the major league baseball season moves into high gear and fans across this great land are rooting for their favorites, hoping that their team can make it to the ultimate goal, the World Series.

Each division seems to be a toss-up as a number of clubs have built themselves up with astute trades and the addition of some very strong pitching.

The strongest division in baseball remains the American League East. Baltimore, Milwaukee, New York and Detroit all have good shots at capturing the crown, but it's tough to overlook Cleveland and Boston completely. Only the Toronto Blue Jays don't figure to make much of a dent in the pennant race.

Baltimore appears to have a solid ballclub once again and should finish first. In the American League East, the Orioles have the best group of starting pitchers, and the bullpen should be a big asset. The Birds' manager, Earl Weaver, is as crafty and clever as any in the game and the Orioles, who have averaged 101 wins over the last two seasons, have some strong hitting, spearheaded by Eddie Murray and Ken Singleton. Weaver also has a way of finding talent that other clubs feel doesn't exist. Such pinch hitters as Rich Dauer, Terry Crowley and Jose Morales will help a lot more than most observers think.

The reason why the Yankees will finish second this year is the starting rotation. Unless George Steinbrenner rips out his checkbook and signs a big name starter, the Yanks might fall short. Tommy John and Ron Guidry lead the staff and Rudy May had a fine 15-5 mark a season ago. Tommy Underwood should also start, but there are too many ifs there, particularly when you consider John and May are in their late 30s. The bullpen, led by Rich Gossage and Ron Davis, is strong, but in a division that has Baltimore, strong might not be good enough. Don't forget, the Yanks beat the Birds by just three games last year and Baltimore got off to a terrible start.

Milwaukee boasts a great lineup with such notables as Ted Simmons, Cecil Cooper, Larry Hise, Ben Ogilve and Robin Yount. However, the Brewers' pitching isn't so hot, and when you have Jim Slaton leading the staff it isn't an encouraging sign. Rolie Fingers is now in the Brewer bullpen, but unfortunately it won't be enough.

The Detroit Tigers might be just a year away from the title. Kirk Gibson is back in centerfield and the strong double play combination of Allan Trammel and Lou Whitaker give the Bengals a solid infield. Al Cowens is back for the Tigers to add power as are Richie Hebner and Steve Kemp, but the Tiger pitching does have some flaws. Can Mark Fidrych ever return? Do the Tigers have a good bullpen, can their starters be effective against the likes of New York and Baltimore? The answer right now appears to be no.

Boston should take a nosedive to fifth place. Although the Red Sox are stationed in Boston, most of their team has found a new home in California. Fred Lynn, Rich Burleson and Butch Hobson now don Angel uniforms and Carlton Fisk is doing his catching in Chicago. There is some quality left, mainly Tony Perez and Carny Lansford.

Joe Rudi will help if he can stay healthy, but the Red Sox achilles heal throughout the years has been pitching — it's no different this year.

Cleveland is much better than a sixth-place ball club, but in this division it's tough to place them any higher. Jim Hargrove is a good hitter and the pitching could be effective providing Ross Grimsley returns to form and Rick Waits can have a good year. Wayne Garland can be a tremendous help if his bad arm returns to its 1976 form. Joe Charbenau, the 1980 rookie of the year, and Jorge Orta will provide power, but it looks like another long hot summer in the Ohio.

Toronto doesn't have too much to worry about. The Blue Jays won't have any pressure on them because no one expects them to break out of the cellar in their fifth year of existence. The Jays are on the right track, though, and have some good pitching and young, raw hitting talent. It will take time and it won't happen in 1981.

In the American League West, the Oakland A's can and probably will win the crown. Reason number one is the awesome pitching the A's have. Reason number two is Manager Billy Martin. Reason number three is the tremendous speed the A's possess. The Oakland pitching staff has Mike Norris, Brian Kingman, Rick Langford, Steve McCatty and Matt Keough. In 1980 that crew set a modern major league record for most complete games in a season. Also in 1980, the A's jumped from a 54-108 record in 1979 to 83-79. They also jumped from the cellar to second place. The A's figure to complete their miracle with a division crown come October. Ricky Henderson, heavy hitter Tony Armas and Duanne Murphy key a strong outfield and Dave Revering is beginning to blossom into a superstar.

Kansas City will be a close second. The Royals are solid everywhere, but their pitching isn't as good as Oakland's. George Brett, Willie Wilson and Amos Otis head a steady if unspectacular attack and Clint Hurdle is beginning to live up to his press clippings.

The Chicago White Sox will probably finish third by default. The Sox have Carlton Fisk, Ron LeFlore and Greg Luzinski now and that will help. The Sox also have some good pitching but by July figure to be out of the race. Forget about Texas, Minnesota, Seattle or California. Seattle is destined for last place again because the Mariners have absolutely no one to help them. Minnesota would be last if it weren't for Seattle, while Texas and California should be major contenders but will find ways to ruin themselves. The Angels have an awesome lineup but no pitching. The Rangers have talent everywhere but each year choke when they have a chance to move up on the leaders.

In the National League, Philadelphia seems a good bet to capture the east again. The defending champs have a solid nucleus returning and enough pitching to hold off St. Louis and Montreal. Larry Bowa, Pete Rose, Mike Schmidt, Garry Matthews and Gary Maddox will do the hitting and Steve Carlton, Larry Christenson and Bob Walk will lead the pitching staff. The Phils also have Tug McGraw and Sparky Lyle in the bullpen. Enough said.

St. Louis might sneak into second if the pitching holds up. The Cards have a devastating hitting department led by George Hendrick, Keith Hernandez, Ken Oberkfell, Tony Scott and Garry Templeton. Whitey Herzog, the Cards' manager and GM, made some big trades over the winter in the hopes of shoring up

Diamondmen regroup and bomb Wessex 9-1

By Mike Lambert

After suffering its first setback of the 1981 season, the Belleville High baseball team regrouped to upend West Essex last Saturday.

The team carried its 7-1 record to Kearny on Tuesday and will host Columbia this morning in an 11 a.m. start. Caldwell is the Bucs' next opponent noon Saturday at Caldwell. This coming Monday, the Bucs will host East Orange and on Tuesday will entertain Essex Catholic. Both of those games are set for 3:45 p.m.

The Bengals of Bloomfield spoiled the Bucs' perfect record by blanking the locals 2-0 last Thursday. Bengal hurler Anthony Sarno was masterful, tossing a one-hitter. Only Bobby Brave's single saved Belleville from the ignominy of a no-hitter. Anthony Coco took the loss, though once again he was marvelous on the mound, allowing two runs in the first inning and then blanking Bloomfield the rest of the way.

"It just goes to show that good pitching will always beat good hitting," said Buc head coach George Zanfani. "Sarno pitched a fine ball game and Bloomfield is much better than its record would indicate."

The Bengals entered the game with Belleville carrying just a 1-5 mark, but that was obviously misleading. Bloomfield lost its first five games to some of the best teams in the state. The combined record of those five squads was 28-2.

Bloomfield scored the only runs of the game when Scott Sempier socked a two-run homer. The Bengals managed just five hits off of Coco who struck out three and walked none. Sarno fanned seven and allowed just two free passes.

West Essex invaded Belleville last Saturday and for many members of the Buc baseball team, a bit of revenge was in order. As most Belleville fans remember, the Bucs lost the state championship football game to West Essex last December and shortly after that, the wrestling squad dropped its opening match to the Knights before reeling off 13 wins.

This time Belleville was ready and pounced on the visitors 9-1. Frank Fazzini was at his best, hitting home run number three and driving in four runs for the day. Eugene Cancelliere picked up the victory, his second without a loss. "Fu" pitched the entire game, allowing just seven hits.

The Bucs started things off with three runs in the first. Bobby Brave doubled and Dave Starr singled him home. Fazzini then cleared the bases with his homer. The Bucs added solo Buc Bullet — Eugene Cancelliere fires across the plate in Saturday's game with West Essex. He went the distance as the diamondmen won a 9-1 game at Belleville.

Crew team sweeps sea

By Rich Leardo

Perfectly is the way to describe how the Belleville crew team performed on Saturday against tough Philadelphia-area competition from Lower Merion High School. The Buc oarsmen took all of the races, and most by large margins, indicating how far they have progressed since their season opener.

The races took place just outside of Philly, and the Buccaneers proved that a home water advantage may be no advantage at all. Beginning with the junior eight race, Belleville demolished its Lower Merion counterparts. The junior eight boat beat the Lower Merion shell by 18 seconds in a three-way race which included the Buc "thirds" shell, comprised of second-team oarsmen. The thirds boat finished eight seconds behind the Lower Merion shell in what could be called a moral victory.

The freshman boys also got into the act, as they beat the Lower Merion shell by 13 seconds to up their record to 5-1 on the season.

Lower Merion also fielded a girls' varsity boat but may be wishing it hadn't as the Belleville shell came out on top by 18 seconds, a considerable margin in light of the fact that the Lower Merion team was considered one of the best.

The freshmen girls also soundly defeated Lower Merion, this time by 14 seconds, to improve their record to 2-1.

The junior four squads also had a clash on the river, with the Bellevillites winning by a seven-second margin to keep the Buc squad undefeated on the day.

Coach Sam Giuffrida was very pleased with the performances of his squad, right down the line. He emphasized once again that Belleville has been going into most of its

Softball squad pummels foes from Orange, Union

By Mike Lambert

It was a bittersweet week for Carl Corino and his softball squad. The girls were victors in two of three games and were encouraged by the progress of their star second baseman, Rosie Leonidis, still not quite 100 percent after an injury in the basketball season.

However, dark clouds set in on the girls' holiday as starting catcher Tracy Buono nursed a broken finger. She figures to miss about a week-and-a-half of action.

Belleville traveled to Livingston yesterday and will be at South Orange this afternoon to battle the tough Cougarettes of Columbia. Saturday, the girls return home for a battle with Caldwell. That game can be seen 7 Saturday on TV-3. The game will be rebroadcast 6 p.m. Sunday.

The girls defeated Union and Orange last week, running their consecutive victory streak to six games. However, the team had its bubble broken by Montclair Immaculate Saturday. Belleville was 6-2 at the start of this week, a record which Corino was very pleased with.

"We've been doing a good job," said the coach. "We hit the ball pretty well against Union and Orange last week, but Montclair Immaculate played a real good game last Saturday. Give them credit, they didn't make any mistakes and their pitcher did a nice job."

Indeed, Debbie Hughes, Immaculate hurler, threw seven innings, allowing just four hits and two runs. Belleville scored in the fourth when Luisa Dinis smacked a triple to drive home Donna Campana and Debbie Jinks, who had reached safely on a walk and a fielder's choice respectively.

Montclair Immaculate scored once in the second, once in the fourth, broke the 2-2 tie with a solo run in the sixth and put the game away with two runs in the top of the seventh inning. All tolled, the visiting squad had 10 hits. Jinks took the loss for Belleville.

Against Union Monday of last week, the girls had to work hard for their victory. Union jumped out to a 2-0 first-inning lead, but Belleville tied it with runs in the second and third frames. In the fourth, the local girls took the lead. Dawn Ritacco singled and stole second, and Nancy Coffey singled her home. Buono then sacrificed Coffey to second base. Jinks drove home Coffey with a single.

Union tied the game with two runs in the fifth, but in the Belleville sixth, Kim Indiero broke the deadlock with a home run. Finally, in the seventh, the girls scored two

Please see "Injuries" on page 16.

Strategy Break — Coach Grace Worley gives her volleyball team some pointers during last Wednesday's match at Nutley. The Buc girls absorbed their fifth loss of the season.

Volleyballers lose at Nutley

By Michael C. Gabriele

The Blue-Gold volleyball team lost to crosstown rival Nutley last Wednesday, dropping its season mark to 0-5. The girls' junior varsity team was also beaten and fell to 2-3.

The games, played at Nutley, were dominated by the Raiderettes from the start. The Buccanettes could not match Nutley's size at the net and fell victim to the Raiderettes' superior spiking early in the contest. Nutley defeated the Blue-Gold girls in two straight games by scores of 15-3 and 15-4.

The Buccanettes were led by Captain Becky Bridge, Donna Dombrowski and Rose Cataldo. Head coach Grace Worley substituted freely during the match, and Belleville was able to work several plays during the set but was unable to sustain any scoring momentum.

"We've got to get our act together," Coach Worley said before last week's match, but the team will the pitching. Bob Shirley and Lary Sorenson now hurl in Redbird uniforms and Bruce Sutter now occupies the bullpen. Could that be enough to beat Philadelphia? Probably not.

As good as everyone says the Montreal Expos are, the feeling here is that they're overrated. The pitching is fairly strong, but the hitting is erratic. Ellis Valentine, Warren Cromartie and Gary Carter can all sock the ball, but the Expos seem to lack a little bit everywhere and they'll probably finish close but no cigar.

The Mets, Cubs and Pirates will battle for fourth place. Pittsburgh will win the battle because the Mets and Cubs just aren't that good. Pittsburgh still has Willie Stargell, Dave Parker and Bill Madlock, but they're getting a little older and the pitching isn't that strong. The management was fool enough to want to unload Jason Thompson, but they can thank the commissioner's office that they still have him. The Mets are going nowhere because they still lack that certain drive and experience, Rusty Staub and Dave Kingman notwithstanding. They will probably win about 75 games or so, but they don't seriously figure to finish .500. The Cubs, well don't ask about them.

In the National League West, the Los Angeles Dodgers will win even though some people think they're too old to do it. The Dodgers still have Dusty Baker, Reggie Smith, Ron Cey, Steve Garvey and Bill Russell. Pedro Guerrero and Ken Landreaux are also solid players who should make important contributions. The pitching looks good with Fernando Venezuela, the 20-year-old sensation from Mexico throwing darts and Burt Hooton, Bob Welch and Rick Sutcliffe sharing starting roles. The bullpen is more than adequate with Rookie of the Year Steve Howe the leader.

The Houston Astros will finish a close second. The Astros have good pitching — Nolan Ryan, Don Sutton, Joe Niekro and Frank LaCorte are strong and Joe Sambito will shore up the bullpen. However, the Astros still lack a group of good hitters and will fall victim to the Dodgers late in the year if not sooner.

Atlanta will take third, edging out Cincinnati. The Braves are an up-and-coming team and have some good power. The Reds are starting to slide a bit and the Braves might have an edge in pitching as well. San Diego and San Francisco might as well forget about it now.

As for the playoffs, look for Baltimore to beat Oakland and Philadelphia to edge Los Angeles. That means a Philadelphia-Baltimore World Series in October 1981.

The Belleville High School athlete of the week is Frank Fa zini. Frank has been on a hitting tear since the beginning of the year and has already banged out three homers.

The quote of the week comes from Buc pitcher Anthony Coco. Asked what college he'll attend next fall, Coco replied, "Nobody wants me. I'll probably just go to the major leagues."

The answer to last week's quiz. The question was, which teams were in the 1972 baseball playoffs and which clubs made it to the World Series? The answer: Cincinnati beat Pittsburgh in five games and Oakland defeated in Detroit in five games. The A's then defeated the Reds in the series in seven games.

For this week's quiz, name the last horse to capture the Triple Crown and the year it happened.

Triple 'S' champ of rec basketball

After three years of frustration, Triple "S" Sports took the Belleville Recreation Men's Basketball League championship in convincing style last week. Triple "S" downed Chief Motors 72-58 and finished the regular season and playoffs with an unblemished 14-0 record.

Ed "Country" Jernigan put together his most impressive game of the season scoring 22 points, grabbing key rebounds and adding a number of blocked shots for Triple "S" Sports. Abdel Anderson and Charlie Carr chipped in 14 points apiece. Also aiding Triple "S" were Bernard Cosby who had 10 points, Robert Johnson with four, Ken Edwards, Mark Canyon, Anthony Carr and Ulysses Squire, each with two points. Bob Byers is the Triple "S" coach.

Chief Motors was led by Todd McDougale's 21 points.

runs to insure victory. Buono singled and advanced to second on a wild pitch. Dinis walked and both players stole a base. With teammates on second and third, Michelle Jeannotte singled for two runs and Indiero drove home Jeannotte with a single of her own.

Belleville came away with an 8-4 victory as Kathy Woods went the distance. Woods struck out three and walked just one. She allowed just six hits.

The Orange game last Thursday was an easy one for Belleville as the girls roared to a 10-2 triumph. In that contest, freshman pitcher Dina DeAquino (known as Gina Aquino in some quarters) pitched five hitless innings before being lifted in favor of Debbie Mundy who picked up the save. Orange scored its two runs in the second because of some wildness by DeAquino, but Belleville more than made up for it. The Buc girls tallied seven runs in the second and added solo runs in the third, fourth and sixth innings.

All told, the girls had 11 hits while playing errorless softball. Donna Campana had a great day, collecting three hits. Mona Stampe also had three hits and Nancy Coffey and Kim Indiero had two apiece.

Leonidis, Belleville's fine second baseman, has been sidelined with a sore knee. The junior had a leg operated on during the basketball season and is just starting to get around fairly well. With her presence in the lineup expected soon, Belleville will be an even tougher team to handle. Rosie celebrated her 17th birthday last Saturday. Unfortunately, the Buccanettes couldn't give her a victory for a present.

As for Buono, the freshman catcher may be out a relatively short time or could miss a couple of weeks. "That's a tough blow," said Corino. "She was really hitting the ball well and was helping us in a number of ways. She'll be back though. Tracy's a tough competitor and takes the game very seriously."

races as the underdog, and that most of the Buc shells are racing "out of their categories." In other words, the Belleville teams have been racing in higher age brackets than they should be due to a shortage of seniors and an overall lack of personnel.

Giuffrida was also quick to observe that the Buc shells have improved markedly since the outset of the season. "I've definitely seen steady improvement in this team," he said. "We were losing a bit of confidence because of our poor showing last week, but the kids managed to regain it and come back on Saturday."

This week also provided plenty of action for crew enthusiasts in Belleville, with the Bucs slated for two races because of spring recess. The first was yesterday against cross-river rival Nutley for bragging rights at the boathouse facilities on the Passaic. The second will also be at home, against Poughkeepsie Saturday.

have to wait some time before attempting once again to get itself on track. The volleyball squad, which had hoped for great improvement in this its second year of existence at BHS, has gotten off to a disappointing start.

The jayvee games with Nutley were even more lively and energetic than the varsity contest as the Blue-Gold junior varsity worked many successful sets and spikes.

The volleyball teams were off this week due to spring vacation. The girls return to action at home 3:45 p.m. next Thursday against Rayway.

Track team boasts of individual stars

Although the Belleville High track team hasn't been a big winner this season, the cindermen and women have come through with some fine individual efforts, that deserve recognition.

The Buc weight team, a strong point year in and year out on Belleville track squads, has continued the tradition. Anthony D'Agostino, great all-around athlete that he is, has been performing very well in the shot put and javelin throw. D'Agostino tossed the iron ball 45 feet, one inch against Passaic and is hoping to break the school record for the javelin before the season ends.

Another tough competitor has been junior Anthony Guarino. Guarino has also excelled in the shot put and discus throw and, according to head coach Rich Ruffafo, "is one of the hardest workers on the team. He gives it his best effort and has been showing a lot of improvement."

On the girls' team, JoAnn Benecchi has been proving to her competition that she is one of the better javelin throwers in the area. Benecchi also tosses the shot put and could score some points in the county and sectional championships.

On the track, Tom Kane, a sophomore, has been very impressive. Kane has been running the 1,500 and 3,000 meters and has wowed assistant coach Jim Beck. Beck, a strong runner in his time at BHS, feels that Kane will make a lot of progress over the next couple of years. His times have improved rapidly since the start of the year and he has a very fluid running style.

Dana Caruso, now in her senior year, has always impressed her coaches with her talent, hard work and determination. She's a big asset to any team she competes on and is the captain of the girls' squad for the second straight year. (Dana, incidentally, competed in the Cherry Blossom Run sponsored by the county April 11. She completed the 10-kilometer (6.2-mile) course in 42:39.8, the best time in the girls' 15-19 age category. Her time was the third best among all women runners and was just a minute behind the top clocking. Over 600 runners, male and female, took part.)

Some other good performances have been turned in for this year's girls' squad by the all-purpose runner, Barbara Gundry. "The Bubble" has been competing in the high jump, the 400-meter run, the 400-meter hurdles, the 800 meters and the mile relay team. She has good speed and is a very intelligent athlete.

Brian Allum and Tom Fuscaldo have come around recently as has Cecilia Graham. Graham holds the girls' high jump record of 4-8 and seems a cinch to crack that mark before the year is out. Allum and Fuscaldo both have good speed and with continued hard work will be very difficult to beat.

Karen Lordi and Vic Coco have been battling hard since the beginning of the campaign and both runners are valuable assets to their teams.

First Wait — Bobby Brave of Belleville (left) is at first base after reaching on an error in Saturday's baseball game with Wessex. He later scored.

Short-handed racquetmen operating at disadvantage

The Belleville High boys' tennis team is not one of the favorites to win a state title this year, but the club has stuck together and continues to make progress.

The team, under the direction of Mike Pollard, has yet to win a match this year. The Bucs are at a great disadvantage because they have only four players on the squad. Thus they must forfeit two matches, a singles and a doubles, every time out and find themselves two team points down before the first match even starts.

"I have to say the kids are trying," noted Pollard. "The team has shown some improvement and hopefully with hard work they'll continue the upward swing. We of course need more players on the squad and I hope we can get a better turnout in the future."

David Boyd, a freshman, has been occupying the "hot seat," playing the first singles spot. His competition has been the most gruelling the area can offer, but Pollard has been impressed with his effort. "He's starting to get an idea of how the game should be played. His ground strokes are improving and if he improves on his first serve, he'll be a big factor," the coach said.

In the second singles spot is junior Mark Dombrowski. Dombrowski has won two matches this year and has been gaining rapidly in experience. Mark, the only returning player from last season, has been facing good competition. By next, he'll be a very difficult player for the opposition to handle.

Jose Lousa and Edgar Feliciano are the first and only doubles team. Lousa and Feliciano are new to the game of tennis, but have been showing promise so far. "They're starting to improve," said Pollard. "Inexperience is a big factor. Kids on the other teams have been playing since they were 10 years old and some of our guys are just starting to learn the sport."

Diamondmen hitting a ton

runs in the third and fourth innings before putting the contest to rest with three runs in the fifth frame.

In the fifth, Jerry Ross led off with a double and scored on Starr's two-bagger. Fazzini tripled home Starr and scored when Joe Corbalis singled.

"We hit the ball very well in that game," said Zanfani. "I'm very happy with the way we've been playing. At 7-1, I really can't complain. The tough part of our schedule is starting to come around and the boys have to be ready for the real good teams."

BUC NOTES: Fazzini continues his tear with a .600 batting average. Special accolades to Bobby Brave. He is stinging the ball at a .565 clip, while Jerry Ross is hitting .345. Mike Forte is also pounding the ball at .360. Cancelliere, Coco and Roger Lentz have two pitching victories apiece, and Bob Brogan has one.

Housewife softball starting up again

The Belleville Recreation Department will once again be sponsoring the Housewives Softball League. Games will be played 9:30 a.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The league is designed so that women with young children can drop them off at school in the morning, play softball and be finished in time to pick them up at lunch.

Both women who have played in the past and those who are new to the league must contact the Recreation Department at 759-3121 to register.

Any woman who coached a team in the past or who wishes to coach a team for the first time is urged to contact Audrey Roll at 751-2790.

Health hints for summer

Health hints for summer

Is a bee sting something you should worry about? How should you treat an animal bite? What are some accidents children are most prone to?

Now that spring is here and you and your family will be spending time outdoors, it is important to their health and safety that you know the answers to questions like those. And the information is just a phone call away through the Tel-Med system at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital.

Getting advice of a professional is expensive, but Tel-Med is free and simple to use. Over 200 tapes on health-related questions are available by calling 751-7000 and asking for the tape by its number of exact title. A brochure listing all the tapes is available by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Tel-Med, c/o Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, 1 Franklin Ave., Belleville, N.J. 07109.

On the tapes, which run about five minutes, you will hear pertinent information about illnesses and problems. Once a tape is finished, your call will be disconnected automatically.

Topics covered by the Tel-Med system include heart disease, home health care, alcohol abuse, eye care, diet and birth control.

Tel-Med is designed to provide health information but is not to be used in an emergency situation or to take the place of your family physician.

Tel-Med is open 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on weekdays and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturdays. The system is closed Sundays and holidays.

Groups or organizations interested in distributing Tel-Med brochures are asked to contact the Clara Maass public relations department at 751-1000, extension 817.

Family show here tonight

The Belleville Public Library is sponsoring a family night with Bob Conrad at 7:00 p.m. A man with many talents, Conrad is known as one of the most versatile performers in the field of children's entertainment.

Using a uniquely different kind of ventriloquism, he creates fascinating personalities out of hats, slippers, paper plates and most any kind of material at hand.

The father of six children, Conrad has an insight into the things children like, and he tries to satiate those likes with his music, magic, puppetry and ventriloquism.

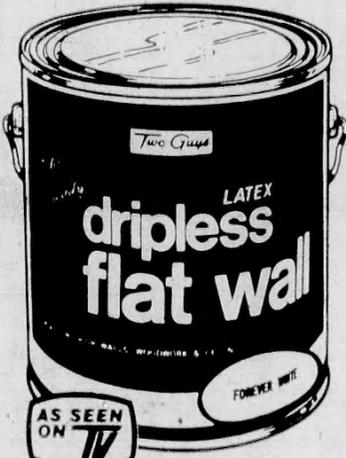

In the entertainment business over 20 years, he is a member of the American Federation of Musicians, Puppeteers of America, the Society of American Magicians and the Society of American Ventriloquists.

Free tickets to Conrad's show may be obtained by visiting the library at 221 Washington Ave. or calling 759-9200.

Trustees establish repair priority list

Continued from page one. expect a bond referendum to pass. "There isn't time for a referendum," he said. "It takes too long, requires public support and we're all aware of the fact that the public doesn't want to spend the money."

Trustees noted that several school buildings were in bad shape and needed attention immediately. "Go for a bond," said Pica. "If it's voted down then the people are telling you again that they don't care how the buildings are."

With the two sides nearing an impasse, Pica suggested that trustees meet privately and come back with a list of priority repairs. After a 20-minute caucus, trustees presented a list with a pricetag of $538,000.

Water savings on the decline

"The general trend has been down since," said Vogel. "I can't say that that (the state announcement) is the cause of it, but it does seem strange that the savings would start falling off just after that."

Though the town has been conserving water at a lesser rate, it is still doing better than many others, and Vogel alluded to a double standard that the state is setting. He noted that officials here and in other suburban towns had been told that they would have to achieve better than the 25 percent cutback in water use ordered by Governor Byrne to make up for the generally poor effort in urban areas.

The state limits water use in individual homes to 50 gallons a day per person. "If anyone has any medical reason why they would have to use more water, we have forms down here at Town Hall," said Vogel. "I would stress 'medical reason,'" he added.

Commissioners offered $400,000 and the $435,000 figure was eventually agreed upon.

Trustees said they would not appeal the budget cut to the state education commissioner, an agreement they made last year for the first time in many.

The School Board is expected to approve a revised priority list Monday. It includes $103,000 for window replacement at School 5; $145,000 for window replacement at the Junior High School; $30,000 to replace a wood floor and wood shop and build a concrete floor with vinyl tiling at JHS; $20,000 for roof replacement and parapet repair at JHS; $34,500 for gym floor replacement and repairs to the cafeteria roof at the high school; $10,500 for partial roof replacement at School 10; $20,000 for roof replacement and all-purpose room repairs and $38,000 for exterior painting and waterproofing and repair of coping, flashing and parapets at School 7; $20,000 for exterior painting and waterproofing at School 5, and $15,000 for the same two items at School 9.

Room-Raising — Linda Esposito of 440 Greylock Parkway was involved in a recent research project at the Mont Alto campus of Pennsylvania State University seeking to adapt commercial mushroom-raising methods for laboratory uses. The successful project was headed by foot Howard office comes just a little more than two months after the Planning Board gave bank officials the go-ahead for the project. The Belleville branch was avidly sought by the Howard to take some of the pressure off its branch on Franklin Avenue in Nutley where long drive-in lines have helped cause a serious traffic problem.

Eatery, Howard Bank opening

The new office and the pizzeria will be located on the west side mall area of the Pathmark and will employ about 55 persons. The Howard branch will not have a drive-in facility.

"We are delighted to be able to make our Howard-powered services more convenient for our friends in the Belleville/Nutley area," said

Branch Manager Marta McGowan. "We have plenty of spacious parking and more than 50 hours of banking service every week that will allow our depositors to combine their banking and food shopping into one visit to the mall."

Bank hours will be 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Fridays and 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturdays. Teller service will be provided from 4-6 p.m. Mondays through Wednesdays and 4-7 p.m. Thursdays.

"Our grand opening festivities will run through May 30," noted McGowan. "We'll be offering the full range of high-interest certificates and accounts, including regular and interest checking, time savings accounts, trust services and Dial 'N

Pay, our own popular telephone bill-paying service.

"We hope all our friends — old as well as new — will come in and look us over. We have great gifts for all deposits of $500 or more, and everyone should be sure to enter our super sweepstakes where they can win valuable Pathmark gift certificates or our grand prize, a five-minute Pathmark shopping spree.

"Spider Man will be on hand from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on opening day to sign autographs and pose for photos with the children," McGowan continued. "So we hope parents will bring their cameras. We'll have balloons for everyone and a special early-bird gift for the first 100 adults who stop by that day, too."

The Howard is New Jersey's largest bank, with assets in excess of $2.8 billion and 44 offices in 12 counties.

D'Agostino suggests some board changes

(the budget cutting) meeting with the Board of Commissioners."

Zoppi was in the overflow audience at the School Board offices, along with former trustee Mike Chieffo, who left the board this year, and Frank Montagna, who lost his bid for a seat in the April 7 election.

Zampino lauded Chieffo for his six years of service and also paid tribute to all the candidates who had run. "I think that Belleville is fortunate to have a cross-section of the community that is concerned," Zampino said. Zampino, who is starting his second year on the board, noted that four new trustees had been chosen by voters since 1980 and said he hoped that would mean a fresh start for the board in 1981.

"Do you feel like the Polish bear on Ed Sullivan?" Zampino asked D'Agostino joshingly as the new vice president began his talk.

In fact, D'Agostino's remarks proved to be the most substantive of any of those made. The vice president said the board needed to take steps to "build its credibility."

He suggested that citizens would perceive trustees as really listening if public business meetings were held

"not from the stage of the high school but at the same level," and said the board needed to be more receptive to citizen suggestions. He added that trustees should consider lifting the five-minute time restriction placed on speeches by residents because he said that if residents take the time to attend board meetings they should be heard to the full.

D'Agostino also advocated selling both of the two schools closed last year as soon as possible or reopening one of them, and he said trustees should stop attending conventions "until we can relieve ourselves of this budgetary crisis."

Miele's speech was the briefest. He said he was looking forward to attaining old goals and setting new ones. Like the other speakers, he welcomed the two new board members.

Board Secretary-Business Administrator Mary Shader swore in both new board members. Miss Rainone's father Peter held the Bible for her, and her mother and brother, Mike, were on hand for the ceremony. Spillane's wife, Barbara, held the Bible for him as their children Tricia, 11, Thomas Jr., 8, and Melanie, 5, looked on.

It's the old law of supply and demand. People entering the home buying market will need 20 million homes in the next 10 years. Those homes are not likely to be there. Housing starts are down...the lowest they've been since 1946. And as everyone knows, when demand exceeds supply, prices go up. That's why you should buy now, if you can. It might not be easy — but it would certainly be wise. For practical advice and information on buying now, talk to a REALTOR®. REALTORS® belong to the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, a group of real estate professionals working to reduce inflation and make more homes available. If you're interested in a home now, don't delay. Call on a REALTOR® today.

New agency to deal with decaying areas

Commissioners last week voted unanimously to create a new Belleville Redevelopment Agency in hopes of upgrading several areas of town, especially the Washington Avenue business district.

The new agency will have seven members. Five will be appointed by commissioners, one by the mayor and one by the State Department of Community Affairs. According to the resolution creating it, the agency's task is to deal with buildings and areas that are "harmful to the physical, social and economic well-being of the community."

The agency will have the power to buy businesses and properties for the town or condemn them and sell them to private interests. Previously when the town condemned property, it could be used for public purposes only. Commissioners are hoping that now the town can induce private firms to buy eyesores and turn them into attractive offices or apartments that will bring more tax ratables to Belleville.

In other action last Tuesday, commissioners approved an amendment to town ordinance that would allow a landlord to be granted a "hardship" rent increase only if he presented state certification of his premises to the Rent Leveling Board.

Board Chairman Michael Ippolito had argued for the amendment because he said rent levels had to have some way of knowing whether landlords were maintaining buildings free of health and safety code violations before granting increases. The town, he noted, does not have enough inspectors to do the checking.

Commissioners also okayed a stringent ordinance requiring canvassers and solicitors to be licensed before selling goods or services in town. Solicitors will have to submit birth, residence and criminal records, character references, employers' names and addresses, descriptions of goods they are selling and how they will sell them, along with passport-type photos, to the town, and then must be fingerprinted at the Police Department. The police will run criminal checks.

Solicitors will have to wear their licenses on outer garments at all times and may make calls only from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays, excluding legal holidays. Licenses will have to be renewed each Jan. 15, and violations can bring up to a $200 fine or 30 days in jail.

Several members of the Unification Church, which operates Belleville Press on Terry Street, turned out to challenge the ordinance. The Moonies, as the followers of the Rev. Sung Myung Moon are commonly known, have organized what they call a "neighborhood service project," offering clean-up help and other assistance to residents. Though they argued vehemently against the new code, since they have said they are offering their services free, they do not appear to be affected by it.

Piro decides against try for new freeholder term

Belleville's Nicholas Amato, now completing his second term as Essex County surrogate, was renominated by the Democrats Monday night.

Several freeholder candidates nominated by the Democrats face primary election opposition because the party dumped four of its seven incumbents — Martin Scaturro, Bernice Davis, Renee Lane and Lincoln Turner. Scaturro, the only freeholder from the old county form of government to serve under the new county executive plan, today will file an opposition slate to the candidates named by the screening committee Monday. Lane told The Belleville Times she also will be running against the organizational line in the June primary.

Tapped for at-large seats on the party line were Tom Giblin, former freeholder and county committee secretary, former Freeholder Joe Parlavacchio and Adrienne Davis, former Essex County College trustee. West Orange Councilman Dennis Dowd got the nod over Lane.

Democrats endorsed incumbents Jerome Greco, Angelo Cifelli and Pearl Beatty. Corina Kay was endorsed to replace Daniel Tindall III, who is not seeking re-election, and Bloomfield Councilman Vincent Perrone got the party's blessing to run for the 5th Freeholder District seat now held by James Piro of Nutley.

Piro, the only Republican on the nine-member freeholder board, represents Belleville and Nutley. He decided not to run again, and in his place the GOP chose County Undersheriff Arthur Clay of Glen Ridge.

Dimes Dimples — All smiles at a recent WalkAmerica rally at St. Anthony's School are sixth grader Carl Kornegay and eighth graders Anna Roma and Stephanie Grant. The March of Dimes walk is this Sunday.

March of Dimes walk scheduled for Sunday

Belleville residents will be joining people from all over Essex County for the 10th annual March of Dimes walkathon scheduled rain or shine for this Sunday. The 25-kilometer walk will raise funds for March of Dimes birth defects prevention programs.

Over 4,000 walkers are expected to participate. A grand prize of an all-expense-paid trip for two to Disneyworld will be won by the walker raising the most funds for the March of Dimes. A walker raising $400 will receive a radio cassette recorder; $300, a large engraved bronze trophy; $200, an engraved plaque, and $150, a small bronze trophy. Last year, 3,000 walkers raised $127,000 for the organization.

Participants will include students fifth grade and up, school teams and clubs, families and church groups, teachers and staff, senior citizens and teams drawn from county corporations will also make the walk. Each walker is expected to find a sponsor who will pledge a certain amount of money to the March of Dimes for each kilometer walked.

Security is being provided by the Essex County Sheriff's Department, local police departments and first aid and ambulance units.

There is an 8 a.m. check-in time for the walk, which will start an hour later at five points in the county. They are in the lower parking lot of Brookdale Park in Bloomfield, the Branch Brook Skating Rink in Newark, West Essex Junior High in North Caldwell, Livingston Memorial Park and Maplewood Junior High. All routes will converge at the midpoint of the walk, Glenfield Park in Montclair, where hot dogs, snacks and soda will be provided free to all participants. The walk will end at Verona Park where area bands will perform until 6 p.m. Some transportation will be provided back to the starting points.

To register, call the WalkAmerica hotline at 761-0859. The line is open 24 hours a day. Volunteers are also needed to serve at checkpoints and to assist with clerical details.
