School vice principal post abolished by Board of Ed

Taking a route long advocated by citizens, the Board of Education reduced the administrative staff and budget at last Monday's public business meeting.

In a 6-1 vote, the board abolished one of the 12-month vice principal posts at the senior high school. The position was vacated in August when Michael Lally moved into the role of principal.

The measure, which leaves only one vice principal at the school, was opposed by board Vice President Anthony D'Agostino who favors maintaining a larger administrative staff at the newly organized high school.

Streamlining efforts triumphed again when the board defeated 4-3 a proposal to establish a 10-month administrative assistant position at the senior high school for a $31,695 first-year salary.

Supporters of the measure argue that the increased student population at the school this year requires additional administrators.

The larger student body is a result of transferring the township's ninth grade classes from the junior high school structure to the Passaic Avenue facility.

Trustee Thomas Zampino described the proposed position as a "hybrid of no position at all and a vice-principal post," modified to reflect a $7,000 savings in salary budget without sacrificing administrative staffing.

"If you double the school population, you must administer properly to avoid crisis situations," Zampino said, adding, "Cost consciousness is properly motivated, but this is the wrong time for it. The kids will pay."

With further suggestions that the position be reviewed after a one or two year trial period, D'Agostino, Zampino and Donna Rainone supported the proposal.

Opposing the position, Caesar Romano said, "We must seriously review how we spend our dollars. We need redeployment of our present staff and should perform a self-review."

Agreeing, board President Charles Miele noted that equally

NO DECISION MADE MONDAY

Trustees still unsure about fate of School 1

By Linda Telesco

The fate of School One remains foggy despite indications by the School Board that the clouds of indecision would be dispelled at Monday's public executive session.

"We can boast accomplishment of indecision on this problem," said Trustee Thomas Zampino who urged his colleagues to stop vacillating and render a definite decision.

Located in the township's Silver Lake district, School One has been closed for educational purposes since June 1980, as part of a controversial desegregation plan. Ever since, protesting parents have pleaded with the board to reopen the building for schoolchildren.

For the past 16 months, the board has toyed with three alternatives for the building; to reopen the school for educational purposes, to convert it into board offices, or to sell it, to either the township or to public bidders.

At the close of Monday's session, the same three options remained in the running. Only the proponents changed, as various trustees sway allegiance from one plan to another with almost predictable regularity.

Asserting his own steadfastness on the issue, board President Charles Miele repeated his recommendation that School One be used for administrative offices.

Presently, the facility is used by the board as a bus depot and storage area. According to Miele, the property has been appraised and the appraiser indicated that no other structure in town satisfies the board's office needs as well as the former school.

"Use it for offices, a bus depot, receiving, and inventory control. We can be an effective administration then," said Miele, recommending a route most unpopular with area parents.

The board now rents for $1 annually the second floor of 383 Washington Ave., a township-owned building. Previously, Miele assured taxpayers that no major alterations would be made to School One if used for offices.

However, the board would add utility bills to its budget. Presently, the township supplies utilities for the Washington Avenue offices.

Board Vice President Anthony

D'Agostino and Trustees Donna Rainone and John Distasi oppose using the facility for offices, although Rainone previously favored that alternative.

"I think we should sell the building," she said, but others cautioned against the finality of that route.

Looking to the future, DiStasi said, "I predict population will rise judging from migration into the community. We should maintain School One in the event we need a school in the future."

The decision on School One is complicated by related action on School Two, a Mill Street building also closed last year. Presently, the board is debating over two bids received for purchase of School Two by private concerns. Several trustees questioned the wisdom of selling both buildings when future needs might necessitate purchasing a facility.

"I think our decision on School One depends on what we do with School Two," said Miele.

Since action on the other building has been postponed, the 16-month school saga drags on for at least another week.

Talks to resume on bus problems

By Ed Capparucci

The problems facing many bus commuters throughout Belleville may soon be coming to a head in the next few weeks, when officials from New Jersey Transit and Public Affairs Commissioner Vincent Strumolo meet to discuss possible solutions to the problems.

James Hughes, an official of NJT said in a telephone interview late Tuesday that he was planning to get in contact with Commissioner Strumolo to set up a possible meeting as early as next week.

"We have been investigating the problems which the commissioner pointed out to us," said Hughes, "and I hope to meet with him by next week. We have been checking out the riders' services on the bus line mentioned by the commissioner to have been an inconvenience to residents, and we plan to have some alternatives for them."

School Board votes to install turnstiles

Motivated by last year's ticket-sales scandal, the Board of Education agreed to measures which will ensure accurate head counts and attendance receipts from school sporting events.

At Monday's meeting, the board elected to purchase and install two turnstiles at the entrance gates of future games and to demand an attendance report from the athletic director shortly after any given event.

The portable turnstiles cost $1,000 a piece and will be purchased from the Percy Turnstile Company in New York.

Trustee Thomas Spillane said, "Even if we don't make up the money spent (on turnstiles) in ticket sales, at least we'll know its done honestly. A shadow has been cast over present ticket takers and that's not right."

Spillane's comment referred to a scandal that arose last October when two Belleville High School teachers, who have since resigned, were arrested for reselling already collected football game tickets and keeping the profits.

The "scam" was discovered when school officials questioned receipts (Please see 'School' on page 21.)

Township will conduct health clinic Wednesday

Public Affairs Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo, announced that the Belleville Health Department will conduct its annual Health Clinic, on Wednesday, October 14, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 6-8:30 p.m.

The health program will be conducted at the Belleville Health Department at 383 Washington Ave.

The programs will include free flu shots to residents of Belleville who are 65 or over and have a chronic illness, along with oral cancer screening, diabetes testing, and eye screening. Note: eye screening will be held 6-8:30 p.m. only.

The director strongly recommends senior citizens, particularly those over age 65 years, to take advantage of the flu vaccine, because excess mortality in influenza outbreaks occurs in this age group. Flu vaccine is also recommended for adults who have such chronic conditions as: heart disease, chronic bronchopulmonary diseases, chronic bronchitis, bronchiectasis, tuberculosis, emphysema, cystic fibrosis, chronic renal disease, diabetes mellitus and other chronic metabolic disorders.

Vaccine will not be administered to pregnant women, those with a fever or acute illness, persons under 30, those who have received another vaccine within the past 14 days or anyone with an allergy to eggs, chicken or chicken feathers. Residents are advised to consult a physician regarding the vaccine.

Vaccination may also be considered for persons who provide essential community services and may be at increased risk of exposure.

Strumolo stated that the flu vaccine will be given in one dose containing three flu types — A/Brazil, A/Bangkok and B/Singapore.

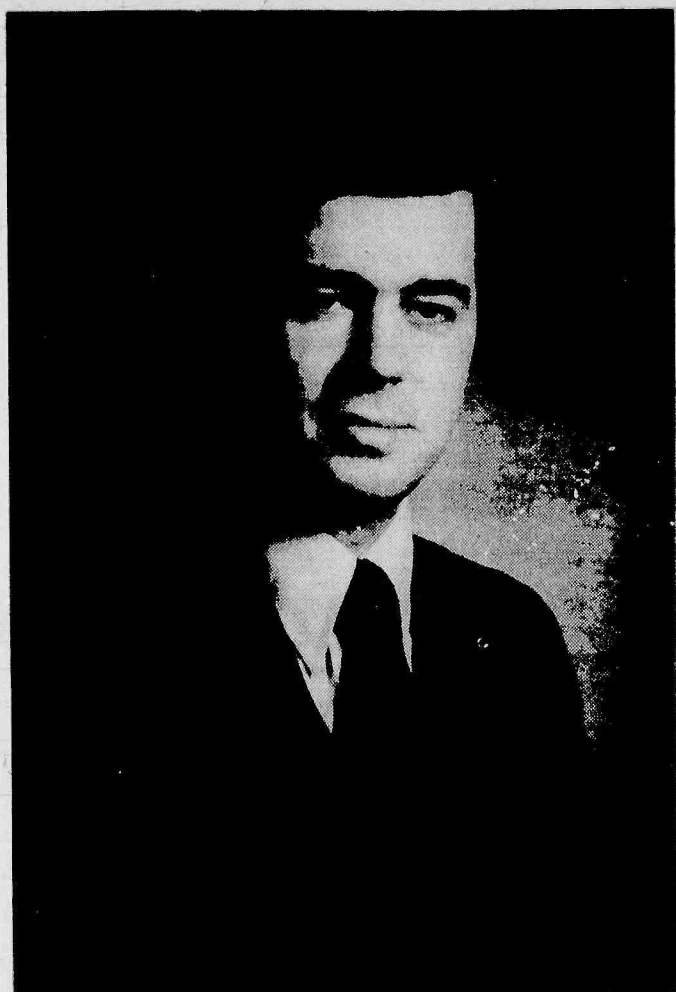

Commissioner Strumolo's great concern is based on one of our most common disease — diabetes. He said it is far more common, for example, than active tuberculosis. In the United States, it affects an estimated two and a half million people. About 4,750,000 people potential diabetics.

It is estimated that over two million Americans who have diabetes. (Please see 'Township' on page 3.)

Peter Vazquez; becomes partner

Blume & Weisman, a professional corporation, is pleased to announce that Peter J. Vazquez has become a shareholder in the firm. Hereafter, the firm will be known as Blume, Weisman, and Vazquez.

A Belleville High School graduate, Vazquez holds a B.A. degree from Rutgers University and a J.D. from Seton Hall Law School.

He is a member of the American, New Jersey and Essex County Bar Associations as well as an arbitrator for the American Arbitration Association.

Vazquez and his wife, Mary, (nee Dopart), reside in Livingston and are the parents of three children, Peter Jr., Steven and Cynthia.

Employment honor for Patricia Davis

Patricia Davis, 83 Charles St., Belleville, was selected by the Russell E. Stevens & Co., Inc., Insurance firm of Bloomfield as their "People Pleaser" employee for the month of October.

"We are very selective in our employees, who take pride in their professionalism and scope of insurance knowledge, and who serve our clients with real concern and dedication," said the firm's President John N. Stevens. "We like to call them 'People Pleasers,'" he added.

Pat joined the firm in 1978 and has an expertise in several areas, including technical typing, proofreading and rating. She enjoys her work for several reasons: the people contact, employers that are "easy to work with" and the other members of the staff who are all supportive of each other.

A graduate of West Side High School, Newark, the October "People Pleaser" enjoys reading "everything." She modestly admits to creativity in writing poems, but "only for the family."

really know what it is.

Gangrene is a bacteria which produces substances that kill cells. It can destroy blood cells, skin, muscle, etc. The germ is found in dead or extremely weak tissues. This environment lacks oxygen which allows the bacteria to survive and multiply.

There are two types of diabetic gangrene. Those that have in addition Arteriosclerosis. This condition is extremely difficult to reverse if not impossible. Treatment may include rest, debridement of dead tissue, heavy doses of antibiotics and reconstructive vascular surgery. If unsuccessful amputation is necessary.

The second type of diabetic gangrene occurs in a warm healthy looking foot with normal appearing skin and good circulation (Do you realize there are pulses in the foot?) This of course differs from the earlier picture of the first type including a cold foot, thin skin appearance & no pulse.

Con't. 10/22/81

Since there is so much material to cover, I will try to present strictly the facts. The majority of joint destruction in the foot due to D.M. and neurological symptoms is in the Tarsal Metatarsal Joints. This destructive change results in destruction of the ligaments resulting in disfigurement of the entire foot.

What treatment is available?

The control of D.M. is essential, without it no hope exists. The symptoms are treated first with medication to relieve pain. I will later discuss treatment of Gangrene due to Diabetes. Also utilized is rest, molded shoes, and surgery.

What is an important complication of Diabetes?

Lesions of the feet are extremely important. Lack of circulation associated with D.M. can lead to ulcerations of the skin & gangrene. Nerve loss leads to loss of sensation and poor foot function. Combining D.M., poor circulation with nerve damage and the result is increased chance of infection.

What is gangrene?

Bridgebrook Gardens must return $6,795 in overcharges to tenants

By Linda Telesco

A group of landlords and the management of the Bridgebrook Gardens apartment complex were ordered last week by the Rent Leveling Board to rebate $6,795 in rent overcharges.

Following a three-hour hearing last Thursday, the board ruled that the landlords and their managing agent, Govel Associates of Belleville, had failed to follow legal procedure for imposing rent increases on new occupants of previously vacated apartments.

The hearing resulted from complaints filed by tenants of 12 units. The tenants said they were charged rents far in excess of those paid by previous occupants of the same apartments.

Rent Board Chairman Ron Platt explained in a Tuesday interview, "The rent ordinance sets a procedure for such increases called 'parity' and Bridgebrook failed to follow the legal procedure."

Platt said that parity increases are permitted if an apartment is found to be comparable to other units within the complex for which higher rents had been legally established previously.

A landlord must apply to the Rent Board when the apartment is vacated and the board inspects the unit to determine comparability. If approved, the landlord may then establish a new rent for the apartment.

"The Bridgebrook people failed to follow this procedure and simply raised the rents on their own and violated the ordinance," Platt said.

Board Attorney Frank Cozzarelli said early this week that the overcharges ranged from $20 to $50 monthly and the increases had been collected for periods of approximately one-and-a-half to two years.

The board ruled that rebates must be paid within 30 days of the October 1 decision.

However, William Govel of Govel Associates insisted Tuesday that no rebates will be paid. "We're going to appeal this decision," he said in a telephone interview.

Govel added that landlords who failed to follow the parity increase formula should be fined not denied "reasonable rents" on the units.

According to Govel, the units in question are ineligible for parity application now because they're presently occupied and the ordinance stipulates that they be vacant for the inspection.

"If the landlord cannot charge higher rents and is unable to pay bills, he may file for tax appeals or apply for hardship increases next year and then everyone suffers," Govel added.

Govel's attorney, Frank Pomaco of Belleville, explained that the landlords failed to follow parity procedures because "they were vacillating and confusing. Set procedures were not established until January, 1981. It has been confusing until recently."

Pomaco said Tuesday he will file an appeal to overturn the board's decision and to obtain a stay of action in the interim.

Strumolo moving to end bus problems with Strumolo and the township's transportation committee Chairman James Golden. At the meeting, the men discussed many problems suffered by bus riders throughout the township, mainly the commuters along Joralemon Street, who are without buses after 6 p.m. In the original bus schedule released by the NJT earlier this year, buses were scheduled to run along the route each night at 30 minute intervals. Since that time though, there has been no bus service at all in the evening hours.

"This is are greatest concern," said Golden on behalf of Strumolo, who is on vacation. "We have been eagerly awaiting a reply from the New Jersey Transit people in response to our previous meeting. We only hope that things can be worked out for the sake of the residents of Belleville."

According to Huges, the one problem which may not be able to be worked out is the 90 line, which runs along Belmont residents along the avenue are upset with the buses, saying that they are distributed by the noise and heavy traffic.

"We are going to really have to put our heads together to solve this problem," said Huges. "We have been looking at some but it is going to take some time to straighten out the problem at hand.

"We thought about moving the bus to 6th street, but there already is one bus running along there," he continued, "and the commissioner suggested Watessing Avenue, but we are concerned that there may not be enough stores to generate riders. Along Belmont Avenue there is the Pathmark, and many people who use the line use it for that reason."

Golden said that he would let the commissioner discuss the Belmont Avenue bus problem with Huges and not make any comment himself.

"If the NJT officials feel that there are going to be problems in correcting the bus lines then let them talk to Commissioner Strumolo about it," he said.

don't know it. Yet, Diabetes is fairly easy to detect. The following are the most usual symptoms: increase in thirst, constant hunger, frequent urinating, loss of weight, itching, easy tiring, change in vision, slow healing cuts and scratches. However, some people have diabetes without any symptoms at all. Found early enough, diabetes can be controlled. Overlooked or neglected, it can quickly lead to serious trouble. The director strongly urges citizens who fall in this category, to please take advantage of this free test.

The programs are under the direction of Philip A. Rispoli, M.D., Sharda Sharma, M.D., Plamer Burde, D.D.S., James Parisi, M.D., along with the Health Department's Public Health Nursing staff.

COME IN FOR FREE INFORMATION KIT.

You probably will qualify for 1982!

Provident will be pleased to tell you if you qualify...

Monies invested in a Provident KEOGH or IRA retirement plan reduce your adjusted gross income for federal tax purposes and you pay no federal income taxes on these funds until you withdraw them at retirement when you will probably be in a lower tax bracket. Starting in 1982 you can contribute up to $2250 (if you have a non-working spouse) of your earned income into an IRA—up to $15,000 into a KEOGH if you are self-employed.

If you already have an IRA, KEOGH or other pension plan, you can...

- 1) Transfer your current Account to Provident from any other trustee or custodian.
- 2) Open another Account at Provident to handle your 1981 contributions.
- 3) Have a second tax-saving IRA plan in 1982 even if you are presently covered by a company, or other qualified pension plan!

Come in today—plan intelligently for top interest rates...

The sooner you make your contribution, the more interest your plan will earn. IRA plans and contributions must be completed by the date you file your federal income tax return—probably April 15th, 1982 for the 1981 year. KEOGH accounts must be applied for by December 31st for the 1981 deductible year. Be sure you take your maximum allowable contribution!

Father Matt

Sunday night, friends of Father Matthew Pesaniello shared the evening with him commemorating his 25th anniversary as a priest. Father Matt is the pastor of St. Anthony's R.C. Church, Union City, New Jersey, an assignment he received this year. For most of his 25 years in the work of the Lord, Father Matt has been deeply involved in working with the disadvantaged. For many years he served as a dean of the archdiocese; a senator of the Archdiocesan Senate; a policy maker on the Committee of Archdiocesan Priorities; a founding president of the National Apostolate for the Mentally Retarded. He also served as the director of the Rehabilitation Center for the Handicapped; the director of Youth Change, coordinator for a drug rehabilitation program and a director of the Department of Special Education.

Of an apostle among the lepers it was said, "If a man seeks souls in such bodies, it is quite certain that he seeks nothing but souls." In working with the handicapped, the mentally retarded, poverty stricken, youth, drug-users — Father Matt dedicated himself to saving the bodies and souls of people who were unable to take care of themselves or lost all desire to live a Godly life.

To separate the love of his work from the people he works with is like trying to separate the sun from the sunshine. For Father Matt, the world would be an empty place — a drab and dreary place — were it not for hopeful eyes and smiling faces of the unfortunate ones whose lives were enriched by his spiritual touch. Father Matt's biography spells out his mission in life — he delivers medicaid for the soul. He has childlike faith in the goodness of people. For those among us fortunate to have an intimate relationship with Father Matt, one perceives the vigorous conviction of a priest who believes his fellow human being has the right to smile.

In dealing with the unfortunate and the afflicted, Father Matt has seen the hunger and the hurt in the eyes and faces of the youth he so ably serves. He sees them struggling with their fears and failures — and others who lose hope and give up in despair. And through all his experiences, Father Matt hears the cries of pain — and commits his life to relieve some of that pain.

In recognizing the honor bestowed upon him Sunday night, Father Matt made some heart-rending observations. He also told the audience of his decision to become a priest. After serving as a member of General Patton's Third Army, 16th Armored Division, 26th Tank Battalion, Father Matt returned home, reorganized his life, and one day confided in his brother, "I am going to be a priest." His brother responded, "Did you tell Mama?" "No, but I will," Father Matt replied.

One day he took his mother aside and said, "Mother, I am going to be a priest." As a boy growing up in Jersey City's Hell's Kitchen, the sixth of nine children, a veteran of General Patton's army, the last thing in the world Mother Pesaniello thought her son would want to be was a priest. She startled our hero by replying, "If you want to be a priest — be a good one." And so he took mother's advice and Father Matt stands before the world as one of its great humanitarians — as an apostle of the Lord — spreading the word of love every hour of every day of his sweet life.

Father Matt's personal philosophy perhaps can be best expressed from his observation that a person needs to be loved the most when loved the least. He measures values in terms of service to others rather than to himself. He measures happiness, not in having many things, but in needing few. And as for determination, in Father Matt's house, there is no room for failures. Believe it or not — of course you would believe — Father Matt has frequently made a commitment before he has the answer for he knows that with a dream he has everything.

There are days and nights sometimes when Father Matt undoubtedly — for a fleeting moment — may be overcome with depression, but he has a vision — it is only from the valley that the mountain seems high — and determined priest that he is — he keeps trying — and finally reaches the summit. Father Matt has brought to his 25th year of service a love of people and life rarely found in the human being. Father Matt has a great past, but his future lies ahead — and his greatness is still to be achieved. A warm, compassionate human being, God's love is reflected in the face of this gentle and understanding apostle of God.

It was George Bernard Shaw who said, "You see things as they are and wonder why I see things that never were and say why not!" George Bernard Shaw's quote represents the life and times of a good priest, Father Matt. May God continue to bestow his grace upon this fine human being and cloak him with health and happiness, and the opportunity to continue his life's work.

Letters

Appointed members may be board answer

To the Editor:

I have just read Mr. Di Nicola's letter in which he condemns a movement to change our board from elective to appointed. Mr. Di Nicola has several flaws and downright lies in his letter. I will first answer him on each and every point and then dispute the rest of his letter.

Point No. 1 — no where did we ever say an appointed board would wave a magic wand and our troubles will disappear, but let's look at what our past and present elective boards have done for our children, schools and taxes. Do you like it Mr. Di Nicola? Well I don't think the citizens of Belleville do!

Point No. 2 — you say an appointed board will be political from its inception. Mr. Di Nicola, have you ever seen the way people who work for the board are forced to put signs on their lawns for certain candidates? Have you ever seen our non-political administrators run from school to school handing out literature on behalf of certain board members at election time? Mr. Di Nicola, how many people are hired each year because they are related or did favors for certain board members at election time? Mr. Di Nicola, is that non-political?

Point No. 3 — you claim we can't ever vote on a budget again. Will you please tell the people if any board, past or present ever cut the budget at a public meeting after hearing the voices of the people. Mr. Di Nicola, you are well aware that the budget presented each and every year is inflated and it is always rejected by the voters and it is cut by the town fathers. Our vote on the budget has no meaning at the present. The county and the state can and have done, so in the past imposed their will upon us after we the voters rejected past budgets. The budget in the future will not be made up by the board members. It would be made up by a committee which will be comprised of two board members, two town fathers and two citizens and it will be aired at public meetings and once passed, the county and the state cannot interfere.

Point No. 4 — you state we will lose our vote, you Mr. Di Nicola are wrong. As it now stands we have to endure with a board member for three years regardless of performance. With an appointed board, we have a recourse — complain to those who made the appointment and ask for his removal and if our voices go unheard we at election time have the right and choice to vote those who ignore our voices out of office. So you see Mr. Di Nicola, we still have a vote and it is a stronger one.

Now Mr. Di Nicola, I resent your remarks that a self-appointed group of citizens led by Mr. Risoli started the movement. Mr. Risoli is not leading any movement, he is only one of a group of 25 people who originally started it. It was I and several concerned people who started the movement. I will ask you Mr. Di Nicola, what is wrong with a group of interested citizens banding together? Read our American history Mr. Di Nicola, it has been and it will always be our right to do so. Mr. Di Nicola, read our history; where would this country be if it wasn't for citizens who were not satisfied with our elected officials and sat idly by and did nothing? Mr. Di Nicola, you called us malcontents and you implied that we pestered, coerced and preyed on senior citizens. Let me set you straight. I and I alone collected close to 300 signatures and I didn't beg, force or coerce anyone. I sat in houses and fielded any question put to me and I am proud to say I was only refused by two people. The group also didn't beg, force or coerce anyone. Mr. Di Nicola, you must be referring to certain board members not us. Mr. Di Nicola, why don't you allow the voters to make the decision; isn't that the democratic way? You Mr. Di Nicola have the right to disagree but calling on the people who signed the petitions to recall their name sounds like someone says one thing and does another. Mr. Di Nicola, why didn't you tell the people that the malcontents have recommended that one person from each district will be appointed thus giving equal and fair representation and removing certain large blocks of votes influencing decisions.

Mr. Di Nicola, three more questions: 1) Would you accept an appointment to the board?; 2) Didn't you just accept an appointed position on the Belleville-Nutley Mental Commission? Who appointed you?; 3) And finally why is your appointed position good and a position on an appointed board bad?

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Here we are into what should be the height of the November 3rd General Election's campaign, which is only two weeks away, yet, outside of the unilateral activity of the local Democratic Party under the capable, vigorous leadership of Commissioner Mary V. Senatore, who is the town Democratic chairman, there has been a dearth of campaign activity from the rather somnolent G.O.P. party and its lethargic, evanescent local and county leadership in the personalities of Mr. Jerry Ferrara and Mr. John Renna, respectively.

This upcoming election confronts the electorate with the responsibility of determining who will govern the people of New Jersey for the next several years. To be elected is a new Governor to serve for the next four years; also, the election must decide the outcome of who represents the people of the 40 State election districts in the State Legislature.

The role of the Legislature of the State is most significant since it so closely affects the lives of Jerseyans in almost every phase of their daily existence. Opening for 80 seats in the Assembly for a two-year term and 40 seats in the State Senate for four-year terms are up for grabs in this vitally significant election, upon which the eyes of the entire nation will be glued because it will be gauged as an evaluation of public reaction to President Reagan's popularity. The only other State holding a gubernatorial election this year is Virginia which will also be closely watched.

Of particular importance to Belleville voters is the reality that, through redistricting, we will be ensconced within a suburban climate of purely Essex County concern and given the opportunity to select, from among competent candidates from both parties, representatives to, with dedication and sincere interest, better serve the needs of the lifestyle of suburban communities and their families.

Belleville is now in the State election District 30 which includes the communities of Belleville, Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Glen Ridge, Montclair, Nutley and Verona. — It will be observed that the quality and experience of all the candidates aspiring for the top rung offices of State Senator and for State Assembly seats are well-trained veterans in the field of local government or the banking world...Let's take a brief glance at their background.

The race for the Senate spot pits Bloomfield Councilman John Grecco, serving his fourth term on that town's local government body, running on the Republican line, against Senator Carmine A. Orecchio, Nutley's popular Mayor and present State Senator from the 30th District; he also is the present Democratic Majority Leader in the New Jersey State Senate. It is presumed that his re-election would result in his designation as State President, a most prestigious office that elevates the holder of that title to the role of Acting Governor during the absence of the Governor from the State.

While the competency of both candidates is beyond challenge, it is expected that Belleville voters, in view of the strong Democratic machine developed by Commissioner Senatore as town Democratic chairlady, will augment Senator Orecchio's vote getting power in the newly redistricted voting District 30; especially, is the likely, since Commissioner Senatore, herself, is running on this ticket as an Assembly candidate.

The contest for the two available Assembly seats becomes more complicated to analyze. Experience abounds in their chosen forte in the case of each aspirant. The G.O.P. offers a highly successful and respected Nutley banker John Kelly and an outstanding knowledgeable lady in the person of Cedar Grove's Deputy Mayor and Councilwoman Josephine "Jo" Mongiello. The Democrats, as in the senatorial contest, appear to have gained strength with Belleville's addition to the 30th District. Both Commissioner Senatore, serving her fourth term in office, and the ever outstanding vote getter and popular idol Assemblyman A. "Buddy" Fortunato, seeking his third term return to Trenton, are sure to tally votes in the Democratic column in what, at this time, augurs well for the Florio ticket.

It could be noted that President Reagan's harsh budget cuts and ruthless assaults upon the poor, jobless and senior citizens in increasing their medicare costs hasn't won any friends for candidates seeking office under the Republican aegis.

Girl Scouts recruiting volunteers

"Join the Green Team" is the theme of an adult recruitment campaign currently in process for the local Girl Scout organizations. Volunteers involved are looking ahead to this fall's activities, and telling their friends about the rewards of working with Girl Scouts.

The Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex serves about 13,000 girls in the Essex County area, plus Summit and New Providence. More than 2,500 adult volunteers help by being troop leaders and assistants; by organizing troops in school areas; with consulting; sharing careers, skills and hobbies; by helping with outdoor activities; by making phone calls or providing transportation and by working with adults in organizational capacities. They all have one thing in common, they are doing important work. Girl Scouting does make a positive difference in the kind of adults girls become, and volunteer work with this organization is an investment in the future.

Adult volunteers in Girl Scouting have opportunities to make new friends, develop skills and learn new ones, provide service to the community and have fun. Whatever amount of time an individual can offer can be a help to Girl Scouting. If you are interested, contact Lois McPherson at the council office, 120 Valley Road, Montclair, telephone number 746-8200.

Your rich uncle has a tax-free gift for you.

Introducing the All Savers Certificate—the savings plan that can earn you up to $2,000* in tax-free interest!

Uncle Sam, at last, is rewarding the thrifty.

From October 1 through all of 1982, we're offering All Savers, a remarkable new savings certificate plan that pays tax-free interest.

Here's how it works: Open an All Savers Certificate with at least $500. If you're married and file jointly, the first $2,000 of interest is free from any federal tax. If you file a single return, then it's the first $1,000.

The new All Savers Certificate can be a significant investment, depending on your total taxable income. The chart shows you the rate you would need in an alternative investment to match the tax equivalent yield you get with the All Savers Certificate.

The term for an All Savers Certificate is one year and you always earn the highest interest allowed by *or up to $1,000 if you file a single return.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kashey — nee Grace Marie Lembo

Grace Lembo becomes wife of George Kashey

Wedding vows were exchanged Sept. 6 in St. Anthony's Church by Miss Grace Marie Lembo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lembo, of Belleville, and George Michael Kashey, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kashey of Clifton.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a lace-bodiced gown with high neckline and cathedral train. A lace and pearl headpiece held her veil and she carried long-stemmed call lilies.

Diane Lembo of Belleville was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Roseann Pennisi of Cedar Grove, sister of the bride, Maryjo DeSantis, Maria LaBadia, Marigrace Valvano and Veronica Nicosia of Belleville, Joy Kashey and Renee Kashey, sisters of the groom from Clifton.

The honor attendant was in an aubergine Qiana gown with lace top and sleeves. She wore matching flowers in her hair and carried a cascade of daisies, carnations, baby roses and babies breath. The others were similarly attired in lavender and carried daisies, carnations and babies breath.

Rick Kashey of Clifton was his brother's best man. Ushering were Joe Pennisi of Cedar Grove, John Gerosky of East Rutherford, Joseph LaBadia, Ben Spagnoletti and Dan DeSantis of Belleville, Michael Healy of Mississippi and Ken Tait of Wharton. Ringbearers were Vincent and Joseph Pennisi of Cedar Grove, nephews of the bride.

Mrs. Lembo chose a sea foam Qiana gown with matching coat, while the groom's mother was in a peach chiffon gown with matching coat. Corsages were white orchids.

Mrs. Kashey, an alumna of Belleville High School and Kean College, was a teacher at Wonder World Nursery School.

Mr. Kashey, an alumnus of Pope Paul VI High School and Newark College of Engineering, is with Autodynamic Inc., Neptune.

The couple honeymooned in California.

Robin Lynn Meyler and Gerald Porrino

Miss Robin Lynn Meyler to marry Gerald Porrino

Mr. and Mrs. Robert William Meyler, III of 38 Wilber St. have announced the engagement of their daughter, Robin Lynn, to Gerald David Porrino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Porrino of Newark.

The troth was made known Sept. 5 at an engagement party at the home of the bride-elect.

Miss Meyler, an alumna of Belleville High School, is a clerk in a local small business.

Mr. Porrino, a graduate of East Side High School, Newark, attended Bloomfield College and is with American Express Company, New York.

The wedding is planned for Sept. 15, 1982.

'Godspell' worth the music; but really lacks good acting

By John Jurlich

"Be careful not to make a show of your religion before men," advises Christ. "Godspell," which opened this past weekend at the Family Playhouse in Nutley, is a show not carefully made but well worth the time of men, women, and especially children.

The musical, based on a college thesis by John-Michael Tebelak, is divided into two constantly alternating parts. One has Jesus, dressed in a Superman shirt, delivering the familiar parables from Scripture to his clown disciples. The weakest part of "Godspell" is here. The cast acts out the parables as they are spoken. Sometimes this has an inventive, almost improvisational quality to it, but more often it seems contrived, an attempt at the childlike that comes off as just childish.

The second element of "Godspell" is something else entirely, though, and the time spent waiting for the "message" to come to an end and the music to begin only seems to add to the enjoyment. The musical numbers were, the lightning following the static electricity in the Holy Family Players' production Sunday, and the audience clapped, sang, stood and cheered.

The cast assembled by director Don Attanasio is exceptionally talented, and the "Godspell" the Holy Family Players put on Sunday afternoon ranged from the thoroughly professional to the simply sensational. There were several high points in a superior production. Anthony Complitano sang and was backed beautifully by the cast on "All Good Gifts." Marianne Scarpelli was just terrific on "Bless the Lord My Soul," and Sharon Robinson's voice soared throughout. Then of course there was the musical's great standard, "Day by Day," which ignited the audience.

Joe Furnari played the part of Christ and was excellent. Other cast members were Robert Diachesyn, David and Donald Flynn, Christa Somma, Cathy Danchak and Maria Kvetkus, and they were all fine. Sometimes, when a production is shaky, an audience can't sit back and enjoy it, but has to fret about whether somebody will flub a line or forget a cue. No worries here. The timing and miming were all remarkable. One small quibble: A few cast members could have used a little more volume at times.

And that brings us to the band, which wasn't too loud, by the way, just very good. Gerard Barros, the music director, was on piano, Chris Gilligan played guitar, Gene Paul Bloch bass and Muke Gokhale the drums. The four of them were not merely flawless but outstanding, complementing, never interfering, with what was going on on stage.

"Godspell" played to big audiences this past weekend and deserves more crowds for its final stand this one coming up. The musical runs 8:15 p.m. tomorrow and Saturday with a 3 p.m. matinee Sunday at the Family Playhouse, located at 28 Brookline Ave. off Harrison Street in Nutley. Reserved seats are $2 and can be obtained by calling 667-2991. Tickets will also be available at the door.

Cerebral Palsy center starts collection drive

The Cerebral Palsy Center of Belleville has started collecting used aluminum beverage cans which will be sold for recycling and the proceeds will be used to finance their athletic team at the National Cerebral Palsy Games to be held next summer.

The games are held each year for participants who because of the seriousness of their disability are unable to qualify for the Special Olympics for the Disabled.

Cans can be delivered to the Belleville Cerebral Palsy Center at 7 Sanford Avenue, Belleville, on working days (Monday through Friday) between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Any person living within five miles of the center who collects in excess of 2,000 cans may call the center and arrange for the cans to be collected.

The Cerebral Palsy Center provides medical, therapeutic, pre-school and educational services to 500 clients, 150 of whom attend the center five days a week.

Special Education group conducting first meeting

The Special Education Parents and Professional Organization will hold its first meeting for the school year on Thursday, October 15 at 7:30 p.m. at School Number Four.

All parents, teachers and persons interested in Special Education are invited to attend. There will be a guest speaker, Mrs. Kay Sanford, Field Representative for the Social Security Administration. She will discuss benefits entitled to parents of handicapped children.

Refreshments will be served and parents will have an opportunity to share their concerns and expertise with other parents and teachers. Those who wish to join the organization may do so at the meeting.

Knights celebrate their 100th year

The Knights of Columbus Council 835 of Belleville, formally opened the local observance of the 100th birthday of the worldwide fraternal society.

The observance began on Monday, Sept. 14 with the celebration of a Mass offered by Father James Heavey, council chaplain, and the adoption of a formal resolution. As explained by Grand Knight Frank Corbo, the resolution declared that the council, which was chartered on Jan. 31, 1904 is celebrating the Centennial of the Knights of Columbus. The resolution further declared that the council will endeavor to carry out its various activities supporting Church, family and community life with the greatest possible energy and zeal during this special jubilee year.

Founded in New Haven, Connecticut, in 1882 through the efforts of a young priest, Father Michael J.

McGivney, the Catholic fraternal society has spread throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Puerto Rico, the Philippines, Guatemala, Guam and the Virgin Islands. There are some 7,000 councils or lodges throughout the world and more than 1.35 million members. One million of these reside in the United States and more than 200,000 are in Canada.

The main motivation for joining the Knights of Columbus is the opportunity to cooperate with other men of good will in carrying out worthy projects for a religious and social nature. The society also offers its members a modestly priced insurance for the protection of their families. Last year the Knights of Columbus disbursed more than $29 million for charitable and benevolent causes. They also donated more than 9.2 million man hours to community service.

Belleville's past

The Belleville's Firemen's Hall of Fame is doing very well. Keep the artifacts coming. The firemen are doing a very good job in decorating the Museum Room on Franklin Avenue.

Next year will the 100th Anniversary of the Belleville Fire Department. All sorts of events are being planned to celebrate the occasion. Whatever their endeavors, let's all show our appreciation by getting behind the firemen and give them our fullest cooperation. After all, both the Police and Firemen put their lives on the line for us and help us in the time of illness and accidents.

That old spirit of pride has come back to Belleville. It all started two years ago and credit has to be given to the students of Belleville High School. The winning spirit started with the athletic teams, the coaches, cheerleaders and the band. All were great. The student body got behind their teams and rooted them on. Their conduct was of the very best. Two years in a row we have played at the Meadowslands and you could tell from the people who attended, of the spirit and pride that they had for Belleville. So hats off the the young students, let's keep up the good work. We are proud of all of you.

Now the firemen are showing that Belleville means a lot to them also. An anniversary means a party, so let's join in the affairs that are planned for next year and let's all have some fun.

RECOLLECTIONS

There is a spot in Jersey,
A spot most dear to me.
For there my childhood was spent
In rambles full of glee.

There it was that I was born
And there my heart will stay
Until the ebbing time of life
Shall carry it away.

Though from its hills I am apart
Separation no change doth wake.
For my heart is still in Belleville,
Dear Belleville, on the Passaic.

ALL ATHLETES NEED CHIROPRACTIC CARE

ATHLETES MUST HAVE SPINAL EXAMINATIONS

Athletes competing in organized competition, from grade school on through professional sports, are in need of chiropractic care regularly. Some high school teams and most college teams have a team trainer, or employ a masseur to help relieve sore muscles, but that is not enough. Medical doctors are of much help for purposes of first aid, but athletes in most sports receive quick jolts and strains on the muscles, which pull the bones in the spine out of place.

Many times a competitor will have a problem that goes undetected. He will be lethargic and unenthusiastic. He will lack energy and fire. Chances are that the coach will not associate the player's condition with a hit he has received, which may be far removed from the discomfort.

It is very likely, that the discomfort may be due to cervical pressure, which can easily be detected by a team chiropractor, or by a visit to his office where an x-ray machine is available, which is essential in detecting displacements of the spine. These whiplash-type injuries are common among all athletes who participate in contact sports. This type of injury is long-term and far-reaching in its ultimate effect, because these injuries usually occur close to the brain stalk in the area of the neck.

If Olympic athletes who are competing for the biggest prizes in amateur sports see the need for chiropractic care, it is evident that high school and college athletes, and grade-school athletes, especially those involved in contact sports like football, need a bigger neck brace which will protect the neck better from whiplash type jolts and, more especially broken necks.

Competition is the American trademark, but certainly if young people are going to compete, they should suffer their worst pains in losing a game, and not from serious spinal subluxations which can be corrected and prevented with chiropractic care.

Every year, United Way successfully continues to support local human service agencies in communities all across the United States.

A lot of the credit for this success goes to the dedicated efforts of people in business—to top corporate leaders who volunteer their organizational skills and financial expertise, to middle-management people who work lunch-hours and evenings to help organize local campaigns and collect money, to the newest mailroom clerk who swallows his shyness and asks his fellow workers for a last-minute contribution.

And by operating like any other modern, well-run business enterprise, United Way succeeds in delivering the maximum in human services for the dollars that are collected.

Thanks again for your help.

Real Champions — Seven students from the Belleville Cerebral Palsy Center were honored with a Ticker Tape Parade last week for their victories in the National Cerebral Palsy Game which were held in Rhode Island last month.

NLT's 'Earnest' Delicious as cucumber sandwiches

Nutley Little Theatre opened its season Friday with "The Importance of Being Earnest," Oscar's Wilde's amusing if dated satire of the crumpets and tea world of Victorian England.

People from European countries conjure up ancient, stereotypical images for Americans. The Germans are fat and overbearing, the French great lovers, the Italians sing opera while tromping barefoot on grapes, and so on.

In the same vein, the British keep stiff upper lips, are rigidly formal and attach great importance to social standing. "The Importance of Being Earnest" is about those people, how they contrive to flout convention and the results when they are caught.

The play has Jack Worthing, alias Earnest, alias Jack Worthing, after the hand of Gwendolen Fairfax. That Jack is leading a double life is unknown to Gwen or to his young ward, Cecily Cardew, who in turn is sought after by Gwen's rogue cousin, Algernon Moncrieff, alias "Bumberry."

Standing in the way of Jack's betrothal to Gwen is her aunt, Lady Bracknell, who rules him out despite his property holdings because he is a foundling. The situation becomes incredibly tangled before the mess is undone and the play comes to a happy surprise-ending.

Along the way, there is plenty of light-hearted hypocrisy and conversation so ridiculously mannered that it can't help but be hilarious. All of this was carried off rather well by the Little Theatre Friday night. Jim Cort as Jack was very proper, and his proposal scene with Lily Ann Reynolds (Gwen) was a gem. Jack DeVries was well cast by director Vicky Chalk Little as Algernon and provided just the right contrast to Cort's more staid character.

The scene in which Reynolds meets Samantha Getting (Cecily) was among the funnier ones in the play, with the two exchanging understated unpleasantness along with entries from their diaries.

Though she was too young for her part, Janis Falk Sullivan (Lady Bracknell) looked ready to strike Lady Diana from the Social Register. Betty Rovell as Miss Prism, Cecily's tutor, was also fine, and both she and Richard Kaye, as Dr. Chasuble, Miss Prism's clerical suitor, were as funny to watch as they were to listen to. That went doubly for Ray Dreeman and Eric Hartmann as the butlers Lane and Merriman. Dreeman in particular was an audience favorite.

Set designer Alex Oleksij deserves a special accolade for Algernon's flat and Jack's garden, both of which drew oohs and aahs from the audience as the curtain rose.

"The Importance of Being Earnest" continues this weekend Oct. 9-10, at the NLT Barn, 47 Erie Place off Brookfield Avenue. Curtain time is 8 p.m. For ticket information, call 667-8234 evenings.

Three Township Boy Scouts honored with Eagle awards

On Sunday, September 27, Boy Scouts Joseph Sibilia, Ronald Charles and David Grasso of Troop 387 were presented the Eagle award at the 12 o'clock Mass in Saint Anthony's Church. Eagle is the highest award a Boy Scout can receive.

A reception for them was held after the Mass at the Amvets, Belleville, where they were congratulated by friends and relatives for completion of their individual community project.

With the help of their Scoutmaster, Tom Sibilia, and others, these boys dedicated a lot of their time and worked hard to make a dream come true.

We extend our sincere congratulations to them for a job well done, and wish that all their dreams come true.

Oct. 13 marks 75th year of Catholic Daughters

The Catholic Daughters of the Americas are celebrating their 75th Anniversary next Tuesday, October 13.

All members and friends are asked to attend the celebration by attending Mass at St. Peter's Church which starts at 7 p.m.

Following Mass, a buffet dinner dance, refreshments and entertainment will be held at Knights of Columbus Hall, Bridge Street, Belleville at 8 p.m.

Anyone wishing tickets for this affair or needs more information may contact Mrs. Lillian De Meo at 751-1137 or Mrs. Barbara Kiernan at 759-3503. Tickets are $10 per person.

Cerebral Palsy kids celebrate victories

The children, young adults and staff of the Cerebral Palsy School of Belleville held a "Ticker Tape Parade" last Thursday to honor seven of their athletes who during the summer won one gold, five silver and two bronze medals in the National Cerebral Palsy Games, which took place at the University of Rhode Island in Kingston, R.I. The athletes qualified for the national game after the school sent a team of 18 to the regional finals held in Staten Island earlier this year.

The athletes were coached by Oliver Crisan, a staff physical therapist; Mary Ann Chin, a physical therapist; Cindy Chauvin, an occupational therapist, and Ken Watson, a special teacher.

The "Ticker Tape Parade" was held with 120 students who attended school at the center participating together with the staff of 60, parents, members of the Board of Directors and friends.

The seven athletes which participated in the National Cerebral Palsy Games were: Latricher Morant, who placed first in Boccia;

Karen Shaw, who finished third in slalom; Richard Dunleavy, who finished second in Boccia; Robert Martone, who finished second in the 200 meter dash; Salvatore Fiumefredo, who finished second in the long jump; Gayle Goodwin, who finished second in the 200 meter dash and Lourdes Giron, who finished second in Boccia and third in Bean Bag.

The National Cerebral Palsy Games are supported by the U.S. Olympic Committee and are open to disabled, usually wheelchair bound athletes, who because of the extent of their disabilities are unable to take part in the wheelchair olympics.

Belleville's Woman's Club holds 'Junior Week' picnic

The Junior Woman's Club of Belleville ended Junior Week with a family picnic and a membership tea.

The picnic held at Belleville Park invited the families of members and prospective members to share in a fun-filled afternoon that included softball and other various family games.

The tea marked the end of Junior Week which was proclaimed by Mayor Michael V. Marotti. Club President Linda Caputo and Membership Chairman Lucy Cappello welcomed prospective members Faye Olivieri, Kathy Watson, Ann Perkol, Barbara Molnai, Cindy La Russa and Debbie Gardner.

During the course of the evening JMD Director Barbara Spillane gave a Federation Awareness talk and other Juniors expalined the function of the Belleville club. The club's past scrapbooks and presbooks were on display.

Juniors have something to offer today's woman. Club socials include programs that enlighten the homemaker, career woman, working mother or student. Members are encouraged to participate in club activities only as much as their personal schedule permits.

All women between the ages of 18 and 35 are invited to join the club. The Junior Club meets on the second and fourth Monday of every month. For more information call 759-5075.

New Director — Saudra L. Stiles is congratulated by Essex County Executive Peter Shapiro after being sworn in as director of the Essex County Geriatrics Center Division. She is responsible for administering the county long-term medicaid nursing facility located in Belleville.

Health Nurse official to speak Wednesday

What is a home health agency? What does a community health nurse do? These are two of many questions which will be answered at the regional meeting of the N.J. Federation of Senior Citizens schedule for Wednesday, October 14 at 10 a.m. A representative of Community Nursing Service of Essex and West Hudson will be guest speaker at the meeting to be held at 638 Mill St., Belleville.

Albert Gasporini made the arrangements for the program which will include a slide presentation on the services available through Community Nursing Service.

This voluntary, non-profit agency provides public health nursing visits to the sick at home in Belleville, Newark and eight other communities in Essex and West Hudson counties.

In addition to nursing, services include physical therapy, occupational and speech therapy, nutrition consultation, medical social service and home health aide care.

For further information on home care or to arrange for a program on this topic, call the Director of Public Information at 673-0158.

Fall nursey school opens at mental health kids

The Therapeutic Nursery School of the Community of Mental Health Services for Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley opened its fall session with children in attendance from the three communities as well as from Newark, Irvington, Orange and East Orange.

The State Department of Education has authorized the school to retain children where needed through their 10th birthday, due in part to the scarcity of places for severely disturbed children.

Dr. Elizabeth Callahan, director-master teacher, says the children, many whom are autistic or autistic-like, need about one to one attention to be maintained in a community-based school. Mothers' groups held biweekly provide therapy and counseling where necessary for parents and other children being kept to so that the mothers may attend. Some mothers even continue to come to the group session after their children have left the school.

The nursery school works closely with child study teams of the three communities including attempting to find optimal placement for students when they leave the school.

Besides Dr. Callahan, the school has four certified special teachers, two full-time teacher aides, a speech pathologist, six interns from Seton Hall University, two student teachers from Jersey City and Kean Colleges and a psychiatric social worker.

Belleville-Nutley could be last game

This Saturday's Belleville-Nutley football game could very well be the last game between these two teams. Nutley has been accepted into the NNJIL for the 1982 season and while Belleville is still a club in search of a conference, this natural rivalry could come to a grinding halt.

Belleville has won the last three meetings between these two clubs with Nutley having scored just once over the last three years. However, with the exception of the 1978 game, the contests have been close and Nutley has been a very tough challenger.

Since 1969, this series has usually produced some very tight and memorable games. If you talk to faculty members at both BHS and NHS, they'll recollect some big games that the two schools have played.

In 1969, the Bucs were losers in Nutley, 31-13 as a quarterback named Joe Papisidero couldn't handle the Maroon defense. In 1970, with Phil Bruno at the helm, the Bucs were beaten at Belleville Stadium, 23-8 in a game that Papisidero will never forget. "There were fans lined up down Nolton Street for that game," Papisidero recalled.

The Bucs were on the long end of a 7-6 victory over Nutley in 1971 as Joe Lotriglio scored the only TD and Bruno once again was the QB. In 1972, the Bucs used a strong defense to its advantage but couldn't muster any offense and the result was a 7-0 loss.

In 1973, the Raiders were ranked as high as second in the state for a good part of the season and along the way, disposed of the Bucs, 21-6. In 1974, only an Anthony Speer field goal prevented the Bucs from being shutout. Nutley scored a TD in the third quarter and made it stick for a 7-3 win.

The 1975 game was a scoreless tie in Nutley as a driving rainstorm held back the team's offense. Chipper Biafore returned a punt for the Bellboys for six points, but the play was called back for clipping.

The Bucs did not score in the 1976 or 1977 games, losing by counts of 14-0 and 7-0 respectively. However, that would all end with a vengeance in 1978.

With the fine running of Mike Nicosia, the passing of Ed Aulisi and a defense spearheaded by Angelo Santinelli, the Bucs blasted their way to a 31-0 win. Tom Henry sacked Nutley quarterback Tom Gaccione in the endzone for a safety and the Bucs picked off three passes.

The last two years have been typical Belleville-Nutley games. Although the Bucs have been 16-2 over the last two seasons, the victories over Nutley have been far from easy. In 1979, Lenny Mendola hauled in a 41 yard pass from Eddie Aulisi for the only score in a 7-0 victory. In 1980, quarterback John Melillo ran 35 yards late in the game to break a 7-7 tie and lead the Bucs to a 13-7 win.

Now it's time to renew this rivalry once more. Nutley lost its opener this season by a 15-0 count to Columbia but last week did a number on the Lancers of Livingston by a 29-12 score. Belleville has been impressive victors over Livingston, 33-8 and Barringer, 39-14 and will be the favorites to win this game. If you talk to Senesky, he'll tell you that records don't really mean that much when the two teams get together.

"Anything can happen when we play Nutley. They get up for the game and we have never really had an easy time with them. It's always been one of the biggest rivalries around and this year will certainly be no exception."

Getting back to the point of a conference. Last week, the Bucs were denied entry into the NNJIL, but Nutley was accepted. The reasons for the denial are a bit foggy, but AD Jim Silvestri isn't happy about the decision at all. Furthermore, the Bucs will desperately have to be in a conference come next year or scheduling will be next to impossible.

Belleville had to play Barringer because Montclair is now a member of the Watchung Conference. The Mounties have usually been the Bucs second week opponent. Next season, the Bucs could lose Nutley, Carteret and Kearny off the schedule and already Silvestri has had to schedule games with teams from upstate New York (Clarkstown North) and Newark schools. If you were at the game last Saturday, you probably saw that some of the antics that Barringer pulled were totally out of line. When a player's health and well being are in jeopardy because the opponent tries every cheap shot in the game, then the sport is no longer fun.

If Belleville wants to avoid future games like the Barringer fiasco and the long traveling to upstate New York and God knows where else the team will have to go, then the conference is a must. Belleville is still waiting approval from another conference and hopefully if they are accepted, the problem will be solved. Also consider that Belleville needs the conference for other sports, such as basketball, baseball and wrestling. Head girls' basketball coach Karen Fuccello had a heck of a time scheduling games for this year and has back to back night games because the girls had to accommodate the opponent's schedule. Being an independent isn't easy.

Did you watch the fight on HBO last weekend? Marvelous Marvin Hagler is indeed a super fighter at the middle weight class. If he and Sugar Ray Leonard ever do mix it up, that should be some matchup. Leonard has already said that he would like to wait a bit before fighting Hagler, a wise move indeed. Leonard has fought as heavy as 154 and six extra pounds to 160 can be a lot.

Ray "Boom Boom" Mancini, the 20-year-old boxer, gave quite an impressive show before losing to Alexis Arguello on a 13th round TKO. Arguello, 28, is a classy fighter with a canny style and three boxing championships already under his belt. Mancini certainly faced a true champion and certainly has nothing to be ashamed of. His effort was indeed one to be proud of.

Every boxing card has to have a dud involved and the Mike Weaver-James "Quick" Tillis bout was indeed a farce. Weaver, you might remember, had signed to fight Jerry Cooney for the WBA title. However, the WBA threatened to strip Weaver of his WBA crown if he didn't fight Tillis first. Well, Weaver fought Tillis, if that's what you want to call it. Really, Weaver chased him for 15 rounds. Tillis danced the waltz with Weaver, obviously afraid to get hit and lost a 15-round unanimous decision. Weaver keeps his title and hopefully he'll get a better match in the future.

Forget about the split season for 1982. The St. Louis Cardinals, who died hard objectors to the split season format, finished with the best record in the National League East for the entire season but did not make the playoffs. The Cards suffered from a lack of games, nothing else. In the first half, the Cards finished 30-20, but lost by a game and a half because Philly was 34-21. The Cards actually had a game in hand in the loss column. In the se-

Bucaneers destroy Bears; travel to Nutley on Saturday

39-14 victory keeps record undefeated

Head coach John Senesky isn't quite sure how good this year's version of the Belleville football team is. If you were to ask some members of the Barringer Bears, they would probably tell you the Bucs are a very good team.

Belleville disposed of the Bears by a surprisingly easy count of 39-14. The Bucs also outclassed the Bears by a count of 100-0. The stage is now set for the big Belleville-Nutley game this Saturday afternoon at Nutley High School. Game time is 1:30 p.m. and the Maroon will be a challenge. Nutley is coming off a 29-12 victory over Livingston and will be raring to go. For more on this rivalry, see "Buc Shots."

While the Bucs did their best to keep the game clean and sportsmanlike, the Bears did everything in their power to do the opposite. The Bucs showed a great deal of composure and class throughout and deserved the win. "I was proud of the way our guys played," Senesky said. "They showed a lot of class and style. Barringer was a very aggressive and physical team and were a good test for us."

Barringer was strictly a running team as quarterback Gerrard Grien failed to complete a pass. The Bear's offense, thus, never got on track as their two TD's came on a fumble recovery and an 85-yard TD by Marty Williams on a kickoff return.

In between those scores, the Bucs ground game, led by Frank Fazzini, Jeff Walsh and Angelo Centanni were more than enough to win the game.

Belleville's first score came on the Bucs first possession. From its 38, the Bucs used the ground game to the maximum, driving 62 yards for a score. Robbie Cancelliere added the first of three conversions and it was 7-0.

Pretty Smiles — These three cute ladies are part of the Belleville High School Cheerleader squad, which through rain or shine, and heat or cold, take the field each Saturday to help root the football Bucaneers to victory. The girls did a good job this week as the boys defeated the Barringer Bears easily, by the score of 39-14.

The score remained that way until early in the second quarter when from the Barringer 42, Fazzini ran seven yards, fumbled and Walsh picked up the loose ball way down on the Bear 15. From there it was easy as Centanni ran to the Bear 9 and two plays later, Fazzini coasted in from there. The conversion successful, the Bucs were ahead, 14-0.

It quickly went to 21-0 when Barringer punter Jaime Fernandez couldn't find the handle on a bad snap and was tacked on his 12-yard line. Belleville needed just three plays to score as Fazzini tallied his fifth TD of the season and second of the game from three yards out.

Barringer drove to the Bucs' 24 late in the first half, but the Buc defense held tough and at halftime, the score read, 21-0.

Belleville started the second half on a bad note when Centanni took a handoff and was tackled causing a fumble. Linebacker Andre Williams picked up the loose ball and ran 26 yards for a score. Barringer got the two point conversion as Alan Crowley ran over from the three.

Starting from its 30, the Bucs drove down field, aided by some 30 yards in Barringer penalties. The drive went to the Barringer 12 where on fourth down, the Bucs elected to try a field goal. The field goal attempt was a fake and Robert Wood-

BHS cross country teams sharp; as victories continue to pile up

By Mike Lamberti

Showing a lot of heart and desire, the Belleville Cross Country squad had a fine week of running that culminated with some individual honors being bestowed upon some of the harriers last Saturday.

Rich Ruffalo's crew hosted Orange on Tuesday in the team's only meet of the week. The following week, the harriers will host Irvington and Nutley in a double duel meet and on Saturday, October 17 will be in Branch Brook Park for the Essex Catholic Invitational.

Both the girls' and boys' team shared in the glory of last week's success. Against West Essex last Wednesday, the girls won its second match in three ties by downing the Lady Knights, 21-40. Barbara Gundry was the story of the meet as the senior rallied in the last mile to wipe out the field in a time of 21:25. Teammate Patty Bliss held off a strong challenge from a West Essex runner to cap second in a time of 21:45. Lee Ann Long was the next Belleville runner across in fourth place at 21:53 and sophomore Jennifer Apicella was sixth at 22:37.

Ruffalo was very elated at the success of the girls' squad. "We have some really good runners here," the coach said. "We have about five more duel races and at Garret Mountain on Saturday, we should do real well."

While the boys team has yet to capture its initial victory of the '81 season, the individual improvement of the runners has been astounding. Ross De Meo, the freshman phenomenon, was the winner of the West Essex race in a time of 18:20 over the 3.1 mile course. Tom Fuscaldo, a senior who has made quite an improvement over the course of the year was sixth at 19:34 and Mark Dombrowski was tenth at 19:51.

The boys' team has a lot of promise however. Since the start of the '81 season, some six freshmen have come out for the squad and the new athletes are quickly developing into some promising runners.

Last Saturday, the team traveled to Garret Mountain for the Passaic County Invitational. De Meo, competing in the two-mile freshman race, was 10th in a field of 105 in a time of 11:48. Not to be outdone, sophomore Patty Bliss took fifth place in the J.V. race in a time of 23:12. The J.V. race covered some 3.1 miles, with the last mile completely uphill. Bliss' fifth place showing came in a field of over 100 runners. Long also did quite well in the J.V. race, placing 19th.

Barbar Gundry and Tom Fuscaldo competed in the girls' and boys' varsity races and placed 70th and 75th respectively. Both runners competed in a field of well over 120 runners.

All the news wasn't good for the (Please see 'Track' on page 14.)

Girls' tennis team wins three matches

Her name is Kim Indiero. She is a 5'4" junior thunderbolt that excels on the softball squad each spring. She also is doing quite a job for the girls' tennis team and her efforts last week helped Belleville to victories over Immaculate, Irvington and Orange with a lone setback to Nutley.

The girls hosted Immaculate on Tuesday and will host Orange this Monday. Next Thursday, the team will compete in the Essex County championships.

Indiero won all four of her matches last week and now holds an 8-0 record for the season. She has been used in all three singles slots this year and has been roaring success in each spot.

Against Immaculate, Indiero was a winner in second singles by a 6-1, 6-0 score. She had plenty of help from her teammates as Rosie Leonidis won, 6-4, 6-0 and Sherree Tillman was a 6-4, 3-6, 6-4 victor. Angela Chimento and Gina Pasquale won in first doubles, 6-4, 7-6 (7-5) and Dina D'Aquino and Kathy Woods lost a tough match, 6-1, 3-6, 6-7 (3-7).

Against Orange, the team was an easy 5-0 winner with Indiero playing first singles and breezing, 6-1, 6-0. Tillman won, 6-1, 6-1 and Chimento came through at 6-0, 6-2. In the doubles, Woods and Joy Santangelo won, 6-1, 6-2 and Pasquale-D'Aquino were forfeit winners.

The girls' only setback was a 3-2 loss to Nutley. For the season, the Buccanettes are 4-4 and all four losses have been by a count of 3-2. The winners in the Nutley match were Indiero (of course) and the doubles team of Tillman-D'Aquino. Last Friday, the girls blasted Irvington, 5-0 as Leonidis, Indiero and Chimento all won big. The doubles teams were Pasquale-Santangelo and Tillman-D'Aquino.

For head coach Karen Fuccello, the week was certainly a successful one and with the counties coming up, the coach is looking forward to some successful results. Considering the girls could easily be 8-0 right now is a good reason to believe that the team can do well in the county tournament and after last week's success, the outlook can be termed bright.

BHS Hall of Fame to host testimonial

On Friday, November 6, at the Branch Brook Manor, the Belleville High School Hall of Fame Association will sponsor the first of what it is hoped will soon be an annual affair honoring former Belleville High School varsity greats. Tickets to the testimonial dinner will sell for $15 per person and go on sale within the week.

The newly formed Hall of Fame Association is an arm of the Belleville Board of Education and its Athletic Council, and was organized to carry out a project begun four years ago but not continued by Mike Chieffo and Fred Puleo while Athletic Council members. Over 50 former sports stars were inducted at the awards dinner held Chieffo and Puleo; however, the codified structure set up by the new association will limit future groups of inductees to ten per year.

To be eligible, a Belleville athlete must be an alumnus of the high school for at least five years, or have been a coach or athletic director at the high school, must have contributed to the athletic program at the school beyond that expected of most individuals, must have had an outstanding record of achievements on the field of play, must have shown leadership, desire, and an ability to overcome whatever handicaps were placed in his or her way. Belleville alumni who have excelled in post high school sports may also be considered.

The association is looking to the people of Belleville for help in uncovering the names of town's outstanding past performers. Nomination forms can be picked up at the Senior High School for those interested or the form published below may be submitted to the association at the high school's mailing address. According to Evelyn Hannon, president of the association: "All that we hope to do is to honor as many deserving past athletes as possible. The name of every nominee will be given full consideration, and we hope that the very idea of such a Hall of Fame is the kind of thing that can give Belleville and its athletes a boost."

Co-Captains — Freshman Joseph Duboyce (C) of Belleville joins co-captains Joseph Gleason (L) and Frank O'Hara as a member of the 1981 Mount Saint Mary's College cross country team.

Jets blow another chance to pull off a rare victory

Every week, the New York Jets find a new way to botch things up. If you saw last weekend's 28-28 tie with Miami, then you along with half of America will not understand why the Jets sat on the ball the last 30 seconds, electing to try a 47-yard field goal from a man who lacks consistency outside the 40.

Anyhow, the rest of the NFL shaped up something like this. The Giants played one of their worst games of the year and actually made Green Bay look good. Buffalo rebounded against Baltimore while Minnesota edged Chicago. Washington remained winless while Denver continues to think it's 1977 all over again, blanking the Raiders. Oakland, the defending Super Bowl Champs have been shutout two weeks in a row. Whoever expected that to happen also expects it to snow in July. Dallas lost in St. Louis and San Diego rebounded at home versus Seattle. Finally, New England left the winless circle by blitzing K.C.

The Jets played the undefeated Miami Dolphins quite well, leading 14-7 and then rallying in the last minute to tie the game and send it into OT. While the Jet defense did everything right, the offense suddenly went to sleep. With :30 left in OT, the Jets had the ball on the Miami 30, second down. Why Walt Michaels elected to not run another play makes no sense at all. The Jets could have run off two or three short pass plays, moving the ball up closer for Pat Leahy to attempt an easier field goal. But Walt Michaels elected to try the field goal from 47 yards out and to no one's surprise, the attempt was wide. Leahy is a good field goal kicker, but it's obvious that the man is not that good from 45 yards out or more.

The Giants played horrible against Green Bay and that's bad news when the Pack has John Jefferson and James Lofton on the same team. After last week's impressive showing against Dallas, the Giants had no offense and even the defense was not up to par. The Giants also elected to abandon the passing game in favor of a running game and since the Giants are not too deep in the run, the hand writing was on the wall early.

How about the Denver Broncos? They are now 4-1, could easily be 5-0 (they lost 13-10 to Seattle) and have found an offense behind Craig Morton of all people. Denver is starting to make fans think of 1977 when the Broncos finished 12-2 and made it to the Super Bowl. This Denver squad has come out leftfield, surprising everyone with this new found success under first year coach Dan Reeves.

Now for this week's picks:

NEW ENGLAND at JETS: The Pats finally won their first game and everyone knows they're better than that 1-4 record. The Jets have some offense and the defense is better than people give it credit. If Walton doesn't keep the Jet offense consistent, the Pats can steal this one. Jets 23-21.

ST. LOUIS at GIANTS: Big mystery. The Cards are coming off the win over Dallas and the Giants are struggling. St. Louis hasn't lost to the Giants in a couple of years and with O.J. Anderson and Jim Hart, figure to continue that success. The Giants have some talent, but not enough to win here. St. Louis 28-17.

MIAMI at BUFFALO: Should be a dandy. The Dolphins have lost but once to the Bills over the last 11 years, but the Bills are one of the NFL's best and are at home. Miami, 4-0-1 have been struggling and could be in for a let down. Buffalo 21-17.

CLEVELAND at PITTSBURGH: People will have to start taking the Steelers seriously now. They've won three straight and are too professional to let a slump get them down now. The Browns are very questionable and haven't won in Pittsburgh in nine years, make that ten years. Pitt 31-21.

LOS ANGELES at ATLANTA: This could be a big upset. The Falcons are coming off a Monday night game with Philly and the Rams have captured two straight. Perhaps LA's problems are behind them now and they could be primed for a big win. LA 17-14.

DALLAS at SAN FRAN: Possible? Maybe? Who knows. The 49ers have won two straight, but that was against New Orleans and Washington who are 1-9 between them. Dallas has lost its first and maybe will be a bit down. With the home field advantage, it could be worth a shot. SF 24-23.

MINNESOTA at SAN DIEGO: The Vikes have won three straight but San Diego is a terror at home. With Denver palyng so well, the Chargers with Fouts cannot afford to be complacent here. Watch for a lot of offense from both sides with the defense taking the day off. SD 42-31.

The rest of the NFL: Cincy over Baltimore, Denver to stop Detroit, Houston over Seattle, K.C. to add to Oakland's woes, Washinton to get victory number one over Chicago, Green Bay over Tampa Bay, and Philly to breeze by the Saints.

Last week: 8-4.
For the year: 31-23.

Booters buried Buccaneers in soccer game last week, 9-0

At the beginning of last week, head soccer coach, Anthony D'Aquino said that the Nutley game would indeed be a crucial test for his young squad.

Unfortunately for the Bucs, the head coach was right. The Maroon Raiders, 19th in the state and unbeaten, rolled by Belleville, 9-0 to lower the Buccaneer record to 2-3.

Yesterday, the Bucs were home to Montclair and tomorrow will host Passaic in a 3:45 p.m. start.

"They were too much for us last week," D'Aquino commented on the Maroon. "We used some different players and against a good team like Nutley it doesn't always work."

Sophomore Tom Kane made his varsity debut in the nets and did a pretty good job in the early going. A continued barrage of Nutley shots got the best of the young keeper in the long run however, and since Belleville could not penetrate the Raider defense, the afternoon was even longer for Kane.

As usual, Brian Woods, the senior captain, was a stalwart in defense, but D'Aquino was forced to only play him one half because Woods was sick. The Bucs front line of Carlos Kingalaha and Santiago Borja was also well contained throughout.

Now that the Bucs have completed one quarter of the 1981 season, there is some time to reflect on the team's performance thus far. You have to consider that with the exception of Woods, the rest of the team is all sophomores and freshman and as D'Aquino put it, "those kids are going to be men by the time they're seniors. All of them are pretty big already but at just 15 years of age, it's tough to be very effective against the good teams in the area. However, these kids are going to good, mark my words."

Other players like Mike Van Embergh and goalie Brian Cook, also a sophomore, give D'Aquino reason to be optimistic. Ricky De Prizio has shown improvement and Frankie Dunn also displays a hustling, gutsy spirit typical of the D'Aquino style of soccer.

The Bucs have a competitive schedule down the road, and except (Please see 'Booters' on page 16.)

Good Gain — Belleville's offense against the Bears of Barringer was as good as its defense as they scored 39 points, while limiting the Bears to just 14.

Kick Off — The Buccaneers' kicking game was awesome against the Bears Saturday, even though one Barringer player did return a kick off for a touchdown. Number 60 Danny Palumbo and number 51 Julio Roig cover on the kick off.

Pile Up — Buccaneer shirts take up the entire picture as they all assist on a tackle during Saturday's game. The victory improved Belleville's record to 2-0. This Saturday they will travel to Nutley to take on the Raiders.

Double Hit — Robert Cancelliere and a fellow teammate join together to make a hard tackle against Mitch Inman of Barringer.

Sweep Play — The Buccaneers sweep to the right for a sizable gain in the contest against Barringer Saturday afternoon. The Bucs running game was as strong as their passing game throughout the contest.

The Other Way — Frank Kokos picks himself up off the ground after decoying a Barringer defenseman. Frank Fazzini pick up a good gain on the play thanks to Kokos.

Cheerleader — One of Belleville High School's pretty cheerleaders takes time out to pose for this picture. All the cheerleaders are a dedicated bunch showing up to root the Bucs on.

Twirling program starting

The Belleville Recreation Department has announced its schedule of activities for the fall. The following activities are open to Belleville residents only and are free of charge. All participants must wear sneakers to these programs.

Junior twirling for girls 6 to 10 will start this coming Wednesday, October 14, 6:30 to 8 p.m. at School 7. Senior twirling for girls 11 to 14 starts 7-8:30 p.m. on Thursday, October 15 at School 7. Girls' twirling for those 6 through 14 will be held 6:30-8:30 p.m. beginning Monday, October 19 at School 4.

Cheerleading for girls 6 through 14 will commence on Thursday, October 15, 6:30-8:30 p.m. at School 3. Adult ladies open volleyball begins 7:30-9:30 p.m. Monday, October 19 at the Middle School girls' gym. The women's volleyball league starts 7-10 p.m. Tuesday, November 10 at School 3.

Wrestling coach to give lecture on weight control

On Tuesday, October 13 at 8 p.m. in the Belleville High School cafeteria, the Belleville Wrestling, Parents and Friends Association will be presenting Nick DiDomenico, coach at Lodi High School to speak on weight control for wrestlers. The speech will detail ways to lose weight and then maintain a desired weight.

This will be DiDomenico's second appearance before the Wrestling Association speaking on weight control. In the past it has been quite beneficial for Belleville wrestlers.

The Belleville Wrestling, Parents and Friends Association would like to invite any and all to attend this meeting. A special invitation to all Belleville wrestlers and their families. This speech will benefit wrestlers in the coming season.

Gymnastics squad win first contest ever

History was made at Belleville High School last week as the gymnastics team made a successful home debut in 1981 by capturing its first ever victory over Bloomfield.

The girls, now 1-2, were at Madison on Tuesday and will host Clark tomorrow night starting at 7 p.m.

Carol Giuffrida and her team certainly relished its first victory in the team's second year of competition. "We really enjoyed it," the coach said. "Bloomfield had a small team, but their top competitors were pretty good." The best thing was that the match was home and a good crowd helped the girls to the 49-42 win.

In the floor exercises, Laura Cairo and Lauri Lombardi placed second and third. Debbie Battista was third in the beams while Debbie Glaser and Battista were two-three in the uneven parallel bars. Finally, Gina McCabe and Lauri Lombardi were second and third in the vaulting exercises.

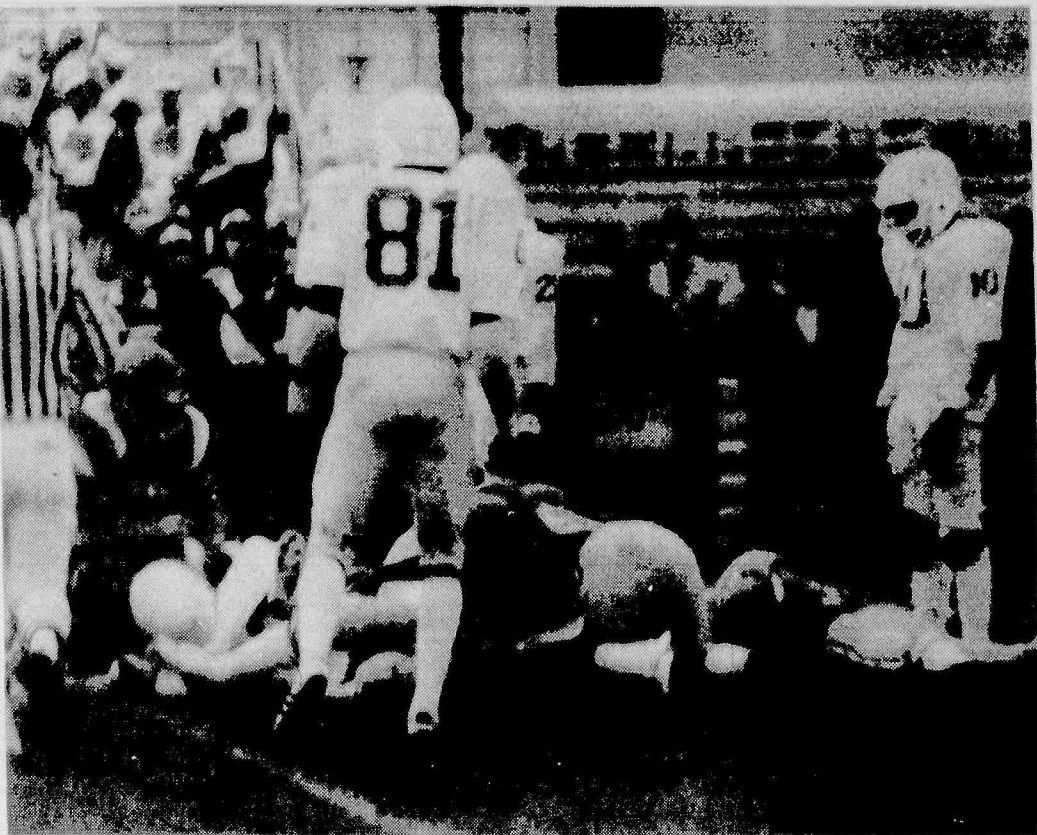

Certainly the first varsity win in a team's history is one to always remember, and for a team as hard working and dedicated as the gymnastics squad is, you couldn't find a nicer group of athletes to have a victory bestowed upon.

BEAM CHAT: A new member

Rec soccer starts again

The Belleville Recreation Department kicked off its 1981 Soccer League season last week with great enthusiasm. In Division "A," the Spurs blanked the Lancers 8-0 and the Toros bested the Aztecs 7-1.

In the "B" Division, the Cosmos slid past the Comets 1-0, the Lancers edged the Aztecs 2-1 and the Toros shut out the Spurs 5-0.

Driving On — This was a typical scene during Saturday's game between the Bucs and Barringer Bears. The Bucs held the ball for most of the contest, and that was indicated by the final 39-14 score. The victory gives the Bucs a 2-0 record on the young season.

Cosmos' corner

Cosmos drop Soccer Bowl '81 to Stings by the score of 1-0

By Mike Lamberti

After 105 minutes of gruelling, intensified play, Soccer Bowl '81, between the Cosmos and Chicago Sting came down to the shootout and in the end, the Cosmos were sent home a 1-0 loser.

Thus, Chicago won its first Soccer Bowl title, dethroning the defending champs, the Cosmos and gave the city of Chicago its first major sports championship since the Chicago Bears beat the Giants for the NFL title in 1963.

The shootout, a nemesis to the Cosmos the entire season, was hardly a fitting conclusion to a well played game, but that's the rules. Neither team was able to score a goal during the game, but both did have their chances. Hubert Birkenmeier of the Cosmos and Chicago's Dieter Ferner were brilliant in the nets.

For the Sting, they won the championship despite the fact they hadn't scored a goal in the last two games. In the semifinals versus San Diego last Monday, the Sting was a 1-0 shootout winner and last Saturday, they pulled the same result. The victory also marked the third time the Cosmos had lost to Chicago this year, with this setback of course, the toughest to handle.

Despite losing the contest, the Cosmos indeed have little to be ashamed about. They were 23-9 for the regular season, won the regular season scoring title and Giorgio Chinaglia was named the MVP for the 1981 NASL season. Players like Jeff Durgan, Andranik Eskandarian, Bob Iarsuci, Johann Neeskens, Roberto Cabanas, Chinaglia and Vlaislav Bogicevic were great all season long.

Rick Davis, for instance, the 1979 North American player of the year, has been hampered by injuries the last two years and his future with the club might be questioned. Francois Van der Elst started the season with a flurry, but hit a slump three quarters of the way thorough and spent most of the playoffs on the bench.

There was the fine play of Steve Wegerle, who arrived from Tampa Bay in mid-season and the fantastic goal tending of Hubert Birkenmeier. Wim Rjeisberger was named the NASL defender of the year for 1981 and Chico Borja, the Belleville (Please see 'Cosmos' on page 21.)

Applications available now for Peanut Football League

The Belleville Recreation Department will introduce a new program for boys ages 8, 9 and 10, beginning on Saturday, October 10. The "Peanut League Touch Football" program is designed to introduce the fundamentals of football to those boys who are not yet eligible for the recreation football league already established.

As an introductory clinic and league, no heavy contact or hitting will be stressed. Only hand blocking will be allowed and players carrying the football will be considered "down" when they are touched by an opponent with two hands. No equipment will be used; however, participants will be required to wear mouthpieces.

Under the direction of Mike Chieffo and Lou Pallante, the program will be conducted by volunteer coaches and officials. The program will run for approximately 4-5 weeks at a time and location to be named later. Boys already involved in recreation soccer will not be eligible as there is a conflict in time.

To be eligible, boys must be residents of Belleville and must have been at least 8 years old on or before September 1, 1981 and could not have turned 10 years old before September 1, 1981. Applications will be available at the Rec. House and in the schools from October 2 until October 9. All applications must be returned in person to the Rec. House on Joramlemon Street no later than 4:00 on Friday, October 9 with birth certificates. All boys who pre-register must meet at 10:00 on Saturday, October 10 at the Little League

Field. Any adult males who would be interested in volunteering their time as a coach or official are urged to call the Belleville Recreation Department as soon as possible - 759-3121.

Belleville Team — Two men who are helping Congressman James Florio (center) in his race for governor of New Jersey are Joseph Iannuzzi (left) and Mike Chieffo. They are leading the drive to help Florio win in Belleville.

cock, who did little passing in the game because of a strong wind, hit tight end Frank Kokos for a TD. The conversion failed and the Bucs led, 27-8.

After Barringer was stopped on its next drive, the Bucs added to the score when Woodcock hit Walsh with an 11-yard strike that culminated a six-play, 63-yard drive. The Bucs added their last TD late in the game when Robbie Cancelliere scored his first varsity TD on a 16-yard run.

In a happy Buc lockerroom, the players gave credit for the victory to the running game. "Our running game did a good job because the wind restricted our passing today," said Woodcock. "We saw that we were able to establish the run early so we stayed with it."

Angelo Centanni, who is healthy this year after two seasons of injuries admitted that Barringer was a hard hitting team. "Yeah, they hit pretty well. They also hit us with some rather cheap shots that weren't really necessary."

Senesky admitted that the next few weeks will tell a lot. "We still give up the big play sometimes. Against the big clubs like Nutley and Passaic, we can't afford to make those mistakes."

Booters lose 9-0 to Nutley

for the Kearny and Nutley games coming up, seem a good shot to do rather well in those games. Don't count them out of the Kearny and Nutley games either, but those games will be especially tough to win.

Either way, the Buccaneer soccer squad is working hard and trying their best. What more can you ask?

ARTHRITIS FOUNDATION

A 'Good Priest' Honored on His 25th Anniversary

A Gala Tribute to Father Matt

Hundreds persons — church officials, officer-holders, family and friends — turned out Sept. 27 at The Cameo in Garfield to honor Father Matthew Pesaniello on his 25th anniversary as a Roman Catholic priest.

Assemblyman Carl Orechio, who served as toastmaster, opened the program and Rev. Anthony Campisi of Mount Carmel Church in Jersey City delivered the invocation. The crowd was welcomed by State Sen. Carmen Orechio.

Many persons spoke in tribute to Father Matt. Speakers included Bishop John Dougherty, auxiliary bishop of the Newark Archdiocese; Nutley Commissioner Frank Cocchiola; the Most Rev. Jerome Pechillo, Episcopal vicar for Hudson County; Judge Robert Citrino of Nutley; Fifth District Freeholder James Piro, and the Very Rev. Msgr.

Francis LoBianco, pastor of Holy Rosary Church in Union City. Rev. Francis Blake, pastor of Holy Family Church, offered the final benediction.

Nine gifts were presented to Father Matt. The presenters were Lenore Maurillo, who painted a portrait of the priest; Roseanne Popravak of the Apostolate for the Mentally Retarded; Dr. Nancy Monti, executive director of the Catholic Community Service; Anthony Gaglioti, third vice president of UNICO National; Larry Verrone, past president of the Nutley Lions Club; Pat D'Antuono, president of Nutley UNICO; Ernest Alfonso for Hispanic groups in Union City; John Pesaniello, Father Matt's nephew, for the Pesaniello family, and Marge Narucki for the dinner committee and guests.

In his remarks, Father Matt noted that he had always tried to follow the advice of two women in his religious life. The first was his late mother, who on hearing that he had decided to enter the seminary said simply, "Well, if you're going to be a priest, be a good priest." The second was the Blessed Mother who told the servants at the wedding feast at Cana to do whatever her son told them to do.

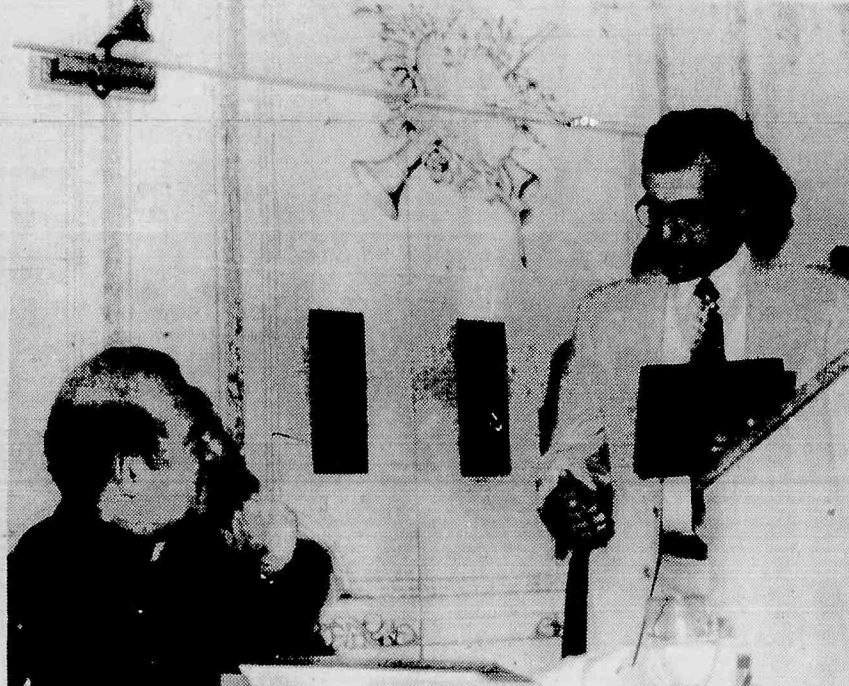

Father Matt's first assignment after his ordination in 1956 was Holy Family Church in Nutley. Later he served with the Mount Carmel Guild and worked in numerous capacities for the handicapped. From 1968 to 1974 he served at Our Lady of Mount Virgin Church in Garfield, moving on to become pastor of Mount Carmel Church in Jersey City. His latest assignment came this year when he was chosen as pastor of St. Anthony of Padua Church in Union City.

Pleasing Portrait — Lenore Maurillo presents an overwhelmed Father Matthew Pesaniello with a portrait she painted of him. At left is Freeholder James Piro.

Family Tribute — Father Matt accepts a poem written in honor of his ordination. Making the presentation on behalf of the Pesaniello family is his nephew John.

Local Award — Chapter President Pat D'Antuono presents Father Matt with a plaque on behalf of Nutley UNICO. The priest also received an award from UNICO National.

Judicial Reminiscence — Nutley Judge Robert Citrino was one of several speakers to share their memories of Father Matt. At left is Assemblyman Carl Orechio who originated the idea for the testimonial dinner.

Young Friend — Tommy Caruso sits on Father Matt's knee in this photo taken sometime ago. The priest has made the handicapped one of his special projects.

Memory Lane — The Immaculate Conception Seminary class of 1956 is seen at its 15-year reunion in 1971. Father Matt (seated at the very left) served in the Army during World War II and graduated from Seton Hall University in 1950 before beginning his studies to become a priest.

First Assignment — Young Father Matthew Pesaniello studies a banner held by Vincenza Pontoriero and Frank Gingerelli. At right is the late Msgr. Anthony DiLuca, founder of Holy Family Church, where Father Matt was first assigned.

Priestly Mission — Father Matt administers the sacrament of baptism. After his time at Holy Family, the priest undertook a variety of assignments. He is now pastor of St. Anthony of Padua Church in Union City.

School Board to install turnstiles to keep count

that fell far short of the sum anticipated based on a visual head count of the crowd at a September, 1980 football game.

Despite that incident, Athletic Director James Silvestri said, at last week's board meeting, "I'm reluctant to use turnstiles. They would prohibit good movement of the crowds."

Disagreeing, Vincent Sorrentino, president of the athletic advisory council, informed the board that all council members think portable turnstiles are a feasible precaution. "We might have had more money this year and if crowds come early, we'll avoid problems," he added.

Considering both arguments, Board President Charles Miele and Trustee John DiStasi expressed reservations about the expense of the turnstiles.

"Planning is a key ingredient in controlling receipts," said Miele, adding, "If plans include turnstiles we must use them effectively."

DiStasi concurred, "It is an erroneous action to buy turnstiles without written plans that include them.

Voicing majority opinion, Board Vice-president Anthony D'Agostino urged, "We need something right away." Trustees Donna Rainone, Thomas Zampino, and Spillane agreed, suggesting that publicity and opening gates early should ease any crowd crush.

"It's time we show the advisory council that we listen to them," said Zampino.

The turnstiles should be delivered in three weeks from order date. The board hopes to use them at the November 7 and at the Homecoming games.

In a related decision, the board agreed to request that Silvestri submit reports of game receipts within two or three days of the event.

"We pay these people enough, so I don't think this is asking too much," said D'Agostino.

Bucs Shots

cond half, the Cards finished 29-23 but lost to Montreal who was 30-23. Once again, the Expos and Cards tied in the loss column and Montreal was just a .500 team in the first half. Over in the NL West, the Cincinnati Reds finished with baseball's best record combined but did not make the playoffs. Cincy was 35-21 for the first half and 30-20 for the second half. That adds to 65-41 but it wasn't good enough. Houston, the second half winner finished with a mark of 52-49 for the year.

The Yankees-Brewers and A's-Royals playoff series should be a dandy as should the Expos-Phillies and Dodgers-Astros. The second half winners have the momentum, but I do like the Yankees to pull out the east crown. Look for K.C. in the west, Montreal in the east and Houston with that dynamic pitching out in the west.

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was, what record did the 1977 Oakland Raiders have, who did they lose to, and what teams did they play in the playoffs. The answer: Oakland was 11-3 in 1977 and lost to L.A., Denver and Kansas City. In the playoffs, the Raiders were 37-31 winners over Baltimore in double overtime, but lost the AFC crown to Denver, 20-17.

For this week's quiz, let's stick to the Belleville-Nutley series. In 1978, the Bucs were big winners over the Maroon. It was the first time since 1973 that Belleville had scored a TD off the Raiders. Can you name the Buc runner who scored the first touchdown of the '78 game and broke the long streak?

Finally, the BHS athlete of the week is Patty Bliss. The sophomore cross country runner placed 5th in a field of 110 at the Passaic County Invitational last Saturday.

School post eliminated

large school districts function with fewer administrators than Belleville has had. "We pay half a million dollars to supervisors already. They should take care of the job," he added.

Miele further disapproved of the particulars of the proposal. "I can't see paying an individual $31,000 to be a policeman," he said, alluding to the job description of supervising transportation, lunchrooms, and assemblies and assigning lockers.

Trustees John DiStasi and Thomas Spillane joined Miele and Romano in the opposing majority.

Cosmos loss Soccer Bowl '81 to Stings by the score of 1-0

native, saw considerable action throughout the year and did play in the Soccer Bowl.

Should Julio Caesar Romero return to his 1980 form next season, that will be a big plus. Romero was hobbled for a good part of the '81 campaign with injuries. Neeskens of course was reinstated late in the regular season and did a stalwart job down the stretch.

It appeared the Cosmos were on top of their game after the sweep of Ft. Lauderdale in the semifinals, but Chicago came in ready to play and held the Cosmos in check. The Sting defense saved its best performances for the last few weeks of the year and in the outcome, Willy Roy's troops were the victors.

That leaves us to head coach Hennis Weisweiler. There is a very good chance that WW will not be back come next spring as the head coach. The reasons are many. Number one, he is not too popular with the fans and attendance has dropped some 17,000 per game since last year. Secondly, the Cosmos lost both the Soccer Bowl and the Trans Atlantic Cup this year and on many occasions were just plain dull in a lot of games. Weisweiler also does not get along with Chinaglia and since Giorgio is the Cosmos big boy, Weisweiler might go.

It's a lot of speculation at this point and only the future will decide what's up and down. The Cosmos will begin their fall tour within a matter of weeks and a lot of players will have some proving to do. The NASL indoor season will start in early December and that should be a good test for the younger players who might not have seen action on the outdoor level. Nevertheless, "Cosmos Corner" will take a break from now until early December and then will return with Cosmos indoor soccer. Hopefully, the Cosmos inner problems will be solved by then, or at least some solutions will be in the works.

Con artists.
They'll tell you the trip is free and then take you for a ride!

Funny thing about con artists. Every year, millions of people are talked out of their life savings. There are lots of ways to be conned. I think you should learn about them—so you won't be. SCHWARTZ TO EXAMINE SIGNATURES

County oks petition for appointed board

By Linda Telesco

Should Belleville establish an appointed rather than elected board of education? Voters may soon answer this question in a special referendum election, according to Ralph Risoli, a former School Board president and leader of a local movement to put the question on an election ballot.

"We've done our part now," said Risoli alluding to petitions he submitted to the Essex County Board of Elections. The petition bears a total of 996 signatures of registered voters who favor a special election on the issue.

The movement hit a snag last month when Essex County officials rejected, as invalid, 391 of the original 1156 signatures submitted by Risoli on August 28 to the Board of Education.

With only 765 acceptable names, the movement fell short of the 844 minimum required.

New Jersey law stipulates that such petitions be signed by 15 per cent of the number of legally qualified voters who cast ballots in the district's last general assembly election.

Persisting, Risoli submitted (Please see 'County' on page 16.)

McDonald's receives drive-thru window

Within months, Belleville residents who "deserve a break" will be able to order and bring their burgers home from the new drive-thru window, approved for the Washington Avenue McDonald's by the township's Planning Board last week.

After nearly a year of wrangling with the eatery, the board voted 6-2 in favor of entering a conditional agreement with McDonald's permitting the construction of both the service window and an interior driveway, with access to an adjoining parking lot.

Voting affirmatively, Board Chairman Joseph Grande said, "McDonald's is one of the finest restaurants in town and is an outstanding organization in the upkeep of its property."

The repeated postponements and re-application resulted from early objections raised by the planners to parking and traffic problems in the vicinity of the 663 Washington Ave. store.

The board feared that the drive-thru window might complicate traffic flow along Washington Avenue already intensified by the opening last February of the Pathmark mini-mall, a shopping center located directly across the street from McDonald's.

Traffic engineer Henry Ney of Freehold testified Thursday night that according to traffic studies conducted by his firm on September 8, the drive-thru window could solve present problems created by double parking take-out customers.

Planners also previously voiced concern over the eatery's plans to eliminate 12 of their on-site parking spaces to accommodate the window, which will be constructed on the (Please see 'McDonald's' on page 16.)

Sen. Carmen Orechio breakfast this Sunday

Senator Joseph Merlino, President of the New Jersey Senate, will be the keynote speaker for the October 18 breakfast honoring Senator Carmen A. Orechio. The 10 a.m. affair, which is being held at the Westmount Country Club in West Paterson, is expected to attract many prominent Democrats from throughout the state including Congressman Jim Florio and Joseph Minish.

Senator Merlino has been President of the Senate since January 1978. Prior to that he was Majority Leader in 1976 and 1977. Merlino started his legislative career in 1967 as an Assemblyman. He represented his district in the Assembly for four years until 1971 when he was elected to the N.J. State Senate. He has served in the Senate for the past ten years. Senator Merlino has officiated as "Acting Governor" whenever Governor Byrne has been absent from the State. As a Senator, Merlino has been a member of the Joint Appropriations committee and chaired this committee in both 1974 and 1975. Senator Merlino is a senior partner in the Trenton law firm Merlino, Rottkamp and Flacks.

Orechio, presently Majority Leader of the Senate, has worked very closely over the years with Senator Merlino on legislation concerned with law and order, environmental aid and senior citizen affairs.

Senator Orechio is running for re-election in the 30th Legislative District which encompasses Belleville, Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Glen Ridge, Montclair, Nutley and Verona. The other Line A Democratic candidates running in the district are expected to attend the breakfast. These include Mary Santore, Buddy Fortunato, Vincent Pirone, Nick Amato and Jerome Greco.

Tickets for the October 18 breakfast can be obtained by calling 235-1815 or 235-1830.

the Belleville times

Special Guest — At a recent meeting of the Belleville chapter of the Jaycees, Authur Clay (c) Republican candidate for Freeholder, District 5, showed up to congratulate the group on its new charter. Standing with Clay is Fred Vaccaro (l) internal vice president of the club and Sandy Greenfield, president. Clay lend technical support to the Belleville chapter.

Buccaneers are rejected from league admission

By Ed Capparucci

The effort to get Belleville High School into an athletic league has taken a turn for the worse.

The Northern New Jersey Interscholastic League, one of the two leagues which BHS applied to, has turned down the school's application to enter the league in 1982. Instead league officials accepted the application of Nutley High School.

Athletic Director James Silvestri said that the announcement did upset him, but he is not giving up on the Bucs' chances of joining a league.

"I was disappointed when I heard about the NNJIL's decision not to accept us into its league," Silvestri said. "I feel that we have one of the best facilities unit in the state. We have two soccer fields, a football stadium, a baseball field and a gym for indoor sports.

"Our program is comparable to any other school in the state," he continued. "We may not have all the programs as some schools, but then again we have programs which other schools do not. I feel deserved to belong in the NNJIS league."

Nine schools applied for the one position available in the NNJISL including Nutley and Belleville. League officials offered as a suggestion to the eight other schools not accepted, telling them to form another league. Some of the schools turned down along with Belleville were; Passaic, Montclair, Bergen Catholic and Don Bosco.

"The NNJISL officials wrote to me and said that the schools turned down should consider forming a league of their own," Silvestri said. "I have not been in touch with any of the athletic directors from the other schools, and I do not plan to until I receive a response from our second application."

The second application Silvestri was talking about is to the Iron Hills Conference, which consists of Columbia and other Morris County (Please see 'Bucs' on page 16.)

High school's test scores corrected by state board

The minimum basic skills status of Belleville Senior High School has been altered and approved on official records of the State Board of Education, according to Fred G. Burke, state education commissioner.

In an October 8 letter to School Superintendent John Greed, Burke said that the high school's classification status, previously and erroneously listed as "Interim Approval Pending" (seriously deficient), had been changed to "Interim Approval" October 7.

The letter, presented to the Board of Education at Monday's meeting by Assistant Schools Superintendent Seymour Grossman, acknowledged that the original classification was an error. "The correction has been duly noted in our official records and you are free to notify the school community of the correction," the correspondence noted.

Confusion arose when the Herald-News reported on September 3 that Belleville Senior High School was among a minority of groups failing to get state approval when the

New Jersey Board of Education released its second annual school classification report last month.

The news article was based on erroneous information supplied to a Herald-News correspondent from the State Board. The Times ascertained on September 4 through state and Essex County officials that Belleville High School was not and never had been "seriously deficient" in basic skills.

They acknowledged, however, that some documents circulating in State offices incorrectly bore the erroneous status for Belleville High.

Burke's letter marked the official response to a board request last month for State correction. Board members agreed Monday to forward the letter to the Herald-News for a retraction.

The current "Interim Approval" classification indicates that the district has implemented a remedial program in the high school and is subject to another state review next year for full approval status.

DEAR FELLOW BELLEVILLITE:

I KNOW YOU ARE AS TRULY CONCERNED, AS I AM, OVER THE PRESENT STATUS OF POLITICS IN THE STATE. BECAUSE OF THIS, I AM APPEALING TO ALL OF YOU TO VOTE ON NOVEMBER 3, 1981.

WE HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY, ON NOVEMBER 3, TO HELP RID OUR STATE OF POLITICIANS, WHICH HAVE PREOCCUPIED THEMSELVES WITH THEIR TOTAL EFFORTS TO GET THEMSELVES UNDER THE BUREAUCRATIC UMBRELLA FOR SELF-PRESERVATION OF INCOME, PRESTIGE AND RETIREMENT, AND THEY HAVE LITTLE TIME OR CONCERN FOR THE PROBLEMS FACING OUR STATE OR THE DESIRE TO SOLVE THEM FOR THE BENEFIT OF ALL THE CITIZENS.

JOSEPHINE "JO" MONGIELLO IS A CANDIDATE FOR THE STATE ASSEMBLY. I'VE KNOWN "JO" FOR OVER 25 YEARS. HER RECORD AS DEPUTY MAYOR AND COUNCILMAN IN THE TOWNSHIP OF CEDAR GROVE, AND HER ACCOMPLISHMENTS AND SERVICE ON MANY CITIZEN COMMITTEES IS THE TYPE OF LEADERSHIP AND REPRESENTATION OUR DISTRICT SORELY NEEDS.

"INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM" - THE RIGHT OF THE PEOPLE TO PETITION AND VOTE DIRECTLY ON LEGISLATION - THE DEMOCRATIC LEADERSHIP IN OUR PRESENT STATE ASSEMBLY KILLED ALL CHANCES OF US VOTING ON THIS ISSUE THIS NOVEMBER. I KNOW WE'RE ALL TIRED OF THESE POLITICIANS WITH THE "BIG BROTHER" ATTITUDE WHO FEEL THAT ONLY THEY KNOW WHAT'S GOOD FOR YOU AND ME. JO MONGIELLO HAS LONG BEEN AN ADVOCATE FOR, AND A LEADER IN, THE INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM MOVEMENT.

"JO" IS IN FAVOR OF HOME RULE, THE REPEAL OF THE STATE INCOME TAX, TIGHTER CONTROLS ON INDUSTRY IN THE AREA OF TOXIC WASTE, ENCOURAGEMENT OF NEW INDUSTRY TO HELP ALLEVIATE THE PRESENT TAX BURDEN, TAX ALLOWANCES FOR THOSE ON FIXED INCOMES, AND A COMMITMENT TO RESTORE THE DEATH PENALTY, AND THE ADOPTION OF A STERNER ATTITUDE TOWARDS CRIME.

I RESPECTFULLY REQUEST THAT ON NOVEMBER 3, 1981, YOU WILL GIVE JO MONGIELLO SERIOUS CONSIDERATION AND PULL LEVER B-6.

SINCERELY,

Belleville realtor selling condos fast

More than 125 — approximately one-third — of the apartments at the Hastings Village cooperative in Rutherford, New Jersey, have been purchased as sales continue to be strong.

"Buying a cooperative at Hastings Village may be the best possible real estate investment the middle-income tenant can make today," says William W. Govel, president of Govel Realty of Belleville, exclusive sales agent. "A large percentage of tenants are buying their units and we have hundreds of outsiders awaiting their chance."

Comparatively low prices for the 362 units are the chief selling point, Govel says. The prices are: $19,950 for an efficiency; $29,500 for a one-bedroom; and $39,900 for a two-bedroom duplex. One-bedroom units occupied by tenants who do not choose to purchase or move are being offered to outsiders for $19,800.

"There's no better way for the middle-income person to invest in real estate, or young people to own their own home," says Robert Little, president of Hastings Management Corporation, sponsor of the cooperative conversion plan. "These apartments can only go up in value. They are relatively inexpensive to buy and carry, located in a quiet residential community and only seven miles from New York City."

Included in the purchase price for each unit is a complete interior renovation package that includes: new wall-to-wall carpeting; new 14 cu. ft. refrigerator, range, kitchen cabinetry and stainless steel kitchen sink; new bathroom fixtures and bathtub refurbishing; new linoleum floor in the bath; new linoleum floor or carpet in the kitchen; and complete repainting.

"Many of the purchasers have been single persons looking to get away from renting, but unable to afford a single family house or high-priced condominium," Govel says. "We also have a number of couples buying the two-bedroom duplexes, and many tenants buying their apartments because moving elsewhere to rent would cost them far more than staying at Hastings as an owner."

"There a number of attractive financing packages available to qualified buyers through CitiBank," Little says. "Generally, buyers have discovered that the total monthly mortgage and maintenance cost is very close to what typical rents are today for comparable units, without even considering the substantial tax benefits available to cooperative owners."

Two parents to attend

School Board sending three to title conference

Two Belleville parents and a Board of Education employee will attend the National Coalition Conference of Title I-ESEA in St. Louis, Missouri from October 20-25. The board approved the proposal last week after obtaining administrative recommendation and assurance that other school districts send equivalent numbers of representatives and board employees.

Assistant Superintendent of Schools Seymour Grossman said, "It is the opinion of the superintendent that the convention will be a valuable experience."

Because of a prior speaking engagement, Superintendent of Schools John Greed did not attend the session.

Cora Boice, chairwoman of Title I's District Parents Council and one of the convention delegates, explained, "Parents have been attending this convention for the past five years. It is held in different states to provide parents with insight into how other districts use their federal funds (provided through the Title I program for economically disadvantaged schoolchildren.)"

Also attending the convention will be Barbara Higgins, the council's vice-chairwoman, and Isabel Giordano.

Customarily, five delegates from the district attend the annual conference, but two of this year's original group withdrew, and Boice said no replacements were able to take an extended trip.

As a result, the superintendent decided to send only three representatives and apply leftover monies toward purchasing educational supplies, Grossman related.

Convention expenses are also federally funded and estimated at $1800, including meals, for the three delegates. Grossman said the sum represents about 50 percent of the district's Title I allocation.

Most of us are careful about keeping obvious poisons out of the reach of children. However, there are some items commonly found around the house that are seemingly not dangerous, items such as after-shave lotion, cologne or perfume which can cause serious damage if swallowed. If your child has swallowed any of these things, medical attention is required. In the interim, have the child swallow a glass of milk. Induce vomiting by inserting two fingers in the throat and then give the child two teaspoons of bicarbonate of soda in a glass of water.

Complete prescription service is provided at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. We handle baby needs, cameras and film, gifts, Timex watches and transistor radios. Free delivery is provided. "Your Doctor Knows Us-Your Doctor Trusts Us". Hours: Daily 9am-10pm, Sundays 9am-9pm.

HANDY HINT:

If a poison victim is unconscious, do not give liquids or induce vomiting. Just keep the victim warm until medical help arrives.

Prayer for today

O Lord, be gracious unto us! In all that we hear or see, in all that we say or do, be gracious unto us. We ask pardon of the Great God. We ask pardon at the sunset, when every sinner turns to Him. Now and forever we ask pardon of God. O Lord, cover us from our sins, guard our children and protect our weaker friends.

Columbus Day

Columbus Day 1981 is now history. In Newark Sunday over 200,000 people participated in a parade and celebration memorializing the navigator who brought America to the attention of the world in 1492.

Columbus was an Italian, but it was the Spanish government that financed his trip to discover the New World. Except for the Indian, the family line of every American goes back to another country. The Newark celebration of Columbus Day was the largest in the state of New Jersey. The credit goes to the organizer of the effort, Ace Alagna, who years ago started with an idea, an inspiration, and with a handful of people, plus a television audience of millions.

We salute Ace Alagna for his efforts in creating a vehicle so that Italo-Americans can demonstrate their heritage pride by participating in a Columbus Day function of statewide magnitude.

In Nutley, the Italian-American Civic Association marked the occasion with a dinner-dance at its clubhouse on Franklin Avenue. Except for an unusually long speech by the principal speaker, the affair was very successful, thanks to the organizers who are proud of their heritage.

For too long Italo-Americans have been defamed by allegations of organized crime identity. If you are from New Jersey and bear an Italian name, there is no escaping the conclusion that more likely than not you will be suspected of organized crime connections.

And so with pride in our country and our ancestry, we salute those among us who took the time and trouble to organize public functions to mark the occasion of this very important national holiday.

Frank Malizia

50th Anniversary

Recently, Frank and Josephine Malizia celebrated 50 years of a happy marriage. They renewed their marital vows at a special mass to celebrate the occasion. The bond of matrimony that has kept these two fine people together over half a century is cast in religious concrete. It will never come asunder. If ever there was a marriage made in heaven, this was it. It is an unusual match in that it has been free of the normal "differences" between spouses. There never was a difference. Neither was boss of the household — and at the same time both were. They have lived to rear a fine family during the most stressful times experienced by those among us who have lived through America's worst depression, America's worst war, America's worst period of inflation and America's most troublesome international periods.

Through it all this family unit survived because of a deep and abiding faith in God — and a disciplinary obedience to the religious doctrine they pursue fervently. They represent the perfect embodiment of Catholicism.

Were it within our power, we would ask the Lord to grant them another 50 years of happiness in their marriage — but then why should a mortal like the writer attempt to limit the work of the Lord? For that special couple he may want to grant them another 100 years.

Together they stand as a shining example of meaningful lives that a good husband, a good father, a good wife and a good mother can bring to society, thus making fruitful their relatively short life span on planet Earth.

God bless them both with good health and continued happiness.

Frank Malizia

Lack of response upsets taxpayers

To the Editor:

In the local papers on September 18, 1981 and September 24, 1981 promises were made to the people of Belleville, again, by commissioner Mary Senatore, regarding the recent flooding which resulted from the July rain storms.

Commissioner Senatore said she needs more responses from Newark, Bloomfield, Glen Ridge and Orange to evaluate the needs of the sewer problems.

The Township residents complained to Commissioner Senatore at the meeting after the flooding regarding their damaged homes, cars and furniture. They also advised that a lawsuit would be pursued if the Commissioner refused to act on the problem. The sewer basins on the corner of Cross and Watchung haven't been working for years. They are broke and in dire need of repair.

Commissioner Senatore said she will sit down with the other towns to discuss the problem. Why have you waited so long to act?

The taxes in Belleville have risen approximately $200.00 per home, which is the highest in the county. Where is all the money going? The sewer problem in the Silver Lake section has existed for the past 12 years, you have served as a Commissioner during this time. If you are to be an Assemblywoman in the 30th District, how can you be working for the Essex County Planning Board and as a Commissioner for the Township of Belleville?

So far, Belleville taxpayers are getting no service, why hurt other Towns with your lack of direction. I believe you should resign from your present positions.

Also, years ago we had an abundance of construction and were adequately serviced by one Building Inspector. Now, with an almost total lack of construction, we have three inspectors. Is this economy?

Treatment of veterans concerns Americans

To the Editor:

It is a darn shame how this country is treating its veterans, especially the ones who fought in the Vietnam War. It has been about six years now that that nasty war has been over and nothing much has been done about these G.I.'s.

I could write on two different subjects concerning these veterans. But one concerns me a lot more. I've been taking a loing look at the chemical called "Agent Orange" made by the Dow Chemical Company and a few others. The purpose of this chemical was to end the war as soon as possible by exterminating everything in sight, but as far as I know, not humans. But as it turned out six years later, a lot of these young men that were in that war from 1968 to 1974 now have cancer. There are many throughout this country who have it or are suspected of having it. So to them the war has not been ended. Where they have not died by thoughts, they are dying with cancer.

Yet the American government does not recognize the situation. They are claiming that these men have no more cancer than the average American. This may or may not be true, but it is a situation that has to be dealt with. It is becoming a fact that many chemicals are bad for our health. How much longer are we going to be color blind to the fact? The people that are making this trash are just out for the money and the government is backing them up.

We should check with the Vietnamese and find out how many of their military men are coming down with the same disease. I feel sorry for a lot of our children that are coming into the world with the defect of this chemical. They have many different conditions and doctors are finding it very difficult to put them together. I could name many examples, but I will only give you one here. One little boy was born with a damaged kidney and his testicles were not in the sac.

The American people, I hope, will become aware of this problem. I think most people shut their eyes to things like this as long as it doesn't affect them.

But we are all in this together, whether we believe it or not.

Sincerely
William Rundle

Parents protesting HBO's new cable guide booklet

To the Editor:

We are writing this letter as outraged and concerned residents of Belleville. It is in regard to Suburban Cablevision and HBO. When our town gave them permission to install the cable in our town, it was because we, the people wanted it. We also wanted the service that went with it. Part of this service was a guide book explaining about the movies on HBO, their ratings and the reason for the ratings (violence, language, nudity, etc.).

For the month of October, they sent out a complimentary new guide which gave the subscribers the option of buying it each month for an extra charge of 50¢. The new guide does not explain the reason for the ratings of the movies. Now they have changed around the channels, provided a new strip for the boxes, but without this supposed optional book, we don't know which channel is which.

Why, if they want to service our town, can they not include a guide free of charge as they have from the beginning? And one that will help parents determine what movies are suitable for children! We believe it is both essential and imported that we guide our children in these matters, but how can we, when we are not receiving the information necessary.

A thank-you to all involved in charity softball game

To the members of the Belleville PBA and FMBA:

The second annual Richie Gough Day held September 27, 1981 was a tremendous success due to the fine efforts of the members of the Belleville PBA and FMBA who initiated this event.

We are taking the time to write this letter as a means to extend our heartfelt thanks to these fine men who worked so diligently to make this day a success. Also, we must say "thank you" to those who played in a super softball game enjoyed by all. To the merchants who took an active part by way of donating refreshments and the basket of cheer; our family and many friends who made a special effort to ensure that a good time was had by all, we say "thank you."

We would be remiss if we didn't mention the life-like sketch of Richie presented to us which will be a constant reminder of the love and compassion of the many people who made a great effort to let us know they never forget.

God bless all of you.

Sincerely,
The Gough Family

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

An accepted adage establishes, that should a man build a better mouse trap, the world will beat a path to his door. We subscribe to that theory. Among the literati, like every trade or profession, there are men and women who excel in their chosen forte. The field of letters is no exception, thus, we in humility defer to another writer whose expertise in greater magnitude supersedes any feeble effort of our own to express with the same clarity and cogency the views and sentiments we share with the author of the following published letter, submitted by him, which was published in the September 20, 1981 issue of the Sunday Star-Ledger over his signature, concerning a pension analysis of Social Security and retirement observations.

Dear Editor:

On the subject of Social Security and retirement — a few observations.

President Reagan wants to drastically penalize those who would retire at age 62. This, among other reforms, he claims is necessary to save the Social Security fund from bankruptcy. There are other alternatives. Rather than cut income taxes 25 percent, why not cut them only 20 percent or 23 percent and put the other 3 percent or 5 percent or even 1 percent or 2 percent, whatever is necessary to save it, into the Social Security fund.

Some may argue that we cannot use general revenue to bail out Social Security. However, this argument cannot stand on its own, for, are we not funding the President's pension, and that of the Congress with general revenue? They are no different from you and me. Why doesn't President Reagan ask the Congress to cut his and the Congress' pensions? Furthermore, why not appropriate these pensions on the length of service? Say — 50 percent of the pension the President is entitled to for one term and 100 percent only if he serves two terms. Congress' pensions should be based on the number of term in office — 20 years service for full pension and prorated downward from that point. This is the method by which pensions are doled out by private industry. So, why not treat the federal government like private industry? Moreover, the President and Congressmen should not qualify for retirement benefits until age 65. Should they elect to retire early, sat at age 62, their pensions should be cut 45 percent just as Mr. Reagan would have Social Security cut.

Too bad all that I propose will never be. The President's and Congress' pensions and other benefits are an extremely sensitive subject on Capitol Hill. What congressman would have the intestinal fortitude to propose any of the reforms that I have delineated. Not one. Yet these very congressmen, with the exception of a few liberals, would not hesitate to slash the benefits of those who must depend on Social Security as their only means of survival. It all depends on whose ox is gored.

George Csahanin, Fords

We entertain a concerned sympatico with the Senior Citizens over the erratic and brash reversal of President Reagan's pledged commitment to hold sacrosanct and inviolate the Social Security benefits of its recipients; we feel that the forceful views contained in Mr. Csahanin's letter should actuate many of our readers, who might be affected, to write the President and Congressmen enclosing the portion of this column containing Mr. George Csahanin's pithy letter.

Why not? The president has not kept his promise and appears to favor bit business and the big oil company interests. His supply side economic policies, which our publisher calls "voodoo economics", seem destined to fail while he favors big military spending which our copetent Congressman Joe Minish criticizes for hte high profits of defense contractors and proposed to "cut fat, rather than muscle," out of the military budget by reestablishing the federal renogitaiton board to oversee the procurement of defense agencies. It is imperative that we all assert our right to call a halt to his madcap, illusionary melodramatic scenario of an outmoded actor of the old silver screen. Let's get back into the mainstream of present day American reality.

By George Chenoweth

If Congress allows a cap to be placed on federal contributions to MEDICAID, the state would have to limit eligibility and benefits or raise taxes to maintain current program levels. If the state finds it necessary to raise taxes, the municipalities will feel the crunch and you, the taxpayers, will be expected to pay more to maintain the Medicaid program.

Not only would the elderly suffer severely by these cuts, since Medicaid finances 55 percent of all nursing home stays and many other programs to provide adequate health care for the aged, but millions of children would suffer tremendously. Forty-five percent, or nearly 13 million, of the total Medicaid population are children. They are among the poorest and most afflicted of all children in America. Their only hope for adequate health care is Medicaid.

Proposed cuts in low-income energy assistance will drastically effect the ability of the poor and elderly to meet skyrocketing home heating bills. This is a double blow when considered along with the Administration's decontrol of domestic crude oil prices, which sent prices for home heating fuel upward. This program was not even funded out of general revenues. The money comes from the windfall profits tax levied on the oil companies. The same dire results can be expected if natural gas prices are decontrolled. Funds for weatherization of housing will also be reduced. These cuts along with cuts in conservative programs will raise energy prices and delay our achieving energy independence.

In Essex County, The Nursing Home Advocacy Center has embarked on a new volunteer program. The Center has been passing out fliers asking questions like, "Do you have a special skill, how about sharing that skill with people who would really appreciate it?" "Do you have a few free hours a week?" There are people who would like you to share a little time with them. "Do you like to work with your hands?" There are crafts, sewing, ceramics, gardening and much more that you can help with! "Do you like to work with people?" There are people who need you and would appreciate your working with them. If you are interested in serving call the Nursing Home Advocacy Center of Essex County 673-0662 or 673-0640. There will be an interview and training session to determine your interests and time availability. Do you know the joy involved with helping others? This is an excellent opportunity to find out.

Hospital appoints new coordinator

Kathleen E. Valetsky has been named educational coordinator of the School of Radiologic Technology at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital.

Miss Valetsky will be responsible for supervision, curriculum planning, evaluation and scheduling for the X-ray school program.

Prior to coming to Clara Maass, Miss Valetsky was a clinical coordinator and instructor at the Alexian Brothers Hospital and the Elizabeth General Hospital School of Radiologic Technology.

The Bridgewater resident received a bachelor of arts degree in psychology from Marymount College, New York, her X-ray diploma from Muhlenberg Hospital X-Ray School and a master's degree in education from Rutgers University.

Miss Valetsky is a member of the American Society of Radiologic Technologists and the Council of Radiologic Technology of New Jersey.

ATHLETES MUST HAVE SPINAL EXAMINATIONS

Athletes competing in organized competition, from grade school on through professional sports, are in need of chiropractic care regularly. Some high school teams and most college teams have a team trainer, or employ a masseur to help relieve sore muscles, but that is not enough. Medical doctors are of much help for purposes of first aid, but athletes in most sports receive quick jolts and strains on the muscles, which pull the bones in the spine out of place.

Many times a competitor will have a problem that goes undetected. He will be lethargic and unenthused. He will lack energy and fire. Chances are that the coach will not associate the player's condition with a hit he has received, which may be far removed from the discomfort.

It is very likely, that the discomfort may be due to cervical pressure, which can easily be detected by a team chiropractor, or by a visit to his office where an x-ray machine is available, which is essential in detecting displacements of the spine. These whiplash-type injuries are common among all athletes who participate in contact sports. This type of injury is long-term and far-reaching in its ultimate effect, because these injuries usually occur close to the brain stalk in the area of the neck.

If Olympic athletes who are competing for the biggest prizes in amateur sports see the need for chiropractic care, it is evident that high school and college athletes, and grade-school athletes, especially those involved in contact sports like football, need a bigger neck brace which will protect the neck better from whiplash type jolts and, more especially broken necks.

Competition is the American trademark, but certainly if young people are going to compete, they should suffer their worse pains in losing a game, and not from serious spinal subluxations which can be corrected and prevented with chiropractic care.

Abortion questions analyzed this Monday

Current abortion issues will be analyzed by Susan Hill, member of the Executive Board of the National Abortion Rights Action League and longtime abortion rights advocate, on Monday, October 19 at 8 p.m. at the Essex County headquarters of the National Organization for Women (NOW) at 516 Prospect Street (corner of Parker Avenue).

Maplewood, Ms. Hill will focus on various materials, including a slide show, produced by the so-called "right to life" movement. The status of the Human Life Bills introduced in Congress will also be discussed.

The Essex County chapter NOW sponsors monthly program meetings to which the public is invited.

Mrs. Victor Pasquariello — nee Cetta DeBlasio

Cetta J. DeBlasio wife of Victor Pasquariello

Holy Family Church was the setting June 27 for the marriage of Miss Cetta J. DeBlasio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DiBlasio of Nutley, to Victor J. Pasquariello, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. Pasquariello of Belleville.

The Rev. Frank D'Elia of St. Thomas More Church, Fairfield, performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at The Chandelier, Belleville.

Suzanne Todd of Nutley was maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Janet and Anne Marie Wengryn of Nutley, Dawn Stanisci of Nutley and Rosanne Romano of Belleville. Flower girls were Vicki and Mandy Lento of Fairfield.

Wayne Baldino of Nutley was best man. Ushers were the bride's brother, John DeBlasio of Nutley, Pete Malato, Tom DeBonis and Al Nuirio of Belleville.

Mrs. Pasquariello, an alumna of Nutley High School and Lyons Institute, Hackensack, is with Dr. R. Waldron, Upper Montclair.

Mr. Pasquariello, an alumnus of Belleville High School, is self employed.

The couple honeymooned in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico. The Pasquariellos have made their home in Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arancio — nee Lorraine Butler

Miss Lorraine Butler weds Frank Arancio

Miss Lorraine Butler, daughter of Mrs. Rose Butler of Belleville and Richard Butler of Nutley, was married June 20 to Frank Andrew Arancio, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Arancio of Belleville.

The Rev. Longsinger performed the ceremony at Third Presbyterian Church, Newark, and a reception followed at Beppy's, Newark.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a Qiana gown trimmed in lace. She wore a lace hat and flower-trimmed veil and carried a bouquet of white roses, carnations, stephanotis and a white orchid.

Mrs. Donna Miles was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Joanne DuFour, Carol Arminio and Elyse Bedikian.

The honor attendant was in a lavender crepe gown with a lace jacket, while the others wore pink crepe gowns with chiffon-pleated bodices. All carried old fashion bouquets of roses and carnations.

Larry Arancio was his brother's best man. Ushers were another brother, Peter Arancio, Jamie Malfattano and Jackie Morrison.

Mrs. Butler chose a light lavender polyester gown with printed jacket. Her wristlet was a white orchid. The groom's mother, in a peach polyester gown with pearl and rhinestone waistband, had a white orchid corsage.

The Arancios, both graduates of Belleville High School, have made their home in Belleville.

Maglias celebrate 50th anniversary

St. Anthony of Padua Church was the setting recently for a 50th golden anniversary Mass in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Maglia of Belleville. Their nephew, Father Michael Camponalunga, celebrated the high Mass assisted by Father Joseph Laudati and Father Thomas Coletti.

A reception was hosted by Father Camponalunga, another nephew, Joseph Messina, and a niece, Virginia Messina. One hundred family members and friends attended the affair at Don's 21, Newark.

Mr. Maglia is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Maglia, owners and operators of Maglia's Dairy Farm which was located on Watchung Avenue and supplied the community with raw milk and vegetables from 1905 to 1960. Mrs. Maglia, the former Mary Fiscella, is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fiscella, macaroni manufacturers who were located on Heckel Street and operated from 1910 to 1958.

Mr. and Mrs. Maglia are staunch supporters of the Republican Party and have been active as district leaders for 45 years. They have been cited twice by the Republican Congressional Committee for their work and efforts. They were invited by President Roosevelt to visit with him at his home in Hyde Park and were also invited to President Ronald Reagan's inaugural ball. They are members of the Republican National Committee.

Mr. Maglia was active with the Red Cross for many years and with St. Anthony's School, the Sons of Italy, St. Anthony Field Club. He was also vice president of Tripoli Park Club and an officer in the Holy Name Society. He and his wife are members of St. Gerard Maiella of Staten Island.

The couple was married in Holy Family Church, Nutley. The Maglias have been parishioners of St. Anthony of Padua since moving to Belleville.

Seton reunion this Saturday

Seton Hall University's class of 1951 will celebrate its 30th reunion Saturday with a dinner-dance.

The class was the first to graduate from Seton Hall University, following approval by the State Legislature on June 2, 1950 changing Seton Hall's status from college to university.

The reunion will begin with a Mass at the university chapel on the South Orange campus at 5:30 p.m. The dinner-dance will be held at the Maplewood Club, in Maplewood, beginning with a cocktail reception at 6:30. The sliced tenderloin dinner will be served at 7:30 and the festivities are scheduled to last till midnight.

Tickets for the dinner-dance are still available at $35 per person. Reservations may be made by calling Charlie Sutter, committee chairman, at 762-9134 or the Seton Hall alumni relations office at 761-9186.

Marotti and Pica are appointed to run Sen. Orechio's campaign

Senator Carmen A. Orechio (D-Essex) has announced the appointment of two campaign coordinators in Belleville.

Mayor Michael Marotti and Public Safety Commissioner Matthew Pica will be leading the Belleville push to get Orechio re-elected to his third term as state senator.

Mayor Marotti, in expressing his full support of Senator Orechio's candidacy, stated, "I know Carmen Orechio in a capacity other than the post of Senator — apost, incidentally, in which he serves in exemplary fashion. I know him as a fellow mayor. As Mayor of Nutley, Carmen Orechio has repeatedly demonstrated his leadership qualities. He serves Nutley as Director of Public Safety, and as such, he has gained a reputation for being very tough on crime. He understands the fundamental necessity of a quality police force to serve as a strong deterrent to street crime. The people of Nutley love and respect him, and in light of his 'job performance,' that doesn't surprise me at all. Matt Pica and I will expend every effort to return Carmen to Trenton after the November election.

Campaign Leaders — Sen. Carmen A. Orechio (center) has appointed Mayor Michael Marotti (right) and Public Safety Commissioner Mathew Pica to coordinate his Belleville campaign, as he seeks his third term as state senator for the 30th district.

Orechio also serves as Senate Majority Leader.

Pica, a corporate executive with RAIA Industries, is a life-long resident of Belleville. He served on the Belleville Board of Education for nine years, and is a graduate of Fairleigh Dickinson University.

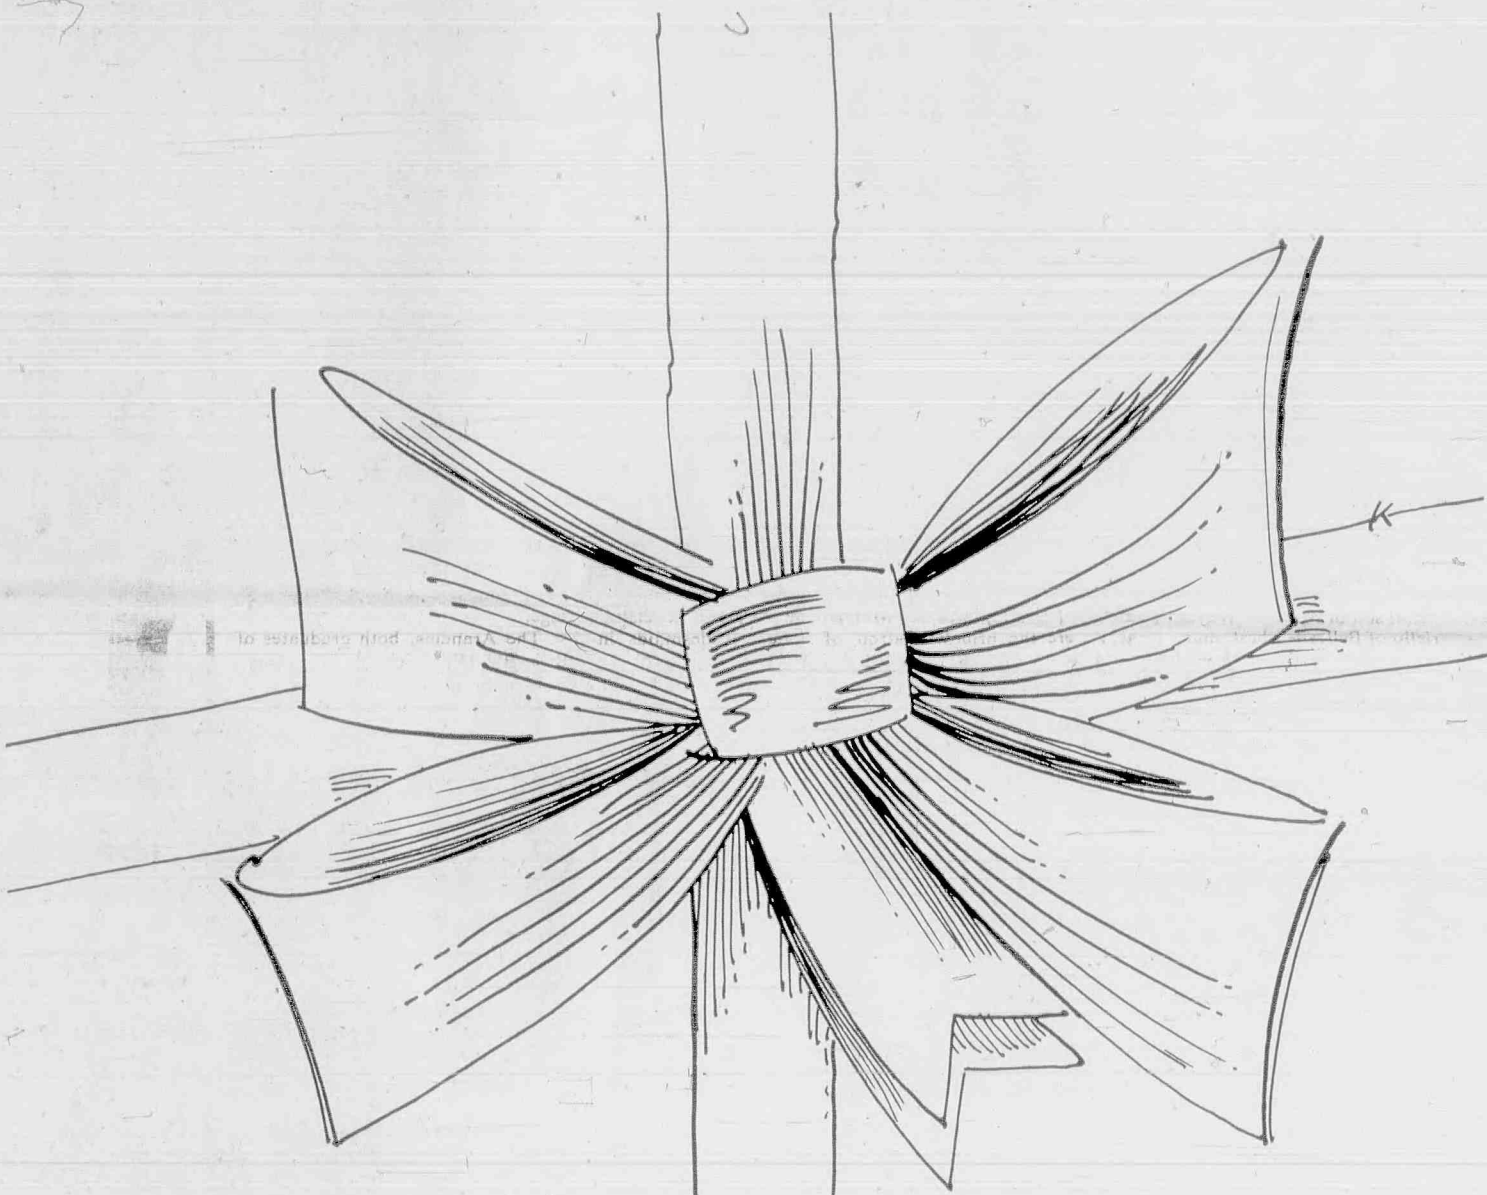

Mayor Marotti has served as Commissioner of Parks and Recreation, and prior to his successful bid for elective office, he was a police detective for more than 27 years. The mayor has been active with the youth in Belleville in Little League and other youth activities.

Belleville man charged in house robbery

A 19-year-old Belleville man has been charged with burglary and theft in connection with the break-in at 60 Eugene Place.

The break-in occurred around midnight, and about that time, neighbors reported noise coming from the house, according to Dep. Chief Frank Haight. When Patrolmen Edger Panier and Leonard Burrell answered the call, two men who had broken into the house through a rear window fled out the front door. The second suspect has been identified but is still loose, Haight said Friday.

The deputy chief said cash was taken during the break-in, but would not disclose the amount. The man who was arrested Thursday morning has been released on $500 bail pending trial.

Your rich uncle has a tax-free gift for you.

Introducing the All Savers Certificate — the savings plan that can earn you up to $2,000 in tax-free interest!

Uncle Sam, at last, is rewarding the thrifty.

From October 1 through all of 1982, we're offering All Savers, a remarkable new savings certificate plan that pays tax-free interest.

Here's how it works: Open an All Savers Certificate with at least $500. If you're married and file jointly, the first $2,000 of interest is free from any federal tax. If you file a single return, then it's the first $1,000.

The new All Savers Certificate can be a significant investment, depending on your total taxable income. The chart shows you the rate you would need in an alternative investment to match the tax equivalent yield you get with the All Savers Certificate.

The term for an All Savers Certificate is one year and you always earn the highest interest allowed by

* or up to $1,000 if you file a single return.

GROSS ANNUAL HOUSEHOLD INCOME	1982 MARGINAL FEDERAL TAX RATES	TAX EQUIVALENT RATE (ASSUMING 12.14% ANNUAL YIELD ON ALL SAVERS CERTIFICATE)

22,000- 27,250	22%	15.56%
27,250- 32,750	25%	16.19%
32,750- 39,375	29%	17.10%
39,375- 46,000	33%	18.12%
46,000- 59,250	39%	19.90%
59,250- 77,000	44%	21.68%
77,000-109,000	49%	23.80%

These examples show Federal Tax Rates only and assume itemized deductions of 20% of gross annual household income after reductions for 2 exemptions for married individuals filing joint returns and surviving spouses.

law. The rate you earn depends on the current Treasury Bill rate, but once you purchase an All Savers Certificate your rate is guaranteed even if rates go down!

You wouldn't want to disappoint your uncle, so come in today and find out more about the All Savers Certificate.

Who knows? Maybe he has some other wonderful things in store for you.

Belleville's past

In 1855 with a show of paternal concern, Newark sold Belleville a piece of apparatus. This acquisition led to a meeting of the Citizens of Belleville, November 7, 1855 for the purpose of organizing a Hook and Ladder Company and for erecting a suitable building to protect the truck with ladders lately purchased by the citizens.

The newly purchased engine was past its prime, but Belleville received it nevertheless with possessive pride. Somewhere the engine had gotten the name "Passaic" and it was for this reason that the new company was similarly named. C.G. Snow was appointed foreman of the company; Nicholas N. Joralemon, assistant foreman; Gasherie De Witt, secretary; and Dr. Arthur Ward, treasurer.

Although the old "Passaic" was scrupulously cared for and spent its idle hours comfortably in a building near the Dutch Reformed Church, its days were numbered. A veteran by the time it came to Belleville, it took the ruts in the poorly paved roads with much murmuring and groaning; now and then a wheel came off and went rolling into a ditch, with the firemen in angry pursuit. By 1856 the behavior of the "Passaic" had become inexcusably erratic, and the annoyed firemen who had expected a somewhat longer career from the machine for which they had paid their good money, resolved "to sell the old engine" and use the proceeds for "the Hook and Ladder Company" now bereft of a hook and ladder.

But a year later the leaders of the company again went to Newark to make another purchase. This time they came back with an engine, no less venerable than its predecessor and bearing the same illustrious name "Passaic." It served Belleville for about eight years. It seems to have been used at the fire which attacked Josiah Rhodes tannery in 1858, but not with too great success for the blaze did away with all of Rhode's standing property, and the charred remains smoked for several days after the flames had died down. By 1865 the "Passaic II" had wearied of its labors; its engine acquired a wheezing cough as if it were about to burst. One day it stopped breathing altogether, and its remains too made the lonely journey to the junkman's graveyard.

From Richard A. Shafter's History of Belleville

Would you like to see the site of the Battle of Second River during the Revolution, or the site where the first steamboat engine was built in America or where a quarry and a copper mine were located, or see the spot where the Hendrick's Mansion stood? Is the tree where the mushroom station was built around still standing? Also to see the Hendrick's Bridge and the site of the oldest copper mill in America where five generations of Hendricks ran the mill.

If you do, put on your walking shoes and meet at the entrance to Belleville Park on Mill Street and Union Avenue by the Cherry Blossom Sign on Saturday, October 17, 1981 at 10 a.m. If it rains bring your rain gear.

Belleville Historical Society

Spillane to serve as CMHS trustee

School Board Trustee Thomas Spillane has been appointed by Mayor Michael V. Marotti to membership on the Board of Trustees of the Community Mental Health Services for Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley.

Spillane is employed as a communications engineer of Bell Telephone Company. He is a member of the Optimist Club of Belleville and also of the New Jersey District of Optimists International.

He has been a member of the School Board since May, after winning one of the two open seats in the April election.

Spillane's wife, Barbara, who is a teacher, is the state president of the Junior Woman's Club. The Spillanes have three children, Tricia, 12, Thomas, Jr., 9, and Melanie, 6.

Other representatives to the Service's agency besides Spillane include: Joseph Cappello, James Cozarella, Jr., Jerry Di Nocola, Pat Diana, Lenora Keeney and Rev. John Shay.

N.Y. bike touring team comes to town Sunday

On Sunday, Oct. 18, a Bicycle Historical Tour will visit Belleville about 3 p.m. The tour will be conducted by the Friends of Central Park led by Richard Lenat.

The group has previously made tours of Baltimore, Philadelphia, Yonkers and New York visiting the historical sites in each city. The New York tour started at 2 a.m. on a Sunday morning visiting downtown New York City.

The group is composed of about 75 members of all ages both male and female. They dress in ordinary street clothes and ride their bicycles at a slow pace. It is not a bicycle racing group.

They will board a PATH train in New York and will arrive in Harrison Station at about 2 p.m. Arrangements have been made with PATH to accommodate their bicycles. From Harrison they will travel through Kearny and North Arlington to the Belleville Turnpike, then over the Belleville Rutgers Bridge into Belleville.

Members of the Belleville Historical Society will meet the group at the Dutch Reformed Church and escort them up Mill Street into Belleville Park. Then they will visit the sites of the Battle of the Second River, the Hendrick's Copper Works and where the engine was built for the first steamboat in America.

They will then proceed through Branch Brook Park in Newark to Orange Street and then to Bridge Street Bridge to Harrison and then by PATH back home to New York.

Anyone wishing to join the group can either meet them at the Harrison Station at 2 p.m. or join them in Belleville at 3 p.m.

Ensemble auditions are opening for the Whole Theatre Workshop

The Whole Theatre's Performing Workshop will hold auditions on Saturday, October 24, to cast young people between the ages of 13-19 in its Fall 1981 Ensemble. Designed to combine professional-level acting instruction with on-stage rehearsal and performance experience, the Performing Workshop provides seven weeks of in-depth classroom attention for each student, culminating in a public performance on the Whole Theatre Stage during the December holiday season.

William Carr, an actor and educator with extensive experience teaching and directing young people, will conduct the course, which begins

November 5, and meets Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays, through December 20. Mr. Carr's experience includes directing the Albany Art Center Ensemble in a series of plays which toured New York State and were performed at La Mama in New York City.

The Student Performing Workshop is part of the fall course offerings at the Whole Theatre's Professional Theatre School. All young people interested in auditioning should contact the education office at 744-2933, Monday through Friday, 9:30-4:30 for audition times. The Whole Theatre Company of Montclair, N.J., a professional Equity theatre going into its 9th award-winning season, is casting non-Equity actors as members of the ensemble in Peter Weiss' international success, "MARAT-SADE," which takes place in a mental hospital in France in 1808.

The Whole Theatre is looking for off-beat, eccentric-looking types of all ages. Those who audition must have stage experience, know how to move well, and have a flexible schedule. The production opens February 9, 1982, but workshops will take place in December for creative ensemble work with the choreographer. There will be no salary, but actors will have the opportunity to work with professionals. Those interested should call the office of the Whole Theatre for an audition at (201) 744-2933. Ask for Apollo Dukakis, casting director.

Stephen Skaleski scholarship finalist

Stephen A. Skaleski of Belleville, a senior at Seton Hall Preparatory School, has been selected as a semifinalist in the 1982 Merit Scholarship competition. Skaleski is one of seven semifinalists named from Seton Hall Prep this year.

Semifinalists named in each state represent the top half of one percent of the state's high school senior class.

Jane Aulenbach joins Belleville dance group

The Belleville Academy of Theatre and Dance is proud to announce that Miss Jane Aulenbach has joined the staff at the academy.

Miss Aulenbach will be teaching an eight-week Musical Theatre Workshop. This workshop is designed for those who enjoy performing and those who would like to perform. In addition to participating in scenes and songs from the American musical theatre, students will also explore the essential elements of a musical production. The culmination of this workshop will be a performance given by the students.

Miss Aulenbach has extensive experience and training in music, theatre and voice. She received her B.A. in Music Education from Montclair State. She is one of the co-founders of the New Jersey Theatre Ensemble at Kean College, where she has performed in numerous productions and has also served as musical director and conductor. This past summer, Miss Aulenbach played the part of Mammie Yokums in the N.J. Theatre Ensemble's production of "Lil Abner."

To her other credits are performances in "Dames at Sea," "Rodgers and Hart," "6 Rooms Riv Vu," "Butterflies Are Free," and she starred as Dolly Levi in "Hello Dolly."

At present, Miss Aulenbach is also performing with a musical variety troupe called "Showstoppers."

According to Ms. Sharon Kokler, the Belleville Academy's drama director, "We are very privileged to have Miss Aulenbach join our staff; in the school's continuing effort to bring the highest quality in theatre and dance education to our students."

For further information, please call the school at 751-5259.

Special Education group conducting first meeting

The Special Education Parents and Professional Organization will hold its first meeting for the school year on tonight, October 15 at 7:30 p.m. at School Number Four.

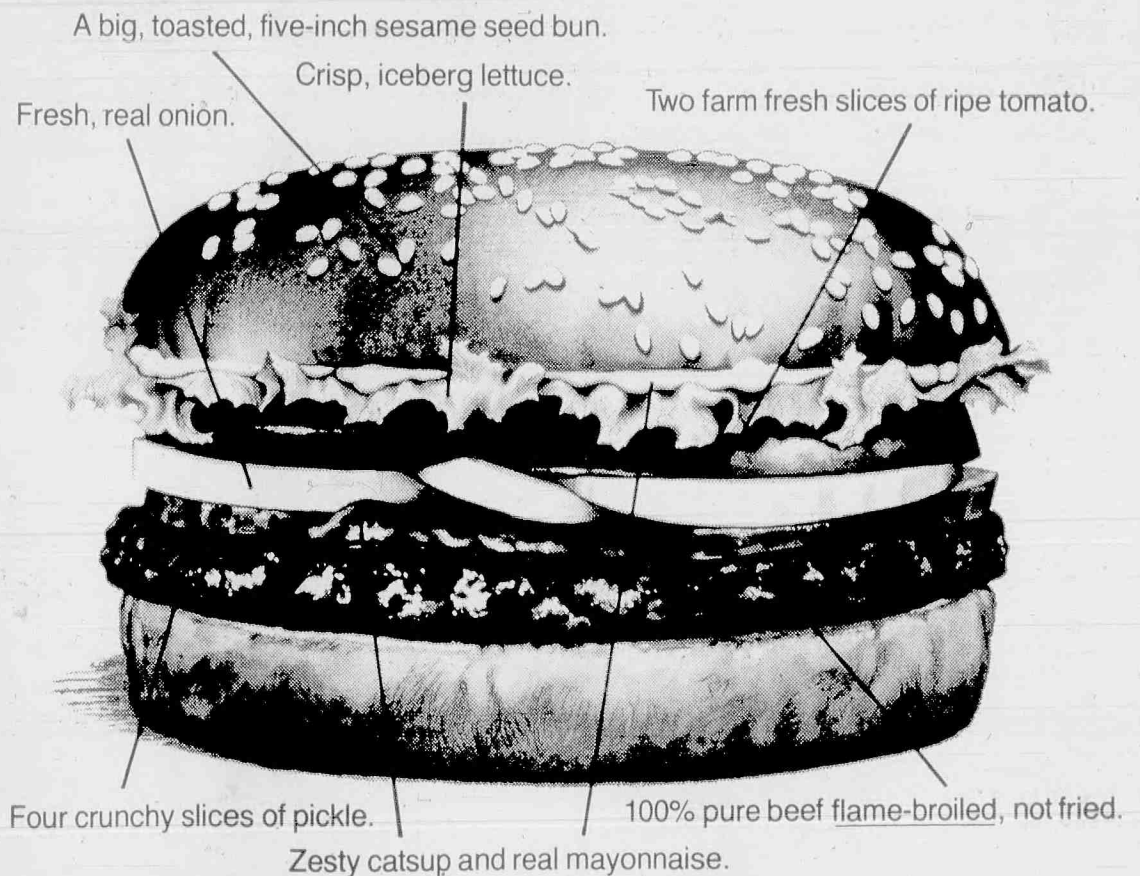

All parents, teachers and persons interested in Special Education are invited to attend. There will be a guest speaker, Mrs. Kay Sanford, Field Representative for the Social Security Administration. She will discuss benefits entitled to parents of handicapped children.

Refreshments will be served and parents will have an opportunity to share their concerns and expertise with other parents and teachers. Those who wish to join the organization may do so at the meeting.

Sons of Italy hold dinner

Dr. Roger Greco honored with 40 years of service

Last Saturday the Sons of Italy held a dinner-dance at the Princess Restaurant in Lodi to honor a man who has given 40 years of service to Essex County and the community of Belleville.

Dr. Roger A. Greco, who until three weeks ago served as chief medical director, of the county's Geriatrics Center, was honored for his years of hard work and devotion, which he has given to the troubled center.

The reason for the Sons of Italy honoring Dr. Greco are listed below in a piece prepared by one of the organization's officers.

In 1941 the Essex County Isolation Hospital welcomed a young physician named Roger A. Greco, who became a member of the medical staff. This was the beginning of an affiliation which would continue even today. This was to be a career of a young physician who would devote his entire life to the care of young children suffering the dreaded childhood diseases such as scarlet fever, whooping cough, measles, sickle-cell anemia, polio and other illnesses which would often result in death, or physical scarring, and extended to the care of young adults, indigent patients with general medical and surgical problems, those in need of chronic care, and finally to the care of geriatric patients suffering physical, emotional, and psychological problems, as well as "fractured family syndrome."

At great personal sacrifice, Dr. Greco has devoted more than 40 years of his life to the professional care of those in need, with little thought or concern for any personal reward or recognition.

Dr. Greco has seen the Isolation Hospital develop from a center for the treatment of contagious diseases to a general hospital for treatment of all general medical problems, to a facility for "chronic care," for poor and indigent of the county, to a geriatrics center that provides for the medical care of the elderly, and sometimes forsaken, patients of Essex County. Dr. Greco has been a steady guiding hand during all the years of this development.

Dr. Greco's philosophy has remained constant, "the needs of the sick come first."

In his role as staff physician, senior staff physician, his appointment to clinical director, medical director and his present post as medical consultant of the center, Dr. Greco has extended himself far beyond the requirements of his position. He has exceeded the requirements of his profession and gave of his time, his knowledge, concern, and his "healing power" in carrying out his care of the patients entrusted to him. He has been concerned not only with the patients alone, but also with the emotional and financial impact of the patient's problems on the family.

Where in the world can you find a doctor who answers the call for help no matter when it is sounded — in the middle of the night, early morning, late afternoon or evening? He always personally visits the patient to administer and comfort. Where is the doctor who requests that you call, no matter what time, whenever knowledge, understanding and holistic care in the field of gerontology, commands the highest respect and admiration of his peers in the medical profession.

Webster describes a doctor as one legally qualified to practice medicine; one skilled in the art of healing. Dr. Greco is a physician beyond description.

Greco Honored — Dr. Roger A. Greco, former medical director of the county's Geriatric Center in Belleville, was honored by the Sons of Italy in a recent dinner-dance held at the Princess Restaurant in Lodi. Dr. Greco has served with the Geriatrics Center for more than 40 years.

his service is felt to be needed? Where is the doctor who serves cheerfully and willingly seven days a week, for more than 15 hours a day? Where is the doctor who responds during the night, at any hour and administers to his "sick patients." That doctor is Roger A. Greco, and that has been his dedication for the past forty years.

Every patient is special to Dr. Greco, and when death wins a battle, he feels for the loss as much as any member of the patient's family. And his concern then extends to the relatives and family of the deceased. He personally advises them of the loss, extends his sympathy, and more often than not, helps them over the crisis, emotionally and physically.

Dr. Greco is truly a doctor, counsellor, consultant and friend. His expertise in clinical diagnosis, treatment and care is recognized by his professional associates. His

Fun at Elmwood Avenue's annual block party

Festive Group — Anthony Marcantuono is surrounded by two charming ladies, Mary Patrizio (r) and Ida Mazzarella during Elmwood Avenue's block party. It is the third time that neighbors have gotten together to have a block party.

Volley Pair — Fred Zungri (l) and Ricky Alves spent most of the day looking at the Elmwood Avenue girls and playing volleyball. All in all, they both said they had a good time.

Proud Grandma — Connie Salamone is a happy grandmother as she shows off her ninth grandchild, young Rachel. Standing next to them is another one of Connie's prizes, Jessica.

Eating and Drinking — There was plenty to munch on during the 3rd annual Elmwood Avenue block party, especially Italian food. There was also the great American dishes such as hot dogs and hamburgers as well. It seems as though almost everyone gained about five pounds during the course of the afternoon.

Fun-Fun-Fun — These people don't look too happy about having their picture taken, but they said they were enjoying themselves at the Elmwood Avenue block party. Fred Alves (first row) did eat a lot of food during the afternoon, so he must of had a good time. Surrounding him is his beautiful wife, Marylou; his daughter Lisa (upper row-r), and a friend of the family Patti Muniz Happy Couple — Attilio and Rosamaria Raimo both enjoyed the Sunday sun, food, and fun at the 3rd annual Elmwood Avenue block party. Almost 50 people showed up throughout the afternoon at the party.

Block Kids — Most of the kids from Elmwood Avenue gathered on the stairs of one home for this picture during the block party. Most of the kids spent the afternoon playing volleyball and enjoying the games and races, not to mention the food.

Clara Maass is expanding its freshmen nursing class

Margaret Howarth of Verona had never thought about becoming a nurse. She was too busy bringing up nine children and acclimating the family to the many cities where her husband's job was transferred. But at age 49, she realized it was "time to start a new lifestyle."

Joe Harrison, a Bloomfield resident, is no stranger to a service oriented field. A position is a hospice as an orderly and a hospital as a psych assistant gave him insight into a profession traditionally sought by women. He decided he wanted to integrate into the system "as a medical person."

Patricia West attended nursing school for one year, then marriage and a family took precedence and the dream was buried for the next 15 years. Her work as an aide at a psychiatric hospital also helped in her decision to return for the completion of her education.

These three students are just a small sampling of the freshman class at the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, and exemplify the diversity of the group that will be participating in the new two-year curriculum.

"The emphasis in the new curriculum will be on problem solving skills, the nursing process and nursing diagnosis," said Anne C. Knox, director of the school. "The program is comprehensive and geared towards actively carrying out problem solving skills in a wide variety of situations."

New Student — Maureen Villane, R.N., of Belleville, head nurse in the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital Nursery (l) instructs Margaret Howarth of Verona how to handle the newborn after birth. Mrs. Howarth is a freshman nursing student at the Belleville hospital's School of Nursing as well as being the proud grandmother of three.

Indeed, there was such an interest in the new program that enrollment at 47 makes it the largest freshman class in the history of the school.

"It may be rough for a while but the knowledge that I will be working in two years is really a great incentive," Mrs. West explained.

A special study skills program was developed to assist the many students who have been away from the educational environment for more than two years.

"The present nursing shortage was a consideration for the expansion of the freshman class," Miss Knox explained. "When we received applications from many qualified and interested candidates we felt we had to respond to their needs and to the needs of the community."

Mrs. West, who works nights at the Greystone Park Psychiatric Hospital, Morris Plains, said that being an aide just wasn't enough.

"I want to know why I'm doing something and have the knowledge of it myself. I want a profession where I can make decisions instead of blindly listening to someone else tell me what to do," she said.

The Clara Maass nursing program is structured so that students delve into the profession shortly after the classes begin. The "clinical experience" begins during the second week and at the completion of the two-year program the students will have garnered many valuable hours of experience in the patient care setting.

"Many graduates of Clara Maass interested me in the school since it offers a concentrated nursing program," said Karen McClure, a single parent with two children living in Kearny.

The Nursing School has had a contractual agreement with Upsala College in East Orange for many

Frosh football Bucs strong on defense

When you have a freshman football team that has returning players on it, you have to wonder how good this team is. In the case of the Belleville freshman football squad, the answer lies in the team's 4-0 record and super defense.

Under the direction of coaches Genero Russo and Scott Fabian, the frosh Bucs have stopped Clarkstown North, 26-0, Bloomfield, 32-0, Columbia, 32-0 and last week halted arch-rival Nutley, 22-0. Obviously, the defense hasn't allowed a point this year and come this Saturday, the Bucs will face their toughest outing of the year when the Passaic Indians play host at 11 a.m.

"They've been pretty impressive scores," Russo said of the team's first four wins. "We have the returning players because a lot of these players played on last year's squad. When the ninth graders were in the junior high school, we were allowed to use eighth graders as well."

Last year was a unique situation for the Bucs. Since the freshmen now attend the high school, the eighth grade rule is no longer applicable. However, for now, the coaches can readily see the improvement of last year's eighth graders.

Russo credits the team's success to head coach John Senesky. "The skills and drills camp that we run in late August is a big help because it teaches the kids how to block and tackle safely. Since it is without pads, the kids learn a lot and when we put the pads on, the players are ahead of the game because they know the proper techniques. John (Senesky) really came up with a great idea in the camp."

The freshmen run basically the same plays as the varsity does, so when the freshmen move up to the varsity level, many of the players and team concept is already familiar to them. Thus, many experts of high school football can see why Belleville has always been a fundamentally sound team. The reason for the success can easily stem to the freshmen players.

The Bucs are a closely knit club, and that also leads to the success of the club. "They're a very coachable unit," said Russo. "They are very motivated and want to win. Our maturity level is still in question. I'm anxious to see how we'll play in a close game, such as the Passaic game this week."

While the team still faces some stiff challenges from Passaic, Marist, Carteret, Seton Hall and Kearny, the Bucs are filled with confidence and are playing with a great deal of determination. The next few weeks will tell a lot, but the Bucs certainly have a fine squad that will be a tough foe for anyone to face.

New York had a strange situation last week. All the local teams won. The Yankees finally won the eastern crown, the Jets and Giants won and even the Nets won an exhibition game. The Yanks will be playing against the A's and of course, Billy Martin. It should be quite a battle and sort of a class reunion. It's like the Yanks of 1981 versus the Yanks of '76, '77 and '78. Yankee fans might have a hard time figuring out who to root for. I'd kind of like to see the A's pull this one out, for Billy Martin especially. The Yankees have proven that they are indeed a money club and when it comes to the stretch, the Yanks will be tough to contend with.

In the National League, the Montreal Expos and Los Angeles Dodgers series should be exciting, that's if the two teams don't die from shock. After all, the Dodgers will be playing in balmy Dodger Stadium and the 80 degree heat and will then be in Montreal where the weather is no hotter than 45 degrees. The Dodgers with their playoff experience should win this series although both teams have superb pitching. It could be a Dodger-A's series in late October. They'll have to play it in Florida.

The Jets and Giants won, hooray, and both teams appear to be in pretty good shape. The Giants found a runner in Carpenter and the Jets defense is getting better week by week. Could it be that both teams are reaching respectability after a decade of mediocrity? Tune in to the NFL Report for further details.

If you didn't make it last Friday, try and attend the Belleville gymnastics match which will be a week from Friday at BHS starting at 3:45 p.m. The girls were beaten by a good Clark squad last week but gave a good account of themselves with their highest team score ever. Carol Giuffrida is quickly molding a pretty strong squad and the team is very competitive. There was a good crowd on hand last Friday and it really helped the girls to a good performance.

The Belleville High School athlete of the week is Angelo Centanni. The senior half back is quickly turning into one of the finest runners in the area. He had a good game against Nutley last week and will be a key factor in the Bucs upcoming games against the likes of Passaic, Seton Hall and Marist.

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was who scored the Bucs first touchdown of the 1978 Belleville-Nutley game. The answer: Joe Donnamaria.

For this week's quiz: In 1976, the Yankees and Kansas City Royals engaged in a thriller of a series for the American League Championship. The Yanks of course, won it in the fifth and deciding game. Now for the question. In that fifth game, who were the starting pitchers and who gave up the homerun to Chris Chambliss in the bottom of the ninth inning. Also, a couple of innings earlier, the Royals were trailing, 6-3 when a player blasted a three-run homer to tie matters at six. Can you name the player who clubbed the homer and the pitcher he hit it off.

Finally, a special hello goes out to Tommy Apicella, the Bucs nose guard who fractured his ankle in the big win over Nutley last Saturday. You won't find a more determined athlete than Tommy and a more disappointed person following his injury. He is indeed a special athlete and is already talking about being ready for the crew season come March. I certainly hope he makes a full recovery and I'm sure the entire town shares in those sentiments.

Buccaneers pound Raiders; third ranked Passaic is next

Fazzini runs 92 yards to spark 26-0 shutout

By Mike Lamberti

Continuing its mastery of the opponent, the Belleville football team boosted its record to 3-0 by blanking arch rival Nutley, 26-0.

The Buccaneers now face their toughest test of the '81 campaign when the Passaic Indians, the third ranked team in the state and first in the area, invade BHS for an afternoon game this Saturday. Kickoff is slated for 1 p.m.

"Beating Nutley is still very special," said head coach John Senesky following the win last Saturday.

Directions to Clarkstown

On October 31st game the Bucs will be traveling to North High School in New City, New York, to play a game with Clarkstown.

From any Buccaneer fans wishing to attend the game here are the directions. Take Garden State Pkwy North to end; bear right and take New York Thruway toward Tappan Zee Bridge; before bridge take Exit 13 South Palisades Pkwy; Go approx. 300 yds and take Exit 8 West to Route 59 West; Go approx. 300 yds and take Route 304 North; Go approx. 6 lights (4 lanes will become 2 lanes). Landmark: On right look for red barn building which is Vanderbilt Lumber Yard. Next light will be Congers road - make a right - 1 mile to the high school on the right.

day. "They had a big squad and gave us a strong battle." The news wasn't all good for the Bucs however. Tommy Apicella, the team's solid nose guard, went down with a broken ankle midway through the third quarter and will be lost for the remainder of the year.

It was clear from the early going that Belleville would have control of this contest. Nutley (1-2), halted Belleville's first drive on the Maroon 20 when Buc tightend Frank Kokos fumbled after receiving a pass from quarterback Bob Woodcock.

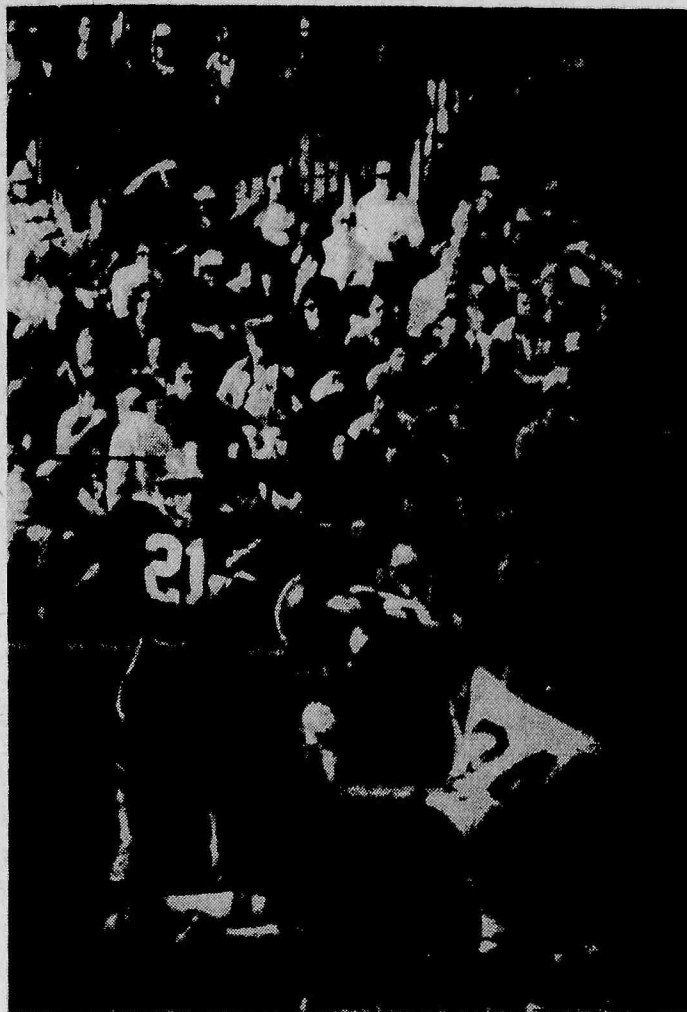

Nutley did challenge, moving from their 20 to midfield, but the Maroon quarterback, Anthony Anzevino fumbled the snap from center and Belleville was back in business in Maroon territory.

From the Nutley 48, Jeff Walsh ran four yards, Angelo Centanni scooted four more and Frank Fazzini (92 yards rushing) picked up the first down at the Maroon 36. From there, the Bucs grounded out a nine play drive to the Nutley goal line, highlighted by Fazzini's one yard plunge that gave Belleville a 6-0 lead. Robbie Cancelliere added the conversion and the Bucs were up, 8-0.

After the teams traded possessions, the Bucs drove to its second score when from the Maroon 40, Fazzini picked up 15 yards on two carries and after Jeff Walsh was hit for a four yard loss, Woodcock hit Walsh with a beautiful 29-yard strike for the second score of the game. The conversion failed, the Bucs led, 13-0.

Nutley wasn't able to generate any offense for the remainder of the first half and the Bucs left for the intermission with a 13-0 lead.

Nutley did snap one Belleville string in this contest however. For the first time, the Bucs did not score a point in a quarter, having been blanked in the third quarter of last Saturday's game. Belleville had scored at least a touchdown in the first two games and the first two quarters of this game. All together, the Bucs had a ten-quarter string before the scoreless period.

Good Coverage — Steve Karras (24) of Belleville gets down the field in a hurry to make a tackle on Domenick Garibaldi, who tried to return a Frank Fazzini punt. Garibaldi gained zero yards on the play, while the Raiders gained zero points throughout the entire game.

Nutley meanwhile wasn't having any luck cracking the tough Belleville line. Not once did the Maroon enter Belleville territory and with the exception of running back Steve Sheppard, the Raiders lacked an effective offense.

In the fourth quarter, Belleville extended its margin to 19-0 when Fazzini scored his second touchdown of the day and seventh of the young season on a run from four yards out. The drive had started from the Nutley 45 and a Woodcock to Centanni pass of 23 yards set up the third score.

The final Belleville tally came late (Please see 'Bucs' on page 14.)

Chargers, Jets, Steelers and Chiefs post wins in youth football league

The Belleville Recreation Department Football League opened its season last week with teams squading off in both the lightweight and heavyweight divisions. In the lightweights, the Jets defeated the Falcons 24-6, and the Chargers defeated the Bengals 19-13. Heavyweight action saw the Steelers top the Giants 32-0 and the Chiefs defeat the Rams 13-0.

The Jets opened up a 12-0 half-time lead on runs by Lou Lucante for 16 yards and Mike Iacona for two yards. The second half saw the Jets extend their to 24-0 on runs once again by Iacona and Lucante of 11 and eight yards respectively.

Another touchdown by Jet quarterback Anthony Lunetta for 65 yards was called back on a penalty. The Falcons broke the shut-out on a 70 yard run by Danny Harrington with great blocking coming from Billy Sypher, Scott Odirizzi and Mike Bocchino. The jet defense was aided by Eric Hochstuhl, Peter Rizzolo and Jamie Galio.

The Chargers needed only 15 seconds to get on the scoreboard against the Bengals thanks to Jack Calandra's 70 yard kickoff return. The Chargers extended their lead to 13-0 on a five yard run by Mike Martinez before Bengal quarterback Joey Domenick hooked up with Jay Marchese for a 68 yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 13-6. In the third quarter, Domenick once again hooked up with Marchese for an 80 yard touchdown pass to tie the score at 13-13. The score remained tied until Charger Domenick Milano blocked a Bengal punt on the one yard line and Jack Calandra latered scored for the winning margin.

The Steelers, on a 10 yard run by Andrew Martinez held a 6-0 half-time lead over the Giants, but had things their own way in the second half. Martinez' run was aided by Frank Gencarelli and Jimmy Dunphy, both provided key blocks. Anthony Gizzo scored on a 13 yard run for the Steelers shortly after Martinez picked up a fumble and ran 21 yards for another score. Mike Pronel scored on a one yard run to make the score 25-0 and Gizzo scored once again on a 52 yard run with key blocks coming from Tommy Sauchelli, Dean Mauro and Moonman Silletti. Gencarelli added the extra-point on a run to close out the scoring.

In a good defensive battle, the Chiefs scored 13 points in the first quarter for the only scoring of the night.

Quarterback Ricky Albanese snuck in from the one yard line to make the score 7-0. Later in the quarter, Chief runner Vito Ianzuzelli electrified the crowd with a probable recreation football record 98 yard punt return. Ianzuzelli caught the ball on his own two yard line and raced around the left end where it was clear-sailing due to some excellent blocking.

Girls continue to score but losses also continue

By Mike Lamberti

There was some very shoddy officiating at the Belleville gymnastics match last Friday night, but it couldn't take away from the girls individual success and the team's highest scoring total of its history.

The girls will not be in action until next Friday when the powerful Mounties of Montclair invade BHS for a 3:45 p.m. match.

Before a big crowd last Friday, the girls were stopped, 79.45 to 59.15 by Clark. The 59.15 points is the girls highest since its inception last year and with some more favorable score keeping, that total could have been higher.

"They (Clark) had a couple of girls who were trying to qualify for the states, so maybe their scores were jacked up a bit," said head coach Carol Giuffrida. "However, I can't take away from our success. We did a pretty good job and the girls are learning rather quickly."

Laura Cairo took a third place in the vaulting and Donna Slonim placed third in the floor exercises for Belleville's only places in the match. Clark swept the other events but the Belleville girls did give a strong account of their ability. "Some of our girls used a few new tricks in their routine," continued Giuffrida. "Donna (Slonim) used a new trick in her routine and with continued work she'll be very successful."

The coach pointed out that the girls are a very young team. With the exception of senior Gina McCabe, the rest of the squad is made up of freshman and sophomores and that will be a disadvantage when the girls are up against teams that are majority juniors and seniors. "Our time will come," the coach promised. "It's going to take some time, but I'm happy with our progress. We're starting to show improvement and that's what's important."

Giuffrida will work her team rather hard next week, getting them ready for the Mounties, considered by many to be one of the states best teams.

BHS Hall of Fame to host testimonial

On Friday, November 6, at the Branch Brook Manor, the Belleville High School Hall of Fame Association will sponsor the first of what it is hoped will soon be an annual affair honoring former Belleville High School varsity greats. Tickets to the testimonial dinner will sell for $15 per person and go on sale within the week.

The newly formed Hall of Fame Association is an arm of the Belleville Board of Education and its Athletic Council, and was organized to carry out a project begun four years ago but not continued by Mike Chieffo and Fred Puleo while Athletic Council members. Over 50 former sports stars were inducted at the awards dinner held Chieffo and Puleo; however, the codified structure set up by the new association will limit future groups of inductees to ten per year.

To be eligible, a Belleville athlete must be an alumnus of the high school for at least five years, or have been a coach or athletic director at the high school, must have contributed to the athletic program at the school beyond that expected of most individuals, must have had an outstanding record of achievements on the field of play, must have shown leadership, desire, and an ability to overcome whatever handicaps were placed in his or her way. Belleville alumni who have excelled in post high school sports may also be considered.

The association is looking to the people of Belleville for help in uncovering the names of town's outstanding past performers. Nomination forms can be picked up at the Senior High School for those interested or the form published below may be submitted to the association at the high school's mailing address. According to Evelyn Hannon, president of the association: "All that we hope to do is to honor as many deserving past athletes as possible. The name of every nominee will be given full consideration, and we hope that the very idea of such a Hall of Fame is the kind of thing that can give Belleville and its athletes a boost."

Time Out — Soccer Coach Anthony D'Aquino calls his team together during a recent match. D'Aquino says he is happy with his team play, despite its 2-4-1 record. He feels that it will not be long before the booters are playing good soccer and winning.

Jets show super defensive play as they pull off a 28-24 victory

By Mike Lamberti

The New York Jets proved to over 52,000 fans at Shea Stadium that they do indeed possess a super defense. The New England Patriots, the visiting team last Sunday found out that the Jets defense is more than just the front line of Gastineau, Klecko and Lyons. Putting those facts together, you can see why the Jets pulled out a tough 28-24 victory.

The rest of the NFL looked something like this. The Giants found a runner in Rob Carpenter and breezed by St. Louis, San Francisco stunned the Dallas Cowboys, Cincy ripped Baltimore, Minnesota won a thriller over San Diego, Washington finally won its first, Philly hasn't lost yet and Los Angeles pulled out a last second win over Atlanta.

The Jets, as usual, jumped out to an early lead and as usual, saw the contest turn into a close game. The Jets led, 21-7 thanks to three Richard Todd's TD passes in the first half, but the offense took a nap in the second half and if it wasn't for some key interceptions, mainly a 45-yard interception for a TD by Donald Dykes, the Jets could have very well lost the game.

New England started the game with Matt Cavanaugh at quarterback, but after the interception by Dykes, Steve Grogan came in and led the Pats to a quick TD. The Jet defense then came alive, holding a second Patriot drive at the two yard line on fourth down and stopping the Pats on the three yard line, setting a field goal. Finally, the Patriots had a golden chance to win in the final seconds but Grogan's pass from the four yard line was intercepted by Darrol Ray and the Jets won a big game.

The Giants found that a good running back can really bolster the teams offense. Rob Carpenter, acquired from Houston two weeks ago, made his debut and rushed for over 100 yards on just 12 carries. With his running, the Giants could mix up their plays more and quarterback Phil Simms found the pickings easy in the passing department. The result was an easy 34-14 win over St. Louis and with Seattle on tap this Sunday, the Giants stand a good chance to run their record to 4-3.

That San Diego game was a dandy. The Chargers led, 31-24 with less than a minute left when Viking quarterback Tommy Kramer threw a desperation TD pass to Terry La Counte. The Vikings then missed the point after touchdown and while the Chargers took turns slapping hands and thinking they had won, Minnesota pulled off a perfect on sides kick that La Counte of all people, recovered. Four plays later, the Vikes kicked a field goal as time ran out and won, 33-31.

I know that I picked San Francisco to upset Dallas in last week's edition but I never expected the final score to be 45-14. The 49ers played a simply awesome game and Dallas suddenly exposed a great deal of weaknesses. With Philly playing so well, they're 6-0, the Cowboys can least afford a letdown now.

Now for this week's picks:
SAN DIEGO at BALTIMORE: The Colts don't know where they're going now and San Diego has to regroup following that loss to Minnesota. Should Jones get off to a good start, the Colts could be dangerous, but San Diego has the guns to win here, SD 34-20.

BUFFALO at JETS: Remember the 31-0 loss the Jets suffered opening day? They haven't forgotten it and with the home crowd will give a better performance. However, are the Jets good enough to handle Ferguson, Cribbs and Butler in addition to that strong Bill defense? It will be closer, but Buffalo will win. Buffalo 28-21.

GIANTS at SEATTLE: The blind leading the blind. The Giants have Carpenter running well now, but who knows when that will change. Seattle has Zorn but outside of that, nothing to brag about. The Giants defense will be the decisive factor here. Giants 23-7.

TAMPA BAY at OAKLAND: Poor Tampa Bay. You gotta believe that Oakland is ready to break this horrendous scoring streak and the Bus will be the people to suffer the consequences. No way will Oakland lose again, especially by the shutout route. The Raiders will be primed and Plunkett will be ready to go. Oakland 31-10.

PITTSBURGH at CINCINNATI: This should be an interesting match. The Bengals are 4-2 and beat the Steelers twice last year. The Steelers are also 4-2, have won four straight and the defense is getting better each week. Should bring back some memories of the old Steeler-Bengal rivalries of the late 70's. Pitt 24-23.

ST. LOUIS at ATLANTA: The reeling Cards will be in Atlanta and since the Falcons have dropped three straight, this isn't the week for St. Louis to be thinking upset. Atlanta should get its act together this week and with L.A. and San Fran playing well, they have little choice in the matter. Atlanta 34-13.

LOS ANGELES at DALLAS: Both clubs are 4-2, but both teams are coming from opposite ends these days. Dallas loses by 31 points as much as Muhammed Ali wins these days while L.A. is starting to get its act together. The home field advantage figures to be the difference here. Besides can you remember the last time the Cowboys dropped three straight? Dallas 17-13.

PHILADELPHIA at MINNESOTA: The streak stops here. It should be a wild game and both teams figure to score big, but the Vikes are home, are coming off the win against San Diego and will be primed to stop the Eagles unbeaten streak. Kramer to Rashad and Le Count could be the stopper. Minnesota 31-27.

The rest of the NFL: New Orleans to upset Cleveland, K.C. to cool off Denver, Houston to stop slumping New England, Miami to stop Washington, Detroit to rip Chicago, San Fran to upset Green Bay.

Last week: 10-3. For the year: 42-26.

Coach D'Aquino happy with Bucs team efforts

By Mike Lamberti

Head coach Anthony D'Aquino is a very optimistic man. Despite the fact that his team is struggling, he is very happy with his team's efforts and feels that in time, the club will come around.

The booters were at Bailey El-lard on Monday and yesterday hosted Queen of Peace. Tomorrow afternoon, the Bucs will be in East Orange for a 3:45 p.m. kickoff.

Last week, the Bucs were 4-0 losers to Passaic and tied the Mounties of Montclair, 2-2. For the season, the Bucs are 2-4-1 and D'Aquino is still very optimistic about a .500 season.

"Passaic has a good team, I'm convinced of that," commented the coach. "We played them a few weeks ago (an 8-3 loss) and I said then that they have a good team. Passaic has a good passing game and some pretty good shooters."

D'Aquino did point out the continued strong play of athletes such as Santiago Borja, Carlos

Kingaluhua, Brian Woods, Frankie Dunn, Richie Cook and Bob Kane. "They all give it their best and I can't get mad at that," the coach said. "Players like Mike Van Embergh also display talent and a will to work hard and win."

The Buccaneers still have about ten games left in the season and don't intend to write off the 1981 campaign by a long shot. The team does possess the talent to win and as D'Aquino says, "These players are only 14 or 15 years old and with time, they will be good. It just doesn't happen over night."

in the game when backup quarterback John Borello hit wide receiver Billy Cook with a 31-yard pass that sealed the Maroon fate, 26-0.

Now that the emotion from the Nutley rivalry has passed, the Bucs must now get ready for the Indians. Passaic is a strong team that according to Senesky "might be the best Passaic team of all time."

Passaic has put together back to back 8-1 regular season records and in both instances, the Indians only losses have been to Belleville. Last year, the Bucs defeated the Indians in Passaic, 13-9 as John Melillo passed for two touchdowns and Fazzini, playing his first game at fullback, rushed for 112 yards and scored a touchdown.

"They'll be looking for us after the last two years," the coach admitted. "We will have to avoid some of the mistakes that we made last week against Nutley, because against Passaic, that could be costly."

Rec department starting its fall sport programs

The Belleville recreation Department has announced its schedule of events for the fall. The following activities are open to Belleville residents only and are free of charge. All participants must wear sneakers to these programs.

Junior twirling for girls 6 to 10 is held on Wednesday, 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. at School 7. Senior twirling for girls 11 to 14 is held on Thursday from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Girls Twirling for those 6 through 14 will be held 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. beginning Oct. 19 at School 4.

Aerial Strike — After grabbing a pass from John Borello, Belleville's Bill Cook (16) heads for the end zone in the fourth quarter with his team's final TD. In pursuit is Ricky Pastore.

Bucs Blank Raiders 26-0

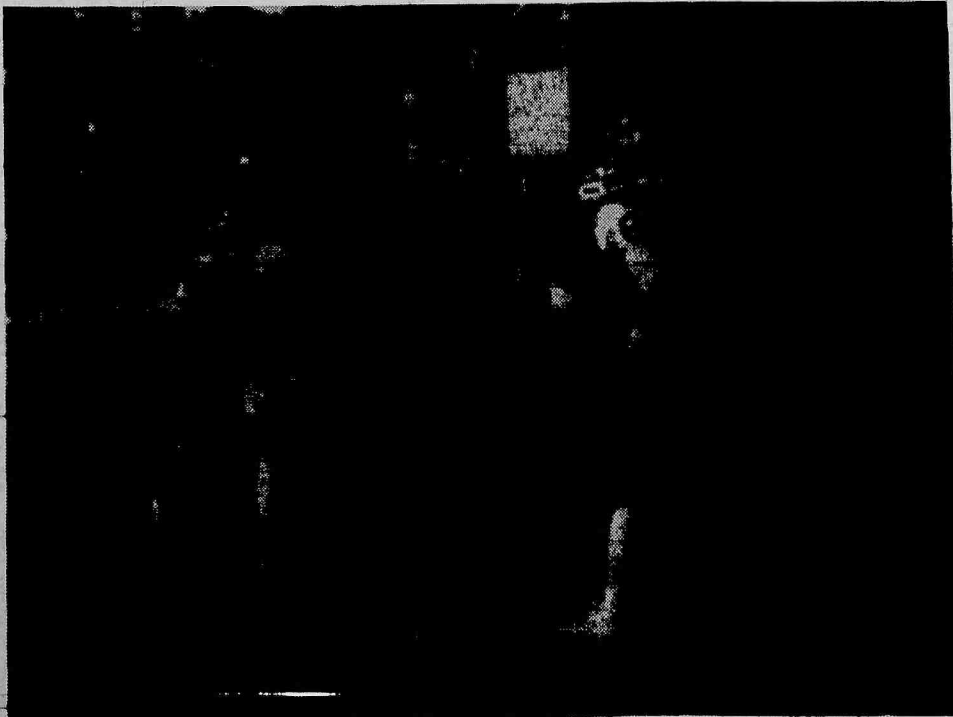

Flipping It In — Belleville fullback Frank Fazzini tosses the ball away after scoring his second touchdown of the day midway through the fourth quarter to give the Bucs a 19-0 lead.

Temporary Halt — Raiders Mark Fuzia and Ray Bowes bring down Frank Fazzini after a six-yard gain to the Nutley 17 in the first quarter.

First Strike — The ever-present Frank Fazzini plunges in from a yard out to score Belleville's first touchdown with 12 seconds left in the first period.

Rough Day — Anthony Anzevino looks for a receiver as Steve Shepard fends off Angelo Centanni. The pass was incomplete. The Raider quarterback had a difficult day, finding himself with little time to throw.

Closed Territory — Raider fullback Steve Shepard picks up short yardage early in the second quarter. He was Nutley's top rusher with 54 yards.

another 231 names on September 24 and finally received county approval last week.

Board president Charles Miele acknowledged Tuesday night that the petitions were verified by the county, but he added that they are now subject to review by board attorney Lawrence Schwartz.

If Schwartz approves the petitions, a special election may be scheduled before the end of November.

Risoli, who was elected to the board in 1978 and served until 1980, spearheaded the movement last year. Disgusted with what he termed the "corrupt politicking and excessive expenditures" of the present board, he pressed for a change in the system.

Despite petitioners, few proponents of the movement have voiced public support for the measure, yet several opponents spoke out vigorously against a move that would eliminate their voting rights.

The present Board of Education unanimously favors the elective system.

building's south side. With restaurant parking already cramped, Board consultant Grace Harris had advised that any reduction leaving only 23 on-site spaces for the 72-seat restaurant would be "seriously deficient," according to local ordinances.

Complicating matters, McDonald's has been leasing supplemental parking from the Brunswick Corporation, leasers also of the Olympic Bowling Lanes, located adjacent to the restaurant.

The McDonald's lease is dependent on the bowling alley's maintaining its lease which comes up for renewal every two years until the 1998 expiration. Planners objected to pinning hopes on such a fragile lease agreement.

Last July, Brunswick joined McDonald's in a joint application seeking the window and permission for McDonald's to continue to rent an additional 31 parking spaces on the bowling alley's south parking lot.

However, the board disapproved of Brunswick's repeated failure to send a representative to discuss these traffic questions. No one appeared at Thursday's session from the Chicago-based corporation.

McDonald's attorney, William Carpenter of Newark, assured the board that his client agreed to close the window and restore the 12 eliminated parking spaces if future developments warrant. The restaurant also has right to purchase the parking property from Brunswick if the bowling alley should lose its lease.

Other conditions stipulated in the agreement require McDonald's to place trash receptacles on the rented parking area, provide adequate traffic signs and pedestrian walkways, provide adequate lighting, repair fence on the south property to eliminate all but designated openings.

Also the agreement and conditions must be reviewed by board attorney Thomas DiBiasi, who was absent from the meeting due to illness.

Dissenting votes were cast by Planners Ralph Risoli and Henry Kellenbence.

"We will be short too many parking spaces to allow this," said Risoli.

Kellenbence noted that his objection was not to the restaurant but to the lack of interest shown by Brunswick, whom he criticized for "mismanagement of its parking situation." He feared that illegal parking, now a problem at the bowling alley, might spread. "Who will enforce it then?" he asked.

Planner Jack Hudson abstained from voting, but anticipated serious traffic problems in the area. "You'll have a miniature Yankee Stadium," he predicted.

Restaurant supervisor Ed Moore said approval of the window would permit McDonald's to compete with other local eateries that provide drive-in service, among them Wendy's on Franklin Avenue and Nutley's Burger King.

"Our sales have declined in the past two years, and that is the cause," said Moore. He added that McDonald's would have proposed the window addition anyway. "It is a convenience for patrons with children, senior citizens, or those who come in bad weather conditions."

Moore said construction should begin next month and be completed by February.

Bucs fail admissions with athletic league teams. A decision from league officials is due by the end of the month. Earlier in the year when Silvestri appeared before the School Board for permission to apply to the leagues, he told trustees that his coaches preferred the Iron Hills Conference because many of the teams were accessible by Route 280 and the possibility of more cable TV coverage was greater.

"I am hoping that we can get a positive response from the officials in the Iron Hills Conference," said Silvestri, "but I don't know how many teams are applying, and how many positions are available. I felt our chances for acceptance into the NNJISL were good, but that fell through. All we can do is sit back and wait."

Should Silvestri receive a notice from the Iron Hills officials turning him down for entrance into the league, he says he will go through the New Jersey Interscholastic Athletic Association and appeal the decisions.

"The state has set-up an appeal office which promises to review the school's application and place them into a league by January 1," Silvestri said. "If Iron Hills tells me that Belleville High School has not been accepted into its league, then I plan to go through the appeal system."

"The state says they will have all schools which do appeal into a league by January 1, but I don't know if that will happen," he continued. "All I can do is enter my appeal and see what happens. In the mean time let's hope we are accepted in the Iron Hills Conference."

Since the break-up of the Big Ten conference in 1978, Belleville has been listed as an independent, and has had problems trying to fill its sport schedule. In two weeks the football Bucs will travel to Clarkstown in Upper New York State to complete its football schedule. If the Buccaneers can join a league then the problem of scheduling contests will be eliminated.

years and students now complete a total of 36 college credits at the campus facility. These courses include anatomy, physiology, chemistry, microbiology, psychology, sociology and English composition.

Another consideration for the freshman students was the low student-faculty ration, which never exceeds 8-1.

The Belleville school also offers the special services of a counselor. Students living at the school will find the dormitory area has been renovated and completely refurbished.

"The enthusiasm and diversity of this class is sure to lend itself well to the success of our new program," Miss Knox concluded. "We're bent on producing professionals and letting them know we're with them all the way to the goal."

TO JERRY

Love is patient, Love is kind, Love is not jealous, it does not put on airs, it is not snobbish. Love is never rude, it is not self seeking, it is not prone to anger;
neither does it brood over injuries. Love does not rejoice in what's wrong, but rejoices with the truth.
There is no limit to Love's forbearance, to it's trust, it's hope, it's power to endure. There are in the end three things that last; Faith, Hope & Love, & the greatest of these is Love.

TOWN ORDINANCE

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that the following proposed ordinance was introduced and passed on first reading at a meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Belleville held on Tuesday evening, October 13, 1981 and further notice is hereby given that the second and final reading of said ordinance will be considered by the Board of Commissioners at a meeting to be held at the Town Hall, Washington Avenue and Belleville Avenue, Tuesday evening, October 27, 1981 at eight o'clock p.m. when all objections to the passing of the same will be heard and considered.

MARY LOU HOOD
Town Clerk

THE MAYOR AND TOWN CLERK TO EXECUTE AN AGREEMENT WITH ESSEX COUNTY TO PROVIDE INTERLOCAL SERVICES AGREEMENT DATED DECEMBER 15, 1977

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF THE TOWN OF BELLEVILLE, NEW JERSEY:

WHEREAS, certain Federal Funds are potentially available to Essex County under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 and 1977 commonly known as Community Development Block Grants;

WHEREAS, it is necessary to amend an existing interlocal services agreement for the County and its people to benefit from this program; and

WHEREAS, an Agreement has been proposed under which the Township of Belleville and the County of Essex in cooperation with other municipalities will modify an Interlocal Service Program pursuant to the N.J.S.A. 40A:8-1; and

WHEREAS, in the best interest of the Township of Belleville to enter into such an agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE Board of Commissioners of the Township of Belleville, that the Agreement to modify the Interlocal Services Agreement dated December 15, 1977, is for the purpose of revising the Cooperation Agreement so as to be in compliance with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's current administrative requirements, and to insert a description of the activities for the 1981 Essex County Community Development Program Year, which said agreement is made a part hereto, and to be executed by the Mayor and Town Clerk in accordance with the provisions of law; and

BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED that this ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its enactment.

DO YOU KNOW?

...That alcohol and medicine, like oil and water, do not mix. Alcohol can cause many unpleasant or dangerous drug interactions. In some cases it may add to the effect of a drug, perhaps strongly intensifying the drowsiness component of antihistamines or tranquilizers. Conversely it is capable of reducing the wanted effect of other medications such as Dilantin, a popular anti-convulsant drug. Alcohol's range of action and interaction is alarmingly wide and should be approached with extreme caution by any user of medicine.
