MET LAST NIGHT ON REFERENDUM

Appointed Board case reviewed by trustees

By Linda Telesco

A full house was expected to crowd into the Board of Education offices on Washington Avenue last night as the board discussed the possibility of putting the appointed board referendum on the upcoming November ballot.

The referendum on the issue of establishing an appointed Board of Education in Belleville is now in the hands of the present board for consideration and was scheduled to be the main topic of conversation last night.

Larry Schwartz, board attorney has been reviewing the petition, and explained in a telephone interview Monday that even though the signatures have been validated by the

Essex County Board of Elections, the petition must be examined for "legally sufficient form, correct wording, and it must apprise the public of what is being signed."

He indicated there may be some problems with this petition, particularly since some of the signatures were collected prior to last April's regular board elections. "There may be a question as to whether this is valid. The law is vague on this point," he added.

Schwartz declined to name other specific objections, but planned to make full report to the board on Wednesday. "The petitions may be imperfect, but the board must decide whether those imperfections ruin it," he added.

A local proponent and organizer of the movement to restore an appointed Board of Education denounced the board's actions as "delaying tactics."

Ralph Risoli, former school board president and township registrar, complained that Schwartz had observed the form of the petition previously and should have notified the organizers of any defects. "We pay his salary and he's depriving the public of their legal opportunity to decide whether they want an appointed or elected board."

A strident critic of the "corrupt politicking" on the Belleville Board, Risoli charged that the present board, which unanimously favors the 27-year-old elective system, "won't put this question on the ballot because they know they'll lose."

Board president Charles Miele has repeated his support for the elective system in interviews, but said he will abide by "whatever decision the voters make."

Miele plans to explain what he considers objectionable about the appointed system to the public this week. "Right now the people can vote for the Board of Education budget. With an appointed board they won't have that right," he said, noting a major issue in the debate.

Previously, Risoli has argued that appointees must answer to officials who are elected by voters. "The public's vote still counts. If voters are not satisfied they can ask for removal of the board member. If that does not work, don't vote for the official responsible for poor appointments."

Others disenchanted with the recent elected boards signed Risoli's petition which was first submitted in August to school board administrator Mary Shader who forwarded it to the county officials.

After an initial rejection of nearly one third of the original signatures, Risoli submitted a supplement that won approval two weeks ago. Upon return by the county, the petition went to Schwartz for study.

Rent levelers set up adjournment policy

Outcry from a tenants' group over postponement of a hardship increase hearing for their apartment complex, prompted the Rent Leveling Board to establish last week new procedures that would facilitate future cases.

"These postponements cut down our numbers," protested a disgruntled tenant of the 404-unit Branchbrook Gardens complex. Although this is the first adjournment for this case, members of the complex's tenants' organization insisted on their rights to be heard when scheduled.

Board Chairman Ron Platt recommended postponement since there were four cases in line before Branchbrook's and the board has an 11 p.m. curfew. "We can't be sure how long each case will take," he explained.

Member Daniel Del Tufo added, "If each tenant wants to speak individually, this case will require more than one hearing." Over 50

School Board may change meeting date

The Board of Education will hold its weekly public executive session on Wednesday night this week, a courtesy to a board member unable to attend the usual Monday night session.

In granting the favor last week, board President Charles Miele noted that it could serve as an experiment "to see if Wednesday nights are preferable for meetings."

Miele explained later that board members had discussed the pos-

New meadowlands mall worries town merchants

By Ed Capparucci

Township merchants are convinced that the development of the world's largest shopping mall in the Meadowlands will have a strong impact on the already decaying Washington Avenue shopping district.

The 1.3 million square feet of regional shopping space to be built in the Meadowlands on Route 3 across from Giants Stadium, has been the target of objection by many store owners throughout Essex and Hudson Counties. But last month members of the Hackensack Meadowlands Development Commission approved the final draft of the mall and gave permission for groundbreaking to begin early next year.

Despite the HMDC decision local merchants are continuing to fight the building of the "mammoth mall" by filing court injunctions.

Merchants along Washington Avenue are concerned with the development of the proposed $1 billion mall, but realize that they can still save their businesses.

"Whenever a mall pops up anywhere, the local merchants are going to suffer," said Sol Sherman, owner of Sherman's Childrens Wear. "But we have been doing very well this year, and I feel that by working a little harder we can make up for some of the loss the mall may cause."

"Anytime someone cuts into the pie, everyone suffers a little," she continued. "The merchants of Belleville have been very sympathetic about the construction of the mall, even though we did not fight it as some other towns did. You have to remember, we do not have too many shop owners left on the avenue, but the stores which are here are reliable."

Lou Cicien, owner of Charles Jewelers is worried about other stores on the avenue which have not built up a reputation for quality service.

Any organizations interested in participating in the parade will be welcomed upon consulting with Mr. Al Pico by either calling 759-8850 or writing him at Town Hall, 152 Washington Avenue, Belleville, N.J. 07109.

Disabled family facing an apartment eviction

A family beleaguered by physical disabilities and accompanying financial hardships, faces eviction from the cramped Silver Lake apartment they have occupied for the past 12 years.

Charles and Diana Murray occupy a first floor apartment at 236 Belmont Ave. Diana, a lifelong victim of cerebral palsy is confined to a wheelchair and speaks with difficulty. She has never been employable. Charles, her husband of three years, is congenitally deaf. Disabled by several heart attacks, he was forced to retire from his carpenter's position with Bell Mark Corporation of Bloomfield two years ago.

They live in a 3¹/₂-room apartment with Diana's two children from a previous marriage, Leslie, 13, middle school cheerleader, and David, 11, who attends School 4.

Their landlord, Jerry Luongo of Bloomfield, notified them last May to vacate the apartment by July. Unsuccessful in that attempt, he refused to accept rent from the family for October.

"I don't know what we'll do and where we'll go," Diana said during an interview in her home last week. "Rents are too high for us, and nobody wants to rent to handicapped people, especially in a wheelchair."

They now pay $212 monthly rent with heat included, but the family's sources of income are limited to social security and disability payments totalling $585 a month. "We can't afford to live," Diana groaned tearfully.

The Murrys had been seeking another apartment for the past two years, prior to their landlord's threats of eviction, because they have outgrown their present quarters.

However, their disabilities prevent them from active apartment hunting and their needs are dictated by limited income in the face of spiraling rents and by Diana's requirement for a first floor apartment. Even with the aid of two social workers and a clergyman, no suitable dwellings have turned up in the past two years.

Their plight is complicated by the fact that Diana's elderly mother who presently lives upstairs from her in another apartment must be con-

DECISION EXPECTED TUESDAY

Town officials begin reviewing senior citizens' park project bids

By Ed Cappatucci

The Town Commissioners put off awarding the bid for the new Senior Citizens Recreation Park project last Tuesday, due to the seven bids differing in price by nearly $113,000.

Neil Siciliano, assistant township engineer, is now reviewing the bids and will give his report and recommendation to the Commissioners next Tuesday.

The project, will include Bocci Ball courts, benches, picnics tables and barbecue grills. Shrubs, plants and other landscaping will also be done on the Mill Street, Franklin Avenue property. As well as the repaving and curbing of the property.

The commissioners approved the project on Oct. 8 after receiving a $75,000 HUD grant-in July, to help pay for the park.

Of the seven bids, the lowest was presented by N. Faro, 18 Knox Place, Nutley. His bid was $35,000. The highest bid of the night went to Ventura Landscaping Company of East Hanover at $147,144. Because of the unusually large difference among the bids, Siciliano told the commissioners he wished to examine all the proposals before making his decision.

"I am going to have to go over all these bids before I can give my recommendation to the board," said Siciliano. "The vast difference among the bids is going to have to be examined. I hope to have a decision to the board by our next meeting.

All the bids are for the construction and furnishing of labor, materials and equipment for the park project.

Other construction and landscaping companies which bid on the proposal were: J. Belott of Belleville, $125,355; N. Faro of Nutley, $74,900; Seasonal Landgardens of New York, $108,450; Tec-Con of East Orange, $116,800 and N. Mataera of Newark, $110,328.

Landlord receives 42 percent rent hike

Tenants of 281-83 William St. may be paying nearly double their present rent come December 1, a result of a 42 percent hardship rent increase unanimously approved for the four-family duplex by the Rent Leveling Board.

None of those tenants attended last Thursday's hearing although the landlord, Andrea Calascione, said she had notified them in hand-delivered letters. When board members commented on the absence of tenants Calascione, who lives on the premises, explained, "We have a good relationship."

The substantial increase was granted even after the board moved to depreciate over a five-year period $867 worth of repairs considered capital improvements.

Calascione and her attorney Nathanya Simon of Belleville objected to that move, but board member Danny Del Tufo persuaded his colleagues that certain alterations should be considered capital improvements, not repairs. "You don't build linen closets, or replace doors each year," he noted.

Despite that exception, the remaining expenses won the landlords permission to request nearly twice as much rent for each apartment.

In other business, the board ruled that Florence Wick, landlord of 17 William St. overcharged $2,479 rent on two units over a two-year period.

Wick has 30 days to reimburse $1700 to tenant Mark Layendecker who filed a complaint last month, and $779 to occupants of another unit.

Reacting to the board's ruling, Wick said the overcharges were unintentional, but any reduction in present rents would force her to go for a hardship increase. "That will hurt other tenants," she noted.

Library program airing on suburban TV-3

Two cooperative programs that are starting at local libraries will be featured on, "Libraries in Focus." One is the offering of college cable courses at public libraries, the other is a reciprocal borrowing system that will allow library users to use several libraries with one identification card.

Host Jim Thomas, from the Irvington Library, talks with Peter Wiesner of Essex County College about the many cable courses that are being offered this fall, and about a grant program which will create viewing sites in public libraries. Also featured is a tape segment by Margaret Freathy that explains reciprocal borrowing and outlines the CECLS program in Essex County. The tape is narrated by Ray Simpson of the Livingston Library.

"Libraries in Focus" is produced in cooperation with Suburban Cablevision. This program was directed by Kip Rowan. Production manager was Jim Thomas.

"Libraries in Focus" airs each Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. on Suburban Cablevision's Channel TV3.

Advice From A Podiatrist

Schail C. Frank, D.P.M.
Surgeon Podiatrist

WHAT ARE PLANTAR WARTS?

Q. What is a Plantar Wart?
A. A wart is a benign tumor of the outer layer of the skin, caused by a virus, which can be found most frequently on the bottom of the foot. Plantar indicates the undersurface of the foot.

Q. What population is more likely to get Plantar Warts?
A. Children with the greatest victims being teenagers followed by young adults then pre-teens and last middle aged individuals. The age span in my practice to date is 4 to 33.

Q. What is the cause of Plantar Warts?
A. As mentioned previously a wart is a virus which has an affinity for skin. If the skin is injured or broken, the virus has its portal of entry.

Q. Are warts contagious?
A. They can spread by self reinoculation and by contact between individuals. I often see brothers and sisters at the same time with the condition.

Q. How can you distinguish Plantar Warts from corns and calluses?
A. A Podiatrist can make the diagnosis by knowing several important factors such as size, location, pressure and age factors. Remember - Plantar warts are also covered by "hard skin".

Q. Do Plantar Warts spread and can they become cancerous?
A. Plantar Warts can spread especially if found on the plantar aspect of the foot. One wart can lead to "mosaic warts" which are surrounding satellite warts deriving their nutrition from the mother wart. There are virtually few reported cases of a wart becoming cancerous.

Q. What treatments are available?
A. Podiatrists including myself start with conservative treatments at weekly intervals which cause only minor discomfort. The location of the plantar wart is important. Conservative treatment involves chemicals, creams, liquids and ointments which tend to destroy the warts. The more resistant plantar warts undergo surgical excision, electrical destruction, etc.

Q. If removed, will Plantar Warts return?
A. If removed properly, the wart should not reappear. However, a new wart may appear at a different site at a later date.

Q. Can Plantar Warts be prevented?
A. Proper foot care including washing your feet thoroughly, powdering them and using clean dry socks and properly fitted shoes which are yours are important.

Q. Are home care remedies helpful?
A. No, if not properly used they can cause chemical burns leading to hemorrhage and soreness, blistering, scarring and infections. Please do not treat them yourself. Contact your Podiatrist. PHONE: 759-6298.

School Board looking at Wednesday nights

sibility of changing nights.

"There was no important reason" he said, adding that Monday nights seemed to cause "burnout" when members put in a long evening. He said that Monday night football also provoked some discussion on freeing up that night.

In various interviews, other trustees indicated that the change was only briefly discussed but might surface again. Thomas Zampino said, "Monday night football figured into the consideration, but I don't know if that's a valid reason for change."

Trustees Cesar Romano, Donna Rainone, and Thomas Spillane expressed surprise and distaste at the suggestion that football might motivate such a change.

They agreed to examine objections that Wednesday night sessions might prevent the public from obtaining informations from the local press prior to the next week's meeting. Also, parents present when Miele announced the experiment objected that numerous school associations meet on Wednesdays and conflicts would arise.

Candida Valiente, president of Consolidated PTA's, said in a telephone interview Tuesday, "They can't possibly change their meeting nights in mid-year."

Health program at town library Tuesday morning

A presentation on home health care in Belleville is scheduled for 10 a.m. on Tuesday, October 27, 1981 at the Belleville Public Library.

The program, to be given by Community Nursing Service of Essex and West Hudson, will include slides showing the activities of the public health nurses and other care givers who help to meet the health needs of homebound sick and disabled people. This agency serves people in Belleville, Newark and eight other towns in the area. Participants will learn not only about what services are provided by a home health agency but how to obtain these services should they or loved ones ever need them.

Adrea Cohen, Assistant Library Director announced that the public is invited to attend the morning program which is primarily for parents of children attending the preschool sessions at the library.

Assemblyman Carl Orechio Sends An Open Letter To His Friends:

Dear Friends

Tuesday, November 3, 1981 is a very important day for the people of New Jersey — especially the voters of Legislative District 30, which includes Belleville, Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Glen Ridge, Montclair, Nutley and Verona.

My brother, Carmen, our Senator, is seeking reelection to the New Jersey Senate, a position he has held these past eight years.

During his tenure, he has established a distinguished record of service to his constituency.

He presently serves as the Senate Majority Leader — a significant position in state government leadership. It is important to us in District 30 that he be reelected because of his outstanding record and the enhanced influence he will have as the probable Senate President in the 1982-83 New Jersey Legislature.

Obviously, in such a high position in state government, Senator Orechio can and will be of even greater service to us.

Yes, Tuesday, November 3 is a very important day for all of us in District 30.

I would like to take this opportunity to ask my friends — especially those who have supported me in the past — to cast their votes for Senator Orechio. I can highly recommend him — for I know him well — he is my brother.

Carmen's lever is 4A. Thank you. Carl Orechio

P.S. May I recommend — without reservation — that you consider John Kelly (B5) and "Jo" Mongiello (B6) for the two Assembly seats and Art Clay (B12) for Freeholder in District 5, extremely capable candidates.

O Lord, the Lord whose ways are right, keep us in Thy mercy from lip-service and empty forms; from having a name that we live, but being dead.

Help us to worship Thee by righteous deeds and lives of holiness, that our prayer also may be set forth in Thy sight as the incense, and the lifting up of our hands be as an evening sacrifice.

Appointed board

The Essex County Board of Elections has approved a petition to pace on the local ballot the decision whether or not our local school board should be elected. At the present time, voters elect their school board members and approve or disapprove the school board budget. A group led by Ralph Risoli, former school board president, believes the public should have a right to reresolve the question — so they went out and obtained a petition bearing enough signatures of registerd voters to require a public vote.

The activity is democracy in action — an opportunity to once again enunciate the philosophy of our democracy — a government of the people, by the people, and for the people.

School Board meeting

The school board is discussing the possibility of changing its meeting night. For years the regular meeting of the school board has occurred on a Monday night. Within recent days, one hears a complaint by some members that they would like to consider changing the meeting night because it interferes with Monday Night Football. Other members of the board are reluctant to tinker with the scheduled meeting for fear that such an action would be an affront to the taxpayers. Some members believe they should meet for the convenience of the taxpayers and not their own.

We share the view of those board members who believe they were elected to serve the public and meet at the convenience of the public rather than change the meeting night so that some members may enjoy Monday Night Football.

Elmwood Avenue party

Elmwood Avenue neighbors recently held their third annual block party, and what a party it was! For the most part the food featured Italian specialties and the great American dishes; hot dogs and hamburgers.

The exciting event just goes to prove the biblical admonition to love thy neighbor is very much alive in Belleville, New Jersey. Wish that other Belleville streets held block parties like the Elmwood Avenue residents.

Neighborhood and community pride are not dead in Belleville, all they need is a little leadership at the grassroots. Congratulations to our Elmwood Avenue neighbors — may God bless them and give them health and strength to continue their good neighbor policy.

Mary Senatore fan appeals for votes

To the Editor:

When I endorse someone for public office, it comes from the heart.

As a friend of the people of Belleville for many years, I am appealing to your to vote for Mary V. Senatore. She is seeking a seat on the Assembly.

She is one of the best commissioners the town ever had and the only one that voted against the new assessment that sent our property taxes sky high. She has the experience.

Let her do the job for us, your vote can make her a winner.

A true friend is a gift from heaven and nice to have.

Please vote for Mary V. Senatore. I would deeply appreciate it.

A reader's solution to save Social Security

To the editor:

I have evolved a two pronged plan to rescue the Social Security System from the difficulty it finds itself in now. The first part of the plan consists of the expansion of profit sharing plans, first in New Jersey, then throughout the United States. This would be a privately endowed program, primarily one of education, to encourage corporations to install profit sharing plans either in place of pension plans, or, in the case where no retirement plan exists, as the primary plan for the benefit of their employees. The advantages of a profit sharing plan are many, and as a result in more successful corporations due to the increased sense of participation which is felt by all employees.

The second portion of the plan consists of legislation on the federal level to direct the taxes paid on benefits received from profit sharing plans and pension plans into the Social Security Fund instead of the General Fund. This would be a politically acceptable way of repaying to the Social Security Fund millions and millions of dollars that were diverted to the General Fund in the early years of the Social Security System. I have already brought this plan to the attention of President Reagan, Secretary of Labor Raymond Donovan, and other members of the current administration, and it has received considerable attention and interest from all involved.

The purpose of this letter is to inform your readers of my plan and to encourage this type of participation in government affairs from private citizens. I am 85 years of age and still active in my business as well as charity work and in other general affairs, and feel that it is absolutely essential for health and well-being to continue these activities as long as I am physically and mentally able.

Very truly yours,
Joseph Birnbaum

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

We're more than a little leary about President Reagan's commitment not to bother Social Security pension benefits. This is especially so in view of his "hatchet man's" determination to whittle away at Social Security costs.

It must be remembered that it was David Stockman who inspired the President to embark upon his ill-advised policy to repudiate his campaign promise not to "touch" Social Security entitlements...a program which we feel he (Stockman) is determined the President will do, at his persuasion, after the 1982 Congressional elections.

Social Security is defined as a federal system of old-age employment, or disability, insurance financed jointly by employees, employers, and the government. It is NOT a handout like so many costly government "give away" programs. It's a contractual agreement that is irrevocable. To breach the terms of this covenant would constitute not only a sacrilege, but, would be tantamount to defaulting upon a debt of the United States government.

In the President's recent telecast address to the people he made a sly and oblique allusion to the prospect of determining the Social Security benefit payments upon an integrated aggregate income, predicated upon qualified recipients independent, private pension income together with a possible reduced Social Security monthly benefit check.

Were such an atrocious change in determining Social Security payments instituted, it would allow the government agency to set a minimum income level upon which Social Security payment adjustments, integrated with pension income, could be substantially reduced to the fixed government prescribed income level. Such a change in dispensing Social Security would deprive all present and future Social Security beneficiaries of income rightfully theirs.

Let Mr. Stockman and President Reagan be brought to the reality that saving lives and permitting the elderly to retain their dignity and self-respect is a damn side better than squandering trillions upon weapons of death and destruction that will be outmoded within five years and hopefully never be used...Let's concentrate upon winning the war against poverty at home, before looking for new worlds to conquer.

The fallacy of any attempt designed to reduce already established Social Security benefits, based upon consideration of miniscule supplementation of the integration of existing small private company pensions is an irresponsible, unrealistic subterfuge to cozen senior citizens of the benefits due them from their contributions and those of their employers to sustain the Social Security fund.

Back in the depression days of the 1930's few, other than the giant corporations, had pension funds. People sought employment without thought of pensions back in 1936 when Social Security went into effect.

It was only later, when the labor union movement took hold, that contract negotiations became part of employment contracts. Even then, employers grudgingly yielded to labor's demands and only consented to small pension contributions designed only to serve as supplements to the meager Social Security benefits offered their retired workers.

We consider it imperative that, even now, at this early date that our congressional representatives and senators should be deluged with letters advising them we expect them to inform Mr. Stockman and the President that they will not "buy" nor be hornswoogled into going along with so devious, unethical and cleverly contrived a plot to bilk those on Social Security.

Let Mr. Stockman and President Reagan cut out the farm subsidies amounting to $350 million in "deficiency payments" and the farmer-owned reserves of grain that will lend the farmers close to $2.9 billion to keep it off the market to keep the price up...what about the sugar and tobacco subsidies of 18 per lb. How about the dairy products and peanut price supports being raised from $435 to $596 a ton and the system of allotments, which are government franchises that limit the acreage on which peanuts can be planted. Why in hell don't they eliminate this type of waste before they put the hatchet to the heads of those on Social Security? We believe that they should.

Miss Kathleen Janiec wife of Bernie Rangel

Wedding vows were exchanged June 28 by Kathleen Janiec, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Janiec of Westminster, Calif., and the late Mr. Janiec, and Bernie Rangel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cruz Rangel of Cypress, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Janiec were owners of Janiec's Delicatessen on Washington Avenue for many years.

The Rev. Richard Delahunty performed the ceremony in St. Barbara's Church, Santa Ana, Calif. A reception followed at the Costa Mesa Country Club, Costa Mesa, Calif.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of silk organza with a high neckline of lace complimented with matching lace appliques on the bishop sleeves and cathedral train. The gown was highlighted by baby pink rosebuds along the hemline and train.

Her headpiece was a crown of pink and white silk and lace flowers and she carried her mother's Bible which was covered with a bouquet of gardenias, stephanotis, pink rosebuds and babies breath.

Miss MaryLynn Janiec of California was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Mary and Rose Hozjan of Woodbridge, Janet Obal of Oakland, cousin of the bride, Barbara Malandro of Rahway and Valerie Marujo of Cypress, niece of the groom.

The honor attendant was attired in an off-the-shoulder periwinkle blue chiffon gown. Her headpiece was a comb of complementing pastel silk flowers and she carried a bouquet of spring flowers. The others were similarly attired in varied pastels.

Raymond Garcia of Vista, Calif., was his brother's best man. Ushers included Kevin Hughes of Pasadena, Calif., John Mahoney of Glendale, Ariz., Michael Harrison of Costa Mesa, Calif., Dan Kelly of Huntington Beach, Calif., and Bob Mesa of Long Beach, Calif.

Mrs. Janiec chose a soft pink silk gown with sequined bodice. Her corsage was of gardenias and pink rosebuds. The groom's mother, in a turquoise Qiana gown with matching jacket trimmed in maribou, had a corsage of pink carnations and yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Janiec-Rangel, an alumna of East Orange Catholic High School and Jersey City State College, earned a master's degree in communication at California State University, Los Angeles. She has been a teacher of the hearing-impaired in the Garden Grove Unified School District for the past two years and is currently a speech therapist with the same school district.

Mr. Rangel, a graduate of Kennedy High School, La Palma, Calif., and United States International University, San Diego, Calif., is completing his master's in counseling. He is a teacher of educationally handicapped children in Garden Grove.

The couple honeymooned on a cruise to the Caribbean and South America. The Rangels have made their home in Westminster.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Rangel — nee Kathleen Janiec

Miss Robin Baylock to wed Chet Izbicki

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baylock of 71 Prospect Place have announced the engagement of their daughter, Robin Elizabeth, to Chet G. Izbicki, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Izbicki of East Newark.

The wedding will be held Oct. 2, 1982.

Miss Baylock, an alumna of Belleville High School and Germain School of Photography, New York, is with W.T.C. Air Freight Company, Secaucus.

Mr. Izbicki, a graduate of Harrison High School and Montclair State College, is a supervisor with the same firm.

Belleville's Board of Education was reconsidering its decision to withdraw from the Community Mental Health Services. The board had voted the previous week to end participation in the tri-town venture, but Public Safety Director Rocco Saletta asked the group to study the matter further. In addition to Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley also were participating in the program. Commissioner Vincent Strumolo, head of the Public Affairs Dept., had suggested quitting the CMHS but was not present at the special meeting...The Planning Board was hoping to lure big business to Belleville with a sales pitch of ideal location and a new zoning ordinance permitting eight-story office buildings at the north and south ends of Washington Avenue. Four-story buildings were the maximum heights allowed in Belleville and was exceeded only by a few old apartment buildings and Clara Maass Hospital by variance. Under the initial proposals, the high-rise buildings would be required to provide sufficient parking for employees...The Bellboys had their first victory of the season over the Passaic Indians by a score of 13-7. The win came with sophomore quarterback Jerry Fazzini piloting the squad.

The Belleville Community Chest drive to raise a budget of $33,108 for six agencies got underway. The house-to-house campaign force was increased when 150 Belleville High School students volunteered their services as solicitors.

Three Belleville High School seniors achieved recognition in the 1982 National Merit Scholarship Program, announced Principal Michael A. Lally early this month.

Mark Dombrowski of 441 DeWitt Ave. attained semi-finalist status. Also, National Merit Commendations went to Jessica Valiente of 74 Magnolia St. and Stephen Krisocki of 15 Bremond St.

Over 1.2 million students entered the 1982 Merit Scholarship competition by taking a qualifying test in 1980, according to reports by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Dombrowski joins only 15,000 semi-finalists, of whom 5,000 will receive next year awards worth $15 million for college undergraduate study.

According to Richard Benninger, Belleville director of student personnel services, a semi-finalist must score 198 out of a possible 229 on the test.

Valiente and Krisocki are among 36,000 students who scored at least 178 on the test, entitling them to commendations. These students do not receive prizes, but according to a spokesman for National Merit

Scholarship Corporation, "to be designated a Commended student is an outstanding attainment, deserving of public recognition."

Praising the three straight "A" seniors, Mr. Lally said, "I'm proud to have this kind of student representing Belleville."

Maternity classes start in November

Beginning in early November the Maternity Fitness Program, Inc., will offer a new six-week series for pregnant women. The classes are held at convenient locations in the Essex County area.

The Maternity Fitness Program, Inc., directed by Nancy Rasp, R.N., provides a fitness series for pregnant women to follow throughout their pregnancy, focusing on keeping their muscles in shape and strengthening their lower back. After birth, a more vigorous exercise program is started. Also, the babies join the classes and are exercised and massaged. "The babies love to be touched and cuddled by their mothers," comments Nancy, a young mother herself. Overall, the fitness series is fun, informative and invigorating!

Readers interested in more information about the Maternity Fitness Program, Inc., can contact Nancy at 338-4676.

Introducing the All Savers Certificate—the savings plan that can earn you up to $2,000* in tax-free interest!

Uncle Sam, at last, is rewarding the thrifty.

From October 1 through all of 1982, we're offering All Savers, a remarkable new savings certificate plan that pays tax-free interest.

Here's how it works: Open an All Savers Certificate with at least $500. If you're married and file jointly, the first $2,000 of interest is free from any federal tax. If you file a single return, then it's the first $1,000.

The new All Savers Certificate can be a significant investment, depending on your total taxable income. The chart shows you the rate you would need in an alternative investment to match the tax equivalent yield you get with the All Savers Certificate.

The term for an All Savers Certificate is one year and you always earn the highest interest allowed by * or up to $1,000 if you file a single return.

law. The rate you earn depends on the current Treasury Bill rate, but once you purchase an All Savers Certificate your rate is guaranteed even if rates go down!

You wouldn't want to disappoint your uncle, so come in today and find out more about the All Savers Certificate.

Disabled family suffering eviction from their Silver Lake apartment

sidered. Suffering from diabetes and a heart condition, the elder woman cannot live alone. Despite her limited capacity, she helps Diana with cooking and housework.

"I feel hopeless about finding a home. This isn't fair," said Diana, expressing fear of retaliation by the landlord if she "goes against him."

In his original complaint dated May 8, 1981, Luongo charged that the family was noisy, wasted heat and water, used his premises for operating a babysitting and laundry business, and caused him to receive violations from State Department of Housing inspectors during Belleville's routine inspection last November.

During the interview last Friday, Luongo appeared at the rear door of the Murrays' apartment at about 5 p.m. Shouting obscenities, he walked into their kitchen, uninvited, and accused Diana's children, who were not at home, of breaking a glass window on the outside door of the house.

When Diana denied knowing anything, he ridiculed her and Charles who sat passively watching what he could not hear.

When questioned about the eviction complaints, he insisted that the family was destroying his apartment and complained of damage by Diana's wheelchair. In order to permit room for his wife's wheelchair, Charles removed the bathroom door and replaced the opening with plywood, the condition of which had been cited by State Housing inspectors last November. Luongo has since replaced the door with a more suitable one, but was irate that he had never been told about the removal, an accusation Diana denied.

In the presence of a Times reporter, Luongo shouted derisively at Diana, attacking her on personal matters such as her relatives, friends of her children, childrearing, and her inability to move around.

Pounding his fist on her washing machine, he accused her of taking in laundry. "I paid a water bill of over $500 for the second quarter of this year," he said, adding that the most recent bill was back down to the usual $120.

Diana denied the charge. "How can you say that when there are six families in this building?" she asked him, noting that she needed help from her mother or neighbors in order to manage her own laundry.

She also denied that she had ever baby sat except occasionally for her married daughter's children. "I don't do that anymore unless my daughter brings me to her house," she said.

Luongo complained that Leslie and David had "too much traffic in the house with their friends," even though he conceded that there was no real damage. He also admitted that other tenants did not complain of noise but attributed that to their "not wanting trouble." There is another child in the building, but Luongo said that one is "no trouble."

Meadowlands mall upsetting local merchants in Belleville

"The mall is going to hurt stores which rely on traffic flow for their business," he said "because the mall is going to take away the traffic running through the avenue. I don't think my store is going to suffer, because I do not rely on the traffic flow to bring in customers. I would like to have the traffic flow, but now with the mall it is going to be impossible."

The main criticism brought against the mall by merchants is that it will create vacant store fronts and cause a higher tax base being shifted from the commercial establishments to the home owners.

"I don't know if we will see more vacant store fronts on Washington Avenue," said Cicenia, "but it is possible. If we do get more vacant stores, than it will be the entire community which will suffer."

"People prefer to shop in the town shopping center," he continued, "but you have to offer them something. There has to be a wide variety of stores and establishments throughout the shopping district. And here we do not have that."

Harry French, director of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce, agrees that the mall can only hurt Belleville.

"Anything that big, and that close can only damage nearby shopping areas," he said. "Berry Creek could really hurt the Township of Belleville as well as other communities."

People in favor of the mall argue that many new jobs will be created and many young people who would otherwise leave New Jersey will stay. Beside a mall, a hotel and convention center are also planned for the area. A transportation hub is also on the boards just south of Route 3 where most of the major railroads in Jersey converge before reaching New York City and Hoboken destinations.

Though the shopping mall will be built with an "eye to the future" to the merchants of Belleville it is something they would rather leave in the past.

Renters establish new postponement policy

Branchbrook residents were present.

The board postponed the hearing assuring tenants that a special meeting will be held for their complex.

Later in the session, the board agreed to schedule all future hardship increase hearings for large complexes on evenings other than the regular meetings.

"We would accomplish more that way and eliminate delays," said member Viola Spray.

The panel also adopted a suggestion by Del Tufo that landlords of eea complexes with ten or more units submit a certified public accountant's profit and loss statement on the property before applying for a hardship increase.

Stipulations for other hardship applications sought to increase efficiency of regular meetings as well.

Starting in November, the board will ask that any applicants for a hardship rent increase produce required state and local inspection documents at the evening's outset.

During last Thursday's session, the board declined to hear two applications because the landlords failed to have necessary documents in their possession.

Board members noted that the landlords were informed of what they would need during prior briefings, but still came unprepared and were dismissed after nearly three hours of waiting their turn.

The panel declined to hear the cases anyway and postponed final decisions until documents were produced although that had been done in the past to deal with a backlog of cases.

"We took a lot of heat from the commissioners over Brighton Estates, and I don't want that to happen again," said Chairman Ron Platt, alluding to a board decision rendered in August.

At that time, the panel approved a 23 percent hardship increase for Brighton Estates complex, but stipulated that monies collected be placed in escrow until the landlord obtained state approval. Tenants protested heatedly at town meetings threatening legal action.

Many colleges are not only seeking older students but are also encouraging younger students to study aging processes. Colleges offer graduate courses in fields ranging from architecture and economics to law, medicine and social work. Students who take a sufficient number of courses can receive a Specialist in Aging Certificate along with the graduate degree of their chosen field. Interest in aging has increased dramatically. Many college departments are aware of various aspects of aging processes in designing their courses. Last year's statistics show 1,300 students were enrolled in college gerontology courses. Over 180 were candidates for Specialist in Aging certificates.

I have been informed that a new program recently instituted by the Essex County Bar Association is known as the Reduced Fee Panel. The main objective of this panel is to provide legal services at a significantly reduced rate to those individuals with limited finances. Generally, those who would qualify are people with incomes of $6,000 to $12,000 with a $500 allowance for each dependent living at home under the age of 18. Also, those over the age of 65 without extensive assets (they are not subject to the $12,000 limit) will be eligible for Reduced Fee services. Since there is a dire need for legal services for those in the above mentioned financial category, we are confident that this program will soon be flourishing. Write for brochure, "Reduced Fee Plan" Essex County Legal Aid, Hall of Records-Room 118, Newark, N.J. 07102.

There is another law service available for senior citizens that gives advice on cases of a civil nature on a no fee basis. However, this service does not supply lawyer representation in a court of law. The address for this Essex-Newark Legal Service 439 Main Street, Orange, N.J. 07050 or call 672-3838.

In the years since the founding of the Social Security Retirement Program, the natural human desire for a happy retirement has sustained us in the movement towards this end. In its determination to better the lives of retired people, the record of progress is clear, but today it is being sharply challenged. We elderly need an opportunity to reaffirm our belief in a just, humane America in which social gains should be defended, not rolled back.

Bradley praises Orechio for work with seniors

At a recent visit to a Nutley senior citizen housing site, Senator Bill Bradley took the opportunity to praise Senator Carmen Orechio for his outstanding record on behalf of senior citizens. Bradley commented, "There is no legislator in the New Jersey Senate who has a more outstanding record on issues affecting senior citizens than your own Carmen Orechio. The existence of this new senior housing project in his district is testimony to his commitment to helping senior citizens live with dignity in the communities of the 30th District."

Bradley also noted that Orechio was a co-sponsor of the Pharmaceutical Assistance Program and fought to keep down the cost of the payments for this program. He also was in the forefront of the fight for the major senior citizen programs of the last eight years including the Lifeline Utilities Credit Program, special senior citizen tax rebates, half fare on public transportation and protection for senior citizen tenants against condominium conversion.

Bradley noted, "With the federal cuts in programs affecting our senior citizens, especially in the area of Social Security, it is even more important to return to Trenton a friend of senior citizens such as Senator Orechio."

Senator Orechio in reply said, "I consider my contributions in the area of senior citizens to be one of my most important accomplishments. In the next administration I see the need for protection of senior citizens from inflation to be even more vital."

Belleville's past

A matter with which the Board of Commission had to deal was that of conveying the hose carts to the scenes of fires. At first men running with the wagons sufficed, but when this proved too slow and grueling, horses were commandeered. The department did not own its horses, but hired them by the fire. Sometimes payment was deferred by the Commission from one meeting to the next, as when the bill of $2 submitted by Arthur Holden in August, was not paid until December. Horse owners, who risked injury to their stock, were not inclined to favor such practice. Soon there were no horses available. The firemen then took to hitching their poles to the trolley cars running on Washington Avenue. This proved to be an ingenious, but only temporary solution to the problem. For one day a trolley car drawing a fire wagon stopped short and was rammed through by the cart's poles. The trolley company made a rueful survey of the damage and reproved the Fire Department for taking too great advantage of a good thing; the Commissioners suddenly realized that someone might have been injured, and henceforth the use of trolley cars as motive power for fire apparatus was forbidden.

By 1909 James K. Provett, the case-hardened foreman of the Eastwood Company, had become Belleville's Fire Chief. The department had gained many admirers. The Belleville Times which had just begun publication, spoke of "its quick and efficient service," praised the activity and energy of the firemen when the indicator rings" and declared that "the department would do credit to any city for of five times the size of Belleville."

Catholic Daughters celebrate 75th year

On Oct. 13, 1981, the Catholic Daughters of the Americas Court Santa Maria 61, celebrated its 75th anniversary with Mass of Thanksgiving at St. Peter's Church, Belleville, then a buffet dinner and dance at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Belleville. Chairpersons for this affair were Mrs. Barbara Kiernan and Mrs. Lola McDermott, absent because of illness.

The original Catholic Daughters was presided by Mr. John Breen, Grand Knight of Belleville Knights of Columbus, with initial meeting of 50 charter members.

Court Santa Maria was the 61st establishment while it holds sixth place in the order of charter dates with the state of New Jersey.

Now in its 75th year, the Court has grown to a membership of 150. With the continued guidance of its Chaplin, State and National officers, may we have continuing growth and patriotic zeal, friendship and service to this community.

Guests and speakers for this occasion included: Mrs. Helen Cowan, court regent; Mrs. Catherine Robb, state regent; Mrs. Agnes Leddel, district deputy; Rev. Msgr. John M.

Byrnes, pastor of St. Peter's; and Rev. Msgr. Richard Granchi, benedictian.

Anyone interested in joining may do so by contacting Mrs. Helen Cowan at 759-3926.

The next meeting of the Catholic Daughters of America is Oct. 27 at the Knights of Columbus Hall at 8 p.m.

Open house at CM school

The Clara Maass Memorial Hospital School of Nursing held an open house last Saturday in the main living room.

Faculty members and student representatives were on hand to meet the public and help explore the many facets of nursing education at Clara Maass.

Prospective students, their families and friends had the opportunity to learn about observational and clinical experience, financial aid and part-time employment opportunities. Tours of the facility were also given.

Township Republican club to hold breakfast Nov. 1

The Belleville Republican County Committee recently held a tea at the Women's Club on Rossmore Place for the candidates in the November 3 election. About forty women attended; the party was hosted by Mrs. G. Ferrara, wife of the local chairman.

On November 1, at 10 a.m., the Belleville group will host a breakfast for the candidates at the Chandelier on Franklin Avenue. Tickets are available and more information can be obtained by calling 759-8652. Mr. Angelo Risoli, breakfast chairman, requests reservations be made before October 25.

Bicycle fund raiser set for next Sunday

The March of Dimes will hold its first Super Ride at Branch Brook Park on Sunday, Nov. 1 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The event is expected to attract a number of Belleville and Newark residents, and will feature a grand prize of a Ross 10-speed bike.

Bikers are asked to register for the Super Ride by calling 761-0859 so that they can receive sponsor sheets from the March of Dimes before the event. They then take the sponsor sheets to friends, neighbors and local shop keepers, who pledge money for each kilometer ridden. The challenge for the Super Ride is 50 kilometers, or 31 miles, although not everyone is expected to complete such a long ride.

On the day of the Super Ride, participants hand in their completed sponsor sheets at the starting point. This will be at the tennis courts at Heller Parkway and Park Drive in Newark, or Union Avenue and Mill Road, also Newark.

Hot dogs and fruit will be supplied by Sabrett's and the Pacific Fruit Co., and Famous Amos cookies will top the free lunch for participants.

The Branch Brook Park Super Ride will give bikers an opportunity to practice their skills under supervised conditions, and bike repairs will be made available.

School 4 students shooting for stars

A four-star movie means must see, a four-star restaurant is excellent! So the third grade class at School 4 are striving to become "4-star" class.

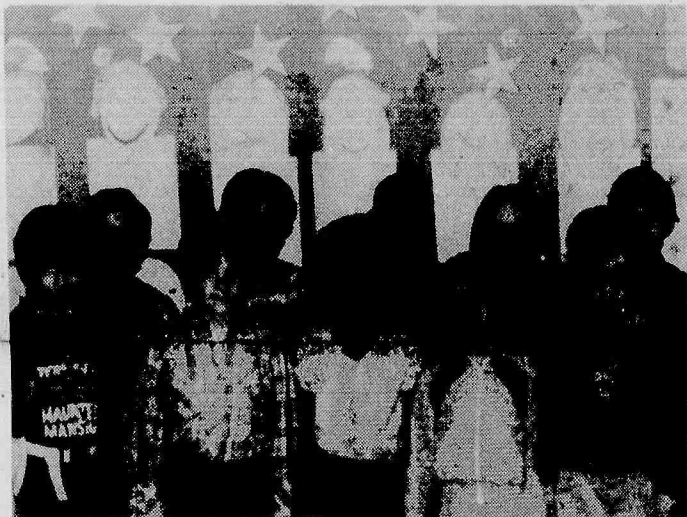

With each season comes a new star and a new goal to be achieved, and by the end of the school year the third grade class at School 4 will be "4-star students."

Their Autumn objective is to help Unicef reach its goal for safe water for all. They have sent for their Unicef Day Activity and Safe Water classroom kit, and they can't wait to get started on their "Seasonal Star Studied Year."

The following are some quotations from the students in class. Maria Rama says, "It's as though we're reaching for the stars!" Michael Pizzi said, "When I reach all four stars, I'm going to feel just like a general!"

Students include: Dawn Scaduto, Salvatore Miller, Salvatore Alfano, Jeffrey Henderson and Maria Rama from Group I; Erica Catenacci, Sherri Pindar, Maria Sabatino and Laura Lozaw from Group II; Joe Derbin, Billy Cochran, Allen Hatcher, Theresa Seeley and Michael Pizzi from Group III; and Donna Paton, Chris Curcio, Melanie Sarmiento, Kelly Mechalavage and Anthony Abromson from Group IV.

Bucs and Indians show their defense

You couldn't have asked for a more exciting game between two of the state's better teams. Last Saturday afternoon, the Belleville Buccaneers and the Passaic Indians engaged in a defensive struggle that saw only one score the entire afternoon and some excellent individual efforts on the part of both clubs.

While everyone by now knows that Passaic was a 7-0 winner, the effort put forth by both clubs in this contest was really the true story. For Belleville, now 3-1, the loss was indeed a tough one to handle, but as some of the Bucs players commented after the game, Belleville had the same record after four games last year.

The loss snapped an 11-game regular season winning streak for the Bucs dating back to 1980. The last time the Bucs were shutout was in 1977 by Seton Hall and since 1979, Belleville has an incredible 19-3 record for regular season play. For Passaic, the Indians now stand at 5-0 and are indeed a major threat to capture state honors. This is a fine football team that will be favorite at this time at least, to capture the Group IV, Section I title come late November.

The Indians showed good speed and beat the Bucs off the line of scrimmage which many players felt was the deciding point. However, don't think that Belleville didn't have its chances to win this contest. Three times during the course of the game, Belleville closed within the 20-yard line, but some super plays by the Indian front line and some fine work by the secondary kept the Bucs off the scoreboard for the afternoon.

Belleville wasn't without its share of heroes last Saturday. As usual, Frank Fazzini gave 150 percent the entire afternoon. Week after week, Frankie shows the maturity of a professional with his gutsy all-out play and sportsmanship. Following the defeat, Fazzini was straightforward about his team's effort. "We had our chances, no doubt about it. They beat us off the line of scrimmage and you can't win a big game like this when that happens."

Asked about the power the Indians possess this year, Fazzini said, "They're the best team I've seen this year. I don't think too many teams will be able to handle them."

John Borello, the junior quarterback, wasn't the starting quarterback last Saturday, but came in shortly after the game started to spark his team. Robert Woodcock started the game, but head coach John Senesky made the change feeling that Borello could avoid the on rushing Indians with more effectiveness.

Borello played a strong game, moving the Bucs on a couple of occasions, but on many instances, Borello was forced to either eat the ball or get off a bad pass due to a strong Passaic pass rush. He certainly gave a good account of himself and the experience he gained was valuable towards his future.

The Buc defensive line played a super ball game. Led by Danny Palumbo, John Bucciarelli, Dave Grant and Joe Murphy, the Bucs applied heavy pressure upon Passaic quarterback Mike Volpe, especially in the second half and limited the Passaic running game. Melvin Ross, the Indians' fine passer in his own right, didn't get a lot of time to fire the ball to his receivers.

Steve Karas, the Bucs defensive back, came through with a key interception that stopped an Indian threat and set up good field position for Belleville. There was some good running by Angelo Centanni and some fine play by Eugene Cancelliere.

How can we forget Mr. Cancelliere when we talk about the Passaic game. Early in the fourth quarter, it appeared that "Fu" had made the play of the decade when he caught a pass from Borello, took two stutter steps and took off down the sidelines. He easily out raced the Indian defenders for the apparent tying touchdown and while the fans started celebrating the big score, the bad news was on the Buc sideline where the official stood on the 30-yard line, signalling that Cancelliere had stepped out of bounds on the stutter step.

While the fans booed the call, it was a good call and Belleville did have a first down on the Indian 30. They moved to the 15, but the drive stalled there and the Bucs' chances for victory went by the waist side.

So, Belleville will take its 3-1 record into Friday night and a home game against Marist starting at 8 p.m. Marist will be a good test for the Bucs and the character of the Bucs will be evidenced in this game. Despite the loss last week, Belleville played like class athletes and took the loss in stride. The majority of the players all agreed that this was just one game and only one loss. The season will continue and it is certainly far from through. Belleville doesn't have to count themselves out of the playoffs because of one setback, especially when the loss is to the state's third best team. This year's Bucs, just like the teams of the past, are loaded with character, class and pride. They certainly will not allow themselves to get down, especially when they played a fine all out game last Saturday.

Congratulations to the Belleville cross country team on their fine effort in the Essex Catholic Invitational last Saturday morning. Barbara Gundry, Lee Ann Long, Patty Bliss and Ross De Meo all copped individual medals for their efforts and the team certainly has to look on 1981 as a successful season. The harriers still have another three weeks of competition left, that will cap off with the county championships in early November.

Are the Giants and Jets for real? Check the NFL report for further details.

While most of the coverage has been devoted to the sports programs this fall, let's not forget the band, flag twirlers, color guards and cheerleaders. That was brought to my attention last Saturday and within a week, I'll be doing some stores on the half-time program. They do a nice job with a very entertaining show and a lot of times, the kids are overlooked.

Who do you like in the World Series? The Dodgers will certainly provide a stiff test with their awesome pitching. The Yankees proved in the Oakland series what kind of character they possess. With men like Rich Gossage, Ron Davis and George Frazier coming out of the bullpen along with the "New Mr. October," Craig Nettles, getting those timely hits, the Yanks will be very difficult to stop. The real story will be after the series is over. Will George Steinbrenner sign Reggie Jackson and Ron Guidry? Jackson remains a mystery. It's no secret that George is calling on Dave Parker's doorstep and if the Yanks do sign Parker, I can't see them keeping Jackson along with Dave Winfield. Talk about the six million dollar

Indians shut out Bucs 7-0; Marist in town Friday night

Super defense is key to game

It was everything a football fan could want or possibly expect from two talented high school teams.

The Belleville Buccaneers were beaten, 7-0 by the Passaic Indians but the real story was the super defensive efforts turned in by both clubs.

For the Bucs, now 3-1, Marist is in town tomorrow night starting at 8 p.m. The Bucs were 3-1 after four games last season so the team is in the same position as in 1980 and

Directions to Clarkstown

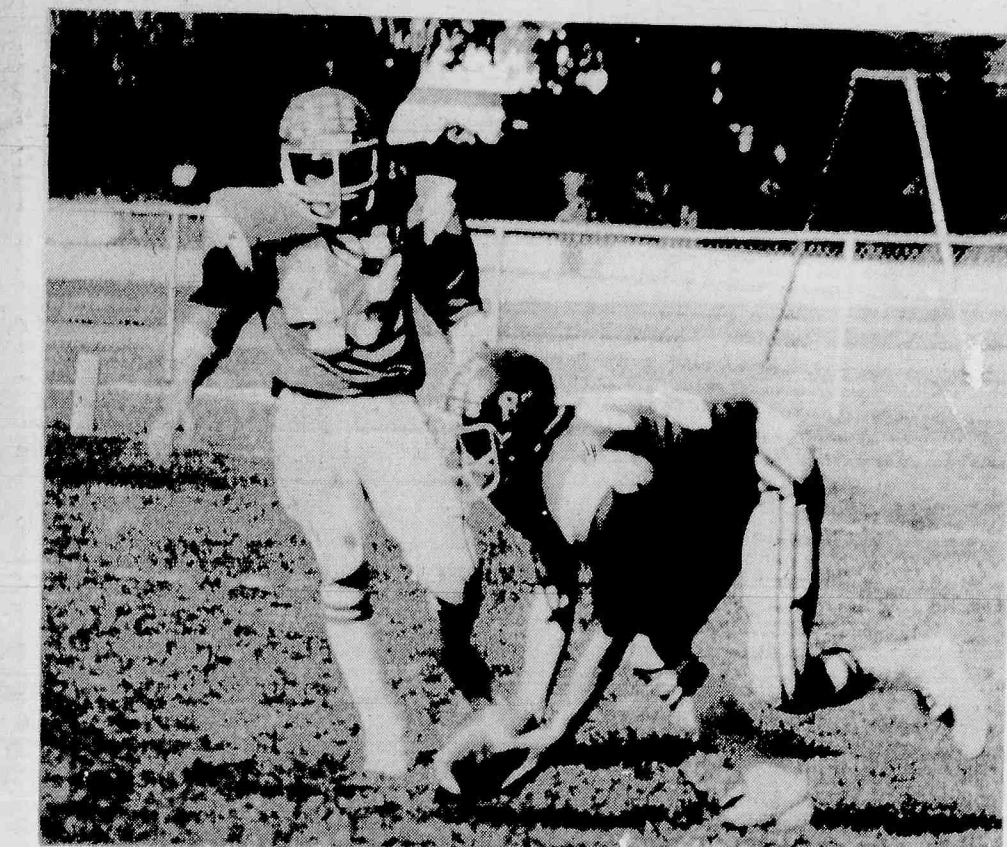

On October 31st game the Bucs will be traveling to North High School in New City, New York, to play a game with Clarkstown.

From any Buccaneer fans wishing to attend the game here are the directions. Take Garden State Pkwy North to end; bear right and take New York Thruway toward Tappan Zee Bridge; before bridge take Exit 13 South Palisades Pkwy; Go approx. 300 yds and take Exit 8 West to Route 59 West; Go approx. 300 yds and take Route 304 North; Go approx. 6 lights (4 lanes will become 2 lanes). there is a long way to go.

The only score of the day came in the first quarter when quarterback Mike Volpe scampered eight yars up the middle. Duane Giles added the conversion and for the test of the game, the awesome Indian defense did everything in their power to keep the Bucs out of the endzone.

"They outplayed us in the first half," said head coach John Senesky. "But I was very proud of our effort in the second half. We played a much improved defense and our offense came around as well."

Belleville's first scoring threat came in the second quarter. Following a Passaic punt, the Bucs took over on their own 37. Jeff Walsh gained eight yards to the 45 and Frank Fazzini picked up another five to midfield. After Angelo Centanni was stopped for no gain, sub quarterback John Borello, in for Bob Woodcock, hit Billy Cook for 16 yards and a first down at the Indian 34.

From there, Centanni added two yards and Walsh picked up three to the 29. Two plays later, Borello electrified the large crowd of over 4000 when he hit Frank Kokos at the 20-yard line. From the nine, however, the Indian defense would not be denied. Borello attempted three passes, two that fell incomplete and a third that never got off thanks to Willie Gray who broke through and sacked the junior quarterback.

Passaic took over and moved to the Buc 25, however, some key penalties and a tough Buc defense would allow the Indians any closer and the first half ended, 7-0.

The second half saw Belleville do

De Meo, Gundry leading track squad to strong finish in race invitational

Last week, every varsity program at BHS had some very impressive results. The soccer, football and tennis teams all came through with some efforts that continue to show the excellence of the Belleville sports program.

Not to be outdone, the Buc cross country squad came through with its own strong week, highlighted by the Essex Catholic Invitational last Saturday morning.

Now you have to understand what a determined group of athletes the BHS harriers are. The team has shown so much improvement during the course of the year and last Saturday dividends were paid on the team's success.

Freshman runner Ross De Meo has led the boys' team this year with four first place finishes while the girls' team has captured four of seven dual meets led by the running of senior Barbara Gundry.

Last Saturday, the team fielded five runners in the Essex Catholic Invitational at Branch Brook Park. Four runners came home with medals with the fifth, Frank Trupia, coming through with his finest run of the year. Trupia, just a freshman, continues to improve steadily and will be a very competitive runner with added work.

De Meo started the day off for the Bucs by placing 17th in a field of 130 in the freshman race. Ross's time of 12:00 for the 2.1 mile course was a fine effort and best of all, only three runners from the Essex County area placed ahead of him.

Lee Ann Long and Patty Bliss were the next to capture honors by placing 10th and 15th respectively in the girls JV race. Over 40 runners competed and Long and Bliss were in the thick of the race for the majority of the 2.1 mile course. Finally, Gundry, who had by far her best week of the 1981 season placed 17th in a field of 50 in the girls varsity race.

The girls varsity race had some of the best runners in the state competing and Gundry held her own throughout, beating some very good runners and showing once again her fine athletic ability.

The braintrust behind the team's success is of course, Richard Ruffalo, the head coach. Ruffalo has been at the helm since 1974 and admits that this has been one of his most enjoyable years. "We've made a lot of progress this fall," the coach said. "Our kids put out week after week and now we're starting to get some rewards for the hard work. I'm really proud of the team."

Buccaneer booters even record; then drop tournament opener

By Mike Lamberti

It was a very successful week for the Belleville soccer team as the booters prevailed over East Orange and Bailey Ellear, tied Queen of Peace and lost to Vailsburg in the County Tournament on Sunday.

The Bucs, now 4-4-2 for the regular season, will host the Maroon Raiders of Nutley tomorrow afternoon starting at 3:45 p.m. Yesterday, the Bucs were at Caldwell and on Monday were in Bayonne. Next Wednesday, Bailey Ellard will be in town for a 3:45 p.m. kickoff.

Head coach Anthony D'Aquino was once again happy with his team's performance and pointed Gundry would later go on to clock a 19:50 versus Nutley last Monday.

De Meo also had a fine week, winning the West Orange race in 17:28 while posting one of his best times in the Nutley race 17:18. Mark Dombrowski, a senior runner, turned in some steady perforout that the Bucs have already won as many games this year as they did for the entire 1980 campaign. "The kids are really hustling and there is noticeable improvement," the coach emphasized. "We played some good games last week. We would have even beaten Queen of Peace had it not been for a penalty kick and later on Santiago (Borja) came very close on a good shot."

D'Aquino was disappointed at the way his team was ousted in the opening round of the county tournament against Vailsburg. "They were a good team, a well coached club," said D'Aquino of the Viking booters. "However, we gave up a few freaky goals early and we had a golden opportunity to score early. In a game against a good squad like Vailsburg, to score first means almost everything."

While D'Aquino admitted that Vailsburg might have had more skill, the Bucs certainly weren't lacking in overall hustling ability. "They went after it all afternoon. I can't say enough about the kids hustling and never say die attitude."

Once again, when the words hustle and never say die are used, the first player brought to mind is Brian Woods. The senior captain, whom D'Aquino feels is one of the best players in the state, always gives more than what is expected. He has played in considerable pain during some games, but never gives anything less than his best.

"He'll certainly deserve some recognition once the season is over." (Please see 'Booters' on page 16.)

Jets — Steelers on top in football

Second week action in the Belleville Recreation Football League saw the Jets and the Steelers take over sole-possession of first place in their respective divisions. In the light-weight division, the Jets topped the Chargers 38-6, and the Falcons defeated the Bengals 25-12. Heavy-weight action saw the Steelers maul the Rams 39-0, and the Giants stopping the Chiefs 32-0.

The Jets had little trouble getting by the previously unbeaten Chargers to improve their record to 2-0. Jet quarterback Anthony Lunetta got his team on the board first on a five-yard run. Shortly after, Lou Lucante ran for nine yards to give the Jets a 12-0 lead. A Jet interception by Mike Iacona set up another Lucante touchdown run, this time for seven yards. Iacona scored two touchdowns in the second quarter on runs of 26 yards and four yards after his second interception. With the score at 32-0, Jet quarterback Lunetta hooked up with P.J. Olivio on a pass to set up their final score, an eight-yard run by Lunetta. Charger quarterback Jack Calandra broke the shutout by running 60 yards for a touchdown to end the game at 38-6.

The Falcons evened their record at 1-1 with a 25-12 win over the Bengals. Dan Harrington gave the Falcons a quick 12-0 lead with runs of 17 and 13 yards. The Bengals, after an interception by Nicky Wendling, cut the lead to 12-6 just before the half on a 25-yard pass from Tim Buckley to Wendling. The Bengals tied the score in the third quarter on a 25-yard run by Hany El-Helw. Billy Sypher quickly regained the lead for the Falcons with a 65-yard kickoff return, and it was Sypher once again scoring on a five-yard run to close out the scoring, with great blocking coming from Scott Odirizzi, Mike Bocchino and Joel Nasser. Robert Beuzzichesi, Jeff Spilsbury and Sypher added interceptions for the Falcons while Wendling and Mike Danduone recorded thefts for the Bengals. Richie Nangogna also added a 50-yard fumble recovery for the Bengals.

Heavy-weight action saw the Steelers improve to 2-0 with a 39-0 mauling of the Rams. The Steelers enjoyed a 21-0 half-time lead thanks to T.D. runs by Andrew Martinez of two yards and 81 yards. Jimmy Dunphy added the other touchdown on a 70-yard run. Time for 33 yards and Anthony Gizzo added a touchdown run of 55 yards. Dunphy closed out the scoring with a one-yard run.

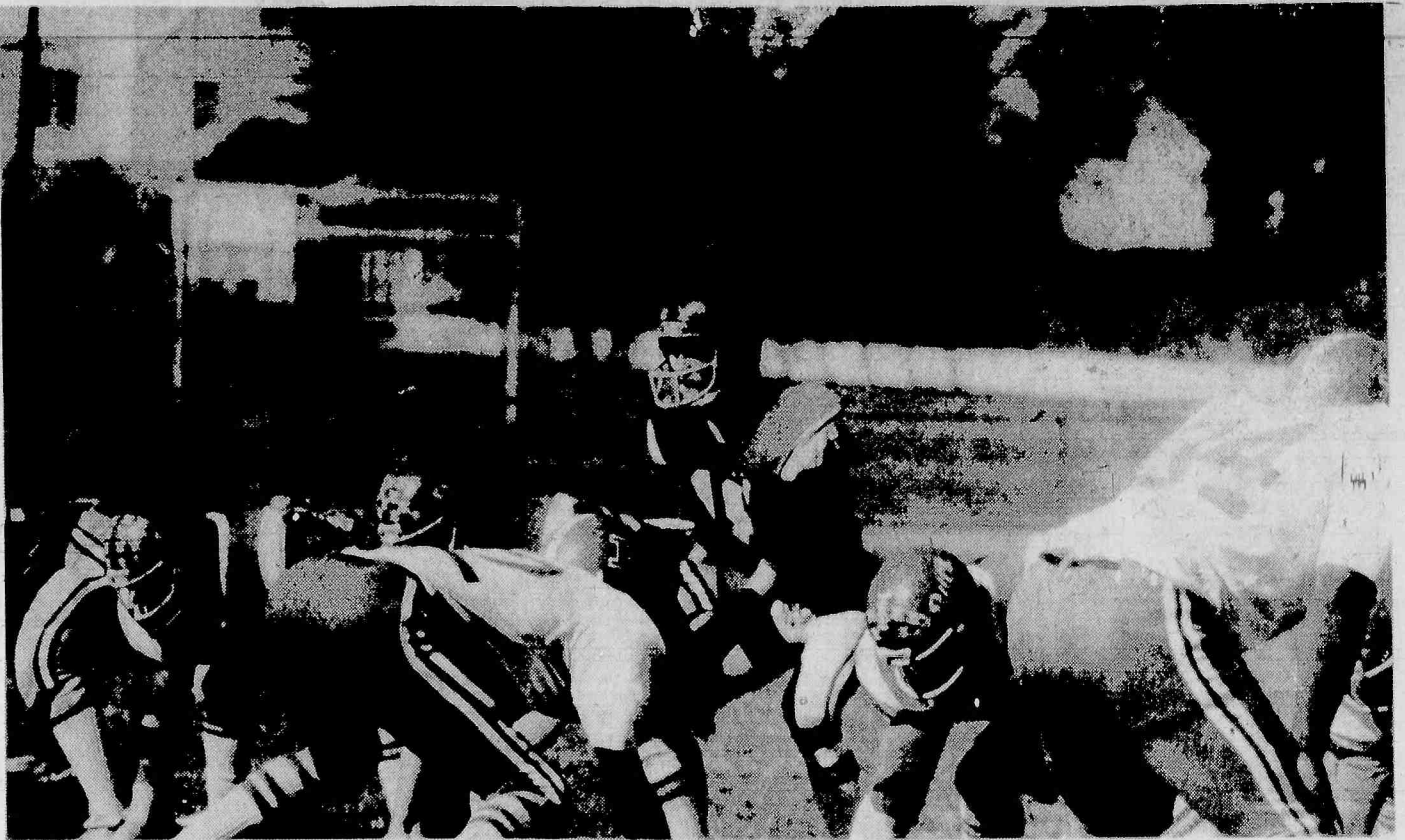

Conrad Hahn and Nicky Complitano had a fine offensive game for the Rams, who are now 0-2.

The Giants evened their record at 1-1 with a 32-0 thrashing of the Chiefs. Todd Conforti caught a 17-yard touchdown pass from Anthony Vecere to give the Giants a 7-0 lead at half-time. Mark Walden ran for the extra point. The Giants extended the lead to 13-0 on a Sean Mulcahy 34-yard touchdown run. The Giants blew the game open in the fourth quarter on two more touchdown runs by Mulcahy of two yards and 33 yards. The Giants closed out the scoring when quarterback Vecere raced 60 yards to the five-yard line, and one play later Sam Zamloot scored from three yards out. A fine defensive effort for the Giants was turned in by Jerry Petrucci, who recorded three interceptions on the night. Marc Walden also recorded an interception for the Giants, while Todd Conforti scored a second touchdown which was called back.

Action resumes Tuesday night at 6 p.m.

The Belleville Recreation Soccer Leagues are halfway through the regular season as action has been filled with excitement during the past two weeks. In second week action, the Division "A" Toros and Aztecs earned victories over the Lancers and Spurs, respectively. Division "B" scores in second week competition were: Cosmos 1-Aztecs 0; Comets 12-Spurs 1; and Toros 1-Lancers 0.

The Toros remained undefeated at 3-0 in Division "A" by edging the Spurs 1-0. George Ricci scored the game's lone goal. The Aztecs improved to 2-1 in Division "A" as they set back the Lancers 3-2. Phil Zamloot scored twice and Russell Zamloot scored once for the victors, while A.J. Serafino and Jimmy Damiano tallied goals for the Lancers.

Young replacement — John Borello, number 18 awaits the snap of the ball during last Saturday's Belleville — Passaic game. Coach Senesky put the junior quarterback in the game early in the first quarter after starting quarterback Robert Woodcock proved ineffective against the quick Indian defensive rush. Even though the Bucs loss 7-0 Borello played a fine game.

Giants and Jets are impressive as league races get interesting

Some very interesting races are beginning to shape up in the NFL following last Sunday's games. What makes the races so interesting for local fans is that for the first time in ages, both the Jets and Giants are actually in the thick of things after seven weeks of action.

The Jets played its most impressive game of the '81 campaign by whipping Buffalo, 33-14 while the Giants recorded a 32-0 whitewash of the hapless Seattle Seahawks. In other games, Cincy and San Fran are proving that they are bona fide contenders by whipping Pittsburgh and Green Bay respectively. Oakland snapped that long drought by stopping Tampa, Atlanta finally broke back on the winning note, Cleveland needed to pull all the stops to edge New Orleans and San Diego added to Baltimore's woes.

The Jets, now 3-3-1, received a fine game from Richard Todd, another masterful performance from the defense and a fine ground game to maul the Bills, 33-14. The win was particularly sweet for the Jets after losing back on opening day to Buffalo, 31-0. The Bills, coming off that big Monday night game versus Miami, were noticeably flat and the Bill receivers dropped a number of Joe Ferguson passes. The Jets could easily be 5-2 right now and are unbeaten in its last four games (3-0-1). That tie with Miami hurts more and more each week.

The Giants are starting to wake up a lot of people. While the offense recorded its second straight 30-plus game and Rob Carpenter rushed for over 100 yards again, the Giant defense swarmed all over the Seahawk offense and place kicker Joe Danelo booted a team record of six field goals. That, coupled along with some big interceptions by the Giants' secondary, helped make the plane ride a pleasant one for the Giants who will be in Atlanta this weekend.

How about Cincinnati and that 34-7 trouncing of Pittsburgh? The Bengals are now 5-2 and Forest Gregg has proven to be a very effective coach. It's the best start for a Cincy squad since 1977 and Pittsburgh had better realize that the Bengals are indeed serious contenders. The San Francisco 49ers, coming off that 45-14 romp of Dallas, used an awesome defense to stop Green Bay, 13-3. The Niners are now 5-2, have won four straight and while the Falcons and Rams are playing hide and seek, the 49ers could very well steal the West Crown.

Now for this week's picks: SEATTLE at JETS: At close glance, this appears to be a breeze for the Jets. After all, they're home, have won two straight and Seattle is demoralized. However, keep in mind that the Jets have never beaten Seattle before and the Hawks have to be better than that 32-0 game last week. Paterno's job might be on the line and Zorn is still quite effective. Jets should win it, but it won't come easy. JETS 27-21.

GIANTS at ATLANTA: Upset anyone? The Giants are certainly capable but the Falcons are so tough at home and can't afford to lose with L.A. and San Fran right on their heels. Bartkowski to Jenkins and the Falcon defense might be enough here. Don't forget, the Falcons are not the Cards, Seahawks, Saints or Redskins, not by a long shot. Atlanta 28-17.

HOUSTON at PITTSBURGH: The Oilers picked the wrong week to go into Pittsburgh. The Steelers are coming off that big loss to Cincy and Houston is reeling after the setback to New England. Pittsburgh at home figures to be the edge and the Steelers are certainly better than last week's game. Pitt 27-14.

KANSAS CITY at OAKLAND: For the first time in quite a while, this series has that old zing back in it. The Chiefs are 5-2 and for the first time in a decade are serious contenders. The Raiders have good memories and won't forget the 27-0 loss to KC two weeks ago. This game figures to be decided by a field goal or less and since Oakland needs it desperately, they'll find a way to pull it out. Oakland 21-20.

MIAMI at DALLAS: This is a dandy. The Dolphins just got by Washington last week and Don Shula wants his team to be up for this one. Dallas has been a bit erratic this year but Dorsett is having a marvelous season. Don't look for too much scoring here as both clubs play defensively. Miami 14-13.

TAMPA BAY at

PHILADELPHIA: The Eagles want to get back on the winning track after the loss to Minnesota while Tampa is stinging after the last second defeat to Raiders. Tampa Bay had a good club but Williams is inconsistent. The edge in quarterbacks goes to Jaworski and with the homefield, and Dallas due in the week after, the Eagles can't afford to lose here. Philly 31-24.

Off and Running — Frank Kokos takes off down the sideline during Saturday's game with the Passaic Indians. He gained 20 yard on the pass and it resulted in a Belleville first down, but the Bucs could not put any points on the board as they were shut out 7-0.

Kicking Away — Frank Fazzini gets off a punt during Saturday's game. Frank punted six times for 235 yards. That is an average of 39.1 yards per punt. Fazzini also gained 65 yards rushing.

Indians shut out Bucs

Good Gain — Billy Cook get up after making a 16 yard reception. The pass was thrown by Junior quarterback John Burrello. Burrello threw for 70 yards on the afternoon, but he could not get it into the end zone for a score as the Bucs were shut out 7-0.

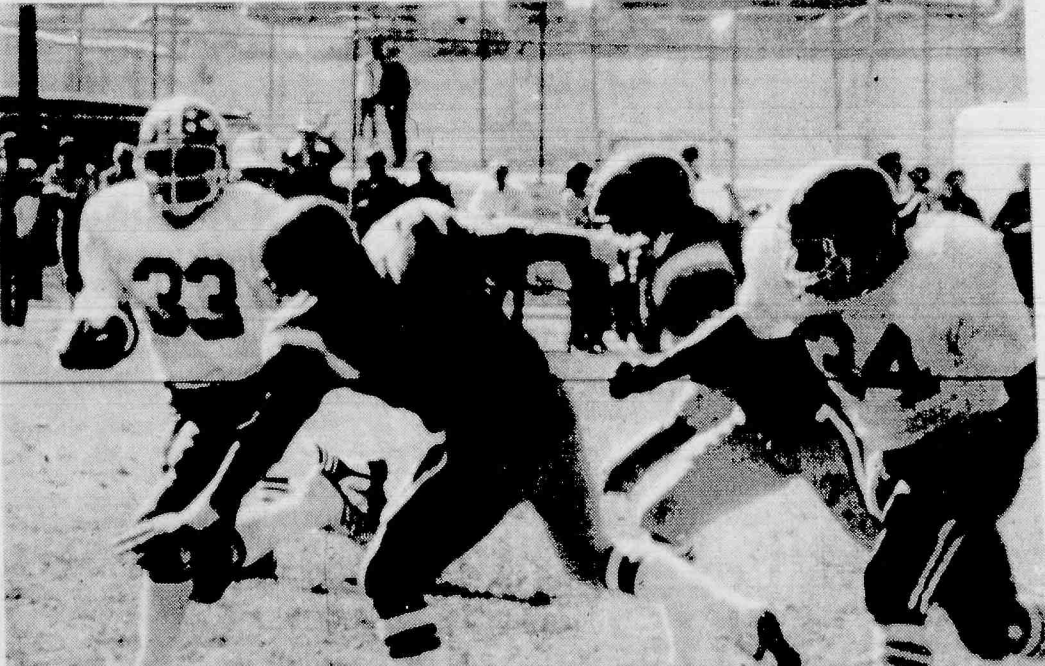

Go Frank Go! — Frank Fazzini picks up 16 of the 65 yards he rushed for on this play against Passaic Saturday at Municipal Stadium. Fazzini carried the ball 15 times for a 4.3 average.

Diving Tackle — Jeff Walsh takes a shot from an Indian defender in Saturday's game. Walsh gained no yards on the play. Number 60, Danny Palumbo looks on.

Band Rooters — She came to play in the band and watch the game. He came to watch her and also keep his eye on the game. He was probably disappointed with the game since the Bucs loss, but we doubt he is disappointed in her.

Pounding Defense — Eugene Cancelliere is in hot pursuit of a Passaic Indian running back in Saturday's game. Cancelliere along with his fellow defenders played an excellent holding the strong Passaic squad to just seven points on the afternoon.

man, the Yankee outfield can be termed the 10 million dollar fiasco. All three men will want more money than the other guy and since Parker and Reggie love the media, I can't see the Yanks keeping them both. As for Guidry, he wants somewhere in the area of seven million dollars over the next five years while George has offered four million over the same period of time. If the Yanks do lose Guidry, that will be a major blow to the staff, but I also can't see paying 1.6 million dollars a year.

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was: in the 1976 American League championship series, who hit the three-run homer for KC that tied the Yanks at six and set the stage for Chris Chambliss' homer in the last of the ninth. Also, who were the starting pitchers in that final game and who was the pitcher who gave up the homer to Chambliss. The answer: George Brett hit the three-run homer off of Grant Jackson. The starting pitchers were Paul Splittorf for KC and Ed Figueroa for the Yankees. Chambliss hit his homer off of Mark Litel, who now hurls for the St. Louis Cardinals.

For this week's quiz: when the Oakland A's won those three World Series in 1972, '73 and '74, there was certainly a lot of turmoil on the team. Can you name the MVP of those three series and the managers of the championship teams?

Finally, the Belleville High School Athlete of the week goes to Barbara Gundry. In addition to winning a medal at the Invitational last Saturday, Barb also became the third runner in Belleville girls' history to break the 20-minute mark on the home course. She joins Dana Caruso and Susan Smith as the only people ever to break the mark.

Girls' tennis team on winning track

Karen Fuccello preferred to call it a "satisfying week." Based upon the results that her tennis team turned in, it's easy to see why.

The girls won three dual matches last week over Immaculate, Orange and Nutley and were the runners-up in the consolation bracket of the Essex County Tournament. For the season, the girls are now, 7-4, 9-6 if you count the county tournament. With the exception of one match, the finals of the county tourney, the girls' loses were all by scores of 3-2 and with a few breaks, the team could easily be undefeated for the regular season at 11-0.

The girls are in Madison this afternoon and will host Kearny tomorrow afternoon. Earlier this week, the team hosted Bloomfield.

The girls' biggest individual victory was the dual match over Nutley. It's been quite awhile since Belleville has stopped the Maroon in tennis and Belleville pulled the trick thanks to some aggressive play by Rosie Leonidis and Kim Indiero in the first and second slots. The doubles team of Dina D'Aquino and Sheree Tillman won the match for Belleville with a 6-2, 7-5 win. "I was very happy with all the girls," said a happy Fuccello.

"Dina and Sheree came through in the clutch and Rosie showed a lot of style after losing the second set."

Leonidis was a winner, 6-3 in the first set, but fell, 1-6 in the second. Rosie got her thoughts together and pulled out an impressive 6-4 win. Meanwhile, Indiero kept her unbeaten record in tact by winning, 6-4, 6-2. Kim fell behind, 0-4 in the first set, but rallied by her opponent for a very impressive victory.

The county tournament, which started on Wednesday and concluded on Saturday, saw Belleville lose a toughie to Verona, 3-2 thus moving the girls to the consolation bracket. There, Belleville was a 5-0 winner over both Bloomfield and Immaculate before losing via shutout to Montclair.

"Montclair had a very good team," Fuccello said. "I expected a very tough match from them and that's what happened. However, I nor the team have any regrets about our play. We showed we can play pretty good tennis and this is the farthest we've ever gone in the county tournament. It is excellent experience for the girls to compete in such a tough tourney and it capped off a very good week for us."

BHS Hall of Fame to host testimonial

On Friday, November 6, at the Branch Brook Manor, the Belleville High School Hall of Fame Association will sponsor the first of what is hoped will soon be an annual affair honoring former Belleville High School varsity greats. Tickets to the testimonial dinner will sell for $15 per person and go on sale within the week.

The newly formed Hall of Fame Association is an arm of the Belleville Board of Education and its Athletic Council, and was organized to carry out a project begun four years ago but not continued by Mike Chieffo and Fred Puleo while Athletic Council members. Over 50 former sports stars were inducted at the awards dinner held Chieffo and Puleo; however, the codified structure set up by the new association will limit future groups of inductees to ten per year.

To be eligible, a Belleville athlete must be an alumnus of the high school for at least five years, or have been a coach or athletic director at the high school, must have contributed to the athletic program at the school beyond that expected of most individuals, must have had an outstanding record of achievements on the field of play, must have shown leadership, desire, and an ability to overcome whatever handicaps were placed in his or her way. Belleville alumni who have excelled in post high school sports may also be considered.

The association is looking to the people of Belleville for help in uncovering the names of town's outstanding past performers. Nomination forms can be picked up at the Senior High School for those interested or the form published below may be submitted to the association at the high school's mailing address. According to Evelyn Hannon, president of the association: "All that we hope to do is to honor as many deserving past athletes as possible. The name of every nominee will be given full consideration, and we hope that the very idea of such a Hall of Fame is the kind of thing that can give Belleville and its athletes a boost."

an excellent job of containing the Indians speedy halfback, Melvin Ross. Ross, who gained over 80 yards in the first half, dooled no one in the second half as Belleville played a determined defense. The Bucs also got through to Volpe, the Indians' talented junior quarterback, and sacked him four times. However, Passaic was playing its own style of rock 'em, sock 'em defense and some key plays in the second half stopped two potential Belleville scoring drives.

Late in the fourth quarter, the Bucs appeared to get the break they needed when Steve Karas intercepted a Volpe pass and returned to near midfield. From there, Borello, hit Eugen Cancelliere with a fine pass that the split end apparently turned into a touchdown.

While the fans cheered and the Buc bench erupted, the bad news was soon clearly evident as the referee near the play ruled that Cancelliere had stepped out of bounds after catching the ball at the 30 yard line. While the call was hotly disputed by the fans, it was an excellent call by the official who was right on top of the play.

Belleville would drive to the Indian 12 yard line on the same possession, but once again, Passaic would not budge and the Bucs were sent home very disappointed losers.

Despite the setback, the Bucs received some big plays from Fazzini, Phil Cerza, Robbie Cancelliere, Steve Karas, Centanni, Borello and the Bucs' defensive line. For the first three games of the season, Sensesky had said he wasn't sure just how good this year's Buccaneers were. Despite the fact that Belleville lost its first of the year, many fans and players found out that the Bucs do have a strong football team who can play with the state's best.

GRID NOTES: Belleville had not lost a regular season game since September 1980 against Livingston. The Bucs have not been shutout since November 1977 against Seton Hall. Belleville is 19-3 in regular season play for the last three years. Fazzini, even in defeat, is a class athlete. After shaking hands with the Indians, he yelled to his team to run off the field with their heads up. The Bucs defeated Marist, 35-7 in last year's meeting at Bayonne.

Booters win; but then lose

over," the coach said. "He is that good. I feel he should have received a lot more last year than he did, but as for this season, there is no doubt that Brian is a very deserving athlete."

With such a young team to work with, a player with the talent and charisma that Brian Woods has is certainly an asset for any club to utilize. While the Bucs continue to show marked improvement and the hopes for a .500 or better season, Brian Woods is the main reason for the great team effort. He is indeed a super player.

Also not to be forgotten is the fine play of Frankie Dunn, Rick DiPrizio and Santiago Borja. "They all play their hearts out, what more can I say," said D'Aquino.

Belleville pair honor soldier

On Saturday, October 3, Carol Marie and John Vincent Zurlow, children of Mr. and Mrs. James Zurlow of 265 De Witt Avenue, unveiled a marker for Daniel Searing, 2nd Lt. Revolutionary Soldier in the cemetery at St. Paul's Church, Eastchester, N.Y. National Historic Site. Daniel Searing was in the Westchester County Militia. Daniel is the great-great-great-great grandfather of the Zurlow children. Major Joseph, Bloomfield Chapter NSDAR dedicated the bronze plaque with the children from Jeremiah Crane Garthwaite Society Children of the American Revolution acting as honor guards. Mrs. Robert Van Court, grandmother of Carol and John Zurlow gave a brief history of Daniel Searing.

mances, scoring team points in all of the Bucs meets last week.

Another senior, Tom Fuscaldo, was injured for a good part of the week, but came back in the Nutley race to score two points. Tommy has a badly sprained knee but elected to run in the Nutley race and did a gutsy job.

The Buccaneers season will conclude with the county championships on November 4. It will be the last race for three seniors and will mark the end of a very successful season.

MINNESOTA AT ST. LOUIS: The Cards might catch the Vikings napping here. The Vikings are sky high after the win over Philly and St. Louis got burned by Atlanta. The Cards are a difficult group to figure out, one week they stop Dallas and the next week, the Giants rip them. Maybe, just maybe, the Cards can pull this one off and with O.J. and some clutch passing, it might work. St. Louis 17-14.

The rest of the NFL: Cleveland over Baltimore, Buffalo over Denver, New Orleans over Cincy, New England over Washington, San Diego over Chicago, Detroit over Green Bay and San Fran to upset L.A.

The breakfast committee consists of Bill Dunn and Claire Fennell, co-chairmen; Richard Quigley, treasurer; James Piro, program; Louise Cremmoni, publicity; Ann Wiedman, table decorations; Marge Narucki, seating arrangements, and Lori Neer, hostesses.

State Senator Carmen A. Orechio has received endorsements for re-election from both the New Jersey and Essex County the state's "death by auto" statutes, calling for stronger prosecution of reckless drivers in fatal accidents.

Orechio has also received the endorsement of the 85,000-member New Jersey Tenants Organization. The endorsements followed a lengthy screening process involving over 200 tenant leaders from across the state.

Kelly has named Pat J. Capaccio, management consultant and president of the Nutley Republican Club, to coordinate his campaign effort here.

received the endorsement of Assemblyman Anthony Imperiale.

Essex County Freeholder President Jerome D. Greco's bid for re-election to the county governing board this week received a boost, garnering the endorsement of the Essex County Police Benevolent Association.

Phil Rivoli, president of the local, said the endorsement of Greco was "unanimous" and praised the freeholder's record as "an unblemished statement supporting strong public safety initiatives."

Essex County Executive Peter Shapiro announced the Democratic At-Large Freeholder candidates will provide Essex County residents with "the responsive and knowledgeable representation these crucial times demand."

Shapiro urged support for Freeholder president Jerome D. Greco, Thomas P. Giblin, Adrienne Davis and Joseph Parlavecchio.

Art Clay, Republican Freeholder in District 5 announced this week the appointment of other campaign manager representing Belleville. Essex County Committeeman Angelo Risoli will be Clay's co-ordinator for the Township of Belleville.

"I am proud to say that Angelo Risoli will join Lou Luibil and Tony Gallo in managing my campaign for the 5th District Freeholder in Belleville," Clay said.

The campaign headquarters of Republican gubernatorial candidate Thomas Kean has announced the appointment of its Essex County coordinators.

Essex County Freeholder James M. Piro, retired Superior Court Judge Neil Duffy and Livingston County Committee Chairman Ken Welch will share the responsibilities of the Essex Kean for Governor effort.

Piro outlined the goals of the campaign. "We want to acquaint the voters of the county with Tom Kean's qualifications — his legislative experience, his business experience, his personality, his family," Piro said. "And, we intend to clearly point out the differences between Tom Kean's voting record and his approach to government and that of his opponent."

Clara Maass starting mobile care project

Clara Maass Memorial Hospital has received certificate of need approval from the state health commissioner to establish a joint mobile intensive care program with the New Jersey College of Medicine and Dentistry in Newark. The project, known as the Mobile Intensive Care Consortium, is expected to save the lives of thousands of people each year who are the victims of heart attacks, trauma or other life-threatening medical problems.

The project, which will cost Clara Maass approximately $75,000, will operate with one mobile intensive care unit (MICU) and a staff of nine to 10 certified paramedics. The unit will seek to bring an advanced life support system to a victim at the scene in a matter of minutes.

"No longer will a patient have to wait until he arrives at the hospital for advanced life support treatment," Leslie D. Hirsch, administrative assistant and coordinator of the project said. "Essentially what we'll be doing is bringing a part of the Emergency Room to the patient."

With the new system, paramedics arriving at the scene can make use of a telemetry unit (to monitor a patient's heart) and a defibrillator (to shock it into maintaining a normal beat). Local Emergency Rescue Squads are capable of providing basic life support and will work cooperatively with the MICU.

Via a mobile radio, a licensed cardiologist at either hospital will be monitoring the patient and giving instruction to the paramedics as to the type of treatment. Paramedics will be able to give medications and stabilize the patient before arrival at the hospital. Monitors will be set up in the Emergency Room area and personnel will be advised, as usual, as to the treatment being administered.

"The intent Clara Maass has shown in advanced life support indicates prudent foresight and a desire to expand its emergency medical services," Judd Fuller, coordinator of the Regional Emergency Medical Communications Services at College Hospital said. Fuller will be overseeing the operation there.

The MICU will not be used as a transport vehicle; this will be carried out by the respective squads as usual. The program will be in operation 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and two MICU's from College Hospital will be available to provide additional assistance if need be.

Paramedics working in the unit will undergo an intense training period totalling 500 hours and an in-service training program will also take place before the MICU service goes into effect. Clara Maass will work with area police in setting up protocol that will be used for the system.

The Mobile Intensive Care Consortium is approved to provide service to an area in excess of 440,000 which includes Nutley, Belleville, North Arlington, Lyndhurst, Rutherford and Newark.

Last year alone, Clara Maass' Emergency Room received 1500 patients affected by life threatening situations that could have benefitted from the MICU.

"The Mobile Intensive Care Consortium will exemplify two hospitals sharing resources to provide a vitally needed service to the community," Hirsch said.

The MICU program at Clara Maass is expected to become operational in the Summer of 1982.

Endorsement — Josephine Mongiello, deputy mayor of Cedar Grove and candidate for assembly in the 30th district, receives a hearty endorsement of her candidacy from Assemblyman Anthony Imperiale. The 30th district includes Belleville, Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Glen Ridge, Montclair, Nutley and Verona.

Policemen's Benevolent Associations in recognition of the Senate majority leader's "strong support of quality police control and outstanding record in law enforcement legislation."

PBA officials praised Orechio as a leader is working for high level state and municipal law enforcement. The senator, who is also Nutley's mayor and public safety commissioner, was a key figure in the passage of the New Jersey Code of Criminal Justice in 1978. He authored the law that required mandatory sentences for illegal possession of firearms. Orechio also sponsored revision of president of Nutley Savings and Loan Association.

In accepting the chairmanship, Capaccio said, "I am delighted John Kelly asked me to help in the campaign. John is a candidate whose qualifications are impeccable."

"Our plan is to concentrate on making Nutley's voters conscious of the special importance of their votes on Nov. 3," said Capaccio. "We must increase registrations to a record level. We must also increase the understanding of voters throughout the 30th District regarding John's ability, and how

The taxes, levied against all electric, gas, and water services provided by the public utilities amount to an addition of 14 percent on all bill to consumers.

"How can we expect new industry to locate in a state which has almost the highest tax on electricity in the country, an income tax and a non-existent growth policy," Fortunato said. "In the interest of fairness and equity, I am firmly committed to solving this potentially
