MONAD

OUR TOWN

Dedication OF THEE I SING

MRS. GREGORIA CONDON MOORE

We, the Class of 1956, feel proud to dedicate our Monad to Mrs. Gregoria Condon Moore in appreciation of her sincere and tireless efforts as our class counselor for four years. Some of us have been fortunate to have been a member of her English classes.

Mrs. Moore is one of two daughters born to Dr. and Mrs. Condon. She has spent most of her life living in Newark, Belleville, and the Oranges.

She, too, has her idiosyncrasies. As a child, a tiny piece of cotton would frighten her. She loathes cats but is partial to delicate shades of blue. Offer her an extra piece of cake or a cookie and she will wrap it up and take it home to her family. She enjoys reading, being an active member of her alumnae association from St. Elizabeth's College, and drinking a good, strong cup of coffee.

Last August she married Andrew Moore, a lawyer, and will live in a beautiful home in Herkimer, New York.

We sincerely wish her much happiness. May the memories she takes with her of Belleville High be pleasant ones.

Here we catch a glimpse of the "new" Mrs. Andy Moore off on her wedding trip. (We wish to thank Bradford Bachrach Studios in East Orange for being so kind in furnishing us with this candid and the formal portrait.)

Board of Education

THE DESK SET

As any show appreciates its producers and backers, so Belleville High School wishes to publicly thank its backers—the Board of Education. Mr. Walter Loesner, Mr. Eugene Kelly, Mrs. Violet Rochau, president; Dr. Palmer Burde, vice-president; and Mr. William A. Boyd are shown here at one of their meetings. With them are Mr. Evan Thomas, superintendent of schools; and Mr. Ruel Daniels, business manager and district clerk.

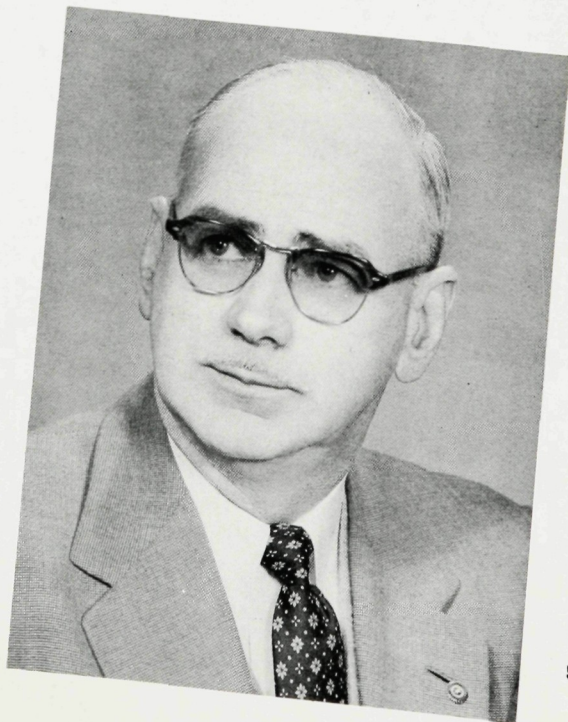

At the Board of Education election held in February, the following new members were elected: Mrs. Charles Cassaday, Mr. William Kintzing, and Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero. At the board's first meeting Mr. Boyd and Dr. Burde were elected president and vice-president, respectively.

Superintendent

TOP BANANA

EVAN H. THOMAS

No Broadway show was ever successful without a hard-working director. The Class of '56 wishes to acknowledge Mr. Evan H. Thomas, superintendent of schools, as being Belleville's indispensable "man behind the scenes." All of us deeply appreciate the value of his leadership and the work he has done for our school. Mr. Thomas' pleasant personality and understanding grin will long be remembered.

General Supervisor

KIND SIR

We found Dr. Durkee visiting our classes, walking in the halls, and attending faculty meetings after school. Behind the stage, we saw him working untiringly to bring modern education to Belleville. Without his direction, our four years would not have been so successful.

Dr. Durkee, we wish you many pleasant and successful days in Belleville.

Principal

GOODBYE MR. CHIPS

It is with deep regret that we say goodbye to Mr. Kittle, our Mr. Chips. His patient guidance has made our high school years memorable. We will never forget his sense of humor, his smile, or his enthusiastic cheering for Belleville despite the score.

We, the Class of 1956, would like to express our sincere appreciation for your leadership, patience, and untiring efforts.

Vice-Principal

MR. WONDERFUL

Mr. Hensinger's personality and sense of humor have helped all of us in our past four years. Some have been lucky enough to have had him for English, others have been "invited visitors" to Room 4, still others know him only for his smile as he takes care of his extra duties, and others have known him in his capacity as head of the Language Arts Department.

We sincerely wish to thank him for his guidance and help during the past four years.

(Basement and Freshman Hall)

The curtain rose, revealing our confused cast wandering about aimlessly. Very soon we became organized, however, with the help of our class advisor, Mr. Lees. We selected Joe Razzeca, Joe Prieto, Barbara Kikkert, and Tony Nigro for the star roles of president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. Our players began to get into the swing of things at the autumn sock dances, particularly the traditional Victory Dance, which followed Belleville's defeat of Bloomfield. We were still a little confused, though, after Twirp Week, when we learned that all procedure reverses itself for a little while just so one doesn't become too accustomed to acting normally. Our show received much-needed financial backing from a successful Magazine Campaign and the equally successful Christmas Dance. The latter was our first real project as a group, and we were very pleased with the results. By observing the performances of veteran actors and by the experiences gained throughout the year, we felt confident that our production would be a smash hit. Because we had all worked diligently to make our debut a successful one, we were looking forward eagerly to a restful period.

ACT II

SETTING: September, 1953

*Belleville High School, U. S. A.
(First and second floors)*

As soon as the act opened, our now-confident cast organized and quickly selected the following players for these principal roles: president, Bob Paganelli; vice-president, John Inguaggiato; secretary-treasurer, Joe Prieto.

Aided by Mr. Chiara, our cast's advisor for this act, we planned the Sophomore Hop. This dance proved to be a profitable and entertaining evening for all concerned. With justifiable pride we applauded the efforts of members of our own class who strengthened our four Varsity teams. Many of our athletic stars such as Bob Paganelli, Harry Glass, Frank Puleo, Joe Prieto, John Bartell, and Joe Long excelled in more than one of these. We were quite thrilled to learn that there was hidden talent of an entirely different nature also in our group. We discovered Gloria Circillo's beautiful voice and Kay Veneziano's dancing ability when the two girls starred in the 1954 Talent Show.

Taking their cue from the more experienced players, Carole Vuono and Norman Fost represented our cast in the Student Council elections in the spring. They won the roles of secretary and vice-president, respectively, for the next act, which was to begin after a summer vacation.

ACT III

As the curtain rose on Act III, we found bustling about more than a dozen who chose the players whom we wanted for this year: president, Joe Prieto; secretary, Perelli; and secretary-treasurer, Elsie Schneider. The exciting football season set a wonderful backdrop for a festive Christmas tree. After a winter in the efforts of a hard-working scene, our entire stage took on the appearance of a Christmas tree. After a winter in our theater and our first mid-winter business venture, a winter dance was achieved our purpose which was a very important occasion—The Junior changed briefly to the Militant gaiety, music, color, and dancing wonderful evening, it was difficult to write scripts. However, it was not until Council elections came around that as our cast's members took on the title role of president for the next year. Shaw, the first leading lady to years. Another player chosen for was Elsie Schneider, our new treasurer. The act was over, and as it came to a close, to two of our favorite stage managers, Mr. Grossman. When the curtain

SETTING: September, 1955

(Third floor)

Our cast assembled for the finale of our production with mixed emotions. We were glad to be so close to the final curtain, yet sorry the play was soon to end. Veteran actors by now, we quickly chose players for our starring roles. We selected Joe Prieto for president, Kay Veneziano for vice-president, and Carole Vuono for secretary-treasurer. Our cast's advisors this year were Mr. Miller and Mr. Smith. Football season was off to a promising start as our team, co-captained by seniors Bob Castelli and Bob Paganelli, romped to victory over East Orange. We were elated because this was the first time we had ever beaten that team. We suspected our good fortune on the football field was partly due to those lovely morale-builders, our senior twirlers and cheerleaders. Jean Bojczak, Carole Vuono, and Angela Anichiarico were among the prettiest majorettes ever to grace our stage; and vivacious Sally Kelly capably headed our hard-working cheering squad. To raise money for graduation we held two autumn dances — the Victory Dance and the Harvest Moon Ball. At this time a member of our troupe, Norman Fost, was portraying the role of editor of the Spotlight, our version of Variety. Our younger cast members could be seen hovering around the dressing room windows during this act, in preparation for the glamorous Monad pictures which our stars planned to autograph for their fans. In March we presented Time Out for Ginger, a hilarious comedy. Sally Kelly, Elaine Maffie, and Harry Glass made successful debuts as the stars of this production. A veteran director of one previous senior play at B. H. S., Mr. Kupferer outdid himself, as did the entire cast, in making the production a howling success. The Senior Prom, held at the Meadowbrook, marked the television debut of many of our players and a wonderful and exciting evening for all concerned. Having watched with pride the success of our production, three of our coaches felt their jobs here were completed. We were sorry future troops would have to do without the invaluable aid of these teachers, but we knew that Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Emick, and Mr. Hefferman would be happy and successful in their future undertakings. The last act was over and the final curtain fell. On a June evening, our cast took its last curtain call. The play had been a good one; it had run four years. Now, with wonderful experiences behind us, we felt prepared to go on to new and greater performances — our play was over, but we knew it would never be forgotten.

INHERIT THE WIND

*Can't think, brain numb,
Inspiration won't come;
Can't write, bum pen,
Best wishes, amen!*

When we, the members of the Class of '56, started to write our will, we found that this rhyme running through our heads was entirely appropriate to the occasion; we couldn't think, so we couldn't write!

As we were going to the Monad staff meeting we enlisted the aid of Connie Tobia, who was performing one of her Indian dances for Allie Hettling, Richie Ryer, and Mary Jane Ziemann. She explained that the dance was in honor of a young brave who had made his mark in the world.

Continuing on our trek, we found Herm Schlindwein busy inking the mimeograph machine in Mr. Schultz's class. On we went, to see the Tres Bons, a girls' basketball team, playing in the gym. Above the screaming we heard a lonesome wail coming from the direction of the music room where Carl Parzanese, Jerry Buccino, and Norm Fost were having a jam session while Gloria Ciricillo was practicing her scales nearby.

Then in the auditorium we heard the St. Louis Blues Mambo because Sandy Intermont was rehearsing her dance for the talent show; and Charlotte Wahnich, Elaine Plosa, and Nan VanDemark were dancing through their routine, The Three Little Fishes.

We spied Sally Kelly and Peggy McNish doing cartwheels in the middle of the hall and listened to Joe Prieto call a meeting of the Senior Senate to order. Then over the public address system came this announcement: "Will the writers of the Senior Class Will please hand in their assignment to the Monad advisor." When we heard this we sank to the size of Pete Alexander's kid brother, so we asked Sandy Shaw and Elsie Schneider, "What are we going to do?"

"We really don't know," they replied, "but we'll take it up at the next Student Council meeting."

We tried to find the incinerator outside Nurse McKenzie's door to crawl into, but we had to settle for a jump down the up-stairway. Just then John Yaman yelled, "Stop!" in Arabic. Nevertheless, we kept on going, taking Richie Hangge with us for moral support. As we descended, we caught sight of Ellison Pardun and Bob Brady in Miss Maffeo's history class. We asked them what they would like to leave the school and along with Dan Christian they shouted, "We're taking everything!"

Class Will

As we were scampering into Mrs. Emick's door, we heard a whistle in the street and rushed to see Jean Bojczak, Angela Annicharico, and Carole Vuono leading the twirlers in a new routine. Out in the hall we heard Elaine Maffie and Harry Glass giving some parental advice to the senior play cast.

We were really enjoying ourselves, but it was getting late and we still hadn't written anything. We told our problems to Gerry Merola and Marilyn Meyers, who said that they were just leaving the school as a bequest.

On we went, nothing in our heads, nothing on our paper. We asked Eleanor Faust and Beth Fellman whether they had any ideas. They looked in their messy notebooks, added a few chemistry formulas and some hints from home nursing, and came up with this idea: why not leave souvenirs.

John Wilson said he would leave Mrs. Snedeker a quiet homeroom. Joan Sweigart is leaving St. Peter's College bookcovers, and Carol Schwankert is leaving old letters from Ronnie. Kathy Ventura is leaving a bottle of ink eradicator for a bookkeeping class. John Bartell bequeaths a slightly used baseball and Joe Long decided to leave the same kind of basketball. Barry Shlissel told us he'll leave his die-hard rooting for someone else.

Joanne Russo donates a pair of battered white sneakers and a faded gym suit. Carol Miller and Alice Bauer want to give those nice winter mornings in Mr. Schultz's "cool" room.

Frank Puleo is willing to part with the number on his football uniform, and Sheila Sharkey is leaving third period chemistry class.

Midge Sloan is leaving her seat in seventh period study hall and Ray Kiernan told us he decided to forfeit his gorgeous '56 Ford. June Newsom is leaving her red hair, and Judy Cahill intends to bequeath a well-used fountain pen to a certain English class.

Barbara Amato and Betty Hahn plan to donate their white gym suits and money problems to some enterprising junior girls.

Therefore, being of unsound mind from final exams and broken body from the football games, we hereby bequeath all these worldly goods to the students we leave behind at Belleville High.

TIME OUT FOR GINGER

This year saw the newly organized Off-Washington Avenue Theater present an up-and-coming group—the Gingerpolitans. Previously unknown, these performers proved that stars are born overnight.

On March 23-24 the Senior Class presented Time Out for Ginger, a three-act comedy by Ronald Alexander. Centered around the Carol family and their frantic antics, this production was well-received by the critics.

TIME OUT FOR GINGER, an enjoyable evening . . . especially impressive were Harry Glass and Elaine Maffie as Mr. and Mrs. Carol. Their daughters, Pat Dinsdale, Sandy Intermont, and Sally Kelly, gave the best performances of their careers. You're sure to see these bright young stars O.N. Washington Avenue . . . terrific supporting cast: Elaine Plosa, Stanley Or-linsky, Fred Scheurman, Robert Assantes, and Joe Casale. The well-known producer-director-actor-teacher-etc., Mr. Bert Kupperer, surpassed himself this year, ably assisted by Gloria Cincello and Ann Monica . . . Realistic atmosphere was created in the form of a living room by Diehl-Henry & Committee . . . Behind-the-scenes crews, stage manager, make-up, publicity, and properties made TIME OUT FOR GINGER the hit of the season.

Senior Play

The art staff meets with Mr. Diehl in Room 117 to discuss work on the yearbook.

Monad

The Monad Staff is the special group of seniors who work hard all year assembling the book which pictorially and literarily tells the story of our four years in Belleville High School.

The entire staff had the privilege of selecting the theme and dedicating. The arrangement for the taking of pictures for the Monad was the responsibility of Elaine Plosa and Connie Tobias. The art staff was in the capable hands of Kathleen Ventura. Beth Fellman headed the theme committee.

Under the expert guidance of Miss Weidman and Mrs. Willis; our editor, Patricia Dinsdale; and associate editor, Betty Hahn—we have done our best to make this an informative and enjoyable yearbook.

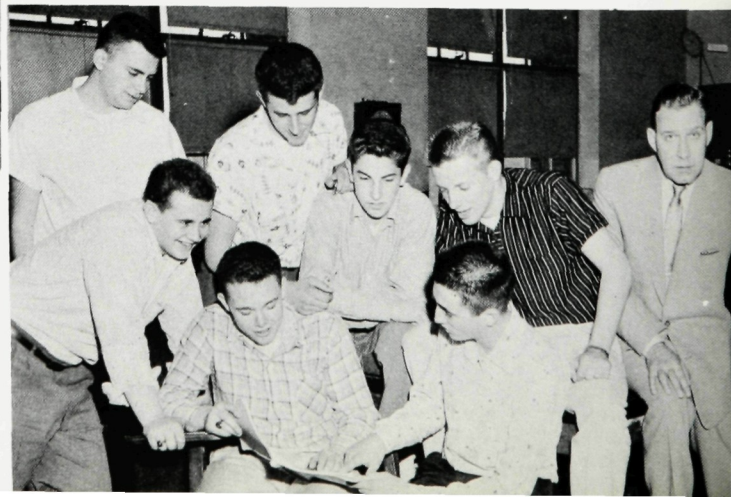

Editor Pat Dinsdale and Associate Editor Betty Hahn hold up their finished product.

Our business staff, under the direction of Mr. Schultz, has collected advertisements to finance the yearbook.

Our MONAD advisors, Miss Weidman and Mrs. Willis and our business advisor, Mr. Schultz, discuss picture layouts for the yearbook. Without these three people there would be no yearbook, so we all owe them a big vote of thanks.

This group is the Sophomore Senate led by their President Mike Ianelli, Vice-president Nick Cetrulo, and Secretary-treasurer June Loesner. The officers and the rest of the Senate have worked hard to plan the successful Sophomore Hop. Their advisor is Mr. Chiara.

STATE OF THE UNION

FRESHMAN SENATE

The Freshman Senate, under the guidance of Mr. Lees, was organized under the leadership of President Richard Foley, Vice-president Mary Ann Molinaro, Secretary Betty Jensen, and Treasurer Theresa Tobia. This group did an excellent job of planning and running the Christmas Dance.

Senior Senate

WE THE PEOPLE

SENIOR SENATE OFFICERS

A familiar face again this year was that of our president, Joe Prieto, who had also been president of the Junior Class. Katherine Veneziano and Carol Vuono were vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively. The three student officers proved to be diligent workers and effective leaders.

SENIOR ADVISORS

Our all-important senior activities were supervised by the following advisors: Mr. Albert Kupferer, Mr. Charles Shultz, Miss Alma Gray, Mr. Murray Wilcox, Miss Elsie Sandford, Mrs. Anne Snedeker, Mr. Raymond Smith, and Mr. Henry Miller.

SENIOR SENATE

This year the Senior Senate has been enlarged, and representatives were chosen from United States History IV classes. On the year's agenda were two dances, the Senior Play, the Rye Beach trip, graduation, and many other activities, directed by the Senate and sponsored by the Class of '56.

COMMAND DECISION

Student Council

The Student Council meets once a week to solve our school problems. With the funds from the Magazine Campaign Drive, it has helped to subsidize The Spotlight. It has sponsored the March of Dimes Drive and Community Chest. The Council has also purchased a tone box for the organ, a phonograph for the girls' gym, and popular records for noon-time dancing.

The whole school is careful to vote for competent officers every year at elections. This year's officers are Sandy Shaw, president; Peter Duca, vice-president; Pat Paganelli, secretary; and Elsie Schneider, treasurer.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS AND ADVISORS

The officers and advisors lead the Student Council. They are Mr. Leonard Marciano; Peter Duca, vice-president; Mr. W. Ralph Correll; Pat Paganelli, secretary; Sandy Shaw, president; and Elsie Schneider, treasurer.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The efficient and reliable Executive Committee is selected by student vote from the three upper classes.

STUDENT COUNCIL GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The General Assembly, the Student Council's main body, has been an especially active force in determining school policies.

This hard-working group of boys and girls practice early and long to provide entertainment during the intermission at our football games. But the end of the football season does not mean that this organization stops rehearsing or playing. It becomes a concert band, which livens up many of our assemblies. During the winter and spring season, the band goes on a tour of all the Belleville grammar schools and even ventures out as far as Trenton. When the band and Dr. Peck's choral groups join, they provide one of the gala events of the year, the Spring Concert.

Cheerleaders

BLITHE SPIRIT

Baker's Dozen

The Baker's Dozen is a vocal group consisting of thirteen girls and seven alternates. Under the direction of Dr. Samuel Peck, they give concerts at various grammar schools, for Parent-Teacher Associations, at hospitals, and during assembly programs.

STRIKE UP THE BAND

DIRECTOR OF DANCE BAND

We can well be proud of this Dance Band. Mr. Mattick and the boys put on excellent programs that sound almost professional.

DANCE BAND

Belleville is very fond and proud of Mr. Mattick. When the Dance Band and he get together in an assembly, things really happen.

The Belleville Five did well against the stiff competition in the newly-formed Big Ten Conference. In placing fifth, the team played exciting basketball, the highlight of the season being a one-point upset of a strong Bloomfield team. Influenced by early setbacks, Coach Herman "Jitty" Wische brought up three juniors and two sophomores from the J. V. Team. Don Klein, another sophomore, won a starting position along with veterans — Joe Long, John

This year's Junior Varsity, coached by Ray Smith, compiled a fine record during the season. Their aggressive, fast-moving style of play produced good results and many exciting games.

ON YOUR TOES

Bartell, Roger Weinstein, Joe Prieto, and Tom Cullen. Bartell and Captain Long, each averaging 17 points, led the team to the opening game in the Essex County Tournament, where we were defeated.

The Varsity Team consisted of Norman Fost, manager; Tom Candura, Ray Kimble, Tom Cullen, Roger Weinstein, Dom Klein, Nick Cetrulo, Joe Prieto, John Bartell, and Joe Long. Jimmy Mullen and Lou Long were absent when picture was taken.

FRESHMAN TEAM

The Freshman Team, coached by Austin MacArthur, posted an excellent record. The high point of the year was a victory over Garfield in which the team, spurred by Fred Riccio's 31 markers, scored over 70 points.

SEASON IN THE SUN

VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM

The Bellboys began the season with impressive victories. They had a rugged schedule of eighteen games and were a big threat in the Big Ten. Joe Long as shortstop, Joe Prieto on third, Richie Hange on first, Larry Remes on second, and Jim Landon catching were the "sparkplugs" of the infield. Tony Molinaro, Jim Apple, and "Happy" Menarguez took care of the outfield. These eight and the pitching staff are a team of which Belleville should be proud.

Robert Katz, Coaches Marciano and Berlinski, and Salvatore Longo form a huddle over a piece of equipment.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM

The Junior Varsity Team thus far is playing .500 percent baseball. They have won one and lost one game. They defeated Kearny 8-3 and lost to Nutley 13-0. Jim Dottoli started both games. Coach Marciano revealed that he will use as many men as possible in order to develop a good Varsity Team for next year. The Varsity will lose practically all their first string and therefore will have to rely on the present young recruits for next year.

A VIEW FROM THE BRIDGE

These boys comprise the two Varsity Crews for the 1956 season. In the back row are Joe Casale, Domenic Colonino, Alan Hilla, Bill Kinzing, Coxwain Bill Ellis, Richard Abbott, Jim Elting, Robert Lane, and Harry Glass. In the front are Nick Landolfi, Raymond Skoczylas, Coxwain Emil Ameo, David Boyd, and Ray Kiernan.

C R E W

Before the snow was off the ground, our Crew was at the Nereid Boat Club getting ready for another season. Belleville High is one of the two high schools in New Jersey that have a crew, and for this reason most of the meets are held out of the state and against freshman and varsity light-weight college crews.

The 1956 season started off with the Bellboys losing two close calls to Columbia University and Lower Merion at Ardmore. One of the features of the year is a trip to Cambridge, Mass., where they will row against M.I.T. and Harvard. The other big feature is the National School Boy Finals, which will be held in Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

It is an interesting sight to watch the timing when the Crew shoves off for a race.

Track

THE LAST MILE

This group, composed of new recruits, has shown interest, spirit, and willingness to work hard. The boys will have ten meets ending with the big State Tournament Booster, where one or two of the best athletes will participate. The outstanding boys are William Bartell in shot-put, Tom Candura in sprints, and Al Caccarelli in the 440 race.

Golf

SPRING FEVER

Our high school is proud of the Golf Team and its records. This year they will enter eight tournaments with the State Championship meet ending the season in June. This group includes Michael Gilroy, Frank Miele, Donald Morano, Thomas Jennings, Thomas Senior, Richard Lowack, and Coach Wische.

Bowling

MERRILY WE ROLL ALONG

Our Bowling Team this year consisted of Carmen Fortunato, Fred Scheurman, Dom Colanino, Eddie Devito, Lou Ianicelli, and Jerry Borello. Mr. George Lees is the coach. In the League Tournament Carmen Fortunato won the singles award, Carmen Fortunato and Fred Scheurman won the doubles award, and the team won the five-man team event.

FROSH-SOPH CHAMPS

Champs of the Freshman-Sophomore Girls' Basketball League were the Zealots, an energetic and hard-playing sophomore team.

Girls' Sports

BLOOMER GIRLS

JR.-SR. CHAMPS

The Tres Bons walked off with top honors in the Junior-Senior League, proving once again that a senior team usually plays a superior game of basketball.

LEADERS' CLUB

The most distinguished "Bloomer Girls" in high school are those sports-minded lasses who are members of the Leaders' Club. Easily discerned in their white gym suits, these girls participate in girls' sports, officiate, and strive for good grades to earn points to get into this club. This year Barbara Amato presided over the group along with Betty Hahn as veep, Carol Miller as secretary, and Nancy Van Demark as treasurer. Miss Thomson and Miss Forgeron are the advisors.
