“Individuality . . .

Is the Salt of Common Life. You May Have To Live in a Crowd, but You Do Not Have To Live Like
It, nor Subsist on Its Food.”

A Moment of Thought, a Cheering
Voice, a Trumpet
Sound.

How Many Things a Person Can Do To Be Recognized!

Society Is Made of
Many Men, Each One Pursuing His Own Destiny. How He Does This
Distinguishes Him from Everyone Else.

Work To Be an Individual. More Important, Take Time Out to Enjoy It, for a Man with a Sense of Humor Need Never Worry About Being Lost in a Crowd.

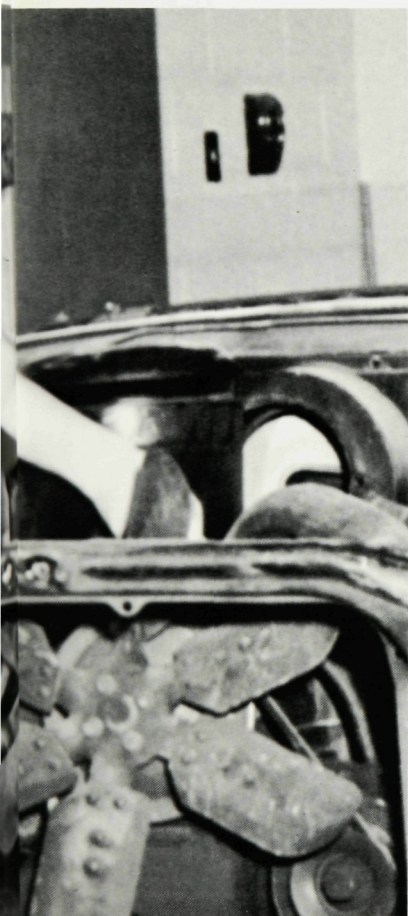

Education Is All Important, but It's the How, the When, the Where, and the Why That Make It Interesting.

Many Think That To Be an Individual Is To Be Alone.
Yet, It Is This Quality That
Most Often Brings Him
Closer to Others.

Bob Fersch, Manager

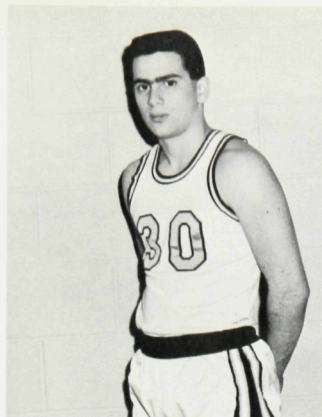

Mr. LoBalbo, Coach

After 12 wins in the season, the Bellboys went on to the Essex County Tournament to play St. Benedict's. They were defeated by a score of 48-51. Next came the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association. Bloomfield was the first game and fell before the Bellboys 50-42. East Orange, won the last game, by a score of 43-59. Belleville's basketball players went on to higher acclaim as individuals.

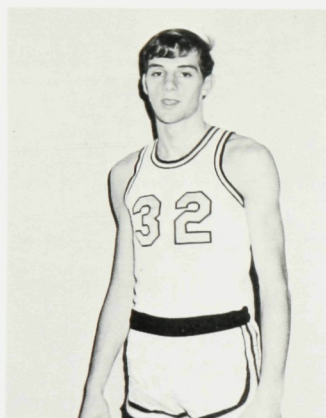

Ken Fullmore
Forward

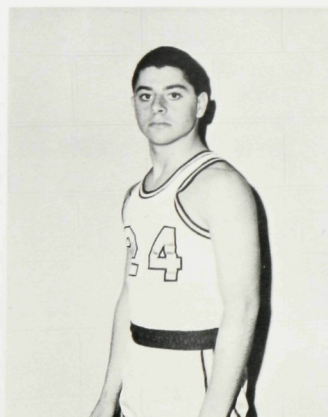

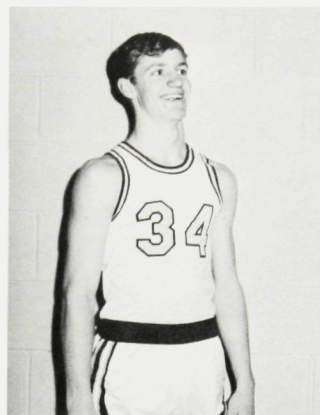

Richard Pucciarello, our guard, made the first team of the Big Ten Conference, second team of the Daily News, scored 410 points this season, breaking the school record, and tied in the individual game scoring record — 36 points as Domineck Klein did in 1957. Credit is given where credit is due —
