THANKSGIVING

The Quill

This is usually the time of the year to set aside time "to give Thanks" --- to take awhile to "count your blessings" --- or to take a day off "to thank God for our abundance".

And so it should be.

But somehow --- Thanksgiving has become a rather passive holiday in the American culture. We tend to "sit back" and survey the many comforts and benefits and advantages we have now. We're glad to call to mind our cultural and political and economic freedoms. We're thankful for them.

And well we should be.

But something seems to have been lost in the traditional re-telling of the Thanksgiving story. The all-too-familiar rendition of the Pilgrims' landing at Plymouth Rock, establishing new homes, and harvesting their first crops is important to our way of life. We're proud that they set aside a day to give thanks to God for their success in this new land.

But it's now quite as simple as that. Not quite as easy.

In remembering the success and satisfaction of Thanksgiving Day --- let's not forget what went on before that. Let's not forget the downright hard work that made the feast of appreciation possible.

Those Pilgrims had a pretty big job ahead of them when they landed in that strange wilderness. Most of them had left their homeland, not so much for financial gain or adventure, but because they believed in an ideal --- a principle.

And they had little else.

Little money ... rocky soil ... food running out ... hardly even huts to live in ... and Indians who were not only war-like --- but with whom they couldn't even talk.

You can be sure those Pilgrims weren't thinking about "counting their blessings".

They were religious people --- who knew well how much they depended on God. But "God helps those who help themselves." And they set right out to help themselves. And they set right out to help themselves.

There's a saying, probably older than the story of the Pilgrims, that you should "Pray as if everything depended on God --- and work as if everything depended on you."

And that's especially true these days. If we are to take a lesson from the story of Thanksgiving Day --- let us remember that our blessings depend in large measure on what we do with what we have. In these days of instant food, power-steering and automation --- we sometimes forget that we have to work for what we want. Those Pilgrims put in months of dawn to dusk work, met disappointments with added determination, and sacrificed everything they had for what they believed in. They worked hard - so there was a lot to be thankful for.

There's a lot to be thankful for this year, too.

But there's much more to be accomplished. Our country has never before enjoyed the prosperity we see all around us. But the pockets of poverty still exist. Few nations have experienced the freedoms we enjoy. But it's still hard for a colored man to vote in Alabama. Our cities have grown to immense proportions --- but there's still a lot of work to be done right here in town.

When we bow our heads to express our appreciation this Thanksgiving --- let's remember that the tone of our prayers a year from now will only reflect what we've done in the meantime.

Mildred Terrace Back To School Night Observed

The PTA of the new Mildred Terrace School in Clark held its second meeting in the new building on November 16. Mrs. Manuel Dios, president of the organization, presided. The theme for the evening was "Back to School Night" for the sixth and seventh grades and featured meetings with the teachers, as the parents went from room to room following their child's daily program schedule.

Mrs. Michael Angelo, ways and means chairman, called attention to the Science Fair on display in the school library, which had a two-fold purpose. It was, she said, designed to stimulate children's interest in the sciences, as well as to raise funds for the PTA. Parents also had the opportunity to tour the excellent facilities of the new school and meet the Principal, Mr. Philip Foster.

$18,000 Promised Clark By The United Fund Of Eastern Union County

The United Fund of Eastern Union County has set aside $18,000 from its reserve fund to assist individual agencies serving Clark which agree to discontinue individual campaigns and join in one fund drive.

"We want to make sure that agencies which agree to join in combined campaigning are assured of the money needed to continue proper service to Clark residents in the period before a general drive can be launched," Charles H. Armstrong, Fund president, asserted.

The action taken by the Fund board of directors was a followup of action taken by the Clark Township governing body to permit a general campaign by the Eastern Union County Fund.

"In view of the time element," Mr. Armstrong said, "no general solicitation among residents, business and professional people and industrial employees is anticipated until next year.

"In the meantime, the individual agencies which might otherwise have conducted spring drives of their own, but now are joining in the United Fund, need a guarantee of financial backing to continue their work."

Inclusion of Clark in the Eastern Union County Fund area culminated several years of discussion. Elizabeth, Hillside, Linden, Roselle and Roselle Park previously have been the participating communities.

Major advantages to Clark, it was pointed out, are manifold. One is the elimination of many individual drives which are annoying to givers and time-consuming for volunteer solicitors.

Another is the advantage of centralized budgeting by a committee representing a cross-section of citizens of the area who judge over-all needs and allocate funds accordingly.

There also will be the opportunity for more Clark people to serve on the board of directors, the budget committee and the Social Planning Committee, which studies over-all socio-economic problems of the member communities.

A major effort toward inclusion of Clark within the E.U.C. Fund has been made by Charles A. Walano, a Clark resident and businessman, who is a leader in the Machinists Union, a vice president of the United Fund and a former general campaign chairman.

Mr. Armstrong pointed out that the advance to Clark agencies from reserves will not be detrimental to the agencies in the former five-community Fund area.

"The money that is advanced," he pointed out, "will be made up when corporate and general solicitations get underway. In the meantime, Clark and the agencies serving it will be assured of sufficient financing."

Mr. Armstrong said that the $18,000 guarantee figure is based on an estimate of the amounts previously raised in individual drives by the agencies which probably will become part of the Fund.

The Clark team will face Caldwell High School on Friday, November 25, at 11 a.m. at the Livingston Memorial Field.

Clark State Bank Dividend Higher

The board of directors of the Clark State Bank has voted a 20-cent dividend for the second half of 1966. It was announced this week by Board Chairman Cuddie E. Davidson. The dividend will be paid on December 15 to stockholders of record as of November 20.

The dividend which is 33 1/3 percent higher than the 15 cents per-share paid for the first half of this year, continues the uninterrupted dividend records maintained by the Clark State Bank since its opening in June, 1960.

Davidson said the increased dividend was a reflection of the "significant success experienced by the bank during the past year." He observed that the bank had "prospered despite adverse developments on the national banking scene."

Clark Boy Appears In G.M. Copy

Robert Wojciak, senior student at Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School and son of Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Wojciak, 59 Winthrop Road, is receiving a great deal of visibility this month, the reason being he's appearing in a General Motors advertisement that highlights the use of ultrasonics by GM's New Departure-Hyatt Bearings Division at Harrison.

The full-page ad which explains how New Departure Hyatt engineers apply ultrasonics in the inspection of steel, from raw materials to finished parts, is being brought to the attention of some 10 million junior and senior high school students through the circulation of seven magazines. It is one of a series of institutional messages to teenagers emphasizing M's continuing efforts to assure top product quality.

The institutional ad concerning New Departure-Hyatt's technical know-how was initiated several weeks ago when the local high school senior was at the Harrison plant discussing metallurgy with the GM Division's chief metallurgist John Erickson, and William W. Bayer, senior project engineer. Pictured in the advertisement is Robert, observing ultrasonic equipment, while listening to Mr. Bayer describe its operation.

Besides interesting information about the use of ultrasonics in checking steel for bearings, the ad contains some interesting facts relating to Bob's school activities and what he plans to take up in the field of higher education.

The millions of readers are informed that Bob is a member of three bands in which he plays both clarinet and the saxophone. Mention is made that, when it comes to studies, his favorite subjects are mathematics and the physical sciences, that his ambition points to a career in science. He plans to enroll at Rutgers University next September.

The advertisement appears in the following magazines: Boys' Life, National 4 - H News, NEA Journal, Scientific Magazine (junior and senior editions), Scientific Roto, Science Teacher and the Young Catholic Messenger.

16 Clark-Rahway "Cold War Bill" Students At UJC

Sixteen Rahway area residents are among 133 students attending Union Junior College this semester under provisions of the so-called "Cold War G.I. Bill." It was announced today by Miss Dorothea Wiersma, registrar.

Under the measure signed by President Lyndon B. Johnson on March 3, honorably discharged veterans with more than 180 days active military service since January 31, 1955, are eligible for educational, housing and other benefits. The new law amounts to an extension of the World War II and Korean War benefits, but on a reduced scale.

Miss Wiersma said the total includes 55 in the Day Session as fulltime students, and 79 parttime students in the Evening Session.

The Veterans Administration reported recently it mailed out 210,000 benefit checks in October, and had 35,000 applications still to process. Officials said they expect the figure to level off at about 240,000 this academic year, but could zoom upward if the Vietnam War were to be settled.

Miss Wiersma attributed the large number of veterans attending Union Junior College to a policy adopted by the faculty and administration to permit servicemen returning to civilian status to file applications even though the deadline had passed for all other applicants.

Rahway area residents who are among 133 students attending UJC under provisions of the so-called "Cold War G.I. Bill" are: Rahway-Richard H. Davis of 604 West Inman Avenue, Donald B. Falkenberg of 399B West Hazelwood Avenue, William R. Mackey of 49 West Hazelwood Avenue, John M. Mulhall of 485 Seminary Avenue, Nicholas J. Rinaldi of 1286 St. Georges Avenue, George D. Way of 1146 Fulton Street, and Frederick Yorke, III, of 967 Jacques Avenue. Also, Clark - Gerald W. Roessle of 101 Hart Street, and Donatas Verneckas of 4 Oak Street; Avenel-James J. Kozo, III, of 280 Prospect Avenue, and William Shackelford of 1 Woodbine Avenue; Colonia-James V. Annuziata of 170 Midfield Road, Paul D. Lisowski of 101 Elmont Place, and Anthony J. Sfarra of 14 Rahway Avenue, and Iselin-Thomas Kurzwski of 842 Green Street, and Joseph A. Frandano of 72 Woodbridge Avenue.

$450 MILLION NEEDED
State Health Commissioner Dr. Roscoe P. Kandle says New Jersey must spend about $450 million in the next six years to build the kind of sewerage systems needed to clean up water pollution.

Rahway Public Schools Offer Expanded Program In Science

Your past, your present and your future have been and will be effected by the changes that occur in our scientific technology. From the medicines which free us from disease to the modern vehicles which have brought the world into our living rooms, the creativity of the minds of human beings, minds like those of your children, are responsible for this great change. In examining the changes in science during the last twenty years it is hard to imagine what the immediate future holds for us!

Your sons and daughters are being given an opportunity in the Rahway Public Schools to take an active part in preparing themselves to make a positive contribution to the future of mankind. All students in grades 7-9 study science. In grades 10-12 they have the freedom to elect their science courses. Science courses your children can study in grades 7-12 are: General Science, Earth Science, Biology, Chemistry, Physical Science, Physics, Biology II and Chemistry II.

Your Rahway Junior and Senior High School science facilities are modern, up-to-date, specifically designed for our science courses, and rated among the best in the state.

We have a science staff composed of fifteen capable teachers. These men are constantly working as a team carefully developing new spirals of scientific knowledge which will challenge the interest and develop an understanding in the minds of your children.

The science department is headed by Alex A. Busse, Jr. He is responsible for the continued improvement of the science departments, its program and the instructional techniques of the teachers.

The New Jersey Science Teachers Association recently recommended that high school science classes should be laboratory centered and incorporate a double laboratory period. This has been in effect for more than 10 years in Rahway High School.

Our science courses are laboratory centered. Students learn by actively participating in laboratory investigations. The program is further enhanced by teacher and student demonstrations.

If we cannot afford certain elaborate science experiences, we accomplish these needs by utilizing field trips to university, industrial and governmental research centers. We use modern science films designed for modern science programs and in effect we attempt to bring the world and the universe into our classrooms.

Opportunities for acceleration in the field of sciences are available for any student who is willing to work and show a degree of interest and success by his active participation in our science classes.

It is the hope that through our science program we can contribute to the development of more scientific and literate future citizens and that we can provide a foundation for the future vocations of the young people of our community.

Scout Programs
For Retarded
Are Successful

The New Jersey Association for Retarded Children, represented by Mrs. David Harrington, Vice President, commemorating National Retarded Children's Week, presented Steve Cymbaluk and Raymond Van Jaekel, of the Cranford Elks, with an award for their outstanding work in scouting.

Cub Scout Pack 206 is a pilot project and a new concept in scouting since it is the first pack set up in the United States exclusively for educable retarded and physically handicapped boys.

Since its beginning three years ago, there have been 13 more packs started across the country.

The pack meets at the Cranford Elks Building, 951 Lincoln Avenue every Saturday morning. Under the patient and skillful leadership of these men, the boys have developed skills, mature attitudes, self confidence and a spirit of fellowship.

In a short time, five of the boys will have completed their cub scout work and will advance into a new boy scout troop to be formed.

It's More Dangerous To Drive At Night

With winter almost upon us, George G. Traver, Executive Vice President of the New Jersey State Safety Council, cautions motorists that more fatal traffic accidents occur during the hours of darkness than during the daylight hours.

"Darkness calls for a special type of driving," Traver points out. "The most important requirements are increased alertness, better control of the car and reduction of speed."

Mr. Traver recommends that motorists follow these recommendations of the National Safety Council:

Pull into traffic more cautiously than in daytime. Not only do you see less at night, but other drivers have more difficulty seeing you. Pass with extra care. Be sure you have enough passing room. Remember you can't see as far ahead at night. Never trust your judgement in estimating the speed of an approaching vehicle by its headlights.

Rotman To Address

Do you think only so-called "juvenile delinquents" need guidance and professional assistance while in school? Not so, says the guest speaker for the Colonia chapter of the B'nai B'rith. Preventive guidance is an important factor in youth development.

On November 30 at School #17 in Colonia, members and guests of the Sinai Chapter will have the pleasure of hearing a talk on "The Importance of Guidance for our Youth Today" by Dr. Bertram T. Rotman, Regional Director of B'nai B'rith Vocational Service for Northern New Jersey Council.

Dr. Rotman received his PHD cum laude in Clinical Psychology from the University of Ottawa in Canada. He was employed as a staff psychologist for the Veteran's Administration at their psychiatric hospital in Bedford, Mass. and was acting director for the B'nai B'rith Vocational Service of Eastern Canada.

Sinai Chapter has helped the Vocational Departments of several of the Woodbridge Schools by presenting them with a Vocational Service Kit. These kits have now been placed in the Woodbridge Senior High School, John F. Kennedy Senior High School and the Colonia Junior High School.

The meeting will begin at 8:15 p.m. Everyone is welcome. Refreshments will be served.

Thanksgiving Dinner
Feast or Fattener?

That Thanksgiving turkey dinner you're contemplating during this week may well be as dangerous as a loaded gun--aimed at your heart--Dr. Harold Wasserman, president of the Union County Heart Association warned this week.

"The better food looks, smells and tastes, the more you're tempted to overeat," the Westfield physician declared. "If a heaping plate loaded with stuffed turkey basking in a pool of rich gravy, cuddling up to a mound of candied sweets and surrounded by a dozen hot buttered biscuits isn't there, you aren't going to eat it. But let a well-meaning wife or hostess mount such a production for your benefit and you're helpless."

Once a year won't hurt you, of course. It's the long-running repeat performances, three times a day, every day, that add menacing pounds to the other burdens we carry, Wasserman points out.

Let's take that Thanksgiving menu, for a starter. Turkey is fine for a main course (duck or goose are too fat.) But try baking it with consommé instead of fat. And the Heart Association suggests using fat-free bouillon to moisten the stuffing.

Try acorn or butternut squash instead of candied sweet potatoes. Baked with a light glaze of brown sugar and cinnamon, they're in the holiday spirit at half the price in calories, the Union County Heart Association reports.

Mushrooms, which are low in calories, can add glamorous as well as savor to the main course. Toss the salad with lemon juice or low-calorie dressings spiked with herbs. And for the sweet touch to top off the feast, there is a variety of fruit or whipped gelatin desserts to take the place of rich pie or pastry.

One basic rule for this and every meal you serve, be it for two or a crowd: don't push seconds. Moderate portions will help keep the calories down.

Other basic principles the Union County Heart Association urges you to keep in mind for family meals the year round are:

Eating patterns are established in early childhood. The meals you serve can set your children on the road to good health and longer life.

Calorie cutting begins at the supermarket. Buy only lean cuts of meat (avoid fatty prime steaks and ribs); plan more meals around fish and poultry.

Back in the kitchen, your cooking methods should be calorie- and cholesterol-conscious. Use skim milk in recipes calling for milk; broil, rather than fry or saute; use poly-unsaturated cooking oil and special margarines wherever possible. Prepare soups and stews a day ahead, and refrigerate; skim the congealed fat from the top before heating and serving the next day.

And if, at the same time, you can promote a program of greater physical activity, you and your family will really have something to be thankful about when the holiday season rolls around next year: good health and good looks.

T.J. McLaughlin

President Thomas J. McLaughlin was installed for his fifth term as head of Union Council #8, N.J.C.S.A., at a double ceremony featured by presentation of the proudly won membership recruitment plaque donated by Samuel Sachs for the greater increase in membership throughout the state this past year.

Other officers installed were: James Farley, Berkeley Heights, first vice president; Frank Church, Rahway, second vice president; Louis Garay, Sr., Rahway, third vice president; Mrs. Edna M. Blankley, Rahway, Recording Secretary; William Muller, Rahway, Financial Secretary; Mrs.

Mable Holland, Elizabeth, Treasurer; Bennie Brown, Linden, Sergeant-at-arms; Trustees, Arnold D'Ambrasa, Rahway; Frank Le Munyon, Linden and Patricia McGann, Elizabeth.

President McLaughlin assured all members employed at the John E. Rannels Hospital that the contemplated layoffs at that institution were taken under advisement by the Board of Trustees and would be thoroughly investigated and scrutinized under Rule 57 of the Civil Service Department.

A social hour and refreshments followed the meeting. Mrs. Kathleen Aagaard of Rahway, served as public relations officer.

"MAN AND HIS WORLD"

True to the traditions of world exhibitions, Expo 67 carries a theme that tests the ingenuity and stimulates the intelligence of the participants. The pavilions and special events at Expo 67 will portray "Man and His World," a theme drawn from the works of the French writer and aviator, Antoine de Saint-Exupery.

In his book "Wind, Sand and Stars" ("Terre des Hommes"), Saint-Exupery said: "To be a man is to feel that through one's own contribution, one helps to build the world."

Expo 67's central theme will be expressed through five major sub-themes depicting man as creator, explorer, producer, provider, and member of the community.

Piper Project Launched By Girl Scouts

The Piper Project was launched in Crossroads Girl Scout Council at their dinner meeting by Fred Todd of the National Staff who introduced "Come Follow The Piper," a song he composed for the project. He was assisted by Cadette troop 406, Neighborhood 8, under the leadership of William Dunkin, Edison. The troop then introduced a song composed by Mr. Dunkin, "The Hand of Friendship."

In reporting on the National Council meeting held in Detroit in October, Mrs. Jack M. Brown, Council president, said that Debbie Reynolds, acting in her capacity of Head Piper led off the three year project by singing Mr. Todd's song. The project, a nationwide effort to extend membership in Girl Scouting to more girls and adults, is allied with the new triennial theme, "Values to Hold-Worlds to Explore."

Also on the program was a reported by Senior Scout Lynn Weber, Metuchen troop 181, who attended the Conference on the Home which was conducted at Purdue University in July. Lynn reported that through individual and group assignments, the Seniors learned that material things alone don't make a home; morals, values, and family relationships must be considered.

Tenure awards were presented to Mrs. Charles E. Camman, Rahway for 25 years service; Mrs. Charley Elder and Mrs. Eileen Grant, Edison, 20 years; Miss Margaret Guellich, Colonia, Miss Elsie Koch, Iselin, and Mrs. Joseph Frantz, Woodbridge, 15 years. Recognitions went to Wesley Edgar, Woodbridge, for his assistance in the Sustaining Membership drive; Mrs. George Mitchell of the Elizabethtown Gas Company for her Brownie cookbook and for conducting cooking lessons; Mrs. Max A. Weil, Metuchen Welcome Wagon, for her help in recruitment. Also Woodbridge Rotary Club and Edison Township Lions Club for camperships, and Dr. Walter Nelson of Metuchen, member of the board of directors, for his many years of devoted service.

151 voting delegates were present. The major revision to the By-laws was the change in month of the Annual Council Assembly meeting from January to April. The change automatically extends the term of office of the present officers, board, and board committees to April.

Thanksgiving Assembly Held At Rahway High

Holiday Turkey - French Style

French-born Edmond Gass, chef of the famed Indianapolis King Cole Restaurant and winner of many international culinary arts awards, says holiday turkeys should be prepared in blue enameled roasters to reduce oven time. Silver colored roasters, the celebrated chef points out, reflect rather than absorb heat and require up to 25 per cent longer roasting time.

Chef Gass, shown here with a Columbian Roaster, manufactured in Tulle Haute, Ind., gives his recipe for a French-style holiday turkey:

DRESSING
4 pounds white bread
2 1/2 cups chopped onion
4 cups chopped celery
1/2 cup chopped parsley
1/2 pound chopped chicken livers
6 fresh eggs
3 oz. bourbon whiskey Pinch of each sage and basil
Salt and pepper to taste

Soak and squeeze out bread. Sauté chopped onions, add with all other ingredients to bread. Mix well. Stuff 18 lb. turkey and brush with peanut oil. Roast in covered enamel roaster in moderate oven (350°) for 3 1/2 hours. Serves 8.

SUPREME SAUCE
4 oz. butter
5 oz. flour
3 1/2 pounds white chicken poultry stock
4 cups fresh cream
5 raw egg yolks

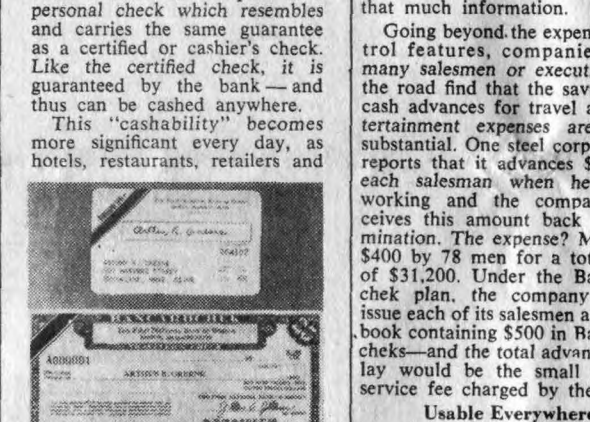

Mix butter and flour and add to hot chicken stock. Season with salt and white pepper. Cook slowly for 35 minutes, reducing to desired thickness. Immediately before serving, mix in cream and raw egg yolks. Serve in gravy boat with carved turkey that has been garnished with cornbread, fresh cranberries and celery hearts.

The Check That Cannot Bounce

In line with this trend is an ingenious new means of exchange —described as being "good as gold"—that's recently been introduced by leading banks throughout the country. Called Bancard-check, this new wampum combines the advantages of a guaranteed personal check with an overdraft loan privilege. It's the check that cannot bounce—even though your checking account may be temporarily short.

Bancardchecks are being offered as a new service by more than 100 major commercial banks throughout the United States. The basic element of the plan is a personal check which resembles and carries the same guarantee as a certified or cashier's check.
Like the certified check, it is guaranteed by the bank—and thus can be cashed anywhere.

This "cashability" becomes most significant every day, as hotels, restaurants, retailers and other merchants are becoming increasingly hesitant about accepting ordinary personal checks. And they have good reason to be wary
—their losses on bad checks were more than $1 billion last year
alone.

New Bancardcheck and ID card provide "instant cash" for user.

other merchants are becoming increasingly hesitant about accepting ordinary personal checks. And they have good reason to be wary
—their losses on bad checks were more than $1 billion last year
alone.

Issued in Books

The new bank guaranteed checks are issued to customers in books containing $500 worth of checks, in $25, $50 or $100 denominations as selected by the customer. Yet, unlike conventional travelers checks, Bancardchecks can be filled out for the exact amount of the purchase or bill—up to the maximum imprinted on the check. For instance, if your dinner check is $14.50 and you're going to use a $25 denomination Bancardcheck, you can fill it in for $14.50—and that's all your account will be charged. If you want a little extra cash, you can fill it in for the full $25. The choice is yours —because Bancardchecks cost nothing until used, unlike travelers checks which must be paid for in advance along with a percent fee.

The Bancardcheck user simply fills in the amount on the check, makes any necessary notation for personal record-keeping or tax purposes and presents it with his Bancardcheck identification card.
Even if the customer doesn't have enough cash in his account, the bank automatically covers the check.

After they have been cashed, the Bancardchecks are returned to the customer with his regular checking account statement.
If the customer had the funds in his account at the time he cashed the Bancardcheck, then he pays only a few cents for each check written. But if he was caught short a few days before payday, then the bank lists the interest charges for his "loan" on the statement.

The old question—"How much cash should you carry?"—has a new answer now. With Bancardchecks, you can stuff $500 in "instant cash" in your wallet—even if your account shows only $16.37. So if you run into a great bargain when your cash flow has frozen, a Bancardcheck comes in handy. Many people, of course, just don't like to carry a lot of cash around with them—some of the world's wealthiest people are noted for traveling around with just a pocketful of change. Most of us, however, can't rely on being recognized everywhere we go so we need to have something crisper than change in our pockets. Since Bancardchecks can't be cashed without the accompanying identification card, which carries the customer's signature, they're also safer than money.

Built-In Record
In addition to individual customers, Bancardcheck's unique combination of advantages have special appeal to corporations and Richard Gritschke, of the Recreation department announced today that girls in the 7, 8, 9th grades that wish to play basketball this winter should report to junior high school next Thursday night at 7:00 p.m. An instruction period as well as games will be held every week. The opening night's program will include registration, game fundamentals, rules interpretation and informal play. Girls should bring sneakers and wear clothing suitable for playing. A boys basketball league for 10-11-12 grade students will be held at the Quinn & Boden Gym. All interested should report next Monday evening at 7:00 p.m. Bring basketball equipment.

The final week of the high school football play comes to a close today. Moving into the final day, we have a season record of 82 of 103, following last Saturday 3 of 4, the tie at Westfield threw us for a loss. So here we go for our Turkey day selections:

SPRINGFIELD AT RAHWAY
The Indians should close their season with a close win, the heavy Rahway line should over power the winless Bulldogs, 12-6.

SCOTCH PLAINS AT CLARK
The Crusaders have the speed and the passing attack to nip the Raiders. This will be a good exciting game, we like the home team 14-6.

BERKELEY HEIGHTS AT WATCHUNG HILLS

Two good teams, we like the Highlanders, with Bruce Corcoran, because Watchung Hills Dick Schneider is out with a broken leg. Berkeley 13-7.

CHATHAM BORO at SUMMIT
The Gladiators from Chatham Boro too strong for Summit, score 12-0.

CRANFORD AT THOMAS JEFFERSON
We will pick the underdogs from Cranford by 14-7, this game could either way.

DUNELLEN AT DENILWORTH
The Bears to close their first season with a win-7-0.

LINDEN AT UNION
The Farmers have all the tools to win over the toothless Tigers - 19-7.

ROSELLE PARK AT ROSELLE
The Rams, with their best team in years to win 19-6.

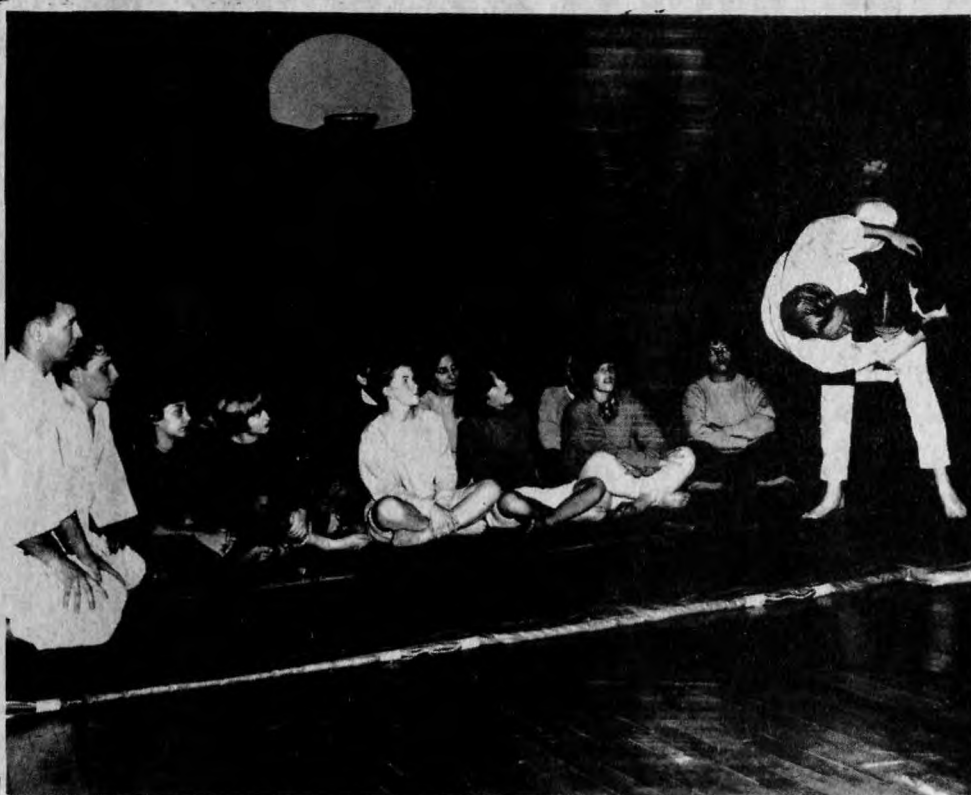

WESTFIELD AT PLAINFIELD
The best game of the day, we are going out on the limb and pick the Cardinals 14-7.

WEEQUAHIC AT HILLSIDE
Two teams with poor records, but neighborhood rivals, we will take the Comets on a guess. 7-6.

p.m. The main speaker will be the popular wrestling coach at Roselle Park, Pugie Williams. Tickets for the general public will be on sale at the school starting at 5:30 p.m. or may be purchased in advance from members of the committee.

Congratulations are in order to the head coaches and their staff at the Rahway Junior High School, and the Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School. They are Nick Delmonaco and Bob Polhemus at Rahway where the team won 6 and lost 1, while at Clark Bob Gundaker and Bob Nadasky had an undefeated season of 7-0.

The varsity sports schedules of Rahway High and Arthur L. Johnson Regional High will be announced in next weeks News-Record.

Judo students demonstrate before their classmates. This snap shows a young lady, slightly over five feet tall warding off the efforts of a 6 ft. 3 inch young man to molest her before the Rahway "Y" ladies Judo Class. Seated on extreme left, observing the action is James V. Marquis, instructor and holder of the Brown Belt Rating, second only to the Black Belt Rating in Judo mastery.

Open House Saturday At Y.M.C.A.

An extensive evening of activity has been planned by the Physical Department Committee of the Rahway Y.M.C.A. for this Saturday evening, featuring Jay Mazzone, bat boy of the Baltimore Orioles, special features in the gym, the pool, the bowling alleys and other parts of the "Y" building. Among the features of the evening will be a Judo demonstration in the gym, by Jim Marquis, instructor and some of his Rahway Judo students. The Judo program has been conducted for more than a year by Marquis, who holds a Brown Belt Rating. Both Men's and Women's classes take place every week. Other phases of the gym program will include weightlifting by some of the winners in the recent Weightlifting competition at the Passaic-Clifton Y.M.C.A., held last Saturday. The first event will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Following this phase of the program, Jay Mazzone will be introduced and there will follow Jay's demonstration a discussion by Rev. Richard Streeter, Master of Ceremonies for the evening, with Edward L. Rickes, President of the Rahway "Y" and Mr. Mazzone telling of ways

Little Crusaders Close Undefeated Football Season

Bob Gundaker, former Susquehanna University football great, piloted the Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School freshmen football squad to an undefeated season with a 7-0 record. Coach Gundaker was assisted by Bob Nadasky of Seton Hall University.

The team won seven straight games, scoring 146 points for an average of 20.8 per game while the defensive team allowed only 31 points for an average of 4.4 per game.

The team featured a strong running game with emphasis upon sound blocking and ball handing in order to control the ball. The team consistently dominated the game by making many third down plays.

Some of the outstanding performers of the team were George Scott a strong power runner with good speed. He was a key to the offense, scoring 11 touchdowns in the seven games.

Mike Markovic was a consistent performer, who caught some key passes for first downs.

Gary Smolyn, a quarterback was a fine ball handler, who ran the team well and completed 9 of 15 passes in crucial third down situations. He passed for one touchdown and returned a punt for 75 yards.

The team had a quick and hard hitting offensive line lead by Richard Carpini and Steve Strakele who played the middle guard position, while Bill Lesko was a standout at the tackle position with flanker Mike Nisky.

The defensive team showed repeatedly the ability to stop the opponents and force them to surrender the ball. The defensive team provided the defense excellent field position. Other outstanding players were: George Scott, a linebacker, Bob Bauer, a cornerback, Jim Perry at Safety; Ken Foster, who intercepted two passes against Rahway; Dennis O'Sullivan at tackle; Bob Wilds and Mike Nisky at end.

Some of the other boys that the coaching staff feel have done a good job for the club were: Bob Mikita, Frank Schleiner, Ray Hassler, Jeff Gulick, Tom Best, Matt Metz, Lou Nyitray, Joe Guzzo and Rich Medway.

Springfield Regional Closes Indian Season On Thanksgiving Day

The Rahway Indians who have had an in and out season will clash with an equally indifferent Jonathan Dayton Regional High School eleven this morning at Veterans Field in the 30th annual Turkey Day classic. Game time has been set for eleven o'clock.

Eighteen Rahway seniors will be playing their final game for the Red and Black, including Gary Erick, Joe Anderson, Steve Randolph, Marcel Miles, Elbert Alston, Sam Bowers, Ted Gianechini, John Stankevics, Fred Soper, Jim Wilder, Ed Taylor, Larry Bodine, James Heller, Bruce Jenkins, Todd Brown, Craig Jenkins, Lester Danchetz and Enrique Giordano.

The Bulldogs come to town with a record of eight straight losses. The team is composed mostly of sophomores and juniors, led by Bob Gartlain at quarterback, a good passer with plenty of speed. It appears that the Rahway line will have to key on three sophomores, Lee Rothfeld, Steve Jupa and Ralph Lessano. The Bulldogs have two good ends in Richard Brombert and Tom Brownlie.

The last two Turkey Day games between these ancient rivals have ended in 6-6 ties. Rahway won in 1963 by the score of 19-13, while Regional won in 1962 by a 32-6 score.

The highest score made in the series was 61 points by Rahway in 1958. The highest point total for Regional was 38 in the 1947 game.

The Redskin Marching Band will open the program at 10:45 and will perform between the halves. Gates will open at 9:30 a.m. A crowd of 2,000 fans is expected to see the game.

Magicians Trip All Star Five By 66 50 Score

The Fabulous Magicians added the Rahway Teachers All-Stars to their long list of citims on Thursday evening at the Senior High School by the score of 66-50. The more than 500 fans saw an exciting evening of basketball and comedy.

The fans saw Marques Haynes the world's greatest dribble perform in the first half, and laughed at the comedy star of the team Robert "Trick" Woods, who slid home in a baseball skit, dropped kicked the ball and shot his famous behind-the-back flip shot from mid court.

The Rahway team only trailed by a four point margin at the half way mark, but the Magician's set plays was too much for the locals and they increased the lead to a 46-34 lead and coasted to a 46-34 lead and coasted the remainder of the game, much to the delight of the spectators.

The show was sponsored by the Firemen's Mutual Benevolent Association Local #33, with co-chairman Al Knox and Ray Mauers. Bob Berger of the high school staff served as the announcer.

Clark Crusaders Will Meet Scotch Plains At Home This Morning

Scotch Plains - Fanwood Blue Raiders will invade Nolan Field this morning at 10:30 to meet the Arthur L. Johnson Regional Crusaders in their annual Turkey Day football feature. The Crusaders will be looking for their fifth win of the season over the Raiders who have a 2-4-2 record this season.

Crusaders Lose U. C. Grid Title

The Clark Little Crusaders lost the Union County Pop Warner Conference Title with their only loss of the season and finished in a tie for second place with Linden. The Linden P.A.L. Tigers defeated Clark 7-0 on Sunday enabling the Union Rockets to take the Conference title. Clark had beaten Union earlier in the season.

With the largest crowd of the season at Clark's home field, Linden's only loss of the game came on Kevin Talbert's 33 yard run through center late in the third quarter.

In the second quarter Clark moved to the 4 yard line after Mike Robert blocked a Linden punt, but they were held from scoring. It was a hard fought defensive game with only seven first downs, Clark-4 and Linden-3, in the entire game.

Coach Sam Horkey's Little Crusaders won 6 games with 2 ties while losing only to Linden. Clark held four teams scoreless while allowing 5 teams to score only 45 points against them. Only Cranford and Rahway scored more than one touchdown against the Little Crusaders.

Clark Booters Advance To Semi finals

Clark's High School soccer team advanced to the semi-final round of the NJSIAA state championship this week with a 1-0 win over the Edison Tech team of Elizabeth at Warinanco Park.

Clark played North Edison yesterday for the right to play in the finals for the Group III championship. Coach Lou Peragallo's team scored in the first four minutes of the game when Mike Healy, the Crusaders right wing fired into an empty goal. Edison Tech goalie Lou Zuluaga had left the area in an attempt to corral a high shot, but collided with a Clark player and was in a prone position when Healy moved in to drive the ball through the open net.

The Crusaders were lead by their three fullbacks, Dan Gibbons, Tony Pasco and Neil Tabor. Coach Peragallo was high on his praise of his substitute goalie Jim Logothetis, the sophomore who replaced Frank Deredita in the net, when the latter broke his jaw in last weeks game with West Essex. Clark has a season record of 12-4-1.

HOT STOVE BASEBALL DINNER, JANUARY 17
