High Schools' Overcrowding Listed at 953

Total enrollment in the four high schools of the Union County Regional High School District No. 1, which includes Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School, has climbed to 5,478 after the first three weeks of classes, it was announced today by Dr. Warren M. Davis, superintendent.

Dr. Davis noted that this figure is slightly above the estimates made prior to the opening of school. He said the enrollment figures show an increase of 200 over the last school year.

"All the schools are showing the effects of overcrowding," he said. "A more graphic description of the overcrowding would be to say that, using this latest enrollment figure, the four high schools are at least 953 students over the standard maximum capacity. In fact, each school is over capacity, no matter what maximum you use, that of our planning consultant or the New Jersey State Education Department."

A breakdown of enrollment in the schools shows Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School, 1,558; Governor Livingston Regional High School, 1,669; David Brearley Regional High School, 999, and Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, 1,252.

"In order to maintain quality education in the district and meet this continued growth in student population, the board of education is planning a building program to meet the enrollment increase through the mid-70s," Dr. Davis said.

EYE NOV. 1 FAIR

Abraham Clark PTA Has Meeting Tonight

The Abraham Clark PTA held its first executive board meeting on Sept. 10. Another meeting is planned to discuss the Nov. 1 PTA fair tonight. The session was conducted by President Mrs. Ruth Leduc. A new recording secretary, Mrs. Steven Dears, was named.

The complete slate of officers and executive board members are: president, Mrs. Richard Leduc; vice president, Mrs. Joseph Ventre; recording secretary, Mrs. Steven Dears; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Joseph Kerrigan; treasurer, Mrs. Vladislav Plespecky; and honorary vice president, principal Caesar Marrone.

Roman Names 2 Aides

Clark Councilman Robert Roman, 4th Ward incumbent candidate, today named Dominic Massarelli of 15 Bradley Rd. and Thomas P. Kelmartin of 87 Nassau St. as campaign coordinators. Kelmartin is active in community affairs, serving as director of public safety, merit badge safety counselor and committee man for Boy Scout Troop #330 and officiates as an umpire in the Clark Little League. Kelmartin, accepted this position declaring he knows Roman to be "capable, conscientious, and sincere."

Both coordinators are members of the Thomas A. Kaczmarek Association and 4th Ward Democratic Club.

State Councillor

Mrs. Charles Crider of 114 Hart Pl., Clark, was elected state councillor of Abraham Clark Council No. 73, Daughters of America, at last week's convention in Atlantic City. Mrs. Crider has been a member of the council for 25 years and is also treasurer of the local body. She has been active for years in money-raising projects for charitable organizations, including the donation of bibles and flags to schools, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and funds for scholarships.

He said the enrollment figures show that the district's projections are just about correct. He added that more than 6,000 students are expected to be enrolled in the district by 1975.

"When you realize that the desirable capacity is 4,425, you can see that something has to be done, and done fast," Dr. Davis said.

Steps have already been taken to alleviate the enrollment squeeze, somewhat. Temporary classroom units have been constructed at Governor Livingston Regional High School and at Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School.

"All the facilities in the schools are being overburdened," Dr. Davis added.

Council Gets Report On Plan to Revamp Purchasing Method

The Citizens Advisory Committee to Council President Richard C. Burger issued a report to the municipal body Monday night recommending a method for centralized purchasing and an ordinance to make economical buying a reality.

Overseen by John A. Cutt and Mrs. Rose Tomchak, the report recommends procedures for bulk purchasing to be supervised by the business administrator, certain changes in township forms for office use, mailing, etc., and certain coding procedures. Burger commended the study group for their diligence.

The lone Republican on the council, Edward Getchis, warned the council that it must take action to secure alternate means of disposing of rubbish since the City of Elizabeth has decided to close its landfills to outsiders which might affect the township in the future.

The council passed a resolution urging the Board of Freeholders to make funds available to the Union County Planning Board, so it can initiate a study of various means to dispose of trash.

The resolution noted that $20,000 is to be allocated in 1970 for the study and that ever-shrinking landfill areas demand that the county take prompt action.

Councilman Roy F. Neary, Democrat of the Third Ward, said that collection methods should also be considered, and it might be necessary for the council to establish a municipal system.

In the public hearing of citizens, Mrs. Tomchak pointed out a new bill is pending in the State Senate, 803, which would remove certain land use from local control and given it to state agencies.

In other action, the council cil named Frank Bihon a constable for a three-year term and approved John T. Clynes of 100 Hart St. and Pasquale DeLuca of 313 West Lane as volunteer firemen. A contract between Local 469 of the Teamsters and the township was finally agreed upon after more than a year of debate and difficulty. The contract affects workers in the Department of Public Works and Engineering.

Killiam Associates was awarded a contract to study flooding conditions along the Robinson's Branch of the Rahway River at a maximum cost of $1,200. The township

OAK RIDGE FUNDS SHELVED

The 117-acre Oak Ridge Golf Course appears unlikely to remain a green preserve in the face of action by its owner Charles Glogower, president of Oak Ridge Inc., to have the tract divided into 72 industrial and 23 residential lots.

While the planning board has not taken action on the request, opinion on the township council and planning board is running against those who wish to retain the area for recreational purposes.

Not only does the town lack the necessary finances, estimated somewhere between $3 and $4 million, but some members of the planning board and town council see a carefully developed industrial park, some residences, and possibly a few small parks as being the best economic solution.

In an interview with a representative of The Clark Patriot, one councilman said any development of the area should de-emphasize residential construction, since the township needs a park and some recreational space.

The planning board has voted not to include the sum necessary to purchase the Oak Ridge site in its list of capital improvements for the impending budget.

While the council majority is giving its temporary approval to planning board action, it is reported that a final decision will be reserved until a planner's survey is made. Such a study has not yet been authorized. It will probably include what affect the construction will have on the drainage basin of the Robinson's Branch of the Rahway River.

The council majority is also cautious to take action in face of a possible decision by Township Attorney John Higgins to condemn a portion of the Oak Ridge tract for use as the site for the proposed community pool.

Reserved tickets are being sold for $3, general admission $2 and children 12 years of age and under will be admitted for $1. Tickets may be purchased in Clark at Tom's Auto Center, 1205 Raritan Rd., The Log Cabin, 675 Raritan Rd., or at Clark Liquors-Delicatessen, 1040 Lake Ave. in Westfield at the Castle Booterie, in Roselle at Rugs Inc., in Roselle Park at Jerry's Department Store, in Rahway at Butch Kowal's Tavern, in Linden at the Circus Shoe Shop and in Elizabeth at the South Seas Bar or at Denny's Liquors.

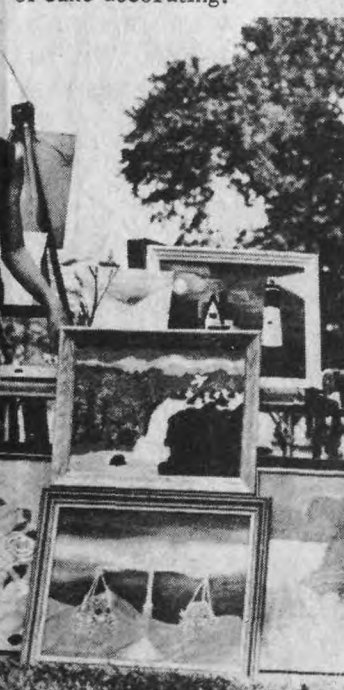

McNulty Injured

Charles J. McNulty, 46, of 387 Willow Way, Clark, was injured in the front of the first aid squad building on Raritan Rd., Clark, this week when his car collided with another vehicle driven by Roger A. Wilson, 38, of 119 Lexington Blvd., Clark.

Sue Mayor

Four ex-members of the planning board and shade tree commission have filed suit against Mayor Thomas A. Kaczmarek and the new appointees in Superior Court to get their jobs back. The discharged members are Irv T. Gordon, Newton J. Rodgers and George W. Crater, who served on the planning board, and Morris Krouk and Morris Roth on the shade tree commission. All are political opponents to varying degrees of the mayor and were dismissed on the grounds they failed to take oaths of office. Sanford H. Herzfeld Jr., a Clark attorney, is representing the plaintiffs. Morris Krouk is the only ousted member not named as a plaintiff.

13 Regain Bus Rides; Nurse Need Seen

Board of Education member John F. Allaire, Jr. said the school system should make sure that it maintains a full-time nurse at Charles Brewer School. His position was supported by board members. John A. Fitzpatrick and Walter Bakum.

Charles Brewer school has 450 pupils and no full-time nurse. Allaire charged that should an emergency arise a nurse has to travel from another school. At present, he noted the school secretary is forced to act as a nurse until proper medical care arrives.

Allaire said that the State Department of Education suggests that each school have its own nurse and recommends at ratio of at least one nurse to each 700 pupils.

Currently there are full-time nurse working at Valley Road and Frank Henley schools. Abraham Clark has a half-day nurse and Mildred Terrace School for most of the day. Another nurse, Rosalind Achel, hired at the meeting is scheduled to start Oct. 1.

In other action, the board of education restored busing privileges to 13 students who were denied transportation after H. Roland Smith, board secretary, conducted tests to see whether the 13 fell over the two-mile limitation, in which case a school system must provide transportation.

Seventy-four students crowded into a 58-passenger bus when Smith claimed that only 65 students were eligible for free transportation. His mileage tests also showed 13 others to be under the two-mile limit.

All students dropped from the busing rolls were reinstated pending a further study to determine who was entitled to the free transportation privilege.

2 Clark Residents Join School Staff

Lawrence Grenevicki and Edward Seery, both of Clark, have accepted positions at Union County Vocational Center in Scotch Plains.

Grenevicki, for three years a special duty patrolman, will teach appliance repairing. He has had technical school training in refrigeration, air conditioning and special appliances.

Seery will give instruction in electricity. He was previously associated with the supervisory section of the linemen's servicing department at Bell Laboratories.

Cahill Beats Meyner in Poll at Union College

Congressman William T. Cahill, Republican candidate for governor of New Jersey, defeated former Gov. Robert B. Meyner, the Democratic aspirant, in a student gubernatorial poll taken by government students at Union College, Cranford.

Rep. Cahill was favored by 52 per cent of those who had a preference, while former Gov. Meyner received 48 per cent. The tally was 541 students who favored Rep. Cahill and 488 who favored former Gov. Meyner. However, 653 students indicated they had no preference.

Of the 1,682 students who participated in the poll, 962 were enrolled in the Day Session and 720 enrolled in the Evening Session.

Among the Day Session students, 464 could not make a choice between Rep. Cahill or former Gov. Meyner, while only 189 Evening Session students did not make a choice.

Five hundred and 76 of the students (345 in the Day Session and 231 in the Evening Session) said they think of themselves as Democrats, 442 (216 in the Day Session and 236 in the Evening Session) said they think of themselves as Republicans, and 603 (373 in the Day Session and 230 in the Evening Session) think of themselves as unaffiliated or independents. Union College students feel "urban problems" is the major issue of the gubernatorial campaign. Other major issues were listed in this order: taxes, organized crime, and legislative reform.

When asked which candidate they favored in last year's presidential election, 48 per cent of the students said they favored President Nixon, 31 per cent said they favored former Vice President Hubert Humphrey and 18 per cent said they favored other candidates.

In the current gubernatorial poll, Republican Cahill received 32 per cent of the total, Democrat Meyner received 29 per cent of the total and 39 per cent don't know which of the two major candidates they would like to see elected governor.

"This poll would seem to indicate that the contest between Congressman Cahill and former Governor Meyner is very close at this time, and in all likelihood will be decided by the independent," Thomas Kehoe, government instructor, said.

The students also were asked to evaluate the performance of President Nixon since taking office in January. Sixty-one per cent said the President is doing a good job, 25 per cent a poor job, from Drexel Institute of Technology in 1961 and a master of science degree from the University of Cincinnati in 1967. He is a specialist in solid lubricants. His father, a social studies teacher at Linden High School, is a former Rahway councilman.

and five per cent an excellent job. Nine per cent had no opinion.

The poll also indicates Senator Edward M. Kennedy is in political trouble as the result of his recent automobile accident. Eight hundred and 75 students said his chances for the Presidential nomination were destroyed by the mishap, while only 553 students thought they had not been. Two hundred and 40 students had no opinion.

The League of Women Voters of Linden, with membership and program in Rahway and Clark, is participating in a nationwide $11 million capital fund-raising campaign to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the League of Women Voters of the United States. Contributions may be mailed to treasurer Miss Agnes Rose of 1124 N. Stiles St., Linden 07036, or to president Mrs. Samuel Lease of 2423 St. Georges Ave., Rahway 07065.

New officers of the Holy Name Society were installed yesterday at the monthly meeting at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Rahway. Joseph Goodman is president, Joseph Salay vice president, James Curry secretary, John Gilgannon treasurer and Donald Hager marshal. The Rev. Harold Hermanns, assistant pastor, was moderator.

Mrs. Mortimer Gibbons of 505 Elm Ave., Rahway, was hostess to a farewell tea for Mrs. Carleton Tobin, who is moving to Framingham, Mass. Guests were from the Community Mothers' Club of which Mrs. Tobin was a former president and active member. Mrs. Gibbons presented Mrs. Tobin with a gift from the group. Mrs. Albert Koehler and Mrs. Robert Pegau assisted in the entertaining.

Registration for the children's art classes conducted by the Rahway Recreation Department will be held this Saturday at 9 a.m. at the Claude H. Reed Recreation and Cultural Center at 1670 Irving St., Rahway.

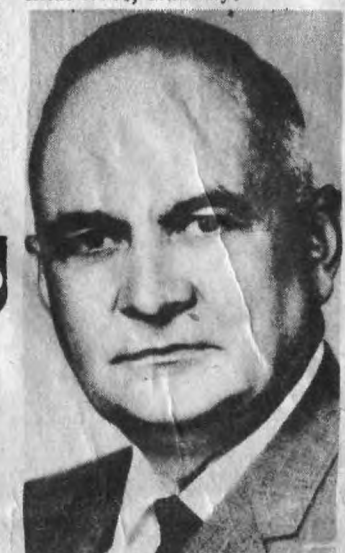

The St. Mary's Altar Guild of St. John's R.O.C.C. Church will hold a rummage sale in the church hall at 211 W. Grand Ave., Rahway, on Sept. 26 from 9:30 to 4:30. Mesdames Kochan and Philip-chuck are chairladies of this affair.

The Rahway Retired Men's picnic was held Sept. 17 at Merrill Park. About 100 members, wives, and friends attended. Aime Carhuff gave benediction, and a Virginia ham and sweet corn meal followed. Among those in attendance were Walter Clapp, Jason Kemp, Arnold Priezt, George Grablachoff, Roy Clark, George Zona, Arthur Moore, Herb Springer, Frank O'Donnell, Joe Carroll, Dominick Manero, James Maye, and Percy Robinson. The following day, Sept. 18, two bus loads of senior citizens attended the State Fair in Trenton.

A grant of $15,000 from Merck Sharp & Dohme Research Laboratories, Rahway, was among the $6,854, 722.39 in gifts and grants accepted by the University of Wisconsin Board of Regents at its meeting last week in Madison.

Lt. Col. Jack Mohr

Jack Mohr To Lecture On Oct. 21

Lt. Col. Jack Mohr, (U.S. Army, Ret.), an authority on communist brainwashing and mind control, will discuss the topics of sex education in the schools and sensitivity training in lecture entitled "Monsters in Sheep's Clothing" at the V.F.W. Hall, Route 27, Iselin, at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 21.

The lecture is being sponsored by the local committee of the National Movement to Restore Decency, MOTOREDE.

Lt. Col. Mohr is qualified to discuss the techniques of mind control. More than 20 years ago, he faced the masters of the sinister art of brainwashing in a North Korean communist prison. He was tortured and then rescued from a firing squad. He was one of the most highly-decorated soldiers of the Korean War.

After the war, Lt. Col. Mohr was selected to serve on a team to study returning POW's at a hospital in Japan. He later set up and taught classes on the Armed Forces Code of Conduct at Fort Devens, Mass.

His concern today centers on the attacks upon the youth of America. Mohr maintains that "the key to withstanding brainwashing and mind control is strong moral principle."

"If young people can become obsessed with sex, or robbed of their beliefs and parental influence through therapy or sensitivity training, they will pose no threat to any would-be conqueror."

Mohr is opposed to sex education in schools. He also claims there is a widespread drive on to employ sensitivity training on anyone who maintains strong personal beliefs.

Mohr's lecture is part of a month-long tour sponsored by MOTOREDE committees. The local chairman in central Jersey, Mrs. Sonia Stefan, invites all who are interested in this topic to attend.

Tickets are $1 in advance or $1.50 at the door and tickets may be obtained by calling 382-1489 or by writing "MOTOREDE" P.O. Box 93, Rahway, N.J.

Become part owner of a Multimillion dollar bank.

By any standards, The First State Bank of Union is no ordinary bank. Though only 16 years old, its assets are already well in excess of $56,000,000. This represents a phenomenal rate of growth. And a unique investment opportunity.

You are invited to participate in this financial phenomenon. And share the profits of its growth in the years to come.

New issue is limited

In order to finance the establishment of several new branch offices in New Providence, Clark and Middlesex, and overall expansion of its operations, The First State Bank of Union is issuing a limited number of common stock shares as of October 1, 1969. Since the issue will total only 40,000 shares, it is expected that there will be little stock available. Our current stockholders have first preference in purchasing this issue.

Unusually rapid rate of growth

The First State Bank's growth picture is nothing short of amazing. The bank was organized in 1953. Today, its assets total well over $56 million. In the last 2 years, our resources increased by 38%. In 1968, our deposits increased by nearly $8 million. It is anticipated that our growth in 1969 will be even greater, with assets estimated to reach $60 million. To a large extent, our success is attributable to our willingness to invest in the business and people of Union County and its environs.

Earnings and dividend prospects

Our earnings record has shown a continuous increase over the years. The rate of return on average Capital and Surplus Accounts in 1968 was 10.84% after taxes. This compares with earnings of 9.80% on Capital Accounts in 1967.

Earnings overall in 1968 were $1.27 per share after taxes. The Management anticipates that earnings will be much higher in 1969.

Cash dividends of $.95 per share were paid in 1968 on old shares. In October 1968 the bank's stock was split 2-for-1. This brought stock dividends paid to 120% since 1967! A very strong dividend record indeed.

The chart above shows how First State Bank has continued to expand over the years. Now that we are able to open offices in other counties, our rate of growth should be even greater.

Growth stock in a growth bank

The picture is clear. The First State Bank's home counties of Union and Middlesex are growing rapidly, due in large part to the influx of so many big corporations and manufacturing enterprises. This, in turn, has attracted thousands of wage earners and home owners.

A similar pattern holds true for most of the other counties in District II.

And nothing can supply a bank with a greater impetus for growth than being located in an economically "booming" community.

A growth bank in a growth area often results in a growth stock. This has certainly been the record of First State Bank common stock, to date. And with the bank's growth performance and potential in mind, this stock is considered to be a very good buy.

Getchis Urges Election Of Yarusavage, Sarafin

Councilman Edward P. Getchis, lone Republican on the municipal council, called for the election of Bernard G. Yarusavage and John Sarafin to that body. Speaking at a public meeting of the Clark Republican Club, Getchis said: "The local government is badly out of bipartisan balance. I cannot get the necessary 'second' to introduce legislation I want to propose."

"Election of Bernie Yarusavage and John Sarafin in the 3rd and 4th Wards, respectively, would give all the people in Clark a voice in our council chambers. It would also provide an opportunity for more scrutiny by budgetary 'watchdogs.' Clark needs Yarusavage and Sarafin."

Freeholder Edward Tiller, and State Assemblyman Peter McDonough were also speakers on the program, which is the first of a two-part series to be held by the Clark Republican Club at the Elks Lodge on Featherbed Lane.

Freeholder and director of the board, Tiller cited the economic success of the current freeholders in keeping Union County the third lowest in county budgets. He credited diligent budget control, planned and practiced efficiency as the reasons for this fine accomplishment.

The need for providing commuter rail service, tax structure reforms and narcotics suppression by more stringent statutes were listed by McDonough as the chief targets on his list of personal legislative aims for the future.

Yarusavage spoke on the local problems of traffic and real estate tax increases. James C. Smith, Republican club president, acted as moderator. He invited the public to the next candidates' forum at the next Republican club meeting at 8 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 17, at the Clark Elks' Lodge on Featherbed Lane.

Legion Unit Installs Miss Krov

Delegates - at large are recording secretary Mrs. Gilbert C. Lesko, historian Mrs. Jack Irving, past county president Mrs.

Joseph Walsh and past president Mrs. Cox.

The two Girls State delegates, Miss Ann Marie Gannon and Miss Denise Clark, will attend the Union County meeting to relate their experiences at Douglass College this past June. Miss Gannon was selected by her fellow delegates as a representative to Girls Nation in Washington, D. C., last summer.

Republicans State Stand On Issues

Assemblyman and candidate for reelection Peter McDonough, Ed Tiller, freeholder and candidate for reelection, and Clark council candidate Bernie Yarusavage, all Clark Republican Club guest speakers, stated their positions on important issues on the minds of Clark citizens at the club's regular meeting Friday night at the Elks Lodge, Featherbed Lane, Clark.

McDonough said: "Knowing the concern of the people of Clark, my candid opinion is that the Mancuso report regarding consolidation of school districts is a dead issue, at least for the next five years."

Speaking on flood control, Tiller said: "I would propose the establishment of a state water control commission which would have the power to act on the flood control measures that are needed throughout the state, as this is basically a regional problem." Tiller also spoke of the need for immediate action on a county owned and operated refuse disposal facility.

Yarusavage spoke of a growing concern in Clark's Third Ward about the safety of children attending the three schools in Clark's Valley Road should the road become a high speed truck route. He stressed the benefits to Clark citizens if the road were to remain a municipal street.

The speakers were this month's guests of the Clark Republican Club's candidate's night program.

The Need for Community Action

A recent UPI dispatch described a clean-up campaign conducted recently in Sterling Heights, Mich. The citizens of that Detroit suburb wanted a section of the Clinton River as a recreation area, but the waterway was a favorite dumping area for people too lazy to dispose of their trash and cast-off possessions in the prescribed way.

Government agencies dealing with river clean-up projects had no plans for the Clinton for at least five years. So the people of Sterling Heights decided to take matters into their own hands. Community work day was the result. The session was attended by about 1,500 volunteers of all ages, male and female.

The volunteers worked in flat-bottomed boats or waded into the water. They went on despite a rainstorm, and the result was a cleaner river for the good of all. It seems unlikely that those who took part in the actual work will ever be seen littering the Clinton River. It is now their river and they'll protect it for that reason.

Actually, the Clinton River project is news only in the context of modern society. A few generations back this type of undertaking was commonplace. They called it by different names—quitting bees, barn raisings, etc. These were community occasions. They were social gatherings designed to benefit the community. Men and women were brought closer by the cooperative atmosphere, which made the work easier, even fun.

Think back to some of the group-work sessions of your own past and recall some of the fun you had. Did you ever decorate a gym for a school dance? Or decorate cars for a wedding motorcade? Did you ever take part in a group painting session at some YMCA or orphanage or church? Try expanding on these themes.

Job Training for What?

On June 30th, the Camp Kilmer Job Corps Center, near New Brunswick, N. J., was closed by the Nixon administration as part of the national reduction in the Job Corps program. There was a lot of criticism of the closing of the center, but if a recent story in the Newark Evening News is accurate, the courses taught will not be missed. The officials of the center promoted reading programs with some very unusual titles. Here are a few: "Orgy at Madam Dracula's," "Sex Turned On," "Candy," "French Art of Love," "Teenybopper in the CIA," "Call House Madam," "The Nude Wore Black," and 25 copies of "Wife Swappers."

D. L. Weber, former deputy director of the camp, was quoted as saying that the idea was "... that if we could get them to read even pocketbooks, their literary interests would improve."

He called most of the books "soul material." Mr. Weber must consult a very different dictionary from ours. If these titles represent "soul material," then the Marquis de Sade must have been a former preacher of the gospel, and the Boston Strangler a social reformer. We hope that Mr. Weber has taken up brick-laying instead of acting as a mold of youth.

We can only wonder what kind of jobs the youngsters were being trained to undertake.

Man Reported Missing

Mrs. Joan Petruzella of 2070 Prospect St., Rahway, reported to police that her husband, Peter, has been missing since Sept. 13. She said he is afflicted with a rheumatic heart, is 31 years old, and 6 feet tall, and weighs 178 pounds. He has hazel eyes and brown hair and was wearing a green plaid jacket when last seen.

Adult Courses Transform Spare Time Into Fun Time

Several courses offered at the Rahway Adult School will show you how to turn spare time into fun time by teaching many skills which can result in a more interested and interesting you. Among them are:

Ballroom dancing (beginning and advanced) teaches both the novice and the avid dancer all of the latest dance steps in addition to reviewing and polishing-up the old standards.

For those wishing to learn or review the fundamentals of contract bridge, beginning and advanced bridge will offer instruction and practice in bidding and playing.

Seasoned and beginning divot-diggers are encouraged to enroll in the valuable course of golf instruction, an asset toward improving anyone's game.

Without previous musical training, one can learn how to play guitar for group fun or personal satisfaction by enrolling in any of the guitar classes, beginning, intermediate, or advanced, the latter two offered for the student with knowledge of the instrument.

The life of any party and leader of most guest lists is the individual who can sit single word that could, in any way, be construed or interpreted as positive or constructive. They flaunt the first amendment as though it were a sinister contrivance designed for their own pitiful purposes.

It is Ray Giacobbe's province to run the council meetings. It is his mandate because his fellow councilmen elected him to do the job. The abuse to which he has been subjected by letter writers is understandable because no one has ever before demonstrated the courage to tell them to sit down and speak in a proper manner at a proper time on a proper subject.

Be the offender a councilman or a private citizen, if he violates the rules of good conduct at a council meeting, he is denying every taxpayer in the community his right to prudent government. I say that the time has come to eject these individuals forthwith. They have created an intolerable condition.

Give our governing body a chance. As for Mr. Giacobbe, he has my sympathy for what he goes through, my respect for the restraint he has displayed, and my plea to put an end to the nonsense without further delay.

Walter Wood
163 Dukes Road
Rahway

To the Editor:

Congratulations to Rahway Council President Ray Giacobbe for the tough stand he has taken on the radicals who have invaded the council chamber to bombard officials with a tasteless barrage of slurs and slams.

Some of this unpardonable behavior is no more than a thinly-veiled attempt on the part of political opportunists to discredit a progressive council and a vigorous administration. Before each election, they crawl out of the woodwork to mount an attack on whatever happens to be the subject of the moment.

The remainder of the kooky conglomeration of fist shakers is what poses a real threat, not only to the progress of our community, but to the entire democratic process. They come to each and every meeting, look over the agenda and pick out a few Howard Baker of 779 Elm items about which to rise up in outrage. They stand for nothing. They offer nothing, approach to Rahway's ever-recurring flood problem.

down at a piano or organ and make music. Popular music is fun and fascinating when played with a minimum of reading. Melody, line and chord symbols are the principal ingredients of our beginning piano and organ course, with special emphasis on varied rhythms, harmony, and improvisation.

The beginning art and oil painting course offers a workshop class for students with little or no knowledge of basic painting skills, stressing individualized instruction.

Designed to teach professional techniques and skills to students with some painting experience, the intermediate and advanced oil painting course is ideal for those who are seasoned brush-wielders.

For those inclined toward portrait painting, we offer a course in that area geared to perfecting the individual painter's degree of skill and perception. Live models will be used.

Our more literary students will appreciate the creative writing course exploring the many facets, such as T.V. techniques, character analysis and development.

Basic skills and body mechanics are the fundamentals of our tennis course, which will enable the student to perform his very best on the tennis court.

For those who find it relaxing to work with their hands, they will especially appreciate the furniture refinishing class, where tired and broken pieces of furniture will be restored and transformed into beautiful and serviceable furniture.

Relaxation while doing something useful is the appeal of the woodworking class, where the individual will work in the well-equipped workshop with a group of friends to relieve the tensions of a busy day. Power machines and usage of tools will be taught. Creations range from the simplest box to more complex lamps.

To the Editor:

Has anyone noticed lately the concerted effort of the mass media to discredit the John Birch Society? All so-called "right wing extremist groups" are generally included in the attempt, but it is the John Birch Society that bowls, chests, and tables--whatever suits the student's fancy.

There is, indeed, something for everyone at the Rahway Adult School--even for those who are seeking only to discover the secret of relaxation.

In-person enrollment for these or any other courses will be held on Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 29 and 30, from 7 to 9 p.m. at the high school or by mail.

For additional information, contact Mrs. Florence Skay at Rahway High School, 388-8500.

is always singled out. The latest tack is that the "far right" is out to "destroy our nation's schools" as stated in the September issues of "Look" and "Redbook."

I wonder how many Americans really know what the John Birch Society is? I wonder how many are interested enough to find out about such a controversial organization?

If you are an interested American, I'll be glad to send you some information. Just mail a legal size, self-addressed, stamped envelope to "The Truth About the John Birch Society", Box 52, Colonia, N.J. You may be surprised.

IN UNION COUNTY

The Rahway CYRC, Citizens' Youth Recreation Committee last Sunday dedicated their program to the memory of Councilman Don Forsythe, one of the late councilman founders of the organization, and recently-appointed 6th

Ward Councilwoman, by Fire Chief George Link, president and manager of the group, at a ceremony in the office of Mayor John C. Marsh. Marsh and Link both commended Councilman Forsythe's work on behalf of the community. The veteran 6th Ward representative had been a tireless worker on behalf of the children and teenagers of the city.

Mrs. Forsythe said that she pledges herself to "the continuation of Don's work. Our children are our future, and they require a meaningful program of guidance and recreation. I intend that this work will go on in the 6th Ward and throughout the city without interruption."

The CYRC provides supervised recreational opportunity for boys 9 and 10 years of age, the Pee Wees and 11 to 13 years, the Middlets. Coaching and supervision are provided on a volunteer basis by citizens whose training and interest in youth qualify them for the job.

The CYRC has been active in Rahway for better than 15 years. It was originally founded by Councilman Forsythe and other 6th Ward citizens but is now a city-wide program. Coaching and supervised competition are offered in football, baseball, basketball and girls' and boys' softball. Twirling is also part of the program.

The charges of head coach John (Skip) Bobrovcan, himself a former CYRC participant, made the memorial game a happy occasion as the Middlets walloped Clifton 28-6 and the Pee Wees beat Edison 28-2.

Coch Bobrovcan reminds all interested in good "live" football that a home game will be played this Sunday at 2 p.m. at Veterans Field against Jersey City.

Mayor Marsh added his hearty endorsement of the CYRC program saying, "Every citizen can help our youth and have a good time doing it by coming out to the games on Sundays. Why not start this week," urged the mayor.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

Council President Ray Giacobbe's published statement of Sept. 18 regarding the public's behavior at the recent Rahway council meeting is a masterpiece of hypocrisy. I attended this meeting and while I admit that the performance of some of the citizens was deplorable, the conduct of Mr. Giacobbe and several of the councilmen was infinitely worse. The "pseudo-arrest" and ejection of one citizen on Mr. Giacobbe's instructions was especially intolerable.

Undoubtedly the antagonistic attitudes and the sarcastic, vindictive nit-picking, harassing and sometimes embarrassing questions of Messrs. Alonzo Lawrence, James Simpson et al, must be difficult to take, month after month. However, elected officials are expected to remain calm and dignified and on a higher level than the ordinary person.

Only one councilman made any attempt to keep the proceedings on an orderly track. The rest, and Mayor Marsh were conspicuous by their inaction or indifference.

Some of the most popular areas of special interest were science, sports, fiction, arts and crafts and animals. Mrs. William Grunstein, president of Kadimah, urges all members to attend this first meeting and to bring friends.

They'll Spray Insects Silently While You Sleep

In most cases late night or the wee hours of the morning are the most advantageous for spraying and misting insects reported John F. Allaire, Jr., vice president of the Union County Mosquito Control Commission. Moist and calm weather conditions are best suited for spraying. Windy and dry conditions are not conducive to spraying.

Allaire said gusts of wind blow the spray away which is usually the case during regular daily working hours, and the result is a dollar loss of labor and materials to the taxpayers. Early morning misting and fogging or immediately after a rainstorm helps settle the spray into the mosquito infested areas.

Most of the commission's requests are to spray the area, even the residents' rooftops. However, said Allaire, should any residents prefer the commission not to spray they should so advise. I am going to request our working force to spray during these off hours. Should this be successful, the residents of Union County will be so advised, so our trucks when making their rounds will be recognized and not awaken them. We will spray when conditions are best and until cold weather discourages the mosquitoes," noted Allaire. "So far since I banned the use of DDT in Union County and introduced MLO Flit produced by Humble Oil, the results appear to be most favorable. I shall endeavor to have a comprehensive report on MLO Flit use in ten days."

The motion to provide guards at high school games was opposed by Andrew Bryant, Mrs. Georgiana Southern and Richard Elliott on grounds that they are not needed and that fees are too high. ### Lottery or No?

Through the efforts of State Senator William Mus-to and others, the voters in New Jersey are to have an opportunity to decide whether they want a lottery.

Phelps Phelps, former U. S. ambassador to the Dominican Republic, said that "no state that has tried it can say it does not produce revenue. They can say it does not produce as much as expected, but this may be a form of greed. If a lottery can produce a plus, after expenses, it will help the over-burdened taxpayers."

By Ray Hoagland

Tonight, your reporter will present a plaque from the New Jersey AAU to Joseph F. Walker at a dinner for the retired state athletic commissioner in Elizabeth. Walker is stepping down after 16 years as head of the New Jersey commission that supervises professional and amateur boxing and wrestling in this state.

Last Saturday night at the 12th annual dinner of the New Jersey Boxing Writers Association at Snuffy's in Scotch Plains, your correspondent presented Joseph La Vista, the NJAAU boxing chairman, with a plaque marking his 25 years as service with that body, the last 18 of which he served as chairman. More than 400 persons attended the affair, including most of the leading fight writers in the state.

The New Jersey AAU will conduct their regular meeting tomorrow night in Rahway, where they will officially appoint this writer as its secretary-treasurer.

The New Jersey College football schedule will operate on full scale this weekend with five games, one of which is a night contest on Friday in Roosevelt Stadium, Jersey City, where the Jersey State team meets the Profs of Glassboro. We will meet a strong Hobart team, but should edge out a 20-18 win.

The Montclair State Indians will travel to Delaware State, and the New Jersey team should capture their second in a row, 21-14. Another New Jersey state college team, the Trenton Lions, go to Frostburg State and will drop a 7-6 decision.

In the biggest game of the day, before more than 25,000 fans at Rutgers Stadium, we like the Scarlet Knights in a thriller, 20-14. We opened our season last week with a perfect day of two for two, picking Montclair College over East Stroudsburg and Rutgers over Lafayette.

Dr. Edward Morrison will make his final official duties as president of the New Jersey State Golf Association on Oct. 3, when the association conducts its annual dinner meeting at the Colonia Country Club.

The Flamingo Raiders of Rahway won their opening game in the Union County Touch Football League, a 7-6 decision over the Roselle Merchants.

The Raiders won their game in the final two minutes when Ed Carmichael hit Danny Davis with a 40-yard pass to tie the game. Then Jim Hawks caught a Carmichael pass for the winning point.

In the Colonia Country Club championship, a two-loss event, undefeated Bill Morton advanced to the final round with a six extra-hole win over John Coakley. Morton, who underwent two operations on his knee, won the 24th hole with a par. It was his fourth straight win in the title tourney.

The other Colonia contenders, each with one loss, are defending champ Ray Covino, Hank Meyer, Bill Paszkowitz, Hank Buoni and Coakley.

Oak Ridge's defending champion, Hal Bedson, and young Danny Zboyan, who lost in an extra-hole battle last year, lead the first-round winners at the Clark course.

Bedson won over Sal Lo Monaco, 3 and 2, John Fiorelli scored, 1-up, over Nick Petrucelli, Jim McGowan defeated George Mills, 3 and 2, Emil Wojcik defeated Joe St. Pierre, 4 and 3, Ray Amato won over Tony Ankie, 3 and 2, Bill Morton beat John Maiko, 4 and 3, Bob Mace defeated Bill Martin, 4 and 3, and Zboyan won over Bill Werdeschoef, 3 and 2.

Roy Faber and Mrs. Richard Wade of Colonia was defeated by Pat Schwab and Mrs. Irving Sofferman of Crestmont, 5 and 4, in a first-round match of the 21st annual state pro-lady golf tournament at the Forest Hill Field Club in Bloomfield.

Larry Young, playing at the Colonia Country Club, shot a hole-in-one on the 173-yard 15th. He used a 4-iron. Young was playing with John Chiari and Dr. Sal Monaco.

In the Colonia Country Club championship over the weekend, Ray Covino scored, 2-1, over Hank Buoni. He will meet John Coakley for a shot at undefeated William Morton to decide the club titleholder for this year.

In the four-man tourney, the winner was the team of Vincent Murphy, Fran Murphy, Harry Linnell and George Laino, net 271 1/2. Runner-up was the team of Harry Gluditta, Walter Knorr, Cam LaZizza and Paul Zicari at 303.

At Oak Ridge in Clark, in the club championship, second round, Hal Bedson scored a 6-4 win over John Fiorelli, Jim McGowan beat Emil Wojcik, 4 and 3, Ray Amato beat Bill Morton, 2 and 1, and Dan Zboyan scored a 3 and 2 decision over Bob Mace.

cision to the Orlando Panthers in the 100,000-seat Chicago Stadium on Saturday night. It was the Owls' second loss in three starts in the Continental League.

Mike Klinger of Rahway won the pool on the Delmar III out of Atlantic Highlands.

Sam Mastrianni of Clark won the Class D title in the annual Union County horse shoe championships at Warinanco Park.

Carl Marciniak rolled a 642 series in the Intra County League at the Rahway Recreation Lanes. He was followed by Joe Calvin's 255-627, Jim Cole's 625, Blaze Zampetti's 623, Lou Pacinello's 615, Ron Lester's 611, Hank Klutkowski's 608, Marty Benkovich's 604 and Frank Slaughter's 603.

John Kullman reports that friends of former Linden High School's great football coach and athletic director, Edward T. Cooper, will honor Cooper at a testimonial dinner Nov. 8 at the Father Meinrad Hall in St. Elizabeth's Church in Linden. Cooper was a coach, the DA and principal at Linden for 45 years.

Pool winners this week were Joe Stripko of Rahway with a tuna on the Sea Pigeon out of Perth Amboy and George Cunningham of Rahway with a porgy on the Dauntless II out of Point Pleasant.

Gary Erick, former Rahway football player, a 6-3, 205-pound junior, is a defensive end for the Big Red of Cornell, which opens its season at home against Colgate University Saturday.

A clinic for the boys entered in the ninth annual punt, pass and kick contest will be held at Rahway River Park on Saturday at 9:30 a.m.

Rahway Vs. Hillside

The Indians of Rahway travel to Hillside's Woodruff Stadium on Saturday afternoon for a 2 p.m. Watching Conference game.

This will be the 12th meeting between the teams, with the Indians on top, six games to five.

Last season, the Comets won, 7-0. The game will pit a strong running game by Rahway against a strong defense by the Comets. The Indians showed their ability to move the ball in a Saturday morning game at Somerville last week, when they tallied two touchdowns, both the results of long drives and strong blocking.

Coach Jim Refosco will open with Craid Huger or Wilburn Hooper at the quarterback spot. Huger was injured in the first half of the Somerville game, while Hooper, a sophomore, played well in the second half. The tailback will be veteran Cordell Green, who was able to make several good runs to place the club in good positions.

The other backs who will see action are John Johnson and Joel Davion, while the fullback will be either Rick Williams or sophomore Walter Winning.

The Indians, passing game has been polished this week. It is expected that most of Huger's tosses will be to Ben Handy, who at the tight end, has good speed and good hands. Big Sisco Garay is the split end. The line will be led by Jack Burkett and junior Eric Beckhusen at tackle.

Bob Duffy, who played an outstanding game in Somerville on defense, will team up with 130-pound Mike Caravella at the guard spots. Ben Riggi, the center, is a fighter. The team appears to be weak in the punting spot at this time. Fred Stueber is the offensive safetyman on the punt return team.

The Indians will face an improving Comet team, one that defeated the locals last season in the opening game.

Refosco said his team is "tough", while the Comets' head man, George Deo, said "our defensive is much better than last season."

Many race tracks take their names from their location, but in the case of Sunland Park, New Mexico, the track came first and then the U.S. Post Office designation for the community.

The Comets, who had a 3-3 record last year, will be led by the best pair of line-backers in the conference in captain Tony Panarese and Rick Ferguson. The team is looking for a quarterback and will have either Joe Tato or Sandy Friedman or that spot. The best running back on the squad is Tom Tremarco, with juniors Mike Silver and Bob Dierolf as halfbacks. The all important fullback slot will be taken care of by Rocco Minervino.

Westfield leads, 8-1.

The 10th annual gridiron battle between the Clark Crusaders and the Westfield Blue Devils is expected to be a thrilling, hard-fought contest that could decide the championship of the Watching Conference.

The 2 p.m. game, scheduled for Westfield High School Stadium, will be played before a standing-room-only crowd of more than 5,000 fans.

The Crusaders, defending champs of the league, will present a bigger team than last season, with several juniors in key positions, that coach Hal Mercer is hoping will develop throughout the season. The Crusaders will start Gary Smolyn, a good passer and fine runner, and his rollouts should put pressure on the corners. Backup is junior John Bukowski.

Two hard-running veterans, Mike Markovich and George Scott, will share the halfback spot. Markovich is a good receiver. Junior letterman Jeff Tomasovic will start at the tailback spot. He will be backed up by Bob Lockwood and Jeff Sohinski.

PPK Classic on Oct. 12

Ray Frazee, program chairman of the annual punt, pass and kick classic sponsored by Bell Motors Car, Inc., or the office of the Rahway Recreation Department, 1670 Irving St., Monday to Friday between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Each boy's parent or legal guardian must countersign the official entry form.

There will be five levels of competition - local, district area, division and national. The top six scorers in each zone, determined by a comparison of scores of local first - place winners, will be invited to represent their zone in a district competition. District champions will compete in specified area competitions in 16 National Football League area cities.

All area champions will compete in division competitions to determine the six boys to represent the Eastern NFL (one in each age group) Division.

The national competition will be held at the NFL playoff game on Sunday, Jan. 3, 1970, in Miami, Fla.

Six national winners, one in each age group, will be determined in the competition between the 12 division winners at the national competition. Ties at any level will be played on the spot.

Each boy will compete in three categories - punting, passing and kicking (with a kicking tee). Judges will score one point for each foot of distance the ball travels on the fly, minus one point for each foot that the ball lands right or left of a center line.

When punting and passing, a reasonable distance for a three or four - step running approach will be allowed. But entrants must not step over the starting, or base, line. If a boy does step over, the measurements will be made at right angles to the tape and will be made to the nearest half foot and half-points will be awarded.

Boys eight, nine and 10 will use a junior-size football for the competition; boys 11, 12 and 13 will use a regulation-size football.

Richard Gritschke of the recreation department staff will be in charge of the ninth annual event. For information regarding the program, call the recreation department office, 381-8000, Ext. 58 - 59, daily between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Fall, Winter Recreation Plans Made

The Clark Recreation Department, sponsored by the Clark Board of Education, today announced tentative plans for this year's fall winter program. On Saturday, the boys Flag Football program will start at the Charles H. Brewer School. This program is open to boys in Grades 6-8 who are residents of Clark or attend Clark schools.

The Clark roller-skating program will again operate this coming fall in the four Clark public schools. This activity is open to Grades 3-12. The Clark Saturday recreation activities will again be held in the five public schools and this is open to Grades K-12.

The Clark Community Playhouse, which meets the first Thursday of each month at the Frank K. Hehly School is open to ages 18 and up and is considered an adult-type activity. Other adult sports being planned are the adult basketball and volleyball leagues, which are open to anyone wishing to participate.

The hunter safety course will again be given to residents who are 14 years of age and older and wish to apply for this year's hunting license.

Times and dates of these programs will be announced later. For information concerning any of these programs, contact James R. Powers, director of recreation, at 381-8300.

Mike Sisler Looms 'All' VMI Guard

VMI has only 10 lettermen from last year, but among those are several really outstanding football players, one of whom is Mike Sisler, the son of Mrs. Irene Sisler of 2124 Evans St., Rahway.

A 205-pound senior, Mike is listed as the starting left guard on offense, as he was last year when he won his second monogram. The strong and agile graduate of Valley Forge Military Academy, who made the All-Star team in Union County American Legion baseball in 1966, is VMI's best bet for All-Southern honors among the offensive linemen.

A National Honor Society student in his high school days and a scholar at VMI, Mike played baseball and wrestled as well as engaging in outstanding football in prep school, but at VMI he has concentrated on the books and the gridiron.

VMI head coach Vito Razzano feels that Sisler can block with the best of them. He said: "If we had blockers like Mike all along the front wall, I'd say we could score against anybody."

Tops Club Opens For Fall Season

The Tops Club of Eastern Union County held a breakfast meeting at the Galaxy diner, Rahway, on Sept. 18 to open their fall season. Queen for the Month honors for the highest weight loss was awarded to Mrs. Leula Rau of Fanwood.

Tops (take off pounds sensibly) is a non-profit weight reduction club. Meetings are held each Thursday morning at 9 a. m. at the Clark Public Library and new members are invited to join at that time. Guests are always welcome.

Current members are from Clark, Rahway, Fanwood, Westfield, and Cranford. For further information, contact Mrs. Joyce Rodriguez at 272-5806 or Mrs. Dorothy Maier at 388-9508.

CYRC Chiefs Romp: Pee Wees in 32-2 Frolic

The Rahway CYRC Chiefs scored a 20-8 win over Clifton at Veterans Field before a large crowd on a perfect Sunday afternoon for football. The first Chief score came following a fumble. Quarterback Handel of the Chiefs handed off to Phil Hannibal, who carried to the 12-yard marker, then L. Johnson carried to the two and then drove over his tackle for the score.

Somerville, Rahway Tie

The Rahway Indians and the Somerville Patriots battled to a 14-14 tie in the final pre-season football game at Brook Field on Saturday morning.

The Indians took the lead with less than four minutes to go in the second period, recovering a fumble on the 30-yard line and carrying for a score. Craig Huger going over from the three-yard line on a quarterback sneak. Huger tried to circle his right end for the extra two points, but was stopped.

The next kickoff was carried up the middle by the Patriots for 50 yards and a score. The pass for the extra two points failed, sending the teams into the dressing rooms at the half tied at 6-6.

The Indians then took the half kickoff and marched to another score. Joel Davion dove over, the two extra points were good and the Indians were in front, 14-6. A fashion show starring husbands and sons of members of the fourth quarter allowed the home team to tie up the game at 14-14.

Leaf Removal To Start Soon

John F. Allaire Jr., director of public works and engineering, has advised Clarkites that leaf removal operations start shortly. He urged citizens to learn of leaf cleaning schedules by calling his department at town hall.

He also recommends that leaves be kept out of catch basins to avoid flooding and that large plastic bags are excellent containers for raked - up leaves that will not rejoin their cousin, in wind-carried walks across neighboring properties. He reminds residents that it is illegal to burn leaves in the township.

Gambling Father Put on Probation

A father of seven, Donald Lee Kirby, 39, of 1430 Lawrence St., Rahway, was given a suspended sentence of one to two years in state prison, fined $500 and placed on probation for two years by Superior Court Judge John E. Barger after pleading guilty to possession of lottery slips.

Kirby, who pleaded guilty on July 31 to the offense, which took place April 29, 1968, in Rahway, told Judge Barger that the court should help legalize the numbers game, which he enjoyed playing because it was "a poor man's hobby."

Kirby was represented by Michael Diamond of Clark, former assistant Union County prosecutor.

Nash Denies There Is Book Shortage

Superintendent of Schools Richard M. Nash said that while some supplies have not arrived for the new school season, these shortages have not affected teaching.

He denied charges by Alonzo Lawrence, president of the Rahway Taxpayers Association, that the board was failing to provide necessary supplies. Lawrence received word from an unnamed teacher of the alleged deficiencies.

Nash did say, however, that $6,000 budgets for textbooks last year was appropriated for other expenses.

WORTH TALKING ABOUT

"That which has made America prosperous, that which has wrought the American industrial miracle, has been the spur of profit. The spur is powerful and universal. It moves men, it moves money, and if need be, it moves mountains. It is the catalyst for production, the energizing agent for job opportunities, the incentive for growth. It is the priceless ingredient! And, perhaps most important to our young people, out of these profits come the taxes that pay directly for all state-supported schools, colleges and universities — and indirectly through gifts, bequests and grants, the money needed to support and expand all private institutions of learning. So let us all, young and old, properly understand, and proudly pay our respects to, the profit motive."

Wake Up and Look Around

Rahway High School is seriously overcrowded. The school presently houses more than 1,700 students during the peak hours of 9:26 a.m. to 1:48 p.m. This overcrowding has necessitated a staggered schedule which has created numerous problems for students and teachers alike.

One major problem is the extreme congestion in the hall and stairways. This slows down passing between classes and at times creates a safety hazard when huge masses of students converge on one area of the school such as the auditorium or cafeteria.

Although the school cafeteria is not overcrowded this year, certain problems have arisen from the lunch-period schedule. The first lunch period begins at 10:15 and the last lunch ends at 12:55. Most students have a 25-minute study hall directly before or after luncheon. This creates a mob, upwards of 300 people, passing through one auditorium door and into one cafeteria door, while another group of equal numbers, is leaving the cafeteria and entering the auditorium. Need we say more?

Class sizes have increased an appreciable extent this year, with some classes boasting 35 students or more.

A study hall with 300 students is nothing but a three-ring circus. To study is impossible.

School unity, pertaining to extracurricular activities, has definitely suffered under the new schedule. For lack of building space and student schedule conflicts, most clubs can only meet in the evening. This has prompted many students to forget the clubs and find themselves part-time jobs. Such institutions as the school yearbook and paper are constantly searching for places to meet at times convenient for all members. Their search is generally in vain.

Certainly, all of the blame for the year's problems cannot be placed on school authorities, for they have done their best with limited space and even more limited funds. It must be borne then, by the community as a whole, specifically by the taxpayers who have voted the budget year, after year, after year. It can only be hoped that some of these people will wake up and notice what is happening in their schools, before RHS loses its accreditation.

Praying in School

"Is God really dead?" Well, if He isn't, the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) is certainly doing their part to kill Him.

Recently, the Netcong Board of Education made a preliminary step to bring back prayer in the schools. They did not defy the 1965 U.S. Supreme Court ruling that outlawed prayer in public schools because the students did not use the Bible, but rather the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD which doesn't offend anyone's religion. No one was forced to pray; the students and faculty members who wanted to came to school five minutes early at which time the prayer was held. The reading of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD read voluntarily by a faculty member, was followed by a short talk on "brotherhood and citizenship."

"It all sounds really great," but the ACLU plans to take the matter to court and do everything they can to stop it. Meanwhile, the idea is catching on. In Sayreville, students paused for a five-minute, silent meditation for the first time on Sept. 15.

It's a wonderful way to start the day. It leaves one feeling peaceful and good all over. I say this because I once had the opportunity to attend a short prayer period before school at a church along with a group of students. Everyone who attended had about the same reaction. Can you remember back in elementary school when we had a prayer in the morning? I used to like it; I really did. In fact, I can't remember anyone who didn't. It should be up to the students whether or not they want to pray in school.

I can't see why the ACLU must interfere. Prayer is especially important now with our generation struggling for peace and brotherhood; a time when we want no walls between us such as race, color, or creed. What could be a better start than to have a common prayer and to be able to pray together for a common cause just a few short minutes each morning?

Student Council Corner

Returning to Rahway High School, you find the same problems as when you left. No place to park, smoke-filled, torn apart lavatories, paint all over the place and nothing being done about it. Problems added to the Rahway High School list this year are poor scheduling and unbelievably strict disciplinary rules. Such as two weeks of suspension if you leave school during the day. A major student council problem is the new rule forbidding the sale of candy in the student council store.

We have to find a place to put everyone's car. The only existing possibility is the small open space between the houses on Richard Blvd. and the faculty parking lot. This could be made into a fall-spring parking area with a little lime and improvised gates.

We have smoking rules in our school, but our lavatories still resemble a smoking lounge. I can not see how school administrators can forbid a smoking lounge because "smoking is detrimental to health" and yet show little concern over smoking which does go on in the lavatories.

Students with parental permission should be allowed to smoke in a designated lavatory or room. This would eliminate the breaking of the city fire laws, wasted time removing cigarettes from the toilets, and would greatly reduce the number of students suspended for smoking.

On the question of candy sales, Mr. Valentine has said that candy is not being sold in the student council store because the janitors spend too much time cleaning candy wrappers from the rooms and desks. Teachers complain that students come late to class, eat candy in their rooms and throw wrappers around the class. I have talked to the janitors concerning this problem, and they have no complaint about the candy wrappers. Teachers should have enough control over students not to take "I was at the store" as an excuse.

We would like to hear student and community comment on the above topics.

1700 Students Launch RHS Opening

It's a Full House This Year at RHS

BY RICHARD NEUBAUER

When Rahway High School opened its doors three weeks ago 1,700 students and 106 faculty members entered, initiating the twenty-ninth year of study in the present building. Under the direction of principal Roy M. Valentine the students and their teachers settled down in a reasonably calm manner to begin the year's cycle. All students received a school handbook on opening day which contained school rules and procedures, including a detailed grievance procedure.

The school is operating on a staggered schedule with upperclassmen entering at 7:20 and lowerclassmen at 9:10. Most of the upper classes leave school at 1:50 and the lower ones adjourn at 3:34. There are six lunch periods during the day beginning at 10:15 and ending at 12:55. Students with the earliest lunch, or as some call it - breakfast, are not very happy with the situation. "Who can take a hot sandwich and mashed potatoes at 10:15 in the morning?" asked one disgruntled student. It should be noted, however, that the present system has eliminated overcrowding in the cafeteria.

No major problems or incidents were encountered in the first weeks of school, although many teachers complained about the lack of supplies. No paper, pencils, pens, or class grade books were on hand the first day of school and emergency supplies did not arrive for almost a week. The delay was due to a slow return of sealed bids which dictated a late order date. Full supplies are expected by the middle of October, according to Herman Kagan, administrative vice principal.

Class size, always a topic of debate among educators, has increased significantly this year. There are some classes numbering upwards of 35 students. These classes stretch the capacity of the older classrooms, a problem which prompted one guidance counselor to remark, "the next step is to double-deck the classrooms. We've got wall-to-wall kids. There are ten heads in some classrooms and forty in others, but we can't do anything about it."

The schedule has presented difficulty in planning extra-curricular activities. One example is the marching band. The new director, Richard Hoff, is currently conducting rehearsals stretching over three periods in order to get the whole band together - and there are still members missing. As Miss Sophia Nicholas, twirling advisor and English teacher put it, "school has become too impersonal. Everyone goes off right away to jobs or other outside activities. There is a lack of school activities and togetherness."

Two conspicuous changes this year have been the institution of a central detention system and the absence of Norman Ross, former dean of students. The detention system was set up so all students who have detention for any teacher can report to one central room, freeing the teacher from wasting valuable time with detention students. Mr. Ross, whose position was abolished - against great protest - by the board of education is now teaching a class for socially maladjusted children in Columbian School. He is currently appealing the board's decision on his former position to Education Commissioner Marlburger.

There is a great deal of discussion, pro and con, on the staggered schedule system. A guidance counselor, Richard Byrnes, greatly favors this schedule over a complete split session and feels that it is the best system possible under existing conditions. Mrs. Alma Murray, a math teacher for twelve years at RHS doesn't quite agree with him. "I feel that a complete split schedule would be better for academic reasons than the present staggered schedule. It would allow teachers to give more time to students who need extra help. It would also keep teachers in the classrooms, and not in the study-halls."

The teacher turnover rate, approximately 25 percent is another subject for concern. Many teachers have thoughts on the matter but prefer not to voice them. One who did talk, but asked not to be identified, had these thoughts free of injustice and prejudice. "Every young teacher known to me who has left Rahway for other school systems has appeared to better himself. More concern should be shown for teachers here."

Yes, the year has begun, but we are not yet civilized, and we and it will undoubtedly include it's share of successes and failures. One good sign has already been noticed by Dennis Kuber, social studies chairman - "The kids, they're great!"

Spotlights on Seniors

Anne Parker, F. Steuber

Anne Parker

"Rahway has a unique school spirit; winning isn't everything; it's the only thing!" This is the opinion of our September Senior Spotlight Fred Steuber. This high-spirited football player spent his summer working for Morey La Rue Laundry and camping in the Delaware Water Gap. He also spent some time at Seaside, Ship Bottom, and Atlantic City.

Fred is president of the Key Club and co-captain of the football team. He thinks the dress code is "cool" and also thinks students should have more responsibilities. His favorite teachers are Mrs. Forgosh and Miss Berger and Refosco. Fred would have liked to have a foreign exchange student at RHS this year but thinks there "should have been more of a whole school effort to make the past ones feel at home."

He enjoys the music of Sly and the Family Stone, The Mamas and the Papas, and The Temptations.

Fred thought we could have done without the dean of students last year because "the students were only using him to get out of classes." When asked if he had a choice of colors, which one he would choose, Fred said he wished "everyone was a different color," so there wouldn't be any type of racial problems between them.

If you've been wondering who the new addition to the Afro-set is, it's Anne Parker, an active student of Rahway High School. When not attending cheerleading practice, she has ignored the dwindling supply of everything needed to support life as we know it. We've cleared out land to build factories which create air and water pollution and kill our plants and wildlife. Where do we go from here? In 100 years our grandchildren will not have food to eat or a place to live. Our earth is tired and in dire of help. Who will help her? If our generation doesn't do something, well maybe somebody else will...Someday.

Annie Parker without her Afro...Fred Steuber without his rattle snake...Ginny Kaminski without her bomb...Mrs. Forgosh not being organized...Cordell Greene without red hair...Dave Hook graduating before he's old enough to vote...

As for Anne's opinions on the events of today, her only comment was that she feels the younger generation is going to force a change in present day society.

Student Opinions

The question, "If you ruled the world or had the opportunity to direct mankind's destiny, what would you do?" was asked of the following RHS seniors by our roving reporters.

MIKE CARAVELLA
"I would try very hard to promote peace among nations. I would make it a rule that parents wouldn't dictate or limit what types of boys their daughters went out with. In Texas, where he attended Also, I would try to do something about the Hippie problem."

JIM JONES
"If I had the chance I would make the earth one gigantic commune. Everyone would grow their own food and live with whomever they choose. Everyone would have the mind of a child because I have never heard of a pre-judged 3 year old."

CLYDE KING
"I would probably leave everything exactly as it is for the simple reason that no matter how you correct things or how you set things up man will still have a brain. Eventually, he will redevelop hate, greed, and prejudice with his brain."

MARC LAURITSEN
"I would do my best to set up a democratic government, identified, had these thoughts free of injustice and prejudice, and then step down to me who has left Rahway for other school systems has appeared to better himself."

RON MILLER
"I think the world should be destroyed and we should start over. There shouldn't be any civilization, and we should live like cavemen."

TOM REDMAN
"I'd make everyone return as/or remain an infant so they wouldn't know the true meaning of hatred and prejudice. Everyone has a far-fetched cure to this problem, but to me, this is the only solution, to the problem of racism."

PAUL RYBARCZYK
"I would choose to put a complete halt to all wars. This way people could live in peace and harmony, which would show the true meaning of brotherhood."

MARINA SOBO
"The earth would be a much better place to live in if there was peace throughout. If I ruled the world I couldn't command that everyone should love his neighbor, but I would insure that every person would attend school and would be given the opportunity to learn how to better himself."

I feel that education opens the door to a better life and would lessen the chances of poverty. I believe that people who possess a sound mind are less likely to riot. Therefore, once we acquire an education we will be able to live together with one another in tranquility."

JANINE SMITH
"If I had that power I'd like to rebuild the earth. 'America the Beautiful' has sent men to the moon, devised the most powerful warheads, and managed to build herself up to the point of having the highest standard of living in the world while she has ignored the dwindling supply of everything needed to support life as we know it. We've cleared out land to build factories which create air and water pollution and kill our plants and wildlife. Where do we go from here? In 100 years our grandchildren will not have food to eat or a place to live. Our earth is tired and in dire of help. Who will help her? If our generation doesn't do something, well maybe somebody else will...Someday."

Annie Parker without her Afro...Fred Steuber without his rattle snake...Ginny Kaminski without her bomb...Mrs. Forgosh not being organized...Cordell Greene without red hair...Dave Hook graduating before he's old enough to vote...

As for Anne's opinions on the events of today, her only comment was that she feels the younger generation is going to force a change in present day society.

Flavio Cabrera, Carol Kremp And Mrs. Sophie Greenspan Among New Arrivals at RHS

One of the many new teachers at Rahway High School this year is Flavio Cabrera. Born in Asuncion, the capital of Paraguay, Cabrera attended the University of Asuncion. He was granted a scholarship from the Rotary Club their daughters went out with. In Texas, where he attended Also, I would try to do something about the Hippie problem."

He is pleased with the students at RHS finding that they are not what he was told to expect of public school students. So far all the fears and calamities the teachers of private schools told him to expect of public schools are not true.

He digs literature, folk music especially from Paraguay, green plants, and sports. He's not acquainted with many of the faculty members, but the ones he knows he finds warm and friendly.

When asked if the boys participate better in a class with girls present he seemed to think boys are more polite and are more respondent in a class with girls than in an all-male atmosphere.

His pet peeve: people who do not communicate with one another. And girls, he's not married and you haven't heard anything till you've heard his accent. Wow!

A big welcome, and we hope he keeps his good opinion of RHS.

Still another new face in the faculty is Miss Carol Kremp. She was born and raised in neighboring Colonia and graduated from JFK High School. After JFK, Miss Kremp attended Rider College in Trenton, where she earned her bachelor of arts degree. Miss Kremp is qualified to teach freshman English and remedial reading. She has future plans of obtaining her masters degree.

Miss Kremp's first impression of RHS was that, "it is very big." She felt the students were friendly. Miss Kremp also felt the faculty was very friendly and cooperative, which aided tremendously in her first year of teaching.

She believes the present dress code of Rahway high is great, mentioning that society accepts the style of dress and why shouldn't the school?

In college Carol was a member of the English Club, Spanish Club, Student Education Association, and Alpha Xi Delta Sorority.

At home she loves to sew, in fact, she spends her spare time making clothes. She likes to read and ride horses, though opportunity for the latter is difficult now. During the summer, you may find Miss Kremp down the shore, preferably at Long Beach Island.

One of the new faces in our English department this year is that of Mrs. Sophie Greenspan. She was born in Manchester, England but has lived in the United States for the past eleven years. Mrs. Greenspan is a well-qualified teacher, having studied at the University of Manchester and Washington University at St. Louis.

Her pupils have welcomed her and made her very comfortable. Of the dress code, she says "The students appear suitably dressed. Girls look more business-like and are ready for action in slacks than in mini-skirts." She also likes the bright, sharp colors of the boys' clothing.

Mrs. Greenspan resides in Westfield with her husband and two children.

Another new teacher this year is Alan Greenberg who teaches biology I. His hometown is Springfield, N.J., where he attended high school and played football on the school team. He recalls playing Rahway in three Thanksgiving games with a record of 1-1-1.

Greenberg received his college education at Rutgers where he earned his bachelor of science degree. He didn't have a first impression of RHS because this is his first experience in teaching although he finds the majority of his students are cooperative.

In his opinion, the dress code is good because even though girls are wearing slacks, they use good taste and seem more comfortable.
