Owner says town wants club closed

By Jackeline Leon Staff Writer

UNION - Local all-nude dance club, Hott 22, has come under fire from the township which argues that the establishment has no place in the township, specifically in an area close to homes and faniily-oriented businesses.

The township has reportedly been seeking to shut down Hott 22. since it was built in September of 1995.

The venue, a bar on Route 22 in which the dancers are all-nude, is one of several adult-oriented business in the Route 22 area, including adult video stores, the nearby Shooters go-go club and Hooters Restaurant.

A lawsuit against the township was filed in October 2004 by the owner of the dance club, Daniel Russo, against the township and the Union County Prosecutor. Russo said his establishment should not be closed down and believes the township has been against him for Russo added he suggested moving his business elsewhere if the township was against the dance club being situated next to the Hy-Way Bowling Alley.

In terms of statements made that Hott 22 was too close to other family-oriented business such as Chuck E.Cheese's, Russo said Hott 22 is not in view of the children's pizzeria.

'You can't even see my place from Chuck E. Cheese's, and what kid would even try to cross that street?" he asked.

The business has not been allowed to sell liquor since 1997 when its liquor license was revoked. Several attempts have been made in the past by the township to close down Hott 22.

Authorities raided the club and followed through on a search warrant in Russo's home in September of 2003. Several financial documents were seized as a result of the search. The business was closed for two months that year following a criminal complaint and an ensuing investigation led by the Union County Prosecutor's Office and the Union Police Department.

your feet, advocacy groups and local law enforcement agree that they want to see you with a helmet on.

A rewards program created by the Mountainside Children's Specialized Hospital in conjunction with the Brain Injury Association of New Jersey, gives children who wear proper head gear free gift certificates to local eateries. The program has been implemented successfully in Kenilworth, according to local police.

Public relations manager for the program, Rebecca Mazarella, said the program, which covers seven towns in the county, was launched last year and was hailed as a success.

"We are out to prevent injury in children. Being that we work for the hospital, we look to prevent the catastrophe of brain injury," program coordinator Sue Driscol said.

"Its a positive program because it rewards children for doing the right thing," Driscol added.

Police officers who see children riding on bicycles while wearing helmets can give those children gift certificates as a reward for being responsible. The program was a success in Kenilworth last year according to Lt. Kenneth Grady of the Kenilworth Police Department.

The program will be running for the second consecutive year this summer in the borough. "It's all about giving children the incentive to wear helmets," Grady said.

According to the Brain Injury Association of fostering great relationships. New Jersey, every 21 seconds someone in the injured, 50,000 will die and millions more will live with the effects of their brain injury.

Statistically, nationwide the incidence of brain injury is higher than being diagnosed with multiple sclerosis, HIV/AIDS and breast cancer combined.

Last year, there were 11 bicycle fatalities in New Jersey. Each year, 230 children in the state are hospitalized because of injuries sustained while riding bikes, rollerblades and scooters.

In 1992, a state law was passed mandating children under the age of 14 to wear a helmet when riding bicycles or roller skating. In March, 2006, that law was changed to include everyone younger than 17.

Wendy Berk of the Brain Injury Association of New Jersey said the previous law did not safeguard all children and the statistics told the story.

"We saw a change for children under 14 but no change in children over 14," she said. "Now that the new law covers children under 17, we expect those numbers to drop."

"Reaching kids over the fifth grade is pretty challenging," Mazarella said. "We really needed law enforcement as a part of this."

A manual is provided to members of the community and local police departments in order to gain support and increase awareness.

extremely effective at preventing injuries and source.com.

"This program creates better interaction, KENILWORTH - If there are wheels under United States sustains a brain injury and of those between officers and children and is better for the morale of members of the community," Berk said. "We are also concerned about kids who. fall, get hurt and do not get immediate treat-. ment." She stressed that post-concussive syndrome can occur and may not necessarily be linked back to a brain injury.

"Some kids are mislabeled with ADD for" instance, when it's a brain injury," she said

She explained that a Web site, ugotbrains.com, was launched to appeal to older children who may be reluctant to wear head.

"The brain is extremely important and we need to protect it because it's something that; will impact our everyday life," she said.

Lt. Grady explained that the most difficult. age group to reach with the safety message are children between the ages of 10 and 12.

Berk explained that many times, youths are : pressured to not wear helmets because they want to fit in. In order to reach out to them, she finds ; that changing perceptions is all it takes.

"I point to Tony Hawk and Lance Armstrong, and other popular athletes and they have helmets," Berk said. "They wouldn't be allowed on the field without helmets and so they do idolize people that wear helmets. Just helping one; kid is enough."

REASON TO WORRY

Newcomers to the world of cats sometimes worry when they see their pets vomit. Actually, cats vomit quite easily and painlessly. Many cats deliberately eat grass and other plants to induce vomiting. There is no reason for concern if a pet cat vomits occasionally after too rich a meal, or after eating grass. People also sometimes mistake the noises and retching that precede vomiting for coughing. If the animal vomits after every meal, however, this is a sign of illness. The animal should then be examined by a veterinarian. Frequent vomiting results is a loss of valuable body fluids, a situation that should be quickly addressed.

Old issue breathes life

An old issue in law enforcement has reared its ugly head again in Union County and throughout the state.

Ticket quotas have come back to local law enforcement. This issue has its roots from a time when police officers walked a beat in their downtown shopping area.

In the past ticket quotas were a way for municipalities to increase the revenue flow coming in or for police chiefs to show the local governing body how well his department was running.

With municipalities looking for any extra nickel to put in their coffers, a ticket quota would come in handy.

It was thought that this ugly practice was dead when in 2000, then-Governor Christie Whitman signed a law that abolished the practice with the help of the state Police Benevolent Association.

According to the Dec. 2000 law, a quota is defined in the bill: "as a requirement regarding the number of arrests made and summonses issued by an officer within a defined time period or a requirement regarding the proportion of arrests made by the law enforcement officer relative to the arrests and citations made by other officers."

Despite this law there has always been an undercurrent by some that this practice was not dead, but only masqueraded or kept quiet.

To get around the ticket quota law terminology, some departments have been using the term "performance goals."

While some will say that a police quota benefits a town and also pushes officers to do their duty, having a number hanging over your head puts unnecessary pressure on officers and may make the town an unwanted place to visit. Union County has been trying to build its reputation as a new focal point for tourism. With the high price of gas, many families are looking closer to home for new options for their summer vacations.

But if the ticket quota resurgence continues, word will get out and frighten many potential tourists who will be looking at the county for a nice respite.

The ticket quota has never been a good idea in the past and it is not today.

The church was originally built in 1730, but was burned by the British Army during the Battle of Connecticut Farms on June 7, 1780. It was rebuilt in 1783.

Creating a wildlife habitat with native plants Happy Mother's Day

Sunday is Mother's Day, when, throughout the United States and much of the world, mothers are honored for all they contribute to their families and society. Although Mother's Day has only been a national holiday since President Woodrow Wilson declared it so in 1914, it's thoroughly ingrained in our culture.

Florists, gift shops and even gas stations have beautiful floral bouquets for Mother's Day. Supermarkets offer special sales, as do department stores, candy shops and virtually any store that might cater to a "mother's needs." After Christmas and Valentine's Day, more cards are sold for Mother's Day than any other holiday. And let's not forget the millions of cards painstakingly created with crayons, scissors and glue in classrooms across the nation. Finally, let's finish this special day by taking mom out to dinner at the restaurant of her choice. Bon appetite! When you get past the mass marketing and blatant consumerism so rampant on this and seemingly every other holiday, Mother's Day has a unique quality no other day can equal. Holidays such as Christmas, Thanksgiving, Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur celebrate a specific event, with an emphasis on family. Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Veterans Day and New Year's Day focus on the community and coming together. Even Father's Day and birthdays don't have the emotional attachment associated with Mother's Day. This in no way diminishes the importance of any of these other holidays, but mom will always have a special place in everybody's hearts. Since we took our first breaths, our mothers have been there to dote on us. Our first meals, our first full night of sleep, our first steps, our first days of school: through it all, our mothers have been there to offer guidance and support, to just be mom. Mother's Day recognizes her for all she does, something that, too often, we don't do often enough. If you stop to think about all mom does, it's really overwhelming. Cooking cleaning, making meals; the 21st century mother even throws working a full-time job into the mix.

While it is important to preserve open space, protect wildlife habitats and improve water quality, balancing livable communities with the needs of the natural world is also essential and begins in your home.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Taxes don't pay for local services To the Editor:

Last thursday I put out two garbage cans full of grass, sticks and refuse so the town's DPW would pick them up. When I came back on Monday the garbage cans where still sitting there untouched since Thursday. I called the DPW and an attendant told me that Roselle Park has discontinued that service and hired an outside outsourced company to collect the grass clippings and refuse. When I told the attendant that it sounds like privatization, she told me to call the borough hall.

I wonder why a town would allow a department to stay open after hiring another outsourced company to do its work? Paying $9,000 dollars in borough taxes and not getting town services is the norm in Roselle Park today.

MusicFest is pure county politics To the Editor:

A press release popped up on the Union County Government's Web site confirming my belief that some people in this world can always be counted on to be predictably consistent. I am, of course, referring to the all-Democrat Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders and George Devanney, our beloved County Manager.

The press release is about the new and improved MusicFest 2008 taking place in September at Nomahegan Park in Cranford.

This year's invasion of a quiet, residential neighborhood will not only feature a repeat of last years Rock On! Walkathon, but a 5K Rock N' Run, an additional third stage and now the event will take place on Friday night as well as the usual Saturday from dawn until whenever. You have to hand it to these guys - they just won't give up a great, free re-election campaign event when they see one. I am sure that the local residents can hardly contain their enthusiasm at the prospect of having cars blocking their driveways on the narrow residential streets for two days and nights rather than one. And how exciting to anticipate possibly finding a devoted concert attendee camping out under the shrubbery on a finely manicured lawn because they didn't want to spring for a hotel room at the Springfield Holiday Inn or loose their much-coveted parking space.

This year, the walkathon and newly added 5K run will again raise money for the Love Hope and Strength Foundation, "Nephew George's" favorite charity, and it looks like Devanney will once again benefit with help of sponsors, he was able to climb with his "teen idols" to the Mount calsource.com.

Everest Base Camp in Nepal. This year, they will be sending him off to Machu Piccu in Peru. Inquiring minds can check it out here for details http://www.perurocks.org. By clicking "trekkers" you will find George.

Part of the proceeds raised from the walk and the run will be sent off to Peru, however the board wised up this year and the second charity will be The Valerie Fund, a venerable New Jersey organization that supports children stricken with cancer and blood disorders and their families. "Atta Boys" go to the board for making a good choice this time keeping at least part of the money here in New Jersey.

Last year, they turned over thousands of dollars raised to an organization that in essence was a group that lobbied for our tax dollars to be spent on embryonic stem cell research. The ill-fated effort was defeated at the polls last election day when wise New Jersey voters decided that the state shouldn't plunge deeper in debt by pursuing this controversial science.

What looks like a serious effort to legitimize the two-day campaign event the freeholders have managed to suck Overlook Hospital into the mix as their main sponsor.

Hopefully, the hospital hasn't dug too deep into its pockets to lend financial support to recreate "Woodstock in Cranford" as even a few grand could go toward a charity care bill for someone who cannot afford health insurance. The freeholders claim that they are merely giving the taxpayers what they want and as a side bonus they are showcasing Union County and contributing to the local economy as they say concert goers are likely to shop and eat dinner that day in downtown Cranford.

They also point out that last year the event drew 50,000 attendees and this year even more are expected to come making MusicFest one of the fastest growing events of this type in New Jersey. The press release encourages lawn chairs, blankets and picnic baskets be brought along but what the heck why doesn't the "Gang of Nine" just go for it and erect a tent-city on the campus of Union County College.

Woman struck by Hooping it up her own vehicle

By Toniann Antonelli Managing Editor

UNION - A township woman was listen in critical condition at University Hospital in Newark Monday due to injuries she sustained after being struck by her own vehicle Friday.

Mariana Goncalves, 26, was seriously injured when her vehicle rolled over her in the driveway of her Hobart Street residence Friday at 7:15 p.m.

According to a press release by the Union Police Department Traffic Bureau, Goncalves "had apparently parked her vehicle in the driveway of her residence. The vehicle contains a manual transmission which was left in neutral, but Mariana set the parking break."

After exiting the vehicle, police say the victim noticed that the vehicle had started rolling backwards down a slight incline, toward the street.

"Mariana tried to stop the vehicle but the vehicle continued, striking her and knocking her to the ground. The vehicle then rolled over her, causing extensive injuries," Traffic Bureau Supervisor Sgt. Robert Christie said in the press release.

Goncalves was immediately transported to University Hospital in Newark. As of Monday afternoon, she was listed in critical condition in the surgical intensive care unit.

"A preliminary on-scene investigation was conducted but was inconclusive at this time," Christie said, adding that a more thorough inspection of the vehicle will take place this week.

Christie said witnesses were interviewed, but further statements from witnesses are still being taken and the investigation is being conducted by Officer Robert Jarman of the Traffic Bureau.

Police are asking anyone who may have witnessed the accident to contact the Traffic Bureau at 908-851-5070.

UEF gives grants to teachers

Foundation will honor recipients

The Township of Union Education Foundation has announced the recipients of educational grants for the 2008-09 school year.

This year, the foundation is awarding two large macro-grants. The first is for a pilot program in the German Language Department to be started at Union High School. Students will use modern technology on a daily basis in German class to connect with other German language classes as well as German news, radio, television, educational Web sites with video clips and sound bites of native German speakers. Students will better understand the German language and culture and observe its real world applications.

The other large macro-grant is being awarded to the Math Department at Union High School. A team of teachers will work with students to utilize math through real world applications by developing a study of traffic patterns at Union High School, devising solutions and presenting them to the township.

The Union Education Foundation has also awarded three minigrants to individual teachers or teams.

Gregory Pardo, fourth grade teacher at Connecticut Farms School, has been awarded a grant for his students to work in teams to devise a working hoverboard. Students will do research and analyze prior to developing a design which they will then construct.

Linda Hrevnack and Joan Pikula, teachers at Connecticut Farms School, will implement a year-long project studying the environment focusing on the importance of the impact of a watershed area on the lives of people in the state of New Jersey. Students will investigate a salt marsh in two seasons, noting changes, and they will design and build a functional water filtering system.

Susan Doyle and Lindsay Conneely, first grade teachers at Livingston School, have developed a year-long project for their students to study insects.

The project will integrate math, technology, literacy, social studies, art and music and will culminate in a family program for student and parents.

Education Foundation grants are competitive grants and these proposals represent the hard work of our teachers. The grant recipients will be honored at the annual UEF cocktail and dessert reception on May 15, from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m., sponsored by Schering Plough Corp. at the company's Morris Avenue site. All community members are invited to attend. To attend, checks made payable to Township of Union Education Foundation, should be sent to Irene Goldie-Petras, 1113 Liberty Ave., Union, 07083. public to be alert for these types of criminal activities.

unsolicited offers for spring cleanup services and roof, driveway, furnace or other types of repair," cautioned the chief. "Every year, residents become the victim of con artists who offer to make repairs acquire money and valuables. they claim are needed. The result is always the same: the victim pays for work that is inferior in sons who may be posing as utility or cable company quality or never completed at all. Citizens should be employees. These employees will always display extremely careful of persons who claims to have their identification. Generally, utility companies will been 'working in the neighborhood' or have 'leftover materials' that can save money."

(Continued from Page 1) According to Stephen Hudik, public relations representative for Kean, the school received $4.5 million less in state aid for the 2008-09 fiscal year than it did last vear.

"By spreading out the classes, we are providing students with more options," Hudik said.

He also suggested that the administration was going to have to either increase tuition by more than 20 percent or modify class schedules.

Maria Rodriguez, head of the Kean Federation of Teachers, said the transformation the university is seeking would make it something akin to a high school in terms of scheduling.

"Faculty can no longer teach classes back-to-back," the union representative said. "Now we would have to stay on campus all day."

Hudik said the faculty is on campus an average two to three days per week.

"We're talking about people who have up to $160,000 in salary and benefits and have Fridays and summers off," Hudik said. "They are looking to preserve that schedule. That economic model is simply not sustainable."

He said those professors are protected by tenure and contracts, whereas the students are not and suggested a tuition increase would be a more "devastating blow" to student. Some students said the decision was made without their knowledge and demanded answers from outside the president's office Monday afternoon.

"I think they just do what they want and don't ask for an opinion,"

UCT golf is today at Echo Lake

> By JR Parachini Sports Editor

Today we shall see which Union County golfer can drive the ball the farthest, execute their second and third shots the best and then step up to the green and clinch a par 3, par 4 or par 5 with an exciting putt.

The annual Union County match is scheduled to commence today at 1 p.m. at Echo Lake County Club in Westfield.

Dayton made its first appearance at the UCT last year for the first time in many years. The Bulldogs did well to place third with a team score of 366.

Brian Pak of Scotch Plains won the individual championship with a round of 74 and led his team to the title as the Raiders finished with a total score of 333. Defending champ Westfield finished second at 353.

Last Thursday, Pak shot a match-best 36 in Scotch Plains' 170-175 win over St. Joe's, Metuchen. Cranford's Rob Baer shot a match-best 32 in his team's win over New Providence, 160-164.

Roselle Park leaves GL happier after UCT victory Union wins; Brearley falls in close game

By JR Parachini Sports Editor

The Roselle Park softball team did not have fond year for the first time. memories of its last two trips to Berkeley Heights. nals, the Panthers were defeated by Governor Livingston 10-0 and limited to only two hits by senior righthander Capri Catalano, who is now starring in the Big East Conference at South Florida after becoming the state's all-time strikeout leader last spring.

Roselle Park returned on April 24 of this season and lost by 10 runs again, this time by the score of 11-1.

On Saturday when the Panthers got on the bus and left Berkeley Heights they were much happier. That's because they defeated host GL 4-1 in first round Union County Tournament play.

Roselle Park, the 10th seed, was one of three teams seeded outside the top eight that advanced. The others were 11th-seeded Rahway eliminating sixth-seeded Scotch Plains 6-4 and ninth-seeded Roselle Catholic ousting eighth-seeded Mother Seton of Clark 7-6.

Here's a look at last Saturday's first round scores and this Saturday's quarterfinal matchups:

FIRST ROUND: Saturday, May 3 Johnson 8, New Providence 6 Linden 2, Brearley 1 Roselle Catholic 7, Mother Seton 6 Cranford 12, Union Catholic 2 Rahway 6, Scotch Plains 4 Union 14, Summit 0 Roselle Park 4, Governor Livingston 1 Westfield 20, Dayton 0

QUARTERFINALS: Saturday, May 10

TOP SIDE OF THE BRACKET 5-Johnson at 4-Linden, 10:30 a.m. 9-Roselle Catholic at 1-Cranford, 10:30 or 4 p.m. BOTTOM SIDE OF THE BRACKET 11-Rahway at 3-Union, 10:30 a.m. 10-Roselle Park at 2-Westfield, 10:30 a.m.

Roselle Park scored all four of its runs in the top of the first and held on for a hard-fought win over host GL.

"It's been a crazy year," said Roselle Park veteran head coach Fran Maggio, who guided the Panthers to back-to-back UCT titles in 2003 and 2004. "GL beat us 11-1 two weeks ago."

The Panthers improved to 10-5, won their second straight and clinched another Central Jersey, Group 2 state playoff berth.

"We're just happy," Maggio said. "This was a real good win for us. Whatever happens now is gravy." Roselle Park will travel to Westfield to face the second-seeded Blue Devils next Saturday at 10:30 a.m. in one of four quarterfinals.

Coming through with big two-run hits for Roselle Park against GL were senior center field- that included 12 walks and seven strikeouts. r Michelle Rose with a single to make the score 2-0 and then senior designated player Alex Bober with a triple to make it 4-0. Rose's hit was the game-winner because it put Roselle Park ahead for good. She drove in sophomore first baseman Rebecca Vera and senior third baseman Liz Lautenbach. Vera reached on a bunt single and Lautenbach on a single. Vera was 3-for-4 with a run, while Rose was 2-for-3 with a run and a RBI.

GL, which fell to 8-6, is trying to qualify again in Central Jersey, Group 2 - a section it captured last

The Highlanders scored their only run off In last year's Central Jersey, Group 2 quarterfi- Roselle Park sophomore righty Taylor Zengewald in the bottom of the second.

> Zengewald improved to 7-3 and was sharp enough for the Panthers. She tossed a three-hitter, striking out five and walking five.

> The only run she allowed was earned and brought home by a groundout hit by GL's Amanda Quaglia of Mountainside.

"Taylor pitched great and also fielded her position well, especially on bunts," Maggio said.

NOTES: Two-time defending champion Cranford has now won nine straight UCT games. The Cougars began the week as the only unbeaten baseball or softball team left in Union County, owners of a 17-0 record.

The top four seeds have failed to make it to the semifinals at least the last three years.

The last top seed to win was Roselle Park in 2004, accomplishing the feat for a second consecutive year.

Linden began the week at 12-5 and had won seven of eight after edging Brearley 2-1 in its first round game. The Tigers defeated Johnson 3-2 at home back on April 15.

Brearley, which bounced back this year to qualify for the states again in Central Jersey, Group 1, received an outstanding pitching performance from freshman Stephanie Hand, who tossed a four-hitter. Brearley was 10-7 as of Monday.

Hand and Ally Gerhat had Brearley's only hits, while Amy-Lynn Roman scored an unearned run.

Linden improved to 13-5 on Monday after beating visiting Elizabeth 17-0.

Rahway improved to 8-4 with its fourth straight win, while Roselle Catholic evened its record at 7-7. Rahway defeated Oak Knoll 11-2 Monday in Chtatham to improve to 9-4. Union improved to 12-2 with its second straight win, Westfield improved to 13-2 with its seventh consecutive triumph and Johnson improved to 9-5. For the Farmers, senior center fielder Jessica Goncalves was 4-for-4, with four RBI, while junior catcher Hana Gross was 3-for-4, with five RBI.

Union upped its mark to 13-2 on Monday after Kristen Wilson no-hit Newark East Side 12-0 at home.

Kerri Bohse belted a double and drove in two runs, while Kristen Scioscia had three RBI.

Union was also scheduled to host Bishop Ahr Tuesday, play at Plainfield yesterday, host Governor Livingston today at 4 p.m. and host Scotch Plains tomorrow at 4 p.m.

Roselle Park won its third straight and improved to 11-5 on Monday after beating Dunellen 4-1 at home.

Vera was 2-for-3, with two runs and an RBI. while Ashley Taluba was also 2-for-3.

Zengewald improved to 8-3, tossing a three-hitter

Baseball squads looking to states

By JR Parachini Sports Editor

Now that the Union, Brearley, Roselle Park and Hillside baseball teams have been eliminated from the Union County Tournament, eachwill focus on obtaining success in the upcoming state playoffs.

Union, Brearley and Roselle Park have clinched berths, with Hillside. attempting to qualify for the first time in a long time.

Hillside, seeking to make the grade in Central Jersey, Group 2, was scheduled to host Newark Central Tuesday. Hillside had a 6-6 record two days ago, pending the official outcome of a game that it played at home against St. Anthony of Jersey City last Friday that it was losing 10-4 in the bottom of the fourth before the Jersey City school walked off the field. because of a dispute about how many innings one of its pitchers had thrown.

Hillside is scheduled to play at Roselle today at 4 p.m. and then host, Rav Teitz Mesivta tomorrow at 4 p.m. on the state playoff cutoff date.

Union defeated Newark East Side 11-7 in Newark Monday to improve to 9-7 and clinch another berth in North 2, Group 4. Ryan Shupe improved to 3-0, allowing nine hits and six runs in five innings, while striking out three and walking two. Julian Castro was 4-for-4, with six RBI and two runs, while John Motacki was 3-for-4, with three runs and one RBI. Union banged out 11 hits.

Union was to host Plainfield yesterday, host Irvington today in a makeup game and play at Scotch Plains tomorrow.

Roselle Park was 10-4 as of Tuesday, having a five-game winning streak snapped at Cranford 8-2 in last Saturday's UCT first round. The Panthers made the grade again in Central Jersey, Group 2, where last year they were defeated at home by New Providence in the quarterfinals.

Brearley sported a 9-3 mark as of Tuesday after beating Brearley 4-3 Sunday at Richmond County Bank Ballpark in Staten Island. All of the scoring in that game was done in the sixth, with Rahway scoring three in the top of the sixth and Brearley answering with four in the bottom of the inning.

Dominick Vitale and Jim Stafford delivered RBI-singles for the Bears, while Vin Gorka was the winning pitcher, tossing 72 pitches, allowing six hit, striking out three and walking none.

Brearley surpassed last year's win total of eight as the Bears finished 8-15 in 2007. They qualified for the states - making the grade in Central Jersey Group 1 - for the first time in four years.

Brearley's last winning season was in 2004 when the Bears finished 10-9 after falling to New Providence 7-1 in the Central Jersey, Group 1 final at Spotswood. New Providence was the second seed, while Brearley won three road games to get to the final as the 12th seed. Brearley won at Dunellen, at Dayton and then at top-seeded South Amboy in the semis.

Union track teams 2nd at UC Relays

By Jeff Cummins Staff Writer

WESTFIELD - The Union boys' track and field team excelled at last weekend's Union County Relays, finishing second to Westfield at Gary Kehler Stadium.

The host Blue Devils won the crown for the first time since 1983, totaling 86 points.

Union was second with 65, Scotch Plains third with 60, Union Catholic fourth with 59 and Rahway fifth with 57.5.

The team of Ellison Lucien, Andre Highsmith, Yannick Jones and Bayaan Oluyadi won the sprint medley relay last Friday with a time of 3:35.6.

While they were happy about that, there was a mild sense of frustration over their third-place finish in the 400-meter relay.

Union Catholic, which won the event in 42.4, and Elizabeth, which finished a hair faster than Union at 42.8.

"I thought we were going to win it," said Lucien, a junior. "I thought I ran well."

Union also won the long jump. The team of Ofolabi Omole, Stefaun Whitehead and Anthony McLean teamed up to jump 60-3 1/4, comfortably outdistancing second-place Westfield, which jumped 59-10.

Register now for Summer Youth Baseball League

The Union County Baseball Association invites young baseball players boys and girls ages 8 to 15 - to register for its Summer Youth Baseball League baseball teams. All games are played at Warinanco Park, Monday through Friday between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. and the games are coached and supervised by Union County Baseball Association staff.

Signups for the league will continue at the Warinanco Park Boat House in Roselle on Saturdays May 10, 17, 24 and 31 and June 7 from 9 a.m. to noon each day.

Each player is required to bring a $25 registration fee and a birth certificate to the signup. Players must be at least 8 years old by June 20 and cannot be 16 before Aug. 8.

A skill level evaluation will be conducted at the time of registration, so all players must bring a glove when they show up to register. This is not a tryout or a draft. All those who register will participate in play.

More information may be obtained by calling 908-789-3686.

Elizabeth finished in fourth place with a distance of 57-4 <sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>, but the real shame is that senior Quinn Williams came oh so close to a terrific jump.

The best jump Williams completed was 20-10, but he missed a 21-7 jump when he committed a foul by landing approximately one toe nail length over the foul board. Williams had won the event two of the last three years. "I also won it in the conference two consecutive years," Williams said. "Today I was in the third flight. Usually, I like to go in the beginning, but since I was at the end, it got kind of cold outside and I had to adjust to the wind, so I got kind of thrown off.

"My hamstring got a little tight, but I tried not to let it get to me." Williams is considering Texas A&M for its track and engineering programs.

Union's girls' team also came in second, behind Union finished with a time of 42.9, trailing first-time winner Johnson, which outscored the Farmers 74-72.

> Union captured the 800-meter relay behind Kyra Kemp, Anayah Mosby, Ashley Battle and Zainab Bisiolu in 1:44.3.

> The Farmers were also victorious in the 1,600meter relay behind Christelle Hyppolite, Dejanna Clairborne, Ugonna Ndu and Zainab Bisiolu in 3:59.5. Jeff Cummins may be reached for additional comment at jcummins@thelocalsource.com.

Borough to celebrate local history May 30

Exciting developments concerning the Nitschke House preservation project will be presened during a Kenilworth History Celebration on May 30. The event, which the Kenilworth Historical Society is hosting for the general public, will begin at 7 p.m. at the Kenilworth Senior Center, 526 Boulevard.

It will feature a debut performance by the Kenilworth Historical Players, who will reenact Lt. Gen. James Doolittle's famous 1929 plane crash in Kenilworth. Historic memorabilia and photographic exhibits will be on display, and a Kenilworth commemorative coverlet and soon-to-be-published "Culinary Kenilworth" cookbook will be available for purchase. Light refreshments will be served. Admission is free.

The colored, woven coverlet design bears Kenilworth's Centennial logo, which was created especially for the borough's 100-year celebration last year, and features such familiar sites as the Kenilworth Municipal Building, Sayre-Shallcross House, Kenilworth Boulevard and trolley, New York and New Orange Railroad Station, Upsala College, McKinley School, Kenilworth Public Library, Shallcross Pond in Black Brook Park, Kenilworth Police and Fire/Rescue, Kenilworth Inn and the James Arthur residence.

Proceeds from the sale of the coverlet will benefit the Kenilworth Historical Society's ongoing project to restore the historic Oswald J. Nitschke House and transform the 19th-century home into a "living history" museum and cultural arts center. To purchase a Kenilworth commemorative coverlet in time for Mother's Day Sunday, call 908-245-1467 or 908-272-2763.

The Kenilworth Historical Society will host a bus trip to New Jersey's famous, historic seashore resort of Ocean Grove on May 17. The bus will depart Kenilworth from St. Theresa's School parking lot at 9 a.m. and return at approximately 6 p.m. The cost includes motor coach transportation and a guided tour along Ocean Grove's tree-lined thoroughfares, which showcase one of the largest assemblages of authentic Victorian architecture in the United States.

The 90-minute narrated walking tour will highlight the colorful history of this popular family seashore resort, which is listed in the National and New Jersey Registers of Historic Places. Among the featured sites on the tour are Ocean Grove's Great Auditorium, "tent colony" and more.

The top tier UC towns debate NJ rise in ticket quota

.Two of my close friends are going through the anguish of waiting for the mail each day. Both of them have kids who have been wait-listed at the colleges they desperately want to attend. They are wonderful kids, super grades, National Honor Society with real leader ship skills.

The problem these kids face as they wait for the final countdown between acceptance and rejection is they are victims of numbers. They are part of the largest graduating class ever. In New Jersey 72,000 seniors are bound for college.

I'm well up on it after getting the ongoing reports as my two favorite applicants wait. They are achievers bound to be successful. The biggest problem they brought to society was one got a parking ticket.

They aren't legacy's which means having parents who graduated and kick in to the alumni fund. They also aren't the beneficiaries of affirmative action. They just rely on the American dream and hard work to succeed.

Back to the numbers. Princeton accepted less than 10 percent of applicants. Rutgers gets 40,000 applications for 9,800 slots. Fairleigh Dickinson University saw applications this year go up 23 percent.

The waitlist means that just like in Casablanca you sit and wait, and wait. What you wait for is in this era of multiple applications is that a slot will open up. As the wise priest said in the movie "Rudy" "Those admission people are real squirrels."

Jo Ann Hamilton, the head guidance counselor at Linden High School, is the hero of the story. She knows better than most the anguish of first generation kids facing up to the college admissions grind. She counsels the kids through the process. She By Katherine Paster Staff Writer

Across the state of New Jersey, police departments are implementing quotas that require officers to write a minimum number of tickets each month — a policy that some believe to be an effective way to measure productivity and generate municipal revenue.

In Union County, municipalities though differ in their policies; with some expecting a specific number of tickets issued each month and others leaving the practice to officers' discretion.

According to Union County Police Chief Daniel Vaniska, issuing a ticket quota for his department has never been necessary, as his officers collectively issue anywhere from 600 to 1,000 tickets each month.

"Writing tickets has been a performance evaluator for years in many police departments, but it has never been a problem here for us," said Vaniska. "We are a county wide department so there are chances to write tickets in many different areas, and our officers are aggressive and productive enough on their own."

According to the state delegate for the Union Police Department PBA Local No. 69, Detective William Fuentes, the pressure to meet a quota for issuing tickets is nothing new.

He said in 2007, Union police officers were pressured to make more motor vehicle stops and then pressured to increase the number of summons issued.

"All officers understand that writing summons is part of our street, we'll send someone out there arrests or citations. It is legal, how- job," Fuentes said. "Motor vehicle to investigate it. "Our municipal court was overwas added to handle the incredible increase in summons," Fuentes said.

Court revenue on ticket penalties in Union Township was $92,784 in January 2006, compared to $139,572 in January 2007.

While revenue generated by an officer's promotion, demotion or ticket fees is one way for financially-strapped municipalities to ease their budget woes, local police chiefs are adamantly opposed to the practice.

> "Police are not paid to raise revenue, they are paid to raise safety," said Springfield Police Chief William Chisholm, noting that his department does not issue ticket quotas. "Officers are just expected to do their jobs. They are paid to write summonses. If we get a call about speeding on a particular While Rahway Police Chief John Rodger does hold his officers performing officer will face repercussions.

'Officers who do not meet the whelmed and another court session standard may be subject to a counseling session or they may have to ride with a superior officer," said Rodger, noting the relatively new shift in policy. "Previously there was a theoretical standard which was low, and if you didn't achieve it, nothing was done."

> While Rodger maintains that issuing summons plays a major role in accident reduction, he dispels the notion that economic incentives should play any role in the enforcement of traffic laws.

> "I don't agree with using motor vehicle tickets as a tool to increase revenue, but I think there should be a minimal standard here where officers should be held accountable," said Rodger. "I would never endorse a situation where there was a hard number (that) officers had to write out, or if the budget was short, say go out and write tickets."

> For many Union County municipalities, police chiefs insist that ticket quotas do not exist because they are simply not necessary.

"I'm very lucky here, the offiaway the officers judgement and standard is an effective way to cers have been issuing a lot of sumdiscretion and also takes emphasis ensure that officers meet their monses," said Roselle Park Police Chief Paul Morrison. "A productivity policy is not necessary in Roselle Park."

According to Morrison, 37 summonses were issued by unmarked patrols in a two-day period in the downtown area last week. Last month, Roselle Park Police issued 424 tickets for moving violations. Borough police write an average of 100 to 110 summonses per month to motorists who are caught exceeding the speed limit during radar patrols.

Morrison said he can't rule out the possibility that such a policy will be discussed in the future, but he sees no need for it right now.

For other Union County municipalities, issuing ticket quotas are not now, and will ever be implemented as a means for spurring productivity.

"I don't believe in quotas at all, and at no point have we ever considered issuing them." said Summit Mayor Jordan Glatt. "Police are considered for promotion based on their training and their record, not at all on the amount of tickets they've issued.'

One month after opening its doors to the public, the Union County Performing Arts Center staff is busy fine-tuning operations, booking programs, and preparing for the facility's first summer of operations.

The newly renovated $7.2 million performing arts center located in downtown Rahway has enjoyed unprecedented success during its premier month of operations, drawing in large crowds to an array of comedy, dance and theater productions. "It's been very exciting," gushed UCPAC Executive Director Sandy Erwin. "We've had all different kinds of shows on our stage already, and it's only the beginning of May." With almost every single Friday and Saturday evening of the coming year already booked at the revamped historic theater, Erwin and her staff have been busy preparing to host additional programs for the first time during the warm summer months. Thanks to the installation of a state-of-the art cooling system, the theater will now allow residents to enjoy programming in a comfortable climate.

"Every one of these improvements is correlated to the possible programming that will occur here," said Erwin. "We can now provide more programs, larger productions, and ultimately better shows than we ever have before."

The new second floor rehearsal space-complete with mirrored walls, parquet flooring and large windows-will provide visiting dance companies and choral groups with an expansive, naturally lit place to warm up before shows. Formerly named the Rahway Theater, the historic performing arts center, was purchased by the county for $1.3 million in 2006. The county acquired the property from Rahway Landmarks, Inc., a local non-profit preservation group who began restoration of the theater, which had fallen into disrepair in the 1970's. In November 2006, the county began a series of renovations that were needed to bring the historic facility up to contemporary technical standards that would enable the venue to host performances yearround. In their expansive new space, the UCPAC staff now believes the sky is the limit in terms of program expansion and development. "We really have a lot of great ideas and a lot of people who are dedicated to working on them," said Erwin. "This is a very exciting time for the Union County Performing Arts Center."

describes the "torn" kids who not only fight for admission but have to fight for funding as well.

Last week after May 1decision day, she took a break to detail the problems. Some of the top kids at Linden High School are going to places like Brandeis. NJIT and Rutgers. But she is just as proud about her kids going to Devry and county colleges. She says it's good to be "proactive" in guiding the kids. Saintly might be a better word.

Hamilton spent the past few weeks advocating for her kids including putting in a "good word" at colleges where she is developing relationships. It may be the difference in close cases. She also describes the anguish of kids who surrender their first choice because more dollars are offered elsewhere. Hamilton is very concerned about the Legislature doing away with the "Stars" program of funding for many of the kids she serves.

There is some irony that a few miles from her high school last Friday evening at the First Baptist Church a crowd met to hear from U.S. Senate Candidate Rob Andrews. The candidate spoke about Iraq, budgets and how poorly President Bush has been operating.

During the question and answer period, the growing problems of gangs were discussed. Andrews agrees this is a problem we must address. Recently my focus has been on two kids striving to make the best they can of their lives.

From this corner, the Linden Board of Education should send a dozen roses to Ms. Hamilton. Also from this corner is an open invitation to the Dean of Admissions at Lafayette and Providence colleges to chat with me just five minutes.

Stylish "Comedy of Errors" has the solid Shakespearian touch

By Ruth Ross Correspondent

Identity theft is certainly no laughing matter, but don't tell William Shakespeare. Multiple instances of mistaken identity, not one but two sets of identical twins separated as infants during a shipwreck and a sense that all is not what it seems forms the basis of the Bard's madcap comedy, "The Com-edy of the base of the com-. OVA

Last performed by STNJ in 2001, the production kicks_off the 2008 season at The Shakespeare Theatre of New Jersey in Madison where it runs through May 18.

Chaos ensues when the longlost twins unknowingly end up in the same city and cross paths with each other's friends and lovers. Inspired by a comedy by the Roman playwright Plautus, Shakespeare complicated the plot even further, adding identical twin servants. One-liners, zingers and physical comedy abound, alongside some provocative, but subtle, notions about reputation, relationships and self-identity. The play brims with eccentric characters, including a status-clinging goldsmith, a medieval doctor who attempts to exorcise one of the twins, a haughty courtesan and a posedly, has entrusted into his care, with military uniform and sunglassmysterious and intimidating Johnson's expressive face and great es, and the wacky conjurer Dr. Abbess.

And the concept resonates with modern theatergoers, many of whom have relocated because of jobs or a desire to move to a new place to make one's way in the world.

Christian Conn and Derek Wilson, do a fine job as the two high born twins. Conn ably conveys the discombobulation felt by Antipholus of Syracuse, a recent arrival in the metropolis of Ephesus, who unexpectedly finds himself saddled with a wife, a creditor and a mistress, who all want something from him. As his twin, Antipholus of Ephesus, Wilson is the embodiment of righteous indignation at being locked out of his house, dunned for a gold chain he ordered but did not receive, and fears he's losing his mind in this city of sorcerers, witches and madmen.

A servant named Dromio - the second set of identical twins accompanies each Antipholus. As the more sober Dromio of Syracuse, Nick Cordileone becomes unhinged upon discovering that he's married to a spherical kitchen wench named Nell. ### Darfur display closes Friday Unforgettable images of the genocide unfolding in the Darfur region of Sudan will be displayed in the Center for Academic Success Gallery at Kean University through this Friday.

"An image becomes powerful only after it's given an audience," said Director of University Galleries Neil Tetkowski who arranged the exhibition with Spencer Reed. "[His] photo documentation of the ravaging effects of genocide in Sudan speaks loudly while shedding light on global issues by capturing them on a human level in a way that simple statistics never can."

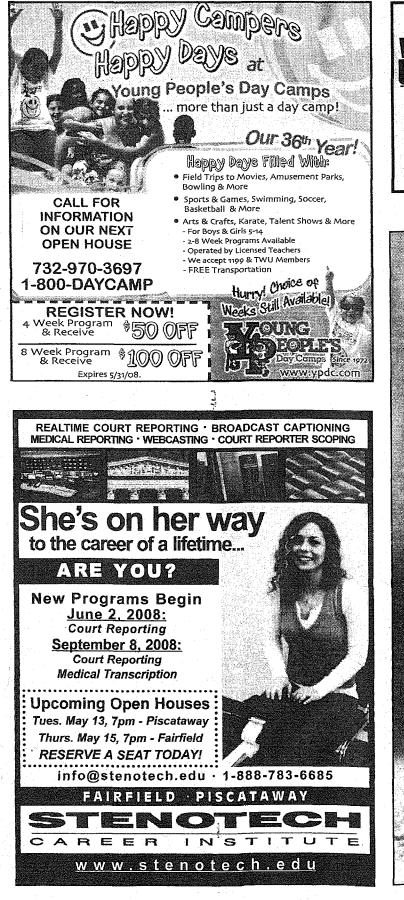

Tetkowski said it is his hope that the exhibition will act as a catalyst to initiate dialogue and to elevate consciousness among all members of the human global family.

Kean University hosted an international human rights conference on campus entitled Darfur: the First Genocide of the 21st Century in February.

The event attracted a capacity crowd of more than 950 students, teachers, and guest to the Wilkins Theatre. Nicholas D. Kristof, twotime Pulitzer Prize winning journalist and The New York Times columnist, served as the keynote speaker at the conference.

The exhibition's hours are Thursday from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Friday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Love of Papermill pays off for Harper

By Bea Smith Staff Writer

The Paper Mill Playhouse in Millburn has always been a vital part of Esther Harper's life. The Summit resident learned every aspect of theater by attending the Paper Mill performances with her "parents and both sets of grandparents, who were subscribers. I have always loved the Paper Mill."

Perhaps that is why Harper was so "happy and excited" to be appointed director of development by Mark S. Hoebee, artistic director, and Mark W. Jones, executive director.

"The Paper Mill is such a great theater," Harper exclaimed the other morning during a chat. "After all, why take a bus to Manhattan when you have Broadway right here? Actually," she said, "I am honored to work on behalf of an organization with such a proud history of preserving and nurturing the American musical theater. I look forward to building upon the incredible accomplishments of Mark and Mark, Jones and Hoebee, respectively, the Board of capacity of the organization to bring our vital programs to the state of New Jersey and beyond."

Jones has said that "choosing a director of development was truly a team effort, and we feel we have chosen an outstanding professional with significant skills in fundraising and institutional advancement. This completes my focus on securing the best possible management team to move Paper Mill Playhouse into a new era of both artistic and fiscal success."

Hoebee added, "We are thrilled to welcome Esther. She brings a wealth of fundraising expertise and experience to our team."

Recently, Harper served as the chief development officer for Girls Incorporated, a national non-profit youth organization, "dedicated to inspiring all girls to be strong, smart and bold." Harper executed and managed "a comprehensive fund development program including major gifts, foundation, institutional giving and government support, partnership marketing, special events, planned giving, corpo-

Trustees and staff in expanding the rate membership, direct mail and annual giving."

Before she joined Girls Inc., Harper worked for 11 years at Thirteen/WNET, and most recently as the managing director of corporate and educational development; previously, as the director of corporate and educational development. Her department raised millions in general operating and program-specific support and developed strong relationships with major foundations, such as Rockefeller Brothers Fund, Toyota USA Foundation and Citigroup Foundation, she said.

She held key posts and raised funds for The Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum and the Human Rights Watch.

Harper had graduated from Pingry School in Hillside when she lived in Elizabeth: "I was in the last graduating class there before they moved." She graduated from the New School of Social Research, where she received bachelor of science and master's degrees in media arts.

Harper lived in Elizabeth when she was a child and then moved to Summit. Her father, Dr. David Kaufman, was a gastroenterologist and the president and chief of staff at Elizabeth General Hospital in Elizabeth, now known as Trinitas Hospital.

She lived in Manhattan for 20 years, but last year, she, and her husband, Peter Harper, bought a house in Summit, where they reside with their three-and-a-half year old twins, Maggie and David. "It's a nice environment to raise children in the same way I grew up. I was working full time in Manhattan; now, I'll be able to see and spend more time with my children here in Summit, which has great public schools and beautiful houses. And I always wanted to live closer to my family." Her father came from Elizabeth and her mother and grandparents from South Orange.

Her husband, who works for Time Inc., is director of New Business Development on Home Entertainment. "He always has been in publishing," she said. Harper is See LOVE Page 6

My pasta was served with plenty of fresh garlic, just the way I like it. There was an array of other pastas and sauces available as well, including fettuccini alfredo and penne in pink vodka sauce.

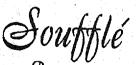

Bongiovi said the skirt steak and various meat skillet dishes are some of City Tavern's most popular meals.

I recommend that anyone who eats at the City Tavern order dessert, even if you're full from dinner. The dessert portions will satisfy your sweet tooth, but they're small enough that you won't feel as if you're overstuffing yourself. I had the flan and my friend ordered tiramasu. Both desserts were very good.

My friend and I left the tavern satisfied. We both agree that the City Tavern is a great place to eat, whether you feel like a quick, low-key meal or a three-course feast.

(Continued from Page 5) proud of her entire family. She is especially proud of her mother-inlaw, Prudence Harper, who "was a curator at the Metropolitan Museum in New York, and who has written books," and of her own mother, a painter and a music teacher. "The arts," she said, "are in our family."

Harper interviewed for the position at the Paper Mill about a year ago. "And when they contacted me," she said, "I was thrilled for the opportunity, and I wanted my children to be able to enjoy the Paper Mill Playhouse and continue the tradition. I have a background in the arts, and I think theater is a perfect way to education, while entertaining all ages."

Harper, who will begin her duties at the Paper Mill in the middle of May, is, beyond all else, a professional fundraiser. "I'll be working in the fundraising field with a fantastic team of professional individuals." She beamed, "I'm delighted to be able to work for Mark Jones, and I'll be honored to get to know the people at the Paper Mill, and to reach out to

She declared, "As a fundraiser, you look to reach out to individuals and corporations and foundations and in government, to support this organization and to help it grow. You want it to grow and be successful.

This is why, Harper, who has been in the fundraising business for 24 years, emphasized, "it's important to have such a program for the Paper Mill, which is so special a theater, so unique, so important and so necessary for the community. I know it will succeed. I have complete confidence."

She also confided that "I actually set out to be a fundraiser. I had a wonderful mentor in New York. I decided to go with it as a career. My job is to open the door. And when I met Mark Jones, I was incredibly impressed with him. I knew he was a hit the minute I met him. I feel so lucky that I am going to work for him."

What really prompted Parker to become a fundraiser? She said that it started in 1983 when she worked on 'Save the Theaters,' a fundraising benefit, in New York. "That's what made me decide to work in fundraising. And I believe the Paper Mill will have real success in this --- simply because I love my job and will give it my utmost.'

I HEATER

Musical revue "STARTING HERE. STARTING NOW" continues Friday and Saturday evenings, May 9, 10, 16, 17, 30 and 31 in the WCP theater at 1000 North Avenue West, Westfield, at 8 p.m. Call 908-232-1221. There will be a benefit performance for the Soroptimists on Friday. Pucker up and get ready for romance at the Paper Mill Playhouse in "KISS ME, KATE" which won the very first Tony Award for Best Musical in 1949 - and has been delighting audiences ever since. Inspired by The Taming of the Shrew, this charming story follows two musical theatre actors -once married, now divorced - as they star together in a Broadway-bound musical version of Shakespeare's play. "Kiss Me, Kate" runs through May 18 at the Paper Mill. For ticket infor-
