

Health Officer Explains Benefits of Fluoridation

By WILLIAM F. SMITH
Health Officer, Cranford

A partial control in the prevention of dental caries is a possibility, according to recent reports, carefully controlled studies of artificially fluoridated water supplies. The fluoridation of water is the most effective and economical method of preventing dental caries. It is a simple and more economical approach would indicate the addition of fluorides to the water supply, as we now return the vitamin "B" to our daily bread.

Opinions favoring fluoridation of public water supplies, under proper dental, medical and engineering supervision, on an experimental basis have been expressed during 1950, by the United States Public Health Service, State and Territorial Dental Health Directors Association, American Dental Society, Essex County Dental Society, State and Territorial Health Officers Association.

Opinions opposing fluoridation have been expressed by statements made by Harry Fabe and Dr. Abel Wolman, in the Journal of the American Water Works Association. On the fact that the experimental studies will not be completed for several years and that every citizen should consider the principle of using the public water supply as a vehicle for the mass medication of a populace.

As of December 1949, more than sixty fluoridation installations were in operation or in the process of being installed in communities throughout the United States. The members of the Board of Health would welcome expression of opinions from the public, whether or not it should recommend the addition of fluorides to the water supply.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

A filter on your camera adds tremendously to beach scenes such as this because it helps out the clouds.

There was a time when the mere mention of the word "vacation" conjured up a vision of summer warmth and brightness—no vacationing is no longer limited to any one season. Such travel is a year-around activity these days—and that means vacation picture taking also goes on 12 months of the year.

Thoughts of summer still enter into the picture, however, because the warm, sunny beaches of the southland are highly favored by winter-time vacationists.

If you are vacationing this winter, do plan to make pictures. Of course, whether you do your shooting with still or movie camera, with black-and-white or color film, is entirely up to you. However, many people feel that color transparencies make the best possible photographic vacation record. They feel that the color which you can purchase from almost any photographic dealer.

Stephen Folder, Arthur Donnelly, William Kinney, James Fluehrth and John O'Hara, lion bodied, William Ladden and Harold Donnelly.

Gold arrows presented to John Brennan, Alfred Keller, Arthur Donnelly, James Fluehrth, Ben Chappelle, Arthur Chappelle and Harold Donnelly.

Farris P. Swackhamer, cubmaster, congratulated a question and spelling bee, winners of which were Arthur Donnelly, Tom Hogan and Albert Vajda.

Miss Joan Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Eugene Snyder of 322 South Union Avenue, has been accepted at Tennessee Wesleyan College, Athens, Tenn., for the fall term. She will be graduated in June from Cranford High School.

Barbique Casualties.

It is estimated that between three and four million people have lost their lives through earthquakes since the 19th century.

Winter Vacation Picture Taking

There was a time when the mere mention of the word "vacation" conjured up a vision of summer warmth and brightness—no vacationing is no longer limited to any one season. Such travel is a year-around activity these days—and that means vacation picture taking also goes on 12 months of the year.

Thoughts of summer still enter into the picture, however, because the warm, sunny beaches of the southland are highly favored by winter-time vacationists.

R. J. McNair Withdraws To Aid Carr, Scheidter

ELIZABETH — Tax Assessor Robert J. McNair, independent candidate for Freeholder and secretary of the Union County Republican Committee, today delivered a terrific jolt to the Republican Freeholders seeking re-election with the announcement of his withdrawal from the race and his support of Nelson L. Carr of Elizabeth and Mrs. Kate E. Scheidter.

McNair, in announcing that he will support Carr and Mrs. Scheidter, said that their nomination is essential to "giving the Board of Freeholders back to the people of Union County." The Elizabeth assessor, long a popular figure in the county, praised the qualifications of the two Regular Republican Organization candidates, adding that their abilities equal those of any of the present members of the board.

THE STRENGTH OF OUR NATION.. lies in the financial security of its people

OUR nation is in a state of emergency. The threat of inflation is growing every day. We must keep our nation economically strong by checking that inflation. We can do it if we live. It is also contributed substantially to the growth of the economy.

INCREASE OUR PRODUCTION to meet defense needs, reduce our civilian demands.

SUPPORT INCREASED TAXES to put our defense effort on a "pay-as-you-go" basis. INSIST THAT NONMILITARY EXPENDITURES BE CUT TO THE BONE.

ACCEPT CURBS ON CREDIT. Credit restrictions reduce competition for commodities.

INCREASE SAVINGS AND LIFE INSURANCE to reduce spending for consumer goods.

BUY ONLY WHAT WE NEED. Otherwise, we bid against ourselves for scarce goods.

Hail Girl Scouts!

Throughout the nation, Girl Scouts this week are celebrating their thirty-ninth anniversary. We congratulate them on their growth as one of the strongest and most beneficial of all organizations for girls.

Juliette Gordon Low founded the Girl Scout movement in Savannah, Ga., on March 12, 1912. Today, the official current membership count is 1,468,796.

What better way is there for a girl to learn the makings of a good citizen—both for democracy and for the world? As a Girl Scout, she learns how to cooperate with others, how to care for herself and how to observe her troop, her family and her community.

The scope of Girl Scouting reaches beyond the local and national level. Although these girls undertake many projects in their own home towns, they look even further and participate in such international programs as "Clothes for Friendship," a drive which provided complete wardrobes for about 150,000 boys and girls in Europe and Asia.

Last year, Girl Scouts had "School-mates Overseas" as their international service project. In this program, they sent simple classroom materials to children in other lands.

In Cranford, Girl Scouts have been active in collecting milk bottles, canned food, clothing and numerous other articles for benefit of the needy. Girl Scouts also are valued workers for the Civil Defense Council.

We commend the girls and their leaders for the fine record they have made. This record will shine even brighter as each new anniversary is reached and celebrated.

Tax Saving Time

For most individual taxpayers today marks the final day to pay Federal income taxes. It is also a good time to pause a moment and take stock of the amount of money New Jersey residents, as individuals, pay into the Federal coffers.

The U. S. Treasury Department's latest report shows that New Jersey taxpayers contributed $1,133,975,046.61 in the year ended June 30, 1950. This was almost three percent of revenues, totaling nearly 99 billion dollars, collected by Uncle Sam in all the states and territories.

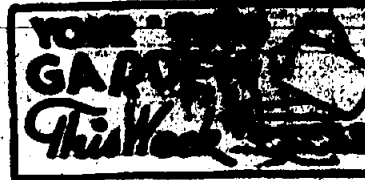

Of the Federal tax collections in New Jersey, income and profits taxes totaled nearly 844 million dollars, employment and carrier taxes more than 24 million dollars and miscellaneous revenues more than 215 million dollars.

Standing eighth in population, New Jersey holds the same rank in tax payments. In dollar contributions, it is exceeded only by New York, Illinois, California, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Ohio and Texas, in that order.

Some idea of the Federal tax bill in the year ahead is indicated by the proposed 71½ billion dollar "peace-war" budget for fiscal 1952. This is almost 80 percent more than the government spent in the year ended June 30, 1950, when New Jersey taxpayers alone contributed more than a billion dollars.

In addition to giving their dollars, taxpayers can make an even more important contribution to the national welfare by insuring upon non-essential spending included in the new budget. Authorities such as Senator Byrd of Virginia and the national Committee on Federal Tax Policy have outlined means of trimming nine to ten billion dollars from the non-war phases of the new budget.

In view of the mounting needs of the government for military purposes and the resulting burden upon every taxpayer, these savings are a must.

SPCA Officers Explain Plan For Shelter

An explanation of the proposal of the Union County SPCA for a Regional Animal Shelter to be managed by the SPCA is contained in letters sent this week to members of the Township Committee by Ross E. Rowland of 427 North Union Avenue, secretary of the County SPCA.

Several weeks ago a meeting was held in the Municipal Building, Westfield, under the auspices of Mayor Charles Bailey of Westfield and the Union County SPCA.

At that time 10 contiguous Union County municipalities were invited to consider their participation in the operation of a Regional Animal Shelter, to be managed, staffed, and maintained, by our organization. The cost to each community was established by multiplying 50 percent of the licensed dog population by $1.70. This would be an annual charge and would be adjustable on a yearly basis. In round figures the cost to Cranford would be about $200 a year.
