Plan Pool Trip As Playground Program Feature

GARWOOD—Arrangements are being made for a trip by Garwood children to the Union County Park Commission pool in Linden next week, in connection with the local summer playground program sponsored by the Recreation Commission, it was reported today by Joseph Troiano, playground director. Boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 16 years wishing to make the trip are requested to get in touch with Mr. Troiano.

The director announced that daily attendance at the playgrounds at Lincoln and Washington Schools has been averaging 110.

Having completed work on plaster moulds, the children this week have been making laniards, letter holders and bracelets. Basket weaving will be started next week.

Continuing a series of Friday night motion picture programs, "Miss Grant Takes Richmond," starring Lucille Ball, will be shown at the Washington School playground tomorrow night.

Miss Marlane Zavoda of Clark is assisting Mr. Troiano in conducting activities at the two playgrounds.

Garwood Births

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Festa of 415 Union street have announced the birth of a daughter, Bonnie Anne, on July 8 at Elizabeth General Hospital. Mrs. Festa is the former Miss Fern Bertolamy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bertram J. Bertolamy of the Union street address.

A son, Raymond Kevin, was born to Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Constandi of 653 Myrtle avenue on July 8 at Rahway Memorial Hospital.

Twin sons, Carl and John, were born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Del Conte of 431 Union street on July 6 at Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter William Stewart of 414 Willow avenue have announced the birth of a son James Michael, on June 30 at Overlook Hospital, Summit.

A daughter, Jean Marie, was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Warchol of 417 Oak street on July 8 at Rahway Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hartung of 604 Spruce avenue have announced the birth of a daughter, Nancy Jeanne, on July 9 at Elizabeth General Hospital.

Local Girl Wins Medal In State Essay Contest

GARWOOD — Commander Edward S. Tripka of Garwood Memorial Post 317, American Legion, announced today that Dorothy Pickarski of Garwood received honorable mention and a medal for taking sixth place in the state in this year's American Legion safety contest.

The local student took first place in the essay competition in Union County.

Alcoa Officials Study Pay Increase Demands

GARWOOD — The Aluminum Company of America in Pittsburgh, Pa., began studying demands Friday of the AFL Aluminum Workers, seeking a pay increase. About 10,000 Alcoa workers are represented in the AFL union which, for the first time, has joined the CIO United Steelworkers in joint bargaining strategy. Another 15,000 are represented by the USW.

If an agreement is not reached, concerning pay increase under contract reopening clauses, the unions are free to strike at midnight, July 31.

Fishing Party

GARWOOD—A fishing party comprising Police Sgts. James Lesak and Foster Cowell, Frank Wanca, Charles Manfredi and Bernard, Leon and Sam Papier boarded the "Ken Donna" out of Sandy Hook and caught 180 porgies and 23 fluke last Wednesday night.

Roth Named Director Of Historical Services

GARWOOD — The United States Air Force has appointed Russell D. Roth, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Roth of 404 Third avenue, director of historical services of the Aviation Engineer Force, which has headquarters at Wolters Air Force Base, Tex.

Mr. Roth is a veteran of World War II. He received his A.B. degree from Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, La., and his A. M. degree from Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa. He did work toward his Ph. D. at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md.

St. Anne's Nine Wins

GARWOOD—For their fourth straight victory, St. Anne's defeated Immaculate Conception of Elizabeth, 10-6, in a game here during the past week. This gave the local team a first-place tie in the CYO Intermediate Baseball League.

Closed Plant Interests Companies

It was learned this week that Mayor Fred P. Andersen has had several conferences with parties interested in the vacant building at South avenue, west, and Lincoln avenue previously occupied by the sweetening division of the Wood and Selick Company. One particularly good prospect for purchase of the premises, it is understood, is a food processing company.

Wood and Selick, which occupied the plant from January 3, 1950, moved last September "for reasons of economy" to a larger plant in Elmhurst, L. I., where it amalgamated its production with that of another firm in the same line. When in full production here, the company employed 50 persons.

Of one and three-story construction, the building was valued at $300,000 by the company when it was erected in 1949. It has face brick and cast stone fronts on South and Lincoln avenues, and the fireproof interior has walls of special type cement which permit cleaning with steam.

It also has been reported that there have been several approaches with reference to the Johnson & Johnson Baby Products plant on Walnut avenue, but that "none has been of a satisfactory nature." Johnson & Johnson reported last fall that it is considering sale of its plant in Cranford and its shipping center in Edison Township and transferring their operations and those of its manufacturing plant in New Brunswick to a new consolidated plant.

All indications are that the firm will build its new plant in North Brunswick Township, just outside of New Brunswick. Announcement of the development of the North Brunswick plant is expected after Labor Day.

While finding tenants for the Wood and Selick and Johnson & Johnson plants remains up in the air, Griffiths Laboratories of Newark reports that plans are progressing for their new plant in South avenue, opposite the Wakefern warehouse. It is expected that ground breaking ceremonies will be held before the end of the summer.

Weatherman Sees Relief

Cranford area residents may find slight relief from the heat today, according to the Weather Bureau at Newark Airport, which predicts the thermometer probably will not go above 85 degrees. Scattered showers and cloudiness also are expected, the bureau announced.

In a long range prediction, the bureau added that warm weather can be expected until tomorrow, while it will be slightly cooler Saturday. Temperatures through Sunday will average two to five degrees above normal, the bureau said.

Ernest J. Christie, chief of the U. S. Weather Bureau in New York, indicated that this month, noted for its heat waves tempered by only one day of respite, may become the hottest July on record. This bureau, established in 1871, names July, 1952 as the recordholder with an average temperature of 78.9 degrees.

But July probably will not produce a high rainfall record. According to the Newark bureau up until last week there had only been 1.12 inches compared with the norm of 4.2. By Tuesday, rainfall had reached only 1.14. The record of .84 dates from 1930.

A 97-degree temperature was recorded in Elizabeth and Newark last Thursday. High for the day was 104 degrees, recorded in 1930.

SA Fund at $1,406

Receipts in the annual fund appeal of the Salvation Army reached $1,406.46 in Cranford this week, it was announced yesterday by Henry W. Whipple, local treasurer. In expressing appreciation to local residents for their generous support, Mr. Whipple pointed out that the funds raised here have helped send several local youngsters to camp this summer. Further donations may be made to Mr. Whipple.

PUC Water Hearing Seen After Labor Day; High Pressure Causes Numerous Leaks

The Inter-Municipal Water Committee, which has petitioned for a hearing before the Public Utility Commission on supply and distribution problems in the Plainfield-Union Water Company area, will seek to have the hearing date set for after Labor Day, it was revealed today by Mayor Fred P. Andersen, chairman of the group.

"We feel we should wait until after Labor Day," Mayor Andersen explained, "so there can be no question about our having given a fair trial to the new set-up under which Plainfield-Union is getting additional water from the Elizabethtown supply." (The mayor referred to the recent hook-up in Roselle to a new 36-inch Elizabethtown pipe line capable of delivering up to 4,000,000 gallons of water a day into the Plainfield-Union system.)

Mayor Andersen added that he has written to Plainfield-Union offering to have the Inter-Municipal Water Committee's consulting engineers, Malcolm Pirnie Engineers of New York, cooperate in flow studies which the water company agreed to begin upon completion of the new pipe line.

When the petition for a hearing was filed in Trenton on June 30 by Township Attorney Carl H. Warsinski, counsel for the Inter-Municipal group, the PUC also was requested to issue an order directing Plainfield-Union to provide additional facilities described in engineering reports as necessary for completely satisfactory service to the area served by the company.

Plainfield-Union officials declare that with the new 36-inch main connected to its system the company is in better shape to meet the needs of its customers than it has been in the past seven or eight years.

Surveys conducted by engineer-

Consistently high water pressure here, running frequently above 90 pounds per square inch, has been reflected in an increase in the number of water leaks discovered in streets throughout the township since the Elizabethtown Water Company's new 36-inch main was cut into the Plainfield-Union System at Roselle on July 11.

George M. Haskew, chief engineer for Plainfield-Union, said that increased pressure in the local mains due to the new connection and pumping station in Roselle "seeks-out" weak points in the pipe lines and shows up as leaks. He said his company is keeping crews steadily on the job to make repairs as rapidly as possible and avoid unnecessary water loss.

Members of the police department have been instructed to keep a sharp lookout for leaks so that the water company may be notified and repairs started as soon as possible, Acting Police Chief Lester W. Powell announced.

Eight leaks were reported within a record of less than four hours Sunday morning.

At 3:25 that morning Patrolman Robert Ryan reported a very bad leak on Meeker avenue south of Heinrich street, and five minutes later there was a report from Patrolman Joseph Kovacs of a serious leak in front of 325 North avenue, east. A slight leak was discovered in front of 159 Hillcrest avenue at 3:40 a.m., and at 3:45 a.m. Patrolman Ryan discovered another on Centennial avenue south of Hayes street.

Patrolman Kovacs called in at 5 a.m. Sunday to list a serious leak in front of 203 Arbor street, and at the same time Patrolman Ryan reported a leak in front of 13 Hawthorne street. Another call from Patrolman Ryan at 5:30 a.m. listed a leak in front of 309 Lincoln avenue. A citizen called headquarters at 7:10 a.m. to report a leak in front of 42 Balmiere Parkway.

The leak at 203 Arbor street also had been reported by Sgt.

Water Group Not Committed To Any Plan

Commenting on the recommendation by an engineering firm studying the state's water needs that a reservoir be developed at Chimney Rock in Somerset County instead of at Round Valley in Hunterdon County, Mayor Fred P. Andersen, chairman of the Inter-Municipal Water Committee, declared today that his group is not committed solely to the Round Valley proposal.

"The Inter-Municipal Committee," he declared, "is committed to finding of a long-range solution to our water problems but not to any particular project for accomplishing this. We have looked favorably upon Round Valley as one possible solution and we shall give serious consideration to the Chimney Rock proposal, but there also may be alternatives not yet explored."

Mayor Andersen added that it has been his personal understanding that a reservoir at Chimney Rock would be prohibitive from the standpoint of cost.

A third proposal which has been put forward for solution of this area's water problems on a long-range basis is that of the Elizabethtown Water Company to establish smaller reservoirs on the Raritan River as opposed to any large-scale public reservoir development.

The Chimney Rock plan, recommended by Tippetts-Abbott-McCarthy-Stratton, New York consulting engineers, and approved last Wednesday by a special legislative commission, was the subject of discussion Tuesday night at a meeting of water experts called by Governor Robert B. Meyner. It will be considered again today when the Legislative Commission on Water Supply, for which the engineering firm conducted its water survey, meets in Trenton with civic groups and water agencies.

PO Receipts Up Again

Receipts at the Cranford Post office for the fiscal year ended June 30 totaled $184,818.16, representing an increase of $7,930.43 over the total of $176,887.73 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1953, according to figures released today by Postmaster Arthur F. Metz.

As is usually the case, the quarter of the past fiscal year ending December 31 (which included the Christmas rush) showed the heaviest receipts — $60,077.58. This was slightly under the receipts of $61,001.21 for the same period of the previous year.

The smallest quarterly receipt total was for the first quarter of the fiscal year, ending September 30, 1954, when $37,924.78 was taken in. This represented an increase of $5,476.69 over the receipts for the same quarter of the previous fiscal year.

Third and fourth quarter totals, ending March 31 and June 30 of this year, were $41,190.10 and $45,625.70, respectively, as compared with $41,267.50 and $42,170.93 for the same quarters of the previous fiscal year.

Report Progress On Sewer Project

Further progress in the face of difficulties was made this week on the lateral trunk sewer being laid along Lambert street from Wade avenue to Central avenue, with 200 feet of pipe in place up to yesterday, it was reported by Township Engineer Patrick J. Grall.

Because of a layer of quicksand discovered as the job progressed, well points were laid out Tuesday to permit pumping out of water. Laying of pipe in the second 200-

Expansion Projects Planned, Underway at Many Churches

Building activity continues at a record pace in Cranford this year and the physical growth of the community's churches is keeping pace with it

Construction is underway on educational buildings of the Calvary Lutheran Church and the Cranford Alliance Church. Within the past five years, Trinity Episcopal Church opened both Sherlock Hall and an educational building, while First Presbyterian Church opened a large Sunday School structure.

Cranford Methodist Church held its first services in its new edifice in Walnut avenue last fall and already has appointed a committee to study the possible needs of additional facilities.

Burton C. Belden, chairman, reports the building committee of the First Presbyterian Church is considering preliminary plans for an expansion program that would include educational and administrative facilities and a fellowship hall. It is expected recommendations will be submitted to the congregation before the end of the year, Mr. Belden reports.

Only last month the congregation of the Osceola Presbyterian Church approved the construction of two rooms and a bath in the attic of the manse. Meanwhile, a study is underway to determine if an expansion program is necessary for the church.

Plans also are being considered at St. Mark's AME Church for remodeling work on both the church and the parish house. Ernest Mayers, trustee, is in charge of arrangements for the project.

Dr. George A. Aitcheson, pastor of the Cranford Alliance Church, reported this week that rapid progress is being made on the erection of the new educational building at Retford avenue and Cherry street. The front and side walls have been completed and the ground floor will be completed in the near future, Dr. Aitcheson reports. The rough flooring boards are already on the second floor and the roofing boards have all been laid.

A good deal of the plumbing work is completed. The connection between the new building and the present church building will be made within the next couple of weeks. Already the baptismal fount has been removed from the present church building and installed in the new building. In the near future, accommodations for the choir loft will be provided.

Dr. Aitcheson reports no date

Ranch Visit For Explorers

Seventeen Cranford boys will be among 32 Explorer scouts from Union Council, Boy Scouts of America, who will leave Wednesday for a 4,000-mile trip to the Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico.

The largest contingent is from Boy Scout Troop 75, sponsored by the Cranford Methodist Church. To raise the funds for the entire trip, the boys have been busy since November engaging in all sorts of work and activity.

Explorers from Troop 75 making the trip include: David Ward, James DiClerico, Glenn Allinger, Robert Miller, Charles Boardman, Douglas Popp, Stephan Zulick, Craig Davison, Seymour Chaimovich, Joel Jorlett, Curtis Haag and Kenneth Borup.

Other Cranford boys scheduled for the trip are: William Krippendorf, Kenneth Doktor, Charles Meschter and Paul Wright of Troop 79, sponsored by the First Presbyterian Church, and Jeff Marshall of Troop 80, also sponsored by the First Presbyterian Church.

Harold Beers of Explorer Post 448 of Winfield is the leader of the council delegation to be known as Southbound Expedition 57. Accompanying him as assistants are Everett von Gersdorff, explorer adviser of Post 75, and Maurice Moran, scoutmaster of Troop 200 of Rahway.

The scouts and leaders will meet

UJC Offers Three Courses

Registrations are still being accepted for three courses Union Junior College will offer on August 8, Kenneth W. Iversen, assistant to the president, announced.

Mr. Iversen said courses will be offered in plane and solid analytical geometry, differential calculus and the second half of beginning Spanish. The classes will run from August 8 to September 2. Although only one summer term is being offered this year, the three classes are being held as an accommodation to students who began their college careers in February as well as other students needing the three courses.

The summer term will end on August 5.

Two New Firemen Begin Duty Monday

Bringing the paid personnel of the Cranford Fire Department to 13 firemen, three captains and one chief, Albert Cummings, 25, of 11 Eastman street, and Wesley Ditzel, 23, of 202 Centennial avenue, will begin their duties as firemen on Monday.

Appointment of the two additional paid members of the department was approved recently by Township Committee on recommendation of Public Safety Director Clarence L. Fritz. Mr. Cummings has been a resident of Cranford 12 years, and Mr. Ditzel has lived here 19 years.

First Aid Squad Busier This Year

Members of the Cranford First Aid Squad were busier during the first six months of 1955 than they were during the same period last year, according to figures released today by Squad Capt. Harry P. Page.

Capt. Page's six-month report shows the squad answered 221 calls and the two ambulances traveled a total of 4,679 miles in the service of Cranford residents through June 30. In the first half of 1954 the ambulances traveled 3,507 miles in answering 203 calls. The squad members put in 1,045 man-hours in carrying out their duties during the first six months of the year.

Greatest number of calls for a single month occurred in May during both six-month periods. The figures for that month this year were 45 calls and 1,417 miles (also the greatest mileage covered in a single month since the squad took over the municipal ambulance on November 1, 1953). For May, 1954, the figures were 47 calls and 686 miles. Greatest monthly mileage for the first half of 1954 was 783 miles in June.

Statistics by months for the first half of 1955 were listed by Capt. Page as follows:

January, 31 calls, 123 man-hours and 468 miles; February, 38 calls, 156 man-hours and 800 miles; March, 38 calls, 212 man-hours and 823 miles; April, 44 calls, 189 man-hours and 681 miles; May, 45 calls, 230 man-hours and 1,417 miles; June, 25 calls, 135 man-hours and 490 miles.

Students' Jobs Easy to Find

Harry Lawrence, head of the commercial department at Cranford High School, announced that many students have found employment this year in both full and part time jobs.

Since June 20, 75 working permits have been issued, 10 for full-time and 65 for part-time jobs. Of the 75 permits, 42 have been issued to boys and 33 to girls.

Figures indicate, Mr. Lawrence said, that jobs were easier to find this year than last year. Last year only 44 permits for full-time and summer work were issued during the same period of time.

However, last year, as this year, there were plenty of full-time jobs available and students got

Pedestrian Safety Award Won by Town

Cranford will receive the AAA National Pedestrian Protection Award for the third consecutive year, it was announced at Tuesday night's meeting of the Township Committee in the municipal building by Public Safety Commissioner Clarence L. Fritz. The citation is presented to those communities who had no pedestrian deaths during 1954.

A representative of Foundation for Safety, Inc., sponsors of the award, will be present at the next meeting of the committee on August 9 to present the citation to Police Chief William A. Fischer.

Introduced and passed on first reading was an ordinance providing for the paving of the municipal parking lot on the northeasterly side of Springfield avenue at an estimated cost of $2,500. Public hearing will be August 9.

Eight residents of High street, petitioned the committee to designate that street as a light traffic street from Lincoln avenue to Hickory street. They pointed out that many trucks are now using the street to bypass traffic lights. The request was referred to the Traffic Coordinating Committee for study and report.

Received with regret was the resignation of Mrs. Alice C. Bishop as a member of the Special Parking Committee. Sick leave of Tax Collector A. B. Caldwell was extended through August.

Lots 41 to 45 in block 217, located on Pine street, were sold to Thomas Horton on his bid of $4,500.

Mayor F. P. Andersen, who presided, announced that the next meeting on August 9 will be the only committee meeting during August and advised residents desiring committee action to present their requests prior to that date.

Township Attorney C. H. Warsinski was acting clerk at Tuesday night's session which was one of the briefest regular meetings on record. The entire proceedings took only 15 minutes.

Full Program Held at Brownie Day Camp

Despite the heat, a full program was held at Brownie Day Camp for the 85 Brownies enrolled for the first week, Mrs. Ira Kerzman, director, announced.

The campers have been divided into five units. Unit I, composed of Brownie fly-ups who will be scouts in the fall is counseled by Mrs. Henry Ziobro. Eileen O'Leary and Hilary Grote assist Mrs. Ziobro with the unit.

Mrs. Nathan Rodstein is in charge of Unit II, assisted by Jerry Arnold. Counselor of unit III is Mrs. David Lowe. Pat Rakacs is her assistant. Lois Tomback and Barbara White, with Janalee Barlow and Helen Weber as helpers, are supervising the youngest units, IV and V.

Featured on the camp program are weekly talks by Dr. Harold Moldenke, director of Trailside Museum. In his first illustrated talk, he showed slides and exhibited a pine snake to the campers. This is Dr. Moldenke's second season with the camp.

At the first dress-up day last Thursday, campers arrived in a

Death Car Display Here on August 18

Acting Police Chief Lester W. Powell reported today that he has been informed by Traffic Coordinator William Cahill of the Union County Prosecutor's Office that the vehicle in which five young people lost their lives in a recent accident near Somerville will be in Cranford at 11:30 a.m. on August 18.

The death car is being exhibited throughout the state in a program aimed at influencing drivers to be more careful on the road. Capt. Powell said the place of display here will be announced later.

Merchants Schedule Sales Days

Thirty-two local merchants are participating in the Cranford Sales Days today, tomorrow and Saturday, it was announced this week by Lloyd Geller, president of the Cranford Business Association.

Hundreds of mid-summer bargains will be found in the 12-page supplement in today's issue of The Citizen and Chronicle. Mr. Geller pointed out that most local merchants have slashed prices on all seasonal merchandise in order to make room for new fall goods and many merchants are offering exceptional discounts on year 'round merchandise in order to help alleviate the normal mid-summer slump in business.

Participating in the three-day sales event are: A & A Hardware,

Banks Report Deposit Hike

Increases in total deposits were reported this week by the Cranford Branch of the Union County Trust Company and the Cranford Savings and Loan Association.

The Suburban Trust Company, which in the past also has supplied figures on deposits in its Cranford branch, declined to do so this year, announcing that it is not the company's policy to release such figures for its individual branches.

As of the close of business on June 30, the Cranford Branch of the Union County Trust Company reported total deposits of $8,892,575.85, or an increase of $693,627.37 over the total of $8,198,948.48 at the same time last year.

The total deposit figure was made up of $4,552,082.97 in demand deposits (as compared with $4,047,029.27 on June 30, 1954) and $4,340,492.88 in time deposits (compared with $4,151,919.21 at the same time last year).

The Cranford Savings and Loan Association reported total deposits of $1,626,080.31 as of the close of business on June 30, an increase of $169,595.68 over the total of $1,456,484.63 at the end of June, 1954.

At the close of June, 1954, total deposits in all three local banking institutions were $19,271,123.92. Refusal of Suburban Trust to release local figures makes it impossible to determine the total at the same time this year for an over-all comparison.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell C. Reinert of 211 Claremont place will return tomorrow from a two weeks' vacation at Bear Mountain, N. Y.

Per Capita Health Cost Is 32 Cents

Net per capita cost to the township for operation of the Board of Health during 1954 was approximately 32 cents, according to figures released today by Health Officer William P. Smith in connection with the annual report of the board as submitted to Mayor Fred P. Andersen and member of the Township Committee.

Expenditures Total $12,268

Expenditures by the Health Department last year totaled $12,268 and fees collected amounted to $5,776, Mr. Smith reported, making the net cost of operation $6,492. The per capita cost figure, the health officer explained, was based on an arithmetical approximation from the 1940 and 1950 census reports giving an estimated population of 21,000.

With an appropriation from the township of $12,870, the expenditure of $12,268 left a balance at year end of $602.

List 404 Measles Cases

Cranford experienced its highest incidence of measles in five years last year, with 404 cases listed, the annual report reveals. Measles cases were recorded in previous years as follows: 1950, 345 cases; 1951, 24 cases; 1952, 295 cases; 1953, 88 cases

The high figure for measles also gave the township its highest communicable disease total for the past five years. With chickenpox, mumps and German measles no longer reportable, there were 440 communicable diseases recorded here in 1954. Comparative totals in previous years were: 1950, 388 cases; 1951, 49 cases; 1952, 329 cases, and 1953, 127 cases.

Only Four Polio Cases

Scarlet fever showed a drop from 20 cases in 1953 to 17 last year, while tuberculosis cases dropped from 8 to 5 and pneumonia from 2 to 1. Infectious hepatitis showed an increase from 4 to 5 cases, while there were 4 cases of whooping cough reported last year as compared with 1 in 1953. There were 4 cases of poliomyelitis reported each year for the past two years.

On the subject of communicable diseases in the township last year, the report makes the following general comments:

"Chickenpox, mumps and German measles are no longer report-

Slocum Named Best Camper

Winner of the third week's election for the best camper of the week at Cranford Boys' Camp on Silver Lake near Hope is Jim Slocum, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Slocum of 103 Herning avenue.

Best campers for their cabins were as follows: Pete Warrington, Cabin 1; Dick Graham, Cabin 2; Dick Johnston, Cabin 3; Dick Williams, Cabin 4; Jim Slocum, Cabin 5; and George Craft, Cabin 6.

Cabin 4, under counselor Don McCord, won the honor banner for having the best cabin in inspection. Don McClintock's Cabin 6 held the banner for the first two weeks of camp.

Pat Henry swam across the lake and back. Those who swam across were George Craft, Peyton Old, Dick Dombrowski, Dave Powell and Jim Slocum.

The weekly swim carnival was held on Saturday. Dick Graham, Hal Frank and Sparky Speth won the breath-holding contest. The beginner's swim was won by Dick Johnston, Rich Hauk and Al Wynn.

Winners of the kickboard race were Ricky Hauk, Dick Johnston and Dick Heller. Rich Hauk, Billy Miller and Dick Johnston were best in the steamboat race.

Underwater swim winners were Dick Johnston, Dick Graham and Rich Hauk. Other winners were: Race to ropes, Bill Miller, Rich Hauk, and Dick Johnston; deadman's float; Hal Frank, Rich Hauk and Gary Thompson; fancy dive, Jim Slocum, Jim Washbourne [illegible] Pat Henry; and biggest [illegible] Dick "Tarzan" Domb[illegible]

Attendance Holds Up at Playgrounds

Attendance at the municipal playgrounds was high last week despite the warm weather. Only on Friday did the playgrounds close early because of the heat. Closing time for that day was 2:30.

Registration for each field was: Roosevelt School, 250; high school, 191; Sunny Acres, 189; Memorial, 185; Walnut avenue, 133; and Lincoln avenue, 117.

Although supervision has been withdrawn from the Adams Avenue Field, many children are participating in athletic events from that field, Mrs. Charles Schillinger, director, reports.

Roosevelt School Field

A special event at Roosevelt School playground was the pie eating contest, Janet Lang, supervisor, announced. First prize was won by Kathy Morris, the cleanest and fastest eater. Second prize went to John Peterson and Dennis Connolly, who had the most pie on his face, placed third.

Knitting, crocheting, finger painting, and making Indian rings and bracelets also were among the activities. Paper sculpture was done by Nancy Gladis, Janice Koehler, Janet Paswark, Kathy Preston, Maureen Kenny, Diane and Margaret Orazi, and Sandra and Dennis Connolly.

Maureen Kenny, Janet Paswark, Margaret and Diane Orazi, Nancy Gladis, and Sandra and Dennis Connolly entered their paper sculpture in Friday's art show.

John Peterson was pick-up-sticks champion, winning 20 out of 22 games. Raymond Guralski won at checkers and Thomas L'Heureux and Wayne Brown defeated Greg Porovski and John Peterson at shuffle board.

High School Field

Three different age groups participated in the pie eating contest at the high school playground. Jerry Daniel, Mike Harris, Mary and Louise Feeley, Ted Drake, Steve Andreason, Linda Dahlquist, and Tom and Ernie Coleman entered the contest for 5, 6, and 7 year olds. Steve Andreason was the fastest eater, Mike Harris, neatest and Jerry Daniel, sloppiest.

Entering the 8, 9, and 10-year-old division were: Jane Harris, Kingsland Ward, Pat Crane, Gary Conklin, Mike Buckley, Tom Andreason, Mary Coleman and Pat Blatz. Fastest eater was Mike Buckley; neatest, Mary Coleman; and sloppiest, Tom Andreason.

Those in the contest for 11 through 14-year-olds were: Carol Scheblein, Frank Drake, Bob Lawrence, Roy Bair and Isabelle Walsh. Fastest eater was Bob Lawrence, neatest, Roy Bair; sloppiest, Isabelle Walsh; and most bites, Isabelle Walsh.

Making felt pins with animal designs were Linda Dahlquist, Christine Gant, Gerry and Marianne Daniel, Bill Pendry, Isabelle Walsh, Mary Coleman and Bob Talbert.

Mike Buckley made a hat and a plane out of self sticking strips. Mary Feeley made a flower and

Elect Delegates For Convention Of VFW Units

Mrs. Marion Jones, fifth district president, and Mrs. Ruth Butler, state chaplain, were elected delegates to the national convention by the Ladies Auxiliary to Capt. Newell Rodney Fiske Post, 335, VFW, at a meeting Monday evening in the Veterans' Memorial Hall.

Elected alternate delegates to the convention at Boston from August 28 to September 3 were Mrs. Dorothy Klekner and Mrs. Irene Hilbert.

Five-year pins were awarded to Mrs. Norma Heuer, Mrs. Ethel Metzler and Mrs. Lois Russell.

Mrs. Butler administered charges of office to three officers who were unable to attend installation ceremonies: Mrs. Rita Colanari, conductress; Mrs. Ann Bird, color bearer; and Mrs. Doro-Bird, colo rbearer; and Mrs. Dorothy Weisert, musician.

Plans were discussed for a theatre party next month. The auxiliary will attend a performance at the Paper Mill Playhouse, Millburn. Mrs. Butler was named chairman.

The next meeting is scheduled for August 8.

Mrs. Pat Korner, president, presided.

Louis Guertin at 8:50 a.m. Friday. Also on Friday morning, Patrolman Michael Fedroff called in to tell of a bad leak on Walnut avenue near the driveway of the Johnson and Johnson Baby Products plant. A citizen reported a very bad water leak in front of 308 Orange avenue Saturday morning.

Pressure in Cranford mains has not been below 50 pounds per square inch since the new pipe line was cut in, Fire Chief Howard G. Schindler reported. Despite the continued heat, pressures remained well above normal here over the week-end and thus far this week, the fire chief said.

Low readings of 51 and 50 pounds, respectively, were recorded at fire headquarters at 7:45 p.m. last Thursday and the same time Friday. Between 3 and 5 a.m. Friday, the reading was 90 pounds per square inch.

Saturday's low was 63 at 7:30 p.m., and Sunday had a high of 95 at 2 a.m. and dropped no lower than 79 throughout the rest of the day and night.

Monday saw a high of 94 pounds at 4 a.m. and a low of 66 pounds at 8 pm., while the extremes on Tuesday were 92 pounds at 4 p.m. and 57 pounds at 8 p.m.

Readings yesterday ran between 72 and 75 pounds for most of the day.

A drop in the water level in Plainfield-Union's Scotch Plains reservoir last week resulted in a warning Friday to the mayors of the 19 communities served by the company that if the level sank to 10 feet a ban on use of garden hose would be necessary.

On Monday, however, Mr. Haskew reported the restrictions would not have to be imposed (except in Mountainside, which has a high service area) since the reservoir level had risen to 20 feet as a result of pumping operations over the week-end.

The company engineer requested, however, that consumers remember we are going through a very dry spell and exercise judgment in their use of water for lawns, washing cars and other non-essential purposes.

papers for them earlier in the month. Sixteen of the 19 students of this year's secretarial office practice class have reported that they have found full-time jobs and many members of the clerical practice class are similarly employed.

Besides the many office workers, Mr. Lawrence stated that several students are working as camp counselors and in stores as cashiers, clerks, and stock clerks.

He added that many other students are working but, as no papers are necessary for those over 18, no figures are available.

great variety of costumes, including men from Mars. Winners were: Mary Lou Trembly, Nan Grote, Linda Fredericks, Judy Wasserbach, Claire Hallenbeck, Darlene Whitmeyer, Pat Ziobro, Lorraine Minch, Kathleen Griffin, Carole Pantano, Carmen LaRoy, Pauline Lowe, Ellen Minton and Gail Kinney. The girls walked through the center of town to show their costumes.

In honor of Linda Rauch's birthday anniversary last Thursday, Barbara White baked gingerbread cakes in a reflector oven.

George Craft and Dave Powell.

Funniest dives were done by Walt Webster, Jim Washbourne and Don Watt.

George Craft was first in the freestyle, backstroke, side stroke and breast stroke races. Pat Henry was second and Dick Dombrowski was third. Pat Henry, George Craft, and Dave Powell were the winners of the underwater swim.

As in the first two weeks of camp, activities included a trip to the wild animal farm of the Poconos, a trip to the state fish hatcheries at Hackettstown, hikes to Jenny Jump Mountain, a movie entitled "Stranglehold", team games, fishing, and crafts.

Campers who attended for the third week of the season were: Bruce Rogers, Doug Barile, Jimmy Downing, Steve Cleaves, Pete Warrington, Tom Albans, Ronnie Jackson, Gary Thompson, Don Watt, Bob Speth, Richard Hauk, George Slocum, Dick Johnston, Bob Outcauly, Dick Smith, Dave Powell and Bob Healey.

able diseases as the result of a revision in the State Sanitary Code. The step seems a wise one and will serve to ease some of the clerical detail and quarantine requirements of our communicable disease program.

"Scarlet fever cases are carefully followed up to make sure they return to their physicians for heart and kidney tests. Literature on the prevention of rheumatic fever also is distributed as part of the health education program.

Hepatitis Now Reportable

"Infectious hepatitis is now a reportable disease and has been for the past two years. This may not mean an increase in the number of cases, but will supply necessary statistical information in the hope that the disease will eventually be controlled.

"Whooping cough, the former killer of infants and young children, is now under control. Four mild cases were reported during 1954. The value of immunization against whooping cough, diphtheria and smallpox has proved conclusively the value of such public health procedures and in the future may prevent poliomyelitis."

Birth Rate Decreases

During 1954 there were 415 births recorded in Cranford, 10 less than were listed in 1953, and deaths also decreased in the township, from 202 in 1953 to 187 last year. The figure for marriages increased from 158 in 1953 to 169 in 1954.

Deaths recorded last year included those of 134 residents and 53 non-residents. There were 135 deaths of persons over 65 years of age and 52 of persons under that age. Five deaths were those of babies under 1 year of age, 3 under 1 month old and 7 still births.

On the basis of the estimated population figure of 21,000, the township had a birth rate of 19.2 per 1,000 population, as compared with the 1953 rate of 22.4; death rate of 6.3, as compared with 8.0 the previous year, and marriage rate of 8.0, as compared with the 1953 rate of 8.3. The infant mortality rate in 1954 was 12 deaths per 1,000 live births. During the previous year the infant mortality rate was 18.8.

"It is significant," the report states, "that not one death was reported due to infectious and parasitic diseases (communicable diseases), diseases of the blood and blood forming organs, chronic poisoning and intoxication."

Causes of Death Listed

Diseases of the heart continued as the principal cause of death, with 80 such cases reported in 1954, as compared with 82 in this category in 1953. Other leading causes were listed as follows for 1954: Strokes, 42 cases; cancer and other tumors, 26 cases, and arteriosclerosis, 5 cases. Comparative figures for 1953 were: Cancer and other tumors, 44; strokes, 32, and arteriosclerosis, 10.

During 1954 the Health Department issued 644 copies of birth, death and marriage records. Eighty-two certificates were mailed to places of residence upon receipt of requests. In addition, many complimentary copies of records were issued to federal, state and county authorities.

Health Programs Total

On the subject of health programs conducted during 1954, the report relates:

"During Immunization Week, 38 children of medically indigent families were inoculated without charge by the Cranford physicians. These inoculations provide protection against diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus. Vaccinations for smallpox were also given to these children.

"One hundred and eighty-eight residents were X-rayed at the Board of Health Office for the presence of tuberculosis. These X-rays were made in cooperation with the Union County Tuberculosis and Health League and the results are as follows: No clinical tuberculosis, 177; referred for further chest study, 7; thyroid, 1; enlarged heart, 1; possible tuberculosis, 2.

"Six hundred and thirty-eight dogs were inoculated at the annual Rabies Clinic sponsored by the Board of Health. This is a large increase in the number of dogs inoculated in 1953, which was 400.

Clean-Up Week Success

"In cooperation with the local scavengers, Clean-Up Week was held in May. Anything and everything placed on the person's property, close to the curb, was removed. Clean-Up Week proved to be a continued and growing success."

Under "Rabies Control" the report lists 38 dog bites, 4 cat bites and 1 squirrel bite during 1954.

Public Health Nurse Arline A. Gangaware, R.N., made home visits during 1954 as follows: Infants, 344; pre-school, 134; school, 31; others, 193; total, 702. There were 1,401 examinations conducted at St. Michael's School during the year. The nurse also delivered 217 birth certificates, gave 122 demonstrations and attended monthly conferences of the Union County Maternal and Child Health Nurses.

Improve Classroom Lighting

In connection with her services at St. Michael's School, the nurse presents the following report on cooperation of the school in installing new lighting fixtures in two basement rooms converted for classroom use:

"Realizing the need of adequate lighting in the classroom and the effect of poor lighting on the child's health, the nurse attained the services of a lighting engineer to study the lighting problems in two new classrooms. Recommendations were made and submitted to the school authorities. Immediate action was taken by them to alleviate the existing unfavorable conditions."

In his introduction to the annual report, Health Officer Smith expresses thanks to cooperating agencies in the following words:

"We have received the help and cooperation of the State Department of Health and other local health departments in the mutual recognition that public health is not bound by lines that limit political subdivisions.

"We extend our sincere appreciation to the other departments of the Township of Cranford for their information and help during the year.

Physicians Aid Indigent

"The Cranford Physicians' Club has continued to render their services to indigent families without charge.

"Many other private and public agencies have had a part in the planning and operation of public health activities, and to them we also extend our appreciation. The splendid and friendly cooperation of our local newspaper played no small part in the public health program.

"The support of the mayor and the other members of the Township Committee, who comprise the Board of Health, has been of inestimable value. Their help and confidence have been great assets to the department, and have been reflected in the sincere and conscientious efforts of the members of the department staff."

MIXED VEGETABLES BAKED IN CHEESE SAUCE
Here is LOOK'S vegetable-cheese casserole — a summer supper favorite prepared quickly with frozen vegetables.
Defrost package of frozen mixed vegetables so that pieces come apart (or pour boiling water over frozen vegetables, pour off again, to defrost quickly). Set oven to preheat to 425°F. Prepare white sauce; melt 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, remove from flame, stir in 2 tablespoons flour to make a paste. Add 2 cups milk gradually, salt, pepper, 1 cup processed cheese cut in pieces. Return to heat; cook, stirring constantly, until smooth, thickened. Combine with vegetables, heat. Pour into greased casserole, sprinkle top with grated cheese, paprika, and bake 10 minutes. Set under broiler 2 minutes to brown top. Yield: 4-6 servings.

Barnett's Hold Softball League Lead

Barnett's Outlaws held on to first place in the Cranford Recreation Softball League by downing A & P Tuesday evening, 7-1.

Second-place VFW was inactive this week and is now a game-and-a-half behind the Outlaws.

Breen's Gold Checks walloped Johnson & Johnson, 18-8, for its 11th win of the season. Breen's has lost three times. J & J came up with a four-run rally in the seventh inning, but it couldn't overcome Breen's 14-run lead.

By scoring six times in the fifth and final inning, Drive In tied the Blue Room, 6-6. The Blue Room gained a six-run lead with two runs in the first frame and four in the third.

Behind the slugging of Don Staples, Citizen & Chronicle won its second game of the year, routing the G-Men, 16-5. Staples belted two homeruns, one with the bases loaded and the other with two men on. The second one was a terrific belt down the first base line. Charlie Chandler picked up his second win of the year as he gave up only five hits.

Behind the hurling of George Snyder, Harris Limited downed Johnson and Johnson, 7-4. Harris' four-run rally in the sixth inning won the game.

Johnny Korsch pitched the Blue Room to a 10-3 win over A & P. Paul Diddle was the loser.

VFW returns to action this week with two easy contests. The veterans take on the Citizen & Chronicle tonight, the A & P on Tuesday evening. Barnett's Outlaws engage Harris Limited tonight. Other games this week include: Tomorrow, G-Men vs. Drive In; and Tuesday, G-Men vs. Blue Room.

Police Marksmen Downed by PRR

For their third defeat to seven victories in Union County Police Pistol League competition, the Cranford police bowed to the Pennsylvania Railroad police, 1,141 to 1,121, at the Nomahegan range on Tuesday.

Local marksmen posted scores as follows: Patrolman Joseph Kovacs, 285; Patrolman Fred Roberts, 282; Patrolman Albert Fischer, 282, and Patrolman Richard Schofield, 272.

Patrolman Roberts, team captain, reported today that a match scheduled with Roselle No. 1 for next Wednesday has been postponed to August 9 at 11 a.m.

Cranford faces Rahway at the Nomahegan range at 2 p.m. Monday.

Hamilton Injured In Plane Crash

Lt. William Hamilton, 28 years old, of 305 Bloomingdale avenue was injured Saturday when a light plane he was piloting crashed in a field near Cortland, N.Y. He was admitted to a hospital with possible spine injuries.

Accompanying Lt. Hamilton was Lt. Col. George Davis, 42, of Orange who was treated for back and pelvic injuries.

At the time of the crash, they were searching for a jeep missing from a New Jersey National Guard convoy en route to Camp Drum, N.Y. According to police, the plane which was caught in a downdraft, struck a high tension electric transmission line.

Authorities report they were told by Sgt. Edward Schreiber of Newark and Pfc. Carl Claab of Morristown they saw the plane crash and went to the aid of the airmen. They were in the jeep.

Puerto Rican To Go Home

After a two-week visit in the United States as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Petrik and their son, Francis, of 11 Birchfield, 14-year-old Angel Gabriel Hermides of Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, will leave for home from Idlewild Airport, N.Y., shortly after midnight Saturday.

For the past week, the Puerto Rican youth has been at Union Council's Camp Winnebago, Marcella. Angel and Francis went to the camp Saturday and were assigned to the Explorer Camp. At the camp fire Saturday evening the visitor from Puerto Rico taught the Boy Scouts the Puerto Rican Boy Scout camp song.

Like 16-year-old Luis Arturo Zapata, Jr., of Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, who visited Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ayre of 209 Arbor street and their sons, Stephen and Robert, last summer, Angel was impressed by the variety of food available here. His principal dish at home, he reports, is rice and beans.

Mr. Petrik reports his son and Angel had many common interests and got along exceedingly well. During the two-week visit, Angel took up the task of teaching Francis Spanish. They were getting along very well, Mr. Petrik reports.

For a youth of 14, Angel is a well-traveled boy. He spent a whole year in Europe and spent several weeks in New York City several years ago. His mother is a professor of French and Spanish at the University of Puerto Rico and he lives with an uncle who is now studying for a doctorate in animal husbandry at Ohio State University.

His visit to this country is part of the Scout's "Project Amigos." A delegation from Union Council visited Puerto Rico earlier this year and Francis expects to visit Angel next summer.

Troop Spends Week At Camp Winnebago

Boy Scout Troop 78 of St. Michael's Church returned Saturday from a week at Camp Winnebago, Marcella, Union Council's Boy Scout camp. Camping with them on the Cayuga Campsite was Dennis J. Lynch, scoutmaster.

Five other Union County scout troops were registered at the camp for the third week of the season. Total camp population was 320.

Safety Message

In cooperation with the "Safe Driver of the Month" program of the Cranford Kiwanis Club, Police Chief William A. Fischer today issued the following message:

Hotshot Harry, the highway ham, is outstanding in our listing of "Bad Actors of 1955."

Harry hogs the spotlight all the time—thinks the highway a swell setting for an exhibition of his driving "talents."

Speed is his particular forte. He loves to zoom along the street—cutting in and out of traffic—scaring other motorists half to death.

Harry never slows down for curves or intersections. In his book, such driving is for dubs. "Skilled" drivers like Harry take all obstacles in their stride.

This type of performance makes Harry feel important—gives him top billing on the road, he thinks!

Actually, it proves to other drivers that Harry's a ham. He doesn't even know the elementary rule of the road—CHECK YOUR SPEED . . . . SAVE YOUR LIFE! SLOW DOWN AND LIVE.

Legislative Progress Report

The possibility of the Congress adjourning at the end of July is rapidly fading. Several major pieces of controversial legislation remain to be finally acted on. They include the housing program, the highway bill, a Salk vaccine measure, the vital school construction bill, and natural gas legislation. Most of these measures are highly complicated and controversial and have been under study and discussion for months, in committees as well as less formally by members meeting in the cloakrooms and around conference tables. I fully expect that the majority of these issues will be resolved before we adjourn and that the record of this Congress will prove to be a highly satisfactory one.

Refugee-Immigration Legislation

One of the most important areas of pending legislation is the revision of the Refugee Relief Act and amendments to the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act. Members of Congress have widely divergent views on various changes which have been proposed, and at present none of the proposals seems to have sufficient support for passage. On this score I firmly believe that we must have a bipartisan review of our policies before progress in the Congress can be achieved. Senator John Kennedy (D., Mass.) has proposed such a review, and I urgently hope his suggestion will prevail. I am working on a variation of this idea for introduction in the next session of Congress.

Action in Foreign Affairs Com.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs has been meeting morning and afternoon to discuss and work on several important legislative matters. I am a member of an ad hoc subcommittee which has reported some technical revisions in Foreign Service legislation. In addition, the full committee is continuing to hold hearings on a proposal to urge the President to withdraw from a part of the Status of Forces Treaty. This treaty is a vital part of NATO, and therefore any action in this field is of the utmost importance in the conduct of our foreign policy.

This work in committee is not the sort of Congressional action which attracts much public attention, but it constitutes the real heart of the legislative process.

Continuing Water Shortage

The lack of action by the New Jersey State Legislature over many years to develop a long-range program to supply water for Northern New Jersey cannot help but have serious effects in the future. As the result of numerous representations made to me, I asked for a full report on the situation by the State Department of Public Utilities. I now have this report. It indicates that the water companies are making diligent efforts to meet this summer's water requirements, but a long-rang solution to meet the increasing need is clearly the paramount requirement. I have explored the possibility of federal assistance, and as a result it has become evident to me that the responsibility lies totally with the state and the localities. The failure of the Legislature puts the onus on that body in the most bold and obvious terms.

Davy Crockett (D., Tenn.)

Last week I took two of my children — Peter, 6, and Wendy, 5 — to the floor of the House of Representatives to observe its august deliberations. I quickly discovereqd, however, that the activities of the House and the profound debate in progress at the time were completely overshadowed by the question of where Davy Crockett sat when he was in Congress. It is perhaps fortunate that House members may sit in any empty seat on their side of the aisle. Since Crockett was a Democrat, it is possible for all of us who are Democrats to say that we may be sitting in a seat he once occupied.

Car Owner Fined $55 In Court Tuesday Night

Magistrate Charles J. Stevens fined Robert D. Lingenfelter of Elizabeth $55 Tuesday night in Municipal Court for allowing an unlicensed driver to operate his car. Walter W. Knapp of Roselle Park was fined $15 for driving without a license.

Robert Cimis of 42 Lenhome drive was fined $12 for passing a red traffic light. William J. Trelease of Garwood, charged with a stop street violation, was fined $10 and a $17 fine was imposed on Stephen Rodoquino of Kenilworth found guilty of careless driving.

Expansion Projects

has been set for the completion of the building.

Calvary Lutheran Church's building program is progressing on schedule, the Rev. Arnold J. Dahlquist, pastor, reports. It is expected the building will be completed in time for opening of the Sunday School in September.

At the Cranford Methodist Church, William Knox and Mrs. R. J. Hawes have been elected co-chairmen of a Planning Committee and Dr. Homer J. Hall has been named secretary. This group will consider the need for additional facilities to meet the growth of the congregation.

First Presbyterian Church conducted a fund-raising drive late last year which exceeded its goal of $250,000. An expansion program is needed, Mr. Belden explained, because the facilities available have not kept pace with the growth of the church. Mr. Belden described the growth of the church as colossal in the ten years the Rev. Robert G. Longaker has been pastor.

Ranch Visit

tomorrow night in full regalia to make final preparations for their trip to Philmont, which is a 127,000 acre ranch in Northeastern New Mexico, owned and operated by the National Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Enroute to New Mexico the Explorer Scouts will make a brief stop over at Chicago to visit the Shedd Aquarium, Adler Planetarium, Natural History Museum, and take a quick swim in Lake Michigan.

The Explorers will then go directly to Philmont where they will spend 13 days hiking, and riding horseback, over 81 miles of mountain trails ranging from 3,000 feet, to above the timber line at 11,000 feet. They will sleep in tents and cook their own meals. Their food and heavy equipment will be carried by sure-footed mountain burros.

According to Boy Scout officials, Philmont is a living example of conservation of natural resources. The streams abound with trout and beaver. On the plains and slopes can be seen herds of buffalo, deer, antelope and elk. All wild life finds refuge in the unscathed forests and cattle graze calmly on the canyon floors.

During their expedition at Philmont, the Explorers will enjoy field sport activities including moskeet, archery and skish; they will study ancient rock formations; sluice for gold; and visit Kit Carson's old home and museum.

At the conclusion of their red blooded experience in the land of the mountain men August 17, the group will leave Philmont and travel by bus through the famous old Indian Country of the West stopping for several hours at Taos to visit Indian villages. A day-and-a-half will be spent sightseeing in Santa Fe, and another day in Chicago.

On the return from Chicago the Explorers will spend a day at Niagara Falls; will stop over to visit the International Boy Scout Jamboree at "Niagara on the Lake" Canada and will return home August 23.

PROPOSED
TOWNSHIP OF CRANFORD
ORDINANCE NO. 55-12

AN ORDINANCE Providing For The Paving Of The Parking Lot at Springfield Avenue.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Township Committee of the Township of Cranford:

SECTION 1 - That the Township parking lot on the northeasterly side of Springfield Avenue be improved by paving the same with a stone base treated with liquid asphalt, in accordance with the plans and specifications prepared for the work by the Township Engineer and on file in his office.

SECTION 2 - It is estimated that the cost of said improvement will be $2500.00. To defray the cost of said improvement the sum of $2300.00 is hereby appropriated: the sum of $200.00 is also hereby appropriated from the capital improvement fund as a down payment.

SECTION 3 - To finance said appropriation of $2300.00, bond anticipation notes of the Township are hereby authorized to be issued in an amount not exceeding said appropriation, which notes shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding 6% per annum and shall mature in one year from date of issue.

SECTION 4 - It is hereby determined and declared that the supplemental debt statement required by law has been made and filed; that the obligations herein authorized to be issued are within all debt limits fixed by law; that the gross debt of the Township will be increased $2300.00 by issuing said obligations; that the period of usefulness of said improvement is 5 years.

SECTION 5 - This ordinance shall take effect 10 days after publication after final passage as provided by Statute.

Notice

The foregoing ordinance was introduced and passed on first reading at a meeting of the Township Committee of the Township of Cranford, N. J., held on July 26, 1955 and will be considered for passage, after public hearing, at another meeting of said Township Committee at Municipal Building, Cranford, New Jersey, on

TUESDAY, AUGUST 9, 1955

Residents of Cranford for 25 years, Mr and Mrs. Buttolph have been members of the First Presbyterian Church. Mr. Buttolph, who has been with Western Electric for 25 years, formerly was active in Boy Scout work here.

They have two children, James T. Buttolph of Chappaqua, N. Y., and Mrs. John P. Simon of Cranford, and two grandchildren. Mrs. Simon and family will move to East Derry with her parents.

John Skerratt, Miss Peters Wed In California

After a wedding trip to San Francisco, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. John Donald Skerratt are living in Long Beach, Calif.

Mrs Skerratt, the former Miss Dorothy Louise Peters, daughter of Frederick L. Peters of Utica, N. Y., and the late Mrs. Peters, was married July 2 to Mr. Skerratt, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Webster Skerratt of 211 Manor avenue at a double-ring ceremony in St. John's Chapel, Del Monte, Calif.

The Rev. David Hill performed the ceremony. A reception followed at the home of Lt. and Mrs. Guy Dawson Richardson, of Carmel Valley, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride was given in marriage by Richard Dussler of Long Beach, Cal. She wore a ballerina length dress of white embroidered organdy over aqua taffeta and a corsage of white orchids.

Maid of honor was Miss Norma Helmes of Long Beach. She wore a ballerina-length dress of beige batiste over rose taffeta and a corsage of lavender orchids.

Sally Skerratt Richardson, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a white nylon dress trimmed in aqua and carried a nosegay of sweetheart rosebuds.

Lt. Guy Dawson Richardson, U S.N., served as best man for his brother-in-law.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a mauve crepe, lace-trimmed dress with matching hat. Her corsage was of cream colored orchids.

Mrs. Skerratt was graduated from Utica High School, and secretarial school and is employed as a secretary in Long Beach.

Mr. Skerratt was graduated from Cranford High School and holds a degree in engineering from Clemson College, Clemson, S. C. He is a graduate of Armament and Weapons School, Lowrey Air Base, Denver, Colo., and served in Korea as a first lieutenant in the Air Force. He is employed as a field engineer in electronics by Western Electric Company. His present assignment is at Douglas Aircraft, Long Beach.

Mrs. Wright Fined For Illegal Occupation

Magistrate Charles J. Stevens imposed a fine of $200 on Mrs. Pinky Wright, 56, of 28 Johnson avenue Tuesday evening in Municipal Court on a charge of being a disorderly person "in that she did engage in an illegal occupation."

Mrs. Wright pleaded guilty. Following a raid at her home on July 3 in which she and 10 other persons were arrested, a charge of selling alcholic beverages without a license was filed against her. Nine of the 10 "guests" subsequently paid $10 fines on disorderly conduct charges.

The case against the 10th guest, Samuel R. Jordan, 70, of 220 South avenue, east, was dismissed Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Fowlie of 113 Orange avenue and their daughter, Mrs. Mitchell Griffin and children, Diane and Michael, are vacationing at Beach Haven.

School Construction Booms in County

At one time, the construction of a new school building was an unusual and important event in a community's development. It is still important but far from unusual.

As enrollments throughout the country soar, the need for more facilities becomes evident. Cranford opened two new 12-room elementary schools, Brookside Place and Walnut Avenue Schools, last fall. Studies are already underway preparatory for more facilities.

School Planning Committee of the Board of Education is now preparing recommendations of ways to solve the increased enrollment here. Cranford High School will go on a staggered plan in September because of overcrowding.

While Cranford's problem is not critical, it may be if some new facilities are not provided soon. Meanwhile, many other communities in this area find themselves in similar situations.

In neighboring Kenilworth, the voters recently approved a $500,000 bond issue for an addition to Harding School. This will include a gymnasium, manual training and household arts rooms, cafeteria and 14 regular and special classrooms. Part-time sessions for the sixth grades go into effect in September. The Board of Education hopes to have the addition ready for September, 1956.

Garwood's Board of Education has been conferring with other municipal bodies on the possible need of additional facilities within the next five years. These discussions are based on a census of the borough's pre-school population made earlier this year by local teachers. Among the possible solutions to the problem are an addition to Washington School, a temporary building adjacent to Lincoln School for special classes or a new school.

The Board of Education of Union County Regional District No. 1, which serves students of Kenilworth and Garwood as well as Clark, Springfield, Mountainside and Berkeley Heights, is as active in the school expansion field as any other in Union County. Under construction in Clark Township is a new 900-pupil high school to serve students of Clark and Garwood.

Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield, now has a capacity of 1,500 pupils. A large addition was added last September. The board also is considering a third high school in Berkeley Heights which it may need by 1960 or 1961. This school would be built on the old Murray Hill Golf Club, which the board owns.

The most extensive plans are being studied in Elizabeth, where a recent survey recommended new construction totaling $9,200,000 over a 15-year period. The Board of School Estimate now is considering the first phase of this program costing some $2 million.

Linden is considering three new 18-room elementary schools as well as additional facilities for its high school.

In Union, the first of two junior high schools is under construction, while new elementary schools also may be necessary. Westfield has a $900,000 program underway to increase its elementary school facilities and a junior school is seen as a need in 1960.

Plainfield plans to install a junior high school system which would require an extensive building program. Meanwhile, a new elementary school is under construction.

Because it can no longer send students to Summit, New Providence is looking for ways to solve its high school problem. Construction of a high school is being considered.

Mountainside, Berkeley Heights and Springfield, all members of the Regional district, are building or will start construction soon on additional elementary facilities, while Rahway is building an addition to Franklin School.

The problem of increased enrollment is under consideration by every school board in the county. While the problems differ, the overall situation is the same — more classroom space is needed now or will be needed soon.

Japanese Beetle To Continue Raid Several Weeks

Union County experts report that the Japanese beetle will be with us another two or three weeks, damaging leaves, buds and flowers of rose bushes, and devouring raspberry bushes, zinnias, apple trees and sweet and field corn.

The experts, however, can't agree on the beetle's likes and dislikes. Arthur Gionataiso, superintendent of shade trees for Elizabeth, thinks the beetles prefer sweet leaves and for this reason aren't interested in the sour leaves of trees.

Eric H. Peterson, Jr., county agricultural agent, points out that Japanese beetles have a bigger appetite for sour food, as they have been devouring grapevine leaves and smartweed.

The Better Gardens and Farms Institute in California believes that the beetle, an easy insect to please in the food department, will eat flowers, shrubs, trees, vegetables, or even the lawn.

Mr. Peterson says that during these warm, sunny days, when the pests are especially active, spraying with DDT is an effective control. All-purpose garden sprays, which control aphids and other pests at the same time, also can be used, he advises. He added that spraying is better than dusting as spray is not blown away and, therefore, has a residual action.

Report Progress

foot section was expected to be in progress today.

Excavation work was held up soon after it started July 7 by the necessity of removing sheathing and pipes of an old, uncompleted WPA sewer 25 feet underground.

D'Annunzio Brothers of Orange were awarded the contract to lay the 1,100-foot sewer on their low bid of $34,525. The job originally was scheduled for completion early in August.

Mr. and Mrs. Spence W. Rankin and family of 15 Cherokee road have returned from a vacation at Wildwood.

Cadillac

The Great Practical Luxury!

This message is addressed particularly to those who have been thinking about purchasing a Cadillac—but who, for one reason or another, have not considered acting on the impulse this year.

For you, there is interesting and valuable information in the paragraphs which follow.

In the first place, there is no reason why anyone should ever put off ordering a Cadillac—once the decision for ownership has been made. For a Cadillac represents one of the soundest and most practical investments in the automotive world.

You can become the owner of a new 1955 Cadillac for little more than you would pay for many so-called medium-price cars—often within a very few dollars.

And this is only half the picture, insofar as cost is concerned. For when the time comes to sell your Cadillac, you will find that the car has held its value far beyond anything you could logically expect.

Authoritative price figures, based on year-after-year studies, reveal that a Cadillac will return its owner a larger share of his original investment than any other motor car built in the land.

And then consider Cadillac's economy of operation and upkeep.

The car will run as far on a gallon of gasoline as most standard automobiles—and it is so soundly built and so soundly engineered that it is all but free from any save the most routine service requirements.

And here is the most interesting news of all: If you act quickly, the chances are that you can get early delivery of a 1955 Cadillac!

True, we have a backlog of Cadillac orders—but many of these are for future delivery or for special combinations not now available.

So—if you have thought of owning a Cadillac—come in now. Because of our low used car inventory, we are in an excellent position to make you a liberal allowance on your present car—and, as we said, you can probably get your new car much sooner than you have believed possible.

We have a Cadillac waiting to give you the most thrilling demonstration of your life. Why not come in today?

Issue 20 Permits For New Homes

Twenty residential building permits with construction value estimated at $273,500 were approved Tuesday night by Township Committee. Ten of the permits were issued to Abroe Builders for new homes on Carolina, Clark, Lewis and Morse streets with construction cost listed at $13,000 each.

John Associates were granted eight permits for new homes on Browning road. Construction cost of two of the dwellings is listed at $14,000 each, three at $15,000 and three at $15,500. Classic Homes was granted two permits for dwellings at 289 and 293 Stoughton avenue with construction cost listed at $12,000 each.

Swan Cleaners was granted a permit for a storage and loading building at 48 North avenue, east. Construction cost was listed at $6,000.

Legion Workshop Gives Nurses Financial Aid

Sous Grand Conducteur A. Jules Dommergue of 110 Edgar avenue, grand director of nurses education and chairman of the grand activities committee of the State 40 & 8, the workshop of the American Legion, and Sous Grand Drapeau Fred Schultz, assistant chairman, report that 16 girls from the State received nurses education scholarships this year.

This year, 1,509 girls throuhout the country are receiving 40 & 8 educations. The total of Child Welfare for N.J. this year is over $150,000, Mr. Dommergue said.

Union County Voiture reports that Miss Alice Louise Hudzik of South Plainfield has been selected to receive a three-year scholarship at Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield. This is the third scholarship given out by the organization the past three years.

Head Local Drive For Observers

Managing the local recruiting drive of the Elizabeth Post of the Ground Observer Corps are Theodore C. Bothmann and Mrs. Robert T. Hill, Jr., Cranford residents. Mr. Bothmann and Mrs. Hill, assistant chief observers at the post, will be aided by Mrs. George Ryan, P. R. Blackman, S.J. Mills, and volunteers from Westfield, Roselle and Elizabeth. Mr. Blackman is also an official of the local Civil Defense Council.

As Thomas Arrartto, manager of the Cranford Theatre is on vacation, Miss Cora Lieb, assistant manager, is cooperating with the corps. Volunteers from the post will be at the theare each evening of the week's run of "Strategic Air Command" to sign up new spotters. Between showings of the feature picture, a film short of the Ground Observers Corps will be flashed on the screen.

Men In Service

Marine Cpl. Bernard A. Doyle, Jr., son of Fire Capt. and Mrs. Doyle of 502 High street, stationed at Camp Pendleton, Calif., is home on a 30-day furlough. He entered the service in December, 1953.

Performing in Concerts At Roselle Band School

Two Cranford students of the Union County Band and Orchestra School, Roselle, will perform tonight at 7:30 in Warinanco Park, Roselle-Elizabeth.

They are George Magan, who will play the drums, traps and cymbals with Band I and Margaret Heney, who will perform on the violin-cello with the elementary orchestra.

Miss Heney also played in yesterday's concert as did violinists Robert Cohen and Suzanne Kirk and Gail Griffiths, who played the drums, traps and cymbals.

The piano department, under the direction of Miss Peggy Austin of Cranford, gave a recital Tuesday. Stuart Roth sang "The Two Grenadiers" by Schumann.

At the annual student-faculty picnic last Thursday, Stuart Roth won the senior division of the three-legged race.

OBITUARIES

Robert L. Lawrence

Private funeral services for 41-year-old Robert L. Lawrence of 32 Balmiere parkway, who died last Thursday after a long illness, were held Saturday afternoon at Gray Memorial, 12 Springfield avenue. The Rev. Robert G. Longaker, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiated. Interment was private.

Born in Westfield, he lived most of his life in Cranford.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Janet P. Lawrence; a son, Robert L., and a daughter, Miss Janet S., at home; his mother, Mrs. Louis Lawrence of Plainfield; three brothers, Alexander K. of Milwaukee, Stuart N. of Plainfield and Solon L. Lawrence of Framingham Center, Mass.; and a sister, Mrs. Marie Loblein of Rumson.

Sem Melosi

Tomorrow morning at 10:30 the Rev. Robert E. Corradine, pastor of the Holy Trinity Methodist Church, Elizabeth, will conduct funeral services at the Dooley Funeral Home, 218 North avenue, west, for Sem Melosi, 89, who died Tuesday night at the home of his son, Hugo E. Melosi of 33 Hillcrest avenue. Interment will be in Mount Hope Cemetery, Hastings, N. Y.

Born in Pistoria, Italy, Mr. Melosi lived many years in New York City before moving to Cranford, where he lived for 29 years. He was a tailor before his retirement 30 years ago.

Besides his son, Mr. Melosi is survived by two grandchildren. His wife, Evelina, died in 1922.

Mrs. Gizela Koehler

A high mass of requiem was celebrated Saturday at St. Michael's Church for Mrs. Gizela Koehler, 83, of 203 Retford avenue, who died Thursday at her home after a long illness.

The Rev. Joseph L. Donnelly, assistant pastor, officiated and read the committal prayers at the grave. Burial was in St. Gertrude's Cemetery, Woodbridge. The funeral was from the Dooley Funeral Home, 218 North avenue, west.

Born in Czechoslovakia, she lived here 33 years. She was a communicant of St. Michael's Church and a member of its Rosary Society.

She was the widow of Charles S. Koehler. Survivers are a son, Arthur J. Koehler, with whom she lived; three grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Jack B. Schneider

GARWOOD — Word was received this week that funeral services for Jack B. Schneider of Buffalo, N. Y., formerly of Garwood, were held July 15 in Delaware Memorial Chapel, Buffalo. Rabbi Chaim Weinstein, spiritual leader of Temple New Israel of Buffalo, officiated. Interment was in Emanuel Cemetery, Buffalo.

Mr. Schneider died July 14 at at Sisters Hospital, Buffalo, after an illness of several months.

A native of Russia, Mr. Schneider was brought to this country at the age of 3 by his parents, who operated a confectionery store for 25 years at Center street and North avenue.

Mr. Schneider moved from Garwood to Buffalo 10 years ago. He operated a television and radio sales and repair business in Buffalo.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Sara Carrel Schneider; a daughter, Carol; his mother, Mrs. Frances Schneider, and brother, Sanford, both of Flushing, N. Y., and three sisters, Mrs. Helen Fine of Hollywood, Fla.; Mrs. Jean Presser of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Miss Harriet Schneider of Rego Park, N. Y.

Weatherman Sees

Bureau thermometers reached 100 degrees at Newark Airport and 102 at 2 p.m. Friday in Plainfield.

Some relief from a scorching week-end was provided by a light rainfall Sunday morning, although the temperature was only 85 degrees, reduced by a high relative humidity which ranged from 49 to 85 percent, said the weather bureau.

After a second day during which temperatures did not hit the 90's, Tuesday renewed the heat wave with a humidity as high as 90 percent from 5 to 6 a.m.

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to my many friends for their cards and other thoughtful remembrances while I was confined to the hospital and for their many other courtesies since I have been convalescing at home. Your many kindnesses are deeply appreciated.

ing firms hired by both the Inter-Municipal group and the water company have indicated, however, that additional expansion and improvement are necessary (especially in the company's transmission system) if the consumers are to be guaranteed adequate supplies and adequate pressures in all sections of the area.

The water company recently filed its reply to the Inter-Municipal Water Committee's request for a PUC hearing, and the next step, request for setting of a hearing date, is up to the Inter-Municipal group.

Boys Return From Camp

Boy Scout Troop 75, sponsored by the Cranford Methodist Church, returned Sunday from a week at Camp Winnebago, Marcella, during which many boys made advancements toward second and first class ranks.

Among them are: Steve Anderson, Al Breuer, Frank Connors, Jack Cox, Neil Daly, Lee Dickerson, Bill Di Tullio, Gene Engel, Walter Engle, Bill Gall, Russ Hawes, Buddy Keefer, Bill Knox, Lee Nordstrom, Bob Plant, Rich Schoonover, Jimmy Sommers, Fred Swisher and Rich Tunison.

The following boys attained Star rank: Harold Sjursen, Bob Paehlke and Rodger Kopf. Merit badges toward Life rank were earned by Craig Davison, junior assistant scoutmaster, Art Cyphers, and Tim Myers, senior patrol leader. Other boys earning merit badges are Russ Jorlett and Joe Lobl.

A total of 20 merit badges were earned, in addition to second and first class badges. Several first-year campers will be awarded the feather for the Order of the Black Feather for advancement they achieved.

The scouts occupied the Iroquois site, adjacent to the dining hall. George E. Kopf, scoutmaster, and Robert C. Davison, assistant scoutmaster, spent the week with the 27 campers.

Besides the work on badges, the scouts participated in all regular activities offered which included swimming, boating, hiking, rope work, tracking, axe-work, astronomy, archery, riflery, handicrafts, signaling, fishing and story-telling around the camp fire at night.

Dr. Homer Hall, troop committee chairman: Herb Sjursen, assistant scoutmaster, Richard Schoonover, advancement chairman; and Bob Harris, institutional representative and chief plume of the Order of the Black Feather, visited the troop over the week-end.

Fruit juice or watermelon was provided each evening around the council fire by the Mothers Club of Troop 75.

A special Board of Review will be held the latter part of August, prior to a Court of Honor scheduled for early September.

Hold Swimming Party At Rahway Park Pool

As part of its recreation program, students of Union Junior College held a swimming party last evening at Rahway Park Pool.

Union County Park Commission kept the pool open an extra hour as an accommodation for the students. All college students and their guests were admitted to the pool without charge.

A social was held at the college building Friday evening.

BRAND-SPAN NEW AND ONLY AT KOOS
Monterey Modern...
INSPIRED BY INFORMAL CALIFORNIA LIVING ... CUSHIONED IN DEEP FOAM ... PRICED WAY BELOW ITS WORTH!
Left-facing sectional Bumper sectional and the Corner sectional $299
The 2-cushion sofa and Lounge chair $199
Who go West, young Jersey ... when Koos brings California to you! In the look ... the feel ... the design of our lush new Monterey Modern. In the long, low horizontal lines ... the wonderfully wide flat arms of pieces that were truly inspired by the easy, informal living that reigns supreme in the West ... that you homemakers are clamoring for in the East. In fact ... why go anywhere else at all when Koos ... and only Koos ... can give you a wonderful buy like this! It's "good" modern, exceptionally good modern ... the sort that should be tagged at least $100 more. And you'll agree when you see it ... when you search for all those little details you'd look for in fine custom furniture ... and, at these prices, find 'em. When you get a good look at the generous sweeping proportions of the sectionals and sofa ... the deep roomy size of the lounge chair. When you've lolled a while on their cloud-soft foam cushions ... then fingered the richness of their textured boucle fabric ... which incidentally is just one from a big collection. And imagine this! The fabric actually zips off all cushions so you can whisk it away for cleaning. Yes, just $299 buys all 3 sections ... $199 buys the long sofa and deep-seated chair ... or you can custom order just the pieces you want! Short on cash? Remember Koos easy budget terms ... just 10% down ... up to 2 years to pay!

• Commuter Transportation Problem Grows

The problem of transportation is one of the most serious facing this nation today. And it is especially serious in this section of the country.

As acute as any in the nation is the situation in the New York metropolitan area. The trend has been to use more and more automobiles to get to work via vehicular bridges and tunnels.

In the meantime, use of railroads has declined, bringing about less service and poorer facilities. Cranford is fortunate in being served by the Jersey Central, which has made a conscientious effort to improve its facilities and its schedules.

Despite the effort of the railroad to improve its services, Cranford today has less service than it had at the start of the century, according to early-century schedules.

Another trend in transportation is a decline in the use of buses. This certainly is true in Cranford, where the former Route 11 Crosstown bus service has been discontinued and service has been reduced again on Route 10, serving Linden and Kenilworth as well as Cranford.

By transferring his means of getting to work from buses to automobiles, Mr. Suburbia is creating more and more problems for himself. As more cars pour into the metropolitan area, additional traffic and parking problems are created.

Some areas have solved this problem by banning parking in downtown shopping areas by providing good, speedy transportation. Buses and trains under this plan bring the shoppers and workers to business areas, but without the usual traffic and parking problems.

It is clear that some action is necessary to solve this area's transportation difficulties. While the problem is basically a regional one, there are some aspects that are primarily local and require study by all interested parties. Cranford is well aware that its very future depends upon what type of transportation it can offer its commuting population.

• Anybody in the Market for Slightly-Stretched Hose?

That subterranean hose-pulling leprechaun has been a busy fellow in recent weeks, according to news reports, traveling all over the country to mystify people by making garden hoses disappear below the surface of their lawns.

For a while it looked like only California subsoil conditions were conducive to his activities, but then evidence of his visits began coming in from all sections of the country. A couple of weeks ago he was reported hard at work in Mount Holly, and last week he even made a stop off in Kenilworth.

There have been many theories offered in explanation of the strange actions of garden hoses throughout the land, but our own opinion is that it's all a result of the heat. The old Indian rope trick always works better in a hot, humid climate in which heat waves dance before one's eyes and one can't be too sure about what one sees or thinks one sees.

Any day now we expect to hear that the process has been reversed and that some enterprising salesman in cahoots with Mr. Leprechaun is doing a rushing business selling souvenir lengths of plastic hose coming up out of a hole in his lawn.

• Mid-Summer Sales Days Mean Savings for You

With merchants going all out to clear their shelves of summer goods preparatory to putting in new fall lines, wise shoppers will make it a point to visit local stores during the mid-summer Cranford Days Sales being conducted today, tomorrow and Saturday.

Perusal of the special Sales Days supplement in this issue of The Citizen and Chronicle should convince you that there are scores of bargains ready for the taking during this sales event, not only in seasonal but also in year-round merchandise.

In preparation for the three-day bargain spree, store proprietors have been arranging attractive displays in their places of business, many of them air-conditioned, so that Cranford residents may do their shopping in pleasant, comfortable surroundings in their own home town.

Be sure to take advantage of this special sales event arranged for your convenience. You'll save money if you fill your shopping needs in Cranford stores during the next three days.

A Word of Advice About Fuel Oil

The way things look now, we think it's just good common sense for you to be foresighted about your home heating.

To safeguard your family's comfort and health we suggest that you do this as soon as possible:

Be sure your fuel oil dealer is a well-established firm, with a reputation for taking care of its customers and—most important—with a source of supply in which you can place confidence.

We'll be glad to talk this over with you. We've been here in this business a long time. Our supplier of Mobilheat fuel oil—Socony-Vacuum—is one of the largest refiners of fuel oil in the world.

Letters to The Editor

July 24, 1955

Editor, Citizen and Chronicle,
Cranford, N. J.

Dear Sir:

You have certainly been most cooperative in publicizing in your paper the activities of the boys of Cub Pack 178. The committee members join me in thanking you for this assistance, and I assure you that the news releases were followed anxiously by the cubs.

Yours truly,
Clifford D. Siverd,
Publicity Chairman.

Two Men Injured As Car Hits Bridge

When the driver nodded at the wheel two men were injured as the car in which they were riding struck the Rahway River bridge at North avenue, east, and Centennial avenue at 5:30 a.m. Sunday, police reported. Smoke was seen coming from the car after the crash and police used a radio car extinguisher to prevent it from bursting into flames. Firemen also were called to the scene.

The First Aid Squad and Patrolman Edward Klubenspies took Richard Williams, 25, of Newark, and Willie Pearyer, 27, of Plainfield, to Rahway Memorial Hospital. Williams, listed as the driver, suffered chest injuries, and Pearyer sustained an injury to his back. Dr. Walter K. Fasnacht gave first aid at the scene.

Sgt. George Ward and Patrolman Robert Ryan used the extinguisher on the car.

County Superintendent Begins Duties Monday

Union County gets a new superintendent of schools on Monday when Dr. William H. West takes over his new duties.

Dr. West succeeds the late Dr. Arthur L. Johnson of Cranford, who held the county post for more than 40 years until his death on May 16. Until his new appointment, Dr. West was serving as superintendent of schools in Belvidere.

Cranford Men Receive Service Buttons at Esso

Allan Whitney, 119 Beech street, has received a 20-year service button at Esso Standard Oil Company's Bayway Refinery in Linden. Mr. Whitney is employed as administrative assistant in the general superintendent's office.

John E. MacKay, 18 Ramapo road, employed in the machine department, received a 10-year button.

Retirement Home Working Plans Available Here

Looking for an inexpensive, easy-to-build house that might start off as a summer home and end up as your year-round retirement home? Or start right off in any smart neighborhood as your permanent home? It is so simple you might even build it yourself!

Beneath its red-and-white charm is a miracle of construction simplicity; every timber designed to use stock sizes without waste. The one-pitch insulated roof contains no difficult angles or assemblies. The interior will take large dry-wall panels if desired.

Considerable saving is made by use of simple trim and windows. The large front picture window, for instance, is made of glass inserts into stock 2" x 4"s. Closet walls cut down interior partition work.

The house is designed for either a concrete slab over a level grade or an insulated floor on concrete piers with continuous foundation walls.

This design is the "Newhope," current House-of-the-Month. According to Builders' General Supply Company, local sponsor of the House-of-the-Month, architect Albert E. Olson's working drawings are available. Also working drawings of any of the scores of other Houses-of-the-Month, all on display at the office of the sponsor.

Harold Cray To Receive Notre Dame Degree

First Sgt. Roney Kelsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kelsey of 107 McClellan street, was awarded a Bronze Star for meritorious service during the Normandy invasion. At the time of the award, he had been in service for three years and overseas for 21 months. He was a CHS graduate, Class of 1939, and attended Morris Brown College in Atlanta, Ga.

Establishment of a proposed veterans' center at Union Junior College received approval of the State Department of Education. Expected to be in operation September 1, the center was to offer the educational facilities of the college to veterans. A study and research center to direct correspondence courses, secondary subjects for veterans whose high school was interrupted, and evening courses so that employed veterans might avail themselves of educational opportunity, were intergral parts of the program.

More than 70 members of the Lions Club, their families and guests attended the annual picnic at the Hilltop, Echo Lake. Adult and child games and evening softball were played.

Both the High street and Osceola Park playgrounds observed Joseph Lee Day in honor of the founder's life and achievements, and special events at the High street field marked the date.

A delegation of 25 Garwood residents attended the dedication of a new recreation room in Reception Center No. 2 at Fort Dix. The room was furnished by the Garwood branch of the local Red Cross chapter. Funds totaling $1,800 were collected from vending machines for two years at the Garwood Works of the Aluminum Company of America.

Kenilworth Borough Council ended a long controversy when it adopted a resolution for a zoning change of 129 acres on Galloping Hill Road from industrial to residential. Mayor Max Berzin, who had long advocated industrial use of the tract, vetoed the measure, but it was expected that the Council would approve the issue at its next meeting.

Car Crashes Injure Three

Three persons were injured as three traffic accidents occurred here last Thursday. One of the crashes resulted in damage to a police car. The injured were taken to Rahway Memorial Hospital by the First Aid Squad.

Traffic was re-routed for 20 minutes during removal of two extensively damaged cars after they collided head-on on North avenue, east, between Arlington road and John street at 3:15 p.m. Members of the fire department under direction of Chief Howard G. Schindler washed spilled gasoline from the road.

Taken to the hospital in the ambulance were Harold J. Russell of 763 Walnut avenue and Mrs. Mary Putt of Rahway. Police reported Mr. Russell was driving west and Mrs. Putt east when the crash occurred. No complaints were filed pending further investigation. Mr. Russell sustained lacerations of the left elbow and abrasions of the hands, while Mrs. Putt suffered lacerations of the forehead and right knee and abrasions of the left knee.

Acting Police Chief Lester W. Powell directed the investigation at the scene, assisted by Sgt. Louis Guertin and Patrolmen Robert Ryan, William Crissey, Frank Caruso and John Varley. Patrolmen Michael Fedroff and Frank Burr directed traffic until the cars had been removed.

Joseph Milazzo, 58, of 85 Burnside avenue, suffered a fracture of the thumb and possible internal injuries when his car was in collision with a truck on Orange avenue near the Kenilworth line at 7:50 a.m.

Police said the driver of the truck was Henry E. Small, Sr., of New Brunswick, who was given a summons for careless driving. Sgt. Guertin reported Small told him he had swerved his vehicle to avoid hitting a dog. Also at the scene were Det. Lt. Thomas Woods and Patrolmen Henry Polidoro, Richard Schofield and Frank Caruso.

Acting Chief Powell reported the left front of Patrol Car No. 1 was damaged when, operated by Sgt. Guertin, it was in collision with a service truck from the McFarland Esso Servicecenter, 2 Springfield avenue, driven by Vern McFarland of Roselle Park, at Springfield avenue and Tulip street at 11:25 a.m. Mr. McFarland was given a summons for careless driving and failing to keep to the right of the intersection. No one was injured.

Registrations Begin Monday

Registrations for fall evening courses at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, begin Monday.

Advisers will be available every afternoon, Monday through Friday, from 2 to 4, and on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9 throughout August to counsel on either evening degree or non-credit adult programs for fall study. The registration offices for both programs are conducted in the same building at 77 Hamilton Street.

New students wishing to enroll for credit courses in the State University's evening division are advised by Dean Ernest E. McMahon to begin their enrollment procedure as early as possible in August. Early enrollment, according to the dean, makes it possible for high school records to be filed with the evening college Admissions Committee before the deadline of September 1.

Among the new courses available this fall in New Brunswick to degree-seeking students will be Nonfiction Writing, Victorian Literature, Social Ethics, History of Philosophy, Elementary French, Russia and the Soviet, and Programming for Digital Computers.

In addition to the new courses, a new degree program in sociology is being introduced. This program with majors in community organization and group relations brings to twelve the degree programs now available evenings in New Brunswick. The others include accounting, chemistry, economics, English, history, management, marketing, mathematics, political science, and psychology.

Two Esso Men Awarded Patents For Inventions

Two Cranford residents employed by the Esso Research and Engineering Company, Linden, have been awarded United States patents for oil processing developments.

They are Lewis D. Etherington of 118 Oak lane, and Edward J. Gornowski of 210 Manor avenue.

Dr. Etherington's invention makes use of the gas-mask "adsorption" principle in the refining of gases used as raw materials for such chemicals-from-oil as alcohols, polyethylenes and other plastics. Gases are brought into contact with a stream of particles of charcoal which surges in a continuous cycle within a refining tower. The porous activated carbon has the characteristic of clinging to some gases while rejecting others, thus achieving difficult separations.

Charcoal in gas masks performs in a similar manner to remove poisonous gases from air and allow the wearer to breathe safely. Similarly, in filter-tip cigarettes containing activated charcoal, the desired function of the carbon substance is to stop the passage of undesirable smoke particles.

Dr. Etherington is employed in the oil research firm's Chemicals Development Division.

The invention for which Dr. Gornowski received his patent applies to reheating the catalyst in the fluid catalytic hydroforming process. This is a process used to improve gasoline quality.

The "stream" of catalyst is cycled out of contact with the product, reheated, then sent back. This technique avoids any possibility of overheating the gasoline product itself.

Dr. Gornowski, now in Arabia on a temporary assignment, is a member of the Petroleum Development Division.

Local Chemist Joins Esso Research Division

Philip L. Mercier, of 605 Springfield avenue, has joined the staff of the Esso Research and Engineering Company as a chemist. Dr. Mercier has been assigned to the company's Chemicals Research Division.

Dr. Mercier was graduated from the University of Connecticut, Storrs, Conn., with a bachelor's degree in chemistry, and from Brown University, Providence, R. I. with a doctorate in chemistry. Before entering the University of Connecticut, he served with the U. S. Navy as a fire controlman for eighteen months.

He is a member of the Society of Sigma Xi and the American Chemical Society.

Invites Artists to Enter Union County Art Show

Any artist in Union County may enter a painting in the annual art show to be held at the Trailside Museum in the Watchung Reservation on Sunday, September 18, it was announced by the Union County Park Commission.

The exhibit, each year, has many entries from members of Art Associations in Westfield, Summit, Plainfield, Cranford, and Elizabeth, since these groups cooperate in sponsoring the event. Exhibits, however, are welcomed from all other county groups and from individuals.

In keeping with a policy previously established, a popular vote will be taken on the day of the show to determine the winner and the two runners-up.

A brochure giving further details is available from the chairman of the art exhibit, Frank M. Salowey of 717 Sterling street, Plainfield.

Accident Rate Low on Parkway

A weekly average of only three personal injury accidents on the Garden State Parkway during the first half of this year has been reported by State Police.

During that period, 78 injury accidents were reported as well as four fatalities. This low accident rate was established while toll traffic averaged well over a half-million vehicles per week. State Police said only a small number of the personal injury accidents from January 1 through June 30 involved serious casualties.

State Police issued 2,736 summonses for motor vehicle law violations. Speeding was the most prevalent violation, accounting for 1,280 of the total. During the period, State Police gave special aid to 6,658 motorists.

Local Children Receive Swimming Certificates

Cranford children were among those awarded American Red Cross and "King Neptune" certificates for successfully completing learn-to-swim courses at Rahway Park Pool, Rahway.

Richard Kelly received a Red Cross Certificate, while King Neptune awards went to Guy Borges and Grace O'Keefe, all of Cranford. Emil Kutsera of Cranford was second in a paddle board race.

The graduation ceremonies were held last Wednesday afternoon and included special swimming exhibitions and demonstrations, games and races.

Welfare Board Director To Attend Conference

Mrs. Florence B. Slocum of Cranford, director of the Union County Welfare Board, will attend the northeastern regional conference of the American Public Welfare Association in New York City on September 7 through 9. Mrs. Slocum is a member of two committees of the association.

Mrs. Slocum has been authorized by the board to carry on the agency's business during August when the monthly meeting will be deferred to the end of the month.

Adult School Third Largest In Union County

According to a report made by Dr. Frederick M. Raubinger, state education commissioner, Cranford has the third largest adult education school in Union County.

The report lists enrollment at the Cranford Adult School for the 1953-54 school year at 1,133. The county's largest school was in Elizabeth, where 2,360 were enrolled. Westfield was second with 1,368 registrants.

Only Montclair and South Orange-Maplewood had more persons enrolled in their adult schools than Elizabeth.

Totals for other communities in Union County were: Clark, 285; Plainfield, 865; and Roselle, 769.

Bicyclist Injured In Near-Collision

Falling from his bicycle when it was in a near-collision with a car on Lexington avenue at Iroquois road, police reported, William Hubiak, 7, of 43 Iroquois road, suffered an abrasion of the big toe on his right foot Friday evening.

Mrs. William Hubiak at first reported that her son had been struck by a car which failed to stop, but investigation by Sgts. Edward Lee and Harry Page revealed no evidence of an actual collision. They reported the boy was riding his bicycle on Iroquois road and fell when he turned right into Lexington avenue parallel to a green car.

Sgt. Page took the child to the office of Dr. Anthony Sordill for treatment. Patrolman Lawrence Bonnell also assisted in the investigation.

Suffers Hip Injury

Mrs. Nellie Doyle, 65, of 24 Holly street, who suffered contusions and a possible fracture of the right hip in a fall at her home Saturday, was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Elizabeth, Monday morning by the First Aid Squad. She was treated at home by Dr. Abraham Thaler.

Ralph Boyd, Jr., Wed in Vermont To Miss Perry

Miss Susanne Perry, daughter of Courtland L. Perry, Sr., of Barre, Vt., became the bride of Ralph Sawyer Boyd, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd of 6 Madison avenue, Saturday at a double-ring ceremony at the First Baptist Church, Barre. The Rev. Richard Painchaud officiated. A reception followed in the church parlors.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown had a lace bodice with irridescent sequins, a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. The nylon, three-tiered skirt was floor-length. A fingertip veil, also of nylon, was caught to a semi-pillbox headpiece. The bouquet was of white roses, feathered carnations and ivy.

Mrs. Stanley Offensend of Hartland, Vt., was matron of honor for her sister. Her dress was salmon pink nylon chiffon over satin and tulle. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of summer flowers. The junior bridesmaid was Judith Offensend of Hartland, Vt., niece of the bride. Her gown and bouquet were like the matron of honor's.

Paul Damon of 7 Cranford avenue was best man. Ushers were James Dietrich of Oley, Pa., Noel Desch of Albany, N. Y., and Barry Jordan of Montpelier, Vt.

The organist was Doris McDonald. Marilyn McDonald of Boston, Mass., sang "Because," "Through the Years," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Boyd is a graduate of Spaulding High School, Barre, and Vermont Junior College, Montpelier. She is employed in the secretary's department of National Life Insurance Company, Montpelier.

Mr. Boyd, a graduate of Cranford High School and Norwich University, Northfield, Vt., is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. He will enter the Army in November.

Chimney Rock-Round Valley Battle To Be Waged in Trenton Next Month

Hope for more definite progress toward solution of the water problem of the North Jersey area is held forth in the recent statement by Assemblywoman Florence P. Dwyer of Elizabeth that the underlying theme of action in Trenton next month must be: "We want water."

Referring to the special session of the State Legislature called for August 8 to discuss water, Mrs. Dwyer declared:

"We should stay in session until the problem is solved. "We face two problems; one, getting water to meet our needs now; two, guaranteeing a supply for long-range planning."

Two Plans Offered

Up for discussion will be not one but two suggestions for the long-range solution of North Jersey's water supply problems.

In addition to the proposal for a reservoir at Round Valley in Hunterdon County, held up thus far by a deadlock in the Senate, there is now under consideration a new recommendation that a reservoir be erected in the Chimney Rock area in Washington Valley, Somerset County.

The Chimney Rock plans, recommended by Tippetts-Abbott-McCarthy Stratton, consulting engineers of New York hired by the legislature to survey the state's water needs, were approved last Wednesday by a special state legislative commission studying the matter.

Immediately there followed many pro and con comments on this new proposal.

Public Hearing Suggested

Govenor Robert B. Meyner pointed out that the Chimney Rock tract was mentioned in the past as a possible site for a reservoir. (It was the subject of surveys in 1925 and 1930) but was considered unfeasible because of the number of families and industries which would have to be moved. The governor has suggested that the Legislature hold public hearings on the recommendation before any definite action is taken.

Preliminary estimates have indicated that the Chimney Rock project would affect some 350 properties, as compared with Round Valley's 50.

A group of residents of a new development in Martinsville, which community would be in the path of the project, has asserted that this figure is too conservative and has started a survey to determine just how many homes, industries and public buildings would have to be moved. They point out that many of the homes which would be affected are in the $20,000 to $25,000 class, and that there also are three churches in Washington Valley, including the Martinsville Methodist Church, which recently built a new Sunday School building, a Roman Catholic Church and the old Springdale Church, and also the Martinsville School.

Somerset Battles Plan

Although most officials were withholding definite comment on the proposal until receipt of official copies of the state report on the proposed Chimney Rock reservoir (scheduled for public release next Tuesday), Somerset County Freeholder John H. Veghte declared he didn't believe a reservoir ever will be built at Chimney Rock because there is too much valuable property in the area and "too many top men there who won't stand for it."

Somerset County Freeholder Director Robert L. Adams stated on Friday that he will wage an all-out fight against the construction of a Chimney Rock reservoir.

Cite Plan's Advantage

Major features of the consulting engineer's suggestions following their recent survey were reported as follows:

1. The Chimney Rock reservoir in Washington Valley could be completed by 1960 or 1961 and would cost about $102,650,000, compared with the estimated $143,630,000 cost for a reservoir in Round Valley. First stage at Chimney Rock would cost $51,810,000, as compared with the Round Valley estimated of $59,040,000 in this category.

2. Enough water would be drawn, mainly from the Delaware and Raritan Rivers, to supply 180 million gallons daily to the North Jersey Area.

3. Chimney Rock would be a better site because of a shorter distance for contemplated transmission line to Elizabeth, and because a compensating reservoir would not be needed.

The estimated cost of developing Round Valley is in sharp disagreement. The consulting engineers hired by the Legislature list the development at $143 milion as compared with $79 million estimated by the North Jersey Commission. In addition, the Department of Conservation and Economic Development sees the cost of developing Round Valley at $62 million.

There also is wide disagreement on the cost of installing transmission lines to Elizabeth.

Two Earlier Surveys

The 1925 and 1930 surveys indicated that the envisioned eight-mile-long and one-mile-wide reservoir, cost of which was estimated at that time at approximately $30 million, would have wiped out 3,700 acres in Washington Valley and would have meant removal of many Somerset County farmers and estate holders.

According to the earlier estimates, the proposed Chimney Rock reservoir would have developed an eventual supply of 750 million gallons of water daily and would have solved the water problem of North Jersey "for 150 years to come," but it was pointed out also that such a reservoir would wipe out Martinsville as a town and inundate 5.8 square miles of the valley.

Somerset County residents campaigned vigorously against the earlier proposal, while representatives of Elizabeth, Newark, Kearny and Bayonne worked in its favor.

Legislators Withhold Judgment

According to reports of the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission, the dam as originally proposed would have been built in Washington Valley at Martinsville between the First and Second Watchung Mountains and would have been connected by aqueducts with the upper tributaries of the Raritan River.

Members of the Union County legislative delegation have been supporting the Round Valley project but indicated that they also will give careful attention to the Chimney Rock proposal.

Senator Kenneth C. Hand of Elizabeth declared he felt Round Valley still should receive priority attention but added that "this doesn't rule out the Chimney Rock possibilities in any sense of the word."

Wants Definite Action

Assemblywoman Dwyer said that although she is an author of a bill favoring Round Valley she would not rule out Chimney Rock, especially in view of the consulting engineers' detailed study. She declared the Legislature should call in any other technical experts needed and even hold another public hearing if necessary. In any event, she added, the lawmakers should remain on the job until definite action has been taken one way or another.

Although making it clear that he was not making a final decision until he had studied the engineers' report, Assemblyman G. Clifford Thomas of Elizabeth pointed out that certain material advantages were set forth for the Chimney Rock plan. He also emphasized the need for definite action on one plan or the other and expressed confidence that such action will be forthcoming in Trenton next month.

Favors New State Body

Assemblyman Carlyle W. Crane of Plainfield, who earlier introduced a Round Valley bill, spoke in favor of the consulting engineers' proposal that a new state body have control of the proposed Chimney Rock reservoir. He remarked that his part of the county would fare best if the North Jersey District Supply Commission were not in control of either proposed project.

Concern over the proposal to obtain water for the suggested Chimney Rock reservoir from the Raritan River was expressed Friday by Robert W. Kean, Jr., president of the Elizabethtown Water Company, and Frank L. Winslow, secretary-treasurer of the Plainfield-Union Water Company. Elizabeth obtains much of its water from the Raritan River, and Plainfield-Union depends upon the Elizabethtown supply to augment the water it gets from its own wells.

Mr. Kean declared his interest was in "conserving Raritan River waters for the people of the Raritan Valley who depend upon it."

Both water company officials said they would not be ready to make a formal statement on the Chimney Rock proposal until they had an opportunity to study the engineers' report.

Concerts Benefit Scholarship Fund At Band School

For the benefit of its scholarship fund, the Union County Band and Orchestra School of Roselle presents a paid special concert each summer session. A silver collection is taken at other concerts for the same fund which benefits worthy students, students of outstanding ability and technical assistants.

Recipients are selected by local public school music directors and local civic organizations. Interested student may apply to their musical director or to Virgil W. Bork, director of the school. Both full and part tuition scholarships are awarded.

The scholarship fund is raised from the following sources: Concerts, donations from civic organizations, business concerns and individuals.

Two permanent scholarships have been established. The Julia Hoffman Memorial Scholarship established by Linden Junior High School, provides full tuition each year for a Linden student. The Robert Louis Taylor Scholarship, which provides yearly tuition in full for a Roselle student, was established by the Women's Service League of Roselle.

The school invites any interested persons who would like to provide scholarships to contact any officer or teacher of the school.

River Cleaning, Weed Control Work Told

Members of the Public Works Department were busy during the past week with their annual cleaning of the bed of the Rahway River and also were continuing the summer weed control program, Township Engineer Patrick J. Grall reported.

Giving the men some extra work this summer was a heavy marine growth in the river which had to be removed with rakes and drags. The growth was found to be particularly heavy in the MacConnell park area and from the Springfield avenue bridge down to the Hansel Dam off North Union avenue.

Mr. Grall said this growth was not so heavy last year, as its formation was retarded when the sluiceways were opened and the river lowered after several heavy storms.

The engineer added that members of his department recently spent several days clearing logs and branches from the river in the vicinity of the Union County Park Commission footbridge in the rear of the Sunny Acres development.

In the weed control program, Mr. Grall reported, his department is spraying vacant lots to retard growth of ragweed and poison ivy. This program, he said, began June 1 with the cutting of weeds on vacant land throughout the township.

Cuts Knee in Fall

A two-inch laceration of the left knee requiring four sutures was sustained by Joseph Higgens, 7, of 43-A Myrtle street, when he fell while playing at his home Sunday. Patrolmen Matthew and Gerard Haney took the boy to the office of Dr. Walter K. Fasnacht in a police car.

Fires Extinguished

Firemen were called out to extinguish a brush fire between Manor and Herning avenues at 12:05 a.m. Saturday and burning debris in bushes at Orange avenue and Davis street at 1:37 p.m. Sunday.

Programs for the Coming Week in Cranford Churches

Young Men Assisting In Methodist Services

Theodore Munday, who has served as treasurer of the Senior High Fellowship during the past year, assisted the Rev. Richard Stegner, assistant pastor, in conducting Sunday's service at Cranford Methodist Church.

For several Sundays, young men from the Senior High Fellowship have been assisting the Rev. Mr. Stegner, who has been preaching in the vacation absence of Dr. Albert Allinger, pastor. This past Sunday's assistant was graduated in June from Cranford High School, where he was elected to the National Honor Society, and in the fall will attend Cornell University.

Richard McDaniel, past president of the Fellowship, led off in this program, followed by Bruce Buzalski, former vice-president. All are June graduates and will begin their college training in the fall.

"What Is Christianity?" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. Mr. Stegner at the one service at 9:30 a.m. this Sunday.

Mrs. Doris E. Rothweiler, organist, will use the following selections: Chorale, "My Heart Is Filled With Longing," by Bach-Schreiner; Chorale, "O Fairest Jesu," by Bach-Schreiner, and "Postlude" by A. Mallard. As soloist, Mrs. W. Barnhart will sing "O Lord on High," by Mozart.

Leaders of Children's Church for children from kindergarten through fifth grade will be Miss J. Moditz and Mrs. E. Gardner.

There will be a meeting of the Credit Union in Room 1 at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Members of the Women's Society of Christian Service are planning their annual trip to Ocean Grove on Tuesday. Those interested in going are requested to contact Mrs. D. Greenwell.

Leon Gipson to Speak At St. Mark's Sunday

Leon Gipson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gipson of 15 Buchanan street, now studying for the ministry, will be the speaker at a meeting of the Willing Workers of St. Mark's AME Church at 7:30 p.m. Sunday. A graduate of Cranford High School, he was admitted to the AME Conference in April.

The Rev. G. W. Moore, pastor, will conduct morning worship service at 11 a.m. Sunday. There will be Sunday School classes at 9:30 a.m.

Homes On Wheels

One out of four trailer coaches now being built will be used by service men and their families, particularly for Reservists and National Guardsmen who want to maintain family life when called for Federal duty. Two-thirds of present production of "mobile homes" is going for defense workers, leaving only seven per cent for non-defense markets.

'Lip Service' Talk Topic At Calvary

The Rev. Arnold J. Dahlquist, pastor of Calvary Lutheran Church, will preach at the 9:30 a.m. service this Sunday on the topic, "Lip Service." The solo at this service will be "The Publican," by Van de Water, sung by William G. Magan. In the absence of George Schlenker, organist, Mrs. Marlin Sieg has been at the organ during the month of July.

Pastor Dahlquist will leave Monday for a month's vacation. The Rev. Harold C. Letts, secretary for social action of the United Lutheran Church in America, will be the guest preacher August 7.

The charity sewing group will meet in the church house Tuesday at 10 a.m. This group will continue sewing throughout the summer on alternate Tuesdays. All ladies of the church are invited.

It has been announced that the church office will be closed for the first two weeks of August. Robert Neuman of 129 Oak lane, president of the Church Council, may be contacted in case there is need for pastoral service during this time.

Eucharist Services At Trinity Sunday

There will be two celebrations of Holy Eucharist at Trinity Church on Sunday, the eighth Sunday after Trinity, at 8 and 9:30 a.m.

The 9:30 service will be accompanied by hymns and a short address by the Rev. Carroll M. Bates, assistant, who is in charge of the parish during the vacation of the rector, the Rev. Frank V. H. Carthy.

Holy Eucharist will be celebrated on Wednesday at 7:15 a.m. and next Thursday at 9 a.m.

TOWNSHIP OF CRANFORD

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by The Township Committee of Cranford Township for the surfacing of Brookside Place and Spruce Street in the Township of Cranford in the County of Union with a Bituminous Concrete Type SM-2 surface upon an existing macadam foundation, estimated amount of SM-2 surface pavement required is 1240 tons; and opened and read in public at the Township Hall on August 9, 1955, 8:30 P.M. (Daylight Saving Time).

Drawings, specifications and forms of bids, contracts and bond for the proposed work, prepared by Patrick J. Grall, Township Engineer, and approved by the State Highway Commissioner, have been filed in the office of the said engineer at the Township Hall, Cranford, New Jersey, and of said State Highway Commissioner, Trenton, New Jersey, and may be inspected by prospective bidders during business hours. Bidders will be furnished with a copy of the specifications and blue prints of the drawings by the engineer on proper notice and payments of cost of preparation. Bids must be made on standard proposal forms in the manner designated therein and required by the specifications, must be enclosed in sealed envelopes, bearing the name and address of bidder and name of road on outside, addressed to The Township Committee, Cranford Township, and must be accompanied by a certified check for not less than (10) per cent of the amount bid, provided said check shall be not more than $20,000.00 and be delivered at the place and on the hour above named. The standard proposal form is attached to the supplementary specifications, copies of which will be furnished on application to engineer.

By order of The Township Committee, Cranford Township.

J. WALTER COFFEE,
Township Clerk.

Thought for the Week

"FINDING GOD"

By the Rev. Albert G. Dezso, Pastor, Osceola Presbyterian Church

Through all the ages men have been trying to find God. Some have found Him beside crude altars built of stone, some in the church, and others in the beauty of the out-of-doors.

There are some who have not as yet found Him, but the quest goes on by all people, everyday, and shall continue through all the ages yet to come. God is so great that none of us can ever discover all that can be known about Him. And yet all of us can learn a great deal about Him by looking at His world; by knowing people who are followers of His; and by studying what other people have discovered. As people search for God, they truly find Him.

St. Augustine said, "Thou, O God, hast made us for thyself and we are restless until we find rest in Thee." There are a number of ways of finding God. I suggest some of them to you:

We find God through worship. One who worships strives to enter into fellowship with God, and at the same time God is seeking to reveal Himself to the worshiper. The human and the divine are reaching out for each other. Not all worship takes place in a church building, but certainly God can be found there. It may be that the highest moments of worship come when one is alone out of doors, or in the presence of stained glass windows and of stately arches in a sanctuary dedicated to the worship of God. At such moments one feels near to God. New insights come, and one is lifted up and energized for action.

We can also find God through beauty. As we look about us we see beauty in many forms—in the sunset, in the combination of colors in trees, in flowers, and shrubs. We should train our eyes to see beauty in a bare tree silhouetted against the sky or in a spider web covered with dew or in the grass about our feet. And in all these things of beauty we should also see God knowing that He has created it all.

We can also find God through friendly living. As we come into contact with people who know the Lord and observe their love for Him we see God revealed, and as we come into contact with them we find God in His people.

And lastly we find God through service. As we share our gifts with others, we realize that our gifts come from someone greater than ourselves and we recognize the hand of God and that we have the opportunity to teach others about Him through serving Him.

This summer let us all seek God diligently, and as a result we shall all know the strength and joy that comes when we have found Him.

Guest Preacher Sunday At Presbyterian Church

The Rev. Arthur Northwood will be guest preacher at the 9:30 a.m. service in the First Presbyterian Church this Sunday.

Dr. Northwood is the minister of the Elizabeth Avenue Presbyterian Church in Newark. Guest organist will be Lester Robertson, organist of the First Baptist Church in Westfield. Marilyn Vosberg will be the soloist.

Steven Anderson and Richard Harvey will leave Monday for Junior High Camp at Island Heights.

Highest Note

The violin reaches a higher note than any other musical instrument, not excepting the piccolo.

Flattering Coats

Princess style coats have always been very flattering, but never more so than this year. Double stitching on top seams accentuates their slenderness as well as their smart lines and detailing.

Parade Set For Vacation Bible School

Annual program of the Vacation Bible School of the Alliance Church will begin with a parade through town on August 12, it was announced today. Classes will begin August 15.

The school will continue for two weeks, with closing exercises on August 26. Children from the south side of the township will be transported to the school in a bus leaving from Winfield.

Dr. George A. Aitcheson, pastor, will continue his series of sermons on "The Offerings, the Sacrifices and the Tabernacle" this Sunday. At the 11 a.m. worship service, he will speak on "The Hebrew Feasts as Applied to Present-Day Christianity." Miss Hazel Womelsdorf, vocalist, will offer a special musical selection.

Bible School will continue to meet at 9:30 a.m. each Sunday throughout the summer. There are classes for all age groups, and visitors are cordially invited.

Junior, Intermediate and Senior Youth Fellowships will meet at the church at 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

The pastor will continue his series of sermons on "Meditations in the Psalms" at the 7:45 p.m. evangelistic service. Mrs. Joseph Whittaker will be the soloist.

There will be a meeting of the Women's Missionary Prayer Band at the home of Mrs. L. A. Conover, 10 Retford avenue, on Wednesday at 10 a.m.

Regular mid-week Bible study and prayer meeting will be held Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Diet and Polio

Scientists are trying hard to discover if there is a connection between diet and polio. While they cannot yet tell you what to eat to avoid it, they are beginning to hope that diet may possibly provide a future weapon against the disease.

To Give Final Sermon Before August Vacation

"The Assurance of Personal Immortality," third and final sermon under the general topic of "The Assurance of Things Hoped For," will be preached Sunday morning by the Rev. Albert G. Dezso, pastor of the Osceola Presbyterian Church. The service will begin at 10:15 and end at 11.

The Rev. Mr. Dezso will vacation with his family during August and return to his pulpit September 4.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH SERVICES

How spiritual understanding of God as divine Love assures man of wise guidance and unlimited inspiration will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Love" will include the following passage from the King James Version of the Biblical account of the guidance the children of Israel received in their flight from Egypt: "And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night: He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people" (Exodus 13:21,22).

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (454:18-21): "Love inspires, illumines, designates, and leads the way. Right motives give pinions to thought, and strength and freedom to speech and action."

The Golden Text is from I John (4:8): "He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love."

Modern Police Procedures Outlined by Rotary Speaker

Two-way radio patrol cars, teletype and fingerprinting have played a major part in the early apprehension of criminals in recent years, William V. McLaughlin, deputy chief of the Jersey City Police Department, told members of the Cranford Rotary Club at their luncheon meeting last Thursday in the Methodist Church educational building.

Introduced by Past President Charles E. Dooley, Deputy Chief McLaughlin compared police procedures today with those of 39 years ago when he was appointed a patrolman in Jersey City.

He credited former Mayor Frank Hague with instituting the bureau of special services in Jersey City, which, he declared, has played a vital part in keeping juvenile delinquency in that city to a minimum. He explained that this bureau investigates each case in which a juvenile is involved, looking into the home environment, religious background and other factors of the youth.

"We have found," he asserted, "that youngsters who have been raised in a religious home have more respect for man-made laws than those who have not."

The speaker said this department played a major role in keeping many Jersey City juveniles out of prisons. A recent survey showed that while Jersey City ranked second in population among cities in the state, it ranked 22 in prison population.

Secretary William J. Dodds announced that the district conference will be held October 26 and 27 at Buck Hill Falls, Pa. President P. J. Clark presided.

Falls on Street

Having suffered cuts of the scalp and elbow when he fell on Arlington road at Hamilton avenue at 10:21 p.m. last Wednesday, Marion Richardson, 70, of 420 Plane street, was taken by Sgt. Edward Lee and Patrolman John Varley to the office of Dr. J. A. Olson for treatment.

Vandals Punch Holes In Walls of New Home

Vandalism at a new house under construction at 107 Pawnee road was reported to the police last Thursday by William Duchin of Linden, president of the Jobill Construction Company.

Mr. Duchin said a pipe was used to punch holes in downstairs walls of the house and the recreation room door was broken. He added that four windows were broken in the garage.

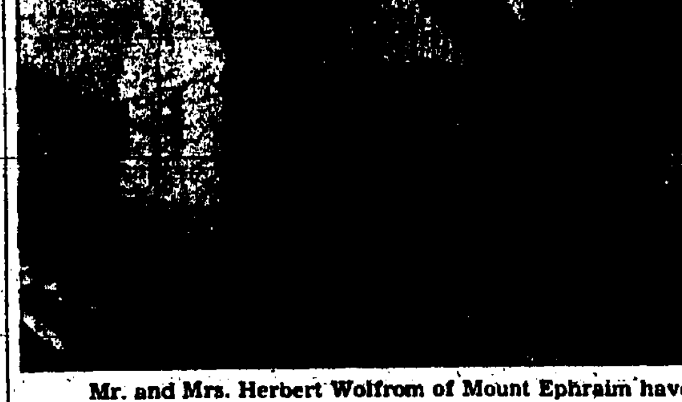
Patrol cars were instructed to check the area frequently, especially in the evenings. The builder said the damage apparently occurred after 7 p.m.

Sunflower Rises 12 Feet In North Avenue Garden

A sunflower 12 feet tall and bearing a bloom 10 inches in diameter is an outstanding feature of the garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Chapin, 38 North avenue, east.

The tall plant is one of several sunflowers which the Chapins are growing to provide food for birds during the winter. Last year they had a sunflower 15 feet in height with an even larger bloom.

Van Buren Avenue Home Sold



Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wolfrom of Mount Ephraim have moved into their new home (shown above) at 5 Van Buren avenue. This was a Multiple Listing, and the sale was made through the office of G. G. Nunn, local realtor.

Accepted for Advanced Study in Accounting

Donald Morritt of 21 Madison avenue is among 112 students who have been accepted to date for admission to Rutgers University School of Business Administration in September, the admissions committee of the state university unit in Newark announced today.

The local student will major in accounting with advanced standing.

Mrs. Snook Studies State Water Situation

Mrs. John Snook of Cranford was among a group of leaders from League of Women Voters units who visited the Westfield office and distribution facilities of the Plainfield-Union Water Company last Thursday.

The trip is part of a study by the state unit of the water situation. George M. Haskew, superintendent, was host to the group. He outlined measures taken by his firm to augment supplies and distribution facilities.

Injured in Fall

Mrs. Charles Redden, 47, of 201 Columbia avenue, suffered multiple lacerations of the face and hands in a fall from the back porch of her home at 9:20 a.m. last Thursday. She was treated by Dr. Abraham Thaler.

Granitzki Passes Exam

Elmer R. Granitzki of 361 Retford avenue is one of 14 Union County residents who passed a uniform CPA examination last May. He is among a new group of certified public accountants, the State Board of Public Accountants announced.

Spray Drying Air Scrubber Ready to Go

GARWOOD — Installation of an air scrubbing device at Spray Drying Service, Inc., 501 North avenue, has been completed, necessary ducts now are being placed, and it is expected the unit will be in operation next week, it was reported yesterday by William E. Horr of Westfield, company treasurer.

In a letter to the Board of Health earlier this year, Charles P. Bailey of Westfield, Spray Drying president, who is now on vacation, reported the new equipment is expected to eliminate all dust and minimize odors complained of in a petition submitted to the Borough Council last year by residents of the neighborhood.

Decision to install equipment to wash the entire exhaust output of the plant was reached after success of tests over a period of months with a smaller unit which treated a portion of the exhaust air. The unit about to be put into use, product of the Ducon Company of Long Island, manufacturers of dust collectors and air scrubbers, differs somewhat in mechanical design from other air scrubbers tried out by Spray Drying following the filing of the petition last year.

Completion of the installation originally was scheduled for July 15, but a heavy schedule of orders during the past month slowed up work on the project, Mr. Horr explained.

The Koppers Company at 449 South avenue, east, Westfield, also is installing air pollution control equipment, it was announced this week by Anthony Casale, secretary of the Board of Health. Residents of both Garwood and Westfield have complained in the past about fumes and smoke from this plant.

Gibson Scheffer, engineer for the Diamond Expansion Bolt Company, 500 North avenue, yesterday reported completion of a program involving relocation of equipment and changes in galvanizing processes which he said has resulted in a 60 percent reduction in smoke and fumes emanating from that plant. Diamond Expansion also had been mentioned in last year's petition.

Local Teacher Becomes Bride At St. Paul's

GARWOOD—Mrs. John D. Walther of Westfield, a fifth grade teacher in Lincoln School, and Thomas Bennett of Ansonia, Conn., were married at 4 p.m. Friday in St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church. The Rev. Richard L. Keach, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Waterville, Me., son-in-law of the bride, officiated, assisted by the Rev. Walter C. Pugh, pastor of the local church.

Honor attendants were Miss Jean E. Bennett of Ansonia, daughter of the bridegroom, and John D. Walther, Jr., of Miami, Fla., son of the bride. Mrs. Herman Fabian of Fanwood was soloist, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Richard Harper, Sr., of Garwood.

The couple spent the week-end in the Poconos and will leave next week for a motor trip to Canada.

The bride is a graduate of Arnold College of Hygiene and Physical Education, New Haven, Conn., and Rutgers University.

Mr. Bennett attended Yale University and is assistant safety director for the American Brass and Copper Company in Ansonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Pinkin and four children, of 315 Myrtle avenue, will leave Saturday for Ocean Beach, where they will vacation for two weeks.

WALTER S. McMANUS,
Borough Clerk.

Dated: July 1, 1955.

FurtherStudy To Be Made On Land Use

GARWOOD—There will be no decision as to the use to be made of borough-owned land on Myrtle and Spruce avenues until there has been an exchange of additional information on the problem, it was reported this week by Mayor William H. Severage, representing the Borough Council; Oliver W. Davis, president of the Board of Education, and Anthony J. Riccardo, chairman of the Board of Adjustment, following a meeting of members of the three bodies in the Borough Hall last Thursday night.

The conference was called to discuss future plans for the borough-owned tract, where there is land available for approximately 80 new homes, with special attention to the possible effects on school facility needs if decision were made to open it to residential development.

Mr. Davis and Warren J. Binns, Jr., head of the Board of Education's special coordinating committee on education, presented a report prepared by that committee outlining estimated classroom needs in the borough for the next five years, on the basis of present conditions and also on the basis of school population increases to be expected if the borough-owned tract is sold for home building.

It was announced that details of the report would not be made public until after further study of the problem, but it is understood that concern was expressed that use of the borough-owned property for homes would necessitate additions to one or more of the present three elementary schools or even construction of another building.

Borough Council members agreed to study the report of the school board's committee and to gather additional material of their own for future exchanges on the subject.

It was announced also that Borough Engineer Patrick J. Grall will make a survey of drainage and sewer requirements on the borough-owned tract.

No other use of the land was proposed at Thursday's meeting, it was reported. Construction of a municipal swimming pool and parking area on the tract had been suggested by Dante A. Costa, a member of the Board of Education and president of the Republican Club, at a meeting of the Borough Council a week earlier.

Mayor Severage opened the conference and Mr. Riccardo presided during the session.

Pulpit Guest Here Sunday

GARWOOD—The Rev. Walter C. Pugh, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church of Garwood, will exchange pulpits this Sunday with the Rev. Russell D. Custer, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church of Milltown.

Dr. Custer will conduct the morning worship service in the local church at 11 a.m. Sunday. Classes for all ages are continuing throughout the summer in the Sunday School at 9:45 a.m.

While the Rev. and Mrs. Pugh are on vacation during August, services will be conducted by the Rev. Kenneth Roll, pastor of the Glassboro Evangelical and Reformed Church, on August 7; the Rev. Thomas Phillips, pastor of the Evangelical and Reformed Church of Mountville, Pa., on August 14, and a representative of the Gideon Society on August 21.

There will be a regular meeting of the Consistory in the church social room at 8 p.m. Monday.

Thomas M. Casale of 254 Hazel avenue is among 112 students who have been accepted to date for admission to Rutgers University School of Business Administration in September, the admissions committee of the state university unit announced in Newark today. He will major in management.

Plans Fall Wedding

MISS DOROTHY JANE EGER

Miss Eger's Betrothal Announced in Florida

GARWOOD—At a recent gathering of friends at their home in Miami Gardens, Hollywood, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Herman Eger, formerly of Garwood, announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Jane Eger, to Robert Frey, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Stapchins of El Portal, Miami, Fla.

A buffet supper was served, amid floral arrangements and with a decorated cake expressing best wishes to the couple serving as a centerpiece.

Among those attending were Mr. Frey's parents; Mr. and Mrs. George Streeter, Mrs. Frank Schreyer and son, Mr. and Mrs. E. Chereskoff, all of Miami Gardens; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Buss of Opa Locka, Fla., formerly of Garwood; Mr. and Mrs. C. Deshler of Biscayne Gardens, Fla., formerly of Kenilworth, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris of Miami, formerly of Michigan.

Miss Eger attended Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield. She moved to Florida with her parents last year.

Mr. Frey was graduated from Scranton Central High School and attended Ricker Junior College in Houlton, Me. He served in the Air Force and saw action in the Korean conflict.

A fall wedding is planned.

Local LL Eliminated

GARWOOD—The Garwood Little League was defeated by the South River Little League, 13-0, Monday night at Bell Stadium, which eliminates the local team from the Little League state tournament. Two hundred and fifty persons were in attendance.

Garwood's team had four hits and five errors. Pitchers for the home team were Jack Hay, Roger Michaels and Richard Sosidka. The game was announced by Thomas J. Colwell and Edward Conlin.

In their opening game in the district eliminations Garwood defeated Milltown, 3-1, at Bell Stadium on Friday. Richard Beylon pitched five-hit ball for the home team and helped his own cause by singling in the first inning and scoring on singles by Patrick Englese and Roger Michaels.

Garwood's other runs came in the third inning as Michael Falzone singled, Jack Hay walked, Richard Sosidka got on base on a fielder's choice and Greg Kloza doubled to bring in Falzone and Sosidka.

The Irvington All-Stars defeated the Garwood Little League All-Stars, 7-3, at Irvington on Sunday.

Members of the local all-star team, chosen by the managers of the various Little League teams, are: Roger Michael, David Chinchar, Jacob Desch and Joseph Bickunas, from the ACOA team; Joseph Massari, Michael McDonald and John Hay, Fibro; Edward Silver, Richard Sosidka and Frank Cricola, Sonoco, and Michael Falzone, Patrick Englese, Richard Beylon and William Prish, PAL.

Playground Topping Contracts Awarded

GARWOOD — Contracts for resurfacing of play areas in the vicinity of Lincoln and Franklin Schools were awarded to C. H. Winans Company of Elizabeth at a special meeting of the Board of Education last Thursday night.

The bids accepted were $6,012 for black-topping the area at the rear of the two schools and $2,800 for a cork mix top for the area at the Walnut street side of Lincoln School.

The contracts call for completion of the work before the opening of school in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beaver of 139 South avenue have returned after vacationing in Lake Hopatcong for a week.

Await Word On Ordinance From State

KENILWORTH—An ordinance adopted by Borough Council some 16 months ago will become effective in the near future.

This ordinance designates all light traffic and through streets and prohibited parking areas. It did not become effective immediately after passage by Borough Council because it failed to gain approval by the traffic division of the State Department of Law and Public Safety.

The state department did not approve the so-called comprehensive traffic ordinance because of complaints by local and Union truckers that it would interfere with their operations. The state said it would approve the proposed law when the borough provided an outlet for the trucks and North Fourteenth street was proposed.

Borough Council agreed to improve North Fourteenth street as a heavy duty thoroughfare, but several complications developed. Since the Rahway Valley Railroad crosses the road and no grade crossing was provided, approval had to be received from the State Public Utility Commission to establish one there. The railroad balked, but finally agreed when another grade crossing was eliminated.

Hopes that the law would go into effect soon brightened last week when a representative of the traffic division inspected the new road installed by the Public Works Department under the direction of Councilman Kenneth Hart. The state official indicated, Councilman Ernest Vardalis, chairman of the public safety committee, said, that the improved road would be approved. Councilman Vardalis says he is still awaiting official word from the state.

To meet the state requirements, North Fourteenth street has been graveled and oiled between Lafayette and Monroe avenues.

Many truckers are already using the road, Councilman Vardalis said, and he requested their cooperation in making use of through streets rather than the light traffic ones once the comprehensive ordinance is operative. Following a period of education, summonses will be issued, he declared.

About 90 percent of the borough's light traffic streets have been posted, Mr. Vardalis explained.

Participating in the inspection tour with the state official were Borough Clerk Philip J. McGevna, Sgt. Thomas Neville, acting police chief, and James Rego, public works director.

Henry D. Bird Appointed Officer Of Linden Firm

KENILWORTH—The appointment of Henry D. Bird of 300 Lincoln drive as assistant treasurer-secretary of Adam Cook's Sons, Inc., Linden, has been announced by A. R. Lange, board chairman.

The firm also announced the appointment of Harry H. Davenport of Elizabeth and Victor M. Jones to the Board of Directors, marking the first time in the corporation's 86-year history that employes have joined the board.

Mr. Bird, a member of the Board of Education, heads the firm's accounting and credit departments.

Adam Cook's Sons, Inc., was the original lubricating grease manufacturer in the United States. The firm's manufacturing plant and offices have been located in Linden since 1922 following a move from Albany, N. Y., after being established there in 1868, to New York City.

Train at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

Undergoing two weeks' training at Camp Lejeune, N. C., are five local youths, all seniors at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield and members of the Marine Corps Reserve. They are: Richard Miller, Jr., Henry Tavener, Robert Cirvollo, Joseph Rego and John Krieosky.

Signs Law Allowing Districts to Enlarge

SPRINGFIELD—Governor Robert B. Meyner has signed into law a bill allowing regional school districts to be enlarged by taking in other school districts or adding services.

This law would affect the Union County Regional District No. 1. There have been proposals from time to time that such school districts as New Providence and Winfield join the Union County group, which now consists of Kenilworth, Garwood, Clark, Springfield, Mountainside and Berkeley Heights.

This bill also would permit regional districts to exceed their debt limits without any single constituent district being debited with the excess.

PAL Nine Plays 3-3 Tie in Senior Youth League

KENILWORTH—A 3-3 tie with Esso ILE marked the end of the regular season in the Union County Youth Baseball League for the Kenilworth PAL nine. The teams met Monday evening at Warinanco Park, Roselle-Elizabeth.

Since the game will have no bearing on the league championship, it will not be replayed.

Kenilworth PAL lost to Hudson Furniture, 9-3, last Thursday evening as Joe Krider held the local line to six hits.

In games Friday night, Linden Lions clinched the championship with a 12-0 win over Thomas & Betts, Elizabeth Elks topped Casey's, 4-2, and Esso ILE and Lou's Diner played a 5-5 tie. On Tuesday evening, Lou's Diner edged Elizabeth Elks, 3-2.

Only a rained out game between Casey's and Esso ILE remain on the schedule. This game will be played tomorrow night.

A playoff will be held with all eight teams participating. Games will be played as follows: First vs. fifth, second vs. sixth, third vs. seventh and fourth vs. eighth. The schedule will be drawn up following tomorrow night's game when the final standings will be determined.

The standing of the league:

	W	L	Pct.
Linden Lions	6	1	.857
Elizabeth Elks	4	2	.667
Hudson Furniture	4	2	.667
Thomas & Betts	4	3	.571

Teipel to Refer Unusual Permit Pleas to Council

KENILWORTH—When unusual requests for building permits are received, they must be referred by Building Inspector Fred Teipel to Borough Council.

That decision was reached by the council last week following a dispute over the moving of a house down Fifteenth street. Although Mr. Teipel had issued a permit for the moving project, the mover was forced to stop the project temporarily because complaints were received from residents who said their trees were being cut down and damaged.

The one-story, frame house was being moved down Fifteenth street to a site on Ninth street between Monroe and Sheridan avenues. By moving carefully, the movers were able to continue their operations without damaging any more trees, Councilman Ernest Vardalis, public safety committee chairman, reported. Mr. Vardalis said C. Van Howling & Sons of Wallington, movers, agreed to hire a tree surgeon to see what could be done to save the damaged trees.

Mr. Vardalis said that in the future no structures will be moved until Borough Council and police are notified and a route outlined.

Rev. Dexheimer Returns To Methodists Sunday

KENILWORTH — The Rev. John R. Dexheimer, pastor of the Community Methodist Church, will return to his pulpit Sunday after a vacation of several weeks.

Mrs. Hazel Murphy, soprano, and Mrs. Agnes Whitehead, alto, will sing at the service.

Wild Cherry Day Camp Holds Final Ceremonies

Parents and friends of the 45 Girl Scouts of Wild Cherry Day Camp visited the campsite and attended the final program last Thursday night.

Danna Faust gave the welcome, followed by a tent pitching contest between campers and fathers. Susan Wayne, Sally Fraser, Dianne Boright, Pat Dressler, Marilyn Tyler, June Dela Sala, Florence Torrenti and their fathers participated. The fathers won.

Included in the closing ceremonies were presentations by each unit. The Pilgrim unit, with Mrs. Albert Basset as counselor and Carol Hogaboom as junior counselor, performed the landing of the Pilgrims and the first Thanksgiving. Unit members are: Kathleen Baylau, Carol Giallombardo, Eileen Hefferman, Renee Dorfman and Danna Faust.

The Jamestown unit with Carol Anastasio, Judy Miller, Suzanne Hill, Fredrica Greenhouse, May Dela Sala, Edith Gribbou, Mrs. Henry McGeehan, counselor and Claire Boright, junior counselor, performed the Virginia Reel.

Penns Woods unit acted out a quilting party. Mrs. Chester Murphy is counselor for the unit and Regina Knudson is junior counselor. Louise Knudson, Jean Pinder, Elizabeth Barbarich, Sally Hogaboom, Virginia Ward and Linda Kent are unit members.

Donna Fehrenbacher, Stephanie Peters, Pamela Apfelbaum, Mary Framingo, Gertrude Schmidbauer, Carole McGeehan, Ellen Quinn, Dorothy Ward, Joanne Miskewitz, Susan Aubris, Janet Shrene and Susan Picone, of the La Flors of Florida unit performed in a dance. Counselors are Barbara Lugara, Marilyn Goodreds, and Peggy Kuch.

The Dutch girls of New Amsterdam unit, Susan Wayne, Sally Fraser, Dianne Boright, Pat Dressler, Marilyn Tyler, June Dela Sala and Florence Torrenti, also presented a dance. Mrs. John Miller is counselor for this unit.

All units and visitors participated in singing and eating watermelon.

Service bars were awarded to counselors and junior counselors. Recipients were Carol Goodreds, Claire Boright, Carol Hogaboom, Regina Knudson, Marilyn Goodreds, Barbara Lugara and Peggy Kuch. Miss Kuch, who served this year as a counselor, was a junior counselor at the camp for three years.

Campcraft, weaving and outdoor cook badges were presented to Linda Kent, Sally Hogaboom, Virginia Ward, Louise Knudson, Jean Pinder, and Elizabeth Barbarich.

Carol Anastasio, Judy Miller, Susan Thomas, Suzanne Hill, Fredrica Greenhouse, May Dela Sala and Edith Gribbou received outdoor cook and campcraft badges.

Blue Jays Win Championship

KENILWORTH — Blue Jays have clinched the championship of the Kenilworth Babe Ruth League.

In taking the crown, the Blue Jays won 12 of 15 contests. The Nevilles gained second place with a 9-6 record.

Three games remain on the schedule, all at Black Brook Park. They are: Tomorrow, Nevilles vs. Panthers; Monday, Little League Mothers Club; and Wednesday, Blue Jays vs. Little League Mothers Club.

The standing of the league:

	W	L	Pct.
Blue Jays	12	3	.800
Nevilles	9	6	.600

LL Mothers Club	4	11	.267

All-Stars Win Two

KENILWORTH—With victories over Mountainside and Cranford West, the Kenilworth all-star Little League team moved into the sectional finals in the Little League State Tournament.

On Monday evening, the Kenilworth nine topped Cranford West, 4-2, at the Walnut Avenue Field.

Kenilworth ripped Mountainside, 3-0, Friday evening at Mountainside. Shorty Kolessar pitched the first three innings and got credit for the win, while Frank Martin, Jr., hurled the final three frames.

Hank Tavener is managing the all-stars and Frank Martin, Sr., is serving as coach.

The Kenilworth nine was to have met South River last night at South River in the sectional finals.

Because of the all-star games, action in the local league was suspended this week.

St. Theresa's is in first place in the league with 11 wins and five losses, while Volco Brass is a half-game behind with a 9-6 record.

The standing of the league:

	W	L	Pct.
St. Theresa's	11	5	.687
Volco Brass	9	6	.600

Playoff Winners to Enter County-Wide Competition

KENILWORTH—Children participating in activities at the municipal playground next to Harding School are competing in intramural playoffs to decide who will enter the Union County tournaments to be held next month at Warinanco Park, Roselle-Elizabeth, Stanley Bruder, playground director, announced.

The county-wide competition will include quoits, horseshoes, paddle tennis, ring tennis, penknife throwing, foul shooting, tether ball and checkers contests.

Among Mr. Bruder's assistants at the playground are Bobby Robe, Jerrilyn Swantek, Carl Fiedler, Walter Urban and Warren Bruder, head assistant. During this week, the fourth of the playground's operation, registration exceeded 240. Those attending range from 3 to 16 years of age.

In a softball game against Roosevelt School playground, Cranford, the Kenilworth 14 and 15-year-olds won by a score of 6-3. The game was played at the Harding School Field.

A series of softball games is being played between the Eagles and the Blue Jays, Kenilworth teams of boys age 10 to 12. The winning team will play an out-of-town game.

Other playground activities include badminton, basketball, volleyball, finger painting, reading and coloring. Among the crafts are making potholders, animal molds from plaster of Paris, lanyards, key chains, dog collars, Indian bead rings, earrings out of shells, metal ashtrays, and designs on copper.

Wood carvings have been made with coping saws. The boys are assisting Mr. Bruder with plans for an 11-foot speed boat which he is building.

Mr. Bruder said that a trip to a swimming pool is being considered.

WHY NOT BUY IT?

As far as we can see there's no reason why you wouldn't want to. The price of $19,900 is right. This four-bedroom brick bungalow on its 85x110 ft. corner lot is spacious. There are complete baths on both the first and second floor; first floor sunroom is ideal for the children to play in; open sun deck; automatic gas heat. Don't be sorry. See it now. Buy it now.

KITCHEN FOR SALE

Well, of course, there's more than a kitchen in this fine bungalow, but frankly, the owner has spent so much money ($1,200) recently, including new range thought, and actual work on this kitchen that it's the first thing that will catch your eye or the eyes of your guests. Wood-burning fireplace in the living room, real dining room, 2 bedrooms and bath on the first floor; second floor of this delightful bungalow has two additional bedrooms; cool screen porch; delightful grounds with rock garden, fine old shade trees; quiet side street in Roosevelt School area.

PROUDLY WE RAVE

About this "One of a Kind" home. Modern in architecture, substantial in construction, spacious in area; loaded with features that make it a delightful place to live. An unusual 16x31 ft. recreation room. All rooms in attractive wood paneling. Living room with real fireplace. Spacious 16x15 kitchen; 3 bedrooms. This one you'll have to see.

Dinner Honors Retiring Employe Of Hefler-Snyder

GARWOOD—A dinner in honor of Alvin Rude of Plainfield, an employe of the Hefler-Snyder Company who plans to retire August 12 after 23 years' service, was held Tuesday night in the Cranwood. The guest of honor received a gift of money and a wallet from his fellow employes, the presentation being made by Joseph Harabin. Allen Snyder, president of the company, also presented a money token from the firm.

A toast to Mr. Rude was given by Arthur Stokey, Sr., treasurer of the company. Speeches were made by President Snyder and Burton E. Dickerman, vice-president. Jerry Morris, general superintendent of construction work, acted as toastmaster. Grace was said by W. E. Christian, chief engineer.

There were approximately 50 employes of the company present. Group singing was led by John Hahn and R. Chase.

Mr. Rude plans to move to North Carolina to live with a son.

Hearing on Local Wells Postponed By State Division

KENILWORTH — Hearing on Plainfield-Union Water Company's application for permission to draw a maximum of 1,000,000 gallons of water daily from two wells on its standpipe property off Michigan avenue has been postponed to September 22 by the Water Policy and Supply Division of the State Department of Conservation and Development because of vacation schedules, it was reported today by George M. Haskew, company engineer.

In connection with this request, the water company also seeks to transfer to the standpipe property wells one-half of the diversion rights of 2,000,000 gallons daily approved last year for its Boulevard well field.

The application originally was filed in April. At that time, Mr. Haskew explained that the wells on the standpipe property could be connected into the main distribution system with a much shorter pipe line than would be required from the Boulevard field.

Arrested on Warrant

Dreier's Edge Riversides, Move Into Third Place

Cranford Riversides fell to fourth place in the Union County Baseball League as they dropped a 6-5 decision to the Plainfield Dreier's, 6-5, Sunday at Green Brook Park, Plainfield.

Although in the first division, the local nine is only one game out of seventh place as the Plainfield Blue Stars, Elizabeth Question Marks and the Elizabeth Braves are all tied for fifth place with 5-7 records.

Cranford takes on the Elizabeth Braves Sunday at a Warinanco Park, Roselle-Elizabeth, at 2:30 p.m. The Braves handed the Westfield Hawks a 7-0 defeat behind the five-hit pitching of Mike Frank. It is expected Frank will again be on the mound for the Elizabeth nine against the Riversides on Sunday.

It was a tough defeat for the local nine. A win would have put them in third place only a half-game behind the fading Westfield Hawks in second place and only a game and a half out of first place now held by the Linden Buckeyes.

Plainfield came up with a four-run fifth inning to clinch the decision. In batting around, the Dreier's came up with four hits, a walk, a wild pitch and an error. Norm Chicarelli singled in Tony Bradbury with the winning run. Singles by Bob Trippanera and Bradbury also were key blows.

The Riversides outhit the Plainfield nine, 11-8. Don Kern, starting and losing pitcher, had three safeties, while Andy Crisanti, Mickey Carroll and Dick Hoplock each had two hits.

Southpaw George LaCosta, former North Plainfield High School star, got credit for the win although he was hit hard by the local nine. He gave up a double to Caroll and triples to Hoplock and Ike Baldwin.

In the other game Sunday, Linden won its fourth straight to match the Dreier's streak, 16-11, over Elizabeth A.A. On Friday night, the Plainfield Blue Stars upset the Elizabeth Question Marks, 10-8, in a night game at Brophy Field, Elizabeth.

Other games scheduled for Sunday include: Elizabeth A.A. vs. Elizabeth Question Marks at Brophy Field; Westfield Hawks vs. Plainfield Dreier's at Green Brook Park, Plainfield; and Plainfield Blue Sars vs. Linden Buckeyes at Wheeler Park.

Watchung Horse Show Opening

The annual Watchung Troops Summer Horse Show, featuring many of the area's most talented young riders, will get under way tomorrow at the Watchung Riding Stables, Glenside avenue, Summit at 9:30 a.m., the Union County Park Commission announced.

Nearly 100 members of the Watchung Troops, for boys and girls from 8 to 18 years of age, are expected to compete in this annual summer equestrian event. The eight-event show is open to all troopers. Classes range from walk-trot for beginners to jumper and hack events for advanced members. Six ribbons will be awarded in all horsemanship events.

The show, the highlight of the Summer Troops riding program at the Watchung Stables, is open to the public.

Sabatini Captures Galloping Hill Title

Jerry Sabatini of Kenilworth won the Galloping Hill Golf Club championship Sunday with a 1-up victory over Lenny York of Elizabeth in the 27-hole final at the Kenilworth course.

After leading 3-up at the end of the first nine, the local golfer trailed by one hole at the end of 18 and won the match by taking the 26th and 27th holes.

Senators Take Second Title

For the second consecutive season, the Senators won the Minor Division championship of the Cranford Little League.

The Senators came from behind to overcome a four-run lead to down the Cubs, 11-4, at the Walnut Avenue Field. Mike Reakor was the winning pitcher.

In the first round of the playoff, the Phillies lost on a forfeit to the Cubs when the Phillies failed to get a full team on the field. The other half of the draw saw the Senators and Pirates play to a 4-4 in a contest called on account or darkness.

The Senators took the lead in the second inning in the second game against the Pirates, but had to stave off a last-minute rally to win, 9-7.

Although the Senators easily won the regular season championship, they found competition in the playoff very rough.

Each member of the Senators will receive pennants. They will be awarded as soon as they are received.

Three-Way Tie Develops in Senior Softball League

A three-way battle is underway for the championship of the senior playground softball league between Lincoln Avenue Field, Roosevelt School Field and Memorial Field.

Lincoln and Roosevelt have 6-3 records, while Memorial is a half-game behind with five wins and three losses. Sunny Acres Field and Adams Avenue Field are out of contention.

Roosevelt scored eight times in the third inning in downing Adams, 15-3. Mickey Taliaferro and Steve Shaw belted homers for the winners, while John Pfanne hit his fourth circuit clout of the year for the losers.

After winning five straight contests, Memorial Field lost three consecutive games to Sunny Acres, Roosevelt and Lincoln. Sunny Acres won 14-4, as Hildebrandt pitched a six-hitter. Charles Eaton pitched Roosevelt to a 16-9 win over Memorial as Ronald Maloney of the winners belted a homer. Three runs in the second inning and four more in the third by Lincoln handed Memorial its first loss of the season by a 7-3 score.

In other games, Lincoln nipped Adams, 2-1, behind the two-hit pitching of Copeland as Jay French scattered four hits in losing; Lincoln topped Sunny Acres, 6-2; Memorial blanked Adams, 9-0 as Hellman gave up only four hits and Bob Bowers belted two homers; and Sunny Acres ripped Adams, 8-6, as Pfanne hit a single and homer for the losers and John Sosnowski went 3 for 5 for the winners.

The following games are scheduled this week: Today, Sunny Acres at Lincoln and Memorial at Roosevelt; and Monday, Adams at Lincoln and Sunny Acres at Memorial.

The standing of the league:

West Nips East, 5-4, Lo to Kenilworth In State Little League rnament Games

Kenilworth moved into the sectional finals of the Little League State Tournament by defeating Cranford West, 5-2, Monday evening at the Walnut Avenue Field.

Cranford West gained the second round with a 5-4 win over Cranford East Friday evening at the Walnut Avenue Field. In other sectional games, Kenilworth topped Mountainside, 7-3, at Mountainside and Garwood ripped Milltown, 3-1, at Bell Stadium, Garwood, on Friday evening. On Monday evening, South River blanked Garwood, 13-0, at Bell Stadium.

Kenilworth was to have met South River last night at South River for the sectional crown.

Frank Bishop allowed six hits as he pitched Cranford West to its one-run win over Cranford East. He struck out 14. The West scored three times in the second only to see the East come back with three tallies. The West went ahead again in the third with a single tally, but the East tied it up in the sixth.

Henry Dreyer's single in the seventh inning won the game for the West. He had two other hits and a walk for a perfect night at the plate. Steve Shaw, Dreyer and Alan Ritter, all of the Winners, belted doubles. Jack Delaney also had three hits for the winners.

Highligthing this game were two double plays by the East. One went from Third Baseman Hanna to First Baseman Fleurin to Catcher Conley and the other from Shortstop Eaton, to Second Baseman O'Brien on to Fleurin.

After gaining a 2-0 lead in the first inning, Cranford West gave up a tally in the second and four in the seventh in losing to Kenilworth. Five errors by the West allowed Kenilworth to win the contest.

Kenilworth got its single tally in the second frame on a homer by Karl Kirchberger, winning pitcher. He struck out eight and walked nine. Neil Daly was the losing pitcher as he whiffed eight and walked only one was relieved by Ritter in th ixth with one out.

Shaw and Dryer hit do for Cranford, while Geiger b one for the winners.

Kirchberger allowed o three hits and Daly gave up f

In Golf Tourney

E. Armstrong Damon of 315 Prospect street participated in the annual golf outing of the Edison Storage Battery Division of Thomas A. Edison, Inc., of West Orange, last week at Montclair Golf Club. The event was sponsored by George E. Stringfellow, senior vice-president of Edison Industries. Mr. Damon is sales promotion manager for the company.

Defending Champ Advances in Town Tennis Tourney

Harold Shine, defending champion, moved into the second round of the Cranford men's singles tennis championship this week. He won on a default over George Elmore.

In other first round matches in men's singles, Pete Scholz defeated Bill Wilson, 6-4, 7-5, Russ Davis defeated Art Hewitt, 6-2, 6-1 and Chet Kaufman defeated Bob Stanger, 6-2, 6-1.

Two matches in the second round of boys singles were played. Charles Eaton defeated Al Vajda, 8-6, 6-2 and Gene Griffiths defeated Jay French, 6-1, 6-1. In first round play in this division, Ron Maloney defeated Ken Sharp, 6-2, 6-2 and Pete French defeated Dick Robey, 7-5, 9-7.

Art Owen, tournament director, reports a father and son doubles tournament is being organized. Six teams have already signed up and entries are still being accepted, Mr. Owen reports.

Mr. Owen announced that all first round play in the men's singles must be completed by Monday, while it is hoped to complete the tournaments by August 15.

The tournaments are sponsored by the Township Recreation Committee and all action is on the Springfield avenue courts.

An increase of 40 percent in attendance at the municipal courts this year over last year has been reported by Richard McFadden, tennis chairman for the Township Recreation Committee.

Riversides Coach Post Still Open

No one has been named to manage the Cranford Riversides of the Union County Baseball League, Steve Redzinak, sponsor, reports.

The team has been without a manager since Mort Richey resigned a week ago Sunday because of the pressure of business. Redzinak reports he may handle the team himself.

In the game against the Plainfield Dreiers Sunday, Mickey Carroll and Joe Conway served as comanagerfs.

Eastern Union County Net Title to McCarthy

Justin McCarthy of Roselle successfully defended his Eastern Union County tennis championship Saturday at Warinanco Park, Roselle-Elizabeth.

In the final round, he defeated Dan Vella of Linden, 6-0, 6-4. McCarthy defeated Cranford's only entry, Fred Kitty, in a second round match.

CHS, Memorial Playgrounds Tied In Junior Loop

By winning 10 of 11 games, Cranford High School and Memorial Field teams have moved ahead of the pack in the junior playground softball league.

All other teams have lost more games then they have won with Roosevelt School and Walnut avenue Field battling for third place. Sunny Acres and Lincoln avenue Field are tied for last place.

A homerun with the bases loaded in the seventh inning gave Memorial Field a 9-7 win over Roosevelt School last Thursday morning at Roosevelt School Field. Gary Gipson also hit a homer for the winners, while Bob Clare and Tub Rowland each got three hits for the losers.

Behind the one-hit pitching of John Witherington, the high school nine blanked Lincoln avenue Field, 16-0. It was Witherington's seventh league win. Dick Willauer led the winner's 14-hit attack with four safeties and Steve Shaw had three hits. Neil Castaldo got the only hit off Witherington and also played a good defensive game.

Roosevelt downed Sunny Acres, 12-2, as Dave Eaton hurled a six hitter. Dick Salway and Bob Rowland each had four hits for the winners who belted out 118 hits.

A 13-run rally in the fourth inning brought Sunny Acres a 25-0 win over Lincoln. With a 5-0 lead going into the fourth inning, Sunny Acres scored 13 times in the fourth frame and seven in the fifth to win easily.

The following games are scheduled this week: Today, Roosevelt at Memorial, Lincoln at Walnut and Sunny Acres at High School; and Monday, Walnut at High School, Memorial vs. Sunny Acres at Walnut Avenue Field and Lincoln at Roosevelt.

The standing of the league:

	W	L	Pct.
High School	10	1	.909
Memorial Field	10	1	.909
Walnut Avenue Field	5	6	.455
Roosevelt School	4	7	.364
Sunny Acres	2	9	.182
Lincoln Avenue Field	2	9	.182

Church Loop Softball Title To Alliance

Without swinging a bat, Cranford Alliance Church won its second straight championship Monday evening in the Cranford Inter-Church Softball League.

By winning the league championship, Cranford Alliance gained permanent possession of the league trophy. It marked the first time a team had gone through a church league schedule undefeated.

With the regular season completed, only an all-star game on August 8 remains. In that contest, Cranford Alliance will take on an all-star team made up of players from St. Michael's, Cranford Methodist, Calvary Lutheran, Osceola Presbyterian and Zion Lutheran of Rahway.

Kitty Loses In Union County Tennis Tourney

Cranford's only entry in the Union County men's singles tennis tournament, Fred Kitty, was eliminated in a first round match Saturday at Warinanco Park, Roselle-Elizabeth.

Kitty lost to Frank Stuiber of Plainfield, 6-0, 6-2.

Top seeded Cephas Monnett of Rahway and Dr. Richard Cohen of Plainfield, second-ranked player, led the advance to the quarter finals. Following a first-round bye, Monnett walloped Al Bjorsted of Elizabeth, 6-0, 6-1, in a second round match. Dr. Cohen won by default from Raymond Wheeler of Plainfield and downed Jack Humphrey of Elizabeth, 6-0, 6-1.

Dr. Joseph Palin of Winfield upset seventh-seeded Larry Coulthurst of Plainfield, while eighth-rated Dan Vella of Linden lost to John Kappmeier of Linden. Stuiber gained the quarter finals with a 6-1, 6-4 win over Harry Hamilton of Elizabeth.

Others in the quarter finals are Justin McCarthy of Roselle, Eastern Union County champion, who is seeded third; Jeff Craig of Scotch Plains, seeded fourth and Charles Beckham of Westfield, seeded sixth.

Water Restriction Still Possible Here

Despite continuing high pressure in local mains, prolongation of the hot dry, spell could result in imposition of restrictions on nonessential water use affecting Cranford as well as the rest of Plainfield-Union Water Company system, George M. Haskew, company engineer, warned last night.

Water in the company's Scotch Plains reservoir yesterday dropped to the season's low of 11.2 feet, Mr. Haskew revealed. He added that a drop to the danger point of 10 feet would necessitate restrictions.

Although Cranford has been in a more favorable position with regard to water pressure since the new 36-inch line supplying surplus water from the Elizabethtown Water Company was cut in through a new pumping station in Roselle last month, further drop in the reservoir level would necessitate restrictions here as well as elsewhere in the Plainfield-Union system, Mr. Haskew said.

The engineer explained that although Cranford does not receive its water from the Scotch Plains reservoir, the reservoir does act as a balance for the entire system and emergency restrictions would have to apply to all consumers.

He said that any possible restrictions would be of short duration, only until pumping has refilled the reservoir or rain falls. Recent pumping operations had filled the reservoir to a level of 20 feet last week.

Urging consumers to use no more water than necessary, Mr. Haskew declared the company through recent improvements is in a position to handle all normal needs of its consumers. He pointed out, however, that the hot, dry spell has resulted in abnormal demands upon supplies. Monday's water usage, he remarked, "was "the heaviest of all summer."

Mayor Fred P. Andersen, head of the Inter-Municipal Water Committee, also reported that if the dry spell continues restrictions may become necessary here, but he pointed out that the situation will not be as bad in Cranford as it was in recent summers, when pressure at times fell to the vicinity of five pounds per square inch.

Mayor Andersen said he has requested Fire Chief Howard G. Schindler to keep a close watch

Lists Registration Dates For Fall Adult School

Registration for the fall semester of the Cranford Adult School will be held on September 29 and 30 at Cranford High School, Channing Rudd, president and director, reports.

The school will open on October 4 and continue each Tuesday evening thereafter until December 6.

Contracts have been mailed to some 30 persons to teach classes at this year's fall semester. More definite information on courses to be available will be announced in the near future, Mr. Rudd said.

Squad Fund At $5,100

Contributions to the current fund drive of the Cranford First Aid Squad have passed the $5,100 mark, it was reported by Second Lt. Albert Bendlin, drive chairman, at a regular meeting of the squad in the Municipal Building Monday night.

President Victor D. Shaheen commended the drive workers and said that with approximately half of the local homes still to be visited for coin card returns it is hoped that the fund may exceed its goal of $10,000.

As only squad members themselves are being used in the collections the work is proceeding slowly and it may be some time before some homes are reached, Second Lt. Bendlin reported. He urged local residents to be patient and to have their cards ready to turn in when a squadman calls.

Persons who may not be home when calls are made are requested to turn in their cards to President Shaheen, Vice-President Walter M. Cooper or Second Lt. Bendlin.

Hope that the squad's two ambulances may be garaged in the squad's new headquarters building on Centennial avenue at North avenue, east, by next week was expressed by Manning Rowitz, building chairman, in a progress report. The work has been slowed up somewhat by the hot weather, he said. It had been hoped to have the ambulances in their new home by July 15.

Mr. Rowitz issued a call for volunteers to help with the construction of a driveway this coming week-end. He added that inside partitioning work is almost complete in the building.

It was reported that installation of a new aerial has extended the range of the two-way radio in the Miller-Cadillac First Aider to seven or eight miles.

Secretary William P. Smith was instructed to write to the Connecticut State Police requesting permission for use of parkways in that state by the Cranford ambulances.

Healthful Week

Health Officer William P. Smith announced that the past week has been a healthful one for Cranford citizens as no communicable diseases were reported. Even the dogs were too hot to bite, Mr. Smith added.

Sewer Looks Like Subway

An intricate array of equipment pumping water from 50 well points was being used by the contractor this week to permit work in the face of quicksand on the second 200 feet of the lateral trunk sewer being laid along Lambert street from Wade avenue to Central avenue.

The water is being sucked up through small pipes extending 15 feet into the ground and fed into a large connecting pipe which encloses the whole 200-foot sector. Two heavy-duty pumps draw off the water and spew it into an adjacent field, where it courses off as a small brook.

Set in an excavation the width of a road and some 15 feet deep, the pipes and pumps, together with bulldozers, steam shovels and other equipment on the job, create an impression of a subway construction project under way, rather than the mere digging of a 27-foot-deep trench for a 12-inch pipe line.

Slowed up by problems resulting from discovery of water and quicksand 12 feet down, pipe laying proceeded as follows this week: Saturday, 39 feet; Monday, 52 feet; Tuesday, 26 feet; yesterday, 26 feet.

This made a total of approximately 350 feet of pipe laid since the job was started July 7. Laying of the total line of 1,100 feet originally was scheduled for completion this week.

D'Annunzio Brothers of Orange won the contract for the project on their low bid of $34,525.

Alberts Development Maps Get Approved

Mayor Fred P. Andersen has signed the maps for T. V. Alberts' proposed Upper Heathermede development, it was learned this week, and it is expected that granting of the first permits for new homes there may be approved at Tuesday night's meeting of the Township Committee.

Applications for two dwellings had been filed by Mr. Alberts earlier this week, and it was expected there might be more in before Tuesday. Plans call for erection of some 80 houses in the area.

Readjustments in Store For Returning CHS Students

Things will be different this year at Cranford High School.

The most startling change will be a plan to "stagger" school hours in an effort to solve the expected overcrowded conditions.

Ninth through twelfth grades classes will start at 8:15 a.m. while seventh and eighth grades begin their studies at 9:57. Under the new schedule, the senior class schedule will close at 1:33 p. m. This will provide six class periods of the same 40-minute duration as prevailed last year.

The junior class schedule will close at 2:17, providing seven class periods of 40 minutes. The freshman and sophomore schedules also will provide seven class periods, closing at 2:17.

Both the seventh and eighth grade schedules will close at 3:25 p. m. It will be required that all students of the seventh and eighth grades have lunch in school during shortened lunch periods.

"This arrangement," the board of Education reported, "will permit the dismissal of the seventh and eighth grades well before 4 o'clock which is essential if they are to have an after-school program, including sports."

Increased seating will be provided in the school cafeteria to handle all the students, G. Frank Zimmerman, principal, reports. The Board of Education has approved the expenditure of $5,000 for 65 new tables and 400 new chairs for the cafeteria. These were purchases, the board said, "to increase the seating capacity of the cafeteria and speed up the serving of lunches."

The ninth and 10th grades lunch period will be from 11:25 a.m. to 12:05 p. m., while the 11th and 12th grade lunch period will be fro m12:09 to 12:49.

Those pupils in grades nine through 12 who wish to go home for lunch may do so, Mr. Zimmerman said. Since the seventh and

Municipal Bodies On Vacation Schedules

Mayor Fred P. Andersen reminded today that the Township Committee's one meeting during August will be held Tuesday. The Board of Health also will meet this coming Monday instead of on the usual fourth Monday of the month.

Municipal Court will be held this Tuesday and on August 23 and August 30. Regular Monday night sessions will resume September 12.

ss for 'Trainable' Children Seen Unlikely Here This Fall

Because of the lack of a properly trained instructor, it is unlikely a class for mentally retarded children classified as "trainable" will be set up this year in the Cranford public schools.

During the past school year, three such children attended classes in Hillside and another was sent to a class in Linden. Dr. Howard R. Best, superintendent of schools, reports these children will again attend classes in those towns in September.

Under a new state law adopted last summer, public schools were forced to provide classes for children with mental deficiencies classified as "educable" and "trainable." During the past year, students classified as "educable" were provided for in regular classrooms, Dr. Best said.

It is likely that eventually Cranford will have to set up a class to handle mentally retarded children classified as "trainable," Dr. Best pointed out. As the provisions of the law become better known, it is likely more parents will take advantage of its provisions for their children. In addition, the progress of the child must be reconsidered each year, and some children undoubtedly will be reclassified.

Dr. Wayne T. Branom, superintendent of Hillside schools, recently reported that a second class for mentally retarded children classified as "trainable" will be opened in September. Both classes will be held in Hillside Avenue School. In addition to Cranford, Hillside will probably accept students from Kenilworth, Roselle Park, and Mountainside.

Such classes are also being held in Elizabeth, Plainfield, Linden and Roselle. In Plainfield, the Board of Education recently awarded contracts totaling almost $65,000 for the rehabilitation of eight classrooms in Lincoln School to house classes for such students.

SOMETHING BIG HAS HAPPENED

Homeowners can now purchase our new, single, "all-Purpose" policy to take the place of your usual many separate insurance contracts—our new "package plan" gives you better and broader protection, costs less, and you may have convenient annual payments.

Our Homeowners Protection on your dwelling and personal property includes coverage against these perils:

- Fire & Lightning
- Explosion
- Riot & Civil Commotion
- Aircraft
- Vehicles
- Smoke
- Windstorm and Hail
- Vandalism & Malicious Mischief
- Burglary and Theft
- Water Escape
- Rupture of Steam & Hot Water Heating System
- Ice, Snow and Freezing
- Fall of Trees
- Collapse
- Landslide
- Glass Breakage

—plus—

COMPREHENSIVE PERSONAL LIABILITY and ADDITIONAL LIVING EXPENSE COVERAGE is afforded BOTH at HOME AND AWAY from HOME!

You need not cancel any of your present policies in order to immediately secure the complete protection granted by the new Homeowners Package plan. See us for full details and — DO IT NOW!!

"Lost Something Lady?"

Smart shoppers don't suffer from the packed-purse blues. Their single HANDI-CHARGE card entitles them to charge-account privileges at 23 Cranford stores.

You'll save time, and money too, if you take along your HANDI-CHARGE card when you go bargain-hunting on Cranford Sales Days.

If you don't have a HANDI-CHARGE card, you can get one quickly and easily at any HANDI-CHARGE store. They're easy to find — look for the blue and yellow emblems in the store windows.

Interest Increases In Cranford Plants

At least a half-dozen concerns have shown a heightened in-erest in the plant at South avenue, west, and Lincoln avenue formerly occupied by the sweetening division of the Wood and Selick Coconut Company since publication of a story in this newspaper last week about the vacant building.

It is understood that four of-ers received by the London office f Wood and Selick already have een rejected as unsatisfactory ut that one or two others are eceiving favorable consideration.

Mayor Fred P. Andersen also as had conference with several nterested parties in the hope that n agreement may soon be reach-d which will comply fully with he township's zoning require-nents and also be satisfactory to Wood and Selick.

The one- and three-story build-ng, valued at $300,000 by Wood nd Selick when it was construct-d here in 1949, has been vacant nce last September.

It was learned this week that riffiths Laboratories of Newark, hich expects to break ground oon for a new plant in South venue, opposite the Wakefern arehouse, also is considering utting up a second building there o offer for rent. It is understood hat Mayor Andersen already has een approached by several per-ons interested in this plan and as referred them to the Newark rm.

Several approaches also have een reported with reference to he Johnson and Johnson Baby roducts plant on Walnut avenue, ut "none has been of a satisfac-ory nature." J & J has been con-dering plans to transfer its op-rations to a new consolidated lant in North Brunswick Town-hip.

A captain in the air force reserve, Mr. Dorian is assigned to the judge advocate general's department. He and his wife will stay in Garden City, L. I., while he is on active duty.

Because of this duty, Mr. Dorian will miss Tuesday evening's session of the Township Committee.

Problems Face Board

When the Board of Education meets on August 23, it may be confronted with several difficult and controversial decisions. The date of the meeting has been changed from August 16 to August 23 in order to get a quorum.

One of the most difficult decisions may be the appointment of a successor to Louis C. Troutman, who resigned in June. A committee consisting of Mrs. G. Holmes Williams, Joseph Kohn and Channing Rudd has been considering several candidates for the vacancy. The committee is expected to make a recommendation to the board at the August 23 meeting.

The resignation of Mr. Troutman may bring about a change in committee assignments for other members. As Mr. Troutman headed the important building and grounds committee, it is not likely a new member would be given this post. Mr. Rudd is the other member of this committee.

Mr. Troutman also was a member of the athletics and health committee and the special committee on curriculum. Mrs. Williams is chairman and only other member of the athletics committee, while Mrs. Charles Redden holds a similar position on the curriculum committee.

Because of the absence of another member, the athletics and health committee has not yet taken up a proposal made by the Cranford Rotary Club that a competitive track for use by Cranford High School track teams be established, Mrs. Williams reports. Although known as a track power, Cranford does not have its own track for meets or practice sessions.

Another proposal under study by the athletics and health committee — a student insurance program — may come up for discussion and adoption. Under study by the committee is a plan whereby student accident and athletic coverage would be covered in one policy. When presented by Dr. Howard R. Best, superintendent of schools, the plan received favorable reception by board members. It was referred to Roy MacBean of Hedenberg - MacBean Agency for study and comment.

The board also is expected to approve coaching assignments for the coming year. The assignments were discussed at the board's May meeting and referred back to committee. The only assignment approved up to now has been that

Things will be different this year at Cranford High School.

The most startling change will be a plan to "stagger" school hours in an effort to solve the expected overcrowded conditions.

Ninth through twelfth grades classes will start at 8:15 a.m. while seventh and eighth grades begin their studies at 9:57. Under the new schedule, the senior class schedule will close at 1:33 p. m. This will provide six class periods of the same 40-minute duration as prevailed last year.

The junior class schedule will close at 2:17, providing seven class periods of 40 minutes. The freshman and sophomore schedules also will provide seven class periods, closing at 2:17.

Both the seventh and eighth grade schedules will close at 3:25 p. m. It will be required that all students of the seventh and eighth grades have lunch in school during shortened lunch periods.

"This arrangement," the board of Education reported, "will permit the dismissal of the seventh and eighth grades well before 4 o'clock which is essential if they are to have an after-school program, including sports."

Increased seating will be provided in the school cafeteria to handle all the students, G. Frank Zimmerman, principal, reports. The Board of Education has approved the expenditure of $5,800 for 65 new tables and 400 new chairs for the cafeteria. These were purchases, the board said, "to increase the seating capacity of the cafeteria and speed up the serving of lunches."

The ninth and 10th grades lunch period will be from 11:25 a.m. to 12:05 p. m., while the 11th and 12th grade lunch period will be fro m12:09 to 12:49.

Those pupils in grades nine through 12 who wish to go home for lunch may do so, Mr. Zimmerman said. Since the seventh and

Expansion Need Study Continues

Studies are going forward by the School Planning Committee of the Board of Education on the need for an expansion program for the Cranford public schools, Burton C. Belden, chairman, reports.

The committee, Mr. Belden said, is looking into all possible solutions to the problem. Mr. Belden said the committee aims to have recommendations for the board ready by the middle of September.

Among the major questions being considered by the committee is what type of buildings or building may be needed to meet the school system's needs and where to locate them. New buildings as well as additions are under consideration, Mr. Belden reports.

Every possible solution will be looked into, as there are many ways in which the school system's need for more facilities can be met. Entering into the considerations, of course, is the factor of cost. As both the Board of Education and the township are nearing their debt limits, the matter of cost will be an important one in any recommendations.

At the recommendation of the School Planning Committee, the board adopted a 6-2-4 organization plan for the school system in June. This indicates the board favors a two-year junior high school system. Dr. Howard R. Best, superintendent of schools, reports three plans are under consideration to meet these needs. They include: Two new junior high schools, conversion of Cleveland and Sherman Schools into junior high schools, and an addition to Cranford High school.

The committee also has completed forecasts of future enrollment for the next 15 years. These prediction tables have been turned over to the Planning Board for its consideration, Mr. Belden said his committee will be interested in any thoughts and recommendations of the Planning Board.

Mr. Belden said that the problem of sites for the proposed expansion program will be more difficult than that for the construction of the Brookside Place and Walnut Avenue Schools. When the two new 12-room elementary schools were built, the board had

MacKay Reports Few Withdrawals, High Attendance

Despite July's record-high temperatures, there were few withdrawals and very high attendance during the Union Junior College's summer term which concludes tomorrow, Dr. Kenneth C. MacKay, president and dean, reports.

In addition, there was increased use of the college library this summer as compared with past summer terms, Dr. MacKay said. The college president said the summer students were serious about what they were doing and he said the instructors reported they did very fine work.

Dr. MacKay said registrations are still being accepted for three courses in plane and solid analytical geometry, differential calculus and the second half of beginning Spanish. These courses begin Monday and continue through September 2. In addition, a college zoology course may be established.

League of Women Voters Forming Unit in Cranford

A steering committee to organize Cranford League of Women Voters has been named under the guidance of Mrs. K. D. Smith of Westfield and the state league.

Members, who will hold a pre-organization meeting about September 15 and a formal organization meeting September 29, are Mrs. Glenn Arth, Mrs. Gerry Barile, Mrs. S. R. Christensen, Mrs. Lewis D. Etherington, Mrs. N. D. Goldsmith, Mrs. Clarence P. Harris, Mrs. Joseph E. Hawkins, Jr., Mrs. R. T. Hazeldine, Mrs. G. W. Moore, Mrs. Warren S. Peret, Mrs. Morse Shepard, Mrs. John L. Spook, Jr., and Mrs. Irving Wilner.

Any women interested in helping to organize the league are requested to call a member of the steering committee.

Mayor Fred P. Andersen, Dr. Howard R. Best, superintendent of schools; Mrs. Charles Daly, Cranford librarian; Dr. Kenneth C. MacKay, president and dean of Union Junior College, and Charles M. Ray, editor and publisher of The Citizen and Chronicle, were among local leaders with whom the steering committee discussed its plans during the past week.

Members of the committee explained the work of the non-partisan organization, the purpose of which is to encourage all citizens to take an active part in local, state and federal government, to vote, and to vote intelligently.

As will the Cranford league, the 75 leagues in New Jersey and the approximately 1,000 in the United States hold candidate meeting and discussions, publish voting records and qualifications and do research and study solutions for problems which affect citizens.

Scotch Plains Trip, Field Day Ending Playground Program

Representatives of Cranford playgrounds sponsored by the Recreation Committee will travel tomorrow to Scotch Plains for competition in various events in connection with the annual exchange of visits between the two groups. Scotch Plains contestants were in Cranford on Friday.

The regular six-week playground program will conclude with a field day for participants from all fields at the high school on Tuesday, it was announced by Mrs. Charles F. Schillinger, director. Events will start at 10 a.m. As in past years, Memorial Field will continue open for another two weeks.

Local contestants going to Scotch Plains will leave by bus from police headquarters at 8:45 a.m. tomorrow. There will be hardball and softball games in the morning and afternoon, and during the lunch hour there will be competition in checkers, horseshoes, tether ball and ping pong.

Jim Avery of the Cranford High School faculty is sports and contest supervisor for the Cranford playgrounds, and Ernest Hobbie, also of Cranford, is in charge of the Scotch Plains playground program.

Local playgrounds were closed early on Tuesday because of the heat.

Theme for the week at the municipal playgrounds was Walt Disney, with his cartoon characters.

Directed by Janet Copeland, supervisor, and Bea Reeves, assistant, children at Sunny Acres playground decorated party straws with Walt Disney characters.

Dicky and Barbara Ludlum, Tina Stupak, Priscilla, Barbara, Johnny and Joanne Nietzel, Kenny and Karen Petersen, Penny and Gerry Rankin, Susan and Betty Jane Masino, Kathy Jotz, Barbara and Dorothy Barta, Alice Scott, Linda Sergents, Bill Griffin and Leoni Lacroix participated in this activity. Leoni Lacroix was checkers winner for the week.

Barbara, Joanne and Priscilla Nietzel, Suzanne Dankel, Barbara and Dicky Ludlum, Kathy Cowperthwaite, Janice and Brenda Ruch, Ellen and Casey Jones, Elaine Bykowski, Tina Stupak, Gerry and Penny Rankin, Karen Petersen, Linda Sergents and Jimmy Melaney painted a Snow White mural. The mural depicted Snow White and three dwarfs. When the faces of the characters were cut out, the mural was used for novelty picture taking.

At the high school playground, Christine Gant, Laura Frank, Bonnie, Barbara and Carol Scheblein, Linda Dahlquist, John O'Connor and Julie Walsh made Walt Disney characters by twisting and tying balloons together. Making similar characters from self-sticking strips were Sandy Maxfield, Mariann Daniel, Julie and Jim Walsh, Barbara, Bonnie, Carol and Karen Scheblein and Tim Harbold.

Clay molding was done by Karen, Barbara, and Bonnie Scheblein, Peggy Ann Town, Gerry Daniel, Jane Uptown, Martha Frank, Susan and Sandra Maxfield, Mariann Daniel, Kathleen Higgins and Kim Nahrebne.

Kathleen and James Higgins, Robert Mower, Ed Lundquist, Nancy Higgins and Dorothea Guinther did finger painting.

The checkers contest was won by Carol Scheblein and John Witherington. Bob Lawrence was best at foul shooting and Carol Scheblein took firsts at jacks and hopscotch.

In the watermelon contest, Susan Maxfield had the most pits and Barbara Worster ate the fast-

Bill Foreman Best Camper

Bill Foreman, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Foreman of 122 Eastman street was elected best camper of the week at Cranford Boys' Camp. The camp, which is on Silver Lake, near Hope, is supervised by Milton Berkowitz, director, and Bob McClintock, assistant director.

Best campers of their cabins were: Cabin 1, Bill Foreman, Cabin 2, Mike Scholz; Cabin 3, Ricky Hauk; Cabin 4, Ricky Wilson; Cabin 5, Jim Slocum; and Cabin 6, Joe Babinec.

The honor banner for having the best cabin in inspection was won by Cabin 1 under counselor Bob Achilles.

New County Superintendent To Reside Here

Dr. William H. West, new Union County superintendent of schools, and his family will take up residence tomorrow at 35 Central avenue. They have purchased the local residence from Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. O'Brien, who moved Monday to 220 Parker road, Elizabeth, where they will reside temporarily.

Dr. West, appointed recently to succeed the late Dr. Arthur L. Johnson of Cranford in the county post, has been superintendent of the Belvidere public schools for the past eight years. He began his duties this week at the Court House, Elizabeth. His office has jurisdiction over the county's educational force of approximately 3,000 teachers and 130 schools.

The new county superintendent is married and has twin daughters, Barbara and Dorothy, 12½ years old, and a son, William, 8 years old.

Mrs. O'Brien will continue to maintain her real estate office at 15 Alden street in Cranford.

Municipal Bodies On Vacation Schedules

Mayor Fred P. Andersen reminded today that the Township Committee's one meeting during August will be held Tuesday. The Board of Health also will meet this coming Monday instead of on the usual fourth Monday of the month.

Municipal Court will be held this Tuesday and on August 23 and August 30. Regular Monday night sessions will resume September 12.

Dedication Service Set By Lutherans

As the building program at Calvary Lutheran Church moves to completion, plans are being made for a service of dedication on September 25.

The Rev. Arnold J. Dahlquist, pastor of the church, announced that the Rev. Edwin H. Knudten, DD LLD, president of the New Jersey Synod, will preach at the 11 a.m. service that morning and the Rev. G. Elson Ruff, Litt D, editor of "The Lutheran," will preach at the 4 p.m. service

The expansion program was initiated in May, 1953, with the beginning of a building fund, when the congregation celebrated its 25th anniversary. Ground was broken in November, 1954.

Estimated to cost about $125,000, plans called for an addition to the southeast end of the church covering the full depth of the church and continuing along the northeast part of the backyard.

Increasing church facilities, the part attached to the southeast end of the church includes an enlarged narthex, cloakroom, spacious meeting and visual aid instruction room, a small kitchenette, another small room, and large rest rooms.

In the rest of the addition are one-story facilities for the nursery, beginners and primary departments of the church school.

Among the improvements which have been made in the church itself are the removal of sliding doors on the main floor to enlarge the seating capacity and the addition of space behind the nave for choir robes. A balcony has been opened for the choirs and a space in front of the nave converted to the pastor's use.

The former choir loft, which was in front of the nave, to the opposite side of the chancel from where the sacristy had been, is now enclosed as a room for the Altar Guild.

In the nave, kneeling benches have been installed. More rest room facilities, a new heating plant, and a new kitchen have been added to the basement.

Bernard Schneider was chairman of the construction committee and the architect was Henry Finne of Elizabeth. General contractor was C. Van Chamberlin of Cranford.

Site Selected For Display Here Of Wrecked Car

Public Safety Director Clarence L. Fritz has selected Eastman street between North avenue and Miln street as the site for display of the wrecked automobile in which five young people lost their lives near Somerville recently, when it visits Cranford on August 18.

Being displayed throughout the state in a program aimed at influencing more careful driving, the death car is scheduled to arrive here at 11:30 a.m., Police Capt. Lester W. Powell reported. It will be exhibited in Garwood and Scotch Plains the same day.

On August 17, the wreckage will be displayed in Kenilworth, Elizabeth, Union and Hillside. Other dates for visits in this area include: August 19, Fanwood, Plainfield, Springfield and Summit, and August 16, Rahway, Linden, Roselle and Roselle Park.

Water Restriction Still Possible Here

Despite continuing high pressure in local mains, prolongation of the hot dry spell could result in imposition of restrictions on nonessential water use affecting Cranford as well as the rest of Plainfield-Union Water Company system, George M. Haskew, company engineer, warned last night.

Water in the company's Scotch Plains reservoir yesterday dropped to the season's low of 11.2 feet, Mr. Haskew revealed. He added that a drop to the danger point of 10 feet would necessitate restrictions.

Although Cranford has been in a more favorable position with regard to water pressure since the new 36-inch line supplying surplus water from the Elizabethtown Water Company was cut in through a new pumping station in Roselle last month, further drop in the reservoir level would necessitate restrictions here as well as elsewhere in the Plainfield-Union system, Mr. Haskew said.

The engineer explained that although Cranford does not receive its water from the Scotch Plains reservoir, the reservoir does act as a balance for the entire system and emergency restrictions would have to apply to all consumers.

He said that any possible restrictions would be of short duration, only until pumping has refilled the reservoir or rain falls. Recent pumping operations had filled the reservoir to a level of 20 feet last week.

Urging consumers to use no more water than necessary, Mr. Haskew declared the company through recent improvements is in a position to handle all normal needs of its consumers. He pointed out, however, that the hot, dry spell has resulted in abnormal demands upon supplies. Monday's water usage, he remarked, "was "the heaviest of all summer."

Mayor Fred P. Andersen, head of the Inter-Municipal Water Committee, also reported that if the dry spell continues restrictions may become necessary here, but he pointed out that the situation will not be as bad in Cranford as it was in recent summers, when pressure at times fell to the vicinity of five pounds per square inch.

Mayor Andersen said he has requested Fire Chief Howard G. Schindler to keep a close watch

Lists Registration Dates For Fall Adult School

Registration for the fall semester of the Cranford Adult School will be held on September 29 and 30 at Cranford High School, Channing Rudd, president and director, reports.

The school will open on October 4 and continue each Tuesday evening thereafter until December 6.

Contracts have been mailed to some 30 persons to teach classes at this year's fall semester. More definite information on courses to be available will be announced in the near future, Mr. Rudd said.

Squad Fund At $5,100

Contributions to the current fund drive of the Cranford First Aid Squad have passed the $5,100 mark, it was reported by Second Lt. Albert Bendlin, drive chairman, at a regular meeting of the squad in the Municipal Building Monday night.

President Victor D. Shaheen commended the drive workers and said that with approximately half of the local homes still to be visited for coin card returns it is hoped that the fund may exceed its goal of $10,000.

As only squad members themselves are being used in the collections the work is proceeding slowly and it may be some time before some homes are reached, Second Lt. Bendlin reported. He urged local residents to be patient and to have their cards ready to turn in when a squadman calls.

Persons who may not be home when calls are made are requested to turn in their cards to President Shaheen, Vice-President Walter M. Cooper or Second Lt. Bendlin.

Hope that the squad's two ambulances may be garaged in the squad's new headquarters building on Centennial avenue at North avenue, east, by next week was expressed by Manning Rowitz, building chairman, in a progress report. The work has been slowed up somewhat by the hot weather, he said. It had been hoped to have the ambulances in their new home by July 15.

Mr. Rowitz issued a call for volunteers to help with the construction of a driveway this coming week-end. He added that inside partitioning work is almost complete in the building.

It was reported that installation of a new aerial has extended the range of the two-way radio in the Miller-Cadillac First Aider to seven or eight miles.

Secretary William P. Smith was instructed to write to the Connecticut State Police requesting permission for use of parkways in that state by the Cranford ambulances.

Healthful Week

Health Officer William P. Smith announced that the past week has been a healthful one for Cranford citizens as no communicable diseases were reported. Even the dogs were too hot to bite, Mr. Smith added.

Sewer Looks Like Subway

An intricate array of equipment pumping water from 50 well points was being used by the contractor this week to permit work in the face of quicksand on the second 200 feet of the lateral trunk sewer being laid along Lambert street from Wade avenue to Central avenue.

The water is being sucked up through small pipes extending 15 feet into the ground and fed into a large connecting pipe which encloses the whole 200-foot sector. Two heavy-duty pumps draw off the water and spew it into an adjacent field, where it courses off as a small brook.

Set in an excavation the width of a road and some 15 feet deep, the pipes and pumps, together with bulldozers, steam shovels and other equipment on the job, create an impression of a subway construction project under way, rather than the mere digging of a 27-foot-deep trench for a 12-inch pipe line.

Slowed up by problems resulting from discovery of water and quicksand 12 feet down, pipe laying proceeded as follows this week: Saturday, 39 feet; Monday, 52 feet; Tuesday, 28 feet; yesterday, 26 feet.

This made a total of approximately 350 feet of pipe laid since the job was started July 7. Laying of the total line of 1,100 feet originally was scheduled for completion this week.

D'Annunzio Brothers of Orange won the contract for the project on their low bid of $34,525.

Class for 'Trainable' Children Seen Unlikely Here This Fall

Because of the lack of a properly trained instructor, it is unlikely a class for mentally retarded children classified as "trainable" will be set up this year in the Cranford public schools.

During the past school year, three such children attended classes in Hillside and another was sent to a class in Linden. Dr. Howard R. Best, superintendent of schools, reports these children will again attend classes in those towns in September.

Under a new state law adopted last summer, public schools were forced to provide classes for children with mental deficiencies classified as "educable" and "trainable." During the past year, students classified as "educable" were provided for in regular classrooms, Dr. Best said.

It is likely that eventually Cranford will have to set up a class to handle mentally retarded children classified as "trainable," Dr. Best pointed out. As the provisions of the law become better known, it is likely more parents will take advantage of its provisions for their children. In addition, the progress of the child must be reconsidered each year, and some children undoubdedly will be reclassified.

Dr. Wayne T. Branom, superintendent of Hillside schools, recently reported that a second class for mentally retarded children classified as "trainable" will be opened in September. Both classes will be held in Hillside Avenue School. In addition to Cranford, Hillside will probably accept students from Kenilworth, Roselle Park, and Mountainside.

Such classes are also being held in Elizabeth, Plainfield, Linden and Roselle. In Plainfield, the Board of Education recently awarded contracts totaling almost $65,000 for the rehabilitation of eight classrooms in Lincoln School to house classes for such students.

Alberts Development Maps Get Approved

Mayor Fred P. Andersen has signed the maps for T. V. Alberts' proposed Upper Heathermede development, it was learned this week, and it is expected that granting of the first permits for new homes there may be approved at Tuesday night's meeting of the Township Committee.

Applications for two dwellings had been filed by Mr. Alberts earlier this week, and it was expected there might be more [illegible] before Tuesday. Plans call [illegible] erection of some 80 houses in [illegible] area.
