PLANNING BOARD NAMES LOESER

EDISON — Fred W. Loeser of 35 Caldwell Rd. was named secretary of the Planning Board at a special meeting of the group last night.

Loeser succeeds Mrs. Walter McAndrew, who resigned last month after a year in the post.

George T. Morse was re-appointed chairman. Edward Grygo was named vice chairman to succeed William V. Cariste, whose term expired last month.

Joseph Ferenczi, Perth Amboy attorney, will remain as the board's counsel.

The board's subdivision committee will include Grygo, chairman; John J. Busher, and Julius P. Kapcsandi.

William Margolis, Township Council representative on the board, will again be chairman of the zoning committee, which comprises Morse, Grygo and Public Works Department Director William Godwin.

William M. Allen

Is Named As New Metuchen Record 12/23/58 Edison Engineer

Mayor Anthony Yelencsics announced today that William M. Allen will be the next Edison Township engineer.

He added that this is the first step in a program to set up a permanent engineering department in Edison which would be a "wonderful thing for the community."

Allen, 57, was educated in Perth Amboy High School and Cornell University. He served with the U. S. Army in World War II.

Allen has been employed by the engineering and land departments of Perth Amboy. He has also worked for various private construction firms in New Brunswick.

His present job is as a civil engineer in the employ of the Borough of Metuchen where his work involves tax maps, layouts and developments.

Allen will assume his duties as of the first of the year.

PERSONALITIES

It was almost exactly two years ago that good-looking, personable Warren W. Wilentz, then a 32-year-old Perth Amboy attorney, took over as Middlesex County Prosecutor.

Although new to administrative work, he tackled the job with zest because, as he explains: "It's most fascinating and interesting work."

"I feel we've made some headway in the past two years," Wilentz adds.

"For one thing, we've managed to see to it that most cases move to trial more quickly, with the result that waiting lists are smaller and fewer prisoners are in jail awaiting trial," he explains. "I think we've done a pretty good job of keeping the trial list current."

The second goal achieved, according to the prosecutor, is that the staff of his office has been expanded for more efficient operation.

"Our second aim was to have sufficient personnel to handle the work before us," he adds. Achievement of this goal has been largely responsible for the decreased backlog of cases awaiting trial, Wilentz explains. He is also pleased with the office's good record of convictions.

His department could use more space, he agrees, but that will come with the new courthouse—something in the future.

The prosecutor is looking forward to something else in the more immediate future — this fall, in fact.

Enthusiastic About School

"I have high hopes for our county police school that starts in September. I think it can do a lot of good. Incidentally, Captain Drosdick, dean of the school, is doing a good job of organizing it," Wilentz says.

WARREN W. WILENTZ

The young prosecutor tries to keep in close touch with all operations of his office. That he has had a definite degree of success is apparent if you sit in his office for a few minutes.

The phone rings, he picks it up and answers with a pleasant, almost drawing "Helloow," then launches into a discussion of some case or legal matter with the person calling. There's no frantic scrambling for information or hasty summoning of a subordinate to fill him in. His frequent replies, "Yes, I know," or "I'll take care of that," indicates that he is familiar with the matter under discussion.

Questioned about this apparent close familiarity with the doings of his office, he explains that he checks cases weekly with the detectives of his department. He also receives daily reports on their activities and operations. This, too, helps keep him abreast of his office's doings.

There's another program, somewhat off-beat as far as law enforcement is concerned, that seems to be meeting with some success. Interested in softball since his Army days, Wilentz has encouraged the formation of a softball team to represent his office.

Likes Softball Too

"Softball builds camaraderie within the department. But it also enables us to meet area police teams on a competitive and friendly basis," he explains.

He is also a pitcher for the team—but it's not just a case of "I wanna pitch if you use my ball," for the team's current record is something like four wins and one defeat, due in some measure at least to the prosecutor's personal efforts on the mound.

There's one thing particularly refreshing about Wilentz' attitude, his desire to keep politics out of his office and his lack of any great political ambitions. He was pleased and flattered when he was recently proposed as a successor to former Attorney General Grover T. Richmond, but he was far from disappointed when the move in his behalf failed to bear fruit.

"I'd have been awfully young for the job," is his comment.

A trial lawyer of some skill, he finds that a fascinating phase of his job as prosecutor. But administrative work also has proved challenging.

The fact that he's the son of former Attorney General David T. Wilentz, one of the top Democratic leaders of the state, has been taken in stride by the young prosecutor. It didn't hurt in gaining the post, he admits. But he also feels that many consider he is somewhat in the shadow of his illustrious and able father, admittedly a brilliant lawyer and a capable and astute politician.

However, there's every indication that the younger Wilentz isn't going to permit that impression to continue. As chief law enforcement officer in the county he is trying to run an efficient, effective agency that not only does its work well but also justifies the faith that has been placed in him.

Fourth Annual Dinner

honoring

Governor Robert B. Meyner

and

Harrison A. Williams

*Linwood, Ballroom
Edison, N. J.*

*Wednesday,
October 29, 1958*

Greetings

I am happy and honored to visit Edison Township again. Edison's large and enthusiastic crowds are always gratifying. They are a tribute to your organization.

At last year's dinner, I requested your aid and you responded magnificently. This year again I request your help.

Harrison A. Williams, Jr. enjoys the support of voters and Democratic leaders. I have strong faith in his ability and am confident he will win on November 4th and serve the people and the State with distinction as United States Senator.

Sincerely,

Robert B. Tiepner

Governor

Welcome

With great pleasure and gratitude, I welcome you to the Fourth Annual Dinner of the Edison Democratic Organization

In 1957 you worked diligently and efficiently for an Edison Democratic victory, and also for the re-election of our great Governor and leader, Robert B. Meyner.

This year we must elect Harrison A Williams, Jr. to the U. S. Senate, David S. North to Congress and re-elect 3 Freeholders.

With your support they will win on Nov. 4th. Let us all spread the words of truth: that Democratic government is the best government and that Harrison "Pete" Williams is best for the state and nation.

Anthony W. Jelencic

Mayor

Harrison A. Williams Jr.

Harrison "Pete" Williams first demonstrated his exceptional ability, popularity and leadership in 1953, when he became the first Democratic congressman in Union County's 6th District. In 1954, he triumphed again.

With the exception of Governor Robert B. Meyner, Williams is the most successful vote getter in the state. Capable, eloquent and progressive, Williams enjoys unusual popularity with independents and Republicans.

Despite his comparative youth (38), Williams is blessed with strong maturity. Appointed to the vital Foreign Affairs Committee at 34, he helped investigate economic and military assistance programs and conditions in Central America.

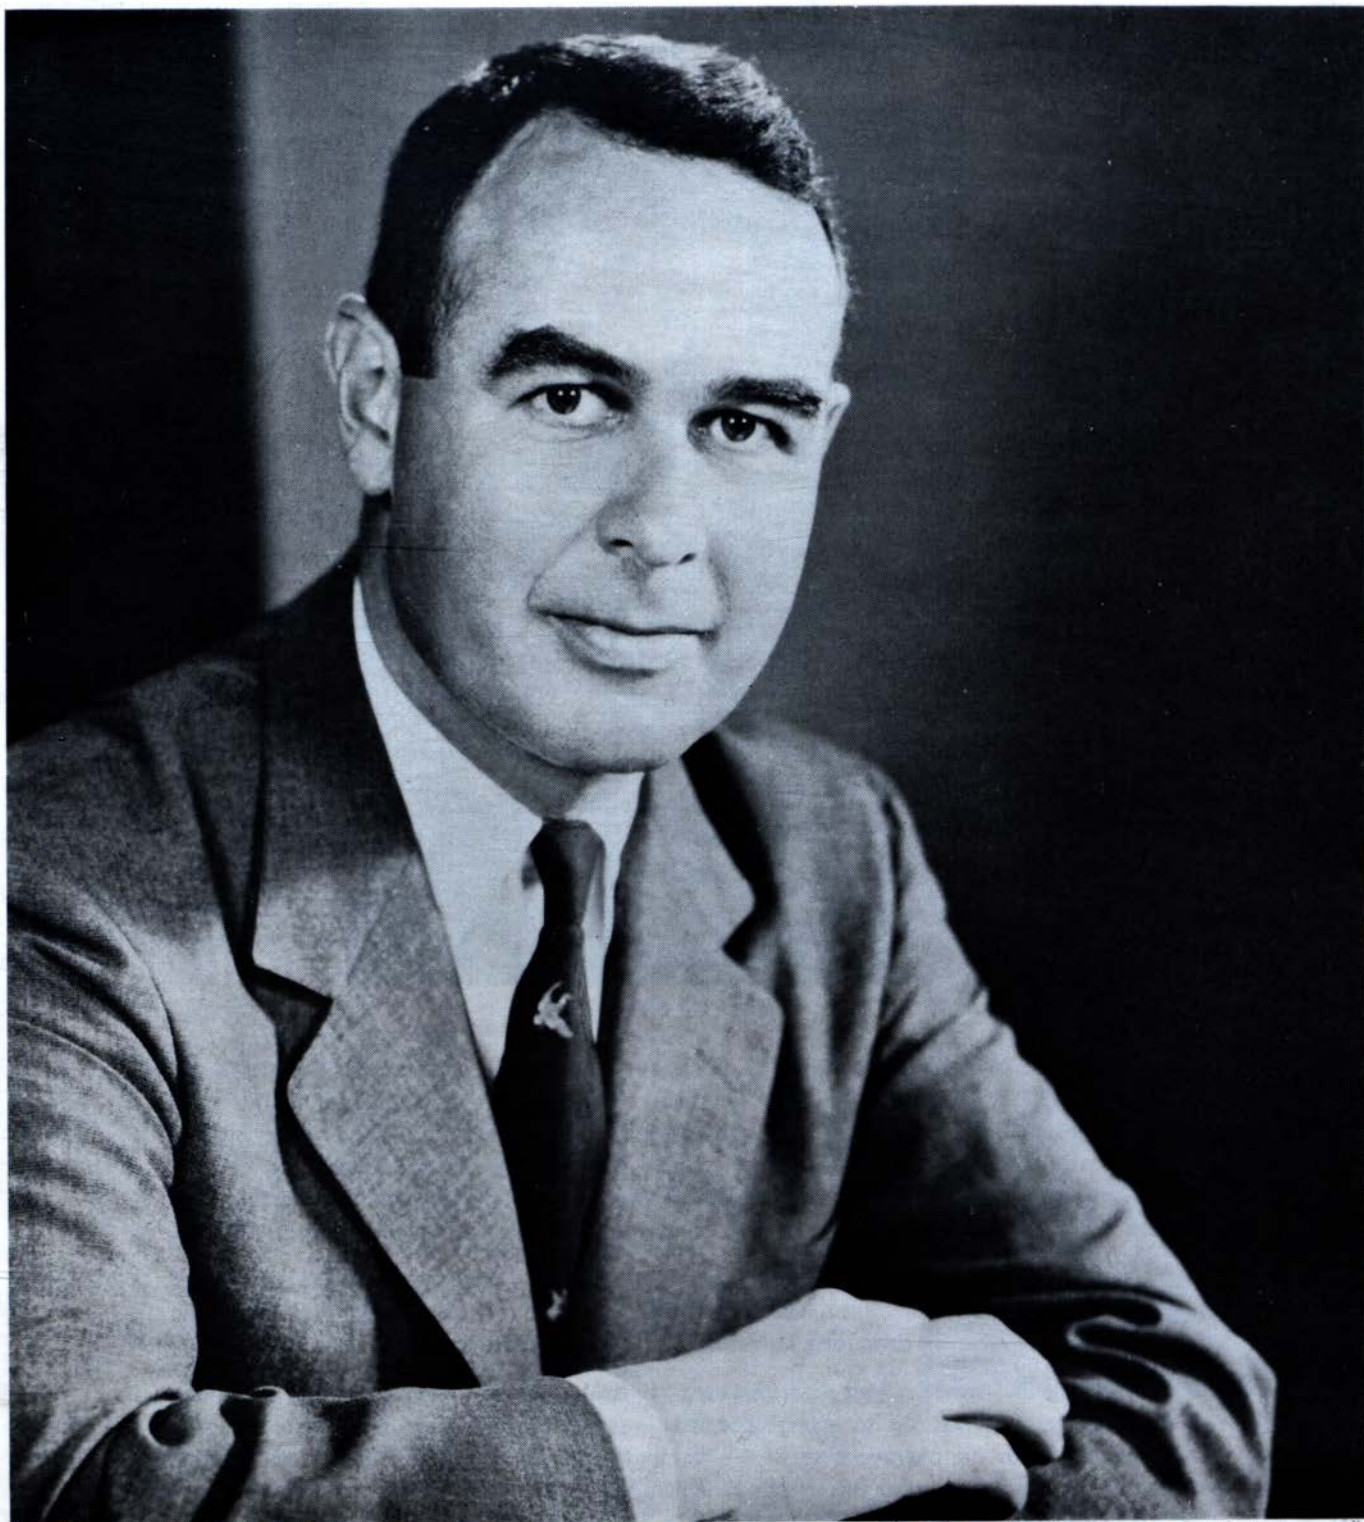

Williams was born in Plainfield, graduated from Oberlin College, then studied at Georgetown University's Foreign Service School. His education was interrupted by World War II. Enlisting in the navy, Williams served on a minesweeper and also trained fighter pilots.

A strong union supporter, he worked in a steel mill and was a member of the CIO Steelworkers' Union, following his honorable discharge in 1945.

Graduating from Columbia University Law School in 1948, Williams became a member of the Pollis and Williams law firm in Elizabeth. "Pete" lives in Westfield with his wife and five children.

Harrison A. Williams, Jr. advocates a progressive domestic program and a foreign policy based on strength, vigilance and courage.

Win With Williams

HARRISON A. "PETE" WILLIAMS
Candidate for U. S. Senate

East - West - South it's NORTH in the 5th Congressional District

DAVID S. NORTH

David S. North, Democratic Candidate for Congress from the Fifth District is exceptionally qualified for the office he seeks, both educationally and politically. As a young man he attended public schools in Morristown, where he still lives, before going on to Princeton University where he majored in Political Science and graduated "Magna Cum Laude." After Princeton Dave was chosen by the State Department as a Fulbright Scholar and lived in New Zealand fourteen months while earning his Master's Degree.

After returning to this country from New Zealand, Dave worked as a newspaper reporter, trade paper editor, and advertising executive before joining the Democratic State Committee as Executive Director of the Young Democratic Clubs of N. J.

Politically, North is best described as a "Liberal Democrat" whose feelings on Public Housing, Federal Aid to school construction and to education have made him the champion of the average man in this campaign. He is also vitally interested in introducing legislation, after his election, which would enable the government to form a "Manhattan Project" for cancer research to help eliminate this horrible disease in much the same manner that the problems of the atom were solved by an all-out effort during World War Two.

Reading Clinic Opens in N.B.

About 75 children who have found reading a stumbling block in school are attending a new summer reading clinic at Middlesex General Hospital during their vacation. Open to anyone in the state, the unusual summer session was started under the auspices of the hospital's regular speech and reading clinic headed by Dr. Eileen Higham, psychologist.

The clinic was devised to help youngsters "catch up" with their classmates, according to Dr. Higham. Fifth-graders on up to high school students are entered for intensive, individualized instruction in corrective and remedial reading.

Each youngster follows a separate curriculum planned by Mrs. Elizabeth Travers of Princeton, reading therapist in charge of the program. Whether a child works alone or with others, he proceeds according to his own curriculum. For some, the schedule involves direct teaching; for others, only general guidance is necessary.

As they up-grade their reading skills, the clinic's pupils also improve their study habits. Indirectly, they learn more about spelling, grammar and creative writing.

The clinic is held from 9:30 to 11:30 Monday through Friday and on the average, a child attends twice a week for two hours at a time. There are a few openings for children in the upper elementary and junior high grades. The summer reading clinic is only one of the services of the Middlesex Hospital speech and reading clinic. Speech, reading and psychological services offered by the main clinic will be available throughout the summer.

Reading Clinic Opens in N.B.

About 75 children who have found reading a stumbling block in school are attending a new summer reading clinic at Middlesex General Hospital during their vacation. Open to anyone in the state, the unusual summer session was started under the auspices of the hospital's regular speech and reading clinic headed by Dr. Eileen Higham, psychologist.

The clinic was devised to help youngsters "catch up" with their classmates, according to Dr. Higham. Fifth-graders on up to high school students are entered for intensive, individualized instruction in corrective and remedial reading.

Each youngster follows a separate curriculum planned by Mrs. Elizabeth Travers of Princeton, reading therapist in charge of the program. Whether a child works alone or with others, he proceeds according to his own curriculum. For some, the schedule involves direct teaching; for others, only general guidance is necessary.

As they up-grade their reading skills, the clinic's pupils also improve their study habits. Indirectly, they learn more about spelling, grammar and creative writing.

The clinic is held from 9:30 to 11:30 Monday through Friday and on the average, a child attends twice a week for two hours at a time. There are a few openings for children in the upper elementary and junior high grades. The summer reading clinic is only one of the services of the Middlesex Hospital speech and reading clinic. Speech, reading and psychological services offered by the main clinic will be available throughout the summer.

Asks For Donations To Employ Realty Expert

The Stephenville Civic Association, headed by Fred Henrich, has sent requests to all residents of Stephenville asking for a contribution of $2 to be used to employ a real estate expert or a legal consultant to represent the group at the Zoning Board of Adjustment hearing on the Absig Corp. application.

The letter pointed out that the Pumptown and Oak Hills Civic Associations are represented by attorneys and have invested in aerial photographs, court stenographers and newspaper advertisements.

According to the letter, it is felt that the testimony of objecting residents will be considered by the Zoning Board, but if the case is appealed, the testimony of an expert would "carry the weight it should in a higher court."

The members of the executive board of the Stephenville Civic Association are: Fred Henrich, Ed Carchia, Marie Creel, Jim DeCesare, Ed Leibhart and Ed McDowell.

Presents Final Testimony At Sixth Hearing Session

The Absig Corp. of Iselin on Monday night closed their case in the application of the company to the Edison Zoning Board of Adjustment for a special exception use in a residence

A zone. Their fourth witness, Charles Evans of Newark, real estate broker and appraiser, submitted to cross-examination by Michael O'Neil, Westfield lawyer, and Sherwood Mundy of Metuchen, both attorneys for objectors to the proposed 286-unit apartment dwelling on Plainfield Rd.

Evans had described neighborhoods adjacent to apartment houses in many New Jersey communities in an attempt to prove that he felt the planned apartments would not have a prejudicial effect on the areas.

When John Toolan, attorney for Absig, announced that his case had been presented in the entirety, O'Neil asked that he be allowed another week before presenting the objectors' case. He said he had not asked his witnesses to appear Monday as he thought they would not be needed until the following week.

Toolan agreed, and R. Joseph Ferenczi, Board legal consultant, announced that the meeting would be open to the public who wished to state their objections to the granting of the application.

He added that persons who represented organizations would have to take an oath and would be subject to cross-examination. Residents expressing a personal objection would not be required to take an oath and there would be no cross-examination.

The first resident to speak, Lawrence P. Gilling of 33 Edge wood Rd., Oak Hills, stated his qualifications as a mortgage broker and a member of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers.

Gilling said he was "surprised and amazed" by some of the statements of the witnesses for the applicants. He took issue with a remark of Robert E. Scott of Elizabeth, third witness for Absig, that the persons living in the area of planned apartments would rather look at the apartment development than at a series of single family homes suggested by Absig as the alternate use of the land if the apartments are refused. He termed the statement "ridiculous."

In referring to the rentals the previous witnesses said would be asked for the luxury-type apartments, Gilling said they were "not realistic." The rental for the proposed apartments have been quoted as $45 to $50 per room.

Toolan charged Gilling with making "rather strong accusations" against Scott. Gilling denied that he was making a personal attack, and said he didn't agree with Scott's statements but he did not "doubt his integrity."

Jack G. Dickinson, former Planning Board member and a resident of 42 Oak Hills Rd., presented to the Zoning Board a petition with 108 signatures of persons living in the Oak Hills, Oak Grove, Clive Hills North and Plainfield Rd. sections, who object to the apartments.

He also offered his personal objections to the development. He pointed out that the increase in traffic from the apartments would be a hazard for the children now living in the area.

The original Planning Board, he said, had no intention of allowing apartment developments in the residence A zones of the township. He suggested that in reading the Master Plan for Edison, the Board would see that the Plan would state residence A zones were primarily for single-family housing.

Fred Henrich, 11 David Ct., Stephenville, president of the Stephenville Civic Association, presented a petition signed by 313 objectors to the apartments. He read a resolution passed by the Association objecting to the development and also opposing the use of any property now zoned A-1 or B-1 for the construction of any residential buildings except single-family dwellings.

He added his own personal objections to the application.

Another petition was presented by Walter Bradstreet, Southfield Rd., as vice president of the Pumptown Civic Association.

Other objectors were Thomas Harris, Park Ave. and Plainfield Rd.; Bernard Brown, Oak Hills Rd.; Clayton F. White, 16 Oak Hills Rd., and Arthur T. Luce, Plainfield Rd.

Joseph Buck, chairman of the Zoning Board, adjourned the meeting at 11:20 p.m. It was announced to the over 250 persons attending the meeting that due to the closing of the schools for summer vacation, the next session would be held at the Edison Municipal Building, next Monday at 8 p.m.

Next Week's Recorder Will Be Published Wednesday, July 2

Because of the July 4th holiday, next week's Metuchen Recorder will be published Wednesday morning, July 2. Deadlines for both news and advertising will be one day earlier. Cooperation of advertisers and news sources with early copy will be appreciated.

Plan July 4th Celebration For Township Residents

The people of Edison will no longer have to travel to neighboring communities to enjoy the fireworks displays that are a symbol of celebration for the Fourth of July.

The Edison Fireworks Committee, under the chairmanship of Allison Grillo, Fred Loeser and Mrs. Charles Wira, has planned a $2,000 display and a band concert to take place July 4 at 8 p.m. at the lake area of Roosevelt Park.

Plans for the event got under way at a meeting of committee members and committeewomen of the Republican and Democratic parties, and representatives of most of the civic groups and industries in the township held last Tuesday night at the Municipal Building.

Tags are being printed for distribution to contributors to the fund for the celebration. Committees were selected by the chairman for a complete canvass of the township homes, merchants and industries. The door-to-door campaigns will be held Friday and Monday. The committee is endeavoring to raise the amount necessary for the fireworks display and the expenses involved for sound equipment for the band concert. Grillo said any money that is raised over the actual expenses would be used for donations to the First Aid Squad and the Police Reserves.

A member of the A. E. Greiner Co., manufacturers of fireworks, was present at the meeting and explained the various displays.

Robert Oakes of Westinghouse and Michael Watson of Socony will handle the donations from township industries.

The committeemen and committeewomen of Edison will work under the direction of Ray Henry and Edward Kasner.

Robert Krog Jr. and Frank Moley represented the local Patrons of the Benevolent Association.

The following committees were selected to contact the merchants: Clara Barton — Chairman Will Satchel, Oliver Doucette, William Fullop, Mary Leitner, Ann Heinisch; Stelton — Chairman Mimi Berry, Ann Tangelos, Ruth Radford, Betty Kuppok, Beatrice Boyle, Mrs. Charles Berger; Pottery — Chairman Menlo Park — Chairman Robert Ponder, George Hollingshead, Mabel Lewis; Stephenville — Chairman James O'Leary, Eugenia Berta, Edward Kasner; Piscatawaytown — Chairman Marie Sanders, Leo Scanlon, Mrs. Anthony Ferrullo, Betty Papp, Joseph Strollo, Edith Pinter.

Contributions may also be mailed to the Edison Fireworks Committee, 237 Plainfield Ave., Nixon.

Sends Soldier To Workhouse

A 24-year-old soldier was sent to the county workhouse for 60 days by Edison Magistrate Roland Winter a few hours after the man was arrested by Det. Richard McGinnis for disorderly conduct.

PFC Charles Iorio, Battery B, 738th Missile Battalion, Pittman, was arrested at 8:45 a.m. on Monday morning.

Iorio told police he was on his way from his home at 6520 Booth St., New York, to the missile base. He was picked up when he stopped his car on Plainfield Ave. in the Piscatawaytown section of Edison, and accosted a youngster on school patrol.

Carless driving charges against Joseph A. Torres, 43, of 266 High St., Perth Amboy, and Joseph Schwajke Jr., 25, of 177 Elizabeth Ave., New Brunswick, were dismissed. The two men had been involved in an accident at the intersection of Elmer Ave. and Parsonage Rd. on June 1. They both pleaded not guilty.

Winter Orders 2 Held For Grand Jury Action

Edison Magistrate Roland Winter ordered two Pottery men held for the grand jury on separate charges of larceny arising from thefts that occurred April 4 at the Industrial Plastic Co., Tingley Lane, Oak Tree.

William Henry Jackson of Elm Pl. and Danny Woods of Edwards Ave., each entered pleas of not guilty and Winter set bail at $1,000 for each of the men.

According to the complaint, $150 in cash, a check writing machine valued at $90, an adding machine valued at $188, a typewriter valued at $75 and a calculator valued at $901 were taken from the plant.

The complaints against the men were signed by Det. Lt. Wilbert Nelson.

Two men who cooperated in the theft of a $5 sealed beam headlight unit were each fined $25 and $5 costs by Magistrate Winter. Mike Salterilli of 59 Lois Ave., South River, and John Skoudris of 17 New St., New Brunswick, pleaded guilty to the charge of petit larceny signed by Det. Capt. William Pinter. The theft took place on May 21.

Norman M. Schultz, 26, of Ninth St., Flattown, was fined $50 and $5 costs on a charge of disorderly conduct on June 16. He pleaded guilty to the complaint signed by Det. Richard McGinnis.

Pleas of non vult were entered by Mrs. Ann Selesky, 43, of 1155 M Woodbridge Ave., on a complaint of disorderly conduct and a charge of careless driving signed by Patrolman Sebastian Vasta. Vasta arrested Mrs. Selesky on May 28 following an accident on Woodbridge Ave. near the Bonhamtown School.

Magistrate Winter suspended a $25 fine but ordered Mrs. Selesky to pay the $5 court costs on the disorderly conduct charge. She agreed to reimburse Patrolman Ralph Wuest for a uniform torn when the arrest took place.

A fine of $15 and $5 costs on the careless driving charge was also paid. Winter is holding Mrs. Selesky's driver's license until the woman submits a doctor's report.

Raymond Meadowcroft, 32, of Staten Island, pleaded guilty to a charge of drunken driving. He was fined $200 and $5 costs. His driving privilege in New Jersey was revoked for a period of two years.

For driving when his name is on the revoked list, Arthur C. MacCollum, 20, of 526 Easton Ave., New Brunswick, paid a $100 fine and $5 costs. He pleaded guilty.

Donald M. Saxton, 38, of Basking Ridge, paid $25 and $5 costs for speeding.

Metuchen History Book, Published In 1870, Now in Public Library

The first building boom in Metuchen is described in a booklet just presented to the Metuchen Public Library by the Compton family. According to Dr. Ezra M. Hunt, the twenty houses built in the few years after 1855 "so added to the size and neatness of the village and to give it a more towny and inviting appearance." Dr. Hunt's book, entitled "Metuchen and Her History, and the Churches of Metuchen" was privately printed in 1870. Speaking of the year 1800, Dr. Hunt said "One did not then have to bow in 'tights' at an angle of over 45 degrees, and study up on the latest novel, and know the difference between a piano-forte and a melodeon, in order to be considered intelligent enough for matrimony, and was not so much in danger, as now, of being considered familiar because of a smacking salutation."

In his history of the churches, Dr. Hunt states that the first Presbyterian church in Metuchen, a building 36 ft. by 25 ft., was built on the Woodbridge road because it was halfway between Metuchen's "most stirring suburbs," Oak Tree and Bonhamtown.

According to Dr. Hunt, late in 1857 twelve male members and their families, or about forty in all, withdrew from the Presbyterian Church and organized the First Reformed Dutch Church of Metuchen. In 1866 the Reformed Church offered the use of its lecture room to the Protestant Episcopal Church, and in the same year the Presbyterian Church voted use of its Academy to the Methodist for regular services.

In 1870 Baptists were still travelling two miles to the Piscatawaytown Baptist Church, but Roman Catholic services were held "in a small chapel on ground secured for a church."

A Rand-McNally Vacation Guide and a Complete Book of Fly-fishing by D. I. Rogers, are among the 20 new non-fiction books on the library shelves this week. There are also 24 new fiction books which are paid for by a charge of three cents a day to readers.

Charge Against Kelly Dismissed

Manslaughter charges against John F. Kelly, 38, of 54 Prospect Ave., Stelton, were dismissed by Magistrate Roland Winter in the Edison Municipal Court Monday morning. The charges had been made against Kelly as a result of an accident between the Kelly car and a motorcycle operated by Walter J. Tunella, 44, of 11 Sadowski St., Old Bridge.

Tunella died at the Middlesex General Hospital in New Brunswick a few hours after the crash that occurred on Route 27 at the entrance to the Grand Union food market parking lot, at 10:30 a.m. on June 18.

Kelly testified in court that he had been attempting to make a right hand turn into the parking lot when Tunella, who was operating the cycle on a learner's permit, crashed into the rear of the car.

Patrolman James Madarsz had signed the complaint against Kelly.

New light on Prayer

SCIENCE AND HEALTH with Key to the Scriptures by MARY BAKER EDDY

Most people would pray more if they felt they knew how, — and knew how prayer could really be effective. Many today feel that their own lives, and the world at large, sorely need help that human effort has not brought.

They see that somehow the answer to life's perplexing problems must be sought where power and intelligence have their limitless source — in the realm of God.

Today Science and Health is revealing a wholly new understanding of prayer, and meeting humanity's need.

Fined $225, She Loses License for Two Years

Majorie F. Muster, 54, of 22 Linsley Pl., Metuchen, headed the list of those found guilty by Edison Magistrate Roland Winters in Township court, Monday morning.

Mrs. Muster was fined $225 and $5 costs for drunken driving and then leaving the scene after she was involved in an auto mishap. She also had her license revoked for two years.

Charged with disorderly conduct were Edna Rowley, 3 Glenville Rd., Raymond Kiern of South Keansburg and Gordon Nelson of 201 Plainfield Ave.

The disorderly conduct charge was only one of two counts brought against Miss Rowley, who was also fined for attempted suicide the day before she created a disturbance. She was fined $25 and $5 costs on both charges. Kiern, her boyfriend, who was involved in Miss Rowley's disturbance, was also fined $25 and $5 costs.

Nelson was fined the same amount by Winters after charges were brought against him by his wife, Hazel.

Involved in assault and battery complaints were William Tobin, 25, of 17 Winthrop Rd. Nixon, Herbert Tanner of Seventh Ave., Erchold, and Jack Kelly of 250 Woodbridge Ave., Highland Park.

$40,000 Worth of Damage Caused by Three-Store Fire

An approximate estimate of damage caused by a fire at a three-store building at Vineyard Rd. and John St., Wednesday, was made by Edison Fire Marshal Joseph Simon.

According to Simon, damage caused by the fire that was battled by over 100 firemen, in an attempt to save Kemper's Bar and Grill, an adjoining luncheonette and a barber shop, could be estimated at over $40,000.

Damage to stocks and fixtures in Kemper's establishment ran about $25,000 while smoke ruined at least $500 of material in the luncheonette and $200 in the barber shop. The damage figure to the building was put at $15,000.

It was also reported that all concerned except the barber shop, operated by Daniel Canino of Helmetta, were insured.

Although it is not official, firemen believe that the fire was started by a short circuit. It was the opinion of Simon that the building, whose ceiling was eaten away but whose walls were still intact, would not be condemned. "However," Simon added, "that is up to the building inspector."

The blaze started a little after 3 p.m. and lasted for more than two hours. Thirteen firemen fighting the blaze, were felled by smoke and had to be revived by Edison Safety Squad one and two.

Witnesses in the bar at the time of the fire remarked that the blaze spread so rapidly that they had no time to investigate before they were driven out by the smoke.

Township officials stated that the owner of the building that houses three stores, is Carl Stamm of Old Post Rd., Nixon. It was reported that the bar had been in operation about two months.

Kemper had previously attempted to build a bar near the Edison light in Menlo Park but was unable to get the township's approval after too many strong objections were registered.

Zoners Hear Bids; K.of C. Asks to Build

Three applications for variances were brought before the Edison Zoning Board of Adjustment Tuesday night. Decisions on all three will be rendered at the next board meeting.

Heading the list of applications was the Columbian Club of Metuchen's request to construct a club house in Edison and use it as a fraternal organization, namely the St. Francis Council of the Knights of Columbus.

They plan to build in a residence C Zone on the north side of Park Ave. at Main St. on a lot with 100 feet frontage and 200 feet deep. They have held the property under appeal since June of 1956.

Representing the organization was Joseph M. Kraft, president of the local chapter and also an attorney.

Kraft told the committee that the non-profit organization has a local council membership of 270 and that the average attendance at meetings ran about 70.

It was also mentioned that in constructing the building they would assemble a 30 feet by 60 feet meeting room, plus various other rooms and a special committee room. Although regular meetings would be held only once a month, Kraft pointed out, committee meetings would be held quite frequently during the month.

The board was then told that even though the council would try and procure a bar license, special functions, because of the size of the building, would have to be held elsewhere.

The council had also planned for 30 parking spaces and a surface evaporation system, because there are no sewers in the area.

Kraft called two witnesses, Tony Romeo, assistant to the director of the county planning board, and Mrs. Dorothy DuFault, Metuchen realtor.

Other applications included an application for a variance by the G. E. Builders, 28 Melville Rd. Representing the builders was George David, their vice-president.

The company plans to build

St. Paul's Breaks Ground For New $110,000 Church Seating 250

The ground breaking ceremony of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church of Edison Township, took place at the church site, Old Post Road, at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Louis Bell of the First Hungarian Lutheran Church of New Brunswick. The address was given by the Rev. F. Kenneth Shirk, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Participating in the ground breaking were representatives of various church groups: Lewis Wentzel, vice president of Church Council; Mrs. Robert Kyle, United Lutheran Church Women; Raymond Hecht, Men of the Church; William Frutchey, superintendent of Sunday School; John Cox, building committee; Robert Zane, building fund committee; Alvin Angerhofer, Boy Scout troop, Members of the Boy Scouts and Sunday School also participated.

Plans for construction were received from Erling Solstad of Solstad and Meyer, architects, by Lewis Wentzel and were presented to Herman Kahman, general contractor.

The new edifice will cost approximately $110,000. It will include a nave seating 250, Sunday School rooms, pastor's study, kitchen, nursery and conference room.

Construction is scheduled to start within the week.

19 single-family houses on lots no smaller than 75 by 100 feet in a light industrial zone. The plot of land in question is on the east side of Locust Ave. at Pine St. Its overall lot size is 575 feet frontage and 310 feet deep.

David was quoted as saying that he would put up houses like the area homes — maybe even better. However, David had applied for ranch-type houses in a split-level residential area. It was pointed out by George Thompson, township building inspector, however, that because of the high water line in that region, ranch-type homes might not be the best idea.

It was noted also that some of the new houses would be closer to the Coralux plant than existing houses. The plan has experienced difficulty with air pollution during operations.

The board also stated that in order to accept David's plan they might have to make an amendment to the ordinance, which naturally can't be done at present. Board attorney R. Joseph Ferenczi remarked that it actually wasn't the zoning board's job to decide on this type of case. It was a case for the planning board, if not the township council.

After a long discussion on the matter in which David had stated that he had approached the planning board over a year ago, Ferenczi reported that the planning board is now making a detailed study of various cases like his (David) in the area and should offer a full report in a few weeks. Ferenczi stated that Claude Peters was making the report for the planning board.

Two neighboring residents spoke up in favor of the development. It was their feeling that everyone in the area wants a development before another industry. "Edison doesn't want another plant like Coralux," was a statement made by Dan O'Connor.

The final major application dealt with was the application to construct an office building and small showroom by the Ferralotta Construction Company, 2045 Woodbridge Ave.

The proposed property, under option by the Ferralotta company, is on the north side of Route 27 at Sycamore Ave. in a business zone. Lot size has a 50.13 feet frontage and is 100 feet deep. Samuel Ferralotta, secretary and treasurer of the company stated that besides being in the building business, they are also realtors. A zoning permit, Ferralotta mentioned, was applied for and denied June 15, 1958.

Under the ordinance, they could not construct a showroom. Ferralotta also wants parking space for 20 cars, ten in the front and the same number in the rear of the building.

Thompson stated that he be-

Board OK's 7 New Teachers

J. M. Ruggieri, superintendent of Edison schools, stated at the last Board of Education meeting that seven new teachers had been hired by school officials.

He also asked, and it was accepted by the board, that the Progressive Life Insurance Company become the insurance company for Edison schools. Progressive would replace the American Casualty Company which terminated all student accident insurance policies at the end of the school year.

The insurance company is approved by the New Jersey Interscholastic Athletic Association and has a large number of school systems in New Jersey as policy holders. Its costs are: per pupil from grades kindergarten to eighth, $1.50, from nine through 12, $2.00, and $12.00 per player in interscholastic football. This is the same company used by the Metuchen school system.

Those hired for high school teaching posts were: Peter W. Appleton, a graduate of Rutgers, for $4800; Miss Nancy L. Huff, from Illinois Wesleyan, $4,200; Thomas J. Sheehan, Jr., a graduate of Bloomsburg STC, $4,500, and Miss Marion Yansenchak who was graduated from Misericordia College and hired at $4,200.

Employed to instruct at the elementary level were: Mrs. Esther S. Colosky, Newark STC, for $4,300; Miss Anne Louis Lesica, a graduate of Wagner College and hired for $4,200 and Mrs. Aileen R. Morgan at $4,400. She is a graduate of Douglass College.

Ruggieri also mentioned that 13 township teachers had either left, completed their contracts or were replaced, at the end of this past school year.

It was also noted that at the end of June there were a total of 6440 pupils enrolled in township schools from grades kindergarten to tenth, as opposed to 5678 from grades kindergarten to ninth in the 1957 school year. Ruggieri also stated that attendance had shown a marked improvement of the past year.

Ruggieri made mention of the fact that 401 pupils had been graduated from Edison Junior High School and 306 township students from neighboring high schools. Most high school graduates were from New Brunswick High School. They totaled 68. Fifty-two were graduated from Metuchen, 47 from Perth Amboy, 37 from Highland Park and two from Woodbridge High School. There were 13 graduates from County Vocational Schools.

It was also pointed out, regarding transportation for the coming school year, that 12 routes had been eliminated, five rerouted and 15 routes were to be bid for on Aug. 1.

The board then explained to various spectators why they were constructing a paved road by the Washington School, how much it would cost and from what source the money would be taken.

Contracted for a little over $16,000, the road in the rear of the school would be used as a one-way thoroughway to alleviate present traffic problems. Money would be taken from the Capital Improvement Fund. It was also stated that a parking lot would be constructed and that a cyclone fence would be put up on one side of the road.

Eagle Award Given Oak Tree Scouts

One of the oddities encountered in Boy Scouting occurred Friday night when 14 year-old Gary Peigelbeck of 6 Southfield Rd. Oak Tree, duplicated the same feat his father attained 30 years ago when he became one of the first Eagle Scouts in his section.

Will N. Peigelbeck, back in 1928 became the first scout in the South Amboy area to receive the highest honor in scouting, the Eagle Scout Award. Also receiving the award at that time was Andrew Peterson, now a member of the South Amboy Board of Education.

Along with the younger Peigelbeck, 14 year-old John Glasser, Jr. and Scoutmaster Franklin Bardecker also received the award. Glasser is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Glasser of Monument Ave., Menlo Park. Bardecker resides on Grove Ave.

Feature speaker at the affair was National Scouting leader, Ray Williams, administrative assistant to the chief executive of scouting at the National Headquarters in North Brunswick.

To many, the Eagle Scout Award means nothing — it's just another merit which any young boy can attain. However, here is where they are wrong, this award can not be won overnight, and by just anybody, it takes years of hard work and faithful learning.

Take 14 year-old Peigelbeck, or rather 15 year-old, this September Peigelbeck, for instance. This sophomore in high school with only seven years of scouting behind him (three of those years as a cub scout) has already attained 26 merit badges. The requirement for an Eagle Scout is 21, however, the average Eagle attains 26 badges.

Merit badges constitute supremacy in one of many categories, from Botany to Journalism to life-saving or to any other category imaginable.

After a scout has attained the Eagle rank, he can go still farther. He may attempt to match the requirements for an Eagle Scout with a Bronze, Gold or Silver Palm, in that order. In order to attain these palms, a scout must complete the requirements for 15 more merit badges, five for each palm.

There are many camps for scouts. Gary has attended Camp Sakawawin and the National Jamboree at Valley Forge, among others.

"I guess the greatest experience I encountered at one of these camps was when we held a church service on the ice in the middle of the Lake at Sakawawin," related Gary as he told how he and 24 other scouts knelt on the ice in below-freezing weather.

Gary went on to explain that there was an old tree stump sticking out of the ice. They made a cross out of tree branches and fastened it to the stump, then used it as an altar.

Another lasting memory was received at Valley Forge when, as Gary put it, "you could look over the mountainside and see 50 to 60,000 boy scouts marching to the arena, all with lighted candles in their hands."

Many lasting experiences while enjoying the fellowship of other scouts, is instilled in one's mind for only not just a few years as can be noted in Mr. Peigelbeck's vivid description of interesting happenings to him nearly 30 years ago.

Peigelbeck, a former member of Raritan, Troop one in South Amboy and a professional scout for many years is now a horticulturalist with Lee Patton Seed Co. He has been with them for two years.

The elder Peigelbeck practiced his professional training with the Queen's Council in New York City.

Peigelbeck, a staunch supporter of old scouting days, relates the time his scout training came in handy when he assisted in the famous Moro Castle and Morgan Lumber Yard incidents. He also remembers camping with Rodger Conan, who later became an assistant to Admiral Byrd, or of his exciting experiences in climbing bluffs and camping outdoors.

"My son's scouting training has already helped him and his family out," remarked the elder Peigelbeck. "Not so long ago," he added, "Gary woke up one early morning only to discover that our house was on fire. Only previous scouting training enabled Gary to remain calm and to do everything possible to ensure the safety of his family and house."

ALL DRESSED UP FOR THE BACKYARD BARBECUE! Everything tastes better when it's cooked outdoors, doesn't it? And now that ranch houses and patios are dotting the landscape in all the 48 states the "cook-out" is definitely part of the American way of life. Dad likes to dramatize his culinary skill—put on a real act when he's sizzling those steaks. That means apron, chef's hat, protective mitt—the works! He's the center of the stage, of course (doesn't he always insist on it?) but supporting members of the cast are Mom and the kids. This year's backyard barbecue is given real status by fashions designed especially for it. Make Vacation Real Rest Urges Heart Assn.

The calendar and weather, at odds all spring, finally agree that New Jerseyans can enjoy summer. With the mercury now stretching into the 80's and 90's, the New Jersey Heart Association offers some tips on guarding your heart during the sizzling days ahead.

Friday afternoons witness a mass exodus as people strike for a "restful" weekend at mountain and seashore resorts. "Make sure," the Association urges, "that it is a restful weekend." The heart is a muscle, and like any other muscle, after an extended period of comparative inactivity during the winter months requires time and gradual buildup to attain its peak form and condition.

The New Jersey Heart Association suggests when you take that first dip, don't swim until you're exhausted, but climb on the dock, or beach, and relax for a while. With a tennis racket in hand for the first time and you begin to tire, postpone the next game until tomorrow. You will help your heart and may win the set.

Refurbishing the summer cottage is sometimes a booby trap for heart victims. Don't try to remove winter's tarnish at one time. Take it in easy stages so you can enjoy the glistening fresh paint and hours of happiness the cottage offers.

If you have an activity schedule in mind for vacation and weekends make sure time is included for rest and relaxation. Your heart will appreciate this and you can be assured of a happier and more profitable summer.

We do not love people so much for the good they have done us, as for the good we have done them.—Tolstol

Ambrose Brook Trouble Ended

A pollution condition of Ambrose Brook has been corrected by the Township public works dept., it was reported at the last meeting of the Edison Township Council.

The condition was brought on by the discharge of raw sewage from the Fitch Road pumping station, however proper reconditioning equipment has been set up at the station.

Following a decision handed down from Magistrate Roland Winters that the Coralux Perlite Co. of Edison on charges of excessive noise and dust brought against them, cease both annoyances, the company has now been given 10 to 12 weeks to eliminate the nuisances.

A total of $1,638.80 of fines and costs was paid in Municipal Court, of which the municipality received $528.

It was also reported that the major medical plan for all full-time Township employees would go into effect on the first of August.

Cured of Speeding

A Perth Amboy resident was, at least temporarily, cured of speeding by Edison Magistrate Roland Winters at the Township's last court hearing.

Ronald M. Ziemba, 25, was fined $50 and $5 costs by the magistrate after he pleaded guilty to speeding 65 miles-per-hour in a 25-mile zone. Ziemba was apprehended by Patrolman Charles Peterson on Oak Tree Rd. on June 28.

Licenses were revoked for three months from two more speeders. Found guilty of speeding were James A. Gullo, 20, of Highland Park, and Beatrice Veisz, also 20, of Sylvandale Ave. Gullo was fined $20 and $5 while Miss Veisz paid out $15 and $5 costs.

Nab Ex-Cop As a Bookie

A former New Brunswick patrolman, Salvatore Santisi, was brought before Edison Magistrate Roland Winters Monday on charges of bookmaking. Also arraigned was Mrs. Ella Telymonde, 42, of 678 Old Post Rd., for aiding and abetting in bookmaking.

Santisi was caught Thursday when township detectives raided the home of Mrs. Telymonde and found Santisi receiving bets. He had taken $250 in bets when police interrupted his operations. Santisi was released on $1,000 bail and Mrs. Telymonde on $500 bail.

At Monday's court hearing, Santisi waived the right to a preliminary hearing and now awaits Grand Jury action. Mrs. Telymonde asked that she be heard tonight in the township court.

Santisi was arrested as he hung up the phone after taking racing bets in the living room of his apartment. It was reported that Santisi was conducting this type of operation in Mrs. Telymonde's home since July 21.

Township detectives stated that Santisi was found out by his methodical timetable in entering and leaving the house and on a tip received at headquarters early in the week.

Santisi was seen entering the house at 11:34 a.m. by police and the raid was immediately set up. Police were armed with a search warrant and a warrant for the arrest of Santisi and Mrs. Telymonde when they raided the house at 1:10 p.m. The complaints were signed by Det. Lt. Wilbur Nelson, while the raid was conducted by Det. Capt. William Pinter and detectives Harold Bott and Nelson.

$105 Fine to Bayonne Man

In Thursday night's session of the township court, a Bayonne man was fined $100 and $5 costs for driving after his license had been revoked. The defendant, Ralph Jordan, pleaded not guilty to the charge.

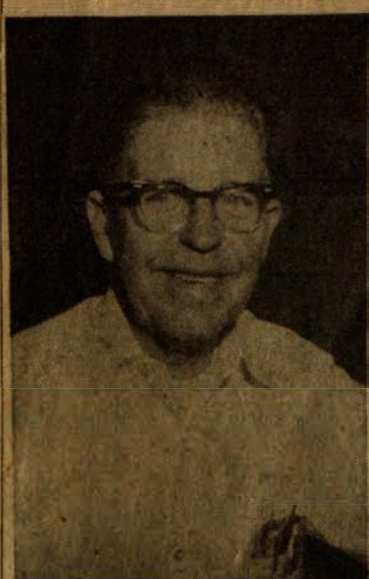

In other cases heard by Magistrate Winters, Guillermo V. Soto of Perth Amboy paid out $35 and $5 costs for speeding 60 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone. He pleaded guilty.

Also, William Toth of Carteret was fined $25 and $5 for driving on a permit without a licensed driver at his side, and Charles Geampietro of New Brunswick was found guilty of a charge that he was speeding 60 miles an hour in a 20-mile zone. He paid $25 and $5.

A Highland Park resident, John Williams, was fined $10 and $5 costs for careless driving, while Molly Steinberg of Ford was paid $5 and $5 costs for going through a red light.

They Serve Edison

(This is one of a series of biographical sketches of Edison Township employees. This week —Steve McNally.)
"Around the world in a quar-

ter of a century," is a phrase that depicts the past of one of Edison's most interesting employees—Steve McNally.

A resident of 8 Coleman St., McNally has worked in the township Water Department for the past 11 years. However, before he became one of Edison's many servants, he enjoyed a most exciting and unusual life composed of constant travel, the acquisition of many new acquaintances and the never-ceasing quest for adventure.

During a normal day with the water department, Steve checks six artesian wells, takes readings, oils and greases his machinery and then makes many tests.

In only a few moments of conversation, one would easily recognize that Steve is not only an accomplished entertainer and garage man, but he also is quite proficient in his work with the department.

According to McNally, the wells are of the artesian type and go down 500 feet. They are operated by a centrifugal pump. McNally went on to say that the township buys three million gallons of water a day from the Elizabethtown Consolidated Water Co. in Elizabeth. After he makes his checks, the healthy-looking and still energetic man, in his 70s, generally returns to the shop to repair various meters.

In 1927, Steve joined his brother Ben in the garage business and set up quarters on Easton Ave. in New Brunswick. But before that he and his brother, and later his wife, toured through almost every country in the world, employed in one of the most fascinating occupations of all—show business.

McNally's experience began in 1900 when he was the mascot of the San Francisco Olympic Club. The Oakland, Cal.-bred youngster managed to get the job through his brother who had already entered the entertainment field.

At that time, brother Ben, who now resides at Howe Lane, North Brunswick, and is 85 years old, worked for Kelly and Ashby, the originators of the trampolines.

McNally officially started entertaining in 1903 when he and Ben joined the Leando Bros. and Feely gymnastic comedy team. They traveled through the state of Washington and then opened in April of 1904 at Tony Pastor's in New York City.

From 1905 to 1906, Steve and his brother entertained at the New York Hippodrome in the stage show, "A Yankee Circus on Mars." Here they did a high wire act in a show that had Bobby Clark as its clown. In 1908 the McNally brothers joined Ringling Bros. circus and did a low wire act.

Steve remembers quite well his stay with Ringling Bros. for it was here that he, Ben, and the latter's family had their closest brush with death. It seems as though a hook holding the tight wire in place, slipped and broke a steel eye while the troupe was in the midst of one of their acts. Steve was hurled into the nets with Ben's family right after him. Ben, himself, was found hanging by one leg to a platform many feet above Steve.

In December of 1908, the troupe toured London and Southsea, England, and in April of 1909 were at the theatre in Amsterdam, Holland. That month Queen Wilhelmina was born and Steve recalls the celebration that lasted nearly a week in honor of her birth.

From Amsterdam they toured Rotterdam, the Hague and then traveled to Berlin in June and July of 1909. After playing throughout Germany, the troupe went to Budapest, Hungary, Paris, and southern France. From there they went to Algiers and then returned to France before starting a tour of South America.

In January of 1910 they were back in Paris. It was one night that month that people thought the world was to come to an end when the famous Halley's comet was seen. Steve related how he stood up in a park all night looking for the comet.

Fiume, now part of Italy, was their next stop, and in May of 1910 they were in Venice at the time of King Edward's death. From Venice, they traveled to Milan, Rome, and Florence, and then back to Paris again where, on July 4, 1910, they sailed for America.

"We were at sea the night Jim Jeffries and Jack Johnson fought their memorable battle," Steve declared. On July 14, the troupe docked in New York City. On August 6 they were playing at the Brooklyn Empire Theatre.

Then, in 1914, a cute little tap dancer appeared on the scene, and in only a short time Steve and the former Lanier DeWolf were married in Grace Church, New York City.

The Thomasville, Ga., beauty was in an act with her mother which was in the same show as Steve's troupe.

In 1916, Ben retired from show business and opened up a garage and roller-skating rink in New Brunswick.

At this point, Steve and his wife formed their own act and continued through 1927 when Steve also retired from show business and joined his brother on Easton Ave. The McNallys' act included singing, patter and acrobatics.

In 1922, the McNallys had their first child, red-haired Lucille, at their summer home in Edison, then Raritan Township. Lucille is now the wife of Elliot W. Chapman of the Standard Oil Co. in Pelham, N. Y. Two years after Steve's retirement they had their second child, Ben, who is now married to the former Marie Morris of Milltown. Ben works for General Cable and lives on West Lawrence St. in Milltown.

In 1947, after 20 years in the garage business, Steve came to the water department. Has he actually retired from show business? Well, not exactly. Steve still puts on shows for the township. However, his main hobby at present is sleeping. How long will Steve stay with the water department? That's a silly question," Steve quickly retorts, "at my age you might as well ask me how long I'm going to live!"

Zoning Bd. Meeting Is Postponed

For the first time since the township's Zoning Board of Adjustment was formed, the committee failed to have a quorum at a meeting.

The incident happened Tuesday night and led to an adjournment until this Tuesday at 8 p.m. Joseph Back, chairman of the board, stated before a capacity crowd, which packed the seemingly adequate courtroom, that the predicament was caused by the vacation of one member and the illness of two more.

On vacation was Board Secretary Monroe Amper, while Theodore Gerlich and Gus Doeir, board members, reported Tuesday that they were ill.

The variances that were to have been discussed at Tuesday's meeting were then read off and it was announced that they would be reviewed at the next meeting.

There were six requests for variances. They were: A special exception by the Edison Social Club to construct a club house on a lot, now vacant, on the westerly side of Johnson Ave.; A request by Central Jersey Mack Sales to acquire five lots on North Chestnut St. adjoining their property for general business purposes. The lots are now vacant; A request by Charles W. Kresza of 247 Plainfield Ave. to construct an addition to his hardware store at the same address. He needs a variance on his rear yard.

A variance to sub-divide their lot in order to construct a home was asked by Leroy and Louise Tanison of Rahway. They need a special exception variance to allow them to build on an undersized lot.

A request for special exception use of his property was also made by Michael Cincia of Edison. He asked to subdivide his lot into two equal parts, both of which would be under-occupied.

The Washington Park Swim Club, represented by the president, Clyde Everly, provided the final request, as they asked for a permit on the Swimming Pool Ordinance and also special exception to build a pool on a newly-acquired site.

Fund to Assure Costly Operation For Skippy Zipf Nearly Complete

Mayor Anthony Yelencis was on hand to greet upwards of 60 volunteer workers for the "Skippy Zipf Heart Fund" at the Linwood Grove Ballroom Wednesday night. The mayor stressed the urgent need for Skippy's operation, which is scheduled for the latter part of the month at Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn. He called upon the workers to exert every effort to make the house-to-house appeal for funds a big success.

Mayor Yelencis stated he had received word from a friend in Connecticut, telling him that he had heard his name mentioned in conjunction with the fund on a television news report last week. His friend enclosed a check for $10 as his contribution. The mayor also said he had received donations from East Orange, Newark, Atlantic City and other points distant from Edison Township.

Various organizations were represented at the meeting, including the Edison Police Reserve, the Washington Park Swim Club, Clara Barton American Legion Post No. 324, Edison Township V.F.W. Post No. 3117, Midtown National Little League, Edison Lions Club, Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts, Ladies Auxiliary V.F.W. Post No. 3117, Washington-Nixon Democratic Club, and United Democrats of Edison, Inc.

Assignments were made on the basis of 19 voting districts in the township and captains were appointed for each district. Individuals will assist in the house-to-house appeal and the chairman is certain this phase of the fund-raising campaign can be concluded on Saturday

Edison Jr. Olympics Scheduled Aug. 27

Township authorities and the U. S. Army have taken another step toward eliminating juvenile delinquency in the area.

For the first time in the township's history, a "Junior Olympics" will be held at Camp Kilmer in conjunction with the installation's "Operation Youth." The "Junior Olympics" will pit members of all of Edison's 12 playgrounds against each other in a series of athletic events and craft and hobby contests.

The date of the affair is Wednesday, Sept. 27. Many of Camp Kilmer's facilities will be at the township's disposal.

Awards will be given individually. Also, the playground members of which have compiled the most points will gain the distinction of winning the Olympics.

According to James O'Leary, township recreational assistant, there will be 2,500 children competing, with at least the same number of spectators. Participants from the 12 playgrounds will range in age from 8 to 16 years.

On hand to give out awards will be the post commander, Major General Raymond E. Bell, while a visit by Gov. Robert Meyner is expected late in the day.

Lt. Col. Anthony D'Elia, Jr., camp project officer, announced that the camp swimming pool, parade grounds and athletic field, among others, will be at the disposal of the township during the day.

It was also pointed out by the project officer that camp facilities dealing with the safety and general welfare of the contestants and followers will also be offered by the army. D'Elia, a veteran of 18 years in the U.S. Army, has been project officer of the installation for the past two years and is the originator of "Operation Youth," a project that is unique in the nation.

Four bleachers will be set up on the parade grounds for the issuing of awards and a special demonstration by the First Army band from Fort Dix and its Honor Guard.

Of the various exhibits shown, Raritan Arsenal will hold an ordnance equipment display and the New Jersey Recruiting Section will offer a recruiting display, while the 483d AAA Missile Battalion (NIKE) will display NIKE missiles.

Points for each event will be awarded as follows: five points for first place, three for second and one for third place, O'Leary stated.

"We only hope," O'Leary said "that next year we can invite other communities within the area to participate and from that create a Central Jersey Olympic champion."

One Dead, Four Hurt In Weekend Mishaps

U. S. Route 1 was the scene of four accidents covered by Edison police over the weekend. The mishaps resulted in the death of one person and injuries to four others.

Friday, a man was killed and a woman critically injured, while the driver and two other passengers were untouched when the car in which they were riding turned over in Route 1 near the Main St. intersection. All five occupants were from north Jersey.

In the last highway accident, William Tugate of Spotswood had his car sideswiped by an auto operated by Hans G. Fuchs of New Brunswick as he approached the College Bridge.

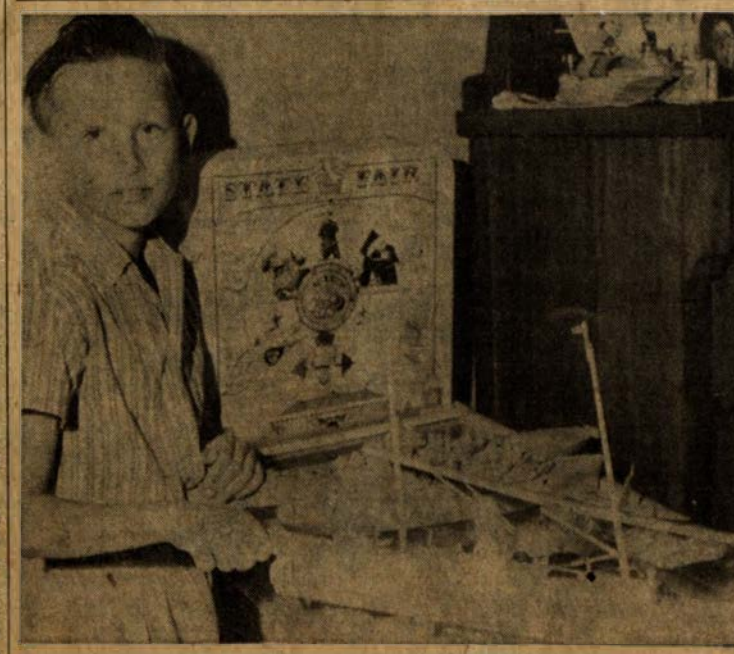

It was reported that as Tugate's auto neared the bridge Fuchs tried to pass him on the right side and both cars came in contact with each other. Fuchs was issued a careless driving summons by officer Fred Pfeiffer.

In accidents over the weekend that were not on the highway, a hit-and-run incident occurred in Edison when an auto owned by Mrs. John Scordinsky of 43 Overbrook Ave., Edison, was hit by another auto in front of her home. The car immediately left the scene, according to Mrs. Scordinsky and a neighbor.

The license plate of the auto was taken and also Mrs. Scordinsky's neighbor saw the car stop down the block and left a passenger off. Police investigated and found that Seth E. Nelson, 17, of 15 John St., Metuchen, was the owner of the other car.

According to Nelson, after he hit Mrs. Scordinsky's car, he stopped, looked and finding nothing damaged and nobody coming out of the nearby house, left the scene. He was charged with leaving the scene of an accident.

In the final accident of the weekend, a Scotch Plains woman, Mrs. Helen Garretson, 31, lost control of her car on Inman Ave., just off Old Raritan Rd., and turned over.

Three Days of Racing Scheduled

An excellently conditioned speedway and combinations of skilled drivers and top-notch equipment are expected to produce new speed marks during the three-day speed festival at the Flemington Fair Grounds. Midget car races will be staged Saturday, Aug. 30, while speedway sprint car races are slated for Sunday, Aug. 31 and Monday, Sept. 1. All will be afternoon grandstand attractions during the 101st annual Flemington Fair.

The talent to man steering wheels in the trio of racing meets will be supplied by the American Racing Drivers Club (ARDC) of New York City—Saturday—and the United Racing Club (URC) of Philadelphia, Pa., and Rochester, N. Y.—Sunday and Monday.

Drivers from a wide area, from Virginia north to upper N. Y. State and all of New England will converge on the traditional fair grounds for the motor battles. Practically all have competed here in past years and are thoroughly familiar with the unusual four-cornered, clay-surfaced speedway.

Flemington Fair Has Fun For All

For small fry to grandma to grandpa there will be interesting and educational features for everyone at the 102nd Annual Flemington Agricultural Fair which opens on Route 69 near here next Tuesday for seven days and seven nights.

All of the old-time favorites, as well as many new ones, are found in the seven-day schedule released today by Norman L. Marshall, general manager of the century-old farmers' show.

Opening day, Tuesday, as is traditional, will be Children's Day and the program will include such popular features as a big animal show, buffalo races, greyhound races, llama races, the annual bicycle drawing and a special equestrian act. The judging of the 4-H home-making and canned goods competition and the 4-H flower show are also included in the day's calendar.

Wednesday will be Farmers Day, with such long-time favorites as horse and tractor-pulling contests, a safety driving contest, canning demonstrations and a band concert. The judging of Holsteins, Brown Swisses and Ayrshires in the State 4-H Dairy show and the beginning of the colorful harness racing program are also on Wednesday's program.

Gov. Robert B. Meyner will visit the fairgrounds on Thursday to make official the Governor's Day program. The judging of Guernseys and Jerseys in the 4-H Dairy Show and the big cavalcade of farm animals led by the Hunterdon Central High School band will highlight the day's activities. The harness racing program, in its second day, will again be augmented by running and mule races.

Both the area's firemen and children will be honored on Friday which is both the second Children's Day and Firemen's Day. The firemen will top off their participation by a big Tug of War and a parade led by the Hunterdon Central High School Band. The harness racing program concludes in the afternoon.

Two horse shows, in the morning and at night, provide one of the most popular fair features for Saturday. A horse show and gymkhana in the infield in the morning will attract many of the younger horsemen and horsewomen in the area. That night, the older horse lovers will take part in a spectacular program called "fun on horseback" which will include calf roping, barrel races, cutting contests and pole bending. The calf roping is a new event in this attractive competition before the grandstand.

Saturday also sees the opening of the automobile racing track that afternoon. Sprint program with midget cars on car fanciers will find thrills galore on Sunday and Monday and on both of those nights the programs will be topped off by automobile thrill shows.

Fair General Manager Norman Marshall announced yesterday that the races will be directed by Sam Nunis of Reading, Pa., a 30-year veteran in the sport and a race driver himself several decades ago.

The time schedule is identical for all three days, commencing at 1:30 p.m. with time trials that determine starting positions for competitors who open the competitive phase of the day at 2:30 p.m. Four 8-lap heat races and consolation will precede the big race, the 20-lap Flemington Sweepstakes.

No Free X-RAY This Year in The Township

Because of a "lack of funds," according to township officials, there will be no free tuberculosis X-ray unit in Edison this year.

Health Officer Warren E. Voorhees stated that the township was notified by the state department of health that a lack of funds has prevented the bringing of a free X-ray unit into the township this year.

However, Voorhees pointed out that board officials have talked with union representatives in connection with the township using the same program found in plants and business establishments.

In this program, Edison residents would be tested by the Mantoux method. This method is similar to the patch test which indicates positive or negative reaction to the disease.

The health officer did remark, however, that there is a possibility of a one-day visit to the township by a portable X-ray unit sometime in November.

It was pointed out by officials that polio cases in the state have been doubled since the last year this time—12-6. There has been one case reported in Edison this year.

Youth, 17, Admits Pair of Robberies Totaling $370

He was walking down Woodbridge Ave., steadily consuming the contents of a quart container of milk.

Weekend Yields 4 Edison Burglaries

Four break-in and entry cases were reported to township police over the weekend. However, only one victim reported a loss of money.

A portable record player, along with a portable radio, two outside speakers and a hand mike were taken from the West Brook Swim Club on Tingley Lane in the Oak Tree section.

The burglary was committed sometime between late Thursday evening and early Friday morning. Police reported that entry was gained through a window after the iron guard around it had been broken. Due to the size of the window, police have surmised that the burglars must have been small.

An unknown amount of dishes was taken from Oliver's Cabins on U. S. Route 1. Owner Hagerdorn Freeze remarked that 15 baskets of dishes were still there and he had no idea at present how many dishes were actually taken.

Police reported that they found wheelbarrow tracks broken the establishment. Broken

Power Failure Can't Stop Borough Women

The two-hour break in the power lines Friday morning affected one borough in various ways. Among the dim places continuing on their way was the Metuchen Public Library where librarians and patrons peered at each other and the books in the lingering gloom.

At Eva Hutchins Beauty Parlor on Center St., the staff offered alternate appointments but their clients preferred to be shampooed and set by hand. The ladies then lined the small porch in an attempt to dry their wet heads in the sun. Others, so full of curlers they looked like inhabitants of outer space, serenely did their shopping at the nearby A. & P. supermarket.

PURCHASE HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony F. Giacona have purchased the five-room ranch house at 179 Winthrop Rd., Washington Park, from Mr. and Mrs. Victor Davis. The house has three bedrooms and stands on a 60 by 100 foot corner lot.

Giacona, who is a salesman for the Corrigan Agency of 2141 Woodbridge Ave., will take possession this week. The sellers have moved to Old Bridge.

So, Edison patrolman James Madarasz pulled his vehicle to a halt and asked the youngster his name and where he was going.

Patrolman Madarasz noticed, while questioning the boy, that the 17-year-old's hand was cut. Police had found traces of pottery was also found at that spot. The wheel tracks led to the Copco Trailer Sales on U. S. Route 1. There tire tracks were then found along with some more pieces of broken pottery.

Freeze stated that earlier in the day he had seen four youths, between the ages of 10 and 14, looking in the shed. He chased them away.

Nothing was reported taken from the Central Building Products, also on Route 1, although there was evidence of a break-in.

Foreman Preston Crabling of New Brunswick discovered the break-in when he came to work at 6 a.m. Saturday. It was also found that the burglar alarm wires connected to the safe were pulled apart. However, the safe was untouched. The burglary device was home-made.

In the only break-in involving cash, over $40 was taken from Ed Ford's Luncheonette on Vineyard Rd. The burglary took place between 12:30 a.m. Saturday and 6:30 a.m. Monday.

Entrance was gained through a temporary door set up shortly after a fire in the establishment some time ago. It was also reported that from $4 to $6 in pennies were taken, along with from $25 to $40 in half dollars.

In other incidents reported to the police, a Piscatawaytown woman was injured in a fall and two Maine youths were apparently robbed while swimming in Mirror Lake.

Mrs. Edna L. Powers suffered a fractured left hip when she fell from the cellar steps in her home at 62 Elm St.

Walter Chase, 19, of Sanford, Maine, and Robert Mains 18, of Dry Mills, Maine, reported to police that money was stolen from their wallets as they were swimming in the lake. $19 was taken from Chase and $28 from Mains.

In the only accident in Edison over the weekend, a minor mishap was recorded on Route 1. Drivers of the cars were Raymond P. Cared, 34, of 99 Hillcrest Ave., Nixon, and Richard Reilly, 36, from East Millstone. It was reported that Reilly's auto collided with the rear of Cared's car as the latter was slowing down for a red traffic light ahead.

Reilly, however, told authorities that he was cut off by an unknown truck as he was about to pass Cared, making him swerve to the right and collide with Cared. Reilly was issued a ticket for careless driving.

blood at the scene of the latest burglary.

A few minutes later, the Bayport, Long Island N. Y. boy was admitting to detectives George Miller and Roy Cutter at headquarters, that he was the one responsible for two robberies in the area (telling name, $370).

He admitted to committing the pair of burglaries a few weeks ago, while staying with relatives in the township. He stated that he had broken into Sid Harvey's Oil Burner Parts store at 254 Plainfield Ave. and had taken $353. The youngster also broke into the A. and P. Storm Window Store, the Key Floor Covering Store and Benry's Barber Shop, all on Woodbridge Ave. He stole $14 from the barber shop.

It was reported that the youngster's relatives knew nothing of his deeds. He was turned over to the county juvenile authorities.

They Serve Edison

(This is a series of biographical sketches of Edison Township Employees. This week—Joe Marino).

Possibly one of the most used phrases on the second floor of Edison's Municipal Building is "hey Joe."

On the receiving end of that shout is one Joe Marino, 35, of 77 Lakeview Blvd. Joe, married to the former Lorraine Pfeiffer and the father of four children, occupies one of the busiest offices in the police department.

Joe is not the chief, the commissioner, a detective or a patrolman working a double shift—but the police violations clerk.

Now, that might not sound like too tough of a job, but just a quick visit to the bureau on a Monday morning and within hours one's opinion would change greatly.

Marino is also the township's assistant chief clerk, which, of course, adds more fuel to the fire of confusion.

Joe started on the Edison police force four years ago as a patrolman. One night on car patrol he pulled a guy over for going through a red light.

"Where ya goin," asked Joe. "Whereupon the man answered, 'to the doc's, my nose is bleeding.'"

"Where ya comin from," was the next question asked by the policeman. The quick reply was "Amboy."

This got Joe thinking. If he was coming from Amboy by way of Woodbridge Ave. why didn't he stop at one of the numerous doctors that he passed?

Then the long arm, or rather the big hand of the law reached out and took the handkerchief from the man's face. Sure enough it was a false alarm. The man had taken an old handkerchief, put mercuri-chrome on it and stuffed it in the car so that he would have an excuse if ever stopped by an officer. This time he got a summons.

A day in violations finds Joe moving continuously through his eight-hour stay. The violations clerk's work starts with the assembling and filing of weekend happenings. Then warrants for Monday's court hearings are made up.

After that, Marino might possibly be found taking care of Captain Ellmeyer's requisitions or quietly solving the many problems of the violations bureau.

The mild but resolute clerk is also on hand to receive summonses and their respective payments or to hear out some irate individual's complaint, whether minor or major. All this is done with a smile and in a pleasant, efficient manner—the needed requirement for a strong support in the wheel of activity at the Woodbridge and Plainfield Aves. center.

This policeman of four years came to Edison eight years ago via Brooklyn and Jersey City and a "short" 12 year jaunt in the Navy thrown in for good measure.

Joe was brought up in Brooklyn and moved to Jersey City just in time to go through the grades at Dickinson High School. Also in Jersey City, Joe made many friends including a cute little neighbor whom he finally married in 1947.

At present, the Marinos have four children, ranging in ages from nine to three. The oldest is Barbara, now enrolled in Edison schools while five-year-old Joseph follows her in "seniority." Better known as "J.P.," Joe Jr. will start school next September.

Third in line is four-year-old Lorrie while Thomas is the youngest. Joe states that he has found the job he wants and is satisfied. This is his career, he pointed out.

However, some years back a different opinion of Joe's future would have been formed. For, at that time the Lakeview Blvd.

resident was in the midst of a dozen-year hitch with the U. S. Navy.

It just so happened that Joe caught World War II and the

JOE MARINO

Korean Conflict while filling out his tour with that branch of the service.

Joe, a chief hospital corpsman who served with the Fleet Marines, had many an experience to relate. One in particular stands out.

It was the time he and five other Marines went behind the enemy lines to rescue a family of three, a mother and her child and her grandmother.

Officials reported that not more than five minutes after the mercy troupe left with the family, Chinese Reds swarmed over the area.

After the group, four of them carrying the mother on a stretcher, one holding the child and Joe carrying a dying grandmother, reached the marine encampment, one of the party of Marines passed his helmet around. Joe remarks that every Marine dug into his pocket and soon the helmet possessed $115.15. It was later found that the father of the family was a reporter in Tokyo.

Another time Joe was assigned to patch up Chinese prisoners as they were raked from their hiding places. The Stars and Stripes, the official armed forces newspaper, snapped his picture as he was tending to a Red prisoner.

After the Korean conflict, he was stationed at St. Alban's, L.I. Naval Hospital and was then moved to the Bayonne Naval yards until he finished up his tour and joined the police force.

Man, 82, Fined $25, Is Abusive to Officers

An 82-year-old Nixon resident was fined $25 and $5 costs on a disorderly conduct charge Monday morning by Edison magistrate Roland Winters in Township court.

Victor I. Grant of 15 Columbus Ave., insisted to Judge Winters that the officer investigating the case was evidently "excited" when charging him with creating a disturbance and using abusive and offensive language when being questioned. In fact, Grant continued to remark on the situation quite emphatically as he was escorted out of court by his son.

In another case heard by Winters, Miss Helen E. Rodriguez, 40, of Plainfield, remarked that she was "terribly upset" at being charged with driving without a license. However, the Edison magistrate failed to become emotional too, as he fined her $10 and $5 costs.

Thomas J. Healy, 29, of 87 Runyon Ave., Nixon, entered a not-guilty plea in regards to a careless driving charge brought against him, but was still fined $15 and $5 costs.

An assault and battery charge was brought against 31-year-old Edward P. Mantz of Sutton's Lane by his wife, Beverly. It was alleged that Mantz struck his wife on the eye and tried to Accidents of all types are reported to Edison police throughout the day. However, this one takes the cake, or rather the pole.

Look Out

It seems as though nine-year-old Richard Cannella of 189 Park Pl. was walking past Miskey's Barber Shop on Route 27 Friday, when the upper half of Miskey's barber pole fell off and hit the youngster on the head.

Struck on the right side of his head, the nine-year-old youth luckily suffered no extensive injuries.

Edison Club Makes Plans For Pool Site

At a meeting of the Washington Park Swim Club, Tuesday, it was announced that the site for their proposed swimming pool would be decided on at the end of this week or the earlier part of next week.

Patrick Griffin, club publicity director, stated that the club has narrowed down its prospective sites to three.

The meeting, with Clyde Everly, presiding, was held at the Linwood Grove and featured a special question and answer period that lasted from 11 p.m. to 12:30 a.m.

It was also mentioned that over 60 applications for membership in the club have been accepted. The membership goal is 300 and prospective members have until Oct. 1 to apply. Should the club not have the required 300 members by Sept. 1, residents throughout the township would then be approached.

Also at the meeting, council for the organization, Martin Spritzer, explained the manner in which the non-profit corporation would be set up and what were the rights of the members under the by-laws.

Concerning the size of the pool, those in attendance felt that it should be either 40 feet by 82 or 50 feet by 100 feet.

New Dover

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hryshkanych and children of Normandy Rd. returned Friday from a camping trip to Caribou, Me. While there, they visited Mrs. Hryshkanych's brother and family, Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Lawrence Wellner, at Loring Air Force Base. Also in the Air Force is Mrs. Hryshkanych's youngest brother, A/M Robert Wellner, who is stationed at the Mitchell Air Force Base.

Scoutmaster Franklin Bardecker of Grove Ave. returned Sunday afternoon with members of Boy Scout Troop No. 24, who have just spent a week at Camp Sakawawin.

Mrs. John Wasko of Tingley Lane, alternate for Mrs. A. G. Ulrich of Grove Ave., and Mrs. William Geller attended the caucus meeting held Wednesday evening at the Avenel Fire House. Representatives of all the Ladies Auxiliaries of Middlesex County gathered together to frame resolutions and business to be presented at the convention to be held Sept. 6.

Edison Crash Injures Pair

A collision on Route 1 near Old Post Rd., Monday sent two drivers to Middlesex General Hospital with minor injuries. Both cars, however, were severely damaged.

Thrown from his car when it was struck from the rear by an auto operated by Joseph T. Donahue, 30, of 14 Nancy Circle, Nixon, was Richard Storey, 20, of 195 Durham Ave., Metuchen.

The Metuchen resident suffered bruises of the body while Donahue received deep lacerations of the forehead and nose. It was reported that Storey was attempting to make a left hand turn in the vicinity of the Carolina Diner on Route 1 when he was hit in the rear by Donahue's auto. Donahue stated that he never saw the Storey auto.

Patrolmen Richard Williams and John Tuthill investigated.

Griffin reported that the board of directors would decide on pool specifications in the near future.

A week ago, the newly-incorporated club met for the first time to discuss a possible site for their proposed pool and its actual type of construction.

Slides showing various types of pools were exhibited by Arnold Smith of the New Jersey Swimming Pool Co. of Mountaintown. He also spoke on the subject.

It was also mentioned by club officials that of the 700 to 800 families in the Washington Park area, it was hoped that the required 300-family membership in the pool would be reached.

Should the construction on the pool be started in the near future, it was the club's hope that the pool would be ready for operation by next June.

Speeder Loses License, $55

Speeding 95 miles per hour in a 50-mile zone cost Raymond A. Pinkos, Jr., 23, of 110 Richardson St., New Brunswick, $50 and $5 costs and a three-month revocation of his license, Thursday in Edison court.

Upon hearing the fine and revocation issued by magistrate Roland Winters, Pinkos protested that he had to use his license to drive a truck in his work. However, Winters calmly remarked that "someone else would have to drive the truck for awhile."

Arthur L. Thompson, 34, of Trenton was fined $15 and $5 costs in another case heard by Winters. Thompson was issued a summons after he went through a red traffic light at Main St. and Route 1, causing an accident.

Tree Board Has First Meeting

A closed door session at the Municipal Building marked the first official meeting of the Shade Tree Advisory Board Monday. The group was started in April.

The purpose of the board meeting was to set up plans for a shade tree program, officials reported.

Meeting with the group was Mayor Anthony M. Yelencsics, James A. Alloway, business administrator, and John Ellmeyer Sr., director of parks and public buildings. The board is composed of William N. Peigelbeck, Paul F. Hert and Mrs. Rhoda W. Jones.

The planning of a stronger program stemmed from the April Ordinance which sets, among others, a 50 foot spacing requirement for shade trees on the streets. They are to be located so as not to interfere with utilities or sidewalks.

Another section of the ordinance makes it mandatory for property owners to plant shade trees before they move into their new home.

Republicans Schedule Annual Picnic Sept. 7

A special meeting of the social committee of the Republican organization was held at Edison Lanes Monday night for the purpose of discussing plans for the annual Republican picnic. While plans are not yet complete the following details were announced by Chairman John Chalupa:

The Republican family picnic will be held on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 7, at The Pines, Route 27, Edison Township, from 12 m. to 6 p.m. Ticket holders will be entitled to a wide variety of food and refreshments, rides, games with prizes and an aqua show. The Pines swimming pool will also be available to guests.

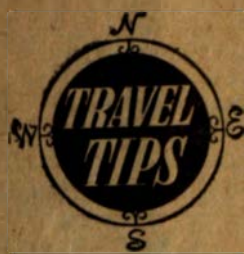

"We know those who attended our picnic last year will not miss it this year," Chalupa said. "We expect it to be just as successful and even bigger and better. And you don't have to be a Republican—tickets are available to any resident of Edison Township. Hold the date open. We will make further announcements about where to get tickets and other details after our next meeting."

Christian Science

How strength and freedom are gained through understanding God, divine Love, will be a topic dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday.

One of the selections from the Bible in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Love" is this from Matthew: "And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease among the people" (4:23).

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (451:18-23): "Love inspires, illuminates, designates, and leads the way. Right motives give pinions to thought, and strength and freedom to speech and action. Love is priestess at the altar of Truth. Wait patiently for divine Love to move upon the waters of mortal mind, and form the perfect concept."

Comedy Opens At Playhouse

Thornton Wilder's hilarious comedy "The Matchmaker", starring Alma Rankin and Torrence Smith, opens tonight for a two-week run at the Foothill Playhouse Theatre, Middlesex. The production is directed by Eileen Woodward.

Miss Rankin plays the title role of the matchmaker in this merry story of the retired and very rich merchant of Yonkers, N. Y., who seeks a wife. Miss Rankin, a resident of Middlesex, has appeared in many Foothill productions, including "The Time of the Cuckoo" last season. She has played with stock theatre in Tennessee, won the best actress award in the 1958 sectional Womens Clubs' tournament and has also written for the theatre.

Playing the role of the merchant is Torrence Smith of Fannwood. A member of the Foothill organization since 1954, he has appeared in such productions as "Sabrina Fair", "Bell, Book and Candle", and "The Lady's Not For Burning". He has been active in the Merck Circle Theatre, the Rahway Theatre Guild and the Fannwood Philathalians. In featured roles are Wanda Crawford of Westfield and Madeleine Bridgeman of Ringoes. Miss Crawford got her start at Foothill last season in "Wake Up, Darling" and has appeared in many Community Players productions. Miss Bridgeman made her theatre debut in France as a child actress and has since played many character roles here in the professional theatre.

Also in the cast are James R. Crawford, Gloria Sosnowski and Marjorie Lightfoot of Westfield, Hank Friedrichs of Fannwood, George Javor and Lemuel Strauss of Highland Park, Roland Lough of North Plainfield, Norma Jean Woodward, George Essig and Paul Butler of Rahway, John Hrehoveik of Linden and Sandi Shandler of Dunellen.

Rotary Sponsors 40 Tons of Elephants

Pretty girls and beautiful horses are a traditional part of any circus and Mills Bros. Circus, which the Metuchen Rotary Club brings to Campbell School Field for 2 and 8 p.m. performances on Friday, Aug. 15, will include plenty of both.

Tot 5, Hurt in Auto Mishap

Five-year-old Glenn Walp of 11 School St. was taken to Perth Amboy Hospital, over the weekend, by the Borough Safety Squad, after he was presumably hit by an auto near his home.

However, the driver of the auto, Mrs. Letha Winters, 36, of New Brunswick, who left the scene of the accident assuming that everything was all right, stated to police that she did not hit the boy, but that he had fallen to the ground in front of her auto as she applied the brakes.

Doctors at Perth Amboy General Hospital stated that the child suffered bruises on the left knee and right ankle and a possible head injury.

Police also reported a minor auto mishap on Central Ave. Both autos sustained only minor damages.

According to both drivers, Donald Keefer, 21, of 29 Dobson Rd., Edison, was backing out of a parking space on Central Ave. Saturday night, when his auto was struck by a car driven by Charles M. Bashew, 55, 87 Linden Ave., Metuchen. Both claimed they didn't see each other, although both had their lights on.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Nixon have sold their five-room ranch house at 14 Parkerson Rd., Nixon, to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dagget.

The house, which has three bedrooms and expansion attic, stands on a 60 by 110 foot lot. Dagget is manager of the Stetson Recreation Center for bowling. He and his wife took possession on July 21. The Nixons moved to a new home in the township.

The Corrigan Agency handled the transfer.

NOT MONEY, SAYS KIRK

Writing in the National Review, Russell Kirk, the distinguished teacher and writer, finds this central fallacy in the federal-aid-to-education plan: "It isn't the money that we need for the improvement of instruction in science, or in anything else. For already we spend far more on schools than any nation, far more per capita than Russia. Our trouble is that we are not obtaining full value for our expenditures." As Dr. Kirk sees it, too much money goes for non-essential frills, and not enough for real education.

Gladiolus Show Opens Wednesday

"A Day at Rutgers" is the theme of the New Jersey Gladiolus Society's state show to be held next Wednesday and Thursday in the gymnasium at the State University.

The New Jersey show is said to be one of the important gladiolus events of the year in this part of the country, and last year in spite of the drought, it attracted many visitors and exhibitors from all parts of the state and many from nearby states.

With better growing conditions this year, more and better blooms than last year are expected.

Anyone in the state who grows gladiolus as a hobby or commercially is invited to enter specimens. There is no entry fee, nor admission charge.

Co-chairmen of the show are Mr. M. Wight Taylor of New Brunswick and Ellsworth Barnum of East Brunswick.

Copies of the show schedule, containing rules and specimen classes for adults and children, are available from the show secretary, Arthur C. Hess of Franklin St., Vaux Hall.

The show will be open 3 to 10 p.m. on Wednesday and 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Thursday.

Remember When?

5 YEARS AGO

The Suz-Anne School for Retarded Children has received praise from local and state authorities for their fine work. It is the only school of its type in the state and one of only half a dozen in the country.

Metuchen had its first traffic fatality in five and a half years. Mrs. Theresa Zamparella was struck by a truck as she stepped from between parked cars in crossing Amboy Ave. and Main St. She died a few hours later in Perth Amboy Hospital.

Sgt. James Jones, who spent 13 months near the front lines in Korea, tried to celebrate the Korean armistice Monday night but failed. He said he couldn't find anyone in the borough who seemed to know that a war had been fought or that it had just been brought to a conclusion.

Raritan Township had its first polio case of the year. It is the sixth within the county.

Ever since Mrs. Tess Dadio resigned as dog catcher, the Metuchen Board of Health has had a problem. Legally, the borough can shoot any stray dog on sight, but both Police Chief Enos J. Fouratt and Police Commissioner Huyler Roman, have refused to "make dog catchers out of our policemen."

Mrs. Thomas Faggioni has been appointed a committee of one to find a suitable location for a dog pound and then find someone who will serve as dog catcher.

The government of Raritan Township, the Board of Fire Commissioners and the residents of the "waterless" area of Clara Barton have decided to join forces in their fight against the Middlesex Water Co.

A man, who was making unauthorized use of township land in raising pigs, has been fined $25 by Raritan Township's magistrate. The fine will be raised to $50 a day unless the pigs are disposed of at once.

The first public offer of stock by the Edgar Bros. Clay Co. has resulted in the sale of 100,000 new shares.

10 YEARS AGO

Chalmere Reed, former secretary of the Metuchen YMCA, has been appointed manager of the Metuchen-Raritan Township YMCA fund campaign.

The Ford Motor Co. has invited civic, fraternal, study, or other groups, to tour its new plant.

Donald A. Terhune of 2 Voorhees Pl., has been appointed a 2nd grade patrolman.

Mrs. Goldie Dessel bought four lots in Aylin St. for $300 and J. Thorne Heaton bought one lot on Essex Ave. for $400 at a recent sale.

Three of the six, "Welcome to Metuchen" signs ordered by the Chamber of Commerce were erected this week. The new signs, 4 x 6 feet, are located at Plainfield Ave., New Durham Rd. and Middlesex Ave. at the western entrance to the borough. Additional signs will be erected on Amboy Ave., South Main St. and the eastern end of Middlesex Ave. as soon as permission has been obtained from property owners.

The Progressive Party of Metuchen held a meeting and heard a speech about the qualifications of candidate Henry Wallace for president.

The Metuchen Board of Education ordered an architect to draw plans for additions to Edgat and Washington Schools. Building permits for July totaled $176,850.

25 YEARS AGO

DuBois Thompson of Woodbridge Ave. has been made a partner in the law firm of Hicks and Kulthau in New Brunswick. He is one of the leaders of the local Republican party.

In spite of the depression, necessary repairs and painting are being done at the YMCA.

Metuchen merchants are warned to be on the lookout as several counterfeit $10 bills have been turned up around town. An arrest is expected shortly.

Waivers and subscriptions to the Borough Bonds on deposit in excess of $75,000 were returned to the bank the first two days of its reorganization. Among the subscribers of entire net available balance to Borough Bonds was Fugle Hummer Post 65 of the American Legion which by resolution claimed the reorganization of the bank as a civic duty. They generously volunteered all possible assistance.

Cyclist Loses Race with Cop

A reckless driving charge was lodged against John Pravata of Belleville last week when it took borough patrolmen Robert F. Davis to the entrance of the Garden State Parkway to stop the speeding cyclist.

Pravata's speed was estimated at 80 to 100 miles per hour while heading east on Route 27. Davis, who took up pursuit in the borough, finally had to force Pravata to the side of the road in order to halt him.

The cyclist has been ordered to appear in Municipal Court Aug. 6.

Metuchen police also reported the burglary of a car owned by Gertrude Stanley of 301 Trailer Harbor, Edison.

Over $125 worth of movie films and a film splicer was taken. Miss Stanley discovered the robbery upon returning to her car parked in the Pearl St. parking lot. One of the locked doors had been sprung open.

The Metuchen Mutual Welfare Assn. will hold a picnic tomorrow at the Danish Grove. There will be dancing from 7 p.m. until midnight at a cost of 10¢ per person. Proceeds will be for the benefit of the families of unemployed members of the association.

The Metuchen Riding Club had two moonlight rides this past week. One ride terminated in a watermelon feast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Grey.

Ramsey Crowell is having a vacation this week and is playing 18 holes of golf every day. Father John Foley got his desire on Monday when he beat John Morris in 18 holes of golf. Ben Letson and Ray Ely will battle it out in the finale bracket at the Metuchen Junior Tennis Tournament.

Resolutions? You Betcha!

Who was it that said "the native hue of resolution is sicklied o'er with the pale cast of thought?" One of the six persons pictured above? No! Will Shakespeare via Hamlet uttered those words. But our six interviewees also had interesting things to say when approached with the question: "What resolutions are you making for 1959?"

Replied W. P. Cannon of 22 Hull Dr., Haven Village, a library employee at Rutgers: "I'm going to pay my income tax next year. You see, I'm a thinking man—I smoke Viceroys — and although I always pay my taxes, I want to make sure the schools have enough money. I'll go to church a little more also. And I'm going to vote Democratic again in '59. I think that there should be a raise in salaries for all state employees. We're underpaid right now and should have incomes comparable to other industries."

Herbert H. Daugherty of 34 Winthrop Rd., Edison, a core repairman at Western Electric, said: "I'm in a rut now and I'm going to stay in it. But I'll try to save some money. And my bowling—I'm so stinko now that I have to get better."

To the question, Charles F. Butz of 10 Rosewood Rd., Nixon, a lab technician, answered: "Find a cure for multiple sclerosis. I work down at the Merck Institute of Therapeutic Research where I'm doing experiments on it. I'm afflicted with it in my left side and my wife—a nurse—gives me injections of Vitamin B 12. I think that is a stepping stone to a possible cure."

Tom Perri of 25 Roosevelt Court, Metuchen, owner of Forsgate Lounge, took a stoical view of the coming year: "I'll continue to work hard but I can't work any harder than I'm doing now. If I cut down on my eating maybe I can even cut out working. I give a lot of time to civic and charitable organizations. I want to make the annual venison dinner at the Elks Club a major affair."

Making many plans for 1959 was Milton Karten of 51 Charles St., Metuchen, a student: "I'm going to start getting a girl and I'm going to do some drinking. And I'll save some money for a car. I'm going to be nicer to my sister too. As for algebra, I'll get a 90 in it in the third marking period."

Annette Darrah of 111 Durham Ave., Metuchen, expressed a feminine opinion: "Stop chewing my nails—I want long fingernails."

VERBITS BUY IN EDISON

Mr. and Mrs. Cy Verbit have purchased the seven-room split level dwelling at 55 Morris Ave., Bonhamtown, from the builders. They have been living in the house since April under a use and occupancy agreement.

Verbit, who is traffic manager for the Allied Chemicals Corp. of New York, took title to the house on Dec. 10. The dwelling contains three bedrooms and 1½ baths, living room, dining room, kitchen and recreation room. There is a full basement and the lot is 50 by 100 feet.

ger nails. And I'll try to stop arguing with my brother. He's older than I and he's always teasing me about my boy-friend. I'm going to save up a lot of money too."

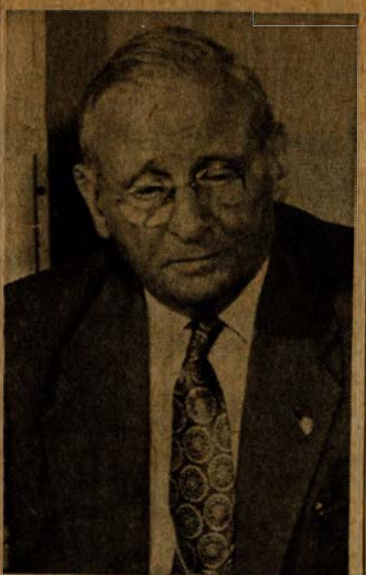

When an 18th century reporter queried the writer Dr. Samuel Johnson about his New Year's resolutions for 1771, the latter replied, a little cynically perhaps: "Every man naturally persuades himself that he can keep his resolutions, nor is he convinced of his imbecility but by length of time and frequency of experiment."

Sorry we don't have a photograph of Dr. Johnson, but we resolve to get one for next year!

They Serve Edison

A floor-to-ceiling map of the Township of Edison covers the wall of the office of the building inspector and in front of that map sits one of the busiest men in the municipality. The short, ruddy-faced man that sits there is combined watch-dog for the township government and father-confessor to the amateur home builder George Thompson's job is to see that all buildings erected within the Edison borders adhere to the terms of the building code but he also, because of his life-long experience in the building trade, gives helpful advice and instruction to men who are erecting their own homes and who have come across a problem they can't solve.

Actually, the job of building inspector consists of issuing building permits and permits of occupancy, but it isn't as simple as it sounds. The application for a permit comes to the office accompanied by the plans. These are checked to make sure they conform with the zoning ordinance and the building code. Then the value of the construction is established and the amount of the fee is determined. A date is made with the contractor to inspect the forms when the concrete is poured for the footings. Another inspection is made midway during the construction and then when the builder wants a certificate of occupancy a third and thorough inspection is made of the entire job. If it meets the critical approval of the office, the owner can move in.

In addition to these daytime occupations, the building inspector must attend the meetings of both the Planning Board and the Board of Adjustment. This means two or three nights a week to midnight. It is no wonder, in view of the rapid expansion of the township, that Thompson was assigned one assistant, Edward Lubowicki, in June of 1956, and was given a second, Ernest Church, on Nov. 10, 1957.

Actually, Thompson, who knows more of the inside of Edison homes than anyone else possibly could, was born in Philadelphia. After attending schools there he moved to Perth Amboy at the age of 17. He spent three years in the School of Architectural Studies in New York. He was apprenticed to Ira

Board Lists Sites For New Schools

A letter from the Edison Board of Education asking the township to consider the feasibility of seven tracts of land for new schools was read at the meeting of the Planning Board Friday night.

The sites proposed for six new elementary schools are:

Costa Will Not Run Again As Metuchen's Mayor

Mayor Joseph L. Costa informed the Recorder yesterday that he would not again be a candidate for office when he finishes his present term in December, 1959.

The mayor made the disclosure in announcing the names of appointments he will submit for approval by council at that body's organization meeting on Thursday, New Year's Day.

Regarding the appointments, Costa said, "I don't expect to have any difficulty about their confirmation." The November elections did not change the politics of the council, three Democrats and three Republicans, with the mayor, a Republican, having the tie-breaking vote.

As to his decision not to run again, Costa declared:

"I will definitely not be a candidate. I consider my civic duty has been fulfilled, and I want more time for my family and personal affairs. I have been in borough government since 1946, serving first as councilman for a year and a half, then two terms, from 1950 through 1953, as mayor. Then I became mayor for a third time this past Jan. 1. I will go out of office and will not run again on Dec. 31, 1959."

Reappointments he will submit to council, all for one year, are:

Robert Moss, borough attorney; W. Franklin Buchanan, borough engineer; Timothy Moriarty Sr., superintendent of public works; Albert W. Billgraff, building and zoning inspector; George Montagna, fire inspector.

Councilman Edwin Risler will be renamed to the Local Assistance Board. The term of Margaret Bulwinkle on the board expires Dec. 31, and the mayor says his "mind is open" on that appointment. Both Risler and Mrs. Bulwinkle are Democrats. He said his mind was also open as to a replacement for William Ruckert, another Democrat, whose four-year term on the Board of Health ends on Wednesday.

Oak Tree section in the vicinity of Highland and Inman avenues.

2) The northeast part of the Oak Tree section in the vicinity of Tingley Lane and Inman Ave.

3) North of Woodbridge Ave. and east Main St. in the Bonhamtown section.

4) North of Grandview Ave. in the Clara Barton section in the vicinity of Gales and Harris Roads.

5) North of the proposed Bound Brook-Perth Amboy Turnpike in the New Durham section, between Dismal Lane and New Brooklyn Rd.

6) West of Sutton's Lane and south of the PRR between the Simms tract and the Twin Brook development.

The area covered by each site would be from 10 to 15 acres.

The location of the proposed junior high school would be in the vicinity of N. Grove Ave. and Oak Tree Rd. in the Oak Tree section. The 40-acre site is presently owned by Somer Bros., developers, with whom the township is attempting a trade of land.

Pointed out by the Board of Education is the possibility of a second senior high school on the same tract. School board secretary John J. Anderson said that the site is "one of the most attractive in the township and there would certainly be enough room for another school."

The information in the letter signed by Anderson was gathered by Joseph M. Ruggieri, school superintendent, and board members, Samuel White and Stewart Schoder. They urge the Planning Board to "facilitate the obtaining of additional sites for the expansion of the public school system."

Because of the "increasing activity in home construction," the letter stated, "the Board of Education has taken a hard, analytical, measured look at the potential needs of the township's school system."

There are eight elementary schools and one junior-senior high school in the township at the present time. A junior high at the rear of the Stelton School and an elementary school in the Oak Tree section are now under construction.

AREA RESIDENTS WIN

Among those sharing the cash awards this month for suggestions for improving methods at the Westinghouse Television-Radio Division, are: Albert Croce, 4 Summer St., Metuchen; Joseph Bednar, Old Post Rd., Edison; Martha Clemens, 37 Clifford Pl., Metuchen, and Emil Bassista, Sycamore Ave., Metuchen.

Mayor Reviews Changes of '58 In Government of Edison

A peek into a progress report on administration of the Township of Edison by Mayor Anthony M. Yelencsics which will be unveiled for every citizen in the township through a special booklet, was provided today as a result of a request of the Recorder that the mayor summarize what he thought were the outstanding accomplishments of the government that went into office a year ago on Jan. 1.

Among other items, Yelencsics listed:

Appointment of a trained business administrator.

Appointment of a full time township engineer.

Immediate construction of a storage-service garage.

Elimination of about 25 major drainage problems.

Permanent paving of three streets.

Centralized purchasing.

Improved budgeting and budget control.

Personnel classification.

Revision of building permit fees.

A procedure of pre-budget hearings.

Political responsibility of the elected officials.

Increased citizen participation in government.

A new boat basin on the Raritan River.

A new recreation area in Pottery and remodeling of the Pottery Civic Center building.

Purchase and Budget Control

Most items of the foregoing were mentioned also by Neil McDonald, president of the township council, and James Alloway, business administrator.

Expanding upon these points, the mayor noted that critics had said the business administrator, whose appointment is required by law under the government form approved by the electorate in November of 1957, would be "political." On the contrary, Yelencsics stated, he was a "trained, qualified administrator."

All agree that important accomplishments of the business administrator's office have been central purchasing, budget control and personnel classification.

In insurance protection, for instance, the municipality has eliminated at least 100 policies, now having, in most instances, one policy to cover a particular kind of protection for the entire government. Formerly, Alloway noted, it was difficult "to know where we stood for insurance," since every department had its own program, some good and some not good.

"Edison's insurance is being more economically bought," he said. "We have better coverage at little if any more expense." Budget control makes it possible to know how much money has been spent and what remains to be spent in the budget at all times. Thorough analysis has been useful in "squeezing" the budget and budget preparation.

Use at Hearings

It has been useful in the pre-budget hearings that were recently conducted for the first time. At the hearings, department heads presented their requests and the public came and asked questions and made suggestions.

Personnel classification will describe the positions of all township employees and establish pay ranges. The classifications will be reflected in the 1959 budget. Already individual departmental rules and regulations as to sick leave, vacations and holidays have been eliminated in favor of a single township system which will become official as soon as council gives approval, which is expected.

"We have one of the outstanding financial control systems in the state," Yelencsics declared, and similar opinion was expressed by McDonald.

Regarding the boat launching basin, Yelencsics said that although "it was not one of the more important accomplishments, it seems to be one of the most appreciated."

The drainage improvements were described as "catching up" with needs that have been ap-

Tract Nets $111,000 At Edison Land Sale

A 50-acre tract of township-owned land west of Grove Ave. and south of Oak Tree Ave. was sold to an agent of the Berg Real Estate Agency, Metuchen, for $111,000 at a public auction held during the Township Council's meeting Tuesday.

Purchased by Joseph Brown, as a representative of the firm, the tract is located in a Residential BB zone in the Oak Tree area. The land contains about 150 lots.

A bid of $34,418 was made by Brown before the auction started. Offers quickly reached the $100,000 level, however. As required by law, Brown placed a 20 per cent deposit—or $23,000—on the property.

When contacted Saturday, the Berg Agency stated that they had not yet decided what the land would be used for. The tract was one of the largest to be sold by the township this year.

Contracts for the construction of the $30,914 new municipal garage on New Durham Rd. were awarded at the council meeting, following the passing of an ordinance authorizing the cost of the building to be increased.

The ordinance was introduced two weeks ago to provide for a four-bay garage. The council had originally considered a three-bay structure costing $47,527, and had appropriated money up to $50,000.

Winning contractors, all low among the 49 bidders, were: Thomas E. Nora and Son, Inc., New Brunswick, $35,800 for general construction; Park Steel and Iron Co., Bound Brook, $3,035 for structural steel and iron work; Nicholas Schwalje Inc., Metuchen, $4,625 for heating and gas fitting; and Charles Tarr, Fords, $3,500 for electrical work.

According to the architect, Anthony D'Elia Jr. of Jersey City, administrative offices will be included in the building which will house 12 large trucks and several smaller vehicles. He said that construction of the new garage will begin about Jan. 10 and that it should be completed approximately three months later.

The project, which will replace the garage now in use on Lakeview Blvd., will also service township-owned vehicles.

In other business, three ordinances received their first reading before the council.

One of them gives authorization for the installation of a Department of Engineering and Building Inspection. This reading followed the appointment of William M. Allen as full-time township engineer.

Another ordinance, vacating a portion of Longview Rd. in the Arrowhead Park area, was introduced after Mayor Anthony M. Yelencsics, acting as head of the Department of Public Safety, stated that "investigation showed that no hazards would result if the street were vacated."

A third is an amendment to the subdivision ordinance which will make any subdivision in a business or industrial zone a "major" classification. As stated by Councilman Bernard J. Dwyer, this move will "enable the Planning Board to have more control of drainage problems in those sections."

The proposed ordinances are scheduled for public hearing on Jan. 14.

A zoning variance was granted to the Sperry and Hutchinson Co. for the construction of a 4,683 square foot addition to its building on Route 27.

The council heard a letter from the Board of Health, announcing plans for the proposed Menlo Park Shopping Center off Parsonage Rd., north of Roosevelt Park, had met with health regulations. The letter added that a "formal" permit would be issued shortly.

Oak Hills Estates Requirements Set

The application of the Absig Corp. for major subdivision of a 45-acre tract adjacent to Arrowhead Park into 77 lots was given preliminary approval by the Edison Planning Board at a special meeting Friday night.

In reaching the decision on the development to be known as Oak Hills Estates, the board set down various requirements which would have to be met with before final approval could be given. Among these are the drainage recommendations of Township Engineer William Rimmey and the reconstruction of parts of Longview and Golf Roads.

The board stated that an extension of Golf Road to Calvert Road would be required, if the township council passes an ordinance vacating a portion of Longview Road. The ordinance comes up for public hearing on Jan. 14.

The question of sidewalks was deferred for further consideration. Nathaniel E. Schwartz, vice president of Absig, said that they were not included in the original plans "because residents of the area who don't have sidewalks didn't want to feel obligated to continue the pavements in front of their homes."

A letter from Mayor Anthony M. Yelencsics, who is acting director of the public safety department, was read, stating that the vacation of Longview Road would not cause any safety hazards in the sector. This opinion was formed, said the mayor, after consultation with police and fire officials.

Schwartz also stated that the firm would endeavor to keep the general topography intact. He mentioned, however, that drainage construction would necessitate the destruction of "some trees."

In other action, the Planning Board gave its sanction to the subdivision of 24 lots off Washington Ave., north of Route 1. Approval was made on Woodward Estates on the condition that the plans are found satisfactory by the Board of Health.

Gaining final approval was the application of Birchwood Estates for the subdivision of a 35-acre tract between Nixon Park and Vineyard Rd.

Also judged favorably was the application of Rein Builders Inc., Spotswood, for the subdivision of a 7-acre tract adjacent to the Simms tract into 26 lots. The land is located in the Stelton section near the proposed Edison Village development.

Decision on the matter was postponed from the board's Dec. 17 meeting in order that drainage problems could be studied in connection with the 261-home Edison Village project. The board's only condition Friday night was that a portion of Central Ave. be paved.

Bruce Eggert

Honor Eggert at Tonight's Dinner

A testimonial dinner in honor of Bruce Eggert, chief accountant and office manager of the American Smelting and Refining Co., is scheduled for 7 p.m. tonight at Oak Hills Manor. Because so many requests for tickets came from residents of the area, the company, which is giving the dinner, had to limit attendance to his fellow employees and officers of the concern.

Eggert is retiring after 46 years with the company. He is in the best of health and has no definite plans for the years ahead, but feels that it is better to retire while he and Mrs. Eggert can enjoy their leisure. He lives with his wife at 27 Albourne Ave., Clara Barton section. Mrs. Eggert is also a former employee of the company.

Besides his duties with AS&R, Eggert served eight years as commissioner of Edison Township. He has long been prominent in Republican circles and has served as president of the Republican Club, president of the Forum Club, and sponsor of many Boy Scout troops. He is a charter member of the Lions Club of Edison and of the Kiwanis Club of Perth Amboy. He also belongs to the Italian American Club and to the Square Club, F&AM.

The couple has one child, Mrs. Robert Howlett, who lives with her husband and children on Grove Ave., Edison. The four grandchildren are Cathleen, 10, Ellen, 7, Jeannie, 4 and Robert, age two and a half.

School Board Is Finally Settled

Tomorrow will be homecoming day for the travel-weary Metuchen Board of Education when it returns to the Franklin School to set up offices in the building's upper two floors.

The odyssey began when the school burned down on Sept. 27, 1957 and the board was forced to flee with its files and office equipment. Refuge was found in the Edgarc Clay Co. building on Station Place.

But even in that haven the board was harassed. The LePage Division of Johnson & Johnson rented the building and the board was obliged to establish offices on the second floor of the Commonwealth Bank on Sept. 1 of this year.

Now at last its wanderings are ended. The board plans to get operations rolling by Jan. 1.

Sam Rayburn Holds Power

When the 86th Congress convenes on Jan. 7, Sam Rayburn will take up the gavel he has wielded for a record-breaking 15 years as speaker of the House of Representatives.

The Texas Democrat has held the post almost twice as long as any other speaker. But two Republicans gave the speaker-ship the power that has caused some experts to rank it as the second most important office in the nation.

Henry Clay was the first to turn the office to political advantage. The speaker was simply an impartial moderator before Clay's election in 1811, but the "Great Compromiser" used the office to argue so forcefully for the War of 1812 that it was called "Mr. Clay's War."

However, the speakership was transformed into a political tool almost as powerful as the presidency by Thomas Reed and "Uncle Joe" Cannon.

In 1890, Reed cracked down on the delaying tactics of minority groups by counting all members present as a quorum—a number sufficient to conduct business—even if they did not vote.

The move earned Reed the nickname "Czar," but the Supreme Court later upheld the rule.

Reed's methods were only the starting point for Joseph Cannon, who ruled the House like a dictator in the early 1900's.

Once, after putting a question for a voice vote, "Uncle Joe" declared "The ayes make the most noise but the nays have it."

Even some members of Cannon's party rebelled. In 1910, on St. Patrick's Day, a coalition of Democrats and about 30 Republicans set out to strip Cannon of much of his power.

Because of the "St. Patrick's Day Revolution," Sam Rayburn has little of the formal authority which Reed and Cannon delegated to themselves.

He still has the important "speaker's eye," or the power of recognizing members who wish to speak on the floor.

But most of his strength comes from an informal source—the party discipline he can maintain as leader of the majority party in the House.

MRS. ROBERT LEE ROOT

Ann Meshanic and Robert Root United in St. Michael's Church

The marriage of Miss Ann C. Meshanic, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Meshanic, 25 Walnut Pl., Metuchen, to Robert Lee Root, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Root, 8 Riverside Dr., Cranford, took place on Saturday in St. Michael's Church in Cranford.

Father Dooley performed the ceremony in a setting of Christmas flowers and greens.

The bride, who was escorted by her father, chose a gown of white velvet, made with a sabrina neckline and a chapel train. The neck, long sleeves and Empire waist were trimmed with pearl embroidered lace and her long veil was held by a crown of pearls. Her flowers were white poinsettias with carnations and holly.

Mrs. Robert W. Meshanic, sister-in-law of the bride, served as matron of honor. She was attired in an Empire gown of Christmas blue peau de soie and had a matching headpiece and shoes. She carried a bouquet of carnations and holly.

The bridesmaids were Miss Roberta Meyer of Mountainside and Miss Chris Root of Cranford. Their gowns were identical to that of the honor attendant and they also carried carnations with holly.

The best man was David D. Root and the ushers were George Malson of Garwood and Robert W. Meshanic of Haddonfield.

After a reception for 150 guests at the Pines, the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida.

Cpt. McGlone Completes Ordnance Training

Capt. James F. McGlone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. McGlone, 52 New York Ave., Metuchen, recently completed the 24-week officer advanced course at the Army Ordnance School, Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md.

Capt. McGlone was familiarized with the duties and responsibilities of a field grade ordnance officer. He received instruction in tactics and staff procedures, and supply and research management.

The 31-year-old captain entered the army in 1944 and was last stationed in Washington, D. C.

New Law Raises Liability Limit

New Jersey motorists were reminded today by Deputy Motor Vehicle Director Robert L. Sheldon, of a new law, effective Jan. 1, 1959, increasing liability and property damage insurance coverage required of a financially responsible car owner from $5,000/$10,000 and $1,000 to $10,000/$20,000 and $5,000.

The director explained that liability insurance in New Jersey is not compulsory but that a motorist who does not have $10,000/$20,000 and $5,000 coverage after Jan. 1 and is involved in an accident, whether or not responsible, is subject to the loss of his license and registration.

Sheldon also explained that the new requirements do not restrict motorists from having coverage in excess of the new $10,000/$20,000 and $5,000 limit, or having other available protective insurance in combination with the liability policy.

The legislature also amended the Unsatisfied Claims and Judgment law to provide for increased payments from the Fund for those accidents occurring on or after Jan. 1, 1959 involving an uninsured financially irresponsible motorist.

These new laws recognize that costs have risen considerably and changes in the minimum coverage requirements and payments out of the Fund will provide more adequate compensation for the potential victims of the financially irresponsible driver or owner.

7,336 Deer Fall to Hunters During 1958 New Jersey Season

Big game hunters bagged 7,336 legal deer in New Jersey during 1958, according to the State Division of Fish and Game.

During the recent firearms deer season, Dec. 8 to Dec. 13, hunters bagged 6,095 deer, compared with 6,643 during a similar period in 1957. The bow and arrow season, Oct. 11 to Nov. 7, resulted in a deer kill of 1,261 this year. The latter figure compares with a figure of 1,104 deer killed last year by bow and arrow.

"It is difficult to draw conclusions on deer abundance from kill statistics," says Dr. A. Heston Underhill, director of the Division of Fish and Game.

"Two factors go to make up kill. One is abundance of deer and the other is hunting pressure. Hunting pressure is influenced in many ways. Hunters tend to congregate where they think deer is most abundant.

Weather influences the amount of time they spend in the woods and there are indications that many hunters refrained from hunting bucks in anticipation of hunting deer of either sex on the one-day season which had been scheduled for Dec. 20.

In general, the slight decrease in kill was statewide. Two counties merit special mention. The kill in Warren County rose significantly from 592 last year to 665 in 1958. Whether this represents more deer, more hunters or a combination of both is difficult to say.

"Also of special interest is the kill of 235 legal bucks in Mercer County. Last year 286 bucks were killed. Then the Division of Fish and Game removed approximately 290 deer, comprised mostly of pregnant does, from the Harbortown area. In spite of this removal which was greater than any legal kill in the county, the 1958 harvest of bucks by sportsmen was almost identical with that of the previous year.

The kill in Middlesex County was 62 this year against 91 last year. Hunterdon was highest with 1011. None was killed in urban Hudson County in either 1957 or 1958.

COMMENT

by JANET C. GILLAM

Edison Township, August 13, 1958. It has been a year and a half since I last had a "review of municipal activities" column; let's get up to date.

School District. The referendum on a bond issue for two schools, land and an office-warehouse was approved this year; bids will be received within the near future and construction will probably begin this fall. Whether occupancy by September, 1959, can be achieved or not is still unknown. Indications are that still MORE classrooms are needed.

Housing Authority and Redevelopment Agency. Construction of the 60 low-rent apartment units in the Potters area WILL begin this fall; approval of bids received is awaited from the Public Housing Administration. The Housing Authority is also maturing plans for the "overall" project area with the Urban Renewal Administration.

Planning Board. The almost entirely new membership of the Planning Board has had to learn its job rapidly this year. In addition to the many routine considerations on major and minor subdivisions, the major problems facing it seem to have been an understanding and activation of the zoning ordinance and zoning map adopted just prior to their incumbency; requests for rezoning; and a review of the Master Plan. The results of study of these problems could materialize in fall announcements.

Note: One interesting, perhaps unusual, approach to a rezoning "problem-child" was taken recently by the Clara Barton Residents Association when it met with Jack Denholtz, owner of the area commonly called the "Grandview tract." The story of this action is valuable enough for me to devote a column to it, which I intend to do next week.

Zoning Board of Adjustment. This official board was not included in the January, 1957, review mentioned above. Several cases before it this year, resulting from changes in the zoning ordinance, have raised its previous status from a board of review to a more important decision-making body. Along with the Planning Board, this board now shares a legal advisor for planning and zoning matters.

Industrial Department. Edison Township continues to attract industry. Construction of American Can Company's building is underway and announcement of several NEW or expanding industries is in the offing. In view of the high potential for industry in the middle-west portion of sprawling Edison Township as a result of the trunk sewer connection under construction and the water main previously constructed, this largely "forgotten" area of the township is likely to become THE area for industrial expansion. The state's proposed East-West highway should only add to its attraction.

Capital Improvements. A municipal garage is to be constructed in this same middle-west area and will fill a need for a location for storage and/or repair of municipal equipment. Sidewalks, curbs and gutters, a comfort station, a boat launching platform, improvements of new and old park areas, and many permanent road improvements are underway this year as further capital improvements. The largest undertaking this year is the Lehigh-Edison-Highland Park trunk sewer connection which is in its last phase and should be completed early next year.

General Improvements. The new Mayor-Council charter went into effect on January 1, 1958. Some changes not anticipated by advocates of charter change have taken place under the new administration: fire districts were "abolished" and assumption of their duties was made by the township; the shade tree commission was "abolished" but, later, shade tree regulations and a shade tree advisory board were reinstated by ordinance; Planning Board and Zoning Board of Adjustment memberships were completely replaced; many former municipal employees are no longer on the scene.

The new administrative code was adopted rapidly and, as one official remarked, has not been placed "on the shelf" but is being applied and activated as rapidly as possible. Three sections of this code are singled out here for illustrations: the division of licences and permits has centralized the issuance of almost all licences and permits (all except those required by state law to be issued by the township clerk); a centralized purchasing set-up has materialized and all purchases must be cleared through this department; a position classification has been prepared for the police, fire and public works departments and is in the process of completion for the health, welfare and recreation department. When the departments of parks and public buildings and finance are completed, a pay schedule will be set up for purposes of preparing budget estimates for 1959.

Even now, material for the Mayor's annual report for the year 1958 is being prepared.

As with the January, 1957, review, there is no doubt in my mind that I have forgotten something important that should be in the above listings. But certainly there is enough here to show you that Edison is a growing community if you ever questioned that obvious statement. The potential of Edison is what we may too readily ignore. What is Edison really going to be in ten or twenty or thirty years?

Yencik Takes $3,500 Salary Cut in Job Switch

John J. Yencik 6/20/58

John J. Yencik of Perth Amboy is out as New Jersey's director of employment security effective July 1.

Gov. Robert B. Meyner accepted Yencik's resignation yesterday. He said Yencik would take a new job in the Treasury Department "for the time being," helping to set up the collection procedure for a new corporate income tax.

Frank T. Judge, deputy director, will take over as temporary head of the division. Meyner said he has not decided on a permanent successor.

Successor Unknown

Yencik, who is 45, will get $10,000 a year in his new post compared to $13,500 in his old job.

The announcement culminated months of speculation that Yencik, who has crossed policy swords with the governor and Labor Commissioner Carl Holderman, would be dropped.

Meyner said he has had Yencik's resignation since Jan. 21, the first day of his second term in office. The Governor put the resignation into effect by penning his terse acceptance of it on the letter.

Although Meyner would not say he requested the resignation, it is no secret he was irked at Yencik during his campaign for re-election. Yencik was accused of being "too close" to Republicans in Trenton.

Sought Job Protection

He further raised the ire of Meyner and Holderman by attempting to gain tenure in his office through an AFL-sponsored bill which was supported by the Republicans and opposed by Democrats. Yencik is an active member of the Perth Amboy Democratic organization.

"I'm not praising or depreciating the man. A change is being made," Meyner said. He said Holderman and he decided the change would be made, but he added that Yencik "is an honorable man."

JOHN J. YENCIK

The governor admitted he has praised reforms in the division's operations under Yencik, but he would not extend the praise to Yencik personally.

Sen. John A. Lynch (D-Middlesex) and David T. Wilentz, Democratic national committeeman, waited for Meyner early yesterday to arrange for the effectiveness of Yencik's resignation and his transfer to the treasury department.

McLean May Go

They made a futile attempt to have him retained, although they knew that Yencik would have to go because of his policy disagreements with Holderman. The skids had been greased to ease Yencik out until the Middlesex Democrats prevailed on Meyner to make the transfer.

"It was a case of incompatibility," said Lynch.

The governor refused to confirm reports he also had received the resignation of Conservation Director Joseph McLean. "He serves at my pleasure," was his only comment.

McLean also angered Meyner by entering the United States Senate primary race against the governor's wishes. It is expected that formal announcement of McLean's departure will be made shortly.

Korean Duty Tour Shortened

SEOUL (AP)—The Korean tour of U. S. Army soldiers will be curtailed to 13 months from the present 16 effective July 1, it was learned today.

Members of the 8th Army Command here have been notified of the cut. Officially there was no comment from Army spokesmen, reportedly pending sanction from Washington.

The Army has two divisions in South Korea, the 1st Cavalry and 7th Infantry, plus headquarters of the 8th Army, the U. N. Command and I corps. Total manpower is estimated unofficially at 30,000.

Dailey Plans to Seek Sheriff Job Despite Bid by Jamison

City Democratic Chairman Will Give Up Seat On City Commission to Run for County Job

7/5/58
Despite Sheriff Robert H. Jamison's announcement that he will seek renomination, there has been no change in the lineup of candidates who will seek nomination next spring with the blessing of Democratic party leaders.

Commissioner Herbert D. Dailey will give up the City Commission race in May for the sheriff nomination, and it is understood in Democratic circles that he will run with the endorsement of his party leaders.

The Home News learned today that Dailey, who has yet to announce his candidacy, has received overtures from party leaders to make the race. They are not willing to go along with Jamison for another term.

It was reliably reported that they would not be averse to Jamison moving down a notch to the undersheriff post, replacing undersheriff Julius Engel. Engel, an assessor in Edison would either move to another job or be retired under this proposal.

Dailey said today, "It is far too early to make a commitment" but he left no doubt that he would be a candidate for sheriff at the proper time.

His potential candidacy has many implications and calls for a reshuffle in the city government.

Although City Hall leaders haven't been told by Dailey who holds the post of municipal chairman that he won't be on their team at the May election, they will have to find a candidate to replace him.

A powerful vote getter in past elections, Dailey's place will be hard to fill on the Commission ticket. There have been reports Jamison might be substituted for Dailey but the sheriff recently said

White House Looms Large in Meyner's Life as He Turns 50

TRENTON (AP) — Fifty years ago today a robust baby was born to a silk loom fixer and his wife.

It was Easton, Pa. The baby was named Robert Baumle Meyner. There were many hard times ahead in his young life.

But today, on his 50th birthday, Robert B. Meyner can look back on a full life which has brought him to his second term as Democratic governor of one of the key states in the country.

And what lies ahead? Many see Meyner's life pattern leading inevitably toward the White House.

Meyner's stock answer to queries about his presidential hopes is, "My only ambition is to be a good governor of New Jersey."

To newsmen and politicians, the reply sounds suspiciously like the attitude of a poker player who doesn't advertise his cards in advance.

In a birthday interview with the Associated Press, the governor varied the pattern a little. He was asked, "when can we expect to know what your national intentions are? In early 1960, perhaps?"

His reply: "When I have such intentions . . . but I have no such intentions."

The governor's second term ends in January 1962 and he cannot succeed himself. What will he do then, he was asked.

"I have a notion at this stage, having two terms in back of me, that there'll be a place for me in public life or law practice or perhaps business," he said. "I'm not quite like the youngster just getting out of law school."

He denied a published report that he and some other possible presidential candidates have agreed to stay out of presidential primaries to avoid knocking each other.

"I never heard of any such agreement," he commented.

Marriage Big Event

Two events stand out in Meyner's mind as the foremost accomplishments of his first half century.

The first is "finding a mate"—namely the attractive Helen Stevenson Meyner, 20 years his junior, whom he married in January 1957.

The second is "being elected governor, and having the townsfolk turn out to greet me." He was referring to his home town of Phillipsburg, across the Delaware River from his birthplace, where his 76-year-old mother, Sophie, still lives.

Helen is a distant cousin of Adlai Stevenson, who ran for president twice and lost both times to Dwight D. Eisenhower. Recently some quarters have suggested Stevenson might try a third time, despite his previous disclaimers.

What does Meyner think of the possibility? "I think he'd be governed by what his party asked of him."

Most political crystal-ballers believe the Democratic presidential candidate in 1960 will have to be acceptable to the south, and as such Meyner's views on the politically-explosive integration dispute are of great importance.

Asked if he felt integration in the south can be forced by court order, the governor had this to say:

"This problem of integration is the same as law enforcement. You must have a fair proportion of the population sympathetic to laws before they can be enforced. There is a lot of education to be done. Yet we've seen a remarkable change in 30 years."

What of Meyner the man?

Today he stands 5 feet 11 inches, weighs 185 pounds, works under a backbreaking schedule. By the end of the day his appointments usually are running 30 minutes to an hour late.

He's home about two or three nights a month. Meyner always has had dynamic energy, he recalls, dating from his boyhood when he often pedaled up to 60 miles a day on his bicycle.

He rarely gets sick.

His Shortcomings

Meyner is not the sort who cements close friendships. Some of the old time political leaders in the state wish he'd loosen up a bit.

In common with other political figures, he is sometimes accused of long-winded statements to the press which sound fine but don't really say anything.

Meyner has been remarkably fortunate in staying out of real political trouble over his 4½ years in office. Some say this is luck, others say skill, others give credit to his right-hand man, Robert J. Burkhardt.

An interview with him is interrupted constantly by telephone calls and aides scurrying in and out day operation.

He looks at his watch, worrying about the next appointment. A bible and several papers are on his desk.

Meyner smokes regular cigarettes sporadically, drinks moderately, and mixes well at the countless political and civic occasions he must attend.

The Governor prides himself on the accomplishments of his administration. He feels sincerely that he has brought a "high degree of integrity to state government," surrounded himself with devoted people of both political parties, and has strengthened all departments of state government in their day-to-

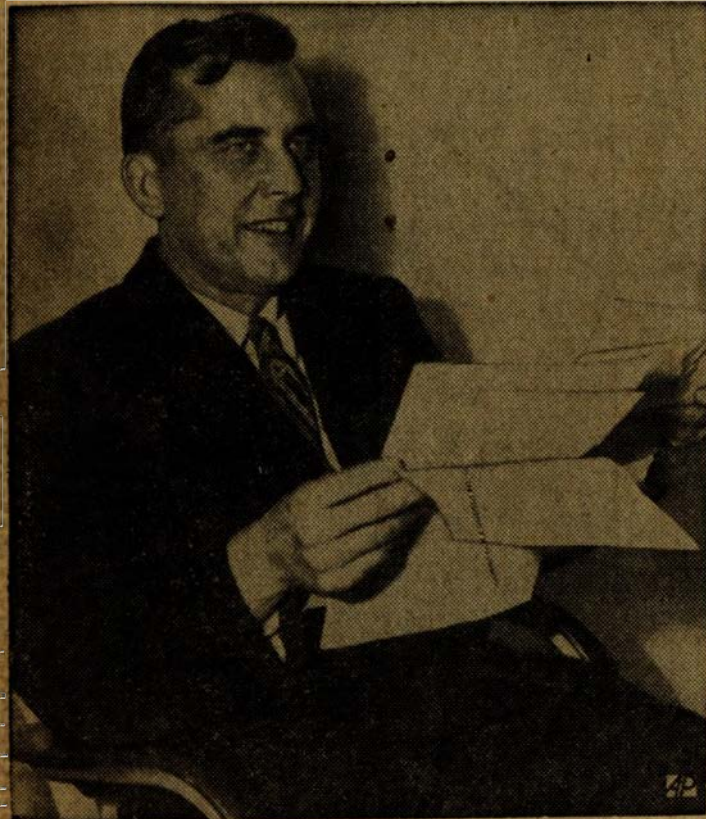

He cites particularly improvement in highway, mental health and welfare programs.

At 50 years of age, Meyner is still robust. He keeps in shape with tennis and swimming at Morven, the governor's Princeton mansion.

Only a few lines in his face and a slightly greying shock of hair which dangles over his forehead might give his years away.

"I don't feel a bit different than I did at 40," he says.

O'HARA RESIGNS EDISON OFFICE

EDISON—Martin J. O'Hara Sr. has resigned as township treasurer, effective next Friday, it was disclosed at last night's Board of Education meeting.

The resignation was revealed in a letter from Mayor Anthony M. Yelencsics and read by John Anderson, board member and secretary.

O'Hara, a Democrat, is a former township commissioner and board member. He was named to the treasurer's post following the organization of the community's new form of government in January.

The mayor wrote that Andrew Muller will be named in the dual capacity of department of revenue director and treasurer. This may take place at the Township Council meeting tomorrow night.

The board was asked to appoint Muller as custodian of school funds. This was done by resolution, effective Saturday. Muller will receive $112.50 per month as custodian of school funds.

EDUCATED FARMERS

Bill Martin, the congenial dean and director of the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station, is holding open house today for editors and broadcasters of the metropolitan area at the Log Cabin.

One of the guarantees given guests is they won't get rain or too much sun. And Dean Martin assures an intellectual fare including a review of what's new in some of the work being done at the station.

A hand-picked crew of educated farmhands will bring the editors and broadcasters up to date on topics such as new ideas about the farmer as a businessman, use of radioisotopes as detectives in soil science and short cuts in orchid growing.

ZONING VIOLATORS

Two Livingston Avenue physicians who are in violation of the zoning code will soon be told by the Board of Adjustment that they will have to make some alterations to the offices or else . . .

It seems the physicians moved in and forgot to apply for a certificate of occupancy. And then they went to work to alter their buildings in a manner that is displeasing to the Board and also to other residents.

'HATCHET MEN' AT WORK

Milt Bloom, dean of the Middlesex County Board of Elections whose current term expires in March, is in for some trouble securing another appointment. His municipal chairmen are reportedly ready to dump Bloom for possibly one of their own group.

And it is reported that should the municipal leaders succeed in dumping Bloom, Lou Staffelli, the GOP county chairman, may make a grab for the $4,000 post. Staffelli is not a candidate but it is said he will be pushed into the race.

The municipal leaders have been harping for years for wider distribution of the few "political plums" available to party workers. Bloom has managed to hold on to his job despite the protestations of the "hatchet men" for a new deal.

Staffelli has always supported Bloom and it is believed he is still in his corner, but he doesn't control the municipal leaders. However, the state committee members plus the vice chairman can by-pass the municipal leaders if they desire to reward the GOP chairman with a salaried post.

CANDIDATE FOR COURT JOB

Mrs. Violet McQuade, a Democratic leader in the city's Fifth Ward, is making an active bid for appointment to the vacancy soon to be created in the court clerk staff.

Mrs. McQuade would like to succeed Mrs. Aldona Appleton, who will don judicial robes next month and assume her duties as judge of the Domestic Relations and Juvenile Court. She has served the county courts for many years as chief clerk.

NEW MAGISTRATE RUMORED

And in the offing is possible change in the magistrate office of North Brunswick where Judge E. James Ferrara has been dispensing justice in a highly creditable manner.

The only objection to Ferrara remaining on the bench is that he resides in Highland Park, according to some township politicians. A weak objection, but nevertheless an objection.

The suggested change hasn't jelled but should it materialize Morris Roth, New Brunswick lawyer and township resident, will be the new magistrate.

LYNCH VACATIONING

Democratic Sen. John A. Lynch is getting a well deserved rest at Spring Lake where he is staying with his family at the Monmouth Hotel. The senator will resume his law practice late in the month and in the early Fall he will take to the political stump for Harrison Williams, his party's U.S. senatorial candidate.

BUCKO IN LINE

Det. William Bucko who finished at the top of the heap in an examination for appointment as lieutenant in the prosecutor's office, has the inside track for the job.

The post is now held by James A. Bates in an acting capacity. Bates, popular member of the staff, finished below Bucko in the exams.

MEYNER AT WORK

We will have a better idea of Governor Meyner's chances for national office after his "non-political" speaking tour of nine states.

The Governor's first speech in Cincinnati tore into the Eisenhower administration and predicted the Democrats who strayed to Ike in '52 and '56 will be back to stay by '60.

Speeches along such lines involve no great risk. One wonderful thing about being a pre-convention hopeful is that one never need make a decision on such unpleasant matters as the Middle East, the Far East, the Arctic, the Antarctic and domestic affairs.

For all Democrats on tour, the safe rule will continue to be derived from the old nursery rhyme about sticks and stones: "Calling Ike names will never hurt me."

COUP IS EXPECTED

We hear a coterie of Young Democrats led by an ambitious youthful county officeholder are biding their time until the November election to launch a move to grab the Democratic city leadership.

It's doubtful they will succeed, for the city committee, controlled by city employes and their relatives, elect the leader. And the municipal chairman is the recognized leader of his party.

DAILEY IN FIGHT

However, the leadership will be up for grabs in 1959 should Public Works Director Herbert Dailey win the shrievalty nomination. He now serves in a triple capacity as city commissioner, county sewerage authority commissioner and Democratic municipal leader.

Dailey has announced he will be a candidate to supplant Sheriff Robert Jamison. And Jamison says he's a candidate to the finish. It should be an interesting intra-party scrap, particularly in New Brunswick.

Potters Housing Contracts Signed for Total of $803,177

EDISON — Contracts totaling $803,177 for the construction of the 60-unit, low-rent housing project and sewage disposal plant for the Potters section were signed last night.

First Local Project

This will be the first such project in the township. It will be located on a 7½-acre tract in the area of Georgia and Lincoln Avenues and Cortland, Fairview and Cleveland Places.

In addition to representatives of the various successful bidders, the contracts were also signed by Allison A. Grillo, Housing Authority chairman, and William P. Clarke, executive director, as contracting officer.

Gustave W. Huhan, construction representative of the Public Housing Administration office in New York, represented that federal agency. He is a former assemblyman from Essex County.

Bids Below Estimates

The total of the bids is $20,000 less than the last estimate for the project. The successful firms, all low bids, are as follows: Murdock Contracting Co. of Newark, general construction, $494,867; Arrow Iron Works of Jersey City, steel, $9,940; Grove Plumbing and Heating Co. of Bloomfield, heating, $86,350; Montesano and Co., Inc., of Little Falls, plumbing, $173,600, including a sewage disposal plant; Middlesex Electric Co. of Perth Amboy, electrical, $26,520, and Mercer Contracting Co. of Trenton, grounds, $12,000.

There will be 10 two-story apartment buildings. The bedrooms will range from one to four, with six in the former group and eight in the latter. There will be 24 three-bedroom apartments and 22 two-bedroom apartments.

The Elizabethtown Water Co. has installed mains necessary to begin construction. Work on the project is expected to get under way when the authority receives the "proceed order" from the PHA. Clarke said this should be about next Monday. The contracts call for completion within one year.

Tenants May Apply

Clarke disclosed applications for tenants will be received within the next 30 days. Groundbreaking ceremonies are planned about 10 days after excavating work begins.

In lieu of taxes, the authority, under the cooperation agreement with the municipality, will pay 10 per cent of the rentals. This will continue for 40 years when the loan from the federal government is paid off and the project is assumed by the township.

There is but one building on the 7½-acre tract. It is a one-story home, not occupied, and will be used as the construction office.

Although figures weren't immediately available, Clarke said the tax return on the property in the tract heretofore has been "very small."

The enrollment figures above do not include all cases where pupils have dropped out or moved with no notification during the summer months, nor do they reflect the number of new students who will present themselves for registration on August 26, registration day. A story on registration day is carried separately.

In addition to the regular classroom teachers listed above there are 12 additional teachers assigned to the elementary schools, including special subject teachers, guidance counselors, psychologist, teachers for the trainable, educable, and hospitalized children. There are 25 teachers for special subjects in the high school, a permanent substitute, and a reading specialist in addition to the above. There are nine principals and vice-principals, two supervisors and the superintendent of schools and his assistant on the public school staff.

The total for the teaching, supervisory and administrative staff is 272.

There are no major changes in the redistricting of the areas from which pupils will come to attend schools except that those children from the Sand-Hills school who would have normally attended 6th grade in Stelton, as in the past, will go to Clara Barton for the 6th grade there. Neither Lincoln nor Washington School will add the 6th grade as originally planned for these schools although 5th graders will continue to be housed this year. At the present time there is no necessity for double-sessions in any of the elementary schools but the high school is set up for the 7th and 8th grades to attend afternoon sessions and the 9th, 10th and 11th grades to attend morning sessions.

At the present writing, the 12th graders who are scheduled to be sent to the receiving high school in Metuchen will attend the new high school on Grove Avenue.

Edison GOP Reminder 8/28/58 Elects Billings

Election of Orman B. Billings of Plainfield Rd., Arrowhead Park, as chairman of the newly created Advisory Committee of the Edison Republican Organization, was announced by Ray Henry, municipal chairman, following a meeting held last night.

Billings stated that the Advisory Committee is composed of prominent representatives from all sections of Edison. He stated that duties of the committee include establishing policy and planning for all groups of the organization.

"The committee's first objective will be to aid the county committeemen and women in building a strong group of party workers in each district," he said.

Billings, who is assistant director of research for special products at Johnson and Johnson, has lived with his wife and three children on Plainfield Rd. since 1950. He is a graduate of Cornell University with a doctor's degree in chemistry and he has been active in affairs of the American Chemical Society, currently serving on the public relations and radio committee of the New Jersey section.

Billings has been a leader in many community affairs, being one of the founders and first officers of the North Edison Little League. Other activities include past president of the Pumptown Civic Assn. and Edison chairman of the Cerebral Palsy building fund campaign in 1958.

The Billings are members of the First Presbyterian Church of Metuchen.

Edison Democrats Set Plans For Election Day At Dinner

EDISON—Final plans were made for election day by county committeemen and women, party workers and officials at a dinner meeting of the township Democratic Organization Friday night at the Pines.

Following the dinner, Municipal Chairman Allison A. Grillo welcomed the group and announced that the dinner meeting would be an annual event.

Grillo urged the organization's workers "to plan election day activities carefully, methodically and effectively. Political victories are usually the culmination of carefully planned and executed campaigns," remarked Grillo.

The party's municipal chairman distributed envelopes, containing challengers' badges, challengers' authority statements, pins and list of new township voters. He instructed the committeemen and women to submit lists of election day workers to him no later than Thursday, Oct. 30.

Township Attorney and Democratic leader Christian J. Jorgensen spoke and emphasized "the extreme importance of two vital projects: 1. A very successful dinner dance sponsored by the Edison Democratic Organization at the Linwood Grove on Oct. 29, 7 p.m. 2. A strong plurality on Nov. 4th for Harrison A. Williams Jr., David S. North and Freeholder candidates George F. Baier, George L. Burton Jr. and Thomas H. Lee."

Book Planned

Jorgensen said that the program book of last year's dinner dance was 64 pages long, but this year's will be 108 pages, with numerous photographs. "The 1958 program book will be the most attractive, comprehensive and impressive in the state," declared Jorgensen. He stated that the affair will be broadcast over radio station WCTC and that interviews will be conducted. Entertainment will consist of band music and vocal renditions.

The group was assured by Jorgensen that Gov. Robert B. Meyner, United States Senate candidate Harrison A. Williams Jr. and David S. North, will speak. Mrs. Meyner and Mrs. Williams will also attend.

He said he expects a crowd of at least 1,200 to greet the luminaries.

John Ellmyer Sr., ticket chairman for the Wednesday affair, told the gathering that final ticket returns must be made by Monday night, Oct. 27. He also reported that every woman that attends the dinner will receive a gift.

Mrs. Sue Petricks, the party's vice chairman, will have charge of organizing a telephone campaign in Edison to stimulate interest in the campaign and also help "get out the vote." Volunteers may contact her.

'Hard Work'

Mayor Anthony M. Yelencsics said that "although prospects for a Democratic victory look bright, the best assurance for success is hard work before and on election day." Edison's chief executive said that "all the Democratic candidates deserve to win, because they are competent, progressive and dedicated to good government. A Democratic United States senator from New Jersey will benefit the state and nation. We also need a Democratic congressman in the 5th Congressional District. The Republicans are not representing their constituents; they are misrepresenting them. Williams and North are Democrats who would do a great job in Washington, D.C. They must win Nov. 4."

Other speakers included Councilman William N. Margolis, who warned the group of apathy and overconfidence by quitting former President Harry S. Truman: "let's not get Deweyitis;"

Councilman Frank J. Takacs, who exhorted the party workers to "work as hard for the Democratic candidates as you did for us in 1957;" Councilman Walter H. Wood, who predicted that "the Edison Democratic organization will grow stronger each year, but this election is critical for all of us;" Tax Assessor Julius C. Engel, who said that "the last Democratic senator from New Jersey was A. Harry Moore 22 years ago. This year the Democrats have a wonderful chance to win" Freeholder Joseph R. Costa, who lauded "the impressive record of achievement and improvement of the three freeholder candidates, Baier, Burton and Lee, and the qualifications of William North."

600 Democrats Applaud Lee 'For Devotion to the Party'

Freeholder Thomas H. Lee of South Plainfield, former Middlesex County Democratic chairman, was feted by 600 party leaders and workers, officeholders, his neighbors and business associates last night at The Pines.

The testimonial dinner was tendered in recognition of his public service and his work in behalf of his party as county chairman. He relinquished the chairmanship late last year to accept appointment to the Board of Freeholders. He succeeded the late Thomas Dolan of Sayreville.

Points to Party Success

Lee has been successful because of his "even temperament" and his ability to get along with his fellow men, Democratic National Committeeman David T. Wilentz told the audience.

"Tommy Lee has never sought the limelight," said Wilentz. "He always kept in the background while leading our party, leaving the politicians to grab the spotlight."

Wilentz gave credit to Lee for the advancement of Middlesex County men in public life. He called the roll of Democrats who have ascended to high places in government, including Turnpike Authority Commissioner Joseph Morecraft, State Racing Commissioner Richard V. Mulligan, Secretary of State Edward J. Patten, Superior Court Judge Bernard W. Vogel, Utilities Commissioner Ralph Fusco and State Purchasing Agent Charles F. Sullivan.

Qualified Men in Court

"These men hold key positions in our state government," said Wilentz. "And they are there because Middlesex County has been able to produce overwhelming majorities for our party candidates. And we have been successful in this regard because Tommy Lee has been at the helm."

"We have plenty of talent in our county," Wilentz continued. "We have men who possess the qualities needed in our state, county and municipal governments. We nominate candidates who have the qualifications to hold public office. And when Gov. Meyner needs a high calibre person to serve in a key position we have no trouble in producing the right man."

The dinner was unique from the standpoint of the speaking program. Wilentz was the only speaker other than South Amboy Municipal Chairman Fred Leslie whose remarks were brief in presenting a purse to Lee.

Lee was accorded an ovation when he was presented to the assemblage by Wilentz. Lee thanked his fellow Democrats, acknowledged that the late County Solicitor Edmund A. Hayes was responsible for his rise in politics and said whatever success he may have had in recent years was due to the cooperation of the press and radio.

Al Lamb, president of the Middlesex County Young Democratic Club, presented an attache case to Lee "for distinguished service to the Democratic party. He said "one of the reasons the party is so successful is because of the excellent work Tom Lee did for the party."

"All Democrats — young, middle-aged and old — have profound respect, admiration and affection for Tom," said Lamb.

Richard V. Mulligan, a vice president of Johnson & Johnson was introduced as toastmaster by Sheriff Robert H. Lee, a member of the committee. The Rev. Alfred Sico, pastor of the Sacred Heart Church of South Plainfield, Lee's parish, delivered the invocation.

On the dais with Lee and dinner officers were Mrs. Lee, and their daughter, Susanne, Director Karl Metzger of the Board of Freeholders, Sen. John A. Lynch, and Freeholders George L. Burton, Jr. and George F. Baier, candidates for re-election.

County Registration Up 50,000 Since '51

Home News 10/8/58.
Compares to 100,000 Population Growth Since 1950 Census; City's Vote Down 1,818 in Year

Middlesex County has 50,000 more voters today than it had seven years ago, it was disclosed today by the County Election Board.

192,006 Eligible

For the 1951 election 141,904 voters were registered and today a record registration of 192,006 is reported for the November election. The voters in the forthcoming election will select a United States senator in a statewide contest; two congressmen in the third and fifth districts; and three freeholders in the county.

The constant increase in registration in Middlesex gives support to the claims that the county has a population of 363,000 or an increase of nearly 100,000 over the official 1950 census figure of 264,872.

The registration since 1951 shows 164,686 voters were registered in 1952; 166,518, 1953; 166,214, 1954; 172,130, 1955; 190,753, 1956; 191,988, 1957.

Twelve municipalities showed increased registration this year compared to last year, while 13 are lower. New Brunswick is in the latter category with a 1,818 decrease to 18,695 voters.

City Hall officials who sparked a registration drive explained the decrease has been due to the clearing out of the slum district and the removal of families from some of the larger apartment buildings.

About 2,500 voters have been stricken from the city registration rolls by the county board since the last election. Approximately 700 new voters were added during the drive here. However, when all returns were in the city showed a deficit of 1,818.

Reasons Cited

The City Hall officials said the newcomers in the apartment buildings have not been here long enough to qualify as voters. And the voters who were forced out of the slum area, they said, have scattered into other communities.

Meanwhile, Woodbridge township maintained its top position as the municipality with the largest registry and also population. The town has 32,734 registered voters for the November election compared with 31,626 last year. It has an estimated population of 72,000. Carteret, too, is up 407 over last year.

In contrast with New Brunswick, Perth Amboy showed a slight increase climbing to 21,468 from last year's 21,412 total. Perth Amboy had its commission election last year when the Democratic organization put on an all-out registration campaign.

East Brunswick Up

And East Brunswick, a fast-growing residential community showed another substantial increase in voters. It now has 8,255 voters, a gain of 1,556. Thousands of new homes have been erected in the township in recent years to account for the upsurge.

Edison dropped from 17,763 to 17,344 voters, Highland Park was off 316 to 6,433; Milltown dropped from 3,335 to 3,086 and Metuchen, 6,895 to 6,698.

North Brunswick has 5,211, an increase of 45 voters; Spotswood 2,155, a gain of seven; South

Brunswick, 3,687, a 633 increase and Piscataway 7,163, a 19 vote increase.

Another municipality to show a large increase — Madison — now boasts of 7,518 voters, 454 more than were qualified last year. As in East Brunswick, hundreds of homes have gone up in the township and are now occupied by former urban residents.

Sayreville showed 45-vote decrease while South River gained 76 votes. Sayreville has 9,620 voters and South Rier, 6,068.

Girl, 12, Sees 8 In Family Buried

INDIANA, Pa. (AP) — Little Elizabeth Kinter in a sense is all alone in this world. And she's only 12.

They buried her family Tuesday — her father, mother, and five sisters and a brother ranging in age from 5 to 14.

The family perished Saturday in a fire touched off by exploding kerosene in their home. Elizabeth escaped through a coal chute. Her maternal grandparents are caring for her.

'Round About Town

Opinions which may be expressed in this column are those of individual staff members and not necessarily those of the owners of the newspaper.

HAS A 'JOKER'

Suspension of the new Sunday closing law pending a test of its constitutionality hasn't come as any surprise to legislators and others who know what goes on behind the scenes in the legislative halls in Trenton.

That is just what some of the legislators who voted for the bill knew would happen. They knew full well that they were voting for another "joker law" that would not stand the scrutiny of the courts.

That is the way too many of our laws are enacted. To satisfy certain groups pressuring the Legislature, a bill is passed but not until a "joker" is inserted that makes it vulnerable in court.

The state and the seven municipalities named as defendants in the action for the injunction have 20 days from Aug. 7 to file answers to the charges of invalidity made by the complainant highway merchants. After that procedure will come a full trial with pre-trial hearing and all the lengthy arguments pro and con.

WAGE BOOSTS POSSIBLE

County Election Board members may be in for a fat wage boost under terms of bill signed into law by Gov. Robert B. Meyner. They can receive an increase up to $1,350—the first in 10 years. But the freeholders have final say.

The freeholders could set $3,600 maximums for Peter Biro (D) and Mrs. Mary Payson (R). They are now paid $3,000 per annum. And Milton Bloom, president of the board, could get $900 more to bring his salary up to $5,400.

It would appear that a "joker" in the measure would cut the salary of Walter Wawerczak, secretary and commissioner, unless he devotes "full time" to his job. He is now a practicing lawyer in Perth Amboy.

However Wawerczak, by devoting "full time" and the freeholders being willing, could have a pay check of $8,100 instead of $6,750. If he should elect to continue as part-time commissioner his salary would be the same as the president, or $5,400.

The act spells out the duties of the commissioner-secretary saying "in counties of the second class where a member of the county board serves as commissioner of registration, he shall receive no additional compensation for the performance of his duties as such commissioner unless he shall devote his full time to the performance of his duties as member of the county board, secretary thereof, and commissioner of registration."

And the act further says "'full time' here used means such time as is duly required of employees in the office of the county board."

The freeholders haven't officially been approached on the salary bill and it is unlikely that they will be pressed for the "adjustment" until winter when they start work on their 1959 money bill.

ANOTHER SALARY BILL LOST

And speaking of salary measures what's happened to the bill that gives the county clerk, sheriff and surrogate a $2,000 pay hike?

It passed both Houses at a time when Gov. Meyner was extremely economy-minded. The word was passed in the legislative halls that the governor would veto the measure even though it contained a provision giving the freeholders the final say on the pay hike.

FEUD SEEMS UNLIKELY

Little credence is being placed in reports out of Trenton that National Committeeman David T. Wilentz is blocking Mercer Leader Thorn Lord, who would like to succeed George Brunner as Democratic state chairman.

The Trenton reports say there has been a quiet feud going on between the two for some time. No reason was ever given.

PATTEN COULD DO GOOD JOB

And speaking of the Democratic state chairmanship Brunner wants to give up, the Demmies have a top notch man for the job. We refer to Secretary of State Edward J. Patten.

Patten has been riding up and down the state for several years espousing the Democratic cause. He is on intimate terms with county party leaders and knows their problems.

He has what it takes to be chairman of a fast-growing political party. He's a clever platform performer, he's tops in hand shaking and he always has the right answer to a political question.

And what's more, he's a member of Gov. Meyner's cabinet. He managed Meyner's two successful gubernatorial campaigns.

COMMISSIONERS FACE DILEMMA

The city commissioners have been on the receiving end of some sharp barbs for the past few years because they moved at a snail's pace to replace the renovated stables used for many years as a police station.

And now that they have received bids for the building, the darts being hurled in their direction by taxpayers have a sharper edge. The objectors say the commissioners are moving too fast and $700,000 is a lot of money to spend to house the police.

But Commissioner Cantore points out the city is not only building quarters for the police. The plans call for court facilities, long recommended by the Supreme Court. The present court room is a disgrace.

And the Juvenile Aid Bureau will be provided proper quarters, with a private entrance. The city now is paying $155 monthly rental for quarters for the bureau. In the long run it is felt by Cantore the city will be saving money.

The commissioners now are faced with either accepting the bids or rejecting them and advertising for new proposals. And those in the building game say new bids will be higher.

It comes down to saving a few thousand dollars by deletions and paying a double architects' bill or awarding contracts on the bids on file which approximate $700,000. The net results will be about the same.

SCHOOL BOARD NO SANTA

Frederick F. Richardson, former mayor who knows just about everything there is to know about finances, besides being an outstanding lawyer, has more than earned his $1,200 salary for many years to come as counsel to the Board of Education.

The energetic barrister tackled the tuition problem soon after he was named attorney to the board. It had been kicked around for years with the sending districts getting "bargain education." The protests of Tax Assessor Daly and others were met with the statement, "It's the rule of the State Department of Education."

The board had been charging tuition based on costs for the two preceding years. There was no question about the rule. It was there in black and white, but Richardson, after some legal research, filed an opinion to the effect that the state educators had exceeded their prerogatives.

He fired off a complaint to the State Department of Education. The rules were changed in the middle of the game. And the city taxpayers now stand to collect $25,000 they perhaps wouldn't have collected had not Richardson gone to the bat for them.

He's now exploring the education bills of Camp Kilmer children. The sending districts want to know if they are being discriminated against by the low rate schedule for Kilmer.

Richardson is going to find out why Kilmer children are being educated at below cost, and at a time when there is so much talk about building new schools. It would appear that the city is about to give up the Santa Claus role.

MUST BE NO POLLUTION

"Crabbing like mad" behind the Bayview Apartments in Perth Amboy has been reported to the jubilant Middlesex County Sewerage Authority, accused by Perth Amboy several weeks ago of actually polluting Raritan Bay with its treated water pumped into the previously-polluted bay.

This report is added to those of eels and "many kinds of fish" in the Raritan from the Amboys up—all accomplished well within the first year of operation of the trunk sewer and American Cyanamid's new treatment plant at Bound Brook.

And Betty Kelch, county planning board secretary, tells Roundabout that a neighbor, Sonny Cygan of Whitehead Avenue, South River, has come home with the most delicious eight-inch crabs taken from the South River.

INVITATION TO THE NEIGHBORS

Eleven Franklin Township Policemen have taken Middlesex County up on its invitation to Somerset officers to attend the basic police course starting next month at the Camp Kilmer theater. The invitation went to Somerset Prosecutor Leon Gerofsky and was passed on to municipal chiefs.

VOLUNTEERS TO HELP ATTORNEY-GENERAL

New Brunswick merchant Lou Miller has volunteered to help the state attorney-general's office in any way to fight for the state Sunday closing bill now suspended until its constitutionality is determined. He's been a leader in efforts to get such a bill and won't give up now.
