THE HOLE IN THE FLOOR.

In the primitive days of our grandfathers' time,
When the fire-place, genial and bright,
Its cavernous recesses glowing with flame,
Filled the old-fashioned kitchen with light;
They used often to gather at close of the day,
Round the hearth-stone, that altar of yore;
But men of this modern and glorified age,
Collect round—a hole in the floor.

The grandfather sat in the chimney nook,
In an old-fashioned split-bottomed chair,
And solemnly read from the blessed old Book,
Then knelt with the household in prayer;
Their altar, the time-honored hearth-stone,
with gleams
Of the fire-light flickering o'er,
We moderns all worship 'neath fresco and gas,
Our altar—a hole in the floor.

When from the old hearth-stone the children
went forth
To join in the soul-thrilling strife,
And win themselves laurels or valiantly brave
The buffeting surges of life;

Then with world-wearied hearts yearning
sadly for rest, [more:
They would seek the old hearth-stone once
But we, when aweary with toil and oppressed,
Return to—the hole in the floor.

When the tumult of war o'ershadowed our land
To repel the invaders that threatened their
And our forefathers rushed to the fray, [homes
Leaving mothers and daughters to pray—
The thoughts of their hearth-stones gave strength to their arms
And thrilled their brave hearts to the core,
But our heroes when called on their homes to
Must fight for—a hole in the floor. [defend,

Then let us rejoice that we live in an age [glow
When instead of the hearth-stone's bright
Or the cavernous fire-place cheery with flames,
We have "modern improvements," you know
And when we converse of those primitive times
And the jolly old customs of yore, [ed ways,
We will laugh as we think of their old-fashion-
As we sit round—the hole in the floor.

VIEW OF PRACTICAL ROOM—LOOKING TOWARDS BROADWAY.

SPECIFIC INFORMATION.

The "regular course" embraces all the branches taught, except Phonography, German, French and Spanish, for any one of which studies the price is eight dollars per term. Persons taking one of these extra studies are entitled to any of the others at half price. Instruction in writing alone (one lesson daily,) ten dollars per month or twenty-five dollars per quarter. Books and stationery extra.

When two or more students from the same family enter at the same time a discount of seven per cent. will be allowed.

TIME OF ENTERING.—There are no term divisions. Students can enter at any time during the school year with equal advantage. The very best time for entering is when the student is ready.

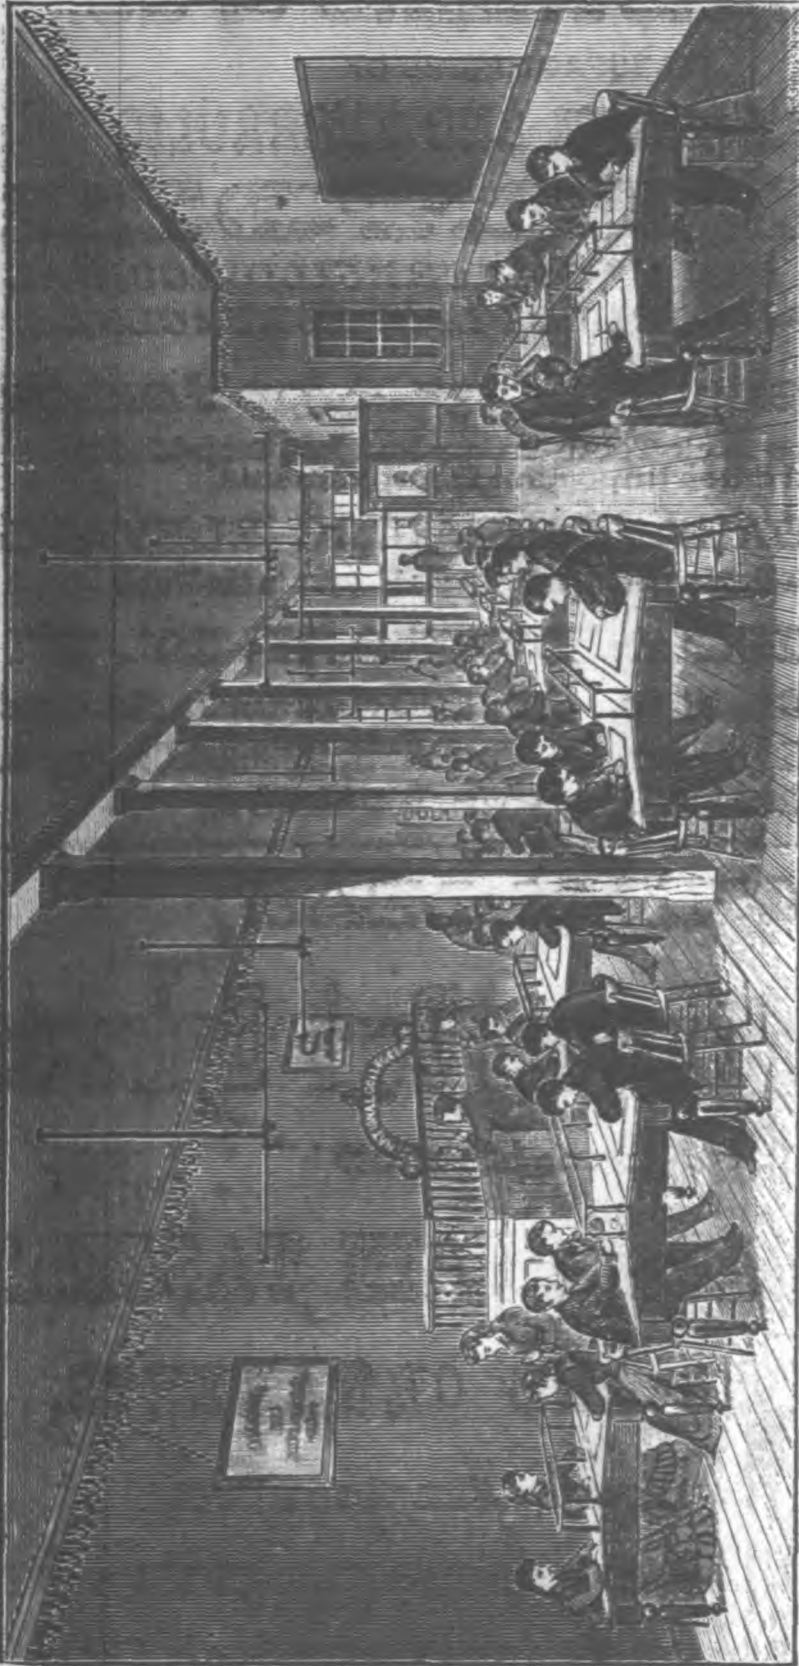

PREPARATORY QUALIFICATIONS.—A knowledge of the ordinary English branches is a sufficient preparation for entering the regular commercial course. Any deficiency in this respect, if not too radical, can be remedied by special training.

STUDENTS FROM A DISTANCE.—Students from a distance, and others who have but a limited time to devote to study, can be as well cared for as at any institution in the country; our plan being to give each student, from day to day, that kind and measure of instruction that would best serve his purpose, were it to be his last day at school. Board near the college can be had at from five to eight dollars per week.

GASKELL'S JERSEY CITY BUSINESS COLLEGE,

WHAT OUR CITIZENS THINK OF THE SCHOOL.

FRANK STEVENS, ESQ., Real Estate and Insurance, 55 Montgomery Street, says: "Two of my young men have attended your Business College, and besides the decided improvement in their writing, and general knowledge of accounts, they are more systematic and correct in all things done. This alone is worth the entire cost of the course. I hope every one will improve this opportunity of attending an A 1 Business College."

REV. WALTER T. GRIFFIN, Pastor Central Avenue Reformed Church, J. C. Helights, says: "I have been much pleased to notice a vast improvement in my brother's writing, and in those special branches that prepare young men for business. Am well satisfied with the course of training you give, and hope that many young men will avail themselves of the opportunity."

HENRY V. PLAGET, ESQ., says: "I desire to express to you my gratification for the rapid improvement my son Louis has made under your tuition. I trust parents may take into consideration the great advantages your institution offers."

The School is open all the year.
