

HOBOKEN ADVERTISER.

INDEPENDENT AND DEVOTED TO THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE.

VOL. VI. NO. 15.

HOBOKEN, N. J., NOVEMBER 6, 1880.

PRICE ONE CENT.

SMILES.

—The fellow who picked up the hot penny, originated the remark, "All that glitters is not gold."

—The man who fell out of his bunk on ship-board, explained that his black eye was a birth-mark.

—A scientist says that he can find no trace of a man in the monkey, but finds abundant traces of the monkey in man.

—Said the Arkansas man, "I respect religion, but can you fairly expect me to attend church when there is a circus in town, demanding support!"

—The Arab horse is not broken until his fourth year. That's where they differ from tea-cups. But then Arab horses are not washed by the average kitchen girl.

—An indignant correspondent asks, "Why ain't Hais tending to bizness in Washenton insted of junkeating in the Farr West?" We don't know, unless it is because he can't find any junk to eat in Washington.

—Editors like brevity; but a man who was recently hanged in Indiana suited them too well. He made no remarks about heaven, but nodded to the preacher and said: "I'll see you later," and the drop fell.

—An editor in Georgia says: "Gold is found in thirty-six counties in this State, silver in three, copper in thirteen, iron in forty-three, diamonds in twenty six, and whisky in all of them; and the last gets away with all the rest."

—She was a Hudson street lady of culture. She stood watching a boat loaded with ice. "What is that boat loaded with?" "Ice," was the reply. "Oh, my!" she exclaimed, in surprise, "if the horrid stuff should melt, the water would sink the boat!"

—"Her love, her love is dead," sadly sings "Claude Melnotte" in a poem entitled "Blighted Hopes." It wasn't love, Claude, not real simon pure love. She was fooling with you. Pure love never dies. It gets dreadfully sick, sometimes, but it never, never expires. Brace up, Claude.

—A Newark trunkmaker has conceived and will execute a very brilliant idea in time for next season's exodus to the sea-shore. It is an improvement on the Saratoga trunk in size, and is designed to answer as a bathing-house when stood on end on the beach. Patent applied for—all rights reserved.

—The following epitaph was copied literally from an old tombstone in Scotland: Here lies the body of Alexander McPherson, Who was a very extraordinary person; He was two yards high in his stocking feet, And kept his accoutrements clean and neat.

He was slew
At the battle of Waterloo,
Plumb through
The gullet; it went in at his throat,
And came out at the back of his coat.

—A New York justice wiped his brow, took a sip of water, put on his glasses and looked at the man who was standing with his hands on the rail in front of him. Said he, in a tone the sternness of which was tempered with uncertainty and measured calmness, "What are you here for?" "You told me, judge, to come this morning and get the five dollars that I won on Indiana." "Five dollars fine, young fellow: and that makes it square."

—When a New York mother, the other morning, discovered her ten-year-old son turning flip-flaps, standing on his head, trying to kick flies off the ceiling, and cutting up all sorts of monkey shins, she screamed: "Now, William, you've been to the circus again! and how dare you go without my permission!" And thus did the good little boy reply: "No, I wasn't at the circus, nuther. I was only down to hear Mr. Talmage preach last evening;" and he jumped over the piano before his mother could prevent him.—Norriston Herald.

—Grief can be assuaged in a variety of ways, but in this cold and somewhat calculating world nothing can be more safely relied upon to produce resignation at your departure than an ample fortune. Properly distributed among your impecunious relatives they soon learn to bless you for having been successful in life and to praise you for dying at just the right time. If the poet speaks truth even those who are nearer than "his sisters, his cousins and his aunts" find it more easy to bear your loss if you are able to leave them with an unencumbered estate. He says:

When dear papa went up to heaven
What grief mamma endured!
And yet that grief was softened, for
Papa he was insured.

Philander Gives His Reason.

Philander Harkaway had lived to the age of forty; and had lived a bachelor; and yet he was one of the handsomest—one of the most cheery and blithesome—and one of the most frank and open hearted, of our citizens. And, moreover, he was blessed with an abundance of the goods and chattels that go to the making up of the wealth of this lower life.

On a certain occasion—it was an evening party at Judge Bumpus's—the conversation chanced to turn upon the subject of giving to women the right to vote. Philander, much against his will, got drawn into it; and a lady of uncertain age accused him, point blank, of being an impediment, and a stumbling-block, in the way of true reform. "Mr. Harkaway!" she said in a grandiloquent, peremptory manner, "what reason can you give for refusing the right of the ballot to women?"

"Really, madam," replied Philander, who never backed down, though he would rather have been ducked than caught in that place—"if you force me to speak, I must do so. I do not regard women, as a class, to be possessed of either good judgment or sound sense. Certainly, they are not capable of conducting the affairs of the State."

"In mercy's name!" exclaimed the now furious woman, with snapping eyes, "will you tell me why—in what manner—women are deficient in that respect? Why is not their sense and judgment as good and as sound as are those of men?"

"Madam, one proposition shall be answered for all. Go with me to the theatre, to the lecture, to the opera—go anywhere in our city, where we anticipate keen enjoyment—and mark the manner in which women do up their back-hair and put on those zoological and agricultural pyramids, which they call bonnets! Go—and behold—and then tell me if such people ought to be suffered to vote!"

THE
Hoboken Coal Co.,
dealers in
SCRANTON,
LEHIGH,
AND
OTHER COALS

RETAIL YARD, on D., L. & W
Railroad, Corner Grove and 19th
Sts., Jersey City.
Coal delivered direct from Shutes to
Carts and Wagons
Families and Manufactories supplied
with the best qualities of Coal

At the Lowest Rates.

Steamboats & Tugs
Supplied with
COAL, WOOD & WATER

From their Wharves at Hoboken.

Offices—At Yard, cor. Grove and 19th sts.,
Cor. Bay st. and Newark Avenue, Jersey City. Room 8, 111 BROADWAY,
N. Y. Gen'l Office, BANK BUILDING,
Cor. Newark and Hudson sts., P. O. Box
247, Hoboken

LIVERY, SALE
—AND—
Boarding Stables

147 & 149 Bloomfield St.,

HOBOKEN, N. J.

GEO. REILLY, Prop'r.

JOHN J. DEVITT,
FURNISHING

Undertaker,

103 WASHINGTON STREET,

Near City Hall. Hoboken.

Branch Office Opposite the Monastery,
West Hoboken.

Orders promptly attended to day or night.
Satisfaction guaranteed.

THE "WIGWAM"
WINE STORE,

50 Washington-st. Hoboken.

D. QUIRK, Proprietor

THOMAS SLOYAN,

Dealer in

Wines, Liquors, Ales and Cigars

Large stock constantly on hand.

Cor. WILLOW AND FIRST-STs,
HOBOKEN.

AGENT FOR

Thomas C. Lyman's Ales & Porters.

THEY ALL DO AGREE
THAT

J. & W. OBREITER

164 WASHINGTON-ST.

BET 4TH AND 5TH STS.,

Sell the

BEST CIGARS IN THE CITY.

CHEAP—SEE!

7 Connecticut cigars for . . . 25c
6 Mixed cigars for . . . 25c
5 Havana favorites for . . . 25c
4 Fine Havanas for . . . 25c
3 Genuine clear Havanas . . . 25c
Etc., Etc., Etc.,

Just out! Little Havana Champion,
5 cents each or 6 for 25 cents.

Extra inducements offered to box customers.

ESTABLISHED 1836.

SOILED SOLE LEATHER
and SARATOGA TRUNKS

—AT—
Less than cost!

—AT—
Bazar du Voyage,

No. 1 WALL ST.,
New York.

J. HAMILTON, Jr., Prop.

J. H. PRICHARD, Manager

WM. N. PARSLOW,
General Furnishing

UNDERTAKER

99 Washington-st., Hoboken.

Orders Promptly Attended to, DAY
or NIGHT.

1864. 1880.

DR. A. M. HEDGES,

DENTIST,

128 Washington Street,
HOBOKEN.

HOBOKEN.

GAS ADMINISTERED.

J. C. FARR,

Successor to WILLIAM C. HARP.

Wholesale dealer in

LUMBER, TIMBER, BRICK, LATH

Lime, Cement, Plaster, Sand, &c.,

Yard at Fifth Street Dock,
HOBOKEN, N. J.

Keep on hand Yellow Pine Timber, Step
Plank, Ceiling, Flooring, &c.

HOBOKEN ADVERTISER.

INDEPENDENT AND DEVOTED TO THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE.

VOL. VI. NO. 15.

HOBOKEN, N. J., NOVEMBER 6, 1880.

PRICE ONE CENT.

SMILES.

—The fellow who picked up the hot penny, originated the remark, "All that glitters is not gold."

—The man who fell out of his bunk on ship-board, explained that his black eye was a birth-mark.

—A scientist says that he can find no trace of a man in the monkey, but finds abundant traces of the monkey in man.

—Said the Arkansas man, "I respect religion, but can you fairly expect me to attend church when there is a circus in town, demanding support!"

—The Arab horse is not broken until his fourth year. That's where they differ from tea-cups. But then Arab horses are not washed by the average kitchen girl.

—An indignant correspondent asks, "Why ain't Hais tending to bizness in Washenton insted of junkeating in the Farr West?" We don't know, unless it is because he can't find any junk to eat in Washington.

—Editors like brevity; but a man who was recently hanged in Indiana suited them too well. He made no remarks about heaven, but nodded to the preacher and said: "I'll see you later," and then the drop fell.

—An editor in Georgia says: "Gold is found in thirty-six counties in this State, silver in three, copper in thirteen, iron in forty-three, diamonds in twenty six, and whisky in all of them; and the last gets away with all the rest."

—She was a Hudson street lady of culture. She stood watching a boat loaded with ice. "What is that boat loaded with?" "Ice," was the reply. "Oh, my!" she exclaimed, in surprise, "if the horrid stuff should melt, the water would sink the boat!"

—"Her love, her love is dead," sadly sings "Claude Melnotte" in a poem entitled "Blighted Hopes." It wasn't love, Claude, not real simon pure love. She was fooling with you. Pure love never dies. It gets dreadfully sick, sometimes, but it never, never expires. Brace up, Claude.

—A Newark trunkmaker has conceived and will execute a very brilliant idea in time for next season's exodus to the sea-shore. It is an improvement on the Saratoga trunk in size, and is designed to answer as a bathing-house when stood on end on the beach. Patent applied for—all rights reserved.

—The following epitaph was copied literally from an old tombstone in Scotland: Here lies the body of Alexander McPherson, Who was a very extraordinary person; He was two yards high in his stocking feet, And kept his accoutrements clean and neat.

He was slew
At the battle of Waterloo,
Plumb through
The gullet; it went in at his throat,
And came out at the back of his coat.

—A New York justice wiped his brow, took a sip of water, put on his glasses and looked at the man who was standing with his hands on the rail in front of him. Said he, in a tone the sternness of which was tempered with uncertainty and measured calmness, "What are you here for?" "You told me, judge, to come this morning and get the five dollars that I won on Indiana." "Five dollars fine, young fellow: and that makes it square."

—When a New York mother, the other morning, discovered her ten-year-old son turning flip-flaps, stan z on his head, trying to kick flies off the ceiling, and cutting up all sorts of monkey shins, she screamed: "Now, William, you've been to the circus again! and how dare you go without my permission?" And thus did the good little boy reply: "No, I wasn't at the circus, nuther. I was only down to hear Mr. Talmage preach last evening," and he jumped over the piano before his mother could prevent him.—Norristown Herald.

—Grief can be assuaged in a variety of ways, but in this cold and somewhat calculating world nothing can be more safely relied upon to produce resignation at your departure than an ample fortune. Properly distributed among your impecunious relatives they soon learn to bless you for having been successful in life and to praise you for dying at just the right time. If the poet speaks truth even those who are nearer than "his sisters, his cousins and his aunts" find it more easy to bear your loss if you are able to leave them with an unencumbered estate. He says:

When dear papa went up to heaven
What grief mamma endured!
And yet that grief was softened, for
Papa he was insured.

Philander Gives His Reason.

Philander Harkaway had lived to the age of forty; and had lived a bachelor; and yet he was one of the handsomest—one of the most cheery and blithesome—and one of the most frank and open hearted, of our citizens. And, moreover, he was blessed with an abundance of the goods and chattels that go to the making up of the wealth of this lower life.

On a certain occasion—it was an evening party at Judge Bumpus's—the conversation chanced to turn upon the subject of giving to women the right to vote. Philander, much against his will, got drawn into it; and a lady of uncertain age accused him, point blank, of being an impediment, and a stumbling-block, in the way of true reform. "Mr. Harkaway!" she said in a grandiloquent, peremptory manner, "what reason can you give for refusing the right of the ballot to women?"

"Really, madam," replied Philander, who never backed down, though he would rather have been ducked than caught in that place—"if you force me to speak, I must do so. I do not regard women, as a class, to be possessed of either good judgment or sound sense. Certainly, they are not capable of conducting the affairs of the State."

"In mercy's name!" exclaimed the now furious woman, with snapping eyes, "will you tell me why—in what manner—women are deficient in that respect? Why is not their sense and judgment as good and as sound as are those of men?"

"Madam, one proposition shall be answered for all. Go with me to the theatre, to the lecture, to the opera—go anywhere in our city, where we anticipate keen enjoyment—and mark the manner in which women do up their back-hair and put on those zoological and agricultural pyramids, which they call bonnets! Go—and behold—and then tell me if such people ought to be suffered to vote!"

THE
Hoboken Coal Co.,
dealers in
SCRANTON,
LEHIGH,
AND
OTHER COALS

RETAIL YARD, on D., L. & W
Railroad, Corner Grove and 19th
Sts., Jersey City.
Coal delivered direct from Shutes to
Carts and Wagons
Families and Manufactories supplied
with the best qualities of Coal

At the Lowest Rates.

Steamboats & Tugs
Supplied with
COAL, WOOD & WATER

From their Wharves at Hoboken.

Offices—At Yard, cor. Grove and 19th sts.,
Cor. Bay st. and Newark Avenue, Jersey City. Room 8, 111 BROADWAY,
N. Y. Gen'l Office, BANK BUILDING,
Cor. Newark and Hudson sts., P. O. Box
247, Hoboken

LIVERY, SALE
—AND—
Boarding Stables

147 & 149 Bloomfield St.,

HOBOKEN, N. J.

GEO. REILLY, Prop'r.

JOHN J. DEVITT,
FURNISHING
Undertaker,

103 WASHINGTON STREET,

Near City Hall. Hoboken.
Branch Office Opposite the Monastery,
West Hoboken.

Orders promptly attended to day or night.
Satisfaction guaranteed.

THE "WIGWAM"
WINE STORE,

50 Washington-st. Hoboken.

D. QUIRK, Proprietor

THOMAS SLOYAN,
Dealer in
Wines, Liquors, Ales and Cigars

Large stock constantly on hand.

Cor. WILLOW AND FIRST-STS.,
HOBOKEN.

AGENT FOR

Thomas C. Lyman's Ales & Porters.

THEY ALL DO AGREE
THAT
J. & W. OBREITER

164 WASHINGTON-ST.

BET 4TH AND 5TH STS.,
Sell the

BEST CIGARS IN THE CITY.

CHEAP—SEE!

7 Connecticut cigars for . . . 25c
6 Mixed cigars for . . . 25c
5 Havana favorites for . . . 25c
4 Fine Havanas for . . . 25c
3 Genuine clear Havanas . . . 25c
Etc., Etc., Etc.,

Just out! Little Havana Champion,
5 cents each or 6 for 25 cents.
Extra inducements offered to box customers.

ESTABLISHED 1836.

SOILED SOLE LEATHER
and SARATOGA TRUNKS

—AT—
Less than cost!

—AT—
Bazar du Voyage,

No. 1 WALL ST.,
New York.

J. HAMILTON, Jr., Prop.
J. H. PRICHARD, Manager

WM. N. PARSLOW,
General Furnishing

UNDERTAKER

99 Washington-st., Hoboken.

Orders Promptly Attended to, DAY
or NIGHT.

1864. 1880.

Dr. A. M. HEDGES,

DENTIST,

128 Washington Street,

HOBOKEN.

GAS ADMINISTERED.

J. C. FARR,
Successor to WILLIAM C. HARP.

Wholesale dealer in

LUMBER, TIMBER, BRICK, LATH.

Lime, Cement, Plaster, Sand, &c.,

Yard at Fifth Street Dock,
HOBOKEN, N. J.

Keep on hand Yellow Pine Timber, Step
Plank, Ceiling, Flooring, &c.

HOBOKEN ADVERTISER

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1880.

Published Every Saturday by

MOYER &amp; LUEHS

34 Washington Street,

HOBOKEN, N. J.

—No CORRESPONDENCE will be published unless accompanied with the name of the writer. Not necessarily for publication, but as a matter of security to ourselves.

"WHAT CAN'T BE CURED MUST BE ENDURED."

For the first time in the history of the United States a man has found his way to the chair of the immortal and spotless Washington who, if he had his just deserts, would be in States Prison. Let every voter in the country who contributed to this outrage pause and think of the part he has played in the disreputable campaign just closed. Let him, if an office-holder, seek consolation in the position which he retains as compensation for his vote, and, if an ambitious politician, he may smother remorse in anticipation of filling an exalted position; but no position for the next four years in the grant of a Republican President can be honorable. Honor and Republican politicians parted company when the latter selected for their standard-bearer James A. Garfield, a tricky and designing politician and dishonest statesman, convicted as he was by the same party in 1873 who have in 1880 made him President.

The numerous weak-minded poltroons, whom it would be a crime to call men, and who were actually purchased or bribed to aid in foisting this fraud on the American people, and who represented a great majority of the late Republican vote in New York, should forever hide their heads, though they may secretly rejoice over the success of one of their own class—the next President. The question naturally arises "Can such a character as Garfield, under the existing Constitution, occupy the seat secured to him by his henchmen, with the aid of a few thick headed and selfish Democratic rulers?"

Let us see who is to blame, or what lost the Presidency to the Democratic party. As regards the latter, there is no necessity for much investigation. It was long ago conceded that New York was the pivotal State, and consequently a dead set was made for the metropolis, where a great Democratic majority was the rule. The result proves beyond any doubt that, just so sure as John Kelly elected Cornell Governor of New York, he paved the way for a Republican majority in that State, and the Mayoralty question clinched the matter. Cornell's election meant employment to 30,000 Republicans throughout the State, and also meant their contributions, influence and votes for Garfield, when the reverse might have been, or rather should have been, the case. Now that Mr. Kelly has crippled the Democratic party, and certainly sacrificed Hancock, will he have the good sense to die himself—politically speaking—or will he insist on the people emphatically crushing him?

We have information from reliable sources that in certain strong Arthur districts in New York, where customs employes abounded, the Grace ticket was voted by them in connection with the Republican Presidential nominees. What stronger evidence could exist to indicate a deal between John Kelly and Arthur? And what further proof is necessary to show that General Hancock and the Democratic party were sacrificed for Mr. Grace? We think the very mildest that can be said in reference to the course pursued by the Tammany leader is that he paid, or rather made the Democratic party pay, "too much for the Mayoralty whistle." We, of course, favored Mr. Grace, but certainly not under such conditions; and again, as in the gubernatorial matter, we can cry out the country is lost, but the great, (?) unselfish (?) and sacrificing (?) "Big Chief" of the Tammany Wigwam has been appeased. This is rather disgusting consolation; and Democrats irrespective of creed, color or so-called nationality are sick of giving up all to gratify the selfishness and whims of any one man, and so expressed themselves by their ballots last Tuesday.

In connection with our present defeat we can imagine only one blessing that might result from our terrible misfortune. We modestly suggest a duel, at short range, between James Gordon Bennett and John Kelly, conditionally that the result prove fatal to both participants. Neither would be a great loss, and there is no question as to the universal benefit. This is, indeed, the only possible blessing that might be drawn from our present troubles, and the sweetest consolation that could be offered a disgusted and deceived Democracy. Kelly was ignored at Cincinnati, and had no voice in the selection of Hancock. Is it not like his past career to get square? Did he not pursue the same course with ex-Governor Robinson? And we firmly believe, had he been ignored all through the Presidential campaign, General Winfield Scott Hancock would be President elect of the United States, and Americans in general have cause to be proud, instead of ashamed, as they are, of their ruler.

We cannot close without complimenting our own little State on her steadfast course in spite of bribery, intimidation, colonization, etc.; and also thank Heaven that we are not persecuted with, nor will we tolerate in our midst, any John Kellys, Boss McLaughlins, or James Gordon Bennetts.

—Who killed Winfield Scott Hancock? John Kelly, of Tammany fame, who claims to have committed the deed in good Grace.

—THE President has appointed Thursday, November 25th, as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer.

LACONICS.

—The election on Tuesday was a bonanza to "Billy" Foos.

—Hardenbergh, for Congress, received two more votes than Hancock in this city.

—The Board of Education hold a regular session on Monday evening and a lively time is anticipated.

—Commodore Dillworth, recently appointed

Police Commissioner, has accepted and been sworn into office.

—The Common Council will have an unusually large amount of business to transact at their meeting Tuesday night.

—Washington Lodge, Knights of Honor, will give their first annual ball at Odd Fellows' Hall next Thursday evening.

—"Marty" McDermott says when he again bets on New York going Democratic it will be in the "Sweet By and By"

—A raffle for a silver watch and chain and gold ring will be held at John Evans', corner First and Bloomfield streets, this evening.

—The lamps in the cabins of the several ferry boats give very poor light—in fact so poor that a tallow "dip" would be an improvement.

—Henry Lemph, a milkman, residing in New Durham, was thrown out of his wagon by a runaway horse on Friday morning and seriously injured.

—Sacrament will be administered at the M. E. Free Tabernacle at 10:30 to-morrow morning by the pastor, Rev. D. B. F. Randolph. Regular services at 7:30 P. M.

—Robson and Crane, the comedians, commence an engagement at the Standard Theatre, New York, Monday evening, opening in their new comedy, "Sharps and Flats."

—The first reception of the season of 1880 of Wallace's Dancing Academy will be held at the Franklin Lyceum, Bloomfield street, near Eighth, on Friday evening, November 12th, 1880.

—Mr. S. J. Weinthal, the clothier, mourns the loss of four dozen vests, several pairs of pantaloons and a number of coats. Thieves entered the store Tuesday night and carried off the goods.

—The third of a series of Saturday evening sociables will be given to-night at Dittmar's Assembly Rooms. Sacred concerts are also given every Sunday afternoon, commencing at 3 o'clock.

—Notwithstanding the defeat of Hancock on Tuesday, Josh. Billings will deliver his popular and humorous lecture, entitled "The Probabilities of Life," at the First M. E. Church on Wednesday evening all the same.

—The Rev. D. R. Lowrie will preach to-morrow in the First M. E. Church at 10:30 A. M., subject, "Usefulness." Evening sermon to young people, subject, "Novel Reading." Popular service of song before the evening sermon.

—On Wednesday, the 10th inst., James G. Morgan, auctioneer, will sell several valuable parcels of land in the vicinity of Bull's Ferry Road and Franklin street, Town of Union. The property is sold for account of the Hoboken Bank for Savings.

—Ex-Mayor Besson probably begins to feel that his popularity is on the wane. Two years ago his majority for Mayor was over 700 votes, and this last race the "shoe was on the other foot," with 175 added. Democrats in this city are coming to their senses.

—The benefit party tendered Mrs. Lavin, at Odd Fellows' Hall, Thursday evening, proved financially a success. The husband of the beneficiary, it will be remembered, died last Summer after a few hours' illness, leaving her with a small and helpless family to care for.

—The "Helping Hand" Society began their labors on Thursday for the Winter season at their building on Washington street, between Ferry and Newark. This is one of the most laudable associations in our midst, and is well worthy the consideration of the public.

—The new City Hall building is rapidly progressing, a good portion of the second-story walls being already up. The only delays so far have been caused by the weather, and the contractors are still confident of getting the structure under roof before the cold weather sets in.

—There was a lively foot-ball match at the St. George Cricket Grounds on Tuesday afternoon between the Stevens Institute boys and Columbia College, of New York, which resulted in a splendid victory for Stevens by one goal and two touch-downs to nothing for their opponents.

—The Castle Point Boat Club are out with invitations for their second annual reception, which is announced for the 13th of November at Odd Fellows' Hall. The card in itself is a very unique and artistic sample of the engraver's art, and is creditable to the good taste of the members as well as to the designer.

—Francis B. Hall died suddenly yesterday morning at his residence, No. 54 First street, while seated in a chair. The deceased was one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Hoboken, and had filled many responsible and honorable positions during a long and busy life. He will be buried at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, from St. Paul's Church.

—We regret to chronicle the death of Mr. R. H. Forbes, of this city, which occurred at Denver, Col., on last Saturday. The deceased was a victim of consumption and had been ordered West by his physicians as the only hope of recovery. Mrs. Forbes, immediately on receiving the sad intelligence, proceeded to Denver to bring home the remains.

—One of Garfield's pets—a full-blooded Celestial—had the nerve to peddle Republican tickets at the Second Ward polls on Tuesday. He had been engaged by some Democratic wag, and, from the manner in which he deserted his post, evidently did not relish American politics. If Garfield's ideas are only carried out "Washee washee" will have a bigger swing in 1884.

—The fifth annual ball of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, No. 10, will be held at Odd Fellows' Hall on Tuesday evening, November 23d. Prof. Louis Eckert will furnish the music. The association have elected the following officers: President, Anthony Mullins; Vice President, James Mullaney; Financial Secretary, Patrick McGrath; Recording Secretary, John Conroy; Treasurer, John Callahan.

—The fifth annual reunion of the German auxiliary of the Hudson County Sunday School Association will be held Monday evening in the German M. E. Church, on Garden street, commencing at half past seven o'clock. Addresses will be made by Rev. C. Freund, of New York, and Richard R. Green, Esq. There will be interesting exercises in German, followed with a sociable and collation.

—Schiller's birthday will be appropriately celebrated next Thursday evening, at the First M. E. Church, by the Euterpe Musical Society. Bruch's oratorio, "The Lay of the Bell," will be produced for the first time in the East by such artists as Miss Fanny Polak, Miss Antonia Henne, Mr. Jacob Graff, Mr. Franz Remmert, Mr. Wm. F. Pecher. Dr. Damrosch's orchestra will assist and all will be under the able leadership of Professor Augustus Wehner.

—The ever popular and prosperous San Francisco Minstrels are, as usual, nightly filling their cosy little theatre, in spite of the greatest attractions elsewhere which New York has enjoyed in a long time. The inimitable comedians, Birch and Backus, are a host in themselves, and are well supported by George Thatcher, Johnson and Powers, Bryant and Hoey, Harry Kennedy, Stanley Grey, T. B. Dixon, H. W. Frillman, W. H. Hamilton, F. M. Ricardo, A. C. Moreland and Frank Dumont, all artists of such well-known ability as to call for no comment. Hearing Mr. Thatcher's rendition of "Grand Pa Pa's Pants" is alone worth the price of admission.

THE NEW LEGISLATURE.

The Legislature will be Republican for the next year at least. The Republicans gain three Senators, one in Morri-, Mercer and Ocean. In the Assembly the Democrats gain seven and the Republicans four over last year, a net Democratic gain in the House of three, but it leaves the Republicans six in majority in the Assembly. We append here the table showing the composition of the Legislature according to the latest returns:

THE SENATE.

County.	Name.	Term expires
Atlantic	John J. Gardner, R.	1884
Bergen	Isaac Wortendyke, D.	1884
Burlington	W. Budd Deacon, R.	1883
Camden	W. J. Sewell, R.	1882
Cape May	W. B. Miller, D.	1883
Cumberland	Isaac T. Nichols, R.	1884
Essex	Wm. H. Francis, R.	1882
Gloucester	John F. Bodine, R.	1882
Hudson	Elijah T. Paxton, D.	1884
Hunterdon	Elj. Rosebury, D.	1883
Mercer	John Taylor, R.	1884
Middlesex	Isaac L. Martin, R.	1883
Monmouth	Geo. C. Beekman, Ind.	1882
Morris	James C. Youngblood, R.	1884
Ocean	Abram C. F. Havens, R.	1884
Passaic	G. A. Hobart, R.	1883
Salem	Quinton Keasby, R.	1882
Somerset	John G. Schenck, R.	1882
Sussex	Thomas Lawrence, D.	1883
Union	Benjamin A. Vail, R.	1882
Warren	Peter Cramer, R.	1882

Republicans, 15; Democrats, 5; Independent 1.

THE ASSEMBLY.

Atlantic	George Elvins, R.
Bergen	John Van Bussum, D.; Elias H. Sisson, D.
Burlington	William R. Murphy, D.; Abram Marter, R.; Henry C. Herr, R.; John W. Cavi-leer, R.
Camden	H. L. Bonsall, R.; Chris. Mines, Jr., R.; J. H. McMurray, R.
Cape May	F. L. Richardson, R.
Cumberland	Charles Ladow, R.; John H. Avis, R.
Essex	T. W. Langstroth, R.; Joseph L. Munn, R.; Harrison Van Dwyne, R.; W. R. Williams, R.; William Wright, R.; C. G. Brummer, R.; E. A. Wilkinson, R.; M. McMahon, D.; T. O'Con-nor, D.
Gloucester	George Craft, R.; Thomas Fer-rell, D.
Hudson	Noah D. Taylor, D.; T. J. McDonald, D.; Frederick Payne, R.; A. L. McDermott, D.; D. W. Lawrence, R.; J. Herbert Potts, R.; James Curran, D.; James J. Casey, D.
Hunterdon	G. H. Matthews, D.; Jacob Hipp, D.
Mercer	Charles S. Robinson, R.; R. A. Don-nelly, D.; J. D. Beekman, R.
Middlesex	J. H. Van Cleef, D.; Manning Free-man, D.; Stephen Martin, D.
Monmouth	Holmes W. Murphy, D.; David A. Bell, D.; Charles Allen, D.
Morris	William C. Johnson, R.; John F. Post, R.; Oscar Lindsley, D.
Ocean	William H. Bennett, R.
Passaic	Jacob Latus, R.; R. B. Morehead, R.; Thomas B. Vreeland, R.
Salem	Henry Barber, D.; John T. Garwood, R.
Somerset	W. A. Schomp, D.; John L. Oakey, R.
Sussex	Lewis J. Martin, D.
Union	John T. Dunn, D.; George T. Parrott, R.; Frank W. Sheldon, R.
Warren	Wm. Fritts, D.; C. H. Albertson, D.

Republicans, 33; Democrats, 27.

HOBOKEN ALL RIGHT.

Again we have reason to compliment Ho-boken, and again we have a glorious excuse to remind the balance of Hudson County that right here in this little Seventh District we do our duty as Democrats every time, a fact, however, which it seems necessary to impress on our neighbors on every occasion of State or county campaigns. In every important issue we are looked to to save the ticket, and have never been found wanting. We have so frequently earned and expected recognition in return for our faithful work, and have so often been ignored, that we will not at present refer to so unpleasant a sub-ject, but will simply call attention to the following flattering majorities from the head to the tail of the Democratic ticket, and request our county leaders to bear them in mind:

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

	Hancock.	Garfield.
First Ward, 1st dist.	304	176
" 2d dist.	407	184
Second Ward.	386	357
Third Ward, 1st dist.	646	270
" 2d dist.	425	347
Fourth Ward, 1st dist.	417	146
" 2d dist.	426	163
Total	3011	1643

Hancock's majority, 1368.

FOR CONGRESS.

	Harden-bergh.	Brigham.
First Ward, 1st dist.	312	180
" 2d dist.	408	180
Second Ward.	381	361
Third Ward, 1st dist.	643	269
" 2d dist.	425	347
Fourth Ward, 1st dist.	417	190
" 2d dist.	427	161
Total	3013	1628

Hardenbergh's majority, 1385.

FOR GOVERNOR.

	Ludlow.	Potts.
First Ward, 1st dist.	296	184
" 2d dist.	402	185
Second Ward.	382	359
Third Ward, 1st dist.	641	271
" 2d dist.	421	348
Fourth Ward, 1st dist.	417	135
" 2d dist.	425	162
Total	2964	1624

Ludlow's majority, 1340.

FOR STATE SENATOR.

	Paxton.	Collins.
First Ward, 1st dist.	282	193
" 2d dist.	397	193
Second Ward.	349	388
Third Ward, 1st dist.	636	278
" 2d dist.	397	379
Fourth Ward, 1st dist.	405	146
" 2d dist.	415	172
Total	2881	1749

Paxton's majority, 1132.

FOR SURROGATE.

	McAvoy.	Throck-morton.
First Ward, 1st dist.	254	220
" 2d dist.	377	210
Second Ward.	296	440
Third Ward, 1st dist.	616	265
" 2d dist.	352	369
Fourth Ward, 1st dist.	412	144
" 2d dist.	414	173
Total	2721	1877

McAvoy's majority, 844.

FOR GOVERNOR.

	Curran.	Besson.
First Ward, 1st dist.	272	210
" 2d dist.	391	187
Second Ward.	305	430
Third Ward, 1st dist.	605	302
" 2d dist.	375	397
Fourth Ward, 1st dist.	386	146
" 2d dist.	393	185
Total	2732	1857

Curran's majority, 875.

Gough's Rival.

Professor Gardner, of Connecticut, known as one of the greatest temperance advocates of the day, will deliver his powerful appeal entitled "The Evils of Intemperance," at the First Baptist Church to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock. The Professor comes highly recommended by the press and pulpit of the whole North and East, and is undoubtedly the bearer of more complimentary notices than any orator of his particular line that we have met, and has been heretofore announced as the rival of Gough, and superior to Murphy. The lecturer is a man of considerable magnetism, a delightful conversationalist, which, together with a thorough knowledge of his subject, will no doubt render his address profitable as well as enter-taining.

A Fearful Death.

The sad and frightful death of a young man occurred Thursday morning in a cell at the Police Station. Thomas Donnelly, aged twenty-four years, residing with his parents at No. 48 Willow street, was brought to the station house, Wednesday night, laboring under a severe attack of delirium tremens. For two weeks the young man has been drinking heavily. Wednesday he became a raving maniac and broke up the furniture in his father's house, tearing the clothes from his own body and inflicting serious injuries on his face and hands. It was with difficulty that he was taken to the station house, and, when placed in a cell acted so wildly that it was found necessary to prevent him from taking his life. His insanity increased after midnight, and his ravings could be heard several blocks from the jail. The City Physi-cian was sent for, but could do nothing to remedy his wild struggle, and ordered him removed to the County Asylum. At half-past four Thursday morning he was com-pletely exhausted from his struggles and for a time ceased his mad actions. The turnkey went to his cell and found him dead. His eyes were starting from his head and his mouth covered with foam. The body was removed to Parslow's Morgue and the par-ents notified of their son's death. He leaves a mother, father and three sisters.

To a Watery Grave.

As the Hoboken ferryboat Secaucus of the Barclay Street Ferry left her slip early Thursday morning, the peculiar conduct of a stranger attracted the attention of the passengers. The man was talking aloud and muttering in an incoherent manner. He was regarded by the deck-hands as intox-icated. As the boat neared the slip at the foot of Barclay street, New York, he walked to the iron gate and jumped overboard, fall-ing between the paddlebox and the dock. The boat was stopped and the deck hands stood in readiness to rescue him. It was very dark and a strong tide running in. No trace of the man could be discovered.

From the Tunnel.

The workmen in the caisson of the Hudson River Tunnel discovered another body on Wednesday night. The remains were so badly decomposed that identification was impossible. They were taken to Brady's Morgue, Jersey City, and prepared for burial. Thursday the undertaker employed by the Tunnel Company buried the body in the Weehawken Cemetery. There are five more bodies of the original twenty to be re-covered.

Smith's Market

Live and Dressed Poultry.

Fish, Fresh, Smoked & Salt

MEAT AND COUNTRY PRODUCE,

Also, all kinds of Game in their Season.

GARDEN STREET,

Cor. Third St., Hoboken, N. J.

Grape-Vine Sample Room.

NO. 35 WASHINGTON ST.,

Cor. Newark Street, Hoboken

First-class Wines, Liquors & Cigars

ALWAYS ON HAND.

Best Pool Table in the City.

John M. Fleming, Prop'r.

JOHN EVANS,

Wine & Lager Beer SALOON,

No. 48 Bloomfield St., cor. First.

The Latest Improved Billiard and Pool Tables.

SANDERS & CARROLL,

Masons and Builders,

Cor. 10th St. & Park Ave.

FRED'K SANDERS, EDWARD CARROLL.

Hoboken.

WALLACE'S

Dancing Academy,

Prof. J. Wallace & Daughter

Have re-opened their DANCING ACADEMY at

the

FRANKLIN LYCEUM,

Bloomfield St., near 8th, Hoboken,

and will continue every TUESDAY & FRIDAY

during the Season.

Hours of Tuition:

From 4 till 6 P. M. for Ladies, Misses and Mas-ters, and from 7:30 till 9:30 in the evening for Ladies and Gentlemen. Private Lessons given as required. For particulars enquire as above at MR. WALLACE'S Residence, 270 Garden St.

WEBER'S

GERMANIA THEATRE,

AND

Summer Garden,

NOS. 68 TO 74 HUDSON ST., Hoboken, N. J.

The largest and best ventilated place of amuse-ment in the city.

New company every week. Change of pro-gramme every Monday and Thursday.

JOHN F. O'HARA,

Furnishing

UNDERTAKER,

129 Washington Street,

Bet. 3d and 4th Sts.,

Hoboken.

Orders Attended to. Day or Night.

HEXAMER'S

HOBOKEN

Riding Academy,

BOARDING, LIVERY.

Sale & Exchange Stables, 103, 105, 107, 109, 111 Hudson St.,

74, 76 & 78 RIVER ST.,

Bet. 2d and 3d Sts.,

Hoboken.

The leading equestrian establishment in America

Fine and well-trained ladies' and gents' saddle horses to let.

All kinds of horses for sale. Terms moderate.

Modern Apothegms.

To gain the applause of the world, needs not worth, but only wealth.

The modern preacher reckons the amount of good he can do by the amount of salary he is to receive.

Are men tried for their crimes, or only for being caught?

Men often say they are ready to die; but when it comes to the point they "squeal."

The road to wealth and the path to heaven are widely divergent. So men travel the first during the best part of their lives, always intending to cross over the other before death overtakes them.

Death is an expert sportsman. His arm never wavers.

To give from our abundance is easy. To give from our own necessities proves the sincerity of our charity.

Some men shut their eyes when they pray for the poor. Not so much as an act of devotion as to hide from the contribution box.

It is, no doubt, a blessed thing to recommend the Lord to the poor and wretched. But a substantial lift, now and then, would be a good collateral for your own faith in His promises.

One hundred years is the natural term of life offered to mankind. If so many of us fall short it is due to our disregard of the commonest laws of nature.

The poorest men on earth—except editors—are those who feel so.

There are three things we shall leave behind us. The lawyer, the undertaker, and the plumber. Hallelujah!

Keep us from poverty, politice, and grass widows, (we'll add, and the devil.)

Give us short sermons, a clear conscience, and a Christian burial.

May our charities always be according to the length of our purse, and from the bottom of the heart.

Qualifying for Office.

One of the latest yarns from Texas is that of a man who had an interview with a local editor to complain of his name being incorrectly given in the paper:

"I—have—come—to—see—about—this—Recorder's—court—business," he gasped painfully.

"It's the rule to publish the names of all those who get drunk and are fined. Can't make any exception in your case."

"That's not what I am complaining of. I want my name in the paper as being drunk; but you got my initials wrong. I am going to run for a city office, and I wanted to use that issue of The News as a campaign document. It would have made me popular among the boys, and here you go and get my name wrong, and some other fellow will get credit for it."

"Well, what do you want?"

"I want to be vindicated. I want you to come out in a card stating it was me, John Snooks, not Isaac Snooks, as you here it, who got drunk and smashed a gas lamp. I want to be understood by the voters that I was the man six policemen took three-quarters of an hour to take to the lock-up, a distance of only 150 yards. I've been slandered, and if I am not put before the public in my true light I'll bring a suit for damages. That's what I got drunk for, was to get my name in the paper, so people would know I am duly qualified."

Died From Surprise.

Old John Morris, a Little Rock negro, hit upon the idea of Tanner anti-bilious pills, compounded, as he declared, according to a recipe obtained of the great faster. He sold some to a woman, who died soon after taking them. John was arrested and taken to court, where the following dialogue took place:

"Where did you get the medicine you gave the woman?"

"I made hit from d'rections sent ter me by Dr. Tanner."

"What are its component parts?"

"Hit's made outen roots frum de groun' and leaves from de trees. Does yer wanten buy a bottle, jedge?"

"No, sir; I don't. The charge against you is a serious one. What made your medicine kill the woman?"

"Why, jedge, de medicine didn't kill de 'oman."

"What killed her?"

"Why, jedge, de 'oman died ob de surprise."

Yer see she had been takin' eberything in de medical market, an' hit didn't do her no good.

She didn't hab much confidence in my medicine, an' when she tuck hit an' foun' hit went right ter wurk tearin' at de corners ob de biliousness, hit surprised de 'oman ter death. Yer can't hole a man for surprisin' anybody ter death. Ef I comes an' tells you a good piece ob news, an' you falls dead, de law can't hold me 'sponsible. An' 'cordin' ter de same 'stronomy, if I gins a woman a dose ob medicine an' hit surprises her ter death, de law can't put de clamps on me."

The justice is considering the points of John's argument, but John is still in jail.

THE ## Latest Arrival.

Don't fail to call and examine our importations of

New Crop Teas

—AND—

Selected Coffees

JUST ARRIVED.

Excellent New Crop Teas.

OOLONG, YNG HYSON.
JAPAN, ENG. B'K'ST.
GUNPOWDER, MIXED.
IMPERIAL, OLD HYSON.

Good Teas, 30, 35, & 40c. per lb.

It will pay you well to call and examine our New Crop Teas before purchasing elsewhere.

Our Coffees are the Finest Imported. We purchase only naturally ripened Coffees, and that is one of the principal reasons which causes our Coffees to be preferred to all others, and gives ours the Rich Delicious flavors which others lack.

Sugars Sold at N. Y. Refiners' Prices.

HANDSOME PRESENTS.

Glassware, Crockery, Vases, Chromos, etc., given away to all patrons.

It is the saying of many, that our system of giving away presents is simply a fraud, and that we are only humbugging the people. If we were a small concern, this argument might be considered true. But taking into consideration the magnitude of our business, (having now over ONE HUNDRED BRANCH RETAIL HOUSES in the U. S.), you will easily see that a small percentage of profit on our enormous sales rmply pays us, and enables us to deal More Liberally with our customers than any other concern in the U. S.

All we ask is a fair trial, and if the goods are not found to be as represented, the money will be refunded in every case.

THE GREAT
Atlantic and Pacific
TEA COMPANY,
55 NEWARK AVE., Jersey City,
58 WASHINGTON STREET,
Bet. 1st & 2d Sts., Hoboken, N. J.
PRINCIPAL WAREHOUSE,
35 & 37 Vesay St. New York.

ISAAC INGLESON,

DEALER IN

Virginia Pine
and Oak Wood,

AND MANUFACTURER OF

PATENT

Bundle Kindling Wood.

Cor. Jefferson & First Sts., Hoboken.

SAMUEL EVANS,

Importer of

FINE WINES AND LIQUORS,

also,

EXTRACT OF JAMAICA GINGER,
Raspberry Syrup, Essence of Peppermint,
Ginger Cordial, Gum Syrup, Heiland
Bitters, &c.

Creedmoor Shooting Gallery.

First-class Pool and Billiard Table.

121 FIRST ST., HOBOKEN, N. J.

Boats to Let

By the HOUR, DAY or WEEK, at reasonable rates, at the HOBOKEN BATH BRIDGE.

Pleasure and Fishing Parties supplied with suitable Boats.

Shipping promptly attended to.

HENRY GILSTER,

PROPRIETOR.

PROTECTION LODGE,
NO. 634,

Knights of Honor,

Meets 1st, 3rd and 5th Mondays of each month at 80 and 82 Washington Street.

(Crane's Building.)

G. MEINERS &amp; CO.,

WATCHES

AND

JEWELRY.

152 WASHINGTON ST.,

HOBOKEN, N. J.

THE PLACE TO BUY

REFRIGERATORS

AT THE LOWEST CASH PRICES IS AT

Condit's Housekeepers' Emporium,
136 WASHINGTON STREET.Also the Largest Assortment of
KEROSENE AND GAS STOVES

May be Seen in Practical Operation Every Day. Baking on Saturday.

Also, Crockery & Housefurnishing Goods
AT ROCK BOTTOM PRICES.

Don't Mistake the Name and Number,

EDWARD A. CONDIT &amp; BRO.,

136 Washington Street.