The Committee on Public Grounds and Buildings presented the following report and resolution: 4 HOBOKEN, N. J., April 29, 1881. To the Honorable the Mayor and Council:

To the Honorable the Mayor and Council:

GENTLEMEN—Your Committee on Public Grounds and Buildings to whom was referred the petition of Emma Vorrath, claiming damages done to her building, No. 187 First street, by the masons who built the adjoining Truck House, No. 2, (by dropping bricks into the space between the two buildings), report respectfully, that as shown by the report of Architect Himpler, read in the last session of the Council, the petitioner has no just cause to claim any damage from the city.

We consider it bowever fair and right that the

We consider it, however, fair and right that the brick pieces dropped into the space should be re-noved at the expense of the city, so that the peti-tioner is enabled to have her building shoved into the plumb position again, if she wishes to do so. We therefore offer the following:

We therefore offer the following:

Resolved. That the Committee on Public Grounds and Buildings is empowered to employ a laborer for the removal of the brick pieces and mortar with which the space between Truck House No. 2 and the house No. 187 First street, is partly filled, and further,

Resolved, That the City Clerk be ordered to inform the petitioner of the city's intention to have said work done, that, however, by doing this work the city does not acknowledge in the least that the petitioner's properly suffered any damage through the presence of the material mentioned. Very respectfully submitted.

Daniel Quirk, John Curtin, Fraderice Kaupmann. Committee on Public Grounds and Buildings.

On motion of Councilman Kaufmann, the report was received and the resolution adopted. The following report and resolution from the Committee on Public Grounds and Buildings was presented and read: HOBOKEN, N. J., April 29, 1881.

To the Honorable the Mayor and Council of the City of Hoboken:

GENTLEMEN —The Committee on Public Grounds and Buildings, to whom was referred the petition of George Coppers for a part payment of eight hundred dollars on the contract work for furnish-ing the heating apparatus for the new City Hall, re-port respectfully as follows: We would consider it fair and just to allow the part payment asked for under the conditions;

First.—That the boiler is delivered to the ground Second—That the petitioner renounces his claims for damages through the delay of the mason work. Third—That he promises to complete all his contract work on or before September 1st next, with out any charges above the sum of the contract.

We offer, therefore, the following resolution: We offer, therefore, the following resolution:

Resolved, That a part payment of eight hundred dollars be granted to George Coppers as soon as the boiler is delivered as specified, and the petitioner has complied with the conditions, that he renounces all claims for damages through the delayed completion of the building, and states in writing that he will complete the contract sum.

Hook and Ladder Company No. 2—Truck, full complement of ladders, hooks, fire extinguishers, etc., in good order. This company have also a rack containing four lengths of rubber hose with which they have done excellent service on several occasions at fires in their vicinity.

The bell in iron tower on Park avenue, ought to be lowered at least 25 feet to answer the purpose for which it was intended, that is to call out the firemen of this city. In its present condition it is heard distinctly in Jersey City Heights, West Hobo-ken, Guttenburg, etc., but not in the lower or upper part of Hoboken.

As stated in my last report, the Fire Alarm Tele graph, if introduced, would work to the same ad vantage as in neighboring cities, and if brought it the notice of the Tax Commissioners, a suitable ap propriation might be made for this purpose.

HOBOKEN, MAY 7, 1881.

Official paper of the city of Hoboken. Circu id to no other weekly journal in Huc son County.

The Councilmanic body have nade no appointments as vet. They cannot improve very much on the old staff, and it might save considerable time and trouble to let matters stand.

It is understood, since the employment of a certain class of Hoboken Democrats in the Navy Yard, Secretary Hunt has given up all hopes of redeeming the reputation of the maritime department of our government.

The dead-lock in the Unites States Senate is at last broken. The Republicans have backed down; the Democrats are victorious and the business of the Nation now goes on as smoothly as if nothing had happened.

Ex-Second Assistant Postmaster-Gen eral "Star Route" Brady, in his Washington newspaper, says that the present persecution" was instigated by that bold, bad man, Sammy Tilden, "to cast reproach upon the administration of President Hayes."

The dignified course of Mayor Grace in the New York Police Commission troubles, might teach our "home talent' a good lesson, but then the probabilities are that our "ruler" feels capable of giving the learned and efficient executive of the big city points.

The action of Mr. Beltz in the School Board, Monday evening, proved a painful surprise to many of his friends, who gave him credit for more sense. Since the true reason is apparent, it is all the more unpleasant. Evil associations, etc., you know. We are a little bit afraid that Fred is getting into bad company, politically speaking.

Such an unselfish man as Mr. Washington McLean, of Cincinnati, is too ing or instructive, and very little truth, good for this wicked world. He has been while the author's attempt at wit or ure, due to Mr. Donovan's thorough when the Times, in a long editorial, prospoken of as the Democratic nominee humor could be properly termed very knowledge, keen perception, as well as ceeds to point out the disadvantages of erly look to me to maintain the rights and for Governor of Ohio, and he telegraphs from Washington that there isn't an office on earth he would have. An Ohio doubtedly written specially to attack the bureaus, where he is recognized as a man, too! What think ye of the millenium now? Oh! ye sceptics!

The great demand on our space this week occasioned by the large quanity of official matter, necessitates the holding over of our usual church article. We find this course necessary so as to not sacrifice either our general readers or advertisers. We trust this will be the last occasion for our deviating from our original intentions of furnishing interesting reading matter regularly on our first page.

Besson's views on the printing contract, as expressed in that masterpiece of sophistry, published by him Monday evening, are ridiculous in the extreme. If he fails to perform his duty in the city, all of his boasted pretensions of economy, etc., are bosh. Besides. he must fight his pet organ or admit derethe taxpayers.

Mr. Miller, though a candidate for the Chairmanship of the Council, very graciously escorted his successful opponent to the coveted seat. Messrs. Kerr and Beltz, of the School Board, could not conscientiously perform the same office when called upon by acting chairman O'Brien. It was too much against their the letter, and occasions no surprise to suspending a certain member of the strong Democratic principles. THE SAME OLD "BRIDGE"

The less enlightened some people are on certain subjects, the more spiteful and unjust they can be, particularly if at all inclined to be vindictive. It was not generally understood how little Mr. Besson knew about the condition of city affairs until Monday evening, when he took the trouble of exposing what he does not know, in a massive communication to the Council.

The document contained forty-one pages of closely indited, badly punctuated copy. We thank heaven Mr. Besson undertook to expose his ignorance on municipal matters only. Had he attempted to display how little he knows in general it would have required 4,000 pages, and City Clerk Alberts would still be reading.

The blood-and-thunder production of Monday evening is worthy of a prominent starting on a repetition of his old games; place among the vellow-covered literature of to-day, but is not at all what one would expect from an individual who bears his head so high in the air as does its author. Mr. Besson's carriage would indicate dignity, and, in spite of being ever opposed to him in a political sense. we none the less considered him incapable of such cowardly and undignified language.

We knew he had often abused the position-which he has now made dishonorable-in the furtherance of his personal schemes or in "getting square," as he puts it; yet we believed he had election must prove.

The representative men of the Repubcertain extent, a duty with them to support Mr. Besson; with the shyster Democrat it was neither duty nor principle, and may he reward them as traitors deserve to be.

In conversation with the most clear headed and radical of Republicans, they have acknowledged Mr. Besson's recent act to be a reflection on their party and its judgment. His most particular friends have endeavored to explain his conduct by candidly confessing they believe him to be a "little off in the upper story," as the saying is. A few, of course, concede him to be just the man.

Any reasonable or sane man who heard read the first number of the Besson Dime Series, must admit that such language might come from the lowest grade of "striker;" but was hardly dignified enough for the Mayor of Hoboken. For instance, a long string of high-flown adjectives (culled, no doubt, from Webster for the occasion) are followed by the word "duffers." as applied to the members of one of our departments. Such language caused certain members of the Council to blush and many of the more intelligent of the audience to retire. The rabble, of course, were delighted.

To the credit of Mr. Miller, who is a o screen his political brother from the the latter, no doubt, sought, by moving the minutes. It would have been even "grave" jokes.

low assessed "are used. Yet, outside of contemptible prejudice. He will not, Hoboken will make. a few who might be seeking the position, it was asserted on many occasions at the polls that the official was very satisfactory to the people at large.

It comes also with bad grace from Mr. Besson to speak of "too many highsalaried officials," when he is solely instrumental in making his own position a good paying one. The most uncharitathe members of the police force, and suit of the Democrat (Rep.) against the them were actively engaged in the last the last election. This "gent" (the campaign on the Besson side, we feel they are worthy of such compliments as being called "old, blind, deaf, disabled, liction of duty and treachery towards obese duffers," etc. He should, however, be made to qualify as to the statement that "two felons" have been appointed during the past year. We remember how he strained every nerve to keep the Sisters of St. Mary's Hospital out of their just claim, and how he insisted, in connection with this case, that the sick poor should be sent to Snake Hill, no matter how delicate their condition or terrible their sufferings. We also have painful recollections of his vindictiveness in the McDonough-Thorpe disreputable matter, which resulted in a fizzle. We bear in mind his advocating pay for his pet," the ex-Street Commissioner, durng a long spell of sickness, while re

He is simply using his position to vilify and punish people who never did nor will fear or ove him, and whom he considers, for that reason, opponents. It is a "ticklish" position, under the present circumstances, to be outside the "Mayoralty Cabinet." Yet some dare stand aloof. Mr. Besson's desperate notions of conomy and pronounced (though only pretended) reformatory measures, as per the special issue of Monday evening, will be readily seen through by a discriminating public and assuredly "swamped," as heretofore, by a shower of just and respectable indignation from the masses learned the folly of such a course, and Mr. Besson never advised any retrenchwould at least try to be judicious in the ment or advocated economy in any defuture. We are, candidly, ashamed of partment where one of his "pets" might our Chief Executive, and can draw but be affected by such a move. It was, to a but positively reckless. Still no comment was even made or check put upon this drain upon the city funds.

It can be readily seen that Mr. Besson only wants economy and care practiced in the departments of his oppnents. He has already made the affairs of our city a subject of ridicule, not only at home, but in the neighboring cities. His sweeping and emphatically ungrounded charges against Chief Donovan alone has aroused feelings of regret and shame among his late staunch supporters. It is a well known fact that the Board never ordered Captain Donovan to wear a uniform; if they did, he would be obliged to comply. It is equally certain that he spends more hours on duty out in the department. It is also known shrewd detective is not only local, but well established througout the neighboring States, and an equally acknowledged fact that some of the most notorious criminals in the country have been captured at this point mainly through his efforts. His assistance to the officers of outside departments has been only a return of favors which he has oftimes an observance of a practice in vogue between the police forces of nations, much pronounced Republican, he endeavored less Bergen County and our city. When dignity and education go hand in hand with prejudice, and is employed to develop and display such traits as the recent message contains, they become particularly obnoxious, and tend to thrust weaknesses to the surface which ignorance might keep in the background. An individual who seeks the highest office in the gift of the people principally for the opportunities it may afford him to take advantage of and vilify said people may be well educated in a book sense, fusing the same favor under similar cirbut is certainly lacking in the higher cumstances to others in thecity's em and nobler qualifications of life, which places all true men on an equal footing, makes the honest pauper the peer of the king, and the upright, conscientious, though poor patrolman the superior of the dignified, learned, though unscrupu-

As heretofore stated, the communication was not a recital to the Council of the city's condition, nor did it treat of the wants and disadvantages of our system of government; it was purely a string of personalities, hurled at institutions and men who scorn to bow to the will of our would-be Director-at-Large: at people who have, in the past, in a quiet and dignified manner, scorned to be of the "Cabinet." It was in no sense of the word an official document, but simply a personal attack on the public and private character of both the living and the dead. The Council, under the circumstances, would have been justifled in refusing to recognize as the Mayor's Message what was in reality an arraignment of his individual enemies.

The fact of his struggle with City Clerk Alberts and Corporation Attorney Niven to secure his forty-one sheets of trash a place in the newspapers, proves conclusively the grand dodge to advertise Mr. Besson as the new Mayor. We congratulate the reading public on its narrow

BESSON VS. PROPERTY OWNERS

It was a source of sincere regret to all property owners in Hoboken, to read the foolish and intemperate stump speech which Mayor Besson dubbed a "message" and sent to the Council last Monday evening. It is always to be regretted when the personal dignity of an individual is not up to the standard of the office he holds, for it tends to belittle the office itself. The angry tirade of a man who bitterly cherishes the political animosity of the party to which he used to belong and who uses his official position to publish these quarrels, is not in itself a matter of grave importance to any one outside of the arena of those conflicts. of the twenty-four than any other man But Mr. Besson, now that he has laid aside his Democracy, should forget his that his reputation as an expert and old Democratic friends and foes alike. They are part of the old role, which he used to play; he is engaged as head actor in a new play, and with a new

But the unfortunate part of the matter is, that the New York papers, not knowing that all this is part of an old political squabble, have taken this "message" in earnest, and set Besson down to act the been obliged to request from others, and part of the "fearless reformer" of abuses. The New York Times especially has chanpioned his cause, as the bannerbearer of the Republican party triumphantly over the fallen and corrupt Democratic carcass, the Republican Hercules not stomach his style of English.

This is very funny to those who know to the property owners of the place, inquiry on the part of the New York papers into the truth of these assertions: unfortunately they are only too ready to assume that the message of the Mayor statements of its condition; and they are only too ready to believe and repeat

It is an old adage that, "it is a bad bird that fouls its own nest." How much wiser Mr. Besson would have shown himself if he had only learned to keep quiet when his excited feelings would not let him speak discreetly, and go quietly to thought he saw, instead of injuring every man and woman who owns or rents a house in Hoboken, by advertising to all New York the disadvantages

Mr. Besson's great failing is his unguarded style of talking, and it is to be hoped that the unfortunate blunder which he has made will be a lesson to him in the future to be more careful.

ALLEGED ELOPEMENT.

A Married Man of Forty and a Girl of Eighteen.

Frederick Gerken is a 'longshoreman, about orty years of age, and until last Saturday lived at 134 Hudson street, with his wife and two children. About three weeks ago he reeived a letter from Germany informing him that Emilie Christie, with whose parents he was acquainted, was about to sail for this country, and asking him to meet her.

The girl, a comely blonde, about eighteen years old, arrived in due time and was warmly welcomed by Gerken and his wife. In a short time an undue intimacy sprang up between Gerken and the girl, and on Satur day evening last, when Mrs. Gerken returned from New York, where she had been on a visit, both her husband and Emilie had dis appeared, taking with them everything that was portable in the house. The furniture was sent off on a truck and shipped to Philadelhad saved for years.

It is also stated that a small sum of money that was in the house at the time, was taken.

CAPTAIN BRANDT'S DEATH.

"Heart Disease" Turns Out to B Severance of the Carotid Artery.

Captain Brandt, of the steamship Herder which runs between this city and Hamburg. died very suddenly on board his vessel, on Sunday evening last. It was stated by his fellow-officers, and reported in the daily papers, that the captain died of heart disease but it seems that the officers' "diagnosis" of his disease was a "mistake," and that Cap tain Brandt committed suicide by cutting his throat. He made two gashes in his throat completely severing the carotid artery and bled to death in about five minutes.

The officers state that ever since the arrival of the steamer at this port, Captain Brandt appeared sad and down-hearted; a.d it was believed that he had some family troubles before he left Hamburg, which preved upon his mind.

On Saturday he received a telegram announcing the sudden death of his old shipmate, Captain Johann Mayer, of the steam ship Frisia, of the same line, which had a very depressing effect on him. Captains Mayer and Brandt had been companions from boyhood, had entered the service together. and had been promoted captains about the same time. Mayer died from heart disease, and it was at first reported that the shock had produced a similar attack on Brandt. causing his death.

It is now supposed that this sudden and unexpected news caused Captain Brandt to commit suicide. County Physician Converse granted a burial certificate, deeming an inquest unnecessary, and the funeral services were held on board the Herder on Tuesday. The officers appeared in full uniform. Rev. Mr. Mohn, of the German Lutheran Church, offered a prayer and spoke briefly of the unfortunate termination of Captain Brandt's life, who before had braved many perils on A large number of friends of the deceased captain viewed the remains. Many steamers had their flags at half mast in respect to his nemory. The remains were deposited in a vault in the Hoboken Cemetery, from whence they will be shipped to Germany in the course of a few weeks.

Captain Brandt was fifty-one years of age. and Captain Mayer, of the Frisia, fifty-nine rears old; both being in the employ of the Hamburg Line for about twenty-five years.

Since the above was put in type, we learn that Brand't must have contemplated the taking of his own life some time previous, as appears from letters discovered since, and the nvestment of $3,000 which he had made for the benefit of his wife and children, whom he loved darly, through his friend Sigismund Kaufmann, saying, "Do this, I beg of you. for my wife and children, whom I love devedly.

Trustee Munson Speaks.

President Munson's speech, on being reelected Chairman of the Board of Education, as given below, was a very terse address yet sufficiently elaborate to embrace a brief review of the past affairs of the department. He also touched on many changes which may be judiclously made during the coming year, and earnestly prayed for harmony promising impartiality towards all:

GENTLEMEN OF THE BOARD OF EDUCA-TION—For the honor you have conferred upon me in choosing me as your presiding officer for a second term. I most sincerely thank you, and assure you that I will cheerfully cooperate with you in every measure which may e introduced for the benefit of our schools

With yourselves, I am most deeply im ressed with the responsibilities resting upon us as custodians of one of the most importan terests of our city government, and I trust there will be no other emulation in this body the coming year than that which may be stimulated by a desire to do the most good In all such efforts we can work together harmoniously. To this end I will look confidently for your support, while I will endeavor to act with impartiality toward all.

I trust that in the earnestness which may at times be introduced into our discussions, we will ever bear in mind the courtesy due from one member to another. You will propnot doubt of your hearty cooperation should such necessity arise.

The affairs of the last board were conducted in a manner highly satisfactory. committees done their work faithfully and well. Their recompense will be all the evil reports which the Mayor of sufficient in the knowledge of having conscientiously performed their duty and in the results which may be seen in the improved condition of our schools. In the last year extra expenses had to be incurred, which wer brought to the attention of the Tax Commis By judicious management we have sue ceeded in keeping within the amount approwork to remedy the abuses which he priated. In the coming year the ordinary repairs needed will be somewhat less, exclusive of the necessary improvements required in the heating arrangements of No. 4. It will be necessary to have the Manual revised, as since the last was published several new rules have been adopted. I would suggest, as an improvement, that a comprehensive state ment of the condition of our schools be embodied in the revised Manual and that a sufficient number of copies be printed for necessary distribution. I would also suggest the importance of acquiring more room at No. 3 School, by purchasing, at a reasonable rate, two or three ! ts in the rear. As it is, the water-closets are in too close proximity to the rear class-rooms, thereby interfering with the circulation of pure and wholesome air. It is desirable that early action be taken in this matter, and it will be properly brought to the attention of the Council in our forthcoming report to that body.

We will go before the Tax Commissioners in this, as in previous years, asking for only what we deem necessary for the support of the schools for the current year. Let us go forward, gentlemen, the coming year in the conscientious performance of our duties, and the good results flowing from such abors will meet with the approval of our fel low-citizens, and all will be well.

Homeward Bound

Herder on Thursday the dock of the Hamburg-American line was thronged with the friends and admirers of the distinguished German actress, Mme. Geistinger, who sailed for home on that vessel. Mme. Geistinger arrived shortly after 11 A. M., and was received with tremendous cheers, the ladies on deck and shore joining in the applause, while the orchestra of the Thalia Theatre, while the orchestra of the Thalia Theatre, which was stationed on the poop-deck, played selections from various operas. It is surprising that a man of Mr. Besson's pure motives and unselfish principles would even be Mayor of such a hole, particularly ng its abuses when he had two years' trial at reform and succeeded only in making its condition and epresentation more questionable

It is the opinion of many of our heaviest taxpayers that Mr. Besson's effusion was paradoxical to every feature pertaining to the welfare of the city. It places the credit and standing of Hoboken away below par, and must necessarily tend to interfere with our progress, which has been quite flattering during the past year. Under the circumstances, the members of the Council had good ground for suppressing a document which had the ouble object of directly injuring persons, while indirectly ruining the prospects of the city.

ravor a rair and equitator records of outcomesone assessments, yet, it is also true, that the taxpayers will have to be vigilant, and the authorities of the city discreet and cautious, to prevent great and permanent injustice to the city, which may easily be done under the law of 1881, which contains the following clause, to which I invite the attention of your Honorable Body:

"And provided, further, that the same Board of Finance and Taxation shall put into the tax levy, each year, any and all deficiencies accruing or arising from any settlement, adjustment, or com-promise of any taxes or assessments under the pro-visions of this act."

visions of this act."

Thus it will be seen that any rebate of tax or assessment that may hereafter be made must be made good in the succeeding tax levy, or, in other words, those who are able and willing to pay their taxes will be assessed for those who are unable or unwilling to pay. As the law of 1881 places great powers in the Mayor and Council, it is to be hoped for, that its exercise will be such as will result in benefit to the city, and meet with the approval of our citizens.

GENTLEMEN—The supplement to the ordinance prescribing the duties of the Corporation Attorney, adopted at your session of April 29, 1881, which increases the salary of that office, I return without my approval. The reasons assigned for increasing the salary are, as I understand them, that the business of the office is now greater than formerly, and necessarily takes more time and attention. This I believe, Yet many gentlemen are now not only willing, but extremely anxions to secure the office at the present salary. Amongst this number I may with propriety place the present inagmbent.

Respectfully,

GENTLEMEN—The amendment to the ordinance establishing the Board of Education, which passed at your session of April 29, 1831, I return without my approval. Section I reads as follows:

That hereafter all supplies and repairs of school buildings, used for public schools in the city of Hoboken shall be done by direction of the Mayor and Council, upon requisition of the Bayor and Council, upon requisition of the Bayor and supplies exceed in value one hundred dollars, proposals therefore must be advertised for according to law, and the work and materials shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder. "The Board of Trustees are now required by law to advertise all supplies and repairs which exceed one hundred dollars, hence I am of the opinion that good and sound reasons should not only be advanced, but be also well understood as to why your Honorable Body deemed it necessary to pass such an ordinance, which casts a reflection upon the people elected, and on their integrity also. For the long, grey line of the coasts, I look to the past rearisen, And joys come over in hosts Like the white sea-birds from their roosts

I love not the indelicate present, The future's unknown to our quest; To-day is the life of the peasant, But the nest is a haven of rest .--The joy of the past is the best.

The rose of the past is better Than the rose we ravish to-day; Tis holier, purer, and fitter To place on the shrine where we pray-For the secret thoughts we obev.

There are no deceptions nor changes, There, all 's placid and still; No grief no. fate that estranger Nor hope that no life can fulfill, But ethereal shelter from ill.

The coarser delights of the hour Tempt and debauch and deprave; And we joy in a poisonous flower, Knowing that nothing can save Our flesh from the fate of the grave.

But surely we leave them, returning In grief to the well-loved nest, Filled with an infinite yearning, Knowing the past to be rest-That the things of the past are the best. -The Spectator
