HOBOKEN, OCTOBER 8, 1881.

Official paper of the city of Hoboken.

See the call for the Democratic Primaries in another column.

Conkling, Conkling, do you not now rue the day you blundered, and ruined "Me Too."

The "cold wave." A blessing to the damp ward of this city, and a dirge and tomb to the mosquitoes of that wet neighborhood.

The politicians are on the look out for the foreign vote already. Patriot and Hans command a heavy premium in the suffrage market.

A newspaper advertisement will do a business more good than if a business man placarded the whole side of a barn as large as the new City Hall.

Over $350,000 for the Garfield fund; but the Michigan sufferers—hungry and naked—must content themselves with tattered shreds of second-hand mourning drapery.

The Democratic County Convention for the nomination of Sheriff, Director-at-Large and Coroners, will be held at Franklin Hall, Jersey City, on Saturday, October 15th.

The Argus and Journal are engaged in a sweet family quarrel involving about $10,000. It is "hammer and anvil" with them—one gives all the blows and the other makes all the noise.

Malaria last week in the form of small-pox; disease in the shape of chills and fever this week form, exclusive of the violations of law, the principal item of news from the Fourth Ward.

The Jersey City Argus has secured a great acquisition to its editorial staff in the person of Mr. William E. Sackett, who will occupy the city editor's chair. If Mr. Sackett cannot make the Argus a success, it had better "give it up as a bad job."

General Mahone can never again act with the Democratic party.—Richmond Dispatch. We would like to know when he ever did act with that party. Democrats affiliate not with repudiators and violators of most solemnly made pledges. Mahone is a fit tail to balance the Republican kite.

The Hoboken Advertiser is one of the five sheets of the day. Moyer & Luehs are the electric battery that has made this new light in the world jump into public favor with a patronage astonishing to themselves. They have well-earned and deserve their success.—New York American Business Journal.

A sarcastic civil service reformer desires that Congressmen shall pass an examination in arithmetic, geography, and English grammar. How could Congressmen pass an examination in the two latter qualifications. They learned but politics and arithmetic, as was very forcibly exemplified some time ago in Pennsylvania. "Addition, division, and silence," you know.

Canadians, wishing to appear as "some pumpkins" threaten to seize upon Wrangell Land, although the United States marine officer who planted the Stars and Stripes upon its icy shores was the first American who ever set foot there. The "blue noses" know right well that Wrangell Land is not worth the wrangling for; hence, this ebullition of kanukian belligerency.

The next Legislature will have important work before it. Besides disposing of the measure to secure equitable taxation and to relieve municipal corporations, the report of the Constitutional Commission will claim a great deal of attention and time. State Treasurer Wagoner's time will expire next winter, and Stewart will become Half-Breed Governor as soon as he is elected.

THE COMING ELECTION IN THIS STATE.

In a review of the Senatorial fight this fall the Peterson Guardian has the following gossip:

"One of the most important elements that will really enter into the political contest this fall is the choice of United States Senator, which does not take place until a year from next winter. Each of the eight State Senators to be elected next November for a term of three years will have a vote in the choice of a successor to Mr. McPherson, and as the Assemblymen elected for the first time this fall will be renominated in accordance with party usage for a second term, they will become, immediately after their nomination a few weeks hence, objects of solicitude to aspiring United States Senatorial candidates. It is always expected that those who are ambitious of seats in the United States Senate shall contribute more or less to the election expenses of the members of the Legislature nominated by their party and then buy these very same men over again when the time for the Senatorial caucus arrives.

The gerrymandering of the Assembly districts of this State by the last Legislature was intended to give the Republican party a great advantage in securing a majority of the lower House, which they would have probably failed to reap were it not that the tide of popular sympathy with the late President cannot fall in some measure to beneficially influence the fortunes of his party.

So far as it effects the choice of United States Senator, the Republicans in the approaching campaign will directly derive their advantage in the counties where State Senators are to be elected. There are sixty Assembly districts in the State, but owing to the ingenuity and dishonesty of the Republican gerrymandering of last winter, the Democrats have a majority in but twenty-four districts, tested by the Assembly vote of last November. No doubt the Republicans of the Legislature would have made the disproportion of Democratic districts greater, but they found this impossible in a State where there is a decided Democratic majority. The vote of last fall was no test of Democratic strength, loaded down as the party then was with a national platform seriously misconstrued by its opponents. The Republicans can never make a greater effort than they did at the last election to secure the Governor and Legislature, and they spent money for that object without stint. Notwithstanding the disadvantage of the Republican gerrymandering, it is possible for the Democrats to obtain a majority in the Assembly with good nominations and proper efforts, and to that end they will make a fight both this year and next, with a fair prospect of success.

Of the counties in which Senators are to be elected this year, Camden and Essex are surely Republican, while Warren and Monmouth are safe enough for the Democracy. Gloucester, Salem, Union and Somerset will each afford a field for a pretty nearly even contest, and the canvass in each will no doubt be energetic and the result close. Should the Democrats carry all these doubtful counties it would give them a majority of one in the next Senate, with a more than even chance of retaining it next year, when Senators from six counties only are to be elected. The Democrats, under the most adverse fortunes, cannot fall this fall to improve their standing in the State Senate, even should they fall short of a controlling majority in that body.

The Republicans will not be permitted to gain the seat of Mr. McPherson in the United States Senate without one of the most desperate struggles that have ever taken place in this State. They need this seat very badly to help them to a majority in the highest branch of the national legislature, and there is evidence that they intend to make a strong effort to elect a Republican colleague for Mr. Sewell. They will labor, however, under the disadvantage of having among their struggling candidates a lot of poor material which they will not be able to keep in the background, while it is more than probable that the whole Democratic effort will be concentrated in favor of Mr. McPherson. There are rumors that ex-Senator Randolph will also be in the field, but we are not able to trace them to any reliable source. Either of these gentlemen would make a candidate in whom the Democratic party would have the greatest confidence."

HOW ARE THE MIGHTY FALLEN.

The New York Republican State Convention met, at Conkling's suggestion, at the Academy of Music, New York, on Wednesday, and a greater defeat was never sustained than that of the Stalwarts. Imperialism has received its death-blow. Not only were Lord Roscoe's delegates refused admission to the "Hall" but resolutions endorsing the Half-Breed programme were passed with enthusiasm. The routing of Conkling and his cohorts of imperialism, is not only a glad sign for the future of the "model Republic," but a guarantee that Uncle Sam—the people—intend to hold their legislators accountable to the last degree.

Had the great "Chieftain of Oneida County" properly felt the pulse of the people whose most favored representative he claimed to be, he would not be in the undignified position he occupies. Kelly to-day occupies a higher position in his party than does Mr. Conkling, and if the latter does not possess some inherent properties for which we have never given him credit as a statesman, he will sink to the lowest depths of a common primary leader.

Mr. Conkling's popularity was entirely comprised in his power to control and control the distribution of patronage. And Stewart will become Half-Breed Governor as soon as he is elected.

of these factions discovers in what direction Gen. Arthur is likely to send the parachute of fat offices. And so will Conkling's fortunes, like those of Napoleon, depend upon the importance of the victories he may claim to have achieved.

The Constitutional Commission.

The Constitutional Commission appointed by virtue of a joint resolution passed by the Legislature, last winter, to prepare a draft of proposed amendments to the constitution of the State, held a meeting in the City Hall, Jersey City, last Friday, for the purpose of hearing suggestions and arguments in the line of the work they have to do. Of the Commission there were present Chairman H. N. Congar, Hon. Garret A. Hobart, President of the Senate, Speaker Van Dyne, Hon. Leon Abbott, Hon. John Bird, Hon. Wm. McKeon and Hon. H. W. Murphy.

A delegation of Germans from Newark, headed by Dr. Leihbach, submitted a memorial demanding that the constitution be so amended as to more sharply draw the line between church and State. The paper was filed for reference.

Chairman Congar announced that Hon. Courtlandt Parker and Mr. Miles E. Shipman had sent him a memorial with reference to an amendment concerning the practice of law in this State. The meeting was then thrown open for suggestions.

Mr. Thomas V. Cator, as counsel for the Anti-Monopolists, took the floor and held it over an hour. He submitted the formulated ideas of the Jersey City Anti-Monopoly Union.

Speeches were made by Dr. Quimby and others, advocating the taking of the roads and canals by the State.

Mr. W. H. H. Bartram, President of the Temperance Alliance, submitted an amendment prohibiting the manufacture of distilled liquors within the State, except for medicinal, mechanical or scientific purposes.

The Convention filed the papers and then adjourned.

Yorktown Centennial Notes.

Mr. Theodore E. Davis, the artist, of Asbury Park, left there a few days since for the scene of the Yorktown celebration, where he will make sketches. He will also visit the Atlanta Cotton Exhibition before returning.

A vase worth $1,000 will be given to the best drilled battalion which participates in the Yorktown centennial celebration. The party offering the prize will leave the appointment of the Committee of Award to Secretary Lincoln.

In a few days the New Jersey troops will depart for the scene of the surrender of Lord Cornwallis. The event promises to be a very important one in military circles, and the companies of the National Guard which have been selected to represent New Jersey are in high glee.

Rear Admiral Wyman, on board the flag-ship Tennessee, now at New York, informs the Navy Department that in accordance with his instructions he has appointed Lieutenant-Commander H. C. White as Navy Harbor Master at the anchorage in York River, and requests that a tug may be assigned to his use. He also asks that three tugs be placed at his own disposal upon the arrival of the squadron at Yorktown.

Gen. W. S. Hancock has made his disposition of the troops which will represent the regular army at the Yorktown centennial celebration. There will be a brigade of four battalions of foot troops and two batteries of light artillery, under command of Gen. H. B. Clyte, Col. Tenth Infantry, who will designate an acting Assistant Adjutant General in addition to the following officers, who have been detailed for his staff: Major John H. Janeway, Surgeon Major Joseph P. Sanger, Captain First Artillery, Ordnance Officer; and First Lieutenant Erasmus M. Cobb, Jr., Second Artillery, Acting Assistant Commissary of Subsistence.

The Police Board.

A meeting of the Police Commissioners was held last Friday, full Board being in attendance. The charge against Aid Ringe, preferred by the pound keeper, resulted in the Aid's being sentenced to a reprimand from the Mayor. Officer Kivlon had three charges of being late and of post preferred against him by Roundsman Jacobs. The same Roundsman charged Officers Weibe and Rathjen with being forty minutes late in reporting for duty. Aid Ringe complained that Officer Kenney failed to arrest a man who was acting in a drunken and disorderly manner in the park, the man being afterward arrested by another officer and sentenced to the penitentiary for sixty days. A knotty kind of question is involved in the police appropriation. The funds not being likely to liquidate expenses for the balance of the fiscal year, the Commissioners decided upon a course which is held in some well-informed quarters to be very questionable, that of reducing the pay of the force after it had been established for the year ending May, 1882. If the action of the Board at its last meeting holds good, the following will be the pay of the different ranks: Chief, $140 per month; aids, $83.33; roundsmen, $77; patrolmen, $67. If the Commissioners have not, as many believe, the legal authority to make these reductions, the police can gain the amount stopped by appealing to the Courts.

The D., L. & W.'s New Purchase.

Here is home news about one of our railroads from the Newton Herald: It is said that the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad Company is considering the advisability of purchasing the Ogden Mine Railroad. In case they should do so, says the Dover Era, they would doubtless build a branch from Port Morris to the railroad in question. Besides the vast amount of ore shipped over this road there would be other advantages that would accrue to the D., L. & W. road, notably among which would be a largely increased summer travel to the lake, and the shipment of the immense quantities of ice which could be gathered there in the winter. The Stanhope furnaces would be greatly benefited by having their ore shipped to them direct from the mines without second handling.

State Schools.

State Superintendent Appar has addressed a circular letter to the trustees of district schools in which he says: "The spirit of the school law of New Jersey is, that the State shall furnish the means of maintaining the school, while the local authorities shall provide suitable school accommodations. What is the condition of your school building? Is it large enough to accommodate all the children who are sent to it?"

TO GRACIE BAE T.

BY GRANDPA.

[A beautiful piece of blank verse was furnished the Advertiser last week, under the caption "To Dodo," by a contributor signing himself "D. J. G.," and this week we present a companion to "Dodo," which is a no less talented piece of literary composition, from the pen of the same author.]

And then hast came at last! Through rifted clouds, That make the barrier 'twixt earth and heaven, Thou saw'st and envied Dodo's happiness, So, far to test the joy of human love, As interchanged 'tween mother and her son, So dar'ed'st intrude thyself, and claim An equal share. Well, then, thou art welcome. Nor hast thou made 'tventure hopelessly. For in the mother's heart lies stored of love Enough and more for Dodo and thyself.

Ever thou didst hazard to invest thyself In mortal garb, didst truly estimate Responsibilities thereto attached? Thou hast become thy brother's keeper, yes, No less than he is thine. The bonds are forged That hold him near thee heart in trust need, To smooth rough temper, to restrain a tongue Outburst of jealous boyhood, and to graze On ruder nature soft, restraining cheek— Example's true and potent monitors— By maiden cousin and a sister's love To lead to graceful manhood and to God. This, then, thy mission, fore-ordained of God, And best fulfilled, assures His high attest, And seals the compact of fraternal love. D. J. G.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

"Said to be True."

HOBOKEN, October 6, 1881.

Editor Advertiser:

DEAR SIR:—In last week's issue of the Hudson County Democrat, under the head of "Said to be True," appears the following: "That everybody who the police know that there are several places of evil resort in this city. They are both licensed by the Council and claim to be hotels."

If the editor or the proprietors of the Democrat know such places to exist, why don't they come forward, like men, and publish the names?

CITIZEN.

"A Gentleman from Boston."

Hudson County Judges take very little "stock" in where a man may hail from when placed before them for trial for theft; and so the young man representing himself as a Bostonian found in his cell last Monday in the General Sessions Court, Judge Garretson presiding. Our readers will remember that last June the boarding house of Mrs. Emily Wilhelm, No. 145 Hudson street, was robbed by some thief or thieves, and among the heaviest sufferers was Tang Kawai Tyng, a Chinese student studying at the Stevens Institute, who lost wearing apparel valued at about $200. A young man named Harding, representing himself as a "gentleman from Boston," was arrested for the theft, and part of the missing property found in his trunk. Tyng subsequently departed for China; but his presence was not necessary at the trial of Harding, the evidence of Misses Clara and Mary Hettendorf, Miss Annie Hill, Mrs. Wilhelm and Special Officer Harrison proving more than sufficient to overwhelm the cunningly arranged defense of the prisoner, who was convicted by the jury.

Robbing the City.

Several days ago Councilman Quirk noticed that two valuable iron columns, belonging to the city, had mysteriously disappeared, and he communicated the fact to the police. Subsequently the property was found in the possession of Claus Bojter, a dealer in old iron, on Newark street. Bojter was taken into custody, and when arraigned, he stated that he had purchased the iron from a junk dealer, named Callahan, living on Jersey City Heights. Knowing him to be in the business, Bojter never for a moment suspected that the columns had been stolen. Bojter was released under $200 bonds, and was requested to produce Callahan in court. It is stated that three men, who were employed in some capacity about the new City Hall, sold the two iron columns to Callahan and "divided the booty." The city has repeatedly been robbed in a similar manner, and it is time such thefts were stopped.

The Freeholder Middle.

It is generally reported that the members of the Board of Freeholders so summarily dealt with by the Director-at-Large are determined to vindicate themselves before the eyes of their constituents and the public. This sounds all very well upon paper, but, so far, we believe the Director has the best of the situation. We make no pretensions to possessing any jot of information likely to incriminate the discharged Freeholders; but we positively assert that the Board committed a very grave blunder when it refused, by a vote of 7 to 5, to appoint a committee of inquiry. This, we should say, places the action of the Director in a stronger light before the public; and, therefore, we would recommend such members of the Board as consider themselves aggrieved to have a public investigation of the whole matter with the least possible delay.

The Land League.

The usual weekly meeting of the Hoboken Branch, was held on Monday evening, in St. Mary's School Hall, the President, Mr. Mintram, in the chair. Mr. Edward Meagher acted as Secretary. On motion, it was agreed that the lecture of the President be delivered on Monday week, and a resolution was passed calling on the members to be present at the next meeting, as very important business will be transacted. The Financial Secretary, in reply to a circular from Mr. Collins, President of the National Land League of the United States, asking for statistics concerning membership, finances, &c. of the Branch of this city, was empowered to forward all the information asked for. The meeting then adjourned.

Good News for Soldiers.

The Commissioner of Pensions is considering the advisability of recommending to Congress the passage of a new pension act. The law contemplated will provide for the pensioning of all Union soldiers who were in rebel prisons for any length of time, and suffering the horrors of Andersonville, Belle Isle and Salisbury. The Commissioner holds that the constitutions of many men were wrecked and that more injury was inflicted in thousands of cases by the starvation of the prison pens than by service in the field of wounds in battle. He is now making an effort to have his name be used for this office.

Wm. McAdoo.

Wm. McAdoo, we are glad to learn from a card of A. L. McDermott, is likely to have a walk-over in the Eighth Assembly District. Mr. McAdoo would represent the district in a manner to fully satisfy the wishes of such an important constituency.

The Hudson County Anti-Monopolist Convention, held in the Court House, Jersey City Heights, Thursday evening, nominated Ben. Van Keuren for Sheriff and Thos. Aldridge for Director-at-Large of the Freeholders.

So it seems that "Brass" N. Crane has given up his wild dream of running for the nomination for Sheriff and now indulges in the equally crazy notion that he can get the Democratic nomination for Director-at-Large of the Freeholders.

The Young Men's Democratic Club of the Fourth Ward held a meeting on Tuesday night, the President, Mr. Timothy Conlin, presiding. Committees were appointed to select the delegates to be voted for at the primaries on next Tuesday evening.

It will be remembered that Mr. Wm. N. Parslow's name received a larger number of votes for Freeholder than that of any other candidate hailing from Hoboken; and, therefore, the friends of this gentleman regards a triumphant issue as the result of his candidacy of the Directorship-at-Large in case he allows his name to be used for this office.

how many names such an act would add to the pension rolls, and what it would cost the Government annually should it go into effect. Upon the result of this inquiry will depend somewhat the nature of his recommendation.

A Human Tiger.

"Some men, we believe, were never intended by 'nature or nature's God' to enjoy the blessings of matrimony. When any such brute as we have alluded to succeeds in gaining the affections of a maiden, no sooner have the sacred ceremonies of the marital knot been than he treats the woman whom he has most solemnly pledged himself to 'love, cherish and protect' as a Chinaman or other barbarian would treat his paramour. Fred. W. Schultz, of 12 Jefferson street, is a fair illustration of the idea we have advanced. On Tuesday last he not only beat his wife to an almost insensible degree, but Mrs. Good and Mrs. Hartman, who attempted to save the unfortunate wife, were both violently assailed by the unnatural brute. After the cry of 'Murder!' 'Police!' etc., had been several times raised by sympathetic neighbors, Officer Taylor appeared on the scene and arrested the desperado. He is now in the county jail awaiting trial for his inhuman conduct.

A $500 Verdict.

A very important decision was delivered in Judge Knapp's Court on Tuesday last. It forever, we believe, disposes of the case of reckless driving. One Joseph McAlleer brought suit against a Hoboken grocer named Widman for having, by reckless driving, injured his son. The defendant attempted a non-suit on the plea that carelessness on the part of McAlleer's servant was the cause of the accident. Judge Knapp decided that parents who have not the means of employing servants should not be held accountable, and the jury brought in a verdict awarding $500 to the plaintiff. Counsel for defendant, Mr. Meyer; for plaintiff, Mr. Besson.

The Lewis Will Case.

The Lewis will case is before the United States Circuit Court again, this time upon a bill filed by the United States against the executors, John Wolf and George D. H. Gillespie. This old man's money, which he willed to the Government towards paying of the national debt, has caused no little amount of trouble in the courts. This suit is brought to compel the executors to pay over the amount, which now amounts to $1,500,000, to the United States.

Ingathering Day.

To-morrow will be a red-letter day in the history of the First M. E. Church of this city. Over fifty persons will be received into church fellowship. Among this number are some of our prominent citizens. The pastorate of the Rev. Mr. Lowrie in this church has been one of eminent success. The church was never in all its history so prosperous as it is now. The regret of all is that the term of Mr. Lowrie's pastorate closes next spring.

Political Notes.

The County Convention this year consists of 199 delegates.

Ramon M. Cook will run strong for the nomination for sheriff.

Mayor Besson's name has been mentioned for Assembly by a few Republican heaters.

Fred. Heinz stands a good chance of getting the Democratic nomination for Sheriff. Daniel Quirk is not a candidate for Mayor, "Polyglot" to the contrary notwithstanding.

The contest for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff is getting hot. Plenty of fun ahead.

Ex-Surrogate McCague will assuredly contest the nomination for the shrievalty of this county.

We have been positively assured that Mr. John Mullins will not be in the shrievalty contest.

We understand that Hon. James Curran will not be a candidate for re-election to the Assembly.

Secretary Blaine's son, Walker, is in training for the Congressional course, in the Third Maine district, next year.

Local politicians are now busy in "cooking up" the primaries and making out their lists of election officers, polling places, etc.

Mr. James Minturn, a young lawyer of this city, will, we are informed, be a candidate for the Assembly from the Seventh District.

Mr. Malcolm M. Niven, our present Corporation Attorney, will probably be a candidate for Assembly honors from the Ninth District.

True to their proclivities for political chicanery, the Republicans have divided the Seventh Assembly delegates—one body holding their primaries in Hoboken, the other in Jersey City.

Mr. John J. Devitt, of this city, is being mentioned for Coroner from this section of the county. Mr. Devitt is a popular young man, and would undoubtedly fill the position with general satisfaction.

The Republicans have appointed the 18th instant as the day for holding their County Convention; but it is not regarded as anything but a ruse. The Democrats will certainly hold theirs on the 15th.

Wm. McAdoo, we are glad to learn from a card of A. L. McDermott, is likely to have a walk-over in the Eighth Assembly District. Mr. McAdoo would represent the district in a manner to fully satisfy the wishes of such an important constituency.

The Hudson County Anti-Monopolist Convention, held in the Court House, Jersey City Heights, Thursday evening, nominated Ben. Van Keuren for Sheriff and Thos. Aldridge for Director-at-Large of the Freeholders.

So it seems that "Brass" N. Crane has given up his wild dream of running for the nomination for Sheriff and now indulges in the equally crazy notion that he can get the Democratic nomination for Director-at-Large of the Freeholders.

The Young Men's Democratic Club of the Fourth Ward held a meeting on Tuesday night, the President, Mr. Timothy Conlin, presiding. Committees were appointed to select the delegates to be voted for at the primaries on next Tuesday evening.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Clara Louise Kellogg is worth $500,000. It's no wonder she has so many offers of marriage.

Do not forget the Michigan sufferers. Contributions of clothing, household goods or money are still needed.

Annie Muller committed suicide, in Detroit, because her sweetheart gave his trousers to another girl to mend.

Senator McPherson has sold the cattle-car patent he obtained a couple of years ago for his own invention, for $100,000.

Mrs. Garfield and family, including Grand-ma Garfield, have quietly settled down at Mentor. Let their grief be respected.

The official autopsy upon the body of Gen. Garfield shows that the fatal hemorrhage came from a rent in the splenic artery.

The friends of Mr. J. B. Brewer, the well-known journalist, will regret to learn that he is again confined to his home by illness.

Once they started a girls' seminary in Utah. It flourished well; but just in the height of its prosperity the principal eloped with the whole school.

Dan. Rice, of circus fame, began his career as a jockey boy for Henry Clay, on his Lexington, Ky., farm, and at one time was considered worth $500,000.

The Rev. George F. Meredith, who has figured in Illinois as a "boy preacher," has been arraigned by his Methodist Conference on charges of falsehood, drunkenness and profanity.

Mr. Henry L. Rannenberg, who went to Denver, Col., about six months ago for the benefit of his health, returned a few days since looking, we are glad to state, like his old self again.

Francis Murphy, the temperance orator, is in London with his son Edward, who is helping him. He has been holding meetings as of old, and denies the report that he is to become a Methodist minister.

The Rev. Dr. See, who was some time ago disciplined by the Presbytery of Newark for inviting ladies to preach in his church, has now embraced the doctrines of the Swedenborgians, and is editing a newspaper.

Since the death of President Garfield, Mrs. Lincoln is said to be in great distress of mind on account of her son, Robert Lincoln, the Secretary of War, who, she fears, may fall at the hands of an assassin, as did his father. She desires to prevail upon him to leave Washington and the public service.

President Arthur is the first President who entered upon the duties of the office elsewhere than at the seat of Government, but there was a Vice-President who took the oath of office in a foreign land. Hon. Wm. R. King, of Alabama, was elected Vice-President in 1852 on the ticket with President Pierce. He was in feeble health, and early in January, 1853, his physicians advised him to go to Cuba. Congress passed a special act, under which he took the oath of office before the Consul-General, at Havana, March 4, 1853. He died soon after returning home.

Many Northern men are now in business in Chattanooga, Tenn., and Atlanta, Ga. Venezuela has over 30,000 generals, and yet is one of the most peaceful States of South America.

The Singer Sewing Machine Company have determined to remain at Elizabethport and carry on their business.

The stage settings of Hooley's Theatre, Chicago, are so arranged on Sundays as to represent a pulpit, and the congregation that gathers there is very large.

Tickets for the American Institute Fair, New York, purchased at the elevated railroad stations, entitle the holder to a free ride both going and returning from the exhibition.

The annual convention of the Hudson County Sunday School Association will be held in the Simpson M. E. Church, Central avenue, Jersey City Heights, on Oct. 27th.

The reunion of the survivors of the Fourteenth New Jersey Volunteers will be held at Liberty Hall, Elizabeth, October 19th, the anniversary of the battle of Cedar Creek, Va.

The big California tree that has stood in Plenie Square, Asbury Park, for several years, was taken down last week and shipped to Yorktown, Va., where it will be put on exhibition.

A Southern journal says this year's rice crop in the Gulf States will reach 150,000,000 bushels. It is predicted that the rice industry will soon rival that of sugar growing in Louisiana.

At the Coney Island Iron Pier prize drawing, a few days since, the lucky numbers were, 38,159, 46,741, 28,989, 47,819 and 19,142, some of which have found owners and the same made happy.

Over 50,000 baskets of peaches had been shipped from Flemington to New York up to Saturday last. Peaches have sold at exorbitant prices, and those who were lucky enough to have a half crop have done well.

A memorial window of richly-stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal Church, Long Branch, in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window opposite the seat occupied by President Garfield the Sunday before he was shot.

The matter of the final interment of the late President Garfield's remains at Mentor or Sherman having been agitated in his old district, Mrs. Garfield said on Saturday last that the question of his burial place is no longer open and will not be opened. The body will remain in the Cleveland Cemetery.

The late Hon. I. W. Scudder, of Jersey City, leaves an estate amounting to almost $400,000, the bulk of which goes to distant relatives, one third of the estate going to his niece, Miss Mary Scudder, of Chicago, and the remaining two-thirds to the three children of a dead nephew. His large library of law books he leaves to James B. Vredenburg. To Mr. Elmer, who was managing clerk in his office, he leaves $1,000, and to the five children of the late John B. Haight he leaves $1,500, to be divided among them. The estate consists principally of stocks, bonds and mortgages. E. W. Kingsland, of the Provident Savings Institute, is appointed the sole executor of the estate.

SPORTING NOTES.

The sporting world is turned upside down. American horses are beating everything in England, and a Scotch yacht is beating everything in America.

Ball birds may be shot this month and next, and birds till Dec. 1, and summer ducks till Jan. 1. Robins are protected the year round.

was able and interesting, and thoroughly enjoyed by his large audience.

Services will be held in the Free Tabernacle M. E. Church, Park avenue and Fifth street, Rev. K. B. Collins pastor, to-morrow, as follows: Preaching at 10:30 A. M., the third sermon in the series on prayer, subject, "Family Prayer." Preaching in the evening at 7:30 P. M., by the Presiding Elder.

Miss Lizzie Rentz, a niece of Frank J. Rentz, of Weehawken, on last Saturday attempted the foolish act of lighting a fire with kerosene oil. The natural result was an explosion, and the young girl was so severely burned that she was removed to St. Mary's Hospital, this city, where she died on Monday.

The annual shooting festival of the Clatsop and Price Brewery Guards took place on Tuesday, and, as might have been expected, turned out, in number of barouches and imposing appearance, a most attractive affair. The Schuetzen Park was made lively by the festive participants in the festivities until an early hour Wednesday morning.

The semi-annual election of officers of the Equitable Social Club took place at their rooms on Tuesday evening, and resulted as follows: President, Peter Boncolet; Vice President, Wm. Sturm; Recording Secretary, Otto Kiern; Corresponding Secretary, Thos. J. Newgam; Treasurer, Charles Engel and Sergeant-at-Arms, Julius Nelson.

The homeliest man in Hoboken must be Mr. Alfred Rossler, he having been voted the silk hat presented by S. J. Smith at the Free Tabernacle Ladies' Harvest Home Festival, at the Franklin Lyceum, this week. The chief competitors were Captain Chase, R. Steadman, Fred Fuller and Mr. Rossler. The festival was in every way a success.

The placard which was circulated in this city and elsewhere, stating that the Government had fixed a value on the coins which are mutilated by punching and clipping, is a fraud. The Government has taken no action in the matter. Anyone who chooses can refuse to take any mutilated coin, as it is not legal tender, but no specific value is placed on such money.

Excelsior Hook and Ladder Company, of New Durham, having had some repairs made on their "merch" on Saturday last were escorted by Washington Truck, of this city, to the home of the latter, and a jollification ensued which was mutually enjoyed by both companies. Entertainers and entertained vied manfully to show their appreciation of the good things provided.

Our school officials have been notified by the County Board of Health, directing them not to receive pupils from small-pox infected districts. Similar instructions have been sent to several of the larger factories, and it has been made the duty of all physicians, through notification from the same source, to report all cases of the malady coming under their notice to the Department of the County Board of Health.

Dey's Point will, in a short time, be a place of considerable industrial importance, the tunnel of the New York, Ontario & Western Railway being pushed rapidly towards completion. Four slips will be located south of the "Point;" huge grain elevators will be erected, storehouses and workshops built, thus providing industry for such of our mechanical and laboring population as may need bread-earning employment.

A very strong instance of love of one's birth-place, when a premonition of approaching decreas makes itself felt, was furnished by Mr. William Hartung, of this city, who was stricken with consumption while on a late visit to Europe, and, feeling that his end was approaching, hurried home to end his days amid the scenes of his childhood. His interment took place on Monday last from Masonic Hall. Deceased was one of Hoboken's oldest citizens, and known as a former hotel keeper.

The Hall of the Martha Institute was well filled on Thursday evening, by an appreciative audience, which had gathered to listen to the humorous and dramatic readings of Mr. A. P. Burbank. His rendition of "A Basket of Flowers," "Little Hero" and the ghost scene from "Rip Van Winkle" (by Boucicault) were specially deserving of mention. The entertainment was given under the auspices of "Amacitia G. F. V." A series of similar entertainments will be given by this society during the coming winter.

Mr. John Bessunger, lately connected with Mr. Chas. Kaegebehn's billiard and pool rooms on Washington street, this city, has crossed the river, and on Tuesday evening next will open a sample and pool room at No. 23 Charles street, corner Waverly place, New York. Invitations are out for the opening night, and for this occasion, Messrs. Schaefer, Sexton, Frey, King, Morris, Heiser, Gallagher and other celebrated pool and billiard experts have volunteered their services. We wish Mr. Bessunger the best of success in his new enterprise.

FARRAGUT—THE BAYARD OF THE SEA

The well-merited honors recently paid to the memory of Admiral Farragut are due as much to the character of the man as to his warlike achievements which shed so much lustre on our naval service.

As a sailor, in the professional acceptance of the term, Farragut, had no superior, and few, if any, equals. He handled a ship as if she was an intelligent creature, and under his guidance she responded like a trained steed.

"up anchor," and the delinquents thought, no doubt, that their offense had been overlooked or condoned. They were mistaken, however; Farragut's word had been given and was inviolable.

"My man," said Farragut, "if I had promised you a favor, I should have kept my word. I told you that you would be flogged if you went on shore without leave.

Another incident, though not within my own observation, I feel at liberty to mention as illustrative of his character. When about to engage the forts on the Mississippi, Farragut's son was with him on board the flagship as a visitor.

As a sailor, in the professional acceptance of the term, Farragut, had no superior, and few, if any, equals. He handled a ship as if she was an intelligent creature, and under his guidance she responded like a trained steed.
