FOOD ADVANCING IN PRICES. The Cost of Living a Great Deal More Than it Was a Year Ago.

Housekeepers are complaining that the cost of living is from fifteen to twentyfive per cent. more than it was a year ago. They have found that the increase is in the cost of certain kinds of food rather than in rent, clothing, or furniture.

A reporter of the New York Sun, who set out to find the reason for the increased cost of food, made inquiries among a number of wholesale and retail dealers in provision. He started with a little German grocer up-town in New York city:

"It's the drought," said the grocer.
"It's impossible to get food fit to eat in the markets. It would make your heart bleed to see how small and dry and sickly the best vegetables look. I suppose the cause of this is the cause of the advance in nearly all the goods I deal in."

That is only a small part of the reason," said a big grocer down-town, adding: "I look at it from a wider standpoint. During the hard times that followed the panic there was an overproduction of everything. Now everybody is at work and everybody has money to spend. People who have money to spare spend much more for food than people who are pinched. The consequence is that the demand has increased and this, with insufficient crops, has produced high prices."

"Please compare the prices you are paying for staple goods to-day with the prices you paid a year ago."

"Well, take canned goods. Last year I raid 95 cents a dozen for tomatoes. This year I pay from $1.40 to $1.60 for for canned corn, now I am paying $1.75. A dozen cans of peaches last year cost me $2.15, but this year they cost from $3,25 to $3,50 a dozen. Dried beans are staple all over the land. I paid $1.55 per bushel for them last year, now I have to pay $3.40 for the same quantity. Dried peas cost $1.55 per bushel last year, and now cost $2.10.

"Prunes," he continued, "have gone up in cost from 4 3-4 cents a pound to 8 barrel to $7 a barrel. Flour has risen $2 a barrel in cost in the last twelve $4 from $2. Sugar is higher by half a cent a pound, but tea and coffee remain as they were a year ago.

"Canned corned beef has gone up fifgrocer, continuing his melancholy recital. "Soap has risen a cent and a quarter a pound; starch is two cents hominy, which a year ago sold for $3.80 barrel." a barrel, now commands $6 wholesale. has risen a cent a pound; raising have gone up two cents; hams two cents; candles three cents, and all dried or Corporation Notice. evaporated fruits from three to four cents. It's all owing to the good times on the one hand and the bad crops on the other. For years the consumer had the benefit of prices too low for the producer, and now the tables are turned."

"Cheap butter is always cheap," said a Washington Market butter dealer, "and prime dairy butter is always hard to get, and always has to be well paid for. But the prices are not much different this year from those of last year. Butter ranges from 25 cents to 35 cents for good dairy, and 38 cents for fancy creamery butter. Last year 35 cents bought the best. I am told that what we sell for 38 cents here costs 45 cents in all up-town groceries, but that difference in prices always has existed in all kinds of food. High prices have frightened housekeepers so that they are coming down to the market in greater numbers than I ever saw them before. There's a perfect jam here all day Saturdays and late Saturday nights."

"Cheese is cheaper," he continued, because there is no demand for it for export. Cheese costs from 14 to 16 cents now, but it used to cost from 15 to 25 cents a pound a year ago. Cheap butter is so plenty now that there is not much excuse for the manufacture of oleomargarine."

"Poultry retails at exactly the same prices it did last year," said a big poultry dealer in the market, "but it is going to be dearer and poorer before long, because the price of corn will prevent its use for feed, and cheaper, probably mixed food, will take its place. "Good eggs are plenty," said a dealer in the market, "but we are getting them from Delaware. The Jersey eggs are a failure. The best eggs are selling at about eight for a quarter; State eggs, nine for a quarter; and third grade, lime eggs, ten for a quarter. These are about last year's prices." "In stylish groceries, up-town, Dela-ware eggs are seiling for 40 cents a dozen, And for 35 cents in second-class stores.

Fair eggs can be had for 25 cents a dozen in the majority of croceries."

"Oysters are good, but not plenty," said an oyster dealer in the market, "but they are nearly all large oysters. never knew it to be so hard to get 'culls,' or small oysters for stewing. Stewing oysters sell for 75 cents a hundred; frying oysters for $1.50 a hundred; and extra fine Blue Points for about a cent These are about last year's Clams also, cost the same as they did last year."

"There is no alteration in the prices of fish, I find upon comparing to-day's prices with those of last November," said one of the most extensive dealers in fish.

"Fresh pork costs twelve cents a pound, or two cents more than it did three months ago," said a pork butcher n Washington Market, " and hams are cheaper, because the summer demand is over. Sausage meat is three cents a pound higher than it was. Lard is theaper, because less is now exported, and bacon and choice small Jersey pork remain the same."

"Beef has risen in price during the past three months," said a Washington Market butcher. "We used to sell prime ribs for 18 cents a pound, but now we have to charge 20 cents. Porterhouse steak costs 28 cents, a rise of three cents. Sirloin steak brings 20 cents, an increase two cents. Veal is very high. Loin has gone up eight cents, and cutlets five." A green groder reports great advances in the cost of garden truck and fruit in the last twelve months, owing to the lack of rain during the autumn. Cranberries the same brands. Last year I paid $1.25 sylvania. Lettuce has doubled in cost; so has field salad.

a produce merchant, "Potatoes sell for $3.25 a barrel, wholesale, this year, and last year they brought only $1.75. They may be cheaper soon, for big loads are coming from Nova Scotia and Prince Edward's Island. The market was glutted with apples last year, and Baldwins and greenings sold for $1.75 and $2.50. This cents a pound, and oatmeal from $5 a year they fetch $4 and $4.25. Pears are cheaper and more plentiful than ever before. Red onions sold for $1.75 a barmonths, and buckwheat has gone up to rel last year, but are nowselling for $2.75 to $3. Turnips are very scarce, and fetch $2.50 and $3. They have been fetching $3 wholesale lately. They sold for $1 and $1.25 a year ago. Sweet potateen per cent. within ten days," said the toes have gone up from $1.25 to $1.50 more per barrel than they were sold for last year at this time. Carrots and beets cost the same as they did a year ago, higher, owing to the bad corn crop, and but squashes have gone up a dollar a

"The city has $7,500 for the purpose she can afford to buy a lot," says Councilman Valleau. This may be so, but "the gentleman from the First" should remember that the city has to issue ponds for it all the same, and pay twenty years' interest.

Mayor Besson has vetoed the Bayer & Tivy meadow filling scheme. This act men who deposited them in the ballot is worthy of all praise and commendation. Let him confine himself to such common sense vetoes until the first of May, 1882, and his official career will were voting for Robert McCague, Jr., close with a little work to his credit for which Hoboken may feel grateful.

Mr. Jesse Baldwin, an Ohio man, presented $17,000 in called bonds in Washington recently and insisted on taking nothing but gold for them. After much trouble he finally got his treasure home to Youngstown. He is now very sorry was so careful. On Tuesday eight five burglars robbed him of his gold, and carried it off in his best carge, drawn by two of his own horses which they took from his stable.

The He swept everything before him, and city will save $2,999 by the transaction.

Now, such a present is not bad from that "conscienceless monopoly," that to oil his mustache during the winter. "scalless corporation," the Hoboken has been officially blackguarded by the Hon. E. V. S. Besson ever since he became Mayor of this city. The Company instead of returning a kiss for a blow, it goal. would have retalisted by refusing to pay taxes for a year or so. It could readily afford to use its $100,000 per annum for some other purpose and pay the interest. The Mayor could then "fish" for his salary by causing the city to issue bonds for a while. In would take Hoboken several days to get out of the "hole" this would place her in.

We have not the slightest shadow of a doubt that the Mayor is far enough gone to veto the action of the Council in regard to this lot of ground. A very inane and silly veto was sent in on Tuesday night in relation to this special committee mentioned above. He " returned without approval" the resolution calling for the appointment of that committee. He waxed quite histrionicprated about the time having passed Tor the Mayor and Council of this city, like born thralls, to present themselves at the office of the Hobeken Land & Improvement Company," etc.

It would be ridiculous for the Mayor to pretend that he did not know the object of appointing this committee. Accepting a present from a rich corporation is not necessarily a marked symptom of hereditary bondage. When Besson becomes stagey, he is really amusing, but his last "act" is almost too silly to laugh at. The Company's gift is a generous one and will be appreciated by the citizens. The Mayor may put his veto-foot down hard and kick all he chooses, but he cannot find enough "cranks" in the Council to sustain him in this matter.

THE BOSS PROTESTER

Is there anything against which Mayor Besson, of Hoboken, would not protest if he could discover an opportunity, with the aid of a compound microscope? He protested yesterday to the Board of County Canvas sers, that votes for Robert McCague should not be counted for Robert McCague, Jr., although the invarible practice in this State is to count votes for the candidate for whom E. V. S. Bessen, is too pround to accept for the city a lot of ground for an engine "He doth protest two much," does this am"He doth protest two much," does this am"He doth protest two much," does this amhouse site from the Hoboken Land and bitious and preternaturally discontented added to Dr. Andrew J. The only effect would be to reduce Assemblyman McCague's majority, and, though this would doubtless be some small satisfaction to the defeated Besson, it would not send him to Trenton next January to represent the Ninth in the Assembly.

CATOR'S BALA. CE OF POWER.

The next Assembly of New Jersey will consist of thirty Republicans, twentynine Democrats, and Thomas V. Cator, Cator is a lawyer, living in Jersey City and practicing in New York. He goes to the Assembly as an Anti-Monopolist, and his vote may give the Republicans a majority of two or make a tie on the question of organization. He was a Republican before he became an Anti-Monolist; but during the late election he was supported by the Democrats, to which support he owes his election. Politicians are anxious to find out which to be very non-committal. There is another fact that has an important bearing on the organization of the Lower House. Assemblyman-elect Bruemmer. of Essex, is sick with consumption, and should he be unable to attend the sesthe thirty-one votes necessary to elect a Speaker, even if Cator votes with them. The contest will be exciting, and in the event of Mr. Cator himself becoming a candidate for the Speakership, which is quite likely, it will be still more exciting. Mr. Cator clearly holds the balance of power.

An extra session of the Board of Chosen Freeholders was held on Tuesday, to bid adicu to the retiring and install the new presiding officer. There were only nine members present, the six absentees were those who had a "row" with ex-Director McDonald some time ago. When the meeting was called to order, Messrs. Director Budden then received the congratulations of his many friends who were present and the Board ad journed. CHURCH OF "OUR LADY OF Celebration of the Third Anniv of Its Dedication -- Interesting Fro-amme of Sacred Music.

The Church of Our Lady of Grace, in this city, Rev. P. Corrigan, pastor, celebrated the third anniversary of its dedication on Sunday ast. The church was thronged by Hoboken's best citizens, and also visitors from New York and Jersey City. The service in the morning ommenced at half-past ten o'clock. A pro cession of acolytes, altar boys and priests filed down through the church from the anctuary and were met by the two Rev. Bishops, whom they escorted to the altar. A solerm high many was then celebrated by Right Rev. W. M. Wigger, the new Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. Father Baxter, of this city, as Deacon, Rev. Father O'Neil of Guttenberg as sub-Deacon and Rev Father McNulty, of Paterson, Rev. Father Salam, of Seton Hall College, and Rev. P Benedict Murnane, of the Passionists, as assistants; with Rev. Father Messner, of Seton Hall, and Mr. John McHale, of this city, as masters of ceremonies. The sermon was delivered by Right Rev Bishop Lynch, Bishop of the Dicese of Charleston, S. C. He took his text from St. Paul to the Hebrews, first chapter, and kept the audience thoroughly interested throughout his discourse.

Havdn's Second Mass, in C, was rendered by a large orchestra and chorus, under the eadership of Prof. Ad. Neuenders, of the Germania Theatre, New York, with the assistance of Miss Minnie Cash, seprano; Miss Henrietta Duhrkoop and Mrs. James Butler altos; Mr. Matthew T. Judge, tenor; Mr. James Judge, bass: Mr. N. Hicks, baritone and Madame Schrotter, soprano, (especially engaged), as soloists. The soloists acquitted themselves creditably, and the chorus, as a whole, sung admirably well. The high standard of excellence attained by its members was a surprise, and the credit is due to Prof. Leopold De Grandval, the organist of the church.

The Veni-Creator was admirably sung by quartette composed of Miss Cash, Mrs. Butler and Mesers, Judge and Hicks, without accompaniment.

After the service, the officiating clergymen together with the choir, partook of a sumptuous repast in the hall attached to the

During the afternoon Bishop Wigger confirmed one hundred and fifty children.

THE LAND LEAGUE BENEFIT.

Reception of Pather Sheehy and Thomas Healy, M. P., at Odd Fellows' Hall.

On Wednesday evening a very large audience greeted the appearance of Father Sheehy and Thomas Healy, M. P., of Ireland, who, in behalf of the Land League, have come to the United States to interest Irish citizens in the cause of the Irish tenantry. The two visitors were met at the ferry by a large delegation from the numerous Irish societies, and es-corted to Odd Fellows' Hall. Ex-Mayor Mcdavisk, of this city, opened the meeting by introducing as chairman of the meeting Congressman A. A. Hardenbergh.

On the platform were John Stuart Parnell, brother of the Irish patriot, Miss Helen Ford, of the Irish World, Mr. Jeremiah Kelly, President of Branch No. 1, James F. Minturn. President of the Hoboken Branch, and the presidents of several branches of the League Peter Scanlon, of the Workingmen's Benevolent Union, Director-at-Large Frederick P. Budden, ex-Senator Rudolph F. Miss Minnie Cash sang with ne spirit "The Harp That Once Thro' Tara's Halls." Her appearance was the signal for immense applause, and, by her rendition of this favorite song, she fairly electrified her hearers. Cheers rewarded her at the condusion of every verse, and when she had sung her encore, "Come Back to Erin," a third song was demanded, but the hour being late she gracefully declined. Mr. Healy followed with a brief but interesting speech, which closed the evening's exercises.

Hecking's Funeral.

The funeral of Edward Hecking, the member of Washington Hook and Ladder Com-pany No. 1, who lost his life while in the ex-ercise of his duties at the Eagle Dock fire, took place on Sunday last, from the resi dence of his mother, on Palisade avenue, Jersey City Heights. Deceased was a Corporal in Company F, Ni 'h Regiment, N. G. S. N. J., and the attendance of his comrades, both the militia and firemen, was very large. The floral offerings were very handsome, and the one sent by Mesers. Obreiter, by whom Hecking had been employed for a ne years, and the members of "Our Fishing Club," was in the form of a pyramid. The remains were interred in the Hoboken Ceme tery.

Sheriff Cronan Sworn In.

On Tuesday evening, Cornelius J. Cronan, the newly-elected Sheriff, took the oath of office in the County Clerk's office, in the presence of Judges Garrettson, Brinkerhoff and Fry, and Messrs. Henry Lembeck, John Mullins, F. Heintze, M. L. Desmond, John Edelstein and P. Kernan. The last six named gentlemen were sworn in as his bondsmen, each qualifying in the sum of $20,000. Judge Garrettson administered the oath of office Sheriff Cronan received the congratulations of those assembled and then left the Court Hotel. House. He took charge of his office on Wednesday morning, the term of office of Sheriff Toffey having expired at midnight Tuesday.

Assemblyman McCague Serenaded.

On Tuesday night, a number of the friends of Robert McCague, Jr., Assemblyman-elect from the Ninth District, among whom were School Trustee Lewis McCulloch, Water Registrar Murphy, Charles Adolphi and others, serenaded the successful candidate. The party was invited in and partook of a sumptuous repast. There was some unusually fine singing, and after an evening spent in various amusements, the company started for home at an "early" hour.

The Jury For Execution Day.

Judge Knapp has appointed the following gentlemen as members of the jury to attend the execution of Martin Kankowski, who is to be hung on January 6th, 1882, for the murder of Mina Muller: Doctors Converse, Bird, Burdette and Varick, and Messrs. A. C. Baldwin, E. F. McDonald, J. J. Toffey, S. Quaife, Col. E. P. C. Lewis, R. V. R. Schuyler, F. Heintze-and P. H. Nugent. Sheriff Cronan will appoint fifteen additional members of the jury.

Political Notes.

The Fifth Assembly District is called the Gibralter of Republicanism.

Hudson is still the banner county. As Hudson goes, so goes Jersey!

It looks as though the Anti-Monopolists were "left" in the late election.

Besson takes his defeat very coolly-but then he is used to that sort of thing.

It is a wonder that the City Clerk manages to keep his papers straight, considering the number of unauthorized people that crowd the platform in the Council Chamber at re cess on Tuesday nights, and handle the files. It is to be hoped that this rule will be enforced.

The resolution authorizing the final payment of 5,430 for the mason work on the new City Hall, bassed last week, was vetoed by the dayor. His ground for objection was a contract the city and that there was a suit against the city and Sanders & Carroll, the contractors, for $25,000 damages, brought by a man who had been injured by falling in the street in front of the City Half during its construction, and that until that suit is decided the city should secure herself against loss by retaining part of the money due the builders. The Corporation Attorney being of the opinion that the complainant would only recover about $600 in the suit, and in order to settle the bill of the masons, the Council passed another resolution to the effect that Sanders & Carroll should be paid on condition that they furnish bonds in the sum of $2,000 to protect the city against any loss occasioned by the above mentioned suit.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Burnette in this issue of the ADVERTISER. Dr. Burnette is not a stranger to the Hoboken public, having practiced here some years ago in Dr. Goble's office. He was partner with Dr. Pruden, of Toms River, for two years, and for the past few years he has been in regular practice in St. Johns, N. B. The Doctor has wearled of the cold, dreary climate near the North Pole, and has returned to Hoboken and opened an office at No. 265 Garden street, where he is prepared to "execute dental work in all its branches, and at moderate prices." From our knowledge of the gentleman's skill in his profession we bespeak for him a liberal share of patronage from our townspeople. A good dentist is a blessing to any community, and we feel safe in recommending Dr. Burnette, who is a properly qualified and duly authorized dental practitioner. Hoboken Land & Improvement Company, President's Office, No. 3 Neware St., Hoboken, N. J., November 15, 1881. To the Chairman of Special Committee of the Council of Hoboken:

GENTLEMEN—On consideration, we have concluded to offer the city a lot 20x100 feet on Hudson street, between Second and Third streets, on the following conditions, viz:

The lot to be used only for the erection of a brick or stone building, on plans (as to general arrange) the for to be used only for the erection of a bric or stone building, on plans (as to general appearance) to be approved by us, and for the purpose of housing the fire apparatus belonging to the city and to revert to us if not so used.

No building to be ever erected thereon west of line thirty (30) feet east of the easterly line of Hudson street.

A handsome iron fence at least five (5) feet high with pickets or up-rights not more than four (4) inches apart in the clear, to be built and maintained on the line of court yard fences on Hudson treet.

use of said lot to be one dollar.

The object in requiring the building to be so set back, and the iron fence to be built and maintained is to protect residents in the vicinity, and passers by, from anything disagreeable that there may be in connection with a fire engine house in such a

Mayor's Ovrice,

MAYOR'S OFFICE, HOBOREN, November 11, 1881.

I return without approval your resolutions of the 1st instant, directing the issuance of an improvement certificate in the amount of four hundred and seven dollars and thirty-five cents ($407 35), to the order of Theophilus Butts, on account of the improvement of Garden street, between Ferry and Newark streets.

provement of Garden street, between Ferry and Newark streets.

It appears that the contractor on this improvement, John Berkery, has made an assignment of his final payment, now due, amounting to four hundred and thirteen dollars and twelve ceits ($413 12) to Mr. Butts; that the whole amount of which sum is not owing to Mr. Butts by Mr. Berkery, but only the amount of three hundred and seventy ($370 00) dollars; and that there are certain claims for "work and labor" on said improvement, amounting to thirty-seven dollars and thirty-five cents ($37 35), which Mr. Butts agrees to pay on receipt of an improvement certificate, payable to his order in the amount of four hundred and seven dollars and thirty-five cents ($407 35).

So far as this assignment be concerned, we are dollars and thirty-five cents ($407 35).

So far as this assignment be concerned, we ar in no manner bound by it. We have no officis cognizance of it. It has never been accepted by the Mayor and Council. Mr. Berkery, the cortractor, and the laborers under him are the only parties we know in connection with the final settlement on this improvement. The assignment is private transaction between Mr. Berkery and Mr. Butta.

Buts.

Considering the very unsettled state of Mr. Berkery's affairs with the city in connection with the washington street repaying improvment," it is not advisable to issue him, or his assigns, the final certificate, or any part of it, on this Garden street improvement, until the "Washington street repaying" be settled up, and to which we may apply, in accessary, on Berkery's account, this amount of four hundred and thirteen dollars and twelve cents, belance due on "improvement of Garden street, between Ferry and Newark streets," less amount due labor on the work; which is Mr. Berkery's duty, or our duty, to settle, instead of any such arrangement on our part with Mr. Buts.

Mayor's Offic Honoxen, November 12

To the Councit:

I return without approval the following resolution of your session of the 9th instant, viz:

"Resolved, That a special committee three be apappointed to wait on the officers of the Hoboken Land & Improvement Company, to confer with them relative to an engine house site."

Why, this? Why should they be conferred with? Have we not the power to procure a site for an engine house? Have we not the means to pay for it? Are we not capable of performing our duty in this matter without their advice? Is their consent necessary? No? The city authorities shall never go to them on such mission with my consent. I was of the belief that the day had passed when the Mayor and Council of this city, like born thralls, would present themselves at the office of the Hoboken Land & Improvement Company and say, "by your leave, will do —," in even the simplest official business. This would look like its return.

Our duty is plain. The power is vested in us to procure a suitable site for an engine house. It is our duty to exercise our own best judgment in its selection. We must keep within the appropriation pertaining to it, and we should be better qualified to act in the matter than any other person, body or corporation.

Your action would seem to me a very singular

The following communication from his Honor Mayor Besson was presented, read and, on motion of Councilman Miller, received:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, BOBOKEN, November 15, 1881.

To the Council:

I return without approval your resolution of the 9th instant, authorizing the final payment to Messrs. Sanders & Carroll, contractors for mason work of the City Hall, amounting to five thousand four hundred and fifty dollars. Messrs. Sanders & Carroll, jointly with the Mayor and Council, are now being sued by one Douglass Fairchild, for injuries claimed to have been incurred through the negligence of Messrs. Sanders & Carroll and the Mayor and Council: lamages stated at twenty-five thousand ($25,000) tollars.

By the agreement with Messrs. Sanders & Carroll, August 24th, 1850, it is therein provided, "that the said parties of the second part (Messrs. Sanders & Carroll) shall and will assume all risk of damage to persons and property that may arise on account of the prosecution of said work, or on account on the prosecution of said work, or on account on the work at night; and that the party of the first part (the Mayor and Council) may retain so much of the money to be paid for said work and materials as the Council of said vily may deem mecessary, to indemnify said party of the first part (the Mayor and Council) from loss by any suit or claim that may be enade for damages arising from the cause above stated."

Before making this final payment to Messrs, San ers & Carroll, is is our duty to see that the city be roperly protected against any judgment that any be obtained against us.

Progress of the River Tunnel-Work ing From Both Banks Towards the Middle of the Stream.

A New York daily contains the follow ing account of the progress of the work on the Hudson River Tunnel:

There was great activity on Saturday at the New York end of the Hudson River Tunnel. The sixty men employed there were heisting into position the last big piece of the westerly air lock which is to constitute the entrance for the workmen. The design of the chief engineer, General Sooy Smith, for prosecuting the work on this side comprises a huge wooden caisson or box, which is to be air tight, measuring 48 feet by 29 feet 6 inches at the base, and 26 feet high, tapering at the top so as to sink readily, with least resistance to the surrounding soil. This has the largest working chamber of any pneumatic caisson ever used. It serves, in connection with the coffer dam, the purpose of the costly brick shaft used on the Jersey City side, and is much less extensive. It is very strong. The walls are three feet thick, and the top, or deck, is equally strong, and the structure is firmly braced, to withstand all possible pressure from within and without. Into the top of this deck are cut three holes for the insertion of the air locks. Thus far the caisson has been sunk about seventeen feet below mean low water mark without the use of air pressure. This was as far as could be gone without disturbing the surrounding soil or letting the water in. When the air locks are in place the central one, which is five feet six inches in diameter, is to be used for the passage of material, such as barrels, timber, &c., used in the work. The westerly air lock is for the workmen, and is also five feet six inches in diameter, and the easterly lock, which is two feet six inches in diameter, is already in place, and will be used as a brick chute.

It is expected that all the air locks will be in order in a few days. The big Clayton double-acting compresser and the Sargent & Collingworth pump will caisson, so that the pressure will resist rush into the caisson. These pumps are capable of injecting 250 cubic feet of air a minute into the caisson. It is intended that the men shall work in a pressure of from twenty-two to twenty-six pounds to the square inch, which is considered perfectly safe, both for the work and for the men. It has so proved in the welltested work on the New Jersey side. The coffer dam which surmounts the calsson is a huge box open at the top, with strong wooden sides, with the same slope or "batter" as the caisson. Into this coffer dam the heaviest material taken from beneath the caisson, and such other weight as may be required to sink it, are to be emptied. Thus far the water has been pumped out of the caisson by two Andrews centrifugal pumps. The work on this side has been pushed. It was begun on the caisson on August 9. Excavations were begun on September

Excavations were begun on September 1. The caisson has been sunk twenty-two feet, and the prospect is that by February it will be sunk far enough to begin the work of tunneling under the river from the New York side.

The method of removing the material excavated will depend upon the nature of the soil encountered. The prospect is that the soil will be clay, and that the Eads sand pump will be used, as on the Jersey side. This pump sucks out the excavated material mixed with water. Possibly the excavated material will be forced out by air pressure, as was formserly done on the Jersey side. But no precise plan can be adopted until the precise plan can be adopted until the nature of the soil is ascertained nature of the soil is ascertained.

General Smith said: "It is high time that this enterprise should be understood by the public as being no more in the realms of experiment. Although we have been working on somewhat novel methods, we have sufficiently tested the countenance is pale and wears an appearance of fright, convulsions ensue, the fatal diarrhosa or pneumonia sets in, and death is the end. them to be assured of their success. The work is now as safely done as is possible for any subaqueous structure. There can be no accident so long as the plain precautions are observed. We have the largest wooden caisson ever used, and it cost less money. We have different methods of working adapted to various emergencies. We have long since demonstrated the practicability of the work, and can no longer be taken by surprise in any difficulty."

The work on the New Jersey side is progressing favorably. The north tunnel has advanced about 600 feet, and the south tunnel more than 500 feet. About one hundred men are working in three shifts, night and day. The work is not yet prosecuted night and day on the New York side, but is to be as soon as the caisson is sunk and the lateral excavations are begun. It is estimated that the entire work will be finished in about four years.

The chief engineers of the work are General Sooy Smith and his son, Charles Sooy Smith, S. H. Finch is first assistant engineer and resident engineer on the New York side. Charles Ward Raymond is assistant engineer. The superintendents are C. C. Lovejoy, George P. Thomas and Harry Bowie, and the engineer in charge of machinery is Charles

A FATAL NEGLECT.

How Careless Oversight Brought About the Most Serious Results, and How it Might Have Been Avoided.

The Importance of Attention to th Details of Life.

Early last spring the elegant mansion of on of New York's wealthiest capitalists, situated on a beautiful hill in New Jersey, was turned into a house of mourning. It had been con structed on the most approved sanitary and scientific principles. Thousands of dollars had been expended in the drainage, plumbing and ventilation. The surroundings were healthful, the air was pure, and yet an epidemic of diph theria swept away a family of young and beautiful children. It was the theory of the physicians that the house was filled with malaria, which always invites diptheria, and, skeptical as the father was, he instituted a rigid examination. Every closet, pipe and drain was found to be perfect, and they were about to give up, baffled; when by accident they examined the furnace fresh air box, and a few feet from its opening, in a neighbor's lot, they discovered a mass of putrifying garbage! The mystery was explained. The malaria had found an entrance through the "fresh" air flue, and three loved ones perished because "somebody had blundered!" The same result was seen at Princeton College, seven student losing their lives by the faulty drainage of the college grounds. These occurrences were not dispensations of Providence," they were the result of plain carelessness. Life is a constant struggle for existence, and as the fittest always survives, it is the duty of every man to acquaint himself with the methods of prevention and cure, of influences which would hurry him to the grave. There is much doubt nowadays as to what, for instance, cause malaria, but there is no doubt that it is the basis of the most obstinate chronic disorders. Not many years ago a celebrated physician of London discovered what is known as Bright's disease of the kidneys. While most of the characteristics of this dreadful malady bave been known, yet one of its most peculiar fea-tures is of recent discovery, i. e., that it produces general derangement of the tissues, and be set to work to compress the air in the involves other organs of the body long before the kidneys themselves seem to be affected. the tendency of the water and mud to There is no pain in the kidneys nor in their vicinity. The water may not be albuminous:

rhere is no pain in the kalancys hor in their vicinity. The water may not be albuminous; there may be no casts and yet Bright's disease may exist and disorder the entire system.

Prof. Wm. H. Thompson, M. D., of the chair of Materia Medica, in the university of the City of New York, in a recent lecture before the students of Bellevue College Hospital, says. "Bright's Disease has no sy aptoms of its own, but has the symptoms of every other disease you can think of." Albumen and casts may or may not be present; nor is the specific gravity an absolute and infallible test. Dr. Thompson says kidney disease is probably the commonest cause of death in this climate among adults, more so even than consumption, but it is a very deceptive disease. If a man breaks a limb he will expect pain in the injured member; if a bullet crashes into the body he will at least suffer pain in the wounded part, but in diseases of the kidneys he will suffer most in the other organs of the body. These sufferings are only the effects, the cause is behind them, and if that cannot be removed there can be no cure of the effects. Some of the commonest aliments of humanity are the sure symptoms of Bright's disease. the effects. Some of the commonest attiments of humanity are the sure symptons of Bright's disease. When the kidneys have been diseased for a certain time there will occur strange disorders in the head, throbbing headaches, disturbed vission; the memory loses its power. These are secondary symptoms of Bright's toms of Bright's Disease. Having made a tour of the body and finding of fright, convulsions ensue, the ratal diarrhosa or pneumonia sets is, and death is the end. These declarations are the warnings of men of high authority in medical science, whom we cannot dispute if we would. We expect when our physician visits our bed-chamber, he will come with the possibility of healing, but there is no disease which he approaches with the certainty of failure like Bright's Disease. Is there no hope of cure? Must this great malady increase the number of its victims at the rate of 28 near cant. a vear, and we be powerless to no hope of cure? Must this great malady in crease the number of its victims at the rate of 25 per cent. a year, and we be powerless to prevent? Dr. Holland says all medical practice is experimental, and that any remedy that cures is entitled to the confidence and patronage of the people. The only criterion of excellence is success, and, he says, this is the basis of popular judgment. The doctors admit they can do nothing for a person in the toils of Bright's Disease; but happily, the oftimes wiser school of independent investigators has not so failled. A few years ago a well known medical practitioner found the vegetable elements which diseased kidneys and liver needed as a food and restorer, and knowing how widely these diseases prevailed, he sold the formula to Mr. H. H. Warner, of Rochester, N. Y. This gentleman began its manufacture on a most extensive scale, and to-day Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure is used more generally than any other known compound. The manufacturers of this remedy know, from the unsolicited testimony of hundreds of cases cured of the worst form of Bright's disease, that it is an almost absolute specific, based on a new and proved theory of treatment for every form of kidney and liver disease, and they are ready to prove to any one that they make no claim that others cannot verify by their own experience. Indeed, the best physicians prescribe it, and it is everywhere conceded to be one of the greatest discoveries modern medical science has given the world. The following items are the facts of science and authority:

What that remedy is has been fully explained in this article, and in commending it to our readers, we appeal not to their credulity but to their judgment and common sense. It is not only pure and vegetable in its nature, but it has proven so effective that it is used more extensively than any other known remedy now before the people. It has cured even the most pronounced case of Bright's disease, and it is an absolute specific for all kidney difficulties which are the first stages of this most terrible complaint. These are facts which every one of forethought can appreciate, and by the observance of which all can avoid the missay of "a fatal negicot." Name.
