HOBOKEN, SEPTEMBER 2, 1882.

Official paper of the city of Hoboken. Circulation second to no other weekly journal in Hudson County.

Yellow fever still increases at Matamoros. Two hundred cases are reported there. Subscriptions are being solicited. The cause is a worthy one.

Those Tariff Commissioners are having a jolly good time travelling about the country in free parlor cars. They were banqueted and consulted at Buffalo, Wednesday. Who wouldn't be a T. C.

Those "responsible (?) publishers" of the Democrat (Rep.) know how to run a "quiet" newspaper if any one does, they have had years of experience in conducting that kind of a paper.

Philadelphia is getting ready to celebrate her bi-centenary. Shades of William Penn! Look down and mark the great improvements in jobs and bossism that have been made in your favored city since your time.

Some of our rural towns have organizations composed entirely of ladies who devote their leisure to beautifying the town. Let some of our Hoboken ladies try the plan. It would beat sunflower cultivation all hollow.

Four thousand Smiths assembled this week on the banks of the Raritan, at Peapeak, and still this number did not represent a one hundredth part of all the Smiths, Smythes, Schmidts and Schmitts this blessed land boasts of.

The Republican Congress which has just left Washington to the infinite relief of everyone except the jobbers, increased the expenses of the Government only $80,000,000. Put that in your cigarettes and smoke it, Messrs. Democrats.

A hundred million dollars for pensions and eighteen million for dragging out unknown creeks and rivers is a good roundsum for Uncle Sam's already overburdened subjects to be called upon to pay just now. How much of this will be used to make another Republican Congress?

Those workmen who still continue on strike in various parts of the country are advised by Alexander M. Kenaday, the President of the Federation of Labor Unions, at Washington, to return to work on the best terms they can get, and wait for a more propitious season. Alex. has sense.

A few more heavy sneak robberies and then our Police Commissioners will see they made a mistake to curtail the powers of the Chief, and to remove the detective from the street. There are those uncharitable enough to say that this opportunity was given the thieves to rob purposefully, so that fault could be found with the heads of the police department.

A gold headed cane is a nice present to receive. When you are out of pocket-money it can be conveniently pawned.—Hoboken Democrat. This accounts for the fact that Al. Hoffman didn't have his cane with him the other day.—Bergen County Democrat. No it didn't either. The cane went where his recent diamond went, it was stolen from him "on a railway train."

The United States treasury vaults now contain ninety million silver dollars, and the deposit is increasing at the rate of three million a month, two million a month being contributed by the mints, which store their product because there is nothing else to be done with it.—Ex. Is that so! Well now we happen to know one or two good-natured newspaper men who don't make over two or three hundred dollars a week who might possibly be induced to make some arrangements with the mints so that these over-worked treasury vaults would get a rest.

AN AWFULLY CUNNING JOB.

At the Council meeting Tuesday night Councilmen Valleu and Grassmann made a desperate, but luckily unsuccessful, attempt to foist upon the tax-payers a job, the magnitude of which can only be measured by the greed of the jobbers. These two worthies presented to the Council a majority report of the Committee on Printing, to whom had been referred the matter of recommending which paper should be awarded the contract for publishing the official proceedings, etc., of the Board.

There had been two bids received for doing the work, one for 35 cents per folio for first insertion and 20 cents for each subsequent insertion, and the other for 25 cents per folio for first insertion and 10 cents for each subsequent insertion. The rule in such cases is to award the contract to the lowest bidder. The majority report was drawn by the Corporation Attorney and signed by Messrs. Valleu and Grassmann, the other member of the Committee, Councilman Kenney, refused to sign, and instead presented a minority report. The majority report entirely ignored the matter of compensation, and in recommending that the contract be awarded to the Democrat (Rep.), left it entirely at their own option what such compensation should be. If the Democrat (Rep.) should, at the expiration of the year, send in a claim for 50 or 60 cents per folio, the Council would be compelled, under the resolution, as embodied in the Committee's report, to pay the demand. Mr. Besson is a lawyer, and he must have known this when he drew the report.

The report says "the Democrat is a well-established, reliable paper, having responsible publishers," and that "in order that quiet may be obtained it is best to award the contract to it." Quiet, as used here, probably means that if Valleu, Grassmann & Co., do not help the firm of Bayer & Kaufmann in obtaining some public pap, they, the said B. & K. will forever and continually hold them up to ridicule and abuse; the mighty forces of the sanetum will beled against them and their political sun will go down into everlasting oblivion.

This quiet-loving pair would not care to witness such an eclipse just yet; so to avoid it they seek to carry favor with those who threaten to lay the lash about them, by allowing them to dip their hands into the city treasury as deep as they please. Hence the following deep and awfully cunning, but remarkably simple-appearing resolution:

"Resolved, That the Hudson County Democrat be and is hereby designated the official paper of the city of Hoboken."

Was ever so pretty a scheme attempted in such a guileless manner? Not a word about the bids that had been presented, just simply "Oh, appoint the Democrat and keep its mouth shut, no matter what it costs."

This artful couple further report that "the ADVERTISER has not yet acquired any settled eligibility, and its first test suit is now pending and undecided in the Court of Errors, and under the new law of 1881, its designation will engender new suits and waste the energy and force of the city in a series of fruitless litigation."

Now, this is all bosh, and its authors know it. It was run into the report in order to hoodwink and confuse the other members of the Council and aid the majority of the Committee in their attempt to keep these responsible (?) publishers "quiet," by enabling them to lessen the burdens of the "poor tax-payers" by scooping out of the city treasury a couple of thousand dollars more than would be required if the work was awarded to the publishers of the ADVERTISER, whose bid was the lowest.

There is no question at all about the eligibility of the ADVERTISER. It is over two years old and that is all the law requires. The presentation of such a report was an insult to the intelligence of the other members of the Council, and, to the credit of Councilmen Kenney, Kaufmann, Lee and Chairman Miller, be it said, they promptly resented it by refusing to adopt the report. The minority report made by Mr. Kenney was couched in plain, simple terms, and the rates under which he recommended the contract awarded were openly told, as was not the case in the majority report.

DOVONAN TO SHOW CAUSE.

The members of the Board of Police Commissioners, in their infinite wisdom, have seen fit to throw all the blame of the many sneak robberies that have occurred in this city recently, on the shoulders of Chief Donovan, and he was cited to appear and show cause why these things have occurred at the next regular meeting of that Board. We don't know, and we don't care who the person was, who spoke the following words to the Jersey City Journal reporter, but they are true, and they sing the right tune. This person said to the reporter: "Chief Donovan has been harassed and his hands pinioned under the Besson administration, and it is a miracle that every house and store in Hoboken has not been plundered. Under the new order the Chief is assigned to desk duty all day long and until 6 P. M. The two detectives who did scouting duty were put on patrol duty, so that the city was actually placed in the power of tramps and sneak thieves. Another great point is that the policemen on duty at the ferry were taken away by order of the Board, and thus virtually the gate of the city, the main avenue, is left entirely unprotected. The records will also show that most of the sneak robberies were committed in the day time."

When the tax-payers become tired of being robbed, they will see that men are appointed Police Commissioners, and who know a hedge-hog from a ferrit.

The Mayor's Vetoes.

His Honor presented five vetoes at the last meeting. One was on the ordinance recently passed forbidding the removal or erection of any more wooden buildings within the city limits. The Mayor thought that the removal of frame buildings to the meadows would prove a benefit to the city. He vetoed the claim of John J. Gallagher for setting four lamp posts, on the ground that the charges were excessive. Edward Stack's claim for services rendered as Street Commissioner was likewise vetoed, as also the resolution authorizing the City Clerk to advertise for proposals for the improvement of Clinton and Grand streets. Another was vetoing the claim of Edward Stack for $25 for cleaning receiving basins, as the claim has already been paid.

The General's Experience.

Perusing a recent copy of the Chicago Times, we observed the following statement from Gen. Leib, of the Chicago Democrat: "St. Jacobs Oil is the remedy for rheumatism and neuralgia, without any manner of doubt; and people who suffer from these diseases ought to be made acquainted with that fact. Whenever I had occasion to use the Oil I found it all its proprietors claim for it."

The Valencia's Regatta.

In every respect was the annual regatta of the Valencia Boat Club, on Saturday last, a success. About 2 o'clock P. M., the members and a host of their friends embarked on the "Republie," escorted by the tug "Meyers," sailed gliding away up the river. Arriving at Fort Lee the anchor was dropped and the sporting festivities began.

The first race on the programme was the junior single sculls, in which Ernest Ruobson, of A. Bezel and Max F. Schneider started, and a close second. The next race was the senior singles, and H. W. Sagendorf and H. Weinagen started. Shortly after turning the stake boat, the latter swamped, leaving the former to finish at his ease. The trial heats of junior pair-oared gigs came next. C. Aeschmann, bow, A. Schneider, stroke, and G. Bugel, coxswain, had a walk-over—their opponents not coming to the scratch. In the next heat L. F. Besson, bow, J. H. Croll, stroke, A. Weinagen, coxswain, and J. F. Ross, bow, J. A. Millar, stroke, F. C. Sagendorf, coxswain, took part. When within a few lengths of the finish, Croll fainted, and the last-named crew won the best rowed race of the day. In the senior pair-oared gigs, which came next, Arno Schmidt, bow, Frank Frommel, stroke, C. J. Schneider, coxswain, and Frank Sazendorf, bow, H. W. Sagendorf, stroke, H. Weinagen, coxswain, started, and that is about all the former crew did, for Schmidt's car broke before he had rowed a hundred yards. The winners of the trial heats of the junior pair-oared took part in the next, and after a splendid race to and around the stake boat, Millar was seized with cramps, thus putting a stop to his rowing and allowing Bugel's crew to win at their leisure. In the four-oared barge races, A. Schmidt, F. Frommel, M. Borchardt, L. Legwein, and C. J. Schneider, coxswain, and T. B. ugel, G. Langson, F. and H. W. Sagendorf, and H. Weinagen, took part, and the former crew were easily. In the swimming match of half a mile, which ended the races, M. F. Schneider beat C. Schultz, Jr.

The day's festivities closed with a moonlight sail up and down the Hudson, arriving at Hoboken shortly before 12 o'clock.

The Firemen's Festival.

The eighth annual summer night's festival of the Hoboken Fire Department, which took place at Pohlmann's Park Monday night, was a magnificent success in every particular. Over a thousand guests were present. The programme comprised thirty round and square dances. The music by Prof. Mulligan was excellent.

Officers of the evening were as follows: Floor Manager—Chief Wm. O'Donnell. Assistant Floor Manager—Assistant Chief Charles Germain. Floor Committee—James Layburn, Henry Thompson, Wm. H. Letts, John Green, F. Schaller, Wm. Miller, Jr., Theo. W. Goerz, John Cavanagh. Reception Committee—J. L. Meyer, J. J. Devitt, P. McDeviss, J. F. O'Hara, L. Fagan, C. King, W. B. Crane, R. Ancient Order of United Workmen.

Past Grand Master Workman Samuel I. Osmond, the Grand Lecturer of the Grand Lodge of A. O. U. W., of Maryland, New Jersey, and Delaware, is in Hoboken getting up a charter list for a lodge of the order he represents. The Ancient Order of United Workmen is the oldest of all secret beneficiary orders now in existence in the United States. This order was established in 1868, it has spread since it was founded and has numerous lodges in every State and Territory in the Union. The amount of the beneficiary is $2,000. A distinctive feature of the A. O. U. W., is that when a Grand Lodge has over 2,000 members, such Grand Lodge makes the assessment and pays the Beneficiary. The members of Maryland, New Jersey and Delaware are assessed only for deaths occurring within their jurisdiction.

It would appear that if the ferry pilots were to exercise a little more caution, collisions between the boats would not so frequently occur. On Monday morning the Pavana ferryboat Erie and the Hoboken ferryboat Hackensack, collided when about midstream. The Erie struck the Hackensack about the starboard wheel, smashing in the side of the cabin and ripping out the guard rail and the hood. The same day the New Brunswick, of the Pennsylvania line, and the Princeton, of the Central line, collided, but little damage was done.

Twenty millions of dollars invested in summer pleasure at a single watering place, as is the case at Long Branch, seems like a good deal of money thrown away. When this is for but three months out of each year it appears to be waste. It is stated that upward of $16,000,000 of this is a permanent investment and that the balance is spent annually.

The Grand Army Encampment will begin at Sea Girt, near Manassas, on Tuesday, and will continue five days. Resolved, That the Hudson County Democrat be and is hereby designated the official paper of the city of Hoboken.
