Senior Play

The Senior Play for the class of '44, entitled "Brother Goose," by William Davidson, was a great success. The three-act light comedy was presented Thursday afternoon and Friday and Saturday nights, February 3, 4, and 5, by special arrangement with the Dramatic Publishing Company of Chicago. The director, Miss Helena Gilkeson, was assisted by stage manager Mona Lee Glasston and assistant stage manager Lois Parfitt.

The curtain rises with Jeff Adams (Herbert Nikola), a young man of about twenty-five, architect by profession, attempting to make a dress for his ten year old sister Hyacinth (Geraldine Huff), who is always playing football, and is always in a football uniform. Since the death of their parents, Jeff has been left with the responsibility of raising his younger brother and sisters. Carol (Helen Harvan), Jeff's oldest sister, a girl of fifteen, is sprawled out on the couch trying to win her way to Hollywood and a Chrysler by writing a limerick about "Wheat Puffies". Wes (Alfred Palermo), a good-looking boy of seventeen, is always excited about some girl. This time it's the new neighbor from the south, Eve Mason (Dorothy Borek), who is a very pretty young girl, also of seventeen. The Adams house has housekeepers come and go, leaving the sewing, cooking, and cleaning to Jeff, besides his house designing. At this time Helen (Betty Winans) is the latest housekeeper. She is a washed-out, expressionless, middle aged woman who wears very sloppy clothes. Helen, after a week of staying with the Adams family, decides she can no longer stand Hy's calling her a cackling dummy and diving into the clothes-hamper yelling "touchdown," so she leaves. Soon after, Peggy Winkel (June Gauer), a pretty young girl of twenty, as a True-Silk representative arrives and demonstrates to Jeff. After some persuasion by Jeff, she decides to stay on as housekeeper. Lenore Hudson (Alice Miklosy), a stunning young lady who believes herself in love with Jeff, decides to have him draw up some plans for the new house which she plans to build on the lot next to the Adams—but this is Hy's football field, which is to be the scene of an important game the next Saturday, between the "Dawn Mortuary Hellcats" and the "Palace of Sweets Saber Tooth Tigers" (Hy's team). Hy, a sweet little girl, has attracted Peggy. Peggy tries to draw her attention from the football field to her piano practicing, but to no avail. Meanwhile Mrs. Lulu Trimmer (Phyllis Fairbank), the owner of five Wee Blue Inns, also wants Jeff to draw up the plans for her sixth Inn. Lenore, who really doesn't own the lot, has the steam shovel operator (Bartley Tuthill) ready to begin the digging. At the same time, Hy has arranged the flowers with poison ivy for Lenore's ground-breaking party. Hy has dumped into the piano the party invitations which she should have mailed. This same day Wes trades in Jeff's sewing machine for a motorcycle to take Eve to the Hallowe'en party. While Hy is playing the piano the invitations clog the sounding board. Everyone rushes to the piano, to discover that the invitations have not been mailed. Then the truck driver barges in with an empty Wheat Puffies box, the puffies having been dumped into his gas tank. After the driver goes out, Hy runs across the room, knocking Lenore into a chair, where she sits in the poison ivy. The curtain of the final act rises to the accompaniment of the shouting of Hy's team. She has won the game at the score of 115 to 87, with Hy making 10 touchdowns. Peggy is getting ready to leave when Hy bursts in. Hy tries to keep her from going, but Peggy says it is best.

The love scene of Eve and Wes, in the front room invaded by mosquitoes, is really comical. Another scene just as comical is the admittance of the postman into the house with a whole carton of Wheat Puffies, as Carol's reward for the limerick. When Lenore comes in all bandaged up and covered with poison ivy, Carol and Hy are in their glory. Lenore blames Peggy, because she believes Peggy loves Jeff. Hy admits her guilt. Almost immediately the voices of Hy's team can be heard. They come in gripping Peggy, who is struggling to get free. After disclosing Lenore's false claim to ownership of the lot, Peggy and Jeff are reunited by Mrs. Trimmer, who explains everything. Hy gets enough money to buy Jeff a portable sewing machine from her ten touchdowns. Wes trades in the motorcycle for Jeff's old machine, and Peggy accepts Jeff's proposal of marriage.

The wonderful performances of Sarah (Janet Bajusz) as the colored maid, the tax collector (Edward Lebinski), the flower messenger (Robert Oyer) and Hy's gang (Julius and Sidney Isler, Richard Moscato and James Orandash) helped make the play a success.

The remarkable facial expressions of the actors was aided by the work of the makeup committee. The new scenery was set up by the stage committee, directed by Mr. Yeisley. The committee consisted of Frank Sweeney, Arthur Bushinsky, Charles Morrison, Steve Milochik, and Russell Surgens. The property committee, advised by Miss Lang, certainly did a complete job and helped to make the play a success. Edna Welser was chairman, aided by Jane Aubrey, Anne Davis, Muriel Dilbatis, Emil Galinat, Doris Lewis, Evelyn Ross, and Jean Mahar.

The lovely costumes and outfits were chosen and supplied by the costume committee, supervised by Miss McBride. Margaret Sweet was chairman, and the other members were Vincent DeMarco, Anna Leiderman, Elizabeth Lendack, Olga Matlaga, John Polly, and Marie Stelltano. The ticket committee, under the direction of Mr. Buckman, did a great job in seeing that there was a full house both nights. The members of the committee were Olga Billick, Elizabeth Forstenhausler, Martha Goncharik, Norman Klawunn, Harry Nelson, and Edith Silady, with Joan Fersterowski as chairman. The committee choosing the play was under the direction of Miss Ranney. June Gauer was chairman, and Helen Harvan, Herbert Nikola, Florence Posnock, and Russell Surgens were on the committee. The great success of "Brother Goose" was due not only to the excellent acting, but to the faithfulness of all the members of every committee.

A Cappella Choir

The songbirds of Linden High are all assembled in one group on the platform of the auditorium during one of their numerous Tuesday morning rehearsals. The conscientious sopranos and altos are trying to harmonize with each other and are making an excellent job of it. Finally, everything is in order, and a typical rehearsal proceeds.

The A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Miss Kantner, has a more difficult job of singing than any of the other choral groups, because they vocalize entirely without accompaniment. They also have four parts to keep in harmony.

This choir always receives a tumultuous ovation when they sing the traditional yuletide songs in the candlelight service. Their special selections this year were Salter's melodic "Mary's Manger Song" and an old Christmas favorite entitled "It Came Upon A Midnight Clear." One of the choir's most effective activities is the singing of the centuries-old Christmas carols in the halls. The strains of these carols certainly help the grand, old Christmas spirit.

The choir worked diligently after the mid-year holidays preparing themselves for the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, "H. M. S. Pinafore", which took the place of the annual May Festival.

The art students have crowded into room 218, and there is a general atmosphere of hubbub and excitement. It is the fourth Wednesday of the month and the Art Club, whose adviser is Miss Oldach, is holding its meeting. The president, Jerry Kominetsky, has called the meeting to order and the buzzing has automatically ceased. The secretary, Pat Miller, is reading the minutes of the previous meeting. Now the treasurer, Belle Baker, is giving her report, while Alfred Tanzi, the vice-president, is trying to make certain that everything is in order for the forth-coming program. Ah, the business meeting is over! Now they are having discussions on art—topics of general interest to the group, such as color harmony, cartooning, and the historic background of art.

National Art Week brought an unusual event to Linden High, as several of its art students were invited to become members of a chapter of the National Art Honor Society. There is a new addition to the possessions of the Art Club—a large floor loom. With this has developed a new hobby for some—the art of weaving. The Art Club is a very enthusiastic group, and they are certainly doing a great deal to increase the artistic tastes of the high school students.

Aviation Club

In connection with the current war effort, one of the most popular clubs of Linden High, the Aviation Club, under the leadership of George Iannacone has been conducting very interesting discussions about the mass bombings of Europe and the theory of flight. New weapons have been brought to light in the study of the Air Corps and air war. Besides studying topics of the day, members find enjoyment in the question and answer period which usually follows the regular meeting. In it each endeavors to answer those questions which seem to be puzzling the other members at the time. The officers are president, George Iannacone; secretary, Edward Zatorski; treasurer, Louis Bettinger.

Band

The whistle has blown, the drums have begun to beat, and stepping down the street is the Linden High School Band. This year, the band has had the opportunity to lend its services to the war effort. The members of the band have taken pride in being invited to participate in the city's parades, and have willingly given their services at many draftee send-offs.

Although the band was unable to find transportation to the out-of-town football games, it was pleased to support the team during its home encounters. The Thanksgiving Day game was the highlight of the football season. Not only was the band at its best, for the last game of the season, but band-major "Tony" Mannuzza brought several of his pet pigeons in a large box decorated with the school colors. During the half, the baton twirlers carried the box to the center of the field and opened it, releasing the birds. The crowd was pleasantly surprised at this incident, and it was a pretty sight to see the pigeons fly away, with the orange and black streamers attached to their feet fluttering gaily in the breeze.

The band's assembly program was given in January. Service songs and patriotic numbers were the selections played. Spring rehearsals were devoted to practicing for the annual concert. Comedy numbers as well as serious ones have been played, for music must fit every mood. Work and pleasure are combined for every member of the band. Claire Stewart served as secretary, and Magdalene Weber, Marie Zepht, and Anne Kiseli were the librarians in charge of the music. Calvin Carow was manager, with Henry Tomaszewski, Robert Kanzler, and John Dwyer as assistant managers.

It is Wednesday afternoon and all boys having an interest in music can be found in the music room at a meeting of the Boys' Glee Club.

"Is everyone here? Well, then let's get started, as some of us have to go to work," says Ted Pfeuffer, president. "Will you please pass out the music, Harold?" This question is directed at Harold Sadowitz, Boys' Glee Club Librarian.

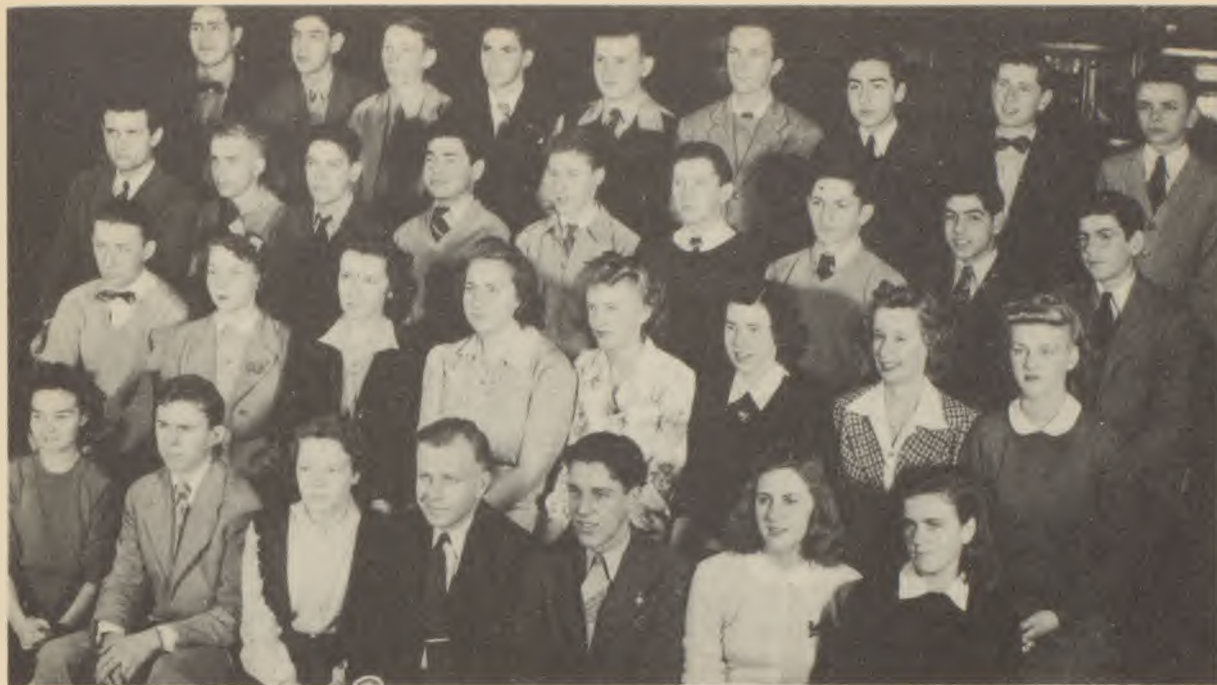

While the music is being handed out, we find John Spugani, treasurer, making the rounds among the boys. Off in one corner, Waldy Horoch is telling about the rehearsals for the All-State Chorus he and Ted took part in.

"Ted, how about telling us something about the Club?" comes from an onlooker.

"This has been one of the hardest years since the Club began because so many boys are working. We started out with six members, but have more than trebled our membership. We have always taken part in the Christmas program and the May Festival. This year many of us are going to take part in the operetta, "H. M. S. Pinafore", to be given instead of the annual May Festival. This will be the last year of high school glee club work for some of our boys. We all hope that they have enjoyed working with us as we have with them."

Chemistry Club

"Johnny thought he'd study Chemistry
 But doesn't any more,
 'Cause what he thought was  $H_2O$
 Was really  $H_2SO_4$ ."

What excitement awaits the tense, eager crowd! Will the side of our illustrious school be blown out or will it remain to witness another year of experiments? This question will be decided on the third Wednesday of each month. It is lucky indeed that the president, Charles Regenbrecht, the vice-president, Alberta Koscielniak, the secretary, Irene Seaman, and the treasurer, Albert Roehm, are not held responsible for the results of these young Arrowsmiths.

After a short business meeting the experiments and demonstrations continue. These are usually performed by a committee of three or four members who have chosen the subject. One meeting we learned just how a car runs, and previously we had watched the celebration of a July 4th, right in Mr. Weiss' room.

One of the eventful meetings of the year is the initiation of the new members. Remember? That was the day everyone walked through the third floor holding his nose. Were the new members shaking! But who can blame them with the noise of chairs, rushing water, and that smell?

Dramatic Club

"On stage! On stage, everybody." The cast is ready, the lights are dimmed and the curtain rises on the opening of another successful production of the Dramatic Club. All the weeks of groaning, of memorizing, of learning where "up-left-center" was on the stage are forgotten as the play starts. As the play runs smoothly on, who would ever guess that the scenery is still wet in places or that we still do not have all the props? The Make-Up committee is standing at the rear of the auditorium, sighing over their masterpieces. Each one is so sure he's put too much rouge on Vinnie Farrell or too much gray in Florence's hair, but oh, no, everything is turning out very well.

And yet, backstage there is still some anxiety, as the prompter reveals, "She skipped a whole paragraph!" It mustn't have disturbed the audience at all, for when the curtain closes there is the thunderous sound of clapping hands, while behind the curtain the whole cast watches the audience march out. There is a sigh of relief, and everyone is glad the thing is over. Then someone pipes up and says, "It was fun, wasn't it?"

It really is fun putting on a play, as all the members of the Dramatic Club can well tell you. The officers of the club are Helen Harvan, chairman, Marie Zepht and Carl Anthony, members of the Standing Committee; Edna Welser, treasurer; Charlotte Figman, secretary; and Miss Gilkeson, faculty adviser.

Fish and Game Club

After the formalities of one of the fall meetings were over, Mr. Schott asked the club members, who were all boys, how their hunting trips were. Many boys have been hunting within the city limits, and Mr. Schott talked about good sportsmanship and also the need for caution against fires. He mentioned the fact that if any of the hunting laws of our city were disobeyed the city would forbid hunting within its limits. Deer hunting season was open at the time this meeting took place, and Mr. Schott told the boys an amusing story about a deer hunting party in which he took part some years ago.

The winter months held no outdoor activities for the boys except ice fishing, and few boys cared for this. The boys discussed ways and means of taking care of hunting and fishing equipment. Because of the war it is rather hard to buy fishing equipment, but repairs are allowed.

The officers are president, Joseph Streno; treasurer, William Schnarr; secretary, William Mays; faculty adviser, Mr. Schott.

Forensic Club

"Do you like to let off steam?" asked the Forensic Club's invitations.

"Yes, we do," answered about twenty-five students as they entered Room 30 for the first meeting.

The walls of that room could repeat many interesting discussions, humorous and dramatic readings, and stirring orations, for Linden High School has again become a member of the "New Jersey Forensic League of Secondary Schools" and has sent contestants to many of the League's various contests. The school was represented in the Humorous Declamation, Dramatic Interpretation, Extemporaneous Speaking, and Original Oratory contests that were held in various high schools in the state.

One of the Club's favorite pastimes is open forum discussion. The government heartily encourages discussion groups so that future citizens will gain experience in formulating opinions on national affairs. The Club members enjoy expressing their opinions and having their friends either attack or approve of their plans. Many shy members have overcome their fear of speaking and take pride in expressing themselves. Neighboring high schools have invited the Forensic Club to attend their open meetings, and Linden students have had the opportunity to hear several fine speakers.

The Forensic Club's officers, Alice Miklosy, president; Geraldine Huff, secretary; and Ladislava Pakulski, treasurer, worked with Miss Josephine Lang, faculty adviser, in an attempt to interest more and more students in the Club's activities.

La Societe Francaise

The French Club has answered its call to war time service. This year it took for its aim the task of preserving and promoting interest in the French land and language. This is a difficult task, for the picturesque land of the lovely language is no longer free and gay.

The club members begin each meeting with the French anthem, "La Marseillaise". At Christmas time they united with the Latin Club in their traditional Christmas carol festival, when all the age-old Latin and French carols can be heard echoing through the corridors.

Alice Miklosy served the Club as president, and Hermina Perlmutter as vice-president had charge of programs. Lenore Sirkin, the secretary, kept the minutes in French and read them both in French and in English at the meetings. Carl Anthony served as treasurer.

La Societe Francaise, one of the oldest clubs in the school, has kept the names of all students who have ever belonged to it, and this year a committee selected the names of all those former members who are now in the armed forces of our country. The club sent each a card that carried not only a cheery greeting, but also an assurance that the French society was still on the job and was very proud of the part its former members were playing in the struggle for freedom.

German Club

All the buzzing in room 38 has stopped. Soon another German Club meeting will be in session. Mr. Moldaschl, adviser, and Helen Harvan, president, are standing before the group. After the meeting has been called to order Marie Zepht, secretary, reads the minutes of the preceding meeting. This year the German Club had its annual afternoon dance in conjunction with the Math Club. This dance was the last one of the year, and was held in May.

Now that all the business has been attended to, let's turn the meeting over to the program committee. Each month a few members of the club are chosen to plan the program. This month they have chosen recordings by famous German composers to be played. The group will try to identify the piece by title and composer. "That selection is from Beethoven's '5th Symphony'," said the girl in the front. "No," said the boy in the back, "it is from Wagner's 'Sonnenflammen'." To settle the question let's ask Mr. Moldaschl. Oh well, better luck next time. It was from the "Marriage of Figaro," by Mozart. So another meeting proceeds until the bell marks the end of the fun.

Girls' Glee Club

Do — re — me — fa — sol — la — ti — do

It's Tuesday afternoon again and there's the Girls' Glee Club holding their regular meeting in the auditorium. Miss Kantner, the adviser and conductor, has just turned the meeting over to the president, Phyllis Fairbank. The attendance secretary, Betty Winans, is busy making her rounds while the treasurer, Doris Lewis, sits amidst the records of the club's money! The minutes of the last meeting are being read by the recording secretary, Marion Posnock. The stage manager, Ann O'Keefe, is busy turning on lights, opening the windows, and fixing the stage setting.

What with the traditional Christmas program each year and then the May Festival, the Girls' Glee Club is a very busy club. This year, I've heard tell, they're going to give an operetta instead of a regular May Festival. The orchestra will accompany them for some of the songs and dances. It's going to be "H. M. S. Pinafore," by Gilbert and Sullivan. What with some of the fine voices they have in both the Boys' and the Girls' Glee Club, it ought to be something. After all, they had several singers in the All-State Chorus this year — Ann Bilak, Helen Hislop, and Claire Stewart. When I went was I proud to see good ol' Linden represented in that concert! And during the year, there were individual songs and duets in the auditorium, all of which are given by the members of those clubs. Remember some of the songs by Leona Parker, Helen Hislop, Claire Stewart, Sybil Holland, and the others?

Miss Kantner and those girls work hard, week after week, singing the same song over and over, until it's perfection itself. But when Christmas and May Festival time come around, and you stand up there in front of all those people and really put the song over, do you feel proud!

You know, the other day I read "H. M. S. Pinafore." It's about Josephine, an extremely pretty young lady who is in love with Ralph Rackstraw, a poor common seaman. (Shirley DuTot is playing Josephine and Warren Prentice is Ralph.) Sir Joseph, the Admiralty's First Lord, is seeking Josephine's hand in marriage. (That's Joe MacGee.) But because she loves Ralph she won't marry him. She tells Ralph that she can't love him because he is lowly born. But she walks in just as Ralph is about to kill himself, and declares her love for him. They plan to elope, but an ugly, morbid seaman whose name is Dick Deadeye discloses their secret. (Dick Deadeye is Harold Sadowitz.)

When Sir Joseph learns of what is being planned he gets very angry and threatens to throw Ralph into the ship's prison. But Little Buttercup, the roundest and rosiest girl in all Spithead (Sybil Holland), saves the scene by telling her story. When she was young, doing practical baby farming, she had mixed the two young babies. Thus Ralph is really of the nobility, while the Captain is the common born. Of course, now it's all right for Ralph to marry Josephine. In the end the Captain marries Buttercup and Sir Joseph marries Hebe. (The Captain is Bartley Tuthill and Hebe is Barbara Tuttle.)

Some of the others in the operetta are Waldemar Horoch as Bob Bobstay; Karl Asch as Bob Becket and a whole bunch of others who are in the chorus. Mr. Malpas is in charge of the orchestration, Miss Gilkeson is coaching the dramatics, and Miss Kantner is directing the operetta. The girls in the chorus are these: J. Guemple, A. Bilak, J. Fersterowski, L. Parker, M. Bronstein, B. Winans, R. Nadel, B. Dougherty, M. Tuthill, D. Lewis, B. Wagner, N. Porter, H. Hislop, A. Rafelson, J. Sweeney, G. Huff.

The make-up committee, usherettes, costume, and property committees will all be made up of Glee Club members.

Well, the rehearsal is over. Here comes Joan. Come on, let's go home. Joan, that sounds swell. I wish I had joined.

Girl Reserves

One of the newest, yet one of the most popular clubs of Linden High School, is the Girl Reserves. When first organized the membership did not exceed ten, but now it runs as high as forty. Upon meeting the requirements, the girls are then initiated by means of funny tricks. This year initiation consisted of a day in school with hair in pigtails with two different bows, no makeup whatsoever, non-matching shoes and socks.

The activities of the club include service work as well as social. Scrapbooks and packages for soldiers were made, there were a visit and entertainment program for the Old Ladies' Home in Elizabeth, and a Chinese girl was adopted.

As to co-ed activities, there was a hayride in October, a barn-dance in November, a swim meet in February, a valentine party in February, and the annual formal dinner-dance at the Terrace Room in May. The installation of new officers every year is quite ceremonious, supported by a mother-daughter tea.

The officers of the club are president, Dot O'Donnell; vice-president, Alice Laramée; secretary, Rosalind Goldenstein; treasurer, Jerry Huff.

Home Economics Club

It's Wednesday morning, and busily hurrying around the sewing room is Joy Wagenbach, for, you see, she is president of the Home Economics Club. With her notes in hand, class settled, and the officers seated at her side, she will soon open the meeting. First on the program is the reading of the minutes by Helen Solomin, who is the secretary. Jane Kennedy, club treasurer, next gives her report.

Today's meeting is about correct and incorrect dress on your all-important dates, for going to a basketball game, a formal dance, or a New York trip, and for everyday school clothes. Several girls participate in this event and it proves to be a success. The meetings of the club have been varied, but all proved to be interesting as well as educational. For instance, there are meetings where games are played stressing our need for vitamins, as well as question bees on clothes and nutrition.

Because of the war and the many shortages, the Home Economics Club has abandoned its yearly outing. Marie Stellitano, the vice-president, has arranged picnics to take its place. Mrs. Reichelderfer, the sewing instructor, and Miss Boyle, the cooking instructor, act as co-advisers.

Latin Club

"Adeste Fideles". The Latin and French Clubs have combined for the annual Christmas song festival. The Club's many activities and social affairs make it a very desirable club to belong to, and it has always had a very large membership.

At a typical meeting, one would see President Felice Muldoon conducting and leading the analyzing of the topics for discussion. The discussions embrace a large field, from music to the St. Patrick's Day afternoon dance to be held in collaboration with the Home Economics Club. During the course of a club meeting, there probably would be a report on the cultural background of Italy, considered important because of the international importance of the country. Then, of course, there would be reports on present day Italy and its international relation with the United States. Everyone at the meeting is probably still talking about the wonderful time he had at the club's initiation party.

Miss MacConkey, the club's adviser, with the help of the program chairman organizes the club's programs. The vice-president is Martin Hrynick; the secretary, Ruth Kirby; the treasurer, Emery Dougherty.

Library Squad

Upon entering your High School library you have probably seen students at the desk or assisting other pupils or teachers. These are the members of the Library Squad, whose duty is to aid in any way possible. Their main activities are filing cards, changing pencils, slipping books and magazines, and recording books.

Previous to the war, two trips a year were taken to the National Conferences, but these have been postponed indefinitely. The meetings are the first Wednesday of the month. A guest speaker attends one, and the following month the period is filled with games pertaining to library books, with war stamps as prizes.

The president is Evelyn Ross; the vice-president, Delores Barge; the secretary, Patricia Fowler.

Mathematics Club

A man is flying a plane in a northerly direction at 500 mph. The wind, however, blows him toward the west at a rate of 145 mph. The question is, how far will he be off his course at the end of 3 hours? That may not make sense and may be impossible, but that's the type of problem the Math Club discusses.

Another type of problem helps the future pilots of Linden High to judge the distance they may fly when they have a 4 hours' supply of gas. No, you can't just fly for 2 hours and then turn around. You have to take in the velocity of the wind. But don't be disheartened; we can't all be Joel Kuppermanns.

For those members who can get up a little earlier on Monday and Thursday mornings Miss Reynolds has devised a Pre-Flight Navigation Course.

The officers of the club are Alberta Koscielniak, president; Joseph MacGee, vice-president; Russell Surgens, treasurer; Martha Eichhorn, secretary; and Miss Reynolds, faculty adviser.

Orchestra

Well, it's Thursday morning again and the orchestra is playing a lively march as the students assemble in the auditorium. Immediately after school the weekly rehearsal of this musical group will be taking place in the music room. If one should happen to look into the room before the rehearsal is begun, he would see Eugene Kiel, manager, and Albert Roehm and Stephen Silwones, assistant managers, setting up the chairs and stands, while Charlotte Dvorin and Helen Brown, librarians, are distributing the music folders. When everyone is seated, Frieda Markant, the secretary, will be checking attendance. With all this done, the group will then begin going over its various pieces until the end of the ninth period, when the students will be dismissed. The rotating classes on Wednesday supplement this weekly rehearsal.

A concert by the band and orchestra was given on March 31. This concert took the place of the annual May Festival, as far as the orchestra and band were concerned. This year the music department presented the operetta, "H. M. S. Pinafore," by Gilbert and Sullivan. A small orchestra played for the operetta, the members of which were selected from among the members of the school orchestra.

The concert of the New Jersey All State Orchestra and chorus was held in the Mosque Theater in Newark. Those representing Linden were Symona Klotz, violin; Edna Welser, Anna Liederman, viola; and Charlotte Dvorin, cello.

The Photography Club

Hold it ---- Flash! There, we've taken another picture. This Photography Club is surely busy, what with taking pictures for the Cynosure and occasionally for the Chronicle. I wonder if it will turn out. With all the directions about the workings of a camera, flash pictures, time exposures and everything else we've had in our meetings, they should turn out wonderfully!

From here we proceed into the dark room to develop the pictures. We dip the pictures into a few magical solutions and presto! ---- out they come. Hum-m-m. The picture is good, but look at me! That shrivelled up, prune-faced thing in the background isn't a tree; that's just "photogenic" me!

Come on; let's take some more pictures for the contest we're having soon. You know Miss Oldach and Mr. Walker are the judges, so the pictures will have to be good! Look; over there are the president, Edward Zaborowski, and the treasurer, John Pencak, taking some pictures. Are they taking a picture of that tree or that blonde? "Oh, hello, Jean!" That's Jean Prentice, the vice-president, with her camera. There's Bernard Van Savage, the secretary, squirming on the ground, taking a picture of that airplane. I bet our picture will be better than his. Come on, or we won't have time to take any at all!

Football

An inexperienced Linden High football team which improved with every game compiled a seasonal record of 4 wins, 3 losses, and 1 tie. With Co-Captains Dooley and Lukenda leading the way, the "Tigers" won 4 of their last 5 games, thereby winning a dinner for themselves. This dinner, given by Coach Cooper, was also attended by Miss Ebbert and Mr. Brown. Before the traditional Thanksgiving game with Union, Hymie Roseman and Saul Kaplan were elected captains for the next year.

The season began on September 25 with Linden a guest of the "Barons" of Woodbridge. Both teams were over-anxious, with Linden suffering the most, because the Orange and Black had a touchdown called back for backfield in motion. Woodbridge was a shade better, and the final score read 6-0, Woodbridge. The next encounter, with Roselle Park, again found Linden having a touchdown called back. "The Tigers" also had a point after touchdown called off because of another infraction of the rules. This point would have won the game, as the final verdict was a 6-6 tie. The next opposition was furnished by Rahway, who defeated the Orange and Black before a huge crowd in a hard-fought battle, 13-6.

The next game proved the most interesting of the year, as Linden defeated Perth Amboy, a previously undefeated and unscored-on aggregation, by a score of 6-0. The Linden touchdown came with only a few seconds remaining in the first half. The sensational 65 yard pass play included two laterals before Kaplan finally carried the ball across the goal. Throughout the remainder of the game an inspired Linden line held back all the attacks of the aroused Perth Amboy eleven. One of the highlights of this defense was a kick by Hymie Roseman from his own 27-yard line through the Perth Amboy end zone.

Cranford was the next victim to fall before the Orange and Black and did so in a rainstorm which slowed down both teams. Kaplan returned a punt 47 yards for the only score and a 6-0 conquest. Hillside, who ended the season undefeated, beat a gallant underdog Linden eleven 14-0. Dill, Hillside's all-state back, led the onslaught by scoring both touchdowns and kicking two extra points. Carteret served as our next opposition and was defeated 12-6. The game saw Linden score two touchdowns for the first and only time during the year. The Thanksgiving Day game saw the "Tigers" end the season victorious by beating Union 7-2. Although the score was low, Linden dominated the game with both its offense and its defense.

Varsity Basketball

As this is written the Orange and Black netsters have a seasonal record of 5 wins and 13 losses, including a 29-26 defeat by Sacred Heart which eliminated Linden from the County Tournament. The season, however, still has a chance of being a success if the Tigers can defeat Edison and any subsequent opponents in the State Tournament.

Coach Kalla's men opened the season against Regional and suffered a 25-20 setback. The next game was won by the Orange and Black, as they defeated North Plainfield 27-22. In the next two games Linden tasted defeat at the hands of Cranford and Rahway. During the Christmas holidays, however, the seasonal record was evened up, as the Alumni and Plainfield were vanquished by scores of 42-16 and 35-29. Union, in a home and home series, then wrested two victories in a row from an improving Linden five, but between these games Rahway invaded Linden in the surprise game of the year.

This game was played before a capacity crowd and those who were unable to get into the gym stayed home and heard the game broadcast over station WAAT of Jersey City. Led by Hubeny, a fighting Orange and Black five in the last quarter moved up from 16 points behind to only 3, but when the game had ended Rahway was the winner, 49-41. Cranford again defeated the Tigers, at Cranford, 59-45. A string of close games followed, as Linden lost the next three contests by a total of 5 points. East-Side defeated the Brokaw-captained Linden team 25-24. Hillside in an extra period emerged victorious 39-38, and Thomas Jefferson squeezed out a 44-42 victory by scoring 4 points in the last 30 seconds.

The striped cagers returned to the victory path by beating Plainfield 36-25 and revenging their opening game defeat by Regional, crushing them 47-34. Roselle Park, led by Sackman, defeated Linden in a tough battle 48-46. The regular season ended in a surprise defeat at the hands of North Plainfield 32-23. The team, though losing more games than they won, deserve a hand, as in every game they put up a good battle, which caused many thrilling games.

Baseball Squad

The 1943 baseball team enjoyed quite a bit of success, as they won the County Conference. The Tigers defeated Thomas Jefferson in the last game of the season 1 to 0 to win the title. Captains Lukenda and Bosco, along with fine hitting and pitching by Hunter, sparked the team to its title. Dooley, though thought to be a starting pitcher, did a fine job behind the plate when Emil Babulski was drafted in the middle of the season. There was a total of 18 games played, in 11 of which Linden High emerged victorious.

The season started off on the right foot with a 6-4 victory over Edison. The next encounter found Linden the guest of New Brunswick High for a double-header. Behind Hunter's fine hitting and pitching, Linden won the first game 6-4, but lost the second in a slugfest, 11-12. Next Weequahic journeyed to our field and returned home with a 4-2 victory. The next contest found Linden again on the winning trail with a 6-1 win over St. Patrick's. This victory started the Orange and Black on a string of 7 straight wins.

Plainfield fell by a score of 7-1. Westfield was trounced 10-2 in a game highlighted by Lukenda's home run, triple, and two singles in four times at bat. Linden then traveled to Warinanco Park and defeated St. Mary's 11-1. Rahway was the next victim of Linden's onslaught by a 3-2 count, Walter Starosciak hitting a home run. Roselle Park and Westfield again were defeated by scores of 7-3 and 7-4 respectively. The Tigers, however, lost the next four games to Woodbridge 4-2, Roselle 5-4, Carteret 2-0, and Roselle again, this time 6-5. Hillside was beaten 5-2, but Rahway defeated the Tigers 7-6. Then came the final game, with Hunter allowing but one hit to defeat Jefferson 1-0 and win the Conference Title. Coach Cooper gave a dinner for the team, after which Dooley and Hunter were elected co-captains for the next year.

Track Squad

In a season somewhat curtailed by transportation difficulties, the Linden Track Team won three meets while losing only one. The year began with Linden journeying to Union, where they suffered a 67 to 50 defeat. John Romanoski and co-captains Dagnes and Keimig each took first place in two events. The team captured its first meet on the 6th of May, defeating Regional 64-43 at Springfield. Russ Keimig duplicated his feat of the Union meet by taking first place in the high and low hurdles. Rahway visited Linden on the 17th of May and fell victim to the Orange and Black Silksters 70-47. The next meet was held on the 26th, Westfield being the guest. This contest proved to be the most thrilling of the season, as the Tigers eked out a one point 59-58 victory. The season ended with the County and State Track meets. Linden received but 3 points in the county and 3  $\frac{3}{10}$  in the State meet.

Russ Keimig was the member of the team who won the most number of points with a total of 34. Dagnes, co-captain, was next with 29. Romanoski, though missing one meet because of measles stood third with 27 points.

Of the first five scorers only one was a senior and of the total of 20 men who scored one or more points for the team only 8 were seniors. This gives hopes of a good season to come.

Girls' Sports

Volleyball, basketball, swimming, foul-shooting, badminton and track were the sports in which the senior girls participated. The swimming classes, started this year by Coaches Siegman and Krischbaum, were held on Tuesday afternoons from three-thirty to five-thirty at the Elizabeth Y. W. H. A. The foul-shooting contest was won by Edna Welser, who made 58 out of 75. Alberta Koscielniak was second with 55 out of 75, and Helen Harvan third with 52 out of 75.

Those girls who made up the senior basketball team were Jane Aubrey, Jean Mahar, Helen Harvan, Alberta Koscielniak, Claire Stewart, Betty Shoplock, Jean Sonderland, Irene Wernock, and Evelyn Walsh, who was also elected captain of the team. Up until this writing the basketball winners have been very uncertain. The Seniors beat the Sophomores, the Juniors beat the Seniors, and the Freshmen beat the Sophomores.

The volleyball tournament was won by the Juniors. The winning team was made up of the following girls: Eileen Edwards, Edith Hemple, Eleanor Mullen, Irene Gorecke, Mae Mazurik, Rosalind Goldenstein, Barbara Hoffman, Patricia Fowler, Laura Komoroski, and Irene Seaman as captain. Badminton and paddle tennis were started at the end of the basketball season. The badminton tournament was played by partners, as in former years. The winners were the two partners who defeated all opponents. This year the track meet was held in our A. A. Field as usual, with the girls competing against each other in several races, jumping and ball-throwing contests. The paddle tennis tournament was held in the small gym and was played in singles with only a single winner. A play-day was held this year at Hillside on February twenty-fifth. These games are held mostly for pleasure and not for any prize or title. The height of the afternoon was reached when refreshments were served by the Hillside players.

The gym classes this year have been centered around a toughening-up program. This is easily verified when girls are noticed walking around the school rubbing sore muscles and groaning. A miniature obstacle course has been set up in the small gym. This consists of walking on a rail similar to a railroad tie, crawling thru a small bench, jumping from a table on to a mat and then turning a somersault. Another unit in the toughening-up program is a series of exercises in order to limber up tight, seldom-used muscles. There are two contests held in the gym classes each year. One is the foul-shooting contest and the other is called the "one-minute" shots. Each person takes twenty foul-shots and is marked accordingly. The minute shots are made from seven designated points on the keyhole. The shooter is timed and the number of baskets in one minute is recorded. The highest this year has been twelve. The girls' sports and physical education have played an important part in our school activities and have offered many advantages for outside work.

Cheerleaders

Something new has been added to the Cheerleading squad this year. Some of our boys joined the group, making possible peppier, more original cheers. We are all in some way or other affected by the war, and the cheerleaders are certainly no exception. This year the group wore their black skirts and trousers for both the football and the basketball games, the only change being from a heavy to a lighter weight orange sweater. Our cheerleaders, good Americans that they are, decided to be as resourceful as possible. It is the custom of this enthusiastic group to go on an annual picnic. Gas rationing was the reason for its cancellation this year.

Next year an entirely new group will have the privilege of cheering our boys on to victory with most of the present group graduating, and quite a few of the fellows leaving school to join the armed forces, only four of them will be left to carry on. The cheerleaders of Linden High School are not just overnight successes. To be really good takes quite a bit of practice. Under the able guidance of Miss Demarest, however, the group was able to equal if not surpass the skill of the cheerleaders of the opposing teams. Several afternoons after school their encouraging voices, accompanied by the rhythmic beat of the drum, can be heard through our halls. They very definitely believe and prove to us that "practice makes perfect."

The students of Linden High School will all agree that these pupils themselves deserve some cheers for the grand job they succeeded in accomplishing.

Boys' Interclass Basketball

For the first time in the history of interclass basketball it seems that the same team will win the championship in both Junior and Senior years. This team has as its members Richard Bosco, James Dooley, John Bara, Mike Guydan, and Joe Bellek. The Senior B teams have reached the finals in both Junior and Senior years, but it is doubtful if they will be able to defeat their stronger classmates. The B team is composed of Harry Nelson, Julius and Sidney Isler, James Lockwood, Edward Reap and Edward Olbrys. The most surprising score of the year was a 106 to 32 victory of the Freshman B team over the Junior B team. This is not the actual score, however, as the Freshmen were getting a handicap of 8 points a basket and 4 points a foul shot.

Boys' Gym Class

Class Diary

September — Dear Diary,

Here we are back in school again on September 7. It certainly was fun seeing those familiar smiling faces (Am I kidding). Seriously, those poor Freshmen, dashing to and fro inquiring where room 246 is — we all know that there is no such room. We, too, were Freshmen, but oh, so very long ago. Two of our classmates left school for the armed forces. William Lehr donned navy blue, while Frank Hnat put on khaki. Three cheers for these boys and as a matter of fact for all our boys. (Right, gang?) Our band was certainly doing their bit by playing for the draftees. Pretty soon they'll have new uniforms; then won't we be the proud ones.

October — Dear Diary,

Columbus Day came and with it was a half-week for rationing. Happy Days! Several senior boys and girls also gave up their time for the war effort in this drive. The Senior Class elected their officers with "Mike" Quaid as our president; "Joe" Messina, vice-president; "Tony" Manuzza, secretary; and Alberta Koscielniak, treasurer. Of course, our football team was blazing a trail of glory, with "Jimmy" Dooley and "Eddie" Lukenda as co-captains.

November — Dear Diary,

Thanksgiving Day proved to be successful, with our football team being a 7-2 victor over Union and then coming home to a steaming turkey — mm — tempting, wasn't it? Our football team had an average of .500, which wasn't bad at all. This month also brought the annual Junior and Senior Barn Dance. Say — didn't "Charlie" Meszaros look cute in his outfit? The music was provided by Shorty Warren, and he certainly was in the groove — right, hep-cats? And then came the stupendous play about our stupendous year book. Didn't Joe MacGee look funny with the sign around his neck encouraging book sales? The Senior Play was chosen and tryouts for the coveted parts were held. Our Math Club was meeting before school for their pre-flight courses. (Maybe we'll have a "Jimmy Doolittle" in the group).

December — Dear Diary,

The Seniors are busy at work on the annual Senior play which is to be presented February 4 and 5. Herbert Nikola is "Jeff", "Carol" is played by Helen Harvan, and Fuzzy Palermo steps into the role of "Wes." "Gerry" Huff looks very cute, indeed, as "Hyacinth," and Betty Winans is showing an unusual skill in comedy as the washed-out maid. A rather buxom Negress is played by Janet Bajusz. The rest of the cast includes June Gauer, Dorothy Borek, Phyllis Fairbank, Bartley Tuthill, and Alice Miklosy. Good-luck, kids, I'm sure it will be one of the best (or perhaps the best?) Senior plays L. H. S. has ever put on!

Wasn't Friday night's basketball game swell? As it was the first game of the season I don't think we did so badly, do you?

January — Dear Diary,

Quite a bit has happened around L. H. S. since the December entry! The question asked most for a while was "What did you get from him for Christmas?" But Christmas, with its long, long vacation is all a thing of the past (does it have to be?) We've had our Senior poll and the returns were very favorable. The cast for the operetta, "H. M. S. Pinafore," which is going to be given in place of the May Festival, has been chosen and very well chosen indeed!

By the way, if no mention was made previously, then I think it's about time the Junior class deserves some well-earned praise here and now! I'm talking about the beautiful job Miss Noddin and the Junior decorating committee did in the halls before Christmas. It was really a swell job, kids, and deserves a lot of praise.

February — Dear Diary,

Today tells us that over 800 L. H. S. students have subscribed to the ever-famous Cynosure! That's really a wonderful record and those who haven't subscribed should look into the matter and see if they can't get a book ordered for them.

The Senior Play is now a thing of the past but everyone is still talking about it and the fine job that the cast and all committees did on it! Bouquets to all of you! The usherettes are included in this group, too, and they really looked lovely!!

On February 15 the Fourth War Loan Drive came to a close. Linden High students proved to be very patriotic in making our quota go over the top. The fact that the drive has ended doesn't mean that we should stop purchasing both bonds and stamps. Let's all get in the scrap and buy "a stamp a day for the man who's away!"

March — Dear Diary,

That was a happy month for everyone. It brought spring, and in spring "a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love". It also brought the Dramatic Club Spring Production. "Eternal Life" was this year's title, a timely drama concerning the war, and such a display of talent! Then, too, the school band and orchestra presented their concert, in order to raise funds for their uniforms. As could be expected, it was a great success.

April — Dear Diary,

April brought loads of wonderful things, among them the Senior Prom, when boys and girls alike threw aside their informal duds to don gowns and tux, and dance, dance, dance! Then, too, the baseball season was under way, and our Linden High School Babe Ruths and Joe DiMaggios were in there "pitching".

May — Dear Diary,

May brings to mind recollections of the May Festival. This year the Music Departments undertook the difficult task of presenting Gilbert and Sullivan's celebrated operetta, "H. M. S. Pinafore." It turned out to be quite a gala affair, and was tremendously enjoyed by everyone. May also brought the affair eagerly awaited by the Junior Class — their prom.

June — Dear Diary,

Ah, at last, the event eagerly anticipated by every boy and girl, since his first confused day of Grade School — Graduation! The Seniors were all excited and not a little unhappy at leaving dear old Linden High. Shall we ever forget the lovely times and wonderful opportunities offered us by our Alma Mater?

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of nineteen-hundred forty-four, being of sound mind and body, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

To the Linden Senior High School's faculty, we express our sincere gratitude for bearing with us these four trying years.

To the Juniors, we leave all the burdens, but also all the joys, responsibilities, and honor of being seniors.

Our individual members bequeath the following responsibilities and honors:

Mona Lee Glasston . . . .	her executive ability to Claire Dooley
Charlotte Dvorin . . . .	her endless source of jokes to Ann White
Leona Parker . . . . .	her efficiency to Betty Jane Leshko
Joy Wagenbach . . . . .	that ever-ready giggle to Alice Laramee
Martha Eichhorn . . . .	her beauty to Marie Zepht
Jeanie Mahar . . . . .	her outstanding sports ability to Theresa Rezcka
Betty Winans . . . . .	her title of "best-dressed Senior" to Dorothy Ann Kress
Sybil Holland . . . . .	her singing voice to Anne Bilak
Tommy Treacy . . . . .	his little boy look to Kenny Turner
Jimmy Dooley . . . . .	his place in Miss Graves' heart to Al Brokaw
June Gauer . . . . .	her pleasing personality to Jane Kennedy
Ed Moody . . . . .	his pessimistic outlook to David MacLean
Phyllis Fairbank . . . .	her "banty-legs" to Irene Seamans
Marge Barber . . . . .	that "band-box" appearance to Marilyn Aimone
Mike Quaid . . . . .	his looks and personality to Hugh Treacy
Ed Lukenda . . . . .	his sports ability to Bob Byko
Waldy Horoch . . . . .	his "boogie-woogie" piano playing to Gene Bolan

May the above bequests be carried out faithfully.

Signed, sealed, published, and declared in the month of February, in the year of our Lord, nineteen-hundred and forty-four.
