SENIOR HOMEROOM CHAIRMEN

CLASS WILL

We the senior class of 1947, being of sound mind and body, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

To the Linden High School faculty we express our sincere gratitude for their perseverance in dealing with us during the past four long years.

To the juniors we leave all our trials, tribulations, joys, responsibilities, and the honor of being seniors.

To the individuals we bequeath the following:

Pete Culos' good looks to Joe Spader
Ernie Harasty's athletic ability to Tommy Chapman
Marge Newell's sparkling personality to Jeanne Rathjen
Frank Wolf's musical ability to Ray Wolf
Helen Oppel's efficiency to Elaine Sellner
Jerry Cohen's keen mind to Robert Smith
Burt Arnold's acting ability to Leon Wolfberg
Frances Wexler's title of best dressed to Janet Harris
Catherine Does' place in super honor roll to Dorothea Bohling
Gus Szurley's air-mindedness to John Papuzynski
Ann Galella's dancing feet to Millicent Hoffman
Grace Foss' beautiful hair to Joan Lund
Warren Prentice's tenor voice to George Wright
Joan Sweeney's pep to Helen Wolar
Ebby Ericsson's sense of humor to Bill Dalziel
Frances Von Buelow's beauty to Dorothy Nicholai
Carol Armstead's inspiring voice to Harriet Polin
Shirley Dittimer's "band box" appearance to Eleanor Sefchik
Karl Asch's full time schedule to George Sweet
Marge Humcke's endless source of jokes to Betty Coleman
Herby Berkowitz's optimistic air to Herb Baker
Harvey Thorn's vocabulary to Ralph Richter

May the above bequests be faithfully carried out.

Signed, sealed, published, and declared in the month of March, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-seven.

SENIOR PLAY

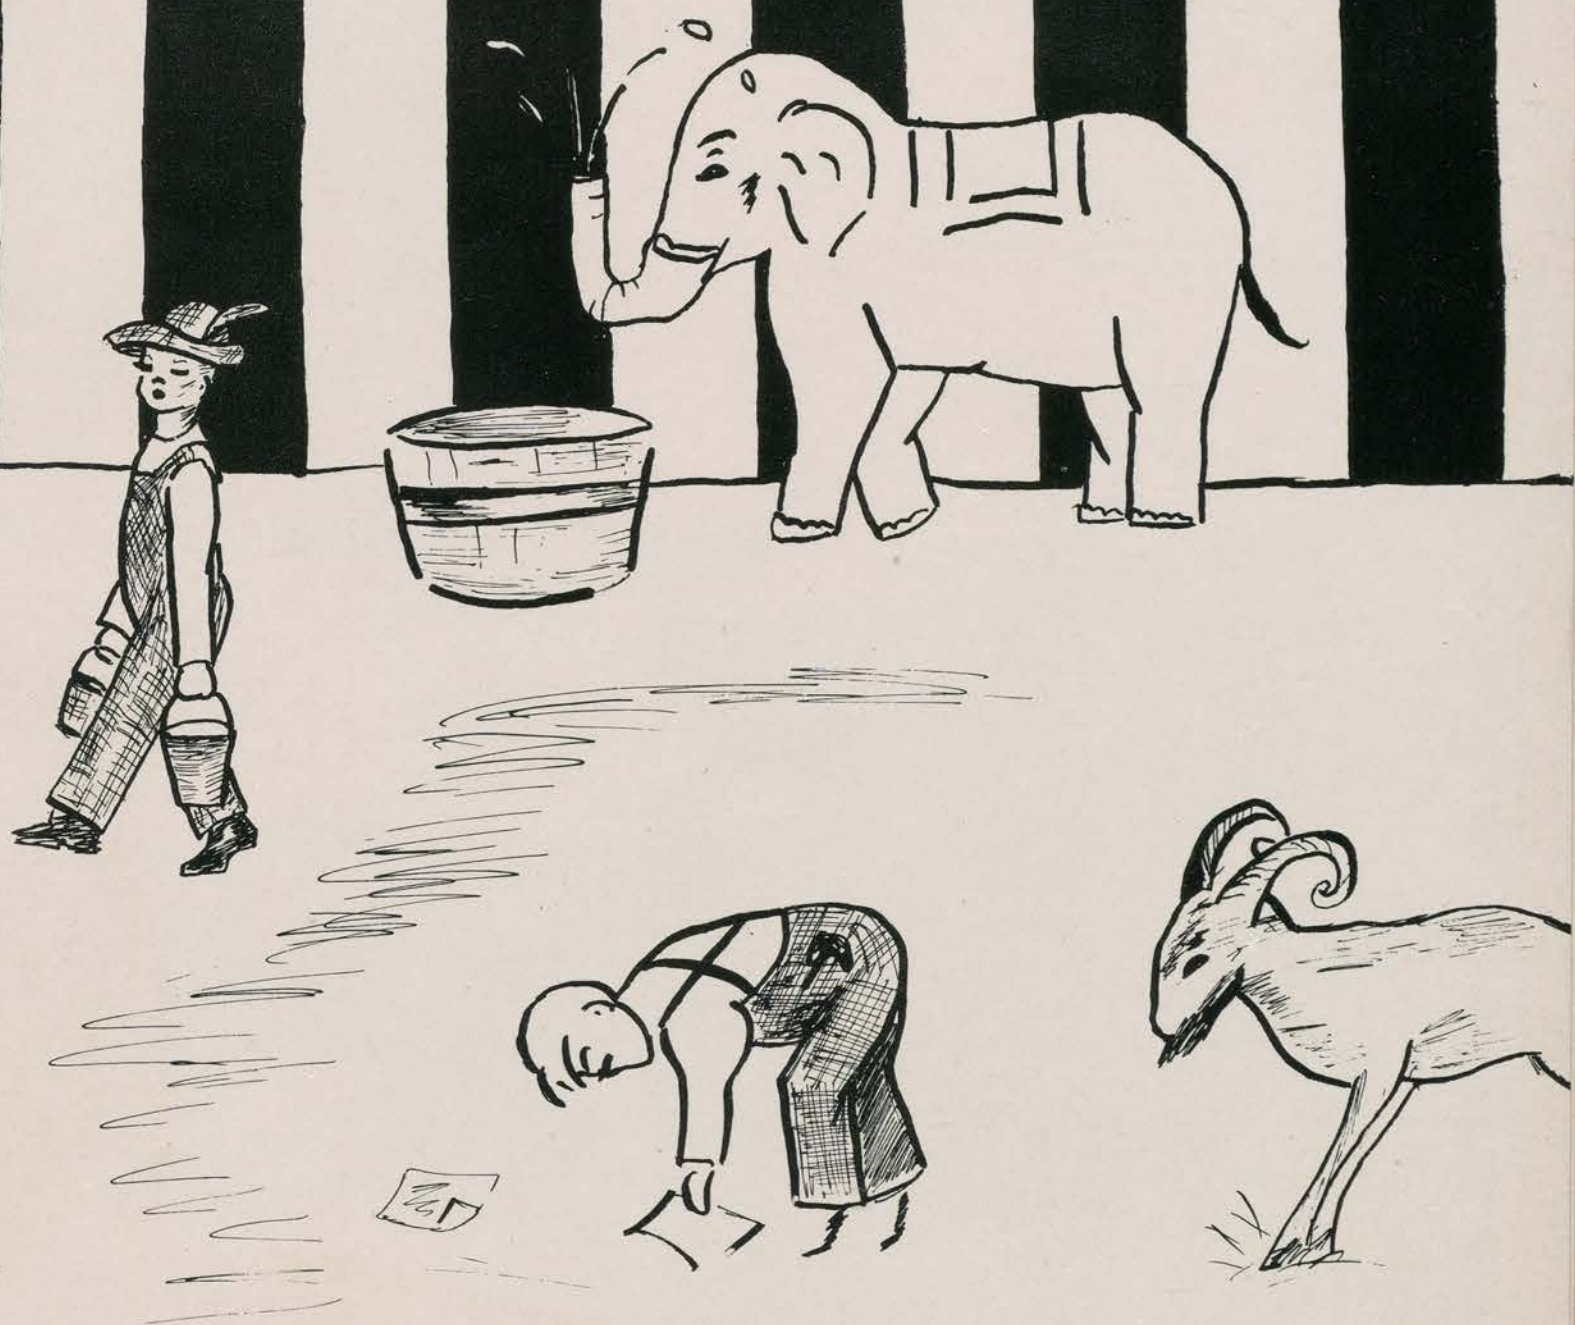

BERKELEY SQUARE

This year, for its annual production, the senior class presented a fantasy, "Berkeley Square". Presented on the 7th and 8th of February, it contained an all-star cast, including Steve Guzy as Peter Standish; Helen Pettigrew, Elizabeth Elder; her sister, Kate, Frances Wexler; Tom Pettigrew, Bonnie Wadors; Lady Anne Pettigrew, Betty Foley; Throstle, Bob Morrison; Duchess of Devonshire, Phyllis Litwin; the Duke of Cumberland, Alfred Schulman; Major Clinton, Alvin Wilpon; Ambassador, Harvey Thorn; Marjorie Frant, Jean Ostarticki; Wilkins, Margie Newell; Miss Barrymore, Margaret Petrowsky; Lord Stanley, Warren Prentice; and Mrs. Barwick, Carol Glasston.

Excellentlly coached by Miss Gilkeson, the play will be remembered for the way Steve played his role as Peter, the man with the split personality. The story deals with Peter Standish, who lives in both the 18th and 20th centuries. While living in the middle 1700's he was able to see far into the future to modern times. His supposed descendant, Peter Standish, saw into the deep past of 200 years. The plot weaves in and out of the two centuries until the entire story becomes clear. We shall never forget the charming costumes and wigs worn at the ball, and, of course, Al Schulman as the Prussian Duke with his noticeable accent. Particular recognition should be given to the committees who worked so diligently behind scenes. Dotty Danninger and Joan Sweeney served as Co-stage-managers, and Edith O'Connell was prompter.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

BIFF! BOOM! CRASH! BANG! SPLASH! Bing!—If on some Wednesday morning you are strolling by room 203 and happen to smell a peculiar odor or hear a strange bit of noise, a possible explosion, think nothing of it!! It was merely the Chemistry Club at work, or as you might have it, at play. Guided by Mr. Weiss, the members spend most of the time with experiments. When not making these certain tests, the Club discusses current chemistry problems. Catherine Does is the president; Louis Bona, vice-president; and Phil Ginfrieda, secretary. The Club visited several industrial plants in Linden this year. On January 16th a trip was made to the Standard Oil Company.

ART CLUB

Ah, Art! Art is man's way of expressing himself and his ideas in a way other than words. And what better way is there to obtain a knowledge of this universal language than to be a member of the Linden High School Art Club? This organization holds its meetings every Wednesday activity period in room 218. Each week two members are chosen to prepare the program for the following meeting. After all business is taken care of, the program is presented. The time is spent in studying the lives of famous artists, playing games, sketching, and in the studying of outstanding examples of art. One of the main features of the year was an annual picnic. Also on the crowded agenda this past year were a trip to New York and a dance sponsored in conjunction with the Math Club and the Junior Red Cross.

Y-TEENS

A very popular club in Linden High School is the Y-Teens, formerly called the Girl Reserves. The girls meet on the second and fourth Monday of every month in the old City Hall. The Y-Teens are the teen age group of the Y.W.C.A. They are affiliated with the Elizabeth Y. Some of the best known activities are the popular hayride and the annual public initiation of new members. This year the initiation consisted of making the girls dress up in old men's clothes, carry a mop and pail, and clean the sidewalks along Wood Avenue. The officers of the Club are president, Mildred Orzewski; vice-president, Jeanette Baars; secretary, Helen Pado; treasurer, Johanna Villani. Miss Dorothy Eilbacher is adviser.

MICROSCOPE CLUB

The regular meetings of the Microscope Club, advised by Mr. Barr, are called to order by Arthur Gustofson, president, as the former president, Rose Pawlus, has left Linden High School. Frank Dann, secretary, and Marie Borcharding, treasurer, then present their reports. This year the club members have handed in projects pertaining to microscopic work, such as, "What can be found out about paper and photographs when they are put under a microscope?" The club has had many interesting discussions of their findings.

SPANISH CLUB

Meetings of the Spanish Club are always interesting, for there is a variety of programs. The standing program committee, which is headed by Norma Cirrotta and Edith O'Connell, works with several members to provide some good educational entertainment each week. Members play Spanish games, sing Spanish songs, and study the history, literature, and art of Spanish-speaking countries. Each year the club goes on a trip to New York, where it visits a Spanish museum, eats a Spanish meal, and sees a Spanish movie. This club is sponsored by Mrs. Ramage and meets every Wednesday in room 30. The officers are president, Harvey Thorn; vice-president, Dot Olszewski; secretary, Marie Attanasio; and treasurer, Edith O'Connell.

SENIOR DRAMATIC CLUB

MAKE-UP CLUB

The Make-Up Club meets in room 112 on Wednesday afternoon. This Club is also under the direction of Mrs. Nogi. This year for the first time the Club has elected officers; they are Mary Milochik, president, and Evelyn Monash, secretary-treasurer. Upon joining the club the members first choose partners. This enables them to practice on each other. As beginners they apply only base and continue this until they are expert. Thereafter they practice character make-up and acquire actual experience by taking an active part in all Dramatic Club productions and musical festivals.

The regular meetings of the Senior Dramatic Club, under the direction of Mrs. Nogi, are called to order by former vice-president Marjorie Newell, the elected president, Stanley Gill, having left Linden High School. Reports are then heard from Mary Milochik, secretary, and Sophie Oetting, treasurer. The most important activity of the Club is its fall production, which this year was "The Man Who Came To Dinner." It marked the first time the club had presented a play for two evenings. Needless to say, it was a great success. The club also presents a spring production, which is usually a one-act play. This is given in the auditorium. Programs are planned by the members and presented during meetings. This year members have worked on their speech and have also read and acted one-act plays.

The Junior Dramatic Club, also directed by Mrs. Nogi, holds its meetings in Room 112. The following officers preside: former vice-president Ralph Elder, as the elected president, George Griffith, has left our school, and secretary-treasurer Elizabeth Toffic. This club is for freshmen only. During their meetings the members present planned programs of various dramatic interest. They also learn to speak correctly, to walk, and to sit properly. Both the Junior and Senior Dramatic Clubs take an annual trip to New York to see one of the current Broadway hits.

LIBRARY SQUAD

Have you ever walked into the library and found Miss Waterman or Miss Merkler too busy to assist you, but a student at hand, capable and willing to fill in? These students belong to the Library Squad. They have a regular meeting during the first Wednesday activity period in the month. Every two weeks they have a split meeting, where the older members learn advanced work of a librarian and the new members are taught the fundamentals. On the alternate Wednesdays, in a joint meeting, some useful recreation is always planned. The officers are president, Mary Jane Beck; vice-president, Joseph Hammer; treasurer, Ann Mahar; secretary, Virginia Turano; faculty advisers, Miss Waterman, Miss Merkler.

DEBATING CLUB

Students interested in speech, argument and national affairs were deprived in the past three years of a chance to prove their ability. With the return of Mr. Jamison the club was again organized, and Linden High was again on "speaking terms". This year George Dress, Judith Scheckner, Louis Mattola and Anne Willmot made up the affirmative team; and Martha Nadel, Susan Silbert, Herbert Kantor, and Selma Zeitlin composed the negative team. An undecided debate was held here between Woodbridge and Linden with Anne Willmot and Louis Mattola the affirmative for Linden. Woodbridge reciprocated, and Herbert Kantor and Selma Zeitlin were our representatives. George Dress and Anne Willmot were the underdogs at a close debate in Irvington. Debates were also held with South Side, Newark, and Rahway.

MOVIE CLUB

He sings, he dances, he romances! Who? Van Johnson, of course, and possibly every leading man in Hollywood who hopes to boast his popularity with our Hedda Hoppers of Linden High. Under the watchful eye of Miss Margulies, adviser, president Josephine Harvanik, vice-president Mary Beres, secretary Jane Antoniewicz, and treasurer Mary Zajac set the Club off to Movieland every Wednesday morning. At each meeting the members reach into the Milky Way to find the brightest star in Hollywood during the past week. Of course the latest show at our local movie house may be the reason for that opinion! As long as Hollywood produces the movies, these members and future members will most willingly supply the "gift of gab" which is the backbone of the Movie Club.

FISH & GAME CLUB

For embryo and veteran sportsmen alike, Linden High offers the Fish and Game Club. This club under the supervision of Mr. Schott teaches the members the fundamentals of hunting and fishing, and promotes sportsmanship and safety when fishing or hunting. The officers of the club are Robert Stankus, president; Joseph Skolsky, vice-president; Charles Gahm, secretary, and Armand Therezo, treasurer. As to the programs, they follow the hunting and fishing seasons. For instance, the programs deal with ducks in the fall and deer in December. From January to March there is a lull during which there isn't much hunting or fishing. During this period the programs deal with the skills of rod repairing and making, fly-tying and tackle making. When spring and the trout season arrive, the programs turn again to the actual study of hunting and fishing methods. The club, in keeping with their ideal of sportsmanship, has used concerted action at times to get the authorities to take measures against illegal and greedy "Sportsmen"

JUNIOR RED CROSS

The membership of the Junior Red Cross has greatly increased this year, causing the club to be divided into two groups. A freshman and sophomore group, under the direction of Miss Turtur, and a junior and senior group, with Miss Casement as adviser, was the final arrangement. However, the girls combine their efforts on Tuesday mornings and work on many varied projects that bring cheer to children in hospitals. At Christmas the girls made attractive coloring books that help a child pass his leisure hours in enjoyment. For the children's Christmas parties, and for St. Valentine's and George Washington's birthday, table favors were made. Another project the girls enjoyed working on was the making of stuffed animals. The club also sponsored an afternoon dance on January 8. The officers this year are Dorothy Pawlikowski, president; Mildred Zemlan, vice-president; and Helen Oppel, secretary-treasurer.

MATHEMATICS CLUB

With only the flick of a slide rule or the scratch of a pencil, activities are at their peak at any Math Club meeting. The more difficult the problem, the more interested the Club members. These "mental-giants," supervised by Miss Reynolds, are prepared to tackle anything. Among the types of problems most enjoyed by the young mathematicians are those dealing with probability, navigation, and fallacies. Mathematical cross-word puzzles and quizzes always prove interesting as well as informative. At intervals plays, considered high spots of the year, are written and presented. The Club's gala initiation party provides the light touch to otherwise serious activities. Those who belong soon discover that mathematics certainly can be fun!

CAFETERIA CORPS

Three years ago when conditions were difficult in the cafeteria it was thought that the problem should be given to the students themselves. The Cafeteria Corps was organized and sponsored by Miss Smith and Miss Lang. We all agree that they have done, are doing, and will continue to do a wonderful job. It is one organization we could not do without. This is the first year that both boys and girls have been in the Corps; also, more underclassmen than ever before are being trained to do the work when the seniors are gone. Mike Fertonardo is the chairman of the biggest Cafeteria Corps yet, and Chippy Barr is the secretary. The Corps is big enough to enable the members to work in shifts.

Meetings are held the first and third Mondays of the month in room 132. There the members discuss the problems—and there are many—that have arisen during the week. They put their heads together and try to find solutions. One fact about the Linden High Cafeteria Corps that is little known is that it is a part of the Student Council. It is really a committee but functions separately. The Corps is made up of only volunteer workers. You can attribute the music you hear during every lunch to its efforts. Many new records have been added to the collection this year. The main objective of the Corps is to remind the students to clean up after their lunch. They are doing their best, and the whole student body is behind them. Another thing the LHCC did for us that we will never forget was obtaining chocolate milk. Keep up the good work, kids!

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

AND

FORENSIC CLUB

Wow!—What was that noise? That was just the members of Linden High's wonderful Forensic Club completing a torrid debate on some current national problem. The president, Karl Asch, calls the meetings to order every Wednesday morning in Room 14. Every week a new committee is chosen to lead a discussion of present-day importance. This committee presents both sides of the problem, and the chairman acts as moderator. Of course the club has business meetings, too. The secretary, Judith Scheckner, takes care of the minutes and correspondence; treasurer Herbert Kantor and Miss Lang, club adviser, arrange for all contests. In order to join, all you have to do is to be interested in participating in such topics as "Should We Have Socialized Medicine?", "Does Compulsory Military Training Aid Peace?", or "Should the United States Have Complete Control of Atomic Energy?". The Club is active in the N. J. Forensic League and takes part in speech, poetry reading, dramatic and extemporaneous contests. The Forensic Club is very active in the International Relations Forum, which is held annually. Jerry Cohen, past president of the Forensic Club, is vice-president of the state organization.

Another high school group interested in the Forum is the International Relations Club, which holds its meetings every Tuesday in Room 14 under the sponsorship of Mrs. Atkins. One period a week is spent on the study of one country. The group studies the people, their customs and government, the climate, products and internal problems of the country in relation to the United States. The members not only discuss these countries, but they show photographs to better explain the topography, occupations and dress of the people. The members have "pen-pals" in various parts of the United States and in other countries. Many enjoyable periods have been spent in reading letters received from these people. The officers are Frances Von Buelow, president; Grace Foss, vice-president; Josephine Ziemian, secretary-treasurer.

FRENCH CLUB

Perhaps you have heard "Alouette, gentile Alouette," ringing down the hall. This is only one of many favorite songs, sung by the French Club. Besides studying about French music, the members also study the lives and accomplishments of famous artists and composers and their works. The aims of "La Societe de Francaise," better known as the French Club, are to promote better scholarship, improve the spoken French, and to create an atmosphere of good fellowship. Each year the Club presents to the highest ranking third-year pupil La medaille d'olivids. Miss Noddin is the Club's adviser. The president, Betty Croteau, who moved, was ably replaced by Arlene Weitzman. Rosemary Brady is the secretary; and Marcia Bronstein, treasurer.

Following in the footsteps of Gutenberg, Caxton and Franklin is Linden High's Printing Club. Under the guidance of Mr. St. Andrassy the members study the different phases of printing. The Club's officers are Morton Schultz, president; John Calhoun, vice-president; Harris Reibel, secretary; and Maurice White, treasurer. If the members visit a newspaper, they probably will also attend a baseball game. For its future activities, some of the suggestions have been that the club take a trip through either a factory which makes type or a New York newspaper, to learn how a large plant operates.

Archeology is very new, and as yet there is not much information at the disposal of the public. For this reason the Archeology Club decided to study Russia, including all information concerning archeology. The members studied the customs, language, music, and education of the Russian people. Theories of the present government were also studied. Mrs. Potter is the faculty adviser. The officers are Gloria Colicelo, president; Barth Suretsky, vice-president; Fay Cooperstein, secretary; and Joan Smythe, treasurer.

SENIOR GIRLS' PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The Senior Girls' Photography Club is another group of Linden High's camera enthusiasts, who under the direction of Mr. Mele, hold very interesting meetings. Among their many activities, the girls study parts of the camera, and various photographic techniques. They also enjoy taking indoor and outdoor pictures, developing them themselves. This year the girls all worked exceptionally well, each at her own private masterpiece in photography. The reason? A contest was held in order to determine the member with the most talent in producing an original and creative picture. Officers of the club are president, Gloria Borowski; vice-president, Dolores Carmody; secretary, Mabel Blythe; and treasurer, Julia Boyarski.

BOYS' PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The Boys' Photography Club, as may be well expected, is composed of Linden High boys interested in photography as a hobby. The boys spend time in taking snap-shots, after studying the camera and its operation. Perhaps the favorite part of all is the developing of pictures which the members have taken. The club has its own dark room in which to practice printing and enlarging. Very often the club holds contests. The officers of the club are president, Michael Modrak; vice-president, Frank McGovern; secretary, Robert Vermetta; and treasurer, Stephen Gushin. The club's adviser is Mr. Clark.

Under the direction of Mr. Ruch, the Aviation Club has as officers Paul Chornobay, president; Dick Tracey, vice-president; Barbara Eikamp, secretary; and Alma Blum, treasurer. The Club deals mainly with gas models and gliders, but does some work in the theory of flight and new designs. As a feature this group has a point system. The boy with the most points at the end of the year receives a new gas engine and the girl with the most points is awarded five dollars.

GIRLS' PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The Girls Photography Club, which meets on Monday morning in Mr. Walker's room, is one of Linden High's most profitable clubs. Besides enjoyment, the members also acquire useful information. During the year an intensive program is carried out. After studying the structure of the camera and how to focus it when taking informal pictures, the girls are shown how to bring out good points and hide defects in photography. Besides exposures, developing and enlarging of pictures are also taught. The officers of the club are Elaine Pakowitz, president; Janet Vincent, vice-president; Agnes Stelitano, treasurer; Anna Schaper, Secretary; and Mr. Walker, faculty adviser.

SWING BAND

"The music stopped, but we were still dancing" to that fascinating rhythm created by Linden High's very own melody makers. These future Dorseys and Sinatras combine their talents to provide a series of afternoon dances under the sponsorship of some particular club. Their efforts are far from wasted, because the occasional "hot licks" which may be heard from the auditorium every Monday morning creates a strange curiosity amid all four corners of our school. Since rehearsals are necessary to any great musical group, Mr. Gelfond and Mr. Mopsick, each wielding a mean baton, lead our adept musicians to glory with every note played.

The aim of the Boys' and Girls' Choral Groups is to organize the Negro students of Linden High who like to sing—and, in the mood brought about by their singing, discuss their problems. The members learn to become better citizens and to be very proud of the race they represent. The officers of the Girls' Choral Group are Carol Armstead, president; Pauline Haynesworth, secretary; and Mildred Wactor, treasurer. The boys elected William Barge, president; Wilbur Harris, treasurer; and Joseph Daniels, secretary. The outstanding features of the year were the marvelous Christmas party and the enjoyable assembly program given in January. Early in February, during Negro week, the students studied the biographies of famous Negroes. The group didn't forget those less fortunate than they, for they sent fruit and games to their friends at Bonnie Burns. Mrs. Bell is the Club adviser.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is truly the students' organization of the school. You'd be surprised how much it does, because it doesn't always get the credit to which it is entitled. The Council, sponsored by Miss Smith, meets every Wednesday in room 132. It is made up of one elected member from each homeroom. The officers are elected each year in May. One of the most popular assembly programs is the one in which the campaign speeches are given. The Council is divided into various committees: assembly, publicity, social, clubs, and sports. It can truthfully be said that the committee chairmen are the hardest workers on the Council.

This year the Student Council, which is a member of the New Jersey Association of High School Councils, participated in the conference held in the fall at New Brunswick. These representatives of all New Jersey schools discussed youth problems. Our representatives were Bill Emrich, chairman, Wayne Berge, vice-chairman, Norma Klett, secretary, Marge Newell, and Bill Sebring. During the year members helped the ticket collectors at football games, were ushers at PTA meetings, participated in the dance program, and held a drive for financial support. Their greatest accomplishment this year was the undertaking of class projects. This, we hope, will be a permanent addition to the school tradition. You can see that the Council is an important functioning body which seems to have at its command an unending fund of ideas.

A CAPELLA CHOIR

GLEE CLUBS, A CAPELLA CHOIR

This year, as in the past, one of the most popular clubs in Linden High School was the Girls' Glee Club. Composed of more than eighty members, the club meets every Tuesday afternoon under the direction of Mrs. Claire Salher. Here the club practices for the many musical programs in which it participates. Carol Armstead, president of the Glee Club, is assisted by Dorothy Sweet, recording secretary; Joan Woodfield, attendance secretary; Harriet Polin, treasurer; Phyllis Litwin, librarian; and Elizabeth Elder, manager. One of the high spots on the Glee Club's calendar was the annual Christmas program. After the processional and singing of "Adeste Fidelis," the Girls' Glee Club continued with two Christmas songs, "Pat-a-Pan" and "A Christmas Star". The Boys' Glee Club added to the program with the singing of "Gesu Bambino" and "The First Noel". After the singing of "Silent Night" by the a cappella choir, the program was concluded with "A Cherry Tree Carol," sung by the combined choir and glee club. The singers were accompanied by Miss Boris.

The Boys' Glee Club, also under the direction of Mrs. Salher, is a main stay of Linden High School's musical activities. The officers this year are president, Bonnie Wadors; secretary, James Gregory; and treasurer, Russell Hilts. This year, for the first time, eleven boys of the Glee Club formed a Boys' Ensemble, representing the best male voices in the school.

The most accomplished singers of both glee clubs make up the a cappella choir. It is a tradition of this group to go caroling in the halls every year. A few of the outstanding members of the choir were chosen to represent Linden High School in the all-state chorus. Those selected were Carol Armstead, Richard Westling, George Wright, John Papuzynski, Alvin Wilpon, and Warren Prentice. This year, for the first time since 1942, the Music Department presented a May Festival, rather than an operetta.

BAND AND ORCHESTRA

"The band is playing to spur you on. We sing your praises to the sky!" was the tune to which our gridiron heroes battled their way to victory last fall under our band's mellow strains. Why, a football game without a band would be like bread without any butter. So it is with much patience that Mr. Malpas supplies the "butter" which makes our football games so enjoyable. At every Thursday afternoon rehearsal this ambitious group of musicians may be heard blowing away the chalk-dust with their "sharp" flats and sometimes "flat" sharps. It was at the annual Band Concert on March 21st that they proved themselves to be worthy of their efforts. The officers of this well-appreciated group are manager, William Zullo; assistant managers, Richard Piper, Raymond Tomaszewski, and Joseph Pickney; recording secretary, Ralph Richter; librarian, Alice Hicinbothem; and assistant librarian, James Campbell. This year our band tooted a fanfare for their All-State Band representatives, Frank Wolf, Raymond Wolf, Joseph Pickney, and Edward Klawunn. And so we give three cheers for these hearty musicians and wait until next fall to see them marching down the field all in bright new uniforms and even brighter spirits!

The baton is poised, the orchestra is waiting, and finally the music begins which lifts up the curtain from the land of yesterday. So it was that this group brought us to "Berkeley Square" and to the romantic gaieties of the spring festival. This serious work cannot be complete without rehearsal, however, and so it is that in the wee hours of a Wednesday morning our determined group practices, guided by Mr. Malpas. The officers are manager George Milden; assistant managers Edward Klawunn and Richard Ostarticki; secretary Sophia Oetting, and librarians Mae Plunket, Shirley Houlroyd, and Eleanor Oetting.

LATIN CLUB

"Crescit Eundo," "it increases by going," is the motto of the Latin Club. Sodalitas Latina is the official name of the Latin Club. Miss MacConkey is the Club's adviser. At each meeting the members have certain planned programs in accordance with what each month meant to the Romans. They have worked out the Roman calendar, calculating on our calendar where the Kalends, Ides and Nones fall. Topics for report are taken from the recently published book, "The Saga of the Sea," by Ludwig. This book was presented to the school last year by the Latin Club. One of the programs looked forward to by the club is a musical put on by some of the members for the club's enjoyment. Each year an initiation party is included on the agenda. The Sodalitas Latina aims to furnish opportunity for pleasurable learning about the Romans and their civilization, for which there is not sufficient time in class, and to give the members a friendly interest in the classics.

CHEERLEADERS

Our cheerleaders, who worked so hard cheering at the football and basketball games, deserve much credit for their accomplishments. Not only did they add new cheers to their collection, but finally climaxed the long struggle for new uniforms by making their own fine-looking outfits. Every Tuesday and Wednesday during activity period, the cheerleaders work very hard practicing the cheers and teaching the new girls the right twists and turns. The group is directed by Miss Demarest. Marching behind the band at the football games are our twirlers, whose snappy routine makes them an outstanding feature at the games. They practice on Wednesday morning, under Miss Siegman's able direction.

SHOP FOREMEN

Every Wednesday activity period a group of boys meet in the metal shop. This group is the Shop Foremen, who meet with the primary object of developing character and leadership ability. During the course of the meeting the boys have general discussions, which serve to clarify any problems which may have been encountered in the metal shop in the preceding week. They also have discussions concerning shop improvement. For this purpose, they set aside one-third of their dues for necessary shop improvements, thereby contributing something to the betterment of the school. This year Mr. Stokes plans to take the club on a tour through any one of several factories in order to show the boys the methods of a large modern shop. Unlike most clubs, the Foremen have a superintendent instead of a president, who this year is "Bud" Joffe. Mike Petraroi is secretary-treasurer.

ENTRE NOUS

A very popular club is Entre Nous, the Senior Girls' Social Club. The group, which is made up of twenty members, will not increase in number, as each girl hands her membership to a Junior. Club periods are spent having lectures and discussions on a wide variety of topics, such as vocations, social problems, and dress and make-up analysis. A social bus ride was also planned. In order to keep in contact after their graduation, the girls want to remain honorary members. The officers are Jeanette Croteau, president; Jennie Iaria, vice-president; Mabel Blythe, secretary; and Virginia Symons, treasurer.

The German Club, one of Linden High's smaller clubs, holds all of its meetings in a rather informal manner. This helps to acquaint the members with German customs, literature, and history, while not making it similar to a regular class. Spelling bees, crossword puzzles, and other forms of recreation, in German of course, are often on the Club's schedule. Mr. Moldaschl, the adviser, very often reads to the members anecdotes or portions of short stories from German magazines. Another favorite program is to have portions of the great German epic, "Das Nibelungenlied", translated and explained. At Christmas time the regular meeting before the vacation is devoted entirely to singing German Christmas carols and folk songs. The officers are Dorothea Bohling, president; Pat Roden, vice-president; and Eleanor Straub, secretary-treasurer.

Learn to crochet gifts for yourself and your friends. Crocheting always makes a nice gift, and, if you have any talent for this art, you can perfect it in Linden High's Crocheting Club. Under the supervision of Mrs. Crawford, the girls make handkerchief edgings, mittens, afghans, doilies, and other useful articles. The girls start with a formal business meeting, which is opened by either Susan Kowachik, president, or Rosa Lee Sylvester, vice-president. The secretary, Gertrude Maslankoski, reads the minutes, and treasurer Mildred Bettel gives a report of the club's financial position. After the business is disposed of, an informal meeting is held. The "Greenhorns", girls who are learning to crochet, are helped by experienced girls. They work in groups, with at least one "greenhorn" to a group.

HOME ECONOMICS

One of the most ambitious and active organizations in Linden High School is the Home Economics Club. This year the girls made Halloween and Christmas favors for the dinner trays at the local hospitals. They put on a fashion show and a white elephant auction. They witnessed a demonstration on correct use of make-up and how to wear and take care of their clothes, with some of the girls as models. Two of the girls prepared a scrapbook of the club's activities. In the Spring the Club held an afternoon dance in conjunction with the Library Squad and the Field Mapping and Surveying Club. A score card for rating club members has been adopted in order to encourage all members to be active in club work. The officers of the organization are Jacobina Maas, President; Jeannette Croteau, Vice-President; Jacquelyn Alzheimer, Secretary; and Madelyn Bunovsky, Treasurer.

As most girls in the Commercial Course enter the business world immediately after the completion of school, the purpose of the Commercial Club is to help the girls get all the information necessary for a business position before leaving. For the past two years this club has helped many girls prepare for their future through very interesting weekly discussions covering all phases of the commercial field. They discussed topics such as how to dress and act when applying for a position, setting up business letters, tabulating, and many other topics that seem to trouble the girls. The officers of the club are Mary Senyshyn, president; Emma Rusnak, vice-president; Rose Macknowsky, secretary; and Doris Martis, treasurer. As a special feature this year, a trip to the Paper Mill Playhouse has been planned.

Everyone has to have a hobby! There is no better way to relax and have an interesting time in school than to join the Indoor Recreation Club. If you like mild physical exercise, you can play a game of ping-pong. If you are more seriously inclined, you can sit and have a quiet game of chess. Miss Boris' club meets every Tuesday in room 32. There a regular meeting is held, and all business is discussed. The meeting is adjourned, and the members form several groups to play various games. They have their choice of checkers, ping-pong, chess, Chinese checkers, and several others. The president this year is Dolores Pavlacka, and the secretary-treasurer is Dolores Young. There are twenty-three members in this club, which, although is comparatively new, is gaining popularity.

LARRY CLARK

1946 FOOTBALL

Had they not been awarded the North Jersey Group III, Section 2, championship, Linden High School's gridiron warriors of 1946 would have proved a great disappointment to their following. This year's Orange and Black eleven, touted as one of the finest in local history at the start of the season, compiled a record of six triumphs, two ties, and one defeat. This record would be considered excellent at most schools, but, for the current Linden club, it was almost mediocre. However, when the State Inter-scholastic Athletic Association gave Coach "Ted" Cooper's team the sectional title in preference to undefeated Morristown, much of the stigma of Linden's lone loss to Rahway was removed.

The Coopermen initiated the campaign with a smashing 38-12 conquest of Cranford in the first night game played at Linden since pre-war days. Sparked by Paul Casino's two touchdowns, they settled the decision with a 20 point second period drive. Roselle Park was the next to feel the power of the local T-formation, succumbing by a 25-7 count. Some 7,800 fans saw Tom Chapman take the opening kick-off 76 yards for a score for the game's highlight.

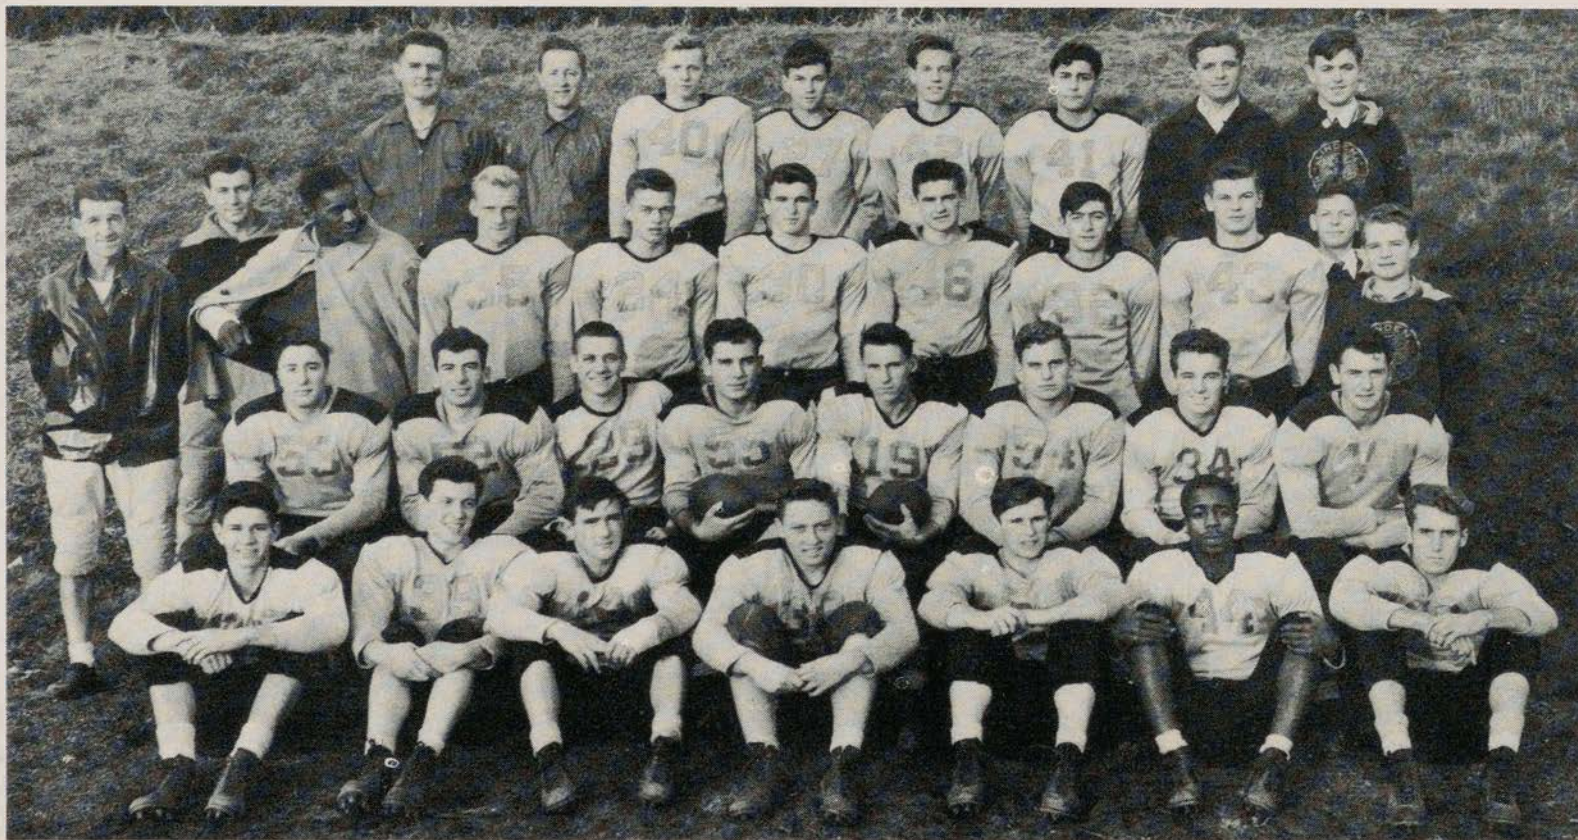

Everything went wrong the following Saturday as an over-confident Linden team was the victim of the most stunning upset in the past ten years. Rahway scored through the air just before the end of the first half, and the Spanktowners made this slim 6-0 margin stand up for the remainder of the fray to ruin local hopes of a perfect season.

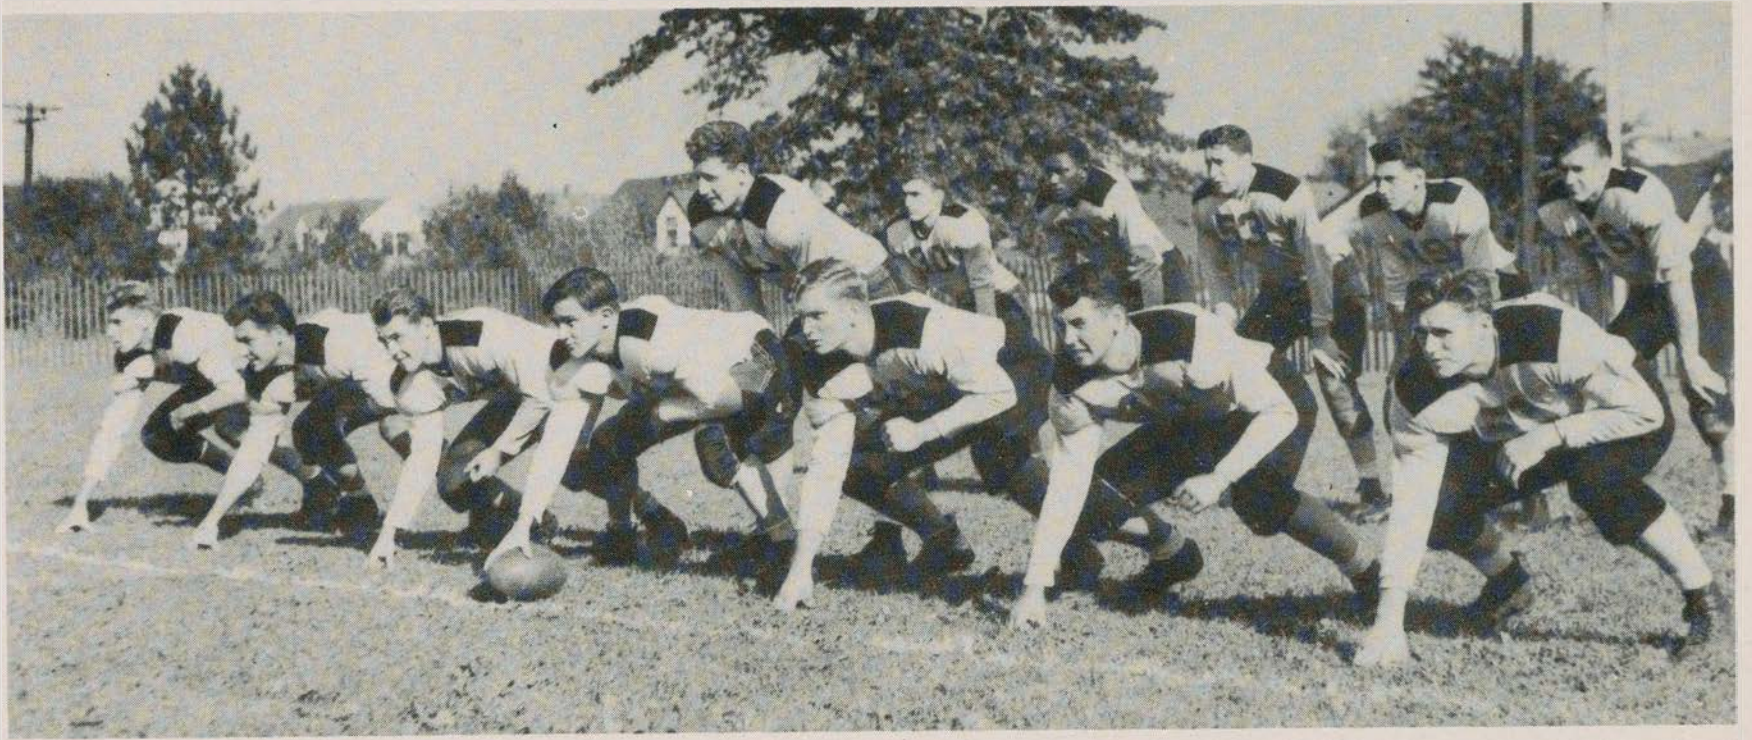

The "Tigers" rebounded to crush Dover under a 32-0 score, but Carteret held them to a scoreless stalemate on a soggy field. Linden had six cracks at the line from inside the three-yard stripe during the last quarter and failed to tally. Woodbridge went down to a 25-0 pasting the following week, as Pete Bartus and Ernie Harasty stood out.

The Lindenites ground out a 7-0 verdict over a strong Hillside outfit by virtue of Chet Naiman's recovery of a Comet fumble in the end zone. Unbeaten Clifford Scott battled to another 0-0 draw with Linden in a fine defensive struggle on the home field. The Coopermen saw their best threat fizzle out on the Scott 15 with five minutes to play. However, they closed the year with a 19-6 Thanksgiving Day win over Union, as Greg Beriont and Larry Kinsella led the offense. Seventeen lettermen performed for the last time in their scholastic careers against Union.

Three locals were named to places on the various All-State teams chosen at the close of each year. Seymour Kaplowitz, right guard, Kinsella, right end, and Beriont, quarterback, were those honored.

BASKETBALL

With Coach Al Nogi back at the helm after a four-year absence, Linden High School's 1946-47 basketball team ranked with the best in the district. This year's quintet compiled the best regular season record for a Linden five since 1940, racking up 13 victories in 18 contests, and also had the distinction of reaching the final round of the county tournament for the second time in succession. However, the "Tigers," after taking Pingry, Union, and St. Patrick's without too much difficulty, dropped a heartbreaking two point decision to Regional in the championship game.

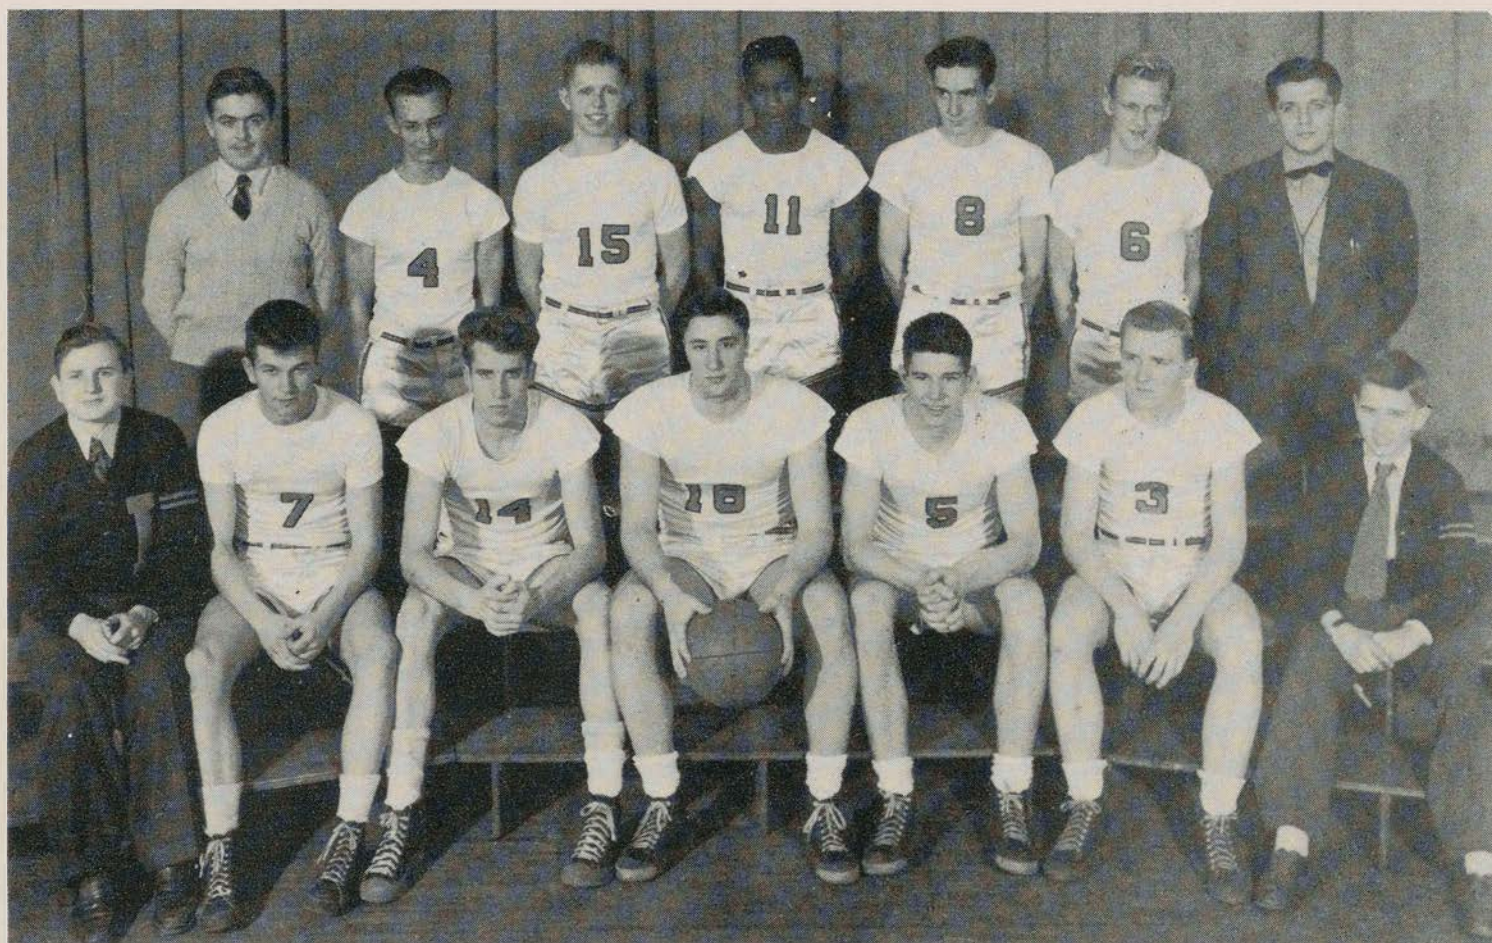

The Orange and Black lost its first two games to North Plainfield and Cranford. The locals won their first from Carteret and followed with a memorable overtime victory over Rahway. After having an "off" night against Regional, they really hit their stride, fashioning a nine game winning skein. They dumped the Alumni and proceeded to breeze past Plainfield, Union, twice, Rahway, North Plainfield, Cranford, and Hillside.

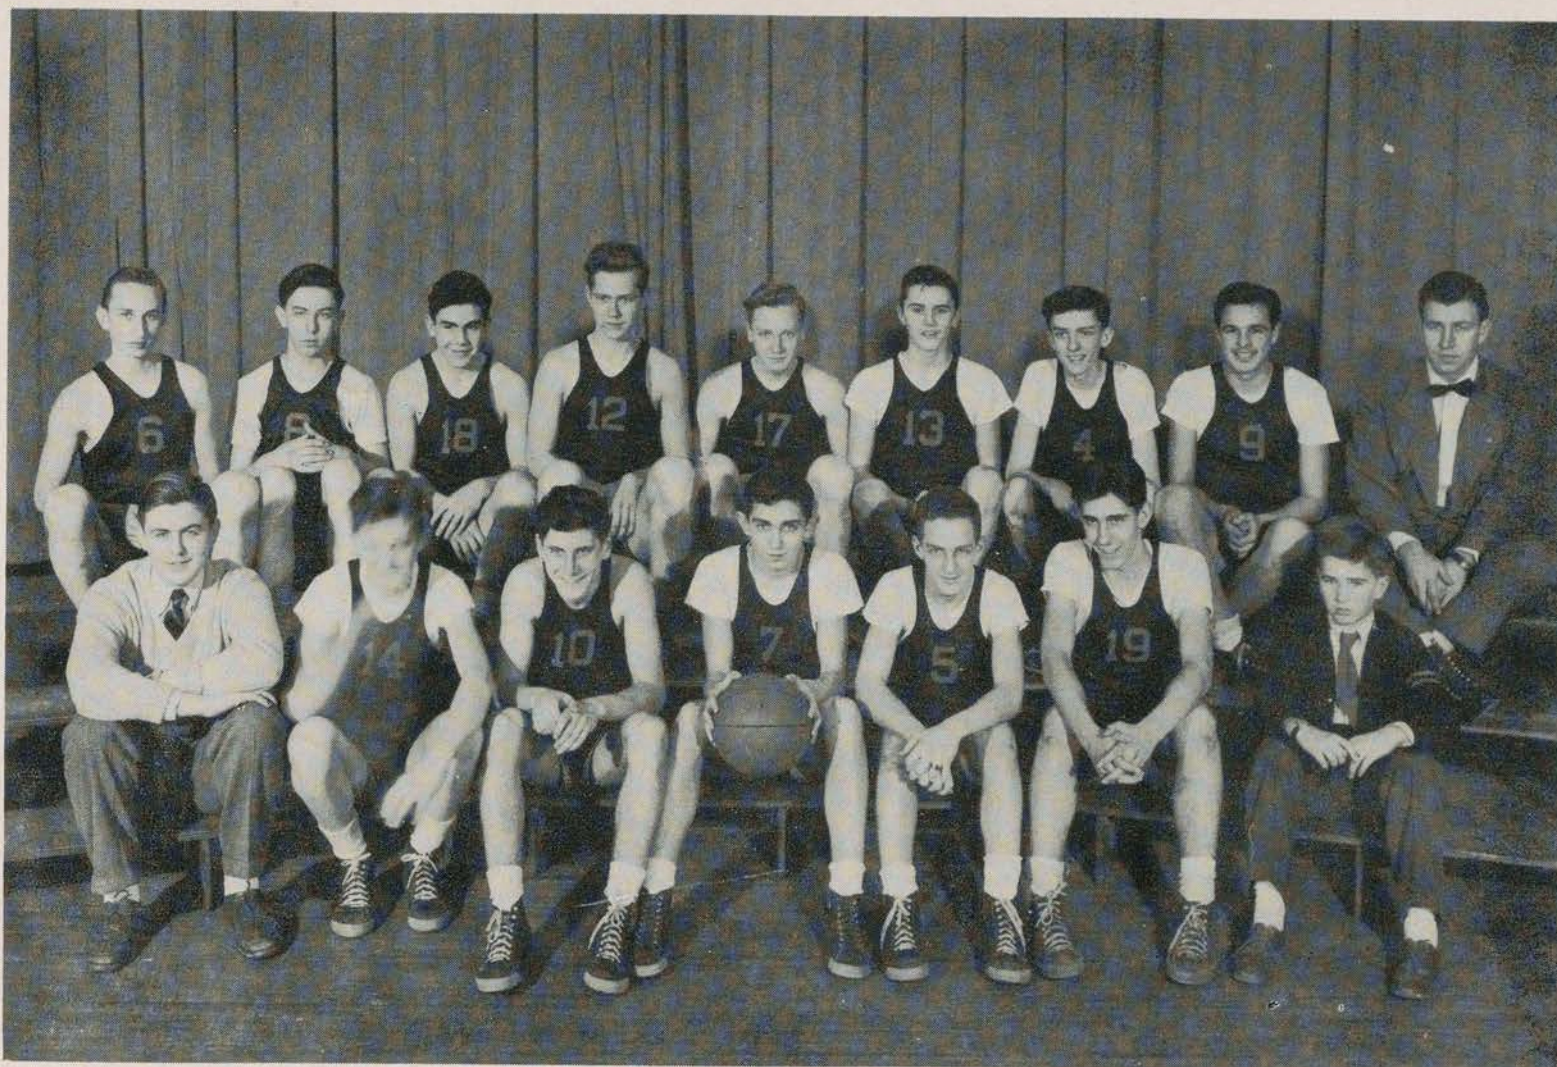

Edison became the ninth and most notable victim, succumbing to a sensational Linden drive in an extra period. However, the overconfident Nogimen were taken by surprise at Plainfield and handed a disappointing defeat. They withered before a torrid second-half rally by Jefferson in their next fray but bounced back to give their best performance of the season at Springfield, gaining a sparkling 45-29 triumph over Regional. Linden closed its schedule by edging out Roselle Park in a spine-tingling battle.

Larry Kinsella led the squad with 206 points during the season, while captain Paul Casino garnered 136. Although they didn't rate quite so high in the scoring column, the other members of the starting team, Dick Newell, Jack Callander, and George Martis, contributed much to a successful campaign through their fine floor play and timely accuracy.

Coach Herman Mopsick's Junior Varsity basketball team, composed of one junior and four sophomores, compiled a season's record of 10 wins and seven losses. Led by Ed Burke, who was high scorer for the year with 130 points, the Tiger cubs gave an excellent account of themselves and promised to provide good material for next year's Varsity. Stan Cutler tallied 95 markers to rank second in the scoring department.

Despite the fact that they lost two of their first three Union County Conference games, the 1946 edition of the Linden High School baseball team succeeded in winning both the county championship and the North Jersey Group III, Section 2, title. The Coopermen, missing five regulars from the 1945 nine, compiled the enviable record of 14 triumphs in 19 starts, including a string of eight consecutive victories. Highlights of the season were the 9-1 pasting administered to Roselle Park's Herm Hering; Billy Emrich's 15-game hitting streak; Murray Figlin's one-hitter against Edison; and the sweep of the double-header with New Brunswick. "Hard-Luck" Tommy Sara was the leading pitcher with a 5-3 record, although Figlin and Steve Wolf had perfect slates of four and two wins, respectively, without defeat. Larry Kinsella won 3 and dropped 2, and contributed some valuable help at third base. Emrich was the leading hitter with a mark of .348, while John Konchak slugged .333 and Rudy Sarro hit .328.

TRACK 1946

Paced by Ernie Harasty, Tommy Chapman, and Greg Beriont, the 1946 track team had a better than fair season. The Orange and Black-clad silksters won four of seven dual meets, conquering Regional, Rahway, Edison, and Carteret. They were defeated by Union, Cranford, and Westfield. Linden, coached by Messrs. Nogi and Mele, came in fourth in the Union County meet with 20 points. The relay team of Paul Yeisley, Gil Coody, Chapman, and Harasty placed second in the county meet and third at Long Branch. Some outstanding performances during the campaign: Harasty won the pole vault event in both the Newark Board of Education and the county meets, leaping 11 feet, 6 inches in the latter event; Beriont placed second in the javelin at Newark with a heave of 177 feet, 4 inches, and he scored eight points in the county weight competition; Chapman ran the 440 at Regional in 54½ seconds.

Few people follow up the activities of girls in sports, but, even though they are not publicized to any degree, a great number of girls come out at the beginning of a sports season. Most of the girls go in for the sports for pure enjoyment, while many go out for the "L" they hope to be awarded on Gift Day. A girl needs 300 points for an "L," and if she isn't fortunate enough to make that many, a numeral is awarded for 200 points. The interclass Service Ball Tournament was won this year by the Seniors. The Sophomores came in second, with the Freshmen and Juniors coming in next. Frances Von Buelow captained the winning Senior team; Florean Chapman the Juniors; Mary Ann Weiss the Sophomores; and Anne Schaefer the Freshmen.

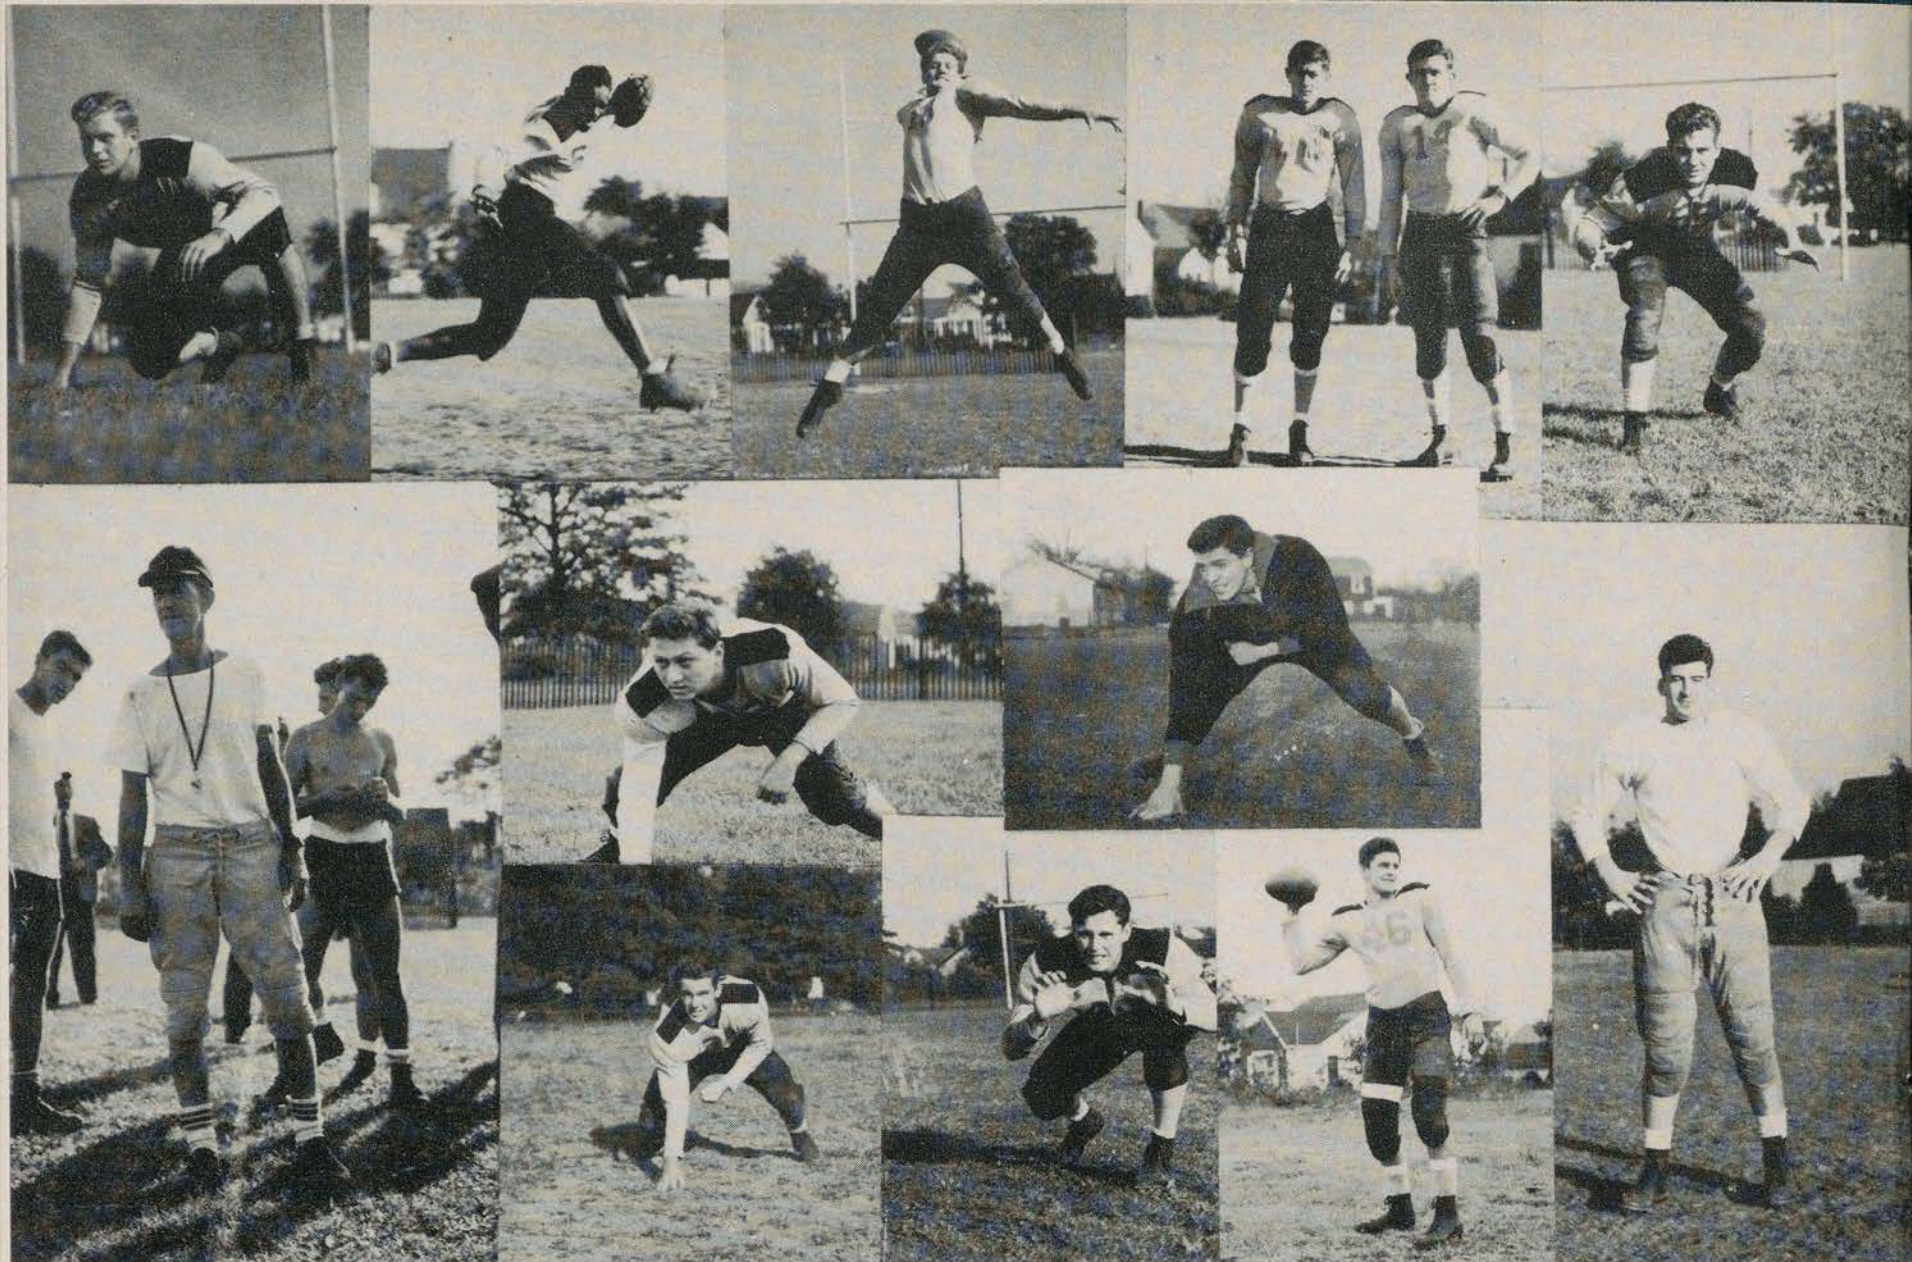

Although Service Ball was played only between our school classes, we had Basketball Playdays with Hillside and Union, at which the Senior, Sophomore, and Junior teams of one school played the three respective opposing teams. The Freshmen of each school acted as hostesses. This year in our interclass Basketball Tournament the Sophomores came out on top with the Seniors running second. The Juniors were in third place and the Freshmen ran true to form. Phyllis Marczak captained the Senior team; Florean Chapman, the Juniors; Mary Ann Weiss, the Sophomores; and Emily Tucker, the Freshmen.

THINGS TO REMEMBER

Our first day in Linden High.
How we felt when we walked into a wrong class by mistake.
The way the football team looked in their new jerseys.
Struggling home every day piled with books.
The gym work-outs that Miss Ciccone gave the girls.
The constant companionship of the two Posnocks.
All the fun we had at the Junior-Senior Barn Dances.
The teen-agers' first canteen — "The Shuffle Shack."
The days we had no homework.
Carol Armstead's beautiful singing voice.
The day we received our Senior rings.
The excitement at the Rahway basketball game.
"Berkeley Square," our super, colossal Senior Play.
The day the girls learned the words to "Patty Murphy" in the gym locker room.
Burt Arnold's performance in "The Man Who Came To Dinner."
Alvin Segal not getting himself into trouble.
Trying to get from Mr. Moldaschl's room to Mr. Buckman's and hoping we'd be on time.
The music in the cafeteria.
The long Christmas vacation.
How we felt when report cards came out.
The perfect time we had at the long-awaited Senior Prom.
The sigh of relief when exams were over.
The day of our Senior Trip.
Singing the Alma Mater and getting a lump in our throats.
Graduation night.

THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER

For the second consecutive year the Dramatic Club presented for its annual fall production a three-act play. This year's choice was an outstanding comedy, "The Man Who Came To Dinner". Written by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, and directed by Mrs. Vida E. Nogi, assisted by Miss Helena Gilkeson, the production was presented on Friday and Saturday nights, November 22nd and 23rd.

Burton Arnold's memorable performance as Sheridan Whiteside, as he wheeled himself onto the stage, was the highlight of the play. Elbert Ericsson's portrayal of the British Beverly Carlton, Marge Newell as the sophisticated Lorraine Sheldon, and Leon Wolfberg as "Banjo" are three roles that will remain fixed in our minds. Janet Harris' garb in her impersonation of the charming, "happy" Harriet is another outstanding and well-remembered role. The "Man" had an all-star cast, including Mrs. Ernest Stanley, Dotty Danninger; Miss Preen, Selma Zeitlin; Richard Stanley, Ian Walker; June Stanley, Helen Dunay; Jane, Joan Sweeney; Sarah, Elaine Pakowitz; Mrs. Dexter, Roxanne Roll; Mrs. McCutcheon, Nita Kilbourne; Mr. Stanley, Karl Asch; Maggie Culter, Olga Lehotsky; Dr. Bradley, George Sweet; Harriet Stanley, Janet Harris; Bert Jefferson, Bill Dalziel; Luncheon Guests, Michael Pelliggi and James Gregory; Mr. Baker, Alpin Wilpon; Expressman, Saul Pakowitz; Sandy, George Wright; Westcott, Herbert Nagel; Radio Technician, William McDermott; Choir Boys, Ralph Elder, Robert Likowski, Joseph Russo, and Wilber Sisko; Two Delivery Men, Donald Martinson and Nick Fallace; Two Deputies, Fred Weid and Herbert Smith; and the Plainclothesman, Herbert Baker.

Friday night's performance was accented with the appearance of stage-manager Jeanne Rathjen's dog on stage. This was purely unrehearsed, but this was unknown to the audience, as a result of the brilliant "cover-up" on the parts of "Sherry", "Lorraine", and "Banjo". Headed by Edith O'Connell and Marge Newell, the property committee did an outstanding job in securing the various props. The mummy case was one of the particularly difficult items to obtain. Roach City, the penguin case, the wheel chair, and the Christmas tree were among the many necessary articles. Anne Galella and Carol Beth Glasston served as prompters.

CALENDAR

September: It may be a "long, long time from May to December" but the time from June to September just sped along and in no time we were back in school again. We welcomed the freshmen with the familiar cry of "Dumb Freshmen." We got right down to work, and tryouts for both the senior play and the Dramatic Club fall production were held. The football season started and work on the Cynosure was begun. We found in our classes seven veterans. Senior class officers were elected and the senior pictures were taken.

October: Speech classes for the senior play and rehearsals for "The Man Who Came to Dinner" began. The first report card of the new year came out. Frances Wexler spoke on Junior Town Meeting. We had Samuel Russell Eves in assembly, singing folk songs for us.

November: "Swing your partner" was the cry heard all over the gym the night of the Junior-Senior Barn Dance.—More fun. "The Man Who Came to Dinner" was an overwhelming success. Our senior rings came; everyone tried to show them off, but was SO casual about it. We won our Thanksgiving game 19-6. Philip Cummings spoke to us in assembly.

December: The basketball season opened. The seniors planning to go to college tramped off on the grey morning of December 7 to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test in Newark. The juniors decorated the halls and did a very fine job. The Cynosure play was given in assembly. The seniors invited the juniors to the class meeting and we'll never forget the act Marge Newell and Merwin Zitomer did. The caroling in the halls preceded our well-earned Christmas vacation. Linden was proclaimed group III Football champion.

January: Senior Play rehearsals were in full swing, and in assembly we had the Trio Musette. The basketball team ran its winning streak to ten before losing to Plainfield.

February: "Berkley Square" was presented and went over in a big way. Eleanor Straub got 100% in her solid exam—Can you imagine? — The senior poll and letters to failing seniors came in the same week. Students attended the Met, and tryouts for the Spring Production were held. Cleveland Grant came to us with his wild life pictures, and the freshmen presented their annual talent show. Linden won second place in the Union County Tournament.

March: Seniors were measured for their caps and gowns. The sophomore talent show was presented and there was a forum in assembly. Baseball practice began.

April: Easter vacation, the Senior Prom, and the junior talent show highlighted this month.

May: Once again we had a May Festival, which we all enjoyed. The Student Council had its campaign for next year's officers. The Junior Prom was a big event in many lives.

June: Gift day and exams came, and last but not least—graduation. We may kid around and say we're glad to get out of school, but we are a little bit sad, too, to think we are no longer a part of L. H. S.
