A SENIOR'S DIARY

At last, after three years of hard work, we're Seniors! Between signing pictures, cards, and year-books, we began to wonder which would give way first—our minds from trying to think up original sayings or our hands from writing too much.

In October, when we strutted about with our hands stretched in front of us, everyone knew we had gotten our class rings. . . . Next came the Junior-Senior Barn Dance, with Shorty Warren to play for us. Boy, was I exhausted afterward! . . . In January I was running around like a chicken with my head cut off. What caused this excitement? Our Senior Play, "Goodbye, My Fancy," of course. Out of all the confusion, however, a successful and enjoyable play emerged. . . . In February, we waited impatiently for the results of the Senior Poll, conducted by the Chronicle each year. . . . Who could forget April 30—our Senior Prom! All the girls looked beautiful and Walter Cross' band was out of this world. The final event of the year, before graduation, was our Senior trip. This year's class voted to go to Rye Beach, where Senior classes have always enjoyed themselves.

Much to the surprise of many of us, we found that this, our last and best year, was not all pleasure and amusement. Not only were we besieged by the regular homework, but we were also busy planning for our futures.

The Commercials gained experience in Secretarial Practice and by aiding teachers with their secretarial duties; the C. P.'s were busy reading catalogs, filling out applications, and studying for College Boards, and the Generals were aided to future happiness by vocational tests.

Of course, we worked hard for our bits of fun—the cast and committees labored for the play and the Senior Talent Show; the decoration and refreshment committees were very busy before the Barn Dance and Prom; and the Cynosure staff worked for nearly a full year preparing a masterpiece to be left as a remembrance of the Class of 1954.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Freshmen are often considered the confused students of L. H. S. To all, maybe the first year is the roughest, but it's also one of the nicest. Freshmen learn to cooperate and present interesting programs during their homeroom periods every Friday. They also receive specific guidance programs to help them with any of their problems. The Freshman Talent Show gives them the chance to present their varied talents as a group. This assembly program always proves to be a great success.

Sophomore students are well acquainted with high school life. They devote their homeroom periods to programs that will help them make plans for the future. Different professions and various colleges are discussed. The Sophomore year is also highlighted by a variety show in which the finest of talent is presented.

The vivacity of the Junior class is always well exhibited at the Junior-Senior Barn Dance. The Junior Prom, the big event of the year, is their opportunity to show poise and social skill. Of course, this year does not consist only of fun. There's also a certain amount of work combined with the fun. Decorating the school at Christmas time and learning parliamentary procedure at class meetings are only a few of the activities of the Junior year.

ACTIVITIES

*Here's to our High School;
Nothing does she lack.*

A GOOD TIME WAS HAD BY ALL THE "SQUARES."

A FRIEND IN NEED IS A FRIEND IN DEED.

Linden High School has a variety of clubs providing an outlet for almost any interests the student may have. Through participation in these clubs the student can learn the valuable art of getting along with people. Several of the clubs go on annual trips to places of interest to the members. There is also a lot of fun to be had at initiation parties given by the clubs.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

Parlez-vous francais? Sprechen Sie deutsch? Latinumne dicis? Hablo Vd espanol? If you understood any of these questions, you may have been a member of one of Linden High's language clubs. A keen interest in the native country's customs and ways of life, together with an eagerness to become better versed in that language, are the only requirements which the clubs have. French Club members share their knowledge and experiences at an annual school assembly designed to acquaint others with the traditions and modes of the French. An integral part of the German Club's agenda is the creation of an atmosphere of better understanding of the German people through activities aimed at introducing its members to the German ideals, accomplishments, history, and way of life. Latin Club members are afforded many opportunities to discuss the culture of the Romans and to associate with other students whose interests lie in this field. Members of the Spanish Club discuss and read Spanish literature and sing songs in the native language. Picnics, parties, and field trips are vital activities of the clubs, and through active participation in the clubs' affairs, students acquire a broader knowledge of the essentials which make up French, Spanish, German, and Latin.

Miskovich, J. Cackowski, J. Bara, B. Dynda, L. Plungis, B. Thurston, B. Gahm.

With the able assistance of Miss Martinez and Mrs. Fink, the members of the Library Squad carry forth the many tasks assigned to them. It is their duty to make the library a fit place in which to study, and it is their duty to aid the student in his quest for research. These active individuals also are on hand to check books being taken out and those brought back. It is indeed not an easy task to tactfully collect fines from students who become so absorbed in "English Literature and Queen Elizabeth," they forget when their books are due.

If these ever-busy acting-librarians do find a rare free moment, they share this precious time with a dust cloth, dusting the numerous and varied books on the top shelf. There are always magazines to straighten and novels to be placed in their proper place. In short, these girls are sacrificing their study halls for us, giving us their valuable free time, and because of their efforts we may enjoy and really be proud of our library.

The members of the Fish and Game Club are all eager to learn the techniques of hunting and fishing. Under the able guidance of Mr. Miller, programs are conducted, concerning such topics as how to repair rods and make tackle. The fish and game laws which concern these individuals are discussed and movies are shown, which make for very interesting club periods.

When almost anything in the school is in need of repair, the Shop Foremen are always on hand. These boys take a keen interest in metal work and hope to continue in this field after graduation. Besides learning this trade they are given experience in expert class supervision.

DRAMATICS

One of the largest clubs in L. H. S. is the Senior Dramatic Club. It is under the supervision of Mrs. Todt. The members participate in activities such as charades, play reading, and skits. If you were not fortunate enough to be behind the footlights of the spring production "The Lamp," which was presented in March, you may have helped back stage with scenery or properties. One of the highlights was the spring trip into New York to see "The Solid Gold Cadillac." Another was the seeing at Drew University of "King Henry VIII."

The Junior Dramatic Club is made up of Freshmen, and it is guided by Miss Heizman. The members learn the fundamentals of acting. They presented a one-act play, "The Professor Roars," and a skit for the parents entitled "Winter Tea." The club went into New York and saw "Me and Juliet" on Broadway.

The Make-Up Club is composed of pupils who learn the art of applying make-up as the theatrical artist does. Mrs. Todt works with the girls to give the actor the finishing touch before his entrance on the stage.

STUDENT COUNCIL

A main part of any school is its student government. Linden High is fortunate in having an active, successful Student Council. Every other Wednesday representatives from each homeroom meet to discuss problems and projects under the able guidance of Miss Evelyn Smith. The Executive Council is the nucleus around which the activities revolve. It consists of the officers of the Council and the chairmen of the seven standing committees: Welcoming, Club, Honor Roll, Athletic, Sunshine, Assembly, and Publicity. Each year the Student Council sends some of its members to the New Jersey Association of High School Councils held at Rutgers University. The Council is proud of the fact that it is one club that does not require dues. To secure the money it may need the Council conducts a fund-raising project each year. This year we sold Linden High School pennants. One of the outstanding accomplishments this year was the March of Dimes Drive, one of the most successful drives in our school's history. Thus we see that the activities and projects of the Student Council affect each student and promote a harmonious spirit in the school.

CHRONICLE

One of the most useful activities that Linden High offers its students is the chance to work on the school paper, the Chronicle. Experience that is gained can prove very helpful to those whose interests lie in this field. Reporters and other workers are given the opportunity to learn the way a paper operates. The paper is a vital organ in the school's activities. It relates news of club activities, inter-school news, interviews, and gossip of interest to faculty as well as students. News of school sports is accurately written, and the results of inter-school games are faithfully reported. Alive with familiar faces and information of interest to all students, the Chronicle supplies a needed link in the chain of Linden High's activities.

MUSIC

We at Linden High are very proud of our music department. The boys' and girls' glee clubs and the choir did a terrific job this year in the annual Christmas program. Of course, the Senior play was wonderful in itself, but with the help of the orchestra it was the best ever presented by Linden High School.

Can you imagine a football game without the band? Well, frankly, neither can we. The members certainly looked distinguished in their uniforms, performing for us at half time. Of course, they played well, as they did in their assembly program.

The Department also offers opportunity for individual work. Several of the students have done solo work for assemblies and P. T. A., both instrumental and voice. Through this department several members of the band and orchestra have become members of the All-State or Regional Band or Orchestra. The music department is indeed a valuable asset to the curricula at L. H. S.

PROGRAMS

IN AND OUT OF SCHOOL

Modern education realizes the value of providing the students with the proper activities. Linden High in keeping with this offers a number of activities. You can usually find a crowd of Linden High School students at the Milk Bar Dances Friday nights. While these dances are sponsored by the Recreation Commission, they are arranged by a committee made up of a representative from each homeroom. The Junior and Senior classes each year go together to put on an annual Barn Dance. This year we were fortunate in having an unbeatable combination—Shorty Warren and his Western Rangers to supply the music and an energetic, enthusiastic group to do the dancing.

The big events of the year are the two proms put on by the Junior and Senior classes. For weeks before and after the event all talk is dominated by the prom. The girls are trying to find the gown that looks just right, while the boys are trying to save all the money a prom requires. It is indeed a memorable moment in anyone's life to attend one of these dances.

Linden High School is well represented in the various Junior Achievement organizations throughout the county. Those who participate in these learn painlessly how big business is operated by actually forming their own businesses. Junior Achievement offers not only experience in the practicing of business principles but also in the meeting and getting along with people from other schools.

If you ask a typical high school student which periods during the day are his favorites, you will invariably get the answer, "Study halls and lunches!" The first of these, study halls, provides the busy student with time to do his homework, and if he is one of those rare students with no homework to do, he may obtain a pass to the school library. The second thing mentioned, lunches, is probably the more enjoyable of the two. It provides a pause in the day's activities to eat and enjoy yourself without too much stern discipline.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Mental education is not the only aim of America's high schools. Physical education is also a necessity. Nowhere else does the teenager learn team-work, sportsmanship, and self-discipline as he does in his physical education program. Every man, whether participating in practice, intramural, or a varsity game, must carry out the job assigned to him. Upon one person may depend the entire outcome of the play. As he learns to accept triumph gracefully, so he learns to accept defeat with equal grace. Habits formed here last a lifetime.

Every pupil must complete 150 minutes of gym a week. This is usually broken into three forty-minute gym periods and one health period. The program is extensive and varied. During the warmer parts of fall and spring gym classes are held in Woodrow Wilson Park. Here pupils participate in basketball, baseball, touch football, and many other games. When it becomes colder pupils march, climb ropes, do calisthenics, exercise on bars, and learn basketball fundamentals. Heavy apparatus is also used. This is ideal for the tumblers in the class. Using heavy apparatus includes exercises on the parallel bars, horse, bucks, springboard, and horizontal bars. The manly art of self-defense is also included in the physical education program, as boys are taught the fundamentals of boxing.

With all the muscle-developing activity, there is another important phase of physical education. Co-educational activities include barn and social dancing. Barn dancing is taught right before the Junior-Senior Barn Dance. This insures everyone a good time, because the basic steps are learned.

Social dancing is held before the Senior Prom. All the popular steps are taught or smoothed out, depending on the pupil.

Along with inter-school and inter-class sports, there are some activities that are played in competition with other schools and are little known. One of these is bowling. This year Linden High won the Bowling Tournament sponsored by the Union County Interscholastic Athletic Conference

Bowling Association. Also two Lindenites, Jerry Kuznitz and Leonard Birenbaum, placed first and second respectively in individual places. Next year we hope to have golf and soccer teams.

The program for girls includes training in a variety of activities—exercises, games, and dancing.

This extensive program could not be possible without the aid of competent coaches. Heading the department of physical education is Mr. Edward Cooper, who has been connected with the High School for thirty years, first as coach and since 1939 as director of athletics and supervisor of physical education.

Others include Alfred Jakucs, baseball; Robert Smith, football; George St. Andrassy, basketball; Burton Arnold, track; Joseph Gaines, assistant basketball. Alfred Jakucs and Joseph Gaines are the regular teachers of physical education for the boys; Miss Florence Jakiel and Mrs. Julia Creitz for the girls. Several of the instructors are graduates of Linden High—Alfred Jakucs, Robert Smith, George St. Andrassy, Burton Arnold, and Mrs. Creitz. Robert Smith was a member of the glorious 1934 football champions, who were undefeated, untied and unscored on.

FOOTBALL 1953

The Linden High Tigers, behind the excellent coaching of Bob Smith, rolled on to their first winning season in seven years by clipping the Union Farmers, 14-12, on Thanksgiving Day before the year's biggest crowd of 6,000 fans. The Tiger forces hadn't defeated the Farmers since 1947, but this time the great Tiger aerial combination of quarterback Bob Hoffer, to sparkplug and team captain Sammy Pilot found triumph on an 81 yard touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter. For the year Hoffer, a six foot, 200 pound senior, gained distinction by tossing 89 pass completions in 156 attempts, eleven good for TD's. It is the county's record unofficially. Tackle Bob Jones' two extra point conversions ultimately proved the difference in the see-saw battle with the Farmers.

Bob Smith, former Linden High gridiron star, was one of the county's six new coaches and certainly one of the most pleased at the final outcome of five wins, three losses, and one tie.

After nipping the defending Group II champs, the Cranford Blues, 13-12, and blanking Newark's Weequahic Indians, 19-0, the Bengals suffered their first and only decisive setback at the hands of the Rahway Spantowners. The Tigers haven't beaten the Scarlet dynasty since 1945. After tripping Long Branch, 12-6, Linden dropped two close affairs to Carteret and Woodbridge on last period defense collapses. A one-sided trouncing of Regional, a deadlock with Hillside, and the crucial victory over Union provided the Tigers with the late season sweep that pulled them over the .500 mark. Linden's 30-13 romp against the Bulldogs from Regional was the largest scoring effort since the 32-0 landslide against Union in 1947.

Coach Joe Gaines' "Little Tigers" distinguished themselves as the class of the junior varsity ranks throughout the county both during the regular campaign and in post-season play. The Bengals, headed by the rebounding strength of Bob Fitzik, the consistent scoring of Jack Tirsch and Red Sojka, the play-making of Charlie Sayer, the hustle of John Crilly and the capable bench led by Pete Matz were able to win 13 contests in 17 regular season starts. Their overall record was 17 wins and 4 losses. The additional 4 victories were achieved in the J. V. tourney, when the fourth-seeded locals captured the title by whipping Roselle and Edison 54-32 and 65-31, by edging Jeff in a triple sudden-death overtime 49-47 and by clipping Roselle Park in the finals 40-38.

The campaign opened with Linden dropping a 39-38 decision to North Plainfield in one of their rare defeats. This loss was followed up with their longest winning streak of the year of ten games. The victims on the list were Rahway and Cranford twice, Union, Plainfield, Westfield, Regional, Hillside and Edison. Plainfield on a hot-shooting night put an end to the skein, and started the Tigers on a three-game losing binge. Jeff handed the hometeam a 69-43 trouncing, but they were avenged later in the semi-final thriller. Their final loss was handed out by Regional, 34-30. After that Linden was off once again on the winning trail with three wins in the regular season and four in the tourney to end a great year.

DON WINN

SAM PILOT

GEORGE SNELL

Coach George St. Andrassy's 1954 quintet distinguished themselves much more in post-season play than during their regular schedule, despite the fact that the Tigers enjoyed another successful campaign, winning 11 of 17 games. The reason for that is simple, since the Bengals were able to retain two of the three championships they were defending. For the second successive year the locals captured the Group 3, Section 2 Crown, and for the second time in as many seasons they led the Big Five with a conference high mark of 8-1, including the playoff. The "Little Tigers" achieved both feats in a similar fashion to the way it was done last year. A year ago Union and Linden battled for the Union County Title and the Big Five on the same evening. This time the opponent was Regional and the event took place in the state festival, with Linden once again emerging victorious in the double or nothing struggle.

Linden opened their regular slate by whipping North Plainfield, 75-64. They soon tasted defeat as a tough Cranford five headed by Ron Doyle pinned a 63-54 decision on them in their next outing. The home club regained their winning ways as they took care of their next three foes, Rahway, Union, and Plainfield, all conference opponents. The Union affair provided the most action and excitement, as little Sam Pilot climaxed the victory with a game-deciding set shot in the last five seconds of play, breaking up a 53-53 tie. Westfield interrupted the string as they stopped Linden in overtime, 60-54. The Orange and Black then split their next two contests, as they defeated Rahway and lost again to Cranford in the year's greatest uphill battle. The Blues were down as much as 13 points with less than two minutes in the game, but they fought to a tie at the buzzer, eventually winning in overtime, 71-62.

The Lindenites woke up after that disastrous defeat, and played their best brand of ball, winning their next five. Victims in the streak were Regional, Hillside, Edison, Plainfield, and Jefferson. It was the first time since 1941 that the Tee Jays had dropped one to Linden. In the remaining four affairs we won two and lost two, as Regional stopped the skein, creating a dead lock in the Big Five.

In post-season play Linden was eliminated by Jeff in the second round, 68-58, failing to defend its county title. Previous to that game the team broke a school county scoring record and tied the tourney mark by walloping Sacred Heart, 88-56. The Tigers fared much better in state competition, beating Caldwell, Summit, and Regional in quest of their second successive sectional crown. In the state semi-finals we met Hamilton Township and after trailing at half-time, 34-32, we unleashed a potent attack of 49 points in the second half to climax an 81-65 rout. Snell led all scorers with 29 points, while Pilot, Winn, Riesner and Hoffer aided with top-flight performances. Cliffside Park shattered Linden's hopes for a first state crown by beating them, 57-37, in the final round.

GIRLS' SPORTS

"Fall in." Those are familiar words to all of us. They are the words that began each gym class. We really had fun square dancing in preparation for the Junior-Senior barn dance. —Oh—remember the first time we did those "back-breaking" exercises? It felt as though we'd never be able to move again. However, we soon worked the soreness from our muscles and we were all "rarin' to go."—O-o-oh! it was really an effort at first to get the ball over the net in servus ball.—And when we had apparatus, at times we certainly felt foolish.—Badminton and foul shooting gave us a chance to show our individual ability.—And wasn't it nice when we had ballroom dancing?—Last, but certainly not least, we had basketball and softball. These two sports helped us develop team spirit and cooperation.

BASEBALL 1953

Linden's "Baseball Bengals" had a rougher time with the rainy weather than with their opponents last season, as they compiled a record of 10 wins and 5 losses. As a result of the weather, Coach Al Jakucs' diamond corps had a crowded schedule.

The campaign opened with Riesener hurling a 5-0 shutout over Rahway. This was the first of four shutout victories over the county foes, for the young hurler good enough to tie a record. The others were handed to Regional (a no-hitter 2-0), Union, and Edison. St. Mary handed Linden their first defeat, coming from behind in the late innings to eke out a 5-4 decision. Rankowsky pitched a fine game after a wobbly start against Park, setting down the last 13 in order, as hitting stars Ritter, Pilot and Givens led the Tigers to an extra inning 8-4 triumph. Linden continued to win and added two more after the Panthers by beating Regional and Hillside. Lawrenceville stopped the Tigers for the first time in three games 4-0 and New Brunswick with a five-run seventh inning was able to top Linden 5-2. The locals bounced back with exciting victories over Union and Carteret. Jesse Queen paced Jeff to a 5-3 win, to give Linden their third loss. Linden closed the season with four fairly easy wins over Roselle, Cranford, Edison and Plainfield.

In the Greater Newark Tourney, we bowed out early by dropping a heart-breaker to Bloomfield 2-1 on May 22.

TRACK 1953

Coach Burt Arnold's track contingent of 1953 enjoyed a mediocre season, winning four out of seven dual meets. However, the squad was fairly successful in the special meets, compared to the teams of the few preceding years, and there were some very fine individual accomplishments.

Elias Gilbert, a versatile junior, was the most productive fellow on the squad. The co-captain gained the modern school scoring record for one season by notching 138 points, 102 in six dual meets for an average of 17 points per meet. He competed in both the high and low hurdles, plus the high and broad jumps. On various occasions he made a try at the 440 yd. run. He won the state title for the high hurdles in group 3 and was runner-up in the lows.

Three seniors, Mike Barrett, co-captain Alex Marshall, and Ron Treche, also shone in their own field. Al Nachtigall, along with Marshall, was the backbone of the weight squad. Barrett was a crack dashman, while Marshall gained honors throwing the javelin. He finished first in the County Meet and was runner-up in the State event. Treche specialized in the pole vault and picked up seven points in special meets. Marshall's best throw, of over 180 ft., was achieved at the Newark Board of Education Meet, where he captured first place. Gilbert broke the hurdles record at that meet, breaking the tape in 14.7 seconds.

The Tigers, minus Gilbert, opened the season against Regional with a 73-44 loss, due to a lack of points in the running events. This was followed by a heartbreaker to Rahway, which was decided on the final event. Linden then got going and picked up four straight victories over Roselle, Edison, Westfield and Hillside. They closed the regular schedule by losing to a great Cranford club 90 1/2 to 26 1/2.

SENIOR-FACULTY GAME

March 2 marked the playing of the annual Senior-Faculty game. The teachers, paced by Jules Leboff's 28 points and fine floor play, were able to overcome the seniors, 60-54. Russ Schmidt starred for the youths, collecting 17 points. Leboff, playing only three periods, was the main factor in the results of the contest, as he led the teachers into the lead in the fourth period after they had been trailing 11-8, 26-25 and 44-43 at the end of each quarter. Others who played well for Coach Raymond Stokes' club were Tom Long and Joe Gaines. It marked the first time in three seasons that the seniors had lost in this event, which was marred by rough play, 52 personal fouls being called.

INSIDE FRONT COVER

Row 1:

"Now is the hour when we must say good-bye."

The Goyas, Rembrandts, and Michelangelos of L. H. S.

"Let's get in there and play, boys!"

The production would be nothing without the scenery.

"C'mon, orange, c'mon black;

Union High can't hold us back."

Row 2:

"Ooops, I put that letter in upside down!"

"Program, program, anyone?"

"Why did I take Chemistry, anyway?"

"Mr. Yeisley makes it sound so simple."

Row 3:

Winners of the Window Painting Contest.

These track men deserve their trophies.

"I never saw this tool before; I wonder what it's used for."

"Don't tell me he hasn't brought back that overdue book yet!"

Row 4:

"Passt Auf!!" (Pay attention!)

The finished product justifies the hard work.

Linden High's athletes.

Speed and accuracy are what count, girls!

INSIDE BACK COVER

Row 1:

Our Alma Mater.

s-t-r-e-t-c-h-!

s-t-r-e-t-c-h-!

"Does my hair look all right?"

Future secretaries?

Row 2:

The Forensic Club always has a good time on its annual picnic.

Is missing class enough reward for the students' hard work?

"Shh! The band is getting ready to play!"

"Are you sure that was baking powder?"

"Gee, this was worth four years of hard work."

Tea and talk are always abundant at the P.T.A. tea.

The Hallowe'en Milk Bar is always lots of fun.

Row 4:

"What experiment are we doing, anyway?"

Row 5:

"Isn't geography an interesting subject?"

"And to the school, we present . . ."

Thirsty?

The choir's singing always gives us Christmas spirit.
