

1958

CYNOSURE

Preface

June of 1958. With halls strangely quiet and shades drawn in locked rooms, Linden High School prepares itself for the siege of summer. Another school year has come to a close. The classrooms are empty, the high-ceilinged gyms echo our footsteps, the cafeteria is dark and its tables are piled high with chairs. Walk with us through Linden High School for a last look before the custodians shoo us outside. Within the covers of your 1958 Cynosure, we, the editorial staff, have attempted to imprison this year of your life forever.

Dance with us on Prom night, march shoulder to shoulder in the Halloween parade, help to cheer our teams on to victory, pore over textbooks and then share our glee when exams have been taken and passed. The subject of our yearbook is you, the heart of Linden High, her students.

ASSEMBLIES STIMULATE STUDENTS' INTEREST

Geraldine Nebenfubur and Judith Anderson take the students to a Spanish Exhibit at the World's Fair.

Mr. Both in a practical demonstration of his talent.

Throughout the year the Linden High Assembly Committee is busy preparing weekly assemblies for the students. During the fourth, fifth and sixth periods, the sophomores, juniors, and seniors, respectively, assemble in the auditorium and enjoy the scheduled programs.

Many of the programs feature students themselves. The Class talent shows, the Cynosure program. Gift Day, the Modern Dance program, and the student plays are examples of the student participation.

Guest speakers, educational films, and famed Linden High Alumni also share the spotlight throughout the year.

Miss Dorothea Page, who heads the Assembly Committee, must be commended for a well-rounded program.

Steve Frankovitch sings "You Are My Destiny" for the Sophomore Talent Show.

Carol Harsell lends an Oriental atmosphere to the assembly program.

Paulette Mushala, an accomplished ventriloquist, fascinates her classmates.

Miss Planeta, Miss Siley, Miss Gallagher, Miss Gubernat, and Miss O'Conner, Faculty members, form an attractive quintet.

The school band in orange and black provide a pleasant and colorful assembly period.

Alexandria Waskiew and Carolyn Butkowski do a Ukranian folk dance.

Terry Palochak entertains the student body with a Calypso number.

The cheerleaders present their annual pep rally.

HALLOWEEN CELEBRATED

Hallowe'en royalty mounted on float at School One to start parade.

Hallowe'en festivities began with a parade down Wood Avenue. Linden High School was represented by costumed marchers and by a float carrying our King and Queen. This year, selected by popular vote, our King and Queen were Frank Petrulla and Juliet Kornmeyer. Runners-up were Joan Bursel, June Jeney, Barbara Petryshyn, Michael Callahan, Larry Higgins, William Krysiak, and Stanley Yorke. The royal couple were crowned by Mayor Hurst at the Milk Bar following the parade.

Celebrators in costume crowd the floor at Hallowe'en Milk Bar.

Soft music and glittering decorations make the evening a great success.

ATMOSPHERE ENCHANTS PROM-GOERS

Amid excitement, all faces turn to "Cynosure" camera.

Prom-goers enjoy refreshments served by P.T.A. mothers.

Japanese decorations greeted the couples as they arrived at the gym on May 10th. The popular play and movie "Teahouse of the August Moon" inspired the decorating committee to highlight the prom with a Japanese theme. The couples especially enjoyed the Oriental lanterns and the replica of the famous teahouse.

Towards the middle of the evening, the couples participated in the Grand March around the gym. Then the P.T.A. Mothers greeted the couples with refreshments in the cafeteria. After relaxing, everyone returned to the gym to spend the remainder of the evening dancing to the music of Don Gibson.

JUNIORS CHOOSE

Donald Coleman and his date head the receiving line that greets the couples on arriving at the prom.

As a castle rises in the background, Don Gibson and his orchestra play music to dance the night away.

Handsome couples crowd the dance floor as the prom proceeds in full swing.

On May 24, 1957, the magic fantasy of "Cinderella" transformed the gymnasium into a palace ballroom for the Junior Prom. A regal coach stood dramatically upon a green blanket of grass surrounded by shrubs and flowers. A huge silver chandelier at each end of the colorful ceiling added to the ballroom effect. Painted marble columns covered the walls and a castle rose majestically above the heads of Don Gibson's orchestra. Tables, topped with white cloths and a spray of flowers, provided a place for the handsome couples to relax and take pictures between dances.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Elaine Cruz as Cinderella and Vincent Navarro as Prince Charming. Five couples attended the Royal Pair whose names were drawn from a hat.

As the evening progressed the Junior Class President, Don Coleman, and his date led the Grand March to the cafeteria for punch and hors d'oeuvre, deliciously prepared by members of the P.T.A.

At the stroke of twelve, the couples took leave of the Grand Ballroom, carrying with them memories of a never-to-be-forgotten prom.

"CINDERELLA" AS THEME

Donald Coleman, Junior Class President, and his date lead the Grand March to the cafeteria for refreshments.

The newly crowned Cinderella and Prince Charming, Elaine Cruz and Vinnie Navarro, radiate smiles as they reign over the prom.

The students relax after enjoying the delicious refreshments prepared by the P.T.A.

Olga Arjemi, Olga Sillup, and Judith Martis acquire savings bonds for outstanding achievements in the Business Education Department.

Officers and committee chairmen win pins for outstanding contributions to the Student Council.

Mrs. Searles distributes emblems and pins to members of the upperclass library squad.

These members of the Commercial Department received certificates and pins for meritorious service as student secretaries.

The traditional Gift Day assembly, at which time classes gave gifts to the school and outstanding students received honors, took place early in June of 1957.

The awards presented were to the students who had contributed time and effort to the clubs, the physical education department, the school publications, the service organizations, and the music department. Scholastic prizes bestowed by local citizens formed an important part of the program.

Gifts given in the form of high school letters, medals, pins, keys, and scholarships made many of Linden High School's students proud and happy.

Mr. Winans awards Eleanor Micenko and other senior Chronicle staff members for their efforts during the year.

Joan Ammoscato receives a pin from the Linden Chapter Future Homemakers of America.

Linden High School's hospital aides or "Orange Blossoms" receive certificates from Miss Rickert.

GIFT DAY

Toby Weissbraten receives a savings bond from the Smith and Karzler Corporation for excellence in mathematics.

Mr. Haiko bestows awards from members of the Social Studies department to Maureen Branagan and Arthur Obester.

Members of the Cynosure editorial staff receive honors from Mrs. Firkser.

Dr. Barrett accepts two plays, "Anastasia" and "Inherit the Wind," offered as the gift of the Senior Dramatic Club.

A representative of Airtron, Inc., offers savings bonds to Robert Dorosin and Richard Zach for outstanding achievement in science.

Mrs. Timberlake of the Linden Parent-Teacher Association awards Marilyn Guy a scholarship.

Linden High School baseball coach, Mr. Jakucs, receives a trophy that the team won as Union County champions.

The class of 1959, represented by Margaret Bahiarz, presents a silver coffee service to Linden High School.

Barn Dance

Swing your partner high and low . . . promenade . . . then dos-e-dos. Set these familiar phrases to country music, and it spells fun for all. Such was the atmosphere on November 4th, the date of the Senior Barn Dance.

Because of the enthusiasm of the students in past years, separate barn dances were held, the juniors having their dance on November 26.

Separate barn dances proved very advantageous; not only was dancing more comfortable but the students became better acquainted with their class members.

Bill Rathjen swings Marge Korszoloski to the music of Shorty Warren.

Marie Moore and Martin Schlein lead their square in the promenade.

Happy faces spell fun for the Juniors at their first school Barn Dance.

EXPERIENCE AND ENJOYMENT GAINED BY MEMBERS OF LOCAL GROUPS

Any girl who enjoys and wants to become better acquainted with music is invited to join the Girls' Glee Club. Under the guidance of Mrs. Salher our Glee Club members find themselves understanding and appreciating music as a result of their hard work.

Students with a little more than average talent in the musical field are urged to join Linden High's fine choir. This year special credit must be given to the choir members who meet half an hour before school starts. Mrs. Salher works hard with these students whose talent and interest show in the work they produce.

Both groups combined their talents in the yearly Christmas program. The student body is always impressed with the fine job these music lovers accomplish. A spring picnic at Echo Lake climaxes an eventful and enjoyable year for both groups.

NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN THE STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the guidance of Mrs. Atkins the Student Council has established a Service League, completed the sales of book covers, revised the Constitution of the Student Council, and worked on a handbook for the students of Linden High.

The Service League is composed of girls who volunteered to give up one of their free periods per week to act as receptionists and messengers for the office.

The sale of Linden High book covers satisfied the request of the students who wanted to have book covers representing their school.

For the first time in many years the Student Council has revised its constitution. The council is also working on a Student Handbook which will help new students to become better acquainted with Linden High School.

The Assembly Committee, under the management of Miss Page, plans our assemblies and has given us many enjoyable assembly programs. Members of the Student Council suggested that there be an exchange assembly program with other schools. This idea is in the making.

Once again the Student Council and its subsidiaries have completed another successful and worthwhile year at Linden High School.

NEW CHRONICLE ARRIVES

This year the Chronicle and its staff, under the guidance of Mr. Winans, underwent many changes. The most important change was the arrival of a new format which is larger and contains six to eight pages. It also contains more pictures (some in color), more columns, and a larger sports section.

This year the staff is represented by all three classes and the editors are drawn from every class. Sara Rosenbaum is Editor-in-

Chief, Leslie Nogi and Janice Redzinak head the News Staff, Irmgard Heinz is the Column Editor, and Robert Rakowski is Sports Editor.

Mr. Pellicone directs both the Advertising and Circulation Staffs. The Advertising Staff obtains advertisements to help finance the Chronicle. The Circulation Staff makes sure that the Chronicles are passed out to the various homerooms and that the money is collected.

CYNOSURE STAFFS

Each year our Linden High Cynosure is reborn in a new and exciting edition. This is only possible through the hard work of its staffs. The editorial, circulating, and advertising staffs are responsible for putting together a good Cynosure.

Headed by our new supervisor, Mr. Druckman, the editorial staff worked many hours in preparing our 1958 Cynosure. Pictures had to be scheduled, taken, identified, and set into layouts, copy had to be written, and some pictures had to be re-scheduled and taken over.

Mr. Haiko was responsible for the many advertisements we received this year along with the help of Charles Rosenberg.

Mr. Jamison advised the circulating staff which collected the money from the students for this book in January and later in May distributed them to the eagerly waiting students.

BAND

Music anyone? Of course your answer would be yes if you realized that it was the Linden High School Band's music. We were privileged to have listened to our band in the assemblies every week. They also helped to keep up team spirit at every football game. Besides these regular tasks, the band, under the capable direction of Mr. Ostrander, played for the Hallowe'en and Memorial Day Parades. This year the band was honored by sending two of its members, Louis Margaglione and Martin Roth, to the Regional Band. Louis brought another honor to the band and the school by being chosen for the All State Band.

"GO! FIGHT! WIN!"

Our team spirit would not be half so intense without the cheers, songs, and twirling techniques of our twirlers and cheerleaders.

Mrs. Creitz, our capable twirling adviser, meets with the girls during football season. At their meetings they practice the colorful routines that entertain us at half-time.

The cheerleaders lead Lindenites at all our football and basketball games. They meet as often as possible and work on improving their cheers and developing new ones. Mrs. Springer, with her able advice, is always at their practice sessions. During football season the girls give up their time, and work afternoons with a student cheering section.

The girls lead basketball cheers from bench.

TEACHING? NURSING?

What do you plan to do in the future? Linden High School's future clubs may help you find the answer to this question.

Students interested in nursing are able to find out more about it through the Future Nurses club, sponsored by Miss Rickert. A group of the members known as the Orange Blossoms, volunteer their time and services to the Elizabeth General Hospital.

If you are interested in teaching as a career, why not join the Future Teachers of America? During club period, members discuss different phases of education and, during the course of the year, Miss Balinski arranges trips to some of the state teachers colleges.

Learning to make a house a happy and attractive home is the aim of the Future Homemakers Club, sponsored by Mrs. Jeanplong. Meanwhile, Mrs. Bahery's Future Secretaries spend their time helping out in the school office and working for teachers and the heads of departments.

GIRLS' SPORTS PROVIDE

Susan Parks and partner struggle with a difficult stunt.

Agile sophomore demonstrates a hand stand to classmates.

Girls volley for serve at the start of the game.

FUN AND RELAXATION

Our girls keep trim by doing various exercises.

Linden High girls participate in varied sports activities: Soccer, volley ball, basketball, cage ball, stunts, setting up exercises, and social and square dancing.

Girls who are particularly interested in basketball may become officials by taking special referee exams. These girls officiate at the games during class and after school.

Those who join after-school teams earn points and receive awards on Gift Day. A gold pin is the highest award and requires 500 points. The silver pin requires 400 points; an "L," 300 points; and a chenille shield only 200 points.

Mrs. Creitz and Mrs. Springer help the girls to develop their skills, learn the importance of teamwork, and, above all, good sportsmanship.

Excitement mounts as the girls clamor for the cage ball.

SERVICE CLUBS AID SCHOOL

Donald Simon is doing one of the jobs of the Library Squad.

Interested in working in the library? Playing in the orchestra? Cafeteria duty? If you are, you will want to join one of Linden High's Service Clubs. As the name implies, these clubs aid the faculty and student body.

Members of the Library Squad devote their free time to helping the librarians and their fellow students. Under the supervision of Mrs. Searles, they mend books, arrange displays, straighten shelves, and take care of the other work that has to be done in order to keep the library a well-organized place.

The orchestra, led by Mr. Both, plays a big part in the school program. They rehearse each week to improve their playing and practice new arrangements. These talented students play for the senior play and special assembly programs.

This year Linden High School has six lunches a day at which the boys of the Cafeteria Corps help the teachers to maintain order. Mr. Kinsella is the head of the corps. This group of industrious boys do a good job keeping the cafeteria clean.

Linden High is grateful for the very fine work these service clubs perform.

INTEREST SPURRED BY ACADEMIC CLUBS

This year Mr. Alvin Coplan formed two chemistry clubs, one for the juniors and one for the seniors. The purpose of the combined clubs is to achieve a better understanding of chemistry. Each club determines its own program for the day. Seniors who have had chemistry the previous year may come to the meetings either to review or to receive further preparation for the field of chemistry.

The most informal of all clubs is Mr. William Miller's new physics club. Any student may attend the meetings and discuss the topics of his choice. Here, the only requirement is interest.

Under the supervision of Miss Elizabeth Reynolds, Linden High's three mathematics clubs competed with other schools this year. To become a member, a student must have an A or B average, in college preparatory mathematics. At their meetings the members solve mathematical games and puzzles and discuss topics not in class work.

Various stage groups have made our assemblies more enjoyable throughout the year.

In the Dramatic club the students gained a knowledge of all things connected with the stage. Mrs. Scher, the club adviser, directed a one act play put on by members of the club for assembly.

Students interested in learning to speak formally or extemporaneously join the Forensic Club. The members devote much of their time to informal debates. Inter-school contests have been introduced for the first time by Miss Gilkeson, the club sponsor.

Eagerness and school spirit prompt every Debate Club member to do his best for his school. Mr. Jamison, as director, offers expert advice to members.

Through the efforts of Mr. Smith there have been many improvements in the quality of our projection equipment.

During every assembly the stage crew is kept busy in providing a smoothly-run program.

The aims of the language clubs in Linden High School are to help students understand the people whose language they are learning and give them an insight into a foreign culture.

The Spanish clubs are two in number. Mrs. Ramage's club members enjoy songs, skits, games and original performances. Miss Schertzer's group gives reports on such subjects as Spanish customs, colorful costumes, and exciting bullfights.

Mrs. Falato and Mr. Moldaschal advise the upper-class and freshman German clubs respectively. These clubs converse in German and learn about the history and customs of the German people.

The two French clubs with Mrs. Berkowitz as director enjoy listening to French records and singing French songs during their club period.

HOBBY CLUBS OFFER VARIED ACTIVITIES

Among the activities of Mr. Barr's new club, the Linden High School Brass Pounders, its members learn the essentials of electronics and receive help on the Morse code. Licensed amateurs may operate the school station. The station consists of a short wave transmitter and receiver, which is used to talk to other operators around the world.

A knowledge of careful driving procedure and automotive function is essential to reduce the number of accidents each year. For this reason the students of the Teens for Safe Driving club learn how to take care of a car, what to do in case of sudden trouble, and also receive basic training in the rules and regulations of driving. This club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Kaplowitz, is a member of the New Jersey Association of Teens for Safe Driving.

SPORTS

Boys sprint around track to get in condition for meet.

Coach Burt Arnold's cindermen of 1957 enjoyed a mediocre season, winning three out of eight dual meets. However, there were some fine individual accomplishments. In the field events, Co-captain Steve Lasher set a new school discus record with his throw of 142'11". This broke the former record of 141'6" which was established in 1955. Donald Coleman, a junior, also showed skill with the high and low hurdles.

Ray Beruck, best scorer on the golf team, perfects a swing necessary for playing a good game of golf.

Although Linden High's golf team was only three years old last season, it managed to hold up well against more experienced teams. Having exhibited some sensational golfing last year, Ray Beruck will be the key player this year. Other boys who paced the team were Stan Fink, Art Obester, Frank Gomperts, Stan Yorke, Paul Chuvala, and Charles Rosenberg.

Coached by Mr. Gaines, the boys played their home games at Shackamaxxon and at Ashbrook. With more experience the golf team probably will offer competition impossible to beat.

RAY BERUCK HIGHLIGHTS GOLF TEAM

Frank Gomperts and Charles Rosenberg practice putting in order to improve their game.

Led by able co-captains, Bruce Chodosh and Robert Weitzman, Linden High School's tennis squad brought tennis recognition to our school. As a result of the outstanding playing of the boys and the fine coaching of Mr. Stokes, our new team of only two years experience beat several of the veteran teams which comprised most of their schedule.

Although entering the state meet at Princeton for the first time, Linden's players held their own until Westfield, winner of the tournament, defeated them. In the county tournament at Westfield the boys proved their abilities by reaching the semi-finals in doubles. In the singles we reached the finals, which can be credited to the fine tennis playing of co-captain Bob Weitzman, who placed second.

Art Carr, an up-and-coming underclassman, displayed some fine potentialities and will undoubtedly be an asset to next year's team. On the whole, Linden High's young but eager tennis team could very well lead us to state honors in 1958.

Newcomers to Linden High School's tennis team, Robert Rakowski, Arthur Carr, and Donald Kolibas, carefully follow Mr. Stokes' technique for a backhand shot.

TIGERS WIN COUNTY TOURNAMENT

Aided by the fine pitching of Frank Russo, the Tigers produced an excellent record of 14 wins and 7 losses last year.

The highlight of the season was the Union County Tournament during which the Tigers defeated St. Mary's, Union, and Roselle. The winning streak was climaxed with a brilliant 7-5 victory over Rahway.

Al Sawicki and Tom Archipley, outfielders, made several outstanding plays during the season. Elijah Herriott, a solid-hitting first baseman, and pitcher Richard Cichowski were two more valuable assets to Coach Jakus' Linden High Tigers.

Players on the All-County Team were Frank Russo, Elijah Herriott, Richard Cichowski, and Curtis Armstead.

Linden players relax during a break in the game.

Having compiled seventeen wins, three losses, and several impressive game scores and individual scoring records, Linden High's cagers completed what is generally considered one of its greatest seasons. Under Mr. St. Andrassy's coaching, the Tigers produced a memorable score of 112 points in the game against Rahway. The boys went on to take the championship in the Big Five Conference and reached the semi-finals of the Union County Tournament. Co-captains Ted Zawacki and George Roper, who both made the New York Daily News All-Star Team, accumulated the most points for Linden. With a total of 529 points, Roper held the highest individual scoring record in Union County. Others highlighting the team were Larry Zier, Elijah Herriot, and Charles Berzanski.

TIGERS COMPETE AGAINST NEW TEAMS

What happened during Linden High's 1957 football season? The answer to this would take pages of writing because there were so many new things. First of all, Linden competed against several new teams, the reason being that Linden was placed in Group 4 which consists of larger schools. This year for the first time we faced Jefferson and Plainfield on the gridiron. Working under a new system, the Tigers, who compose one of the lightest teams in the county, used the wing T formation which still needs further development. Although the record of two wins, five losses and one tie was not quite as impressive as previous years, the boys really produced some well-played games. Our highest scorer, Donald Coleman, made the All-County and All-State teams. Sparked by co-captains John Guzy and Tony Rizzo, the boys were coached by Mr. Smith, Mr. Schott, Mr. Cuzzolino, and Mr. Martin.

With the band, twirlers, cheerleaders, program girls, crowds, and the players on the field, Linden's football games were surely colorful and exciting spectacles.

"Benchwarmers," waiting their turn to enter the game, nervously watch their teammates.

The team is now in its fourth year of competition. It was coached by Mr. Frazer. An outstanding job was done by co-captains Richard Entlich and John Steppie, and also by manager Wally McLane. Next year our team will be much improved because of many outstanding juniors. They couldn't have any more spirit and fortitude to go on against odds as did the team this year.

But no improvement is needed in their spirit and fortitude, in their ability to fight against overwhelming odds.
