Senior Class Advisor, Mr. Schott

The year 1961-1962 saw new steps towards Student government at Linden High. Because there was no way in which to hold class meetings, both the Seniors and Juniors elected council members from their homerooms to represent them. The Seniors, under the capable guidance of Mr. Schott, planned the Senior Barn Dance, Prom, and other activities with efficiency and democracy, taking new ideas and suggestions to and from their homerooms.

The Juniors, likewise, performed their duties diligently, planning the Junior functions so that all might have an enjoyable time. The Junior advisor is Miss MacCormack who has continually done a superior job.

STUDENT COUNCIL

From the exciting day when our Student Council officers are elected to office by regulation voting machines, until the end of the school year, the student council members are actively "running" the school.

This year a major project was sending Christmas cards to the needy folk at Marlboro Hospital. A box was set up in the main hall, where students could deposit the cards.

Also, the Foreign Exchange Student Committee was organized to investigate the possibility of starting a foreign exchange student program at Linden High. Another new committee was formulated, the Project Committee, whose job it is to look for new and different ideas which can be used. The officers and two juniors attended a State Student Council convention, at which various Student Councils exchanged ideas.

This year has been a truly busy and prosperous one for the Student Council.

STUDENT COUNCIL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE — First Row: K. Donahue, A. Kaus, Treasurer, Second Row: B. Orlando, T. Novello; Secretary, A. M. Micklo, Third Row: J. Wittes, President; L. Dmitzak, Vice-President; S. Mopsick, D. Markant.

Second Row: Anita Leibowitz, Carol Ann Bara, Gwenn Sue Kendall, Frank Cantelmo, Pat Schoonmaker, Terry Novello, Barbara Orlando.

A typical group of senior staff members at work (?).

Hidden in one corner of Linden High School is room twenty-six, headquarters for the yearbook staff, better known as the Cynosure Editorial Staff. This small room houses the secrets of the Cynosure until the day when all will glance at its colored pages and all its pictures. This year's theme "Satire" has been a challenging yet enjoyable one. Jane Bedrick, editor-in-chief, and all the other staff members worked hard to meet deadlines and to come up with something new and interesting, this year's Cynosure. Mr. Volz, adviser, and the Editorial Staff take pride in thie year's Cynosure and hope that all will enjoy it.

JUNIOR EDITORIAL STAFF — First Row: Barbara J. Smith, Mr. Volz, adviser; Marty Fogel, Claire Schoonmaker, Second Row: Diane Swiontkowski, Judy Masnick, Ellen Hebel, Third Row: Barbara Menzaco, Cynthia Trooskin, Dolores Menzaco, Terri Previte.

When deadlines are set, staff members work hard, especially the day after the deadline.

Isn't this carrying secrecy too far???

The staff members are always so eager to start their work.

CYNOSURE PHOTOGRAPHERS — First Row: B .Wosniak, Mr. Volz, adviser, T. Saunders, W. Liptak, Second Row: J. Hammer, J. Clanton, L. Matluck, P. Walker.

The Cynosure photographers have done an outstanding job this year in helping produce an excellent book. Working with the Editorial Staff, these students took all the informal pictures found in this book.

The Cynosure typists did all the clerical work, thus performing a very valuable service.

Financial assistance is given to the yearbook through the efforts of the Cynosure Advertising members, who went to much trouble to perform their duty successfully.

Another service is performed by the Cynosure Circulation members. It is these people who were in charge of collecting the money for, and the distribution of, this year's Cynosure.

CYNOSURE TYPISTS — K. Ficik, M. Dułko, P. Doyle, J. Driscoll.

UNITED WE STANDIII

The CHRONICLE was brought to us through the hard work of the staff members.

Frustrated Editors

The 1961-62 school year marks the 27th anniversary of our school newspaper, the CHRONICLE. The first issue of the CHRONICLE was published in 1934, and since then it has grown in pages, issues and popularity.

The staff members work hard, giving their time and concentration, and, with occasional snooping, bring the student body a newspaper filled with contests, humor, school news, fads and even the latest gossip of the senior, junior and sophomore classes.

The CHRONICLE ADVERTISING staff, headed by our traveling Mr. Pellicone, has helped make the publishing and success of the CHRONICLE possible.

Two And One

Although the National Honor Society is but a few years old, it has gained the reputation of accepting only the best students who actively participate in school activities. These students are constantly winning honors and shining glory upon the association.

This organization allows students to gather and make plans under the guidance of Mr. Haiko.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY — First Row: A. Walin, J. Bedrick, D. Blackman, B. Orlando, Vice-Pres.; G. Karshmer, Pres.; E. Wasser, Sec.; I. Chuven, S. Wilson. Second Row: F. Farber, L. Dvorin, B. A student wonders about his answer.

The Mu Alpha Theta, or in other words The National Mathematical Honor Society, gives seniors a chance to examine their various interests in math. Each member informs the club about his special interest, thereby, broadening all their interests. Don't think that their lessons come purely from books, for guest speakers and trips enlighten them with personal experience.

The Junior Math Club, or the Lambda Mu Chi, was created for juniors who have so great an interest in math that they cannot satisfy it in regular classes.

Miss Reynolds is the adviser to both the clubs. She inspires the students to widen their interests beyond the horizon.

The Radio Club consists of boys who wish to become licensed radio operators. They are taught how to operate a ham radio by making use of their own complete radio station consisting of a transmitter, a receiver, and antennae.

The automechanic shop, begun for the first time in Linden High this year, teaches boys the details of operating and maintaining an automobile.

Who is that sitting behind that large pile of books? Who is that climbing ladders and shelves? Who is that telling students to speak more softly? Why, it's one of our future librarians learning the tricks of the trade. These girls are qualified to maintain and shelve books, and to keep a file system.

What was that flash of light doing in the middle of our school halls? Who is that making mimeographed sheets of tests and notices? That's a member of our own Service League, assisting teachers and principals.

The constant clicking heard on the top right hand side of the building is caused by the future private secretaries of America.

Ethel F.'s expression reflects the spirit of our twirlers.

The school year 1961-1962 marked a new rise in school spirit for Linden High. During the football season, cheerleaders could be found leading the massive crowds in the new gym at the weekly pep rallies. On those Saturday games, our vivacious cheerleaders and versatile twirlers did their jobs so well that the Linden Tigers were able to win the Group IV Conference. Surely the boys heard the encouraging cries which inspired them on to victory.

The twirlers, headed by Ann Margaglione, practiced long and hard to perform their perfectly-timed and ingenious routines. This year some of the senior twirlers added black and orange flags to their batons, which resulted in a colorful and exciting display. The squad was under direction of the new physical education instructor, Miss Helen Hemko.

The cheerleaders, under the able leadership of Sue Pecina and Barb Alexy, encouraged the support of loyal fans who came to cheer our teams on to victory. This year the squad added snazzy blackand-orange sneakers to the bright orange basketball uniforms and many new and different cheers for extra touches of pep.

Twirler Captain Ann Margaglione.

Serious-Smiling Pat D. Salutes.

Barbara Ann Dwoyer, during her lifetime, was very much a part of the world in which she lived, the world in which we now must live without her. Her tragic and untimely death on Sunday, October 29, ended Barbara's first-hand contributions to this world, but she is with us even now, contributing still. The memory of Barbara and the many achievements and remembrances which it evokes were not meant to be ended with her death. Barbara still lives on in the hearts of all, parents and friends, teachers and students alike who were fortunate enough to have known her.

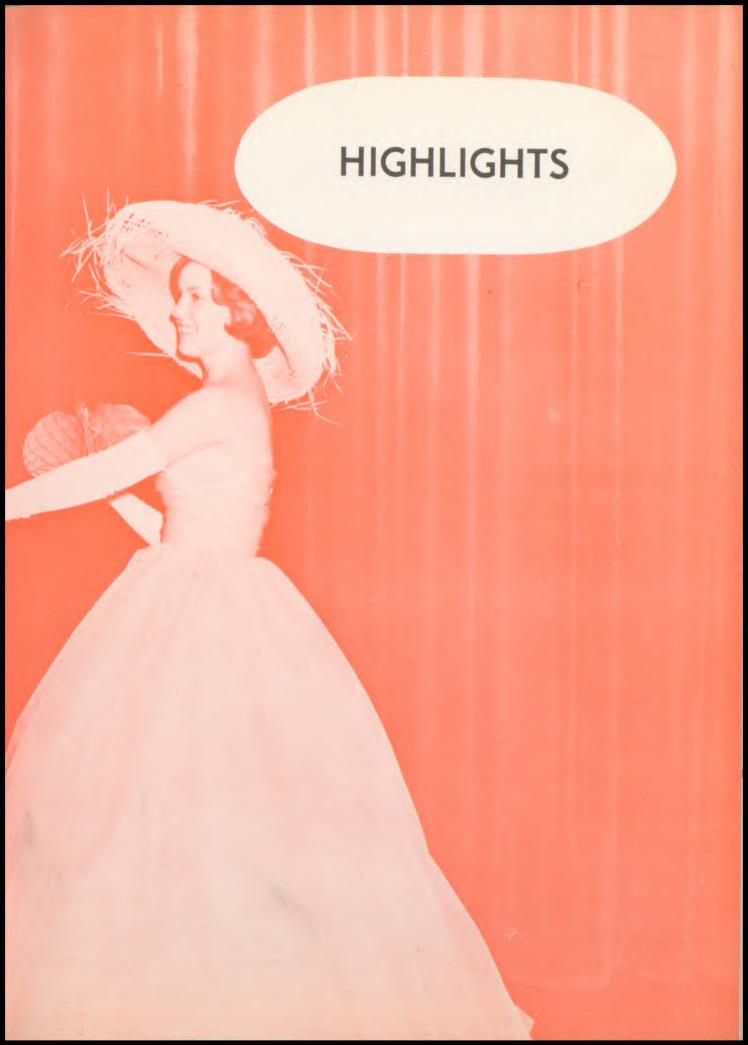

Barbara achieved many honors throughout all her school years in Linden, but what were perhaps her greatest achievements came to her during her high-school years. Her outstanding scholastic ability led to her being the fourth ranking scholar of the senior class, a member of the National Honor Society, and a recipient of a Merit Scholarship Letter of Commendation. Her vivacious, out-going personality found fulfillment in the various extracurricular activities in which she participated: the executive committee of the Student Council, Mu Alpha Theta, Chronicle Editorial, and, above all, Cheerleading.

After Barbara's death, it was difficult to visualize a life without her. Somehow, a new feeling gradually overshadowed this one of despair: a feeling was born of the memory of Barbara, for in her lifetime she had never symbolized sadness. Our fond memory of Barbara Ann Dwoyer is now one of the many achievements and honors, earned by her brightness and popularity; and so, in respect and friendship to her, we now dedicate this In Memoriam.

Queen Pat

The King and Queen anxiously await the beginning of their big evening.

And they're off . . .

Hallowe'en King and Queen

Chivalry still reigns.

Every year, one boy and one girl are nominated from each senior homeroom to represent our high school in Linden's annual Halloween parade. The King and Queen and their attendants are then chosen by the entire student body. The election is sponsored by the Student Council.

This year's lovely Queen, Patricia Doyle, and handsome King, Richard La Bracio, were attended by Ann Margaglione, Diana Petraitis, Mary Hrabik, Karen Vornbaum, Donald Rutkowski, Terrill Bergstedt, George Engisch, and Bruce Herman.

This year, as in the past years, the royal couple were crowned at the Milk Bar Dance. The following night, the royal group proudly rode atop a beautiful float in the Hallowe'en parade.

The proud pair smile as they pass their subjects.

The King and Queen approach their throne.

"I know where I'm going, do you?"

Junior Frolics

On November 18, 1961, the Juniors held their annual Barn Dance. Bud Page and His Rhythm Orchids provided the music for a funfilled evening.

About halfway through the evening, Class President Lenny Graziano and Vice-President Sue Lutz led the way to the cafeteria for cider and doughnuts. There the committees and advisers were earnestly thanked by all who attended.

Decorating committee scores two more points.

Let's stop going around in circles; remember, this is a square.

George Engisch and his partner, Ann Margaglione, lead the tired, but hungry, seniors to the awaiting refreshments.

Our chaperone!

"Swing your partner!"

The night of the Seniar Barn dance, November 8 1961, the new gym acquired a gay atmosphere with pumpkins, comstally and straw hats. Shorty Warren also contributed to the gaiety with his quick moving and lively music. George Engisch, our Class President, led the Grand March to the caletter a for refreshments consisting of the traditional doughnuts and cider. A furtilled and memorable evening was had by all.

Who is Pat Schoonmaker's bashful partner?

Who is going to ruin the new gym first?

They call this progress?

Putting humor aside for a moment, we realize that our new school addition is really a wonderful thing. We are proud of our new science and math rooms and also our new gym and shops. The building of the addition is something the students and teachers of L. H. S. will remember for a long time.

After all, what other high school can brag of co-ed gym classes (when the sliding doors won't close) and hot running water in every drinking fountain! Yes, our addition is surely a great accomplishment.

Way out, but they're ours, all ours.

Cheerful Season?

Christmas at Linden High School has always brought a heightening of school spirit. This year saw no exception. As in the past, the Junior Class had the task (or should we say joy?) of decorating the halls. They really did an outstanding job, and deserve a lot of credit. The singing of Christmas carols in the halls by the choir and the individual classroom decorations all added to the holiday spirit. This Christmas in Linden High School was one that will be remembered by all.

A BRIEF GUIDE

TOLINDEN

The houses of worship are very important to every person who lives in Linden. Catholic, Protestant, or Jewish, everyone can satisfy his religious wants.

Here it is, "gentle" reader — a very brief introduction to the main attractions of Linden. Because of a lack of space, many points of interest had to be left out, such as the high school, the many stores on Wood Avenue, the beautiful Community Center, and Walt's.

Now the guide will begin. On the left is the world famous Standard Oil Company, for which Linden is so famous. Right below is one of our many fire houses. At the bottom is our very modern city hall. If you will please focus your attention to the top, the Suburban Jewish Center and right St. Elizabeth's can be seen. Immediately below is the new Sunnyside Branch of the public library.

They built a new library! The people of Linden must be getting literate — or somethin'.

The Man Who Came To Dinner

This year The Senior Class of Linden High presented its annual play on February 9 and 10 in the high school auditorium. The play which had been selected for presentation was "The Man Who Came To Dinner" by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman.

Under the able direction and supervision of Mrs. Herbster and Mr. Jacobs, the play was a huge success.

Our capable stage manager, Iris Chuven, and many other seniors also contributed their time and efforts for the success of this production.

Senior

On the evening of May 19, 1961, at about 8:30 o'clock, couples arrived at the Scotch Plains Country Club to attend the annual Senior Prom.

The happy smiling couples glided across the dance floor to the music of the Ray DiPietro Orchestra. All too soon the hour for departure arrived and the couples dispersed, filled with fond and unforgettable memories.

Junior Prom

The reason for poetry.

"Which is more important, Henry, food or your date?"

The beautiful old boy's gym was the site of the annual Junior Prom on May 12, 1961. The precedent of having the prom on the thirteenth, which had been started the year before, was broken. In spite of that, everyone had a good time.

The gym was decorated to look like a Japanese Tea Garden with a large pagoda in the middle of the floor. There were two benches that went with the pagoda in the event that anyone became tired while dancing to the music of the Don Gibson Band and wanted to rest.

The bewitching hour of twelve arrived all too soon, and the happy couples left with the memories of a wonderful prom.

The way you look tonight.

"Congratulations, Tom, you've finally won."

Gift Day - 1961

Gift Day is one of the biggest days of the year at Linden High, for it is the day on which recognition is given to those students who have put forth their finest efforts throughout the year. The outstanding students in the languages, history, and chemistry receive awards, as well as the members of the various clubs.

Gift Day holds a special meaning for Seniors, because this is the day they receive their scholarships. It also encourages the underclassmen to work harder, so that when they become seniors, they, too, will have their own special Gift Day.

Under the capable coaching of E. Smith, J. Martino, T. Oves, P. Blue, the Tigers wound up a very successful season. Out of the nine games we played, we won six, lost one and tied two.

If the Tigers could have beaten Union instead of tying them, they would have captured the Group IV State Championship. The football season, however, was still a big success culminating in the winning of the Central Jersey Group IV Conference Title. This was the first time this title has been captured since 1954.

FIGERS

Roy is on the ball!

Our Linden High School Tigers enjoyed a gratifying season of fine basketball playing. We completed the season with 13 victories and 10 losses. Billy Zaranka displayed his fine coordination in 22 games this season with a total of 313 points. Three of the county tournament games were victories, but we were defeated by St. Marys in conclusion. We defeated Westfield in the state tournament. Coach St. Andrassy is praised for his faith and encouragement of his fine quintet.

Not to be left out of recognition is the Junior Varsity Team which was undefeated in 16 games. All in all, both teams under fine supervision, displayed excellent athletic ability and obvious signs of mature sportsmanship.

Linden 0 ..... Trenton 2

The students of Linden High should be exceptionally proud of their soccer team. While compiling a record of 10-5-1, coach Catale's boosters placed second in Union County standings, and made a fine showing in the state tournament. While everyone on the squad did a fine job, special acknowledgement should be given to co-captain Marty Vanderwal and co-captain Roy Mickens, all-county goalie. Others who played a prominent role in Linden's success are seniors John Kovacs and Marty Farber, and Junior Ron Mopsick.

Given the fine material to work with, coach Catale should once again produce a team in which L.H.S. can take pride.

THEY CALL THIS

Pre-marital Training?

Imagine what he could do awake!

Exercise!

He Ries through the oir with the Greatest of Poin. As is true of all our high-school sports, track and the activities connected with it are things which call for long hours and hard work. This year we were fortunate to have a good team. As always, our teams did their utmost to bring fame to Linden High School.

We know these boys will continue their work and efforts to make our next year's teams even better. We are sorry to see many of the participants leave, but we are sure the ones staying will carry on the good work.

What are you looking back there for? I thought it was going in the other direction!

Now's the time to stub your toe, right Neil?

Goody for Our Side and Your Side Too

Our Linden High School Tigers completed a very good record for the 1961 baseball season. They were finalists in the Union and Greater Newark tournaments and competed in the State Tournament. The Junior Varsity squad may be honored with an outstanding record of ten wins and only one loss during the season.

Outstanding sportsmanship and cooperation among the members of both squads were essentially responsible for these triumphant victories in the tournaments and regularly scheduled games.

Harvey Katz and John Przybylski are practicing their swings. These two have been very valuable to our fine team. Just keep swinging, boys!

OUR HEROES!?

The annual Sports Award Assembly was held this year in the new gym, after the finish of fall and winter sports.

The members of the junior varsity and varsity teams of football, basketball, soccer, and cross-country were awarded letters and were applauded by the students.

The Cross-country team is rewarded for its valiant efforts.

DIVING CLUB

The Scuba Diving Club was formed by popular demand last year. Since then, the club has developed very well under Mr. Cerillo's supervision. Most memorable of this year's activities were the trips taken to Bass River and Elberon, N. J.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Cross Country Track Team is a relatively new sport in Linden. Started last year, the boys of the school have received it with enthusiasm. This year's record of 6-3 is a marked improvement, and we can expect an even better record next year.

Captain Neil Metzger.

First Row: Ben Yancolowitz, Fred Jaeger, Art Rostel, Richie Rostel, Pete Mastrogiacomo. Second Row: Ed Murzinsky, Gil Brown, Henry Kikolski, Larry Kaiser, Richard Casciano, Doug Olechowski, Manager, Third Row: Coach Gaines, Al Amberg, Steve Kupcho, Capt. Under the guidance of Mr. Gaines, the Girls' Golf Club witnessed a successful season. Although the girls did not experience any competition, they derived much pleasure from learning the fundamentals of the sport. A newly formed activity at Linden High is the Girls' Gym Club. Miss Hemko is the faculty adviser. The girls enjoy a well-rounded program of sports and calisthenics.

Who ever thought they could pile it that high!

Give 'em enough rope and . . .

Fakirs or Fakers?

We're right side up; the rest of the world is upside down.

Physical Ed., known more familiarly to his friends as "Gym," is available to the majority of the students thrice each week. The boys of L. H. S. participate in many high flying exercises on the ropes and the horizontal bar. They also engage in more "down-to-earth" exercises, such as tumbling . . . tumbling off the ropes, and tumbling off the high horizontal bar. Contrary to popular opinion, these latter two are quite easy and have been completed successfully. Other activities are offered, making gym a jolly time for all.

Spectator sport?

Getting her kicks.

EPISTLE TO OLYMPIANS

Dancing, exercise, volley ball, soccer, basketball, jumprope, apparatus — these are a few of the many activities of girl's gym. Striving to appeal to the interests of all pupils, and recognizing that only variety will make ideal muscular development possible, Mrs. Casale and Miss Hemko constantly encourage new and varied activities — activities ranging from apparatus to tap-dancing. Whether one enjoys gym or not, she must admit that it is a good conversation starter. Can you name the day when you didn't hear, ''Do you know what they're doing in gym today?''?

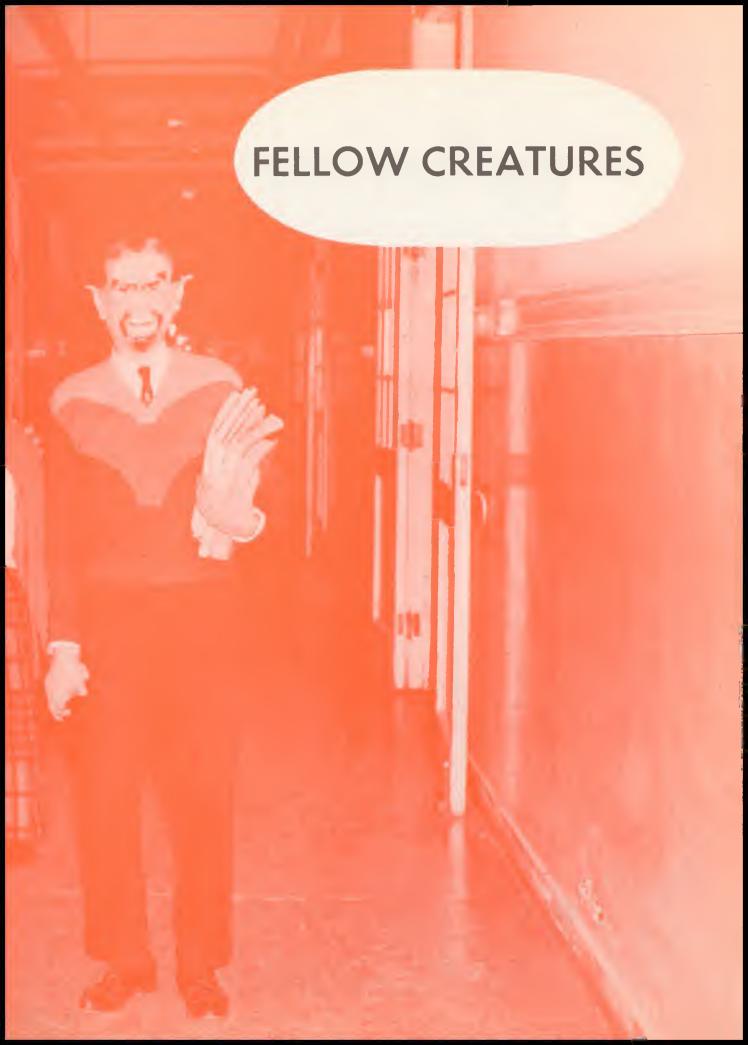

What goes down can't come up.

Finis

The editors express their sincere gratitude to the cooperative faculty and student body for their aid in the production of the 1962 Cynosure. Despite a year of calculations, confusion, catastrophies, and strikes; in spite of rain, sleet, snow, ice, and bomb scares, the yearbook has been compiled to (we hope) the satisfaction of all.

The Editors
