our year at a glance

Our year, 1963, will always be a year to remember. Every month, every day, every minute of our year spent at Linden High has some deep significance. Moments of shared joys and sorrows are gone now, but they cannot be forgotten.

In preparing this Cynosure, the staff has endeavored to recall, month by month, the many experiences encountered in our school life. Therefore, realizing its importance, we have chosen for our theme, THE SCHOOL YEAR.

Cafeteria Duty

The death of Mr. Gerald M. Clark, on February 7, 1963, has saddened the students and faculty of Linden High School. Quiet and unassuming in his manner, he carried out his assigned duties in the Business Education Department, where he was a teacher for thirty-one years. Those who worked with him and knew him will remember him as a colleague and friend.

Enthusiastic crowd ready for game.

Several bad breaks prevented this year's grid team from compiling a better record than 4-3-1. However, the team played hard and well and gave much excitement to fans, as displayed by their reactions at each game. Linden's star halfback, All-Stater John Charles, provided many thrills with his great running ability. Rival coaches all praised John's fine play. Others to be noted are Seniors Burt Bierman, Ed Babulski, Ned Higgins, Tim Keane, Bill Charles, Joe Komorowski and John Czerniewski.

successful season

Co-Captains Ron Mopsick and Len Solas ready for action.

This season, Linden High School has a soccer team of which it should be especially proud. While playing Woodbridge, the team scored nine goals. This is the first time that such a feat has been accomplished by any Union County team in any one game. Adding to the excitement, the goalie, Richard Wilkie, also scored, a very infrequent happening. John Kupka, who scored three goals, was another outstanding player of the game.

During the entire season, the team was paced by able captains Ron Mopsick and Len Solas. Senior squad members, noted for outstanding play, include Frank Schurley, Leo Dmitzak, Richie Wilkie, John Sillup, Richie Wieggers, and Mike Sharo.

seniors have a barn dance

The theme of the senior barn dance this year of 1962 was the wagon train. One of the highlights was the popular limbo stick, and a certain valedictorian, not mentioning any names, was supposed to be a great limbo dancer. The dance was considered a success, and a good time was had by all.

cross country at the state meet

At the State meet held at Warinaco Park on November 18th, Linden came in 25th out of 43 possible places. Bob Firestone led the team by coming in 17th out of 301 runners. This year's score for the season is 7-4. A new school record of 12.42 minutes was set by Bob Firestone, breaking the former record of Neil Metzger. The cross-country team is coached by Mr. Gaines.

"Last one in is a rotten egg!"

union meets the mighty tigers

Linden and Union held the postponed Thanksgiving game on November 22 in Union. The suspense of this game was exceptional; at any moment, Linden's victory could have turned to defeat. After a 6-7 half-time score, Linden won with a score of 13-7.

The highlights of any football game usually are the touchdowns, and this year was no exception. During the game, John Charles scored a touchdown and became Union County's scoring champion. The team members attributed their victory to the training they had received from Coach Smith.

"A cartwheel?"

"Say, have you seen the ball?"

Cheering J.V. are Dayle Seibert, Zonia Rudowsky, Dorothy Polachek, Janet Tesche, Cynthia Turchin, and (not shown) Barbara Winetsky.

Tell us how you do it, Cynthia!

Cheering varsity are Judy Becker, Teresa Previte, Susan Lutz, Alice Kornmeyer, Ellen Hebel, Eileen Thomas, Jo Ann Gross, and Arleen Beriont.

Needless to say, our L.H.S. cheerleading and twirling squads have added much pep and vitality to our football and basketball games during this 1962-63 season.

The versatile twirlers, led capably by captain Charlotte Stires and co-captain Kathy Bojak, have performed their talents well and added gay color to all of our football games. A good deal of hard work and practice, advised by Miss Nancy Kromer, has been well-rewarded by the exhibitions every spectator enjoys at half-time.

The vivacious cheerleaders, headed by co-captains Alice Kornmeyer and Ellen Hebel, helped to keep the crowd busy throughout the football and basketball games cheering our team on to victory. The Cheerleaders are under the advisorship of Mrs. Florence Casale.

Enlivening the school spirit, the cheerleaders and twirlers are indispensable, as any loyal fan will readily admit.

band members add color

They practiced, and practiced, and practiced.

Through the hallowed halls of Linden High flow both sweet and martial strains of music. Such strains, of course, emanate from our splendid high school band, ably directed and conducted by Mr. Ostrander. One of the earliest organized school-year activities, these sterling musicians are one of the highlights of the football season. Marching and playing during half-time, they are led down the field by our fine drum majorette, Harriet Wechter. A rollicking thanks to you, bandsmen, for inspiring us "On to Victory!"

BAND—First Row: R. Gagliardi, F. Mrozek, F. Jackow, G. Turchin, G. Schneider, J. Jones, R. Leffelbine, A. Silverman, G. Caro, H. Wechter, Drum Majorette. Second Row: J. Yelenovsky, E. Gordon, R. Traditional Christmas decorating done by the Junior class added greatly to the Christmas Spirit at Linden High School. Even with the construction going on, the Juniors really outdid themselves this year as in the past. The aroma of pines filled the classrooms, covering even those of paint and plaster, and adding to our Christmas spirit.

Scalping a twelve-foot Indian?

Indians invaded the gym on the night of December 7, 1963 for the benefit of the Junior Class. Led by Ellen Gerber, the warriors hammered and painted and feathered until its old identity was hidden under the guise of Indian Village.

At 8:00 the "village" was opened for the earnest and excited juniors and in a matter of seconds the gym was filled with the strains of country music.

Promenade!

Later the "tribe" was eager for the tempting cider and doughnuts awaiting them in the cafeteria.

The last tasty morsels being devoured, the group retreated hastily to the gym once more to finish their evening with a few more dances and an unexpected willingness to assist in taking down the decorations.

At 12:01 the "village" was gone, along with the tired inhabitants and a happy memory of a successful barn dance.

basketball team scores

Bob Dombrowski shows the other team how to jump.

This season has displayed our team's coordination and superior effort to an unusually high degree. No one can forget the exciting Woodbridge match or the Cranford game where the team united all its efforts into a winning drive. Defensive strategy, sparked by Ray Molski, has been developed this year into a strong buffer against opposing scoring attempts. Our own scoring, led by Steve Kupcho, has been hard to beat. The entire team has done well and leaves Linden with a record to be matched by succeeding varsity teams.

Next year Bob Firestone, Bob Dombrowski, James Daniels, Ronald Chase, Richard Hudson, Joseph Zaranlca, and James Chapman will lead the new varsity eleven to greater victories.

Our unsung heroes of the junior varsity squad have put forth a superlative effort this year and have achieved a record of which they may be proud. Perhaps the most exciting game of this year's season was the Union contest. This suspenseful game was climaxed with a J.V. win by just three points.

students become acclimated to studies

"One hundred two more days till we get out again." Sound like prison? Well, it isn't. This was the first mathematics assignment done by the students after the Christmas vacation. After that simple calculation, it was back to hard work again. These pictures show the manner in which the students prepare for hard work or react to it. Names have been ignored to protect them.

I have a question—I think?

Girl students hard at work?

For health classes: prime example of post-exam shock.

construction chaos continues

"Blast Off"

And the walls came tumbling down.

Construction nothing . . . that's Homeroom 311.

"Come on out! We know you're in there!"

Meditation upon a corner.

All windows and no doors?

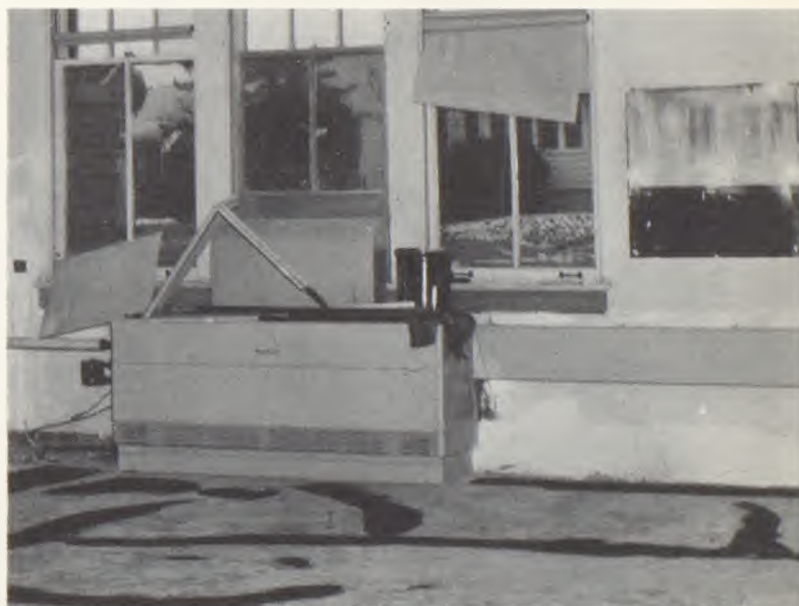

"This is the way we paint the doors, paint the doors"

During the school year 1962-63, our school was undergoing a modernization and expansion program. It is said that time heals all wounds, and perhaps in time we shall forget the holes in the walls, the chattering teeth, the tripping over wires, the crowded halls and heads white with plaster.

Despite all these trials and tribulations it has been a happy year for most of us, and those who come after us can look forward to a newer, larger, and brighter school.

As we leave the hustling, bustling turmoil of a seemingly never-ending expansion program, the years at Linden High School will recede further into the past, becoming faint memories only to be revived by glancing back through the Cynosure.

I'm glad that class is over!

On February 8th and 9th terror gripped fifteen members of the Senior Class. At about eight o'clock in the evening they were seen twiddling their thumbs, talking to themselves, and making faces at walls. Gradually, however, relative calm descended and the stage was quiet. Then, suddenly, they burst into motion and ran to hide behind doors.

The lights went out and the curtains opened. The Senior Play presented by the class of 1963 began.

committees

When the final curtain has dropped and the last spot light is out, everyone connected with a play has in his heart a few incidents which he will never forget. We remember things like Barbara Smith and her "I'll get to Scotland . . . or the constant exasperating scream "Get Gili, hooley!!!" or the bewildered looks on the faces of the cast when they couldn't remember their lines and forgot to yell "cue! The prop committee will recall how long it took them to synchronize opening the door and the sound of rushing wind, and remember the problem the throw rugs presented when Jack Costa was dragged along the floor. Remember the time when Judy Masnick waited in while Jack was being pulled out? And the Commodore had a rather tight fit in Belinda's jacket. Who can forget when the door got stuck and nobody could get it "unstuck" so Frank Erm could get through? The ticket committee will recall the students who crawled into the balcony without tickets to see the show.

There are so many incidents we couldn't begin to remember but these few will serve to help recall others.

Student Council has done this year, as always, an outstanding job in running the school.

The fine accomplishments of this year include the sponsoring of a Red Cross Gift Box and donating to the UNESCO project. These works of charity will endure long after this year and provide precedents for future councils.

We, of Linden High, are always striving to improve the student administration. Last summer representatives were sent to the Blairstown Leadership Conference and this year delegates were sent to Rutgers University in order to attend the New Jersey Association at High School Student Councils. These efforts toward improvement make our government one of the most able and forward-looking to be found.

In school, the members of the council have worked increasingly in selling decals, theme tablets, and pens; sponsoring the book-contest, conducting the Halloween King and Queen pageant; revising the Linden High School Handbook and the Student Council Constitution; and conducting elections. It is a tribute to the capable officers and representatives of the council, that they can do so much good work so well and still be aware of student opinion.

Mr. Schott
Senior Class Adviser

The Senior and Junior Council has been organized to hold class meetings so as to take new steps towards our Student government. Under the guidance of Mr. Schott and Miss MacCormack, they plan our Senior and Junior activities. They have this year, as in the past, done a wonderful job, and we are all very thankful to them.

There's one in every group.

And the work begins.

"Oooh!" "Hey, my name is in here!" "Boy! Look at that car." "A truer word was never written." Comments like these are often heard when the Chronicle comes out. The school paper covers all academic and social events and sometimes even more mundane subjects. With great use of imagination, the editors often examine the intricate mind of a "typical" student. The paper keeps interest high with its various contests and its sprightly and timely coverage of seasonal events.

This year, the Chronicle staff surprised the subscribers by deviating from the traditional format: lengthened pages, modified typography — these and other improvements made Chronicle even more eye-catching than usual.

Members of Chronicle Advertising have contributed their time and efforts in canvassing local business men for advertising.

Mr. Sklaw and Mr. Pellicone deserve thanks for their advisorship of Chronicle Editorial and Advertising respectively.

"I wrote that?"

The final product of our efforts.

Phil Walker, mad scientist?

Furthering their education through active participation, the members of our science clubs specialize in advanced work. Chemistry and Biology Clubs are planned to include work not usually found in the class period. The Chromosome Club, organized this year, studies principles and problems of heredity. Under the direction of their capable advisers, the members of our Science Clubs are certain to achieve success.

French Club officers plan next meeting.

The language clubs of Linden High School meet once every other week from fall to spring. Autumn is club organization time. Christmas is an especially active time for clubs. Carols are sung; Spanish Club celebrates the season with its annual Christmas party which includes a peñata filled with gifts; French Club members design and send Christmas cards printed in French. And, in spring, we find the club members busy planning club trips.

Service clubs have done a great job in aiding the faculty as well as the students, this year as in previous years. Just last year a new activity, the Booster Club for girls, was established. During the football games, the girls in this club helped out at the refreshment stands.

Service League members have helped in delivering notices and assisted in greeting visitors to the school. The Secretarial Appointment performed clerical jobs for teachers and administrators.

The members of these different service clubs deserve to be recognized for the outstanding job they have done.

Mr. Both, the playing conductor, deserves our gratitude for his untiring efforts to give Linden as fine an organization as we consider our orchestra to be.

Recently organized, the Dance Band may be heard practicing diligently to produce sweet strains of popular music (all of which proves that popular music and noise are not necessarily synonymous).

Members read material before posting it on the club bulletin board.

Under the direction of Mr. Kaplowitz, the Teens for Safe Driving Club is one of the most popular clubs in our school. Lectures on various phases of driving were given by speakers invited by the group.

Surveys, acquaintance with traffic violations, and trips to traffic court prove to be helpful and interesting to the members.

hobby clubs

Hobbies are a method of bringing fun and relaxation into the daily grind. To some, a hobby means an interest in skin-diving; to others, the operation of a short wave radio; and to still others, the taking of pictures.

Members of these hobby clubs, with the assistance of the advisers, are enabled to further their individual interests and work together.

track season starts with a bang!

"I sure wish I could stay up here for a long time—the view is great."

"Look out before I smash you!"

"Don't just stand there—catch me!"

"Look out below!"

"Geel I wish our legs weren't so exposed—I'm embarrassed."

Wow! This is much better—too bad we were missing one pair of pants.

Spring arrives, and with it, track season. Through long and hard practice, the team members have received the rewards of a job well done. The team displayed excellent athletic ability, good sportsmanship, and, under fine leadership, had a winning season.

Ready, on your mark, get set . . . go!

Class President Lenny Graziano and date Janis Clarke lead the grand march.

The Juniors dance to the music of the Don Gibson Band.

The Junior Class last year was privileged to be the first to use the new gym for the Prom. The Prom was held after months of preparation. The decorating committee did an outstanding job.

The memories of the joyous occasion will always remain in the couples' hearts.

In examining last year's scores, it can be readily seen that, although we did not have a successful season, the team greatly improved as the season neared an end. This year, it predicted that the Varsity team, under its experienced Senior leadership, should continue Linden's reputation as a county baseball power. Credit should be given to Coach Catale and the hard-working Varsity and J.V. squads.

Richie Hudson gets set to "blast one out of the park!"

As a closing remembrance of the senior year, nineteen hundred sixty-two, the annual senior prom was held on the eleventh of May, in the main ballroom of the Military Park Hotel in Newark.

Entering at nine, the seniors danced to the lovely music of the Michael Forman Orchestra. They supped at midnight by candlelight and enjoyed every enchanted moment of it—until two in the morning.

Entering a wonderful evening.

With Irene M. and Larry H., Seniors dance the night away.

Golf is quickly becoming the most popular participator sport in the nation. In just two years the membership of our team rose from ten to nearly thirty! And, as usual, Linden High exhibited her superiority by producing two state champs: Dennis Troy and Jeff Haltman. We lost these two stars through graduation, but next year shows promise of an equally fine team.

With a resounding smash, our tennis team achieves a successful season. In this game, great stamina and split-second timing are the required essentials. The teams, under the direction of Miss O'Connor and Mr. Stokes, perfect their swings and aim for accuracy.

examinations and gift day

Believe me it doesn't matter how you look at it!

"How to Become Valedictorian" by Jack Costa.

Yea! Great! Hurrah! Quite a change, isn't it? It's gift day. Although it follows close behind Exams, it doesn't arouse the same emotions. Now people cheer and yell for the students getting awards and the athletes getting school letters.

Gift day is virtually the end of the school year, short of graduation. On gift day students receive awards for their contributions to the clubs and sports of Linden High School. It is Linden's way of showing its appreciation for their time and work.

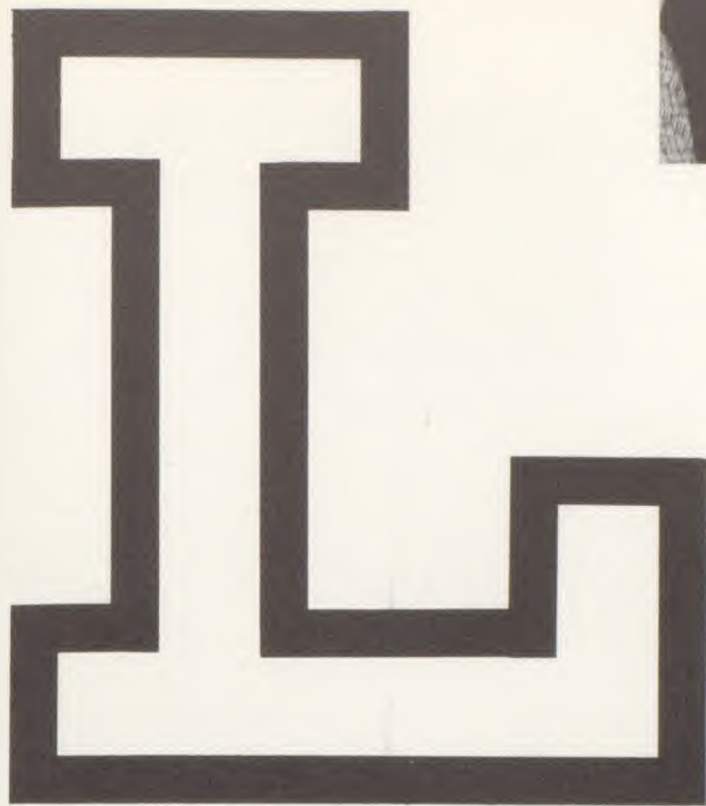

Ssh! Be quiet! Shut up! These words and emotions are especially heard at a particular time of year. It is that time of year when people must study, memorize, and give up sleep and food. What time is that, you ask? Exam time, silly! Seniors, juniors, and sophomores share the same dread of this time of year. They can't wait for school to end but, they could wait forever for exams. As these pictures show students study (?) for Exams but sometimes it just doesn't help.

in memoriam

Richard Eley

Richie

Transferred from Marist High School, Bayonne; Teens for Safe Driving 3; Spanish 3; Barn Dance Decorations 3; Prom Decorations 3; Chemistry 4.

Richard Eley's sudden and untimely death on Monday, November 12, 1962, shocked all his many friends and classmates. Richie's personality, sense of humor, and friendliness will be missed by all. His red hair and freckles combined with his talents as a good dancer and outstanding bowler will leave his mark at Linden High School.

Richie came to Linden High from Bayonne's Marist High School in 1961. His name became identified with the following activities at Linden High School: Spanish Club, Chemistry Club, and Teens for Safe Driving.

Now that Richard has passed on, we the living must remember him as he was, a spirit of joy and happiness and a friend to all. In respect and friendship to him, we now dedicate this in Memoriam.

Linden's delegates to Boys' State and Girls' State are Ron Mopsick, Jackie Thomas, Ray Molski, and Claire Schoonmaker.

Although we realize that each student is outstanding in his own way, several of our class members have been rewarded for their achievements. Those pictured here are representatives of our class and are to be congratulated for bringing honor to themselves and to their class.

Talented musicians Marty Fogel, Tom Sadlowsky, and Fred Goleme—Marty was a member of All-State Region II Band, Tom a member of All-State Orchestra, and Fred a member of All-State Choir.

John Charles, our great All-State Football halfback, remembers his success.

One score and eighteen years ago, our town-fathers brought forth in this city a new high school conceived in education and dedicated to the proposition that students and teachers are not created equal.

Now, as we, the class of 1963, are graduated and enter into adult life and higher education, we do hereby establish this, our first and last will and testament.

Arthur Gutkin leaves his apple-polisher to Bruce Resnik.

Iona Silpe bequeaths her size "11" gym sneakers (sails included) to any girl who can fill them.

Monica Devlin wills her tomato-colored hair to Kathy Deem, who really has no use for it.

Jeannie Walter wills her gym locker and contents to Fred Vaina.

Richie Baron, Carole Baker, Joe Bera, and Georgia Bergan will Mr. Barr's 8:15 shift to the lucky juniors who will get it next year.

Claire Schoonmaker leaves her famous last words, "Good Grief!" to next year's Cynosure Editor-in-Chief.

P.S. and D.P. leave two sets of ear plugs to the girls who stand next to Virginia in choir next year.

Leonard Matluck bequeaths his permanent seat in office detention to John Doblaz.

Rynk, Cook, Cerasa, Sharo, Albanese, Kuznetzow, Wilkie, Wieggers, Higgins, Molski, Kornas, Malle, Polachek Sillup, Keane, Matluck, and Lipton will, respectively, "Rinky-Dink, Wild Bill, José, Snuffy, Yak, Kuzzy, Stork, Wig, Nurd, Moe, Korn, Guaty, Hamburger, Big John, Queeny, The Farmer, and Camel."

The Senior Barn Dance Decorating Committee bequeaths our famous "limbo" poles to next year's Senior class.

Dennis Lenzion and Joe Komorowski will a copy of How to Dodge Apples Without Really Trying to next year's cafeteria corps.

Jeff Moritz finally leaves.

Richard Casciano wills one joke—but he won't mention it.

Richie Kozak bequeaths to any enterprising junior, one senior ring which remains in Warinanco Park as an everlasting monument to a friendly game of football.

Ellen Hebel and Alice Kornmeyer cordially leave their strained vocal cords, beautiful basketball uniforms, bruises, cuts, and worries to next year's fortunate cheerleading captains.

Lorraine Florczak and Dottie Wagner will the idea of having labs in Health IV to any incoming senior who is brave enough to take up this noble cause.

Seniors of the Cynosure Editorial Staff bequeath Mr. Volz one jar of Ovaltine.

Carol Burian wills a slightly dirty Tiger suit to Charles Leonard.

Martin Sherling leaves his shining freckles to Philip Warman.

Don Sciamie, Jack Costa, and Jerry Waler donate their growing pills to little John Gibbons.

Miss Tansey's students will the smallest phonograph in the world playing, "My Heart Bleeds for You" to those of her future pupils who appreciate the finer music of life.

Will

The seniors in the 5th period gym class leave the "Amelia Earhardt Flying Club".
Richie Wilkie wills all of his "talent" in basketball to Bob Dombrowski, Ron Chase, and Buddy Firestone for the season of 1963-64.
Michael Steven Howard leaves the confusion of his name to John Martin, Thomas Martin, Wayne Martin, and Peter Mastrogiacomo.
Karen Stracey and Vicki Pivonski bequeath a "slightly-worn" record of "Soldier Boy" and a box of tissues to any junior girl whose boyfriend is in the service.
Pat Halleck, Georgianna Hoffman, and Jeanette Tuyela leave their understandable! legible! valuable! English and history notes (including some exciting doodles to keep them from being bored), to next year's Senior Commercial students.
Lenny Graziano, Ed Babulski, and Richie Casciano will a parabolic function generated by taking the long route to Math IV every day to anyone who has enough nerve to use it again.
Gary Weisbrot bequeaths a package of used golf tees to Howard Kessler.
Mary Ellen Zwonick leaves the honor of last place in our Senior Class to Maryann Zrebiek, the last Junior in the Junior Class.
Buddy Bierman leaves his mother.
In honor of his graduation, Marty Fogel wills his position of first choir clarinetist in the high school band to Louis Barr. May he use it well.
The seniors in Miss O'Connor's 5th period Math IV class bequeath her a new answer book.
Roger Walker wills his MANLY physique to Richard Ricciardelli.
Barbara Horowitz leaves a foam rubber pillow to next year's short driver ed. students.
Sue Lutz and Lenny Graziano bequeath their royal attire to next year's regal family—but, that's all, for, naturally, they'd prefer to keep their good looks.
Frank Marcus and John (vocal-talent) Jones will to Richard Seget, Frank King, and Bob Seretti, all the good times and hardships they've given Mr. "O" in the band.
Jack Costa leaves a bottle of aspirin to the future president of the senior class.
Harvey Parker bequeaths all of his colds and absentee days to any unsuspecting sophomore.
The cast of the Senior Play leave this Ramshackle Inn.
Mr. Coplan's senior chemistry thoughtfully leave to him a book: Teaching Chemistry the Easy Way to Dumb Kids for facetious Chemistry Teachers.
The athletic faction of the class of '63 wills our many walls to Walter Febick so that he may lean in comfort.
Howard Sontz and Donna Lopatin will their minds to anyone who will live up to them.
Bob Andreko leaves nothing. "I'll be back to pick up everything next year!"

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hand and seal at the city of Linden, County of Union, State of New Jersey to this our First and Last Will and Testament this day of June, 1963.

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the Senior Class of '63, the testore aforesaid, in our presence as and for their First and Last Will and Testament, and we the undersigned, as their request of each other, did hereunto subscribe our names as witness thereto at the City of Linden, County of Union, State of New Jersey, the day and year aforesaid.

our day of days

Commencement, as its name implies, is not just an ending but a beginning. An ending of our school activities, it is also the beginning of a new life and new experiences.

All school activity leads to a culmination in graduation, and no other day in school is filled with so many memories. We'll never forget the excitement, the speeches, the proud, happy, and sad feelings which abound. We know, as we stand together to sing our "Alma Mater" for the last time, we'll never forget Linden High, "loyal and true".

finis

We, the editors, would like to express our sincere thanks to all who have helped to make this year's Cynosure possible. To the cooperative student body, the faculty, and Mr. Volz, our advisor, go our heartfelt gratitude. We have found, after a year of taking the same picture seven times, lost layouts, and unidentified underclassmen, that we have had a year we'll never forget! Our hope is that our Cynosure will bring back many pleasant memories — that you will have as much fun reading it as we had preparing it.
