PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

TO THE CLASS OF 1970

You, the members of the Linden High School graduating class, have been afforded a greater role of involvement in determining the academic and policy changes that are presently in existence in our school.

The role of the high school student has now assumed greater meaning and new characteristics. The day when students showed a concern only for their own academic, athletic and social activities, is a thing of the past. High School students have in this day and age demonstrated a deep concern over national, state and local political and socio-economic problems.

The present-day high school student has joined with his college brethren in seeking a quicker entry into adult life through the lowering of the voting right from 21 to 18 years of age.

With the desire for active adult participation by high school students, teachers and administrators have had to sit down and re-evaluate their past and present administrations, educational practices and policies.

It was with this realistic need for keeping in stride with the changing signs of the times, and the full realization that positive change was a necessity if Linden High School would, in the true sense of the word, become a comprehensive high school that I, as your Principal, accepted the challenge for change.

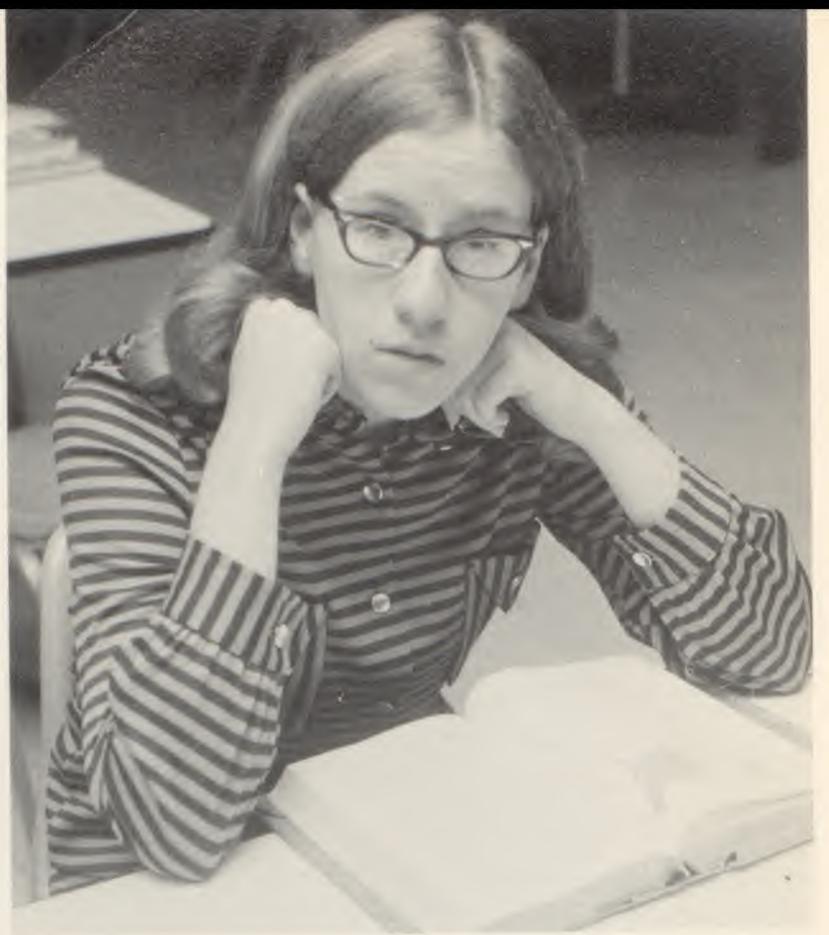

A new personality for our school had to be established. This could be accomplished by defining the school's philosophy. After many hours of self-evaluation and study, as to what Linden High School wanted to provide for each of its students, it was decided that the role of the comprehensive high school, as defined by Dr. James B. Conant in his publication, "The American High School Today," was to provide the educational needs as required by each individual student.

It is with this thought in mind that the Faculty and Administration of Linden High School approached the present school year.

My sincerest thanks and appreciation for the individual contributions made by each member of the 1970 graduating class to a most wholesome and successful school year.

My sincerest wishes for success and good health as you journey to another stage of your life span.

HERMAN E. MOPSICK,
Principal

The spiralling pace of change allows us to contemplate within our own lifetime advances that once would have taken centuries.

—Richard M. Nixon

The only persons who really changed history are those who changed men's thinking about themselves.

—Malcolm X

*Time hurries on
And the leaves that are green
Turn to brown.*

—Paul Simon

NEED FOR CHANGE

It is dangerous to go out into this hellish world, but it is still more dangerous to hide in the bushes.

—Yevgeny Yevtushenko

*Moral courage is a greater commodity than bravery in battle or great intelligence.
It is the one essential, vital quality for those who seek to change a world that yields painfully to change.*

—Robert F. Kennedy

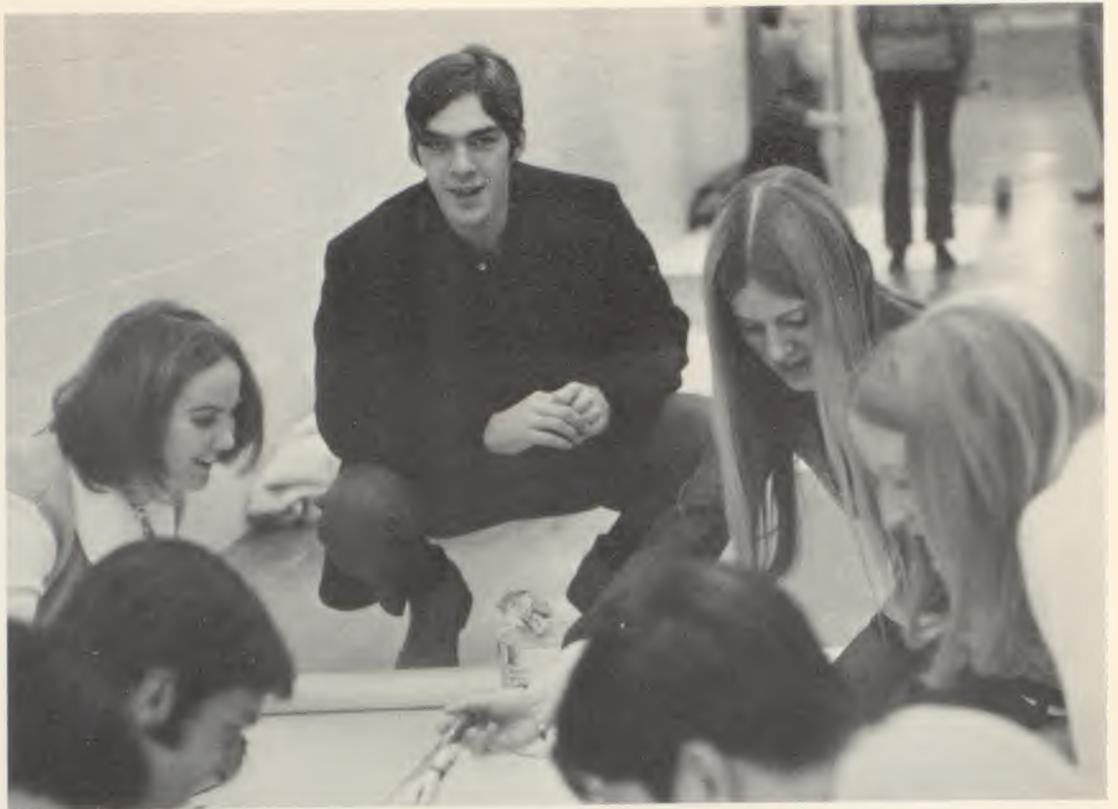

*"America needs a change;
freedom needs a chance."*

—Barry Goldwater

The society capable of continuous change will be the one that develops to the fullest its human resources, that emphasizes education, lifelong learning, and self-discovery.

—John W. Gardner

Change is the fundamental fact of our times. The last generation has seen more change in the way people live than has been seen in all of history.

—Ramsey Clark

*Change is the law of life.
Those who look only to the past or the present are sure to miss the future.*
—John F. Kennedy

If we care about America—about the grass we stand on and the air we breathe, we must make changes here.

—Bill Cosby

Rip Van Winkle slept through a revolution, but we cannot afford to remain asleep.

—Martin Luther King

*The line it is drawn, the curse it is cast;
The slow one now will later be fast,
As the present now will later be past;
The order is rapidly fading.
And the first one now will later be last.
For the times they are a'changing.*

—Bob Dylan

It could portend that the world is turning the corner in the direction of that peaceful adjustment to the breathtaking changes accompanying the scientific and technological revolution of our times, which is urgently needed.

—U Thant

Mrs. Hicks
So one of the neatest teachers around. Thanks for teaching me so much, I really learned alot. I might have caused a little trouble, but you know me I don't really mean it. Remember summer school cause I don't fogt it. Thanks for the job even though it didn't last. May God Bless R.M.A. Sincerely Carolyn

IN MEMORIAM

James Cantalupo

I am standing upon the seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean.

She is an object of beauty and strength, and I stand and watch her until at length she is only a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky meet and mingle with each other. Then someone at my side exclaims, "There, she's gone!"

Gone where? Gone from my sight, that is all. She is just as large in hull and mast and spar as she was when she left my side and just as able to bear her load of living freight to the place of her destination. Her diminished size is in me, not in her.

And just at the moment when someone at my side says, "She's gone," there are other eyes watching for her coming and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "There, she comes!"

SENIOR

In the spirit of this rapidly changing age of technology and exploration, the Seniors have decided to take a final "Senior-Trip-to-end-all-Senior-Trips." Their destination? Tranquillity Base, Moon! Before we leave, there are some things that we have to leave behind because of space and weight limitations. And since we, the 1970 graduating class of L.H.S., may never return, we hereby bequeath to the teachers and students the following items that are contained in this, our last Will and Testament:

- This year's Halloween royalty leave to next year's King, Queen, and Court three dozen eggs for self-defense in the Halloween Parade.
- Mrs. Kottish's homeroom leaves her a dictionary of four-letter words and a box of Christmas decorations for the skeleton.
- The Assembly Committee leaves Bill Ziemer the videotape highlights of the first good assembly.
- Jeff Baron leaves the nickname "Harry Hinkle" to anybody who has the misfortune of having his picture appear in the yearbook twelve times.
- Marc Garfinkle leaves Mr. Jamison a fingertip file of over-dramatic, ultra-conservative speeches for any occasion.
- Mr. Soehl's fourth period class leaves a year's supply of "snuggies" to those students who manage to be blessed as his fourth period class.
- Mary Lou Klein wills eight inches below her neck to any junior who dares.
- Howard Moyal leaves his third period Economics class with the thought of "how to respect your grandmother."
- Sharon McDonough leaves a set of mimeographed absence excuses to anyone who can beat her record.
- Miss Burd's classes leave her a three-part course in mastering the Anglo-Saxon language.
- The senior class leaves Elissa Puller's College Board scores to be divided equally among any three deserving juniors.
- Mr. Villano's homeroom leaves him a life-sized Bert Meighan doll that walks, talks, and remains after school when wound up.
- Ellen Piacente bequeaths her piece of gym flooring to any upcoming senior who'll promise to water it every night.
- Joseph Rasnek and the Linden Historical Society leave the Christmas Wing and an airplane seat to any teacher brave enough to accept them.
- The Honors History class leaves the information that no matter how correctly it is written, "Miller makes it right."
- Emily Winslow leaves her jiving, dancing, and singing to Charlene Boykins.
- Mr. Foley's fourth period English class of '69-'70 leaves him a bunch of "mea culpas" for all his faults.

Joan Wardenski wills her wiggle to anyone who can beat it.

Mr. Colabelli's first period Algebra II class leaves him test problems that weren't "like taking candy from a baby."

Kathy Wolfe and Judi Johns leave a harmonica to any long-haired freak brave enough to play "Oh Susannah!"

Miss Polizzo's French IV class leaves her something to do during language lab.

The ten graduating seniors of the L.H.S. Varsity Football team leave ten fluorescent helmets and ten pairs of white spikes to anyone who wishes to wear them on Thanksgiving Day.

Loretta Williams leaves to future senior homerooms her complete, organized plans for a successful school Christmas party.

Mr. Gaines' senior chemistry classes leave him a wall that answers him when he talks to it.

Jan and Bill leave their corner outside the darkroom to one of next year's couples.

The Cynosure Advertising Committee leaves to Mr. Haiko ten unpaid contracts, forty over-spaced boosters, and three people for the committee meetings.

Second period English IV leaves Miss Demkowicz an electromagnetic amplifier for anyone following in Nancy Rossi's footsteps.

Mr. Schiller's sousaphone section leaves him with three slightly destroyed sousaphones, and the promise that "we shall return."

The Chronicle leaves a quarter for any misspelled names.

This year's Calculus class leaves next year's Calculus class a timetable so that Mr. Elowitz won't have to keep reminding them how far behind they are.

Larry Strazzella leaves his basketball score predictions to anyone stupid enough to attempt them.

The seniors leave Miss Cahill an adding machine to help her add up their eight tests and thirty quizzes per marking period.

Rita Lance leaves Mrs. Herbster a crate of bananas.

Mr. Haiko's third period class leaves him with a sneaking suspicion.

The senior girls from third lunch leave Mr. Koslowski an empty milk carton and an empty paper bag to pick up after they're gone.

Miss Sillup's second period Office Practice class leaves her a "mailable letter."

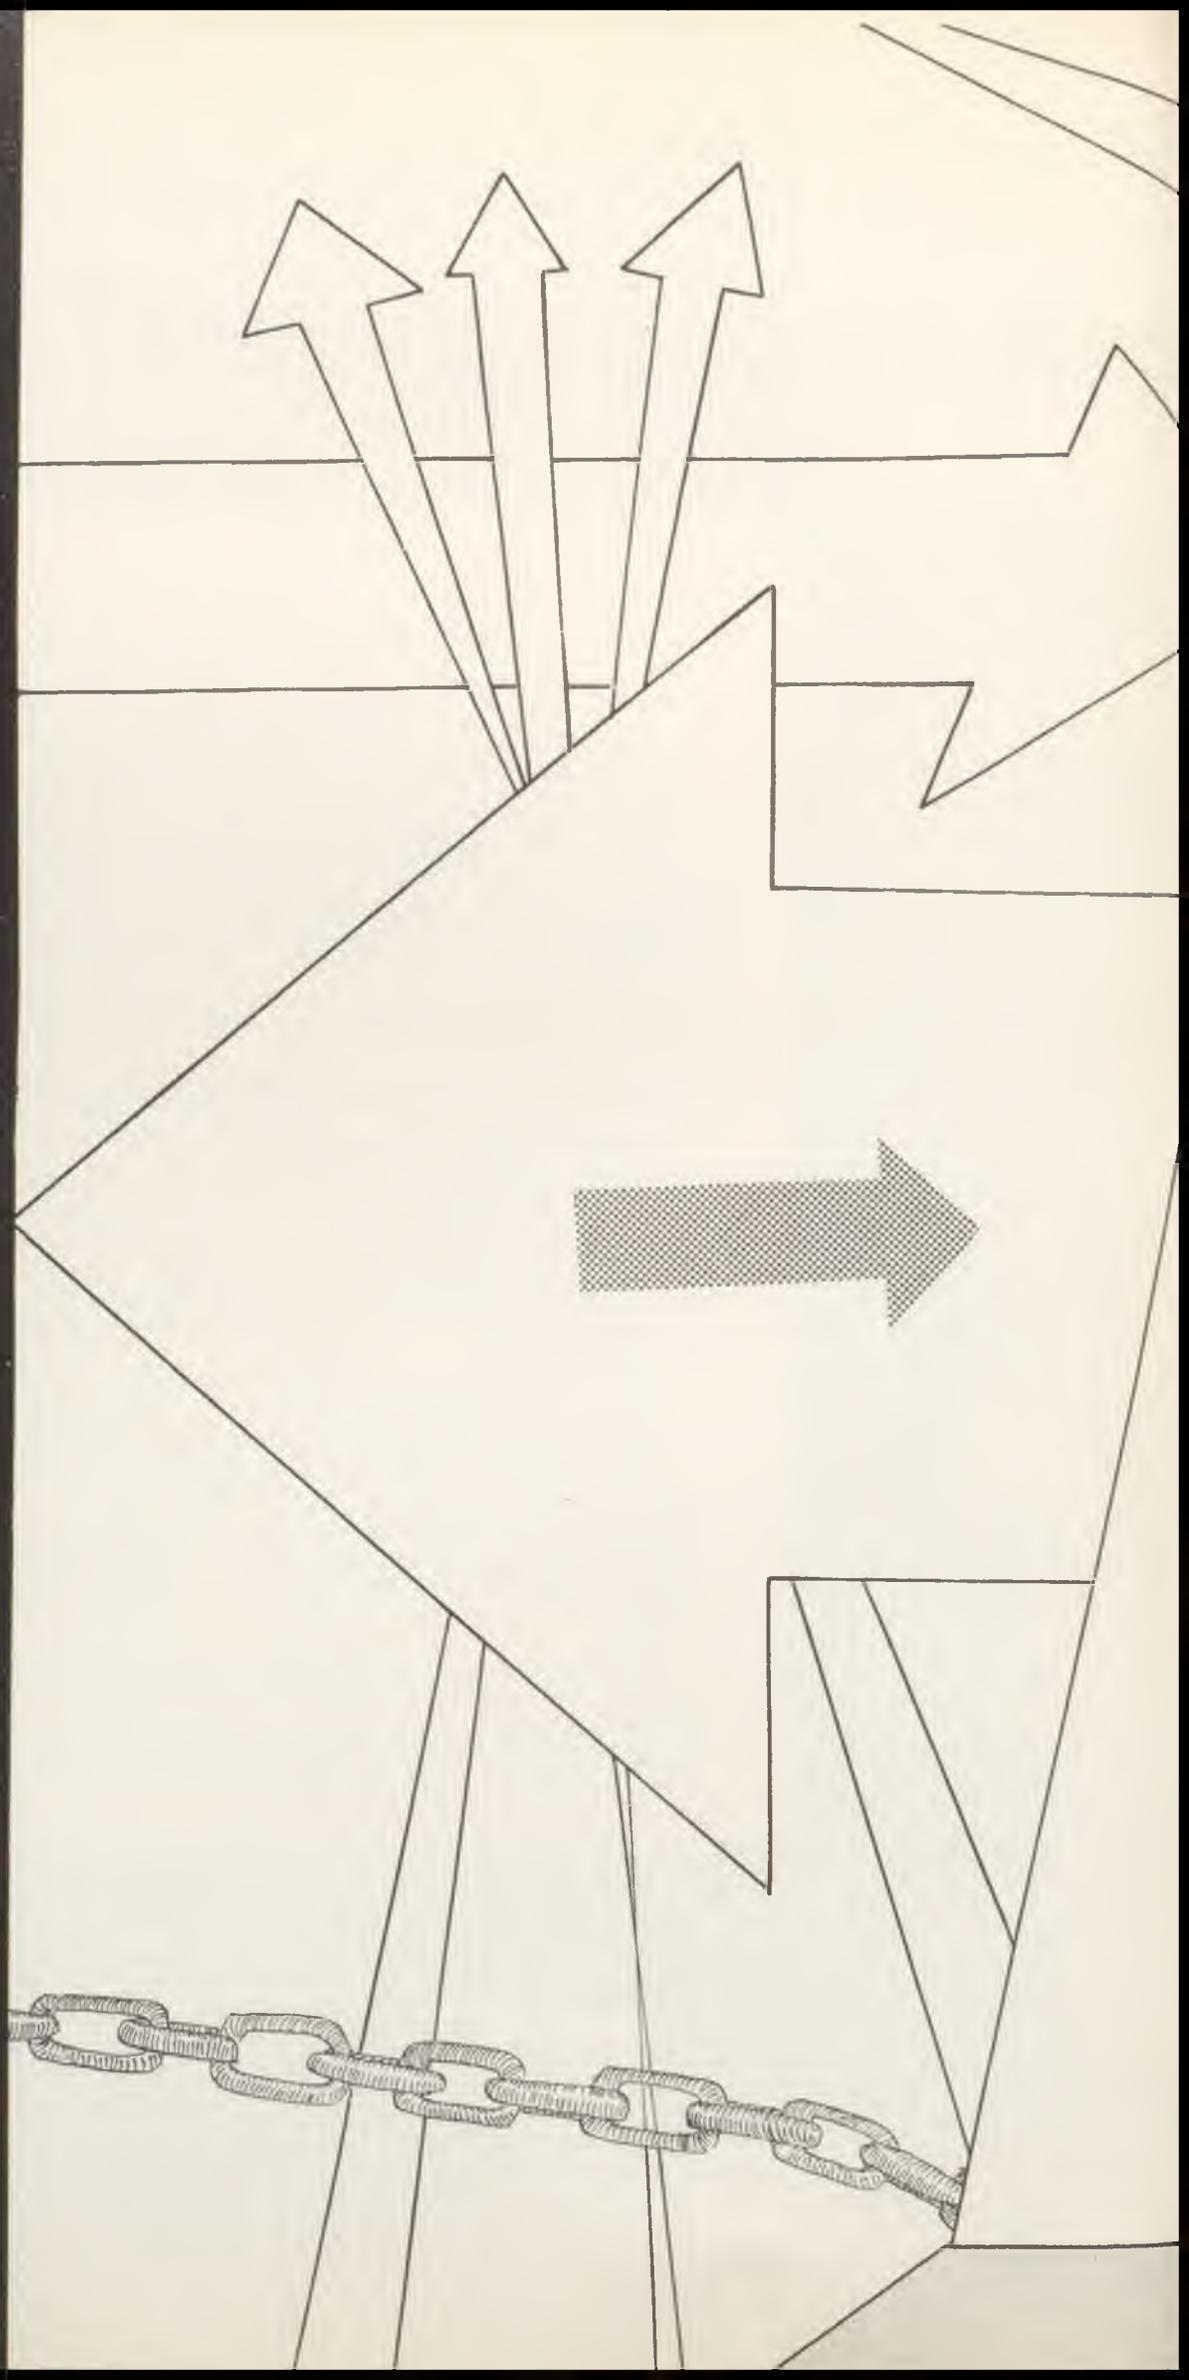

Tuesday and Thursday first period gym classes leave Mr. Hoagland a stereo recording of the "Hogan's Heroes" theme song.

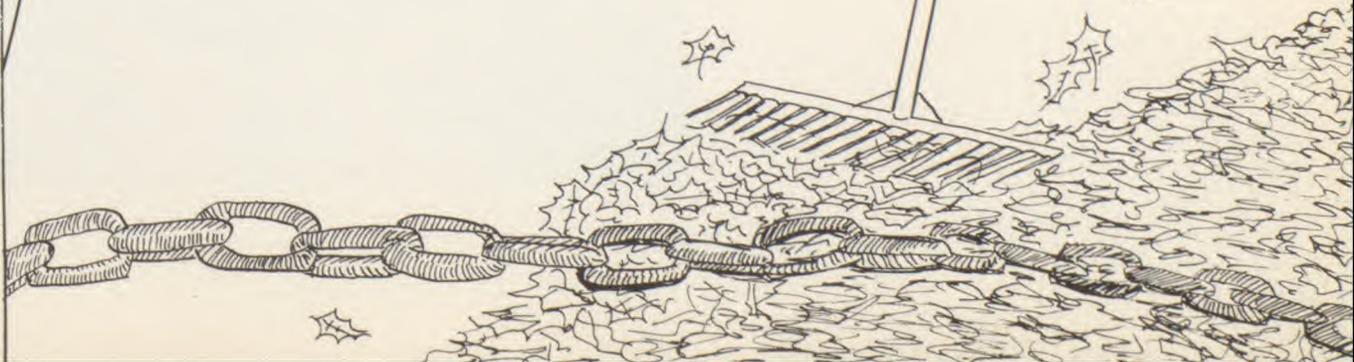

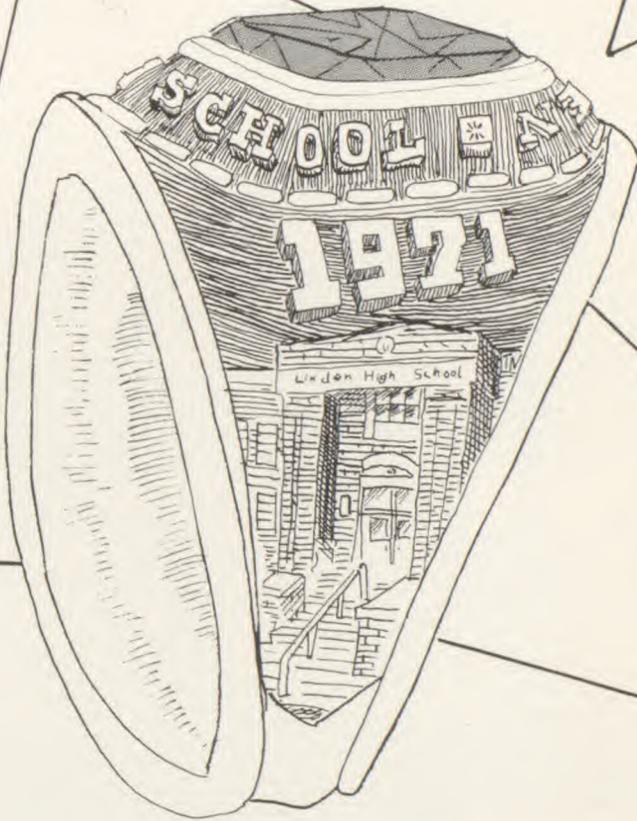

The seniors will Mr. Mopsick some "Christmas gifts in June."

And so we leave you this will of the Class of '70, signed and certified by the members of that Senior Class.

Thanks for everything you taught me this year. At first I thought it would be hard but it turned out real good.

Good luck!

WE BELIEVE:

- That faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life;
- That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations;
- That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise;
- That government be of laws rather than of men;
- That earth's great treasure lies in human personality; and that service to humanity is the best work of life.

Linden High's baseball team had a disappointing 7-12 record this year. A four-game winning streak was broken by a loss to Westfield which ended the team's hopes for a .500 season. Fully half of this year's varsity lettermen were seniors, but one bright spot for next year is Ken Penczak. Ken had the lowest ERA of the entire pitching staff.

Although this year's track team had a heart-breaking season, there were several outstanding athletes on the squad. Record-breaking Stan Ciemnecki helped lead his team to its sole victory by earning a triple. Other team support came from pole vaulter Bruce Collins, two miler Vic Fortkiewicz, and Greg Koluch running the mile.

GOLF

The golf team's 3-9 record was disappointing, but there is hope for the future. Of the varsity lettermen, only two were seniors and the top six included two sophomores and two juniors. With more practice and future tournament action, the prospects for the Linden High golf team seem promising.

SENIOR-FACULTY BASKETBALL GAME

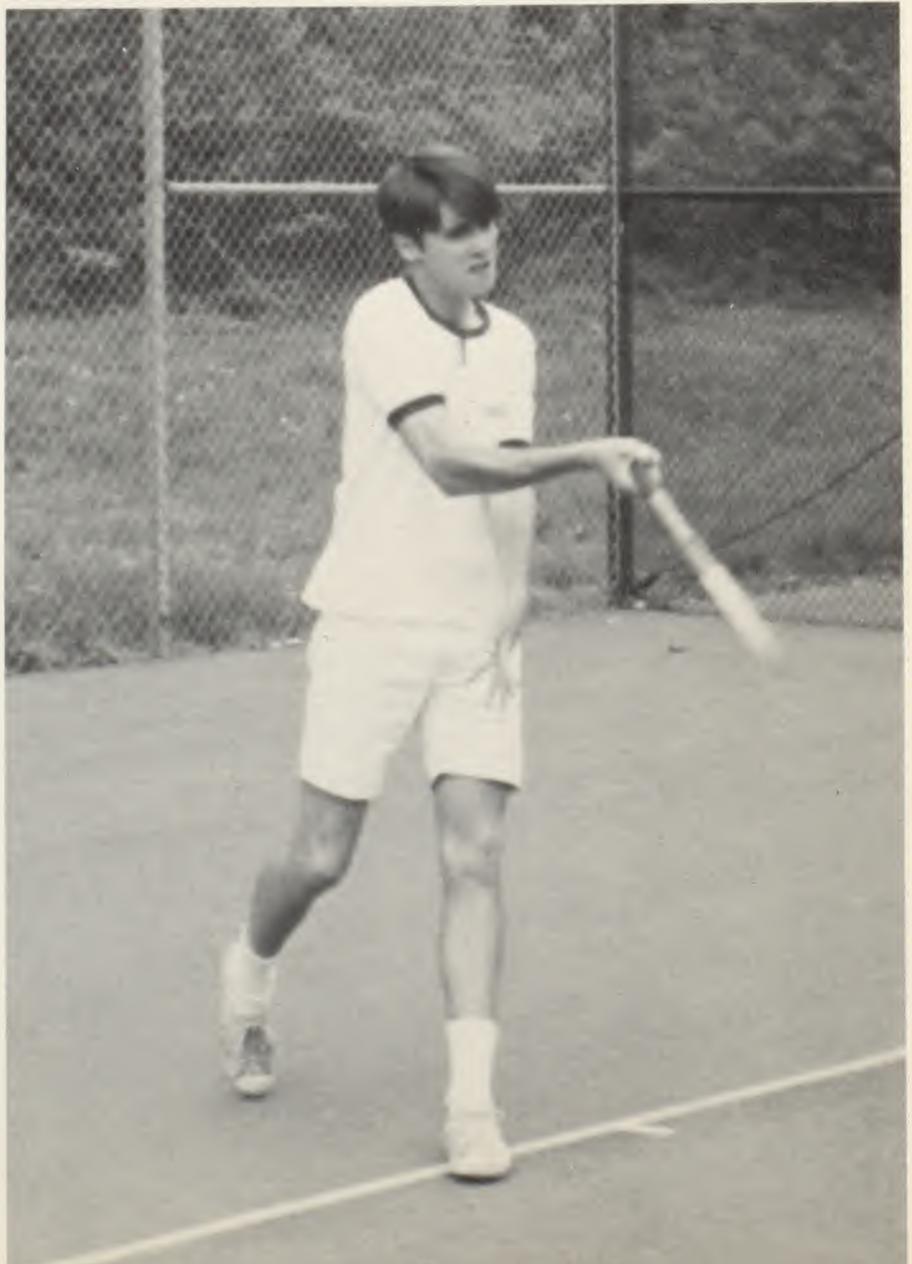

Seniors will never live it down. They lost to the faculty in the annual Senior-Faculty Basketball Game. Senior girls urged on the senior boys as they put up a good fight for the victory. Junior girls cheered the teachers on to another show of success.

The girls' team, coached by Miss Anne O'Connor and captained by first singles player Laura Lee Wesh, ended the year with an impressive 6-2 record. Because they are losing only one senior, Shelley Hartz, they can look forward to an equal or better season.

The boys' team rolled off to a very good start with 5 wins and 1 loss but encountered stiff competition from Pingry and Scotch Plains. Under the guidance of their new coach, Angelo Callegher, and with the superb playing of their captain, Glenn Martinson, the boys acquired an 8-7 record.

JUNIOR PROM

Visions of the first Junior Prom held outside of the school filled the minds of all Juniors as they participated in selling tickets to see Gone With the Wind. This project netted over a thousand dollars towards this goal. March 20 finally came and the excitement was at its peak when the Romeo and Juliet were picked out of a box by Jackie Husosky. Steve Yesinko and Joan Edwards were respectively honored with these titles.

A SPANISH ODYSSEY

SENIOR FOLLIES

Linden High has proved to all that she is loaded with talent as a result of two delightfully entertaining assemblies. Directed by Mr. Mohr and Mr. Kozolowski, the annual Talent Show got under way. Bands ranging from rock to jug vibrated the seats of the auditorium. Other performers sang songs ranging from an opera to a song from Funny Girl.

Mr. Canda's Spanish students entertained us through "2001: A Spanish Odyssey." Tom Babbitt accompanied Rose DeLeo while she sang "Boy From Ipanema." Other attractions included acrobatic stunts, a scene from Don Quixote and various fast-paced dances.

The Senior Follies was made up of a series of short skits mocking out the teachers. It was open to all Seniors and their parents and was a big hit.

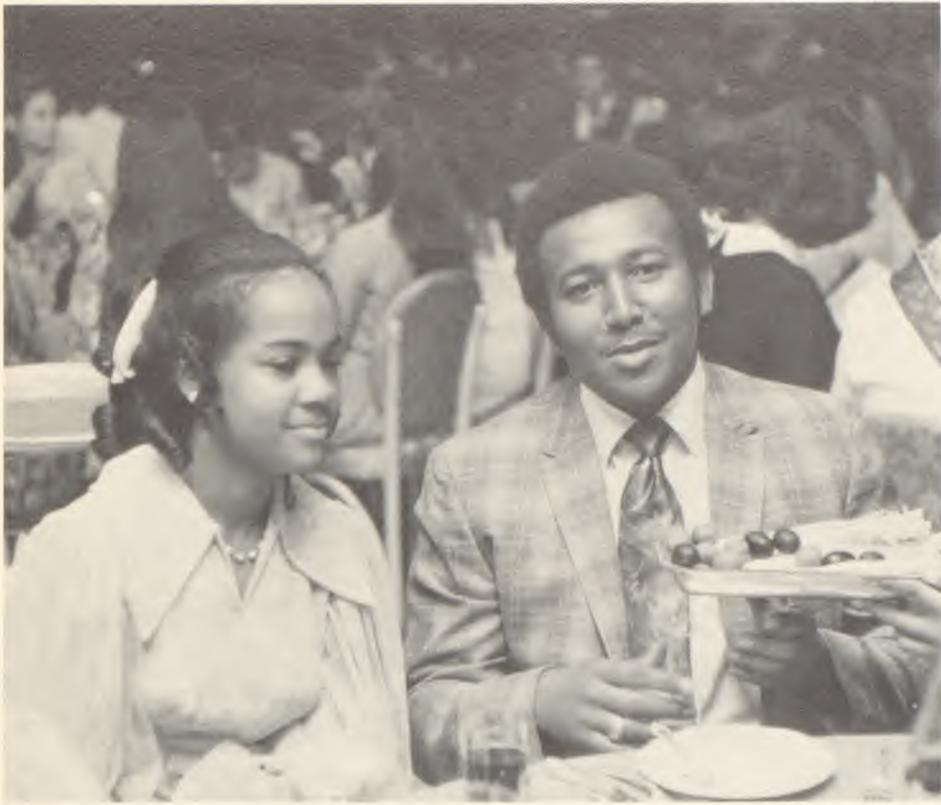

TALENT SHOW

SENIOR BANQUET

The Senior Banquet is one of the last events that brings the senior class together in such large numbers. The Short Hills Inn catered to one of the largest turnouts a Senior Banquet has ever had.

Ed Stagich and Kyle Ignar announced the Senior Poll and, afterwards, Mitchel Gardiner and Lee Byrnes read the Senior Will.

SENIOR PROM

Although it rained on June 5, it didn't dampen the spirits of the Senior Class. The social event of the year was held at the Winfield Scott Hotel with a capacity crowd of over six hundred students.

GRADUATION

Seniors will never forget June 17, 1970 because this is the memorable date that they graduated Linden High School. The theme of the annual commencement was "CHANGE," the same as in the Cynosure this year. The welcome was delivered by John McConlogue, Senior Class President, and Donald Krueger, Student Council President, awarded the first honors. Elissa Puller, Valedictorian, expressed her thoughts in "New Life for Democracy," and Marion Judy Urman, the Salutatorian, delivered a speech on "The Individual Role in a Changing Society."
