to everything . . .

to everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven. a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to seek, and a time to cast away;
a time to keep, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

in memoriam

when we lost raymond stokes, we said good-bye to an era in linden education. this man taught the children of linden for over forty years. mr. stokes knew all levels of education from elementary to high school because he taught them.

in a world that seems at times to be motivated by desire for personal acclaim, raymond stokes offered living proof that a true teacher is one who cannot be created merely by awarding a college degree. his one goal was the education of his young people.

the feeling of loss at mr. stokes' death is not confined to his students, but is felt also by the many teachers he helped. he was more than just a good man and teacher—he was a teacher's teacher.

geoffrey chaucer's description of an ideal teacher, written six hundred years ago, could serve as raymond stokes' epitaph:

not one word spoke he more than was his need and short and quick and full of high good sense full of moral virtue was his speech and gladly would he learn and gladly teach top left: the tiger offensive line set to charge. extreme left: john riggi crushes the "enemy." bottom left: precise timing between center glenn miller and quarterback walt beriont. top right: kevin collins (36) displays fancy footwork. middle right: jerrod watson sprints past a wouldbe defender. extreme right: walter beriont punts the ball away. bottom right: ed ciemniecki is stopped cold.

another outstanding season was wrapped up by our linden tigers. due to strong school support, fine coaching by tony muccia, and a positive attitude in the minds of the players, a record of 7-1-1 was accomplished.

there were two climaxes during the '71 season. in a brilliant contest between linden and rahway, the tigers set a new scoring mark of sixty-one points. while playing cedar ridge, linden achieved its first shut-out of the season, the score being 28-0.

unfortunately, the tigers are not "all-weather men". lhs suffered a tie with scotch plains and a loss to union because of heavy rain.

as usual, several of our players received recognition for their superb abilities. all county honors were awarded to seniors jim stampfle, jerry brazaitis, ed ciemniecki, walter beriont, kevin talbert, glenn miller, and bob ignar.

getting their first real taste of football, the jv tigers came out of the season with a 1 and 5 record. coaches ted thompson and paul blue attribute the mediocre record to inexperience and lack of school support. because games were played after school, many were cancelled. despite a tough beginning, the boys will continue to fight and be ready when the varsity bench is open.

in years to come, the students of linden high will remember with nostalgia the excitement of those saturday football games. part of that excitement was due to the marching band which did a half-time routine every week this past season, the band members spent four hours a week running through the drills for their performance on saturday, under the direction of mr. schiller, the "musical tigers" performed such popular numbers as "for all we know" and "another day."

although there was an occasional collision between a clarinet and a saxophone, all members ended in perfect harmony.

displaying the flag are jackie givens and barbara aklonis dressed in orange, black, and white, the color guard leads the half-time routines carrying the flag and welcome banner. skilled in maneuvering their rifles, the girls toss and twirl their guns to the accompaniment of the band.

soccer

varsity soccer has seen better years. although the team made a minute improvement over the previous year, it still managed to be classified as subpar.

the team was, however, very predictable. it lost the games it was supposed to lose, tied the games it was supposed to win, and won the games it played in overtime. the team's victims, none of which was considered to be a powerhouse, all lost by the margin of one goal, while its victors beat Linden by margins of from one goal to five.

coach garrett diligently primed his players but the thinly-talented team met futility more often than success. the season was finished with a 3-10-2 record. the determined players fought well together and outhustled their opponents, but in most cases were simply outclassed by their foes' relative experience.

two standouts on this year's team were captain and goalkeeper gary cuttler and fullback bob alvarez, both of whom were placed on the all-county soccer teams.

it was a sad season for the j.v.'s this year. finishing the season with a 0-5-1 record, the team could not gain the necessary ground to walk on. according to coach joe placa, the game of soccer is one which takes experience, endurance and practice. as the boys play more, the plays will come easier and more automatically.

the cross country squad, under the supervision of mr. callegher, experienced another disappointing season.

after losing to a strong westfield team in the opening meet, the linden team regained enough composure to upset roselle.

unfortunately, for the rest of the season, every runner on the team was plagued with various injuries which hampered the team's performance.

injuries which hampered the team's performance. two of the senior standouts on this year's squad were captain bill ostenfeld and wayne pfitzenmayer. bill deserves special recognition for placing first in eight races and coming close to surpassing the school's record in the two-and-a-half-mile race. wayne, primarily a wrestler, goes out for cross country to keep in shape and to add depth to the team. wayne runs a good two and a half race, but finds strength in shorter distances.

another runner not to be forgotten is junior ernie klein. ernie started the season as one of the team's top runners, having times ranging from 14 to about 14:15. unfortunately, klein suffered several pulled muscles and was unable to regain his form.

FREEDOM is the right to choose: the right to create for oneself the alternatives of choice. Without the possibility of choice and the exercise of choice a man is not a man but a member, an instrument — a thing."

the heat was beginning to scorch my cheeks; beads of sweat were gathering in my eyebrows. i had disagreeable sensations — especially in my forehead, where all the veins seemed to be bursting through the skin. i couldn't stand it any longer, and took another step forward. i knew it was a fool thing to do; i wouldn't get out of the sun by moving on a yard or so. but i took that step, just one step, forward.

coach thompson's j.v. team played to a 5-8 season, they relied heavily on the hitting of juniors joe mannuzza and mike luttati and sophomores dave calladine and dom russo.

track

the l.h.s. track team sprinted their way to a 2-8 record, two outstanding members of the team were senior bill roach and junior derek lewis.

in the state tournament, senior bill roach placed in the 100 yd. dash. derek lewis' specialty is the quarter-mile race; he won first place in the watchung tournament.

looking forward to improvement of facilities and renovation of the athletic field, coaches paul blue and paul garret remain optimistic about next year's prospects.

tennis

coached by mr. callegher, the boys' tennis team ended their season with a 6-11-1 record. standouts on this year's team were co-captains pete vigushin, howie sourifman and junior, brian stolar.

this year's drawback was the players' inexperience. coach callegher's optimism remains unflinching.

golf

ending with a 3-11 record, this year's golf team must look ahead to new talent for the future. with only one senior, number one player john chaplik, the team had to concentrate on building up the skills of the four sophomore and three junior team members. next year, john kuchar will be depended on to fill the gap chaplik will leave, with sophomore rich sauerwein being counted on as a good future prospect.
