Every eye catches a different light. Every mind sees in a unique way.

Reflected in a face are emotions and attitudes. These may fade from the outside but grow within when one interprets and remembers; it's a part of experience.

Gwendolyn Powell

It was easier then. A new day meant a new discovery. You could grasp at dandelion fluff or bring home a stray dog and understand that right away.

But some things were too large, too shadowy to comprehend. Shrugging "Maybe when I'm older," you promptly forgot and never noticed the time that brought you here.

LHS is a tiled shell that lives only through the people who pass in its halls. Some give it something: a gum wrapper, a personal testimonial on the walls. Railings etched by endless hands have no choice but to wait for many more.

Success is intangibly sweet. Whether you watch someone you care for or do something yourself, victory brings the greatest pride.

The need to understand that pride as well as the need for glory must be behind any successful drive to win. It can mean as much to close your locker without all your books falling out as to star in a basketball game.

Heidi Bebout rejoices over a Linden touchdown.

Losing is harder than winning, they say. You have to know what you feel.

On high school fields of play the lines of victory and defeat are clearly defined. To know and be ready for the day when things will not be so clear — that is maturity.

There are those times in life that you know will come. You know that December will bring holidays, summer will bring vacation, and one June will bring your graduation. Some expected moments bring disappointment; they have not fulfilled your expectations. But, for the most part, the achievement of a long-time goal is a glorious experience made all the richer by the time spent in anticipation.

Sometimes a few seconds in time will be longer remembered than those long - awaited events. A look, a surprise, or a misinterpreted action can lead to an experience that will be a memory treasured as well as a lesson learned.

In a sea of people all alone, you are yourself, unique.

Mr. Koslowski, Ron Wolman, Dawn Robbins, Patti Mizak, and Jose Pubchara sing holiday carols in the halls.

Look around. This is all a part of what you have, what you are, and what you will be.

Life is learning when to hold on and when to let go. Now you must decide what you will take and what you will leave. The ways you will use what you have gathered here will depend on what you have gained through experience.

SPORTS

Through sports you can fulfill some very basic human desires. An innate need pushes you forward to compete and achieve. The amount of sweat and strain you endure is small in comparison with the self-satisfaction you derive from working for physical perfection.

Football

The 1972 football team fought its way to a 3-5-1 season. The team lacked the experience so prominently displayed in the 1971 team, and it also lost many more fine players, especially, quarterback Paul Holderbaum, through injury and illness this year. Finally the team was obliged to use a sophomore, Clint Beriont, as this year's starting quarterback. Experience was the main ingredient missing, but there will be twenty-one returning varsity lettermen next year for a well-rounded team. The school was also in the process of changing from the Independent to the Group Four Watchung Conference, a much more difficult and demanding position.

Though there was only a small number of seniors on the team, there were an outstanding few who were acknowledged outside Linden. Defensive back John Callahan made the WJDM all-star team, and defensive lineman Henry Gavan was chosen for the Group Four Central Jersey team. Co-captain Dave Barbarich, co-captain Ken Hetem, Frank Rose, and Pat Colicchio were the senior members who, according to head coach Mr. Muccia, comprised one of the best offensive lines in the county.

J.V. Football

Jack Mahar passes as Keith Kleniewski and Bevly Allen set up front line against Rahway.

George Manson runs into solid Rahway defense.

The team lacked manpower, so most players worked on both offense and defense, and a few of the J.V. gridders played a double role by also competing in varsity football. The lack of men did not affect their games, as is evident in the 5-3 record compiled, and next year a strong line of players will move up to an assured varsity standing.

Twirlers Irene Joback, Ellen Grygotis, Nancy Duffy, and Sue Lewis brave the cold at the Thanksgiving game.

As in years past, the color guard, composed of seven seniors and three juniors, entertained at half-time during football season and before home basketball games. But the key word for this year's squad was "new." There were many new faces on the squad, including a new advisor, Mrs. Rosivak. They also ordered new uniforms which, unfortunately, arrived after football season.

Banner carriers April Austin and Alice Ronge.

The '72-'73 cheerleaders were a constant source of pride to Linden High. Practices began early in the summer, and by August the amount of skill and coordination achieved by the group of five juniors and nine seniors was such that they took first place in the competition held at the American Cheerleading Association summer camp at Monmouth College. Throughout the football and the basketball seasons, squad members continued their fine work by keeping Linden spectators' spirits high and entertaining them with their attractive military cheers and difficult acrobatic stunts.

Competition last spring was keener than ever for the limited number of places on the Tigerette squad. That fact was apparent to anyone who saw the girls entertain in the fall. Their charm, grace, and coordination, as they performed their routines, was a definite asset to LHS half-time fare.

The Pep Squad made many significant contributions to extra-curricular life at LHS this year. In addition to their faithful attendance at football and basketball games, the girls gave the teams support through signs and banners they made and constant cheering and chanting. The Pep Squad also enhanced the atmosphere at the Kick-off and Halloween dances by doing an excellent job decorating the gym for both occasions.

Members of the pep squad join in with the cheerleaders.

Third row: Margie Buban, Cyndi Kondracki, June Palermo, Patty Jerome, Darlene Trubilla, Marcia Horowitz.

One of the LHS band feature attractions, Kenny Fairfax.

Twirler Kathy Handzo looks perturbed.

In the fall of 1972, the Linden High Marching Band began to take on an identity. After years of neglect by the student body, the core of half-time activity finally received some recognition. More students joined the band this season. Most of them were sophomores who came up from the junior highs with a good foundation of musical training. The increased attention centered on the band did not end there. Those in the stands also took notice of the musicians. As band director Wallace Schiller later commented, the fans actually applauded their band this year — something Mr. Schiller hadn't encountered in previous years. But Linden had good reason to be proud. For the second consecutive year, the Linden High Marching Band took first place in the small bands division at the competition held in New Brunswick, proving that they deserve the support and respect of the rest of the school.

Tigerette co-captain Barbara Wallace.

Cheerleader Pat Butler is caught by surprise.

This year's twirling squad spent many hours practicing and revising its routines. The ten squad members were a popular half-time attraction. One of the co-captains, Faith Urban, aided by advisor Mrs. Alice Topoleski, learned an especially difficult routine specifically for the Thanksgiving game. The contribution made by all the girls to Linden's pep section is a prime example of the school spirit that is still alive at LHS.

The tuba section: Cheryl Chengeri, Dawn Pavlick, Rich Faughnan.

To satisfy the appetites worked up by Linden football and basketball fans and to help cheer the team on, the Boosterettes were on the scene, as they are every year, selling refreshments, shakers, and programs. Members of the Linden Booster Club selected the girls in the spring of '72 on the basis of their personality and their selling ability. These selected girls displayed their ingenuity this year by making new uniforms for themselves.

Varsity Soccer

It was a very tough year for LHS soccer: the Varsity team could not manage to win a game. A lack of scoring power and an overwhelming number of injuries were the main reasons for the squad's poor showing. Toward the end of the season, however, the Varsity players showed their true colors in close and well-fought games against Roselle Catholic and Kenilworth, losing the former in double overtime and the latter in the last minute of play. Next year's team will be more balanced and experienced since only one starting member, senior captain Jim Kaus will not return.

 have much trouble.
 I enjoyed having you

J.V. Soccer

John Gallant eludes a Carteret defenseman.

Dave Sauer loses the ball to a defender.

The J. V. Soccer team went through a frustrating schedule this year ending with a 0-7-3 record. Coached by Mr. James Iozzi, the booters lost 4 out of their 7 defeats by only one goal. The missing talent was shifted to a needy Varsity squad, causing the lack of a one-unit team.

Cross Country

The LHS Cross Country team, under the first-time coaching of Mr. Chmielak, had a very productive season. Led with impressive victories by co-captains Bob Birch and Jim LeBlanc, the squad compiled the best record in Linden High history, 2-7.

Coach Chmielak said that this was the rebuilding year, in that there was only one senior on the team. Only Bob Birch will not return next year and the experience of the other junior and sophomore runners can only add to the team's success.

Varsity Basketball

The starting line-up.

The consistent performance and deadly shot of Al Bakunas.

Larry McGhee, a major contributor to the Tigers.

From in close, 'Kuch' could not be stopped.

The varsity cagers concluded their campaign with a 16-8 record. Before gaining the U.C.T. championship, Linden crushed such area powers as Plainfield, Westfield, and Roselle. The Tigers were eliminated in the state tournament after an 81-63 loss to Weequahic.

In part, coach Wayman Everly attributed the successful season to the skill and determination of Seniors John Kuchar, Bob Mroz, and Mike LaPrete. Key Junior basketball hopefuls included Larry McGhee and Al Bakunas. All of the great individual and team performances which occurred throughout the season will long be remembered.

Junior, Ed Eilbacher tries from outside.

J. V. Basketball

The J. V. Tigers finished the season with a 14-5 record. Fifth-seeded in the county, the cagers lost to Roselle in the third round of the U.C.T., 64-59. The team considered its victory over Jeff in the tournament one of their best games since they had lost to Jeff twice before. Coach G. Imbriacco was especially satisfied with the efforts of Randy Guerra, Randy Jenkins, Silas 'Clyde' Hudson, and George Manson, all future varsity prospects.

Randy Guerra guards the ball.

Varsity Wrestling

Bruce Tango is following his opponent's set out.

Greg Beriont uses the far-arm-near-leg technique.

Compiling a record of 7-4, the 1973 Linden High grapplers had the first winning season in the history of Linden High wrestling. Placing first in the Christmas Tournament was Greg Beriont, while Ken Hetem came in second and Rich Sawerwein third in their respective weight classes. In the regional tournament Bruce Tango and John Placiotis took third place. The returning members plus the '73 J. V. team comprise a strong set of mat-men for next year.

J. V. Wrestling

Along with the varsity, the J. V. wrestlers also had the first winning season in their history. Placing first in the J. V. Novice Tournament was Wayne Hanns, with Jim Barbarich and Cecil Butler taking second, and Fred Moretti coming in fourth. High hopes are held by all for another winning season next year.

Wrestling Cheerleaders

Gail Slinski does an individual cheer.

Sharlene Fabrizio models the latest headgear.

Claudia Palmieri looks at the crowd while doing her cheer.

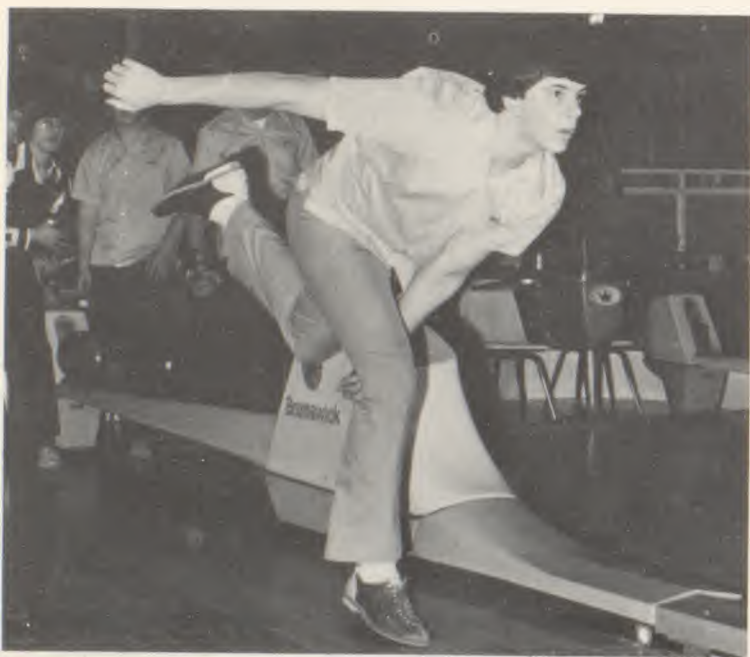

The wrestling cheerleaders squad may have been one of the factors in the success of the '73 LHS wrestlers. The girls added color to the matches as they faithfully cheered the grapplers on to victory.

Bowling

This year marked the first season of the Linden High bowling team as a varsity sport. After attaining a regular season standing of third place, the Tigers qualified for the finals in the UCC tournament with a fourth place standing. The state sectionals marked the only first-place finish for the year, with a high 572 series.

With the finals of the state tournament, the Tigers bowed into second place behind Passaic Valley. Leading the team were Art Biesiada and Dennis Ohrin, 572 and 564 respectively.

Second row: Dennis Ohrin, Jim Timmons, Marc Bloom, Robert Banasiak.

John Matusek reaches for pass from Neil Freidman.

The boys' intramural football leagues consisted of eight teams separated into two divisions. Each division played member teams to establish the division champions. The two championship teams, Seniors' Team X versus The Sophomores played to a Team X win of 36-6.

Girls' Field Hockey

After only a few practices, the Girls' Intramural Field Hockey team played one game with Cranford. Although Linden did not win, the team members played a fantastic game and put up a good fight. If nothing else, they all gained a tremendous amount of experience.

Patti Zukotynski and her opponent start the game with a "bully."

Bonnie Sue Duckman knows where it's at!

Lorraine Dzuba lines up a shot.

Girls' Basketball

The Girls' Intramural Basketball Team ended its season with a 2-2 log. The team displayed its ability in its outstanding performance on the court. Prominent players were Virginia Malek and Joanne Keller. Next year, Mrs. Topoleski plans to convert the team from intramural to junior varsity.

Joanne Keller jumps center.

Jackie Smith rushes down court.

Mrs. Topoleski advises the team.

EVENTS

Every experience is an event in itself, but during the school year there are times that are supposed to be truly outstanding. Sometimes, for some people, they are.

Kick-Off Dance and Pep Rally

Debbie Rolski, Tanya Lamar, and Lyn Swierc perform new tigerette routine.

Marilyn Cichowski enjoys herself at kick-off dance.

Brian Barnes is introduced at the pep rally.

Linden High defense waits to be introduced to crowd.

Linden High School started off the '72 football season very enthusiastically with the traditional Kick-off dance and pep rally on September 22nd, the night before the Cranford game. Coach Muccia introduced the starting lineup, the cheerleaders led the pep rally and the crowd got ready for the upcoming season. After all the initial excitement, the entire football team was sent home for its required rest, and the LHS student body finished off the evening with an informal dance.

Donna Jannett congratulates Wendy Gassler, the new '72 tiger mascot.

Dawn Durbin, Daryl Beriont, Karen Katchmer, Donna Shenosky, and Linda Nemcick.

Halloween Dance and Parade

April Austin and Jose Pubchara

On October 6 Linden High School elected the first black king and queen. The ballots were filled with self-nominated candidates vying for the ten places on the float. This was the first year that the float had only eight attendants plus king and queen as compared to the usual ten attendants plus king and queen. This year's float, chosen by way of character and looks, was accepted by most of the school as a descriptive survey of the students at Linden High School.

The float's first informal presentation to Linden was a motorcade on October 27th and a formal introduction to the school at the dance held on October 30th. As a result of the disruptions at the parade on October 31st, Mr. Mopsick recommended that Linden High School not participate in any future Halloween activities.

"Plaza Suite"

On December 13 and 14, the Drama Club presented the third act of Neil Simon's comedy, Plaza Suite. Robert Goldberg and Jeanne Trehwella starred as the couple whose daughter wanted to call off her wedding at the last minute rather than see herself and her fiancé become the same kind of people as her parents.

Norma (Jeanne Trehwella) takes a load off her feet.

Roy (Bob Goldberg) gives the bridegroom (Lee Surman) some encouragement before talking to the bride.

Jeanne Trehwella fixes Mimsy's (Virginia Huff) dress before the ceremony.

Bob Goldberg takes time out from his dilemma to read the newspaper.

The Girls' Glee Club sings under the direction of Mr. Koslowski.

Christmas Program

The annual holiday program, presented on December 19, 20, and 21, featured the Glee Club, the Girls' Ensemble, and the LHS Band and Choir. Mr. Schiller (instrumental orchestrator) and Mr. Koslowski (vocal conductor), along with their students, spent many hours in preparation and the outcome was a fine presentation of seasonal songs.

Part of the wood section: Paul D'Antico, Bob Birch, and Cathy Segal.

Pat Zukotynski, and June Palermo sing selections from Handel's Messiah.

LHS musicians blow their horns.

"Our Town"

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs discuss the state of their son's affairs.

Mr. Morgan, Emily Webb and George Gibbs

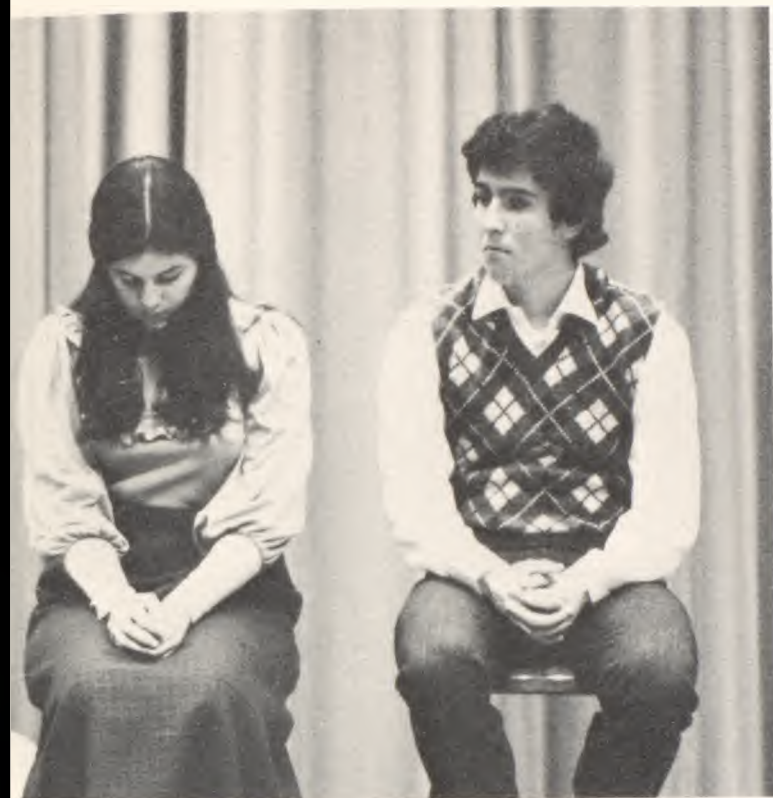

Mrs. Webb (Bonnie Sue Duckman) and Emily Webb (Debbie Green) discuss Emily's womanhood.

Professor Willard (Yetta Armstrong) informs the audience about the history of Grover's Corner, New Hampshire.

(Steve Weinberg) talk about the past and the future.

Lack of participation by the departing class forced termination of the traditional Senior Play. A retitled "all-school play" took place with proceeds still going into the senior treasury.

The cast performed Thorton Wilder's Our Town on March 16th and 17th. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Laing put untiring efforts to work on the play, and, after continued long hours of working after school, the actors' time input paid off. Well done and excellently cast, Our Town brought out Wilder's intended message — appreciate life while you have it.

Stage Manager (Paul Hahn) narrates and fills in the details of Our Town.

The Gibbsses (Dan Tarnow and JoAnn Makuch) and the Webbs (Bonnie Sue Duckman and Don Dowdye) shed tears as they leave their children's wedding.

Choir, Glee Club, and Girls' Ensemble

The vocal department of the high school is headed by Mr. Koslowski. The talented people who compose the Glee Club, Choir, and Girls' Ensemble showed their talent in the high school and the junior highs at Christmas and in the spring. The Girls' Glee Club participated in a field trip to see the opera Salome performed at Lincoln Center.

Dorothy Sherry folds the newspaper.

Late afternoon folding and early morning selling made the Chronicle Circulation staff indispensable. Staff members even performed the arduous task of tallying the 1200 ballots for this year's "New Morality Poll."

Chronicle Advertising scoured Linden and neighboring communities in search of ads for revenue. More than half the income per issue came from ads, and this staff's job consequently became increasingly important.

Co-student-body editors Donna Kranchalk and Eileen Herpich discuss ideas for the layout of the underclass section.

It took many hours to compile the 1973 Cynosure. After studying other yearbooks and attending the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Yearbook Conference, the staff was determined that their book be the best in LHS history and, more important, a unique representation of the '72-'73 school year.

Cynosure

The Cynosure typists were the life-savers of the yearbook. Before each deadline, the editors gave these girls mountains of work to be done in what seem to be an impossibly short amount of time, but each time the work was finished before the deadline. The typists are to be commended for their performance, dedication, and, above all their good nature in doing what might be considered a pretty thankless job.

CYNOSURE TYPISTS — Full time: Diane Duffy. Part time: Mary Ann Colella and Sandra Miliziano.

The Cynosure circulation staff was responsible for getting the book to the students. Early in the year, the girls went to the homerooms taking orders for the Cynosure. About mid-year, they were busy collecting money. And finally in June, they distributed the yearbook, thus culminating the efforts of all the Cynosure staffs.

In Tenebris

Combining the talents of many students, In Tenebris, the school literary magazine, represented the thought, ideas, and hopes of the student body through imaginative poems, stories, drawings, and pictures. The staff faced the difficult task of sorting the contributions and deciding on those to be used. With patience, ability, and a substantial amount of work, they compiled the magazine. Miss Demkowicz and Mrs. Engleman gave constructive advice and criticism. Special appreciation is due the co-editors, Bonnie Kimmelman and Kim Quaid for their dedication.

Student Council

Since the dress code has been changed, this year's council was able to focus on other issues. The council's accomplishments included a homeroom warning bell, an all-school play instead of the conventional senior play, new foods in the cafeteria, and the sale of T-shirts and nightshirts. Also, at long last, the school installed a bicycle rack near the Girls' Gym.

Guest speaker Thomas Long, Freeholder and assistant Superintendent of Linden Schools, discusses important county issues.

A typical Political Science Club meeting.

Joe Winnicki, deep in thought about the possibilities of a political career.

The Political Science Club strove to present a variety of views of the world of politics. Members of all major political parties spoke at the meetings. One of the speakers was Freeholder Thomas Long, who gave an informative talk on government at the county level. Other activities included a President game, in which members represented Agnew, Wallace, and Kennedy in an attempt to show what may happen in 1976, and the distribution of literature for registration and voting rights.

French Club

This year the French club planned various programs including French bingo, a guest speaker, and seasonal socials. At the annual holiday party, the French Club Players presented "A Charlie Brown Christmas" in French. Afterwards, fondue was served, and gifts were distributed to all members.

The club also went on a trip to New York to see Moliere's comedy, Don Juan, and sold stationery as a fund-raising activity. As a community service, they collected books and toys for distribution in local hospitals.

German Club

Among the many activities of the German Club this year were a Christmas party with a visit from "Saint Nick", neighborhood caroling, and a spring dinner. The club also went to New York to The Guggenheim Museum, a German restaurant, and a play. The club also planned to publish a German newspaper, and to hold a year-end picnic.

This year for the first time a German honor society, Delta Epsilon Phi, was established. This society was composed of about thirteen students with a high "A" average in German.

Spanish Clubs

Mr. Canda's Spanish Club became creative this year and entered the Halloween parade with their "Spanish on Parade" float which won second prize. The members also saw the movie Man of La Mancha with a Spanish dinner afterwards. The club rounded out the year by presenting a gift to the school with the money earned this year.

Miss Polizzo's Spanish Club was in its first year and the members also attended Man of La Mancha and dinner. The members completed the year with a pizza party, bingo, and quiz games in Spanish.

Folklore Club

The Folklore Club finally came back into the school — thanks to President Paul Unkert. Paul organized the club during the summer and started with fresh ideas for the May 16th assembly. The club also has discussed the idea of taking their flutes, banjos, guitars and mandolins into the parks for the spring-summer open-air concert. The group consisted of interested students, many of whom played more than one instrument.

The Ecology Club worked to better our community. During regular meetings the members selected various ideas from audio-visual presentations and speakers. Interested members worked on a pamphlet entitled Tips on Pollution and all helped out with a paper drive.

Cathy Segal ponders a suggestion brought up at a meeting.

Larry Potochney pleads with the club members for their cooperation.

Drama Club

Besides the effort and fulfillment entailed in the Drama Club play, Plaza Suite, members enjoyed a variety of other activities. Mrs. Laing, who supervised the club, led the members in such activities as a make-up demonstration, a pizza Christmas party, a theatre party in N.Y., and a trip to McCarter Theatre in Princeton.

Black Renaissance Club

During the past year, the Black Renaissance Club organized many projects among which was the production of "Composite Truths — All Directions of Blackness". The program, presented on March 24 in the school auditorium, was a combination of modern black poetry, dancing and skits, with a percentage of the proceeds going toward the research of sickle-cell anemia. Earlier in the year, a number of L.H.S. alumni were invited to speak to the club members about the colleges they are now attending. Through this encounter students gained a deeper insight into campus life.

DECA

The Distributive Education Clubs of American (DECA) was an organization whose program of leadership, personal development, and career development was designed specifically for students enrolled in Distributive Education. DECA activities provided students with an opportunity to practice leadership and to meet other D. E. students on a statewide basis, improving general understanding of mutual problems in the marketing-distributive field.

STUDENT BODY

High school is not something you experience alone. From your first day here, you pass hundreds of faces in the halls. Gradually they become more familiar. After three years you cannot help but know a lot of people.

Sophomore Council

Sophomores began their first year at LHS with a fall car wash. Since they had no class social functions this year, all the money gathered from selling stationary and washing cars went toward next year's Junior Prom fund. The only non-fund raising activity was collecting food for the needy.

Joslynn Bowers, Donna Tango and Mr. Hoffman check funds.

Denise Barbarich goes over homeroom listings with Janet McNeill.

Junior Council

Junior Council '73 faced many problems that had not been anticipated by President Jim Barbarich. Their first encounter was with the usual Jr. Barn Dance which became a Raggedy Ann and Andy dance and finally, due to sports scheduling, nothing. Members then sold brooms and sponsored the movie Fiddler on the Roof in order to raise money for the Junior Prom on May 18.

President Jim Barbarich and Vice-President Tony McNeill preside at a meeting.

Doreen Soltis waits to write down council information for homeroom.

Secretary Barbara Eichhorn takes notes on meeting's progression.

Art Biesiada sketches his next project.

SENIORS

Lynn Kieska

Jim Lewis takes time out from his studies to give us a smile.

Dennis Kernoski doing his one-man assembly.

Sandy Lieberman and Jan Mutterperl.

Rose Moore fishes something out of her pocketbook.

Toni Counts studies in the library.

Lori Senior puts her time to good use.

Debbie Fauer, Eileen Rochman, and Rhona Silverblatt at the Kick-off Dance.

Senior Council

Senior Council this year started out with grand ideas and ended up with the usual. The basketball tournaments did not allow for any senior events before the end of March. Thus, the Senior Faculty game March 23 and the Oldies Dance March 31 were completely behind schedule. Candy sales, a senior activity, was prohibited in the building, so the usual amount of money was not collected. All activities were geared only to reduce the cost of the senior prom which was planned for June 13 at the West Orange Town & Campus.

Secretary Dawn Durbin rereads last meeting's minutes.

Vice-President Shirley Williams.

Senior Class President Reggie Moseley.

Faculty

There are always people who shape your experiences. For three years the teachers of Linden High have various direct and indirect effects on your life. For better or worse, they are people you will remember.

Administration

There were some new faces in the office when the students returned to school this September. Mr. Stuart McEwen, who had been Mr. Mopsick's assistant principal at Soehl Junior High, came to assume that position at LHS. Math teacher, Mr. Joseph Placa became an administrative aide, as well as a teacher, splitting his time between the classroom and the office.

Guidance

The members of the guidance department were very busy this year with their various responsibilities. Counseling students about careers, sending out senior transcripts, and, of course, arranging and rearranging schedules were some of the difficult tasks that the counselors handled quite capably.

English

In the second year of English electives for juniors and seniors, the English Department was still undergoing many changes. In order to avoid having students identify a course with a particular teacher, the members of the department all taught a wide variety of electives, each providing their own interpretation of the courses.

Despite the increased student enthusiasm brought about by the electives, the teachers feared that the students were receiving an insufficient background in many areas. The department came up with a compromise solution for next year: a standard English III course for juniors and electives for seniors.

Electives were once again a part of the senior history course. The classes discussed Ethnic groups, the 1920's, Cold War, and various federal and state governments. The junior history course was the usual U.S. History from the Revolutionary War till W.W. II.

Mr. Imbriacco prepares to teach his class.

Mr. Chmielak and Jim LeBlanc confer on Cross Country scores.

This was the final teaching year for Mr. Jamison, a favorite social studies teacher at LHS since 1934. The vacancy caused by the retirement of this sincere, scholarly teacher will be difficult to fill.

Mathematics

Math continued to offer many challenges to LHS students. Programs ranged through probability and statistics and college-level calculus. They were augmented by "enrichment" calculator and computer lessons taught through practice on the working machines.

Mr. Barr proves another law of motion.

The traditional science sequence was augmented by earth science, oceanography, and, most recently, bio-chemistry. In its second year, "bio-chem", an intensive two-year program, was team taught by Mr. Salzer and Mr. Hoffman. These and other innovations helped the science department keep up with the changing times.

IN MEMORIUM

Mrs. Georgia M. Brown
Died May 7, 1973

My Father, it is surely a blue place
And straight. Right. Regular. Where I shall find
No need for scholarly nonchalance or looks
A little to the left or guards upon the Heart to halt love that runs without crookedness
Along its crooked corridors. My Father,
It is a planned place surely. Out of coils,
Unscrewed, released, no more to be marvelous,
I shall walk straightly through most proper halls
Proper myself, princess of properness.

—Gwendolyn Brooks

Fine Arts

Most seniors had to take a Music Appreciation class this year. In other programs, more willing students practiced long hours to put on special holiday assemblies.

Industrial Arts

Many of the industrial arts classes looked forward to expansion in next year's move across the street to the new Linden Vocational School. Meanwhile, the traditionally male auto shop lost that distinction through the first girls' auto mechanics class.

Mr. Roland R. Rogers   Mrs. Barbara M. Rosivack /   Mrs. Alice K. Topoleski

In an effort to reduce the number of study halls, the administration scheduled four periods of gym per week for all students. The result was a mixed blessing, causing overcrowding in the gyms that frustrated both students and teachers.

Mrs. Topoleski, Mrs. Pagoulatos, and Mrs. Rosivack console injured Joyce Keller.

Services

It took more than just luck for this year to pass as smoothly as it did. The librarians kept the library in good order, so that the students could easily find whatever reading material they needed, and they persisted in sending out little reminders to students who forgot when books were due back. The A.V. department kept the school well stocked with the educational and interesting films that were such a welcome relief to both students and teachers from the routine classroom fare. And the secretaries in the office performed innumerable tasks, not the least of which was compiling of the daily absentee sheet, complete with witty aphorisms, that let everyone in the school know who they need not look for in the halls that day and, of course, discouraged class-cutting.

MATRONS — Josephine Makek, Anna Frazier, Edith Coarney.

Clean halls and classrooms, food in the cafeteria, and well-maintained utilities were taken for granted by most at LHS, but these conditions would not have been possible without the proficient work done by the custodians, matrons, and cafeteria workers. Their pleasant personalities in dealing with the students and faculty made them a double asset to the school.

It's hard to write an autograph to a Teacher, because you can't wish them luck - they already have everything they need - a career. I hope the things I learned in your lab help me in my future. I spent so much time on them, I'm sure they will come in handy.

Dear Mrs. Hecht
 How can I forget
 you. You helped me learn my problems until I was grounded in my head to know it really was a teacher because you were a great help.
 I know I will help me a great deal when I go to work. Thank you again,

"It is my opinion, Sancho, that all the old sayings have a good deal of truth in them. After all, they are drawn from Experience, which is the Mother of Science. I am thinking in particular of the saying that When one door shuts, another door opens. Look: here is another adventure — and a better one."

—Miguel de Cervantes,
Don Quixote
