MAGE IS EVERYTHING

That adage is true here at Linden High School, and is especially seen among the members of the Class of '94. Seniors represent everything that a sharper image suggests. The first three years of high school are used to discover and build an image so that by senior year and graduation a student is ready to present a Sharper Image to the world. LHS, through its varied student body, faculty and academic and vocational programs is able to offer students what they need to create A SHARPER IMAGE.

MARIA and TARA show their appreciation for the 60's.
RICK FAUGHNAN peers through the microscope at the image there.
LAWRENCE "BUDDA" LAPIERRE sharpens his skills while using the band saw.
A pensive MICHAEL JACKSON contemplates the next move in drafting class.

NUNO De OLIVERA has a firm grip on his spinning fortunes.
 ROBERTO HERNANDEZ puts the finishing touches on his woods project.
 BRENDAN KOBUS presents a sleeping image to the world.
 Showing a rough and tough image, PRUDENCE, TOBI and ANNE prepare for a Friday night out.

All-American SIMONE GILLIAM shows her off-court image.

"What do you mean, you don't like my hair?" challenges KEVIN "DEWEY" HODGE.

JESSICA CONTRERAS observes her image in the mirror.

FRANK peeks around MARISSA's shoulder just in time.

Homecoming Queen and King KIM and KEN show their regal image at the game.

Not even rain can change KIM LEDFORD's sunny smile!

MISSY, Mickey and Minnie present an image for the camera.

The front lobby presents a gleaming image to students and visitors to LHS.

While JOHN presents a sharper image, PAUL prefers the more casual look.

EDDIE and ROB pause to have their images captured on film.

DANIELLE PIRES gets caught with a mouth full of grapes.

A serious looking FRANK SULLIVAN waits for the picture to be taken.

VALERIE peeks over ROB's shoulder for the answer.

DEMIA HODGE tries to perfect her electronics project.

In Loving Memory
Ms. Carole Harden
October 24, 1993

Goodbye, Mama Harden

*Don't think for a minute that I'm letting go;
don't think I don't hurt just because it doesn't show.
I don't know if it's shock or just plain confusion;
maybe pure happiness is just an illusion.
Even though you still live on in my mind,
I know that pure happiness is what I must find.
So don't worry about me from up beyond the clouds;
don't shed a tear if you hear me cry aloud.
So goodbye, Mama Harden, my dear friend.
Though I'll never see you again
the times together through these two years will take away my tears.
You can go now, I'll get by somehow,
I love you.*

-Ryan Allison

With Love to Carole

*For every time there is a season;
For every time there is a reason.
For every moment there is a treasure;
For every memory there is a pleasure.*

*With each day we spent with you,
There was joy and love so true.
The years that seem to have been so few,
Are shrouded now in Heavenly hue.*

*You touched us all with joy and caring,
You always had some time for sharing.
So many things we'd like to say,
If only there could be a way.*

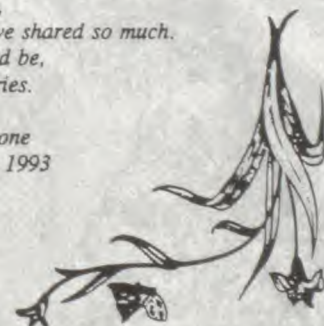

*But memories now will ease our minds,
These memories aren't that hard to find.
They abound like golden mines,
And comfort us in our time.*

*God's loving touch and warm embrace,
Will shower you with loving grace.
This same grace will befall,
And delicately will touch us all.*

*We hear it as a loving song,
To carry as we go along.
Your memory will ease the wrong,
When days seem so hard and long.*

*In spirit we will gently touch,
And know that we have shared so much.
And thank God that you could be,
Part of all our memories.*

THE CLASS OF '96!

In 1994, the SOPHOMORE class tried extremely hard to make their High School years last forever. With the assistance of class advisor Mrs. O'Malley, the class has held many fundraisers which were very profitable. They include the selling of toy soldiers, candy-grams, and carnations. During these fundraisers, the Sophomores pulled together to have a sharper CLASS of '96!!!

A SPORTING I mage

Participating in sporting events allows students to sharpen their image in a different way. Playing sports teaches many lessons including how to discipline oneself, how to function as a part of a group, and how to enjoy oneself from competing.

Photos from center: The skill of gymnastics is evident. MR. ENGEL and MR. BLACK supervise the gate receipts at sporting events. Scorekeeper MR. SIANO is a familiar face at games. Snow became the enemy of winter sports teams as 15 storms hit the area. The football team is raring to go. Cheerleaders and advisor wait the start of a wrestling match. READY — SET — GO!

TIGERS TACKLE THE TOUGH COMPETITION

Inspired by the coaching staff and the support from their fans, the Linden Tigers, led by captains MICHAEL PRINGLEY and ROGER CHANOINE, ended the season with a successful 6-2-1 record!

This year's team was probably one of the best because of our dedicated athletes. With the hard work and the effort they contributed, the Tigers led us into a winning season.

Outstanding efforts were made all season by our devoted seniors thanks to the coaching and assistance of Mr. Bucky McDonald.

The 1993 Football season will be missed, as well as our seniors who also contributed greatly to this year's success. These seniors include Russell Gallo, Roger Chanoine, Michael Pringley, Dave Handwerk, Michael Billups, Jay Coleman, John Berardi, Terrine Bass, Harry Figueroa, Dennis Walker, Danny Lee, Dave Biles, and Danyon Randolph. With all the cooperation from this team, they led many Tiger victories. Best of luck to the future Tigers!

KICK UP YOUR HEELS

Linden Girls Soccer this year made a lot of progress from last year. Even though the record was 1-11-1, many losses were by narrow margins. With their win against Elizabeth and their tie against East Side they know they are improving with every year. Since VERONICA SOTO is the only graduating senior on the team, the other co-captains, juniors MARIA MANCINE and ANABELLA ALMEIDA will be able to continue to provide leadership for next year's team. Great strides were made by the underclassmen this year. ANABELLA led the team with 3 goals scored, while KELLY, CATHY, LORI, and ERIN put in many valuable minutes on the varsity team. With such a talented core of returning players, the future of Lady Tiger Soccer can only be considered bright!

The '93-'94 boys soccer season was very challenging but the boys did win one game. The game is not about being a winner, it's about having a good time playing and making the best of it. The team was led by seniors DARIUSZ BZIUK, DAVE FERNANDEZ, SLAVO KVETKO, LEO TORRES, and FRANK SULLIVAN who gave their all to help the team grow and develop soccer skills. With the progress the team made throughout the season, better days should be ahead for returning players like juniors NELSON NIEVES, TOM SLEZAK, TOM DIPAOLO, and ARK PIETRUSZEWSKI and the other underclassmen contributors.

SHARP SHOOTERS

The Tigers enjoyed another successful season in 1993-94, finishing with a regular season record of 15-2 and only losing to the number one team in the state, Irvington and the number nine team in the state and eventual county champion, St. Pats during the Union County Tournament. Led by the strong play of seniors Mike Pringley (17.ppg) and Anthony Peeples (17.7ppg) inside, the Tigers also experienced bright moments from sophomores — point guard Kalief Allen (11.4ppg 8 assists) and budding stars Jason Brown and Wilson Rosenbert. During the season, the Tigers played the competitive Watchung Conference schedule, as well as participating in and winning the Pope PiusX-Sparta Christmas Tournament in Sparta.

LADY TIGERS

ROAR in '94

Success and accolades continued for the Lady Tigers during the 1993-94 season. The sparkling record (17-2) compiled by the team during the regular season was tarnished only by a loss to #1 St. John Vianney and in the game following, to Plainfield. Along the way, the Lady Tigers captured the inaugural Linden Christmas Tournament title and repeated as Union County Tournament Champions, defeating a persistent Cranford squad 46-42. Senior leadership was provided by Simone Gilliam (19PPG), Raqia Johnson (12PPG) and super sub Lauren Wigfall, the defensive specialist off the bench. Excellent performances were also turned in by starting junior Sharon Kukal, sophomore Jessica Sheehy and freshman Fatimah Burnam as well as reserve sophomore transfer Kijuana Tate.

MAKING TRACKS THROUGH THE SNOW

The Winter Track teams turned in a very impressive season. The boys and girls worked hard to achieve their wins. The boys had Coach McDonald to lead them through vigorous practices. Truly, they were a bunch of dedicated runners. The girls team was especially outstanding in their performance. They captured the title in the Union girls' relays. Scoring a point in every event, Linden relied on its third-place finish in the mile relay to clinch its first Union County girls' relay championship. Linden's victory meant so much to the long-time coach Wayne Mehalick. He was quoted saying that he has "waited 20 years to win something in the county — indoors to outdoors. It was a total team commitment and effort." The team deserved everything that was achieved.

Presents

On the evenings of March 3, 4, and 5, the LHS auditorium was transformed into Neverland. The musical extravaganza "Peter Pan" recounts the whimsical adventures of the children and Peter Pan. Peter Pan takes the children to see the magic and wonder of Neverland.

Counterclockwise from L: Captain Hook, played by Erik Hall, chases Peter Pan, played by Danielle Pires, as the rest of the cast looks on.

JASON, JIM, STEVE, JOAQUIN, CHUCK, TIM, and PAUL hang out with honorary member Abe.

STEVE receives the Best Male Cadet award from Commander Sortore.

WALEAD and MIKE take a time out to catch their breath.

TERRY smiles as she passes the baton to a team member.

The NJROTC (Naval Junior Reserve Officer's Training Corps) is just more than cadets in uniform on Wednesdays. The cadets have opportunities to go on trips. Last year they went to our capital city — Washington D.C. On their trip they went to the Vietnam Memorial, Arlington National Cemetery, the Naval Air and Space Museum, and a side trip to the Naval Academy. Cadets can join the Color Guard or Drill Team, which compete for trophies. Cadets are chosen to be in the Academic and Athletic teams. They also have the opportunity to help out among the unit and join Armory, Supply and Administrations. One special event is the Military Ball each year in March. Awards are given out and there is also a Queen and King ceremony. This year, cadets are going to Rhode Island.

Last year's Queen and King — ALISON LANE and JOE COOK walk through the Honor Guard.

CYNOSURE

Editors: M. DiGrado & T. Kuzma

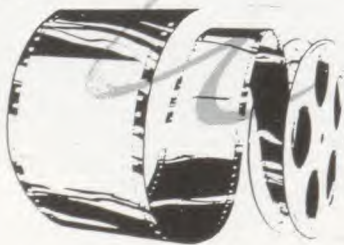

(Top Left) J. Lagola, A. Makuch, B. Kobus, J. Junio, B. Toporowski, A. Quinn, R. Demkowitz, (Middle) M. Mancine, J. Contreras, P. Diaz, A. Haszko, M. Finnegan, I. Sanchez, N. Sorrentino. (Bottom) M. DiGrado, T. Kuzma.

ANNA HASZKO works diligently to meet the yearbook deadline.

Copying copy for the yearbook is hard work, isn't it, MICHELLE FINNEGAN?

The Cynosure Staff consists of 15 students who devote their time and effort to making the yearbook a success. It is advised by MRS. GERGELY. Together we all work hard to give the '94 yearbook its sharpest image.

While IRIS /MELISSA looks on, RENEE looks up in time for the picture.

If TARA KUZMA is smiling in the Cynosure office, we must have met a deadline.

BARBARA and AMANDA work around the foot of BRENDAN reclining.

The Cynosure staff shows their school spirit.

In a lighter moment, juniors NICOLE and MICHELLE yuk it up.

Student Council President PATTY DIAZ has time to help produce the '94 yearbook.

It looks like we're working, doesn't it? ask JESSICA and MARIA.

From top right: MISCOY helps TERRINE with his science homework. SIMONE GILLIAM finds a quiet corner to study in. The cheerleaders and the crowd help support the Linden Tigers. Seniors never do any work. HOUIDA SAADEH sports a new "sharp" look.

MONIKA MACK matches her skill against the clock in typing class. On your mark, Get set, Go MIKE JACKSON GO! TOBI and MR. MEHALICK discuss her performance at the last track meet. MIKE and PAT are music masters. KATHY is dazed as she listens to her music.

SENIOR INDEX ADVERTISEMENTS CLOSING

Kimberly Clarice Aiken, Miss South Carolina, became one of the youngest women to win the Miss America pageant.

Aiken, who bested 49 women to win the 1994 title in Atlantic City on September 18, 1993, called the honor "very overwhelming for me."

It was one of the most dramatic home runs in the long history of the World Series.

Joe Carter of the Toronto Blue Jays stepped to the plate in the ninth inning of the sixth game of the series, with two runners on base and the score 6-5 in favor of the Philadelphia Phillies.

Carter's Blue Jays led the series, three games to two. And after one swing of his bat, the game was over and the Jays had won their second straight series.

It was the biggest, wettest story of the summer. The floods that washed across the Midwest may have been the worst in American history, and they captured the concern of people across the nation.

The casualties ranged from thousands left homeless to investors and consumers in every corner of the United States.

President Clinton's point man on health care reform in 1993 was his wife, First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton.

When Mrs. Clinton appeared before Congress to implore its members to work with the administration to overhaul the health care system, she got a movie star's reception.

Arrested Development won the MTV Video Music Award for best rap video, "People Everyday," and the Grammy Award for "newcomer of the year."

One of the biggest stories of the 1993-1994 basketball season occurred before the first pre-season exhibition game — Michael Jordan, the world's best basketball player and one of its most famous athletes, announced his retirement.

Jordan's retirement came after he had led the Chicago Bulls to three straight National Basketball Association championships, the most recent victory over the Phoenix Suns in the 1993 finals.

An Amtrak train hurtled off a bridge into an inky bayou in Saraland, Alabama, early on the morning of September 22, 1993, plunging its sleeping passengers into a nightmare of fire, water and death.

It was the deadliest wreck in Amtrak's 23-year history. But 159 people survived, and some helped other passengers who clung to wreckage from a collapsed section of the bridge in a swamp crawling with alligators and snakes.

The Los Angeles-to-Miami Amtrak train crashed at about 3 AM, about 10 miles north of downtown Mobile. All three engines and four of the eight cars went off the bridge. Two of the cars were passenger cars; one was completely submerged in water about 16 feet deep.

Declaring that "the times are changing," Ruth Bader Ginsburg in 1993 became the second woman to sit on the United States Supreme Court.

At her swearing in ceremony at the White House on August 10, the 60-year-old women's rights pioneer said that "in my lifetime, I expect there will be among federal judicial nominees .

Nancy Kerrigan, the 22-year-old U.S. figure skater who was among the gold medal favorites at the 1994 Winter Olympics, was attacked after practice on January 6, 1994, by a man who hit her on the right leg with a club or metal bar.

Within days an anonymous phone call to authorities pointed to Kerrigan's rival, Tonya Harding, and a few of her entourage.

Harding's ex-husband, Jeff Gillooly, her bodyguard, Shawn Eckardt, and two hired men were arrested.

The Dallas Cowboys won their second straight National Football League championship and the Buffalo Bills earned a sadder spot in sports history by losing their fourth straight Super Bowl.

Dallas defeated the Bills 30-13 on Sunday, January 30, 1994, scoring 24 unanswered points in the second half after trailing 13-6 at halftime.

In a year filled with horrifying news photos from battlefields around the globe, one photo of human struggle brought a smile: Associated Press photographer Paul Sakuma's shot of a little boy's joust with a huge sumo wrestler.

It happened before a sumo tournament in San Jose, CA, on June 5, 1993, that attracted the world's best. The competitors included Salevaa Atisanoe, a 576-pound Hawaiian who goes by the sumo name Konishiki and is known in Japan as "Meat Bomb".

The NBC program, "Seinfeld", took home three trophies, making it one of the night's two biggest winners, along with "Picket Fences."

"Seinfeld," which features the comic misadventures of the New York comedian and his friends, was named best comedy series.

On a sunny Monday, September 13, 1992, three American presidents gawked in awe, just like everyone else, at a sudden turn toward peace.

All eyes were on two old enemies in their new roles as peacemakers, men who say peace "sa-laam" in Arabic or "shalom" in Hebrew. Their handshake — the grasp by Arab Yasser Arafat of the hand of Jew Yitzhak Rabin — brought a gasp, a shout, and finally applause from several thousand people on the White House lawn.

It was the year of grunge rock, and a band from Seattle known as Nirvana was among the proudest purveyors of this unadorned, grinding for of rock 'n' roll.

At the 10th Annual MTV Video Music Awards on Sept. 2, 1993, at Universal City, CA, Nirvana's "In Bloom" won the trophy for best alternative video.

Across the Northeast, the Midwest and large part of the South, the extreme cold of January 1994 brought an end to the daily routine.

Arctic air with wind chills up to 74 below zero swept across the eastern United States in the wake of a blizzard that dumped enough snow to paralyze several states.

At last 92 deaths have been blamed on the barrage of cold and snow. Many of these victims were killed on icy roads or had heart attacks shoveling snow, while others froze to death.

At 4:13 AM on Monday, January 17, 1994, an earthquake of 6.6 magnitude (Richter scale reading) struck Southern California, claiming 61 lives and leaving damage that may total $30 billion.

Five interstate highways, including the state's major north-south route, and three state highways were closed at several points, crippling transportation.

AS THE WORLD'S LARGEST RECYCLER OF HAZARDOUS WASTE, SAFETY-KLEEN WANTS THE WORD TO GET AROUND...

There is a smarter, safer way of handling hazardous waste than dumping it in landfills. In 1992 alone, Safety-Kleen's Linden facility recycled 3 million gallons of New Jersey's hazardous waste that would have otherwise ended up in landfills. Today, these 3 million gallons are being used again to help preserve the environment, not to pollute it.

The truth is that hazardous waste comes from everywhere, not just big manufacturing companies. In fact, most of our clients are small businesses, such as gas stations, auto repair shops, dry cleaners, printing companies and other industries. And all of our clients are businesses that are committed to responsible recycling.

When you get your oil changed, look for Safety-Kleen's "We Care" emblem. It's a good sign that the company you are doing business with cares about the community as much as you do.
