THE final TOUCH

Hanging in the woods is fun for LUTHER and SHAKIR.
CHRIS, BRANDON, RAY, and YELITZA find the halls of LHS exciting.
If she can't be at LHS, Hawaii will have to do for KRIS RAUDYS.

THE FINAL TOUCH. The last year in high school.
The end of an era. 1999 represents all this and more to the members of the graduating class. As sad as we are to leave LHS, we also look forward and anticipate a bright future filled with promise and expectations. We look back with fondness on our years at LHS, but look forward with eager anticipation to the future and our chance to make our mark on the world. And so we begin . . . THE FINAL TOUCH.

Prom memories mean a lot for BRIAN and MELISSA.
 "Pardon me, do you have any Grey Poupon?" asks EDWIN CHARLOTIN.
 JAMILAH and CUFFIE are happy to be away from LHS.
 MARIE and BRIAN can't wait to graduate!

Class of 1999

MIGUEL RODRIGUEZ puts on a show for the bears.

MIKE and ZEHRA tap
the keys with a smile.

Why is PETE the only one showing his pearly whites?

"You want a picture of me?" says AMA KORKER.

Hey PAT INCANELLA
what are you smiling at?

DIANDRA PEACOCK shows everybody that she loves herself.

RASHIEM does something sneaky behind CYBIL's back.

DAVIE and PATTY are attached like usual.

Who says friendship doesn't grow on trees?

(clockwise) RACHEL and EBANEE are closely connected. MICHELLE and JOE are the morning voices of LHS. MRS. BUDNICK gets close to ANEESA WALKER. TOM, MANNY, and GARY are MR. BASTEDO'S buddies. DANNY asks CHRIS for the homework. GABE ORLOWSKI proudly wears his ROTC uniform.

(clockwise)
STEFANIE SAVINO is just hanging around.
FATIMAH and NICOLE decorate the halls. MIKE HEISER always has a smile ready. LAURA JOZEFYK shows her summer style. HOWARD and KAHLIPH get the "rabbit's eye" view. Why are you so happy, JOE KIERYCH?

DON HAMMER says, "I've fallen and I can't get up!"

NATASHA WALTON models on the boardwalk.

ALAINA HUESTON — don't fall off the boat! KIM and GERTRUDE are trying to catch a wave. DYAN, TINA, and JAMES are doing their best to work up a tan.

WHAT A VACATION!

Seniors hang out at Six Flags. KYM O'NEAL flashes a devilish grin. JESS and PETE spend a romantic moment in Lake Placid. Hey JEN, where's Tigger? JEN and RICH spend quality time together on the band trip in Florida.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

RICH and STEF step off the dance floor to capture the moment. These girls are all dolled up for the big night. TARA, LUCIANA, and FATIMAH flash their pearly whites.

The guys are stylin'. TONY and LAURA take time out for a quick pic.

The boys are just chillin' by the limo.

GERTRUDE and KIM — friends forever. ANDY and SARAH cuddle up for a picture. CHRIS puts the moves on LISA. Here's PATTI and DAVIE — cheek to cheek. Girls just wanna have fun. These studs look sexy on this big night.

CHRISTINA, ABNER, and VICTOR pose for the perfect picture. No one can separate these two love birds. Friends till the end — JEN and MARIA. Behave yourself RASHIEM! LEN, JOE, and PAT think they're all that.

VINNIE and MEGAN make the perfect couple.
BIG "E" — stylin
and profilin. JEN'S pretty as a princess. KATIE and CHRIS get a little close.
SHEREEKA and MONIQUE are ready to have a good time.
EVERICK'S gettin' jiggy with it on the dance floor.

SENIORS

King of the hill; top of the heap. Senior year is what a high school student looks forward to. Four long years are spent preparing for senior year. The class of 1999 has worked hard to make their senior year the best and leave their mark — The Final Touch.

(clockwise) LARIETTA, MR. FOLEY, and YESENIA are so happy it's 1998. Dental Assistants have fun. Seniors group together in the cafeteria. JAMES and DAVE can't wait to go. LATOYA KIDD reclines in computers.

VINNIE and DAVE take a break in woodshop.

Class Officers: M. Topoleski, N. Andrews, P. Costa, R. Marino.

Brian Curley: Well I feel everyone will be busy in the excitement of the new millennium and it will carry over to us and our senior class.

Ines Caroca: I don't think our class will be treated differently. I think that to staff members we're just a regular class, and we'll be treated like one.

Beth Canada: Not at all. We're just another class graduating. It's not like we decided to be the class of 2000. It just turned out that way.

As a member of the CLASS OF 2000, and the first class of the new millennium, do you feel that your class will be treated differently during your senior year? Why?
Why not?

Joe Rivera: Yes, I think we will. We basically have to. We are so special.

Caroline Kozar: Probably not because we're just another graduating class, we're just graduating at the beginning of the new millennium.

Rob Bobenchik: Our class is just as important as any other because we are all the youth of the future.

IN WHAT WAY IS YOUR SOPHOMORE YEAR DIFFERENT FROM YOUR FRESHMAN YEAR?

During my sophomore year I came to the conclusion that the work becomes more challenging and that the way we acted last year was so immature. Rich Rodak

My sophomore year is better than my freshman year because I became close friends with people I thought wouldn't accept me for who I am. I've also realized I made friends with a lot more people not basing it on their skin tone or what they look like. Lucinda Vasquez

My sophomore year has been much better than my freshman year by far because I know more about the school. I know more people (friends and teachers), I know that there is no 4th floor swimming pool, and there are no ghosts that haunt this school because they were killed here. Harry Martinez, Jr.

The biggest difference between my sophomore year and my freshman year is that you don't get called freshman and the work is harder. Lisa Kozak

The biggest difference between freshman year and sophomore year is your popularity. You're unknown as a freshman, but people actually start to know who you are when you hit your sophomore year. Junaid Vyajkora

THE Final TOUCH

SPORTS

What better place to leave a mark and achieve recognition than on an LHS sports team? The sports program gives students a chance to strive for personal glory while bringing positive recognition to the school. Sports foster in participants an attitude of fairness, sportsmanship and good will while also promoting healthy competition and fun. Sports really provide a place to leave a mark and make a "Final Touch."

KICKING AWAY TO ANOTHER WINNING SEASON

The 1998 Varsity Girls Soccer team had a super season this year due to great coaching by Coach Mehalick and dedication put forth by the girls. Even though they did not qualify for the state tournament this season, they were successful in advancing to the second round of the Union County Tournament, which the girls have not done in years. The team was led by Senior Co-Captains Kris Raudys and Kim Wozniak and Junior captain Margaret Fedosz. Great efforts were also shown from Seniors Elizabeth Infinito, who was our excellent goalkeeper, and Nicole Lipari who kept the Tiger defense strong. The outlook for the next year shows much talent and signs of a very successful season. Good Luck Girls!

Kim Wozniak kicks with all her might.

TIGERS LIGHT IT UP!

This year the boys' soccer team had a new coach, by the name of COACH O'CALLAHAN. Through the boys hard work and determination, they went on to defeat Newark Tech. The boys gave it their best throughout the whole season. This year the Tigers were led by seniors ANDY MARQUES, DAN PRINCIPATO, RODNER QUINTELA, CHRIS HUDAK, REMY DATILUS, PAUL ST. FLORANT, FREDLY LEBRUN, and MARK STEPNIEWSKI. Next year the boys soccer team will strive hard for a successful season.

Seniors ROBERTO HERNANDEZ, MEGAN MARTIN, and BRIAN DUDEK will leave a lasting impression on remaining members.

MEGAN is all smiles as she jogs past the camera.

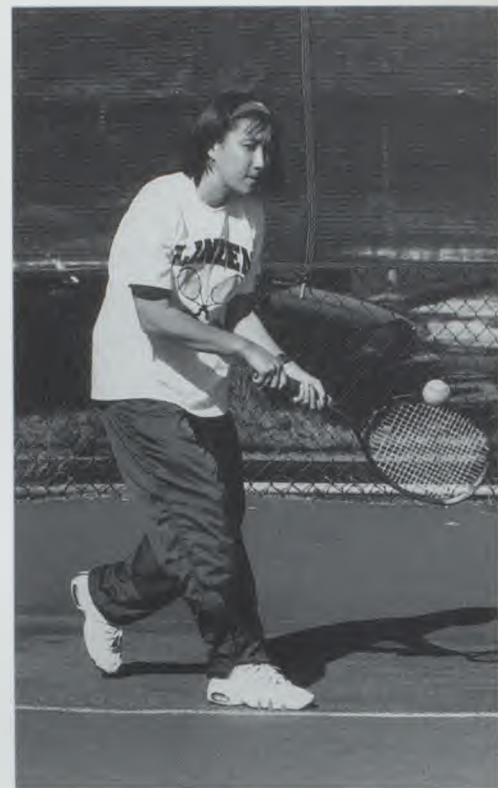

COACH PASKEWICH discusses the finer points of running.

GAME, SET, MATCH!

The LHS Varsity Girls' Tennis Team had another outstanding season under the coaching of first year coach Mrs. Barbara Kolesa. With the help of tri-captain juniors Jana Halecka, Marta Nowicka, and Susan Schendelman, the girls were able to face tough Watchung Conference competition with confidence. The girls came off with a record of 7-7. All players will return next season and hope to improve their record.

NOTHING BUT NET

Tiger basketball has come a long way in Coach Colicchio's two years as the head coach. This year's team branched out and played against nationally-ranked competition. Although they did not win, they gained valuable experience and exposure. They competed in and won a Christmas tournament in Allentown, Pa. Faced with tough Watchung Conference competition, they prevailed, winning the conference championship and beating rival Elizabeth twice. They advanced to the semi-finals of the county tournament, falling to eventual runner-up Union, and they competed in the state tournament in North Jersey Section 2, Group 4, before losing in the finals once again to Union. The team will lose senior captains Ray DelValle and Chris Rayford, as well as other senior players, but they will return several tough and tested underclassmen to continue the proud tradition.

REACHING HIGHER

The girls' basketball team finished their season with an 8-10 record, far improving on last year's record. The 1998-99 season was more competitive than past years. Strong efforts by captains Aneesah Walker and Alicia Chapman led the team and helped the younger members improve their game. Although their leadership will be missed, the team hopes to use this season as a building block to further improvement.

L.H.S Matmen

Although this year's Linden Tiger Wrestling team did not have the year that they expected, they had individual stand-outs that represented our high school respectively. The team was led by senior captains Vincent Berardi, Sean Garriss, and Mike Lordi. One of the biggest highlights of the year was Mike Lordi capturing the District II crown at 189 pounds. With sophomores Eric Forstenhausler placing second and Corey Walker placing third in their respective weight classes, during the districts, Tiger wrestling has much to look forward to next year.

DIANA TRUJILLO, BRIAN CURLEY, DIANA TURON, DAVE OLIVEIRA, and ADLER PEROTTE will be returning next year to pass on the knowledge and skill needed to succeed in the sport. Among the returning players from last year is senior MICHAEL RICHMOND, who will be greatly missed after he graduates, junior ED MATUSAWICZ, and sophomore STEVE PRIGGE. The team went head-to-head against many tough competitors, always showed a great sense of sportsmanship, and enjoyed the game that they love to play. Other underclassmen to keep eye on are sophomores NICK D'ANDREA and RICHARD RODAK.

Peer Group was designed to focus on helping freshmen adjust to the high school. They are taught how to deal with peer pressure and cope with many problems they may face. They are also given a place to belong and are welcome with an open heart. Peer Group is led by a group of 29 seniors divided into three periods. They are trained by advisors to run activities which they show the freshmen when they meet weekly.

The Peer Group advisors, Barbara Kolesa, Bernadette Aguero, Santa Goleme, Patricia Donegan, and Caesar Bullock show us their wacky side!

The group gets a little silly on the retreat!

CYNOSURE

The 1998-99 Cynosure Staff along with Mrs. Gergely worked hard to produce this year's yearbook. Editors Lisa Rumbauskas, Roberto Hernandez, and Andy Marques sacrificed their time and showed dedication to meet deadlines. All members searched through photos and dealt with a cramped room to fill the yearbook with memorable moments. The Staff hopes you all enjoy it!

We look forward to more special surprises as you continue to grow. All of our love and best wishes.

Dear Ronnie,

We have watched you grow from an infant to a fine young man. Within that time you have brought so much joy, happiness, and love to our lives. Time went by so quickly.

You are a very smart and independent young man. We are very proud of you and all of your achievements. With your determination you will go far and accomplish anything you want. You are the greatest son a mom and dad could ever ask for. We wish you the best of luck and success in the future.

We love you so much and whatever you do or wherever you go, we will always be there for you.
