The Millennium Edition
Volume 80

New Beginnings...

Clockwise from top: MARGARET and MONIKA enjoy another day in the bleachers for gym. DAWN and KERRY spend time away from LHS in New Orleans. TAREEM, DAVID, PAUL, and RASHAD can't think of any better place than the halls of LHS! DJUNA and CHARLES try to make prom memories last forever. LORRAINE and SIMONA smile for the camera.

New Beginnings ... As we come to the end of the 1900's and look forward with great anticipation to the 2000's, we pause to reflect on where we have been and where we are going. We have experienced much — we have seen great things and we look to the future and times when we can do great things ourselves. Although our time here at Linden High School has concluded, we are ready to move on to other places and hope to enjoy our "New Beginnings"

Clockwise from top: The dental students learn skills that they will take into the new millennium. The foyer of the Academy building is the place to be! "What do you mean — I can't have any soda?" says MARTIN to MARIA. ERICA and AMBER put their heads together to solve the problem. LAMAR and SHAWN are friends for this millennium and the next.

WHEN THEY WERE YOUNG

Clockwise from the top: TOM, STEVE, and JEREMY show their youth. FREDIA and SERETTE enjoy a 9th grade Peer Group party. BERNARD SUCHOCKI fills up on the Pepsi. SCOTT practices Spanish while JAMES, ED, and ALI focus on the teacher. LAMAR GREEN is bored in English class.

Nobody would have ever suspected that the pictures they took so long ago would come back to haunt them like this! In an amazing look back, we present here, photos of seniors showing a much more youthful side so that as we move into the new millennium, we can do so with a smile.

Clockwise — JESSICA MCNEILL is poised to enter the new millennium. RACHEL and DAN enjoy a prom moment. MONIKA and JEN learn about friendship and hair in Cosmetology. "No IOANNIS, just because you're Prom King it does not mean you get to boss me around," says MELISSA.

Clockwise — DANA KOZAR lets down her hair. The guys tease WALLY for not being a senior. GERMAN MEDINA gets his picture in the yearbook. JOE and SHANNON know that friendship is important. PERRIE HOLMES checks out his locker. JAY ANNUZIATO looks ready to step out. TAMIRAH is surrounded and it doesn't seem to be a problem!

KICKING BACK

Clockwise: KIRA KRUS spends time "down on the farm". JAMES WADE can't wait to take the train out of Linden. DIANA TRUJILLO and her friend give a manta ray a lift.

ALWAYS and FOREVER

Clockwise from top left: SANDRA and LANDY are dressed to kill. AMANDA and JOLANDA flash their pretty smiles while dancing the night away. Best friends, SARAH and NICOLE, take this picture to cherish the night. Cheek to cheek, IZA and SHARIF await the next course. LATESHA and her girl party at the prom. These lovely senior ladies celebrate the last prom of the millennium.

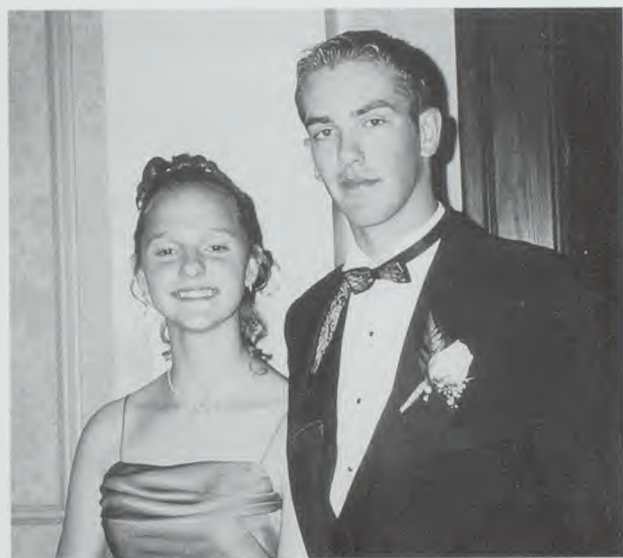

Cheerleader and athlete, AMBER and BERNARD model the latest prom fashions. ERICA and RENEE smile on their way to the prom. STEPHANIE BALLOU gets ready to capture a Kodak moment. DON and CAROLE make a lovely couple! PHIL COSTA gets ready to announce the prom King and Queen. DENNIS and DAWN look happy to spend this night at the prom together. TERESA and DIANA are anxiously awaiting the excitement of the night.

RONG ZHENG stops to pose. KADEISHA McMILLAN
does her Cleopatra imitation. Go, Tigers Go! DIANA,
STEVE, and TERESA get close.

SENIORS

It seems to have taken forever to get to this point, but we have arrived and at the same time as the new millennium. It is with great anticipation that we look to the future with hope and even some trepidation. Our years at LHS have prepared us (we hope) and we will close one chapter in our lives and look to the future and the time for "New Beginnings ..."

FACULTY

"New Beginnings ..." As the graduating class looks forward to moving on, people who must be recognized and thanked are the dedicated and tireless faculty members who keep us focused on our direction. We enter the school as freshmen who need guidance and through the devotion of the faculty, we grow and are able to plot our own direction as seniors. The faculty helps us to be ready to face our "New Beginnings ..."

Clockwise from top left: Linden Tigers rip through their competition. A world of possibilities opens up for the LHS football team. RICK BACHMANN looks fierce and ready to face his opposition.

New Beginnings...

Every different sports season represents a new beginning for Linden High School students to exhibit their athletic talents and abilities. Participation in sports encourages attitudes of teamwork and cooperation. LHS sports teams annually rank among the best in the state, allowing students to fully experience a range of emotions and challenges.

DANNY DELVALLE fires for the out at first base. The Linden High School trophy case displays the talents of our students from the past into 2000. MARGARET and SARA know girls' soccer is a kick!

RON GREEN celebrates the sack. BRANDON BRACEY is ready for the opposition.

Inspired by their coaches and fans, Linden completed a successful season. Led by captains RON GREEN and BERNARD SUCHOCKI, they ended the season 6-3.

The season was very exciting. GREG PARKER had 4 touchdowns in one game and Linden beat highly ranked Union. Linden qualified for the state playoffs, but lost to Montclair. Senior RON GREEN and sophomore ANDRE SUMNER made first team All County.

All together Linden had a great season and they should be proud of their accomplishments. This 1999 season will always be remembered.

GO FOR THE GOAL

BRIAN KUSHNER stretches out well before every game.

ERIC VALEGA puts all his strength into the throw.

The Linden High School Boys Soccer team finished their season with a record of 6-1-1. The total number of wins they had this year was greater than the total number they had in the last five years combined. Impressive wins were recorded over tough Watchung Conference opponents as well as out of conference teams. Many seniors contributed to the excellent effort and will be missed next year. They include: Rick, Dan, Pat, Eric, Manny, and Brian. With the success of this year's team to build on, the future looks bright for Linden Soccer and the comeback will continue in years to come.

GOING THE DISTANCE

The Cross Country teams are composed of both devoted and hard working boys and girls. In every meet, each team member must run 3.1 miles. This is not as easy as it sounds. Each member is prepared and encouraged by their great coaches, Mrs. Grieco and Mr. Paskewich.

The Girls Tennis team had a successful season, finishing with a record of 8-8. Although their record was only .500, the players showed steady improvement and progress throughout the season. Bright star Jade Trinh finished fifth in the Union County Tennis Tournament, and also advanced to the second round of the state tournament at first singles. With many returning underclassmen for next year, LHS's girls tennis has an exciting, and promising year ahead of them.

CHAMPS!

What a season for the boy's basketball team! The boys compiled a record of 26-4, roaring through the regular season with losses only to St. Anthony and eventual state champion Camden. Along the way, they captured many titles, beginning with the Christmas tournament and adding the Watchung Conference title. They were runners up in the Union County Championship to St. Patrick's. The team returned to the state tournament and captured the Group IV title. They advanced to the NJSIAA Tournament of Champions falling in the first round to a tough Mendham team. The pride was back for Linden as its team brought glory and recognition for the school and the town. As the season wore on, it seemed a different player stepped up every game, leading to a real team effort. Super seniors were Jamaal Tate, Danny Delvalle, Justin Philbert, Ronald Green, Sharif Abuhamoud and Yaniv Cohen. While it will be difficult to duplicate the accomplishments of this year's senior-laden team, a proud tradition has been established for great things in the future.

COACH COLICCHIO takes advantage of the time out to do some teaching.

While COACH COLICCHIO gives instruction, the rest of the team looks on.

SENIOR SENSATION

JAMAAL TATE works for position.

While most other seniors were debating where to go for the next four years, Jamaal Tate's decision was settled early when he signed with Penn State University in November. Jamaal earned numerous honors and brought recognition to himself and the school with his inspired play on the court.

All at LHS wish him success and hope for great things in the future for him.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

The 1999-2000 Girls Basketball team continued building a foundation for the program. Although their final record was under .500 at 10-11, they did qualify for and play in the Union County Tournament, winning one game before being eliminated. Many of the senior players had positive contributions to the team, providing leadership and guidance for the younger team members. CHANICE REID was selected as one of the top 15 players in Union County, while 4 seniors were chosen to represent Linden at the East-West All-Star Game.

HIT THE MATS

The 1999-2000 Tiger matmen had a very successful season, finishing with a 9-5 record. Along the way, they defeated difficult conference opponents Kearny and Westfield along with other tough competition. Outstanding performances were turned in by several individuals. COREY WALKER won the District XI crown at 125lbs. SHAWN COLVIN finished 3rd place at 160lbs and senior ANTHONY BELIN took 3rd place at 189. The underclassmen will benefit from the contribution of the seniors and will try to equal their performances in future years. Although the seniors will be missed, we look forward with anticipation to the coming years.

"Kurtish" My Dearest Son,

I remember like it was yesterday ... you kicking in my womb, your first steps, your first tooth, and your first girlfriend in kindergarten. But years pass and times change and you will soon part to realize one of your many dreams. But nothing — not time or distance — will change our good mother/son relationship. Keep the faith and the hope and with God's help and a firm commitment, go and make your dreams a reality. Never compromise your principles. Remember that no matter where you are, I will always be there when you need me. Thank you for being you, and may God's Face shine upon you all the days of your life, my dearest son. Your friend always!!!!

Love,
Mom

Congratulations
Linden High School

Class of 2000

Justin,

Once a young boy said he wanted to go to the "big school". You now leave that "big school", (Linden High School), a young man. Your 4 years of participation in the LHS Marching Band — earning you the "Louis Armstrong Jazz Award" in your junior year and your appointment as Drill Instructor in your senior year — has made us very proud. Your love of playing your "sax" also earned you the title of Assistant Musical Director. You have played baseball, been a member of the bowling team, played the sax in "the pit" for 4 school plays, and you had a singing debut with the musical theatre. You will take many memories of good times and good friends, and you leave with our wishes for good luck, health and happiness.

We love you,
Mom, Courtney, Nana, Uncle Richie,
Uncle Bob, Aunt Joanne, The Guerras,
The Sheehys, and the Tabors.

With each passing year, time seems to pick up the pace. It feels like only yesterday that you came into the world and entered my life. It's so hard to believe your graduation day is here. Life is like a roller coaster ride with its ups and downs. There have been good times and bad, happy and sad, but through it all you've made me proud to be your Mom. May your future hold only the best of everything. Good Luck. I love you.

Renee,

The years have gone by so quickly from Kindergarten to your senior year. Throughout these years, there has not been one day that you have not given us joy and love. You are the kind of daughter that parents dream of. You are loving, compassionate, understanding, and most of all, so respectful. With each day that goes by, you are like a ray of sunshine that adds such joy and pleasure to our lives. We have watched you dance, sing, and act for many years, and people often say, "Aren't you so proud of her?", and I say, "I am proud not only of her talent which is a gift from God, but I am so proud of her being such a wonderful daughter, a good student, and most of all, a wonderful human being." Renee, as you prepare for college, our hearts feel so proud of you and thankful for the wonderful teachers at Linden High School who gave you such great opportunities to achieve your goals. We also feel a sadness to see you all grown up and getting ready to begin your adult life. We want you to know our love for you is so great and so strong that we hope this love will carry you to success, and much fulfillment in your life ahead. May God bless you and watch over you always.

Love,
Mom and Dad
