Dedication

We, the graduates, pause on the doorstep of the future to reflect. Behind us is a foundation of worthy ideals; beyond stretches a vast panorama with its maze of paths, a challenge to decision. We have been imbued with the spirit of the past; let us be inspired by this spirit as we go forward. Let us cross the threshold toward the fulfillment of our goals with a confident and steadfast step.

BIG BLAST

The new school addition, built in the 1957-1958 season, proved advantageous to all, as it provided an excuse for lack of concentration on academic endeavors.

"THIRTEEN" CAUSES FEAR

Students shivered as an unlucky number of thirteen faculty members was welcomed in September, 1956.

Sarsaparilla Craze Grips C.H.S.

The leader of this ill-fated rebellion staged in May, 1957, was promoted to the rank of "class hero" in reply to his famous request: "Could I be class hero, please, huh?"

SOMTA ACTS

The SOMTA committee contributed to education by establishing the Curtis H. Threlkeld Scholarship in honor of retiring teachers.

Mermen Continue to Highlight Sports Scene

Columbia swimming teams continued to dominate New Jersey interscholastic swimming competition as we added our class' class to championship teams.

Senior Play Draws Raves

The recent dramatic offering was greeted with such enthusiastic notices as: "absorbing" . . . Tribune, and "top-grade" . . . Times. (Leonard Tribune and Marvin Times are both enthusiastic friends of Senior-class members.)

Senior Class Headlines

PRESIDENT ELECTED

The presidential election of 1957 produced Howard Bruschi as new president of C.H.S. The president was immediately likened to George Washington by some, but others felt that Washington lacked too much of Bruschi's administrative zeal and popularity to be considered for comparison.

Guide Warmly Greeted

With the addition of the our new Senior class guide, Mrs. Rita Mears, a strange word appeared on the scene—"college."

"beauty and the beat" RATED UNBEATABLE

The 1957 Junior Night production, "beauty and the beat," scored an immediate success, prompting Brooks Winchell to write, "Don't they mean 'beast'?" and Walter Atkinson to remark, "Don't they dig capital letters?" The play may go down in history as the last of the traditional original Junior class presentations.

STUDENTS ENSLAVED

Many innocent sophomores were attracted and ensnared by clubs and committees, devices established for prolonging the length of the school day.

STUDENT BLUNDER

Often quoted in the sophomore year, in some cases far into the waning months, was the statement: "You're in the wrong lunch."

Prophecy

Fasten your seat belts, ladies and gentlemen, the first United States strato-cruiser, Cougard, is about to take off. Destination—Venus. Your pilot is jet ace, Francis Drake, and his co-pilot is the celebrated woman aviator, Liz Haug. The Cougard was designed by Drs. Mike Ledeen and Steve Putnam, eminent masters of the science of Space. In case of emergency, however, all passengers have been equipped with pressurized space suits, designed by science illustrator Lois Barrelli. All cigarettes out please—WE ARE BLASTING OFF!

Navigator George Wellington tells me that the Cougard is now 500,000 miles from earth, and that we will reach Venus in a matter of hours. Once there, we will embark upon the greatest mission ever undertaken by our government. Most of you on board are strangers to one another, and I have been asked by our game director, Mike Marcus, to urge you to socialize and participate in all activities possible during the trip, in order to keep up our morale. The coordinators of our trip to Venus are Linda and George Barbarosh, who will be mingling with you, should you have any last minute questions. Linguists Nancy Harris and Barbara Levine are our official communicators; they will be glad to supply you with a copy of Venish made Easy, upon request. Dr. Thomas Baum, inventor of the first outer space refueling station, is available below the mezzanine for those interested in the scientific aspects of our trip.

Other morale builders, including Bill Salisbury and Alice Goodman, are in the lounge, two flights down, ready to entertain. A fashion show for the women and all interested men will be held in 15 minutes. The show promises to be a good one. Models Marilyn Manson, Sherri Maurer, Susan Genser and Joan Button will doff their space suits for the latest in styles à la Venus, designed by Nancy Heller.

The magazine and newspaper shop downstairs is open for business. It has in stock a fine collection of best-sellers, including Jon Sutcliffe's famous science fiction work, Creature from the Crater, and Ed Hirsch's collection of Short Stories, entitled "Smarty."

Restaurant receptionist Betsy King has just sent word that dinner will be served in a half hour. Head waiter Carmen Nicosia has assured me that the menu includes food for every taste. The chef of the Cougard is David Curtis, who specializes in German dishes.

Our trip to Venus is the first in a series of interplanetary jaunts planned by our government. President Howard Bruschi hopes that these goodwill missions will increase our prestige at home and in outer space. We are an unarmed passenger ship; however, there are two marines in the hold, Bob Dubois and Bill Campbell, who are ready to take on any belligerent Venusians single handed. As an additional safety measure, The Petrozello Destroyer, a fully-armed war rocket, may be dispatched at a moment's notice from Earth should trouble occur.

I am sure all of you would like to know more about Venus, its people and its culture. Explorer Jim McAlister, first man to land on the moon, has visited Venus before. He and his cohorts, Chris Brenner and Dick Grover, well known hunters, will be available after the fashion show, with slides of their trip. After this lecture, artists Sandy Orlovsky and Alice Pfeiffer will show their interpretations of the average Venus man. Athletes Lynn Fader, Stuart Tauber, Bill Snow and John Williams under the leadership of their coach Norman Hammer, will be in the gymnasium to demonstrate the national sport.

Notice to all airsick passengers! The infirmary is located on the main level next door to the coffee shop. Drs. Dick Adelman and Mary Rankin are on duty at all times, assisted by nurses Sandy Masi, Anne Tiedeman, and Janet Swift.

For those in better health, a concert will be held shortly in the auditorium, starring Art Bartner, Seth Ulanet, Art Lerner, and Bob Danish. Later in the evening, dancers Marilyn MacKinnon, Bonnie Kurnos, Naomi Steinlight and Marcia Dyckman will entertain, as will singers Cynthia Sherman and Dot Rydgren.

For those of you who wish to become better acquainted with the Cougard, guide Don Turek is available for a tour. He will direct you to the observation platform where you will see stars, planets, and several other universes. Denny Blagden, historian extraordinaire, will lecture on the backgrounds of the various constellations. Publisher of Gruesome, foremost Mad magazine, Henry Goldberg, will be on hand to distribute copies of the latest issue.

Attention everyone, Venus is in sight! I see photographer Richard Miller snapping pictures of this truly splendid sight. Chuck Voight is already at the door, hoping to find a Venus of his own. We will not land for a few minutes yet, but great excitement reigns in the Cougard. Playwright Nan West has halted rehearsal for her latest play starring Mike Brandman and Myra Silver, which will have its première tonight on Venus. Magician Ed Feder has mistakenly pulled a skunk out of his hat, and well-known T.V. commentator Dennis Tepperman has misplaced his microphone. I can hear socialites Rochelle Paper, Sally Lewis, and Ellen Charin preparing a speech of welcome for the Vesuvians, under the direction of Jim Roberts and Steve Dickler, political experts. Ellen Greene and Ruth Rosen are composing a song in honor of the occasion, to be played by Roger Gisolfi and sung by Dee Lichtman. Jill MacDonough, staff secretary, is searching for her notebook, and Judy Wyant, morale booster, has fainted from excitement. Ron Van Cleave, of United Florists, is passing out boutonnières and corsages, much to the distress of Mike Lytell, who is sneezing violently.

The scene is one of joyous disorder, and an aura of expectancy prevails. What will lie beyond the door? We shall soon see—fasten your seat belts! The Cougard is coming in for a landing!

Class Will

For us, the class of '58
Has come the time to say good-bye;
And so the following we bequeath
To those we leave at Columbia High

We leave eternal love and thanks
To the team of Gray, Matthias, Mears
For all their counsel, guidance, help
In our goals for future years.

Remembering burns and sulphur smells
And grades we couldn't prize,
We bequeath the "third floor suite"
Smelling salts—economy size.

Judy Wyant leaves to Sue
The stylish raccoon coat
With hopes that she likes cough drops—
Yelling's murder on the throat.

We leave Miss Beach a medal
For service beyond her work
Deciding if we had headaches,
Or major tests to shirk.

His bishops, knights, his rooks and pawns
Peter Berlow will not leave.
We hope the chess team of '59
His equal can achieve.

Bob Slater leaves the diving board
Chuck, Jim, and Steve the pool;
But chlorinated water swallowed—
"Sorry, can't give back to school."

We've an itemized list of things to leave
We'll let you guess whom it's for:
It includes Atlantic Monthly, Tribune, Times,
And class notes, class notes by the score.

Although Lynn Fader graduates
CHS should still feel lucky,
Because he leaves our sports field
In the hands of brother Bucky.

Bill Reinhardt leaves to Mr. Mac
A history of classroom fights
Between the Northerner's opinions
And Bill's advocacy of States' Rights.

Rochelle, Marily and all the squad
Give up their rousing cheers
And will that their successors
Bring victory through the years.

To the Driver Ed. department
We leave an honorary award
For bravery and courage
In the Chevrolet and Ford.

Both Snow and Bartner gladly leave
The court to next year's men
In hope that baskets they will shoot
And victory see again.

Though George and Linda Barbarosh leave
We doubt that they'll get far
Because they still have not decided
Which one will take the car.

Bruschi, Drake and Hochman—
They ran the records' peaks
The cup, they left to CHS
To loyal fans, the sneaks.

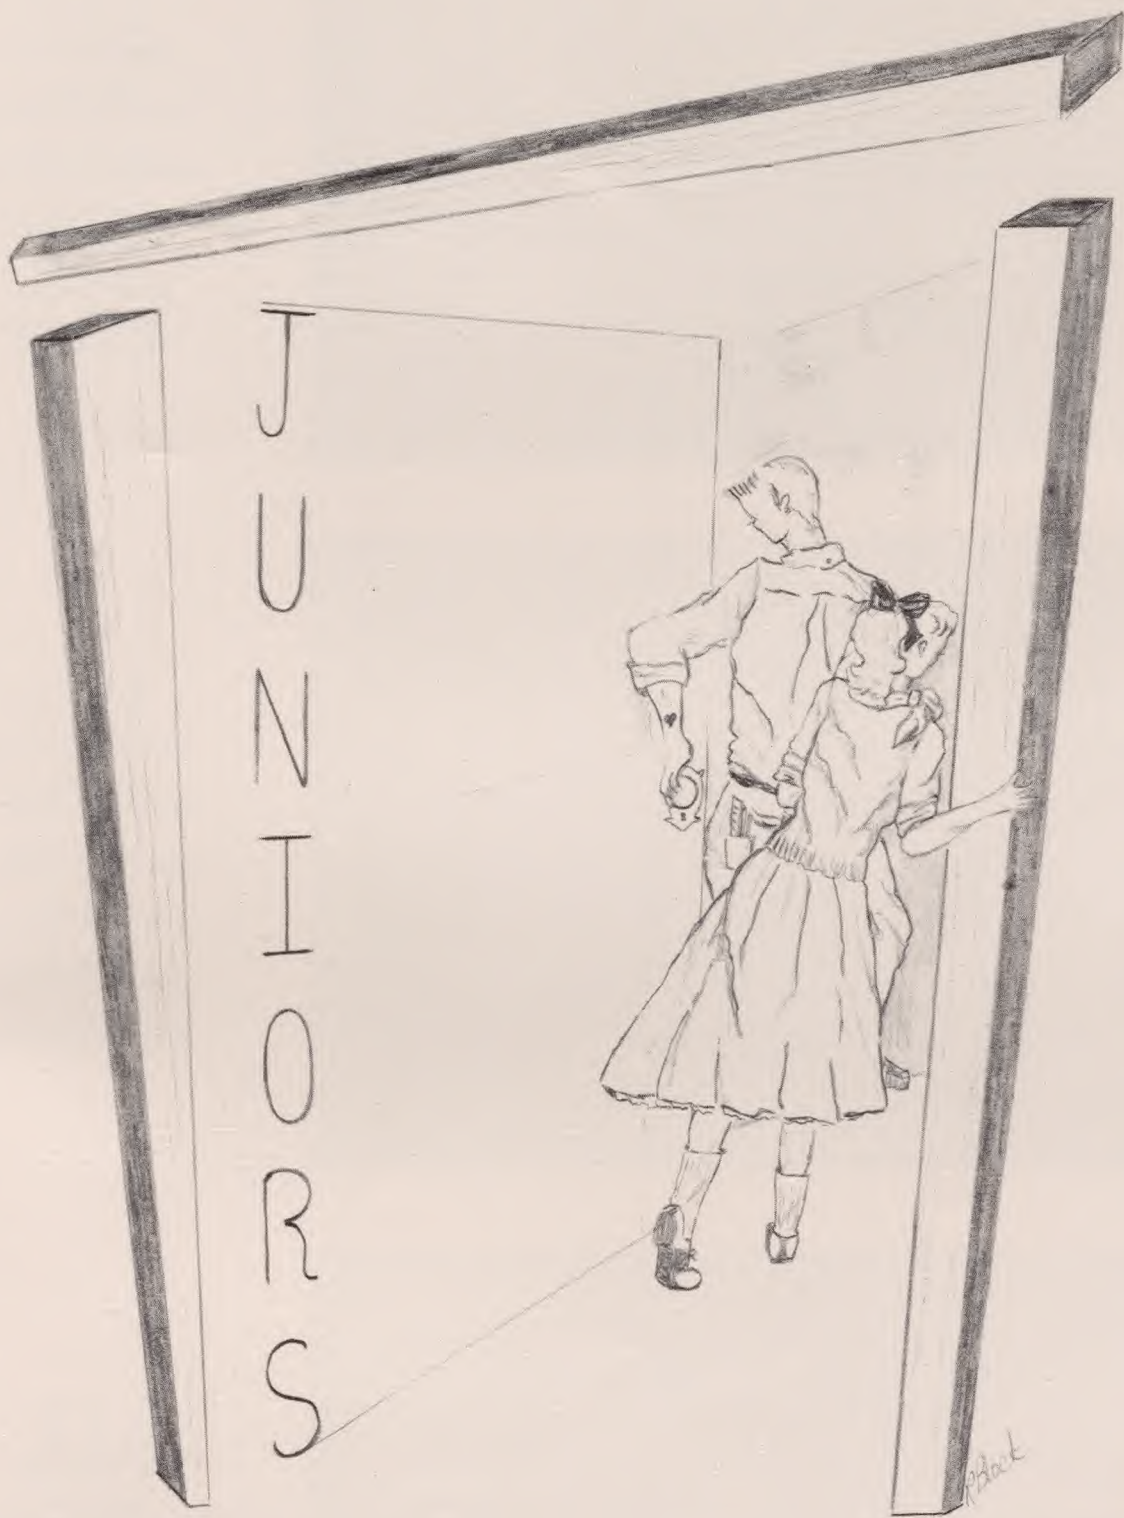

To next year's crop of Senior girls
We leave a great big heap
Of rings and pins and lavaliers
From boys we couldn't keep.

Myra and Mike and all the cast
Leave the Junior classmen to repeat
The fun that they experienced
Presenting "Beauty and the Beat."

Naomi Steinlight leaves the warning
That it really proves a curse
When in search of originality
One tries to "will" in verse.

Andy Kern and Ruthie Rosen
Are now joyous and make merry
As all Mirror problems they now leave
To Señora Palminteri.

No more pencils, no more books,
No more exams, o'er which to grieve;
It's into the future we are heading
As Columbia High School we now leave.

"Father of the Bride"

The stagedoors were opened wide by the Class of 1958 when they presented "Father of the Bride" by Caroline Francke on November 22 and 23, 1957.

It is hard to forget "Stanley your pants" "472 names on the wedding list" "Check and double check is my policy" "I always cry at weddings" "Are ya gonna move furniture or are ya gonna move furniture?" "Buckingham Caterers never fail" "beautiful but simple" "Let's go knock 'em dead! !!"

The director, Mr. J. Lloyd Browning, did an exceptional job with our senior Thespians in the production of "Father of the Bride"—another 'smash success'!

"Good News"

The Juniors took us back to the 1920's at their presentation of "Good News," a musical comedy by Laurence Schwab and B. G. DeSylva, on March 7 and 8.

It was the football season at Tait College in Vermont. Tom Marlowe, the football hero, was needed to win their big game of the year, but unless he could pass an astronomy exam he would not be able to play.

Raccoon coats, cheerleaders, the Varsity Drag, and a scene in the boys' dormitory added color and fun to the show. The sweetness of Constance Lane, the cleverness of Babe O'Day, the flirtatious ways of Patricia Brigham, and the pep of Bobby Randell highlighted a wonderful show.

Congratulations to Mr. Vincent L. Seguin, Mr. J. Lloyd Browning, Mrs. Judith R. Schechner, and the Class of 1959 for an outstanding production!

Verily, verily, I say unto you, it is not gold nor silver nor rich pearls but love and self-sacrifice that please the Lord. The Christ-Child was hungered and you gave Him meat,—a stranger and you took Him in.

Inasmuch as you have done it unto one of the least of these His Brethern, you have done it unto Him.

PLAINFIELD, October 5

The Cougars, in spite of the absence of 14 varsity players including Irwin Storz and Bob Schweid, put up a gallant fight but were defeated due to a last minute pass play. Captain Jim Petrozello and the Columbia line were outstanding. Bob Natiello scored the only Cougar TD on a buck from the 2.

Final score: 13-6

ORANGE, October 12

The rejuvenated Cougars bounced back to romp over a weak Orange team. Steve Frampton chalked up his first victory as new head coach of the Columbia squad. L. Fader, J. Williams, F. Castronova, S. Gallagher, and B. Schweid all scored. Jim Petrozello converted twice and Irwin Storz accounted for a safety. The total score, 46 points, was the most scored by a Columbia team since 1938.

Final score: 46-7

WESTFIELD, October 19

An overpowering Cougar 11 brought the crowd to its feet, with a decisive victory over the Blue Devils at Westfield. Once again, the Columbia line proved too much for the opposition. L. Fader, Bob Schweid, and Jim Petrozello tallied for the Cougars. Irwin Storz and Fred Schilling were strong on the line while Jim Petrozello converted three times.

Final score: 21-0

MONTCLAIR, November 2

The Mounties rolled over Columbia to defeat us, 35-0. Although we had a chance, the combination of R. and B. Haines and a firm Mountie line was too much for our stalled offense. Captain Jim Petrozello, Irwin Storz, and L. Fader turned in fine performances.

Final score: 35-0

KEARNY, November 9

Columbia recovered from its crushing defeat with Montclair to defeat Kearny decisively, 33-6. Coach Steve Frampton revamped the backfield inserting Bob Schweid at quarterback, and shifted L. Fader to a half-back position. Highlights of the game were L. Fader's strong running, Bill Davis' pass interception for a TD, and Fred Schilling's score on a blocked punt by Ziggy Gostkowski. Bob Natiello scored the final TD on a buck from the two.

Final score: 33-6

EAST ORANGE, November 16

Favored East Orange scored in the first quarter for 6 points but the Cougars weren't down for the count. The Columbia defense stalled the Panthers for the rest of the game while our offense clicked. In the second quarter, a B. Fader to L. Fader pass-play for 45 yards scored 6 with L. Fader converting for the extra point. Leading by a point and needing insurance, Columbia drove to the Panther 1 and were stopped. Several plays later, Bob Natiello went over for the TD and 6 points.

Final score: 13-6

MORRISTOWN, November 23

The Colonials with two good backs, Allison and Tillet, and a strong passing attack were too much for the Cougar eleven. B. Fader quarterbacked the game while his brother Lynn scored our only TD. Had our pass defense been sharper it might have been a different story. Bob Catena was outstanding on the line.

Final score: 25-7

WEST ORANGE, Thanksgiving Morning, November

For the third straight time, the Cowboys upset favored Columbia at Underhill Field, South Orange. Although outrushed on the ground, West Orange plugged away and tallied twice, both times in the fourth quarter. The lone Cougar TD came as a result of Sandy Gallagher's run. This loss brought the season's standings to 4-4.

Sports Summary

Sports commanded much attention at Columbia High School during the fall and winter of 1957. Cross Country and Swimming turned out to be the most successful; with Cross Country winning the Big Ten title and our swimmers coming in second at the State Meet at Princeton. The football team did a satisfactory job while the basketball team struggled through the season.

Coach Tom Weiner led the Cross Country Team to the Essex County Championship on November 5 after successfully defending the Big Ten Championship on November 1. On October 18, during the East Orange Meet, Richard Koeningsberg tied the Columbia High School record when he ran the distance of 215 miles in 12 minutes and 47 seconds. Harry Hochman broke the CHS record when he ran the distance of 2.5 miles in 12 minutes and 33 seconds on October 27. In winning the Big Ten, CHS placed five boys in the first 11, while in winning the Essex County Meet, we placed five boys in the first 15 with 88 competing. In gaining second place in the State Meet, we placed five boys in the first 40 with 200 competing. Harry Hochman and Rich Koeningsberg were outstanding all season and came in second and third respectfully in the Essex Meet. Also giving fine performances all season were Howard Bruschi, Bob Maier, Tom Bayer, Tom Moore, Terry Jacobs, and Francis Drake. Although many lettermen will be graduating this June, the Harriers will have a strong nucleus for next year. Congratulations!

Although the State Championship Swimming Crown sank into the greedy hands of Westfield, the varsity swimming team continued its fine streak of duel meets, winning ten out of twelve. Not only did Westfield win two duel meets from us but they also copped first place in the State Meet at Princeton. The Blue Devils amassed 66 points to our 46. At Princeton, Steve Lesnik won the 200-yard freestyle final and also took the 150-yard individual medley becoming the only double champion of the meet. Bob Slater won the diving championship with a brilliant performance. In regular competition, Lesnik set a new record for our pool, by beating the old record held by himself and Kelly, which is 1:40.3. New time . . . 1:39.8 in the 150 yard Individual Medley. Len Handel tied the old record for the 100-yard butterfly which was 1:05.3. Seniors Steve Rosenburgh, Chuck Mandelbaum, Len Handel, Jim Kridel, Jim McAlister, Bob Slater, and Pete Grant have been strong all season.

The varsity football team was sparked by the excellent quarterbacking of Lynn Fader. Under the leadership of Captain Jim Petrozello, the Cougar eleven entered the season with high hopes. It looked as though Columbia might win the Big Ten title but due to some tough breaks and "Mighty Montclair" we didn't. Columbia's line led by Erwin Storz, Jim Petrozello, Fred Schilling, Mike Marcus, and Bob Catena proved to be one of the strongest and most highly praised in the state. Teamed up with Lynn Fader in the backfield were Frank Castronova, Bob Natiello, John Williams, and Bob Schweid. Next year, Columbia can look forward to fine performances from Bob Schweid, Al Walters, Henry Hyatt, Bill Davis, Bucky Fader, Paul Severance, and Ziggy Gostkowski. These boys should represent a fine nucleus for next years team. Let's hope they better this year's record of 4-4.

G. A. A.

It is the aim of the Girl's Athletic Association to provide as complete and varied a program of activities as possible for its members. At the same time its objective is to promote the enjoyment of sports rather than to develop individual skills.

In the early fall the girls don shin guards and hockey sticks to start the chase of the great escape artist known as a hockey ball. During the indoor months volleyball, basketball, recreational swimming and water ballet are featured. With the coming of spring the girls try their hands with bat, ball and glove.

A feature of the club is the exchange playdays held in the various sports with teams from neighboring high schools.

The year's activities would not be complete without the Halloween, Christmas and final awards parties contributing extra gaiety to the busy life of the G. A. A.

When it comes to awards the girls are not ones to take a back seat. All through the year they have been hard at work earning enough points for their numerals and letters which they receive at the final party.

The club is under the leadership of the G. A. A. Council, which meets weekly to arrange the various club activities, and under the sponsorship of Miss Kuhlman and Miss Paskert.

ALMA MATER

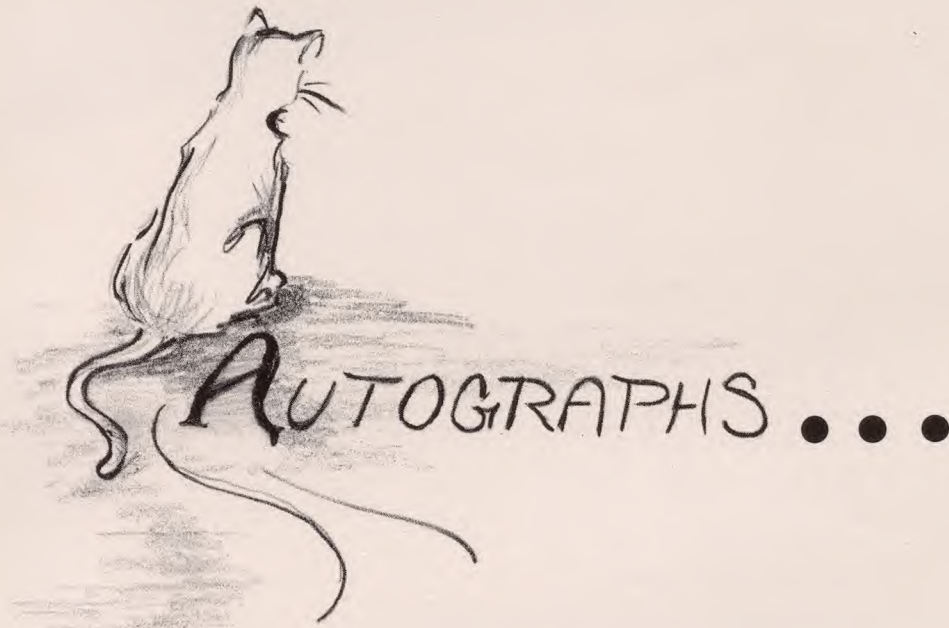

Oh! Columbia, thou hast taught us
The path that we should tread
By thy rules of pride and honor
In our work and play we're led.
In the years of life's hard struggle
We care not what's in store,
For thy motto is our motto
And our cry, "Excelsior!"
