shadows of youth

he is the new generation. he is faced with the problems of apathy and alienation. he learns to work well under pressure and he runs the 600 in 1:09. he can't get a space in the parking lot and "hell, no, he won't go." he is questioning the "new morality" and doesn't understand centripetal force. he is "disenchanted with lyndon johnson" and gets turned on by sgt. pepper. he battled the computer for his fourth period gym class and he doesn't groove on God. he talks during fire drills and devotes one day a week to a settlement house. he is looking to the future for answers.

“let us break out, and taste the morning prime . . .”

william ernest henley

“sweet are the
slumbers of the virtuous man.”

joseph addison

“when you work you
are a flute through whose heart the whispering of the hours turns to music.”

kahlil gibran

“which of us is not forever
a stranger and alone?”

thomas wolfe

“that indolent but
agreeable condition
of doing nothing.”

pliny the younger

“i walk the
peopled
city,
where
each
seems
happy
with his own . . .”

yoshikazu kagami: foreign exchange student from japan

it has been about seven weeks since i came to america. i managed to be accustomed to hard american life.

once i told you that eating is one of my hobbies. when i was in tokyo, i expected many things in america. the most expected thing was american food. next one was to make friends with american girls. i like american food very much. they are not so different from our foods. although there are many foods in america, i like hot dog and grape juice. they are the most favorite foods for me.

i'll tell you why i like them very much. in order to tell its reason, i have to tell you about my trip from tokyo to new york.

the first place where i landed in america was san francisco. i took an airplane from tokyo to san francisco, and from san francisco to new york, i had planned to take a bus. but when i had planned so, little did i dream that the travel would bring such a damage to me. for i lost so much weight. because i thought that it is better to take a bus than take an airplane to know america, i took a bus.

august 23rd, i arrived at san francisco. when i reached there, i was very, very hungry. i was almost starved to death. as soon as i got to a hotel, i went to eat something. it was a hot dog and grape juice that i had then. they were the first foods for me in america. but that night, the first night in america. but that night, the first night in america, i was attacked by a severe stomach disease. i could not sleep a wink that night. next morning, i got in a bus for new york. while i travelled, i had nothing except for hot dog and grape juice. in addition to that, i sometimes failed to eat lunch. because every night, i could not sleep, i had to sleep during the day. while i was taking a nap, the bus would pass a depot. and i could eat nothing until the bus stopped at the next depot.

it took three nights and four days, during my trip i was always fighting with hunger and thing when i was starved to death.

although i lost my weight, i am now living. i owe hot dogs and grape juice very much.

he affects eternity

glass menagerie 1966

silent observer of many lives, loves, and deaths, a stage gathers a disposition peculiar to itself. even an unlit bare stage is not without a pulsing undercurrent of sensual memory . . . echoes of soft songs, bitter soliloquies, and thrilling fight scenes give what could be merely an old platform, a living breathing character.

carnival-1966

when an audience sees the polish and ease of an opening night, it never suspects the toil that has created a production out of chaos. rehearsal upon rehearsal, repetition upon repetition slowly works up a sea of turbulent frustration. nothing seems to hang together. no one seems to know what he is doing. the play is fragmented, messy looking, a hopeless entanglement of unconnected scenes. one week to go, and a pervading tenseness seeps into the air. pessimism is the prevalent emotion when, suddenly, something clicks, like an evil magic spell whose charm has unexpectedly been broken.

after the curtain falls, the set is struck, and the play itself is once again only to be found on paper. but something lingers that is not lost even after the lines have been long forgotten. when the last curtain call has been made and the last bows have been taken a quick but definite hush falls over the cast, a second's realization of the end. then uncontrollable tears, hugs, kisses and general warmth flood the stage. vows of undying friendship may be made in an effort to stave off the inevitable, but something dies with the end of a play that is always remembered but never recaptured.

hometown football fans often label an unsuccessful season as a rebuilding year. in the case of the 1967 columbia high football team, this diagnosis would be correct. new head coach harry johnston, former j.v. basketball mentor, replaced the i formation, used by the cougars in previous years. columbia, unfamiliar with their new offense, and hindered by a plethora of inexperience on its players, faced one of the toughest schedules in the state that included three of the top ten teams, and finished with a creditable 2-7 record.

in their maiden voyage, the cougars found rough seas in morristown. after a scoreless first half, morristown broke through for a score. three plays later, a poor snap from center prevented quarterback ken nichols from punting and he was tackled on the ten yard line. morristown scored easily to make the final score 13-0.

in the home opener, the cougars were victimized by five long touchdown runs by Plainfield backs. After the first of these scampers, columbia marched 68 yards for their first tally of the season, a one-yard plunge by nichols.

a "statue of liberty" play from nichols to rich swift, and strong running by mick bushio accounted for most of the yardage. the cougars took over again in the third quarter after a blocked punt by richard johnston. nichols again provide the score. unfortunately, plainfield controlled the ball for the rest of the game and went on to win, 31-12.

in a thursday afternoon game at underhill field, columbia upset orange 20-13 in an injury marred game. the first columbia score was by kevin hunt who recovered a punt blocked by jack todd and johnston. other columbia scores were on a brilliant forty yard touchdown scramble by nichols, and a short three yard ramble by halfback mike buschio.

at nutley, the cougars held the maples scoreless for the first quarter and marched to the nutley one yard line in the second quarter. however, the cougars were unable to score and lost by a score of 21-0.

despite a stunning aerial show by nichols and bob giordano, the cougars fell to montclair, 33-7.

two first half fumble recoveries by nichols gave columbia good field position but the red and black failed to score both times. the lone touchdown came on a 23 yard pass from nichols to giordano.

evan sorrette's touchdown on an interception gave columbia a 7-0 lead against kearny. kearny bounced back, however, to take a 21-7 lead. the cougars scored once more on a one yard plunge by swift to make the final score 21-14.

east orange, the number one team in the state, encountered very little opposition from the cougars at underhill field, as they pounded out a 32-0 victory. east orange dominated all aspects of the game.

after a thanksgiving flood had forced the postponement of the annual west orange-columbia game, the cougars punched out a 6-0 victory on the following although overwhelmed by the volume of noise that the average eleven spectators were able to make, coach eugene chyzowich was able to produce the most successful soccer team in the history of columbia high school.

this was the year mr. c. had been anticipating. his booters compile the first winning season in the six years that the sport has been played at columbia, with an unexpected 8-3-3 record.

beginning the season with an impressive 2-0 victory over livingston, the booters remained undefeated through the first seven games. one surprise during these encounters, was a 1-1 tie with bloomfield, last year's state champions. during the game, the cougars held the lead through three quarters, until a late goal tied the score. after suffering three defeats in the next four games, the team came back with three consecutive victories over east orange, cranford, and mountain high.

cobs and erich symes, qualified for the state tournament. unfortunately, they were paired with union high in the first round and were defeated in a respectable battle, 2-0.

the reasons for this success were varied. from the talented cougar forward line, headed by jay jacobs, glen brauchli, and harvey simon, to the tenacious defense, including ricky goldberg and erich symes, to the capable goal tending of ivan friedrich, the team was a winner.

it was an exceptionally rewarding season for mr. c., for three of his boys received all-county recognition. jacobs was selected to the second team, junior jim burks to the third team, and sophomore star john rij made honorable mention.

since this year's squad was comprised of mostly juniors and sophomores, the highly respected mr. chyzowich should be able to lead his booters to bigger and better things in the future.

Led by junior Marty Halmo and senior co-captain Jeff Larkin, the 1967 Cougar cross-country team proved itself to be one of the best in Columbia High School history. Under the direction of coach Jack Parish, the harriers terrorized all opponents, winning all twelve of their dual meets.

Paced by Halmo (3rd place) and Larkin (7th place), the Cougars finished third in the Big Ten Meet. Tom Streiferdt finished 10th, Tom Guter 18th, and Jack Friedlander, 19th. At the meet Halmo broke his own school record made at Branch Brook Park, with a time of 12:33. The Cougars also placed first in the Essex County Meet, beating second place Montclair by a score of 89-121.

In the Sectionals, the Cougars, with Larkin sidelined, ran strongly and finished third. Halmo (3rd place) broke the school record at Warinanco Park with a 12:48. Behind Halmo finished Streitferdt (16th), Guter (23rd), Friedlander (37th), and Andy Dietz (49th). The harriers finished the season with a strong showing in the State Meet.

During the course of the season, Halmo set many school records. With his return next season, and with the return of many other excellent runners from this year's squad, Columbia's future as a cross-country power in this state looms large.

despite the presence of superstar robby west, for the past two years the cougar cagers had finished with 7-11 records. the reasons for this decline were obvious: injuries and lack of a good big man to rebound. this year both problems were solved—columbia managed to remain relatively healthy and senior ron beal, returning after an injury-riddled 1966 season, filled the void at center. subsequently the red and black basketball team streaked to third place in the big ten, with a 13-5 mark, and a place in the 50th new jersey state basketball tournament.

with beal to share the scoring burden with him, co-captain west blossomed into the all-around player that he had been expected to be. he led the team with 107 assists and was the third leading rebounder, while still managing to hit for almost 17 points per game. robby did all of this with opposing defenses keying on him. he also became the first player in columbia history to score 1000 points. co-captain beal paced the team in scoring with a 19 point-per-game average, while hitting on 49% of his field goal attempts. he set school records with 283 rebounds and an average of 15.7 caroms per game.

schechter and junior guards steve burrell and marc levin, the cougars bowed two times to one of the top teams in the state, orange high, and twice to a taller bloomfield squad, and to east orange once. they were particularly strong against west orange, beating the tenacious cowboys at home and coming from behind in an excellent game to edge them in their own gym.

in their late season drive for the states, they also had to overtake kearny and east orange at home in the last quarter. in the regular season's finale, the columbia five became the first squad to break the 100-point barrier in a 102-47 romp at nutley.

the key to the team's success was their smooth teamwork and rugged zone defense. the bench also rose to the challenge on several occasions. when schechter was sidelined with an eye injury and levin twisted an ankle, senior norm schaffer and junior blair zwillman filled in admirably. rugged lacrosse star bob maher came on strong at the end of the season to provide board strength.

after the final shellacking of nutley, the cougars met their match in the state tourney, losing to barringer, 59-53. a final analysis definitely shows that the fate of the team depended upon seniors beal and west. without ronney to sweep the boards and robby to direct the attack, the cougars would have been just another .500 ball club. next year burrell, levin, and zwillman will have to pick up the scoring slack and coach fred booth will have to find a new big man if the 1969 cougars are to equal this year's record. despite their efforts, the thrills provided by west, beal, schechter, and the rest of the graduating seniors will long be remembered by columbia hoop fans.

coach hector's wrestling team again compiled a winning record, finishing the season with an impressive 6-2-1 record and a creditable showing in the district matches. coach hector should be proud of his team, which conquered its foe without the aid of any real superstar.

the real success of the team lies in the fact that although there were no superstars, the team had good depth and balance. they could therefore absorb individual defeats while gaining team victories. herein rested the real strength.

there were, of course, many excellent wrestlers. the team's most consistent grapplers were seniors mike celi, john gabrielli, and captain tim scovill, and junior frank devivo. all four of these boys won six of their matches with celi and gabrielli losing only one, scovill losing two, and devivo losing three. both gabrielli and scovill highlighted their columbia wrestling careers with second place finishes in the districts.

although columbia was crushed by such wrestling powers as montclair and millburn, extremely satisfying victories were registered against west orange, nutley, kearny, plainfield, bloomfield, and belleville. although this year's team had more victories than last year's, this does not tell the whole story. a look at the scores will show how close several of the meets were, with irvington being defeated by only one point.

other leading grapplers for the cougars this year were seniors frank basilico, lou trevisan, eduardo orett, dave crocket, john paul, dennis waton, and dennis fleming.

with the graduation of most of his varsity performers, mr. hector could be facing a more difficult season next year. however, with the development of this year's fine junior varsity team, next year's team may prove to also be a winner.

after dropping two of their first three meets, one to perennial swimming power westfield and the other to plainfield, this year's swimming team bounced back to win nine of the ten remaining dual meets. except for the second loss to westfield, coach frampton's penguins were powerful victors in all of those meets, sweeping all events.

the highlights of the dual meet season came against east rutherford and morristown. against east rutherford, the penguins won all 10 events. they won 7 of 10 against morristown and scored lopsided victories in both meets.

columbia's success continued in the essex county swimming championship. the cougars finished second to newark academy in the 12-team field. although there were no individual winners on the team, columbia swimmers placed in every event and it was a fine team effort. columbia finished with 44 points, 18 points ahead of its nearest competitor, although far behind the academy.

senior co-captain bob goldblat was columbia's outstanding performer in the meet. he finished second in the 200 yard freestyle and 4th in the 100 yard freestyle. other excellent performances were recorded by bob skarzynski 4th in the 100-yard breaststroke and 6th in the 200 individual medley, jim lewis, 4th in the 100-yard butterfly, and herb feins and frank newman, who finished 4th and 5th respectively in the diving competition. seniors bruce rafel and rich steinwurtzel also performed creditably.

although coach frampton will be losing these stars and larry freundlich and ron dornbusch from graduation, he can look forward to another winning year.

"Wherever the standard of freedom and independence has been or shall be unfurled, there will be America's heart, her benedictions, and her prayers. But she goes not abroad in search of monsters to destroy . . . She well knows that by once enlisting under other banners than her own, were they even the banners of foreign independence, she would involve herself beyond the power of extrication, in all the wars of interest and intrigue, of individual avarice, envy and ambition, which assume the colors and usurp the standards of freedom. The fundamental maxims of her policy would insensibly change from liberty to force . . . She might become the dicatress of the world. She would no longer be the ruler of her own spirit."

John Quincy Adams

"If we were not already involved as we are today in Vietnam, I would know of no reason why we should wish to become so involved, and I could think of several reasons why we should wish not to . . . I think our military involvement in Vietnam has to be recognized as unfortunate, as something we would not choose deliberately, if the choice were ours to make all over again today, and by the same token, I think it should be our government's aim to liquidate this involvement just as soon as this can be done without inordinate damage to our prestige or to the stability of conditions in that area."
