ROOM

Maplewood Memorial Library
Maplewood, New Jersey

The 1969 yearbook staff of
COLUMBIA HIGH SCHOOL, MAPLEWOOD, NEW JERSEY,
presents . . .

The background of the entire page is a complex, abstract composition of overlapping arrows and geometric shapes. Some arrows are solid grey, while others are outlined in grey. They point in various directions, creating a sense of movement and conflict. The shapes include triangles, rectangles, and curved lines, all rendered in a monochromatic grey palette against a light background.

'down'

. . . june, '69! i can hardly believe it i'm young i'm old i'm changing. i'm seeing wrongs i'm observing ignorance and hate and stupidity . . .

'up'

. . . june, '69! it's a funny time,
i'm looking ahead i've got a lot happening i've got a lot happening! the future is beautiful, lovely, soon! the future is ahead, the future . . .

MIRROR

'back'

. . . flipping pages, good-bye to columbia, good-bye, so many memories and it's over, i loved it i hated it and . . .

'forward'

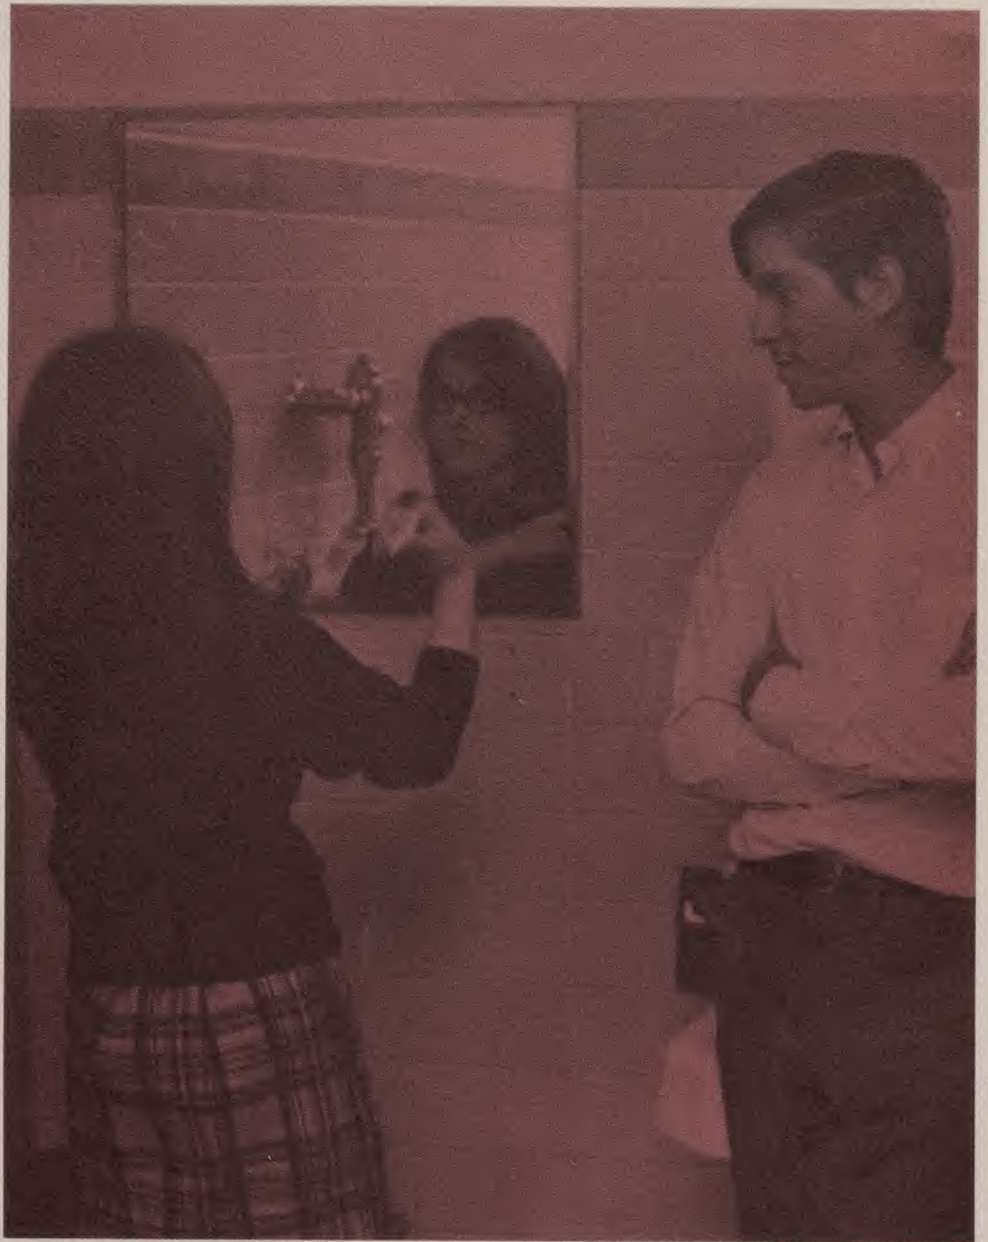

. . . june, '69! i can hardly believe it . . . funny time . . .
good-bye . . . seen so much, learned so much . . .
so little seen so much so many . . .
more decisions so . . .
good-bye, so . . .
hello . . .

"DIRECTIONS"

Our minds are sometimes filled with other things . . . too often, perhaps . . . or not often enough . . . we think, we grow, we doodle, we whisper . . .

The inner sanctum of the bathrooms is a place to think your great ideas . . . or it may be just a drag.

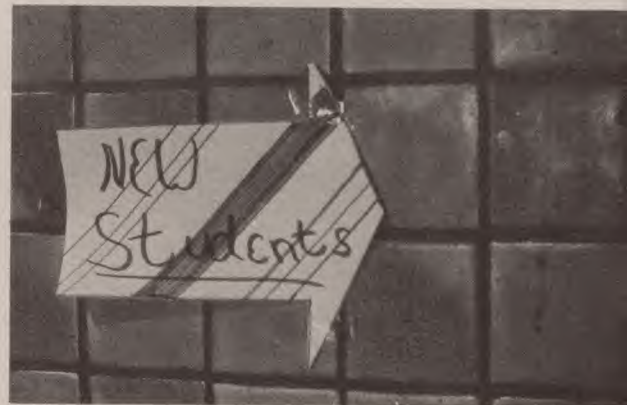

Misery is:

“A” lunch . . . getting stuck with the corn, potatoes, and salad when all you want is the veal . . . “E” lunch . . . all spiced ham and no peanut butter and jelly

Stairways! Unbelievable! . . . it's a sardine scene . . . uPdOWn! . . . how many squashed toes and tired feet . . . a menagerie of people! . . . four minutes of free time to "do your thing" . . .

Choice of nine
"things": stairway
one, two, three, four,
etc.

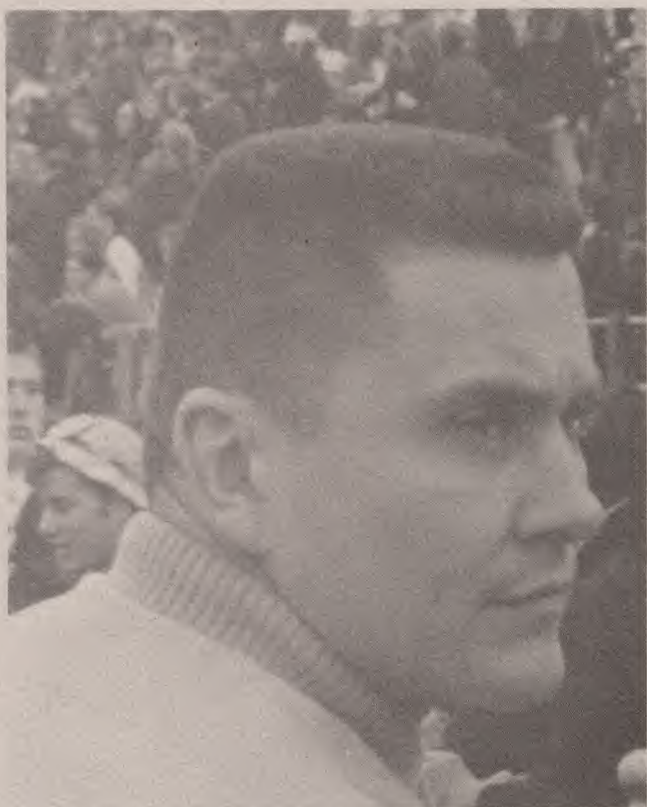

“... climb to the treetops, child, if you’re able ...”

— Richie Havens

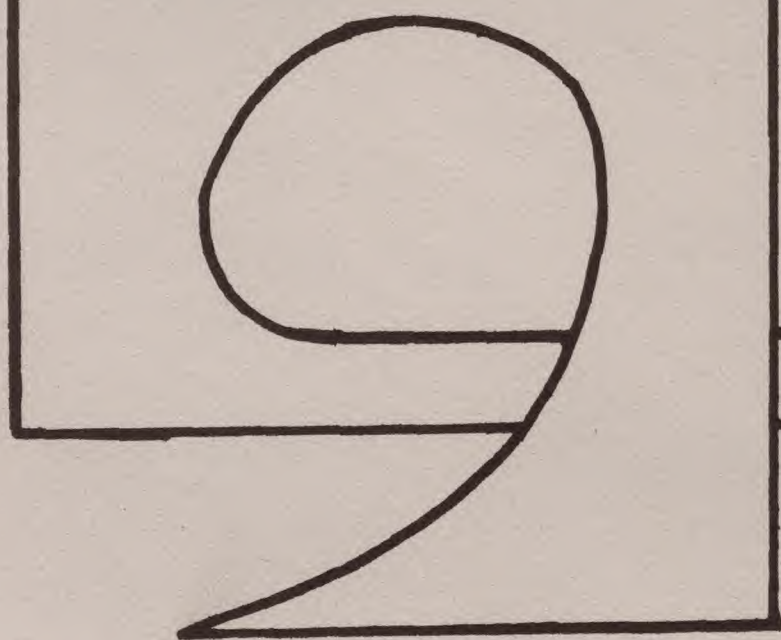

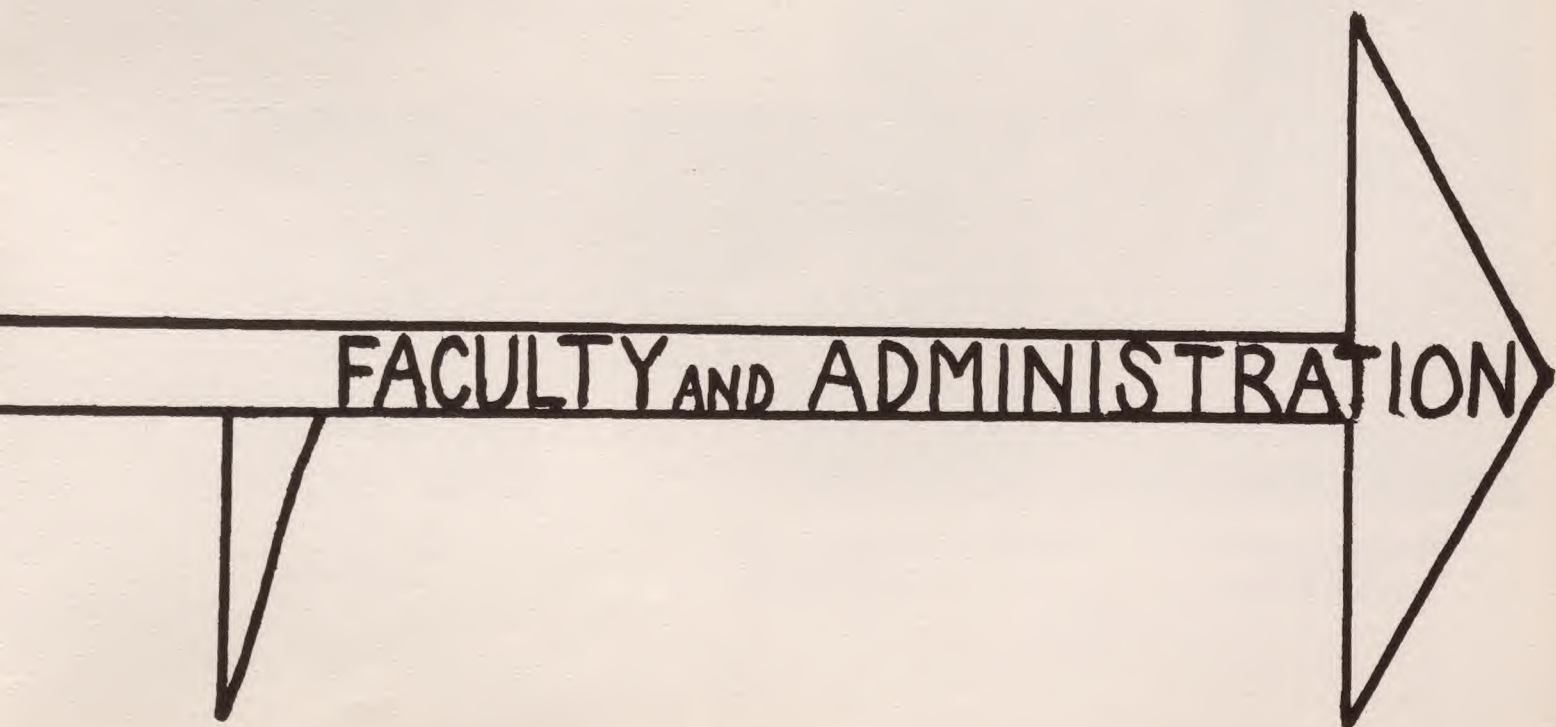

In an age when the younger generation and the adult world are constantly conflicting, and students and administrators across the country are in a perpetual state of disharmony, one man transcends both the generation and communication gaps. Students at Columbia High School have found a man who not only listens to their problems, but who can aid and advise them as well.

In recognition of his sincere guidance and friendship, the 1969 Mirror is exuberantly dedicated to Mr. Donald C. Griesel, a man of exceptional understanding.

STUDENT EXCHANGE

Ranjit Appadurai (Ceylon), Monica Apparicio (Argentina), and Mikio Kuwayama (Japan) speak at the assembly. Missing from picture: Carlos Fanjul (Guatemala) and Frank Wheelock (Nicaragua).

Mikio confers with Mr. Jacobsen.

“ . . . Clasp the hands and know the thoughts of men in other lands . . . ”

John Masefield

Ignorance of ideas foreign to us is the basis of prejudice. The Student Exchange program has provided the students of Columbia High School with an invaluable opportunity to investigate the cultures of our neighbors. During our three years at Columbia we have been privileged to host students from countries as diverse as South Africa, Guatemala, Ceylon, and of course our annual guest from Japan. Now, because of modern transportation and communication, there is no country that is not our neighbor. We cannot ignore any nation, nor can we pass judgement on their customs; we can only attempt to understand and accept them.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the graduating class of 1969, leave Columbia High School forever. We take with us many memories, both good and bad; but there are several things that we want to leave behind.

We, the back-table majority of H.R. 108, leave to Mr. Hannes Jane Winick's laugh to haunt him for the rest of his days.

We, H.R. 314, leave Mr. DeMarco a completed senior exemption plan.

We, the cheerleading squad, leave to Mr. Booth next year's cheerleaders.

We, the seniors, leave to Mr. Griesel a bottle of Excedrin for Excedrin headache number 232.

We, students of H.R. 347, leave Ken Howry our STP sticker.

We, H.R. 314, leave Lukas Charles his first name, whichever one it is.

We, of Study Period CD, leave Senior Study a bottle of coke and a money changing machine.

I, Shelly Solomon, leave Mr. Woodbury a tube of red lipstick.

We, Richard Eisner and Dave Evans, bequeath our accumulation of four emergencies in two years to those students who occupy our seats in Mr. Pantazes' next cream-of-the-cropper class.

We, Gordon Chang and Janie Slackman, leave our 'knack' for adding color.

We, Judie Simpson, Nancy Scott, and Mary Ellen Menza, leave our mouths, a bottle of aspirin, and a bottle of mouth wash to next year's coat girl.

I, Judy Gottfried, leave several posters of Mr. Amsden to be placed in strategic locations around the school.

I, Larry Chiger, leave three kilos to President Conlon and Mayor Hume, Captains of the Marijuana Marauders.

We, Nancy Spitalnick and Julie Goldberg, leave Columbia high.

We, the respectful students of Mr. Arnie Stark, leave "for a small fee."

I, Boob Hubley, leave my goldfish to any hungry sophomore.

We, the seniors, leave Mrs. DeVinney harassed, without change, but with infinite patience.

I, Monica Jacobson, leave my birth certificate to anyone who thinks that my accent is a fraud.

I, Stuart Kestenbaum, bequeath my position as school electric head to Danny Lippman.

We, the Assembly Committee, leave to look for a respectful audience.

I, an anonymous senior boy, leave for Vietnam . . . or Canada.

We, the senior class of 1969, leave to the underclassmen: senior study; college applications; final exemptions; parking spaces; senior slump; senior assembly; chemistry labs; the Alma Mater; interviews; cut days for getting your license, having a college interview, extra long vacations, finishing a term paper, missing a test . . .

CLASS PROPHECY

The Revolution has finally arrived!

Due to a fantastic coup led by President HOWARD EULE, formerly known as the perennial presidential candidate of the losing party, the United States government has been taken over by the youth of America. Surprisingly, several members of the 1969 graduating class of Columbia High School have been appointed to certain key posts.

Vice President GORDON CHANG, speaking on behalf of the President, announced the appointments of TONY GORDON, PETER SHAPIRO, and PAUL SCHATZKIN as Joint Chiefs of Staff. This followed the announcement of MICHAEL GILBERT as head of the Air Force Academy. Other major appointments were BONNIE FINKLESTEIN as head of the President's Council for Physical Fitness; JAMES COUGHLIN as head of the Food and Drug Administration; ALEC SIMON as Secretary of Defense; LORIE KREITCHMAN as head of Consumer Affairs; SUSAN LEVIN as head of Health, Education, and Welfare; RICHARD GREIFINGER as head of the Selective Service Bureau; and ELLEN LEWIS as head of Medicare. There was a great deal of controversy over the reappointment of J. Edgar Hoover as head of the F.B.I. The opposition to this move was led by ELLEN SHOSHKES, Speaker of the House, DON SMITH, Governor of Alabama, LANCE TICHENOR, head of the Peace Corps, and BARBARA LIPPMAN, chairman of the Senate committee on Un-American Activities, who claims that Mr. Hoover is a Communist infiltrator.

In order to improve relations with the industries of America, President EULE is meeting tomorrow with the presidents of major corporations. Among the participants at this meeting will be MIKE BUSICHIO, president of Ace Comb Company; LOU LORIA of Brooks Brothers; CHARLIE WHARTON, head of Schick Razor Company; DOTTIE ASKEW, president of Brillo Company; and ALLEN KLEIN, head of Dow Chemicals.

IRA LUKENS continues his role as God.

SOCCER

With eighteen lettermen returning from an 8-3-3 record in 1967, Coach Chyzowych and co-captains Skeffington and Schewior led the 1968 Cougar soccer team to a 7-2-5 mark. Injuries, bad luck, and a lack of scoring prevented what could have been a 13-1 slate.

The key games were a 0-0 tie vs. powerful Bloomfield, and a 1-1 tie vs. Montclair which qualified the team for the state tournament. In the season finale, junior Rij broke two school scoring records, and the goalies tied the season shutout record.

The Tournament game was a disappointment, as Westfield scored two early goals and held on to win 2-0. Next year, led by co-captains-elect Rij and Bihun, the team could be just as successful.

Skeffington demonstrates a scissors kick.

Although not finishing with an impressive record, the 1968 Columbia football team surprised many of its strong opponents with well fought games. The inexperienced Cougar squad led by Coaches Johnston, Fletcher, and Booth, was faced with one of the toughest schedules in the state, finishing with a 1-8 record.

After losing the first two games, the Cougars met Livingston in an exciting contest. The defense played brilliantly, holding the opposition scoreless until the last ten seconds, at that time losing 3-0 on a field goal. In their next contest, Columbia came close to defeating Orange, although "Close only counts in horse shoes," as Coach Johnston often says. The final tally was 13-6, the Orange defense holding off the hungry Cougars.

In the next three games, the team was simply outclassed by powerful teams from Nutley, Montclair, and Kearny. However, in their eighth game the Cougars played well, holding the state champions from East Orange to a 27-9 win.

In the last game of the season, the traditional Thanksgiving Day Game against archrival West Orange, the Cougars revenged themselves after a disappointing season. The Columbia offense ran over West Orange, the defense stopping them cold, in a 26-0 victory that delighted both the team and the loyal fans.

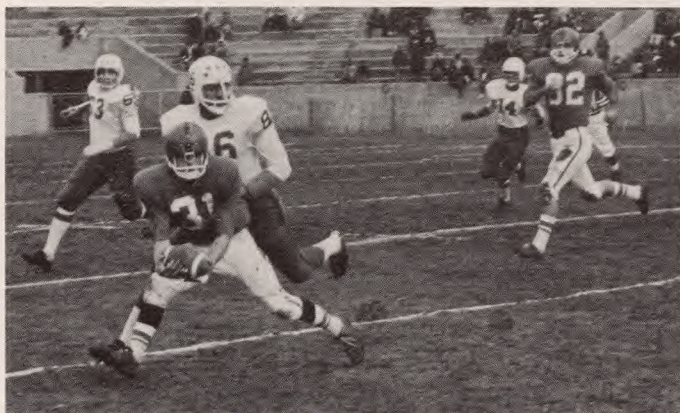

Next year's squad, under the continuing guidance of Coach Johnston, has better prospects. Although Busichio, Pew, Hume, Malekoff, and other starters will graduate, the 1969 Cougars will have lettermen Smilow, Sorrett, and Farmer for blocking, as well as Pouliot and Martz for running.

CROSS COUNTRY

Coach Parish checks Halmo's time.

The 1968 Cougar Cross Country team, plagued by injuries, finished with an impressive 11-1 dual meet record, losing only to an excellent Bloomfield team. Led by record-breakers Marty Halmo and Tom Streitferdt, they placed third in the county meet, fourth in the sectionals, and a disappointing fourteenth in the state tourney. With the top ten runners graduating, next year's squad will be lucky to match this year's fine team.

Back row: Gunter, Nichols, Gibbons, Metzger, Landsman, Hood. Middle row: Goodman, Schnedker, Schula, Wygera, Kaplan, Blau, Churchill, Saines, Coach Parish. Front row:

Merrigan, Dietz, West, Cerza, Friedlander, Halmo (captain), Dietz, Deckert. Missing: Streitferdt.

The team catches a long-awaited breath.

BASKETBALL

The 1968-69 CHS basketball team, suffering from a lack of height and strength, ended the season with a below-average record of 8 and 10. The lack of board strength, along with the power and size of some of the other Big 10 teams, proved to be a decisive factor in a rather disappointing season.

Co-captains Steve Burrell and Marc Levin both played consistently well in their backcourt positions, while juniors Doug Rush and Steve Crandall, many times giving up several inches to their larger opponents, performed admirably. Seniors Blair Zwillman and John Gubernat were both plagued with injuries, which hurt Cougar rebounding strength. Larry Austin, Doug Katz, Steve Horowitz, and Ray Gerber provided the needed bench strength.

Although its record was disappointing, this year's squad, lacking the superstars of the past years, proved to be more of a team than a group of individuals. Their game was characterized by hustle, aggressiveness, and teamwork — great assets. The season was typified by a frustrating loss, 61-68, to archrival West Orange in double overtime. After several clutch comebacks, the Cougars were simply overwhelmed by the Cowboys, who could seemingly do no wrong.

Next year's prospects appear good with the return of veterans Doug Rush, Steve Crandall and Steve Horowitz, as well as some top J.V. performers. Although they will lack height, a continuation of this year's hard-fought basketball may make them a top-notch team.

SWIMMING

After an opening loss to Westfield, perennial swimming champs, Columbia rebounded to win its next six consecutive meets. The Penguins then continued to complete the season with a very respectable 9-3 record, finishing second in the Essex County championship.

This year's swim team displayed phenomenal strength, smashing many pool records. Leading the pack of record breakers were Dan Gobel and Bob Skarzynski.

Co-captains Ken Miner and Lance Tichenor believed that this year's team was the strongest in Columbia's history. In every event the Penguins displayed great ability while defeating their opponents. Coach Frampton could always count on Jim Lewis and Bob Stetson to finish one-two in the butterfly. Attis Jurka, a transfer student from Barringer, also gave the team additional strength.

Although many of the stars will be graduating this year, Coach Frampton can depend upon another powerful team next year.

The Penguins get off to a strong start.

Under the fine tutelage of Coach Al Hector, the Columbia wrestling team once again had a winning season, posting a 7-4 record, despite a rugged schedule and many injuries. The highlights of the dual-meet campaign were a 38-6 victory over Plainfield and a 37-11 triumph over West Orange. In tournament action the grapplers finished fifth in the Christmas tourney and a close second in the post-season District championships.

Individually, the Cougars were led by Captain Cortese. Gary, after an unlucky second in the Christmas competition, finished the season 8-0, with 5 pins, and became District champ at 141 pounds. Others with outstanding records were Brian Lynn (9-2), Craig Seltzer (8-3), and Bob Hume (8-3, with 6 pins). Joining Cortese as District winners were juniors Jon Gross (98 pounds) and Greg Pouliot (157 pounds). These two will be the nucleus of what should be another fine squad next year.

The 1969 edition of The Mirror was printed and bound by the American Yearbook Company, Cambridge, Maryland. It was printed on two types of paper: eighty pound texturetone white and grey contempore, with black #2 and Tempo 200 Maroon inks. Headlines are set in 30 pt.; text, 10 pt.; and captions, 8 pt. News Gothic type. The cover is by S.K. Smith Company, Chicago, Illinois. It is jet black orangutang grain with red silk-screened printing on 160 pt. binders' board. Special effects in the opening signature include two-color Direct Line, Amline Duotone, tinted Half-tones, and white Bourges ghosting.

Official photographers are Lorstan-Thomas Studios of Newark with a branch in Union, New Jersey.

Special thanks are due Mr. Wynne Murchison American Yearbook Company's representative to Columbia, for his constant guidance and advice and to Mr. Virgil Spencer, American Yearbook Company production manager in Cambridge. We would also like to express our appreciation to Mrs. Doris Fitzsimmons for her special help this year.
