It was the best of times,

It was the worst of times ...

Ref.
1985
CHS 7-85

And even after we are gone, memories of Columbia will linger on,

never to be forgotten.

Times when we laughed and cried together, and gained strength and knowledge from one another.

Memories of close friends and warm times which cannot be erased.

Together we strove for the same goals,

Yet each of us had our own dreams to reach for.

Many seasons pass, bringing us closer to the end of our beginnings.

Someday we will go our separate ways, yet each will remember . . .

the way we were.

THE MIKADO

In the spring of 1984, the Columbia stage was transformed into ancient Japan for the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta The Mikado. With the help of director Mrs. Pat Lawler, musical director Mr. Wayne Fenstermacher, choreographer Mrs. Ann Krohley, and a great cast and chorus, the show was a great success.

FRANCE

The Eiffel Tower

In the spring of 1984, six students traveled to France with Mr. Peter Ioso. April in Paris was every bit as beautiful as the stories tell! After three days of shopping, touring, dancing, and dining in the "City of Lights," the group traveled south to Avignon, arriving just in time to see the sun rise over the Palais des Papes. Two days were spent exploring the Roman ruins in Nîmes before traveling to the extraordinary Côte d'Azur. The spiraling cliffs ascending above the sapphires and emeralds of the Mediterranean were breathtaking. Before leaving Europe, the group spent a glorious day traveling through the French Alps to Geneva. A spectacular fondue dinner at a famed Swiss hotel was the perfect way to end a trip that will always be remembered.

During April vacation of 1984, seventeen students visited Madrid, Spain for eight days. Led by their chaperones, Mr. Bill Price and Ms. Anne Dale, the students toured sites in and around Madrid. Several of these tours were provided by the Spanish Heritage Association, including those of Cuenca, Avila, and "la ciudad encandada."

When not on tour the students were allowed to see the city on their own. Some of this time was spent buying gifts for family members and friends. One popular item was Lladros. These are porcelain figures made exclusively in Spain.

When it came time to leave, several members of the group vowed that they would return in the future. All of the students returned to America with many souvenirs, photographs and memories.

The only word that could be used to describe the camping trip is "magic." Magic in the people, magic in the tree tops, and magic in the lake. Maybe the magic was always in ourselves and the trip has the power to bring out that magic. It brings out a side of us that most people are afraid to show. It brings out the true person in each of us. You meet new friends who seem to be as close as family. You can't imagine the special kind of feeling you get until you have experienced the magic of a wonderful place called Milford.

BASEBALL

The 1984 Cougar Baseball team finished the season with a record of 8-12. Despite their disappointing record, the Cougars showed several bright spots, one of which was senior Owen Kelly. Kelly had a record of 6-2 on the mound, and was one of the Cougar's mainstays at bat. Joining Kelly were seniors Paul Iantosca, Vito Carnavale, Ken Holland, Joe Kinny, Scott Pitney, Joe Tabone, Adriano Esteves, David Cross and Mike Caputo, all of whom aided in the team's success. Sophomore Paul Ferraro came in during the middle of the season to anchor the catcher's position and juniors Glenn Monochico and Joe Santasiere provided a spark.

The record of the girls' lacrosse season does not truly reveal the marked improvement in the team from last year. Many games were hard fought and lost by only one goal. As the season progressed other teams began to show respect to the team. It was a season marked by hard work and dedication as well as great development in skill.

The team was led by captains Rachele Bahto, Liz Whelan, and Sharon Bufo, and coached by Mr. Butkus. With many underclassmen playing varsity there is reason to believe that next year's season will be an exciting one.

LACROSSE

The 1984 boys lacrosse season began as a rebuilding year for the Cougars, but ended with success worthy of the Columbia tradition. The four pre-season scrimmages passed in March without a win. However, by June, the Cougar lax men had acquired a record of 16-3 which included a 9-6 win over Lawrenceville in the finals of the prestigious Coaches' Tournament.

The team was captained by Michael Fiore and John Janowski. The 1984 season marked the end of Robert Curcio's reign as head coach. Defensive coordinator Keith Manara stepped in as the Cougars' head coach when Mr. Curcio became the Athletic Director of Columbia.

Once again, in 1984 the Columbia Boys' and Girls' Track Teams had successful seasons. The boys, led by captains Steve Posocki, Bob Shuster, and Doug Tindall, lost only one dual meet all season, finishing with a 7-1 record. They also came in second with a strong showing at the conference championships. Individually, James Rogers, Doug Tindall, Jason Mouring, and Tom Hartung enjoyed great success.

The girls were undefeated in dual meets for the fourth year in a row, bringing their record to 30-0 over those years. Led by captains Debbie Cooper, Christine Talleyrand, and Quay Whitlock, they won the Cougar Classic Invitational, Conference and County Championships and placed second in the State Sectional meet. Senior Debbie Cooper set numerous school records in the weight events.

TENNIS

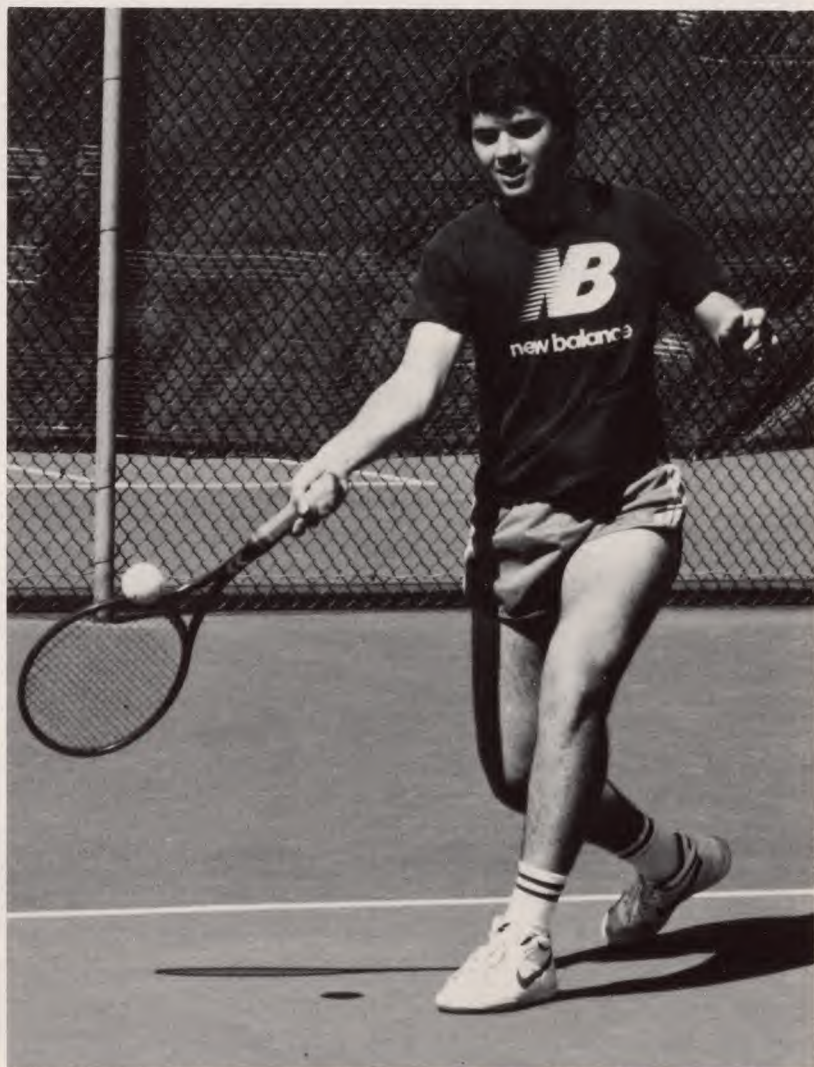

Penny Rickard

The Boy's Tennis team had an overall record of 17-5 and a record of 14-2 in the conference, in which they finished second. They split wins over perennial rival Livingston and their only other conference loss was to the conference champs, West Essex. The team advanced to the semi-finals of the Essex County tournament where they fell to state champs Montclair Kimberly and also reached the semi-finals in Group 4, Section 2 state competition where they were defeated by Group 4 champion Westfield.

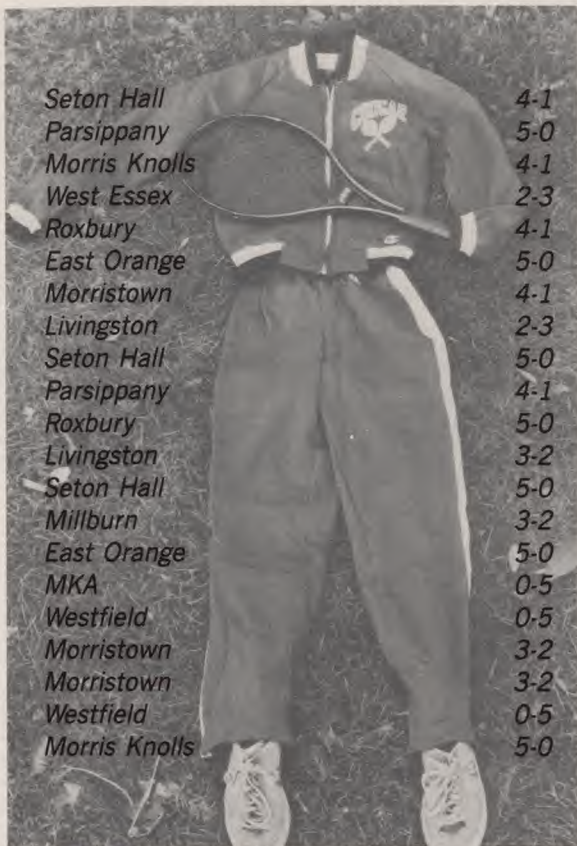

Rod Pierre, at first singles, brought fear to the hearts of many ranked players. Penny Rickard, after winning her slot back at third singles, went on to get state recognition. Mike Poss at second singles, Jeff Poss and Billy Rustum at first doubles, and the various combinations of David Keresztes, David Meyer, and Adam Levitt contributed immeasurably to the team's fine overall successful season.

The Columbia High School volleyball team once again continued the tradition of an undefeated season. Their record was 22-0 which raised their mark to 154 consecutive victories over the past few years. Led by co-captains Tracey Skinner and Barbara Dobrzanski and coached by Eugene Chyzowych, the team won the sectional and Metro League championships.

The Columbia girls' softball team ended a disappointing season with a 4-13-1 record. The team was very young, consisting of only 2 juniors and 2 seniors. The team is hoping to improve their record for next year with so many returning players. The bright spot of this year's team was captain Ronnie Petzinger, who not only made the all-county team, but also received honorable mention for the Group IV state team.

Marcy Engelstein, Noel Evangelista, Jenn Edward, Dawn Ballister

They did very well for a young team.

FOOTBALL

The varsity football team ended its season with a 3-6 record. John Porcelli was the head coach, and the captains were Frank De Filippis, Chris Zusi, Mike Fischetti and Tom Huetz. If it wasn't for a season ending four-game losing streak, they might have had a winning record for the first time since 1982, when they went to the playoffs. Last year the team was 1-8.

The offensive standouts included Joe Santasiere, with four touchdowns and Kerry Kroll and De Filippis, with three touchdowns apiece. Zusi was the leading receiver with 21 receptions for 171 yards. Quarterbacks Huetz and freshman Mark Maddox combined to complete 75 of 148 passes for 825 yards, 11 touchdowns, and 11 interceptions. Running back Bill Clohosey rushed 63 times for 208 yards and Santasiere ran 82 times for 289 yards. Those rushing yards include Santasiere's total of 104 yards against Livingston. On defense, Matt Kelly led the team in tackles and Todd Pitney and Rich Romualdo led in sacks.

BOY'S SOCCER

The Boy's Varsity Soccer team had a successful season finishing with a record of 18-1-1. The team was also ranked as high as second in the state, and held that spot for weeks. Championships included the Iron-Hills Conference for the seventh Year in a row, and a share of the Essex County crown, after a tie with a spirited Livingston club.

A special plateau was reached by coach Gene Chyzowych, who became only the fifth coach in state history to have 300 career victories. The defense was strong all season, led by seniors Steve Carew, Barry Fleischer, Rich Bayer, Dave Mairo, Andy Nussbaum, Brett Jenks, and Lars Novak. The offense was led by Seniors Andy Shue and Mike Sanchez, who combined for 30 goals, and 22 assists. Kyu Gun Lee, a senior, added a scoring punch and will be missed next year.

Pam Davis lead the team in scoring with 36 goals and was named to the All-State Team. Janet Orlin, Alissa Jaffe, Marcy Engelstein, and Kim Buggeln were named to the All-Essex Team. The MVP award was shared this year by Janet Orlin and Marcy Engelstein. Senior Alissa Jaffe received the Best Defense award, while freshman Kim Buggeln got Best Offense honors. GIRLS' TENNIS

Barbara Mooney

The Girls' Varsity Tennis Team finished its season with an 8-10 record. The team found it necessary to work extremely hard as they lost six of the seven starters from last year's team. Allyson Feinstein and Lisa Jennis, both seniors, shared the 3rd singles position. Both performed well after seeing limited action last year. Co-captain Mary McFadden partnered with Ginger Crandall at 1st doubles, and finished with a record of 10-8. Natasha Zarrin and Barbara Mooney teamed together at the 2nd doubles position and finished with a fine 8-8 record. At 2nd singles was Wilhanitra Lee, and at 1st singles was Becky Friedman. Finishing with an impressive record of 18-3, Friedman was runner-up in the county tournament.

The boys' cross-country team was coached by Len Klepack to a 5-3 record. The captains were Dave Scher, Farshad Hajir, Dan Garrick, and John Talleyrand. Other runners were Mike Rowan, Tom Gallagher, and Andre Cantelmo.

The team placed 3rd in the ECT and 1st in the All-Area meet (which consists of eight teams). They just barely missed qualifying for the sectionals by finishing 6th when only the top five teams compete.

Dave Scher qualified for the state meet by coming in 8th out of the top 10 finishers. 150 runners ran the heat.

The 1984 Columbia Girls' Cross Country Team enjoyed its most successful season ever, finishing fourth out of 210 schools in the state All-Groups Championship Meet. The team, led by senior co-captains Lisa Morgan and Susan Willner, and consisting of junior Kim Dunn, sophomores Karen Brooks, Zorada McFadden, and Edna Neivert, and Frosh star Christine Grant, were undefeated in dual meets, won both the Passaic County Coaches and Essex Catholic Invitational Meets, and placed third at the Stewart Memorial Meet. The team won the Conference title and took second in the county, State Sectional, and State Group IV Meets to East Side of Newark, but then came back to beat East Side in the State All Groups Championship.

The junior Varsity squad also enjoyed success, winning the JV division race at the Passaic County Invitational Meet and coming in second in the JV division at the Essex Catholic Invitational. They also raced in place of the varsity on some occasions, and racing against other varsity teams came in fourth in the Sneaker Factory All-Area Meet.

BOY'S GYMNASTICS

The 1984 Gymnastics season proved to be one of the best ever as the team finished with a record of 10 wins and 2 losses. Captains Mike Davis and Dave Walters led the team to a 3rd place finish in the Devil's Tournament, a 3rd place finish in the North Group 2 New Jersey sectionals, and an impressive 2nd in the state finals. Individual honors were received by Bobby Barton, John Wheeler-Weaver and Mike Davis, all of whom qualified for the individual state competition in the all-around category.

GIRL'S GYMNASTICS

The girls' gymnastics team was also very successful. They were coached by Karen Vanchack Knobbs and the captains were Kit Shirley and Jennifer Whinery. In competition, the team was a second place finisher to Mendham in the school sectionals. In the individual sectionals, for which you must qualify Amy Cohen, Whinery, Amy Laskowski, Lisa Barry, and Kristen Moscatello competed. In the states, the girls came in 8th out of 10 teams who qualified. Therefore, Columbia was ranked 8th in the state out of 200 teams. Team members include Whinery, Amy Cohen, Amy Laskowski, Lisa Barry, Kristen Moscatello, Linda Waddel, Michelle Maurice, Kathy Profeta, Lauren Novek, Kelly Harden, Dawn Genovese and Kit Shirley. FIELD HOCKEY

This year, the Varsity Field Hockey Team concluded their season with a record of 5-8-3. The team was young this year and showed much improvement. Led by co-captains Jennifer Dimpel and Jennifer Manning, the team had 319 shots on goal, scoring 17 times. This year showed signs of better things to come.

Jennifer Manning made 241 saves, making her career total 451 a school record. Manning was voted the teams MVP, while this year Chris Tromans received most improved honors. Four girls earned All-Essex honors, they were Hope Wright and Jennifer Manning second team, and Karen Skinner and Chris Tromans third team.

The seniors on the 1984 squad are: Jennifer Dimpel, Jennifer Manning, Lori Dziedzic, Tina Grimbilas, Suzanne Alterman, and Dianne Nersesian. They would like to thank Miss Gardner for another terrific year, and wish next year's team the best of luck.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

This year's basketball team marked the arrival of new Head Coach Tom Reilly. Losing four starters from last year's State Sectional Championship squad left many positions to be filled. Four year starter Jeff Kelly led the team in both scoring and assists, surpassing the prestigious 1,000 point career mark, and furthering his school assist record. Forward Charlie Brown was the Cougar's most consistent performer all season working both backboards and contributing key scoring. Darren Carter rounded out Columbia's backcourt in spectacular fashion with his defensive prowess and incredible quickness. 6'5" junior transfer David Love filled the center spot, while sophomores Mark Brown, Corey Felton, Vinnie Ryan, and Kevin Freeman all made important contributions, as did Senior Lars Novak. With many returning players and young talent, the Cougars hope to continue successfully next season.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The 1985 Lady Cougars Basketball Team

The 1984-1985 Varsity Girls' Basketball Team, coached by Johanna Wright and Charles Taylor had a difficult but rewarding season. Although the team had many returning 1983-1984 lettermen it was basically a rebuilding season. Finishing the season with a record of 10 wins and 9 losses, they are looking forward to a strong season next year.

The team was lead by co-captains Leslie Sabin and Nabatanzi Bewayo, with outstanding performances by underclass players Wilhanitra Lee, Karen Skinner, Kathy Skinner, and Sue Bishop.

The team's dedication and strong effort was evident throughout the season and would like to thank their coaches and fans for their support.

SWIMMING

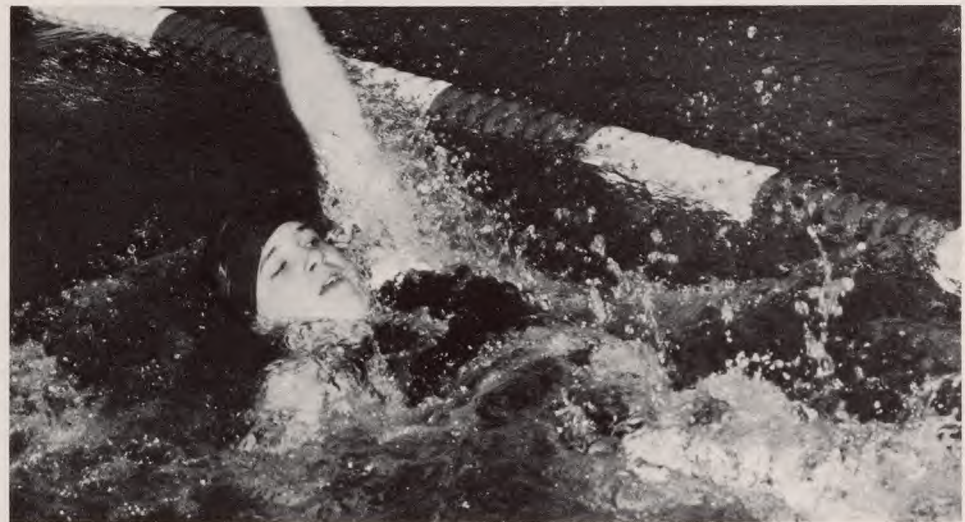

The 1984-85 Columbia High School Swimming Team proved that hard work does pay off. Hampered with illness throughout the season, the team still accumulated a record of 12-4. Led by captains Billy Pinilis and Cathy Caruba, the team had strong finishes at their championship meets. Competing separately at the Iron Hills Conference Meet, both teams swam to fourth place finishes. After an unfortunate cancellation of the Essex County Championship meet last year, the girls team came back this year to take third place, while the boys team took fourth.

The story of this year's team was its depth. With new scoring rules, it is possible to win an event without having a swimmer place first. Thus, many meets were won in the outside lanes.

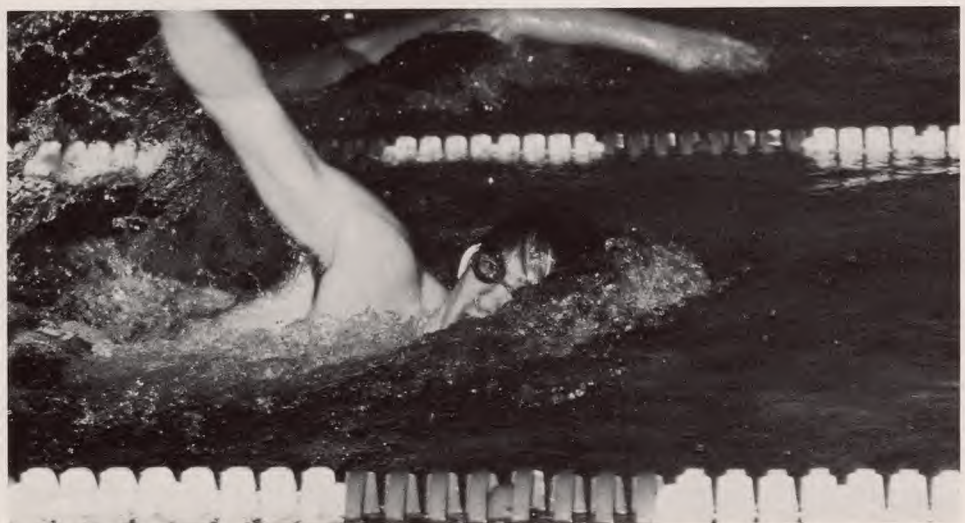

This year's graduating seniors who are fortunate enough never to have to workout at 6:30 AM again were: Billy Pinilis, Joe Cicenía, Matt Burke, Tim Weeks, Karen Kurtzweg, Kim Berger, and Cathy Caruba.

This year's wrestlers included: 101 Brian Lee, Mike Blankenstein; 108 Jack Kennedy; 115 Mike Barry; 122 Chris DeFillipis, Marc Duchesneau; 129 Walter Lee; 135 Frank DeFillipis; 141 Ed Nugent; 148 Dave Brothers; 158 Matt Kelly; 170 Bill Clohosey; 188 John Vogel; HWT. The Cougars competed in several tournaments. In the Essex County Tourney Mike Barry placed first, Walter Lee and Jack Kennedy placed second, and Dave Brothers took third. At Hunterdon Central Mike Barry, Dave Brothers, and Walter Lee took second place medals. In the post season District 10 Championships, Walter Lee placed first; Mike Barry and Brian Lee placed second; and Dave Brothers placed third. INDOOR TRACK

The 1985 Boys' Indoor Track team had a rebuilding season this year to recover from the loss of many of last year's seniors. The highlight of the season was a third place finish in the Essex County Relay Championships. Personal records by David Scher, Dan Garrick, and Farshad Hajir ended the season on a positive note. The team was coached by Len Klepack and Rich Moss and led by captain John Talleyrand.

The girls indoor team, also coached by Len Klepack and Rich Moss, had a very successful season. Though sickness and injuries hindered their best performances as a team, the girls still managed to win both the Essex County and Iron Hills Conference Championships, with a second place in the Group IV State Relay Championships. Personal highlights were an invitation to run at the Meadowlands and state 500m record for senior Lisa Morgan, a state triple jump record by senior Sheila Staggars, the best time in the nation for the two-mile relay team, and numerous first place finishes for junior Hope Wright in the hurdles.

1984 is now over and will no longer be exclusively associated with the dubious reputation given it by George Orwell. Instead of a year of suppression and depression, 1984 was a year of patriotism and surprises, not the least of which was the winning of the National League title by the Chicago Cubs, in a battle against the New York Mets. The Year of the Yuppie, 1984, saw the summer Olympic Games held in Los Angeles, where the US Men's gymnastics team won a team gold and Mary Lou Retton became the first American woman to win the All-Around gold in gymnastics. Geraldine Ferraro became the first woman nominated for Vice-President, but Reagan and Bush were re-elected for a second term. William Schroeder received an artificial heart, and Baby Fae received a baboon heart. Famine struck in Ethiopia, and musicians all over the world joined together to help, forming groups such as "Band-Aid" and "USA for Africa". Clara said "Where's the Beef?", and Donald Duck celebrated his fiftieth birthday. Eddie Murphy became "Mr. Box Office" with the release of his third big hit, Beverly Hills Cop. As 1984 became a memory 1985 rolled in marking the halfway point of the eighties, and the centennial year of Columbia High School.

T H E C O L U M B I A N

This year marked the second year of a weekly school newspaper. As before, the Columbian continued reporting on school events, students' achievements, CHS sports and other student-oriented news. From the serious to the silly, the Columbian covered all the news that fit to print.

Ann Pao, the editor in chief, was fortunate to work with a dedicated team of reporters, producers, editors and sales persons. Each week, long hours were spent planning the next week's issue. Without the tremendous efforts of the journalism class and advisors Mrs. Steffi Poss and Mr. David Vodofsky, the Columbian would have suffered. Fortunately, it didn't and students were able to read about themselves and their school every week.

The journalism class: Shan Bagby; Adam Bartolomeo; Ira Bornstein, Advertising Manager; Kenny Caballero, Art Editor; Billy Fitzsimmons; David Freed; Denise Greenstein; Chris Grundahl, Sports Editor; Michael Jordan, Sports Editor; Russel Kaplan; Danny McKee; Mia Morse; Pam Nadan; Debbie Semple; and Khalida Williams.

Other reporters, photographers and sales representatives included: Dino Alzadon; Andy Bressen; Judy Brienza; Julie Cheng; Seth Davis; Jason Eisner; Jackie Greene; David Keresztes; Lisa Jennis, Business Manager; Alvin Lee; Mellisa Moore; Dianne Nersesian; Carolyn Neu; Pat O'Malley; Ellen Pao, Sales Manager; Jonthon Polk; Jeff Schaffer; Sonya Sobieski; Margie Willner; Amy Wolgemuth and Dena Wyner.

Thanks to the 1985 Yearbook Staff for allowing their pictures to be used in some issues.

Special thanks to Dr. Richard Willet and Mrs. Sydell Rabin for supporting the Columbian so enthusiastically.

Marilyn Krasner was always highly regarded by Columbia students as both a teacher and a person. Throughout her illness, she remained the teacher she had always been, kind-hearted yet demanding. She compelled her students to extend their knowledge, while instilling in them a joy at the mastery of language. She maintained her demeanor to such an extent that her students were oblivious to the gravity of her situation, aware only of the abundance and quality of her teachings. Her absence will be felt not only to those students who had the fortune to be taught by her, but also by those who will have the misfortune not to be.

When James Stanford came to Columbia as a librarian in 1955, the library was a much smaller facility, consisting of two rooms, located in the area where Mr. Goetz and Mr. Jacobsen presently have their offices. For fifteen years, in these very limited surroundings, his major concern was to provide adequate service to a student population that often exceeded 2,000. Relief from congestion came at last in 1971 in the form of a new and much larger facility, which was part of one of the new wings added to the school. Again he met the challenge, providing the necessary dedication and expertise for a smooth transition to the modern media center we have today. When he retired in February of 1984, the Board of Education dedicated the library in his honor.

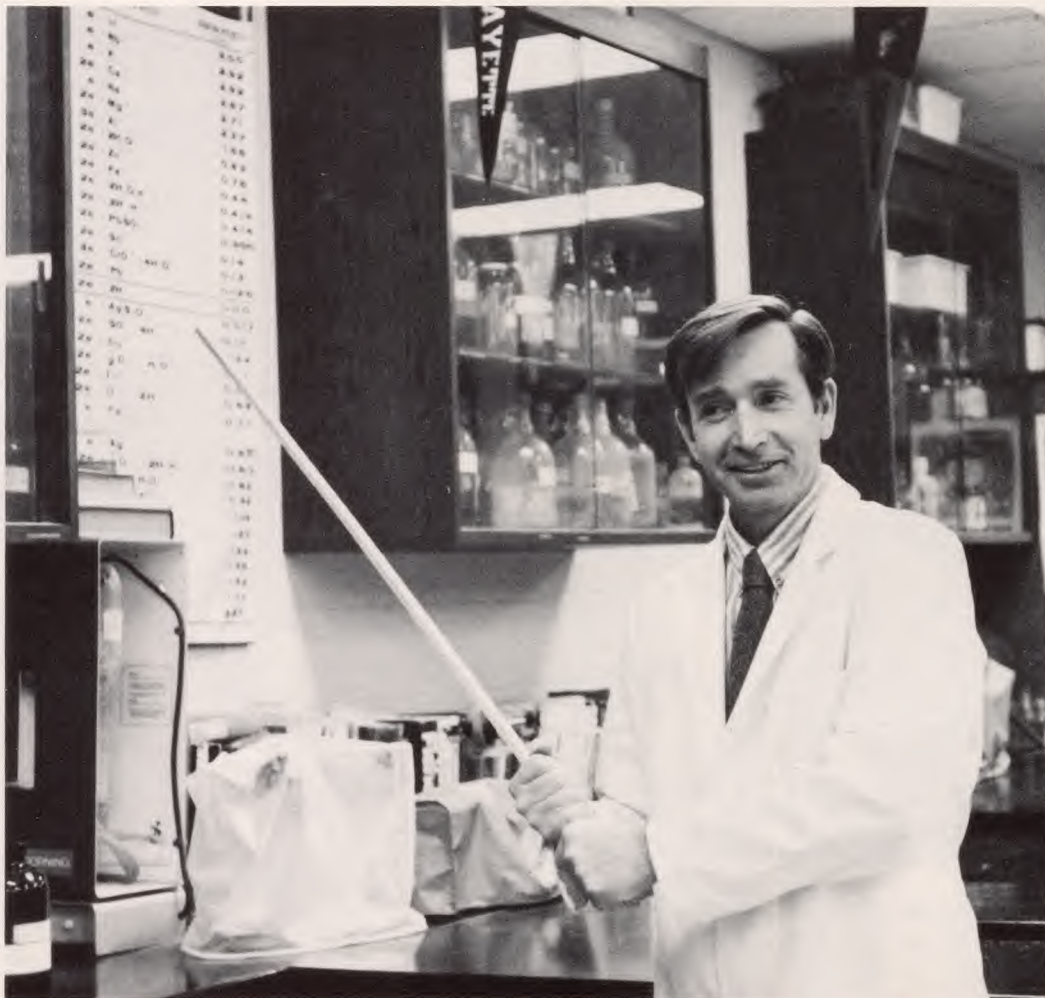

A longtime resident of Maplewood, Mr. Stanford was a very active participant in both school and community activities, and his three children, Scott, Evan and Stacey, were Columbia graduates.

Personally, his love of the land and the outdoors was inspiring, and he was well known as a learned, generous and concerned individual. Most impressive of all perhaps was his deep sense of fairness and willingness to defend the rights of others, which he eloquently demonstrated many times.

Mr. Stanford's favorite author was Thomas Wolfe, who came from his native state, North Carolina. A favorite quote from Wolfe's Look Homeward Angel appears on a wall plaque in the library:

"But we are the sum of all the moments of our lives — all that is ours is in them; we cannot escape or conceal it."

In closing, sing we low and somewhat slowly,
The end of our so genial studenthood,
Saying good-bye to halls become most holy,
Become to us most beautiful, most good,
Known lawns, known walks, known classrooms where we found
Knowledge and friends to cheer us; easy ways
Of youth, you sweetened have this lovely ground,
And made us worthy for our larger days.
We pledge our souls to live as thou hast shown us,
In modest wisdom and the paths of truth,
And now adieu, thou dearest beauty known us —
Adieu, thou foster parent of our youth,
The warm wind moves, the quiet stars are bright.
Good-night; ladies and gentlemen, Good-night!

KAHLUA KREW CLASS OF 85 BUST IT OUT! Hey, this is KAR-E-KAR (VP & Crew Psychologist)! For those few of u who don't know who we are, we are THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1985! Not just another bourgie BLACK Crew — following in the footsteps of the infamous Mugs or laying to rest the dearly departed 2 Nice Crew. "Nah," we are a very unique organization! Know y? Cause we got it like dat! BAZOOKA, DAVID P., MICKEY 'D', GAZIL-E-I-A- & CO.! We got that bond!/Well to make a long story short — the T03 tells it all . . . We were traipsing down Valley . . . Hey, KAHLUA is the joint . . . it sounds a lot like us (dark, cool, rich, mellow, a little bit bourgie, yet oh so Fffresh) . . . & voila, "man became a living soul" (oopos, wrong creation) "the Kahlua Krew of 85 was born!" "Oh no, look out, make way for the royal blue & white" (eat your heart out Alexander Julian — we've got those "sol-lid" colours)/Stop the bus, DAVID.P.:U founder! Wanna play combat? In my basement not on Valley!/Don't let the Glamorous Life go 2 your head or 2 those happy feet of yours (damn near ate thru your socks, Franco Sr.)/Make sure U don't sport those ugly jeans. Ms. Organization demands the Levi's & Lee's/ Y don't u take him under your wing Je-Je; Casa de Refinement/ Calvin Klein that friend of mine, gotta have his name on my behind. Or maybe Ralph Lauren! Oh Lord, is that another Polo again?/ Get that bond Bazooka, the couch, the lap, etc . . . Even though U can't sing you're still dangerous . . . moving those mts. (or molehills) Hurry up Jeanine, Kenny's getting . . . (?) BUST IT OUT JUANITA MARGARITA (u kid creole) Get on that Portuguese Love, homeslice!/Damn DP isn't it time 2 get off that rollercoaster ride, y'all R makin' me dizzy! Don't cop "le attitude" Dave — try again in 10 yrs. You'll have your Jag, we'll have our boutique, she'll have her convertible Merce but oh no, John will still have his SAAB! SO GET OFF! Kahlua men, SUDDENLY CHANGE! We don't need any x-tra aff.'s of the 2 Nice Crew-red, white & blue just will not do! Me, Mike 'D', a hood, not me! Walkin' round the streets tryin' 2 be Bruce Lee! He might be back but he sure ain't black! Get off the stick U Gremlin & start crawlin' like a centipede! (Oh how mysterious) We all know "all the girls want a piece of your MEAT" but do like Johnny Rae (give em chicken & fish)/Uh oh Jeanine (s.f.) . . . "FLY"/But hey, hey, hey — can't 4 get Gazil -E-I-A! (Tell Donny — Don that his name lingers on) That Glamorous Girl with the Beat Street Rap, oh that gap, get into that lap! (SO HHOT!) BUST IT OUT, K-krew. After 117 Years Of School It's Easy To Spell Thank You.

Whew! Imagine 117 years of classrooms, textbooks, exams and not to mention homework. Although at times it was rough we cherish many happy memories. We are the Defino family of Maplewood with six brothers and three sisters. From Fielding Elementary to South Orange Junior High to Columbia High School we attended kindergarten through the twelfth grade, 117 years collectively.

For all the hours, weeks and years of education, discipline and guidance we extend a sincere thank you to all teachers, faculty and staff members of the South Orange-Maplewood Board of Education. A job well done, A+!

Also congratulations to Columbia High School on its 100 year anniversary. And last but not least a special thanks to Dolores and Samuel Defino for making this all possible.

Sleeping at Jen's — striptease and Blue Lagoon — lewd on the phone with rumors of Suzanne (L.T!) Danny & Drew (the foursome) & "the res" — Laurie hits the band party — is that her boyfriend, David? How many seconds for "Joshua?" Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious, ha ha Alex you have mononucleosis!!

Remember . . . Frosh year and Mr. Cohen's class. The green shadow and underlings, the fetal pig. My braces, haircut, tan. Mr. Merrigan's study. Bio final exam. Then I stood you up at the Cosmos game. The "letter" over the summer. Tenth grade has the six of us at Andy's house. "Nice hair" 10/10/82! J.V. Manager and the bus with no brakes. Also physics with Freddie and Missy. Great Adventure, clashing clothes, jealousy. That summer with M.R. Then it was Lavallette with "Chuck".

Eleventh grade. MOAO was the greatest time. Soccer manager and lots of abuse. Chemistry and Mr. Ghegan. Fighting with Andy and Jennifer. SAT's. Bermuda — wow. SSS and the leaders. Finally I drove and we went to the Ground Round and all over for dinner. That summer we worked and went down to the shore. Senior year. A.P. Bio and Mrs. Hershey's humor. Soccer, the dinner and the party. Gene Machine. College visits with Goon (Lehigh vs. time). PENN MUHLENBERG

And don't Forget . . . Being away in P.R. V-tines day cards hoping for another year. MM and worrying. The Stuft Shirt. Ceil, Jul, Shar, Tan, and Igor. Ra, Raf, Cassie-Cat. Sleeping through General. Trivial Pursuit. Secret presents with Jen. The Monroes hit song "Cool It Now," "What's up hon?" "I didn't know!" "What's wrong? Nothing." "I'm not sure anymore" "I'm sorry." "Stop!" (those nails)
