Columbia
High School

Maplewood
New Jersey

Oh, Columbia — here is where we began a stage of physical, emotional, and intellectual growth, expanding our knowledge of ourselves and the world around us.

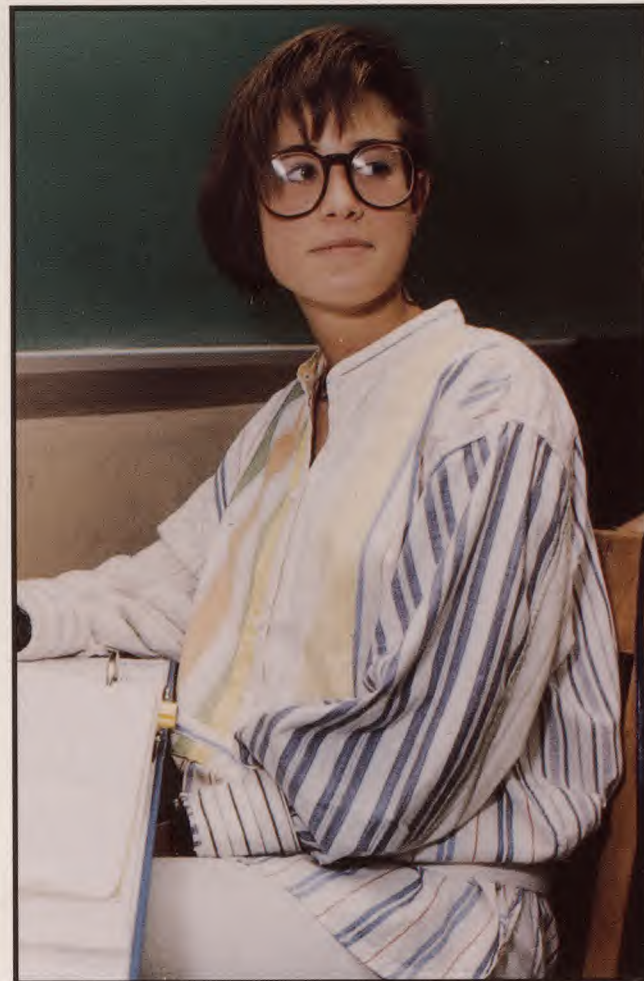

During our years at Columbia, we have learned to work with others for our mutual benefit. Together we have established a community of individuals.

As each of us struggled to find a niche at Columbia, we arrived at a balance between fitting in and standing out.

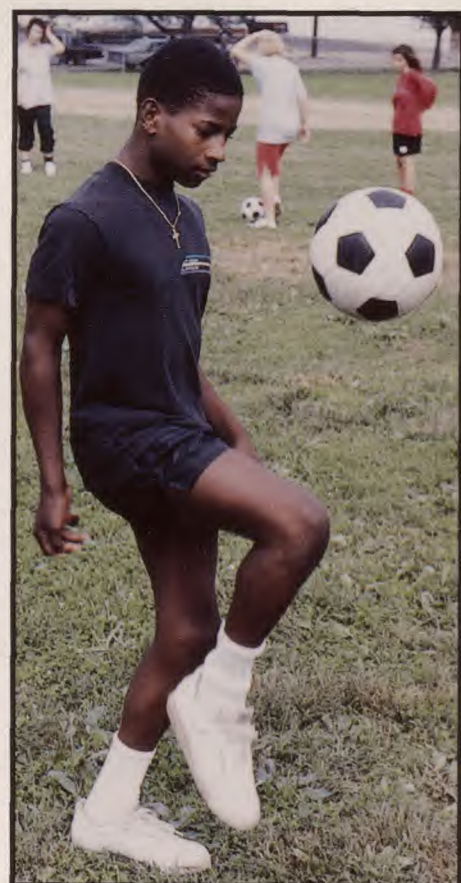

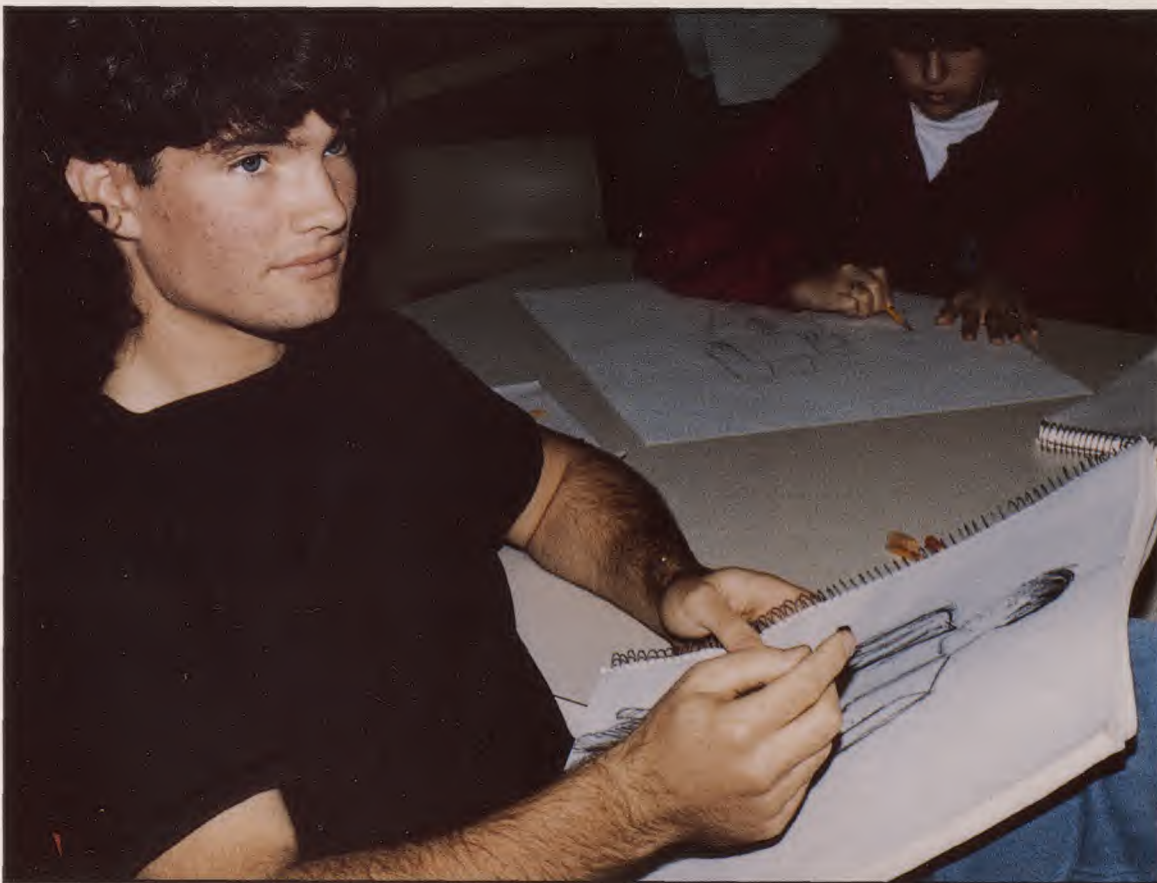

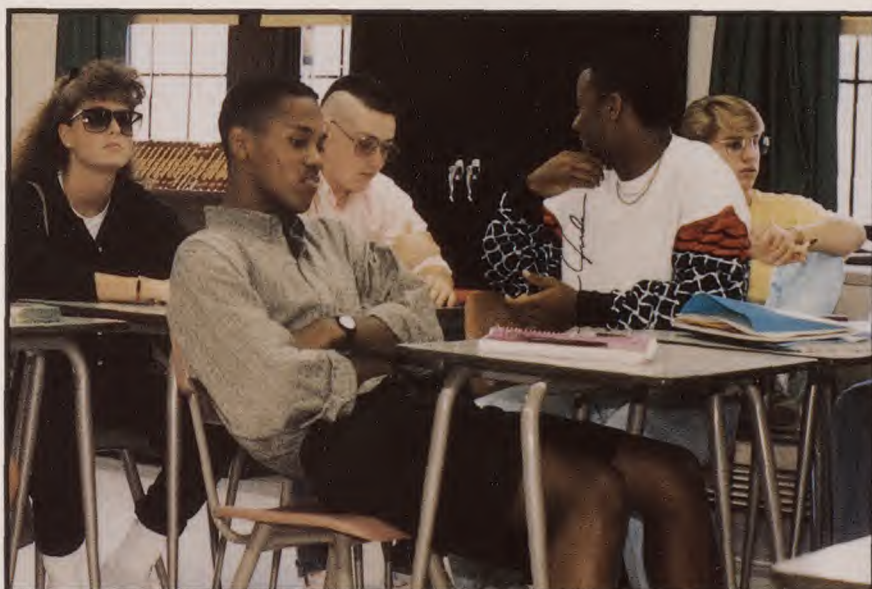

Through our relationships, we have learned how to be a friend as well as how to have them. These are valuable gifts we can hold on to.

A variety of opportunities have been available to us. Each of us could take advantage of this according to our different interests.

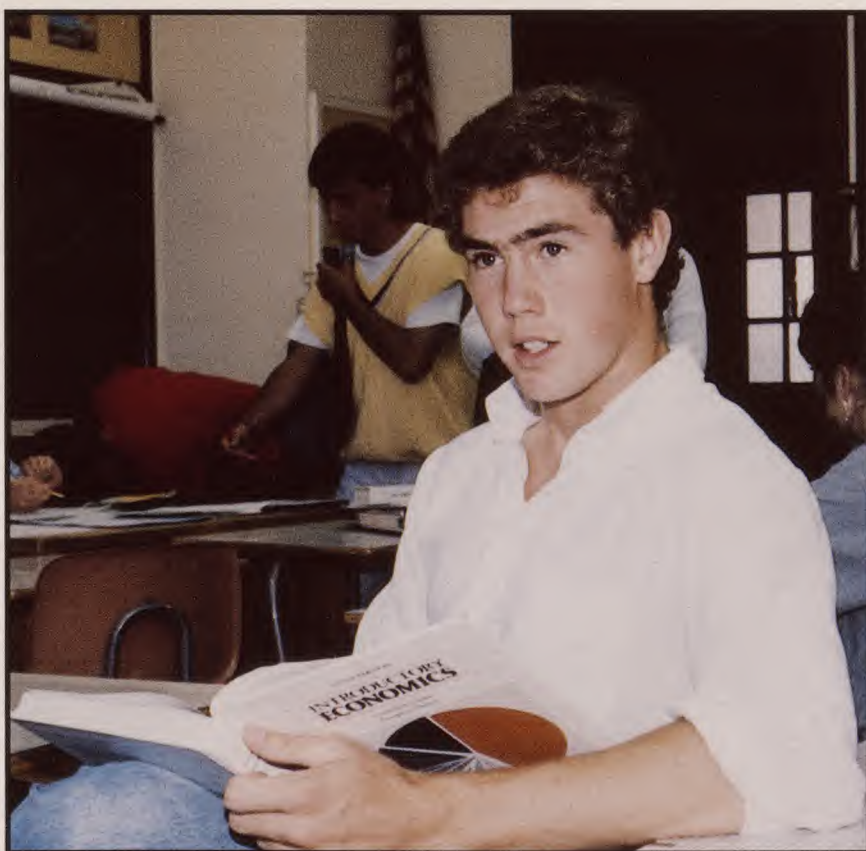

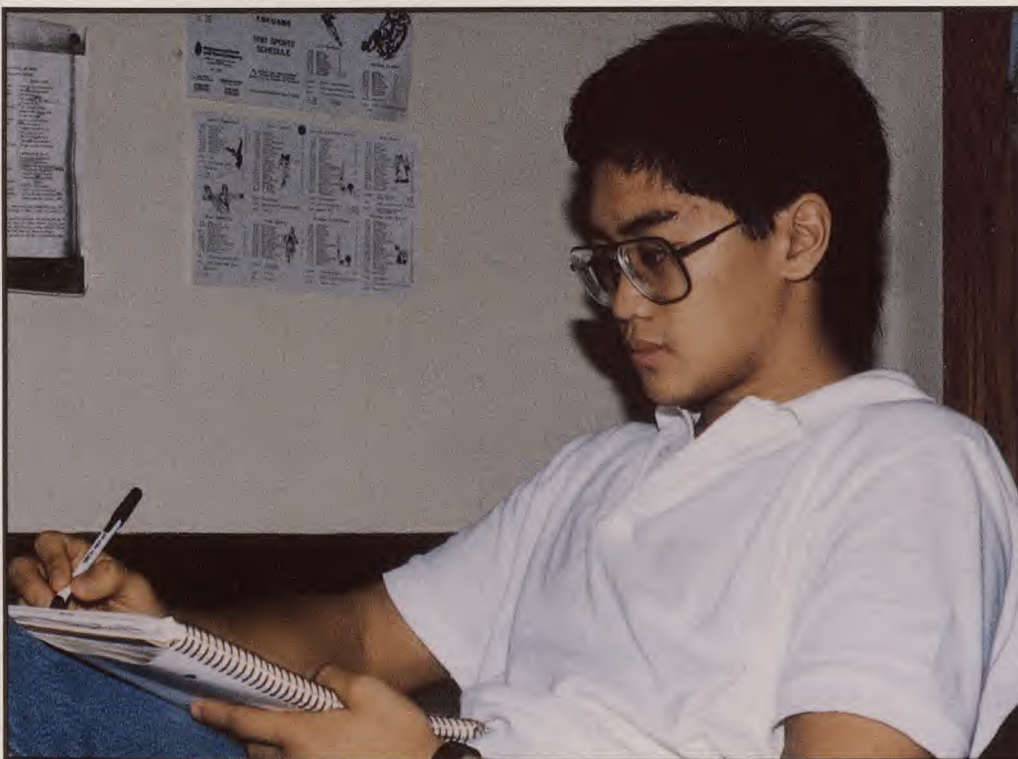

Looking back on our years at Columbia, we see the development of our potential and look ahead to further growth.

As we face the future we strive to fulfill our dreams and to discover the best within ourselves.

*Oh, Columbia, thou has taught us
The path that we should tread,
By thy rules of pride and honor
In our work and play we're led.
In the years of life's hard struggle
We care not what's in store,
For thy motto is our motto,
And our cry, "Excelsior!"*

Each year, Columbian students submit pieces of creative writing to be read and critiqued by their peers. The best ones are published in Guildscript at the end of the year. These include award-winning entries in state-wide competitions. Under the advisement of Mr. Lasko, these students get to see their finished work published in a real literary magazine.

The members of the class write and edit articles, sell advertisements, take photographs, and help with layout as well. Mrs. Steffi Poss serves as the advisor. This year's ultimate frisbee team, the Aerial Toasters of Knockwurst, was led by Captains Beth Bressen, Kyle Bennett, and Keith Freitag. It was mostly a rebuilding year, as almost the entire team from last year was lost to graduation. Many new members showed lots of potential for the spring season, and as ultimate frisbee (first invented here at Columbia) celebrates its twentieth anniversary, CHS can look forward to a successful season with many strong young players.

BOYS SOCCER

The Columbia Boy's Soccer team once again proved to be one of the top teams in the state. The booters compiled a 18-3-1 record and captured the State Sectional Championship and the Iron Hills Conference Championship for the tenth consecutive year.

The Cougars made the Iron Hills championship by posting a 14-1 record in their league. They were, however, unable to reach the finals of the Essex County Tournament. The booters beat a previously unbeaten East Side team, 3-1, to advance to the semi-final round against Montclair. Columbia, after having three men ejected from the game, suffered their second loss as Montclair scored with two minutes left in the second overtime.

In the state tournament, Columbia met a strong Westfield team during the first round and came away with a 1-0 victory. The Cougars then advanced to the State Sectional finals where they met Union, a team Columbia tied earlier in the season. Columbia fought hard to capture the first State Sectional championship in four years. The team went on to play in the North Jersey final, where they were beaten by archrival, Kearny High School, 4-1.

The team was led by junior striker Alex Sansiviero with 19 goals. Other offensive threats included Nelson Eubanks (10 goals, 8 assists), Mark Nilson (6 goals), Justin Edelman (5 goals, 8 assists) and Rick Perine (4 goals, 3 assists). Tri-Captain Anthony Carnevale (2 goals, 6 assists) and John Burdorf (1 goal, 4 assists) helped power the offense from the midfield.

The defense, led by tri-captains Mario Tribioli and Jason Levy along with Evan Lafer, Gene Chyzowych and Scott Bobrow together with keepers Mark Mury and Steve Armenti, held the opponents to only 17 goals all season.

The Cougars placed 14 players to the All-Oranges team, 12 players to the Essex County team and 8 players to the Conference team. Armenti, Carnevale, Chyzowych, Eubanks, Levy, Nilson and Sansiviero were placed on the All-State teams by the Coaches Association of New Jersey. Sansiviero was named to the Regional All-American team.

GIRLS SOCCER

The Girls' Varsity Soccer Team completed their season with an outstanding record of 16-2-1. Prior to the regular season, the team was in a stage of rebuilding with only four returning seniors and many new young players on their way up, but in conclusion, posted their best season in years.

Led by Co-Captains Kim Buggeln and Lisa Marano, and seniors Danielle Guyet and Sharon Fleischer, the girls became champions of the Essex County Tournament and captured the Iron Hills Conference Division Title for the first time.

The girls placed 9 members on the county team, 5 on the All-State team and Buggeln was a nominated All-American.

The offense was powered by Buggeln, Marano, Linda Hawks and Danielle Getchman, all of whom contributed to the 381 vs. 178 shots taken during the season. Defensively, the girls showed strong performances by Guyet, Laura Wilkes, Sara Jurczak, Cathy Bissinger, Lynda DeJianne and Jenny Gollin. The team posted the most shutouts ever, numbering at eleven, along with the fewest goals allowed in any season, at sixteen.

The girls finished their season rated in the top ten and owe much of their success to Essex County Coach of the Year Jay Gavitt. Hopefully next years Cougar girls can maintain just as successful a season and hold the possibility of bringing Columbia its first state championship. Good Luck!

The 1987 Columbia Football Team has had its best season since 1982. As of this writing the team is 4-4 and hopes to beat rival Seton Hall Prep on Thanksgiving Day to finish with a winning record. Although the team is proud of this year's success it is disappointed with its close losses. Three of the teams they lost to are ranked in the State Top 20.

Junior Quarterback Brian McGuire passed for over 1,000 yards alone this season raising his career yards to over 2,000. Running backs and receivers Aron Rolley, Scott Prisco, Sean Fitzsimmons, and Gordon Armstrong worked together throughout the year to lead the Cougars to their best season in over 5 years. Prisco, Fitzsimmons, and Armstrong combined for over 6 touchdowns. The offensive line consisting of Isaac Mitchell, Pat Crann, Fred Kaes and Rob Corbitt provided the protection needed to help McGuire in passing or running the ball.

Defensively, the Cougars recorded their first shut-out since 1979 against Livingston. Outstanding players include Jim Dzikowski, Mario Petruziello and Fred Kaes. Prisco, Fitzsimmons, Kevin Sheridan, and Aron Rolley combined for eight interceptions. The Special Teams under Coach John Hill returned 2 kickoff and punt returns for touchdowns.

Under the leadership of Co-Captains Eric Coleman and Sean Fitzsimmons the Cougars are beginning to bounce back from their previous losing seasons, and may be on their way to continue improving their record in the years to come. Good Luck Cougars!

BOYS GYMNASTICS

The 1987 Boys Gymnastic Team ended their season with a record of 3-6. Despite this record the team showed extreme talent among its young team. Their loses were against teams ranked in the states and scores remained close. The team was lead by Co-Captains Christian Custodio and Mike Fiumara, with strong performances by freshman Danny Cohen and Evan Novak. Under first year coach John Ribiero, the team placed 5 individuals in the state competition. They included Custodio, Novak, Cohen, Greg Dorr, and Kevin Orsi.

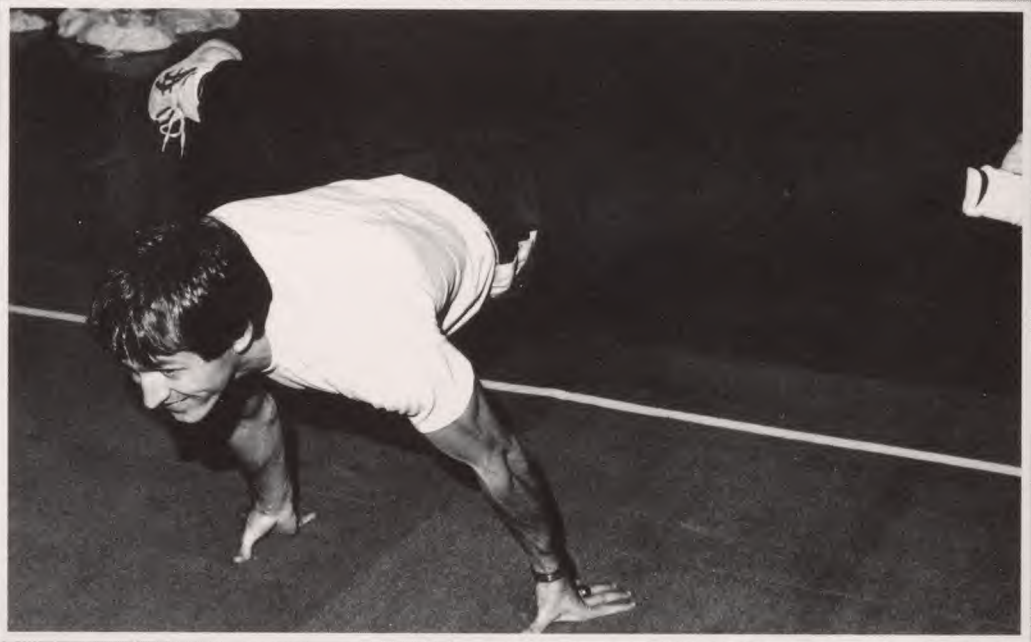

Although the team's record was not as successful as last year, the boys are looking forward to next years team with an experienced and well-developed team while only losing one senior in the process. Custodio will be missed but with hard work and dedication the next few years should be beneficial to the team.

GIRLS' GYMNASTICS

The 1987 Columbia Girl's Gymnastic Team had a sensational year remaining undefeated through the regular season. The lady Cougars finished with a 9-0 record. This year's team was lead by senior Amy Cohen and junior Victoria Custodio. Contributions were also made by freshman Gina Petruziello, sophomore Amy Venckus, and juniors Jennifer Lynch and Amy Titlebaum. First year coach John Ribiero also did an excellent job and was well appreciated by his team.

The team of Cohen, Custodio, and Petruziello won the State Sectional this year scoring over 104 points, a new team record. Cohen and Custodio tied for fifth place in the all around competition. They also qualified for the individual State Competition. Next year's team should be just as strong with only one senior leaving and a young, but powerful and experienced group.

TENNIS

The 1987 Girls Tennis team ended their season with an 8-14 record. The team was comprised of many young players with only three returning starters.

Co-Captains Kara Gross and Meredith Welsch led the team in victories along with seniors Jessica Fish and Cindy Finn. Juniors Jennifer Dunetz and Beth Gabtman, Co-captains for 1988-89, had outstanding seasons as well.

In the Iron Hills Conference division the girls placed fifth winning four games. At first singles, Kara Gross came away with a strong win and the doubles team of Lizzie Poss and Beth Gantman helped the team boost its record during the tournament.

This year's team was one of rebuilding for the future seasons with many young and fine players gaining the experience needed on the courts in tough competitive matches. These players are looking forward to the 1988 season in hopes to reach the county and state tournament once more.

CHEERLEADERS

The 1987-88 Cougar Cheerleaders were led by senior Co-Captains Eva Werbel and Donna Stewart. Throughout the year, the team cheered at every football game and boosted the spirits of both players and spectators. Although the team was not involved in any personal competitions, their presence at Columbia's athletic events helped to soothe the defeats and celebrate the victories. The powerful and outgoing cheerleading squad, along with the Cougar Mascot, enhanced the top quality athletics program here at Columbia, as well as improving school morale. Good Luck to all future cheerleaders.

BOY'S BASKETBALL

For the second straight year, the Columbia Boy's Basketball Team has proved to be one of the best in Essex County. Led by senior co-captains Mark Andrews and Steve Wredit, the team compiled an 18-4 record. The Cougars put together impressive road wins over East Orange and Seton Hall and home wins over East Orange and Morristown. The team succeeded despite the loss of over 1300 points due to the graduation of three key players last year.

The Cougars received many strong performances, especially from Andrews and Wredit. Andrews the 6'6" power forward, led the Cougars in scoring and rebounding. Wredit, the 6'10" center, led the Cougars in blocked shots and was second on the club in rebounding. Coach Tom Reilly received contributions from other seniors as well. They are Chuck Keegan, Dave Ricci and John Rivera. Several juniors helped lead the team to victory. They are guards Dave Durkin, Malik Herron, Charles Lomack, Gearld Brown, Eric Glass, and James Wilkes, and forwards George Tines, Jon Green, and John Knecht. Tines was the Cougars second leading scorer. The team is looking for success next year as well, with the return of these talented juniors.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

The 1988 Girls varsity basketball team had a very successful season. They showed their spirit in the beginning of the season by getting back on their feet after losing 3 great players. They lady cougars wouldn't give up.

Leading the team and the only graduating player is, captain Angela Coleman. Freshman Laura Wilkes, was the leading scorer. Rocki Gautier had a slow start but came on strong in the second half. Sophomore, Mary Alice Zovocki was sensational.

She lead the cougars with many assists. Junior, Jenny Gollin, helped the team with her key rebounds.

Coach Wright speaks highly of the team. "We had a successful season even though we had a new team. We should be even stronger next year. We are only losing one player.

The team had a tough defense and converted their steals into fast break points. They worked hard as a team to come up with a very strong season. Next year should be great."

INDOOR TRACK

This year's indoor track team was composed of 40 members, all of whom worked hard to place the boys at 15th in the states, and the girls at 5th in the states. The team was led by boys captains Herman Athias, Aaron Rolley, Mark Belasco, Steve Ellis, Jeff Morse and Isaac Mitchell, while the girls team captains were Sharonda Jenkins, Tiffany Ruth and Christine Grant.

The team was considered to be a young team with great potential even though they encountered a few setbacks during the season with some injuries before key events. But excellent performances were given throughout the season with a variety of records being broken. Outstanding races were given by Tiffany Ruth and Jermaine Clark in the 50 yard hurdles, and Sharonda Jenkins and Aaron Rolley in the 50 yard dash. Both Isaac Mitchell and Steve Ellis broke the school record for the shotput relay and Rolley broke the record for the 300 during the Easterns competition.

The team placed both Rolley and Ruth first in the county and overall did a tremendous job. The years to come should prove to be even more successful with this young, but now experienced team.

SWIMMING

The 1987-1988 season was a rebuilding time for the Columbia Swim Team. After losing 12 swimmers from last year's team, the emphasis this year was on preparing for the future. The team ended its 1-14 season on a high note, with an exciting victory over Parsippany.

Returning seniors Josh Burke and Marya Burke, along with juniors Damon Krytzer, Lisa Carney, and Cristina Sullivan, and sophomores Larry Buffa, Drew Cosgrove, Harlan Heiber, and Ruth Rankin did their best to guide the young team to victory. Josh Burke led the team with 80 individual points, with Heiber and Sullivan also scoring well. Among freshmen showing promise were Geron Blackman in the strokes, and George Previl, John Mahon, and David Jarosz in freestyle.

The team also made an impressive showing at the Essex County meet this year for such a young squad. Cosgrove placed third in the 200 freestyle and Burke took third in the 50 freestyle. Also placing well were M. Burke, with a fifth in the 100 breaststroke, and the men's 400 freestyle relay, consisting of Buffa, Cosgrove, Heiber, and J. Burke, placing fifth.

With nowhere to go but up, and with the loss of only two seniors, things look bright for the swim team's future.

FENCING

Co-Captain Ahadi Bugg

Although this years fencing team did not have a very successful record, they pulled together in rebuilding their team. With most of the team graduating last year, and the loss of the coach, the team worked hard under overall captains Ahadi Bugg and Monica Hoyer and new coach Mike Conley.

The girls Foil captain was Bugg with Ken Ezrow as the boys Sabre captain and Dean Lange as the boys Epee captain. Though this was considered a rebuilding year, strong performances were given by Carl Quillen, Ron Murphy and Kaila Simmons. Next years team hopes to have one of their most successful seasons ever.

CHEERLEADING

The 1988 Winter cheerleaders attended many of the games and tournaments.

They worked hard all year to improve their routines and individual athletic ability. Practicing everyday to make their jumps higher, splits better and moves sharper.

They were led by tri-captains Karen Pawlick, Monique Scrimmager, and Rachel Levy.

Graduating seniors are Jeanne Murphy and Monique Scrimmager. They both will be missed for their spunky and cheerful attitudes.

Returning cheerleaders next year hope to continue to help motivate and enthuse Columbia fans in the future.

As friends, we share so much more than other people may ever realize

We share a closeness that is very precious and a friendship that is very lasting.

We know we don't have to be afraid of opening up to one another, of trusting each other completely, of appreciating every moment of time we spend in one another's company. I'm not afraid to let you see me cry, and you're the one person I want to be with when I want to feel crazy.

Through it all, I know you understand, in the same way that I understand you.

There are other people whom I dearly love and care about in this world, but there is no one else quite like you.

Every time I look back, our friendship has been one of the best parts of the yesterdays.

And every time I look ahead, I see our friendship as the one thing I can always count on to get me through tomorrow.

Evan, and all of his friends

Love,
THE LAFERS,
Mom, Dad and Rachel

Header and Keem, BFF like 2 P's swimming in alphabet soup until finally they are caught on a spoon together, and that's where the best friendship began. Thru Jefferson, walking on the curbs without falling off, making us late. Thru MMS, and finally to CHS, and maybe college too! Remember the famous East Cedar Lane games — kickball, spud, running bases, and Beatle squares, making chestnut dice and playing spy catch-n-free. Swinging on trapezes that we made from a broomstick handle. Now we just settle for highest/lowest, tilt, Life, zonk, silly rummy and Yahtzee. NYC — Edwin Drood, FAO Schwartz was the best. Legos are for babies but who cares? Sleeping over — doing Seventeen quizzes, baking halfway cookies, chairbeds, a little slow in reacting (Ha-Ha!), talking. LBI and synchronized swimming off the sailboat, sleeping on the deck, Revenge of the Nerds, minigolfing, and brown H₂O. Driving to LBI backwards, waving to the other cars. What a wide range of responses! Swartzwood with Carolyn — wildflowers, woods, canoeing, Michigan rummy, and laughing all nite. Genesis #1 5/87 concert, that great smell, yum! Hanging around GS after the concert. How many movies have we seen? Too many to count! Top Gun — volleyball scene — sexy!!! Witchboard — I'm never going near a Ouija board again! Dirty Dancing twice — let's go bop in the park. Project X — this is exactly what I want to do. Lady and the Tramp — theme song. Moonlighting — the number one T.V. show. Camp Navajo — you got me hooked. '86 — Party Hardy Four: Eileen, Kim, Elena, Heather. Sharing our care packages and talking until??? Falling off General, making grilled cheese, rollerskating, minigolfing, sneaking out to see Alex and Mike. Nice to throw a shoe at Dave! Chas — "Hold the torch!!!" Mike eating coffee cake and soda and going back to sleep. Keeping warm in you know who's sleeping bag. Taking showers in the stream with biodegradable shampoo so we don't kill the fishies. Blob, duck-duck goose, Wanna buy a duck? A what? A duck. Does it quack? Of course it quacks. Wanna buy a duck? I'm going on a trip, Mr. Nutty is coming tonite! Miss American Pie (Chas). '87 — 4 Witches of Navajo: Heather, Kim, Eileen, Dani, Buddy . . . doo-dle- doo-dle- loo-POOF! SKI Downhill, fall, break legs. Fainting. Someone done gone an rustled my haas. Ceramics — joint partnership on one mug. Yaz — Only You, Mr. Blue. French braiding. Kim — Miss Life — guard USA. Mares pasture — EVERY night, EVERY day, BORING! Love letter to Buddy. CG '87 — Kim, Heather, Kelly, Dan, Dunia and our little tune to our salute. Participation trophy . . . YEAH!! Bus rides, CG cheers — Spirit!, 1,2,3,4,5 . . . , Let's pump it up!, Way up high Baddest team!, COLUMBIA!, More-more . . . ! Band camp — yeah! Blimpies, traditional pizza after games, cookie salad, band dogs . . . yum. New uniforms, flags, and captains — can't believe it! Mambo, Do you do LBD's? No, but I do ABC's! Visiting other teams . . . Can't wait for Hershey Park or the Devils game. Motorcycles, point/flex, and hit -n- hit -n- hit -n- hit, tossing. Well, it's over, but not over . . . we're just kickin' down the cobblestone, lookin' around an feelin' groovey!

KEEM AND HEADER FOREVER.

To Liz:

You are a friend and a friend you are, like the sky without an end or a brightly shining star.
You are there when I need you and for the time I don't
A friend that is true.
I hope you never leave me;
I promise I won't.
Friends aren't easy to come by so when you find one — don't let go.
Time has a tendency to fly
so I'd like to let you know;
You are my friend, a best one at that and when our lives must come to an end,
I know I can say,
I shared my life with a friend.
I Will Love You Always, Julie

Dear Julie,

You and I have had many fantastic memories and I know there's more to come. I'm so happy that I can say I've shared some of the best times of my life with you. We've been friends for many years and I know in my heart we will stay friends until we're, "old and gray." Just remember that our friendship will last for eternity. And as they say in a song "I'll sacrifice tomorrow, just to have you here today."

Don't ever forget, I'll love you always, and you will always be with me.

Hugs and Kisses

Once upon a time in a land over yonder — the pet dog — there were 3 little girls. One from Marshall, one from Jefferson & the other from Tuscan. As they grew they entered the real world of C.H.S. With the help of a certain brother, Cyn & Tracy met & grew to be very close. Next we came to junior year & the good old west gym. Thats where Melissa came in. The 3 got together, and became evil, coniving, scheming & innocent little angels. Don't laugh, don't laugh!

Scheme A — Tracy goes to get ice cream, but she can't reach it so she asks him for his help. Crash goes the freezer door. Uhoh I think they're trapped! Relax! He manages to open the door within seconds.

Scheme B — When I see him 2nd per. I'll just be normal. When you see him 6th per. find out what he's doing over the weekend but DON'T make it obvious! He's not doing anything? Ok, I'll walk you to match and ask him there ... He said "Call me" Good sign! We're rockin' now!

Scheme C-C is for Cynthia. "strictly cas, strictly cas" is what she mumbled as she ran out the door with THE letter in her hand. He took her to the Grover Cleveland Park, Relax! It remained "strictly cas"! Letter in hand, ready to say goodbye, OOPS! And then he kissed me. Did you say "cas" Cyn? So much for that!

Now this was just the beginning — scheme after scheme these girls never learned. Once again they tried another scheme. "the mission" — Drive by his house. Hes not there! Goto her house. Theres the SAAB! Lets walk by. Leave the flower on his car! Lets wait! Tick, tick, tick, alright, 5 more minutes! Doesn't he have to be home by one? Give him till 1:10. Wait, here he comes, duck! Oh no, he found the flower! Follow him! Hes going home! Don't forget the lights! They're off, sweet dreams! To be continued ...

... Duck! They saw us, we're dead! Quick, turn here Tracy. Here they come! Can't you drive under the seat? Well why not? Great, we lost them! Goto her house. Theres the SAAB! Let him know we were here. Its past his bedtime. What is he going to do, sleep over? I doubt it. See you next time!

Sat night, what are we going to do? Lets go for a ride. Should we? No! C'mon! But — c'mon! Is this a long one? I think so. Ok, slow down. Which way do we go? Counter-clockwise and DON'T forget to put the car in park! Ready? Go! Cyn, whos it gonna be? I don't know Melis, has he stopped calling yet? No. Hey Tracy, where is Dickenson? Maybe you should take him for a boat ride. I see the love goddess! Melissa — hang up on him, hes a creep — such choice words! Men! Hes only using you. But, but — hes a man, should I spell it for you? Come over after your through with him. Bring the Fletchers over for some pop — such choice words — take a head count. Call Melissa, someone is on the intercom — Hello! Wake up. Call him. I can't remember the#. Want some popcorn? Help yourself. Which one will it be Cyn? I refuse to answer! You'll never get away with it! Tray, call him, what d'ya got to lose? Everything — shock I was in that house! Palumbo's once again 4 AM! Rslnd looks pretty good in the wee hours of the morning! I have to tell him! Which one? You'll find out! Ugh! Melis, ya got him! Wow, neat! No more Pike parties. Pike? Whats a Pike? Mike is one! Yeah Cyn — W. Orange guidos. Chuck our buddy — Angelo rm #679 — don't forget Just John! Melis is in the bushes — she couldn't wait. Hurry Tray. Get in the car — those guys look like girls — ugh, I feel icky — I don't do that — we know. I want a pumpkin too! Its just a mailbox Melis. Its my car & I say we stop! Hey, don't go over bumps! Cyn, I'll try. You wore his jacket! It smells like perfume. Lets order pizza! Hes so circulating — such choice words — amazing! We know Cyn! He read the whole notebook! IF I HAVE TO TELL A STORY OF A THOUSAND RAINY DAYS SINCE WE FIRST MET ...
Sitting across the table — fate was on our side. 8th grade S.K.'s house. H.R.: faded Guess Jeans, gasoline, purple argyle polo w/ red shoes. The shoes weren't like Dorothy's, they couldn't lead Felicia to Home!!! Save me a seat in study — Mike and Sean. I'll call you and maybe we'll do something this weekend?? September 28, 1984 — Felicia spends her first Jewish holiday at the Costa's (and the Keaton's) Oh, you slept at Em's house — that's reeeally good!!!! A touch of sarcasm. ENJ's surprise — that she only pays attention to her two friends, but B.K.F. could always do it to ya! Affair on Baker Street: I was on the video once, I yawned and I lost my aqua — no I'm not crying over him. Too bad Feli wasn't at the party. Plastered bun — that was the most exciting part of the evening, admiring it from sitting in our seats. AVAC-P2 needs to cool off so she turns on the Air Conditioner ... a little too much!!! The Hotel ... and still didn't have a good time. Thirty — sorry you got turned down. March 28th — we caused a party and broke up one and don't feel guilty about either. Here are, once again, a few words. It's not just seniors this time, either. Alphabetical, as before. Best luck to all of you and everyone else too. In the immortal words of Arnold S. (& Steve W.) "I'll be back!" — you know it's true. Apologies to anyone I left out of this. Peace, love. BAB

CHRIS A — Milford, Al & the unforgettably radical haircut/ PETER A — Euro history: it's real/KYLE — one cool captain dude, wait till you see what it's really like/DUNIA — la charla con la mujer de la iglesia; flute a capella/ RICKY — when's your b'day & where's the plan?/ KEN B — all the way from MLC (even the lost ones), the silent "right" & the terrible jokes/ JEREMY — just ducky, & usually in deep water, at that; In My Life ... / EDMUND — take notes/ AHADI — give food to the needy — US; we make a great editeam/ MARYA — let's have a what kind of talk?/ LAURA C — "James" by BJ, look it up; free at last/ SAHANA — Bu=u=rn & Glo-o-ow/ AMY E — oldest soph in the school & artiste extraordinaire/ NICHOLE — you & I — what more to say ?/ KEITH F — hotshot, be good/ JEFF G — the party hearty man with a sensitive soul, you're so fresh when your mellow!/ WAYNE — & to think I thought I'd never talk to you again!/ DAN K — hugs 4ever/ BEN K — salam, your soon-to-be - seniorship — act like one, pleez/ DEAN — stay sweet & in touch; organization is?/ ALVIN — can't we find anything to gossip about?/ EVE — oh no! an abdication discrepancy! There is more to life than intellect — experience the finer things/ SETH — I like your attitude! Smiles/ ANDY P — all you Andys think alike, it's a conspiracy/ JON P — the master filmmaker & snazzy debate dresser, did they ever suspect you could do this at So. Mt.?/ JOE R — if it were possible to run up a $100 phone bill from Mplwd. to SO, you would have done it/ SHEL I — recordamonos, amigos no permiten amigos conducir borracho/ SPENCER — go with the flow/ FRIEDL — the long & winding road/ PETER S — the new crew is up to you, remember there's more than one way to peg a teddy bear/ CHARLOTTE — no risk, no gain — artsy means flamboyant/ QUENTIN — I promised you I wouldn't bug you to play frisbee, but ... / SPACE!

Why do all my friends have such weird names? Kaphrys & Comference. I still say MLC rules, B&P & all. CHS teachers: sci. tops it, w/ few exceptions. Milford is a magical place. Return to Adam's Creek (Wayne, my shoe! Obviously an auspicious beginning.) GCP & the MCC pool. 151. No, honestly Larry, I really don't think he knows, so SHUT UP & the rest of you too. All those gosh darned parties! Bringing people together has always been my greatest joy. It's not worth worrying about everything in life — some things are just Dave's department. When frizB becomes an Olympic sport, I'll say I told you so. To my team: don't criticize until you've jogged in my cleats. May Friday nights (falumniing) continue forever; it's the Spirit of the sport. Thanks most especially to those who gave me the gift of music — Larry, Brandon, Troy, Nikki & Jeremy. I am a living, breathing free association, & a privileged student. Mr. A, Mr. Miller, Mr. Mullin — This has been you know who for CHS news. Good Night!

We couldn't forget fifth grade graduation (although we tried so hard to at the time!) JoAnne — you won't forget the music ... will you??? Gee Lisa, you have such a pretty singing voice! Let's just leave it to Billy Joel! Yeah! We didn't want to be in your graduation anyway! "But you never saw the movie." Chalk one up for Jo! — actually, give her two for that one! I never knew you had that in you! "Storm 'n all!" & "Me Heffé!" A year, two years, what's the difference ... Another Saturday night and I ain't got nobody! Dwayne, Dwayne! Lester & Kevi — no, Kester & Levi, silly — how could you get them confused? Is that your friend Eded or Odo? No, I think you mean Oded or Edo. Don't worry Lis, I'm scared for you! Oh — why thank you Jo, I feel much better now! Wait, you're illiterate in French and we got the same grade! I feel like we're stuck inside a movie! Here, we're being rebels, have a cigar! Oh, it's alright, your parents have always thought that I was your corrupting influence!

"I'll be your friend — but I'll fail you"

I AM FREAKING OUT! That must be the most common phrase for the past two years! The girl annoys me ... what else can be said? NNNNNNovamobile! Saabmobile (oops! Maybe not!). Don't you hate it when you're laughing and your (wait, what's it called?) ... clavicle is broken!?! It has been, and will continue to be, real!

See ya here on the feud ... bye bye!

Your friendship means so much! You have made my life very special, and I know you will continue to. Best friends are so hard to find, and believe me, I am very grateful that I have you. Love you always.

Heather — My definition of a friend is someone who understands without asking, someone I can laugh and cry with, who won't judge me.

You have been all that to me, and I love you for it. Our friendship is one of the most important things in my life, and will be until we're 90 and playing Bingo together every Thursday night. I am so glad and grateful that I have you for a friend. We have made so many memories over the past 17 years, and I know we'll make many more. I love you.

The saga continues . . . Lisa, Sharon, Lynda, Vicky, Linda, and Danielle. Slowly we changed: Our "reputation" died, we moved to DeHart, no more headball sessions and no more hiding in the shade. The big cheese came back down to earth. Track and field sessions: "will she make the time?", "how many toe touches was that?", "it's really not that difficult to count!" Lisa — oh how we will miss your toast. "I really don't want to go to practice today Lis . . ." Battle of the soaps — Guiding Light vs. General Hospital. "Lis, can I borrow . . . I forgot . . ." Dropping off the car — our reserved parking place. The hike through the bushes, Lisa's poison ivy, Lynda's yellow "dream car". Bono's house — "What would you do if he walked out of that house Lynda?" And we know who the perfect couple is — LSATUERVAE. We must remember the midfield has to run back, but please, no more creative dribbling! And training the scaries, well nothing more needs to be said about that. West Essex, everyone was offsides. Coach B's duffle bag, she must be making a profit off of this. Mamma Leone! Coach Steve commenting on Lisa's ability. Lynda wearing a METAL barrette against Bayonne. Aaahh the sweet soothing sound of "SWITCH!!" Does Rose get scared on Thanksgiving?? Our little get togethers, KA, DTU! Skipping Laura's to go to Evan's, and being caught by Mamma and the Turkey. Missing practice to see U2. Bus trips and our pet dog. Mel Gibson — Shar do you think he's hot?

Soccer camp — What an experience! How's your Mother feeling? Danielle's famous sayings: "When did you put those up?", "How did you get the phone over here?" and "Get a lot of coach!" Sharon bringing everything. Five alarms. Hiding boys, Peter my love. Vicky the volunteer. Sharon's song: "I want your sex" What's today? Tuesday, it's not Wednesday?

No it's Monday!! "Danielle, why do clouds move? — Cause they want to!" I say Denise — you say hi — Denise hi. Missing the running drills to see the boys play. We're Don Bosco! The pool massages and Danielle gets thrown in. How bout McDonald's? Lynda's shake. Vicky's hair never out of place. Ben Gay, Linda — "My McDominals hurt!" We must never forget our friends, the Living , their hairdryers, Danielle giving them pizza, Jamie and her green die. We'll never eat another peanut butter and jelly sandwich again!

We look back at the finer points: Beating Morris Knolls . . . finally! Being undefeated at home, winning the ECT, the best is on top again. The very first time — Iron Hills — yeah! Overtime at Morristown, we rose for the occasion. The little red-head, we never have to play against her again! Tying Randolph — seven seconds left — way to go Lynda — for that you get a kiss. Losing to Westfield, barely, just barely, next year definitely.

Let's go see the boys play at FDU! — We'll make it back on time. — Sure — 45 minutes late to practice — our last practice. He won't play us — but we're half the team! Route 4 — how we hate you!!! Sharon's changing in the car. Danielle is always in the mud. Lynda has the chance to call someone a dummy and get away with it. Mr. Gavitt made a lovely woman on Halloween. Lisa's motions to the one and only loved one! The big "L". The movie was so good Lynda couldn't even sit down. Sharon and Lisa's lockers, Sharon please take a handwriting course. Speeches. Lisa's men and her personal stories. Bennigan's . . . "Lynda do you know where we are? — Basically." New Years . . . Evan destroys everyone, and he does it off of his nose. Sharon when was the last time you fed Tiger??? Songs we'll never forget: "She's like the wind", "Stay just a little bit longer", and of course "I want your sex"

Dunkin Donuts — was it worth the trip? Hey, Jenn — nice directions to Kutztown! We actually polished off the 36 munchkin box by ourselves! And last but not least — Vicky's header becoming two points and Danielle's broken nose. Indoor champions again!

Sharon and Lisa — I'd just like to say that I'm going to miss you guys very much. Soccer won't be the same. Thanks for everything — both of you! Keep in touch while your gone!! SeeYa — Love Lynda.

Hev "Kids" — this has definitely been one of the better years, and one I will never forget, I owe it all to you. You are all very special and don't you forget it! Love Sharon.

There are six people I know who made my final year the absolute greatest. Damn . . . you guys are the best. I love you all and will miss every one of you. Don't think you've see the last of me though. Never say goodbye . . . just see you later. Danielle, Rose, Lynda, Vicky and of course Sharon: I LOVE YOU — Lisa.

Well guys . . . As Fred Nohorsky would say, "you done good."

Let's get the flock out of here!!

"Hi, I'm 6 years old." "Me too." "Did you make the team?" "Yeah did you?" "Yup." — This is where they met at 6:00 on the dot, three nights a week, for 12 years. The Maplettes — "sslluup" ... down the hole she went. The Shows: wonga-wonga /chica -ma- langlang / bingbing bing — ricochet rabbit/thriller /etc.

"Can you believe it, we're in the same school!"
 "Got I hate those sandals!" MATH — period 1 — Ernie's board; "Hi M & M" — quick ... erase it. Hoo mrooom — Mr. Porcelli's board; Hi Tim, Am, & Lis, Today is Wednesday but its really our Friday! gymnastics: Mrs. V. and J, W, are BFF. "UHUH UHOH MY GOD" the lie of the century — the rican — Sneaking uot the back door w/ a grin; and Sneaking into the kitchen for an extra piece of fruitcake! — both right out of Seventeen Mag. right?. Cauliflower — My favorite kind of vegi. Have you locked yourself in a bathroom that wouldn't lock? Durkin's house — We watched Quinson Vest; its a movie! "I can't be friends w/ you guys — all you do is quote movies!" It's X-mas vaca. — "If anyone ever asks me — I've been raped!" CS

"I heard sophomore year is supposed to be the boring year." ... — its just like putting your hair up for volleyball! And since we didn't talk all summer that could be a problem. gymnastics/due to our poor attitude we got Beryl — due to our 'on purpose' attitude we got rid of Beryl. Later for her to bless us w/ her presence on the volleyball court. Thanksgiving here in Puerto Rico! I've never had turkey like this before (?) Havver & Jose ... She's a refugee! the orbe ... Yo — dude, Big — And. Honest to god that was a UFO! "Did you ever walk into the ocean to rinse something off, and get totally soaked?" totally? totally. Full body tan or half body? SQUEEZE! poppers BB Is Steven gay? NO! Well then give them A mutton chop, a gift of stuff to wash it down.

"This year is going to be the hardest year of all-work wise."
 "Isn't that just special?" "You know how to ruin a yawn; just stick your finger in their mouth." "It's your year to have a pary, I had mine last year." "When we get cars everything will change, you just wait & see" I have soo much work — thats the story of my life! ... Mexico ... "There aint no monkeys back here, there aint no pyramids back here this guy is joshing us!" "Who have you gone w/this year? who have you gone w/your whole life? "I cant wait for summer!" HOBOKEN ... L & L "Do you think I could have a soda?" KG IT's just a fantasy ...

"I can't believe we're seniors!!" — and we've only been in 1 class together ... freshmen yr. ABCD EFGH IJKL MNOP QRSTUV WXYZ ... TED ... EEUU ... thats supposed to be MEOW "R-U-SERIOUS" just call me 3-Michael Pacchia. How many have you had LB?

PINKIES "We're not going to college!" "I wouldn't hang up on your father!" SOSHO — too many memories to fit on a page; even if the page was life=size Goodnight, Sleep tight, Don't let the bed bugs bite.....

"What do you say about me when I'm not there?" GONE W/THE WIND is my favorite movie — You have to watch it. But Stace I don't have 8 hours to spare ... "Oh my god I'm failing!!!" "What did you get an A?" Durkin's house — no curtain window ... Michael Pacchia. Seasons In The Sun. Lets stay up to 4:00 in the morning and talk; or should we argue?" You know what, I know why we argue so well: because we're so much alike." "Dont we look like sisters?" ... T.Q. Shots/L.B.I. Lifeguards. V-ball camp — "I know you lost my eyeliner on purpose!" Our mutual friend ... wait — Oh my God. Yes, I'm jewish, can't you tell? "It's like me going w/Jordan." MEXICO-1) no running water 2) no electricity 3) no floor (just some sand) — what luxury! "I know you love me even though you don't show it." ... Well gladly our friendship finally lasted, after yes - no - yes - no - yes - no — but neither of us will keep in touch after we go to college anyway — (just joking) — We can always shop together!..... "I LOVE YOU STACE!!!" ✓ I LOVE YOU TOO LIS — there i said it" FF

Hellos and

Goodbyes

Putting a yearbook together requires a lot of hard work. The 1988 Mirror staff would like to thank family, friends, and faculty who have given us support as we worked to complete this book. A large responsibility is involved with getting work done and meeting deadlines. The staff would like to extend special thanks to the following people who have helped us do our job:

Kim Wilson, Adrienne Dyner, Dennis Meyers, and Jeanine Barry for their help on the Underclass section.

Nicole Angiel for Project '88 pictures

Mr. Passarge for Spanish Trip pictures

Mr. Ramey — 1/20/88 period 8 in the yearbook office

Komal Deshpande, Guinevere Palomares for their help in the Faculty section.

Jean Berghaus, Vici Lev, and Meredith Woocher for all those lunches and your help.

Dan Rosenbaum and Kisha Grice for their help on odd jobs.

Alison Amsterdam of typing senior quotes.

The Activities section would like to thank Dennis Meyers and Bill Britton.

Thanks to the following photographers: Chad Bennett, Heather Chandler, Simon Curtis, Diana Fuimara, Kathy Hamel, Jill Jenks, Ilana Minkoff, Andy Pitman, and Jeanne Valenza. And also: Karen Adisson, Herman Athias, Chris Barton, Pam Brown, Danielle Dooley, Harry Dullys, Eric Fish, Eric Franke, Windy Henson, Joe Huetz, Lisa Janowski, Jen Lynch, Jayme Marcus, Maria Marano, Chris Nealy, Tom Noto, Liz Rose, Alice Scharf, Nicole Silverman, Jennifer Smith, and Tammy Zahaykevich.

We would also like to thank our rookie advisors Mr. Ricciardi and Mr. Shevalier for all their hard work and much needed support, advice, and smiling faces, without which nothing would have been done.

Thanks to the people in Data Processing who supplied us with all the class lists.
