PRINCIPALS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

he Principal's Advisory Committee meets once or twice a month during lunch periods to discuss student issues, concerns and ideas. This group is open to any interested students who are willing to honestly share ideas and brainstorm to find solutions. Students also react to information and concerns of administrators and/or staff members. Thus a positive forum exists for give-and-take between students and the principal.

N.O.W.

.H.S. — N.O.W. is the first and, as of now, the only officially recognized high school chapter of the National Organization of Women in the country. The 1990-1991 school year saw C.H.S. — N.O.W. grow from just an idea to an actual functioning club. As a young chapter, we retain close ties to Essex County N.O.W.

Our group focuses most of its energy on consciousness raising activities, including films and guest speakers. Although associated on a national level with feminism, C.H.S. — N.O.W. works to achieve sexual equality as well as racial harmony and reproductive freedom.

C.H.S. — N.O.W. welcomes male and female students of all grades to its meetings — and encourages them to join.

mnesty International is a world wide, impartial movement of concerned people acting on the belief that governments must not deny individuals their basic human rights. Amnesty International works specifically for: 1) The release of prisoners of conscience: men, women, and children imprisoned solely for their beliefs, color, sex, ethnic origin, language, religion, provided they have neither used or advocated violence. 2) Fair and prompt trials for political prisoners. 3) An end to torture and executions in all cases.

Amnesty International does a majority of its works through letter writing. This year the Columbia High School chapter prepared showcases, sold Amnesty International calendars, held a concert, sponsored petitions and videos, established a human rights sections in the library, and increased awareness among students of human rights concerns and abuses.

LEAN stands for Columbia's Leaders of an Environmental Action Network. We are committed to improving the environment in and around the school, and teaching others what they can do to help out. CLEAN has installed aluminum recycling containers in the cafeteria, strengthened the paper recycling program, and held workshops for younger students at elementary schools in the area. We have also gone on field trips, and had people come and speak to us about the issues we are most concerned with.

he Stage Crew, under the direction of Mr. Attanasio, is responsible for audio, lights, hanging of sets, etc. Often they work from 3:00 to as late as 10:30 P.M. During an active performance, they have to give lighting and audio cues, and make the complicated changes to provide lighting settings. When a show is finished, the Stage Crew still has work to do, such as breaking down the sets. Then they get ready for the next production.

he Parnassian Society, a strange group of thespians and musicians, made the school laugh with their fall production of Twain by the Tail, a comedy based on the life and stories of Mark Twain. Nights of drama and music were held throughout the year, and the variety show, Friday Night Live, was performed in May. The members of the society, under the direction of Mr. Robert Young, spend their free time pondering the eternal question.

he journalism class generates most of the articles for the Columbian. The members initiate the process with a search for possible stories, but they are not finished there. Each one must choose a story and do the necessary research to write an article about it. Often they must interview administrators and support staff, as well as students and teachers. Then, after the newspaper is printed, the class has the responsibility of distributing it to the entire school.

It gives all students hands-on experience in production and performance.

MATH TEAM

purred on by the fortunate death of its mascot, Log Dog (the Conjugate Canine), the CHS Math Team has been steadily improving since last year. It competes regularly in state, Essex County, Iron Hills Conference, and national level contests, in both team and individual competition. Can you solve the following: the latest contest is 60 miles from CHS. If the speed of the van is 60 mph and Abhinov is navigating, how long will it take to get home? 1) Self-explanatory 2) Dude! 3) This is a trick question. SHOUT IT OUT his year, the crowd was excited by an excellent cheer-leading squad. Under the leadership of coach Johanna Wright, the squad pumped up the crowd at the varsity football games and kept the fans cheering right along. Clapping and stomping their feet when the team scored, the cheerleaders of 1990 were always fun to watch. Their routines included waving their pompoms, leading cheers through megaphones, and performing various gymnastic moves. Throughout the football season, even in the mud and rain, the squad cheered their way into eveyone's hearts. The 1990 season was much more injoyable with the help of the talented cheerleading squad.

his year's varsity football team played to a 1-8 record. This mark, however, does not tell of the individual efforts that the football players put forth at each game.

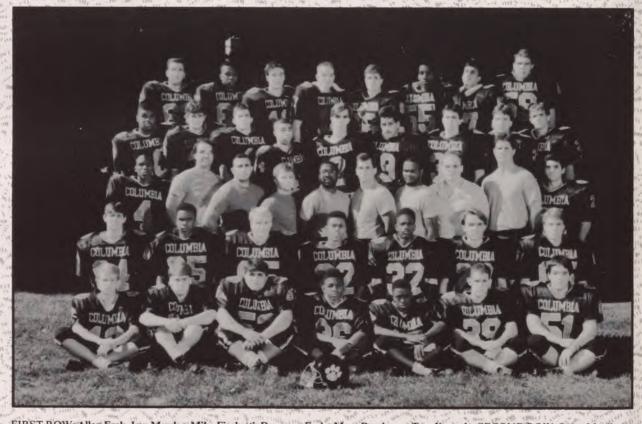

The offensive attack was led by senior quarter back Wally Alicea and running back Joe Riccardi. Riccardi ran for 147 yards in the win over Weequahic. The offensive line was strong behind Brian O'Connell, Dan Secor, Tom Kennedy, Malcolm Powell, and Jamal Powell.

The defensive front was anchored by tackle Malcolm Powell, ends Secor and Andy Augustine, and line backers Mike Muffeletto and Matt Coyle. Corner back Illya Gerdes and safety Dru Curtis had good years.

Good luck next year, Cougars!

he 1990 boys' varsity soccer team had an outstanding season with a record of 21-3. In addition to their sensational record, they captured the Iron Hill Conference title for the 13th consecutive year. With a victorious two goal shut-out over Morristown the team won the Group 4 State Sectionals. Great team work, contributed by all, led the team to break the record for the number of goals made by a Columbia soccer team with 109 goals to their credit.

The team was led to victory by Steve Warjanka, tri-captain and offensive player with 23 goals to his credit. Terrific efforts made by all led the team to an outstanding season. Their two goal keepers, Rich Berghaus and Gabe Moreno, let only 15 shots pass by them this season, a great defensive job done by both. Ten members of the team made the 1990 All State Team, showing once again the exceptional job done by all.

This year marked a personal victory for Coach Chyzowych as well. His teams over the years have had 425 victories under his leadership, making him the winningest coach in the history of N.J. Soccer. Though the team will be losing 12 seniors, the remaining members will surely contribute to the continuation of a great Columbia tradition.

JUST FOR KICKS

his year, the girls' soccer team was led by a new face, Coach Steve Jones. In his first year as head coach, Jones guided his team to a 10-7-2 record and their fourth consecutive Essex County Championship.

Captains Danielle Gechtman, Laura Wilkes, and Marci Rosenfeld helped to make this season a successful one. Gechtman led the scoring with twelve goals. Wilkes anchored the defense and Rosenfeld controlled the midfield.

This years starting forward line was made up of sophomore Dana Dzikowski, junior Kim Murphy, and Gechtman. With their tricky skills and speed off the ball, this combination put together 22 goals.

As always, the Cougar defense proved tough. Wilkes filled the sweeper position. On either side of her were two very capable fullbacks. Senior Jen Caruso shut down her opponent in the backfield. Despite injuries, she played a key role on the defensive side of the field. Sophomore Wendy Rosenfeld filled the other fullback spot. Her strong foot enabled her to clear the ball from danger. Senior stopper Mandy Braunwarth had a terrific year. She managed to keep healthy for almost the entire year and blocked the middle of the field for the Cougars. With Tracy Stelljes in goal, opposing forwards rarely scored. Stelljes and the defense recorded nine shut outs.

This year's only starting freshman played well in the midfield. Megan Frese proved to be a very capable midfielder. Junior Cerita McCollum had another great year at one side of the midfield line. Rosenfeld played the center position and was able to make the transition from defense to offense easily.

The girls finished the season with a victory over the previously unbeaten Montclair Mounties in the Essex County Final. This was quite a way for the seniors to leave.

CHICKS WITH STICKS

he 1990 field hockey team began the season on a sour note, losing by forfeit to Morristown due to the teachers' strike. However, senior tri-captains Meghan Curran, Carrie Fossella, and Elissa Canlas led the team to an impressive 10-6-3 record. In the Essex County Tournament, the team defeated Livingston 4-0 in the first round, only to suffer a tough 2-0 loss to Montclair. Earning the right to play in the State Tournament, Columbia again won the first round, beating Union 2-1. Ironically, the team felt the pain of another second round loss at the hands of their rivals, Montclair, losing 1-0. The 1990 varsity field hockey team consisted of: Amy Chiarello, Wendy Leitner, Adriana Alvez, Karen Engstrom, Erin Greene, Jenny Kaas, Melissa Cocca, Kathy Zavocki, Megan Leitner, Kelly Bland, Libby Butler, Lisa Bowers, Sara McKee, Dana Lanzafame, Tara Burdorf, Kerry Hammond, Meghan Curran, Elissa Canlas, and Carrie Fossella.

his year, the girls' and boys' cross country teams were slow getting started. The teachers' strike forced the boys to forfeit two meets. The girls, too, were forced to forfeit meets because they could not get enough runners to participate. Despite this, both teams had individuals that put forth brilliant efforts throughout the season.

The boy's team finished with a 4-3 record and placed fifth in the Iron Hills Conference, seventh in Essex County, and eighth in the state sectionals. Per Chilstrom and Rob Hordon were two of the top twenty runners in the conference. Hordon and Captain Matt Martelli finished in the top thirty county runners. Hordon, a junior, also placed in the top twenty-five in the state sectionals.

The girls 1-4 record does not tell of the individual successes the runners had. In the Iron Hills Conference, Captain Shari Alexander and Rashida McMurray placed in the top twenty runners. Despite injuries, Alexander was able to finish in the top thirty in the county. Junior Edelveis Maria also placed in the county. Senior McMurray finished in the top twenty-five in the state sectionals.

Neither teams' record shows the outstanding individual efforts that were produced this year.

Coach Genzer led the team to another sensational season for the second year in a row. The team was composed of a wide variety of determined players.

For her second year, Marjorie Gantman led the team in first singles. Karen Fessler and Liz Poss were outstanding singles players. The doubles teams were led by a dynamic duo, Traci Price and Mindy Jaffe. Marjorie Gantman made All Conference first team at first singles and advanced to the forth round of the state Singles Tournament. The dynamic first doubles duo, Mindy and Traci, were runner-up Essex County Champs.

Although the team will be losing seniors Liz Poss, Karen Fessler, Ali Simonton, Suzanne Lee, Nikki Schesinger, Julie McFadden, Jennifer McFadden, and Samantha Munson, several key starting players will be returning to play on the team next year. These players along with upcoming underclassmen, and Coach Genzer's outstanding coaching, should lead the Lady Cougars onto a successful season in 1991.

LEADERS OF THE PACK

The winter cheerleaders have a rough schedule. They run their own practices and still cheer for both the boy's basketball team and the wrestling team. Although they are always on the move between the two sports, they never disappoint the eager fans. The squad is exciting and enjoyable to watch. During half-time at the basketball games or between matches at wrestling, the cheering is led by the talented squad. They electrify the crowd with the pep and action they display. Whether in a pyramid formation or dancing in lines, the cheerleaders always get the crowd into the game. They are a constant source of entertainment, regardless of the score.

SHARP SHOOTERS

The boys' basketball team jumped out to a 7-2 record in the early goings of the season. The team finished with a 15-10 record. Led by senior tri-captains Dave Staggers, Miguel Perez, and Carl Williams, the team headed into the state tournament against Irvington. The team lost a tough game but their season was a success nonetheless.

Coach Tom Reilly guided the team with the help of five strong seniors. Besides Staggers, Perez, and Williams, Ivan Gevirtz and Chris McAllister were able to provide leadership for the other players. Gevirtz, and McAllister, an outstanding soccer player as well, were both first year players. Other team members included Tim Grice, Dave DiConstanzo, Frank Caputo, Victor Klein, and Raheem McBride. For juniors Tim Grice and Victor Klein, the 1990-1991 season marked their second year on the varsity squad.

Next year, both Grice and Klein will be counted on to lead the team. Coach Reilly will also count on DiCostanzo and McBride in key starting positions. Frank Caputo will also fill an important spot. Although five seniors will be lost to graduation, the team will still be strong.

he 1990-19901 girls' varsity basketball team completed their season with a winning record of 15-9. Although the Lady Cougars lost several starting seniors last year, they were led to a victorious season by co-captains Laura Wilkes and Patty Vopal. Once again Laura Wilkes led the team in scoring. Patty Vopal contributed to the team with her numerous rebounds and blocked shots.

To add to the Lady Cougars winning season, Coach Wright celebrated her 200th coaching victory during the Irvington game. In addition to Coach Wright's 200th victory, Laura Wilkes broke a Columbia High School basketball record. She has become Columbia's all-time leading basketball scorer in both boys'and girls' basketball.

The team was rounded out with other key players such as Abigail Joseph, Olisa Small, Kathy Zavocki, Sharone Anderson, and Yolanda Carter. The team's tough defense allowed the team to win many of their games. Though the team will be losing seniors Laura Wilkes, Patty Vopal, and Abigail Joseph, the Lady Cougars look for another successful season next year.

he 1990-1991 boy's wrestling team met with great success. Their final record of 15-4 measures this. The season also included a second place finish in the Essex County Tournament and the wrestling team championship in District 10. Some team members also went on to win individual honors.

Paolo Custodio was named the District's Outstanding Wrestler. He captured his second district title after defeating last year's winner. Custodio wrestled at 140 pounds this year but was last year's champion at 135 pounds. Billy Coon, too, picked up his second straight district championship at 189 pounds. This strong senior was one of the anchors for the team. Both Custodio and Coon won Essex County Tournament titles this season as well. At the other end of the scale, Scott Jones won his first title in as many tries at 103 pounds. This freshman will be one of the future stars for the team. Junior Dave Gregory finished second in the district at 119 pounds. Senior Andrew DeFillipis also finished second in the 145 pound class. Sophomore Arthur Taylor finished third in the district in the 112 pound weight class. Buni David also placed third at 160 pounds. Dave Laden placed second in district competition and the senior advanced to regional competition with an excellent record of 22-5.

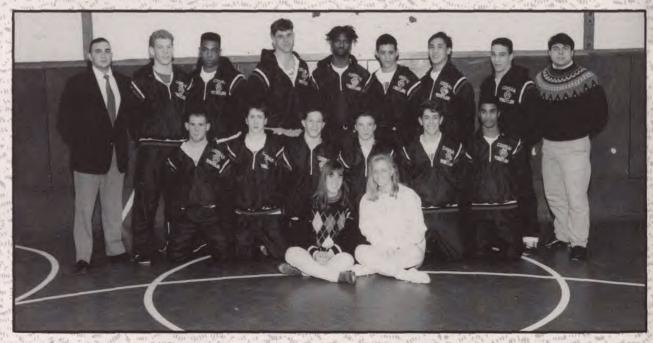

Although the team will lose such powerful seniors as Custodio, Coon, DeFillipis, Laden, David, Mike Fischetti, Dan Cohen, and Greg Brown, next year promises to be another great season. Coaches Brian Luciani and Len Cuppari with young wrestlers Scott Jones, Chris Jones, Arthur Taylor, and Dave Gregory will continue the winning ways.

he 1990-1991 indoor track teams set new records and outstanding performances were had by all to contribute to a great season. The girls were led by captais Jennifer Duncan, Rashida MacMurray, Shari Alexander, and Megan Leitner. The four by two relay team consisting of Kyla Scott, Jennifer Duncan, Andrea Melton, and Rashida Mac-

Murray broke the school record for this event with a time of 1 min. 47 sec. Overall the team had several strong victories which qualified them for the Meadowlands relays, in which they placed sixth.

djusting to a new coach can be hard for a team set in its ways. However, a talented team with strong leadership can make the transition easily. That is exactly what this year's swim team had to do and they did it with no problem. As a first year coach with a terrific team, Coach Louis Brown guided his team to a 10-4-1 record. Helping Coach Brown were the two team captains, Dave Jarosz and George Previll. These two seniors helped make this year a successful one.

Besides Jarosz and Previll, the team was led by one other senior. John Mahon provided valuable leadership for the younger swimmers. There were many of them this year. Jean Coon, Ben Rhodes, and Mike Robinson made up the crew of sophomores on the team. Susan Davenport, Emily Kunze, Susan Basile, and Shuhei Nezu were the junior members of the team.

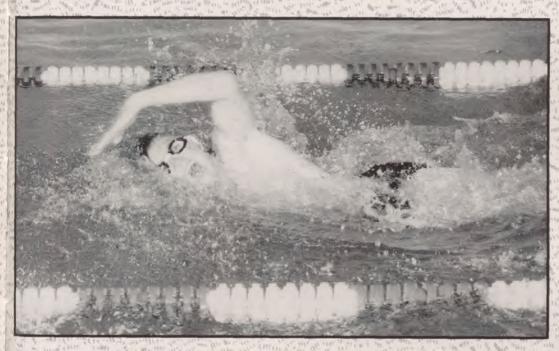

Next year, although the team will miss the graduating seniors, figures to be another great season for the swimmers. Matt Kohn, Josh Brachfeld, and the rest of the juniors and returning swimmers will keep up the winning tradition.

CURSES, FOILED AGAIN

Both the boys' and girls' fencing teams had complete seasons this year. Their records of 3-7 and 2-7, respectively, are deceiving in that they do not show the spirit the team fenced with.

This year's teams were led by captains who helped and encouraged the many new fencers. Rhushang Mehta, a junior, was the overall team captain. Yvette Losman, also a junior, and Tracy Wallace, a senior, were the girls' captains. Adam Levy, a junior, and seniors Khalid Best, and George "Ty" Monk led the boys. All of these fencers were a credit to their sport and the school they represented.

Starting for the girls' side were Losman, Wallace, juniors Stacy Selenfriend, Eileen Kasperek, Trina Birnbaum, senior Sarah Ryan, and two freshmen, Laurie Adlerstein and Illana Schiller. The boys' starters were seniors Monk, Judah Cohen, Khalid Best, and Imani McKinney. Joining them were Mehta, Jon Izzilino, Adam Levy, Jay Dumkopf, and John Bigelow.

This year, the girls' team made history. For the first time, they fenced eppe in competition. In prior years, only the boys had been allowed to do this. Yvette Losman and Trina Birnbaum led this team along with junior Eileen Kasperek and sophomore Jamie Farnam.

Although next year the team will be without coach Michael Conley, the fencers hope to have a successful season.

"Can you believe it, my parents are going away. I think I'll have people over," Jen said. "So, I hear you're having a party, can I come over?" Ker asked. "Well . . . I guess so," said Jen. What a great way to start a friendship - J. is Ker's fairy godmother for the night, S. takes one sip and spits it out (yuck!). Then we bring the leftovers to school. Jen finally calls HIM but he's outside playing. About Last Night — "So where am I ...," Fiesta Ware, Dr. Pepper (that we still haven't tried!), "Well at this point ... we don't know." Big — "Ya mean like sleep over?" "I don't get it." Freshman summer — 4th or July weekend starts at Jen's house, Maryanne thinks the pizza man is hot, he comes back later and brings us P. and a friend. Where are MH's pants? She uses the dog's pen, D.B. cannot find a bathroom, We take a trip to the Sage -Jen and Ker fall asleep on the couch only to be awakened by M.H. pointing out the window, we all sit and watch (Dan, Dan the Pizza Man). Next day we go to Penn and sleep all weekend. "I'll give you 50 bucks to jump on this luggage!" Jen is scared to go home (1, 2, 6, I'm in the bed asleep) Party at Fat Boy's house — we walk all over town to find cigs. Sophomore year: After the hockey game we go back to Shari's house, Shari wants to show Jen our dance but Jen says "No, I really have to go to the bathroom!" After like 5 minutes she lets Jen go. Icing and graham crackers. Florida — going to the movies w/Paul ("Something's afoot at the circle K"), Jen and Ker in the back room — Spit and Gin Rummy every day, Ker always got the fastest go-cart, "This is yea, this is rah. Yea, rah, yea, rah." "How do they talk? They talk like this." Sweet Sixteens - - Jen's father asks Ker to dance, she turns him down and he will never let her forget it! C., C., and J. come to Ker's a little messed up. Ker's house in Dec. — "No Jen, you're on medication!" Ru says. But she sneaks one anyway, the phone book on Mike's car, Jen knocks down the candlestick, Mike and Emily trip over the garbage, Shari sleeps on Mallomars in Ker's new robe and Ru cleans it up. Soph. summer — Penn — we snag b. and Ken and Chris almost catch us, Coming To America — "This is beautiful, what is that, velvet?" m. the next morning. Ker's house again — Shari gave everyone a paint stick, breaking the bench, Ker's awesome pyramid, Ken is confined to his room, later that night Jen and Ker take the empties around - Cure concert, on the floor, people and food get thrown. Junior year - lunch, making fun of E., getting in trouble for the corner. Next day laughing too loud, the clapping table, Ker's lover in the dishroom. Ker gets her license and drives Jen to school till she gets her's. Bagel Chateau every day, drooling over C.Z. Then one day — "Guess what, Jen, I'm going to the prom." Well that turned out to be pretty interesting! Dinner at Sage, then what? We call Chris and go to Brett's (one P. each), then to the movies. What an exciting night! Studying for the math final w/ Rach — a lot of good that did. Ker gets her first parking ticket — "Jen, will you please come to the police station w/me?" Taking the chem exam — done in 20 minutes, then going to the beach. Junior summer — James Taylor, passing the exit, parking miles away, do we even remember the beginning of the concert? the scummy guys who bought us sodas, Roy's on the way home. Senior year — our awesome math class, F row, lanky monotone man, Chris buying homework. Party in W.O. — we get Nutty in Rachel's trunk, Roy Rogers, Rachel's neighbor rings the doorbell, we leave Rach's car at the train station. Homecoming — Fred's house, 50 million pictures, Kev gets a little happy (that won't be the first time!). Afterwards, Ker passes on going to Chris's house. Freaking out about colleges, getting psyched for the prom (date?). The shore will be awesome!

Rach — It is hard to believe how close we have become in such a short period of time. We have had so much fun together, and this is only the beginning! Thanks for everything. The Rachel-mobile will live forever! We love you, Jen and Ker

Ker — Where should I begin? In just 3 years we have gathered so many memories. I never realized how close a friend could be until I became friends with you. You made me laugh in the good times, and pulled me through the bad. I guess this is one of those friendships that is supposed to last forever. Luv ya, Jenny

To all my friends (you know who you are) — High school would not have been the same if I had not met you. Just remember, I'll always be there for you when you need me. (Joc — next time, don't get caught.) Luv, Jenny

P.S. Bill — It may be unfortunate the way we became friends but look what has come out of it! You've been there for me and I've been there for you. Just remember if you listen to what I say, things will go all right. I luv ya! Always, Jenny

Jen — What can I say? We have shared so much through the past three years, both good and bad. Although we love to annoy each other, you know that deep down, I love you. Thanks for putting up with me. High school is ending, and we are moving on, but I know we will never drift apart, our friendship is too strong. Love you always, Kerry

Shar and Ru — What would I have done without you guys? We have laughed and cried together, and I've loved every minute of it! Friends to the end, we are a circle. "With a friend at hand, you will see the light. If your friends are there then everything's all right." Love ya, JJ Meg — Hey chica! I wish we could've done a page, we have so many incredible memories. You always know what I'm thinking and how I'm feeling

Meg — Hey chica! I wish we could've done a page, we have so many incredible memories. You always know what I in thinking and now I in feeling — I think it's because we are so much alike, it's scary. No matter what, you can always make me laugh. Never forget: NYC '91, let's do it again sometime! Thanks for everything. Love, Ker

To all my other friends — Friends make memories, and you guys have given me some of the best. It is going to be so hard to leave you next year, but I know we will stay close. "Forever suddenly got a lot shorter, didn't it?" Love, Kerry

Tim — You made last summer the best three months of my life. I've learned so much from you. Thanks for everything. My love is real, not fade away. Love always, Kerry

To our families — You made us what we are today, and we couldn't have done it without you. This is only the beginning, now comes the good part! All our love.

"It's been such a long time, I think I should be going. Time doesn't wait for me, it keeps on rolling."

And leave us to make more memories will last forever

Danielle: Through the years I've learned how easy it is to forget what's important in a friendship. And what that word really means. What ingredients you need to make a friendship strong, but I've learned it from you. You've been there for me. You stood by me when I just kept getting hurt and going back for more. Through the bad times and the different changes we went through we still found each other looking for that special friendship that we couldn't find anywhere else. I love U Micky. Don't ever change you're one in a MILLION. My memories of us will last forever!

Heather: Friendship is like a ship on the horizon! You see it etched against the sky. And then it moves on. The ship dips out of your vision but that doesn't mean it's not there. Friendship is not linear. It moves in all directions teaching us about ourselves and each other.

A friend
A friend is one
Who walks in your footprints
Watching every step you take
She walks with you
Making sure you don't make a mistake
A friend is one
Who will stick by you when you're confused
She listens to your thoughts and feelings
And tries to make life easier and lots of fun
Filling each day a special kind of love!

The Beginning

Thus begins the story of Paco and Dems (Guess which one is Paco... The Spanish one). Two men were walking down the street one day, they were good friends, and they had been on similar walks in the past, but this one was different, for in this, their freshman year, they met a boy (or something, we still don't know what he was) named Harry. Harry was a short boy, and quite round, and had quite a peculiar odor, as he didn't shower much, but he was our friend. Harry was a strange boy, he dreamed of being a boxer/architect/karate master/surfer/whatever else interested him that particular day. Although Harry was quite... well... different I guess you could say, he did try his best to keep us happy when we were down in the dumps. He had one saying which he loved to throw around, and it went a little like this: "Don't worry about women guys, remember, there are many fishes in the seas, and you can get them if you have the right bait." He helped us through a lot of rough times. We don't quite know where Harry is right now. Last we heard, he stole a car and drove down to Florida. He got picked up in North Carolina and now we think he is in a Florida chain gang. Remember Harry, we love you. Harry left behind a girl, a girl named TINA KOEBLE. Tina and Harry were good to each other, but Harry took off. Well, that's all for Tina. Now back to the story. Later on in their journey, Paco and Dems met a girl named Karla (this isn't her real name, we just decided to be discreet and show respect). Karla was a sweet girl, good and wholesome, NOT!!! Karla had a hobby in which she lured the innocent friends and turned them on each other. As you can see, Karla was not a very nice person. Thus, the adventure must be put on hold for a year or two. In this time they spent taking separate paths, Paco fell deeper into the evil clutches of Karla, while Dems eloped (actually he was kidnapped and brainwashed) with another evil beast JEZEBEL!!! (Again we have changed the name to protect them.) During this time the two pure men grew feeble and w

One day, Paco went out looking for the sacred White Castle burgers. It just so happened Dems went out looking for the White Castle burgers at the same moment. (Was it luck? I think not.) Dems and Paco saw each other and cried, and shared a Castle. They talked, and realized that their friendship was more important than the two evil beasts that had controlled their minds. At that moment, the spells that Karla and Jezebel had over the two friends were broken. They were friends again, and the adventure continued . . . Thus, a new chapter unfolds: VEGETABLE KINGDOM

And so the two friends continued on in life, meeting new people, making new friends, and making up stories about Wildwood, which everybody still believes. They also tried to fulfill the ultimate quest, of complete love and happiness ... SHVEELAH!!! They believed that in one's life you can reach a point of complete happiness when you are happine than you have ever been and ever will be. Paco thinks he has found Shveelah in a girl named Alex Himmel and Dems tried to find (Sammi) and he is still trying. Both men have been trying to find out exactly what love is. Dems thinks it is the most beautiful color in the world, Green. Paco thinks it is a Jewish delicacy, Shatzi. They have argued over who is right, and decided both are.

Dems and Paco were going to take this time to tell you about another adventure, but realized that they couldn't remember one which was actually legal. They decided then that they are probably in other people's quotes so they had better start mentioning other people.

Here we go: Zach — You are a big dork, you smell like Kyle, and you stink at Bass, that's why you got kicked out of the band, Ha Ha. Finn — you are a bigger dork. Melissa — You are short and rich, but we love you anyway. Caroline — You're short and ... YOU KNOW!!! Nicole — You REALLY KNOW!!! Conan — OH, just go away! Leora — What's up Jerry? You're a good

Bill — Bill, we're really worried about you, how do you feel, are you sure this is what you want to do? Dude, remember, we care. Don't look at me that way, Bill. Kate — You're a sweet girl or something like that. Ty — You're low, no, you're lower than low. You're raw, rude, ronchi, and repulsive. We're going to miss you. Ra — All we can say is loosen up. Going fishing? Fish — Give up on Ra. Remember always, MTV at your house. WHY ARE YOU SO NERVOUS? Hayden — ??? we have nothing to say. Leesha — GUUYS, GUUYS, GUUYS, I'm not Lame! "What time is it Rachel?" "11:20" Since there's no organization to our lives there will be no organization to this page! Let's EAT ... yogurt, pepperoni, pizza (preferably at Pizza Hut), pralines-n-cream and key lime. Come visit me at work. What happened to Tweedle-dee and Tweedledum? You mean West and East? Never mind! Ho 2 points - proceed! ... directly to Purchase. Not home soon enough, coloring, the pub, pepsco, "I think I've been here before." I'm sleeping at Jenny's (Joci, next time don't get caught). W.O. party ... 12 people in the Rachel mobile and one in the trunk. Roys, hungry? Eat a biscuit while you wait, don't jump over the counter. The Homecoming jam ... places to go people to see, Rachel barely sees the inside of her mug, Joci and Kevin (get a room!!!!) Who gets rooms in the prom house? JEN AND RACH because they got the house, run 1 mile to Exxon, blowout, stop asking questions my dad has a short temper, yes we paid $200 for a view of the beach. So this is what it comes to: 1) We stink in Math class! 2) We're experts in eating! 3) We have enough math sense to know how much to drink! "Together at last, Together forever ..."

Rach — Such a short time, so many memoris! Our friendship has come so far, yet it has so many years to mature. Remember, I am just 45 minutes away whenever you need a friend! Love always Jen

Jen — I never thought we'd become friends nonetheless close friends. Who knows how it happened, I just thank god it did! I can always count on you to make me laugh. We've had so many great times and we still have a lifetime ahead. We won't be far away next year so be sure and visit! I love ya Jen!

Rachel — What a lot of strange and wonderful things we've been through! It seems so odd that two people who have been friends for less than a year can be so close I guess it was just meant to be. You've been my voice of reason through a lot of tough times, your shoulder has gotten plenty wet, and you've actually listened to EVERYTHING I've had to say. But our friendship goes beyond the tough times, you're the twinkle in my eye and the laughter in my heart. And next year when the miles separate us you'll be right there with me as the voice inside my head that I can talk to anytime — even if people begin to stare —

Joci — Too bad I didn't like you sooner, but thank goodness we came to our senses and got this friendship underway. Thanks for listening to all my stories and of course sharing the WOW(s). I know "we've only just begun"

... love you always, Joci. You're a terrific friend!!

How to begin writing on three of the funniest, psychotic, outstanding, greatest human beings on earth. Well I guess by stating their names Kim Ali Danielle or Alvin Simon Theodore or Skippy Skeet Squimp. THE DREAM TEAM that's when the high five started. You've seen them drivin' drivin' drivin' the regular route. Beep Beep wave. Listening, dancing, and singing to the tunes. T DWARFS. Freshman year the night of everyone's dreams. Life goes on Sunday nights, Baskin Robbins, Heberts sitting in the window, Pepsi, stromboli, macaroni, chip and dip. Dunkin Donuts, The love shack I never saw, but I heard a few stories — Stealing of public property, fights, pounding B-balls, wacko neighbors, kafufer, volleyball, and fellas. Where's your bathing suit Kim. I've heard a lot more from these 3 girls but not so much I can repeat cause then I'd have to kill you! What would we have done without each other these four years? Without our talks and laughs, without our trips and the Hamptons, without our sicknesses. Most of all without our fights?

Lizzie, It's amazing how we've built such a long lasting friendship in only a few years. No one has ever meant so much to me and I know when I go away next year there won't be anyone quite like you. You are definitely one in a million, and can never be replaced. I LOVE YOU LIZZIE!

SARA AND SHARI

Perfectionists, philosophers, people watchers, movie analyzers, muffin-lovers and Diet Coke addicts. We think too much, we work too hard, we read too slowly, we pick apart our food before we eat it and take at least a half an hour to get ready for bed at night. We're intense, indecisive and insecure. How could we not be such good friends? So where to begin ... Freshman year: swim team — six o'clock in the morning in a slimy pool — never again! Breakfast (a corn muffin and a diet coke) in Mr. Porcelli's class ... Health with Mr. Yoresh — now we'll know what to do if ever we find ourselves without a finger. Save it! Put it in ice! 10th grade ... From lunch to physics: "Let's see, if we walk around C wing, we'll probably burn off more calories than if we just go down A wing ... "Physics labs and lectures "I just happen to have ...," films from 1950 "Let's see that again, this time in slow motion!" Flying food at the lunch table — Why were we always in the middle of their stupid food fights? "Some people are soo immature." The murder mystery party, bowling with Bill and Rick. The Question: So, how long has it been? Sara's response: With or without the 24 hour break up? Shari's response: Too long! Junior year ... study sessions and closer friendship. "But Sara, I don't understand ... But why? ... Yeah, but why?" "So, but why?" "TIS JUST THE WAY IT IS! Study in memorize it, ace the test and never ever think about it again, okay?" "Okay, but why?" Hysteria at midterms ... "We broke up! Isn't that great?" Lollipops in Mr. Ghegan's class, tea in the back room, Avagadro and the pellet down the sink. My brain is supersaturated! "I love that outfit he's wearing. Ya think he'd let me borrow it some time?" Shari's trip to Israel and the many new boyfriends ... Gary? No wait, Roger? Which Roger? What's her name's Roger or the Roger from what's that place? Oh, forget it, I can't keep up with all those "g" names anyway ... "Should !?" and later "well, I tried." "I don't know Heath, I really don't." Oh that I were a fool! A typical conversation: I'm so depressed! I feel like I don't know where I'm going. I feel like I'm being used and nobody cares. I feel as though nobody understands. I'm glad I have friends like you to open up to. "OH, WERE YOU SAYING SOMETHING?" we've got nothing more to say — friendship is only what you make it. The Summer Vacation In Hell . . . don't worry Aly, we'll get to D.C. eventually! "Hey Aly!" "Hey Heath," they're all insane here! WHERE ARE YOU?!" "I'm here Heath, where are you?" THE BEST OF TIMES CAME WITH THE BEST OF FRIENDS

Mr. Rogers once said, "F-R-I-E-N-D-Special. You are my friend. You're special to me."

Knock-knock. Who's there? Barbed wire. Barbed wire who? Barb, why're we here today? Because physics is phun! THE HOT SPOT!!! So hot that Nicole needed some evian, but unfortunately ... Boom, crash!! ... she doesn't catch. Don't worry, it will evaporate. Later that year, Ann decided to put a whole bag of M&Ms in her mouth, and then spits them back out, realizing that she couldn't possibly chew them without gagging. Which leads us to Ann's kitchen, where honeybuns, hard pretzels, ice cream, cranberry juice, diet coke, and bugles were consumed. Mostly, though, we just talked. Ann, Jen and Nic baked a birthday cake for Mrs. Wund there - Happy Love 1000 and created the green monster as consolation for Dave failing his driver's test. Another memorable cake was inhaled at Dave's — Dave 1990 — J. paranoid, his brother-in-law was it the cop? - walking in. Creative cutting - J. still paranoid - let's go back, okay? Rumors about us not being such nice girls, just rumors remember. Granola. Aurelia — Blue — Digger — Cricket — Japanese beetle — Abi Yo-Yo — Youell. Otine the evolution of the nickname, developed in the hours of Mr. H's class. Letters to Chris, honey, buff puffs and the buffer zone. Math class, profanity narcs, vandalism narcs, wave lengths — we're on the same lambda. Thanks Mr. Palma for the ego boosts smart and beautiful. J. eating Nic's peanut butter and jelly every day. Maryn in the math group with J. and Nic, we just don't work well together. Ann lucking out, working with Damien, gets As every time. Peter and Mr. S, best friends. Mrs. Wund, we love you! Bye school for now. Jen and Nic's standing date for Friday afternoons — the walk home was just too far — how pathetic did Jimmy think we were? but finally we got cars. Then there's the saga of the broken cars — how bout some power steering for Nicole? Friday afternoons left too much time for contemplating "it." Nic's schedule: Mon, Tues, skip Weds, Thurs, Fri, Sat, skip Sun, and so forth. Ann's schedule: 1987, 1988, 1989, skip 1990, 1991? Jen's schedule: so erratic, who can keep track? On one thrilling evening, Ann volunteers to let us practice our barber skills on her, and Jen promptly shaves a small part of her head. Another evening with Leesha and Zoe leads us to discuss techniques, Leesha asks Ann "but how's it done?" Those were the blissful days of the fivesome. According to Dave W., we were the Go-Gos — you know, you look a lot like Leesha Bonilla. But I am Leesha Bonilla. Terra Cotta — the birthday dinner from hell. Leesha, Ann and Nic going bowling and starting a trend. Nic's philosophy on bowling: just drop the ball and five minutes later, a strike! Our obsessions: for Ann, there was Dave P., then there was Danny H., then Chris C., but what exactly was he? Nicole's obsessions: Chris honey, and Chris L., and Charlie P., and most importantly, Ethan. Jen's obsessions: Dougie boy (boy, was that weird), and Danny. Of course for the three of us, there will always be Bill. Unreciprocated was the rule. Jen and her obligations for Mr. Y.K.W. Conan, Andrew, Rob, Dave, Scott, Damien, Kyle: thanks dudes, we appreciated it. Seance with sex music and piccolo playing in front of the candles, creating shadows of the modern dance movements. Brian and Andrew showing up on our doorsteps. The Lemon Sisters inspiring the Pizza Sisters. Going to NYC, Nic in the MTV commercial "It's better than a sharp stick in the eye" Shakespeare in the park, waiting six hours in line, Jen avoiding the sun, as always. Taming of the Shrew, with Tracy Ullman. Ann and Nic going to see Les Miserables — singing the songs for weeks afterwards. Going to France — getting our culture — appreciating our own more. Ann and Zoe in Berlin, weeding herb gardens and making nature trails. Great Adventure — Clem, do you see the bunnies — getting soaked and changing in the car, Dave and Dame wearing plastic bags. Wuu-Wuu night at Jen G's, Clem and the double stars. Going to CBGB's and spending the night in the pizzeria — the moshing wasn't that appealing — but Dave W's band was good. Afterwards, Ann goes out to breakfast with Howie — another obsession — and Nicole eats breakfast with Kyle. Gin rummy and cranberry juice at J's house. Making Ty a dinner, he didn't reciprocate — yes, we hold grudges, Jen especially. Dying our hair various shades of red — J's backfired turning orange washed her hair so many times before or since. Nic and Jen bra shopping — Ann doesn't need one. Life is like an onion; you peel it away layer by layer and sometimes you weep. Cruising for Salem (Sell'um street) — waste of time. Someday J's taking us to a revolving restaurant — for Nic, a lifetime supply of lipstick.

Dave — you're the weirdest — we always loved you in women's clothing. We love you.

Damien - Coma esta - want to go bowling after breakfast? Love you babe.

Andrew - thanks for stopping by.

Rebecca — you made lunch decidedly strange, and thanks for being Ann's only refuge in drawing class.

Candy - stay sweet, love Candy.

Amy - keep your smile and your plaid stockings

Acissej — we miss you this year — keep doing aerobics out in California.

Jen G — I love you — we've had such great times together — are you crying? I will miss you next year, but remembering our threesome last summer will always make me smile. I love you, Nicole

Leesha — since freshman year — English teachers from hell — love kills (we were the originators of that phrase) — don't remember the unspeaking summer. I love you - I'll miss you, Nicole Zoe — club babe — we have the same taste — same lipstick — choco — bliss to smart food, we're still friends. You have always been there for me. I love you, Nicole

Clem — You are one of the greatest friends that I have ever had. I love you very much. "I think you're really great!" I truly admire you in many ways. You have a lot of ambition and I'm sure it will take you places. Don't let yourself get discouraged. Thank you for always being there. Love your ballerina friend, Ann

Jen G. — We have had a lot of great times. We've laughed. We've cried. (Just a bit corny.) You really are a great friend. I always enjoy being with you and I love you very much, Ann

WOODY PALS - I don't know what I would have done without you. It was such a great escape from the daily routine. I'll never forget any of you. Caroline and Kate, you have been especially important to me. I love you very much. Ann

TAMAR — Woody Allen won't be the same next year. You've meant more to me than you could possibly imagine. I love being the one to keep you sane. T.T.F.N. (ta ta for now).

CLEM — Hanging out with you is like . . . I don't know what; it's just plum fun. See you around buddy.

*JESS — It blows my mind to think how much we've been through together, and I hate blowing my mind. Frank and Bertha will live on forever. I miss you already.

It's really late, so if there's anyone we've forgotten, we're tired and we're sorry. Just know that we love you. NOW IT'S TIME TO SAY GOOD-NIGHT. GOOD NIGHT. SLEEP TIGHT.

Congratulations to BRIAN and the entire CLASS OF '91

Love, Dad, Mom, Megan '88 and Sean '90

SHARI AND CATHY

Guy gossiping brought us together — FATAL ATTRACTION — D, S, M, D — Cathy, I have something to tell u. Come here — EW! U're so disgusting. Get the are so evil. So Shari, u are so sweet and innocent. But Cathy, who's the chastity woman? S, I was used. But C, were u used for 7 months. They be hot, but trust me there's nothing underneath and why do guys have to be so possessive? Don't they trust us? Hey at least we know they worry . . . and care — OK, what about our obsession with younger guys. C, there is a true difference between boys and men. Watch out when u've been friends. Was JN a mistake — Boys of summer — How many guys and which ones which and S, who's tonight, I can't keep them straight. C, but I can tell you my love for him will still be strong, after the boys of summer are gone — Comparing relationships — They may hurt, but trust me, u'll learn from all of them. That's good. C, do u always say that's good, and why do u always say u're sorry, and stop saying thank u! So S, why do u always say u don't know? Don't u know anything, and why do you always say Shh! Don't tell! I don't gossip. I don't have a big mouth — C with the chicken legs, says Brian, and both of them together. Yes, General salami, or Genoa is it? C's infatuation with Jeff, Bri's brother. Oh u're so cute. Telling off the modern maniacs. Guys, they hung up on me again. C, I never knew u had a mouth — Do u remember Beth's shore house and C's strong affinity for Hotel California? Will u go to sleep? S, where's my earring? S, having problems? U are most uncoordinated. I don't understand. Why can't u touch your nose, stick out your tongue, and rub your belly at the same time — Oh go to sleep, C. No. I want to talk to what's your name again? C, get your head off of his lap. I'm tired. I'm just talking. C, GO TO BED! GET OUT FROM UNDER THEIR BED AND GO TO SLEEP1 But C took care of S too. Homecoming — S, they won't let me in. What is wrong with u? Why are u such a ditz. Will u sit with your legs closed? Shut your mouth. Stop talking about Jenny's nails, and don't breathe on Mr. Gonsalves! C, don't u ever give up. Now calm down. Don't throw a tantrum. Mr. Policeman, please let me in. Wonderful tonight, how ironic — C, are u ever getting your license? Oh I got it, but I still can't drive. C, calm down, and stop rolling down the hill and S, watch that car in front of the pizzeria. C, I can't turn my lights off. S, I can't believe you smashed your mirror on my house. We're just neurotic drivers, or women for that matter — S, I have to see Billy Joel. C, will u come see Aerosmith with Mike and me? Is he hot? C, stop staring at the weirdos. But S, he's throwing up blood. They're taking him away. C, u are going to get us killed. S, nice outfit. U fit in well. Girls will u pick a shirt already? Mike, we know u're hungry. We need soda, but what's open? McDonalds? Nah, oh. Pathmark. Closed? No, but I thought that Pathmark was open 24 hrs a day? Sitting in front of the store. We didn't act sober. We were just drunk from soda, cookies, and life — Asbury Park with the pictures and stupid us believing that stupid pickup line. Did u see me surf? (without his surfboard) Let me teach u girls how to surf. Was it John Jackson or Joe? No, stupid Joe's a singer. My, he was hot, but old. Visiting his house this winter. U mean he didn't go to Iraq — In the hospital, C, are u ok? Or should we switch places? Pete, how did u drive here anyway? She broke my window! C wandering the halls alone with nothing to do. Guys, can I come back yet — During the strike. Let's go to Burger King. Derek, what do u do? D plants tulips. So Pete, u shovel _ Laughing so hard the soda almost came out of our noses. No hard feelings though - Addiction to diet coke. Many trips to Quick Chek. C, why do u spend 50 cents on a can when u can save money on a six pack? S, why do u have to pinch pennies. Don't drag us all over the mall for the biggest cup for the least amount. No, C, McCrorys. McCRORYS! EHH! C, why is my face breaking out. Too much licking maybe? No, C, it's the diet coke. Will u help me. I need to stop. Ok, NY's resolution. I will if you will. Okay — S, u didn't, did u? C, I gotta go. No, but S, did u really? Keep the imagination rolling. But, S, wait — S with the big _____ burbs, and C so scared she screamed. S, what the ____ was that? — Kevin constantly harrassing C. Why does S hate me. S keeps asking C. Are u sure he doesn't hate me? Dream on. Dream until your dreams come true — Yearbook layouts + study sessions with many digressions — I CAN'T BELIEVE MY MOTHER LYSOLED THE PHONE — In AP History: S, wake up! In American Lit: will she stop saying like? Wrong generation — C, get call waiting. I hate emergency breakthroughs! — What happened to the Gap girls? My how we've changed. Two teenagers trying to figure people out, and the meaning of life, and how to get by when we think so much and worry too much. Remember S, u only live once. C, don't be afraid to take a chance, but don't rush it either. Live for the present. Don't worry about the future, or try to relive the past. S, thanks so much for all of your advice. I never could have survived at all without it. C, u've helped me so much. Thanks for listening to me babble and ramble and go off on tangents. But S, u could talk about a spot on a rug and make it sound fascinating — People think we're different, but that's because they're only looking skin deep. We are so close, because we're not the norm. We have searched beneath the surface for solutions. We have pondered our place in society, our goals, and the abstract ideals of happiness and love. Together, we have learned so much, grown so much, and have begun to figure out who we really are, how we want to be, and what we really want in life. We have experienced so much and have so many memories. So much has happened, and yet there's so much left to come. We know that year is almost over, but our friendship will always stay strong. Corny? Us? Nah! Well, some things'll never change . . .

Meliss — Thx for being the one who was always there for me. What would I have done without you? What am I going to do without you? Love you — Rox sorry the picture is gross, it's the only one we had and you shouldn't be reading this anyway!!! It's not the things you do that you regret, it's the things you don't. Adrienne was new to this town so I had to show her around. "There's this hot guy in my driver's ed class, but I don't know who he is!" "Find out I'll hook you up." Eating lunch in the cafeteria, then we moved up, to RALPH's. Hev I passed math! Sorry we can't say the same for you! "Let's just say I had a boyfriend for a year." The first conversation we had was about ice cubes. Surprise, surprise. We still talk about them. Roxann got Adrienne hooked. Oh well that's what friends are for. So, we go to the city. Where did we go, no question about it, JIMMY's. We had to pay nothing — one of the benefits of being girls. Roxann got applauded for her sparkling performance. That's when we met up with the Seton Hall guys. College men. He's potentially obnoxious, oh yeah well mine's a mascot! With asthma no less! So you're trying to say he's a geek. Adrienne almost ends our short-term relationship because she didn't tell Roxann the whole story. Enough of that . . . bad memories. Then came Mark . . . along w/Justin and Brian. Meeting at Bella. Roxann tells off bum. "the library is my church," "yeah right then why are you drunk, begging me for money? GO TO AA!" "I was already there!" "Well go back!!" Mplwd diner at 2 a.m. "Sorry gotta run" Roxann had someone to do. So we took off to Lyndhurst. Adrienne sorry you had to witness that. Adrienne had to go in the bushes while Roxann had a picnic. Roxann made up for when we went to the city. At least I wasn't alone Enough already with 9 1/2 weeks! Enough already with Jim Morrison. The summer was kind of hectic hey maybe we'll meet up between countries for lunch. Brian W./Nick F. SHHHH! "I love Mark, I really love him" Yeah well I wish I could decide who to love. A lake so still but has its waves, a circle so round but it has its blur, I would change the world for you if I could, but I can't, so take me as I am. O.K. I WILL.

Roxann Heather, where it all began ... 5th grade our bday at the roller rink. SOMS we left behind us and started new at CHS. 9th on our own ... to each his own. 10th is when things began. H+R can get along! Heth's 16 everyone was together. Nights so bored we cracked each other up! Lori always came through when we had not a thing to do. The swings and our Jewish woyds, I'm svitzing. Oy what a Goy! Steve Miller, night out with the Nikpours. 11th Rox finally 16 everyone together again. Heth drives no more nights at home. Benigans, TGIF, wait east or west? Pretty Woman, for the 10 time! June the convertible is here. We ran out of homes to sit in, now we can get attention when we go cruisin. INT. softball R+A finally happy, want the same for H+K..but H only wanted J. WHAT A WASTE! Summer, the time we had we spent together. Thank Matt Hol. Down at Ortley some guys jump in the car R in the back with these nuts H says IT AINT A FREE RIDE & Kim says, HA jokes over GET OUT!!! too bad it was not a joke. Rutgers, DUR makes H go poor H gets her butt pinched . . . We gotta go back! Our big 12 plans scamming on the colleges ... Haven't been successful so far. Wait, H goes to Maryland meets a guy while R is home fighting with her men. OH WHAT'S LEFT??? Our memories will last a lifetime too many to write on this tiny page. Friends are friends forever and what we said is what we did

It all began in homeroom. Why do you hang out with those geeks? Shuh-up! Forget Mike, there's another one. 4 houses down, KS he's mine, or soon to be. Hangin' in the backyard ... COPS, runnin' thru the vards peee! In bushes too, Goin to NYC for Roxi's b-day: JIMMY'S: Roxi's rockin', so are Cara and Melissa PR or MR? Chinese shoes, Mel's acquaintance with the subway platform . . FLASHBACK . . . Cor's bat mitzvah. Rox and Jeff's plan CASABA, Cara's mad, Roxi's married to her boyfriend . . . Cara thought she was teaching Roxann, well Roxann mastered the technique and Cara was aking the questions. ICE CUBES! Little did we know that Roxann who (mind you said she'd never have PMS) started her career in a green car with MC. So what Roxann is obnoxious! Cara had her experience in a car too! Tough break CB! That's a whole story in itself. Goin to the shore, playing the questions game, "If you hadn't seen him in a while would ya?" What are you trying to get at? Watch Roxann and me brawl in homeroom . . . WENCH. Matchmaker. Lonely nights spent sitting at the Nikpours (yeah mom, I was really there) Wanna eat a duck? Borrowing Roxann's wardrobe, hippie-style! Let's get into our Grateful Dead attire. Or should I say guidette? Hatcha hoya atcha oya . . . Soul Man dodododododododo. New Year's Eve, the only 2 girls there (hi guys) Pink C compliments of Norka's Sweet 16, WE would list them all but the list would be our whole page . . . and that's the ones we remember! Cruisin in the family mobile, washing the wagon (it looks like it's been dug up) Tunes, or lack thereof . . . Homecomings, PROMS, parties at Roxi's. "Party at Cara's" HaHa. ROXANNE, you don't have to put on the red light! ROBERT PLONA the infatuation of . . . Well we are running out of room and our memories will always be in our minds and you shouldn't be reading this to begin with so . . . Keep smilin, keep shinin, NO WAY! that's queer! ummmm . . . time keeps on slippin, slippin, into the future . . . Yeah, that's a good way to end it . . . Miss you and love ya Rox. Hey you took my line Cara!

"MY FRIEND DOESN"T KNOW WHAT SHE HAS DONE TODAY. IT'S NOTHING TO HER SHE DOES IT SO OFTEN. I EXPECT I MUST ALSO CAUSE A CHANGE IN HER. AND SO WE — EACH A SEPARATE WE — EXIST ONLY IN EACH OTHER'S PRESENCE."

Melissa — Thanks for making me laugh when I was determined to cry, for being there when I needed you and for caring in a not-so-caring place. And remember: You are a very special and wonderful person and don't let anyone tell you different.

All my love, Gina

Gina — Where have you been all my life? Or have you always been there but it just took so long to realize how perfect we are together? We are the "REAL ONE'S" — around you I can be me and you can always be you. For this kind of friendship I'll never look any further, because I know I'll never find one so special again . . .

I love you always, Melissa

... A Special Word of Thanks ...

The Mirror Staff would like to acknowledge those who helped us throughout the year. Between the pictures, names, typing, support, and suggestions, you helped to turn this monstrous project into a yearbook.

Dr. Judith Weiss

Gordon Lawshe, our representative from Herff Jones Publishing, Paul Tighe from Normandy Studios for the color pictures and candids, Mrs. DeFilippis for the sports pictures, Cover Design by Amy Gabrielle Leban and Alyson Redden, Scott DiGiovanna and Steven Locker for typing one line ads. And most of all, the staff would like to extend its special thanks to Mrs. Pitman, Mrs. Coe, and Mr. Ricciardi for their devotion to the yearbook staff. Without their support, guidance, and advice, the publication of this yearbook would not have been possible.
