Shirt Market

This bridge will only take you halfway there
To those mysterious lands you long to see:

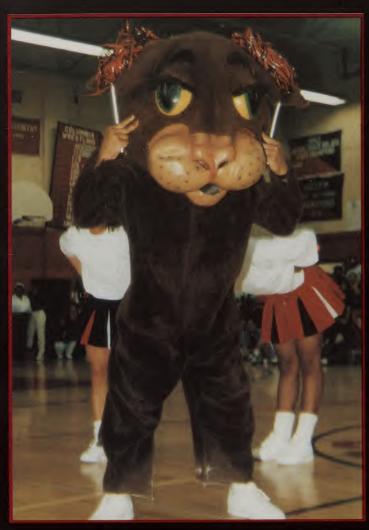

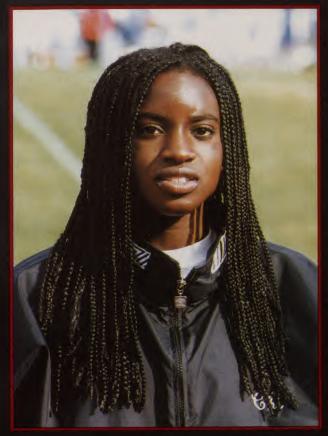

Through gypsy camps and swirling Arab fairs

Frethered

San Market

And moonlit woods where unicorns run free.

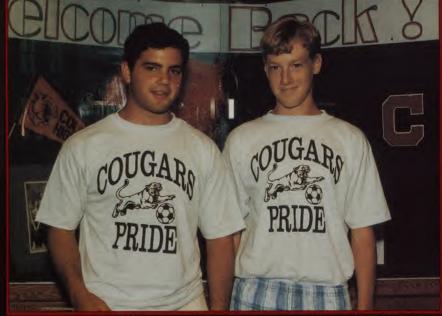

So come and walk awhile with me and share

Frethree

San Marie Ma

The twisting trails wondrous worlds I've known.

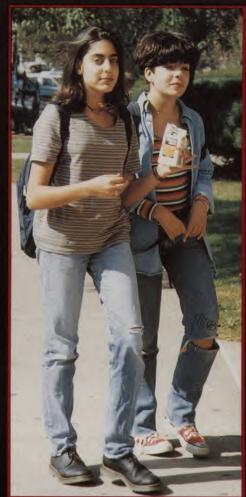

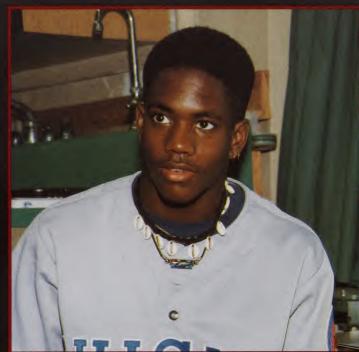

But this bridge will only take you halfway there —

San Marie Ma

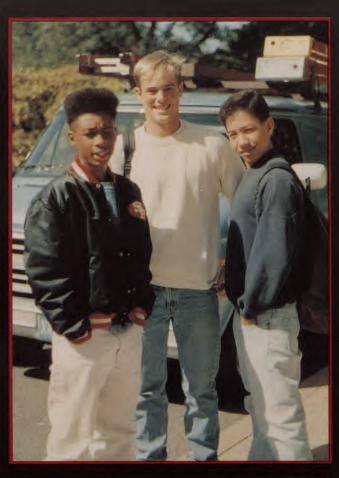

South States

The last few steps you'll have to take alone.

Little Sketch

There are forked branches of trees
Where the leaves shudder obediently,
Where the hangover leaves
Flow in a curve downward;
And between the forks and leaves,
In patches and angles, in square handfuls,
The orange lights of the done sunset
Come and filter and pour.

- Carl Sandburg

Symptoms of Senioritis!

Can't wait to be outta here.

Overdue work? ... Nah!

Shortness of breath and hallucinations.

Too much T.V.

Stop doing homework!!!

Go out for breakfast any period of the day.

I've had it since I was a freshman!

Getting lazy?!

Doing no work ... but spending my time how I want

Go out on school nights.

WHAT SCHOOL? WHAT WORK?

How do you deal with stress?

Listen to music. Cry!
Go to the gym or boxing ring.
Relax!

Bite my nails.

Sing songs.

EAT!!

Scream and yell till I feel better. I beat up my stuffed animals.

I wash my car.

АННННННННННН!!!

Close all the shades in my bedroom so that the room is dark. Then I play Mozart and meditate.

I throw a ball at the wall! Watch TV. Talk to friends.

Worst Driving Experiences:

We were driving to Vermont when the back left tire literally came off and bounced passed the car, over the divider, over to the other side of the highway, and fell on the highway below.

Learning to drive stick.

I was passing a girl that I was interested in and I failed to notice that the car in front of me had stopped. I swerved onto a pile of snow and it took me ten minutes to get out of the snow bank.

I had no brakes!

I almost hit a police car down a one-way street.

Getting into and causing a three car accident when I only had my permit.

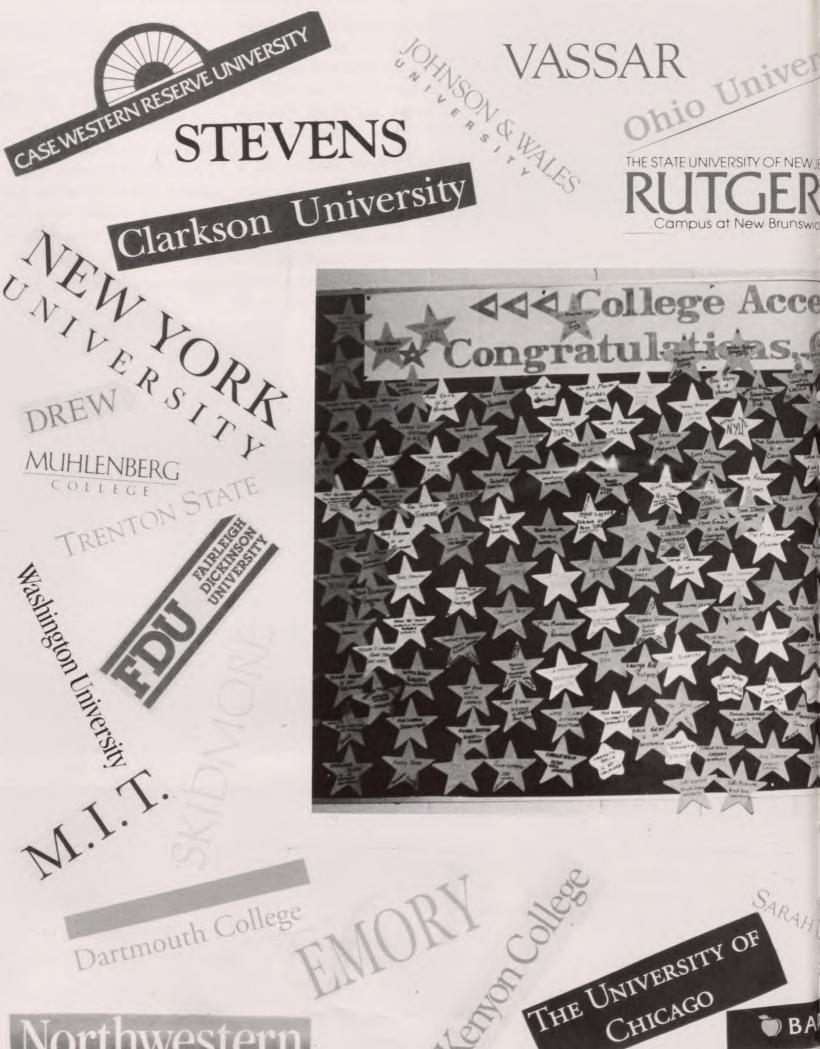

The first day I had my license I was parked on a hill and shifted into Drive before turning on the car. I rolled down the hill and bumped into another car behind me.

I can't pass the road test.

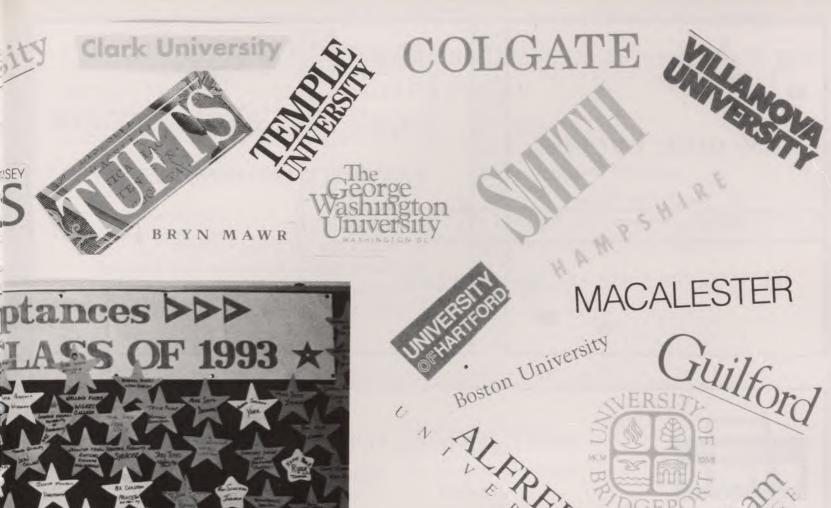

I'M A PERFECT DRIVER!!

These are the days to remember.

Never before and never since, I promise will the whole world be as warm as this.

And as you feel it, you'll know it's true that you are blessed and lucky.

It's true that you are touched by something that will grow and bloom in you.

Afternoon on a Hill

I will be the gladdest thing Under the sun! I will touch a hundred flowers And not pick one.

I will look at cliffs and clouds With quiet eyes, Watch the winds bow down the grass, And the grass rise.

And when the lights begin to show Up from the town, I will mark which must be mine. And then start down!

Edna St. Vincent Millay

The Little Rose

Every rose on the tree Is making a different face at me!

Some look surprised when I pass by, And others droop — but they are shy.

Those two whose heads together press Tell secrets I could never guess.

Some have their heads thrown back to sing, And all the buds are listening.

I wonder if the gardener knows, Or if he calls each just a rose?

Team had another tough season, ending with a record of 5-11-1. Led by Tri-captains Dana Dzikowski, Kelly lantosca, and Wendy Rosenfeld, the team came together at the end of the season and excelled in the County Tournament, losing an overtime heartbreaker to Nutley in the Semi-finals.

The girls made many individual accomplishments this year. Kelly lantosca anchored the defense he 1992 Girls' Soccer from her sweeper position, gaining All-County, All-Conference, and All-Area honors. Fullback Lauren Schneider also played well, and was selected to the All-County squad. In the midfield, Mary Meade and Dana Dzikowski used their excellent skills and field vision to control the flow of the games. Meade and Dzikowski were both selected to the All-County, All-Conference, and All-Area teams. On the forward line, striker Megan Frese led the team with 13 goals and made All-County, All-Conference and All-Area. Goalkeeper Dori Schlesinger kept the Cougars in many close games with her outstanding play and received All-Conference honors.

Although the Cougars will be losing ten seniors, they still have a number of talented underclassmen, and if they work together, they can definitely have a successful season in 1993.

STAND UP AND CHEER

he 1992 Cougar Football cheerleaders were led by Tri-captains Jill Richardella, Kim Dotson and Lauryn Hill. Back under the coaching of Johanna Wright, the squad boasted another excellent season. The team did a magnificent job, keeping the spectators pumped up during every one of the games. The squad also did a wonderful job of maintaining the football players high energy and stamina. They even cheered during the cold weather and rainy days always expressing their support. Along with keeping everyone's spirits intense, the 1992 cheerleaders were a pleasure to watch, always performing at their best. Although the squad will be losing ten seniors, the underclassmen are sure to keep up the outstanding cheerleading tradition.

BREAKTHROUGH AND CONQUER

he Columbia Football team finished their season with a 3-6 count, but their record is not a fair reflection of their season. Led by co-captains Doug Gnutti and Dennis Johnson, the team played many close games and managed to come up with victories over Roxbury, East Orange, and Weequahic. The team played especially well against Weequahic, scoring on three of their first four possessions; and against a very highly regarded Randolph team, where he Columbia Football they even managed to obtain a team finished their sea- lead early in the third quarter.

On the offense, quarterback Alan Erck did a good job taking over for last year's superstar, Andy Augustine. Erck rushed for six touchdowns and passed for one. Junior Jason Thompson, who was probably the team's most valuable player, scored a team high of nine touchdowns. Although he missed the final three and a half games with a knee injury, he was still recognized as one of the top running backs in the conference, county, and area.

The Cougar defense was controlled by Gnutti, who led the team in tackles, while Damayne Evely and Trey Noble played incredibly well on both offense and defense. All three players earned All-Area and All-Conference honors.

Next year's team looks to improve on this year's record. With players like Thompson, Akil Curry, Mike Femenella, and Pete Vayas returning, the Cougars will have a good shot at achieving their goals.

CHANGING OF THE GUARDS

he Boys Basketball Team, led by Tri-captains Karl Athias, Chad Sinclair and Joseph Freeman, struggled in the early stage of the season, winning just two of its 13 contests. The team played noticeably better during the second half of the season winning four of the last eight games. During this stretch the Cougars lost in overtime to Weequahic, a double overtime to East Orange, and won the last game of the season by defeating Morris Knolls in triple overtime.

Departing seniors, Karl Athias, Joseph Freeman, Colton Brown, Chad Sinclair, and Jerome Bartow, worked extremely hard all year long to keep up competitive play during a difficult losing period.

James Lee and Brandon Ramos, who made significant contributions this year, are both returning lettermen.

The team expects "big things" next year with the addition of the Junior Varsity players.

SHOOTING FOR SUCCESS

School Girls Basketball Team was led by Co-captains Olisa Small and Kathy Zavocki. The team finished with a season record of 10 wins and 13 losses This year's team consisted of a young yet vivacious group, containing only four seniors. Long time Coach Johanna Wright guided her team with the utmost skill.

Senior captain Olisa Small was the leading scorer and rebounder his year's Columbia High for the past three years. She holds the block shot record, with 329 blocked shots, a career high. In a single game Olisa has recorded 23 rebounds, and 12 blocked shots. Small has also recorded nine triple-doubles and one quadruple double, scoring 24 points, and recording 20 rebounds, 11 steals, and 12 blocks in one single game. She topped off her outstanding season by being named to the All-Tournament Team, All-Conference 2nd Team, All Area 1st Team, and Columbia's M.V.P.

Columbia will be losing four seniors next year; Olisa Small, Kathy Zavocki, Aziza Davis, and Jill Clarkson. The team will be looking towards sophomore Mary Meade, who achieved All-Conference honorable mention, sophomore Jennifer Langheld, and juniors Gretchen Blair, Jane Edelson, and Amanda Klenert to shine through next year.

his year's Boys Track Team led by captains, Per Chilstrom, Daryl Freeman, Joe Kenley, Oscar Duncan, and David Himmel and Girls Track Team led by captains, Katie Peinovich, Rhea Moore, and Sharone Anderson was a rocketing success. Family New Year's Letter January 1, 1992 Maplewood, New Jersey

CAMILLA. 14 years old. She shrugs off programs & institutional dogmas. Pretension & hypocrisy are the unforgivable enemy. She moves in an exaggerated space, where the ordinary is crazed into more wonderful patterns. Her selfhood, like her coppery hair & wide eyes, too gorgeous and important to fit the usual. She is Beauty, frightened by the Beast. She is a flower in winter. She is Perdita, lost to her true self since birth, set adrift off undreamed shores. Like the sea, unchained, unmeasured. The final vision will be like an old tale, long ago heard, strange and yet familiar.

Family New Year's Letter January 1, 1992 Maplewood, New Jersey

KATHRYN. 16 years old. She imperiously shouts orders around our house like a generalissimo running some third-world country. Anyone else's Benetton or L.L. Bean is subject to expropriation. Graced with the sure-footed instincts of a performer, a natural mimic, she leaps without terror onto the enchanted stage of adolescence to play the part of Juliet Desired. She is quick as a sword, like Saint Joan, unintimidated by dull male verities. She has the sharp wit of a traveler, not taken in by the locals . . . amused by their foibles, fictions & flaws. But her journey is beyond the end she imagines, to the river's source, where the rain begins. She walks in beauty, with unerring balance, at ease among the unconventional. She is old-fashioned, like home. Affectionate, like Eve, mother of all living.

NICOLE * JENNIFER

How did we ever come this far? Middle School...Nicole and Jen meet. Moonstruck, model pics, jumping on cars in the village, getting in trouble in Mr. Berman's class, dances, uneven sunburns, basketball, softball and our exciting beaus. Now on to bigger and better things...High School. We were so nervous for our first day, we had no classes together and Nick was stuck on team 9. Even though we met a lot of new people we still remained as close as ever. Freshman basketball — Ouch! Nick's on the ground. Jen runs to see what's wrong. Nick can't get up — looks pretty bad. A quick trip to the hospital shows she broke her ankle. Spent the rest of vacation at Nick's house watching movies. Jen, you're my hero! Then there was Mrs. D getting a little upset, putting the spotlight on Nick. And our special friends: Jerry, Howie, Mr. P and bones from "Tales from the Crypt". Just ask Alan? We love you! Lunch - Jen F., Carol — never forget Jap, Neste, or Dr. Pepper, we'll always be the coin family! We never had the heart to tell Stephen to cut his fro. "Dan the man." Our loom friends, the very annoying "o" game, esa baby, bruja, get rid of the tude, the Sesame St. song, chinese fire drills, lele and tommy, candygrams (Henry, my honey), big tush, rescue me you crazy girl and how doing Lori? The movies we've come to love while no one else can figure out why: All nighter (ex lasagna mol), Pretty Woman, Dead Poet's Society, Newsies, Beauty and the Beast, Bodyguard, A Few Good Men, and last but certainly not least Teen Witch (top that)! Julia, Jessica, Andrew, Josh, Ethan, and Joe we'll never forget you. Our exciting night at Homecoming — getting stuck at Stevo's till 1 a.m. Jen tripping over the drain pipe while trying to get into the getaway car. Another exciting night - Jen's sweet 16. Steve and Matt doing the bop up and down dance. Keith showing up in shorts and surfing on the chair. Getting our picture taken with Santa during the village spectacular, riding the horse and buggy (Ang, leave us alone). Keith and Stephen taking us to the X-Mas surprise. Jen and Nick being labelled "big heads" (22" round). For those of you who called us this, you're wrong we just have a lot of hair. Our corny shows: Degrassi, Fifteen and Swans Crossing. Seeing J.T. outside of Planet Hollywood. Nick too shocked to take a picture. Jen, get rid of your sassy face especially when you're playing Sassy. Dancing to "Holding Out For a Hero", students serving seniors (Donna's headpieces), miracle ear — we'll get you back Stevo, baseball games (only Nick's voice to be heard). More power to her! Bennigans — waiting forever — Adam and Keith — speed it up! Baseball hats to conceal the uncontrollable hair days. Nicole and Jen getting their licenses - BIG MISTAKE! We had our share of downs...hitting the curb at Millburn Diner, hitting the wall at Hagen Daaz, knocking off hubcap while trying to park,...the ride of our lives — trying to park at CHS — hey that's the gas not the brake, getting hit by a foreigner passing on the left. Our trips to N.Y. — hey Red you're going to be bad when you grow up. NBC studios, Richard was our friend. Mrs. Goss getting phone # — "maybe you girls could work there someday". Nico and her nature pics - Salvadore the squirrel still comes around, Hypochondriacs, box (why?), rosy dress, SAT course - yeah that really helped, thanks a lot Charlie and Abby. Wonder how Justin did? Palm readings, Diana hit it right on the nose (at least for now). Gerry, stick-em-up, Barb and Jane, norfins and snow globes (we did a little mind reading ourselves). Bowling with the guys -- we always beat them, velcro shoes - what a fashion statement. Going to the prom junior year with Keith and Stephen. Nicole, you're my hero. The shore — I can't believe we actually made it there. Going to Popcorn Zoo, meeting our troubled friends — Pepe, Cappy, Ferdinand, and the blind deer. Wendy's with the foreign pickle head, Nicole wanting the green ball — Jen wins it giving it to Nico. Steve's Habeeb aka Picklehead. Falling asleep on the floor watching the Lethal Weapons, Jen and Nick thrown into the lake — thanks guys. Many poses in the photo booths, shake rattle and roll, sex test — you barracuda you. "Hey # 7, stop looking you found me". Fire Marshall Bill — let me show you something. I red to go. Dancing Bear, cheese fries, you dropped your leash, Dino, Nico's feeling papers and poems, 90210 and Melrose. Nico being a Brenda look alike, Jen and Nick hiding in the bathroom from Keith's scary face, Hershey Park and Jen always crying to poor Nico. Walking in the flood down the shore (it was up to our knees), our soap men: Jagger, Jake, Mac, John, Jason and A.J. Mr. Gizzo calling everyone dork, Dad, call Missy, and Mrs. Gizzo's Corky. Poison Ivy (the guys loved it), Yikers, meeting John and James down the shore — 1 1/2 years later still in touch, mushroom head and Keith's moon. Don't talk when you yawn, crack your knuckles or chew with your mouth open around Jen and Nicole. Waiting on line for tickets to see the ever so popular N.K.O.T.B., Jen always being hungry and obsessed with Sweet 16 and prom videos. 4 years have passed so quickly...

These are the times to remember, the memories will last forever.

For those of you who have shared in our experiences throughout high school we thank you for the good times and wish you the best of luck. We'll miss you next year. K.I.T. Gina, Mandy, Jen F., Kathleen, Kate, Jen C., Lynn, Jackie, Alan, Erin, Tricia, Kristen, John, Alice, Dave, Melanie, Peter, Patti, Carly, Suzanne, Dave, Dana, Kelly.

Sometimes I'm just not in the mood for homemade olives (No offense Dan). This may sound petit, but behind all its infinative resonancing like the backbone to a truly wondrous friendship together (Amanda was too annoying! Amy was too snotty). And now, drum roll picase. Amy — If anyone else is reading this...is your name Amy? I thought not — so just rethink your actions. Thanks, Now back to the issue at hand, I guess I am trying to stay away from this part, simply because it means good bye. But, there will never be a real good bye. Our friendship will truly outlast college and will progress through the years. It means too much to be careless with. Thanks for the laughs, the laughs, the laughs, and the heart that came with them. I love you.

For all that we've missed . . . fill in the memories

Thanks to everyone who has helped to make these memories:

Moms, Dads, Mel, pets and the memory of Chaplin . . . Mike, Emily, Amy, Ariel, Jess, Jenny, Katie, Rose, Craig, John, Pete, Erin, Joanna, Dave, Lawrence, Brad, Bill, Ari, Jose, Jeff, Scott, Mike W., Emma, Kathryn, Carter, Joel, Doug, Steve, Leslie, Esther, Courtenay, Beth, Oren

Mer: I sit here with you, completing the page that we talked about for so long. I cannot imagine next year, when you will not be as close as a walk up the street. Being a best friend can sometimes seem a rotten job, but in becoming part of my person, you sometimes get stuck sharing the pain: You will always be the first person I cry to, and the first person I call to celebrate. Thanks for your warmth, your smiles, the memories and the happiness.

Love You.

Amanda: Nothing I can say will be enough to express the way I feel about our friendship. With you I feel complete. How many times do I tell myself, I am so lucky that you are here. It gives me a sense of security that I can really trust you. I love that you always know what I'm thinking and that we can share all our experiences. We are truly connected; I feel everything you feel. Together we have a spirit that can carry our friendship over any distance.

"These are the days you might fill with laughter until you break. These days you might feel a shaft of light make its way across your face. And when you do you'll know how it was meant to be. See the signs and know their meaning. It's true, you'll know how it was meant to be. Hear the signs and know they're speaking to you, to you."

MERRI AMANDA

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth . . . On the first day, little Phyllis arrived in Maplewood only to find purple footprint lobes and an overbearing oaf on THIS very spot. Of course, Emma-Jayne soon became her accomplice in the time-consuming practice of terrorizing a fellow Valiant. On the second day, Emma was shipped off to the old world — to experience all its exotic wonders: flaxen Simons, the Kirlew duo, rubbers, and fish and chips. On the third day, Kathryn and Jenny were in the midst of completing a valuable rite of womanhood; trading and debating the Nancy Drew files in SSR. On the fourth day, they continued their plight for womanhood via a very informative yoga lesson. On the fifth day, Emma does the impossible: cuts short her pilgrimage to her roots and is reunited with her bosom friend. On the sixth day, they became a trinity. "Bubbles" made quite a creepy impression on the newcomer. Time told all. On the seventh day, God rested from all his work which he had made . . .

Little Miss S. in her mini-dress . . . Little Miss Priss — who will she kiss? . . . Little Miss Satan — all the mischief she's makin' . . . Little Miss Bubbly — her head's all sudsy . . . getting amorous with grey-loafer lover? Pulling a demonic Charlie Gordon in Mr. B.'s? Prizing a pair of jockette champion shorts? Filling Jen in: poncho-wear, Barbie make-up, Krods, and . . . SPAM. (not ham) The year's finale? the kitchen sink, a budding romance between the two class virtuosos, and baaad loafers. And remember: it's not just a pencil, it's a gripstick! The password is metroplex.. AAAhhh . . . MMS — where the grass is green and the girls sure are perdy!

Whad up Emma? . . . high school had begun. I am he as you are he as you are me and we are all together . . . Don't be surprised when a crack in the ice appears under your feet, you slip out of your depth and out of your mind with your fear flowing out behind you as you crawl the thin ice . . . I see a red door and I want it painted black . . . Freshman crushes came hard — salve amicae Latinae! There was an eclectic daily routine: speak and spell man, acid sp pool, Betty's Beauty Parlor, the Gordon Parks saga, and the happy stewardess accompanied by her Tunishian host. With or without you/Woman in Red Super Saturday diners with the big kids, ie. JOB, FRISBEE groupies, do you guys even have a joke for applesauce?! APPLESAUCE . . . The culturalization began — concerts, the MET, exploring NYC, the first of the Avalon voyages, and theological/jacuzzi conversations. It's not time to make a change, just relax, take it easy. You're still young that's your fault — there's so much you have to go through . . .

Summer abroad — foreign liaisons and the infamous Kirlew hug. Fights in London, pigeons, peeling scalps from the sweltering sun. Standing in an English garden waiting for the sun to come . . . Chester and its hazards: rug burns and its blind peeping Toms . . . Jen's a Yearling and as good as converted . . . When you went blond you looked just like Kim Novak

The trio return — one memorable night in the Lantz wilderness — complete with Jade, potpourri, cloves . . . Part-slick-frizz and Co. Back to the Aunt Jemima treatment. Rekindled middle school romance for Kat . . . la petite professor and her biting accusations. The soft parade has now begun, listen to the engines hum, people out to have some fun . . . 2 out 3 ain't bad, the ROSEN — COMPLEX — house upon the hill, moon is lying still, shadows of the trees, witnessing the wild breeze, come on baby, run with me, let's run . . .

Summertime and the living is easy . . . A second summer of disjunctive travel — Kat to France, Em and Jen out West. Green machine, bus rides, and Tijuana. As the summer came to an end, the she-devil, Laverne, and Santa paint the town. Take a journey to the end of the night — it's the surf rider soul kitchen! This is the best part of the trip — the part I really like . . . TBOTRAM with Cliff, da groofie, Kosher crusader, and their home on the nineteenth hole. Stay happy you guys, it might catch on. Blowing off standardized tests, a little spirit, a little too much spirit, a little punishment, watching the sunrise in the school field, funfetti festivals, in a phrase . . . 7th grade romances — with a twist. PDA — compliments of Kat. We move like caged tigers, we couldn't get closer than this . . . It burned like fire . . . it was cold as stone. Her face was a child's . . . these blazes giving more light than heat . . . could blow this soul right through the roof of the night . . . The pile-ins in the wacky wagon, the homecoming from hell, the fall play (tragedy), holidays, our bird's eye peak over S.O., and then they move on . . . another chapter closed in Cliff's book. The Special Dance stressout and triumph, escapades in Vermont, FNL (Em becomes a part of the big kids), and the college track begins. Someday we'll find it, the rainbow connection, the lovers, the dreamers, and me . . .

Helter skelter in a summer swelter . . . Hopes of Europe are suppressed and they make due with Spruce Run, Boston, Avalon, Nantucket, and Connecticut. What the H-E — double hockey sticks did we do all summer? Jen disappearing with a weasel to become a deadhead — gasping at glimpses of gentle true spirit she runs, wishing she could fly, only to trip at the sound of good-bye . . . Kat exploring aged treasure chests and the art of massage . . . Em was doing what she'd often been told she knew how to do well and that was to be her, to be like herself. Then Kat and Jen were forced through one last rite of passage and dragged Emma through it along with them. Stepping up boldly one put out his hand, he said, "I was just a child then, now I'm only a man."

This world falls on me, dreams, of immortality, everywhere I turn all the beauty just keeps shaking me. The anxiously awaited college acceptances, I never said it would be easy, I only said it would be worth it. Playing solitaire, playing warden to your soul — locked in a prison of your own device. The flames are all long gone but the pain lingers on . . . We linger alone, bodies confused, memories misused, as we run from the day to a strange night of stone . . . Kat in France hanging with Morris and Co., touring Paris cemeteries . . . I'm glad I'm not a Spartan, The Other End, Em's stardom (was this typecasting?), Arrowhead Ranch, with choice and accountability. Far from the twisted reach of crazy sorrow . . . You cannot turn me into a phantom because you are frightened. You cannot dismiss a muse at whim . . . Fly into the light of a dark, black night . . .

And now I bid unto all, farewell . . . until my spirit and body shall again reunite and I am brought forth triumphant . . .

Kat: The arranger of disorder with her strange and simple rule

Jen: The wisdom on her face denies the number of her years

Em: Hold me like a baby that will not fall asleep, curl me up inside you and let me hear you through the heat

WELL, WE'RE OUT OF HERE!!

"OUR LITTLE GROUP HAS ALWAYS BEEN AND ALWAYS WILL BE UNTIL THE END . . . "

WHERE DID IT ALL BEGIN? Let's see, when I started my freshman year I had heard of this girl, Dana, and from what I had heard I had a feeling that she and I were not destined to be friends. Well, obviously Amanda, you were wrong. There was no such thing as an Amanda/Dana friendshp until March of 1991. For some reason, maybe it was the attitudes, the sense of humor, the A.T.M.F.O.E., or maybe just that we were stuck together with a bunch of other retards for four months, that started the beginning of our friendship (that has lasted quite awhile now). So where should we start . . . " Amanda, you owe me a note," "Fine, just meet me outside of Richters' room and I'll give you one," "Word!" name are we using this week? . . . Amandabutt/ Danebutt/ Daner/Aman/ Dane/ Amand or just Amanda & Dana, Naaa . . . I don't think so — Our favorite weekday shows: Aman . . . 10 min.'s till Fresh Prince, Martín, 90210 — The list of laughs we had at Softball and Soccer Alright Gazelle girl, who wears those in this kind of weather, Amanda? — Winter fun . . . Skiing with Carly . . . Getting laid out by a 5 year old . . . WINDBURN, Yes!! — The repeated question . . . Where's My Mix? — The names to whom almost everybody is referred . butt \dots nerd \dots geek \dots loser \dots dork — Will I ever have a answering machine tape that doesn't have "Pick up the phone . . . pick up . . . I know your there." on it — Dana — Amanda . . . Carly . . . high five — Will your dad really ever know who I am? . . . DINA . No, DANA . . . The left-handed first baseman — YEP!!! — The month plan of running, after softball was over, that only lasted like a week, if that - Kristie, Amanda and Dana's water fight we got in to and from the Village — Our thousands of so called "gay" sayings: Peace To Your Mom . . . Word Up . . . Peace Out . WUZUP . . . "YES", with the little arm motion . . . "Yeh, BEBE! . . . DUH, Dumb Butt . . . We're Out Of Here Sistersaepes! . . . See Ya Wouldn't Want To Be Ya! . . . You Go Girl! . . . And last but not least, Word Is Born! — From freshman year to senior year the thing that never seemed to work was Amanda calling "SHOTGUN" — Which guy was that? The guy in the backwards hat, of course! — Mandy always seemed to love how Amanda was able to point out the hot guys so quickly . . . "Dnae, Coming up on the left and the right!" . . . "Amanda, How many are there?" — In April our dancing skills were put into effect at the well remembered Sweet Sixteen . . . 4 Driving, shoulders, cabbage patch, GO! GO! — 1992 Prom is all we have to mention — Though you really love those trolls, they have to be the ugliest things I've ever seen - In our little notes, it started out as, No title, then F.F., then T.F.F., Duh!, what a sequence! Dana's never ending come-back, "Did I say Mand or Amand!, I thought so!! — Never will we forget our health kick at the end of the 1992 school year . . AEROBICS PLUS with our favorite teacher Christopher — During the Summer of 1992 a new question was asked to Amanda that we think she'll never hear the end of it: "Are you going out with me or your friends?" . . . Well when Amanda's replay started becoming "Yes" that started the Amanda, Lauren, Mandy, and Dana outings — The Summer nights hanging out at dumb-butt Lauren & Mandy's . . . Taking pictures in the lot and then quickly running them over to the convenient One Hour Photo . . . "Dana, Backwards hat going into K-n-S, forget Drug Fair, we're there!" . . . Who are they this time? — "Don't Get An Attitude With Me," "I'll Get An Attitude If I Want To!" — "Hold on Dane," "Oh God!" "I don't hold on for that long! Don't let it happen again!" — There you go, you all look like the Damn Littles — "That was a close call," "But it didn't happen" — Amanda always asking about these new guys . . . "Just ask Ann Who I Sweat!" — Please Beckster, trying to tell us how it is "You guys are all talk and no action," "But Beck, did we ever diss each other for a guy?" "Oh, Shut up Dana!" "I didn't think so!!" —PUNCH IT, MARGE! — Amanda always dragging everyone to soccer and other games looking for B.M.

"SAVE IT!" — Peace Out, MoFo's

Dana — Well, these past four years have been great, and I'm definitely going to miss you next year. I'm really glad that we've become such good friends. Thanks for all the laughs, they'll never end.

— Love Amanda

Amanda — I'm really glad that we became such good friends. I'll miss you a lot next year and hopefully there will be many people, where I am, that are just like you. Good luck in your senior year. Thanks for being there when I needed someone and also for all the good times we had together.

— Love Dana

"Here's my life story."..."Hi Jill, is Katie there?"..."Hi, this is my friend, Jess," said SAS..."Who's Jenny?"..."Everyone has these buttons except me."...Mr. Knecht's gym class..."HI KATIE! (hi)"...Dancing in the bathroom at Pizzeria Uno..."Ew, I hate that song!"..."You're the master."..."Hi, I'm Jessica Mitchell."..."You drink spicy V8?"..."The nation's on the run."..."Let's quit, we hate it (the swim team)."...Jealous ducks!..."You're going out with him? — YEAH!"

And so we had all met. The NIPS were united. (However, they were not to be called that until a later date.) We loved those freshmen football games at 8 A.M. when we could bring Jay and Alan hot cocoa and freeze in the bleachers. We dislike apple until further notice club. Katie tried acting with Amy in West is de Story. Arriel loved to run around in weird outfits, especially her yellow cosmos hat and goggles singing R-E-S-P-E-C-T loudly, at any time. This was in addition to the huge traumas that she had the whole year, but we love her lots. Roudine is a little tiny woman who has a pencil for a bed. Ariel LOVES onton rings — they are easy to throw and land on?. Ariel loves the s key and BASIC. Do you know what it means when you wear green on Thursdays? Katie has many spasms at the movies; Born on the Fourth of July, Field of Dreams, Driving Miss Daisy. Jenn, who wrote that mysterious letter? Dori's year at the Daves and the beginning of the effectiveness of Love Potion #9. She'll always get who she wants. Katie loved Noise Reduction. The best was the West Orange carnival when Shira's brother played bumper cars and Katie and Jess "lost" Jenny. Amy has a never ending kiss. Jenny and Katie become enemies for a week at field hockey camp. The end of the year bash at Jess' — the origin of the water balloon fight craze! Dori hooks with Jim. Katie Katie and Jess "lost" Jenny. Amy has a never ending kiss. Jenny and Katie become enemies for a week at field hockey camp. The end of the year bash at Jess — the origin of the water balloon right craze: Dorn hooks with Jim. Katie and Ar go to Cape May. "That rotten licked my ear." Hee-Hee!

Good morning — DUH! THE NIPS ARE OFFICIALLY FORMED. It is a lovely afternoon in Memorial park and Katie and Ar decide it would be appropriate to remove articles of clothing while running in circles. The banana's at Jenny's house. This is how you do it and we really love bananas. Hi, my name is Chiquita Banana and I'm here to say, I'm going to kill Jenn Cullen the American way. I'm gonna put some banana on the floor and watch Jenny go flyin out the door. We are Maggie, Terry, and Suzzy Roche. Ar, Jess, and Amy had lots of notes in history (with diagrams!). Ar and the man with many chins. I'M STICKY! Jenn and RED! Lies, lies, we can't believe a word he says. Jess and Cheek — Nope! Amy loves the D-man. Amy had a very interesting time avee le poisson. "We're going back to finish what we started." Jess, Amy, and Jenn sit on the boat all alone at the party — oh well! J and A are siamese twins for Halloween, but they actually kind of are with their huge backpacks and long, curly hair. Dor and Chris begin a very interesting relationship. Then there was the dinner at Rusty Scupper or should we say, Hell at Rusty Scupper — TOP THAT! New Year's Eve at Ar's — everyone cried for some reason or another, except for Ar and Jess. Jill is St. Elmo's Fire girl. AR'S AMAZING SWEET 16! It started with the tourists from Kentucky! Then there was a way or well and the party and there was Amy's model walk down the center of the subway. Pizzeria Uno was excellent, but Katie's chicken salad was so filling. A and J got her, though. "I swear it was the little boy down there that was shooting the spitballs." Katie and Dor danced in the bathroom. The hotel was the great, but the pool was cold. It didn't matter, we went swimming anyway and Africa was revealed on Katie's neck, no it was bigger than Africa. Then we moved into the sauna. There were some interesting conversations. "How do you know how to..." — "How do you know how to do what? Let me stay, I probably know more than you do." Sharper Image — "I can't believe I'm 21 and still not considered an

There were some interesting conversations. "How do you know how to..." — "How do you know how to do what? Let me stay, I probably know more than you do." Sharper Image — "I can't believe I'm 21 and still not considered an adult." Banana Republic — HUBBA HUBBA! The man is a spotted and Amy goes back in to see. "Go Jess! It's not your birthday, but go anyway!" Dor's Sweet 16 at Bennihana — Jess lets out a massive burp. A group picture is taken in which Katie looks possessed. The couple at our table asks which motel they should go ?Amy gives an incredible performance in Once Upon a Mattress..."Don't want you to get married?" Man's Sweet at Toro Loco — she really was surprised, YEAH! Jess' Confirmation in May. Jenn says she would have liked to have seen it, but the fan blew her away. PC to JB — Katie's psychotic relationships — one extreme to the other. Katie's Sweet 16 at Tavern on the Green. "I'd like a large Coke." The flying butter — nice catch Melissal "Hey look, Punjab's our waiter." Jess goes to Switzerland and comes back a French scholar, but not a hair dresser. At her surprise party she has a problem cutting Justin's hair. Again she almost ruins the surprise by checking the movie times. Hee!

Katie begins the year by running cross country and meeting ROB! (She also meets Kiva and has a car ride from hell on the ride back from HQ.) Jenny throws up on the way to Slick Rick's and Katie is the only one who loves her enough to help her. We go see Beauty and the Beast — "I want a beast." Dori corrupts Jess — who soils her socks. Jess is behind the University of Michigan. New Year's Eve at Ar's. Katie and Jenny take off only to experience the new sport of rice spitting and play Let's see how long we can be quiet. Katie, are those earrings or your mother's dinner plates? All four were lost in Newark — Alhhhh! Then they came home to find their friends in an unusual state of mind. Jess and Ar enjoyed ping-pong more than usual. Amy and Dor come home and do the rap version of Brady Bunch. Everyone goes downstairs in P snowballs and pioted against Katie and Rob. They also had run steading over the ruge jump on the finit. Another interesting party and Jenny linked a cow at the Sage. For Amy is 1 not birthday we are leaded to go to the and of course, Amy was one of the drivers. Two cakes are ordered — it's Amy's birthday and hole les's' Katie's mom says she is fat, but no one agrees — Ar shoves cake in her face. CAKE FIGHT: "You all have to calm down or you will have to leave." Then, another interesting party. Jess changes the radio station in the bathtub and Lawrence walks in on Ar. Katie and Ar — there was lots of banging upstairs! Jess was the one who had a lapse of reasoning. Dave — It is SO small! Amy does an amazing job in Pippin. Everyone decided to go to Obsessions, but Jenny, Katie, and Dor got lost in Bumble. Dori took over the driving and 3 hours! here. Psycho-Rother quiest-ce que c'est? Run, run, run, rose, run, run, run away. Katie and Amy make a french movie — "Prends garde a toi, A TOL." Dori had a great Chinese food feets. Liz became an honorary NIP. WE LOVE YOU LIZ. There was a crazy rice eating contest between Ar and Dor. Ten Dor sucked up Ar's face...with a dustbuster. When Katie and Jenn were the only ones around Katie's flirting got two guys to follow them home from Millburn. Jenn, Jess, Liz, and Amanda went to see H.O.R.D.E. "Matt, aren't you smart enough to count tickets?" We got in anyway. Amy had her best performance ever in Fiddler on the Roof — she definitely deserved a Tony. The summer ended with Brad's BBQ. Ar thought that Jim as really cute and she told him. Then she had a problem in the bushes. Hee-Hee!

At last, SENIOR YEAR BEGINS. We all fall into the Pressure Cooker. COLLEGE! COLLEGE! Get the applications done. Katie must deal with Rob going to Princeton. Amanda has a girls' night! Gettin in the hot tub. Amy skipped out on us, but then brought a pleasant surprise (not really.) Katie revealed some rather INTERESTING news. Family gathering at Jill's for her birthday — everyone was uncomfy, minus Jess, Jenn, and Katie. They knew EVERYONE. Katie had her exchange student — very interesting. Cat Clock, how pleasant. Who would leave first? The car ride home revealed some interesting pieces of information. "He's never gonna ask me, I'm not even gonna think about it." Oh Jess. You were mistaken. AMY — HE ASKED ME TO HOMECOMING, AHH!!" Yeah Jess! We are all jealous. We are all still jealous — SHUT UP AMY! Homecoming is rather interesting. Bill leaves without Katie and Amy refuses to leave because SHE'S DANCING. Ariel wears very uncharacteristic, but SEXY dress. Katie and Jenny go to Spin Doctors at Princeton and JENNY MEET'S BILL. There are many campus tours because Katie is busy and they even play pool. Hey Jen — When's Bill coming to Maplewood? Girl's night at Jill's — no one can pick a movie. Of course no one can forget that Katie loves Howard. Halloween at Bennigan's. Friends with the waiter. Who's birthday was it? Chinese firedrill on S.O. Avenue. Then the college acceptances start to roll in; Tuffs, Wisconsin, Michigan, North Carolina — Greensborough, Dartmouth, Colorado, Rutgers. Kiva hates Jess and Ari. (Dartmouth and Duke — so sorry!) Brad has a famous quote, "Does an iguana's skin act a lot like chloroplasts?" New Year's rolls around. It commences with a Chinese foot feet at Ariels. Ar, Amy, Jenny, Jess, Amanda, Merri, Rose, Leslie, Liz, Jill, and Scott. Many crazy discussions about Dr. Judy. Where did that bottle end up, Amy. Then we move to Bill's. Jenn ends up rather weird along with some others. Jess makes an 11:30 run to Katie's who is locked up. Rose comes up with the amazing, "Be our guest, be our guest, but our chambers to the test." Brad, what were you grabbing? Ken Ezrow is awesome. Most of us move back to Ariel's. Jenny gets some interesting news. We all know she was psyched — we saw her jump in the air. We watch When Harry Met Sally. P.S. Ariel and Katie have always been good at doing SALLY. Hee-Hee!

And now you've reached the end of the 1993 Mirror!

We hope you've enjoyed the result of our hard work. Without the time, creativity, and help of the following people this yearbook would not have been possible:

Our supportive advisors Mrs. Coe, Mrs. Pitman, and Mr. Ricciardi who spent a great deal of time working with us. Mr. Ricciardi, thanks for putting up with our lateness to homeroom, and thank you for your artistic suggestions for the dividers.

Gordon Lawshe, our representative from Herff-Jones for untiring patience with our questions and for hard work that made this yearbook a success.

The entire Mirror staff for meeting deadlines and tolerating our unusual ideas. They spent many hours with mangled croppers and confusing layouts.

The photography staff, especially:

Mike Robinson for his dedication to the yearbook for the past four years, the divider photograph on page 136 and extra time with candids.

Amanda Saslow for the prom photographs and selling so many ads.

Jordanna Mallach for the Homecoming photographs, extra time in the dark room, and for taking the Senior picture from the cherry picker.

Jessica Polk, Brian Smith, and Becky Gollin for helping us develop the divider photographs. And a special thanks to Kristen Parker, Ana Zalacain, Stacy Nieves, and Stella Castelli.

David Fernandez for the paisley pattern in the Underclass Section.

The Maplewood Fire Department for its time and willingness to loan us its fire truck with the cherry picker for the senior picture.

Dr. Weiss and Mr. Bundy for their time and patience.

Paul Tighe and Normandy Studios.

Herff Jones Publishing Company

Shel Silverstein for the poem "This Bridge" in A Light In the Attic which we used in the color section, and all the poets whose poems we used on the dividers.

Our friends and families who supported us even after our sleepless nights.

Lisa Rabinowitz

We wish all of the class of 1993 the best of luck and success in the future.

Wendy Bennett
