A rock,
A River,
A Gree
Hosts to species long since departed,

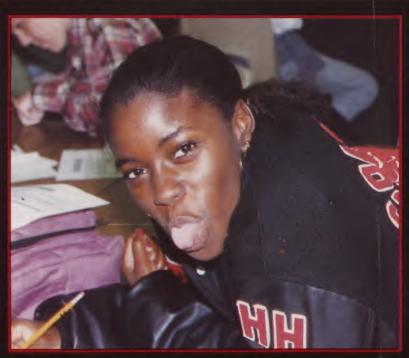

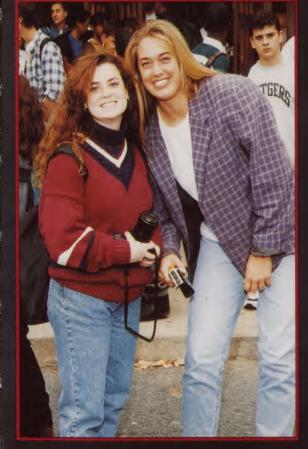

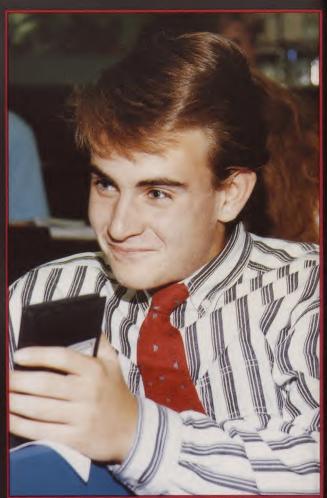

But today, the Rock cries out to us, clearly, forcefully,

Come, you may stand upon my Back and face your distant destiny,
But seek no haven in my shadow,
I will give you no hiding place down here.

Across the wall of the world,

A River sings a beautiful song. It says,

Come, rest here by my side.

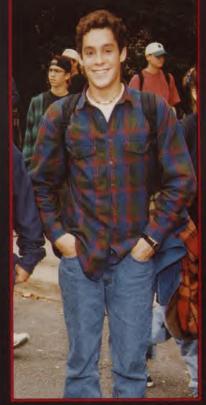

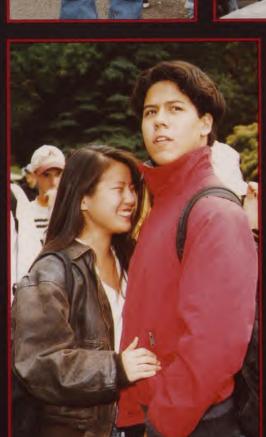

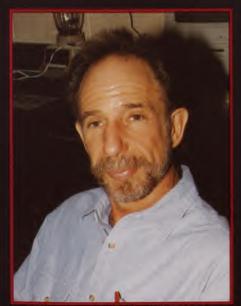

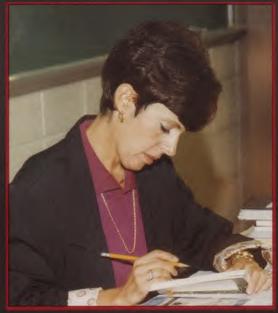

Come, clad in peace,
And I will sing the songs

And when you yet knew you still knew nothing.

The River sang and sings on.

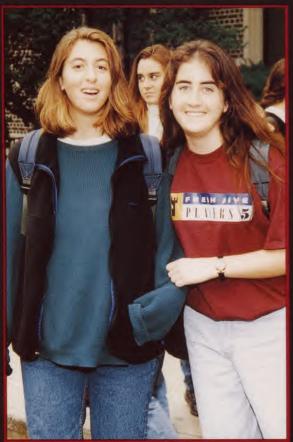

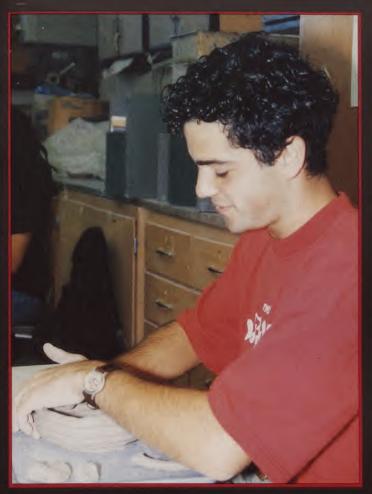

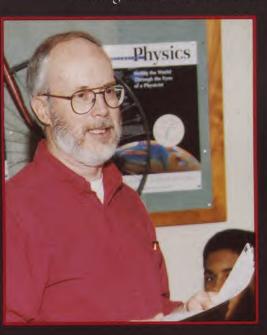

They hear. They all hear
The speaking of the Tree.
Speak to humankind today.
Come to me,
Here beside the River.
Plant yourself beside the River.

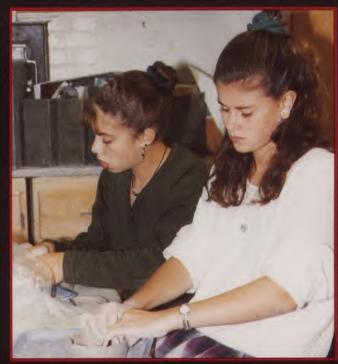

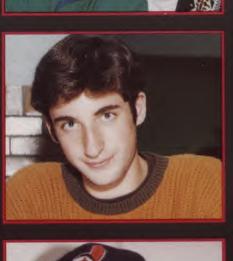

Here, root yourselves beside me.

I am that Gree planted by the River,
Which will not be moved.

I, the Rock, the River, the Gree
I am yours — your passages have paid.

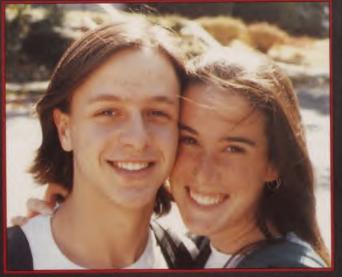

Lift up your faces, you have a piercing need

For this bright morning dawning for you.

'History, despite its wreching pain,

Cannot be unlived, but if faced

With courage, need not be lived again.

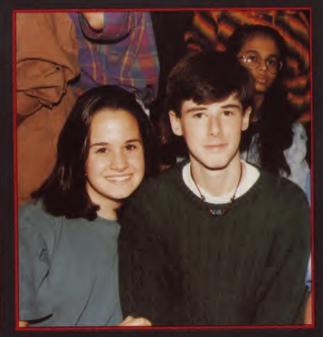

Praying for a dream.

Lift up your eyes

Upon this day breaking for you.

Give birth again

To the dream.

Columbia's N.O.W. (National Organization of Women) chapter is the first high school chapter in New Jersey, a fact which its members are justifiably proud. The membership this year, led by senior Abbi Baron and Nina Mehta, and sophomore Lara Aylward, is composed largely of freshmen and sophomores, which is very exciting. Goals for the year include holding after-school discussion groups on relations between the sexes with invited guest speakers. Columbia's N.O.W. chapter is dedicated to promoting women's rights and to establishing clear lines of communication between the men and women of Columbia.

Blue Ribbon

Columbia High School earned national recognition this year when it received the Blue Ribbon Schools Award from the U.S. Department of Education. An extensive and discriminating selection process led to Columbia's award.

In addition to academic criteria, blue ribbon schools are measured against the following standards set by the U.S. Department of Education: "Strong leadership; a clear vision and sense of mission that is shared by all connected with the school; high-quality teaching; appropriate up-to-date curriculum; policies and practices that ensure a safe environment conducive to learning; strong parental interest and involvement; and evidence that the school helps all students achieve, regardless of their abilities."

Dr. Wiess, Mrs. Penberthy, and Neil Jasey, student council president, went to Washington, DC, in October to receive the award and to be honored at a national ceremony.

I'd like to build the world a home and furnish it with love, grow apple trees and honey bees and snow white turtle doves. I'd like to teach the world to sing in perfect harmony, I'd like to hold it in my arms and keep it company. I'd like to see the world for once all standing hand in hand, and hear them echo through the hills for peace throughout the land.

That's the song I hear,
Let the world sing today.
A song of peace that echoes on and never goes away.
I'd like to teach the world to sing in perfect harmony, and hear it echo through the hills for peace throughout the land.

GIVE A YELL

The 1993 Cougar Football Cheerleaders were led by Tri-Captains Alena Nardone, Rachel Branson and Marsha Tennant. Under the coaching of Johanna Wright, the squad boasted another magnificent season. The powerful young squad did a great job keeping our football players' enthusiasm going, as well as pumping up the fans. The 1993 cheerleaders are greatly appreciated and evidently helped our football team give it their best. With only one graduating senior, the underclassmen are sure to keep up the tradition of outstanding cheerleading.

The 1993 Varsity Field Hockey Team led by co-captains Francesca Amabile and Emily Wallingford, ended their season with a record of 6-8-2. There were many individual standouts on the team. Among them was senior Emily Wallingford, who was named to the All Iron Hills First Team and to the All Essex First Team. Junior Sophia Kim was named to the All Essex second team and to the All Iron Hills First Team. Kair Gebauer, another junior, was named to the All Essex Second Team. Aviva Woog, a junior, was named to the All Essex third team.

Senior goalie Kim Kolcun received Honorable Mention in the Iron Hills Conference.

The Varsity team, coached by Penny Weinglass, was eliminated from the first round of the State Tournament in a sudden death overtime. The final score was 2-1.

The Varsity Team will be losing six seniors next year, but will look forward to the return of all the juniors and the JV Team, who had a record of 8-4-3. They hope for a strong 1994 season.

The 1993 Boys' Varsity Soccer team had another outstanding season, ending with a record of 18-4-2. The squad won their sixteenth consecutive Iron Hills Conference Title as well as the Essex County Championship, in which they defeated a strong Montclair team. The boys suffered a surprising loss to East Orange in the State Sectional Finals.

Captains Neil Jasey, Jeremy Metz, Peter Murphy, Richard Satz, and Marc Schwartz provided leadership and experience to the Cougar roster. On the forward line, Jasey used his excellent speed to score 8 goals and dish off 7 assists, complementing the team's high scorer, junior Andrew Laskowski, who finished with 17 goals

Peter Murphy, Tom Murphy, Chris Quinn, Satz, and Schwartz were named to the New Jersey State Coaches Association 1993 State Team, and Laskowski was also named a regional All-American. With Laskowski and Quinn back in the lineup next year, the Cougars should look forward to yet another great season in 1994.

HEADING FOR SUCCESS

After a rough beginning, the 1993 Girls'

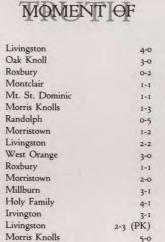

Soccer Team came together mid-season and ended with a record of 8-6-4. The team qualified for the State Tournament for the first time in three years, and was undefeated in eight of its last ten games. The girls excelled in the Essex County Tournament, but lost a heartbreaker on penalty kicks to Livingston in the semi-finals.

Co-captains senior Megan Frese and junior Mary Meade led the team to success. On the forward line, Frese chipped in 8 goals and 9 assists while sophomore Nichole Martelli scored 9 goals and added 4 assists. Meade controlled the midfield, scoring 11 goals and dishing out 4 assists, along with her sister Meghin and junior Laura Holtz. Senior Amanda Klenert and junior Melissa Martucci were strong marking backs for the Cougars, while Rachel Bernstein anchored the defense from her stopper position. Freshman Meredith Egan was outstanding in goal, and helped the team to win many close games. She gained All-Conference honors along with Frese, Klenert, Martelli, and Meade; and Frese, Klenert, and Meade were named to the coaches All-State team as well.

The Cougar girls will only be losing three seniors this year, and with the strong influx of returning players, the team should expect a strong 1994 campaign.

1993 was a year of change for the Girls'

Tennis Team. First of all, the girls had to adapt to new coach Brian Brown, since Coach Genzer retired last year. Secondly, their First Singles player of four years and the 1992 State Champion, Marjorie Gantman, was lost to graduation. Thus, 1993 was a year of regrouping, which is evident by the team's 7-10 record.

Taking over for Gantman and gaining All-Area honors at First Singles was Amy Conway, a senior who has been a starter for all four of her years at Columbia. She finished strong with a personal record of 12-5, with two of her losses coming against Livingston and another two coming against Millburn, both state powerhouses. Juniors Rachel Goldner and Allison Ostrowsky played Second and Third singles, respectively. Both will be returning next year, and should enjoy much success at their positions. Gianna Abruzzo and Becky Gollin formed the First Doubles team. The duo worked well together and won some key matches for the Cougars. Second doubles featured Jaime Pew and Liz Zauber.

Although the team is losing seven seniors to graduation, many promising freshman bring hope for the future.

The Columbia boy's indoor track team finished another fantastic season capturing many team and individual honors. The runners started out their season winning the Seton Hall Invitationals, and proceeded to win the Essex County Relays, as well. They finished second in the State Group Four Individuals and in the Essex County Individuals, only one point behind Newark Science.

Two relay teams placed first in the County Relays. They were the Sprint Medley team made up of seniors Christian Aikhuele, Dexter Douglas, Jason Gerdes, and Neil Jasey; and the 4 x 400 meter team of seniors Douglas, Jasey, Thomas Joseph, and Anthony Trajer. The 4 x 400 team established a New Jersey season record of 3:26.7 at the event.

In addition, Jasey won the 400 meter state championship, and broke a school record for the 500 meter run with a time of 1:06.77 at the West Point Invitational. Seniors David Cummings, Tim Gilman and Damon Griffin also made valuable contributions to the team, along with juniors Mike Greenman and Paul Rauen. The team will be losing a lot of great runners to graduation, which will surely impact the team's performance next winter. Still, they are confident that the many promising underclassmen will keep their winning tradition alive.

ONE STEP AHEAD

The Columbia girls indoor track team was close to perfect this year. The runners captured the Essex County Relays and Individual as well as the State Group Four Relays and Individuals.

Four teams placed first in the County Relays. They were the Distance Medley team made up of senior Monique Nicholas and juniors Aiyanna Burton, Mikaela Chilstrom, and Hazel Clark; the Sprint Medley team of freshman Ayana Coleman, senior Courtney Evans, Clark, and Nicholas; the 4x400 team of Burton, Clark, Nicholas, and sophomore Joy Ononuju; and the Hurdle relay of Burton, Evans, junior Samantha Taylor, and senior Vicki Stricklen. The 4x800 team of Chilstrom, seniors Becky Flores and Megan Frese, and sophomore Amy Stein also competed well.

In The County Individuals, Clark won the 400 and 800 meter runs, Burton won the Hurdles, Nicholas placed second in the 1600 and 3200 meter runs, and Ononuju placed second in the 400 meter run. The 4x400 relay team went on to place first in the State Group Four Championships and the Eastern Track Championships. In addition, Clark was state champion in the 800 meter run, and won the 1000 meter run at Easterns.

The track team should have another successful season next year, due to the immense talent of the underclassmen. Although the seniors will be missed, the team can only become stronger in 1995.

CAUGHT OFF GUARD

The boys basketball team got off to a rocky start this year. After opening their season with an exciting, at-the-buzzer victory over Livingson, they went into a major slump, during which time they lost thirteen out of fifteen games. The team came together at the end of the season, however, winning four of their last five games and upsetting Essex County power-house East Orange. Unfortunately, it was too late to qualify for either the state or the county tournaments.

The team was led by co-captains Jimmy Lee and Brandon Ramos. Both starters, the two averaged 9 and 10 points per game, respectively. Joining them in the starting lineup was senior Aaron Lee at point guard, junior Paul Carter at center, and junior David Sherman at shooting guard. Seniors Akie Jackson and Steven Royster also saw significant playing time for the Cougars.

First year coach James Bailey was pleased with the improvement his team made throughout the season. He is confident in the abilities of the underclassmen on varsity as well as those still on the freshman and junior varsity teams. Thus, he feels that the team will get off to a better start next year.

LEADERS OF THE PACK

Led by tri-captains Erin Brown, Liz Page, and Takeyah Young, the 1993-1994 winter cheerleaders finished another great season. The talented squad had a tough schedule cheering for the boys' and girls' basketball teams as well as the wrestling team.

The cheerleaders impressed fans with their skillful halftime show and performances throughout the games. Their energy and enthusiasm kept crowds on their feet and cheering during the winter season. The team will only be losing one senior, so a strong group will be cheering again next year, which will help to make the 1994-1995 winter season more enjoyable for Cougar sports fans.

did the team have a winning record of 9-5, but also won the honor of being the Iron Hills Co-ed Conference Champions.

The team coached by Louis Brown had many individual successes. At the Essex County swimming Championships, freshman Maggie Singler took first place in the 50-yard free, Katie McGowan placed third in the 100-yard back stoke and the girls free relay with Barri Budin, Sarah Johnson, Katie McGowan,

The CHS men's fencing team ended this year's season with one of the best records in recent years with a winning record of 4-2. This year was filled with pleasant results for the team which boasts wonderful showings at the District II Championships and the State Championships. At the Districts, the Epee team won gold, the Foil team won silver, while the Sabre team took 4th. For the first time in many years members from the individual squads qualified to compete in the District. Senior epee starter Sean Skeffington took 4th, Senior epee starter Matt Konwiser took 6th, and Senior men's Foil captain Art Jongco won bronze. Skeffington eventually finished in the top 12 at State Individuals while Jongco finished 8th and was named to the 3rd All-State Team. At States, all 3 squads finished well, placing within the top 12 in all events.

The team also put up a good showing at the Cetrillo Tournament where all three squads finished in the top ten respectively. This year's success can be attributed to the new coach Vladimir Lilov and volunteer coach Frank Mustilli who constantly motivated and pushed the fencers to higher levels of achievement. Unfortunately, the majority of the team will be graduating this year. Nevertheless, next year's team will be working hard to have a season that is just as successful.

After winning the District Championship, having two fencers make all-state, going 6-1 in the regular season, and sending one fencer to the National Championship, the only thing the girls' varsity fencing team did not accomplish this year was victory at the state tournament. The team placed second by only three bouts.

Both veterans and new-comers contributed to the teams overwhelming success. Departing Senior Co-Captains Laurie Alderstein and Ilana Schiller went 8-3 and 7-4 in states, respectively, ending their four year varsity careers. Yet, they attribute much of the team's sucess to Team Captain Nicole Mustilli, a junior, who won the State Individual silver medal, and 2nd Team All-State honors, and to sophomore Natasha Lilov, who in her first year fencing for Columbia, made second team all state. Mustilli was undefeated in the state tourney. Lilov, and Nicole Paulina, a junior in her first year starting for varsity, finished the tourney at 8-3.

Though the team members are happy with their second place finish, they are confident that they will improve upon it next year under the tutelage of volunteer Frank Mustilli and new coach Vladimir Lilov. Younger fencers on the squad will be key in the coming year's campaign to capture the state title.

The Cougar wrestling team finished with 8 wins, and 6 losses beating two teams that qualified for the Group 4 State Sectionals. For the second year in a row the Cougars won the West Orange Tournament, and placed 5th out of 26 teams in the prestigious Essex County tournament. They were able to accomplish this with a total of only 14 wrestlers on the entire team! The team was led by Tri-captains 125 lb. Scott Jones, 189 lb. Elo Adibe, and 140 lb. Jason Fonte. Outstanding performances by 135 lb. José Villalta, 130 lb. Rich Rodriguez, 119 lb. James Fonte, 112 lb. Naveed Khawaja, and 276

lb. Hector Castro enabled the team to achieve these arduous tasks. Also, helping the team with great performances were 103 lb. Fred Ewig, 171 lb. Ben Esposito, 152 lb. Randy Williams, and 160 lb. Blake Morrow. To cap off a great season and a four year varsity career, Scott Jones was crowned both West Orange and Essex County Tournament Champion at his weight class. Jones also achieved the nearly impossible 60 career wins in a three year period! Next year the team will be led by Jose Villatta and James Fonte.

Thank God you came back from Transylvania (hell). I probably would have gone insane (who you trying to get crazy with essé don't you know I'm loco?) if I'm not already. Always remember all the trips we took over vacation I think we turned into one person that week. We have the same color ribbon (a little bit of bluish purple) and I think it fills up the spaces in our brains. You helped me paint over my past and now the door looks cool as hell (We're cool Yeah! Yeah!). We still got to smash some people before the year is over. But for now We'll just talk a lot of you know what. There he goes and now here she starts, hear her cry. Girl what's our weakness? MEN! If that boy breaks your heart one more time I'm going to have to break his head. At least you didn't pick him up at bagel. What's UPS? U.N.I.T.Y if we stick together no one will hurt us. No one else can understand us (or deal with us) but that's cool cause we're cool and we know it. Don't question why we need to be so free. We'll tell you it's the only way to be. Let your life proceed by its own design. We're goin' where those chilly winds don't blow to the warm beaches of Italy where we can paint, smoke, and surround our selves with beautiful men. Never forget what we learned this year: we're Built to Last!

Always — Walking in loops at the mall. Long talks with glasses of water. Running, swimming. "Groove is in the Heart", "I Wanna Be Sedated", "Holiday in Cambodia", "Prayers for Rain" & NIN.

Anna — Part of the original BAMM. B's twin. You'll always be a part of our good memories.

Jane — GOAT. I'll see you in Indiana, right? I swear I'll call you sometime, not GB. Try the garlic break, it's good.

Mara — I hope your car stops smoking on the hills and that you meet a nice boy at Hunka Bunka who is under 24.

Gretch — Thanks for talking to me on the phone for so long. In a few years, I'll come visit you and your family in Nantucket.

Gianna - Remember our talks about our "men". I'm glad we sat together in Lechter. I'm coming over your house to play pool later.

Meg — I'm glad you finally succumbed to the lure of track (and MS) and I'm really glad both our last names start with F!

- I love you tons! (I'll tell you the rest later, I don't want everyone reading it.)

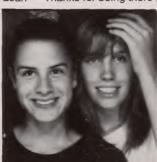

Family — Thank you for helping me with everyone and for buying such a great dog. I love you all.

Mandy — You're my babysitting, doubledating, water-drinking, moshing, talking until 2 am, dog-drool skeeving, Stevie-bashing, driving to Morristown, mall-walking (and 1000 other things) best friend forever. High school would have been crappy without you.

Mike — We've had a lot of good times, the memories will always stay with me. You've been one of my best friends and I will always care about you. Erin & Katie — I love swimming with you guys. I'll always remember the great times and strange experiences we've had. D!

Amy — We finally hang out this year! Always remember S.U., St. E's, gym and all the classes we goofed around in.

Betsy — We have that swimming bond, what more can I say? I'm really glad we're friends. Remember our wknds., English notes, and definitely MBABO. To the others (GC, CE, MD, JE, CZ, TG, DD, SC) — Thanks for all the fun times this year. JJ's! MCC — Thanks for always adding variety and fresh air to my weekends.

Leah — Thanks for being there and being a friend.

Mom, Papa, Augie and Becker — Thanks for your love and support, I love you guys!

Brian and family - Thanks for your coaching, time and love. You'll always be in my heart.

Becky — (Me in a different color) I can't imagine high school w/out you. We've had such good times and memories. Who else would I have analyzed with, eaten everything with, lived in the mall with or been best friends with? Thanks for laughing with me, being there with me and "saving" me. You're special to me and you're my best friend always.

"Now the road is dark and it's a thin, thin line - but I want you to know I'll walk it for you anytime."

From the moment we met we knew we'd be friends. We seemed so very different from one another. Along "the path" we discovered our differences complemented each other. Thank you for being a perfect friend.

APRIL. FELICIA. ILANA. LAURIE. and TANIA. "NEVER SAY GOOD BYE!!!" Where did this all begin? I don't know — let's brainwash! We really have to do this right now — we're all procrastinators! Let's just eat! Hey! — No more banana chips! Let's pick up Morristown!! Nice butt — Yeah right! Bennigans. Flying Coasters. Obnoxious Men. The electric slide. Hey, he's kinda cute. New Jersey Transit loves us. Ilana got a free ride. The conductor wants to buy Laurie a drink. Sing-sing a song. Funny how people clap when we leave. Felicia's hiding — she's embarrassed. Let's go to the mall — we'll take the bus — oh no are we going to Newark?! The man in the park — Felicia's cousin is a tree.

SWEET 16. Surprise! Balloons, Food — April's hair caught on fire. Bubbles in the fountain. Sizler — ice fights! Laurie and April screamed so loud — the cops yelled at Felicia, Ilana and Tania. We'll go to the shore . . . soon. Strawberry — Sleepovers. Rocky Horror — The terminator! The Doors — Felicia what are we listening to? Ilana talks to and listens to the fish when she's sober. Let's go to the City. Obsessions — loud music — We can't breathe — funny men. "Laurie, will you break up with Rob? — Please!" Laurie? Suzy? April? — Guys are so dumb! 17!! We can finally drive! Watch out for the deer! We're lost again! Felicia just turn off that music! Ilana — how do you pop the gas tank? Don't ever tell anyone about this? That's not a blinker. Felicia — turn right! There's a gas station. Have we been here before? City cops are the cutest! 7 men in the house — let's hide! New Year's Eve — follow the big blue man in the santa hat! Let's dance. Laurie — did I hit you again? Sorry! April doesn't like Nutra Sweet. What time is it — Laurie loses it at 1 a.m. — be careful! Tom Cruise is perfection! College? Where are we going? What are we doing? — No more applications — no more SAT's! Let's just keep on going — umm I saw a sign 3 mi. back — we were supposed to turn . . . Which way should I go? Oh well, we have a full-half tank of gas. Felicia says gas isn't good for you. We finally got here — this movie is the pits — why does Felicia love it? Ilana is going to throw up. Don't leave a tip — the waitress threw a grapefruit at Felicia! But look — guys, guys, guys. Yeah — we're 21. Is there life after high school? What do we have to say?.. ... I want to be happy & married and have a lot of children — well maybe only 2, oh and I ant to be a yuppy! I hate mush — I love you guys! — Ilana . . . I want a happy family, career — what career? You guys have been great! I love you all!! — Tania . . . I want no kids, no husband . . . But a really nice car! Refer to my quote and always remember! — Love Felicia . . . Well guys I'm not exactly sure where I'm going — but that's half the fun ain't it?! I met you all at different points in my life and we just became friends because that's the way it was meant to be — I don't think that I can put to words what you guys mean to me — no one else reading this will understand — I can't thank you enough — life without your friendship would never have been . . . it just wouldn't. Thank you all for being there for me — and thanx for just letting me be me and loving me for that. I treasure the memories we share — Peace & Love — Laurie . . . I want to become a Mafia princess — just joking, Laurie. Maybe just a happily married mother of 6. All right you knew I went last so that I could read all of yours but also because you always save the best for last. You guys mean so much to me. Thanx for all your laughter, your tears, your wrong directions, our debates, our discussions, our friendship. I love you all and I will never forget the many times we've had together. You will be in my heart for the rest of my life! — April . . . Now . . . enough said! . . . Well, it's been real!!

Lets write this thing! Absolute - Leigh and Teri 92-94. 11:18 pm When the hell did we become friends? Lunch at Ralphs whos got the fries? Grab rolls by the stomach and throw her out the window — SPLAT! Sat. detention bang bang bang tap tap get up get up! Summer 93 Great Adventure only took three hours to get there, then it rained, taco fight who started it? Seaside, boardwalk surfing on Teri's car at Paolo's house, windshield fluid — wipe out! Lincoln tunnel to New York, top down — carbon monoxide poisoning, driving in NY top down back to home in the Lincoln tunnel, stand up Leigh, "may I have a pretzel please?" Coming home from the woodbridge mall, can't find the parkway, only two hours late. T always fighting w/P and L always fighting w/B we got problems! S-curves no brakes are we gonna make the science exam? LeBaron convertibles — TD — I got mine first! Poconos, BIG BALL* 10 mile jog with flash lights, high beam, TD the non-pool hopper. POOL? Nine ball rules! We're bored lets go to pennsylvania to see the sign. Scenic overlook, Perkins 4 am, spoon, fork & knife club. The Buttermilk 5 please CB. Interesting conversations w/Paolo, bring Brady home early. Cryin, hey Ter need a jump? Elvis rules 20 times. The night of the rusty porsche. lingerie shopping at Mandes — the little fringe thing. Shopping for New Year garters at the Union Market — The little lewd shop in the corner, can I see some ID please. Mom and the naughty edibles, you ask. Closing line — it doesn't end, & Leigh I feel it! Teri if someone told me in 9th grade who my best friend would be my senior year I never would have believed it. You the hair hopper and me the I don't know what. Who would have ever guessed! Don't forget I love You and I'm always there. I'm flattered! Leigh you're my bestest friend too and I can't believe it either but it worked out well! I'll never forget you. I luv you too and I'm always here 17 days later, inside joke not really but will laugh later bout that. We're done! 12:15 am

*GRETCHEN*GIANNA

The weird scary cuckoo clock strikes twelve and there we were 7 years later hanging out in gb's (Gretch, air blair, rainbow, mary) basement — new friends around us, but gia (say jah) and gb are together still the same. From the moment gb helped gia open her locker in 6th grade, we knew we were destined . . . to be each other's maid of honor (not some nerd from P.U. or Jacob's Pillow, don't worry). Gb helped gia through the gang war w/kt cf am vf and stuck by her side. We obsessed over Fbles: Al Sn Rs (youngins whose names we will never forget), Tc Pm . . . and especially IAc (what collage? Dinner Dance dance, all around good guy . . . but we're not done with him yet. He sticks around in our story to write summer letters to gb in Nantucket and continues being gia's great friend. More obsessions for gia with Rb Mn Jg (show me how), Jm (it was middle school ok?). Although long ago, we remember middle school as a time of Fred, "They were going to build a monument there . but they didn't." And of course various mall trips left us with Ding Ding Ding — ya know gretch, when you walk into a mall and the bell rings so they know you came in? — and the great stocking sale 1 for 15, 2 for 12. Middle school was the beginning of great summers, too. Gb in Nantucket meets Jp and Cm; gia in France with Melanie (did someone say shower?) It was all too good and gb came back to school crying — her obsession had just begun. OK enough of that young stuff, the real fun began in high school (uh-huh, that's right!) but gb loved mms and didn't want to move on . gia though, knew what fun was coming — she'd been prepared for chs — every morning in 8th grade, the genius took a tart cart to the front door . . . Enter high school, beginning with tennis. Giant Gretchen (not another tall joke! Thanx Mr. Wild-and-crazy Genzer) But that is ok — gb kicks but gia never wins. (It got better anyway with Brian Brown senior year) We meet Amy b., try to copy her silly ways, and make fun of EP and her sister's jeans. Unfortunately, after tennis we begin to go our separate ways. Gia: Jw Dc Da Ak Ms, and gb: Je Md Jp Mf . . . but we hold on especially because of Rayjay and Brett. Our men, one jerk (too harsh) and an awesome perfect Ray, overseas fighting for our country. We got dog tags, pictures, pieces of scudd missiles, and one particular tape that gb listened to EVERY night for oh so long a time. "Geeanna, johanna . . . That's a decent picture of you (only b/c of your beautiful hair — never think of cuttin it or dying it) . . . (— coulda had it)." Then on 6/3/91 there was the meeting at Monmouth Army Base (gb knows exact dates and such b/c of her perfectly kept records in piles of photo albums). Jms and his beautiful hair (it runs in the family) hooked up with the girls; gb gets the 35 yr. old and Chris Armstrong; gia tries to share ray with his girlfriend (he's married now anyway). Did we say Ray or Roy? B/c there was a time when a certain someone had something more on his mind than a tennis lesson. LEAVE HER ALONE. But what about those other nice boys who took a liking to gb? Jim etc. (don't want to name anyone else?) and gia: Sz (rejection), Tc (claim to fame), Jc & Ji, and Tt (we'll get back to him). Out of school gb found even better guys — taller? — above all the rest (Cm Ph Vd & Jp) there is JP — forever. (JP, when we get married I'll show you this ok? [don't freak mrs. b] — gia's the official Oh unless gb finds someone better in college). This 6'2" (taller than gb by 2 * inches is a plus) actor (V-day play) is on top of the new Fble list (for gb of course). They finally talk seriously after 5 summers of fun with Mary Bob Lyndsey Bret & Ian all because of J.P.'s random call from a so-called Baker. Then we have gia's saga with Tt ... (almost Nj — enter: Flores — you know GOATS always get in the way. What could have been turned out perfectly just the way it did anyway) Their's — (gb & tt) was a very happy relationship never any complaining, everything was perfect . . . until the 3rd day. But we won't get too touchy or complain b/c through it all gia is still in love (and Mrs. T might be reading this). If not there is always diversity day. By the way gb & gia like to think ahead . . . prom: a) (Tt) Sgn Rr Jc Ji — realistically mW tG IA cjO (someone hopefully) b) dJ jB sC cZ realistically JP . . . Only the future can tell if we sat home on our butts that night painting stripes on our nails and eating chocolate bread (cake) . . . By now it is new friends, new fun. Before that EP (jp) — the barbie doll story epitomizes the perfectly happy girl. But we like Bf Md Je — although gia was a little jealous. Together we all had some fun — the beach, carnival, reservation on the 4th of july (sorry gb wasn't there but Je jumped a mile high - that was just too funny to leave out). Let's not forget more summers in Nantucket and Belgium (caroline and her bro). And most recently up to the minute memory (does gia remember?) New Year's Eve — she's a born chauffeur, gb. ok can you tell we are doing this 3 days after it was due? so we are tired and will just sum it up now. There they are — 7 yrs. of a friendship that is built to last and in no way what so ever ending soon (have we ever had a fight?) They were not all good times, not all bad, kind of fun (did you know the "cool" crowd is bored sometimes too?) but all the ones we wrote in this here ^ (or) page we'll remember forever. Are ya happy about all this — or no, gb? cause Im not gonna get all mushy and I promised I wasn't gonna do this kind of crap anyway but here it is or maybe not. No need to to get all sad b/c our fun has just begun and new memories are being made as we speak (love always gia). Like we promised — nothing too sentimental — let's just stay friends forever, ok? Did that question make you happy — or no? P.S. Has the left evened out with the right yet? Yeah it has. Thanx.

IMOKUROK2AEIOUEYE

And so we are done (finally), but first to say good bye to: THE WILD MAN: gb's got the coupon for Neelam — ga will kick in 10 is anyday. NEIL: how much fo' one riib? FLORES: What can I say? I'm glad we've become friends but I don't really like you, I just wanted to meet sue kranert. just kidding, goat! (gb) — so we like the pharcyde and love (?yeah) those who introduced us to them — it works out well, us being friends (ga). JANE: don't go walking where there might be a spider (ga). MARA: see ya at the limelight — tomorrow definitely. JENNKAY: got any tickets for me? I'll go with ya anytime ... you drive. LORENZO: all i ever need is 4 U 2 B my friend always — gia ... AND: MS. AM. CE. BJ. CZ. EC. AR. JB. JO. As one wise girl once said: I'm just having trouble expressing myself. Do you know what I mean? I just have to vent ... thnx HW

Behind every wonderful person is a wonderful family. Since we're both extra wonderful that means we owe a lot to our families. In fact, we owe everything to them — who we are, who we'll become. Our values, our dreams were inspired by you all. Without the super love and support you gave us from the very moment we reached for you and you were there, we could not be as strong or as motivated. How do you say "thank you" to people who have sacrificed so much. It doesn't seem half as good as what you deserve. Every smile, every laugh, every tear, you were there to comfort, to hug, to join in. We want you to know that no sacrifice ever went unnoticed. You are all victors! You are all loved and appreciated more than words can say. Be proud of us, celebrate the fact that you made us who we are. Our diplomas, our dreams, our lives, our futures, our hearts are dedicated to you. Always believe and understand that you could not be loved any more than you already are. This is not just our graduation day, not just our day to be proud of the accomplishments we have made. But also your day, in which, you are freely allowed to bask in the glow your accomplishments. I love you!!!! SISTERS!! Love ya lots — T.T.

AMY BETSY CHARITY

Seriously . . . Amy's mildly passive and too conservative for all those earrings. Charity man, those jeans were tapered so tight you couldn't get them off. And what about Betsy, wait, what about Betsy?/ Whoa there . . . Lake Placid was the best with Rosie out watch dog. "Shhh . . . be wery wery quiet." . "I have fundamental ideological problems." . . . B.J. did you figure out a way to have a relationship with a cartoon, or are you giving up on Prince Eric . . . "oh dear", "oh my" . . . We get a little lost on our walk to Maplewood village — But not to worry Amy's aunt lives there. Who moshes to American Pie? Charity experimenting, Amy re-experimenting . . . Clicky lighter. Smoking in the park . . . A productive trip to New York greeted by mockery. Only to have those who mocked us follow the trend later . . . Brian gives us a gift in a cigar case . . . Notebook notes . . . Three tight black dresses. So much for heel-toeing it, we sport the strut and construction walk. Betsy hoards Bazooka in her shin guards. I'm gonna tell ya how it's gonna be oom bop, oom bop, bop bop . . . Amy backs Charity up on the field. #'s 21, 22, 23. Chris risks his life for a penny at the Short Hills mall. Char watches, anxiously and excitedly waiting for him to fall . . . New Years Eve sophomore year: the beer jeans, first round relief at Charity's, Betsy is the responsible one while Charity and Amy create gossip . . . Cindy attempts to shape us up . . . Locked in the closet. Jane's heavy breathing. Betsy comes too late. The door opens. Now we can breath. What? A water buffalo? . . . Char shaves Aim's head. "Her head must be cold." . . . Betsy and Charity's talent for blowing off guys. "You lost that opportunity." - BJ. He, He . . . Who's J.J? "Okay, when I see him I'll say snow. Snow!" Huh? "Snow." What are you talking about? Amy and Charity beat the system. No thanks to the police man who wouldn't jump us. Poor Baby . . . Amy is diesel. The dry girls. BAGELS. MCCC and "the boys" — Thanks for making all those runs for us! . . . The beginning of my delinquency, the continuation of yours and Ames. Circle of death. Char, where's Mike? . . . Squeeze, Phish . . . What's with us and fast food restaurant bathrooms? . . Damn! Tight jeans. Is that what makes you walk so funny. Regards to the big man upstairs and the little red giant in the basement. Grab the cat. We know there's more! What ever happened to our memories?

"Wanna buy a duck? A what? A duck. Does it quack? Of course it quacks dammit!" Ready, Freddy? Yeah, Betty. Okay then Eddie. Let's go, Teddy.

We love you Mike and Joey!!! Wait a minute Char, I don't love Mike. What about me, I barely know Joey. I think they can figure it our Char. You're right Bet, they're smart boys.

Jane, Mara, Gretch, Mandy, Becky, "The Boys" and Mark, Thanks for the memories. Drive Safely! And guys, don't forget about my gym buddies: Sarah and Dana. It's OKAY!

We have to stay friends, cause . . . cause I love you guys.

Hey guys, I want you all to know, and remember that we are all friends till the end know matter what we do, we will always do it together. We will remember the good times that we shared together, never the bad.

"Sports Park" The pool room. Singing the night away, Where is the pool stick? Oh my god, help, get this man away from me. All of the diners that we have been to, and all the good times, "The Mall" "Bow Craft" Cruising around the town velling, and cursing out the window. I am sure that we all remember that, Kathleen, Mary and Kristen, excuse me miss, but I have a complaint to make about one of your workers. "I will always remember your sweet 16 party. "ohhh" always remember our soaps, especially General Hospitals "Jagger" Antonio Sabato Jr. I am glad that we met up with each other from O.L.S. You are my friends that could always cheer me up, and someone that I could always count on. I hope that we are together forever.

Melanie and Lexy, Hey Shcotall and Fasule, Sir, would you like paper or plastic? Oh, what ever turns you on. Enkay Babe!!! I am glad that we all work together. Remember all of our laughs together at Kings. Woop, lookie here. Fasule, Concert Choir rules. While we are singing, look for the retard! Hi Alex, It's not bad, it's not bad at all. Enkay Babe!!! I am so glad that we found each other again after all of these years. You both are so comical, sweet, and so fun to be with, I hope that you never change. I am proud to call you both my best friends, and I hope that it is till the end.

Gabrielle, Who are you talking to? Wait a minute, he's cute, get back there and talk to him. We know who that is. April and Tanya, every time we all want to do something, you guys are always working. You work too much. Hey, my April Calendar comes in handy every single day.

Mel, Hey Stripper, "You are in the jaw" all I am going to say is Enkay Babe!!! Clinton Manner, Skate 22, and all of our hangouts. You are one of a kind. Stay the way you are, never change. You're one of my very best friends, and I will never forget you. Thank you for always being there for me, and you know that I am there for you too when ever, and where ever you need me.

Shell, you that I will remember the limo on Rt. 22, and especially that one guy. Keep you know who away from me.

Let's all keep in mind all of the good lunch times that we all had together, and all of the good times that we had outside of school too. I love you guys, and I will never forget us, and all of the things that we did together, and all of our laughs that we shared. Kathleen, Lexy, Gabby, Mel, Shell, April, and Tanya, Good Luck in everything that you do. Good Luck in college, and wait for us out in thing real world. I will miss you with all of my heart. One thing that we will never forget is Jon Bon Jovi. We all have to go to one of his concerts, That is if know body is working. But we all have to remember our song . . . "NEVER SAY GOOD BUY

Heather + Shari: "Shari, you corrupted me!" Thanx 4 the rides. My birthday's tomorrow. You can smoke in your house? YES!! Cherry — what if the house catches fire! SEINFELD! What up, Jerry? Kramer, when are we going to hang out? Heath, we all know you watch! "Kristie, why do you have such an attitude?" Heath defends Shari. Guiding Light — Nope, GH, it's my house! "Shar, can I have a cig?" I'll love you forever! Dunkin Doughnuts — Heath and Kris are son second while Shari's on fourth! Sitting on Heaths counter, freezing our buts off all for a nasty habit. ZONK — Heather's Smokey and Shari can't remember her name! Heather drops a full bowl, upside down. "Heather, what are you doing, I mean what were you thinking?"

Special Thanx To: Shari for the home, Sara for the parties, Peter F. for always coming thru for us, Andrew S. for the beeper so we can find you, Candace and Kris for the ID's, Chris, Ken, And Jeff for the provisions (+ the laffs), Scott for NY's, Josh G. for the afternoons (+ the woc whenever any of us were in need)

Shari: You've been there for years, little sister, and I thank you and love you for it.

Kris: Who would've thought . . . me & you? Lock us in a room and we'll have fun. Thanx for the memories and the mission. I love you, friends till the end.

Head: I never would've thought I could find such a great friend in you. You're a great person, don't ever change. Always + Forever Fran: Sometimes you were my only friend. Never forget me!

Cand: Thanx for keeping in touch w/us at CHS. It's been great and you made it better.

Love SG

Shari — Things were good, then not so good, but we made it through together. You were always there to listen to me when I needed someone. I love you.

Sara — I never thought our friendship could turn out this way. You are so special to me. Thanx for giving me a mission when I thought all hope was lost. I love you.

Heather — You are my best friend, without you I couldn't have made it through. You've stood by me through so much. I love you always. Don't ever leave —

Julie — You've given me 4 yrs. of an unforgettable friendship. Thanx for being so understanding. Thanks G-D you're back. I love you – James — Being with you has taught me so much about myself! You've been my best friend and much more. Thank you. I love you!

MOM & DAD I know that this has not been the best 17 yrs. and I know it got worse towards the end. I just want to thank you for always wanting to be my friend even though I didn't want you to, thank you for always being by my side when I needed a comforter. Your the BEST FRIENDS I could ever have and I will never forget the things you have done for me. I LOVE YOU BOTH Theres always going to be something to remember everyone. Especially the people that was there for me when I needed advice, guidance or just someone to talk to.

SYL Thanx 4 sticking your neck out for me, (during the summer and Club America) Thanx 4 understanding when I didn't want to listen. We'll always remember Cardel & Chelain. You & Marr will be together forever so I'll see ya'll around!! CHRIS I'm glad that our friendship didn't end, I would miss you making me laugh. Remember the christmas party in New York, Remember all the things we talked about, how their just alike (Ron & Monte) I guess we'll never be able to leave them alone. Keep thoughs conversations to a min. GL. KEY Stop lettin' these no good guys diss you. Keep in touch with "D" you'll always remember that. "Morgan State" out all night long. (Why you Shamin'). Riding around (18th Ave., Reynor, Elizabeth & Chadwick). I'll always be with that one person whether you like it or not SO GET OVER IT. K.I.T.W.A.Y.N. (Jay, Shareef, Rashon, and on and on . . .) MARSH Watch who your friends are, thanx 4 being concerned by the time I decide you'll know!! JEN Remember all the good times that we had 2gether, 7th grade — field day (sweatpants) laugh, 8th grade — Mike Tyson (Ha, Ha), Thanx 4 all the advice on my many problems from 8th grade on . . . NOW WHAT SHOULD I DO!! Best Friends 4 ever. DAHL Well, we both have picked the wrong people to fall in love with, but when your in love it sees over everything. Face it you'll always be with Terrance no matter what because we'll soon realize what he's missin', Me & Monte will always have something going on whether we're together or not but then again. BILLY Thanx 4 being So Sweet to me, you really changed the way I felt about boys. And I didn't think that I would get over a certain person. But, know I'm really beginning to like you A LOT. Lamarr was right I think you are the best thing that ever happened to me. I needed to get away from these no good guys. Jan. 3, 1994 (remember 8th per. and . . .) I'm still keeping my promise Love ya To all the guys that meant something to me

MONTE We have been through Hell and back together. I really loved you a lot and it's going to be hard to get over you. We shared so many things together that will never be forgotten, (Remember 4th per, June 10th & 11th and what we'll remember for the rest of our lives. Love Always MARR Okay, we both know the deal, I'll never get over him so stop trying to make me, but then again I'm glad that you did. Thanx 4 coming out in the rain & giving me some place to stay, Thanx 4 understanding & not telling!! GOOD LOOKIN' OUT!!! (on both things) You betta be good when Syl goes away. I'll make sure she is, if not I'll tell you! L.U.L.A.B. AK Thank you for just being my friend even though you wanted more out of it. But, I couldn't hurt you, you know and I know that I would always go back and so would you. I'll always remember . . . thanx 4 just being my friend. Love Ya. JAMES C. Yeah, you know I'm going to be mad at you, because of (Terri). Regardless, I'm glad that we became close friends and not enemies. Even though our relationship is long gone and in the past, I'll always remember the 4th of July, and the phone call to your father (laugh) and the Jehovah Witness (I can laugh about it now). Thanx 4 being there when I needed you. Luv Ya!

To all my Friends, Fam and anyone I might of left out. See Ya I'm Out!!

THE SWEET IMITATORS, SWEET PERPETRATORS, BUT there's ONLY ONE SWEET DADDY (WILL) THE SWEET ORIGINATOR

It was a time when history was made. September, '81 - 1st day of kindergarten: Jaime's at the bus stop with Di, when Joan runs across and the two mothers begin to talk. They decide that their girls have to meet. — They obviously did not realize the consequences of this suggestion — The two girls meet, eat pizza bagels, and play on Becky's jungle gym. "You know my sister Anna says the seats on the bus are really comfy." (J - I never said that!) And that was the beginning of a beautiful

Marshall School - yellow bus, Mrs. Locker's class (Random), sitting with Jaymar Bugg, Jason Seibert (how were we supposed to know?), and Ann-Marie Aymer. Halloween — Dumb cookies and cider again! Sleepovers "Hey, Jaime, you wanna sleep over?" "Wait, let me ask Di." "Yeah, I gotta ask Joan." Chills, the arm thing, the knee thing, the thing where you feel like you're falling through the floor, the name game, and truth or dare. Brownie troop, we go horseback riding, Jaime is not

NANTUCKET — year 1 — "I've got this new house at this place called NAN-TUCKET — you wanna come and visit?" "Wait, let me ask Di." "Yeah, I gotta ask Joan." John Rose — why couldn't Jaime have been nicer when she had her chance? Selling lemonade and brownies to unsuspecting tourists. Holdgate cottage #3 is handed over to the Pews. — The tradition begins —

That was the real beginning. Nothing really interesting happened that year (except for winning the blue ribbon at the sand castle contest for a bear they thought was a cat) Well, what do you expect? We were five — just wait!

- Ms. Mercadante's class — RED CRAYON, Freeze!, taking baby steps to the bus, "Her name is Rebecca!"... "Ok, NANTUCKET." Ahhhh! — Jinx No zip private, "I'll do subtraction, you 1st grade obstraction, "NANTUCKET." "Hi, my name is Winnifred, can I be your friend?" We should have said no, dammit! Sailing lessons with Whiting Russell Wilhour Jr. — just call him Skip, "Whaddaya mean he's cut, Di? Boys are yucky?" Maria Mitchell and the turtle that bites Becky, that really stupid story we made up... "yeah, we're step sisters... yeah my father and her mother." "No, it's your mother and my father." "Yeah, uh whatever"... and all to buy a stupid ring, hitchhiking (the beginning of our illegal acts together)

2nd grade — Big marks on our folders — J.P. and R.G. CAN NOT BE IN THE SAME CLASS. We were not in the same class again until sixth grade, and that was only be default, so let's skim until then ... NANTUCKET summers 3rd-6th grade: Josh Righteous grimace, water balloon fights, tennis lessons, playing spit — "Hey, I'm out of cards, what do I do?" "Take some of mine!" cool handshakes that never worked out.

NANTUCKET 7th grade: We have arrived! Rory and Owen take our handshake and perfect it, Oh Well. Rory (Becky can't say his name) but wants him anyway, "This summer we are not just going to follow guys around, we are going to walk right up and talk to them. Right?" "Right!" (As if!) we go out for pizza but somehow manage to wind up at the Morning Glory short of cash, thank god our parents just happen to be walking by just then. (RANDOM) With Kerry "Look, it's Abby, she is such a dog! Ker, see that girl, go bark at her." AND SHE DID! Barry — "We have this friend who likes you. Actually, she's never seen you and umm she's not really on the island yet, either. But trust us, when she gets here, she'll really like you." What were we thinking? Barry's friend Mike (sigh), Ollie Rosen, NANTUCKET Tennis Club, running to escape from Steve K., he has his uses though, "This is my good friend, uh what's your name again?" "HALE!", Rory again and Duncan — Becky likes a guy named after a doughnut store, getting drunk on grapes and root beer ("That's the way it has to be, because that's the way I like it!"), the orange juice that we'd pretend was beer if anyone asked (too bad no one ever did), PENN STATE, INDY, the guy who couldn't afford gum and co., us — "What you think we are older than you? We're 11." them — "What?! Hey, we could make a profit off these dids!" In pin and Bits I leave Chew girls!" Fun Dip and Big League Chew.

- Donald and Daisey Duck, Jaime and Becky become women (enough said), "Hey, is that shirt Outback Red?" "No, it looks kinda green to me!", walking home ya eat for lunch? SANDWICH!", kick your foot and make you look like a fool thing, Vermont — Jaime is not Olympic bound, Kettlebrook trail — Becky, the skier, loses her skies and Jaime laughs from the bottom. sledding at night on the outdoor furniture cushions (a continuation of our illegal activities together) Washington — The ultimate game of Go Fish, "Uh, guys it's 4 in the morning, maybe we should go to sleep?" "Nah!" SUMMER '90 — Tennis Camp at Curry College and Cat Stevens — "Becky, if you play that tape ... one more time ... you ... will ... die!" "Uh — Ok Jaime." RULE #1 NEVER ROOM WITH YOUR BEST FRIEND! (when we began speaking again it was 10th grade)

NANTUCKET '91 — "Jaime, there's this guy Myles, who I work with, and I really like him." "That quiet guy?" "Yeah — isn't he beautiful?" "Not really." Bite your lip! That was the very beginning of Becky's obsession! Jaime changes her mind when she sees him — it's confirmed — HE'S A GOD! "Myles, will you marry me?" "Why?" "Because I've always wanted my last name to be Webster!"

think he'll go for it? We will find out. Tennis with Chris and not realizing his potential.

NANTUCKET '92 — Always waiting for Becky to get off from work at Vincent's. We see Myles one night. As we stand there and let Becky drool (the obsession lives on) we are introduced to a big, dorky, red haired guy named James Broadwell. Kerry is hooded (for some obscure reason). Sitting on Main one night with Ker, bored as hell — Dorky red head comes up street, Ker goes into shock — he stops, we hang. Broadwell throws Ker into garbage. "DON'T EVER DARE ME!" (Becky dared him) Jamie came in handy one night in his room with Jeff in the chair and Myles in the next room (Becky is very distracted with the thought of waking Myles from his slumber). Laura D. — Becky learns how to get in trouble. "Can I try that?" "Sure" cough, cough "Uh, did I forget to tell you not to hold it in?" Rich — why, oh why, did we not realize that babe's potential? New Orleans Guys — bonfire at Jetties, Keith (Becky's brainless body boy) "Uh, where's Massachusetts?" we'll give you a hint. Jaime Hich — why, on why, did we not realize that babe's potential? New Orleans Guys — bonfire at Jettles, Keith (Becky's brainless body boy) "Uh, where's Massachusetts?" we'll give you a hint. Jame turns 16 and has a one nighter with Don. Enough said. Jim, ditto. True confessions across the street from the Juice Bar, "Wait, you did what?" "Uh, well ... "Spill it!" Now Jaime and Becky have had both their 19 and 23 year olds. Too bad they were so dumb. Now, how about some guys our own age — NAH — Too immature! ... foreign guys? Oh yeah — Done it ... doing it tomorrow. "Hey, this is Easy Street. Are you easy?" Jaime giggles as only Jaime can. Becky turns around and says, "Are you twelve?" Jaime giggles some more. Just call Becky SLICK!

11th grade — pretty tame (and lame) — lunch was groovy, WE LOVE FRIENDSHIPS THAT LAST FOREVER! (enough said), crisis upon crisis upon ... who else would understand our own personal traumas? Tennis — doubles partners — RULE #2 — NEVER, EVER PLAY DOUBLES WITH YOUR BEST FRIEND! Benny and Joon, Lunch with Florence (do we have to?) Sleepover at Ker's house — "Ooh, that's the guest wing, we don't usually go down there." NANTUCKET '93 — "Hey, were SENIORS!" ESPRESSO CAFE — Jaime doesn't smoke (except for when U Matt is spying) FREE

WILLY! Matt Tannis and his NANTUCKET Reds Hat — pant pant drool drool — Chris R — spit much! and takes advantage of Becky when her judgement is slightly impaired — he lost all appeal! Jaime's street singer (Jordan) and his Bob Marley hits, HOTTIES, Disco Party (Jaime is stranded with complete strangers in the middle of nowhere — thanks guys) meanwhile, Becky's endless story about the stream of the st "Uh, kinda." "Oh. We hate it!" Josh and Jared and the first night, (Jaime's last) GB gets the Previa stuck, we make new friends Surfside and the iced tea drink concoction "This is disgusting!" SENIOR YEAR — Jaime gets her license and a tradition begins. SLURPEE RUNS!! (coke, of course) Tennis — Doth mine ears deceive me? "Becky, look I'm driving! Hey, it's 3:25, should we go to practice?" "Wherer?" "Nevermind. Yogurt or slurpee?" "Both!" YE HAW, RIDE 'EM COWBOY! "What is it? Once you get your license, you can immediately do one-handed turns?" "Yup, that's pretty much how it works." Aladdin . . . the scene . . lago in wide flamingos "pant, pant — uhhh-nuhh" . . "You got a problem, pinkie? Jerk!" rewind, play, and rewind again. Jaime's cute (but mysterious) guy who walks by the tennis courts every Monday and Wednesday at 4:15. Becky sees him on a train headed west from NYC. (RANDOM) "Don't you hate it when . . . " "Ya know who I think is cute . . ." "You know what really annoys me . . ." "Can I taste the German chocolate cake — hmmm it tastes just like a . . . German . . . chocolate cake." "Jaime, that woman is really slick." "Uh-huh!" Jaime's cute freshman (DR) — Becky torments her endlessly until she realizes that her transfer student (SS) is really a member of the Class of '97 (from high school) STATUTORY Emack and Bolio's — we have our own wing by now, with Kerry witting outside freezing our butts off and drinking tea, chocolate sprinkles forever. Becky FINALLY gets her license. "J look I'm driving!" "Great Beck, but don't forget to watch the road." "Duh — I'm watching." "Good because there's a red light. RED LIGHT!" "Jeepers! Uh — I saw that. I was just testing you, every time Ok!" "Hey, let's car pool, I'll drive both ways." "I think the turn is . . . HERE!" schreeeeech. Hey, we made the turn Ok? Ker at 7'11 — "Oh, look I need shampoo." (Hom, you want some tea with that?) Nicotine breaks at Farrell Field. "Jaime, do you think it is bad that I don't like any of my friends?" "No, just as long as you like me. Wait, you do like me don't you?" "Uh, su

LAURA BREE JORDANNA

We do more now than two people should probably do, between swimming, dancing, track, karate, the T.V. Studio, the student council, musicals, the yearbook, and everything else we forgot to mention two weeks might go by and the most we'll get to talk is a quick "Hi" in the hall, but somehow we've always been able to continue right where we left off. We became friends about 3 years ago going to some swim meet, we were both just thrilled to have someone to talk to on the bus, we didn't realize that we would soon become best of friends. The summer we met: no more blind dates, and if we can't resist, CALL FIRST. The yellow jeep, Jordanna's glasses are still up in the reservation. Laura's pool party, Jordanna misses that one and then 3 more. School starts: Superbowl party, freshman at the prom, Laura's at the next one . . . Jordanna, this is our last chance to overlap! Work on it! Laura is the only one who has a good time at Homecoming and then there was Laura's Yale guy! Can't top that. Jordanna, remind me that guys whose names begin with D don't tend to work with me. Great Adventure — Jordanna's in the bathing suit, then slept all the way home. We get makeovers, "can I just get the lipstick." New Years Eve with Seth and the pogo stick. Train to Morristown . . . Jordanna, do we remember what that movie was about? We go to some music thing in some park. Clinton/Gore Campaign. Kitchen Camaro! Jordanna, you are going to wear a dress (and the shoes), Sam and I are. Dan is just one of the girls, that was fun, Jordanna take the pictures, let's go order a pizza. Jordanna's friends from Long Island. Sexual harassment assembly, oh boy. Jordanna and her camera and Laura and her video camera, it's attached. Christmas Eve Party, didn't start till 12, then Leora and her cheap stuff, who got stuck cleaning it all up, that's a true friend. Jordanna manages the swim team "everybody smile", nice try Jordanna. What Jordanna does in the darkroom is her business. Stuff Shirt . . . girls dressed, guys NOT. Lifeguarding at the MCP every summer. Jordanna's stuck in Newark with no ride. Laura picks Jordanna up a block from her house because her mom won't let her walk home in the dark! We are talking about a girl who is a month away from getting her black belt. Let's go get (free) yogurt and wallow our problems in it. Laura is forever sequining. Mickey Mouse shirts.

Jeff and Brian — Stay out west and stay sober. L finally got his license, still owes Jordanna dinner. X — if it's not too much trouble, I'd like my dress back. Laura - I will always love you.

Jordanna

Jordanna — School is not going to be the same without you. I'm gonna miss

Love always — Laura

"You are the fellow who has to decide, whether you'll do it or toss it aside."

It all started during Lax season '92. And now, 3 years later, we have Lax to thank for one of the strongest friendships we have. Through the good times and the bad — Chinese food (Is that a hair in there?), endless phone conversations, our first and hopefully only conflict (Justin), Lax, wrestling, hair trouble (J — remember when you used to where your hair . . . Shut up — R!) Baskin Robbins kids cones . . . clowns scare me., Irvington at 2 a.m. (thanks Leah), Boxing (J's foot in Scott's mouth), no curfew? (Hey R, can I sleep over), You sleep with your eyes open?, Yo . . . the limo ride to the village and alternative art (Thanks Linda), his name was what Carlos and Orgy?, Vinnie + Doug, J's obsession with P-man (I'm over him, I swear. I really am this time), R. obsession w/U.N. and junior (He doesn't like me, yes he does!), tutoring, hiking through the reservation (where's that *!# waterfall?), when are you getting your damn license R?, what the hell is that?, uhm-uhm, Communications vs. Astronomy (which one would you rather be in?), love songs, Free Willy, PAT . . . wrestling: the things that you can see are amazing, Lax mngrs #1, Look at those b . . . (Montclair), Wild World, let me tell you about the birds and the bees . . . , How old are you 26? (Mr. S), My name is not Jane!, Dave, fill up that black book yet? I ain't no damn maid. N.Y. — Hard Rock Cafe, Greenwich Village (is that a guy or a girl?), Pink Pussycat, Condommania — U2, Pearl Jam, Nirvana, Journey, Simple Minds, Sting, Led Zeppelin, R.E.M., Police, Eric C. — Wonderful Tonight, Open Arms . . . Mischa and Alena You guys are #1. Alena with her animal men (eagle man, rooster man), Vicki African studies!, Arielle, Billy Davis, James Grier you guys are #1, Hi-Tops is in the house!! Mr. Bridges too bad you are gone. Mona Meredith, Holly, What's up! Taryn D, — I wish you luck in college.

Don't do anything I wouldn't.

Leah — To my best friend in the world! I will always love you, you are like my sister. Good luck in college and can't wait till our future! Scott F — You have always been there for me in my times of need. I could never thank you enough. (and Justin) I hope that we remain friends in Linda I — Girl, Just know that I've known you forever and the years have gone by too fast. We have had a lot of good and bad memories but I believe all of the good ones will smother out the bad. I wish you luck in whatever you do. (keep up with that alternative art . . . Wichard, Paw!!! I think someone lost a oreo) love Rasheedah.

Jan — My God, these four years have gone by too fast for me. I wish that there was more time for us. I swear, I'm going to miss you. Too bad that you have one more year. Don't worry Your senior year will be the best, but only if you make the best of it. I hope that we keep in touch after I graduate. I wish you luck and I see in our future more good times and I see a dream of yours soon becoming reality. You'll know it when it comes. Your like a sister and I'll always look out for you so don't you forget that. love Rasheedah Rasheedah — I can't believe you're leaving me. Don't go too far and STAY IN TOUCH! Good luck at school, don't do anything I wouldn't do. I'm Going to miss you so much! I don't think I could of survived that 3 years without you. Thank you for always being there for me and I hope you know I will always be there for you. Its great to know that you're always there to protect me big sis. Remember, in 15 years, we're going to be raising our children together. I'll love you always, Jan.

Kair — only one more year to go! I hope it doesn't go too fast because it's going to be the best year of our lives. You are my best friend and I hope it stays that way forever. Love always, Jan.

Syncia — Too bad we didn't do this together. I wish you luck in college. We might just see each other there. love always, Rasheedah.

Christi - Uh, uh, yeah, cool, fire! Depeche Mode concert, Your first time at Hard Rock Cafe, It was cool. I hope we keep adding on more cool memories. Love Rasheedah and Jan.

It all began in elementary school when we hated each other, then for some reason we became friends! On to middle school we went. One was at SOMS and one was at MMS. The first time we saw each other again was at a batmitzvah where we rekindled our old friendship. And so it begins "long live the piromaniacs (UTBW)" "Even though you had reason to doubt me you never did Thank You for believing in me!" "Sara's little love triangle at A.F. party between M.W. and C.S. (oh what wonderful times)" "swimming at Kim's house" "Jess went to camp" "we were going to travel the world (what happened?)" "Columbia" "Teacher strike go to Shari's that was fun."

"The party's began" *Dave who?" *The soph guys' *Sara's parties" *chocolate in the face while simply eating chinese food" *a bath for three" Total Eclipse of the heart (Poconos)

The hydrox hairnet" *Candace under the train tracks (cough, cough) the light bulb! *Softball intramural" *Jess's party what ever happened there?" *Candaces house falling off the jungle gym (thanks for the help guys) The food fight *Cabana Club what memories "did you hear that noise? That noise in my Mouth."" *thrill rides airborne with a cop close behind the 4 of july do those people work in Burger King?" "Smoke? Inot me I have asthma *"Did you want those beads in or out of your hair?" *Goes Nappy like that?" *You always knew how to make me laugh "Who's bad!" *Is the garbage can on fire?" *Frying with in foil on the porch" *Sweet Sixteen and never been kissed *English (happy, happy, joy, joy) sara, jess can we stop the side conversations" "Congrats" "my car broke down!" "horseback riding (my horse was temperamental)" "Senior Year" "Greg's little surprise!" "New Years it was nice to be around"

Sara "Thanks for sticking by me through everything I know we'll continue to have long lasting memories, but always remember how much you mean to me. Your a great friend!"

Jess "Although we drifted apart over the years we both knew we were always here for each other, We had some great times together and more to come. Thanks for everything your a great person!"'

Jenn and Amy

How can you fit 17 yrs of friendship in a corner of a page? It all started w/Lee Lee — the play group before Ms Carol's — Next the big time: Marshall & Jefferson, where their memory goes back to - Sydney makes J faint on the pot & they chase Ralph for fun — Fiddler & ballet was their stage debut, which made them the Show Biz Kids they are (March Hare Mock Turtle, In the Jungle, Margo must DIE!) Making J cry at bus stop w/Sean W or Jeff K, or Greg throwing shoes - Barbies Jelly sandwiches and Lemonade stands — Ilana makes them pretty braces shine — Swimming party & McD's for fun or Amy's Bday at museum (cake w/chopsticks!) L & I teach them to eat cornflakes B4 they go ice skating to meet boys — Eton throws chalk at hebrew causing many hours in B-room. Across the C speaking Robinson's french fights begin — They mature into Mpwld vil & ES porch or as Jenn bt's at JP's - SL's & ear sweat - & the men EB DC SJ Sleepover w/MD EC EO JP, frnds sometimes fade away. Perf. again w/ Fables & Mick (I'm so excited . . .) Only chcks in hood for Sprise Part. & weekend fixes - NEW FRIENDS WE LUV U, thanks for all!

*A — Seventeen years have gone by so fast and I don't know where I'd be without you. Words alone cannot express what you mean to me. I'll love you always, Jenn.

*J — As I think back from the strongest moments in my life to the weakest, best to the worst & happiest to the most tragic, there isn't one where you haven't been there. Thank you always for the love and friendship, they'll last 4ever in my heart & won't be 4gotten! love, Amy

THE SPARANO'S

See! We told you the cover would not be gray.

Thank you to:

Gordon Lawshe and Herff-Jones Publishers for their hard work to ensure the success of our book.

Paul Tighe and the Normandy Studios for the numerous color photos.

Maya Angelou for excerpts from "On the Pulse Morning."

Dr. Weiss

The staff for their determination, hardwork, and commitment for the success of the 1994 Mirror.

The photography staff for the many hours spent shooting candids and for all the late afternoons spent in the darkrooms.

We especially thank Becky Gollin and Jessica Polk.

And a special thanks to our advisors:

Mrs. Pitman, Mrs. Coe, Mr. Ricciardi for their support and tireless effort.

Good luck Class of 1994!
