

MAPLEWOOD MEMORIAL LIBRARY Maplewood, New Jersey 07040

We're captive on the carousel of time
We can't return we can only look behind
From where we came

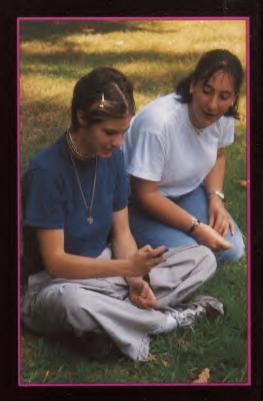

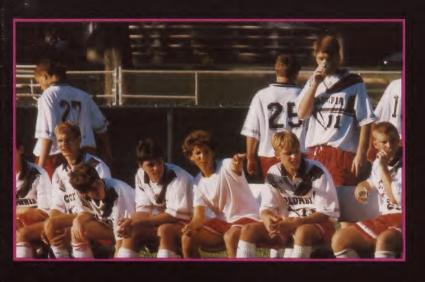

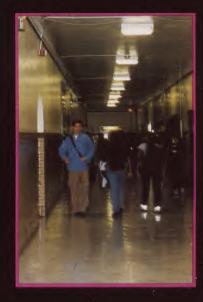

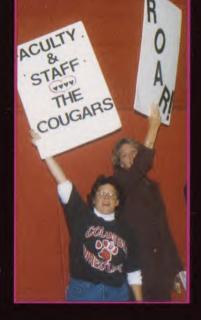

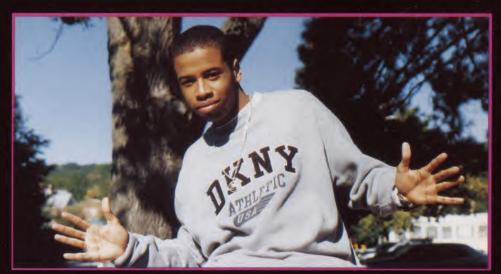

And go round and round and round In the circle game

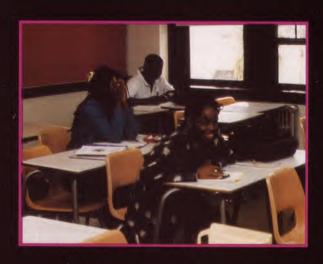

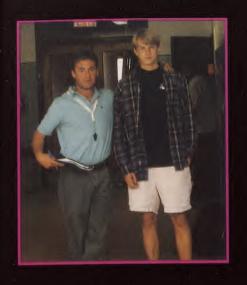

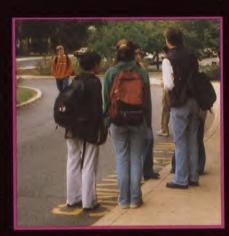

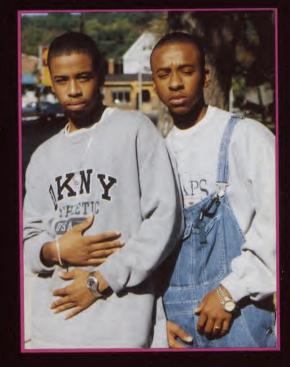

Yesterday a child came out to wonder Caught a dragonfly inside a jar

Fearful when the sky was full of thunder And tearful at the falling of a star

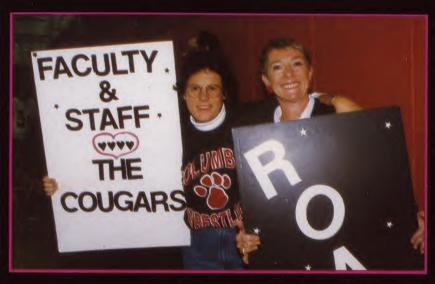

Words like when you're older, must appease him

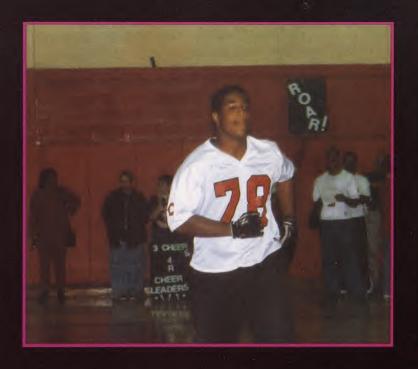

And promises of someday make his dreams
Sixteen springs and sixteen summers gone now Cartwheels turn to car wheels through the town

And they tell him, Take your time, it won't be long now 'Til you drag your feet to slow the circle down

Though his dreams have lost some grandeur coming true
There'll be new dreams, maybe better dreams and plenty
Before the last revolving year is through

We're captive on the carousel of time
We can't return we can only look behind
From where we came
And go round and round and round
In the circle game

CHEERLEADING

What a season it has been for the fall cheerleaders. Even though they lost several numbers of seniors last year they stayed and kept their hopes up. Their cheers gave the fans a sense of victory even in the time of defeat. The squad will lose another amount of seniors this year. The football team got a surprise this year. The football players give the fans a lot of credit. The cheerleaders are the ones who get credit for giving the fans a rush to cheer, shout, scream, jump and boo the other team. The whole school thanks the cheerleaders for their cheerful spirit. We all will be looking forward for the cheerleaders to not only do the same but more next year. Thanks.

Field Hockey

The 1997 Columbia Varsity Field Hockey Team enjoyed a very exciting season. Our season began as a young, new team with incredible junior and sophomore talent. But by the end of the season, we were playing as a very unified team. At the end of our season, our record was 5-9-1. Our record did not provide a sufficient record of our abilities. The leading scorer of the 1997 Columbia Varsity Field Hockey team was three year varsity senior Amy Schwartz. Next year's team has much prospect and will be a strong team and possible state competitors.

Boys Soccer

With only four returning starters and one starting senior, the Columbia Boys Soccer Team enjoyed another successful season with a final record of 18-5-1. The team was declared county co-champions, won the Iron Hills Conference, and was a state-semifinalist, losing to Roxbury 1-0 in overtime.

The young squad, led by captains Tamu Bowen, Jon Garber, and Dan Zauber, posted 11 shutouts, giving up only 12 goals while scoring 47.

In goal were juniors Alex Mann and Mike Nwaneri with juniors Neal Kumar and Austin Lehn and sophomore Mike Farah making the rest of the defense. The strong underclass midfield included freshman Mike Garea and sophomores Pat Glennon and Dan Lovitz, while the forward line was complemented with juniors Charles Alcine and Dave McClair.

The strong team had a fine season, bettering the previous years record by four wins. With 10 starters returning next year, the team looks to use its experience and depth of players to do even better.

The girls varsity soccer team finished the season with a 10-9-1 record. Led by captains, Anjali Kumar, Sarit Bar-Am, Jill Martucci, and Junior standout Catherine Joyce the team made it all the way to the Essex County Tournament finals. Although the team did not win the county championship, Coach Danielle Gretchman still believes the team did much better than expected and she knows she will have a strong returning team for next season. The high point of the season was the four game winning streak they had towards the end of the season. The team showed that they can be dominant and they are not a team that can be looked over. During this stretch the team was fueled by excellent play from outstanding goal tending from Shannon Mason, and outstanding play from Junior Rebecca Irazarry, Sophomores Jaclyn Borrone, Sarah Kwiatkowski and Freshman Helen Kearney. The girls soccer team has an exciting future with all the young talent.

The CHS Gymnastics team enjoyed an exciting season led by senior captains Caitlin Buttor-Foederl and Elana Blatt. The Cougars ended the season with a 9-4 record, highlighted by a first place win in the Raider Tournament against seven other local teams.

This years gymnastics team included 20 members, the largest team in Cougar history. The team was exploding with talent including all-around competitors Caitlin Buttor-Foederl, Jenn Barnes, Bridgette Ingram, Kate Reuter and Julie Stein. Juniors Sarah Style and Mara Ostfeld were strong scorers for the Cougars on the bars/beam and vault/floor respectively while Kim Ramones was a constant on the balance beam and floor exercise. Juniors Amy Beverly and Carolyn Wolfe were individual vaulters, also contributing to the team's success.

The Gymnastics Team proudly ended their season with a third place team standing in the State Sectional meet, finishing above many of their rival opponents. Jenn Barnes and Bridgette Ingram represented Columbia High School in the State meet, competing as individuals on floor exercise and Allaround.

Boys Cross Country

The boys team did a great job of handling adversity this year. Probably their task this year was to work on their consistency. Despite losing many of their top varsity members, they had a strong season. Bolstered by the 7th place finish of Eddie La Pierre '99, the boys finished a very strong second in the Essex County meet at Brachbrook park in Newark. La Pierre was named All-Area runner of the year and was joined by captain Colin Kennedy '98, and Colin Brown '00 in receiving first team All-Area honors. The rest of the boys top seven runners include James Abruzzo '99, Shawn McClure '99, Peter Joseph '00, and Duran Williams '98. "The boys have a lot to look forward to next year. A lot of the seniors who have been running for four years will need to step up and be leaders."

Girls Cross Country

"This year's team was one of the best I have ever coached," said veteran coach Len Klepack. The girls finished the season with a 7-1 record. They lost only to Randolph, who they were able to beat in their state sectional victory at Warinanco Park in Elizabeth. This victory gained them a position in the state meet at Holmdel park. Senior captains Catherine Casey and Dara Crockerwere able to qualify for Meet of Champions in that race. The girls team was also county champions for the fourth year in a row. Casey, the consistent lead runner, placed first in the Stuart Memorial Invitational. She also placed an amazing 14th in the state at the Meet of Champions in Holmdel on the state course, earning her the distinction of being named first team All State. The rest of the team's top seven runners include senior captain Natalie Deffenbaugh, senior Simms, soccer convert Amina Zohny '00, Lauren Peach '00, and Fatima Garuba '00. "No one could've predicted the success this group had, but they worked hard and it paid off," said Klepack. With three of the team's seven runners returning and a lot of other young talent, next season looks to be very promising.

The 1997 Girls Tennis Team completed the season with an impressive 15-9 record. At the first singles spot was senior Cristin Conway, who battled her way through numerous intense matches against some of the best players in the state. Behind Conway was senior Tara Haas in the second singles position who finished with an almost perfect season after playing many impressive matches. The third singles player, sophomore Amanda Kennedy, put in a tremendous effort to propel herself to a near perfect season. The doubles line up changed frequently due to injury, conflict and improvement among the players. Filling these spots were senior Caroline Pew, senior Jessica Marx, junior Amy Schwinder, sophomore Priscilla Davies, and sophomore Rebecca Robin. Captains Haas and Conway led the team to the Consolation Match crown in the County Tournament.

Boys Track

The boys indoor track team did not win any titles this year, but the season was far from disappointing. This was a year of outstanding individual performances. Veteran coach Len Klepack believed the most memorable moment of the season was Wole Ogunkoya, '98, winning the high hurdles at states. He also won the Essex County individual high hurdles. Senior captain Jon Garbar won the 600m at Conferences with a personal record in that event. The team will miss Garbar, and the multi-event talent of senior captain Dujuan Williams next year, but there is a lot of talent left on the team. The distance squad is made up entirely of sophomores who have already demonstrated a great deal of talent. Sophomores Kyle Jasey, Peter Joseph, and Colin Brown can be expected to make an impact on the state level next year. Add to that middle distance runner, Leiran Baldwin, 'oo, and next year is looking very promising. Coach Klepack believes that the team next year has a lot to look forward to, and unlimited potential if they keep working hard.

Girls Track

The girls indoor track season has been a memorable one, and a great deal of credit goes to veteran Coach Len Klepack. He prepares this team for every meet. Senior captain Catherine Casey, as well as senior captains Dara Crocker and Natalie Deffenbaugh have been training under Klepack for four years. The girls team won an unprecedented fifth straight Group IV state title. Crocker, Casey, and Deffenbaugh were joined by Bridgette Ingram, '99, Amina Zohny, 'oo, Adrienne Ashford, 'oo, Nneka Offor '99, and Geneva Paul, '99 in that victory. Senior sprint captains Taiisa Telesford and Shermian Daniel contributed greatly to the girls winning their fourth straight Essex County Individual and Relay titles. At the National Scholastic meet, held in Boston, Casey, Deffenbaugh, Zohny, and Crocker combined to win the 4x800m relay, setting a meet record. Crocker, Deffenbaugh, Zohny, and Ashford placed third in the distance medley relay. Bridgette Ingram placed second in the pentatholon. All six received All-American honors. Other strong contributors to the team in the Conference and County victories were Fatima Garuba, 'oo, and Andrea Mathews, 'oo. Look for these and other young talents to be leading the team next year.

Boys Basketball

Led by Seniors Douglas Thompson, Carl Thompson (Co-captain), Steve Witherspoon, and Jared Adams (Co-captain), the Cougar Boys are continuing their winning ways by playing competitive league county and state basketball. Point Guard Senior Carl Thompson led the Cougars in assists and was second in scoring. Doug Thompson, 6'4", small forward, averaged 12.3 points per game and 12 rebounds. Another senior, Jared Adams was one of the county's best six men and his quiet leadership skills were evident the entire season. Senior center Steve Witherspoon led the Cougars in reboundings and blocks (12.3 and 3.4 per game respectively). The team has a fine crop of underclassmen returning led by Frosh Aaron Davis and Junior Howard Williams. Another Junior, Keith Middleton promises to be a steady influence on the rest of the team. The underclass who could contribute are Jr. Guard Donald Glenn, Jr., Forward Elton Pierre, Sophomore Darian Roopnarine, Junior Michael Drechsel, Sophomore Joaquin Cotler and other players on this year's J.V. and Freshman Teams. The team went to the State Playoffs again this year.

Girls Basketball

This year's Lady Cougar Basketball team was off to a record-setting start. They set tremendous goals for themselves right from the start of the season. Each member of the team knew. would have to play as a team at all times . . . and they did. From the first game of the season, there was no sign of anxiety or "butterflies". Our team came ready to play, and knocked off a big conference rival, Randolph. For the third consecutive year, the Lady Cougars captured the Cranford Christmas Tournament title. The great memorable moments of the season started with the return of Senior Guard Stacey Townsend, who had been sidelined last season with a knee injury. Senior Jazmine

Wright reached the 2000th point mark, and is the seventh female in history to accomplish this goal. Her mother, Coach Johanna Wright, reached her 300th career win. The in order to accomplish each goal they team qualified for the Tournament of Champions Championships, where they lost their first game of the season. Marcie Dickson, Schrleya Massey, MO Akiode, and some of the bench reserves came ready to play. Marcie gained MVP of the Group IV Title Game.

This year's Lady Cougars gained respect, fans and fame with their remarkable team play. Next season they look forward to making a run at the State Tournament again. We are proud of you ladies!

Swimming

The 1997-1998 Girls and Boys Swim teams exceeded expectations this year. Led by captains Claudia Greenman, Sarah Budin, and Caitlin Butter-Foederl, the girls had a record of 7-6-1, and advanced to the first round of the state tournament. The team's leading points earner was sophomore Rebecca Shore, who earned victory at the Essex county championships in the 200 IM. A highlight for her was her performance at the individual state championships, where she took 8th in the same event.

The boys team experienced their third coach in as many years. Captains Paul Rotondi, Eddie LaPierre, and Robert Reyes lead the team to an improved year, and one in which many new young members were added. The team struggled to record victories because of their small roster, with a record of 4-10. However, the future looks bright. Sophomore Kevin Nervi asserted himself as one of the top mens freestylers of the conference, earning all-conference honorable mention. With Rotondi as the only graduating senior, the boys have a bright future to look forward to, one that new coach Paul Di-Simone is excited about.

Both squads have young talent that will develop in the years to come. The girls will be looking to advance from there 6th place finish in the Iron Hills Conference, and to move up one more spot in the county to Number 1. The boys will have a more veteran team next year, and will be a stronger force to be reckoned with.

The Cougar Grapplers, led by Captains Romaine Cochrane ('98), John Dynan ('99), and Jeremiah Fleming ('99), finished #4 in the Essex County Final Poll this year. The varsity squad, comprised of 2 seniors, 12 returning starters, and 17 returning letter winners ended the season with an impressive record of 11-5; the JV team finished 14-2.

Instructed and encouraged by the efforts of Head Coach David Brothers and Assistant Coaches Hal Garwin, Chris Strazza, and Pete Zimmerman, this juniordominated squad completed a fine season which sent Cochrane, Fleming, Krupnick, and Wilson to the regionals (CHS was ranked #10 in the Final Top Region 3 Coaches' Poll), and Fleming (2nd in Region 3) to Atlantic City for the states.

Other season highlights include the Rahway Tourney (Fleming 1st; Krupnick 2nd; Betta, Dynan, Richardson, and Wilson 3rd), the Essex County Tourney (Fleming 1st; Krupnick 3rd; Richardson 4th; Cochrane & Dynan 5th), and the Districts (Fleming & Krupnick 2nd; Cochrane & Wilson 3rd).

The hard work and dedication of the team resulted in their most wins since 1991.

Together we laugh at the D'Arcy's and Bundy's We like Truffles and Res, but love our hot fudge sundaes.

To get more than a one word answer from you, surely is a trick.

And yes, girls do know about sports and can make their own picks.

You can't hide a thing behind your sly, little smile And the stuff beneath your desk, could stretch for a mile.

No one loves you more than Mom; I've said it from day one
And no Mom could be prouder, than I, to have you for a son.

It has meant so much to me to share the last 17 years — field trips, parties, friends, watching you grow up. I'm so proud of everything you've done in and out of school, without my help. You can always be counted on to keep your word, whether it's doing something I asked or showing up on time. You are a wonderful role model for Aaron, Ethan, and Lauren, in addition to caring for them when I can't be there. I feel lucky and proud to be your mother. I love you very much,

Mom

I've been privileged to watch you grow. Never stop reaching for your dreams and keep sharing that shy smile.

Lauren,

Take time to listen to the song of your soul — a song of life, and dreams, and wisdom. Stay true to yourself in this great adventure you're about to begin and you'll never go wrong. We are so very proud of the person you've become and love you more than words could ever say.

Love, Hugs, and Kisses

Mom and Dad

Chance made us sisters, hearts made us friends ... Lauren, I have learned so many things from you, I cannot describe how much I will miss you! Now it's time for you to go and chase your many dreams and to become who you want to be. Laur, don't ever change for anyone but yourself and remember always to follow your heart.

Love always,

Your little sis — Katie

Justin,

It is said that the most important things you can give your child are "roots and wings." We hope we have given you roots. Now it is time to test out those wings.

We wish you much happiness and success as you go off to college. Always remember how much pride and love we have for you.

Mom, Dad and Adam

Congratulations Shera. Have fun at Ithaca.

Love, Mommy and Daddy (and Oscar)

Always remember how much we love and support you . . . And in the infamous words of Mr. Rogers, "We hope that you're as proud as we are".

Mom, Dad, Cleo, and Abbey

"To be nobody-but-yourself — in a world which is doing its best night and day, to make you everybody but yourself — means to fight the hardest battle which any human being can fight, and never stop fighting."

E.E. Cummings

"And every day
Is just a little more
Of time together
To be happy for.
I'm happy even when
The times are rough
Cause anytime with you
Is good enough
When we love like we do."

Edie Brickell

I love you Dayna You will stand many times at a crossroad in life, Just as you're standing now.

And no one can tell you which way to go
Or what you should do or how.

Yours is the choice—may you follow your dreams And believe in yourself all the way. As you journey along with your eyes on the stars And with hope in your heart day by day.

Your future is bright with promise— For whatever you may do, Your best and greatest asset Is the simple fact you're you-

We love you and look forward to sharing in the joy of all your accomplishments in the future.. Grandpa Ben, Uncle Donald, Aunt Anne., Uncle Henry, Amanda and Marc Hold on to Your Dreams as the years unfold.

Don't compromise the ideals that you hold....

For the history's pages are written the deeds

Of those who had courage to live by their creeds,

Who held on to their dreams and at last achieved

The lofty goals in which they believed.

So be true to yourself in all that you do,

Reach for the stars, and your dreams will come true.

Amanda Bradley

Jen, watching you grow and discover your own unique talents Has been a journey we have been blessed to share..

Words do not do justice to the love we feel nor how proud we Are in the person you have become...

What an incredible "gift" you have continually been..

AMY AND DEVON

I will gain and lose many things in my life, but never the memories with friends.

Meeting sophomore year because of our sisters — "you have to be best friends because we are"; double dates in Bagel; a night out at Jess's with the older girls, Amy couldn't handle it, but Devon found it easy linked with her sister; attempted to walk to BH's house, didn't quite make it, and was surprised by their appearance back at Jess's; Dan and Dayna got a little mad; back at David's, DC couldn't make it up the icy hill, bringing down MO-DO tried rescue while laughing and fell himself; late night swim at JS's made for late night at DC's - Cleo couldn't handle the gum but NB enjoyed his z's - slumber party of 5; FGH - in a van - with JS and GM more stares were possible; surprise visitor at the telephone, VIP passes for all; FGH #2 Amy and SB leave the rest behind — but later on tears were shed when confronted by SB, DC, CC, and AS - Amy tries to convince Devon that MS didn't see her; another trip to our "fruitful acre" - bar tender lets Devon's secret out while the go-go girls danced next door — the trip home wasn't so successful, winding up in Newark Amy, don't cry!; Doc yells about gleeking but does it himself - lab group*; Amy's 17th, BBQ ends up at BH's for a little fus ball - cruizin' in the Jetta wtih SB "Slooow doooown!"; Devon celebrates in the wrapped S. machine — didn't realize it's name would come through — stop pulling on my seat belt, leave it up to MO to adjust the mirror; FGH post party, back at DC's — Amy hears shocking news — the girls refuse to sleep in the already occupied bed; secrets, it's all secrets - surprise friend pops up everywhere with unexpected gifts - some "sneakers" from the "heepies"; New Years party scares Devon because of the happy Abby — but we laugh; a little run in with an old enemy causes Devon to switch rooms, RJ laughs - Amy tries to cut her night short, but Dan and Devon won't let her - don't worry, she's just

Every once in a while, I wish it was then instead of now.

To Dayna, Danielle, and Jess — Thanks for everything. We couldn't have been without you. We love you and miss you!

Love,

Amy and Devon

*Some people come into our lives and quickly go. Some people move our souls to dance. They stay in our lives for a while, leave footprints on our hearts and we are never ever the same *

AMY & CATHERINE

7th grade and the girl from Belgium arrives. Amy saves her from the other group. Catherine knows she found a true friend. 8th grade and we stick together. Tears in class don't stop us from winning limbo. Still can't get rid of "tics". Washington trip traumatizes AS b/c we discover her true love. Sleepovers were great until we realize we don't like half of the people. hacam??. Catherine finds a younger love but wishes she didn't. Catherine has trouble with fire and gets the fun gel. Amy is jealous. Dot game kept us occupied during movies. Field hockey and lacrosse begin but Amy will soon realize Catherine quits. It was fun for what lasted — 1 season?!?!. 9th grade -- high school. Luckily we had some classes together. Anyone for Hoagie's pizza?. Too bad he couldn't tell us apart. Catherine and Amy stop talking!!. We're cool - stretch pants, boots and jean shirts overalls every other day. Field hockey Catherine is tormented. Too bad our sticks had names. Catherine tries to be goalie but is not allowed. Catherine is that your skirt on the field?. Lacrosse clinic begins but only Amy continues. Catherine runs forever. Sleepovers continue. Jezzball anyone?. Comfort me softly. Apple pancakes and blue berry muffins. Wait do we still play dolls?. Let's sneak to AS house. 10th grade and track takes over Catherine. Amy can't keep up with the track star. Amy still plays field hockey and lacrosse. They made a movie about us!. Cathrine's calculator disappears. We don't have it!. We bond with R but still can't handle math. The grades begin to slip. Dan get license. Snow causes accident. Catherine's thumb is still sore. 11th grade was disappointing. No classes together. Phone keeps us connected but not as much. Is that pizza and french fries you are eating?. The collection of babies begins!. They are so cute. Teams took up most of our time. Dan leaves us. Amy gets license and drives to see Catherine be dragged away. Vacations cause us to be apart for summer. We still managed to take a few swims. 12th grade finally together again. Amy teaches Catherine to eat fast when she comes. Catherine still waits for the boat. See any weird movies lately? Babysitting takes over our weekends. Math parties. Both have interesting encounters. Catherine wishes it never happened. Amy wants to be friends. I saw her again — she is everywhere!. College applications are done for Amy but Catherine tries not to do any. Have you applied anywhere yet? The deadline is a week away. Just like in our movie things will be THEN just as they are NOW.

The way I see it you only make a once in a lifetime friend once in a while

H & SF split again. H leaves for Ohio & comes back w/another to chalk up to experience. H & SF get back together. Party at M's — only NM, A, H, M, CD & SF allowed. CD & M and H & SF leave for awhile. M don't tell Al please! New Year's Eve in the city — BT in concert. M & CD iffy. Search brings us closer — we find a guy in common — "that boy in the green hat". H gets M's guy of dreams. "Just Wait" H leaves for Mexico — another boy! M goes to Winter Weekend. Bff w/Snatch. M falls in love w/JV forever! H & SF done for good this time. H moves on to BH! M goes to prom. H is soo jealous. Junior year is over. H finally gets driving privileges. F.H. camp — Rob the trainer, I swear I have blisters somewhere. M goes to Bahamas & finds some boys. 12th grade — Seniors. F.H. — captains together. But H has shin splints so she can't run but can still play. Pretend boyfriend #1 — KW! New friends w/ AW. Bff w/KW & CF. Homewcoming. JS's house. Sorry no seniors allowed — JRK. M bff w/JR. "We're just friends" Eric's sure we don't mind being the only girls — but wait we're not LL showed up. How about a trip to starbucks? College applications done & we remained sane. H gets into BC & M gets into PSC. Hey we might only be 2 hours away!!

Amy & Heidi

We met at the bus stop before first grade and we have been friends ever since. Ist — Luck brought us into the same class, Mrs. McMahon. mw & ct fight for A. As H loses it all over her math book. What color bus do you take H? Uhh Yellow! 2nd — Same class again — Mrs. Chin's Chinese cooking. You want ten lashes with a wet noodle? A gets to ride on turkey b/c she is smallest in the class. A makes H write for her when she breaks her arm even though she could write. SRA reading dittos with prizes at the end. Learned all state capitals and flags, and quizzed ourselves at Bunnys. For Mrs. Chin's retirement we planted a tree, too bad A couldn't make it. Good thing we helped her clean out her room, we got more books to play school with. Then began our gymnastics careers with Joylynn, and our coach couldn't tell us apart along with our moms. 3rd — Same class yet again — Mrs. Nichols. Our favorite teacher who can still tell us apart. H becomes friends w/sm. A jealous and gets to go to extra popcorn party with lh. 4th & 5th — Gymnastics took over our lives. We began on pre-team with the rainbow leotards. Cathy the porcupine and Michelle with her nails made up our floor routines., A — Some where out there & lean on me, H-NY NY. Gymnastics practices were followed by a sleepover at each other's house. Chocolate donuts and apple pancakes were our usual breakfast foods. ms hates H and causes more pain on CAD days. CCD was begun with Drake's coffee cakes, twig, or oreo's. We made our musical debut playing the clarinet in the Jefferson Band. But dropped it quickly when we got to MM... 6th — Started MM. off by being late every day b/c of kp & whs. got her nickname "little Amy" from arr. finally made it into the 5'0" club, years later. H discovers boys & talks about whales and tissues. But lost first boy to lb. We stepped our gymnastics a level and made it to C-team. With new and better coaches — Emily and Gina. We finally decide we are big enough to go to sleep away camp — IGC here we come! Horses aren't as scary as they seem jb. 7th — New girl arrives from Belgium. And won't allow her to sit with the other girls in English. Finally make it to B-team with d & s. H makes it to nationals w/d but d refuses to go. 8th — cc and A become bff but A & H still win award. Girls in the back, ef's obsession w/H wasn't appreciated then but would be now. HACAM??? Washington trip brought us closer and wouldn't let m in our room. Who are the chickens and their chicken keepers. Is that a horse — no it's mb. A & H take a trip to Mexico. D learns she is deathly afraid of fish. H & D tried wind surfing but weren't strong enough. Racing through the ocean on the kayaks against D & E was always a favorite. H goes to dinner dance with ms but wishes she had gone with bh. A had a set date with ck. Summer before 9th grade began our annual trip to Duck. Sorry we don't know what time it is, and stop following us. Fairview lake camp w/ the entire cabin from Maplewood. Oprah was the cabin mascot flying around cabin. ak's green shoes that couldn't get dirty. 9th — We gave up gymnastics to pursue a career in field hockey. A & H follow each other around on the field, but we had a winning season. Who won the tripping contests? No one ever wanted to be the goal. And continuous fighting with lb. H gets her first and only yellow card against Booton. Another trip to Duck and more stalking, this time by 10 year olds. Shooting stars and dolphins were the daily thrills. Jet skiing was fun until D & A get into an accident. Sorry you boys got thrown off. 10th — A & H's field hockey careers take off — Varsity. Block w/Knox — He's a nice boy! Not really. H joins cult — MYF. H meets all of her boys. H goes on a date and gets haircut from a barber the same weekend. A & H disappoint themselves and bring home their first C's. A decides to leave her house. 11th - ms gets license and the stalking begins. Whose license plate was that H? But it's too bad we got caught every time. Field Hockey won sectional champs — second year. We go stalking in Livingston with decorated car. 12th — Field Hockey brings us back together again. FH was fun but it wouldn't have been as great without kd. Who wants to wear the captain band. Not Me!! I Do!!! Is there a spy on the team. kd kept us up to date when we were in trouble. But we always had opeg on our backs. FH ends and A & H decide to join the Summit Y. We go everyday to burn off the calories from our lunches at Bagel. Too bad A never burns as many calories as H. 6th lunch has all the boys and the little sophomore girls to stand there and look good for them. Stalking the mailman was a necessity. Unfortunate for A but not for H.

Twelve years of friendship. We have shared so many special times from playing barbies, taking walks in the reservation, the annual Father's Day parties, the water balloon fights, and of course our countless ski trips. We have always been able to share our problems and give each other advice. This friendship has grown over the past twelve years and our memories will last forever. Thank you Moms, Dads, Danielle, and Erik. All of you helped us grow up to be the girls we are today.

* If I had never met you, I wouldn't like you.
If I didn't like you, I wouldn't love you.
If I didn't love you, I wouldn't miss you.
But I did, I do, and I will

Amy — I don't know where to start. Twelve years, and you have been one of the most important and influential people in my life. You have been a constant part of my life in Maplewood and I can't imagine leaving you next year. I don't know what I am going to do with out you right there next to me. I know we had our difficult times but we worked through them. There has never been a time when in our friendship when I didn't trust you or felt I could not share something with you. You're like a sister to me and I don't know how to thank you for that. You always know how to make me smile and forget about my problems. I will never forget you or the memorable times we have shared. I love you, you truly are my best friend. Love, Heidi

Heidi — Where do I start. You have been such a great friend to me for twelve years. You were always there to listen to all my little stories or problems and were willing to give me advice on what to do. You have been such an important person in my live and I can't imagine what it is going to be like next year. The special friendship we had can never be replaced or forgotten. I will miss you next year. I love you!! Love, Amy

*MARISA * CAITLIN * ESTHER*

There's a story of three hot ladies, who became the very best friends in the world. They all went to school together, but hung out in three separate groups. They would not have known each other if it were not for Ms. Hicks and Special Dance.

It all started sophomore year, Esther and Marisa sat next to each other in French, and Esther and Caitlin were in the same homeroom. We were all familiar faces in a big crowd, but Special Dance created a unique bond that would last forever. Our long rehearsals and tiresome practices turned our relationship from acquaintances to good friends. Outside of school, Esther and Caitlin had sequin parties while Marisa's mom made her skirt for her. Our first adventure together was New Year's. Cait's mom wouldn't let her go (BIG SURPRISE) to Mar's bro's party. Instead they went to first night (walked down SO ave), and tried to wander off to PL's house. We detoured to SOMS br for M's personal reasons, and then ventured back to the house, staring at dark windows for 15 min. Rescused by LM and IS, they went to their first JF party, one that would leave a lasting impression on Mar. The only sophomores, we danced and felt a little out of place. Back to the fireworks as we promised, we were escorted by Cait's stepdad back home for our funfilled NYE sleepover, while the restf four friends partied at FN's. Special Dance show . . . mysterious passenger in the front seat . . . funny how things end up. Feb vacation, Est at PR with senior girls, Cait's got a new interest, and Mar's a pure angel. Weekend before CC's house, Est and company waits for Cait's big move. GC took things slow ... very slow, but they become a couple. Est has a new interest and borrowed ... well stole, TZ video. Next weekend, snow day at CC's, Est's got a new man ... AA. Mar's first party, AT, (another coincidence), C and E escape upstairs, leaving Mar to fend for herself. E helping out the sickling, c's come, and E risks her life on the way home. Next weekend, PL's . . . E and M walk in the cold, (C's grounded) and E brings boy over to surprise daddy. AA fades away, but GC still goin strong. RW's house in June, soph girls and sen guys. Sen guys want to come to swim, but C says no. Long talks with Mar's bro, while C cries. C and E's sweet sixteen, BM delivers pizza;) C goes to camp, E goes to ADF, M's left alone, Junior year ... where's SD?C sweat SM, E sweats JI. Through cheerleading, E and M meet JS. On first date, E almost dies, JI asks her out . . . shortest rel in hist. Homecoming . . . C's man takes sen girl, E goes with JI, M stalks her man. After party at AW... where's E? Back to M's with LL. What a night, E cries now. AM's big bash, 007 break it up. C's chased through the woods. Nov brings new found freedom. L invites 50 people to m's, party on front lawn while parents are sleeping, E stays to clean up. T-dog and C almost a couple. This little party leads to M and E being kicked out at FN. It's Ok, we had fun at CR anyway. C's in Boston. Feb vac, E has a sleepover . . . big mistake. MW's party, E breaks down, because friends are out of control. C gets her goal, M's big night. MR saves E, C and RM walk home in the snow. LL breaks down, C denies the accusation. Valentine's day, E gets surprise in HR. Fun night with mute boys. D cannot work the stereo. E has new love, C and M have competition. Mar — E gets her license. Ap — C and M's jungle fever party (PR & M's man) — TS interrupts M's fun. SD is a big hit in May. E and C are stuck again decorating togas while M's mom does it for her again. cast party . . . E goes to bed early, M and C get yelled at on the trampoline. M starts craze . . . how big was it? Many nights spent stalking with LL. C's send off party . . . M breaks down, where is e's camera . . . dirty pics. Summer . . . C's gone . . . falls in love, M's most productive summer ever (fate takes its toll). SI's party results in E's freedom, all rooms occupied, M has to wait. Next morn, E and M take physical . . . not in good shape. M lifeguards, E works at camp. E goes to Ca, and falls in love (with Stan). End of summer brings C and ends Craze . . . E is glad. E and C disapproves of M's late night interest. Summer of NP's house. Junior boys end the summer — C and PK. SENIORS ... now we'll rule the school ... too bad we're still treated like sophs. Watched DnC night before school . . . too bad we can't repeat the past. M shines at DA's. (NB and BH) DA and M are buds. Cheerleading in EO, victory for Col and M — phonzi. C and E have their eyes on little boys. M and AH are talking. E gets call from C's stalker. Senior homecoming, all leave early x-cept M, L and J. C and E are not allowed at JB. NB's — C and C with youngins, M's late night fun, E stalks. Thanksgiving . . . M's thankful for ALL she has. SD's VERY Different — Yeah, Jock Jams. EN's C gives E a late night visit. Victory for C -- molester. E's pure. College acceptances -- E gets into Stanford (looks forward to ca boys), M and C still wait. Christmasbalderdash at M's. C goes away for NYE, CR's — we're still treated like sophs. M's back in business ... E gets late night call — not for her. Last night, RJ's....lots of fun . . . parents very welcoming!? . . . And thats the way we became best friends!!!

Caitin — I cannot thank you enough for all of the deep talks we've had over the years. Your friendly little notes have always cheered me up during the hard times . . . you always kept me going, even when I felt like there was nowhere else to turn. It always cheers me up to see you each morning in homeroom, as we shared our latest news. I feel so fortunate to have a wonderful friend like you to laugh with and hang out with. It will be very hard for me to leave, and especially go so far away. I know that it will be difficult, but I know that we will stay friends forever. We have so many memories behind us, and so many left to be made.

Marisa — I am so lucky to have a great friend like you. Our dancing helped to bring us together, and continues to connect us. I must thank you for all of the late night calls, even when I felt so stressed out I could not talk . . . It always made me feel good to know that somebody cared. You have been there for me so many times, and we have shared so many laughs. It will be hard to leave you, and I don't know what I will do without you. Our friendship will last forever, so I know that although we will go ii separate directions, we will end up in the same place.

I love you both more that words can explain. I am thankful to have such great best friends like you guys. — Esther

Marisa — I don't even know where to start. You are such an amazing person! You have a gift of always making me feel better, no matter what. I am so thankful that I have had you as my best friend. When I think back to my memories of high school, you are always there smiling with me. We have stuck together and never let each other down, that is what makes us so special. BP RULES!! I love you! — Boof

Esther — You are such a special person. Your warm smile has always made me feel happy, when I wasn't. Our endless deep conversations have brought us together, and we have stuck together through rough times. When I look back, I can't imagine being best friends with anyone else. Well, we made it, and I could not have done it without you . . . Best Friends Forever!

Caitlin — I love u so much and will miss you next year. You always understood me and always supported me in my sometimes wrong decisions. I owe you for starting my life. You have always been there for all my first and sometimes you were the cause of it. Even though we are going to be far apart next year, our memories will always be close to my heart.

Esther — No one besides you could cheer me up with just a smile. For all the times I can remember you have always had a warm heart. You have been there for me when I needed to talk even if it was just to listen to me tell my boring stories. You are an amazing person and deserve everything you have and will receive later in life. I will never forget our high school life together.

I love you guys! - Marisa

Heid — we survived IT! BR — no more jokes. My favorite sister Peach — say hi to grandpa! Mc. miss you. — Catherine Bones: I don't know how I would have made it without you and Bones. We survived Len screaming at eachother, "quality" workouts, jerkos, and not even speaking for two months. Even though you'll both laugh at me for saying it — you're my family. We survived Shauna leaving for college, and somehow we'll survive when we go. It's hard to find the words to say what kind of friends we are, but I know you know. Who will I laugh, cry and complain with now? Who will hike on me about my lack of technology? Well, things are going to be different, but we'll always be best friends. There's not a doubt in my mind. Love, Dara.

Betz — It says somewhere that the most important thing between friends is not the saying but the not needing to say. You know me better than anyone, and you always seem to know and understand what I'm thinking. There are things that I tell you that I never thought I'd tell anyone, and I couldn't have asked for a more open or faithful friend in my life. Our friendship has survived everything, and nothing will ever change it . . . even though I'll never believe you were a swimmer. We win the prize as the most indecisive at picking schools. Wherever we end up, I don't know how I'll make it without you. I love you — Catherine

The opportunity to watch the older left us completely awestruck. We wondered if we would ever be that good. By the end of the week we would find out whether we were going to get the chance. On Monday afternoon the list consisted of Tharita Lima, Jess LaSalvia, Caitlin Buttor-Foederl, Jessica Marx, Ana Boksay, and Jessie Shacklette, but that was no t the nal list. Before the end of the week, a player's determination was shown, a mind was changed, and Sophie Mompoint was added to the list.

Practice that day was just a preview of the next four years ... or so we thought. The season went on and we watched (from the bench) as the team won all twenty-six games. We displayed our team spirit by cheering and keeping track of the hits in our "Kill Korner," while Shack rocked the microphone. When finals rolled around we watched proudly as Columbia crushed Caldwell. It was sad to see the seniors go; they had left us with a tough, but honorable, position to fill. And we had the will to do it.

Sophomore year it was reassuring to look around as we sat in those same grade-divided lines in the gym and this time saw familiar faces — all of us pretty confident that we would make the team again. And not surprisingly, when the teams were chosen for the season, all of the returning players had Ana, Caitlin, and Latifah. Wait who was Latifah McNeill, and now we were eight. varsity that year, which meant it was And well . . . we tried. Our hearts were up.

That May, the SO Maples went to level. It was great! A weekend away from do but play volleyball . . . and shop . . . cream guy. Remember? "Escuze me, but Coach Nancy was, to say the least, frusness. We were in the gym upstairs, SCHOOL. But Penn State was a great and get a chance to see what it felt like of the other team crossed one of us we flying and team cheers of, "oH neveS!" and inside jokes and memories over the years. We will never forget: the dinners and sleepovers, "ace in yo' face bam!", the food club, "Rockin' the Bench", bowling night, phone calls to the front desk at 3am, spandex, "who live in Rahway?", I want some sodie sodie, late night street volleyball with no net, Ana's negative funds, and the away game bus rides (are both his hands on the wheel?!!).

Then came Junior year. This was supposed to be our best year, but it was a hard adjustment for some of us. Both our coaches had resigned and we were faced with two new women we had never had seen before. (One who wore her ponytail unusually high on her head, and the other whose name we couldn't get straight.) Our unit was split up — some of us had been moved down to the play on the JV team — and the separation was difficult. One good adjustment we had to make that year was the addition of another junior. With Ana in France for the year we needed another middle and Emily McKee was perfect. She was a varsity basketball player that was easy to get along with.

The East Coast Championships at Penn State were that May again. We were 18-B, as Coach Brenda referred to us. That year in Maples we had lost a lot of old players and thus at the tournament we found ourselves thrown together with a bunch of girls from other schools that we hardly knew. Surprisingly, though, we all bonded immediately — on and off the court. The team (Marx, LaSalvia, Shack, Latifah, Carla as well as Mandy, Jen, and Keri) shared much fun that weekend: The A & P plastic balls, phone calls (i.e., "Tifah get off the phone!"), peppering in the driveway at night, food everywhere, shopping, the bagel place and the Pearl Division. Though that year was not what we were used to, we proved that we were a team united for the better or worse. We stayed friends and played hard.

Our Senior year came up rather quickly, and now we are graduating. Some of us will go on to play seriously in college, while others are likely just to play from time to time. Either way the truth is, every time any of us picks up a ball again we will always be reminded of the wonderful times we've had together as a team. The friendships that have formed over this common love will be in our hearts forever. All Team!!!

Elementary school: We meet in Mrs. Greenberg's first grade class. Jess discovers boys long before Alysa SC, JR, JC, she loved 'em all. Cabbage Patch Dolls, cooking in the fisher price kitchen, and sleepovers in the closet? Thumbs, pillows, and don't forget about the "blanket" Ice tea stands D.O's trying to compete - don't even try. Standing on patrol — a long awaited honor . . . BMW's, Mercedes, Joe, Molly and Dolly. Jessica saves that kids life. Moving UP exercises

Middle School: 6th and 7th grade are a blur — no classes together. Bat/BarMitzvah's -- too many to count. MJ, DO, DA, — what were we thinking? Jess goes to the movies with CP, EW, NM, every weekend — always with the guys. A trip to the Short Hills Mall w/EW and NM - our first date! Shut up Jess you did trip up the stairs. But eighth grade comes and things change. EW, NM, FD, SH, JL, MM, and us "click." AM falls in love with EW and then FD and then back to EW — JP and FB get in their way. SH is JM's man — or so she thinks. Alysa is forced to go to the dinner dance w/JB — thanks Jess. Marisa is hiding in the bathroom spitting up blood. Fabe and JL are crying and Jess is watching SH from a distance. Summer comes - AM and MM chill with LR, AA, GG, Jm don't ask! AS wants to beat Alysa up cause of JM — Honey, you can have'em. Jess goes to summer camp and upon her return home she h.u. with EW - AM's man - wanna go for a walk? GRASS STAINS.

Freshman year: JL's every weekend with SW, PT, PC, and the Dasilva's. In December, Alysa gets FD, for a few minutes anyway. Tastes like pizza. Jess gets RW on the golf course . . . pretty cool guy there Jess. AM gets EW but not before Jess gets him again. She gets her boy SH, alas! But the whole year comes to an abrupt ending. Summer

Summer Comes: DUNNY — 'what you do right, you go down there by the beach right and you dig a hole, and there you go." Let's ride the Himalaya one more time. Is that Jay? I swear that is LR . . . RUN! Gross! In O.C Alysa drops her retainer in the toilet, Larry gets pneumonia, the bikes gets stolen, Alysa can't make it the whole way to the end of the island, the roach motel, who are those people standing in our window? Scrabble board — hey we gotta pass the time some how. Still searching for Andrew never gonna find him (so let's prank him instead!) C'mon Jess let's ride the ferris wheel. Is his name really Agustous? Damn he was hot! Yor figya?!? Atlantic City, go carts, Jess wins $30 bucks on the one arm bandets and Susan is u-p-s-e-t! Home again home again!

Sophomore Year. It's safe to say that was a flop. We had no friends. We sit at home and watch TV. Its ok though. Anything is better than those boys. Its hard to recall the memories that we shared, because well, there weren't any. Jess falls for CI and everyone knows including his mom! New years Eve started off promising but Sue would now allow us out so we headed over to the JS's. Not before Alysa could try some of this brown stuff. "My throat is burning!" Small plastic glasses do the trick for Jess but jean spits it out through her nose! Don't forget about the trip to Florida. Jess was it necessary to bring your Cabbage Patch doll? Hanging out on the beach with a girl named Doily? — She was cool!?!? Anyway. That hot kid Dan who looked like D. Cap. And the Farah look alike who liked everyone but us. — Shocker. Alysa you are so critical! Oh yeah remember that girl Lexus or something like that — she was named after some luxury car (Mersedas) Remember Alysa? That summer we relapsed into AA and GG we thought we were cool "sneaking" them over . . . go home! Working together at S.O day camp with Cory and M.J. Let us never forget Gwace and Sam. 1, 2, 3, Blake it down! Ok so I had a little tiny crush on him Jess, so what, even the kids were makin' fun of you and Cory! Darrel and the Pathmark girl. Jess, he's old enough to be your dad. Hey Jameel, you need a new car, your's is slightly dangerous! Jennifer and the fat girl — I'm telling you she hated us. Hey Matt, you're a senya! Glad to see that such a shady character took my place. FS, not only are you a psycho, but you're like two years old. (Hey, it's like, a half hour away). Don't forget about the weird kid — guess what, none of the kids like you! I hate Kerry!!! Me too! Mykal and Nefertiti — yeah, they a good job! Psssh, anyway. Jess becomes close to Coll and Mo which leads to Naveed and eventually problems and other stuff.

Junior Year: License time and time to stalk, well . . . Some dirty boys. Chasing JM down Prospect was fun until he started to catch on. Yeah we are cool, we could have gone anywhere in Jersey and we choose to stalk — lets not talk too much about that! Hanging out was not too common — but we still talk. Tears are shed on the couch - sometimes friends just grow apart but it is good to know they will always be in your heart.

Summer '97: Obviously camp is not as fun because Alysa's not there. Neither are MJ or Cory. But Jess manages. The girls rekindle their friendship and rough times are put behind them. Our dinner at Benigans where Alysa picks up some new info on Jess's life. NK Alysa is shocked to say the least but handled it very well, many questions were asked.

Senior Year: The last year together. Jess and JA and then PD — you told me you did not like him. So things change and yet Alysa did not admit to being upset. Alysa got a cake and I got nothing. That's ok we have learned from the past and no guy will ever come between the friendship and bond there is between us. Six months left in school and we have no time to chat so BYE . . .

Jess: Sure, we have had our rough times. Things were not always "peachy" and we weren't always so close — but some how we always managed to return to the best of friends. We've had laughter, we've had tears, we'e had good times and bad — and I'd do it all over again if it meant having you by my side . . . Guiding me, protecting me, making me laugh, and always driving me crazy. You are so important to me and I treasure all the times we have shared. I can't imagine my life without you and I know I'll never have to; I know you will always be there and so will I. I love you Jess, Thanks for being YOU! - Alysa

Alysa: You have been an important part of my life since the first grade. Since then you have remained one of my best friends. I may not tell you how great you are that often if ever but I should start. You are a kind, generous, funny, talkative, loving, and a beautiful person and I hope you stay that way forever. Our good times have out weighed the bad so I try to not focus on our immaturities. Many guys have walked in and out of our lives yet we remain strong, together. Next year we will make new friends and be in different schools, but the past two years has proved that we can stay close though almost anything including other people. You will always be in my heart,

I love you - Jess

call out my name, and you know wherever I am I'll come running to see you again. Winter

Yeah you just

"Your friend is that person who knows all about you, and still likes you."

It all began in EIGHTH GRADE when we had peer counseling together and met through the emulator. K asks L to see The Pelican Brief in June, thus beginning a long & twisted friendship. FRESHMAN YEAR began in Memorial during the frightening field hockey pre-season. Between Ettinger and cuts, it was a wonder we made it 2 the 1st day of school. L is the halfback pride of the frosh team, while K is the pride of the bench. K and L rock it in Cassapulla's class, K gets yelled at for brushing her hair. At the end of the yr K cuts it off and L is very honest about how it looks. So many men in HS, especially older ones. L loves BM, K's obsessed w PR & L gives K his clothespin likeness. L also takes K to SSS for the 1st time where they visit Rose. K is from Egypt. SOPHOMORE YEAR also began w FH, this time JV. K, L, MJ, CC, & AM hold WWF style pre-season practice at Memorial. K, L, and CJ become a force 2 be reckoned w/ on and off the field, also L calls K Seedy for the 1st time. K & L sit 2gether in Physics, try 2 stare at DO (even though he sits behind us), "if I only had 1 finger" is born. Believe it or not, we hit the streets for the 16th yr in a row on Halloween as none other than the Village People. L was the Indian, K was the sailor. K's costume is a little 2 convincing. In the social highlight of the yr, K & L hit the ARC dance and pick up some hotties. A short-lived romance is sprung between L & Faggerty. At the end of the yr, L gets candid w/ K. This gives birth to K's call screening, a device which she never again used on L but came in handy w/ the guys that L would later introduce her 2. That summer L greases it up, while K has a miserable time in the DR. Then K & L go 2 FH camp, but K's had enough and busts out before its over, ending an illustrious career. JUNIOR YEAR tragedy struck in many forms. K & L have math 2gether and make fun of the "DS". L meets cam, leaving K alone in a single world. Shortly after, CJ makes the infamous call while L cackles at K's humiliation. L "introduces" K to cam's friend and so much more. I like the way you work it — No diggitty. K moves on 2 bigger and smaller endeavors while L sticks with her long-term project. K gets driver's license, opening a whole new world 2 the 2 yet also putting L's life in danger. K doesn't like red lights. The first night they drive 2 Chillis and meet George Michael. L coins 2 infamous phrases: "We still have 12 minutes left." and "Columbia the HS, not the university." K gets mono the next day and will never be the same again. Meanwhile, things get rocky w/ cam. CJ makes L doubt him, K has some problems but remembers L's advice, "Mess with the best, die like the rest." K & L start the summer as 2 single working girls, hitting Milburn way 2 often, blasting Jet Airliner in the outback and, 2 CJ's horror, singing along. L develops a sudden interest in the expression with the beach house, L & K discover a new calling. L strikes up conversation w'a man who caught a Stahthhgazeuh. We think he was another type of gazer. K & L get lost on the way home, wandering up the dark highway. L & K meet hotties who laugh when they hear our age. K wakes up the next morning burned beyond recognition. She must stay indoors for a week, becoming a child of the darkness. K drives L home every night, making sure 2 drive by RM's crib. One night she yells his name and he's there, L wants 2 & L meet scary Dominican boy. K macks it in Spanish but then realizes what she has done and flees in a high speed car chase w/ L pleading for her life in the week later, K is severely traumatized, but at least K & L have enough new joke material to last a lifetime. K buys the sign "Yeah, it was me." L, CJ, and CC meet rope K into it the next day. K & L celebrate at the diner. K buys the stick and calls it a hell hound. L makes K the best key chain ever. Hell hound takes L & CC 2 IOR YEAR, K, L, CC, rise to SSS's top ranks where they are harassed by James and invited to intimate Irvington parties. L meets albino at gas station making the choice the pointer. K & L frequent Van Gogh's Ear where hotties pick them up. K finds new man and does the unthinkable: commits. But not for long, as wild can't be caged. K is obssessed w/ Wharton, K & L break K's porch when she hears from them. To L's horror and C "all talk" J's encouragement, K gets a new spective on life. L continues on in the sports world w/out K, becoming LAX captain. L & K can't wait to graduate and get a house on the beach, this time K will

Shout Outs

Kristen: Laur — From the time we first met I knew you were "special" but I never realized just how much we'd go through together. Though I'm horrible at keeping in touch, I'll always make a special point to drive the hell hound up Plymouth Ave whenever we're back home. "Friendship is one of the most important relationships one can have; they teach you how to love, feel pain, and laugh. Let's hold on to this forever Jess."

Jessica Diane

Jess, we have been best friends since pre-school, that is a long time to stay friends with the same person. A lot has happened since we have been in Oheb Shalom together. The only thing that has not changed a bit is the way I feel about you. I know that we have had some rough times together and we are always hot and cold, but somehow in the end, we always seem to find our way back to each other. We have had so many memories that can never be explained in words. I will never forget every second we have spent together, whether it has been going to my first real party down the street from your house, just having one of our sleepovers. From the moment we became friends there was this unsaid common bond between us. At first I thought it had a lot to do with our moms name being the same or that we both had a brother, even though I was always scared of yours. But it had nothing to do with any of those things. It's because we were meant to be best friends. It was fate that brought us together. I will always remember when we went over your house we used to throw things down your laundry chute (sometimes even Jaime went down), watched videos of when we were little and talked about what we were going to do during our next big sleepover. These special times that we have shared together I will never forget. You are more than just another best friend to me. You are a sister. I can not say that about many others, even though I don't always tell you how much I appreciate our friendship, I would not give it up for the world. Even thought we are ending a huge part of our life, our friendship is just starting a whole new part. With every ending there is a new beginning. For us every time we have moved on to a new part of our life, we have done it together. This will be the first time we won't physically be together. But Jess, I will carry you with me everyday in my heart. You were my first friend. My first friend that I laughed with, cried with and told all of my secrets to. I want you to be my friend that I will look to when I am 45 and having problems with my kids or the person that I call when I need to talk to my dearest friend.

Jessica Ashley

We go back so many years that it is hard to recall them all. Nursery school was the beginning of a wonderful friendshp. Suzanne Gable was part of our clique then but times changed and before we knew it she was extremely embarrassed in front of our second grade class. Looking back at those times we spent every possible minute together. Oheb was our temple but you decided to switch and then eventually drop out. Sleepovers were a regular but only at your house, because my scary brother was always home! Justin would always beat me up while you would watch. Kindergarten came and you were in AM and I was in PM. Devon and Alysa entered the picture but we still remained close. Elementary school was fun but we didn't have that many classes together. Summers were spent split apart because to do and I stayed home. Graduation from 5th grade and we were only new friends but we don't lose each other in the crowd. Bat-Mitzvah's Yes I was at yours but I didn't see you that often. Dancing queen, you school year that often, we made up for it after school and half days. sports. Oh and don't forget you owe me about three thousand rides to Mornings are hard but we got through those three days! There is so how much you mean to me . . . 15 years of laughing crying and sharing,

Volleyball girls — you for that, Chilies Chicks - Our conversations are detailed and interbe held! I know we will continue this tradition for the rest of birthdays for years to come. Love Jess

I went to sleep away while you were at Jeff Lakes. You then started a few seats away, Jess M. and Jess M.! Middle school, new people, took over 7th grade every weekend. Where were you at mine???? were all over the place. So we never really hung out during the High school comes and we are still together, car pools and our school and around! The gym was shorter but we must go again. much more but my mind is going on overload, I must tell you now Keep in touch always and never forget me, Love ya always Jess

I go to you for everything from advice to cereal I hope you will wonderful it would not have been the same without you, e-mail - our talks and fights are so memorable that I will never forget that way always, Marisa you make me laugh and smile more than fine, Naveed you are someone that I know I can confide in and before, Tara - Tennis season was the beginning of our friendfor that, Colleen & Maureen — you have taught me more than changed and we may not be as close, our friendship still plays but soon I know we will meet up once again, don't forget about each have all influenced my life in a different way and I love you esting, remember to let one of us know when a dinner needs to

Thanks to all I LOVE YOU WITH ALL MY HEART!

KAR — When you crossed over the bridge of silence in Honesdale you did more than just cross over to a summer camp. You crossed over to a special part of my heart. No one will ever enter that part that I have set aside for you. You are truly my best friend.

LAUR — My baby! Words can't come close to explaining our how I feel about you. You have touched my heart, my soul, and my life. You and I will always have our connection, the connection that no other person can touch. Our love will carry us through. I love you!

JEN - PC brought us together, but our friendshp is what kept us together! You and I have been friends forever, who would have thought we would end up like this? I know that we will stay friends for life. Never forget PCP!

JAR — Since 8th grade it has been me and you! I have told you things that I have told no one else. You know me better than anyone, somehow you always seem to understand how I was feeling. You and I are can't ever split up. We have this different yet special type of friendship which means the world to me. I love you like a brother.

> To my two sisters — Even though two continents came between us and is taking a world to bring us back together, I never stopped loving you two. The two of you are two of the most important people to me and will always be. Forever with me. Sister for a life time. "call me when you're down"

> Sue, Sue, Jules, Jack, Allison, Justin, Larry — Thanks for putting up with our attitudes, hard times, Jess's fears, and of course the good times. Each one of you has touched our lives in a different way and we will never forget that. Love Jess and Jess

Note this is not the end of our friendship but just the beginning we have so much more to share, do, explore TOGETHER!

MARISA & SHANNON

We have only been friends for a few years but the memories feel like forever. We met in CCD in 7th grade. Marisa & Loretta light Shannon's hair on fire in church. Then we were reacquainted sophomore year physics. From then on we have had our good and bad but have overcome each obstacle. Boys have been ok never as good as we have now. We started out with Albino & Stinky in between we got a hold of Bad Boy and Prude Boy. Albino stayed for a long time, just friends now (yet SKA). Then there was the so called Playa. Not even close to a playa more like dirt. Junior year came and we had the Cotillion that brought Shannon and Fabio to be friends and then Shannon gets introduced to Carlos. Marisa is a great friend and almost freezes to death watching Carlos not play at Drew but she misses the last game because she is still recovering. Carlos plays and plays the best game. New Years Eve 1996 DeBrito Bash, some of us don't feel to good and some never felt better. Marisa meets friends boyfriend's best friend and the flame is lite. Shannon and Marisa try to sleep but wind up talking till 5 a.m. and figure out that Nick looks like Pooh and Carlos looks like Kermit. Shannon and Marisa realize that their boyfriends really love them because NO 2 GUYS would ever sit through a day of fencing in the same spot in a hot gym and still love us. We think they are insane now because they start picking on little children "Kermie" Then they come to a boring team fencing dinner and listen to lame speeches with people out of the ordinary. Shannon and Carlos go and watch Nick play hockey and Marisa blinks at every possible second when Nick scores. Then fencing ends and softball season comes. Marisa is a nice friend and comes to Shannon's games. Shannon makes a nice catch and Marisa and Nicky think that Shannon is showing off. Summer comes and goes with so much happening to mention. Senior year finally comes and Shannon is a good friend and watches Nicky play soccer and of course he scores. Fencing starts again and the boys stay to watch. Overall Pooh and Kermit are better than anyone. Thanx. Random things: 6-Flags, Bowling, Cotillion, Taco Bell, Movies, another Cotillion, Docs Chem Class, Fencing. Shoutouts: Colleen Jessie Jessica Jess Maureen & Colleen Fabio Naveed Erin Tasha SEA (fencing click): Stefani Maggie Sonja.

Marisa: Shannon — I Know we have only been friends for 2 years, it's been great though. I'm so glad that we have stayed friends through everything. Good Luck next year. I'll miss you. I Love U Babe, MARISA.

Nick — Thank you for all the love & support you've given me in the past year. I know we have been through a lot. I'm sorry for all the hardships you've had to endure because of me. You mean so much to me. I'm so sorry. Remember that I'll always love you no matter what.

LOVE 4-EVER, MARISA.

Shannon: Marisa — I'm glad that we are friends and I hope that we will always stay friends 4-ever. May the hinges of our friendship never go rusty. I can never stop thanking you so much for listening to my problems and understanding them. You are truly a great friend and a lot of people should have a friend like you. I Luv U Always, SHANNON.

Carlos — You mean more to me than anything in world can ever possibly mean to me. I have loved you since the first time I saw you, and I will love you 4-ever. Nothing can ever take away the feelings I have for you. My love grows everyday. KERMIE & PACKIE!! I will love you always, SHANNON.

SOPHOMORE YEAR: Cover the Venok. Driving down one way street wrong way 3 times w/ Millburn boys w/ no names. "Are you sure you have your license?" Gotta sure. "Hey baby, wanna ride shot gun w/ me?" "Uh, on your lap?" January we hit Battle of the Bands. K meets hottie blond. T interrupts "Um, excuse me" "AH!" "it's time to go, sorry!" Back to R's for night of many bathroom trips. K sees 'fro pass behind fence w/ T. T is dragged to car by 'fro. T feels need to open door while we are in motion. "Don't go, there will be a trail!" We leave a trail anyway. K deodorizes car w/ Dream & it gets in hottie's eyes. Whoops. "Where am I going to sleep?!" "In your room, Tara," "Oh." K walks T to door. "Which is the gold key?" The tradition continues; we were almost the age we always said we were. Alanis & Dazed & Confused ruled CD player & on the slopes. The way sun reflected off our hair & nails seemed to attract more than just LI guys w/ crooked teeth, but no SnoFro boys. It started off slow w/ S & T.— K's mistake but Convention had obtecause WE had moved in w/ top-notch strategic plans. The skuzzy lift operators at BB who read our minds & tried to dance & tell our mothers. T drops her pole for them . . . twice. Zac, or Mack, or Jack & his friends; D "Say no", M, & D who took his hair off (head check method); & then there were C & Ky. We were surrounded. That was shat on our heads. Only the ones who thought they were sportseasters could steal our hearts. Besides, their accents beat out Maryland accents in a sec. We skied together to the Gates of Hell & double chair. They fell for yet another of our tricks & Ky reveals he likes K's nail polish. Touchdown! We meet for lunch w/ P & out came the camera. We hear stories of jeep & think: these are the ones. Back on trails (but not scenic route), T asks timeless question. We trade Cinnaburst. In our hands, we each held a part of our vacation w/ many memories & many more laughs to come. Neither of us noticed a wrapper fall to the ground until the next day. We commemorate w/ another

JUNIOR YEAR: K converts T to new music w/ Haas' Hip-Hop Mix '96 & Ghetto Girlz '96. All of a sudden T is mixing for K & develops taste for West Coast. K gets Shorty's b-day Mix: the theme songs of the stories of our lives. The Supermodel Dinner at JP Lee's. K wears the chin shirt & never lies it down. We go bowling in search of Baz's man. We didn't find him, but we did make a guy drop his pants to show us his tattoo. That got interesting, but it was too many trips to Drug Fair. We meet L & her men for dinner at Houlihans. We relocate to Scotty's. We were really at L's sister's wedding, but we left. Then we had to drive back to the city that night. We were all college girls, of course. K models & her nonexistent boyf can't keep his hands to himself. L gets into another car, leaving T & K to fend for themselves. K is consoled by one man: "Don't worry, there are other guys out there that are different. Like me." K gets scared. T bonds w/ another man & rondevouxs later. T keeps K posted at camp.

SENIOR YEAR: T & K race Bloomfield boys to the park. K is 4BQ. The bike is outta control. T & K squat, Baz gets pissed ."Fro is not here!" The Springfield Mistake/ Connection. Driving nowhere to search, it never ends. T gets beeped & needs to use phone . . . at Sony. Baking cookies with Jess. Jess and T cut loose when K goes out. To hell with the rules! New Years traveling. Eric's — Dave's — Eric's — Dave's. Baz, T, & Baked Lays . . .

For those that stuck by us, loved us, & were there when we needed a hug, a smile

& a hand to hold . . .

From Karen:

Gem — 13 years ago we were Juniors w/ pig tails & . 6 years ago we were Subbies who won at Jump-the-Brook, side by side like BFs should. It's been like that ever since. Jess — U taught me so much about myself & about life. U helped me through a lot & I hope I was there 4 U more than just during the natural disasters of '97, when Hurricane Jess hit Honesdale. U introduced me 2 a part of myself that I never knew existed. Jess, if I never said it b4, thank U 4 sharing Urself w/ me. We all became a part of each other. You a part of me that I will never lose. I love U. CT '97-'98. S4L. Sar, Kel, Kris, & Cath — Never 4get all the adventures we had 2gether — especially the Britta water filter. U guys always made me laugh. Where ever we ended up — a diner, a police station, a trailer, the gym, the shore, or FDU, I always had fun, even if I was bad luck. Sarda, our video was la bomba. I love U guys! Thanks 4 all the great times. Alys & Maris — U guys are the bomb. Caputo, even though I never call U back, it doesn't mean I don't love U. U never cease 2 amaze me, girl. From Tara:

Michael — Even though we are not as close as we once were, I will never forget the times we have spent together. Our friendship is very special. There will always be a place in my heart for you. I love you. Nicole and Lauren — Through everything we have remained friends. I hope we will stay in touch throughout college. Caroline — Never ending trips to Emaks. Penn (Frito Lay) I cherish the times we have spent (usually cooking) and can't wait for many more. Love you. C & M. B.L.U.N.T.S. and LA.K.H. — Just when I didn't want to go to the Poconos anymore, I met you guys . . . Thank you for making this past summer the absolute best. I'll never forget the times at the pool, beaches, Lisa's house, my house and the dances. The fun never stopped. Jess — This year our friendship has grown strong. Trips to the mall, bowling or maybe not, and just watching TV. The times have been memorable. You are a great friend. Jacy — I would have never been able to have gotten through half my classes. You are always there to make me laugh and I will never forget you for it. I'll always remember j and s. Hopefully we will keep in touch throughout the years and our friendship will grow stronger. Basile — We have grown so much closer and I wouldn't give it up for the world. Whenever we hang out we always have a great time. Whenever I am in a bad mood you always brighten my day. I hope I can be there for you as much as you are there for me. We will be spending the next four years together, so be prepared. Love you, kid.

And to all those we left out:

If you have made us smile or touched our hearts, we thank you. You have all helped to make this ride what it has been — a long road with many stop signs along the way.

No matter which way the arrow points, even though it may be in opposite directions, it will never separate the strong friendship we share. To T —

A friend is someone who knows the song in your heart and sings it to you when you've forgotten how it goes.

If we had known then what we know now, burning we can ignite some more, K is top on the list. There is police station . . . Em took that visit once, will never go back, nice in the r is not always what it's supposed to be, especially when its we can talk about the movie Single White Female. Um, Ambular, was that you going through my garbage, or is it from Judy's? . . . Down with the seniors, oh yeah, we were cool but now look what's happened. Trip to GP while we don't go to school, and we have a good journey on our own. Met up with Dave before for a meeting and a concert of Scarlet Begonias. JV tells us about the super Cluck U delivery boy, burn that video tape! Sponsoring ottors much these days? squishy trainride . . . Back in time at the shore, only good part was em leaving with court's car and winning the sour patch kids on board walk. 4th of July, em talks to N and sees legs bouncing up and down? N deserves a gold medal for he really knows how to work things, he's real smooth ... Things get hot and court is a little too close for comfort. Em hangs with DK and it's so much better. Let's get pierced, but next time we won't need 911 cause em won't pass out again ... Now in present, people became p, but at least we could be cool enough to live on a farm for the rest of our lives and play with dreads ... Getting hit with a snowball at PL (always a sweet time) was one of the funniest things we've ever seen . . . We had such a cool time at the prom, who are you kidding? KG after and em takes home a random limo along with some Spanish liquids . . . We feel sorry you couldn't go to the puff concert. Floor seats, $75 each for tix, but well worth the money. Happy B-day David! okay bye. D and A, we wish you were there ... NYC, Tunnel for new years, couldn't have been better. IS bust a move and it all busts out. It was days couldn't be fly, now we're rockin' VI. Sid gives the card, then the call, and it's all good now. Livin' large. Drive in, we park where we want. Just slide that gate open, it's that easy. Also, the streets are public toilets if you didn't know. duh. Quick afternoon trips to NYC, or possibly Ramapo to see KQ and do a little biz ... Took a time warp back to the 80's when we go to WU, too bad we almost got them kicked out. We put those boys to bed. Freaky stuff went down in the middle of the night. We love you Ryan . . . something like a phenomon . . . But don't play cups with those kids cause they stink. Rockin' back and forth at 4 o'clock, that's really cool. Patty flips out and court is supposed to be w/ KO. Oh yeah, there is no birthday card ... Now call the house and make a scene, get a life. Em's mom finds lots of presents that em has hidden and now the blazer is on probation. Alex gives em a hug and all goes down. Em is so lucky to live where she does . . . right. Awee . . . c time . . . Fathers should learn . . . Maybe they need lessons from Daddy and Bobby V. it's so not cool . . . Vinny/ Vanessa wants to borrow Wendy's gown sometime. Mussa? VSS! Do you want the regular? Dr. Pepper is the fave. Drive and drive and get water, of course. but then em tries to make court laugh and ends up soaking the car. Even so, court always complains about the "hockey games" in streets, em hates the kid who lives on her street. Two nice investments for this year and the college years to come. well done. At least the leaves at D's house didn't move that day. Em likes to move leaves and snow from under courts tires, although she keeps the emergency break on while she does it, but don't forget what really charges up the night and makes you want to die! A little V on that, and we're all set. Perscript. counter . . . Speaking of breaks, em doesn't have to walk up that hill to get to CHS. VIP parking. J C needs to put away the bull horn, wants it towed? ... Sknk tank crew: thanks for making us feel that much cooler. That's why our next Lex is gonna be a two seater! Court disappears for a couple days, where did she go? Um to visit college? nooo. Takes off in a firebird with a girl who promises X, but gets left with nothing but Phish shows . . . now onto our babies. David and Nick take us to pitch and put, what a time. First time, but not so bad. N has some weird driving skills but we're still alive. Can you even open your eyes? shut up. Talking about cars, thanks JS and T. Bobby V gets PO'ed on X mas 'cause Chance is inappropriate to em, whatever ... Em goes to 22 and things get a little hot. Em gets offered an audition but DK is her agent. R thought he was the mac but it was only because there was too much stupidity in the situation ... the beast ... Court takes yet another road trip this time out of the country w/ the flames. Patty doesn't sit for this one either and court ges a little dirty. Patty finds some of courts goods and we can all say bye bye to the Passat . . . Ask Nanny what she thinks of JS sometime. furniture does not belong in the pool, but whatever. Who's in our shore house this summer? um . . . yeah.
