Concerto of '56

The first part of our concert began in 1952, about the same time Autumn Leaves were falling. During the overture, we struck the correct note with the faculty and fit into the harmony of school activities. Conductor Danny Vanderbilt and Concertmaster Joe Kelly led us that first year, which seemed to fly by in quick-time. Mary Lou Rodrigues kept our records, while Tom Magee handled our bank notes. The Freshman Dance, a melodious blend of music, pastel colors, and soft lights, was the highlight. During summer intermission, we tuned up for the next portion of the show.

The year 1954-'55 reached a new crescendo of events as our concert continued. Those who carried the melody during Part Three of our presentation were Ronnie Carlson, Connie Sickles, Kathie Flynn, and Susan Chapman. Through our concerted efforts, we raised funds for our future activities with a chorus of sales. The most important of these, our Christmas card sale, was very profitably carried out to the tune of Jingle Bells. In March, our Irish Eyes Were Smiling as we gave the Saint Patrick's Day Dance. However, the climax of the year was the Junior Prom, a rhapsody of midnight-blue skies and silver Stardust given in McGuire's Grove.

The tempo quickened somewhat in '53-'54. We set many records in the activities in which we participated. Now that the show had started, we were no longer nervous, and we moved along in an easy rhythm. Joe Kelly picked up the baton, while Mary Lou Rodrigues and Tom Magee kept their positions on the staff. I'm Gonna Sit Right Down and Write Myself a Letter was the song in our hearts during our stationery sale, which was very successful. There were several minor notes in our scale of activities, with the major chord being the Sophomore Dance. We were eagerly looking forward to the second half of our presentation.

Our final year was a symphony of hard work and bustling activities. Maestro Bill Strother, assisted by Andy Bol, Barbara Knapp, and Joan Griswold, kept us in the groove. Carol Schnuck, accompanied by a committee of volunteers, managed the football concessions. The arrival of our class rings and senior pictures brought us a measure of happiness. The Christmas intermission was ushered in by our colorful Senior Dance. We all played our part toward the success of the senior play, Problem Father. The Washington trip provided a release valve for our high spirits, and a good time was had by all. In June came the long-awaited Grand Finale — Graduation — when the curtain closed on our long performance.

To Whom It

Connie Sickles leaves Mr. Lloyd, Jr. to anyone who needs a pep talk.

To Mr. Fleet is left a little weight, easily spared by Andy Bol.

Alta Boyce, Dorothy Conover, and Shirley Lee leave their steno homework to Antoinette Siano, Frances Taber, and Janice Royster.

Gwen Edmond and Nadine Walker, after careful consideration, leave their false teeth to Roger Mitter and Betty Ann Kahrs, respectively.

Ronnie Johnson feels he should leave his sensible laugh to Ken Hickey, while Judy Plosky bestows hers upon Dolores Fuentes.

Jim Arace and Willie Daniels gladly part with their cabinets in chemistry lab, which they leave to next year's lucky seniors.

Mary Lou Rodrigues gives her hidden talents to anyone who can find them.

Carolyn Morrell donates her science-fiction books to any future enthusiast.

Joseph Beal is given a helping hand by Beateal Hughes and Edgar Koons, who donate to him five points each.

Carol Schnuck willingly leaves to some future senior her ability to manage football concessions.

Bobby Dietz receives from Jack Scully a peaceful plot in the cemetery.

Carolyn Haseman inherits Serena Anderson's glockenspiel.

A broken ankle is left to anyone who goes sleigh-riding when there is no snow by Debra Lazow.

Bernie Burlew gladly donates the seventy pounds he lost to Kenny Williams.

Carl Lueders, Alan Arnold, and Joan Ayers offer their ability to skip eighth period to anyone lucky enough to get away with it.

Ronnie Van Meerbeke leaves his memories of two years with the winning school to anyone else who leaves K.H.S. for M.H.S.

Seymour Smith and Inge Loew give their respective accents to Miss Dennison and Mr. Parnes.

Verona Peeler grants her ability to do the cha-cha to Delia Lee.

Marilyn Krakauer bestows upon Mr. Lloyd, Jr. her talent for doing a wild mambo.

Nina Jiosne is left Pat Cupsie's ability to drop the flag at football games.

Walter Schirber and Richard Presser leave their good manners to some ill-mannered student.

Todd Fung donates his photographic equipment to anyone interested in getting into games free.

Ruth McDonald offers her handwriting to any teacher who can decipher it.

Stanley Parrish leaves his broad-jumping ability to Otis Wathington, Jr.

From now on, Steve Alikas and Mr. Evans will be eating Alan Friedland's kosher pickles.

Bernie Meixner's scuffed shoes are left to all the girls who stepped on them.

Joe Rizzo leaves his acting ability (which he claims he never had) to Frankie Banafato.

Louise Vinje leaves her ability to stall a car to Colleen Farrell.

Joe Zahn gladly hands over his old dance-band music to anyone who goes back that far.

Frank Drogan sadly parts with his coordination, which he leaves to Mel Vreeland.

Evelyn Kirkpatrick is gifted with Ann Sorbera's small feet.

Joan Griswold bestows her ability to have parties after basketball games to any cheerleader who has the courage.

Robert Park retires his dance-band seat to Joe Peters.

To Steve Alikas are left Gene Fariello's good looks, Joe Fasso's nose, Buddy Anderson's loud voice, and Grant Scharff's personality.

May Concern

Mary Lou Cartan thoughtfully leaves to Mrs. Wolverton a box of tissues for her hay fever.

Judy Trout is gifted with Arlene Jackson's ability to drive into trees.

Robert Phelan and Ed Gaskins donate the Times and Tribune book reviews to the seniors of "57".

Robert Funchess leaves all his love to Betty Hodges.

Gladys Hyrne shares her nickname "Happy Bottom" with any girl named Glad-ys.

Charles Haddock, George Hicks, and Edward Sutton give their scholarly ambition to the freshman class.

Ronnie Carlson hesitatingly gives Tom Welstead his way with the girls.

A little of Bobby Wilson's height (about two feet) is given to Henry Elliot.

Chloe Ann Tourine hands down her dusty grass skirts to Jane Anderson.

Mr. Shea is heir to the smiles of Charles Brown, Susan Dominy, Lillian Wathington, and Sally Prichard.

Idella Sheppard, Maralyn Hall, and Zelma Gutridge bequeath their good behavior to any needy junior.

To up-and-coming Joseph Wallace is willed some height by Harriet Faron.

Mr. Fleet is left the steady hand and good handwriting of Danny Clifton and Barbara Knapp, respectively.

Larry Tomasillo gives his old projects to Mr. Dudley.

Carol Seaman offers her long walk to the school bus every morning to Muriel Routh.

Danny Vanderbilt leaves his knee brace to hold any freshman in line.

Lucile Young, Joan Slee, Ruth Ann Pizzi, and Shirley Jones give their various talents in history class to the juniors.

Phyllis Brown's ability to pop gum in class is passed on to Betty Hodges.

Dave Tuttle acquires Cliff Jobes' duck call (given to him by Ken Bruder).

Charles Keck and Ed Weston bestow their farmer's licenses upon Jack Miller and George White.

Karl Fisher donates his flat-top haircut to Bob Zielinski.

Kathie Flynn bequeaths Mrs. Wolverton's patience with her to any needy student.

Charlotte Walters and Rosanne Parisi generously lend their typing skill to next year's typing class.

Tom Magee's senior ring will be found around Muriel Baker's neck.

Gloria Preston and Susan Chapman leave their places on the Varsity Cheerleading squad to Iris Wooley and Marilyn DiSanto.

Joe Sovathy returns his used dance-band music to Mr. Sugar.

Jane Bowie hands over to the next cheerleading captain her well-worn book.

Jack Kuhns passes his quiet voice on to Paul Mandeville.

Pat Costello generously offers her ability to get to school on time to any freshman.

Louis Armour inherits an ability to draw from Jesse Johnson.

Dolores Falco becomes heir to Nancy Orr's long hair.

Pat Sarabuchello gives all freshmen her ability to trip up the stairs in the morning.

Nancy Brandigan becomes heir to Virginia Tune's ability to eat four sandwiches at lunch.

Barbara Bos bequeaths her majorette uniform to the next captain.

Elizabeth Rice, Gail Nelson, and Ann Smith pass on their quietness to their sisters, Janice, Donna, and Carolyn, respectively.

Alice Eger and Robert Faust give their expired driving permits to any beginning driver who needs a little more time.

Kurt Borowsky happily becomes heir to Elaine Rosenbohm's front seat in Mr. Parnes' room.

Frank Mitchell leaves his crutches to the janitors for firewood.

WASHINGTON

Hotel Annapolis, here we come, from the blizzards of Matawan to the blossoms (?) of Washington . . . Everyone here? . . . oops — call out the National Guard. Snuffy's lost in the Men's Room! . . . Girls, those Ohio boys came here to see Washington . . . Pat Costello, Mrs. Bennett is a swell chaperone, but no need to get down on your hands and knees . . . Kinda cold for throwing all this water around, isn't it? . . . And just 'cause there's no snow down here, fights with wads of wet tissue paper are not fair — they don't look so good on the walls, either . . . AT EASE, MEN! . . . It was gallant of you to rescue Ann's do-dad from Jack, Danny . . . Gene is making up for the past eighteen years, don't you think so, Nadine? . . . Virginia, will you please get away from those elevators — and put some clothes on! . . . rrrrrrrring — Good morning, it's six o'clock . . . "Thanks For The Memories"

We, the Class of '56, thank you, Mr. Caracciolo, Mr. Parnes, Miss Montemuro, Mrs. Gittens, Mr. Fleet, and Mrs. Ochs, for the wonderful guidance you have given to us during our last year at Matawan.

Mr. Abraham Parnes, Mr. John Caracciolo, Miss Norma Montemuro, Mrs. Elizabeth Gittens, Mrs. Florence Ochs, Mr. Walter Fleet.

Silver Stardust

Junior Prom: The class of '56 held its junior prom, entitled Silver Stardust, at McGuire's Grove. It was the first prom to be held out of the high school in many years. There were approximately 200 people attending, in spite of the fact that it was Friday the 13th. The decorations, which were put up by the Juniors, were silver and mid-night blue with silver stars hanging from the ceiling. Music was provided by Walt Staeger's band.

During the evening many couples could be seen touring the grove. The girls glided along in their gowns, and the boys looked very stately in their tuxedos and white dinner jackets. Refreshments were served, and hats and coats were checked by the class of '57.

The most exciting event of the night came toward the end of the evening. This was the crowning of the king and queen, Edith Olmstead and Harold Deitz.

SENIOR PLAY

This year's senior play, Problem Father, was a great success and enjoyed by all. Problem Father concerned a man who believed that all the sicknesses in the world are caused by "wrong posture." His theory was that everyone should walk on all fours in order to cure the ills of mankind.

He embarrassed his family so much that his children, Ken and Barbara, threatened to leave home. However, he finally convinced his family and the whole town that his theories were sound.

The leading roles were played by: Todd Fung—father, Mr. Wentworth; Susan Dominy—his wife, Emily; Seymour Smith—his son, Ken; Pat Sarabuchello—their daughter, Barbara; Gloria Preston—his mother-in-law, Mrs. Bywater; Gladys Hyrne—the maid, Lulu; Richard Erdmann—Uncle George; and Joe Rizzo—Fred Thorpe. An excellent supporting cast contributed in making Problem Father a success. The play was directed by Mrs. Elizabeth Gittens.

LOWER left: Barbara and Ken decide to leave home due to father's crazy ideas.

LOWER right: Sheldon Wentworth, Problem Father, interrupts his wife's club meeting as he passes through the room.

The Class of '58, the sophomores, have been very active in school activities. Many class members joined the biology club, Ygoloib (biology spelled backwards). This is strictly a sophomore organization, advised by Miss Shirley Rees.

The class sponsored a dance entitled "Gay Paree." The walls of the gym were decorated with sidewalk cafe scenes, the Eiffel Tower, and other French sights, which created an appropriate Parisian atmosphere.

The class officers worked closely with their advisors: Mrs. Elizabeth Gittens, Mrs. Loretta Anderson, Miss Shirley Rees, Mr. John Heyer, Mr. Albert Levine.

Class Officers: Irene Mackey, Secretary; Renee Doak, Treasurer; Marilyn DiSanto, Vice-President.

The Freshman Class, the newest members of Matawan High School, first joined us in September, 1955. At first they were quite confused. However, they soon became accustomed to high school life and began to organize.

In November, the freshmen held a meeting and elected their officers, who skillfully managed the business of the class. They were assisted by their advisors: Mr. Jack Shea, Chairman; Miss Naomi Dennison, Mrs. Esther Barnard, and Mr. Bruce McCutcheon.

In June the class sponsored the last dance of the year, the Freshman Dance.

The Junior Class has had a busy year. They began by selling Christmas cards, a traditional privilege of the Juniors. The profits, along with those made in their first two years, will be saved for their Washington trip.

On March 16, the class gave the highly successful Saint Patrick's Day Dance. They also sponsored the biggest event of the year, the Junior Prom, which was held in honor of the seniors.

Mr. F. Howard Lloyd, Jr. Mrs. Lois Davidson, Mr. Ralph Mauro, Mrs. Dorothy Wolverton and Mr. Walter Dudley were the class advisors.

The football team concluded a very successful 1955 campaign with a record of four wins, two losses, and one tie.

The first two games were impressive: they defeated Neptune and Point Pleasant. Matawan's record was marred when they dropped the games with Ewing Township and R.B.C. and tied Rumson.

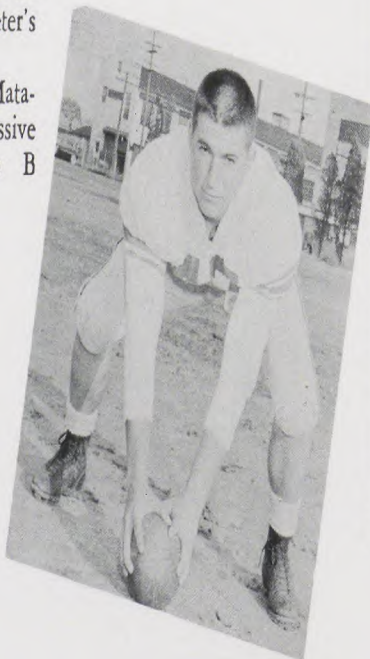

The team finished the season very strongly by defeating two highly favored teams, St. Peter's and Keyport.

In defeating Keyport, Matawan captured its third successive Shore Conference Group B Championship.

End

This year's basketball squad had a terrific record to defend. Besides being pressured by last season's successes, the team was plagued by a lack of reserves. The seven boys that played in the majority of the Huskies' games battled to the end of the schedule for the championship, which wasn't decided until the last game. Although the Matawan High School Huskies were not champions, their strong spirit and hard work brought the season to a close with an esteemed record of eight victories and seven defeats.

Joe Fasso smashed the MHS scoring record with a total of 319 points in the 16 games of the 1955-56 campaign. The previous record of 307 points in the 21 games of the 1954-55 season was set by Bill Utter.

Many of the top competitors of last year's track squad graduated and left behind a team that needs much rebuilding. The success of the '56 track squad depends upon the returning lettermen: Ronnie Carlson, Bill Strother, Grant Scharff, Danny Vanderbilt, Louis Armour, Hal Dodson, Tom Magee, and Jack Kuhns. The return of Kuhns, the top point winner of the '55 season, adds to the certainty of a successful season for the 1956 squad. It is hoped that newcomers to the track team will give the team depth in each event. Because last year's team won laurels in each encounter, the team this season has a goal to reach for: Victory at every meet!

The baseball team of '56 shows tremendous possibilities, since many of last season's veterans have returned to the line-up. The Huskies' batting strength, in the personnel of Joe Fasso, Gene Fariello, Danny Vanderbilt, Steve Alikas, and Bobby Dietz, continues to be excellent and should greatly contribute to the team's success.

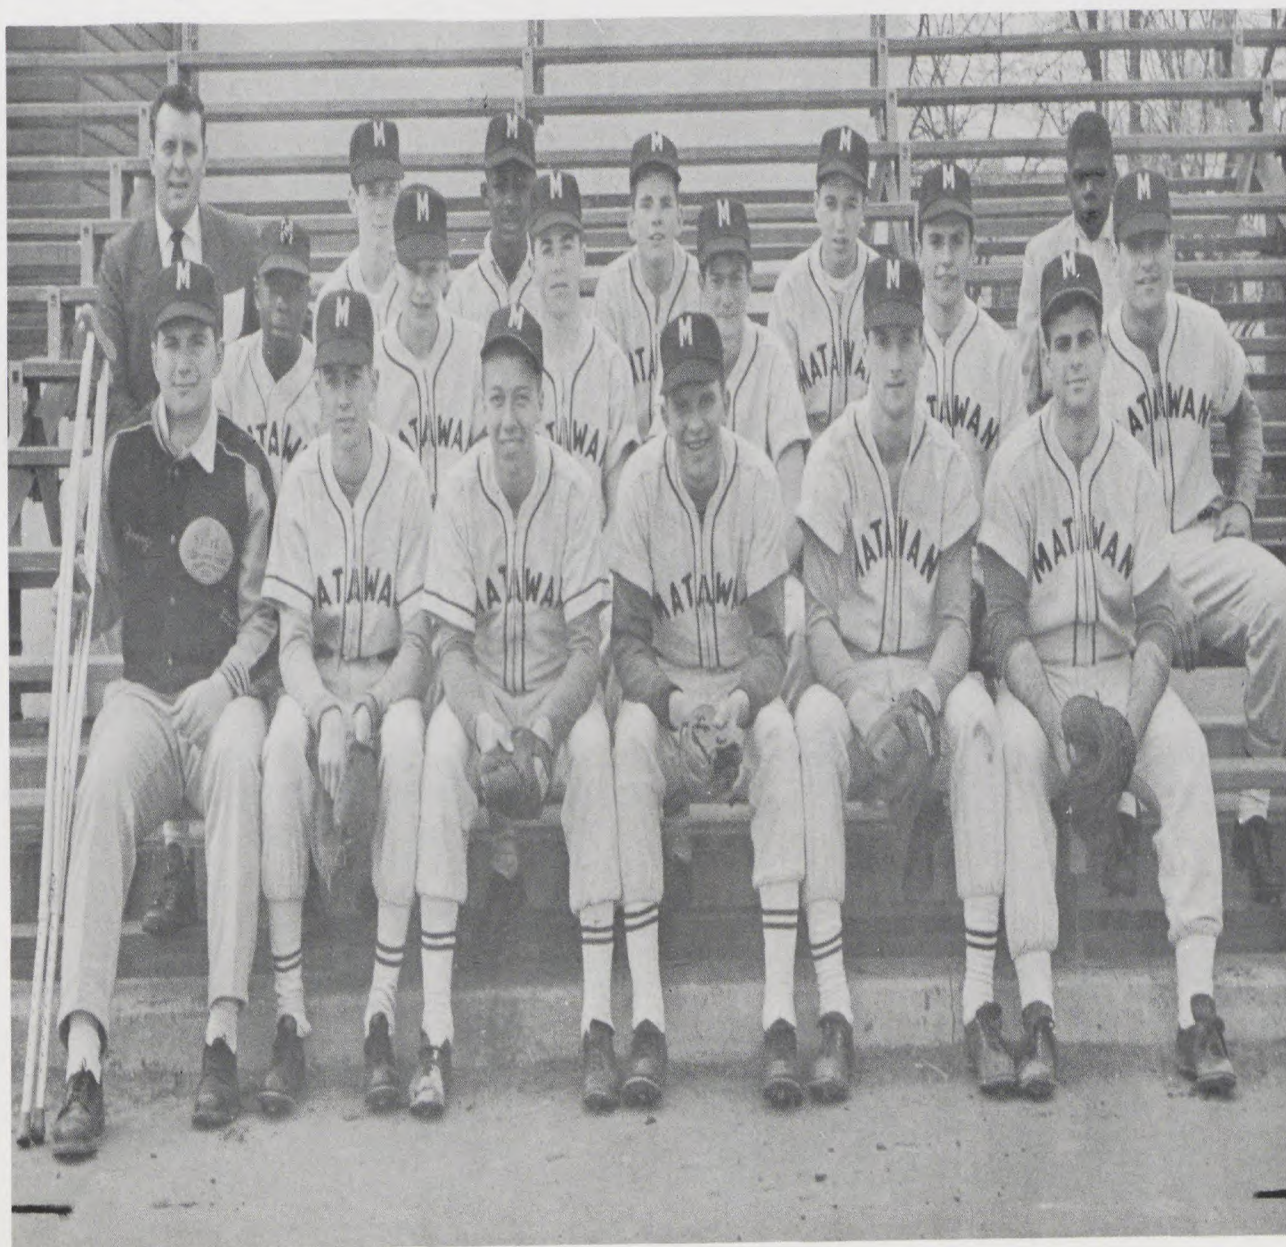

The only possible loophole would be in the pitching staff, as all of the Huskies' pitchers graduated last year. However, several new prospects are being developed. With some work and effort on the part of each individual player, the team has a good chance of winning.

CHEERLEADERS

The Matawan High School cheerleaders are divided into two squads, Varsity and Junior Varsity. Early in March, girls interested in cheerleading begin to practice for the May try-outs. They are chosen by the faculty on the bases of personality, character, poise, marks, and attitude.

The Varsity girls cheer at the football games, and both squads cheer for the basketball teams. They also perform for the student body during assemblies.

There are many annual events participated in by the cheerleaders which include: a trip to New York for dinner and to see a Broadway show, a mother and daughter banquet, a cheerleaders' banquet, and a cheerleaders' workshop with representatives chosen from all sections of New Jersey. Funds for these many activities are raised through holding food sales, sponsoring a dance, and selling candy and various school boosters.

HONOR SOCIETY

Scholarship, leadership, character, and service are the four characteristics that juniors and seniors are judged upon in order to become members of the Honor Society.

Among the many aims of the society is the earning of money for a scholarship, used to help further the education of some worthy student.

Each year new members are chosen. Those who do not make it in their junior year still have a chance when they become seniors.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council represents the student body. The Council's function is to perform those duties necessary to the regulation and guidance of student activities and to represent the students to the administration.

One of the Student Council's annual projects is to arrange the Dance Schedule for the school year. In doing this, careful consideration is given to other activities, such as football, basketball, and track. Suggestions and rules as to how these dances should be run are also made up by the Council.

Other projects of the Council include conducting assemblies, class elections, and sponsoring a Christmas Card Box each year for the whole school.

Representatives from each class and four officers chosen from the senior class compose the Council, which meets weekly to discuss student problems. The members are chosen each year by their individual classes. The student body elects the officers for the Council.

This year, in addition to its other activities, the Student Council conducted a Clean-up Campaign to maintain a cleaner school.

GERMAN CLUB

The German Club is open to all those who are studying the German language.

The club has many activities, all of which aid the students to appreciate German more fully. German records are collected for a cultural knowledge and to those students with a two-year average of "B" or better, sterling silver pins are awarded.

When the Christmas season approaches, the German students can be heard singing Christmas Carols in German.

The club's advisor is Mr. Abraham Parnes.

FRENCH CLUB

This year as one of its projects the French Club sold stationery. Another project was to sell shell jewelry. This jewelry was made by a club member, Serena Anderson, '56. The returns from these two projects were spent on French dictionaries. In the spring, the group, with their guests, took their annual trip to New York. Also, as in past years, the club awarded a prize at commencement to the senior who had the highest average for two years of French.

LATIN CLUB

The main feature of the Latin Club this year was a Roman banquet, which was held in the high school cafeteria. Every effort was used to make the dinner seem realistic. The students all wore Roman dress, and the food, which was prepared and served by the members, was as truly representative of the recipes of the ancient Romans as possible. The only thing different was the chairs in which they sat. In ancient Rome the people lay down on couches while they ate instead of sitting up.

The club is advised by Miss Naomi Dennison.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sugar
Music Department

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The Music Department consists of various groups. The band and orchestra are the two largest organizations, and provide music for most of the school activities. During the past year, the brass choir often entertained at assemblies, while the Eleven Sharps provided music at the dances.

There are two vocal groups: the Girls' Glee Club and the smaller Mixed Chorus. Classes in music appreciation are also given.

MIXED CHORUS

Matawan High School's Mixed Chorus engaged in many activities. They participated in assemblies, had a spring concert, and sang for many programs held in the high school auditorium.

This is an activity that freshman and sophomore girls look forward to, for only junior and senior girls may belong. The boys have an advantage over the girls, because they may join in their freshman year.

Music, Music,

BAND

The school band played an important part in the school's activities. It provided music for parades and assemblies, and entertainment at the football games. The majorettes and color guards accompanied the band on the football field. The color guards led the marching columns in intricate formations while the majorettes strutted and twirled in time with the music.

On Thanksgiving, the band sponsored the Victory Dance to celebrate our success in the annual Matawan-Keyport game. The funds raised were used for purchasing supplies.

Music

MAJORETTES

The majorettes, under the direction of Mr. Joseph Sugar, participated in many activities.

During the football season, they performed in many assemblies and at all the football games. In the spring they took part in the Spring Concert.

Their biggest project of the year was their performance at the Thanksgiving Day football game.

BRASS CHOIR

This year the brass choir was a very active group. They played for many churches in Matawan and surrounding districts. They have many times been called a "band within a band."

ORCHESTRA

Matawan High School's orchestra was a very active group. One of the outstanding things they did was to play for the Spring Concert, which was given under the direction of Mr. Joseph Sugar. They also played for the Matawan Grammar and Matawan High School graduations.

The members of the orchestra received pins, as they had in previous years. This year, however, each pin was a miniature replica of the instrument played.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club is exclusively for Commercial students in their junior and senior years. Members of the club are given an opportunity to visit other schools and their commercial departments.

The club earns money by selling candy and sponsoring a dance. This year they gave the Valentine's Day Dance. With the money they earn, the club usually goes on a trip in the spring, or holds a banquet. If they are lucky, they may look forward to both the trip and the banquet.

Standing: Janet Morgan, Peggy Collins, Kathy McDowell, Joan Vena, Mr. Levine, Miss Gordon, Mrs. Anderson. Advisors: Nancy Bowie, Bernice Szymanski. Seated: Nina Joisne, Joan Maresca, Judy Trout, Joan Gray, Gail Meny, Antoinette Saber.

THE JOURNALISM CLUB

The Journalism Club, under the direction of F. Howard Lloyd, Jr., practiced techniques in composing news features. Their articles were printed in the school sections of the Asbury Park Press and the Matawan Journal.

The club also published five editions of Varsity the school newspaper. The group visited a newspaper plant to help in their understanding of the publication of a newspaper.

JUNIOR DRAMATICS

Many freshmen, sophomores and juniors belonged to the Junior Dramatics Club. Several times during the past year, they entertained in assembly.

The group met twice a week, on Monday and Wednesday. They discussed various plays, phases of acting, and the possibility of entering the theater.

The club sponsored a dance to raise funds to be used for attending movies and plays.

Junior Dramatics Club

The Junior Red Cross Council was formed in 1954.

The council, under the direction of Mrs. Florence Ochs, undertakes such projects as making toys and having toy drives for needy families at Christmas.

This year the council is putting on a skit for the Junior Woman's Club to illustrate some of the work the council does.

Standing: Zelma Gutridge, Mrs. Florence Ochs, Advisor; Edith Ellison, René Doak, Ann McDowell, Joe Peters, George White, Mary Cranshaw, Grace Dellapietro. Seated: Dale Golosjewski, Mary Gunnell, Sara Jane Conover.

LIBRARY CLUB

The club has had a busy year. It started off with the annual ritual of initiating new members. Then the members launched a long fund-raising campaign: they held cake sales; sold pencils imprinted with football schedules; and sponsored the Tombstone Trot, a Halloween dance. The girls and boys of the Library Club began a Teen Age Book Club to stimulate interest in books. They also started a file of information on local organizations for student reference. To add to the appearance of the library, they changed the bulletin boards every week.

During Book Week the Library Club, with the help of the dramatics group, presented a book show. Many new books were reviewed.

The club members topped off their busy year with a spring banquet.

Seated: Mrs. Lois Davidson, Advisor. Standing: Judy Meeker, Marie Peterson, Wilma Willard, Peggy Rankl, Pat Schuber, Leslie Lockwood, Iris Woolley, Virginia Kuhns, Betty Ann Kahrs, Jean Wilchek, Janet Bol, Lois Ludewig, Judy Meny.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

first . . .

Is it the truth?

second . . .

Is it fair to all concerned?

third . . .

Will it build good will and better friendships?

fourth . . .

Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
