Homecoming! Traditionally a time for alumni to return to visit and especially to attend the Saturday football game. But it has become even more of a tradition to us who are already here: a happy full-time of fun, crazy activities, and competitions.

This year, from October 25-27, we had egg tosses, tricycle races student-teacher switching. We decorated the halls, Sophomores being tops. We paraded floats, Juniors claiming the prize.

The Freshmen used a space theme for their hallway.

EARTHQUAKE ROCKS BAY AREA

On October 17, 1989 many Bay Area commuters were rushing home to catch the third game of the World Series. This would be a rush hour that they would never forget. At 5:04pm, the ground shook violently. In an instant, many homes were destroyed, bridges collapsed, and freeways buckled. As the earthquake struck, millions throughout the nation were watching the start of the third game when the earthquake struck.

The full damage was soon realized. Part of the San Francisco Bay Bridge collapsed, sending three to their deaths. The worst damage by far was the two-level Interstate 880 in Oakland, where the upper level of the highway collapsed onto the traffic clogged lower level, killing about one hundred. Water and electrical service was disrupted. Many were left homeless by the 7.0 earthquake; however, many feel that the preparations for such a disaster by the residents saved countless lives.

NORIEGA GETS UNINVITED HOLIDAY GUESTS

On December 21, 1989, at 1A.M., U.S. troops entered Panama City. Their mission was to apprehend Panamanian dictator and drug trafficker Manuel Noriega. "Operation Just Cause" was the brainchild of President Bush, who felt the invasion was necessary in order to secure the safety of U.S. citizens in Panama and to protect the Panama Canal.

Noriega escaped the initial invasion, but turned up three days later at the Vatican Embassy in Panama City. On January 4, 1990, he surrendered himself to U.S. troops. The nation's leadership was assumed by democratically elected officials.

CHANGE SWEEPS COMMUNIST WORLD

What many thought impossible became reality this year. The Communist World began to give way, paving the road to democracy. Hungary reopened its border to the West, and announced that free elections, the first ever since the Communists took power, would be held. This had a "domino effect" on the other nations in the region. Poland announced it too would have free elections. However, the most momentous occasion was the announcement by the East German government that their borders would be open to the West. The 28 year old symbol of a divided world, the Berlin Wall, was dismantled in part early in November, sparking celebration on the streets of Berlin; families once divided were reunited as curious East Germans ventured into West Germany for the first time. In early December, Czechoslovakia announced its intentions to hold free elections. When the Romanian dictator Ceausescu refused to give into the demands for a free election from his people, he was gunned down. This world revolution also affected the Soviet Union, where Mikhail Gorbachev instituted new reforms as Lithuania pushed for independence.

MANDELA FINALLY SET FREE

On February 17, 1990, Nelson Mandela emerged from Victor Verser Prison a free man. In 1964, the famous African Nationalist was convicted of plotting to overthrow the South African government. He spent the next twenty-seven years in prison. The decision to release Mandela came one week after South African President F. W. deKlerk lifted the thirty year ban on the African National Congress. Seemingly, Mandela's fierce commitment to the anti-apartheid movement has not been dulled by his long imprisonment. In his first address to the African people, he proclaimed "Our march to freedom is irreversible. We must not allow fear to stand in our way."

A lively toga party.▶

This year's Senior class visited the Ti-nanment Resort in the Pocono Mountains of Pennsylvania. The Seniors left Matawan Regional High School the morning of March 28 for three days of fun and excitement. Among the many activities were a toga party, horseback riding, and pizza parties. The highlight of the trip was a four hour white water rafting trip down the Delaware River. They were greeted by forty degree temperatures and a rather slow river with chunks of ice floating in it. Although the trip was wet and very cold, most of the Seniors agreed that it was fun, as was most of the trip. It was a memorable event in which those who participated will have lasting memories.

Trips to Italy, France, art museums, Broadway musicals, and many other places filled our calendars. These trips are more than just a day away from school, they will provide us with cherished memories of our days at Matawan Regional.

Your stomach rumbles. It's still a long way until sixth period ends. You keep wondering if it's 12:20 yet. After a long, tiresome wait, the bell rings. You rush through the crowded hallways. You finally arrive there—the cafeteria. For some, the cafeteria is where they satisfy their hunger, for others it's a place to do homework, and for others, it's a place to relax and socialize with friends. To Matawan students, their lunch period is very precious, and that's why Pillar sent its photographers to capture some of the many sights at the MRHS cafeteria.

The Sound Of Music

Under the direction of Mr. Carlo Vinci, Jr., the 1989-1990 Matawan Marching Huskies were perhaps the most successful of any previous marching band in Matawan history. Led by their talented Seniors, the Marching Huskies competed with several bands from ten Middle Atlantic states in the Atlantic Coast Championships, placing a strong sixth. Their halftime shows became an integral part of any home game. In May, the band was invited to play in competitions in Annapolis, Maryland, and Washington, D.C. The Marching Huskies are truly second to none.

Our proud Band Seniors.

High Spirits

Mrs. Soderlund and Mrs. Soderlund.

The Matawan 1989-1990 Student Council initiated a number of projects in order to raise school spirit. On the first day of school, the returning students were greeted by hallways decorated in a sea of maroon and gray balloons. The Student Council once again spirited the students during Spirit Week with hall decoration, the Homecoming Dance, Student-Teacher Switch Day, and the first ever Silly Olympics. The events included the egg toss, three-legged race, and tricycle race among many others. The students rooted for their respective classes, with the Juniors placing first, followed by the seniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen. Throughout the year, the Student Council organized other activities to help the school and community.

Mr. David Schofield

Special thanks to Brock Hor for the divider pages, Mr. Howard Lloyd and Lauri Kalieta for the Homecoming and Europe trip pictures, Mr. David Schofield for the popcorn, those of you who submitted photos for the "Friends" section, and those of you who bought the yearbook. (This means you!!)

Also, from the advisors, a very special thanks to Joe Canas. Without his dedication, creativity and many long hours of work, you would not have your yearbook today.
